Venus, the planet of love, moves and mashes volcanic Pluto. Dreams of fame wind up on the cutting room floor or in the National Enquirer. Wish upon a star, but be careful of what you wish as Melodious can turn malodorous the morning after.

ARIES (MARCH 21 - APRIL 20)

Expect the unexpected in any travel plans when Venus changes signs and pokes Pluto. Reconfirm reservations and travel with carry-ons. Even then, things go astray. But if you travel with a friend, you will never be without a toothbrush.

TAURUS (APRIL 21 - MAY 21)

Want to see how quickly a hunk transforms into a troll? Wait until lusty Venus slides into Pluto. Choose well lit bars so you see who cruises by. You want to welcome 2003 in with a bang, but do it with a torpedo and not a wet firecracker.

GEMINI (MAY 22 - JUNE 21)

Some of you may wonder if you are getting as much as you are giving. Let the dander settle a bit before you let the fur fly. The rest take a trip to the moon on gossamer wings, but surly Pluto and Venus makes it just one of the two.

CANCER (JUNE 22 - JULY 23)

The temptation is to go overboard when delightful Venus moves and sparks Pluto. The pull of the extreme will lead you close to the edge, even at work. You ache to take unnecessary risks, but streaking through the office should not be one of them.

LEO (JULY 24 - AUG. 23)

You must temper your intake of addictive additives this week when Venus and Pluto shift the landscape. But for those romantic souls who wear their hearts on their sleeves, this transit provides an appreciative receiver — but he might not call you afterward.

VIRGO (AUG. 24 - SEPT. 23)

You are anxious to mend bridges with family as the Venus / Pluto conjunction manifests. Wait until February before you pass out olive branches and release the doves. Your dreams and desires outweigh your sense of timing, so make your grand debut next month.

LIBRA (SEPT. 24 - OCT. 23)

Folks hang on your every word when delicious Venus shifts and conjuncts persuasive Pluto. Don't waste your planetary gift on mere gab. This verbal jolt will soon pass, and you'll be back to soft banter and muzac.

SCORPIO (OCT. 24 - NOV. 22)

The urge is to spend, spend, spend but save, save, save instead. Even risky investments are a no-no now. You should make like a bear: hibernate and wait for this transit to clear before passing the cash. Examine the bottom line in four weeks.

SAGITTARIUS (NOV. 23 - DEC. 22)

Venus conjuncts Pluto in your own sign sending you into fits of panic. So many opportunities appear on your plate, you don't know which one to bite first. Soon you can discern treasure from trash and kings from paupers.

CAPRICORN (DEC. 23 - JAN. 20)

Get involved in good gay charities, but be sure that your efforts are put towards the greatest effect. Problems with this transit are wasted effort, false starts and lack of impact. By the end of the month though, you're a force to be reckoned with.

AQUARIUS (JAN. 21 - FEB. 19)

Don't count on friends to be there when you need 'em. The best that you can expect is a jolly time with plenty of grog to fog your memory. Pals are apt to leave you slumped in your messy, groggy pile as they head off to the next sordid adventure.

PISCES (FEB. 20 - MARCH 20)

You impressed your boss, but not in the way you think. Thankfully this situation is transitory. Pick yourself up off the bottom rung, dust yourself off and try kissing up the ladder again next month.

"Honey, yellow is NOT your color."

Turning yellow isn't the only thing hepatitis can do to you.
You may get really sick and miss a lot of work (not to mention no booze for 6 months).

Hep B can cause cancer, liver disease and even death.

But the good news is you can prevent hep A and B by getting vaccinated.

As a sexually active gay/bisexual man, you could be at risk for hepatitis.
Some activities, like tossing salad (rimming) or taking it without a condom, are very risky. Be smart. Get the shots.

For info on hepatitis, and where to get low cost vaccinations, call Montrose Clinic at 713.830-3000.

HOUSTON — Easter is hopping (pun intended) in the Bayou City this year with two traditional fund-raising parties.

On Sunday, April 20, Bunnies on the Bayou Inc. hosts its 2003 Easter Event. The one-day fund-raiser is well known for raucous outdoor dancing, cranked-up disco and the festive Easter-themed garb of those who attend to drum up support for good causes.

A separate organization and event, but also held over Easter, is Jungle 11 Weekend, an annual circuit party powered by the Bayou City Boys Club. Jungle 11 also raises funds for Houston-area HIV and AIDS service and education providers.

Between the two events, Houstonians and visitors are sure to find Easter 2003 a memorable one.

Houston's Bunnies on the Bayou and Bayou City Boys Club both plan big annual events for Easter weekend

Bunnies on the Bayou

This year's Bunnies on the Bayou event on Sunday, April 20, is the culmination of more than two decades of Easter festivities among friends.

According to Bunnies organizers, it was Easter 1979 when a group of friends planned a party, and when it was a big success, decided to make the event an annual fest. Bunnies on the Bayou began to grow. In the mid 1980s, AIDS was taking a toll on gay Houstonians, and a bag of food was charged as admission to assist those in need.

Party attendance grew until a new venue was needed in the early 1990s, so the new outside plaza at the Wortham Theater downtown was chosen, and the group's name also was selected. Since then, tens of thousands of Houstonians and visitors have celebrated Easter with their friends, made new friends and helped raise hundreds of thousands of dollars for area charities.

This year's Bunnies Easter event is at 2 p.m. at the Wortham Center in downtown Houston. Beneficiaries are American Red Cross, Q Patrol, People With AIDS Coalition, H.A.T.C.H. (Houston Area Teen Coalition of Homosexuals), PAWS Houston, Montrose Clinic, The Center for AIDS Hope & Remembrance Project, AssistHers and Colt 45's.

Cost is $25 at the door, or $100 for a VIP pass, which includes VIP entrance, liquor and a VIP restroom area.

"Things are going quite well this year," says Trevan Ross, chair of the contributions committee for Bunnies on the Bayou. "I've been actually quite pleased with the amount of cash we've been able to raise, given the economy. We've received so many requests for funding."

About $50,000 was raised at the party last year, with some 2,200 people in attendance. Ross says he expects about the same amount of money to be raised with the 2003 event.

This party is known as a must-see in Houston, and Ross tries to describe it for those who have not attended.

"Bunnies on the Bayou is probably the best time that you'll ever have," he says. "It's just a large outdoor cocktail party with socialization, fun, friends, outrageous bonnets and a celebration of the community that we have."

Bunnies on the Bayou, Inc. is a non-profit organization dedicated to raising and distributing funds for various charitable, educational, and cultural programs, organizers note. The non-profit groups and programs that benefit seek to improve the quality of life for individuals in the Houston gay community, and to promote education and awareness of individual human rights.

Jungle 11 Weekend

This year's Jungle Weekend, powered by the Bayou City Boys Club Inc., promises to be the biggest and best yet, organizers say.

"We are very excited. The buzz has gotten out there. We really do project our largest crowd ever," says Mike Collins, Jungle Weekend president. "The party has grown for the last five years. The buzz is good. The only uncertainty of course is the war. We're concerned that we may not get as many out-of-towners.

"We're hoping for the best," Collins adds. "Barring something unforeseen, this really really looks to be the best Jungle ever."

Jungle Weekend raised $48,000 last year for Houston-area HIV/AIDS service and education providers. Corporate underwriting alone already shows that the 2003 event will surpass that amount, according to Collins.

"The underwriting and the corporate sponsorship from the Houston business community is what makes this possible, and we're so very grateful," Collins says.

BCBC leaders expect nearly 2,000 people to attend the events this year from April 17-20.

"Steadily over the years, the attendance has grown," Collins says. "We had a little over 1,500 people last year.

Jungle Weekend began in 1993 as an idea among a group of friends, according to Collins.

"They were all turning 30. They decided that they wanted to have a joint birthday party, but that they wanted their friends to make donation to a charity rather than bringing them gifts," says Collins. "That's how it got started."

The weekend kicks off on Thursday evening, April 17, with a free event at Meteor. On Friday night, DJ Roland Balmores returns to his Texas roots with the "Gather the Tribe" event at Rich's Houston, according to Jungle Weekend organizers. The Saturday night main event, "Tribal Heat," will be held in downtown Houston at Verizon Wireless Theater. The party features DJ Monte Q and Circuit Mom.

After Saturday's "Tribal Heat," the party shifts to afterhours at Boaka Bar and Mercury Room for "Tribal Communion" with DJ Dawna Montel. On Sunday night, DJ Barry Harris brings the weekend to a close with "Tribal Lust" at South Beach.

This year, tickets for Jungle 11 Weekend start at $95 for a 3-Day pass, and go up to $125 for a 3-Day Gold pass and $200 for a 3-Day Platinum pass. For the main event only Saturday night, cost is $25 for students with a valid ID, only at the door; $45 general admission in advance, which will be sold up to 5 p.m. the day of the event at Lobo, M2M and JR's; or $55 at the door.

Easter springs forth on the bayou

Photos by Dalton Dehart

HOUSTON — A pair of traditional fund-raising parties will keep gay Houstonians hopping from one event to another this weekend.

Through April 20, Jungle 11 Weekend raises funds for Houston-Area HIV and AIDS service and education providers. Run by the Bayou City Boys Club, Jungle Weekend is an annual circuit party not to be missed in the Bayou City. Activities for Jungle run all weekend.

On Sunday, April 20, Bunnies on the Bayou Inc. hosts its 2003 Easter Event, an annual fund-raiser also for non-profit groups. The Bunnies party takes place in downtown Houston, and colorful Easter bonnets are a must-have for this fest.

our guy of the week

steve sewell

Age: 21

Location: Atlanta

Occupation: Entertainer

What is in your CD player?

A dance remix.

What traits do you look for in a friend?

Trustworthiness and honesty.

What TV show do you hate to miss?

"Queer as Folk."

What do you consider a milestone in your life?

Exposing my inner self to the public.

Would you have sex with Madonna?

Yes, I would top.
