The Star previews the hot music at the hot discos

Watch for the sensational new album by Donna Summer on Oasis. The track is yet unnamed. It is due for release sometime in late September.

One songstress who is definitely in the running for the female vocalist of the year award is Carol Douglas. Her new disk on Midland International includes the entire eighteen minute version of "Midnight Love Affair" released this month as a single with both long (6:50) and short (3:50) versions. There are other excellent sounds on the LP.

Dr. Buzzard's Original Savannah Band (RCA) LP is finally breaking in the area. The album has been a heavy favorite on the East Coast. Best cuts are "Chereez Le Femme," "Sour and Sweet," plus "I'll Play The Fool." The group picks up where Manhattan Transfer left off.

I have just received my test-pressing copies of "Down To Love Town" by The Originals (Motown) and "Full Speed Ahead" by Tata Vega (Tamla). The new mix on the Originals is quite different from the LP cut and 45. It has a longer instrumental break plus the vocals are clearer. Miss Vega's new mix is a mixture of fine vocals and plenty of energetic rhythm. The cut is also longer than the single. Her album is on the way from Motown.

Van McCoy produced the new soon-to-be-released Gladys Knight & The Pips LP (Buddha). According to McCoy and his partner Charles Kipps, the recording is a bit of a change for Gladys. Included on the album will be some usual ballads and three or more up-tempo cuts.

The flip side of the current Helen Reddy single, "I Can't Hear You No More," is getting some light disco airplay. "Music Is My Life" is the title of her just-out Capitol LP.

Watch for exciting new album releases by Crown Heights Affair; Ecstasy; Passion & Pain; the Three Degrees; Undisputed

Obsession possesses a little extra spice

God knows I've suffered enough this year through bad films, but "Obsession" with Cliff Robertson and Genevieve Bujold, which premiered last Friday, was like a huge glass of milk to an ulcer patient.

From the onset let me note that in my opinion there are four basic criteria that make up a masterful film. They are good solid acting and directing (which go hand in hand), good cinematography, good plot development, and good musical score. This is not to say that on occasion something fine is made not containing all of the above mentioned. However, I have found this pretty much to be the norm when looking critically at the silver screen.

"Obsession," I am happy to say, possesses all four and a little extra spice to go with them.

Cliff Robertson, who at his best is hard to equal in talent ("Charlie" a few years back proved that), is very strong in his portrayal of a New Orleans real estate tycoon whose wife and daughter are taken from his classy mansion in a bizarre kidnapping attempt. He is encouraged by the police not to turn over the demanded $500,000 but rather plain pieces of paper in a briefcase with a homing device to track the kidnappers to their hideout.

In an ensuing chase his wife and daughter and the kidnappers are killed in a fiery wreck when their car misses a bridge and winds up in the river. Naturally he blames himself, thinking if he had delivered the real money they probably would have been released.

Sixteen years later while on a business trip to Florence, Italy, with his partner (very credibly played by John Lillgow), he visits the church in which he met his wife during World War II. He is shocked when he comes face to face with an Italian girl who looks identical to his dead wife. He then, as the title would have it, becomes obsessed with this girl and eventually brings her home to Louisiana.

The plot thickens, as they say now, and you begin to believe that Rod Serling has written the rest for an old Twilight Zone.

Genevieve Bujold, who was so brilliant in "Ann of a Thousand Days" and then went to the sewers with Charlton Heston and Ava Gardner in Earthquake, has climbed out of the manhole and seen the light of day. Her low-key performance is excellent as she plays both the wife and the girl later in Italy. The film moves quite slowly but very intricately all the way so you are desperately trying to figure out what's happening but so glad at the end that you were unable to.

If you are looking for some real mind-bending entertainment then get your tail out to see this one. It should be in town for a good long while but it will be talked about long after it's gone.

Texas Riders plan Labor Day run

"Jean Lafitte Revisited," the annual Texas Riders motorcycle run, will be held over the Labor Day weekend, September 3 through 6.

Participants from cycle clubs from many other cities will be in Houston, say the spokesmen from Texas Riders.

There will be individual competition in games, such as archery, canoeing and volleyball.

"If you're a biker, we have a poker run, road rally through some of Texas most beautiful and serene countryside," the Star was told.

The camping area includes numerous lakes and streams.

The cost to participate is $60 ($50 for those who sent in payment prior to Aug. 27). The club says they, as of this writing, still have a few air conditioned bunkhouses left (out of 150 available), plus the 550 acres of beautiful camping area. The fee covers all the participants' food, drinks and entertainment.

The group will award a $100 cash prize to the individual selected as the best all-around participant.

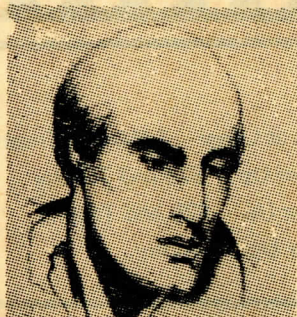

Friday night registration will be at the Levi, 2400 Brazos, and will include a buffet.

"If you have never been to one of our runs, you have missed something," said a Rider spokesman. "Come do your own thing or somebody else's."

The run is open to only those 18 years or older. Drugs and pets should not come along. But there will be plenty of beer, soft drinks, food and fun.

Choose Indian jewelry carefully

Most consumers lack adequate expertise to judge worth or authenticity of the more-and-more popular American Indian jewelry, Mrs. Clemogene Wilson, County Extension Agent, contends.

The most important factor to consider when buying this jewelry is to purchase from a reputable dealer with an established place of business. Many dealers travel from place to place leaving the consumer with no way to locate them with complaints, she said.

Many dealers belong to the Indian Arts and Crafts Association (IACA), a trade association which guarantees that the merchandise is honestly represented. The IACA insignia assures consumers of getting their money back if the jewelry is not what it was claimed.

To help determine the true value of a piece of jewelry, the agent suggested that consumers ask a dealer these questions.

- Is it handmade? Some machine-made jewelry may appear handmade.

- Are the stones untreated natural turquoise? Much low-quality softer turquoise is being used and it tends to crumble.

- Is it made of sterling silver?

If you simply want a piece of jewelry with a pleasing design, you may not care about these points. But if you are investing money in something that is supposed to be authentic, be sure that it is, she advised.

Consumers do have an "out," if they suspect that jewelry has been misrepresented. Write to the IACA for help in determining authenticity. Their address is Box 1358, Gallup, New Mexico 87301. Or call them at 505-722-9488.

HOUSTON PERFORMER HOSPITALIZED

If you have been around for a few years in the gay community in Houston, you know of Billy Ert Molina. He's famous for his impersonation of singer Vickie Carr. Billy and his lover, Tony Molina, were in the news quite heavily two years ago when they were "married."

Billy is now in the hospital in Toronto, Canada, and needs letters of support from friends in Houston. We know the Houston gay community will respond. The address is Bill Ert Molina, 46 Levty Ave., Toronto, Ont., Canada.

Truth; the Love Unlimited Orchestra; and Stevie Wonder, finally.

Our fastest-moving-single award of the month belongs to "Love Bite" by The Richard Hewson Orchestra on Splash. Runner-up prize goes to "Nice 'N' Nasty" by the Salsoul Orchestra (Salsoul).

The Barry Manilow female back-up and RSO Recording group, Lady Flash, will be featured in his 98-city tour. Scheduled Texas appearances are set for Dallas Oct. 22 and Houston Oct. 23.

My girl, Linda Ronstadt, is gaining steam with the former Buddy Holly single, "That'll Be The Day" from the late 50's. It may be found on her latest soul-stirring Asylum album.

"I've Got You," the Gloria Gaynor LP, has been out well over a month now and has not shown many signs of the great impact her two previous ones had. The title cut is the most requested, followed by "Let's Make a Deal" and "Darling." The engineering quality also is not up to par as on the other two. Polydor has just released the first single from the LP, a semi-ballad entitled "Touch of Lightning," aimed for radio play.

A&M has just put out the brilliant vocal version of "Chase The Clouds Away" by the amazing Esther Satterfield. This is the original composition chosen by ABC-TV for the Montreal Summer Games.

Tom Moulton did the mix on "C'mon Baby, Do The Latin Hustle" by Fajardo (Coco Records).

Executives of Six Flags Over Texas in Arlington recently refused to permit Andrea True and the Connection to perform there. It was reported that they were informed of Miss True's previous occupation, a porno movie actress.

Import of the Month: A fabulous new single from Spain. It's "Tani" by Las Deblas on Belter. The lyrical interpretation is in Spanish and is very Penny-McClean-Silver-Convention sounding.

Walter Murphy's new "Fifth of Beethoven" LP (Private Stock) is full of goodies. Suggested cuts are "Russian Dressing," "Flight '76," "California Night Fall," "Midnight Express," and of course the single and its flip, "Fifth of Beethoven."
