ABOUT THE COVER:
COVER PHOTO BY CHUCK DAVIS

The annual Mardi Gras Carnival in New Orleans actually began in January, but the real fun starts next weekend, and climaxes on Fat Tuesday, Feb. 16. In this week's eclipse, we offer a survival guide to Mardi Gras—your key to a safe, wild time in the Big Easy.

used because the actor in question doesn't want to bare his. The producers scoured the city and looked high and, more often than not, low for the right buttocks. After seeing everyone, Pierce made his selection—the butt of a mid-30s, gorgeous actor/model. The producers balked. Who would have believed that this firm behind and, more importantly, 31" waist belonged to Pierce?

This leads us directly into the first installment of "FAYEWATCH" for 1999. Why? Darlings, La Dunaway was in the original "Thomas Crown Affair" (which, I believe, was a talkie). And wasn't it sweet that the producers of this remake were able to get her out of the home for this version? So she's a bit long of tooth to play Pierce's love interest. Look for Faye to play the role of Thomas' therapist. For a gal who's had teams of therapists at a time, this is a bit like type-casting.

But since I know that you need more dish on Mommie Dearest, have you heard that Faye is so chic (let's all say, "How chic is she?") that when she returns her videos at Blockbuster, she refuses to go inside. She also refuses to get out of her car and drop them into the slot. How, then, does Faye return her videotapes? She honks until someone comes out to retrieve them. The last time she went by, no one came out. What do you think Faye did? She picked up her cell phone and called up the store and demanded that someone come out to meet her. And you thought that the Golden Era was dead and buried.

MR. PRIME CHOICE

WILL IT BE YOU?

Mr. Prime Choice is a contest for men over 40, and is a preliminary to Mr. Gulf Coast Drummer.

Wynonna kickin' it at Dinah Shore?

Could it be that WYNONNA'S marital woes have made her a bit more open and daring? Call it what you will, but look for Wynonna to be the featured entertainment on the closing night of this year's Dinah Shore Weekend and Golf Tournament in Palm Springs on March 27. This annual event, often referred to as "the largest lesbian event on earth," always has "name" performers, which may make you wonder who is performing the previous night. Well, wonder no more—ELLEN DEGENERES, MICHELE BALAN, KATE CLINTON and MARGARET CHO, with ANNE HECHHE hosting. Just another weekend with the girls.

Could it be that a certain country heartthrob is spending much of his precious "studio time" throbbing with his "business partner"? Never you mind those rumors of him and that little ole heifer being involved. And forget that interminable engagement to a fiancée who lives clear across the country and whom he's virtually never seen with. Nah, his heart belongs to the man who hurriedly moved out of the house they share. But that didn't last long—you see, this balladeer's built a recording studio right off the garage, and who do you think is his chief engineer and collaborator? Bingo.

When Pierce wants a 30-year-old male butt and so do I, then we've definitely come to the end of yet another column. For more beauty tips, head over to my web-site at www.filth2go.com, or drop a note to me at Billy@filth2go.com, and I promise to get back to you before Faye darkens the doorway of Blockbuster. Until next time, remember, one man's filth is another man's bible.

Thanks for all of the calls, letters and e-mails about the new format and changes to my column.

Rich's will be holding a "Mardi Gras" Madness party on Feb. 7. You show, they will throw. Super hot DJ Rafel M. of Rage-West Hollywood will be spinning. And there will be drink specials like $1 Bellinis, $2 domestic beer and $3 call drinks, which should make this a party not to be missed. Advance tickets are $8; $10 at the door. Reach the Rich's information line at 713-759-9606.

On Jan. 24, the new Miss Brazos River Bottom Selena St. John and Mr. BRB Byron Norton, who is relinquishing his crown, hosted a "Transition" show. I hadn't visited the BRB since their major face-lift. Wow. The faces behind the bar are the same, but the new space made during the remodeling is fantastic. John, Joanne, Miss A and the gang did a super job.

Who will be the next Mr. Prime Choice? This contest for men over 40 will be at the Ripcord on April 10. Contestants are judged mostly on the amount of funds raised for their favorite charity. Mr. Prime Choice is also a preliminary contest to Mr. Gulf Coast Drummer. All "daddies" should call the Ripcord to get an application and set of rules. May the best man win.

The Royal Sovereign, and Imperial Court of the Single Star held Coronation XV on Saturday, Jan. 30. This night of Pomp and Circumstance was a night of big hair and a sea of sequins. And we all know the higher the hair, the closer to God. Congrats to the new Emperor and Empress. You have a rough year ahead of you. Both the "In-Town Show" and "Victory Show" were held at the Court's home bar, Chances. Marlene and her staff are probably still finding sequins and false fingernails on the floor.

BriarPatch is one of the Top 8 piano bars in the country according to In/Out magazine. It was the hot spot to go after the Krewe of Olympus Ball on Jan. 23. These "Ballers" spent a fortune on their costumes. I bet there is not a feather boa left in the city. Head to the BriarPatch for one of their infamous Texas-sized martinis. They pour a mean one.

The Trailer Trash Beauty Queen raised nearly $400 for the AIDS Foundation Houston's Stone Soup project Jan. 17.

Candace and Mary of Club Extreme are throwing a VIP party on Feb. 5 to thank all the people who have helped to make it a successful party place. On Jan. 23, the all-girl group "Cowboy's Nightmare" rocked the house at Club Extreme. The place was wall-to-wall women having a rock and rolling good time. Head there Feb. 14 for their first Valentine's Day Ball.

Rich, Ed, and the rest of the staff at Uniglobe Center City Travel held a different kind of a grand opening recently. This fund-raiser sent $675 to the Loving Arms Foundation. Way to go.

Now here's a bit of dirt and trash, with a touch of lies.

David S. (BRB): The crotch is not where cowboys keep their IDs.

Ed (E/J's): Next time you yell "hey slut" in the grocery store to one of your employees, please make sure that they are not taking their sweet little mother and sister on a Saturday morning shopping trip.

Ken (Decades): I hear that you should have bought stock in Gillette. How many razors do you go through in a week?

John (hangs at Decades): Is your ATM password really "soft?"

Dave (plays pool at the BRB): What did you do in New Orleans and why aren't you telling?

Cass, Rick (a.k.a. Miss Kitty) Glen and Gene: I hear you are now into marathon bridge playing and cocktail-ing. I don't think even I could keep that up for nine hours.

Shelby St. John: Yes, dogs are better than husbands.

Selena St. John (1999 Miss BRB): Honey, you look fabu as a brunette.

Don P. (hangs at the BRB): How is the planting season?

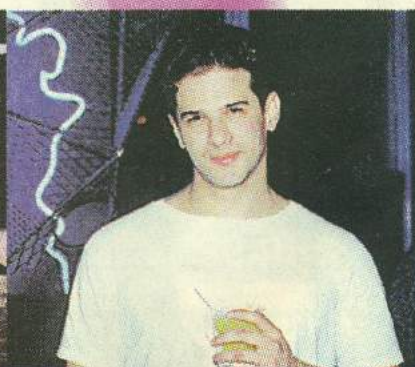

George (Nighthawks): And I quote: "I gave you 8" this time." Did you really say that to your boss?

Darlene (Decades): Jeff asks you not to "gasp" at him while you are in the office.

Pass along your best dirt to cuervolyn@eclipsemag.net

If you're the sort who wouldn't know HTML if you sat on it, you can use Front Page Express, AOL Press, even MS Word to complete the task. Once you've finished, upload the page to your web site.

3) Back to the camera. After plugging it in and installing the drivers, you'll need to download and install some software to take pics at regular intervals and upload them to the page you've created. You'll find a bevy of low-cost and/or free programs like WebCam32 at www.download.com.

ABOUT THE COVER:

The cover photograph, in its original black-and-white form, was donated by the photographer to the Servicemembers Legal Defense Network, which assists those affected by the military's "Don't Ask, Don't Tell" policy. Bianchi says the photograph is a metaphor for DADT because "the flag is used to desexualize us, muzzle us, and render us invisible." The photo is available for purchase at www.tombianchi.com, with proceeds to benefit SLDN.

Listen up, babies! It's no rumor that erotic photographer Tom Bianchi will be in Houston Feb. 20 at Rich's for a model search. Mr. Thang will be signing autographs and doing a live photo shoot—all as part of eclipse's Kick-off Party. Stay tuned for more information.

Crowns and scepters galore. The Royal Sovereign and Imperial Court of the Single Star held its Coronation XV the weekend of Jan. 29. Bows and curtsies to new Emperor Bob Bouton and Empress Renee Monroe.

The Mr. Gay Houston contest held at Rich's Jan. 24 was a preliminary to Mr. Gay Texas US of A. Big hats off to new Mr. Gay Houston John Palmer. Good luck in June.

The show at BRB Feb. 7 has changed. "For a Song and a Dance" will be hosted by the Rainbow Ranglers.

The date for the Mr. Prime Choice contest has changed to April 17 at the Ripcord.

Club Picasso and Guava Lamp held their "double" grand opening on Jan. 30. Anita Renteria of the Greater Houston Gay and Lesbian Chamber of Commerce helped the owners cut the ribbon and "caress" the buildings with bottles of Dom. The party started at 4 p.m. and continued into the wee hours of the morning.

The dates for Let Us Entertain You (LUEY) are Feb. 19-21. Kick-off is at Nighthawks with registration at 8 p.m. Call 713-771-7715 for details. Last year there were 792 partygoers from four foreign countries and 29 states. It should be a couple of wild nights of fun and photos. See you there.

The theme for Friday nights at Rich's has changed. Now it's "Fashion...Freaks... and Fun!" DJ Chris Sill of Club and Fusion will spin you into ecstasy.

Go gambling with the Bears on the Bayou. They will be packing buses on March 7. The $10 ticket includes a continental breakfast, transportation, lunch buffet and all the fun you can handle.

Learn to swing dance. Club Picasso offers "swing" dancing lessons free, taught by professional instructors.

Mardi Gras madness starts at JR's Video Bar on Fat Tuesday with $2 well, domestic long necks, wine and frozen Ritas. The 2(x)ist underwear strip show hosted by Kofi and Lindsey Love boasts $250 in cash prizes. That usually lures in some of the hunkiest that strip down to their skivvies. As an added (one night only) attraction, "The Lascivious Lassies"—two bawdy broads pushing the limits of good taste—will grace the stage. You'll love them.

A new restaurant and bar will soon open in Montrose. Sonoma, 1415 California, will boast a scrumptious menu, delicious atmosphere and live cabaret talent, the likes of which Houston hasn't seen for years. Look for their grand opening soon.

Now time for some dirt. It's a mix of lies, blended with some gossip and some half-truths.

Vanna White Lee Love (RSICSS): I hear you are finally as old as your bra size.

LuLu (E/J's): I hear you had to renew your drivers license last week. I wonder if they are still chiseled out of stone like your last one.

Twister (BRB): I hear you love men with badges. Honey, even the dog catcher wears one. Woof!

Crystal Rae Lee Love (RSICSS): It is all about that "walk" of yours. And I hear your new nick name is "Witchie-Poo."

Marlene (Chances): And I quote: "I'm sweating like a whore in church."

Donna (hangs at the Outpost): So you don't know what happens if you fart while wearing a butt plug?

Vera (BRB): It is true you have hickies on your thighs, or are they really age spots?

Alan (Crossroads): So you want to be like Barbie? You do know that she can't hold down a job (she has been a teacher, airline stewardess and beach bum), she has up to eight wedding dresses and has never been married, and her boyfriend Ken is not "fully equipped." (I wouldn't marry him either.)

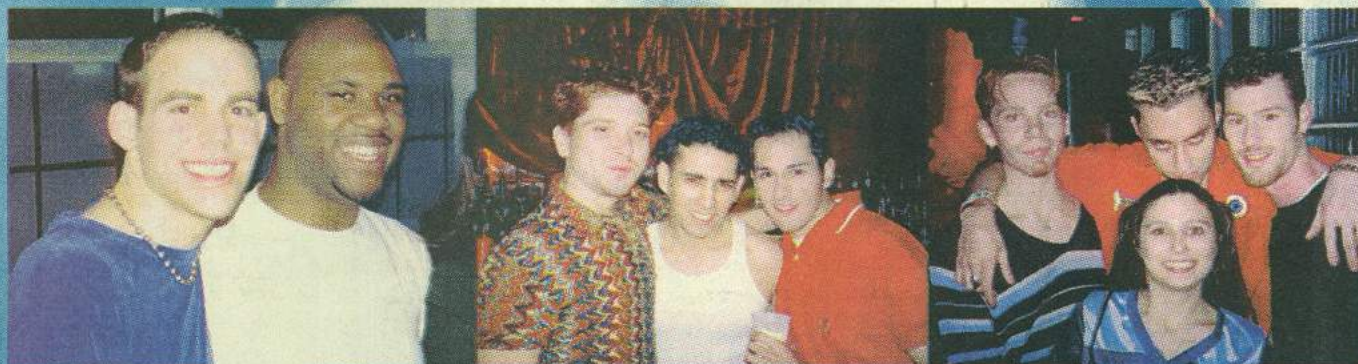

Many thanks to all the phone calls, e-mails and such about our new magazine. Keep it up by emailing all of your news about Houston nitelife to: cuervolyn@eclipsemag.NET.

Your voice does count. For the first time, residents in metro Houston can vote for our 1999 Pride Parade Grand Marshals. Stop in at the Gay and Lesbian Community Center, 403 Hawthorne, on Feb. 20 and cast your ballot. The announcement of winners will be at Riva's Restaurant on March 23. Pride starts June 11; the parade is set for June 26.

So, what's the deal over at QT's? As of press time, the doors to this longtime bar are closed. According to one sober source, the establishment will be closed for several months. Hasn't this happened before?

The Lazy J has changed ownership. The new owner is Michael G., as in the Outpost. According to an insider, he has big plans to clean it up, do some much-needed remodeling and get a cash register that is not fashioned like an abacus. (The current one is older than I am.) Good luck to Michael and his gang on revitalizing the Lazy J.

Now here's a bit of dirt and trash, with a touch of lies.

John (hangs at the BRB): I need to inform you that jump rope is not a school sport.

Yolanda (Rich's): I hear you have been dining out, Russian style.

Chris (hangs everywhere in Montrose): Crabs?

Ed M. (E/J's): I hear "thank-you" has been your favorite phrase lately.

LuLu (E/J's): I hear you now have your driver's license. I'm not walking on the sidewalks in Montrose again.

Hazel (hangs at Rich's): What bugs you the most?

Ken C. (Basic Brothers): I hear you like Nick, not only because he is hot, but he also works for an airline. I'm sure that Jim has nothing to worry about.

Ron D. (Ripcord): You caught me off guard when you answered the phone "Super Stud speaking."

Mary Todd: What does it feel like when you drop a three-pound frozen pizza on your toe?

Fred W. (Houston Buyer's Club): You sure look cute in a pink poodle skirt.

Woody (hangs at the BRB): which one of the workers at the BRB are you trying to date? And is that with or without your teeth?

Pass along your best dirt to cuervolyn@eclipsemag.net

LUEY

Legendary event draws big crowds to Houston

Up to 700 people are expected for Houston's Let Us Entertain You, a weekend of cocktail parties and meals for a cross-section of the leather and Levi community that begins Feb. 19.

The event, now celebrating its 26th year, started with about 30 or 40 people getting together for post-Mardi Gras parties as they traveled through Houston on their return home from New Orleans.

But now it's grown to include events at seven Houston bars. The event drew nearly 800 party-goers from 23 states and five foreign countries last year.

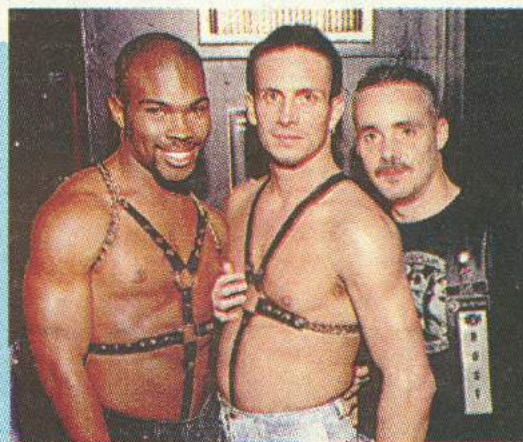

LUEY weekend builds up to a show on Feb. 21 that includes production numbers that provide a humorous end to three days of heavy partying, said Creath Robinson, chairman of the Houston Council of Clubs, a consortium of seven groups that organize the event.

"Some of (the skits) are absolutely hilarious; some of them you can't wait until they get off the stage," Robinson said. "You never know what to expect."

There's also the tradition of pinning, in which the organizing clubs hand out their logos or insignias to visitors in a most intimate manner, which helps gauge the size of certain body parts, he said.

For timid LUEY-goers, the pins are just handed out, he said, but that's a "cop out." "There will be a lot of pinning going on," Robinson said.

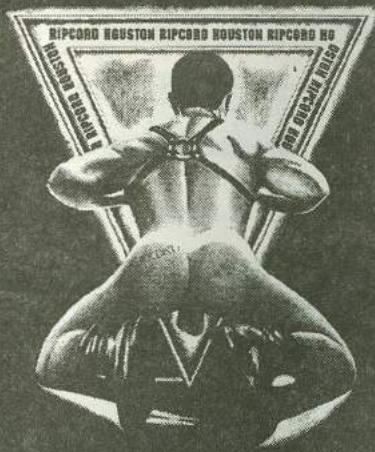

The event begins Feb. 19 at 8 p.m. at Nighthawks, with food provided by the bar and with cocktails from National Leather Association: Houston, Houston Area Bears and Bayou City Leather Alliance. The last round of drinks begins at midnight.

Friday night festivities usually attract an overflow crowd to Nighthawks, 2923 Main, Robinson said. "It is so packed that you can hardly move in there," he said.

Events pick up at 10:30 a.m. on Feb. 20 with breakfast,

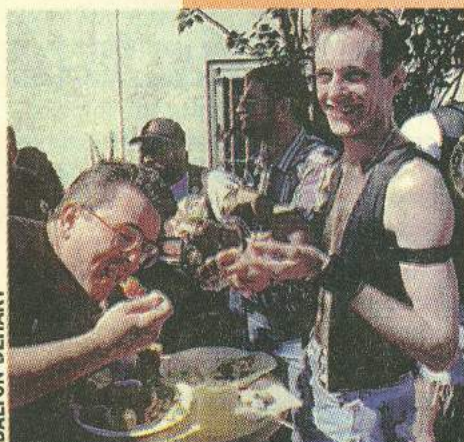

Bloody Mary's and cocktails at Mary's, 1022 Westheimer. Four groups—Sundance Cattle Co., Lancers MC, PWA Charities and Wolfpack—help pour the rounds until 1:30 p.m.

"After Friday, you are ready for that breakfast at Mary's and that Bloody Mary. There will be many red eyes," Robinson said.

At 2:30 p.m., the party shifts to E/J's, 2517 Ralph. Cocktails are provided by Knights d'Orleans and H.A.B. At 7 p.m., LUEYgoers move to Brazos River Bottom, 2400 Brazos, for a meal and drinks provided by Texas Renegades, Colt 45s and Rainbow Ranglers.

Texas Leather & Lace provides rounds at 10:30 p.m. when action moves to Pacific Street, 710 Pacific Street. At 11:30 p.m., it's the Ripcord, 715 Fairview, and cocktails from Misfits, Brotherhood of Pain and Warrior Wolves.

On Feb. 21, LUEY opens its final day with a meal at noon, cocktails by Bears on the Bayou and the show at 1 p.m. at Rich's, 2401 San Jacinto. LUEY is free for out-of towners; $15 for others. For more information, call 713-522-0000, or www.warhawk.com/luey or txriderboy@aol.com.

house in London, and George spent the bulk of the evening chatting up a very cute American. Kenny disappeared, and by the time George got home, Kenny had left. And where did little Ken go? To the home of his good friend GERI HALLIWELL (a.k.a. Ginger Spice). And you thought you had problems.

Ginger Spice (second from right) comforted George Michael's beau after "incident."

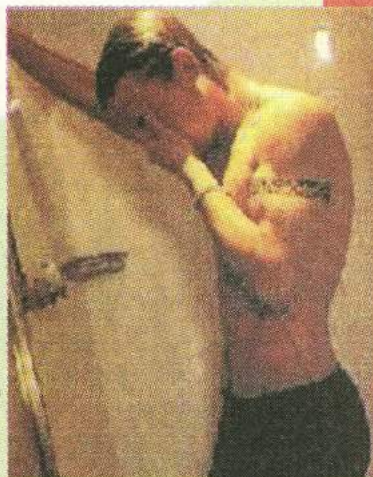

This leads perfectly to my next item. Seems that the BBC was doing a documentary about teen prostitution and had undercover cameras filming the rent boys negotiating with prospective clients. It's now come out that the "clients" were actually members of the production crew and the negotiations were all scripted. Next thing you know, they'll tell me that the Jerry Springer Show is all a fake.

Young cute Brits always lead me to my own personal favorite, ADAM RICKITT (who could make a fortune on the streets). Adam, heart-throb on the hit sudster "Coronation Street," is leaving the show this spring to embark on a singing career.

His manager is NIGEL MARTIN-SMITH, the man who basically created "Take That."

I'm told Adam is in the recording studio as we speak. I also hear that the results have been disastrous. But Nigel doesn't care—he feels that with Adam's looks, popularity and willingness to show off his amazing body, they can make his voice passable. Please don't leave the soap too soon—currently his character is working as a nude model.

Could it be that JOAN COLLINS finally has the upper hand on ELIZABETH TAYLOR? Joan and Velvet's rivalry goes back several decades, when they were often pitted against each other for the same parts. Most prominent was when Joan was virtually given the role of Cleopatra (and even did some preliminary shooting) until Elizabeth snagged it for the then unheard-of fee of $1 million dollars. When Elizabeth took gravely ill with pneumonia during shooting, Joanie was once again told that the part would soon be hers. As we all know, that never happened, and Elizabeth made what is considered one of the worst (and most costly) films in history.

Need help washing that back, Adam?

Fast forward to present day. It's been announced that Joan has won the plum role of Pearl Slaghoope, Wilma's mother, in the prequel to the hit film "The Flintstones"—the very part Lizzie played in the 1994 film. Look for an entirely new cast, including MARK ADDY (from "The Full Monty"), STEPHEN BALDWIN, KRISTEN JOHNSTON and JANE KRAKOWSKI. While I'm delighted by this news

Sexy Baldwin boy Stephen in
"Flintstones" prequel.

(and I'm sure when Elizabeth regains consciousness, she'll get to read all about it from her oxygen tent), this entire project has all the makings of direct to video.

Could it be that one of the small (and big) screen's funniest ladies has a penchant for gay men? For heaven's sake, she married one. Although I believe that they are still legally married, that hasn't stopped her; she is constantly in the company of gay men (then again, so is he). Lately, she's been telling everyone that she's in love. Hollywood was very happy for her until they realized who her high-powered beau is. Poor thing—she's always the last to know (that's how she became this blind item).

When a straight woman is romantically linked with more gay men than I am, we've definitely come to the end of yet another column. Truth be told, I'm a bit distracted—just mentioning Rickitt makes me want to look at pics of him (you've gotta love a beautiful guy who enjoys posing naked). If you want to see Adam in the buff (and I can vouch for the fact that he's mighty buff), head on over to my web site at www.filth2go.com and you'll see all that and then some.

Got some gossip of your own? Then drop a note to Billy@filth2go.com, and I'll get back to you before Mariah records "Funny Girl." Until next time, remember, one man's filth is another man's bible.

Listen up, babies! There's lots of trash and gossip to spew this week, but we have to do it quietly. We're still recovering from the fab Let Us Entertain You Weekend (LUEY). All those pinnings (and Bloody Mary's) made us a little sore.

Congrats to the lovely and talented Kara Dion, who was crowned Miss Rich's '99 on Feb. 14.

Miss Glory (formerly known as Miss Glory Hole—I guess she lost her "hole"—held a fund-raiser at the BriarPatch on Feb. 14. More than $1,600 was raised to be donated to Stone Soup. You go, girl. Speaking of the BriarPatch, a new service bar was added in the back to assist in getting your Texas-sized martini faster. The bigger the better is the motto at the BP.

Feb. 13 was "National Dar Day." Darlene, owner of Decades, had a little mishap between her, the floor and a barstool. The barstool won, and all she got was a black eye. Jeff, her manager, brought in stage make-up so everyone in the bar had a black eye for her birthday party—too funny. Darlene had spent hours putting on her war paint to cover the black eye, and you could not see her damage.

Most of the party-goers looked like they had just been in a fight. One party pal, Tom Sawyer (of the Montrose Inn) had to run over to the Inn to check in some guests. Forgetting that he had a "black eye," when he opened the door to the out-of-towners, they took one look at him and questioned whether it was a safe place to stay. That's when Tom remembered that he still had his black eye. Where was my camera when I needed it?

Sundays at JR's start off with well vodka juice drinks at noon for 99 cents. By 6 p.m., the SRO Karaoke starts, and the evening is topped off by the super Sunday strip show emceed by Kofi and Lindsay Love—a full day of events on Sundays at JR's.

Night in Black Leather 1999 is March 5-6. This not-to-be-missed fund-raiser will be at Nighthawks. Don Gill and his list of stars will entertain you like never before. Do any of you remember last year's fantasy with Larry Arbo and popcorn, or Ken Claude and his "Love Boat?" I do, and this year's entertainment is supposed to surpass that—not an easy task. Good luck to Don and all the artists that donate their talent for this worthy cause.

With the weather so delightful, the patio of Mary's can hold capacity crowds. Sundays usually feature guest bartenders with 50-cent draft beer, $1.50 longnecks and $1.75 well drinks for most of the day and into the early evening.

Now time for some dirt. It's a mix of lies, blended with some gossip and some half-truths. Best of all, it's cheaper even than a drink at Mary's.

Jon W. (hangs at the Outpost): I hear you do a mean three-step with your cane.

Ken (hangs at Decades): And I quote: "He is built for comfort, not speed."

Lauren Taylor: Honey, did you break a nail when you fell off the wagon?

Kale (River Oaks Chrysler): And I quote: "It is not your lips TR is worried about, it is your gums."

Hedda Holiday: Did you really "cut your teeth" on the curtains of the Holiday Inn?

Twister (BRB): Want to borrow a pillow?

Jim W. (I love my wine): With all the construction at your house, I hear the contractor gave you a pink hard hat so you could do your "inspections" in style.

Sandy (Decades): Did you see the inside of a "national" monument this past Saturday?

John (formerly of Basic Brothers): How is your connection? Is it confidential?

Lady Lee: Is it true you are called "basketball butt" because you dribble?

David C. (BRB): Vera wants to know if you want her to come in early to move your fruit.

George (JR's): You looked "too sexy" in your sweats. MudBug and Jim (hangs at the BriarPatch): Thanks for the email. It was way cute. Let's do lunch soon.

Mary (Mary's): Have you been seeing some of your "old" customers again?

Susan (Chances): Pictures, I want pictures.

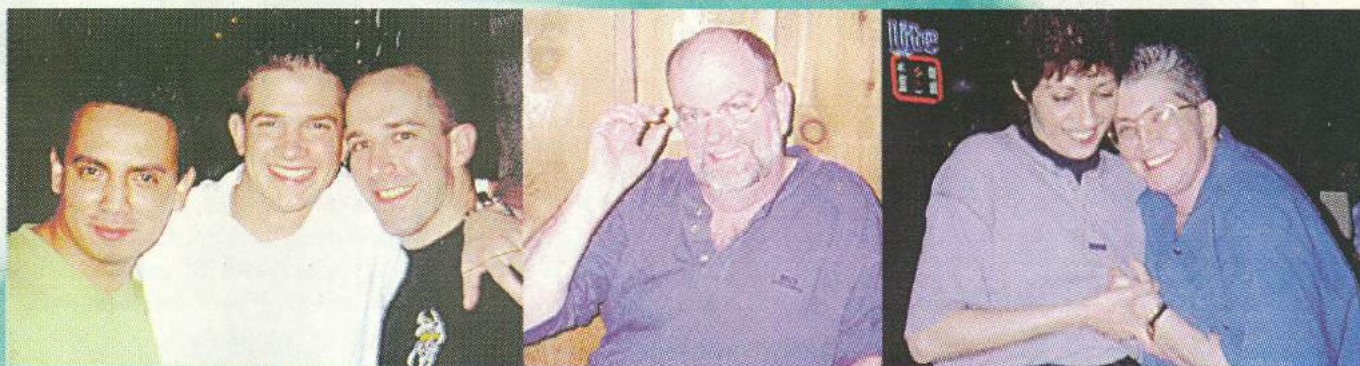

Keep up the trashy tips by emailing all of your news about Houston nitelife to cuervolyn@eclipsemag.net.

Listen up, babies! The fabulous Let Us Entertain You Weekend (LUEY) was a grand success. A record 798 people registered for the three days of partying, which started Feb. 19 with a packed house at Nighthawks.

Party-goers came from 24 states and six foreign countries to take part in Houston's annual post-Mardi Gras celebration. Some $500 in tips were collected from the Sunday finale at Rich's. Hundreds of people brought LUEY to a rowdy close.

*She scores!

Night in Black Leather '99 kicks off March 5 at Nighthawks. This is a two-day fundraising event not to be missed. Good luck to Don Gill and his all-volunteer entertainment.

Thursday at Club Picasso heats up with DJ Cosmic Cat and sweetened up by the mouthwatering M. Pussycat. And for dessert, they have prepared a special night of whipped creme, fresh fruit and sexual deviance. This is for a mature audience of 18 and up with a $7 cover for 18-21: $5 for 21 and over. Meow, meow, kitty.

On Feb. 13, Imperial Prince Royale Brian Martin and Imperial Princess Royale Felicia Flesheater hosted an absolutely fabulous event at Chances. Crowned Male Sweetheart of the Triangle was Neil (or Kneel to his friends) and female Sweetheart of the Triangle Renee Rodgers. This fundraiser brought the total to nearly $2,000 for the IPR's beneficiary—The Colt 45s.

The Montrose Mine opens at 1 p.m. on Saturdays with $1.50 domestic longnecks and $2.50 well drinks until 10 p.m. Spend a Saturday afternoon on their patio watching the street traffic go by. Sundays are even better with $1 all well vodka cocktails, $2 domestic longnecks and $2.25 well drinks all day and all night long. The men, the music, the Mine.

Sonoma serves up mouth watering dinners Wednesday through Sunday nights. Check out this new gay-owned restaurant with Cigar Bar at 1415 California.

Now here's a bit of dirt and trash, with a touch of lies.

Brian (NLA:H): Is the taste of the weekend even better when you're on your knees with a mouthful of LUEY?

Dennis (NLA:H): How hard is the deck of the patio at the Ripcord? But, with that many Cuervos under your belt, you probably didn't feel a thing.

Louis (Picasso): Honey, when you call the "escorts" in the back of the magazine, be sure to enter your own phone number in their pagers. No wonder none of them called you back. But I hear your partner's phone rang all night long.

Vanna White Lee Love: I hear you were "spraying" on the patio at Mary's on Sunday afternoon.

Sundance Cattle Company (all of you): So just because Sundance has the word "dance" in it, that doesn't automatically mean that you cows can dance. Who was your instructor? Elsie? Carmen Moo-randa?

Steve Nally (TWT): Stop the presses! You drinking at Mary's on a Sunday afternoon?

Luther (the boy): I see your "little dick" made the LUEY run. I saw it everywhere.

Michael (retired NLA:H): Yes, I know you want a boyfriend. Someone with some brains and a sense of humor. Keep looking. The right one is out there for you.

Buffy (Wolf Pack): Plumbing problem?

Jerry (BCLA): It is all about those white ankle socks and loafers.

LuLu (E/J's): I heard you received a standing ovation upon entering Guava Lamp. Was it because they were happy to see you, or the fact that you did not run over anyone in the drive over?

The Misfits (All of you): Some of you are going to turn out as handsome elderly gentlemen, and well, some of you aren't.

Jeffrey W. (HAB): I see you're going through men faster than underwear. Is this why you don't bother wearing any?

Jim (Nighthawks): I would like to give you some advice. It is true that KY and WD40 are both lubricants, but they are not interchangeable.

Rainbo de Klown: Congrats on taking second place in the Bourbon Street Awards in NOLA. Only you would dress up like Mickey in a Martini glass.

Pass along your best dirt to cuervolyn@eclipsemag.net.

Who's a pretty boy then?

150 years of photographs and other mementos from gay ole England

by j.s. hall

WHO'S A PRETTY BOY THEN?

WHO'S A PRETTY BOY THEN?

Every picture tells a story: Legendary British playwright Oscar Wilde (inset) gave the nudie postcard (above) to Robbie Ross, who gave it to Duncan Grant, who gave it to Simon Watney, who gave it to James Gardiner's lover, which is how it ended up in Gardiner's collection.

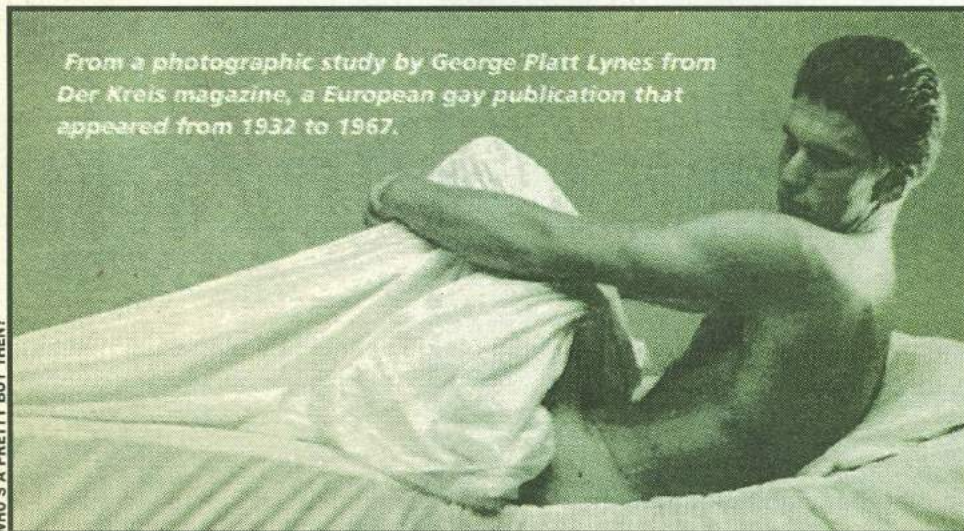

Every now and again, you witness something that makes you realize how a cliché came into being—in this case, "A picture is worth a thousand words."

Volumes could be (and indeed have been) written about gay life in England's past, the difficulties and triumphs of the brave souls who challenged rigid social order, but nothing quite captures the vivaciousness and spirit of the moment like a photograph of a nude young man, a one-time gift from Oscar Wilde—now part of the collector James Gardiner's personal stash.

Not unlike the recent book "Affectionate Men," "Who's a Pretty Boy Then?" explores that strange affinity that gay men have had through the years for cameras and photography. In his preface, Gardiner readily admits the book is based on his "collection of photographs and ephemera, amassed over a 25 year period. ...

"[It] is my own personal and idiosyncratic view of what it has felt like to be a gay man in England," he writes, "from my own lifetime back to the development of commercial photography in the middle of the last century."

From a photographic study by George Platt Lynes from Der Kreis magazine, a European gay publication that appeared from 1932 to 1967.

WHO'S A PRETTY BOY THEN?

Who's a pretty boy then?

The result? "Gay people, their friends, lovers, idols and enemies in all their glory."

Samplings from Gardiner's collection are a diverse lot: photographs, engravings, illustrations, cartes-de-visite, postcards, programs, book covers and newspaper clippings. He includes a surprising number of male nudes, made all the more erotic by virtue of the repressive eras from which they come. While some are clearly English, others came from Berlin, which had quite the flourishing gay subculture until the Nazis came to power.

There is also an unexpected number of portraits of men in drag, gussied up in crinoline and curls. "Just as soon as it became possible to have your portrait taken, in the 1860s," Gardiner quips, "queens were right there in the studios, in their full regalia." Other, far more sedate pictures show gay couples posing for the camera as well.

One of the aforementioned "enemies" is Sir Henry Labouchere, responsible for Section II of the Criminal Law Amendment Act of 1885, which "made all acts of 'gross indecency' between males, whether in public or private, an offence." It was only taken off the books on July 27, 1967 (for consenting adults in private, anyway).

A safe sex AIDS education poster from early '90s Great Britain.

Despite such ominous edicts, gay culture in England and the rest of Europe continued to thrive, usually in subversive ways, as this book attests. Men would be arrested for wearing women's clothes in public, yet gender-benders like "male actress" Julian Eltinge were enormously popular on stage, as was the legendary female impersonator and pantomime dame Douglas Byng, whose career lasted until his retirement at age 90 (he would die four years later, in 1987). And although the military had its share of witch hunts, especially in the 1950s, "lots of the more obvious screamers ran away to sea" in the Merchant Navy, where many donned drag with abandon, all in the name of entertaining the passengers.

Pop culture idols also receive their due, like 19th century singer Marie Lloyd; classic divas like Marlene Dietrich, Tallulah Bankhead, Mae West and Judy Garland; to the more contemporary icons of Divine, John Inman, Tim Curry's Frank N. Furter, now-disbanded boy band Take That, and even the late Diana, Princess of Wales.

For the '80s and '90s, "Who's a Pretty Boy Then?" shows how British gays have transformed from a timid segment of society to a vocally demonstrative lot, protesting homophobia and indifference to AIDS, lobbying to get the age of consent for gay male sex lowered to 16 (the line for the hets), and protesting former Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher's repressive Clause 28, which prohibited any "intentional promotion" of homosexuality.

"Who's a Pretty Boy Then?" is an entertaining and illuminating tour of one individual's unique take on gay life in the United Kingdom over the past 150 years. Anglophiles will definitely enjoy this book, which challenges the notion that the life of a gay person in Great Britain has always been that great. The occasional error crops up—actor Colin Clive was not director James Whale's lover, nor was he gay, for that matter—but overall, the book and its celebratory tone are worth exploring.

Listen up, babies!

Mountains of kudos to Don Gill Productions for Night in Black Leather '99, held here March 5-6 at Nighthawks. More than $14,000 was raised for the Houston Buyers Club, a non-profit agency that provides nutritional supplements to people with HIV/AIDS. The entertainment was superb.

Miss Camp America held their annual Deb-U-Not Ball on March 7 at Club Picasso. A dazzling night of big hair, fund-raising and sequins wowed the crowd. An estimated $20,000 was raised for their charities. For information on the Miss Camp America Ball, call 713-940-STAR.

Mucho fun stuff coming up soon. For the uninformed, Charlie's Coffee Shop—a tradition in Montrose for years—has closed. This gay historical spot had been serving the community for more years than I can remember. Marlene informs us that it will be transformed into In Between, an upscale dance bar. They will have a menu of snacks and hors d' oeuvres. Watch here for more information. Target opening date is early April.

Also in early April, Cowboy's Nightmare will be rockin at Club Extreme. Their last performance attracted a standing-room-only crowd. You can also check out Casey's Karaoke on Friday nights. Check out Club Extreme's web-site for more information.

Local leather daddy Ed Glaser has tossed his leather cap in the ring for Mr. Prime Choice. This contest for men over 40 will be at the Ripcord on April 17 at 9 p.m. Keep in mind Ed and his fellow contestants are scored on how much money is raised for their charities. Your chances to donate are on March 21 at 8 p.m. at the Lazy J, March 28 at 8 p.m. at the BriarPatch, April 2 at 9 p.m. at Nighthawks, April 11 at 3 p.m. at Decades or any time you stop in the Outpost or Lazy J.

Now time for some dirt. It's a mix of lies, blended with some gossip and half-truths.

Randall J. (JR's): I hear you have been hanging around big yellow school buses again. Can't wait for spring break?

Jerry Jones (Mary's): Four donuts in one sitting?

Tamin (E/J's): Now that LuLu has her driver's license, I hear you are next for the test. Does this mean you two will be cruising the back streets of Montrose together?

Overheard at Club Picasso: "Just who the hell is LuLu anyway?"

Reno (JR's): And I quote: "I won't survive with both of them driving."

Ken Mc. (BBHOL): So, you are gonna be one option "up" on Jerry when you add the sunroof to your new car.

Gary (hangs at E/J's): Pumpkin is not peach.

Jayne (hangs with Michelle at E/J's): And I quote: "I know them by the way they feel."

Mouny (new bartender at the Outpost): It is nice to see you behind the bar again.

Jim Roberts (Nighthawks): Did you like the lick line I found especially for you?

Vera (BRB): I see you have a new hair do. Are you using Viagra on the wrong head?

Keith (Outpost): If you could quit smoking, you could have a dinner date with your female fan.

Twister (BRB): Rumor has it that you and Wade (new bartender) have been having "swishing" competition.

Boots (Lazy J): Did you get a chicken bone caught in your throat?

BBQ Joe : Why does Reno (JR's) want to Quiche your ass?

Mario (BRB): It has been a long time since Vera has been outside the loop. Please take her way, way out.

Keep up the trashy tips by emailing all of your news about Houston nitelife to cuervolyn@eclipsemag.net.

Listen up, babies!

Things hopped over the Easter weekend here in Houston. Both the Bayou City Boys Club's Jungle Lust VIII and the Bunnies on the Bayou parties were full of festive party-goers. Thunderstorms did not slow the pace down. Congrats to both groups on fabulous fund-raising.

The benefit for the late Paivi Lee Love held at E/J's on April 3 raised more than $700.

Cowboy's Nightmare rocked the stage of Club Extreme over the Easter weekend. Keep watching the pages of eclipse about the next event at Club Extreme. Keep your calendars open for Splash Weekend at Club Extreme.

Rainbo de Klown won the High-Heel Race held at Mary's on Easter Sunday. I am glad I did not judge the bonnet contest this year. The competition was tough. Rainbo de Klown won the "Most Creative" bonnet. Sean won in the "Biggest" category and Meg won in the "Best Legs" category. More than $500 was raised to be donated to Stone Soup.

Over at Decades, their Easter bonnet contest was won by Dave (formerly of Brick's II). Congrats.

"A Spring Iniquity" National Leather Association: Houston's 8th anniversary run is April 16, 17, and 18. The kick-off is at Nighthawks on April 16 at 9 p.m. The fun starts again on April 17 at Mary's for the Spring Carnival. There will be food, fun, a dunking booth, games and more. In the afternoon, the run runs to the Club Houston for a refreshing swim as well as the terrific amenities that Club Houston has to offer. The Saturday night dinner, catered by Demeris' BBQ, is at the Brazos River Bottom. Sunday features brunch, seating of the new board, awards and the closing ceremonies. If you have never been on a leather "run", this one is an excellent way to loose your virginity. For more information, call Ken C. at 713-524-4759.

"Hugs and More" a tribute to the Colt 45s and their dedication to those with HIV/AIDS is set for April 25 at the Brazos River Bottom. Hosted by the special members of the Colt 45s, this night should prove to be a wonderful night of entertainment. For more information, call Don Gill at 713-521-0911.

Coming April 24 to Club Picasso is the Human Rights Campaign's "Comedy Night." Headlining is the one, the only Georgia Ragsdale as well as a host of others. Keep reading eclipse for more information.

Don't forget to check out the Martini Madness every Monday at the BriarPatch. They are the biggest and best that I've seen. PS, Don't tell Wayne that the bartenders do a "bartender special" on Mondays.

Now, time for some dirt. It's a mix of lies, blended with some gossip and half-truths.

Ken Claude: And I quote: "I'm looking for jail bait."

Alan (Crossroads): I hear that you had an audience in the T-room at the Ripcord.

Keith (New to Houston): Honey, next time you run to Kroger in the High Heel Race, be sure to get all the correct items on your shopping list.

Hazel (hangs at Rich's): Do you think that the U.S. Postal Office might know how to spell "west" correctly.

Miss Alabama (BRB): What a strange diet you have. Grits, chicken soup and toothpaste.

Tommie Sue and David Sawyer (BRB): Did you enjoy your Monday morning cocktails at Mary's?

Barry (Vanna at Decades): Bisexual at the Ripcord? Breast man, no make that breast person! Never mind.

Gary (hangs at Rich's): I hear you spent 18 continuous hours on the chat rooms and still could not find a date.

John R. (hangs at the Paradise): What were you and Dog Lipps doing in the store room?

Dana (hangs at the BRB): And I quote: "I have a thing for watermelons."

Jim C. (Ripcord): How dare you show your breasticles so early in the day.

Everyone knows that I love gossip and rumors, but sometimes I need to squelch a rumor. So will all the gossipy people (you know who you are) please leave Roger and Linda alone. They have settled their differences and remain friends.

Keep up the trashy tips by e-mailing all of your news about Houston nitelife to cuervolyn@eclipsemag.net.

Ken the Fireman at Decades gives "blue-haired ol' lady" a new look.

ABOUT THE COVER:

Novelist Darwin Porter didn't sit down to write a 800-page 'psycho-sexual thriller' about eight hot and horny Southerners with deeeep pockets, but that's exactly what came out. And now he's told eclipse just where all those hot bodies are buried.

GAYWATCH

Blame it on the moon—the eclipse moon, to be exact. The editors of this mag weren't content just to savor the strikingly beautiful, homoerotic imagery in the Abercrombie & Fitch clothes catalog, called the "A&F Quarterly." Noooo, they had to go and publish a cover story a few months back about how funny it is that the marketing folks at A&F don't see anything homosexual about photos of stunning, sexy men groping each other—even though the A&F photographer is Bruce Weber, the openly gay man who made Marky Mark's career and sold quite a few Calvins at the same time.

Very funny. Well, who's laughing now? The Summer '99 edition of "A&F Quarterly" just arrived by mail, and either A&F put Mr. Weber through ex-gay therapy or someone in marketing got real concerned about how hyped the queers were getting over the company catalog. The guys in the new catalog, called "Summer Dreams," are still unbelievably hot, and they even manage to get close to each other, but only with female companionship very close at hand. And the number of erotic, heterosexual images has easily quadrupled from the Spring '99 catalog featured in that fateful eclipse cover story. In fact, after poring over the catalog, "gaywatch" guy could find only one series of provocative "action shots" (below) that slipped past the het censors.

Thanks a lot; eclipse. Next thing you know, they'll blow the lid off of men's fitness magazines...

Editor's note: Umm... "gaywatch" guy might want to skip next week's edition of eclipse magazine...

Listen up babies!

On April 17, the Mr., Miss, and Ms. Chances contest was held. Congratulations to winners Miss Chances Stella Link Seville, Mr. Chances Larry Sprigs, and Ms. Chances Debbie (aka Dusty Sellers). More than $960 was raised at this contest to benefit the Colt 45s.

The Brazos River Bottom was the hot spot April 23 for entertainment. "Hugs and More," a benefit show for the Colt 45s' Trouble Fund raised $3,800. A "virgin" entertainer named Heaven Leigh Rae took the stage for a stellar performance.

The new Mr. Unchained Leather is Kim of BlackHawk Leather. This annual contest held in San Antonio has been won by Houstonians for the past five years. Way to go, Kim. I think this is his first sash.

We have the "Daddy" of Montrose, the Miss, Ms. and Mr. Montrose contest, and now we have the "Boy" of Montrose. Mary's, naturally is the place for this new event to be held on July 4. More info will be available at a later date.

Grhurr. Growl, Pant. Pant. "I need another drink." Lick. "I love fur." Chomp. Yum, yum! These are the sounds I heard while visiting the Bears on the Bayou run April 23. The hallways of that Holiday Inn will never be the same. You see, they had some scheduling problems and the "hospitality" suites were not next to each other. The bears roamed, crawled, and pawed their way up and down the hall.

Crystal Rae Lee Love knows where to do her 'banking.'

It is candidacy time again for the Texas Gay Rodeo Association. Candidate for Miss TGRA 2000 Tiffany Edwards and Ms. TGRA candidate 2000 Stacey Greummer are on the stage of the Lazy J on May 15 at 9 p.m. in a benefit show entitled "Cock-Tail." The monies raised will benefit the PWA Holiday Charities.

The Human Right Campaign's "Comedy Tour for Equality" show was at Club Picasso April 24. The SRO crowd laughed till they cried.

Pull out your crockpots. The Texas Renegades will be hosting a Chili Cook-off at Mary's, on May 30 at 2 p.m. There will be prizes for the best entries. See 'ya there, I may be entering my vegetarian chili.

Now time to talk trash. It's a mix of lies, gossip and a hint of truth.

Cecil (BRB): And I quote: "I wish I had more than a dog sleeping with me."

David G. (formerly Nighthawks): Did you keep any souvenirs from the Bears on the Bayou run? If so, did it require a trip to the pharmacy?

Dennis W (NLA:H): Wow, you were lucky. The gossip I typed in last week's issue of eclipse about you was too juicy for even these pages and my editor "red lined" your blurb. In the margin he wrote "C, I can't believe you typed this. What would your mother say if she knew you wrote such trash?" All I can say is it contained the words "Steam room, buffet, knee pads, and slippery." Get the picture?

Darin (hangs anywhere): Last Friday your photo appeared in eclipse and in the mug books at Hotel Reisner. You are certainly getting around.

Rickydon (hangs at Brick's II): Good luck at your new job. It is nice to see you working.

Groovy (hangs at Paradise): Gymnastics in the bar? Shouldn't you wear a helmet?

Kathy (hangs at Brick's II): Kelly wants to know why you were kissing a drag queen on Saturday night. You couldn't find Jan?

Animal (BRB): Something funny? And do you run a Tab or drink a Tab? And when is your first drag performance? We have already seen your entrance.

Ken L. (Pacific Street): Thanks for dinner. And how was your weekend at the Betty Ford?

Stephen (BRB): Woody tells me he still loves you, even if you did not buy him a shot.

BBQ Joe (hangs at E/J's): Your BBQ sandwiches look pretty tasty.

Larry Joe (E/J's): Where are you? I have missed you the past three Fridays.

Jerry Jones (Mary's): Why were you seen coming out if the liquor store on Fairview? You don't smoke or drink? What, was your trick too young to buy booze or smokes for himself?

Bobby (New owner at Nighthawks): Welcome to the Montrose. Good luck with your new endeavors.

Woody (BRB) I hear that Oscar wants your body. But for what?

Bam-Bam (Pacific Street): Cute photo of you in last week's eclipse. Has it improved your love life?

Darlene (Decades): I hear you can smile at both ends, both vertical and horizontal.

Mario (BRB): Is it true that you are making Vera (BRB) do manual labor?

Brian K. (NLA:H): How did you get your glasses so scratched up? Was it the buttons on the 501 are a zipper on a pair of Wranglers?

Keep sending in your trashy tidbits to cuerverolyn@eclipse.net.

Listen up, babies!

The countdown continues to Pride Week. As of this publication date, there are only 22 shopping days until the parade.

Calendar time. Mark your calendars for the Mr. Fantasy Houston contest. This first of its kind contest will be on June 19 at the Ripcord. This contest is produced by CS Productions and is a preliminary to Mr. Fantasy Texas. For more information, call 713-524-4759.

Thursdays are delicious at Club Picasso. Join M. Pussycat and DJ Cosmic Cat for their "Lush" Thursday nights. Those 18 and up are welcome.

Wigs on Fire! The Inferno! Burning wigs are smoldering now in preparation for the June inferno. This not to be out-wigged party is at Rich's on Saturday, June 19, starting at 7 p.m. Tickets are available at Basic Brothers, Lobo, or charge by phone at 713-940-STAR.

Now, it is time to talk trash. It is a mix of gossip, blended with half-truths and some out-and-out bold face lies.

Keith (Outpost): I hear you were impersonating "me" at the Outpost anniversary party. But, did you take your impersonating seriously and drink that tasty nectar of the gods, José Cuervo?

Amanda B. Recondwith: Sounds like you liked your bumpy trip to Astroworld.

Nancy (Bite Me) Ford: I really liked your "ambush" idea. Next time, we will have to carpool.

King and Queen of the Krewe of Olympus

Damion (Club Houston): It was really nice to meet your mom and step-dad. No wonder you turned out so good. Love ya, honey.

Robert (Venture-N): I'm was sooooo sorry to hear that your customers robbed you of all your clothes except your underwear. I heard you hung on to them so tight that they had to cut them off of you.

Stan (Boot Black extraordinaire): I love the new intimate look of your bootblack stand upstairs at the Venture-N. It is quite cozy.

Steve (Pacific Street): When does a girl become a man? Is it when you pick "her," up and then you find "him," naked in your bed?

Kim (Blackhawk Leather): I hear that when officer Barry called, you were "tied up" and could not come to the phone.

Donna (hangs at the Outpost): I hear you have been fishing for "Trouser Trout."

Steve (hangs at Decades): And I quote: "I need meat."

Ken C. (NLA:H): And I quote: "The sweat looks good."

Buzz (Paradise): And I quote: "I give a smooth ride, no bumps."

Alan (Crossroads): You give good cheesecake.

Jessica Grabbit (Houston Area Bears): I hear that during one of your numbers your high kick sent medics looking for a truss.

Jim S. (NLA:H): I hear you have a new workout partner. And where have you been keeping that one hidden? I hear he is quite the hunk.

Richard (Houston Voice): How long did you play on the patio of Nighthawks? And with whom?

Brian K. (NLA:H): Is it true that the "scratched" glasses are now the "lost and I can't remember which T-room I left them at," glasses?

Mitsy (bartender aka Michael): Is the latest gossip about you true? Call me!

Reno (JR's): Sorry I missed you last Friday. Maybe next week. I have something for you.

Weed Woman: You are sick, sick, and very twisted. Gotta love it!

Marlene (Chances): We all took a vote. You need a day off.

Kip (Guava Lamp): I saw your cartoon show this morning. It is called "Kipper."

Keith (Outpost): How was your Mexican food last Thursday? I hear it was quite the "Fiesta," jalapenos and all.

Mike (Queen Bitch with a syringe who hangs at the Outpost): And I quote: "Thank God I outgrew my accent." Honey, we won't step on your blue suede shoes.

Darlene (Decades): And I quote: "I would let it go out, but someone keeps eating it."

Keep sending in your trashy tidbits to cuervolyn@eclipsemag.net.

Listen up, babies!

As of this publication date, we have 15 days until the PRIDE PARADE! Start your plans now.

There are a zillion "official" Pride functions from June 18 thru June 27. One of the more fiery events is MISS CAMP AMERICA'S WIGS ON FIRE party. This Inferno will be at RICH'S on June 19. The secret guest star is none other than BONNIE POINTER. Get your advance tickets at Basic Brothers and Lobo. I'm on fire!

Here is something new. This month (and every June from now on) three people of our community will be inducted into the MONTROSE HALL OF FAME. The new honorees will have their names on plaques on one of the walls of the new disco, N-BETWEEN. The first names will be displayed starting June 5. Stop in and check it out.

The official announcement heralding the BRAZOS RIVER BOTTOM'S 16th annual DENIM PARTY was released this week. Mark your calendars for July 25, 1999. If you would like info on being a sponsor, call 713-528-9192.

The new MR. GAY PRIDE is MELISSA FLOREZ, MS. GAY PRIDE is LISA (of Chances) and MISS GAY PRIDE is HEAVEN LEIGH RAE. Don't forget to share the pride.

Now, it is time to take out the trash. It's a mix of lies, with gossip and a pinch of half truths.

Bernadette (Miss Camp America): Is it true your new ball is purple? I hope you "strike out" with it.

Pearl (hangs at the BRB): I have a message for you: "I'll dance with you and it won't cost $250." Love, Vera.

Meg (Mary's): The way you are talking, it sounds like you and your roommate are going through a bitter divorce.

To the BRB management: One bar's trash is another's bar's centerpiece. Oink! Oink!

Darlene (Decades): How tall is seven inches?

T.R. (hangs everywhere): Is it true that you forgot to run for Mother of Montrose? Maybe you could run for Boy of Montrose instead.

Sandy (Hangs at Decades): Why does Jeff keep wiping off your face every Thursday?
Keith (Lazy J): Rumor has it that Mario is now working for the Lazy J. Miss Vera (BRB) is really going to keep an eye on you!

Jerry S. (Hangs at Decades): Is it true that Darlene had to teach you how to tie your shoes. And they say that you can't teach an old dog new tricks.

Lady B: Congrats on your new promotion. And you thought all that "extra" room service you were giving the boss would not pan out.

Steve (Decades): I know a secret about you that I can't print. And keep up the good work, you look great.

Bam Bam (formerly PS now Venture-N): Good luck at your new station.

Ken (Pacific Street): Is it true you were on an eight-day drunk! What a vacation. Do you remember any of it?

Larry Joe (hangs at E/J's): So you found the perfect nail polish for me. It is called "Blue Sin." And everybody thought that you had a fingernail fetish, when you were really polish searching for me.

Vera (BRB): Lulu sez if you come to E/J's to be "serviced," bring your own baby food.

Ed G. (Outpost and Lazy J): Do you have a special cut now that you are Mr. Prime Choice?

Darlene (Decades): Why does Sandy say she is "numb back there?"

Cecil (DJ-BRB): What day are you NOT Nelly?

Kale (ROCP): Is it true that you are trying to find another puppy that will lick your chicken?

This is my first column since I went to see Grandma for her 101 birthday. She is amazing. My family is planning her 102nd already. Thanks for all the trash tidbits while I was away, but I can always use more. Remember there is no line between the truth and talking trash in my point of view.

Send your trashy tidbits to cuervolyn@eclipse.net or fax @ 713-529-9531.
