psycho brit

Christian Bale bares his feelings about 'American Psycho,' which is 'full of these hugely reverential shots of Christian naked' and 'completely gratuitous shots of his naked, wet, soapy ass,' according to co-writer Guin Turner.

need wood?

tips for getting timber

by woody miller

Hey Woody!

I love having sex when I'm wet, but sometimes it's hard to convince my partners to part the waters with their legs and let me in. Any tips on submerging their objections?

—Slip-Sliding Away

Dear Slip:

Water is sensuous and relaxing. We're conceived in it, born in it, made up of it. Is there a better sensation than feeling water trickling down your body? I mean, other than Ricky Martin trickling down your body.

Everybody likes water, but not everybody likes to fuck in it. For good reason, too. Like getting a good grip. Also, it's hard to keep lubrication in the cavern, if you know what I mean.

A couple of things you have to be careful of: Hot water damages latex condoms and washes away spermicidal foams, jellies and jams. I mean, creams. Also, bright lights and cold tile are boner-busters. Try scented candles, bath salts, or even fresh flower petals. Don't forget the wine, but be sure to use plastic glasses, otherwise you'll end up breaking glass in the tub. Trust me, you want your trick yelling "Oh, God!" for the right reasons.

You might want to try getting him in the shower with a T-shirt and underwear on. Glenn Wilson, the author of "Creative" Foreplay says it's a great way to put some play in your lay. Is there anything sexier than wet clothing that clings to the outlines of the male body? Well, other than Ricky Martin clinging to the outlines of a male body.

If you do end up fucking him in the tub (I just know I'm going to get letters saying "I thought you could only fuck men in the ass"), make sure he's on top. The buoyancy will give you a nice rhythm.

Hey Woody!

Don't laugh, but I swear my vision blurs when I'm about to have sex. My vision is otherwise okay. Tell me I'm not imagining it. Tell me it's all my boyfriend's fault.

—Eye-Baller

Dear Eye-Baller:

Your boyfriend is responsible for your happiness, not your eyesight. Any good therapist will tell you that. You're probably suffering from something called a "spasm of accommodation." It's usually associated with an eight-inch dick ramming itself into a two-inch hole. But in this case, it's what happens when you change your focus from something far off in the distance to something up close. The shape of the lens in your eye changes and allows your eyes to adjust their focus. Sometimes your eye can spasm involuntarily, making your vision blurry for a few moments. Sexual arousal is a potential cause. It's not very common, but it does happen. There's nothing you can really do for it, and chances are it'll go away on its own. Unlike some of my tricks.

Hey Woody!

I've gone on a date with this guy three times. We mash and do everything but cum because he won't let me (or himself). Something about "Let's wait." It's like dating a girl. But my question is this: My testicles are sore after our sessions. Why?

—Black & Blue-Balled

Dear Black:

You, my friend, are experiencing blue-balls, or technically-speaking, "prostatic congestion." It's caused by a build-up of semen in the prostate and seminal vesicles, the two glands that make up most of the semen your date refuses to unleash.

Willie isn't the only thing released from your crotch during arousal. So are sperm. They're all pressed up with nowhere to shoot. Sperm can literally build up, creating pressure and pain around the testicles.

You've got three options when it happens: Take an aspirin, a warm shower, or do the job yourself after he leaves. Make the backed-up sperm history. Which is what I'd make of your date if he keeps this up.

Need Woody? Call toll free and leave him a confidential voice mail at 877-966-3342, or write woody@eclipsemag.net, or c/o eclipse, 1095 Zonolite Road, Suite 100, Atlanta, GA 30306.

JEFF PALMER

Is there anything sexier than wet clothing that clings to the outlines of the male body? Besides Ricky Martin clinging to the outlines of a male body.

The grounds of the Astro Arena will never be the same after TRANSIT weekend. The venue was transformed into a raging, three dance-floor discothèque on April 8. From 9 p.m. until 9 a.m., thousands of folks flocked into the massive arena to listen to the talents of ARMAND VAN HELDEN, known for his infectious club smashes. He performed live with DJ DMITRY OF DEEE-LITE, KEVIN YOST, ROBBIE HARDKISS and other well-known DJ's and producers. Motivation Productions put up an incredible 200,000-watt Tonka sound system, especially made for the concert tour, as well as an incredible lighting show put on by Cybertech Designs. Tickets sold out quickly, leaving a select few to experience a show that put Houston on the "A-list" of underground promotions.

Years of Experience...

The next event is July 29. UNITED WE DANCE is billed as one of the biggest seen in the region. For a sneak peak, check out www.motivationproductions.com.

THE WESTHEIMER STREET FESTIVAL has found a new home. After a hot debate over permitting, the moving carnival will be transplanted to a city park on Allen Parkway, between I-45 and Taft. The massive event is slated to take place May 6-7, from noon until 7 p.m. on both days. Festival organizer JOHN FLOREZ promises the event will "have the same music, same vendors, and will be good as, if not better than, previous festivals." Previous festivals have drawn up to 300,000 people.

And speaking of festivals, this weekend kicks off gay Houston's Easter parties—JUNGLE LUST and BUNNIES ON THE BAYOU rip open Spring 2000 with a couple of must-do events. Jungle Lust is April 22 at the HOUSTON POLO CLUB. Doors open at 9 p.m., and DJ JOE GAUTHREUX from New Orleans will be your musical host. Tickets are $35 at the door.

Bunnies on the Bayou takes over downtown on April 23 as the troops gather at the WORTHAM CENTER from 2 p.m. until 6 p.m. As in past years, DJ DAN MEADOR will be tempting your feet with a barrage of danceable beats. The after-party for Bunnies continues at RICH'S, where the incomparable MICHAEL TANK kicks in his trademark grooves. Doors open at 7 p.m., and the place promises to be overflowing with Easter "baskets."

Rich's will also host MISS RICH'S AT LARGE on April 30, starting at 11 p.m. This event promises to be as hilarious as past years, and the list of performers will keep your stomach muscles wrenched in laughter.

I've received a barrage of e-mails and feedback on a new Sunday "bar run" of sorts. SONOMA'S Sunday brunch has taken off. The elegant restaurant has tons of space, and an incredible balcony to enjoy this warm spring weather. After drinks at Sonoma's, Rich's T-Dance has been the place to go. The T-Dance has finally gained a loyal following. The place has been packed lately, with gym boys dancing to the incredible music mix, provided by DJ Michael Tank—a happy and upbeat mix that enhances the Sonoma buzz delightfully.

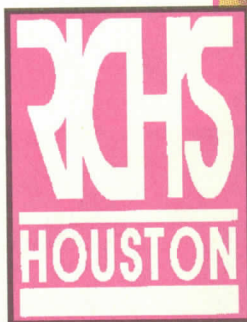

For a break from the nightlife scene, hop over to the LESBIAN & GAY COMMUNITY CENTER, 803 Hawthorne, on April 22 and April 29. RAY HILL will be on hand giving support, not to mention his proceeds to the center. A Houston playwright, radio host and civil rights activist, Hill will present two of his acclaimed one-man shows on consecutive Saturdays. He'll share his encounters with local law enforcement and recollect some of the best moments in his decades of gay activism. These shows promise to be not only entertaining, but educational. For more information, call 713-523-2802. Tickets are $15 at the door.

If you have any comments, questions or suggestions, drop me an e-mail at markg@coolmail.net. Thanks Houston, and I'll see you out!
