Dear Diamond Lil,

Are we looking for love in all the wrong places, again? Are we expecting too much more than others can give? Are our expectations reasonable and realistic? Are we reasonable or realistic? Come on now, be honest! Do we feel peculiar or odd at what or who turns us on? Are we really comfortable with being who we are? Sweetheart, if you have a problem, idea, or fantasy that you would like to share with us, why not pen a missive to Dear Diamond Lil, c/o R & R Publications Inc., 729 Piedmont Ave. NE, Atlanta, GA 30308. Erase cobwebs and clutter that hem us in today!

Dear Diamond Lil,

Thank you for sharing your wisdom with other gays. We all have so much to learn.

To me, life should be a sharing. If other gays felt that way, never being quite so selfish, fewer of us would make costly mistakes.

I want to share a bit of information with other gays who still have an aire of innocence. Be careful with hustlers! It's been so difficult for me to meet anyone in the bars that I decided to give it a try. After repeated adventures, I have yet to get a satisfaction guaranteed refund. Few of them are good in bed, many being straight. They are skilled at saying what their customers want to hear, but they must be watched carefully. They steal. They lie, and all they really want is your money. A word to the wise; don't bother! Being desperate is one thing. But what you lose outweighs what you gain. If only I could find someone who really cares about me, I wouldn't have to be so foolish. Another chapter closed.

Love,
Glitter

Dear "Glitter,"

Thank you very much for your poignant letter teeling your experience like it is for so many of us.

This brings to mind, however, a few things we might consider: Are we actually expecting much more than "the trade" can really give? If we receive "cold" or "leftover" food in our favorite eatery, do we send it back or ask for a refund? If we purchase a piece of meat at "disco" Kroger that is not quite up to our expectations as we savor it, do we accept it for what it is and enjoy it anyway? Glitter, in other words, I feel lik you and probably many others (and I've been guilty myself) might be expecting a little more than this market can bear. Do you think? Now, I have found in some instances, that the all-gay market (if this term is okay) is not exempt in the stealing and lying departments, and many do it quite well, I might add. So, what this means is: If we're discontent with where we're playing and with whom we are playing, we must change playgrounds and playmates! How? New scenes, new

With love and some new changes,
Diamond Lil

Dear Diamond Lil,

I have a problem! It's not a love affair, but something personal and confidential. I've been wearing rubber pants and diapers for years, for enjoyment, and gay for 9 years. Now my problem!

I would like to meet a man who's into the same enjoyment, but it's hard to find one. Meeting people in bars or just out in shopping centers you don't ask them if they like to wear rubber pants or diapers. I would hat to see my friends know what I like to do. Are there clubs to join, and are there people like me out there, too? What's my solution, Lil? Please help me.

Thank you,
A Baltimore Boy

PS: I would like to find out places in my state, Baltimore, or Pen Pals.

Dear "Baltimore Boy,"

The safest and most confidential method that I know of finding persons into your thing would be an ad placement under personals in the Cruise Classifieds. Coded mail forwarding with your own box number is on $1 per week.

If this doesn't get you the results you require, you might try other magazines such as The Advocate.

*Confidential to M.S.P. in Marietta:
There's still a Steve J. who wishes to contact you. If you will please send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope, I will be glad to forward his note to you. D.L.*

CRUISING THE STARS by MIKE VOSS

For March 17th - March 23rd

PISCES

(Feb. 20 - March 20)

Business aspects couldn't look better. Offers may be more than you can handle. Lone matters may take a back seat all week, except on the 19th and 20th. Enjoy a productive cycle.

ARIES

(March 21 - April 19)

The weekend might be hectic. Trying to please everyone might not be your bag, but you give it your best shot on both the 17th and 18th. The financial rewards look like a great incentive. On the 19th and 20th, travel may be necessary for business and end up being for pleasure. Watch out for charming liars on the 21st. What looks so good is not. Honors come from friends on the 22nd. On the 23rd, credit matters receive outside luck.

TAURUS

(April 20 - May 20)

Partnership difficulties may come up for reevaluation again. Get a grip. Don't be foolish.

GEMINI

(May 21 - June 21)

Friends may mean money this week. Affections may be torn between two on the 17th and 18th. On the 19th, take gambles in all career and business dealings. Unknown factors exist which mean a sure win. Setbacks on the 21st in career matters are minor and can be patched up by influential women. On the 22nd, give a party and make a bundle of money. Eudational pursuits may reenter your life after the 23rd.

CANCER

(June 22 - July 21)

Domestic issues and career matters need attention simultaneously over this weekend. Any socializing may have to wait. On the 18th surprise romance can be expected late. Good career news reaches you on the 18th and, after the 19th, you have an entire month to shine in this area. Others graciously give you more responsibility. Watch out for shady characters on the 21st. Protect valuables. On the 23rd, enjoy a truly sentimental day. Put your feet up.

LEO

(July 22 - Aug. 21)

Domestic issues may please you very much this week. Planetary aspects favor more harmony in this area. On the 17th, avoid gossip and watch what you say. Putting your royal paw in your mouth should be very easy. Great career news can be expected on the 19th. On the 20th and 21st, fall in love or renew worn out love bonds. Career opportunities revolve around social functions on the 22nd. Again, love may also be found. On the 23rd domestic bonuses may be in abundance.

VIRGO

(Aug. 22 - Sept. 22)

You catch everyone's eye this week. Others will no doubt lay everything at your feet. Don't bend over to pick it up. Make them hand it to you.

LIBRA

(Sept. 23 - Oct. 22)

Expansion and joy in your life may revolve around domestic concerns right now. On the 19th and 20th, financial blessings should fall in your lap. After the 21st, expect to attract many admirers. They all have marriage in mind. Check their bank accounts this time. You don't need another loser. On the 22nd, seize a great career opportunity. Ask for money on the 23rd and get it.

SCORPIO

(Oct. 23 - Nov. 21)

New business ventures may require more effort than anticipated. Hang in there. This is your time to take steps up the ladder of success. Be patient.

SAGITTARIUS

(Nov. 22 - Dec. 21)

Communication problems with mate or partner may cloud this weekend. Make sure you're both going in the same direction. Discuss financial plans. On the 19th, extravagance may be in order. Romance returns after the 20th. Pressures in career may have made you a wet blanket lately. Get ready for some fun. On the 21st, be careful about con artists that may try to reach you through the affections. On the 22nd, domestic issues and "things" bring smiles. Money matters and women go hand in hand on the 23rd.

CAPRICORN

(Dec. 22 - Jan. 20)

Domestic changes may need reevaluation. Friends and partners may be uncooperative at this time. Nothing to worry about. On the 19th, relatives may need attention. Loving partners bail you out on the 21st. Secrets on the 22nd mean more money. After the 23rd expect some domestic bliss for awhile. New loves become available.

AQUARIUS

(Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)

Finances improve due to lucky partnerships. Expect a real emotional give and take. Over the weekend, every friend you know may suddenly want your undivided attention. Good luck. Money opportunities in abundance on the 20th. On the 21st avoid losses by misplaced trust. Friends, secrets and love mean extra bucks on the 22nd. After the 23rd, changes in the love department are inevitable.

A PRIVATE CLUB FOR THE DISCREET GAY MALE

THE LISTING ATTIC

by Don Tucker

As a generic group, Baptists are not very interesting on the surface. They're sort of against everything fun, and the further south one travels, the more "Baptist" they seem to get. Well, they're not quite as dull as one might imagine, and they certainly do have a few well hidden piccadillos. Here is a sampling.

Baptists have some private saints that other religions do not recognize. There's Saint Lillian (Carter), canonized not for her work in India with the Peace Corp, but for her raisin bread. Saint Dudley could actually put his elbow in his mouth. Saint Trixie, otherwise known as Our Lady of the Vapors, passed out pictures in gay baths of Billy Graham kneeling at Rock City. Saint Goober, after a bean banquet, could fart the opening of "How Great Thou Art."

Baptists never read a book with the word "homosexual" in it unless the character dies a horrible death in the last chapter. They believe that it's alright for couples of the same sex to marry as long as decent people adopt the children. They believe that Purgatory is actually a section of hell that is airconditioned for people who masturbated on Earth.

Baptists believe that wearing green will protect you from x-rays, and that reading anything but the Bible will make your lips tired. Baptist women never get completely undressed and usually wear a hat during childbirth. They believe that if you own a snake and it dies the owner will also die; and any man that wears a big diamond ring is a wife beater.

They think that it is wise and frugal to swallow your mouthwash. They believe that it is sinful to give a dog a human name. However, naming a child "Caprice" or "Nova" after a car is creative; and the sea is salty because of fish.

Baptists believe that working in the gourmet section of a grocery store will make you gay; or wearing a lined garment, singing opera, or playing a musical instrument above the waist is swishy. Naturally, men with pretty handwriting are faggots; and men are never allowed to sing anything but the melody.

Baptists believe that steaming vegetables only makes them hot; and any spice other than McCormick's Lemon-Pepper is foreign and suspect. Steak should be fried at least forty-five minutes. Speaking a foreign language is socialist.

Marching makes you masculine. Baptists believe that the "eyes" in any depiction of Christ should follow you across the room. They believe that when you fly in a plane, you are close to god's feet.

I know one really terrific Baptist personally. His name is Reverend Al Carmine and he has a church in New York City. He's gay and does everything from musical comedy to reggae music in his services. If you're ever in New York and want to see a fabulous service on Sunday morning, visit the Judson Square Baptist Church. The man is truly blessed. He wrote the musical comedy "Promenade" that gave Madelyn Kahn her start. They later renamed the theatre "The Promenade" and "Godspell" opened.

ROYAL COURT OF ATLANTA ANNOUNCES ROYAL QUEST

The Royal Court of Atlanta proudly announces the royal Quest to be held at Illusions on Wednesday, April 4th, 1984, at 10:30pm. The Royal Quest is a pageant to choose the Emperor and Empress IV and Grand Duke and Grand Duchess IV.

This year's pageant will differ from previous contests in that the new Emperor and Empress will carry prize money of $600 each and the Grand Duke and Duchess, $200 each. Half of the prize money is to be awarded on the night of the pageant and the other will be awarded when the winners have successfully served out their year of service to the community.

Entry forms are available at Illusion, Crazy Ray's, Gallus and The Bar.

The Royal Court of Atlanta is a service organization and is dedicated to being of assistance to the community without pay or other forms of gratitude. The Court wishes to apologize for a low key year, when not as many things were done as they would have liked to do, while renewing their dedication to accomplishing many things during Royal Court IV.

OUT AND ABOUT VIDEO PLANS JUNE 23 CABLECAST

Out and About Video will present a one-hour variety program on Cable Atlanta Channel 16, June 23rd, kicking off a week of educational, social and political events marking the Fifteenth Anniversary of the gay right movement. Other celebrations will be held in cities throughout the country marking the Stonewall Rebellion of June 23, 1969.

One feature segment is already being edited while others will be filmed in March and April. Two original theme songs have been submitted for review.

"We want to have as much original material as possible," said Tammy Waters, film producer and Out and About Coordinator. Wider community participation has been sought, including inquiries for minority participation. Some time slots may remain available until the end of the month. "We're on schedule so far," said Jim Docekry. The group hopes to obtain non-profit status, define a budget, raise funds and promote a preview party in the coming months.

Out and About Video will meet at the Atlanta Arts Center, (the old High Museum), Room 308, Monday at 8pm. The Gay Pride Committee, which is planning other events for June 23rd to July 3rd, meets at 7pm, Monday, at the Atlanta Gay Center, 848 Peachtree, third floor.

Out and About Video is an independent, volunteer group formed in coalition with Triangle Video and not affiliated with other existing gay organizations.

Cable Channel 16, a public access channel, is part of the Cable Atlanta Center for Community Television. It has five studios throughout Atlanta for public use. For Subscription: 874-8200.

CULTURE CLUB TO APPEAR AT OMNI

The "wonder act" of the year, Culture Club, will be appearing at the Omni on April 18th, 1984 at 8pm. Tickets for this concert are on sale now at the Omni Box Office and all SEATS locations for $13.50.

Expected to be the hottest touring act of the year, Culture Club has created an unprecedented stir at all levels of the music listening public. Due largely in part the the outrageousness of front man Boy George, and to the infectiousness of their pop sound, Culture Club has attracted a great deal of attention by the media and general public.

EVENING PRIDE MARCH PLANNED:

A first-ever nighttime parade is being planned by the 1984 Pride Committee. Tentative plans include a Mardi Gras-style parade led by the Los Angeles Gay Freedom Marching Band and the Atlanta Gay Men's Chorus on the evening of Tuesday, July 3rd.

The Pride Committee, a loosely knit group of interested volunteers is planning the parade and other events to mark the fifteenth anniversary of "the Stonewall Rebellion," a landmark day in the lesbian/gay community. A riot involving gays, lesbians and transpersons against police harrassment in the Stonewall, a Greenwich Village bar, gave birth to the modern Gay Rights Movement on June 23rd, 1969. Parades celebrating the event are held in dozens of cities throughout the nation in the summer months, capped by San Francisco's annual festival for hundreds of thousands of partiers.

In past years, Atlanta's Pride Parades have drawn from several hundred to several thousand participants, as planners struggled with political questions and public apathy. Some Pride Committee members, who admit to "burnout" from years of often bleak struggle, are at last hopeful that Atlanta's diverse lesbian/gay community will be able to participate in a "major league" festival and parade.

The Pride Committee, which meets every Monday at the Atlanta Gay Center at 7pm, is hoping to enlist the aid of many more "volunteers and interested bystanders." They are currently making plans for the week of June 23rd to 30th, to include cultural, educational and political events. Other challenges include fundraising and housing arrangements to make make a visit by the Los Angeles band a reality. The Committee members are positive they have laid the framework for a

GAY ARTISTS/PRODUCERS SOUGHT FOR NATIONAL CLUB VIDEO DISTRIBUTION

Gay video producers and artists are being sought for a new network serving the nation's nightclubs that utilize video programming.

The network is designed to give unknown video producers and artists the opportunity to market their creative video work nationwide, for financial remuneration. In turn, the video clubs using the works will expose their clientele to the creative expressions of today's gay artists.

This first attempt at developing a network of producers/artists is being launched within the gay community, as the gay clubs are the undoubted trendsetters in the club video industry. Organizers of the gay video network are looking for artists' expressions of being gay, including erotica, but with little or no interest in pornography. Works must have a strong visual content, as most clubs use ambience videos without their audio tracks.

Artists and producers with visual works available for distribution are encouraged to write the network: City Beats Video, 3326 Park Ave., Minneapolis, MN 55407 with a synopsis of each work. The network will then secure a license from the copyright holder(s). Final submission of either film or video tape works must be on 1/2" VHS or 3/4" video tape.
