AUGUST 9

Houston, 7-25-80

Mr. Ron Martin
Houston's Midnight Rider 6

Dear Editor:

I am trying to get some help for a friend in Atlanta. He was one of the first pro-gay leaders in Houston. I am including a letter from his doctor of his situation.

My next step is collecting old clothing and things, in general, in good condition to put on sale at the Flea Market on the weekend of August 16-17. So, I am asking you to put an ad in your magazine for this purpose. I will receive the donations by phone calls at my home phone, daily from 6:00 PM to 10:00 PM. I will pick it up by arrangement with the benefactor.

I really appreciate your help and I will be more than happy to answer any further questions.

Sincerely,

Jaime A. Rendich

Dear Mr. Rendich:

I am writing in reference to Mr. Robert W. Applewhite. He ask me to write and inform you as to why you have not heard from him.

Robert has been involved in a very serious accident. He fell some 60 feet and crushed his entire right leg.

I would also like to take this opportunity to ask you to see if you might help us collect some fund to assist him. After he has exhausted all his personal fund and the limit of his insurance coverage, there is remaining some $9,000.00 in medical bills.

There is still more service that must be rendered. But due to his funds not being available he has had to be sent home to await money to be paid on his bills. If you would like to contribute or know of persons that would like to do so - make all contribution in any amount payable to Robert W. Applewhite Medical Fund and mail to me as soon as possible.

Robert mentioned a Mr. Ray Hill he had known in Houston. He said Mr. Hill may be able to assist in raising funds to send to help. PLEASE try to help out if you can.

Your sincere attention to this matter will be most gratefully appreciated.

Sincerely,

Dr. Thomas N Guffin

LETTER FROM THE EDITORS:

A little insite into Barney's background. Uncle "Ed" in the following article is Governor Edmond Davis. He was Barney's grandmother's uncle. Like many families caught up in the civil war he had folks on both sides. His Grandma would have been no more than 2 years younger than Scarlet O'Hara and was the first Prylo child born of record in a central Texas county. Governor Davis was one of Lincoln's generals who was sent after the war as the Reconstruction Governor in Austin. Though he's not old, there have been no more generations. Longevity and procreation over long periods of time are family traits (except all the men are now gay who are of any age to reproduce). Gay was also a family trait. Barney also says he loves the Midnight Rider!

Barney's World by Barney O'Reilly

Gays Out Party?

The 1980 edition of the GOP convinced old Barney there's no place for him in his ancestral party. Barney's folk were in part on the Texas frontier many years before the rise of Lincoln. Some were among the first—if not the first—Republicans in the state. So Barney's not being partisan—only realistic.

"Uncle Ed" is in all the Texas history books. He was a salty one and probably as hated as old Barney (remember Barney's queer). Sometimes I wonder if it's not a toss-up. You see, my straight "Uncle Ed" was Lincoln's legacy to Texas (so now you know who he was). It's strange; we're both hated by pretty much the same type people, though for vastly different reasons.

Actually, in 1978 after the Texas GOP concocted an anti-gay-teacher plank, Barney became a closet Democrat. That's not been a completely comfortable solution for him. And when the national GOP last month decided to "let George do it," Barney boldly came out of his family as an "independent." He wasn't too worried about the consequences—he knew the trend in the family sentiment. Forgive us, "Uncle Ed." But we see the GOP as the same party Lincoln organized as a human-rights party a century ago. True, Lincoln's been kicked out before, but why must he be humiliated by the 1980 version?

Barney wouldn't think of willingly letting "George do it" to him! George wants us gays to "de-escalate" (= "stop") our political thrust. George Bush doesn't think we gays need any more guarantees of our civil rights. That's pretty spotty stuff—huh? BK and the boys can run you in for holding hands on Westheimer and throw the book at you. If you protest you get beat up and charged with "assaulting a police officer." (Check out Operation Documentation at GPC) And you'd never have committed a crime. And Barney can be and was fired because he's gay—and after Barney's boss had told his boss that Barney was his best man (yes, it was a public job). And the Moral Monsters (MM) can hold a rally on public property in Washington and publicly proclaim that gays "must be put to death" and walk away warm and smug with the feeling that they gave George & Co. a cool million to "do it"—their way. Will he? That's what the million was for, George, or can't you remember that either?

Have you ever wondered about George's memory? "Under no circumstances must Red China be admitted to the United Nations"—the first ambassador to Peking speaking in 1964. Neutral Barney was there (Houston Music Hall, when George wanted us to let him "do it" in the U.S. Senate). True, cagey George might be we gay's Machiavellian friend—he might be planning to screw MM, not us—but don't bet on it. Gays don't have a million dollars; we are not 27 million strong. Barney thinks George is a lot like that other Texas politician of recent memory—the witty one—the liberal, conservative, moderate one—the one who was never predictably any of the above—the one who told us he went hunting (politically) "where the ducks are." It was the "ducks"—the voters—who elected him, so he migrated to them—wherever.

And what about "Shoo-Phly" Schlafly practically taking over the party platform—kicking the pro-ERA plank out after being in the platform forever? Ladies, don't you love her? Let Barney tell you about Phyllis. She wants you to stay home where a woman is "supposed to be." So our lesbian friends are supposed to starve? (You're not supposed to exist, ladies: Phyllis knows "best".) But Barney knows that Phyllis hasn't been home in the past ten years long enough to do the dishes—not once. She's on the road much of the time, and directs a mailout empire besides. Barney gets too much mail from her for her to be a homebody even some of the time. And besides the death of the ERA she tells Barney she wants to be a U.S. Senator all of the time. Now, Phyllis honey, that's a "man's job" if ever there was. How many females? In 204 years?

But no other female must go out into the man's world, she's been telling the Archie Bunkers eyeball-to-eyeball across the land: "You'll thank me when the ERA is defeated," coos Phyllis. "Women will no longer compete with you for jobs." Phyllis!—Hush!

Another strange thing about Phyllis (what's she doing in Lincoln's party, anyhow?), she held her own mini-Women's Convention here in Houston—remember?—after Bella took over in 1977 and said, "Shoo-Phly, shoo!" Phyllis is the one who put all those ads in Houston papers with the cute little girl asking her mommy, "Can I grow up to be a lesbian?"

You and Your Body

If You Drink Alcohol, Do So in Moderation

Alcoholic beverages tend to be high in calories and low in other nutrients. Even moderate drinkers may need to drink less if they wish to achieve ideal weight.

On the other hand, heavy drinkers may lose their appetites for foods containing essential nutrients. Vitamin and mineral deficiencies occur commonly in heavy drinkers—in part, because of poor intake, but also because alcohol alters the absorption and use of some essential nutrients.

Sustained or excessive alcohol consumption by pregnant women has caused birth defects. Pregnant women should limit alcohol intake to 2 ounces or less on any single day.

Heavy drinking may also cause a variety of serious conditions, such as cirrhosis of the liver and some neurological disorders. Cancer of the throat and neck is much more common in people who drink and smoke than in people who don't.

One or two drinks daily appear to cause no harm in adults. If you drink you should do so in moderation.

• Remember, if you drink alcohol, do so in moderation

THE GREATER SEWERS OF HOUSTON

by Eureka Hoover-Kirby

Hi kids!

Well it seems Young Allen has a child whirling around in the Atlantic and headed for the Carribean.

Drove by the Dogpatch and stopped in to visit the Doglady. He told me that people have been asking him where Blum, Texas is. Well it is just a little bit southwest of Cleburne, Texas which is about 30 miles SW of Fort Worth.

Doglady, I want that good-looking bartender of yours. My, my, my!!!

The two kids from North Central Texas really enjoyed their visit here. Memorial Park will never be the same.

Stopped in at the Unicorn the other evening. I sure enjoy Happy Hour there. Lee and _____ sure have a great place. I can hardly wait for the front patio and bar to open.

The BRB sure has been busy. And what hunky cowboys!! There's always a good crowd there.

Welcome back to Houston to David who has been in Dallas for a few months. It's good to see your smile. He will be assistant manager of the new "Saddle Club" that will be opening in a few weeks.

Happy 1st Anniversary to Jane and Rita. Many more to you.

Went over to Sophie's the other afternoon. Laid by the pool and had a few drinks. Then we went to Bill's house for a pool picnic. It was a nice evening for it.

The Dogpatch had a show on Saturday night. it was really festive. Jerry Vanover was a scream as usual and his operatic performance of the Death Scene from "Anemia" brought the house down. Mr. Ricki from Fort Worth and Raina Lea from D/FW were the guest entertainers. They put on a super show. Benji Rae and Margo and Ericka were very good.

The Barn is really hot. There are some hot men in there. Check 'em out.

Rich at the Briar Patch is wowing them with good service and nice smiles. They have a good crowd there at all times. It's always fun to have some drinks there.

The Copa is really bouncing. Some hot music and cool air for everyone.

What a treehouse at the "Drum". Whew!

Mary's is really going strong. Movie night is always fun as well as every other day and night. Stop in and see Peaches and Andy. Love y'all.

Went to the Mining Company and played around. I sure am glad they understand me. Don, I love you for putting up with me. Just don't let me drive and wreck my truck anymore.

The band at Our Place is really very good. Stop in and say hi to Kaye and the staff.

Clarissa, what were you doing in Dallas ALONE? Filling up your chicken coop?

Wanda Ward, did you steal any towels from the Riesner Hilton during weekend stay? I heard he had a 3 cell suite.

Let's all wish Ken Moore a big Get Well!!!
