HOUSTON CLUB BATHS BURNS

Photos by LOUIS JOHNSTON

A three-alarm fire heavily damaged Club Baths of Houston Wednesday night, May 25, around 9 p.m. The club is expected to be closed for sometime.

Manager Lyle Black, at the club at the time, said he smelled smoke and quickly got on the intercome to order all customers to grab their clothes and evacuate. There were no known injuries immediately.

"It must have started near or in the upper level bunk house," Black said.

"By the time I got to the bunk house door with the key it was hot."

Bunk house mattresses were believed to be made of a type of foam that was fire resistant.

Damage was extensive to the bunk house area, exercise room, and elsewhere in the upper floor. Most of the hallways and other rooms suffered water and smoke damage.

The pool, surrounding outside area, and the front portion of the building where the TV lounge and front offices are located were not damaged very much.

Nine are killed in fire at gay baths in New York

At least nine people were killed Wednesday morning in a four-alarm fire at the Everard Baths, a gay club on West 28th Street in New York City.

There were about a hundred customers in the building at the time when the fire, the second one of the night at the club, broke out. Fire officials believe the second may have been caused by a rekindling of the first fire in a mattress, which was extinguished by customers without called firemen.

The Everard building's owner had been warned last year by fire inspectors to install a sprinkler system and was in the process of doing so.

In addition to the nine dead, ten others were injured, including two critically. An entire section of the building collapsed, leaving the possibility of more dead in the rubble.

Customers came streaming out of the club at 7 a.m.; Wednesday, partially dressed and in towels.

Horoscope

You glow and go, Capricorn

ARIES (March 21-April 19): Baffling circumstances continue as you seek for the meaning to "all this". Fate and the universe both turn slowly, my friend. Abide. By end of week pot begins to boil. In the meantime, muster a weak smile. It worked for Mona Lisa.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): You are searching for space, Taurus; some outer and some inner. To help expedite your search you should get rid of excess baggage. But first, clear the exits! Full Moon does its usual mischief, but by end of week you calm considerably. Love beckons. Follow.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Music is playing just for you, Gem, and it sounds like a waltz. Romance can't come too often these days, Gem, so enjoy! Wear ribbons and bells. Buy roses. Week comes to an end on key of F, for fugue, fantasia, and fireworks!

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Some dull days ahead, Moonbaby, so dust off old habit and play the part. Rewards are worth it. Toe tapping allowed, however, and just may be signal someone is waiting for. End of week you should slip out of stuffy role and into something comfy.

LEO (July 23-August 22): Usually allowed to exist in your own little world, Leo, you discover this week that others want to rattle your cage. Ignoring these visitors from "outer space" will just put off confrontation until another day. Now is the hour. Deal. When all else fails, joker wins the game.

VIRGO (August 23-September 22): Star-studded week ahead, Virgo. Dreams come true. And then some. If you're tied up on home port, the world comes to you. Last day for running barefoot in the grass, on the beach or across your waterbed. Whatever's right.

LIBRA (September 23-October 22): Spring cleaning should be just about over, but go after remaining cobwebs with an iron broom. This week Libra, like attracts like, and spirits help spirits. Kindred soul seeks you out on last day and turns broom into wand.

SCORPIO (October 23-November 21): Your health is highlighted. Stop all other projects and attend to it. Rest, fruit and simplicity will do wonders. TLC comes from unexpected source. Let someone else be boss this week, Scorp. You need the rest.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22-December 21): Breaks fall your way this week, Sag. Take advantage of all offers. Something rather unexpected pans out. Inner voice guides you. Follow. You gain new insight into old, nagging problem. At last!

CAPRICORN (December 22-January 19): Sun warms Saturn as thoughts turn from divining the heavens to heaven knows what! You glow and go, Cap, but just keep earth shoes on for lengthy walks. On last night if you feel pinch (feet, pocket or whatever), just pitch your tent, light your Coleman lantern, and relax.

AQUARIUS (January 20-February 18): Your swan song may be turning into an opera, Aquari. Keep it short and sweet. Original plan you made to seek new horizons is in danger of getting lost in the proverbial shuffle. The goodbyes have been said. Now it's time to move into a lower key.

PISCES (February 19-March 20): Old life style shifts to make room for new ideas. You feel the insistent push of change as fresh cycle begins. This is not a minor alteration, Pisces. What has been lost will be found.

$100,000 raised in 'war effort'

The Dade County Coalition for Human Rights announced May 17 that it had so far received $116,000 as a result of special fund raising events and individual donations. The money is going into an advertising campaign in an effort to persuade Miami voters to vote in favor of keeping a recently enacted ordinance that bans discrimination in employment and housing on the basis of sexual orientation.

The election is set for June 7. By far, the most funds so far collected have come from Florida — $57,000. California chalked up $18,000, followed by the District of Columbia with $6000, New York State with $5000, Illinois with $4000, Georgia with $3000, and Texas, Massachusetts and Ohio with roughly $2000 each.

The exact figure for Texas was $2158 coming from 70 individual contributors.

Houston gay leaders emphasized that much more has been collected that will be added to the figures in the next few days.

But for the money to do the most good it must be received in Miami prior to the referendum so it can be allocated to advertising campaigns aimed toward the Miami electorate.

Anita Bryant and her "Save Our Children" group are claiming they will win the vote, while the gay leaders are not claiming an easy victory — only a good possibility at winning.

Jack Campbell, chairperson of the gay coalition, said that it was imperative the referendum be upheld, otherwise Bryant and her colleagues will have other successes in other states.

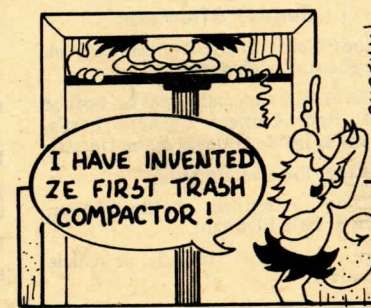

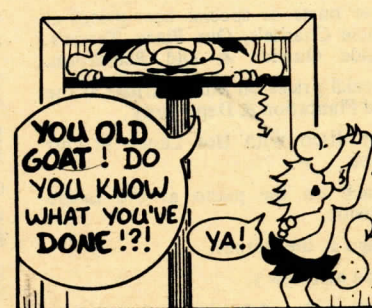

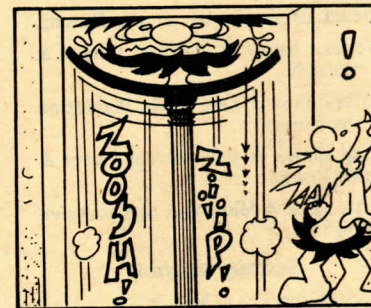

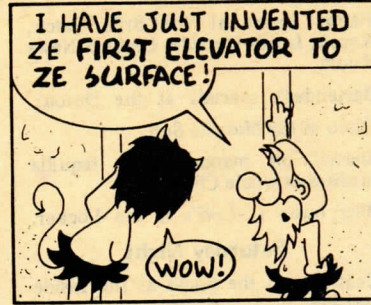

In Houston, a number of fund raisers have been held in the past few days netting $1500 that has not been credited to these figures. Contributing clubs included the Midnight Sun, the Mini Park Theater, the Silver Bullet and Mary's.

Elsewhere, gay activists staged a demonstration Monday, May 23, in front of the White House demonstrating against Bryant.

In New Orleans, the "Human Equal Rights for Everyone" group (H.E.R.E.) held a press conference May 18 to announce its establishment of a checking account to place funds destined for the "War Effort."

Bryant will be appearing at the New Orleans' Summer Pops Festival June 17 and 18. Members of New Orleans' American Federation of Television and Radio Artists (AFL-CIO) have voted to "refrain from lending their talents or services to Anita Bryant's performances."

Houston Human Rights League formed by Ray Hill, others

Formation of the Houston Human Rights League was announced at a press conference held at the Depository Disco, Tuesday, May 24. Ray Hill, executive Director of the League, and Rev. Jeri Harvey, pastor of the Metropolitan Community Church of the Resurrection, led the conference attended by many representatives of the Houston news media.

Television crews and members of the pencil press questioned Hill and Harvey after the beginning of the conference, and the reason for the formation of the League was outlined. Hill stressed that the League was planned as a forum for gay people in Houston to use in airing their grievances and problems and also as a focus for "improving understanding within all executive levels and agencies of government."

Gay activist Ray Hill spoke before City Council Wednesday, May 25, to complain about the "Stonewall Curtain" he encounters each time he attempts to get information from the Houston Police Dept.

Hill told Council that he would "be waiting in the reception area of the Mayor's office until you deem it appropriate to arrange a meeting with whomever has enough authority to persuade the police to obey the law."

"If that is inconvenient today," he said, "I will be back tomorrow and the next day for however long it takes."

The Houston Police Department and its handling of the Gary Wayne Stock case, in which a bartender at a local gay bar was killed by police, came in for criticism at the conference. The district attorney and the FBI were also cited as indifferent to the needs of gays in Houston, and Hill and Harvey both expressed shock and disbelief that the people of the city of Houston actually approved of the methods of the Houston Police Department in dealing with gays and other minorities.

About forty or fifty people were present at the conference, which received considerable publicity on local television and in the daily newspapers.
