IN 1988, JAY HOLLYFIELD HOSTED THE FIRST BLACK TIE DINNER
IN THE WINE CELLAR OF TONY'S RESTAURANT AND FROM THAT POINT FORWARD
THE HISTORY IS AS FOLLOWS...

Upon being approached by the Human Rights Campaign Fund, Jay Hollyfield agreed to organize a dinner with the help of Gene Harrington, Monte Frost and Scott Holman. The Dinner was held in Tony's Wine Cellar with a small group of interested persons in attendance. The following year a dinner was held in the Petroleum Club with a slightly larger group present.

By 1991 the founding group grew to ten with the addition of Keith McGee, Charles Armstrong, Larry Lingle, Bill White, Nancy Molleda and Frank Campisi. The Dinner was held at the Remington Hotel with two hundred twenty attending.

By 1993 two more persons were added to the hosts, Phil Lacy and Janine Brunjes. The group incorporated as The Houston Black Tie Dinner, Inc., a 501(c)3 organization to raise and distribute funds to both local charities and to a national beneficiary. The speaker was Roberta Achtenberg, the highest ranking gay member of the Clinton administration.

The over $1,400,000 dollars distributed to beneficiaries from previous dinners since 1993 is a reflection of how we in the Houston and surrounding communities have responded to the call to support our community. The Houston Black Tie Dinner has made a positive difference in this city and you are a part of it.

Thank you all for your support.

We look forward to an ongoing partnership with each of you in making a significant impact in our city.

Thank you!

HOUSTON BLACK TIE DINNER, INC.

October 12, 2002

Dear Friends,

Welcome to the 2002 Houston Black Tie Dinner and the lovely new Inter-Continental Hotel. This elegant evening of empowerment and entertainment is a partnership of seven local beneficiaries and you. It is a united approach to raising funds for the programs and missions of a combination of organizations in our community with shared goals in the areas of health care advocacy and equal rights for all.

It is because of the efforts and dedication of our beneficiary organizations, volunteers, table captains and you that we are able to achieve this remarkable evening. The generosity of the underwriters, advertisers and silent auction donors is vital to the success of this event. Please support these individuals and businesses with your patronage as a way of thanking them in return. We know there have been many demands for your time and money this fall and we are very grateful that you decided to spend this evening with us.

As we reflect back upon our struggles with pride for the achievements we have made, let us look forward to the future with confidence and assurance. Please continue to keep our dreams alive. Our dreams are making a difference.

Have a wonderful time!

Greetings:

I am pleased to extend my congratulations to the organizers and guests of this year's Houston Black Tie Dinner. I regret being unable to attend this year.

I also wish to congratulate State Representative Garnet Coleman who will receive the Hollyfield Political Award this evening, and to Janine Brunjes our city's GLBT liaison, for her receipt of the Humanitarian Award.

Please enjoy your evening, celebrate all of the progress the city has made, progress that has made Houston a great place in which to live.

I commend the Board of the Houston Black Tie Dinner and all of you for your continued charitable efforts.

Sincerely,

Dear Friends:

On behalf of the Eighteenth Congressional District of Texas, I am delighted to convey my warmest greetings to everyone gathered to celebrate the 2002 Houston Black Tie Dinner.

For fourteen years, the members and supporters of the Houston Black Tie Dinner have served the gay, lesbian, bisexual, and transgender community, and have distinguished themselves as respected educators, advocates and community leaders.

Driven by the belief that all people have a right to pursue life, liberty and happiness in America, the Houston Black Tie Dinner strives to make real the ideals of equality and freedom so eloquently expressed in our Declaration of Independence and Constitution.

Again, I would like to extend my congratulations to the Houston Black Tie Dinner, Inc. Board of Directors, as well as my best wishes to all for an enjoyable and successful event. Indeed, our continued success will depend on our ability to understand, appreciate and care for one another.

Sincerely,

Sheila Jackson Lee

Debra Danburg

October 12, 2002

Dear Friends,

It is always a pleasure to lend my support to the annual Houston Black Tie Dinner. This event is an integral source of funds for organizations in the GLBT Community.

Through the efforts of the Board and the committees our community organizations have benefited greatly. This has been a challenging year for giving and I applaud you all for maintaining your giving and your giving spirits.

Thank you for your support of me as the State Representative, District 137 and I am determined to continued service. Please support me at the polls in November.

Best Wishes to all for a successful and wonderful evening.

Sincerely,

Debra Danburg
State Representative, District 137

October 12, 2002

Dear Friends,

I am pleased to have the opportunity to congratulate my friend, Representative Garnet Coleman, on receiving the Hollyfield Political Award.

Garnet understands that most Texans care about getting things done for their families and for our future – and that's why he's been an incredibly effective advocate for civil rights and AIDS awareness statewide.

Each generation of Americans has worked to live up to our founders' vision of human dignity – that we are all created equal and that we all have the right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.

The work that Garnet and the HRC have done together is integral to that vision. I congratulate you both for your tireless devotion to these important issues and applaud your initiative, your dedication, and your success!

For Texas,

Ron Kirk
Candidate for U.S. Senate

Corey Kahaney

Corey Kahaney's act is completely autobiographical. And, as a divorced single mother of a teenage daughter she never lacks for material. Cory works all the major New York comedy clubs: Caroline's, The Comedy Cellar and The Comic Strip. Her television credits include: "Politically Incorrect with Bill Maher" (ABC), "The View" (ABC), hosting a week of "Later" (NBC), "The Martin Short Show" and Comedy Central's "Premium Blend". Recently, Cory appeared on BBC1's "The Stand Up Show" in England.

Cory is the recipient of the "BACKSTAGE" Bistro Award for best Comedian in NYC for 2001, the 1998 Manhattan Association of Cabaret Award for "Outstanding Female Comedian".

Cory was featured in the 1998 "Just For Laughs" festival in Montreal. Her one-person show "Having it all and Other Myths" was later produced as a half-hour special for HBO, which lead to development deals with Warner Bros. and CBS. Cory returned again in 2000 to the Aspen Comedy Arts Festival as a featured stand up.

A member of the New York Friars Club, Cory was part of their tributes to both Buddy Hackett and Sid Caesar at the Danny Kaye Playhouse. She also appeared in the Broadway-bound musical "Funny Business", at the Kennedy Center in Washington, D.C.

Cory came to comedy after an extensive career in food. First, as a chef with an advanced culinary degree from La Varenne in Paris; then later as a catering manager at some of Manhattan's best hotels.

Monique Marvez

Voted by The New Times in Miami "The Best of Miami", Monique Marvez divides her time between the East and West coasts, with the occasional stop in Houston. Appearing at the Houston Black Tie Dinner after her smash Canadian tour, Monique returns to Houston with her abundant, and some would say "psychic", sense of humor. As The New Times said, "Monique has elevated improvised harassment to a high art. It's a live talk show without a censor; it's an improvised romp through the complaints everyone has in common; it's a chance to party about the things that no one else will congratulate you for. She's not a comedian in the sense of 'setup and punch line', but rather, she relies upon her audience, and her near-psychic ability to know exactly where the comedy is in that person's life."

THE 2002 HOUSTON BLACK TIE DINNER

ENTERTAINMENT

Vicki Shaw

Vickie Shaw looks like the woman next door... All-American with blond hair, lipstick and polished nails. Once she opens her mouth, you'll know she was born and raised in Texas and you'll never stop laughing.

After eighteen years of marriage and three kids, something was missing in Vickie's life...

Now Vickie Shaw has her own CD, "Your Funny?" My Mom, and is a featured artist on the "Best of Lesbian Comedy" on Rising Star Records. Last year she toured the U.S. with her "La-la-pa-Lesbo" tour. This year, with her new "Sick and Wrong" tour, she will crack you up!

"People were always coming up to me and saying, 'You should do stand-up comedy.' Vickie did become a stand-up comic and came out as a lesbian at the same time. 'I would've come out as a stand-up, but it would've killed my parents.' Now, she performs in both straight and gay venues opening audiences' minds with laughter.

"I don't look the part. I blow away all of their stereotypes. I'm the woman next door; except I just happen to be gay." Today, Vickie Shaw is a seasoned comedian, hilariously addressing the triumphs and trials of being a woman, a mother and gay in America.

Vickie's own life provides the best material for her show. She's a recovering SOB (Southern Baptist), raising three kids (as an out lesbian mother) and learning to date. Vickie has performed in almost every state in the U.S. over the last five years.

Vickie has headlined in various venues, including the Michigan Women's Festival, National Women's Music Festival, Monterrey Beach Women's Festival, and the Dinah & Lina Shore Golf Tournament in Southern California. She's headlined at numerous clubs, including Spellbinder's and The Laff Stop in Houston, Comedy Underground in Seattle, The Improv in Cleveland, Wall Street in Columbus, Luna Park in Los Angeles, 88's in New York City, the Light Project in Miami and internationally on Olivia Travel cruises & Club Med resorts.

HUMANITARIAN AWARD

Janine M. Brunjes

Janine Brunjes comes as no stranger to the GLBT community. Janine is presently Mayor Lee P. Brown's liaison to the GLBT. This year's Houston Black Tie Humanitarian Award recognizes Janine for her passionate selfless giving of herself to charitable causes as well as those causes she plunders politically.

Her entrance into the world of charitable work came in 1991 when Janine was called to serve on the Board of AFH for a term of two years. After acquainting herself with the work that lay ahead, Janine focused on HIV, lesbian health issues, and equal rights.

In 1992, Janine worked as one of the original founding members of the Houston Black Tie Dinner, which in its history, has raised over $1.2 million for GLBT causes.

Janine's passion for supporting lesbians who needed dollars to continue their education, lead her to developing a steering committee for An Uncommon Legacy Houston in 1994. To date, the Houston group has raised in excess of $500,000 to promote the visibility, vitality and strength of the lesbian community.

Janine's passions do not end there. With her service to the Hollyfield Foundation, focused on the mission of its late founder Jay Hollyfield, Janine is dedicated to Human Rights and HIV/AIDS and lesbian health issues.

Her drive and passion are also engaged in the fight against breast cancer and improving the quality of health care in Houston. Janine graduated from Leadership Houston this past June.

MASTER OF CEREMONIES

Ernie Manouse

*Anchor/Producer
Houston Public Television*

"(Ernie is) among the best interviewers I have ever experienced. His intellect, charm and charisma make for television that is informative and entertaining. In the course of conducting a superb interview, he conveys his talent, humor, intelligence, compassion, understanding and wit."

Walter Cronkite

From being granted author Paul Monette's final broadcast interview, to having Eartha Kitt demonstrate her work-out routine on top of a dining table, Emmy nominated Ernie Manouse has filled his life with wonderful and moving personal television memories, while entertaining and informing the public at the same time. A native of Upstate New York and a graduate of Loyola University Chicago, Manouse has made the rounds - from NBC Network News, to WLS in Chicago, and most recently to HoustonPBS. With a naturally inquisitive nature, and a gift of gab, Ernie has worked his way through all aspects of Talk - from producing a sex therapy show to hosting his own brand of chat and magazine programs. On the national scene, Ernie was the feature interviewer on the pilot episode of "I-LINE" (for the nation's first gay television channel GET), and is currently seen across the country on PBS hosting numerous pledge and entertainment specials, including "Suze Orman's The Road To Wealth". Houstonian's best know Ernie from his six years hosting and producing the daily magazine programs WeekNight Edition/WeekDAY, which became Houston television's most celebrated local program earning multiple EMMY, KATIE, and Houston Press Club awards. In 2001, Manouse had the rare distinction of being nominated against himself in the "Outstanding Interview/Talk Show" category in the five state regional Dallas Press Club Awards. Internationally, Ernie is featured on the Houston episode of PrideVision's world travel show "BUMP!"

In his off-time, Ernie keeps busy working within the community and donating his time. He has become a popular Master of Ceremonies and Host for events as diverse as The Pride Parade and the U.S. Military Ball, as well as MCing the annual Oscar Party at the River Oaks Theater. In 1999, Ernie was rider #1000 in the TexasAIDSride 2, cycling from Houston to Dallas in 4 days. Manouse served on the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors for STAGES Theatre as well as being Vice President for both the Houston Gay & Lesbian Film Festival and the USO of Greater Houston. His newest board commitments include "Hands of Serenity" (an organization dedicated to helping with burial costs for underprivileged children) and the new Dominic Walsh Dance Theatre.

October 31st, 2002 begins a new chapter in Ernie's life as host and producer on the new prime-time series "the connection" - airing every Thursday at 7 p.m. on HoustonPBS. Combining field stories and lively conversation, the focus of the program will be on the people and issues that are on the minds of Houstonians.

FRIENDS & LOVED ONES WE REMEMBER

I am no longer afraid of mirrors where I see the sign of the amazon, the one who shoots arrows.

There was a fine red line across my chest where a knife entered, but now a branch winds about the scar and travels from arm to heart.

Green leaves cover the branch, grapes hang there
and a bird appears.

What grows in me now is vital and does not cause me harm. I think the bird is singing.

I have relinquished some of the scars.

I have designed my chest with the care given to an illuminated manuscript.

I am no longer ashamed to make love.
Love is a battle I can win.

I have the body of a warrior who does not kill or wound.

On the book of my body,
I have permanently inscribed a tree.

Who Cares?

We do! And so should you.

In most cities, the GLBT Community Center is the birthplace for change, a safe harbor, and a vital resource to those who have been out for years and those just coming to awareness of their sexuality. From Los Angeles to New York, centers such as the Houston Lesbian & Gay Community Center depend on corporate sponsorship and individual donations to continue their vital services. And right now, Houston's center needs your help.

Each month, OutSmart will donate a full page to help the center meet its operating budget. What can you do? Well, if you're a company, you can list your name or company logo on this page for a small $30 or $40 donation. If you're an OutSmart reader, you can donate $20 and memorialize a loved one, send a message or birthday wish, or just get something off your chest. All donations are tax deductible. Advertise your business, express yourself, remember someone close to you. It's your page. It's our page. It doesn't matter what you say or how you say it. Just say it. Show your support by giving a big shout-out to the community center.
