THE FIRST WORD

This past weekend we completed a survey we have been doing here in Atlanta over the last few weeks and it has proved to be very enlightening. While CRUISE WEEKLY definitely proved to be the most widely read of the three free gay bar guides available here, many people commented that they picked up all three when they could find them. In spite of the fact that CRUISE WEEKLY increased its print run by 500 books last week (and almost all of this 500 was added to the Atlanta distribution), last week's supply of magazines was exhausted in many locations before Monday. We held back the additional magazines and made a supplemental distribution on Saturday but there still were not enough to go around.

Another thing that we found interesting were the answers to the question, "What new features would you like to see in CRUISE WEEKLY." Many patrons of the show bars and particularly the entertainers themselves said "more news about drag." At P's and Bulldog the answer was often "less about drag." Most of the women interviewed suggested more coverage of women's events and nearly everybody said "more pictures." Of course some wanted pictures of female impersonators and others wanted pictures of naked men. One of the hardest things about doing a magazine like CRUISE WEEKLY is that we have a limited amount of editorial space and it's impossible to have something for everyone in every issue. But we promise to do our best to include "more" of everything in the weeks and months ahead. The two items that seemed to be of interest to everyone were "community news" and "national news." More and more gays seem to want to get involved in gay activities and we think that is great. As you have probably noticed we have already added a page entitled "Community News" and plan to keep it as an every week feature. We will continue to run "National News" when we have sufficient information we think is of interest.

Even though our survey is over we are still interested in your comments. Write us or if you see our staff in a bar, tell us what you like and dislike about our magazine. We know we can't please all of the people all of the time, but we plan to keep trying.

ARMY CAN'T OUTLAW HOMOSEXUALITY

MILWAUKEE (UPI)—Homosexuals can no longer be discharged routinely from the Army as undesirables, a federal judge has ruled.

U.S. District Judge Terrance Evans ruled Tuesday that homosexuality cannot be outlawed by the Army and that homosexuals can be discharged only if their sexual preference is proven detrimental to their work.

The ruling came in the case of Miriam Ben-Shalom, discharged from the Army Reserve after publicly admitting she is a lesbian. Miss Ben-Shalom, who was ordered reinstated in her Milwaukee reserve unit, called the decision a landmark for gay rights.

Evans cited overwhelming evidence Miss Ben-Shalom was an "exemplary" soldier. He said the Army offered no evidence she had engaged in homosexual acts or made sexual advances toward female soldiers.

"The court is satisfied from the record her sexual preference had as much relevance to her military skills as did her gender or the color of her skin," Evans said.

The Army has not yet announced whether it will appeal, though officials in Washington said they were "aware" of the ruling.

"We will consider the implications, if any, when we have a chance to review the decision," Lt. Col. Charles Krohn said.

Evans ruled the Army homosexuality regulation violated the First, Fifth and Ninth Amendments to the U.S. Constitution. He ruled constitutional privacy principles "clearly protect one's sexual preferences in and of themselves from governmental regulations."

The regulation referred to permits discharge of any soldier "who evidences homosexual tendencies, desires or interests."

"I'm ecstatic," said Miss Ben-Shalom, who had reached the rank of sergeant before her discharge in 1976 — about a year after admitting she was a lesbian. "It's a landmark case for gays everywhere — affirming they have civil rights too."

NGTF PREPARING NATIONAL NEWS COUNCIL COMPLAINT — CONDEMNS "CBS REPORTS: GAY POWER, GAY POLITICS"

The National Gay Task Force, with the cooperation of the leadership of the San Francisco gay community, Supervisor Harry Britt and Mayor Diane Feinstein, is preparing a National News Council complaint regarding the recent CBS New Special "Gay Power, Gay Politics."

NGTF Co-Directors Charles F. Brydon and Lucia L. Valeska said: "We believe that CBS News in its program 'Gay Power, Gay Politics,' failed to meet reasonable standards of accuracy or fairness for broadcast journalism. CBS went beyond the bounds of legitimate robust journalism into the realm of misrepresentation, distortion and sensationalism. The programs reflects inadequate and shoddy research and was edited in such a fashion as to negatively manipulate the viewing public's attitude toward the gay rights movement. This manipulation occurred through the omission of vital facts fundamental to an understanding of the events portrayed.

"We condemn this style of journalism and its consequences — damage to the cause of civil rights and human dignity for the nation's lesbian and gay citizens and a further erosion of public confidence in the media's ability to accurately and fairly report the truth.

"We are confident that an independent investigation and evaluation of the facts by the National News Council will sustain our position."

CANDIDATE ANNOUNCES

Charles R. Desiderio, a Buckhead lawyer, is a candidate for the State Court of Fulton County. He has announced for the seat on the bench now held by State Court Chief Judge Thomas L. Camp.

While Judge Camp has not announced officially that he will not seek re-election, he has told friends that he will not run again when his term expires this year. He is expected to make a formal announcement when qualification for the seat opens on May 28.

A resident of Midtown, Desiderio is a 45-year-old attorney with offices at 516 East Paces Ferry Road in Buckhead. He formed his own law firm ten years ago and has specialized in trial practice.

Desiderio attended the University of Florida and Georgia State University. He received his law degree from Woodrow Wilson College of Law and is a member of the Atlanta, Georgia and American Bar Associations.

An Army veteran of the Korean War, the candidate served as comptroller and assistant treasurer for Dwoskin, Inc. for ten years before being named regional administrator of Omnibus Crime Control Act for North Georgia.

While assigned to the North Georgia post by the Department of Justice, Desiderio served the courts and law enforcement agencies of the state by planning special programs for crime abatement and criminal justice improvement.

George William Armbrister Jr. is acting as Campaign Manager for Desiderio. Anyone desiring to make a contribution to the campaign, financial or otherwise, should contact Mr. Armbrister at (404) 261-4600.

MARKET PLACE

Guido's

How many times have you been starving to death, out late at night (early morning?), and the only place you can think of to eat is the Dunk & Gag? Well let me tell you, there are those of us who are in that very situation alot. We could just not think of anywhere else to eat, until now!

Guido's Grill, in the front bar at Numbers, is now open from mid-night until 7 am Tuesday through Sunday serving a menu that will surely take care of your hunger. Jim and Peter, owners of the Spaghetti Tree in Emory Village, have taken over the food concession at Numbers and are packing the people in. Serving tasty delights such as the Guido Dog, ham & cheese sandwiches, a multiple selection of salad sandwiches (chicken for one!), chili dogs and chips, and nothing on the menu is priced over $1.50. Now that's a bargain after unloading your wallet for cock-tails.

Now - the next time you are out and hungry, there is no excuse to spend five dollars or more for the same old food. Come into Guido's Grill and chow down. You'll be glad you did!
