CAMPBELL WITHDRAWS FROM COMMISSION RACE

by Ira Estis

Jack Campbell, who announced his candidacy several weeks ago for the Atlarge County Commission seat now held by Commissioner Jim Redford, has withdrawn from the race.

In a statement issued to the Weekly News July 20, Campbell cited the high cost of the election race as his primary reason for withdrawing. In part, Campbell's statement read: "I have decided not to seek election to the Dade County Board of County Commissioners. My campaign advisors have told me that to unseat an incumbent commissioner (Redford), it would require a campaign that would cost in excess of $100,000. After considerable deliberation, I have come to the conclusion that that kind of money would be better put directly into the gay community of South Florida than into the coffers of the Miami Herald, Wometco Enterprises and their ilk."

Campbell went on to state: "There are many ways in which we can improve and protect our rights as citizens of this part of the nation. We need to be vigilant in keeping evil forces within our movement from succeeding in their attempt to take over our community for their own greedy, self-aggrandizing purposes."

INSIDE THE GLASS BOOTH

by MIKE
MAYBERRY,
July 25, 1980

Last week in this column I mentioned the Supremes as an example of the kind of music that disco DJ's played in the infancy of gay dance clubs. Even today a Motown release of a Supremes Medley of Hits with songs from the midsixties is enjoying great success in dance bars. And when you think of the Supremes you think of Diana Ross. This lady who has a special place in the hearts of most gay people. A black teenager from Detroit who over a period of two decades became a symbol of success in the entertainment field. Her records turned to gold, she became a top movie star, live performances were sold out. Therefore it is no surprise to me or anyone else that Diana Ross now has two successful disco hits from her new DIANA LP. This album follows on the heels of the popular recording THE BOSS. That record was produced by Nickolas Ashford and Valerie Simpson. The new LP is a collaboration with Bernard Edwards and Nile Rogers, the principal members of Chic.

The song titles of Diana's new club hits are Upside Down and I'm Coming Out. Let's look at Upside Down first. This song bears the strongest resemblance to the Chic "sound" in both arrangement and instrumentation. We feel a slow tempo while hearing percussion are spare guitar riffs accenting a strong vocal. In Upside Down Diana is singing to the man she loves. In fact she's obsessed with him. Every time he cheats on her it turns her "upside down, inside out and round and round". Even though her man is a cad Miss Ross warbles "there's a place in my heart for you, that's the bottom line". I guess all of us have been in that position at one time or another so we have a shared feeling with the song lyrics. Upside Down is my favorite on DIANA.

Now to I'm Coming Out from DIANA. This cut seems to be the most popular judging by floor response and requests. The introduction in the song is nothing less than spectacular. In the intro, horns, guitars and drums arrange themselves into a halting rhythm as the first lady of Motown screams (tastefully mind you) "I'm Comming Out". And that phrase has to be one of the best lyric hooks for a gay audience that I have ever heard in a pop tune. Here is a song that is perfectly fit for our new decade. I'm Coming Out is a musical statement of liberation from the past. As Diana Ross sings "there's a new me comming out" we flash on the black and white Scavullo album cover photo of her in jeans and a peasant shirt. The teenager from Detroit has definitely moved into the eighties with her latest album, DIANA.

In our disco potpourri section this week several items: *Congrats to Copa DJ Bill Kelly who recently won, in New York City, the Billboard Magazine award as the best Disco DJ in the Miami area. * F&G Lighting and Sound of Urbana, Illinois has installed a new sound system in the Marlin's Lower Deck Disco. Earthquake bass and Klipsch speakers highlight the new equipment. * The owners of Impressions in Ft. Lauderdale are remodeling their bar and disco. A larger and nicer dance area are evident in the work being done there.

Next week in this column a look at the two women who have made the word "Fame" popular in gay discotheques.
