GAY STABS GAY IN MONTROSE

On Tuesday, October 9, a 43-year-old Montrose man, Thomas O. Maund, living in an apartment complex at 4105 Graustark, was fatally stabbed by 25-year-old Michael Charles Copeland. They had met earlier in the evening in a Westheimer gay bar and went to Thomas' apartment where the murder took place.

With his hands tied, he was stabbed several times in the chest and neck. Police found his nude body in his bedroom. Copeland was arrested in the apartment and jailed on $10,000 bond after he, himself, had called the police admitting to the crime.

OKLAHOMA MEDIA ON GAY ISSUES

The September 1, Saturday first editions of The Oklahoman and The Oklahoma City Times have reported on the federal suit challenging the Helm Bill. The article included quotes from the unnamed plaintiffs advocating a desire to discuss homosexuality in the classroom and to advocate gay rights in private life.

The Oklahoma City Times editorial writer picked up on the classroom quote and advocated the need for the law in a September 6 editorial. The editorial said gay teachers have no right to "impose their beliefs" and they pose a risk of "indoctrination" occurring, keying on the old idea that gay teachers want to recruit children from an early age. It ended with the statement that a "teacher's freedom of expression or assembly is not the issue."

According to Our Time, the newsletter of Oklahomans for Human Rights, the writer did go as far as to state that what gays do in private should be no one else's business. In fact, it should be noted that some of what gays do in private is still illegal in Oklahoma. The question is, "Could the Times be advocating repeal of these laws?"

MARCH ON WASHINGTON

LANDMARK SUCCESS

Last Sunday's March on Washington was peaceful and successful. Pacific Radio Network reported nearly 250,000 in attendance while ABC-TV was less optimistic with a figure of "60,000 screaming marching gays and lesbians." The Washington police, who's estimate of the crowd is probably the most accurate, say between 125,000 and 150,000.

Unfortunately, the march did not get good nationwide media coverage from the three networks, wire services, or major newspapers. The most that was reported was a 30 second news report on a 30 minute network news program or a small story buried in the middle of a fat daily newspaper. We needed "straight media" coverage sorely, and we did not get it.

POLICE RAIDS ON GAYS

Houston is not the only city to be experiencing police harrassment in bars. In New York City, police have raided three more Village gay bars recently arresting about fifteen gays on charges of violating the New York liquor laws. It seems that the clubs raided claim to be private but yet allow admittance to the general public.

In Boston, a stepped up arresting of street hustlers continues. More than thirty-five young men have been taken to jail for "working the streets" on "The Block" which is in Boston's Back Bay area.

In San Francisco, officer Daniel Marr has been convicted to do 200 hours of community work with the disabled and fined $1,000 for an incident recently at a Bay area Lesbian bar called Peg's Place. The judge called the police officer a "bully." He may be either dismissed or transferred.

BOYS FOR SALE AUSTIN SEX RING

In Austin, Robert Anderson, age 36, a pharmacist, has been found to be running a sex ring of young boys out of his home. The ring was accidentally uncovered October ninth by Austin vice while investigating a minor in possession of marijuana. The ring includes a list of names (age, weight, height, meeting place, and drug habits) of young boys who are available for sexual contact with older men.

After further investigation, it has now been revealed that the list of over 300 boy's names also includes many in the Houston area. Houston vice point to a rise in "boys for sale" due to the rapid population rate of Houston.

The straight world must remember that gays deplore the molestation and solicitation of young boys as much as straights. All reliable surveys on the subject strongly indicate that most of the older men who prefer young boys are not really gay. They are, at the least, sexually disturbed about their own sexual identity.

TEXAS TEACHER GETS JOB BACK

Her name is Ollie Adamson. She's a French teacher in Carrollton, Texas. She had taken a pro-gay rights stand during a classroom discussion. This happened last May. She was thereafter called to the principal's office and asked if she were a lesbian. On the verge of tears, she said she had only told her students that she felt "very strongly about individual choice being one of our basic rights."

She was then asked by principal Kenneth McKinney and assistant principal Carmyn Douglas to sign a letter of resignation, which she did in a very emotional moment. Later when she regained her composure she asked for the letter of resignation back, but the principal refused.

Teacher Adamson then took her case to the Carrollton Farmers Branch School Board. After having her testimony disputed, the board still voted three to two in her favor refusing to accept her resignation. This Fall, she returned to her classroom and is again teaching French at Newman Smith High School.

HOUSTON ADULT BOOKSTORES CLOSE TEMPORARILY

As with all decisions from the bench in the latest Texas pornography controversy, the latest judgement also came down suddenly and without prior notice. Friday morning, October 12, the Fifth Circuit Court in New Orleans lifted the indefinite injunction keeping law enforcement officers from enforcing the law which was upheld to be constitutional earlier in September.

Quickly, all Houston bookstores and adult movie houses closed rather than face arrest. Attorneys for the adult bookstore retailers are making a further appeal. It is felt that the stores and theatres will reopen again after changing and eliminating some merchandise and films.

NATIONAL GAY TASK FORCE NEARLY BROKE

The National Gay Task Force has a current deficit of $23,000 and if cutbacks are not made immediately, the NGTF will be broke by early 1980. Director Charles Brydon says, "The existence of the Task Force is at stake."

Some of the instant cutbacks include the deletion of three staff positions which are the Director of Administration and Finance, the Media Director, and the part-time Membership Assistant. It is the membership drop which has greatly contributed to the current financial delima since the annual dues from memberships constitutes the major part of the NGTF income.

GAY TELEVISION NEWS BRIEF

An excellent documentary on homosexuals by ABC-TV, which TWT previewed and thereby recommends, was cancelled, unfortunately. The program was to have aired at 9pm Texas time on Thursday, October 11 but because of the "rain out" on the first game of the World Series between the Pirates and the Orioles, the first two games of the series were backed up one day. October 11 was to have been a day of travel from Baltimore to Pittsburgh, leaving the ABC-TV schedule free of baseball that night. When queried as to when the gay documentary would be rescheduled, TWT was told by KTRK-TV of Houston and WFAA-TV of Dallas (ABC affiliates) that they hadn't been informed by the network as to a rescheduling date.

Although ABC-TV had to cancel its Closeup on Homosexuals, sports did not interfere with CBS-TV's 30 Minutes last Saturday afternoon. 30 Minutes is the Saturday youth spin-off of the popular Sunday 60 Minutes adult program. On last Saturday's 30 Minutes, CBS-TV interviewed four gay teenagers from Houston who talked about the difficulties of parents not understanding, of not being able to go to gay bars, and of older gays only being interested in them as sex objects. The four gay youths expressed a desire to form lasting friendships with other gays, rather than one night "quickies."

In Hollywood, a business known as Gene's TV has started advertising in the yellow pages as a gay business. This is a first! Pacific Telephone Company at first objected to their advertising slogans, "Serving the Gay Community and Friends" and "The Gay Supermarket," but later changed their policy and accepted the advertisement from Gene's TV.

MOVIE "CRUISING" CAUSES TENSION

The new movie, "Cruising" which is being filmed in New York City is causing much tension in that city's gay community of Greenwich Village. The filming has been delayed several times because of gay demonstrations and the lack of cooperation by certain gay bar owners. In fact, it has taken extra police protection to continue the filming.

The movie plot is of a psychopathic killer of gays who comes out of his own closet and goes berserk. It is a volatile plot, to say the least. William Friedkin is the director and Al Pacino stars as the murderer of homosexuals. Arthur Bell who writes for the respected Village Voice is quoted as "the movie promises to be the most oppressive, ugly, bigoted look at homosexuality ever presented on the screen ... and a validation of Anita Bryant's hate campaign."

DIGNITY/CHICAGO CONFERENCE

More than 200 people from 21 states have already registered for the National Conference on Gay and Lesbian Issues to be held in Chicago on October 26-28.

Allan H. Spear, Senator, Minnesota Legislature, will lecture to open the conference. Rita Mae Brown, author of Rubyfruit Jungle, will give the closing lecture.

Charles Silverstein, author of A Family Matter and The Joy of Gay Sex, will lead workshops on "Coming Out," "Sexual Enrichment for Gays," and "Intimacy in Couples."

Barbara Gittings, lesbian activist and coordinator of the Task Force on Gay Liberation of the National Gay Task Force, will lead workshops on "Lesbian Visibility" and "Setting Parents Straight About Growing Up Gay."

William B. Kelley, a member of the board of directors of the National Gay Task Force, will speak on "Combatting Discrimination," and Renee Hanover, a Chicago attorney on the board of directors of the National Gay Rights Lobby, will speak on "Legal Rights."

There will be informal discussion groups on such topics as alcoholism, drug abuse, and gays and lesbians as parents. The conference is jointly sponsored by Dignity/Chicago and Oasis Center for Human Potential. For information, contact Oasis Center, 7463 N. Sheridan, Chicago, IL 60626, (312)274-6777.

TULSA OPERA SEASON OPENS

The current season of the Tulsa Opera will open next month. Tulsa, Oil Capital of Oklahoma, has long enjoyed a fine cultural history and the new season of opera productions has been vastly expanded. Massenet's "La Navarraise" and Leoncavallo's "Pagliacci" will open the season in November.

Then in March, "Die Walkure" will be performed. It will be Oklahoma's first production of a Richard Wagner opera starring soprano Roberta Knie who was born in the Sooner state. The expanded season will close in May with Johann Strauss' "Fledermaus."

COMMENT

In this column, readers exchange ideas with other readers and with our editor in a public forum. Address all letters to: Comment, TWT, Vieux Carre Building, 3223 Smith Street, Suite 103, Houston, Texas 77006. All letters become the property of TWT and must be signed (if you don't wish your name printed, please specify). And PLEASE keep your letters short.

GPC Mailing List Cleared

Dear TWT,
There has been some confusion about the secrecy of the GPC/Houston mailing list policy, so here is a clarification: The GPC Newsletter comes out approximately 6 times per year and reaches over 7,500 gay people in the Greater Houston area. The use of the mailing list for political endorsements has given the Gay Community its strongest bargaining tool for dealing with prospective candidates and elected officials. The list has enabled the caucus to follow through with precinct organization, block walking, and massive phone solicitation for special events.

In the past there has been confusion as to who had access to the mailing list and how it was used. All GPC mailers are prepared by volunteers under GPC supervision, and at no time is the list "given out" to advertisers who sponsor mailings. The advertisers and organizations who have included brochures in our mailings include: Numbers, the Advocate, Texas Gay Task Force, National Gay Task Force, Tea for 2,000, Montrose Activity Center, Upfront, Off the Wall Productions, MCCR, the VD Clinic, endorsed politicians, and others. GPC mail can usually be identified by the 'Precinct XXX' designation on the address label.

Names for the mailing list were acquired from the following sources: the local Anita Bryant demonstrations, Town Meeting, Tea for 2,000, Sweat Tea, Super Tea, Expressions of Freedom Rally, Mr. Metro event, Upfront, No On 6 Banquet, GPC sponsored petitions, contests, the many so-called gay party lists in wide circulation, Post Office address correction service (at 25¢ per name), attendance sheets at GPC meetings, and GPC Voter Registration. It should be noted here that names acquired through Voter Registration are not transcribed from Voter Registration cards.

Over 2,000 people have had their subscriptions dropped due to the fact that bulk mail is not forwardable when people move, and many of the new addresses are not available through the Address Correction service. The newsletters are sent out for free, and if you would like to receive the next one, or you would like to update your address, please call the GPC office at (713)526-2668, or ask for a GPC newsletter form at Dirty Sally's, Club Baths, After Dark, the Silver Phoenix, Midtowne Spa, Venture-N, or Wild 'n' Stein Books.

Poetry for the Lovelorn

Dear TWT,
In regards to a recent letter I read in TWT (Volume 5, Number 28, Oct. 5-11, 1979) concerning a Beaumont, Texas reader's difficulty in finding someone to love, I offer this advise, "Keep Looking," and a poem!

*The other night I took flight with a friend of mine.
It might seem to many that we achieved a height and together we spent an hour glass of time.*

*I learned from him and he from me, and for a split second out of eternity, we became one,
Both caring and helping the other to walk the road that our minds were taking.*

I asked of him nothing more than to listen as I spoke and which I would so lovingly return.

Now that the sun has Risen and set, I myself would be willing to bet that my friend and I will once again take flight.

"Loneliness is only what you make it, my friend."

Michael Jones
Oklahoma City, Oklahoma

Serving Our Gay Community

Dear TWT Readers,

The following letter to the Montrose Patrol was received on October 5, 1979 from HPD.

Each of the officers named in the letter was commended in letters sent by the Montrose Patrol to Chief of Police Harry Caldwell on September 26, 1979. These letters were sent for the express purpose of commending those men who have served our community as it ought to be served by our police department. We in the patrol are keenly aware of the "unfriendlies" that remain on duty in our area. We must continue to deal with them in a mature fashion.

Speaking of being mature—the patrol would appreciate it very much if those of you who have whistles (a la San Fran) would NOT use them on the streets unless you need help. Don't be responsible for the injury of another person because of unwarranted use of the whistle or, of yourself by crying "wolf." (Remember the fairy tale—no pun intended) The Patrol also has a permanent telephone operation. Please make note of the number: (713)520-9616. ▼

1728 Richmond Avenue

THE TEXAS OPERA HOUSE in Houston was officially sold to Jerry Menefee of the Bourbon Pub and Parade Disco in New Orleans last Tuesday afternoon, October 16, after lengthy negotiations. Several bar owners had been seriously looking at the closed location on Richmond. Jerry told TWT, "I have a lot of innovative ideas which I'm going to bring to the Houston disco scene." More bar tea later as it stirs. Welcome to Houston, JM and the Vieux Carre empire!

ENTERTAINER OF THE YEAR balloting has already begun. TWT is now traveling the state. This Sunday we'll be at the Midnite Sun in Houston and next Wednesday at The Other Place in Fort Worth.

HOT TEA by Chuck

AFTER HOURS was held again last weekend at Numbers Disco in Houston in defiance of an "anti-no after hours" city ordinance. Beverly Wren, owner, told TWT that there were no police or vice problems and that the disco remained open till 4am both Friday and Saturday nights.

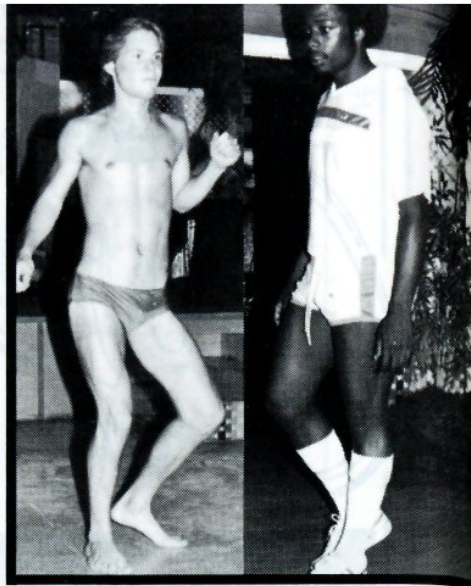

MOTORCYCLES: The annual Mid-America conference of bike clubs and riders will be held this weekend as 31 clubs from 11 mid-western states will converge on Houston, smack dab in the middle of the Art Festival.

WESTHEIMER ART FESTIVAL: It's this weekend in Houston! Both Saturday and Sunday will mark the days for the outdoor stroll up the gay Westheimer strip. The cruise festival is a twice annual event, once in the Fall and again in the Spring.

MARCH PROLOGUE: The Gay Hispanic Caucus will sponsor an after-the-March celebration this Sunday from 1 to 6pm at 416 West Clay in Houston. Guest speakers will be Lionell Castillo (GPC choice for mayor) and Representative Ben T. Reyes.

AUSTIN: Miss Gay Austin will be the night of Sunday October 28 ... entry deadline is looming ahead quickly ... Bill Martin reports that the excellent lesbian film, "The Killing of Sister George" will play at the Varsity Theatre on the strip across from UT on October 24 and 25 ... and, the bookstores and adult movie arcades are still open in Austin contrary to the situation in both Houston and Dallas ... Austin is "wide open" ... Nowhere else but Austin!

SAN ANTONIO: The Other Place grand opens this weekend with owner, Judy Gayle, giving away half-price drinks this Friday and Saturday from 7:30 to 8:30pm ... it's a beautiful new club on General Kruger off San Pedro ... The now gay Odyssey Disco on North Main is the talk of the town ... it happened so quickly ... The Country's 7th annual Oktober Extravaganza opens Oct. 28 with shows Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday nights for three weeks ... and Alice Phallus reports that Sunset Boulevard raised nearly $1,000 for the March on Washington.

MR. CENTRAL TEXAS was held September 16 at Raven's The Other End in Waco and Dick Connolly of Fort Worth took the Cruise Camera to the pageant. The 1980 title winner is 20-year-old Gray Ling Woods (right). Winner of Best Talent goes to fourth runner-up (left) Mitch Tambling. Both will be entering TWT's Mr. Texas Pageant.

MR. TEXAS will be Tuesday, December 11 at Number's Disco in Houston. The annual official pageant is a TWT copyrighted event. Entry blanks will be available next month in most Texas clubs. Start flexing.

TERROR AT MAC: "And on that night, Masqueraded Madness shook its Victims with a Thunderous Beat-Bizarre." It's Terror for Two Thousand, a t-dance benefit for the Montrose Activity Center this Saturday night starting at 10:30pm. There'll be door prizes, free beer, plus fabulous trips for best costume winners. Donation to MAC at the door.

TATTLE TALE: Get well wishes to Ron Souix of The Barn ... Chip Eakins, 19 year old and a Sagittarian, is the new manager of the Mad Hatter in Arlington ... happy birthday to the new Mad Hatter assistant manager, Rusty Turbyfill ... Alberto James reports many hot enteries for the Mr. Waco Contest coming up Oct. 18 at Raven's Other End ... and Howard at Harlow's, The Pub, in Wichita Falls is gearing up for more new lights and disco sound.

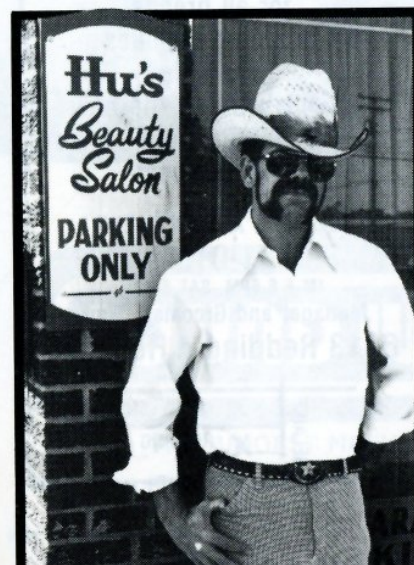

NAME DROPPER: Lollie Johnson and Bob Cappell have bought the Odyssey Disco 2500 at North Main and Dewey in San Antonio ... Disco Grandma and Casandra will both celebrate Scorpio birthdays October 26 ... Donald Pederson will be installed as pastor of the United Community Church this Sunday at 11am ... and the metroplex master of mixing disco, Howard Metz, has returned to Village Station in Big D as full-time dj ... yea for the rain lights!

FORT WORTH: Mr. Metroplex is coming to the Mad Hatter in December as a DAIR benefit ... Mr. Fort Worth will be November 17 sponsored by Gary Monier and The Corral where Happy and Glenn are keeping things stirred up ... and, Entertainer of the Year Vote Night will be next Wednesday at The Other Place ... come by and vote!

DALLAS: Body Works opens this Friday, October 19 with two complete lines of Nautilus equipment ... it's a beautiful club so stop in and see Troy and Patrick, the owner, to improve the way your body works at the new Body Works ... The Mustang Band was a super hit at the Wild Crowd Saloon ... D-III will present the live stage production of The Rocky Horror Show November 13 and 15 ... if you're under 25, you can get a free locker on Monday at Metro Baths ... the Hidden Door grand opening will be October 25 with free drinks and food from 9 till 11 ... it's the first key club in Dallas ... although the cafe has received several more fire threats over the phone, Mom's Meatball Cafe is already starting to rebuild ... alright ... and, Village Station is now serving draft beer in 10 degree below zero frosted mugs plus root beer for weekend after hours ... how very "G".

TEXAS-OU WEEKEND is over for another year; but the memories of gay times will linger on into the Fall. If you're a Longhorn fan, you were thrilled that #4 rated Texas upset #3 rated Oklahoma. If you're a Go Big Red OU fan, then there's always next year.

CRUISE CAMERA: Although the Sooners lost to Texas in the Cotton Bowl last weekend, gay life goes on in Big Red Country and the man who keeps track of all the tea that's being stirred in OKC is Hu Bottom (photo below). As Hu says, "if you don't want to read about it, don't do it." Hu, who is the TWT OKC reporter is shown here in front of his salon.

METROPLEX EYE: Through the eyes of the D/FW Cruise Camera are seen some of the dancing go-go boys (above) at The Eighth Day. Regulars every weekend are Dan Marchionni, who is Mr. Macho Dallas '79, Paul Fuller who is Mr. Universe of Texas '79, and Stan Head who is Mr. Dallas '79 ... looks hot ... and to stay in business 28 years, you've got to have a hot bar and that's exactly what the Villa Fontana is ... shown here (below) are owners (foreground) Ray Hardin and (background) Bill Hargis. The Villa is the oldest gay bar in America having celebrated its 28th anniversary October 11.

MISS GAY GALVESTON will be held Halloween night at the Kon Tiki with $200 going to the winner ... Bob Ellison says it's the first city title pageant ever to be held on the island ... Bernard of Robert's LaFitte will be leaving the island Oct. 22 to open up his west coast operation in North Hollywood ... Walter is serving liquor by the drink now that the Silver Palace has its liquor license ... Adrian has introduced his new lower winter rates at the Islandia Motel ... and, Robert was a hit in Houston doing a show at Bobbie Shane's.

My personal account of the trip Richard, Dale, Randy and I took to Washington, D.C.

by Blase DiStefano

Thursday evening, Oct. 11: Randy (a fellow artist & friend) and I fly from Houston Hobby airport to Dallas Love Field Airport. We "patiently" wait about half an hour for our friend, Richard, who has been held up at a DAIR meeting. After he picks us up, we eat at a restaurant on Cedar Springs; then we dance at a disco on Cedar Springs; then we sleep in his apartment, which happens to be located right off—you guessed it—Cedar Springs.

Friday, Oct. 12: We (the "we" now includes Dale, Richard's partner) help Richard move [one wonders how our arrival in Dallas coincided with his move—he swears it just happened that way (I believe him—really)].

Friday evening: We're flying to Washington, D.C. via Baltimore, with a contingency of about 50 lesbians and gay men. But wait—over Memphis, Tennessee, the pilot informs us that heavy fog has set in on Baltimore and the entire East Coast. Oh, hell—back to Dallas. Oh, well, we'll get a good night's sleep in Dallas. But wait (again)—it seems that I've forgotten that in Dallas, it's Texas-OU weekend, so it also seems that there's not an available room. Oh, well, back to Houston—Texas International flies us to Houston Intercontinental Airport to sleep in the Host Hotel. Randy and I eat about 11:30pm, then dance (along with 25-30 gay men) in the upstairs disco bar in the hotel, with shocked nongays looking on. I leave after only a few dances, then pass out on my hotel bed. I vaguely remember Randy coming in saying something about going swimming. Richard later told me that the dj enjoyed our dancing and accepted a March on Washington button to show her support for gay rights.

Saturday, Oct. 13: I get up at 5:30am; Randy never even went to sleep. Richard and Dale stayed in another room, and I didn't see them till right before boarding the plane for Baltimore. Once at the Baltimore Airport, we are told that our bus tickets from Baltimore to our hotel in D.C. will not be honored. We "patiently" wait. We then buy tickets for a bus that drops us off at the Hilton Hotel, about four blocks from our hotel. We take a taxi to our hotel. Randy, Richard and Dale decide to go to the Texas Barbeque, but not me; I pass out on my hotel bed (again). After a long overdue rest, I walk towards the White House, take photos of jogging Jimmy (barely visible even through my zoom lens), then walk to the Washington Monument where the First Annual Lesbian/Gay Concert has begun. Take more photos. It gets a bit chilly. Take photos till the night helps me remember my lack of skill in taking photos in darkness. It gets REAL chilly. Have to leave before my fear of freezing takes over (my yoga breathing has ceased to help). Along with five other people (all from Oklahoma, I think), I take a cab back to the hotel, then thaw. While I mentally prepare myself for the big day, Richard, Dale and John (a fellow TWT staffer) go to the D.C. Eagle. To paraphrase Richard, "We had to wait in a half-block-long line. Inside, it was wall to wall men. Leaving the Eagle, we went across the street to the Exile ('Macho Disco') to wait in another half-block-long line. Inside, at one point, it was so crowded, we couldn't move."

Sunday, Oct. 14: The four of us taxi to the Mall. The gathering is tremendous. I hop on Randy's shoulders to get a better view and photo of the crowd. I can stop myself from taking pictures only to see that there are really this many lesbians and gay men together in one place—it's overwhelming. The March starts, and I begin to walk along the side, taking photos. I run ahead, taking more photos. I see lots of friends along the way. More photos. So many people! We pass the White House (I was told that the marchers flowed past the White House for 3 hours), then march to the Monument grounds. More photos. Since I'm a story). Robin Tyler, Lesbian Activist Feminist Comic from Los Angeles and Ray Hill, Gay Political Activist from Houston co-host. Speakers speak. Singers sing. The marchers are still arriving! More photos. After they have all reached the grounds, I look around to see that people cover the grounds from the stage all the way back to the Monument. More photos. More speakers. More singers. More photos . . . It's beautiful. The March itself and seeing thousands of lesbians and gay men made the previous days and the "passing outs" all worthwhile. It is rumored that next year there will be a march on EACH state's capitol. The United States will never be the same! More photos! ▼

THE PLAYERS

VERA: A 37-year-old onetime drag queen and former Joske's salesclerk who won a radio station during a revealing game of strip poker with a confused Arab oil sheik.

PHOEBE: Vera's dearest friend and secretary, a 33-year-old male child weighing in at an Ethel Mertz-esque 350 pounds.

BURT: The radio station's 26-year-old programming director and relatively sane staffer.

ZACHARY: Burt's 24-year-old hot 'n' hunky lover who never let his job as news director interfere with his reputation as a radical gay-lib anarchist.

TRUDY: Zachary's extremely precocious nine-year-old adopted niece.

CHE LUTHER KENNEDY: Zach's acid-aged hippie friend.

MAZOLA: The 30-year-old militant black feminist known on the disco-jockey airwaves as "Mama Oreo Thighs."

INEZ COBBLER: The 45-year-old Pasadena housewife who rose to immediate radio stardom after the station's transmitter fell on the trailer park she managed.

EPISODE FIVE

Burt called Vera into his office.

"Have a seat, please," he said.

Vera sat.

"I have some news for you," Burt continued. "Something that's going to make you very happy."

"They've discovered I'm really Robert Redford!" Vera screamed.

"This news will make you happier than that."

"They've discovered I'm MRS. Robert Redford?"

"No. Better even than that," Burt tantalized. "A dream come true. What have you wanted more than anything else in your entire life?"

"The costumes from 'Gone With the Wind!' Vera squealed.

"Over what threshold have you ached to cross?" Burt coaxed.

"They sent me a Saks credit card!" Vera screamed.

"No. Bigger, better. You can't imagine news as good as the news I'm about to tell you!"

"Evidently you can't imagine what I could do with a Saks card," Vera huffed.

"I have decided. . . ."

"Yes, yes, yes," Vera stammered, expectantly.

"I have decided to give you your own radio show."

"AAAAAAHHHHH!" Vera screamed, falling from the chair, onto his knees, and crawling toward Burt's feet for some Heavy Groveling.

"Praise the Lord! Praise the Lord! Praise the Lord," Vera shouted. "Thank you-thank you-thank you-thank you-thank you-thank you . . ."

"Get up, get up," Burt said. "I haven't told you the details yet."

"Do I get to speak into a microphone?"

"Yes."

"Is it going to be broadcast?"

"Yes."

"With the transmitter plugged in?"

"Yes."

"That's all I need to hear, sister. Oh, thank you-thank you-thank you-thank you-thank you-thank you . . ."

"GET UP!" Burt demanded. "We have to go over the details."

"Sure boss. Whatever you say. I certainly do want to keep you happy. Whatever you say. You're the boss. You talk. I'll listen."

"Fine. Now the concept I have in mind concerns . . ."

"Of course," Vera interrupted, "I really don't know if we should be discussing this until I've had a chance to talk to my agent. And my manager. I do know I absolutely refuse to work for less than double scale. And my dressing room has to have a . . . eh . . . and, oh, yes, there's the matter of paid vacations. Now, I . . ."

"SHUT UP!" Burt yelled.

"Very well, I'll do it for free," Vera quickly added.

"The show will be on," Burt continued, "from ten until midnight."

"Fourteen hours?" Vera asked, shocked. "My dear, I know I'm witty, brilliant, clever, charmin' and all that. But even for me, I think fourteen hours a day is a bit much. I think . . ."

"Not fourteen hours! From ten P.M. until midnight!"

"Oh, fine. I haven't even gone on yet and already you've cut my show by 90%!" Vera snapped.

"Two hours—or nothing," Burt admonished.

"I'll take it! I'll take it! I'll talk fast. Maybe I can get in everything I want to say in two hours a day."

"It's not a daily show."

"Weekly?"

"It's not a weekly show."

"Monthly? Listen, just how thin do you think you can spread me?" Vera sneered.

"It's a special. One show. One!"

"THAT thin?"

"Two hours—once—or nothing. Take it or leave it."

"I'll take it! I'll take it! But the difference between the 'take it' and the 'leave it' is gettin' mighty damn slim, I must say."

"Can I continue? Please!"
 "Yes, sir, yessir. You're the boss. I'll be quiet."
 "Now like I said, it's going to be a special. A theme show. A show about..."
 "A theme show? Wonderful! I've always loved theme shows. Now, let's see, what can our theme be?" Vera began. "I'm the host so ... I know ... 'Culture in America' ... 'Eloquence in Conversation' ... 'Refinement in Society' ... It's got to be a show that reflects the true me."

"It's the Halloween Special."

"Halloween? 'Halloween' as in 'toads, lizards, bat eyes, slime, filth and things disgusting.' THAT 'Halloween?'"

"That's the one."

"You couldn't treat me like this if I weren't in this chair, Blanch. I know, I know. 'Take it or leave it.' I'll take it."

"Fine. But you'll have to get started fast. There's not a lot of time. You'll need ..."

"I can see it now," Vera sighed, walking across the room in a trance. "Glittering lights, expensive gowns, chorus boys. A shimmering coach with four coachmen, pulled by six white horses. A coach made from a giant pumpkin. With a big Jack-O-Lantern face cut in the side. And I'll wear glass slippers ... and ..."

"Stop! Hush! You don't have time for all that!" Burt yelled. "You've only got a week!"

"Don't be silly, dear boy," Vera scoffed.

"It's absolutely months and months until Halloween. Believe me, if anyone knows when Halloween is, it's me! My costume parties are legendary. Thirty days hath September, April, June, and ... eh ... and ... and October! AAAAAHHHHHHHH!"

Vera ran out the door.

"What about the show?" Burt shouted.

"Find somebody else! Get serious, sister! I've got me a costume to make!"

Vera stormed into Phoebe's living room carrying mountains of fabric, balsa wood sticks, sparklers, feathers, plumes, and bailing wire.

"Clear space! Clear space!" Vera screamed.

"SO YOU THINK YOU REMEMBER THE '60'S?"

Think you remember the 1960's? Well, HA! You don't remember the '60's at all! And we can prove it.

Here before you, we have a quiz concerning the 1960's. A quiz so difficult, so complex, so tricky, so absolutely mind-boggling it's been known to make hardened hippies break down and cry.

This quiz not only demands you remember many lesser-important events of that most-turbulent decade, but also their place in time, relative to each other. In short, kids, this quiz is a bitch.

If you think you've got what it takes to pass it, be our guest. But don't get your hopes up. You won't pass. To be acquainted with the quiz events requires having lived through the 60's. And if you lived through the '60's, your memory is already shot to hell to such a degree it's damn lucky if you remember what happened yesterday, much less 19 years ago. Believe me, I know.

But, if you insist on trying to prove me wrong, mark each of the ten exhibits with the year in which they occurred. Each year from 1960 through 1969 is used once, no repeats, no omissions. Hell, it's tough enough as it is, we didn't want to make it downright miserable.

EXHIBIT A

Cassius Clay becomes Muhammad Ali. Lester Maddox stands in the door of his restaurant with a baseball bat. Elizabeth Taylor marries Richard Burton. Hemmingway's "A Moveable Feast" becomes a leading best-seller. Films released include: "Dr. Strangelove," and "Zorba the Greek." The food stamp program is created. "Hello, Dolly!" opens on Broadway. The Surgeon General says cigarette smoking is unhealthy. Hit songs are "Leader of the Pack," "I Get Around," and "Walk on By." TV screens light up with "Peyton Place," "Shindig," and "The Man from Uncle."

EXHIBIT B

The "Saturday Evening Post" goes kaput. Levi Strauss begins making bell-bottomed jeans. DeGaulle resigns in France. The first draft lottery is held.

Judy Garland O-D's. TV finds "Sesame Street." Hershey discontinues the 5¢ candy bar. Mary Jo Kopechne drowns. Sharon Tate is murdered. "Slaughterhouse Five" is published. FOR ALL SIGNS: The New Moon occurs this Saturday night in Libra which is the sign of partners! Since a New Moon is the best time to start new projects, this Libra New Moon is ideal for laying the ground work for a new partnership—or for improving an existing one.

STARSCOPE

October 19 - 25, 1979

LIBRA: The New Moon is all yours! It occurs in your sign—something that only happens once a year! Since you are the romantic of the zodiac and ruled by partnerships, this New Moon fits you best. Now is your time of the year to improve your romantic situation. It means marriage to those who are single and a second honeymoon to those who are already married.

SCORPIO: This Saturday's New Moon allows more travel and social opportunities to develop over the next two weeks. It also allows you some time to yourself for thinking and planning. Added good news from "on high" is that the Sun will enter your sign next Tuesday evening, October 23. This will give you more vitality.

SAGITTARIUS: This Saturday's New Moon ushers in a two-week cycle when you can gain favors from influential people. Some of your hopes and wishes can now be realized. Friendships play an important role.

CAPRICORN: Saturday's New Moon ushers in a two-week lunar cycle which will see changes in your career and business life. It is now a good time to seek a promotion, change jobs, or start a new business venture.

AQUARIUS: This Saturday's New Moon which occurs in Libra will make a beneficial trine (triangle) to your Sun sign making the coming two-week lunar cycle favorable for traveling, long distance love or business and legal matters. News from afar can be encouraging.

PISCES: This Saturday's New Moon relates to your money and how you and someone else can devise a business scheme to stockpile more. The coming two-week lunar cycle is ideal for starting this financial project. Do not go it alone. You need a partner.

ARIES: This Saturday's New Moon relates to secrets, the underground, the rumors and the talk behind your back. Discount all these untruths. They mean nothing. Instead, strive during the coming two-week New Moon lunar cycle to reach a fuller and deeper understanding with a true friend.

TAURUS: This Saturday's New Moon occurs in your marriage sector. But, this marriage need not necessarily be between lovers. In fact, it probably will relate to a business marriage. It is an ideal time to go on job interviews. Now is the time to start a new career.

GEMINI: This Saturday's New Moon occurs in Libra which is a mental air sign just like Gemini. Therefore, the lunar aspect makes a trine (triangle) to your sun sign. The ongoing mental energies of this two-week cycle are beneficial to romance, to marriage and to meeting the right person.

CANCER: This Saturday's New Moon is about your money. Since the New Moon is always the best time to start a new project for a fruitful outcome, now would be the best time ever to start saving, investing and budgeting. Now is a good time to buy property.

LEO: This Saturday's New Moon relates to your intuition. Listen to your inner self. Follow your instincts. Do not do anything during the ensuing two week lunar cycle that "does not feel right," for your intuition is dead right these days.

VIRGO: This Saturday's New Moon relates to finances. If you've been trying to work out a budget or a business goal, now is the time to act. Any plans put into action during the next two weeks will work out wonderfully.

MYSTERY AD: Ever wonder how prominent showbiz personalities like to "rough it" while traveling outside Hollywood to perform a concert date? Well, one of the most prominent does it by placing ads in the local newspapers. The following ad appeared in the Want Ad section of the newspaper in Framingham, Mass., home of the Chateau deVille Club:

"Prominent person seeking to avoid crowds desires to rent a house 30 minutes from the Chateau deVille. House must be on secluded land, at least one acre. Must have four bedrooms, three baths, luxurious furnishings, and a tennis court. A heated pool would be nice. Will pay up to $250 per day for five days."

The mystery person: Johnny Carson.

BETTE YOUR BOTTOM DOLLAR: Bette Midler's debut film, "The Rose," is scheduled now to unleash itself on the world on the night of November the 7th, with a whopping price tag of $150 a ticket. Don't panic, the ticket price will be considerably lower when the film hits a theatre near you. The November 7th premier, at the Century Plaza Theatre in L.A., is a benefit for the L.A. International Film Exposition. I say the price will be lower when the film plays near you, but then, with inflation, who knows.

Incidentally, one of the biggest headaches for "Rose" director Mark Rydell at this time is making arrangements to have the film dubbed into foreign languages for overseas distribution. Seems that so much of the film's dialog contains "inside" jokes and American slang expressions it's proven damn near impossible to translate effectively. Also, Rydell has to locate four foreign actresses to play Bette's part on the soundtrack. He has to find a French Bette, a Spanish Bette, a German Bette, and an Italian Bette. All Betties will have to do both the dialog and the singing. You can Bette it won't be easy. Even with the $50,000 Rydell has put up for the search.

CLIFT HANGERS: Now that the news that he was homosexual has gotten around, the late Montgomery Clift is becoming quite a gay cult star. Cashing in on this posthumous recognition are two film companies, each making pics aimed at revealing the secrets of Monty's life. One, based on the book "Montgomery Clift, A Biography," is expected to deal with Monty's homosexuality in subtle ways. The other, based on the book "Monty," is shooting for fertile financial ground by spilling the beans and seeds all over the place. It's all gonna be VERY interesting to a lot of people, including some stars still alive who would prefer all be kept quiet.

BROADWAY BUDGET BUSTERS: Like gold itself, the price of Broadway show tickets is now going right through the roof. With new ticket prices going into effect this month, the standard price for a pair of decent weekend seats is now $50.00!

That's a whopping increase during the last five years. During the 1975-76 season, the average tab for a pair of average tickets was $18.00. During 1976-77, it rose to $21.00, on to $25.00 in 1977-78, and up to $28.00 for the season last year! Who says there's nothing new on Broadway?

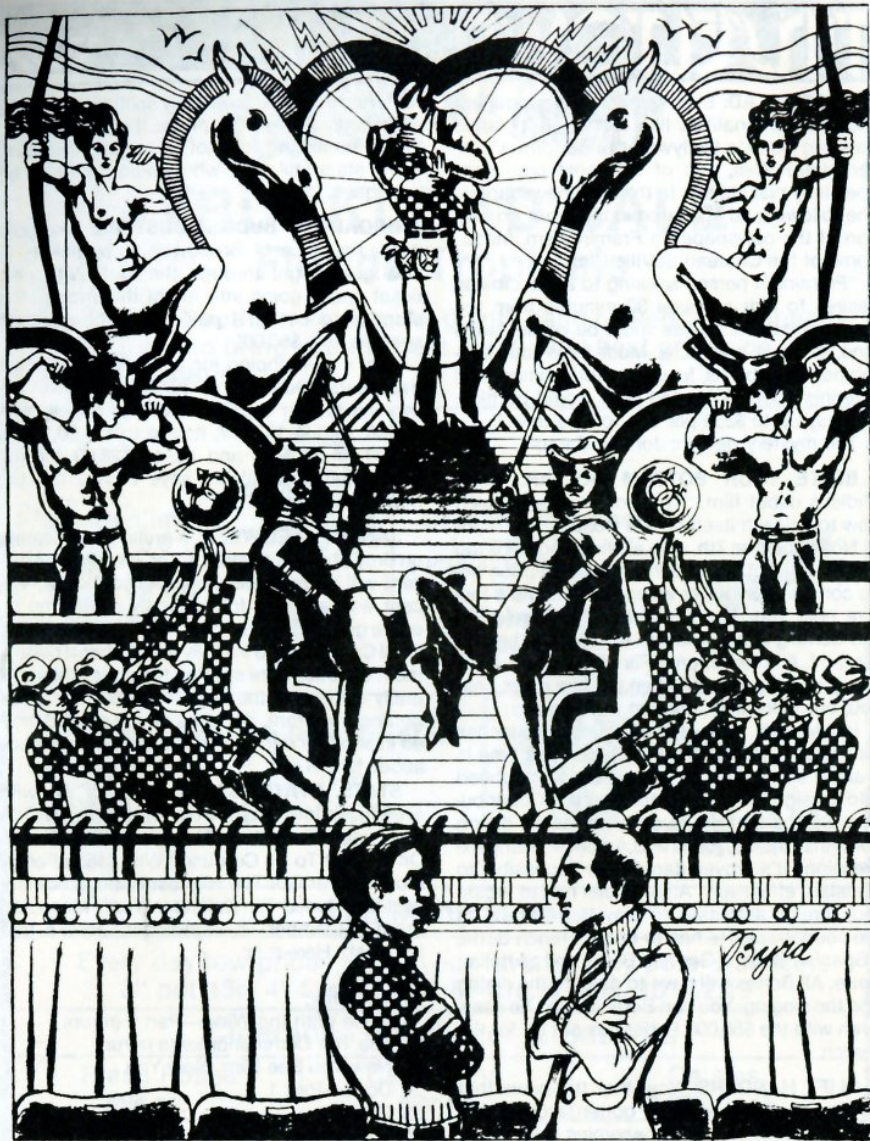

JAN-MICHAEL WEED: A preliminary hearing on drug charges against actor Jan-Michael Vincent will be held this week. As you know, Vincent was arrested for allegedly cultivating an entire greenhouse full of pot at his home on Encinal Canyon Road in Hollywood. Sheriff department deputies here spotted the dope while routinely flying over the area in a helicopter. After getting a warrant, deputies on the ground moved in and rounded up the 150 or so plants, each about 12 feet tall.

STATS, STATS, STATS: Keeping up with everyone's love of showbiz statistics, here's a new batch: The list of "Theatrical Films Shown On TV, Not To Be Confused With Made-For-TV Movies, That Got The Highest Ratings For The Just-Concluded TV Calendar Year, Measured From September To September." How's that for a list? Here it is:

1. Rocky
2. The Sting
3. Gone With the Wind—Part 2 (rerun)
4. The Ten Commandments (rerun)
5. Now You See Him, Now You Don't—Part 1
6. Carrie
7. The Longest Yard (rerun)
8. Gone With the Wind—Part 1 (rerun)
9. The Other Side of the Mountain
10. The Bad News Bears

By the way, Part 2 of "Now You See Him, Now You Don't" was way down on the list, at spot number 78. Evidently, the title of the show was taken literally by the TV viewing public.

AN OPEN LETTER OF APPRECIATION

Dear Friends,

I wish it were possible to thank each of you personally for your support and patronage during my first year of operation but that is impossible. Let me take this opportunity to extend that thanks to all of you from myself and the staff at the Islandia.

Your complimentary letters and referrals have been most gratifying. All of us have enjoyed serving you and it is personally very rewarding to experience the outflow of friendliness and the distinct sense of community you have conveyed. It touched us all!

Public service is what we are all dedicated to, but it is most appreciated when we are made aware of the fact that we have pleased a guest. It fuels our motivation.

We have already begun preparation for the onslaught of the next summer season. Each year we hope to increase amenities and services. And, while we are not going to be able to complete all of the desired projects this winter, summer will witness much improvement. Some of the improvements contemplated include a hospitality room which will feature a fireplace, overstuffed couches, armchairs and a backgammon table or two. This should provide a means for guests to meet each other until the balance of the improvements can be completed.

Ultimately we hope to have a membership only club, and offer added facilities such as a large jacuzzi, intimate bar and other activities designed to add to the motel's entertainment value.

It will become evident that, consistent with good business practice, your money will be reinvested in the motel and the end product will be something that all can benefit from and be proud of.

Don't forget us this winter! Winter is a special time for me and I am sure that a lot of you would enjoy the quiet solitude the ocean's gray waters and salty spray provide. It is especially romantic! Bring a friend and experience a winter revitalization.

Warm regards,

Adrian Gammage, Owner
