FROM THE STAR NEWSPAPER CHAIN

An estimated 3000 gays marched in downtown Houston Thursday night.

ON THE MARCH... HOUSTON, NEW ORLEANS

As the Star was going to press Thursday night, a large group of gay people and gay rights supporters were staging a march from the parking lot of a Houston disco, the Depository, to City Hall, and then back, to demonstrate for local and national gay rights and to protest the aims of Anita Bryant.

Bryant was in Houston at the time, staying at the Hyatt Regency Hotel, which was on the march route.

A long list of gay dignitaries also were on hand at the 8:00 p.m. rally and march, including Jack Campbell, head of the Miami Gay Coalition and a major stockholder in the Club Bath Chain; David Goodstein, publisher of The Advocate, a leading national gay newspaper; Rev. Troy Perry, founder of the Metropolitan Community Church, a large, gay-oriented Bryant was in Houston to sing before the convention of the State Bar of Texas, Thursday. She was then scheduled to fly to New Orleans to appear in the New Orleans Summer Pops Festival Friday and Saturday.

"The fact that a Florida orange juice promoter named Anita Bryant plans to sing at this weekend's Summer Pops concert in Municipal Auditorium is the New Orleans sex story of the year," stated New Orleans Courier publisher Philip Carter.

In addition to the appearance of Sgt. Matlovich at the New Orleans rally, long time national gay activist Frank Kameny will be there plus two mayoralty candidates and spokespersons for other candidates.

The Houston rally was organized through the joint effort of two local gay activists: Ray Hill and Gary Van Ooteghem.

Miami Gay Coalition and a major stockholder in the Club Bath Chain; David Goodstein, publisher of The Advocate, a leading national gay newspaper; Rev. Troy Perry, founder of the Metropolitan Community Church, a large, gay-oriented denomination with branches in most major American cities and affiliates in many overseas cities; and others.

Another demonstration and march was scheduled in New Orleans for Saturday, June 18, with Sgt. Leonard Matlovich as the featured speaker. Matlovich was recently active in the Miami referendum battle. He obtained notoriety when he was discharged from the Air Force for professing his homosexuality.

The New Orleans rally will begin at 5:30 p.m. in Jackson Square, followed by a march to Rampart Street at 6:30.

The New Orleans demonstration was sparked by the same thing that prompted the Houston demonstration: the local appearance of Anita Bryant.

be there plus two mayoralty candidates and spokespersons for other candidates.

The Houston rally was organized through the joint effort of two local gay activists: Ray Hill and Gary Van Ooteghem.

The New Orleans demonstration was being organized by "H.E.R.E.," a recently-formed gay rights group.

In each case, Houston and New Orleans, the demonstrations were expected to be the largest ever in this section of the country.

"The largest civil rights demonstration in New Orleans history," predicted David Wynne, national liaison director for H.E.R.E.

"We're expecting at least several thousand marchers in Houston," said organizer Gary Van Ooteghem.

The Dallas Gay Political Caucus was sending delegations to both the Houston and New Orleans rallies, as were groups from other cities throughout this section of the country.

Mother's Column

Mother's still in Washington

Heaven Help me! I'm still in Washington and guess who's juicing it up the coast to D.C. at the very moment of this writing? It's Anita B.! (By the time you read this, she'll be in Houston and New Orleans.)

But, honey, that's not the worst of my problems. I haven't been here two weeks and I'm already known as the Other Energy Crisis. Here's what's going on:

The first few days were a drag! Little did I realize that once I got myself into the White House, it would be next to impossible to leave, and I got so tired of all that lurking around. I mean, the security people would just as soon shoot you as look at you, if Amy's nanny didn't get you first.

Now don't ask me how I got in by dead of night during Memorial Day weekend — I might want to do it again, and it's a secret (hint: it took patience and Amy's treehouse). And don't ask me how I was so lucky to have most of the secret service mistake me of Miz Lillian. Of course, Roz was off somewhere in Brazil snooping for secret coffee reserves, Jimmy was still vacationing in South Carolina and the kids were off either in London, Peking or Plains, so all I had to watch out for was that killer nanny (and honey, she made Bette Davis look downright wholesome).

The problem was, there was nothing going on with everybody out of town — oh, every so often the guards would get together with the nanny for some target practice — but mostly it was a real drag. And the White House may be comfortable, but it's about as sterile as a cuckoo's nest, and all those tourists trooping through could drive anyone insane (I mean, knew it. So finally after a long and complicated escape plan using Vivian as a decoy, I was running free down Pennsylvania Avenue.

Really, I hardly want to talk about it — I mean, I kept it hush-hush from the Washington Post, even, so I simply can't spill the beans here. Fifth Amendment, darlings, and don't you forget it!

The first thing I did once I got myself out of that mess was to go see Andy Warhol's "Bad." It was far worse than I expected — another downer. Poor Andy must have named it after he saw it, and Paul Morrissey where are you when we need you?

Well, I certainly didn't come to our nation's capital to see movies, anyway (although I had to satisfy my curiosity about "Star Wars" with the multitude of thrill-seekers at the Uptown — into the garbage chute, flyboy!!)

And belly up to the bar, girls! There's one here that's fabulous — it's called the Eagle in Exile and on a good night it's too hot to be true! It's a brick-walled catacomb with a little dance floor and a mirrored ledge above it for anyone who fancys himself a go-go boy (and it's strictly shirts-off, buckles open).

My first Saturday night there I thought I had the Infemo — the clientele is mostly macho-arama, and when you dance, you dance (your butt off). A sign under the sound booth said

The E in E has a sister bar called the Eagle across the street

recently celebrated "Black-Out Night" (in commemoration of the big Northeast blackout dur-imaginings).

Every establishment in the District that sells liquor is required by law to sell food, too, so some of the gay spots have lovely little restaurants (and some have a token dinette stuck in the corner). The Fraternity House is considered the best, with its upstairs restaurant, candle light, piano and singer Honey Foy, whose big bit these days is to show that not all straight female entertainers are into homophobia.

The major disco are funky

Friends of Club Houston,

Because the Houston Fire Department has determined that the fire that gutted our location at 2205 Fannin was intentionally set, we are hereby offering a reward of $5,000.00 to anyone providing information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person or persons involved in the offense. We offer this reward as part of a determined effort to locate those who would so callously endanger the lives of those members of the Houston gay community present at the Club at the time of the fire. If you wish to claim the reward, simply contact Lyle Black at the Club Houston, 659-4998.

In appreciation to those who have helped us become such an important part of the Houston gay community over the years, we are currently offering the use of our swimming pool and fenced sundeck – FREE OF CHARGE. Just come on by and soak up the sun! We are open for your sunbathing pleasure from 8:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. everyday.

As for the future, ground will soon be broken for a NEW Club Houston. And since our Houston members have been so instrumental in our success in the past, we'd like you to be a part of the new Club. Our sparkling, multi-storied facility is now on the drawing board, but before we hand the plans over to the contractor, we want your suggestions. What new ideas in health clubs would you like to see implemented at our future home. Would you like a small restaurant included? How about an auditorum and stage for live performers? More weight equipment? What about meeting rooms for gay service organizations? LET US KNOW! We guarantee that our new club will be a dream. But we want YOUR dreams to be a part of it, too. Drop us a note or letter.

Thank you, Houston.

Club Houston

P.S. We also hereby promise that no matter how mammoth or exciting our new club is, our rates will remain the same when we reopen, including our popular 99¢ mini-lockers. Also, your Club membership will be extended for the length of time that we are "between" clubs.

Horoscope

This is your week, Saj

ARIES (March 21-April 19): Spring into summer with a smile on your face, Ari. This week is a whirly one and you are the dervish. You hum through days ahead in tune with the universe. Week ends on key of D-sharp, for dream, drama and drollery.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): Abandon yourself to these last few days of spring, Taurus, by getting out of doors and tramping in the woods. But don't go pogo. Take friend/lover with you. Salute summer with the toss of a Frisbee or Yo-Yo. At heart you are a child, Taurus, and Mother Nature loves you.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Take time to go barefooting, Gem, for the cool grass under your tootsies will have you feeling like a ten-year-old. Fling your bones under a tree and just watch the ants work and the worms wiggle. The wonders of nature surround you. Summer welcomes you.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Happy Birthday, Moonbaby! Because you love home and family more than any other sign you are sometimes know as the great parent of the Zodiac. Self-doubt is your weakness, however, and must be watch for it can lead to depression. In year ahead you move into new, more demanding cycle. You do more than just cope. You grow.

LEO (July 23-August 22): Current life-style comes into question. A frank discussion is in order, Leo, and you must instigate it. You deal from position of strength if you put all cards on the table. In final shuffle you wind up with the pot.

VIRGO (August 23-September 22): Outside forces may pull you in wrong direction, Virgo, so keep one eye on your rear-view mirror at all times. Conserve time, energy. Don't permit Gloomy Gus to glom onto you and sap your strength. Week of decisions ends on firm note of determination.

LIBRA (September 23-October 22): Get mandatory tasks done, Libra, and then hang out sign: GONE FISHIN'. June is for enjoying. Tell one who would have you hot-footing it day and night to go shinny up a waxed rope.

SCORPIO (October 23-November 21): Tatty old memories return. Fight the blues with whatever is handy. You may think your lot is as bitter as bile, but without bile, no one can live. On last day, Scorp, the Sun warms your shoulders and your faith is renewed. Thank heaven.

NGTF reacts to defeat

The following statement was issued June 13 by Jean O'Leary and Bruce Voeller, co-executive directors of the National Gay Task Force.

"In the wake of the repeal of civil rights legislation by the voters in Miami, the first question which we have been asked by members of the press is, 'What are you going to do right now?' Our answer is that we intend to mobilize the lesbian and gay community in America and its non-gay supporters, and ask each American who cares about human rights to 'stand up and be counted' by taking three immediate steps:

"1. Sign and help to circulate petitions containing a 'Declaration in Support of Human Rights for Twenty Million American Citizens.'

"These petitions will be collected by N.G.T.F. and will be forwarded to the President of the United States, with copies to all members of the Congress and to members of the legislatures of all fifty states.

"2. Write a personal letter to the President and to the governor of their state, asking them to speak out immediately in opposition to prejudice and discrimination, and in support of legislation to protect the civil rights of lesbians and gay men.

"3. Join and assist in a nationwide voter-registration campaign (to be held in conjunction with Gay Pride Week), to put the elected officials of this their areas.

"Eight years ago, Illinois was the only state which had repealed the oppressive laws against sexual acts by consenting adults in private; today there are eighteen such states. At that time, there were no communities which offered any form of civil rights protection to lesbians and gay men; today there are 39 such communities, covering a wide geographical area.

"In 1973, when the National Gay Task Force was formed, it was still possible to use the discredited 'sickness theory' of homosexuality as a rational for discrimination. But our efforts to educate the psychiatrists about the research available to them in their own profession were successful, and the American Psychiatric Association is now a significant ally in the battle for gay civil rights. At that time, few if any major national organizations supported anti-discrimination or sodomy-repeal legislation; today, virtually every legal and professional group has taken a favorable position on these issues.

"At that time, few if any of the churches had re-examined their attitudes about homosexuality; today, that re-examination is taking place in virtually every denomination.

"Back then, we were invisible or maligned in the media; but the work in this area of N.G.T.F. and local groups has begun to pay off. We had some chance to against lesbians and gay men, and no President of the United States had seen fit to recognize 20,000,000 gay citizens as a significant minority in our population. Today, as a result of efforts and legal challenges by the N.G.T.F., members of its board and others, the U.S. Civil Service Commission has issued a policy of non-discrimination; the Job Corps has ended discrimination; the Immigration and Naturalization Service no longer recommends that gay people be denied citizenship; and, in March of this year, representatives of President Carter met with the N.G.T.F., and we have received the President's pledge for an end to 'all forms of discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation' in the federal government.

"There is a great deal more to do. But the N.G.T.F. has already begun the task. We have scheduled a series of meetings with specific federal agencies to discuss an end to discrimination in such areas as the military and immigration. We have stimulated the introduction of gay rights legislation in the Congress and have helped to form the Gay Rights National Lobby, which is specifically charged by the national gay community with concentration on this effort.

"We have assisted local groups in introducing and lobbying for gay rights and sodomy-repeal legislation in 28 states and numerous local communities. We are continuing our work in

LIBRA (September 23-October 22): Get mandatory tasks done, Libra, and then hang out sign: GONE FISHIN'. June is for enjoying. Tell one who would have you hot-footing it day and night to go shinny up a waxed rope.

SCORPIO (October 23-November 21): Tatty old memories return. Fight the blues with whatever is handy. You may think your lot is as bitter as bile, but without bile, no one can live. On last day, Scorp, the Sun warms your shoulders and your faith is renewed. Thank heaven.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22-December 21): Each of us must sometimes play the fool, Saj, and this just happens to be your week. Still, week can be unusually productive. Don't be flabbergasted when you arrive at a new state of awareness through backdoor entrance.

CAPRICORN (December 22-January 19): Life is not a bowl of cherries, Cap, it is a game of checkers, so study rules of the game. Surrender one to take two; don't make two moves at one time; move up, not down; and when you get to top, you can move as you like.

AQUARIUS (January 20-February 18): A lie mixed with a little truth is difficult to determine. Offer may be made. What you see ain't necessarily what you gonna get, Aquari, so be foxy. Study words to Cap for secret message to you.

PISCES (February 19-March 20): You must change your ways concerning personal matter, Pisces. True, "once an error is learned, it is hard to unlearn" . . . but, it is not impossible to unlearn. Strength and inspiration come from unexpected source. Week cuddles to a close.

"3. Join and assist in a nationwide voter-registration campaign (to be held in conjunction with Gay Pride Week), to put the elected officials of this country on notice that gay people and their supporters constitute a strong, united, and watchful segment of the electorate which cannot be ignored.

"The second question we have been asked is, 'What are you going to do about Anita Bryant and her promise of a national campaign?'

"The answer to that question is very simple. We are not going to do anything about Anita Bryant. We are going on with our job. Our organization and our movement are not a reaction to Anita Bryant. Her ignorant and vicious attitudes about lesbians and gay men have been part of mainstream American culture for a long time. Rather, it is important to see that Anita Bryant is a reaction to us, and represents the expected backlash to the successes we have achieved thus far.

"So, before outlining our current and projected political programs, we would like to offer you a short recap of our progress to date.

"In 1969, prior to the spark ignited by the Stonewall Riots in New York, which will be commemorated around the country this month, there were a handful of 'homophile' organizations in the country, few of which were activist in focus; today there are more than 1800 gay groups around the nation, many of which have achieved signal success in changing the climate in their attitudes about homosexuality; today, that re-examination is taking place in virtually every denomination.

"Back then, we were invisible or maligned in the media; but the work in this area of N.G.T.F. and local groups has begun to pay off. We had some chance to be seen by the public as we are, and our rights have now become the subject of a national debate.

A gay C&W ballroom?

A gay version of a large country/western ballroom?

That's the ultimate goal of Bob Williams and his partners, who recently opened the Red Carpet, a small country/western bar in the Montrose.

"Oh, our bar here is much too small for what I have in mind eventually, but we are, in a small way, starting out," said Williams.

The Red Carpet claims to be the first gay bar that is totally country.

"Most all of our songs on the juke box are country, and our Friday and Saturday night band is the only one in town at a gay club with a steel guitar."

The Red Carpet is currently featuring recording artist Janet Moore, who has performed with many top name country artists, such as Willie Nelson, Bob Wills, etc.

Bob Williams himself also performs, along with Harvey Thompson, a KIKK disc jockey.

attempts to burn O.P.

Several hours after the Thursday night, June 9, closing, fire officials say someone poured gasoline down an exhaust fan at the Old Plantation Club, 2020 Kipling, and ignited it. But those officials have not revealed any leads or motives.

Bill Stanley, the assistant manager of the club, said damage was estimated at $10,000.

Special cleanup crews were rushed in Friday afternoon and the club opened Friday night on schedule.

This fire marked the third arsonist fire at a gay business establishment during the past few months.

Club Baths of Houston at 2205 Fannin was almost totally destroyed three weeks ago and the owners have offered a $5000 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of those responsible, but so far there have been no arrests.

Two fires were set two months ago at the 900 Lovett Building, home of the Montrose Star, doing extensive damage. There have been no arrests in that case either.

Arson investigators say they have some "pretty strong" leads in the case of the Club Baths fire but are not ready to make an arrest or an announcement. The club is now rebuilding and is expected to completely reopen in September. The swimming pool area, undamaged, has remained open to C.B.C. members without charge.

Ready for new hits?

Get ready for what promises to be a long hot summer with up and coming sizzlin' new releases by Dr. Buzzards' Original Savannah Band, Diana Ross, Carol Douglas, Andrea True, the Ritchie Family and Barbara Pennington. These giant disco artists will entertain us with fresh product starting late June.

Casablanca Records will be releasing the "Love and Kisses" album this week. The Italian group consists of many of Cerrones' musicians. The LP has two long cuts. "I've Found Love (Now That I've Found You)" is the strongest of the two. It starts off with the distinct Cerrone piano and continues there on to a veritable super charge of move-on-up energy. The other cut is "Accidental Lover," a much faster paced tune.

Many disco jocks have been playing the Import.

Another import that is getting considerable attention is "Journey Into Love" by Kebelektrik, a Canadian group. The highly electronic sounding instrumental is somewhat similar to Salsouls' "Magic Bird of Fire."

It is currently available on a Les Direction import 12-inch single but word has it RCA records will be distributing it in the states by the end of the month.

Ruffin is one of the hardest working singers around. This recording by the ex-Temptation member will be one of the best albums you're going to hear this summer.

Salsoul Records has re-mixed "Hit and Run," taken from the Loleatta Holloway album and has issued it on a commercial 12-inch disc. This unique and dynamic vocalist captures you. The Salsoul Orchestra accompanies her on all the tracks.

The group Foxy has a new 12-inch that is causing some excitement everywhere it's played. "The Way You Do the Things You Do" was produced by famed disco producer Corey. He did the production work on the hit, "Do What You Wanna Do," among others.

If you are a devoted Donna Summer fan you might want to check out two important albums that features the First Lady of Love.

The movie soundtrack from "The Deep" (in blue vinyl) has a couple of cuts with Ms. Summer doing her sensuous vocals. One is "Theme From the Deep (Down, Deep Inside)."

John Barry composed and conducted the music and also co-wrote the lyrics with the First Lady.

The other album in which Donna appears as herself is Lady." Side A is a mix of songs concerning the signs of the zodiac. Side B has a good cut that enlightens you with the very distinguished German sound.

This lady's second album for the label should put her back on the charts.

A young and aggressive songstress that goes by the name of Gail Wynters has recorded an LP for RCA that includes up-tempo cut "Gonna Love You and Love You and Love You Some More." The song is reminiscent of Gloria Gaynor's "Never Can Say Good-bye."

David Ruffin has an incredible new album entitled "In My Stride" (Motown), produced by dance floor maestro Van McCoy.

"You're My Peace Of Mind" (recorder earlier this year by the group Faith, Hope and Charity) is the best cut on the album. The other fine cuts are "Nightmare," "I'm Jealous" and "There's More to Love." The consistent, satisfying ballads also prove that

The other album in which Donna appears as herself is "Shut Out" (in red vinyl) by the Yankee Doodle Dandy man, Paul Jabara.

Donna sings with Paul on the "Shut Out/Heaven Is A Disco" medley at 9½ minutes.

DECLARATION IN SUPPORT OF HUMAN RIGHTS FOR TWENTY MILLION AMERICANS

We, the undersigned, assert that the Constitution of the United States protects the right of all citizens to personal privacy, including the right to define and express their individual sexuality, affectional preference and lifestyle.

To most Americans these rights are taken for granted, but for 20,000,000 lesbians and gay men these right do not exist. We believe that all citizens have an interest in eliminating laws which criminalize sexual behavior between consenting adults, since such laws affect all people, regardless of their sexual preference. And we believe that all citizens have an interest in ensuring that no group in society is arbitrarily discriminated against in employment, housing and public accommodations, since history has shown that when the rights of one minority are violated, the rights of all others are in jeopardy.

Therefore, we pledge our support to eliminate all forms of prejudice and discrimination against lesbians and gay men in America.

First, we are equally well hung. Is there any danger to either the active or passive partner such as tearing or bleeding?

Second, are anal muscles elastic, or will continued action stretch us to the point of no return?

What about nipple play? We saw an ad about a guy who claims to have size 44-D breasts which he says were developed by a navy stud during four years of play. Is this possible? We believe he is either a transsexual or has

What about nipple play? We saw an ad about a guy who claims to have size 44-D breasts which he says were developed by a navy stud during four years of play. Is this possible? We believe he is either a transsexual or has gynecomastia.

We both live at home, so we must be very careful. That is why we are asking you to find out about these things.

Ted and Gus

Dear folks:

To begin at the end (as it were), there are some things to bear in mind if you're getting into Greek.

Tissue tearing and bleeding are a distinct possibility, but only if one insists on pile driving. The possibility is strongly diminished if there is adequate lubrication of both the penis and the anus, if the passive partner is relaxed, and if the active partner works slowly and gently rather than plunging ahead.

However, if the passive partner has hemorrhoids, this increases the possibility of pain and bleeding. Fortunately, there is considerable elasticity in the muscles of the anus, so frequent anal intercourse will not necessarily cause inadvertent ka-ka on the couch.

Prolonged tit work occasionally results in a modest increase in breast size, but only because the massaging tones and firms up the pectoral muscles in much the same way as do exercise and those crazy gadgets that are marketed to women.

From top to bottom, good luck and pleasant pastimes!

queens at one of the bars, who told me "there's a lot of affluence in D.C. — everybody goes to Fort Lauderdale for their vacation. You aren't anybody unless you go to Fort Lauderdale!"

What can I possibly say?

Two of the most impressive things in Washington are Kennedy Center and Burger King on K Street. I decided to hang out at the former. (You didn't know that good taste was one of my strong points, did you?)

It's right next to Watergate, so how could I lose? Talk about hustle and bustle! On my first morning there, not only were there tours full of kids and old men in bermuda shorts trudging around, but there was also a Towne Meeting in the Eisenhower Theater.

The guests were a Dr. Pomeroy, who put together the Kinsey Report, and Shere Hite, who wrote the Hite Report, and the whole thing was about sex, sex, sex!! Shere was talking about penises and clitorises like they were going out of style, and the SRO audience was lapping it right up!

Well, it was my turn during the question and answer session. I asked her "Don't you think it's rude to mention such things as clits and peckers in the hallowed halls of our late President Kennedy, darling?"

Shere just batted her eyelashes and said, "Honey, I am what I am today thanks to clits and peckers."

Anyway, I was going to pick up some tickets to the Stuttgart Ballet in the Opera hairs of our late President Kennedy, darling?"

Shere just batted her eye-lashes and said, "Honey, I am what I am today thanks to clits and peckers."

Anyway, I was going to pick up some tickets to the Stuttgart Ballet in the Opera House when who should I run into but of all people, the fabulous and sensuous Sarah Serena Saratoga!! You must remember her — when she resided in Houston she was a member of all the in crowds, and if she wasn't at your party, you'd never get your name in Maxine's column.

She disappeared from sight last September, and everyone thought she was dead, but as it turned out she had been kidnapped to Washington, D.C. where she met a senator who fell madly in love with her and now she's all set up in a love nest near Dupont Circle, one of the raciest areas in town.

We bought tickets to the same ballet, and decided to go to New York City together as immediately as possible!

I can't begin to get into all the catching up we did, it was too too much; I had to become her houseguest to take it all in.

Last but not least: 14th Street, where the smartest looking whores you ever did see hang out in droves! There's a sign over the This Is It! nightclub that says "If you cum once, you're sure to cum again." Those girls really hustle!!

Next week: The battle of the Mothers. Hurricane Anita hits town and, honey, that latent orange is going to get it — or I'm not the Other Mother.

Bryant, eat my dust!!
