PERSONAL BIO
I am a twenty eight year old native Houstonian, born at Houston General Hospital, the sixth of eight children. I've lived my entire life in Houston, attending school in HHSO and graduating from Lamar High School in 1980. From there I attended Houston Community College majoring in Clerical/Secretarial studies. I am presently employed in the Texas Medical Center as a medical secretary for a shoulder specialist (Orthopedic Surgeon). In August of 1989 I became engaged to be married to Ramona M. Gibson. We've made our home in Southwest Houston. We also hope and pray to have a family in our future.

My church home is MCKK and I attend regularly. I love animals, I also am the proud mother of a little, very feisty Pitbull daughter, her name is Mita, who thinks she is a lion.

I also enjoy dancing, dining out, travel, movies, reading, family gatherings and evenings at home.

The person I most idolize would be Bettie Davis. I idolize her because she is a Romantic, she's a very strong woman with a very strong personality and she is also a very feminine woman.
