PUBLISHERS' PEN

Thank you. As of the May 23 meeting of Mid-America Council of Clubs in St. Louis, Club Scene became sanctioned as the official publication of the MAC. We are proud and will try to live up to their support and expectations.

With this great pride, beginning this issue MAC will be listed on our masthead as will be all future endorsements.

This has only happened because of the support that we have received from not only your news and feature articles that you have sent, but also with your subscriptions and advertising dollars that you have spent with us for your club functions and your belief in what we are doing.

Gentlemen, we will work diligently to continue to improve and grow so that we may always bring you what you truly deserve — the best in club news and important events that affect our community. This is your magazine and you have shown us that you believe in it and what it stands for as much as we do — the open communication within a brotherhood of clubs. The advertising in this book has grown immensely since we started three years ago. With these increased revenues, we have been able to bring you more news and information faster than we originally thought we could. As our advertising continues to increase, it allows us to bring you more and more information.

You as an individual can do something to assure that we will be able to include your news in print. Each subscription, each new advertiser allows us to print more pages and cover more news. Does your club's home bar advertise with us? Does your club advertise its events, such as, run applications or anniversaries or any other club functions with us? By doing this, it allows other clubs and organizations to know what you're doing. It also allows us the privilege of becoming an important part of you as you are an important part to us. For without you there is no us.

With such support that we have just received through MAC's official sanction we know that we are becoming an important part of you.

We will continue to grow and for this we thank each and every one of you.

—Yours in brotherhood,

Alan E. Fitch / Dan McShane

AUSTIN

Hill Country Leathermen

On the weekend of April 9 and 10, a hot new club officially hung their colors. The club was the Hill Country Leathermen and the Bar was Austin's hot, hot Backstreet Basics. We drove up to Austin on the ninth and met some of the members of this new club and partied. Saturday night was their official color hanging and party—and hot-damn—it was one helluva good time. These men not only have their act together as a club, but each and every individual in this club was not only intelligent and enthusiastic, but they are the sexiest group of men that has been my privilege to eat ... er, ah, I mean meet. Not being able to give you all the information about what happened at this party, I can say that there is now a plaque hanging in recognition above the urinal for a very festive club member somewhere for his contribution to the party spirit that night. Hill Country Leathermen, you throw great parties and know how to show a stranger in your town the time of his life. May we be able to party with you for many years to come. Congratulations.

CORPUS CHRISTI

Beachhead One Coming Together

by Ken Boeker

Plans to make Beachhead One a fun-filled weekend for all who come are well under way. The affair will kick off with registration at a Hidden Door beer bust on Friday, Sept. 2. Our schedule includes a Saturday enduro, poker run, beach party, people events and cocktail parties. Sunday's brunch and cruise on Corpus Christi Bay will top the weekend before a Sunday evening awards banquet and drawing for a Honda 500 shaft drive bike. The affair will end with Monday's brunch and farewells.

Anyone interested in rooming at the Beachhead One Headquarters should check the "Hotel" blank on their application. Accommodations for about 130 at an all gay 40 room hotel on the bay-front have been secured. Rooms run $30 per night and up for two or more people. See the ad elsewhere in this issue for fees and application or write the CCMC.

In other news, the CCMC accepted two new pledges (Ace Jefferson and Steve Falgout) and inducted Ted Gallagher and Joe Moffitt into regular membership. Members have sponsored an outing to the Nueces River for a picnic, raised money for Splash Day by selling bar-b-que at the local gay carnival and turned out in force to celebrate Memorial Day and the Hidden Door Anniversary.

Corpus Christi's Annual Splash Day, sponsored by the CC Gay Bartenders' Association will occur June 19th. Along with a July 4th beach party, the free events bring together a wide assortment of half-naked men and women on North Padre Island. Come ride ahead and join in.

DALLAS

Armadillo One A Smash Success

On the back side of the program a printed statement said, "Armadillo One is an equal opportunity 'we bad production'." Nothing could have been further from the truth. From the moment you entered the site every minute was filled with fun, fellowship and a feeling of brother and sisterhood, the likes of which I have never seen before.

Friday night started with the usual social functions. The opening cocktail party, hosted by the American Leathermen of Houston, got everyone off on the right foot with their champagne fountain squirting gallons of the "bubbly" and was immediately followed by the Branding Iron Club serving up a punch best described as lethal. During this entire time, couples were whirling about the dance floor to marvelous music furnished by Michael's Mobile Disco at what was called "The Perverts' Ball."

The sunshiny Saturday brought events all day long, a different one every hour. There was something for everybody. Enduro, buddy events, bike events, dirt bike events, human (people) events, Ma & Pa Kettle (over 40) events and, of course, more cocktail parties intermixed throughout the day.

Even the rain that fell Saturday night managed to soak the run site but couldn't dampen the spirits of the people. Our hats are off to the Silver Spurs of Dallas and The Texas Motorcycle Club who put on this great run.

The Branding Iron

The Branding Iron Club of Dallas will hold their 5th Anniversary celebration on July 15, 16 and 17, 1983. Being one of the best cowboy clubs around, they will no doubt once again go "whole hog" in showing everyone around a great time.

Also, during their anniversary celebration, there will be a Texas Conference of Clubs meeting on July 17, 1983. Sounds like a perfect way to mix a little business with a lot of pleasure. This is definitely a weekend to try to make your way to Dallas.

Mr. Rocky Mountain Drummer Contest

On April 30, and May 1, the Triangle Denver hosted the Mr. Rocky Mountain Drummer Contest. Saturday evening the six men competing were judged on swimwear and leather fantasy. Sunday evening the men were judged on Attitude. They were allowed three minutes to express their feeling about leather. The final results were Mr. Tim Creekmore, first; Mr. Eric Johnson, second, and Mr. David Sousa, third. Mr. Creekmore, East Coasters might know, for he was Mr. DC Eagle twice, and Mr. Rasscles once. Mr. Eric Johnson, the doorman at the Tool Box, is currently the Mr. Leather Colorado and finished fifth overall at International Mr. Leather in Chicago on May 8. Mr. David Sousa, local Denver known as the Triangle

Mr. S Leathers Opens In Denver

A new full service leather shop has opened in Denver. It's located at 135 Broadway, halfway between Mike's Bar and The Tool Box. The Denver store is a franchise of Mr. S. Products located at 227 Seventh Street in San Francisco. Mr. S in San Francisco has been located there for four years and prior to that for six years in England. The first and foremost consideration of both stores is quality. It is recognized that S stands for service and satisfaction. The Denver store had its grand opening party on June 4, and judging from the response, should prove to be a quality, full service shop.

MINNEAPOLIS

Food Drive For Needy Gays

In April, the three leather/levi clubs of Minneapolis—The Atons, Black Guard and the MPLS S&M—in a combined effort of brotherhood, hosted a food-shelf drive and fundraiser geared to help the needy within the gay community here.

We are all proud to say that this four hour event had a very good turnout including our loyal supporters, the GDIs. We raised over $300 in cash and food was donated by the CASES. The money was used to buy a wide range of necessities that are needed but normally are not donated. All food and donations were distributed by the MCC Deacons Closet.

Our Foodshelf Drive and fundraiser was held on the second floor of the Gay 90's entertainment complex. The 90's supplied free drink tickets and hot dogs. The Atons held a delicious bake sale, the MPLS S&M held a cockring toss and the Black Guard held a wide variety of activities including a "jail of friendly persuasion."

A lot of fun was had by everyone and we are looking forward to having more fun times and great events of this type in the future.

Note: For those of you who plan to venture our way to see us, be forewarned: the V.S. here has been arresting people in public areas, bookstores, parks, beaches, etc. The V.S. has been making these arrests by using entrapment and on the slightest provocation.

one year anniversary with a three day run.

The run, entitled "Bastille I," will begin Friday, July 15, and last through Sunday, July 17, in the French Quarter of New Orleans.

Although it will be an indoor run, there is one event, the "Black, Blue & White Party" (leather, levi and crisco), that will be centered around an olympic size swimming pool and will feature many different demonstrations.

This party is only one of several functions, including awards, cocktail parties and a banquet, which will spread out among the leather bars and restaurants of New Orleans.

Knights Will Host MAC Run

At its April meeting, the Knights d'Orleans voted to host a run to be held during the 1984 World's Fair in New Orleans by the Mid-America Conference of Motorcycle Clubs. The other two clubs in New Orleans, de Sade & Men and the Lancers, are not members of the conference and, therefore, cannot act as co-hosts in the unique venture. Hosting the MAC run will not affect the Knights own 10th Anniversary celebration planned for October 5 through 7, 1984.

The Knights will be holding their "Mr. Knight" Contest July 2, at the Souled Dove Saloon, beginning at 9:00 p.m.

Judging will be in three categories: leather/levi dress, swimwear and cruising clothes. Entry fee to compete in the Knights d'Orleans event will be $25 with prizes of $250 cash and a gift for first place, $100 and a gift for second place and $50 and a gift for third place.

Grand Canyon V

What could be more wonderful than to visit one of the seven wonders of the world with 70 of the world's wonders? Grand Canyon V was just that—wonderful.

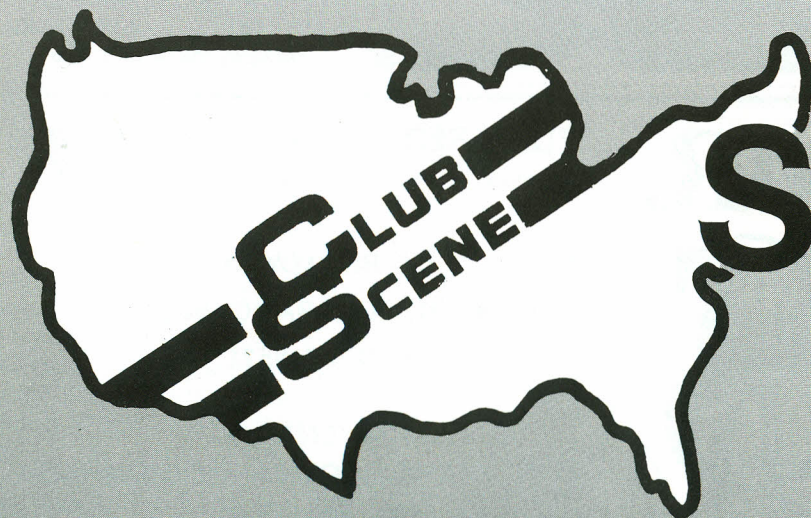

Taking place at 7,000 feet in Northern Arizona, over Memorial Day weekend, the run is a real test of a man's motorcycling ability. The hosts, The Sons of Apollo from Phoenix, is an all motorcycle owner-operator club and some of the finest and most serious bikers attend. Riding in from as far away as Kentucky in one direction and northern California in the other, the men compete for trophies in biking, buddy and people events. At night, the

INTERNATIONAL MR LEATHER 83

More than 2,000 leathersmen and friends jammed Chicago's Park West nightclub Saturday, May 7, to watch Coulter "Colt" Thomas beat 43 other contestants for the coveted title of International Mr. Leather 1983.

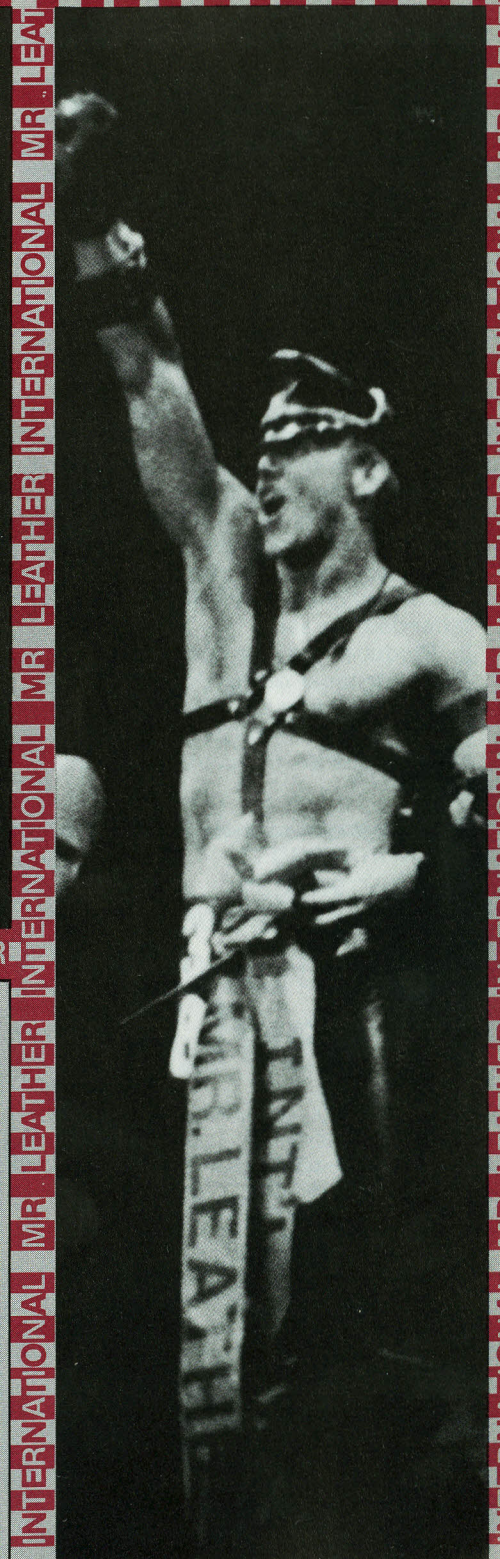

Thomas is a medical student from Houston, Texas, and entered the contest under the title of "Mr. Texas." First runner-up in the competition was Canadian Lom Hardcastle, representing the Outpost bar in Toronto. Second runner-up was Steve Roberts, Mr. San Francisco Leather. The 44 contestants represented cities from Washington, DC, to San Diego, from Toronto to Houston.

More impressive in terms of international spirit was the roster of people attending the weekend. Guests came from all over the United States and Canada, as well as at least 10 foreign countries, including Australia, Germany, Sweden, Finland and Denmark, organizers said.

Judging in the contest was based not on the most handsome face or best body, but on the man who represented "that special and unidentifiable quality we recognize as leather," according to an International Mr. Leather instruction sheet. The seven leathersmen judging the contest were internationally renowned artists Dom "Etienne" Orejudo and Tom of Finland; San Francisco's Mr. Marcus; Philadelphia's Frank McGowan; the Metropolitan Community Church's Rev. Troy Perry; Falcon Studios' Dennis Forbes, and last year's International Mr. Leather, Luke Daniel.

This year's contest was described as "probably the most successful we've ever had" by executive producer Chuck Renslow, who owns the contest's sponsoring bar, the world-renowned Gold Coast in Chicago. "Not only the contest itself, but the entire weekend were, I think, special for everyone who attended," he said.

Producer for the contest was Jim Dohr, manager of the Gold Coast who was assisted by Stan Hall and dozens of volunteers from Chicago and elsewhere. Besides the contest, the weekend included the infamous "Black-and-Blue Ball" at Man's Country bathhouse, as well as various events at Chicago's Leather/Levi bars, the Gold Coast, Touche and the Redoubt.

Besides walking off with the honor of being America's top leatherman for 1983, Thomas won an impressive array of prizes, including a brand new Kawasaki motorcycle and more than $1,000 in cash and gift certificates from businesses nationwide.

The International Mr. Leather Contest is an annual event produced each May in Chicago. Preparations for the contest on a local level usually begin months before the actual contest. The 44 contestants entered in this year's event represented a record for the contest.

Entertainment for the evening was provided by comedians Gary Herb and Johnny Potato, who emceed the event; rock band Stranded, and disco vocalist Sarah Dash, formerly of the group LaBelle.

Pocono Warriors Whitewater Weekend V

by Fledermaus

From May 6 through May 8, the Pocono Warriors presented their Fifth Whitewater Weekend. Nearly 200 hot men from Boston to Chicago and Toronto to Atlanta (as well as a few from more exotic places like Texas and Germany) came to the Pocono Mountains in eastern Pennsylvania for a mixed weekend of whitewater rafting and leathermen sex.

What must usually be a rather sedate Howard Johnson's was virtually taken over for this run. Most of one of its six levels was converted into a fantasy area that included a smoking lounge (no smoking in the rest of the area) with appropriate reading materials contributed by Dungeon Master, another lounge with two beds, several chairs and a video tape machine running continuous porno features, a fisting room with two slings and another with two beds, a w/s room with a specially mounted bathtub, two general purpose dungeon rooms, an electrotorture room and a shaving room. Also included in this area was a leather and toy shop run the The Moose, a New York City shop owned by a Warriors members. Representatives of The Sandmutopia Supply Company and of Fetters also had select merchandise available. Equipment available in the two dungeon rooms included two bondage tables and two horses, all covered in black leather, a rotary rack and a cross. These and other equipment were loaned by various Warriors members, by GMSMA (Gay Male S/M Activists) and by New York's infamous Mineshaft. Most of these pieces had been constructed by Wheels MC member Dean S.

After a buffet supper and a brief opening ceremony, the fantasy rooms provided entertainment until 2:00 a.m. This "early" closing was needed to assure that the rafters would be alert enough to stay in their craft the next morning. At 6:30 a.m. the wake-up calls came and exactly 100 men breakfasted, then headed for the Leigh River, where they donned wet suits, then boarded rubber rafts for a ride on the whitewater. Meanwhile, back at the ranch, those who were not big enough masochists to subject themselves either to the 6:30 a.m. wake-up, and/or to the whitewater itself, slept in until lunch, then helped clean up the fantasy rooms before getting a head start on messing them up again. That evening, after the banquet, the fantasy rooms opened again and a "Country-Western Go-Down," with live music, provided entertainment in another area of the motel. With no rafting to be prepared for, the fantasy areas were in constant use until nearly 6:00 a.m. After brunch and closing ceremonies on Sunday, the group adjourned to nearby Hauska House for a barbecue lunch and further activities in the barn. The fine weather enjoyed all weekend finally gave way to rain and a cold wind that limited outdoor and barn activities.

Steve A., current Warrior's president, also served as run chairman; Ray M. was Dungeon Master for the fantasy room complex; Harold C. needed a take-a-number system for the line up of men who wanted a turn on his electrotorture table, and Ross V. needed to book appointments for his body shaving operations. These four men, and four others who were present, are members of both the Pocono Warriors and of Chicago Hellfire Club. Twelve other associate members and four full members of CHC were also present. GMSMA was represented by several members and approximately 25 other clubs had one or more members present. The Vanguard's MC of Philadelphia, Nine Plus, the Golden Shower Association-New York Tributary, Tridents Int.-NYC, Wheels MC of New York City and Vulcan Rubber Club of Washington, DC each provided cocktails or other stimulating refreshments during the weekend.

The entire weekend was dedicated to Warriors member John L. of Philadelphia, who was recently killed in a work-related accident. He was one of the prime organizers of the Warriors magnificent showing at the Gay Men's Health Crisis AIDS benefit at the Circus in Madison Square Garden on April 30. The Warriors sponsored a block of 500 seats, providing what must have been the highest concentration of leather in the 17,601 seat, sold-out amphitheatre. I must also mention Warriors founding member and past president, and CHC Associate member, Bill T. who was present at both the Circus and White-water V. Bill has had AIDS for about two years and it was great to see him again participating in club events.

men got to catch up on the various club's news, exchange friendship pins and really "get to know each other."

The Leather Works from Houston brought a complete leather shop, housed in the main registration building with Lee Harper and Davey in attendance. Saturday night the men were entertained by Cissy Goldberg and Chaps (a gay singing group from Phoenix). Tommy and Clydes, SOA's home bar, hosted a cocktail party with deadly Margaritas.

The major event of the weekend is the 200+ mile ride to and from the Grand Canyon itself. This ride allows one to say "I've rimmed with the SOA."

The trophies were awarded Sunday night to: Walt Carlton, UFO's, Tulsa, 1st place; John Hatley, Battalion, Dallas, 2nd place; John McDonald, Battalion, Dallas, 3rd place in the Bike Events; Bert Hoop, TKO, Tucson, 1st place; Paul Cunzeman, Independent, Brooklyn, NY, 2nd place; Rudy Paty, Arizona Rangers, Phoenix, 3rd place in the Buddy Events; Lee Rose, Independent, Phoenix, 1st place; Ed McGee, Independent, Denver, 2nd place, and Charlie Donalson, RMMC, Denver, 3rd place in the People Events. The Long Distance trophies were awarded to Biker Phil Sample, Murray, Kentucky and Nonbiker Paul Cunzeman, Brooklyn, New York. The Trash Award went to Ed McGee, Independent, Denver.

Thank you again, Stopleak, Eddie, Tom, Jim, Rod and Norm.

SCHROEDER '82

BULLSHIT . . . BULLSHIT!

Cowshit and horseshit, if you didn't watch your step, you kept walking in it. But if you did, you really didn't care, because that was what we were there for: RODEO!

Denver, June 3, 4 and 5 was one of the hottest places in this country to have been. The Colorado Gay Rodeo Association threw the "First Annual Rocky Mountain Regional Rodeo" and let me say here and now, this was my first rodeo ever and I can guarantee it's not going to be my last.

Not knowing what to expect at a rodeo, I was prepared to sit through anything, but I was not prepared for as good a time as these man and women proceeded to give us. Next time I'll know better. I picked up my agenda of the days' activities at the rodeo and checked them out. Now, some of the events I saw on the program I was familiar with, such as, calf-roping, bronc riding, bull riding, barrel racing and team roping. Thanks to some great old westerns on TV I was able to sit there and talk rodeo without sounding like too much of an asshole, until I saw the event on the program "Steer Decorating." What the hell was steer decorating? The only image I was getting was of some 90 lb. twinkie sashaying out into the arena and throwing some chintz slip cover over the bull and trying to hang curtains between its horns without getting killed. Thank God I was wrong. When the event came on I discovered that one man tried to hold the bull in place by one guide rope while another tried to tie a bow to its tail. Definitely no sissy stuff. Those were very mad bulls and there was no way on earth I would ever think of getting behind to try and tie anything on one of those suckers tails. You've got to be out of your fucking mind to even think about it.

Just in case you didn't read our article in our last issue of Club Scene the Colorado Gay Rodeo Association was designed to keep gay money inside the gay community for gay charities rather than to raise gay bucks for straight charities like other rodeos do. The Grand Marshall contestants were selected on monies raised before the rodeo, personalities and appearance. And, these men and women busted their butts throwing fundraisers to try and become Grand Marshall and every one of them whether they raised the most money or the least deserve every bit of respect and admiration we can offer, because it's these people who helped bring gay money back to the gay community.

The Grand Marshall contest raised over $33,000 for such carities as the KSC/AIDS of Houston, the Gay Switchboard Houston, Montrose Clinic (Houston), Gay and Lesbian Community Center of Colorado and the National Gay Health Education Foundation (Denver).

The winners of the Grand Marshall contest were Gay Bandy (Houston, The Barn); 1st Runner-Up Sandra Floyd (Houston, Kindred Spirits); and 2nd Runner-Up Ron Yost (Houston, Mary's).

Saturday was the opening of the rodeo and I was overjoyed to see at least 1,000 people in attendance all there to enjoy the events the beautiful mile high weather, and each other and they were definitely doing all three. I found out later that there were about 300 people at rodeo from out of town and out of state. And, about 30 percent women.

The rodeo itself had 45 men and women entered as contestants and every one of them were either the bravest or stupidest persons I've ever seen. What these men and women did for our entertainment and their sense of a good time was not only dangerous but downright potentially fatal. Every time one of these contestants stepped or rode out into the arena there was the potential of someone getting seriously injured. Thank God these people knew what they were doing, but I'll tell you it kept the old adrenalin flowing.

Sunday night the last of the events over everyone converged on Charlie's to find out who won and who didn't, and those who did were: All Around Cowboy, Richard Bray of Denver; All Around Cowgirl, Robbie Robinson, also of Denver. Congragulations to the winners. From what I saw you earned those beautiful silver belt buckles you won.

There will be plenty of food and beer on the bus. All thos for only ten bucks. For reservations, see any Trenton Bulls member or one of the Casa Lido owners. This sounds like a fun time at a nominal cost. So, get your reservation and have a Happy Gay Pride Day.

TORONTO

Hard Times Are Coming

"Hard Times '83" is the official name of the Lanyards run this year to be held July 22 through 24 in Toronto.

While they have not released their list of events, they say they have a lot of things in the plans, many that have never been done on a run before. As they did not hold a run in 1982, the Lanyards are going to make it up by hosting a run that will set Toronto on its ear and anyone who misses out on this weekend will be sorry.

Now that was rodeo, now here's Denver: We partied like it was the last night on earth to do so and the way we did it, it could have been. We started our party at the opening of the newest leather store there called Mr. S Leathers opened by Wayne Haskell and, if you're in Denver, this is definitely the place to shop. The selection of toys and basic essentials was superb. Next, we proceeded to the Triangle Lounge where Don Young, the proprietor of this den of eniquity proceeded to ply us with booze and a great time like only Denver really can. Following this orgy of indulgence we went on to Denver's newest leather bar, the Tool Box, where Gary, the owner, proceeded to party us privately with some of Denver's finest leather community until 5:30 a.m. Sunday. Gentlemen . . . if you want to be partied high in the sky, go to Denver and tell them you heard about it in Club Scene and I will promise you one helluva party.

CGRA, Denver, Men! Thanks for a great time, see you again next year.

You can register with or without accommodations included. For an application write, without delay, to: The Lanyards, P.O. Box 538, Station A, Toronto, Ontario, Canada M5W 1E5.

Toronto Hotel Caters To Clubs

If you plan a trip to Toronto this summer, either for "Hard Times '83" or other times I recommend you stay at the Hotel California, 321 Jarvis Street, Toronto. The hotel, recently redecorated, is owned by Wayne Doniuk, a member of The Lanyards. The Outpost Bar, located in the hotel, is frequented by members of all the clubs in Toronto and you will feel most welcome. P.S. Special club rates are available on request.
