all girls, m having trouble keeping up with all a juicy pieces of news this week but re goes....Mother Boxx and Boxette inber 27 are off on a two month int to Europe. Rumor has it that the xx has been sent overseas to study a sex habits of 14 year old boys in sterdam...Managing the club is nae New Yorker, Ms. Jim Gordon who back after eight months of whoring up in the Big Apple. THIS SUNDAY ere will be free hot dogs by the pool the afternoon and the multi-talented EARL T. will present a hot new show in the Stonewall starring Rhonda Dunn, Margo Jayne and Jeanie Sommers. You may be able to catch a peek of a Sunday Afternoon rehearsal planned to take place in the Stonewall. The show is in honor of Michael Manager's birthday and Jim Gordon has arranged to give away a free weekend for two at the club after Pearl T's extravaganza.

Showtime is 11 pm so don't miss it.

The Prince Restaurant is open for business (first floor) and is full of good food and good looking numbers. Chef Mario (direct from Las Vegas) offers specials each night and is open 7 days a week for Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner....My, my we have some room for real dish....What "head" Maid was almost arrested on Biscayne Boulevard (the Street of Dreams) at 4 am the other morning?...Yours truly has discovered that our downstairs bartender, Miss Rhonda, has been using Head and Shoulders instead of K-Y. Funny place to get dandruff, Dear....Deanna DeeJay dishing up double dirt for Donna's next delicious column and a final "hot item" ....Is John John's Sexy Legs the reason business is better than ever in the Jym Bar....Well shoot on over and decide for yourself, Dears, Ta, Ta, till next time...

THIS WEEK

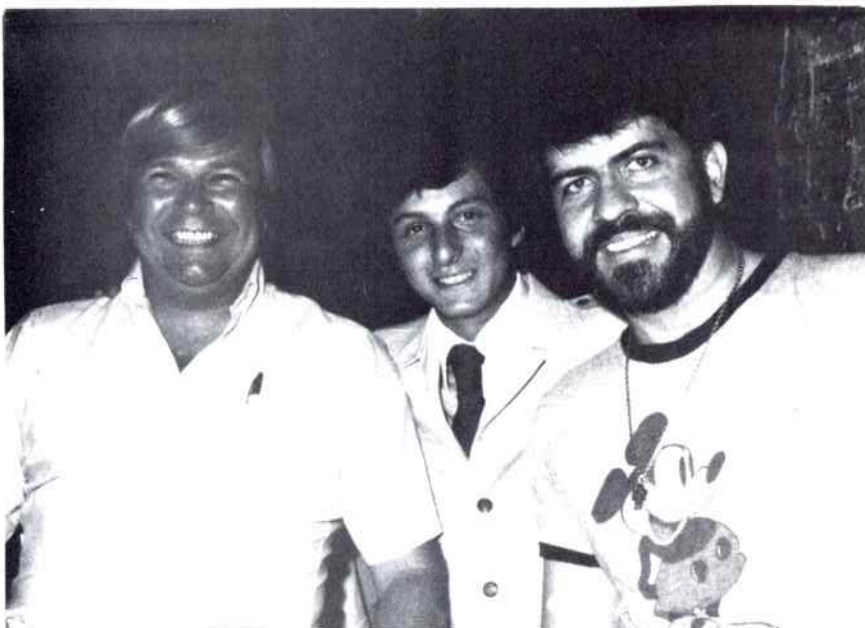

The winners of the First Miss Tacky's Pageant this past Thursday evening were; Miss Tacky's, Lorrie Del Mar sponsored by the Parliament House in Orlando; 1st runner up, Vonda DeLain sponsored by the Pink Elephant in Miami and 2nd runner-up, Leslie Cameron (and bird) sponsored by the Windward Resort, Miami Beach. It was a fun contest and we hope to have some shots of it for next week's issue....The Construction Party at the Poop Deck was a "smashing" success. Even Esme and Sandy got in the act with hard hats as part of the "wrecking crew"...Marcia Rose joined the waiters in drag (all as Truck Stop Floozies) and she never looked better (she was cunningly disguised as a checkered table cloth).....a great job of remodeling has been done at the Speakeasy (formerly the Tunnel Bar) and a Grand Opening is due soon....exact date to be announced next week....Everyone literally went "Bananas" at UpStairs at Tangerine over some of the tricks done with fruit Wednesday night....so much fun that plans are to continue the wild "Erotic Banana Contest" and the equally successful "Wet Jockey Short Contest" every week....Son Of Frankenstein goes French....a new restaurant called LeJardin will be opening on the premises in the near future to Reunion time? All three of the gents pictured below have been away for quite some time and all three have come back to Miami during the same week....guess they just can't stay away from a good thing!

Left; Mr. Jack Campbell (1975 David Award Winner for Businessman of the Year); Center; Jim Gordon (stepping back into position....or is it "backing into position" as manager of the 8000 club/resort complex and (Right); The Reverend Troy Perry visits the MCC in Fort Lauderdale for 8 pm worship This Sunday.

THE AWARDS

Nominees for the Florida David Awards are coming in hot and heavy with 32 names submitted so far for Bartender of the Year; 23 for Manager of the Year; 18 for Businessman of the Year;and so on. Of course, only the top names in every category (those that receive the most nominations) will be listed in the final voting so don't delay....your vote might be the one to put YOUR candidate into the top five in Florida! In order to make up for a delay in getting the nomination blanks across the state in sufficient numbers, the cutoff date for nominations has been extended until Wednesday, August 18th.

ON THE POLITICAL SCENE

You personally may not be interested in State Politics, but there are a few luckily in the area that take elections to government office seriously. A group of concerned citizens and businessmen in the gay community met early last week to work out strategies for finding out how candidates for public office feel about gays. The group, naming themselves the Dade County Humanistic Coalition for Gay Rights, has decided to screen every candidate possible to determine their attitudes toward gays without debate, discussion or other attempts at lobbying. A listing of which candidates the group feels, from the survey, deserve gay support and votes will appear in a future issue of This Week With David.

Elsewhere on the political scene, The Dade County Democratic Party has announced that party official Michael Smyser of Miami will be co-ordinating the County Forum to be held on August 28, 1976 at the DuPont Plaza Hotel in the Assembly Room beginning at 1 pm. The first ever (in Miami) Forum will involve all Democratic candidates in this year's state and county-wide elections. Also invited are candidates in non-partisan races as well. The Democratic chairman of the Forum, Michael Smyser commented, "It is important that our voters in Dade County be given the full opportunity to talk with their candidates for public office and that the Forum will involve a nucleus of all types of people in the county and prove the point that together as a people, officials with respect and creditability can be elected."

A question and answer period will also be used at the Forum. Publicity and fliers will be distributed throughout the county in the next several weeks to insure a good turnout for the voters WHO CARE about their elected officials.

QUE SE SEPA...

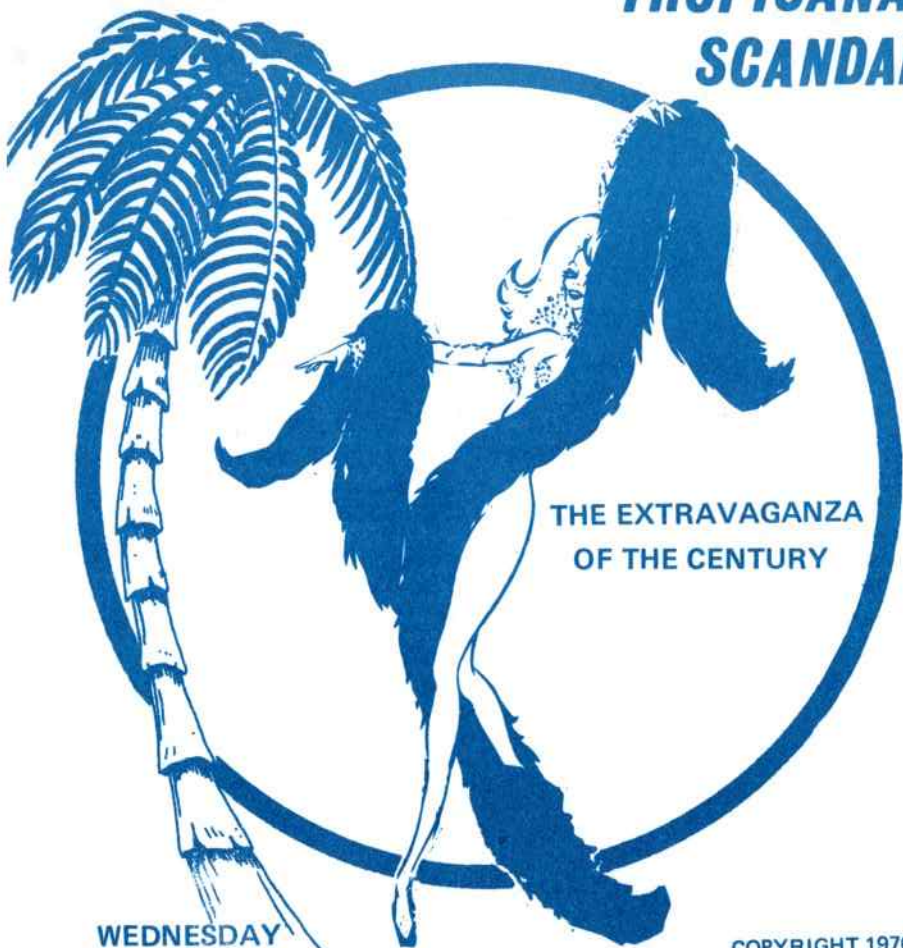

Bueno, aquí estamos. Como una prueba mas del impacto que el Latino esta haciendo en estos ultimos anos y siguiendo el rumbo de los principales medios de comunicacion de este pais, la gerencia de "David Magazine" ha tomado la iniciativa de ser la primera revista sirviendo a la comunidad "gay" de la Florida y Georgia en incorporar una columna escrita en nuestro propio idioma para anadir esa nota de sabor y salsa que en muchas ocasiones se pierde atraves de traducciones. Esperamos estar aqui sino todas las semanas por lo menos cada segunda semana llevandoles chismes y comentarios de los hechos de mas interes en nuestra comunidad. Creo que la idea de incorporar el premio "El Latino" en las nominaciones de la revista ha sido una idea fantastica y espero que todos le den el mayor apoyo posible votando por la persona latina en nuestra comunidad que mas se haya distinguido. Traten de mandar sus nominaciones lo mas pronto posible para demostrar que nuestro grupo esta alerta y listo a participar. Nuestras felicitaciones a Luis por una labor tan brillante durante el Maraton de baile en el Warehouse VIII, el nino se las trae. La otra noche estuvimos por la playa y paramos a saludar a Julio en el Mayflower, como siempre nos puso al dia de todo lo que estaba pasando del otro lado de la bahia, este nene no cambia. De alli nos fuimos a ver el "Jewel Box Revue" en el Hotel Fountainebleau y se lo recomendamos a todos lo que no lo han visto, Michael, Emore and Roxanne ponen un show de primera categoria, Jennifer, Rachael y los bailarines todos muy buenos. La noche la terminamos bailando en El Windward, creo que todo el mundo estaba alli, sino bailando, en la piscina, de vuelta a casa paramos a desayunar con Hanna, por algo se ha ganado el sobrenombre de "La Madre de Todos" siempre preocupada y lista a darnos su mejor consejo y ayuda en cualquier problema que se nos presente. En la proxima columna hablaremos de la nueva ola de musica latina que ha envuelto a Nueva York y California y que esperamos llegue pronto a nuestra ciudad. Bueno, esto es todo por ahora, recuerden que esta columna siempre esta abierta para cualquier comentario de interes que ustedes nos quieran mandar. En la proxima columna les dare el numero del apartado de correo donde pueden mandar sus chismes.. Los veo esta noche en los bares y que se sepa
