Capricorn (December 22-January 19) Relationship issues (or in some cases their total lack) will be highlighted over the next month quite strongly. Since your career is in such fine shape, it's time to turn some attention to the personal side of life, Cappy. That special friendship could become something much more, if you'd just allow it.

Aquarius (January 20-February 18) Expect to get several pats on the back (and one a little farther south) for a job well-done this week. Your presence is becoming known, and isn't it about time for some extra recognition? Now all you need is to convince that guy you're so crazy about that you mean business and want a commitment.

Pisces (February 19-March 19) If you were expecting a routine, by-the-numbers type of week, then think again. It's just not going to happen, Pisces. There's way too much going on, especially on the job. It's no use trying to play hermit, either. No hiding place would do the trick. An unexpected financial bump should make you smile.

Aries (March 20-April 19) This week should be much more supercharged for you than usual, due to that Lunar Eclipse that hits on the 9th. It will energize career matters in a profound way. It's important to look out for opportunities, or some could pass you by. Sunday looks especially winning, at least where romance is concerned.

Taurus (April 20-May 20) It's going to be a week of starts and stops for you, Taurus (more than an Amtrak train, most likely), so consistency shouldn't be counted on. As your recognition factor at work grows, you're hopefully working on that shy streak. Accept that friend's offer for a blind date on Friday night (you've got nothing to lose).

Gemini (May 21-June 21) Several previously withheld secrets may spring to the light of day over the next week or so. Your reaction to this information will go a long way toward showing what you're made of, Gemmy. Finances look very steady for now, but in relationships there won't be too much happening until the end of this month.

Cancer (June 22-July 22) The Lunar Eclipse in your sign on Tuesday is going to have a profound effect on finances and issues regarding health and fitness. You may be more prone to schemes or con games (the full moon can do that sometimes). Examine all documents very closely. Treat your sweetie to a night on the town this weekend.

Leo (July 23-August 22) It seems like the cycle just never ends. One project comes to a close just as another one gets going. (You wouldn't have it any other way, right, Leo?) We do hope you'll set aside at least a bit of time for such mundane matters as eating and sleeping. Not much is going on socially, but that all changes on the 19th.

Virgo (August 23-September 22) The week looks like a fairly smooth ride, particularly where career matters are concerned. Momentum that began in late November comes to a crest over the next 10 days. A mature female has some surprising (but nice) news for you. This simply isn't the right time for playing in search of a new lover.

Libra (September 23-October 22) That Lunar Eclipse on the 9th will be in a stressful aspect to your sign and will likely bring long-simmering issues on the home front to a full boil. Be sure to keep that temper in check and count to 20 before speaking your mind. Your earning potential (happily) goes up a few notches throughout this month.

Scorpio (October 23-November 21) This week's eclipse is in what's called a "trine" aspect to your Sun (which is the most harmonious placement there is). The wheels will be well-greased in most areas of your life. Though you may want to spend more time out of the limelight, it just isn't going to happen (at least not for the time being).

Sagittarius (November 22-December 21) You've got no time for the post-holiday blues, Sag. There's way too much to be done. Keeping busy and productive is the best medicine for what ails you (that plus a sensuous mate, of course). That contact you made last month will come through on his promise within a matter of a few days.
