FRENCH DOCTORS DISCOVER VIRUS WHICH CAUSES AIDS

PARIS, France — The long-sought cause of AIDS may likely have been found to be a type of virus, French researchers told the Center for Disease Control in Atlanta, Georgia last week. The encouraging breakthrough "looks very good," Dr. Donald Francis, coordinator of the CDC AIDS laboratory, said.

Earlier this year, TWT NEWS intercepted information from several Texas doctors who had learned that French researchers had isolated a common virus in about a dozen patients. But in the interest of not publishing another false-hope story, TWT NEWS restrained publication of the breakthrough until further information became available.

This latest discovery about the cause of AIDS does not yet constitute a cure, but it is a necessary first step in vastly speeding up the development of a treatment for AIDS and an anti-AIDS vaccine.

Simply stated, doctors cannot cure AIDS until its cause has been found. And it now appears that the cause has been isolated and identified.

The encouraging research points to a virus called lymphadenopathy, or LAV, which was found in eleven patients in France. "I'm convinced it has a role in AIDS," Luc Montagnier of the Louis Pasteur Institute in Paris said.

The new French information supercedes earlier research in America which had suggested that AIDS was caused by a leukemia virus, HTLV-1. Because HTLV-1 and LAV are very similar, it has been difficult to separate the two. This similarity has been the source of the confusion. However, the new French research "strongly suggests that HTLV-1 is not the cause of AIDS," Dr. Francis conceded.

Research in France has shown that there is no evidence of HTLV-1 in AIDS victims, yet nine out of ten patients with an immune disorder carried the newly found LAV.

In most recent tests, the French have also found evidence of the virus in up to 90% of American AIDS patients whose blood samples had been sent to CDC to Paris. Nearly all the blood samples carried this virus, it was found.

A strong argument underscoring the French breakthrough as being the real cause of AIDS is that the newly-found virus also appears in pre-AIDS patients.

Furthermore, French researchers reported earlier this month new evidence that the virus had been found in two brothers with hemophilia, which would explain the mystery that the virus could indeed be transmitted through blood plasma products.

AMERICAN DOCTORS CONFIRM AIDS CAUSE

WASHINGTON, DC — The new French discovery of a virus known to cause AIDS was confirmed by American doctors last Monday, who reported the two had isolated the same virus as the French. What the French call LAV, Americans call HTLV-3. A spokesperson for the American Cancer Institute told Dan Rather of CBS-TV news that the virus now known to cause AIDS is a variation on a virus that causes cancer.

American scientists will go to Paris soon to see if a similar breakthrough at the Pasteur Institute, announced last week, is the same virus. While the French have been cautious in tout their findings, the Americans are predicting they'll find a vaccine which could totally prevent AIDS in two to three years, Lynn Tucker reported for CBS-TV.

The Americans say they are further ahead in developing a vaccine than the French because the French have been unable to produce large quantities of the virus in their labs, reporter Bettine Gregory of ABC-TV news stated, adding, "This is the key to developing a vaccine to cure AIDS."

For more than a year, scientists in America had reported finding bits and pieces of the AIDS puzzle, but last Monday's announcement in the nation's capital was the most dramatic yet. At the Washington, DC news conference, federal health officials said, "The probable cause of AIDS has been found."

The American breakthrough came at the National Institutes of Health, where a way was found to mass produce the AIDS virus, study it and most importantly, test blood for it. "It should solve the problems of blood transfusions, because when this test becomes commercially available, then we'll be able to screen blood," announced Dr. Edward Brandt. A blood test should be available within a few months which would identify the agent. This would be the first test persons could take to find out if they had AIDS.

"What we have at the moment is not particularly of great benefit to people with the disease right now," Brandt stated.

AIDS CURE STILL YEARS AWAY

DALLAS — Reaction in Texas to the good news from the prestigious Pasteur Institute in France having found the cause of AIDS has attracted broad praise. "We are excited and encouraged that the first step in solving the AIDS epidemic may be at hand, with the apparent identification of the virus which is responsible for the disease," Mike Richards of the Dallas region of the national Federation of AIDS Related Organizations, said.

It is important to remember, FARO reminded, "because this is only the first step; greater research to find a cure is greatly needed. We are deeply hopeful that the research and funding will be accomplished soon, so we may learn more about the virus, implement blood testing techniques and work toward the development of a preventive vaccine."

FARO also pointed out that it took ten years after the hepatitis B virus was identified, to find and produce an effective vaccine to prevent the disease.

Therefore, grass roots support and financial contributions to promote the AIDS lobby effort in Washington are still important if we are to be able to afford the expensive research that it will take to find both a cure and a preventive vaccine to stop AIDS. "The cost of dealing with the HTLV-3 virus will be extraordinary," FARO predicted.

Simply stated, although the cause of AIDS has been discovered, the cure still remains a mystery to researchers, and may be two to three years away.

Meanwhile, most AIDS patients remain uneasy. A spokesperson with the Gay Men's Health Crisis group in New York put it this way, "If a man thinks he has only eight months to a year to live, and you tell him it may be two or three years before a vaccine comes out, it doesn't give him a hell of a lot to hold on to."

FBI SEARCH FOR MISSING WITNESS

SAN ANTONIO — The FBI has beefed up its search for a missing eyewitness to the April 1 death of Carlos Villareal in which the victim, known also as Shirley Ann, was shot downtown by the San Antonio policeman.

The eyewitness to the mystery shooting is described as a black male, who was driving a white car near the scene of the crime. It is believed his account of the shooting may vary considerably from the original police report, and may show a suspected personal link between the officer and the victim.

Anyone with information was asked to contact Joe Latus of the FBI division in the Alamo City at (512) 225-6741, Detective Latus told Tim Ramm of TWT NEWS/San Antonio. Or, they may call James Drake of SAGA's Justice for Villareal Committee at 224-7663.

AMANDA BLAKE WEDS AUSTIN'S MARK SPAETH

AUSTIN — Amanda Blake, best known for her role as Miss Kitty on CBS-TV's long-running series Gunsmoke, is to marry popular Austin City Councilman Mark Spaeth in ceremonies this Saturday afternoon, April 28. "The wedding will take place at 3:30pm at the Quorum Club, followed by a reception and a private dinner for the family afterwards," Blake explained.

When TWT NEWS/Austin inquired as to who asked whom to get married, Spaeth said, "I asked Amanda almost two years ago, to which she replied, 'Why should we, since we're having such a good time.' But, after I was elected to office, we saw less and less of one another because I couldn't travel as much. But now that I'm in public office, and after knowing each other for almost six years, the time seemed right."

How did the couple meet? "I picked him up on an airplane," said Blake. She had been in Austin doing some work for the Humane Society and met Spaeth on a return flight to Phoenix. It all began by Spaeth giving Blake a business card, and later writing a personal note.

Blake said she has moved to Austin permanently, to make the Capitol City of Texas her primary place of residence. "I love Austin," she glowed. "It's a beautiful city with a lot of wonderful people. I know I'm going to enjoy it," she continued.

Spaeth's political career has soared since taking office. His escalating support has come from a broad base, which includes most of this city's growing community members who stand strongly behind human rights issues. Many think he has a good chance of eventually becoming mayor of Austin. He's very electable. Of course, should Spaeth win the mayoral seat, Amanda Blake would become Austin's first lady. "Regardless, she'll always be my first lady," Spaeth added.

Blake stated that she fully intended to be active in Spaeth's political life.

When asked if he planned to run for reelection in 1985 or make a bid for mayor as rumored, Spaeth told TWT NEWS/Austin, "I haven't decided." "Whatever Mark does, I'll be running with him," Blake concurred.

This Saturday's wedding is not the first for either of the couple, as Blake has been married five times and Spaeth three times. Giving the bride away at the Austin wedding will be Blake's longtime friend, Jill Caras, wife of ABC-TV newsmen, Roger Caras.

"When Jill asked her husband Roger if it would be all right for her to give me away at the Austin wedding, Roger commented, 'Jill, when someone's been married as many times as Amanda, you don't give her away, you pass her around,'" Blake quipped.

GAY STUDENT GROUP OUTREACH GROWS

DENTON, Texas — One of the major themes to come out of the April 6 conference of the Texas Gay and Lesbian Student Organization Coalition was a growing outreach to gay students at more colleges in Texas. Presently fifteen member organizations comprise TGLSOC, Jay Cherin of TWT NEWS/Austin reported. Cherin also represents the University of Texas at Austin in TGLSOC.

Robert Rios, outgoing chair of SMU's Gay and Lesbian Student Support Organization—one of 15 member organizations from across the state—said that the coalition has been successful in its attempt to create an informational and assistance network between all student groups in Texas.

Since the formation of TGLSOC, new gay/lesbian student groups have been forming at a high rate. Two new member organizations—Trinity Gay/Lesbian Support Group of San Antonio and the Gay/Lesbian Association of UT-Arlington—were inducted at the conference. The Trinity group has been having difficulty in gaining recognition on that campus, but the UT-A group easily received that status.

In order to continue the steady growth rate of new organizations within Texas, the coalition's Outreach Task Force has made plans to work in cities where there are schools without gay/lesbian groups. Primary cities are Lubbock, Nacogdoches, El Paso and Waco. The task force asked that any interested individuals contact them at TGLSOC's Austin address.

COURT OF APPEALS HEARS 21.06 CASE

NEW ORLEANS — Although no formal decision is likely to be handed down for several months by the U.S. Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals, most observers at the April 17 hearing felt optimistic that the high court would uphold Judge Jerry Buchmeyer's 1982 decision that Section 21.06 of the Texas Penal Code, dealing with sodomy, was still unconstitutional.

Since the wheels of justice continually grind slowly, it could be two or three months before the court makes a ruling on the oral arguments heard last week in New Orleans. Although the decision could go either way, most are optimistic, said plaintiff in the case, Don Baker.

"I am still very confident," Baker said after the hearing, "that our points are going to be sustained in the Fifth Circuit [Court] as they were by Judge Buchmeyer."

Baker cautioned, however, "I think the proceedings in New Orleans clearly show that our opposition is still determined to fight against us to the bitter end."

The opposition, which is mainly composed of Danny Hill and his team of attorneys, "put together a very sharp, slick presentation. They are not going to roll over and play dead. Thus, we have to stay as sharp and vigilant as they are to ensure our victory," Baker told TWT NEWS/Dallas.

"One of the reasons why I remain confident is because our attorney, Jim Barber, said everything that needed to be said. Furthermore, it was great to have a lot of moral support.

"We have a good case and we should feel good about it," Baker said. "But Hill and his supporters are as intent on having the Fifth Circuit or Supreme Court overturn Buckmeyer's decision, as we are serious about having the courts uphold that 21.06 was unconstitutional."

GAY SWITCHBOARD EXPANDS AGAIN

HOUSTON — This city's increasingly popular Gay Switchboard has been forced to again expand its services. Due to the ever-growing number of calls, and to volunteer commitment, the Switchboard has begun new hours.

The Gay Switchboard is now open from 3:00pm until midnight on Sunday through Wednesday, from noon until 3:00am on Thursday, and from 3:00pm-3:00am Friday and Saturday, administrative director Rick Grossman informed TWT NEWS/Houston.

This expansion is due to an increase in staff size to 41 telephone volunteers. "Eventually, the Switchboard would like to be open 24 hours, seven days a week, but it's difficult to find people who can work days and late nights," the untiring director said.

Those who wish to volunteer are asked to call (713) 529-3211. Training classes are held every two to three months.

Grossman's leadership has been primarily responsible for the Gay Switchboard's rise in both popularity and reliability, serving as a model from which other cities have constructed similar public services.

MAYOR WHITMIRE AND HOUSTON GPC MEET

HOUSTON — Mayor Kathryn J. Whitmire met with the board of directors and officers of this city's Gay Political Caucus on April 13 in her City Hall office for an hour-long conference. Among major topics of concern was the status of the Affirmative Action amendment to the Domestic Privacy in Employment ordinance, introduced by Houston City Councilman Anthony Hall, and which is still in the City Legal Department.

While saying she was in full accord with the amendment, Whitmire reminded that she is requiring that at least ten of the thirteen councilmembers come on line, in writing, in support of the proposed amendment. "When that occurs, I'll place the matter on the council agenda for formal adoption," Whitmire explained.

In the event that ten signatures are not obtained, Whitmire told GPC she would then agree to review the situation herself with the GPC board immediately. In fact, the mayor went as far as to approve the board's suggestion that communication be more frequent, specifically through Clintine Cashion, director of the mayor's Intergovernmental Relations and Kay Little, director of the Citizen's Assistance office. Both were present at the meeting.

GPC president Norman Guttman told TWT NEWS/Houston that the mayor was also strongly supportive of the formation of a subcommittee of the Police Advisory Commission to advise Houston Police Chief Lee Brown on any problems and concerns between HPD and the gay community in coordinating Operation Documentation. TGRF president Tom Coleman is to spearhead the project.

Whitmire said she felt the brunt of any resolution fell upon the gay community to prove harassment by the police. Guttman reported that the mayor said she

REAGAN AND HART WIN OAK LAWN POLL

DALLAS — Ronald Reagan won a presidential popularity poll of gay and lesbian voters conducted last Sunday, April 22 by TWT NEWS/Dallas, along Cedar Springs Road in Oak Lawn.

The results of the Easter Sunday poll in Dallas were similar to a poll conducted a week earlier by TWT NEWS/Houston during the Westheimer Colony Art Festival, which also gave Reagan the nod for victory. However, Reagan won bigger in Dallas than in Houston. Of course, Dallas has always been believed to be more Republican than Houston, Alan Gellman of TWT NEWS/Dallas had observed.

On the Democratic ticket, Senator Gary Hart ran strongest as the favored candidate, with his total larger than that of Walter Mondale and Jesse Jackson combined.

From the TWT NEWS presidential poll, these are the raw vote totals in percentages: Reagan (Rep) 41.44%; Hart (Dem) 28.82%; Mondale (Dem) 13.51%; Jackson (Dem) 4.53%; and the undecided vote was 11.71%.

The rankings of the Dallas poll are the exact order of preference, as in the Houston poll. The main differences are that Reagan ran 5% stronger in Dallas than in Houston, and that Hart ran about 4% weaker in Dallas.

Both polls showed little support in the gay community for Mondale or Jackson. And both polls showed about 10% of gay voters in each city still undecided.

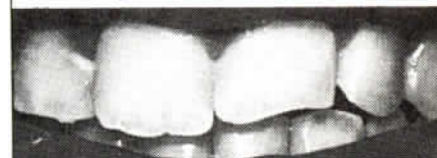

TWT's two gay polls run contrary to a Gallop poll released last Monday, which showed the general public of Texas favored Mondale over Hart. The gay poll showed Hart running a two-to-one favorite over Mondale.

HARRIS COUNTY SHERIFF'S RACE HEATS UP JACK HEARD AND JOHNNY KLEVENHAGEN

Ever since Johnny Klevenhagen tossed his deputy's hat into the Harris County Sheriff's race to run against long-time incumbent Jack Heard, campaign rhetoric has escalated.

So heated has the campaign in Houston become that both candidates appeared before the gay community at GPC's Candidates Night on "Super Wednesday," March 21, seeking the powerful gay bloc vote.

At that meeting, Heard said, "My door is open to you. I come before you publicly seeking your endorsement." Powerful words from a man whom many thought was not an advocate of gay rights.

On the other hand, his challenger, Klevenhagen, said, "If you vote for me, I'll change your perception of what a Southern sheriff is supposed to be." Again, powerful words, from a man who is out to change the image of the sheriff's office.

But the candidates are not the only ones spewing forth powerful words these days, as voters are also expressing their opinions.

Dear TWT:

Regarding the recent special report by Chuck Patrick which covered the [March 21, Houston] GPC Candidates Night [TWT SPECIAL REPORT, Vol. 10, No. 2], in his report, Mr. Patrick referred to the [Harris County] sheriff's race as perhaps the "rallying point for gay election fever," and he compared the two candidates in the sheriff's race, Johnny Klevenhagen (GPC endorsed) and Jack Heard [non-GPC endorsed] to the 1979 City Council race between Eleanor Tinsley and Frank Mann. I have to take issue with that. Although I realize that there is no great love for Jack Heard in the Houston gay community, and I feel certain that some would compare Jack Heard to Frank Mann, unfair as that may be, I do not feel that Johnny Klevenhagen can in any way be compared to Eleanor Tinsley. In fact, as a long time GPC member, I have serious doubts about the Klevenhagen endorsement and it is simply because of Klevenhagen's background.

Although many can find countless reasons for a change at the sheriff's office, no one is talking about Mr. Klevenhagen's poor record in law enforcement: a former Texas Ranger with a Texas-Ranger-old-wild-west mentality; the fact that he could not get along with his supervisors or coworkers while he was a Harris County deputy sheriff (his poor attitude always had him in trouble); and how he decided to go into the oil business to "make a million bucks" and in no time was flat on his face. Obviously not a good manager.

Now, my feeling is that if we're going to mount a serious effort to make a change in the sheriff's department, we should at least go with an individual with a good law enforcement background; someone who is a proven manager who can effectively manage the Harris County jail system; who is bright and intelligent and a person who we, as a community, can be proud of.

I'm sorry to say I do not believe that Johnny Klevenhagen is that person. I think his election would only make a fair/poor situation worse. And I think his endorsement by the GPC was a mistake. Considering our choices, there should have been no endorsement in the sheriff's race.

Jerry Nicholson
Houston, Texas

Ray Hill of Houston's GPC, in the following letter, defended the GPC endorsement of Democrat Klevenhagen.

Dear TWT:

I do not think a comparison between Jack Heard and Frank Mann is too far off base, if at all. In the 1981 mayoral campaign, there were full-page newspaper ads in the Houston Post and 208,000 mailgrams sent out in which Heard did play an important role, in spite of his recent denials.

As to qualifications: Klevenhagen ran the major elements of the Harris County Sheriff's Department while Jack Heard analyzed his political future. I am pleased that most professionals in law enforcement agree with us in supporting Klevenhagen. Deputy sheriffs, constables and police officers feel Klevenhagen is qualified to be sheriff.

He is a 20-year veteran of the Harris County Sheriff's Department, whose career began as a patrolman. Later, he was promoted to major in the Detention Bureau. In 1981, Klevenhagen went into private business.

The 43-year-old candidate attended Texas A&M University. Later, he received a Bachelor of Science in Police Administration with minors in Criminology, Sociology and Psychology from the University of Houston.

There is a county-wide consensus that the time has come for some major changes in the Harris County Courthouse complex. Houston's GPC has identified the candidates who will bring about the most significant change. In 1984, as in 1981, we will lead the reform effort. During the recent Westheimer Colony Art Festival, Klevenhagen stood at the GPC booth with other May 5 primary candidates endorsed by GPC—Greg Glass, Herb Ritchie and Hanni Chow, meeting gay and non-gay voters proudly announcing his gay support.

FORMER GOVERNOR CLEMENTS REBUFFS SMU's GAY AND LESBIAN STUDENT SUPPORT ORGANIZATION

It was only last week that TWT NEWS/Dallas reported the encouraging development that the Student Senate of Southern Methodist University in Dallas had overwhelmingly voted 23 to 5 on April 17 to grant limited recognition to the controversial Gay and Lesbian Student Support Organization. Final approval seemed close at hand for GLSSO.

But at the last minute, former Texas Governor William P. Clements, Jr., a Republican who never received a single gay endorsement in his political career, threw a monkey wrench into the plans. Three days prior to the senate's decision, Clements, who is chairman of the Board of Governors of SMU, had already written letters to SMU president L. Donald Shields and two leaders of the student body on April 14. In the letter, reprinted below, Clements said that he was opposed to official recognition of GLSSO because the organization was inconsistent with the school's goals, purposes, philosophy and religious heritage.

To: Dr. L. Donald Shields
President, Southern Methodist University

To: Mr. Homer B. Reynolds, III
President, SMU Student Body
To: Mr. Thomas E. Davey, Jr.
Vice President, SMU Student Body
Gentlemen:

The Board of Governors has strongly supported the position taken by the Student Senate over the last year concerning the question of recognition of the Gay and Lesbian Student Support Organization (GLSSO). The Board uniformly endorses the February 14 statement of President Shields regarding the inconsistency of the GLSSO with the goals, purposes, philosophy, and religious heritage of Southern Methodist University. We strongly support his position that it is not in the best interest of the University for the GLSSO to be a recognized student organization.

Furthermore, with regard to the issue of student organizational designation, it is my belief that the Board of Governors has serious reservations about the organizational status defined as "registered." In this regard, it is my intent to ask the Board of Governors to conduct a review concerning this designation in the near future with representatives of the students, administration, and faculty. Therefore, until the matter is resolved to the satisfaction of the Board of Governors, I request that the Student Senate and the administration postpone consideration of petitions from this organizational status.

Sincerely yours,
/s/ William P. Clements, Jr.
Chairman of the Board of Governors
Southern Methodist University

Upon receipt of the letter on April 16, Dr. Shields wasted no time in complying with Clements' request. On April 17, the following statement was issued with a copy forwarded to Clements.

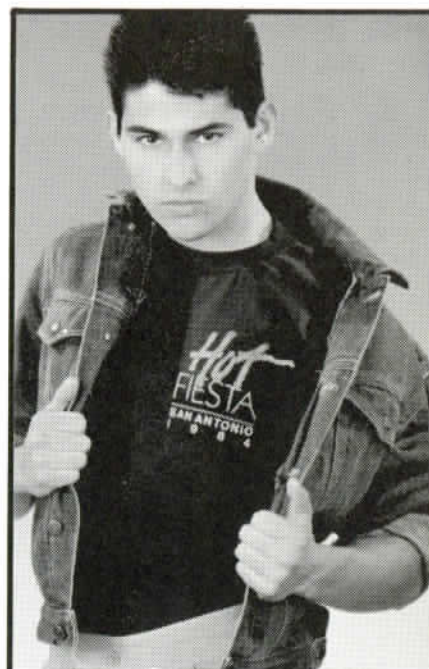

I have received a request from the Chairman of the Board of Governors to postpone consideration of any petition by a student group for "registered" status pending a review of that designation by the Board of Governors. Therefore, the decision of the Student Senate to award "registered" status to the Gay and Lesbian Student Support Organization (GLSSO) is placed in suspension, pending the outcome of the Board of Governors' review.

The above statement came as no surprise, since Shields had publicly stated after the Student Senate's April 17 favorable vote that he was still not in favor of recognizing the gay student group. Therefore, the fate of GLSSO still hangs in the balance.

Meanwhile, GLSSO continues to operate on "limited registered status," which means the group is able to use university center meeting rooms only if the rooms are not needed by fully-recognized student groups.

"I think it's a sad day when you won't allow students to meet in their own student center because you don't approve of their values," said one student senator, Kendall Miller.

Freshman student senator Kevin Tuschman added, "This group [GLSSO] is not out to conquer the world, they're just here to learn. Remember, they are SMU students. They pay fees just like you and I."

THE WOUNDED

BRILLIANCE BOOKS
PLAIN EDITION

The Wounded, by Tom Clarkson; 171 pp.; fiction; Brilliance Books/Plain Edition, 14 Clerkenwell Green, London EC1; softcover, $6.95.

Reviewed by David Fields

As the writings of English homosexual emancipation theorist Edward Carpenter in the early 1900s, countless other examples and this book, The Wounded, show the ideas of liberty and sexual freedom exist without regard to repressive cultural attitudes or mores of the past. The Wounded, written by 50s survivor Tom Clarkson, is an example of these ideas.

What the reader will notice right away, whatever may or may not be in the book, is Clarkson's wonderful talent at evoking mind-pictures and creating vivid descriptive images of the world the characters experience and pass through. Their world comes alive as he paints his pictures with economy and infuses them with vibrancy.

The two major characters are Betty

Saunders and Chris. Betty is insecure, uncertain and inexperienced in the ways of the world and the men in it. One of her legs is shorter than the other, requiring her to use crutches all the time. She is psychologically wounded as well, due to her lack of knowledge about and confidence around men, reminiscent of Tennessee Williams' character Laura in his play, The Glass Menagerie.

Betty's role is much more substantial and lengthy than Chris'. Her love for a boy who works at the Cinerama, Johnny Ferrari, goes unrequited. Her only satisfaction in the world is beyond the world, in her religion. She is heavily, emotionally dependent on her religion, but not in a fanatic or fundamentalist sort of way. Chris is a gay drag performer in the chorus of various theatre/cabarets in the city. He is seen only intermittently in a subplot, more aptly called an aside, where he is in love with a stage singer, Joe.

The two characters only meet and acknowledge each other's presence once or twice in the entire book. Clarkson provides no transition or connection as he moves from one storyline to another. Out of fifteen chapters, only one or two are devoted to Chris' life. He does include the nasty little attitudes of the times. Arrested for homosexual behavior, Clarkson writes of Chris, "He had made a gesture of love to a stranger, and was receiving the reward of the world. Nobody interfered. He had no one to champion him."

After all of Betty and Chris' tales, tribulations and tortures, Clarkson ends the book on this note, "There is a vine nurtured with blood and tears. Its fruits are the grapes of joy. Some time hence Betty would gather and eat them... but not yet." All of Clarkson's characters are wounded in some way; physically, mentally or spiritually—but not fatally.

A minor though possibly interesting footnote is Clarkson's frequent use of the words "gay" and "queer," with their traditional meanings. The book was written in 1953, fifteen years before Mart Crowley wrote his play, Boys in the Band. The most pleasing, entertaining aspect of the book is Clarkson's descriptive prowess and execution. The most thought-provoking aspect of the book is his portrayal of humankind constantly struggling, constantly full of hope.

Long Live Mock Rock

If your biorhythm ever got a charge out of the vibrant sounds of such timeless greats as the Beatles, Who, Stones, Zeppelin or Kinks, your whole system will surely react positively to an encore encounter with another rock formation out of that upbeat era: Spinal Tap. This British band, as you may recall, dates back to the late sixties when they scored big on both sides of the big water with their hippie hymn, Listen to the Flower People.

Not unlike Stones, Who or Kinks, they come together to tour the U.S. once again. Much unlike the events featuring their famous rocky rivals, a certain apathy among fans cannot be overlooked. Concert sites have shrunk from 20,000-head arenas to more intimate facilities holding no more than 1,500 dopeheads. But there are still a good few of those diehard fans, such as film director Marty DiBergi, who have kept track of Tap and are still drawn to their indefinably rich heavy metal output.

MOVIES

DiBergi's career has originated in the much-watched world of TV commercials; he even turned down the intriguing offer to direct On Golden Pond 3-D in order to bring to celluloid life his favorite fabulous five and to immortalize their contributions to the state of rock art. The compositions and performances featured in the movie This Is Spinal Tap are of the kind of questionable taste typical for this band which has a history of strange to raunchy recordings like "Intravenous DeMilo," "The Sun Never Sweats" or "Lick My Love Pump."

DiBergi's direction is more alive, much more amusing and a touch more intimate than Martin Scorsese's 1978 treatment of The Band's farewell tour, The Last Waltz. This promising new filmmaker follows Spinal Tap as they show their human dimensions by messing up yet another stage act or by reaction with sheer devastation when learning of the last-minute cancellation of one more gig date. Another setback is the rejection of the jacket for the Smell the Glove LP, only because some view the naked dog-collared lady on all her fours as sexist.

As if you wouldn't know it, Spinal Tap never really existed, although they look deservingly of the pages of Rolling Stone magazine and sound like anything that gets prominent airplay on the rock station of your choice. This wonderfully wacky parody of a rockumentary is the result of endless hours of improvisation that were masterfully edited by director DiBergi, who is Rob Reiner in real life, who in turn is the son of Carl and son-in-law of Archie Bunker.

For an outrageous 82 minutes that'll rock your spinal cord and attack your laugh barometer, go see Spinal Tap. It's better than Golden Pond 3-D could ever hope to be.

The 6th Annual Houston International Film Festival

The 6th annual Houston International Film Festival includes feature films, shorts and documentaries. Following are short synopses of some of the many films to be screened during this last weekend of the festival; a complete list of the remaining films to be shown follows the synopses.

The Fourth Man Directed by Paul Verhoven (Spetters, Soldiers Orange). A part realist, part supernatural occult thriller about the death fantasies of a gay writer.

Masoch A well-known writer forces his wife to impersonate the woman of his fantasies so well described in his novels: the dispenser of pleasure through suffering and pain.

Swann in Love Directed by Volker Schlöndorff (Tin Drum). Screen adaptation of Marcel Proust's elusive literary masterpiece. Stars Jeremy Irons, Alain Delon and Ornella Muti.

Backstage at the Kirov A unique look at ballet behind the scenes in the Soviet Union today. Focuses on the corps de ballet and its preparations for a performance of Swan Lake seen from the point of view of the dancers.

Revolt of Job One of this year's Academy Award nominees for Best Foreign Film. Set in Hungary in 1943, it focuses on an aging Jewish couple who adopt a son in order to pass on their material and spiritual possessions.

Mike's Murder Directed by James Bridges (The Paper Chase, The China Syndrome, Urban Cowboy). The contemporary film mode is fused with that of the classic suspense thriller to create a spellbinding study in terror. Stars Debra Winger and Paul Winfield.

Les Comperes A comedy starring Gerard Depardieu, from the director of La Cage Aux Folles.

BACKSTAGE

TEXAS by Rob Clark

TEXAS TRILLS — There sure was lots of talent in Texas last week. (The performers weren't bad, either.) It all started in Austin at Oz with the arrival of one of our faves, Linda Clifford. After her energy-packed show, Linda signed autographs and chatted with admirers before boarding her flight to her next engagement at Studio 54 in New York. She told BACKSTAGE her new album should be out by the end of May.

Easter Sunday we had a "double whammy" in Houston with Scherrie Payne at the "White Party" at Numbers and Sarah Dash at Rich's "Eggstasy" party.

Ms. Payne used to perform with two of the original Supremes, Cindy Birdsong and Mary Wilson, from 1973-78. She's going solo these days with such hits as "Let My Heart Do the Walking," "I'm Not In Love" and her latest, "One Night Only," from the Broadway musical, Cats. The White Party was hot and Numbers was hopping.

Speaking of Mary Wilson, watch for her show at Oz in Austin on Splash Day '84, Sunday, May 6. She'll be there with her very own Supremes.

Sarah Dash (formerly of LaBelle) tells us she's writing her own material now and has been singing since she was 14 years old. She opened her show at Rich's by emerging from a giant Easter basket strategically located on the stage. She began her set with a ballad (not too smart!), but quickly picked up the tempo with her hit, "Do You Want To Get Lucky," much to the delight of the very festive Easter revelers. Rich's was decorated to the "tea," as were some of the guests. Piping hot party boys.

CLAYTON COLORS BARBARA — Local Houston artist Clayton LeFevre has struck again with his latest autograph conquest, Barbara Mandrell. He presented Ms. Mandrell with his portrait of her backstage at her recent concert at the Summit. She signed it, "To Clayton, you are so gifted. Thank you so much for using your talent to make me look good." Clayton's next project is a portrait of Ronald and Nancy Reagan. With an election coming up, he'll just more than likely get them to sign it also.

FIERSTEIN IN DALLAS — Don't forget Saturday, April 28. Tony Award-winning Harvey Fierstein will be at the Old Bank of Dallas (off Lemmon) with the Human Rights Campaign Funds "Show of Strength '84." Tickets for the reception are available at Union Jack, Crossroads Market and Off Hours. For more information, call (214) 521-8919.

LOLA! — For the first time in Texas, Lola and Jerry bring their act all the way from New York for a whirlwind tour.

Jerry Halliday's adult puppets were pictured in Playboy after world-wide attention was brought to his comedy act by the Associated Press and United Press International.

Lola's television credits include Entertainment Tonight, PM Magazine, The Funny Zone and her uncensored special seen on New York and San Francisco cable TV.

Ms. Bond first came to public notice when she appeared in the gay documentary, Word Is Out. There she talked about her adventures in the Women's Army Corps in World War II, and the witchhunt that left 500 women with dishonorable discharges. Her Gerty Gerty Gerty has received rave reviews and was shown on PBS in September 1980. For ticket information, call (512) 447-4437.

DIVERSITY THEATRE — Miss Stanwyck Is Still In Hiding, Diversity Theatre's next production, is set to open May 4 and to run through May 22 at the Pink Elephant in Houston.

The production is a comedy/drama by Larry Puchall and Reigh Hagen, and concerns the funny and serious confrontations that occur when Don, a child psychiatrist who's gay, "comes out" on a local TV news program. His lover, Brian, his parents and friends discover they are now dealing with a "new person" going through some unusual changes.

Miss Stanwyck is being directed by Joe L. Watts, and has a wonderful cast including Jerry Garrett, Rose Malone and Lee Harrington in his acting debut. Playwright Puchall is flying in from Washington, DC for the May 4 opening. The nine performances are every Monday, Tuesday and Friday from May 4-22. For further information, call (713) 739-0007.

ALLEY NEWS — Uncle Vanya, Anton Chekhov's celebrated comedy of unfulfilled dreams and aspirations, is currently being performed at the Alley Theatre in Houston through May 20.

The storyline is that of a bored and bickering upper-class family who are the victims of their own self-indulgence. Feeling trapped on a country estate, they catapult themselves into misadven-

AMAZONS — Channing Players, Inc. will present Benn Levy's The Rape of the Belt, a modern comedy about the frustrations Hercules encounters when he sets out to wrest the Belt of Office from Antiope, the Queen of the Amazons. He, of course, believes the Amazons are the fierce warrior maidens of mythology, but to his dismay discovers they are gentle, lovely pacifists who refuse to give in to his demands.

The production will run Friday and Saturday evenings, May 4-5 and 11-12 in Channing Hall, located in the First Unitarian Church at 5210 Fannin in Houston. For showtimes and ticket information, call (713) 975-6939.

SAM WINS — On the last night of Samantha Samuels' performances at Rascals in Houston, the cabaret honored her with their first annual Rascals Cabaret Singer of the Year Award. Of course, Sam was thrilled. I spoke with her backstage about her first album, which should be out in the near future. It's called Samantha Samuels, All Dressed Up, and will include at least one dance tune written by her manager, Steven Shore. Sam says the album is not a recording of her cabaret act, but one geared for commercial success, i.e. radio play. We're talking full orchestral backup and everything. The album will be recorded under Sam and Steven's own record company, ESSES.

BARBI DOES HOUSTON — Barbi Benton will star in the Windmill Dinner Theatre production of Key Exchange. Barbi, an actress, singer and nightclub entertainer, has been seen as a dancer on Laugh-In, as a hostess of the Playboy After Dark television series, and for six years was a regular of the Hee Haw cast. She has recorded three albums in the U.S. and seven LPs which have been released internationally.

Key Exchange is a comedy by Kevin Wade. A long-running, off-Broadway success, this exceptionally witty first play deals with the romantic pitfalls facing New York's young "swinging singles" as they deal with the dilemma of entangling commitment versus unencumbered freedom.

Key Exchange will play at the Windmill from May 1 through June 10. For reservations and ticket information, call (713) 961-7911.

ARTS FOR EVERYONE — For a limited time, Arts For Everyone, Inc. offers Houstonians the opportunity to purchase "Artchecks" discount coupons and sample the wide variety of performing arts in Houston at tremendous savings.

Artchecks, a packet of five coupons for $15, may be exchanged for full price tickets by almost 50 performing arts groups, including Alley Theatre, Main Street Theatre, Society For the Performing Arts, Farrell Dyde Dance Theatre and Houston Grand Opera.

Artchecks, available for purchase only through June 30, are valid for six months from the date of purchase. Arts For Everyone is a non-profit organization helping to make the performing arts more accessible and affordable to the public. Call (713) 522-3744 for more information.

THE PHOTOGRAPHY OF ROBERT ARAYA

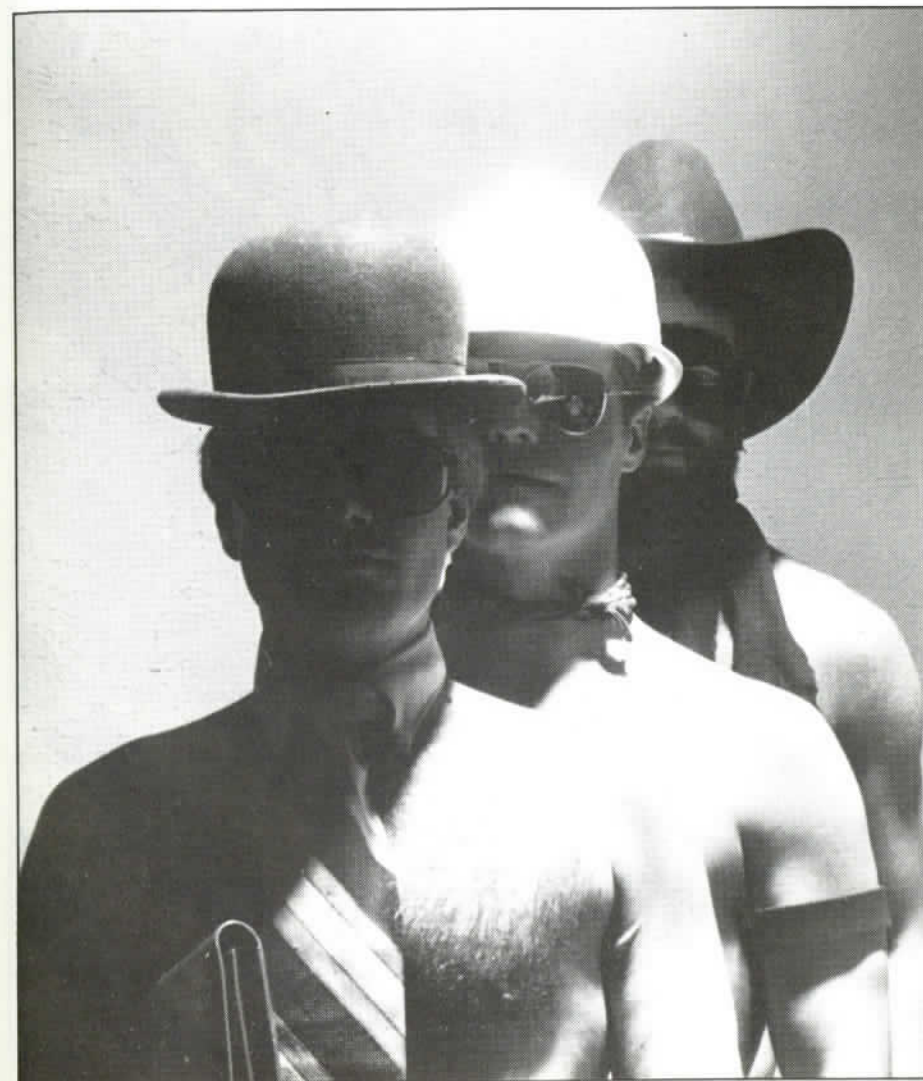

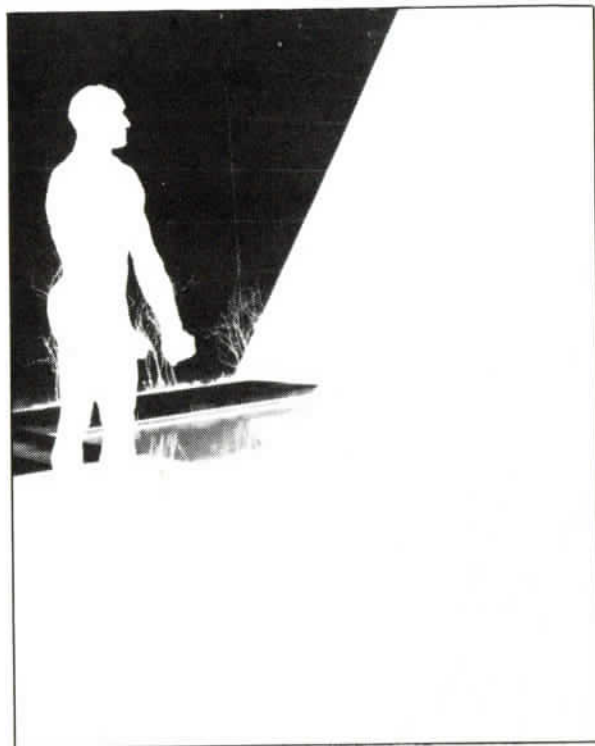

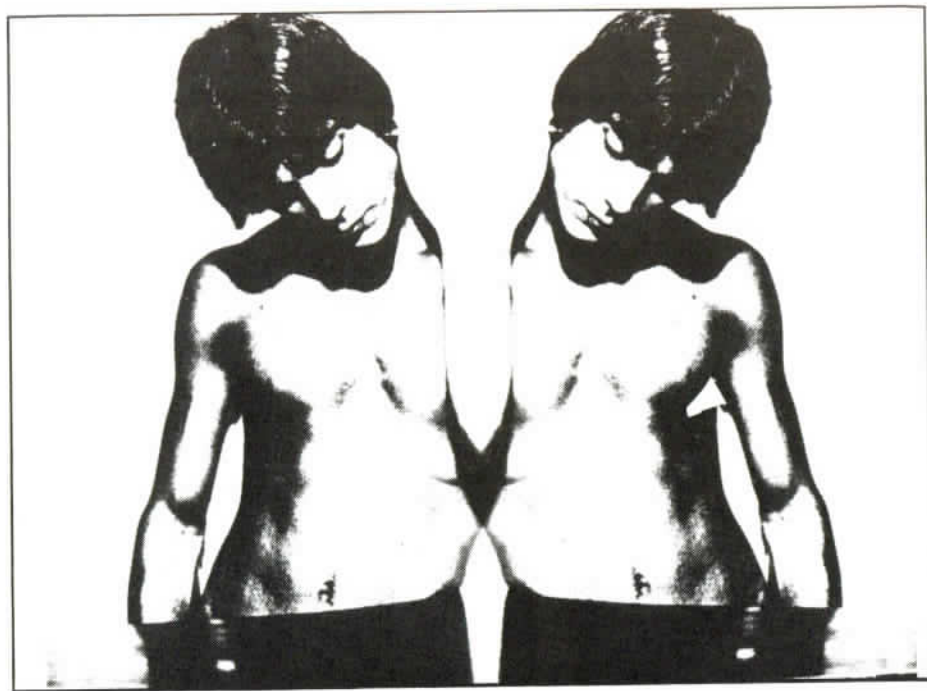

Robert Araya has been snapping his camera's shutter for many years. His photographs have appeared in TWT on a regular basis, and some of his work has been featured in The Advocate, Cruise Magazine and In Touch. Shows and exhibits include New York City's Leslie-Lohman Gallery; the Dallas Public Library, State Fair of Texas, Allen Street Gallery and World of Photography, all in Dallas. He has received over 40 ribbons and awards including Best of Show at the State Fair of Texas.

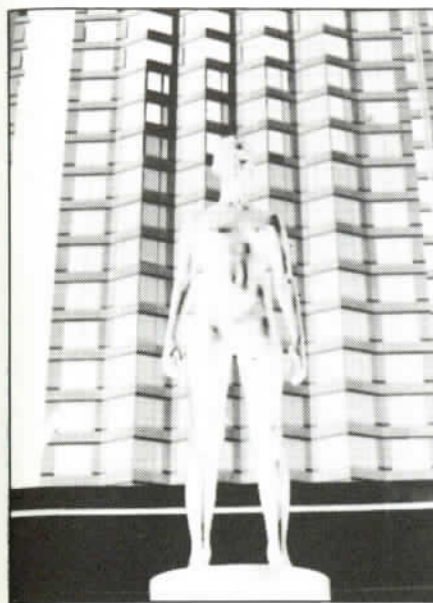

"Although I enjoy scenic and travel photography, my favorite work is that in which I can work out an idea or fantasy with a model or capture it into film."

"I like to establish a close relationship with a model to bring out his or her personality, but my attitude is merely that of an observer, there to capture the person's image at its most alluring and erotic."

"I want my photography to be 'provocative,' to capture the viewer's attention and provoke some type of reaction, be it awe, disgust, amusement or arousal."

NAOMI SIMS, SWEET SAVAGE, ABBY AND TOOTIE FINELL

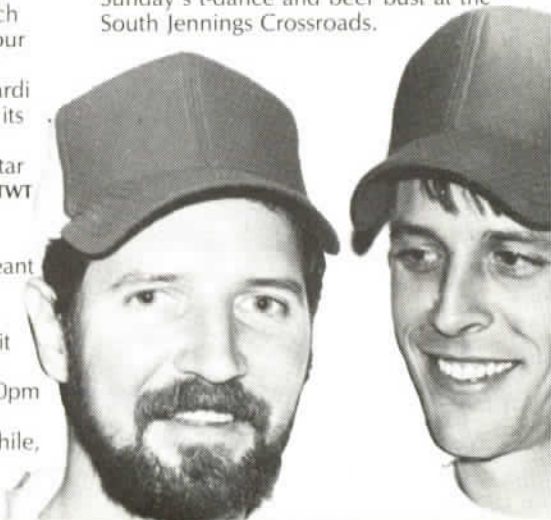

TEXAS TELETYPE — In Waco, the proud owner of the new Secrets club gathered for a CRUISE CAMERA pose: (l-r) Larry Cowan, Paul Leveritt and Steve Ray. . . . Meanwhile, in Galveston, Trampps is moving from the beach to downtown, across from the Stage Door Restaurant. Owner Chip told HOT TEA that the new location will be ready in about three weeks, and will house a dozen-room guesthouse. . . . In Joplin, Missouri at the Miss Four-State contest on Easter Sunday, held at the inimitable Ramada Inn, Dion Martell of Dallas rammed into first place from a field of 17 contestants. . . . And in El Paso, Candy Stratton (see photo) has been crowned Miss Old Plantation '84. Congratulations!

FIESTA '84 — All bluebonnet-lined roads lead to the Alamo City this weekend for Fiesta '84, where all the clubs are brimming over with festive excitement, new faces and madness. Highlighting this final Fiesta week is this Saturday night's electric Flambeau parade, which rolls through downtown beginning at 6:30pm. Later, daylight savings time begins at 2:00am, at which time it'll be time to "spring ahead" your clocks one hour. And, as the partying continues till dawn, this Texas-size Mardi Gras will once again have lived up to its reputation of being the single, biggest, gayest event of the year in the Lone Star State. If you're lost, check the handy TWT map to Gay SA on page 95.

SAN ANteaONIO — This final weekend of Fiesta has traditionally meant a hefty travel push for an influx of thousands of gay visitors into San Antonio. Smack dab in the middle of it all will be an AHRC reception this Saturday afternoon, April 28, 3:00-6:00pm at 4531 Bikini Street, hosted by Clint Harris and Clark Niblock. . . . Meanwhile, the Texas Gay Rodeo Association will hold their important statewide meeting this Saturday beginning at noon at Snuffy's Saloon. . . . Furthermore, eight of this city's gay clubs are running a free Fiesta trolley from bar to bar so all can have a safe Fiesta. . . . And, the CRUISE CAMERA of TWT's Oscar Mendiola and Jim Hamilton will be roaming the city to capture the rapture of Fiesta for next week's edition of TWT—the national gay magazine of Texas!

TARRANT TEA — The newest bartender at the 651 Club in Arlington is humpy John Drake (see CRUISE CAMERA photo), who moved up from Austin to run happy hour. . . . Over at TCMC, Miss Gay Arlington will be selected in crowning ceremonies this Saturday night. . . . A vivid time-lapse color photo of the Other Place graced the Good Friday edition of the Fort Worth Star Telegram. . . . There was no photo, however, in that feature article of David Sprague, winner of the Easter egg hunt prize of a weekend with Wilma Faye at the infamous Downtowner Inn. . . . Lynn and Ginger's amateur night hits the stage this Saturday night at TLC, where the Terry Morgan (r) and Gary Majors show plays both sides of the street during Sunday's t-dance and beer bust at the South Jennings Crossroads.

HOUSTON HOteALINE — Dan McIver's new Leather Locker in the Locker is enjoying brisk biz since its recent grand opening. Of course, one of the reasons could be the shop's sexy blond salesperson, Charlie Oliver (see CRUISE CAMERA photo above by TWT's Greg Havican). . . . Speaking of heavy duty action, a new gym/bath called Pigasus is to open downtown in May. . . . Former GPC prez Lee Harrington is one of the celebrity auctioneers on Channel 8's annual auction next Wednesday night from 9:00pm-12:00am, so hold your pledges until then so Public Television can again realize the power of the gay buck. . . . And, of the many Easter bonnet contests, the CRUISE CAMERA focused on two winning bunnies at the world-famous Exile: Bobbie (l) of Houston and Jay of Dallas.

CORPUS CHRIStea — The talk about town is the combined grand opening of the new Other Door and the third anniversary celebration of the Hidden Door. The four-day event will begin Thursday, May 10 and continue through Sunday, May 13. "Doors" general manager, Andy White, told HOT TEA that the first two nights will be get-acquainted nights; a beach party will follow on Sunday, and a brunch will conclude the mayhem on Sunday. . . . Recently, the Sparkling City by the sea was entertained by Miss Alamo City, Syretta Munroe, plus Danelle Ross and Sassy—all of San Antonio, in a Bunkhouse show. . . .

Elsewhere, the finishing touches on the remodeling at the Speak Easy are being made and the results have created a more personable atmosphere to an already plush club. . . . Posing for the CRUISE CAMERA at the Speak Easy were (l-r) manager George Tyler, J.V. Ortega and Jack Green. Photo by TWT's Greg Oliveira.

GALVESTON SPLASH — The Copa, JR's, Montrose Mine, Union Jack, Downbeat Records and Miss Charlotte's will jointly sponsor Splash Day '84 on Stewart Beach on Galveston Isle, Sunday, May 6. Tickets are now available at the six sponsors to ride on the double-decker bus to the beach, which leaves JR's at 10:30am and returns that evening. Disco on the beach by Ram Rocha.

AUSTIN SPLASH — The Capitol City is gearing up for Splash Day '84 at Hippie Hollow on Lake Travis on Sunday, May 6. In fact, it may be the biggest Splash Day ever at the nude resort, as it looks like an armada of barges loaded with beer and music will converge on the fun and sun spot for mayhem on the rocks and in the shrubs.

AUSTINteaCIOUS — Ernestine whirls into town next Monday night to crossover on the Crossing stage. . . . Mary Wilson and the Supremes whip up the Splash Day action on the Oz stage May 6. . . . The second annual Black and White Ball unfurls its class act this Saturday night at the Boathouse. . . . The Crossing and Backstreet Basics are chartering a bus-with-bar to San Antonio for this Fiesta weekend. . . . And guess who won Backstreet's full moon, flash-your-moon for cash contest. Mel Austin (see CRUISE CAMERA photo), that's who! BSB's Chris said the flash was such a hit that it's to become a monthly contest. Photo by TWT's Scott Taylor.

AFTER HOURS AND BEYOND WITH DJ RICK ESPAILLAT

ALICE DOES DALLAS — The judges at the recent Mr. Dallas Tavern Guild contest, held at 4001, had no trouble in selecting blond and handsome Dan White, sponsored by Bentley's, as the winner. Runners-up were Kurt Gross (l) from Studio 4 and Kevin Patton (r) of the Eighth Day. . . . All of the rumors about where the new Dallas Midnight Sun will be located can now be put to rest, according to manager Jim Ryan, who told HOT TEA that the bar, which is scheduled to open in May, will be at the location presently occupied by Moondreams. Although final plans are still to be announced, Alice has learned that live and pre-recorded video will be the format, which is a first for Dallas, if not for Texas. . . . In an encore for Dallas, this city's most popular deejay, James Griffith, is back at 4001 for a summer gig. . . . It pays to vote in the May 5 primary, because if you present your stamped voter registration card before 8:00pm at all Tavern Guild member bars, you get your first drink free. Contact DGA's scheming Alan Ross, who has worked out a schedule of how to get 35 free drinks within one hour. . . . Loyal customers of B&W Liquors should know that Larry and Ray plan to open their new, bigger-than-ever store soon on Lemmon near the corner of Throckmorton, so stock up now before their old location closes. . . . Alice's favorite new videotape, Like A Horse, is now back in stock or available for rental to club members at Lobo, so go by and see James or Larry. . . . And Ray Martin's new Contemporary Country has set May 10 as the date for an official grand opening.

OSCAR WINNERS — Tom Mays of Houston and Tad Hammer of Dallas are the winners of TWT's fourth annual Academy Awards contest. Again this year, no one got all 22 categories right. "That's never happened," said TWT's contest editor, Blase DiStefano. In other Oscar trivia, only Nick Hamblen of Dallas got all four documentary/short subject categories right; most readers picked Shirley MacLaine and Terms of Endearment as Oscar winners; and, like both Mays and Hammer, an overwhelming majority of entrants chose The Big Chill for Original Screenplay, which lost to Tender Mercies. Thanks to the hundreds who entered. Tom and Tad: Your TWT cash is in the mail!

SCANDAL OF WEEK — Dateline Austin: And now, some HOT TEA ooooozing from Oz: It seems that the folks dining at Denny's on the Inter-regional were treated to a show by Riki Rousseaux demonstrating how to pick up a trick to take back to Big D. Seems that while Riki was cruising, Deva and Alice were eating her dinner so it wouldn't go to waste—course, Miss Riki got to take home the real take-out meal!

DALLAS DOINGS — DGA will show the movie, The Loved One, next Friday, May 4 at the Gay Community Center. . . . DGPC's Mike Richards is asking for volunteers to help run the phorie banks, answer questions about candidates, and help to get out the gay vote prior to the May 5 Texas primary—call (214) 528-4233 if you can help. . . . And the CRUISE CAMERA (see below) of Robert Araya was on hand at the recent fajita dinner held by the members of the Hispanic Task Force, which turned Palm Sunday into a Dallas Fiesta.

We'll get you there.

OLYMPIC HOUSING

LOS ANGELES — The 1984 Summer Games and Arts Festival represents a first for the Olympics and for the gay community. For the first time, the Olympics are being held in an openly gay community with gay participants and visitors from all over the world.

At the center of all the activity is Gay Housing Los Angeles '84, which receives approximately 800 referrals a week from the Los Angeles Visitors and Convention Bureau. The expected portion of these referrals are lesbian and gay.

Texans needing tour reservations, lodging and tickets to the arts and sports events can contact GHLA at (213) 938-1984. "Call collect, if you like," GHLA spokesperson Kayle Weems told TWT SPORTS.

SEASON OPENER

HOUSTON — The Greater Houston MSA Softball League will open its 1984 season this weekend, with games scheduled for both Saturday and Sunday evenings, April 28-29, Bill Ransom, spokesman for MSA, reported to TWT SPORTS/Houston.

Returning sponsors include the Barn, Brazos River Bottom, Briar Patch, Dirty Sally's, Galleon and Montrose Voice. New sponsors this year will be the Copa and Rich's.

Activities begin with opening ceremonies at 4:30pm Saturday, with all teams being introduced and the national anthem to be performed by the Montrose Symphonic Band.

James B. "Pops" Walker, coordinator of ballfield reservations for the City of Houston Parks and Recreation, will throw out the first ball. Walker has assisted MSA in securing playing fields for the regular season, as well as for the 1984 Gay Softball World Series.

STARSCOPE
by Milton von Stern

This week's Taurus STARSCOPE stars are Ann-Margret (April 28), Glenn Ford (May 1), Cloris Leachman (April 30) and Perry King (April 30).

The Week of April 27 - May 3

DAYLIGHT SAVINGS TIME: "Spring ahead, fall back," the old saying goes. And now that spring is here, it's time to "spring ahead" one hour this Sunday morning, April 29, to begin daylight savings time. Therefore, at 2:00am this Sunday, set your clocks ahead one hour to 3:00am. The hour you lose this spring will be made up next fall, as daylight savings time traditionally begins on the last Sunday in April.

APRIL NEW MOON: The month of April not only began with a New Moon on April 1, but also ends with another New Moon, on the last day of the month, April 30 at 11:45pm, central daylight savings time. Since New Moons are traditionally the best times to launch new projects and engage in new beginnings, the time to make your move to achieve such goals is again at hand. The April 30 New Moon occurs in Taurus.

TAURUS: (Apr 20 - May 20) The April 30 New Moon is excellent for all those born under the sign of Taurus. In fact, this is your best New Moon of the year—that once-a-year opportunity when new beginnings can best be achieved. New personal goals, private achievements, a new diet and exercise program, a new attitude of positive thinking and a new mental outlook are all blessed by the April New Moon. Think of this period as another chance for new year resolutions.

GEMINI: (May 21 - Jun 21) Next Monday's New Moon colors your private world with blessings, as it occurs in your twelfth house of the inner self. This would be an ideal time to make secretive resolutions as to how to improve yourself and your inner philosophy. This is a wonderful time for you to work out any problems you have about yourself and your self-worth, so as to circumvent any private depressed moods.

GANGER: (Jun 22 - Jul 22) You are going into an extremely upbeat social cycle, when friendships and group alliances can mean more to you than normal. You can benefit greatly from whom you know. Friends can help you. Do not cross any friendships at this point, as healing the wounds will be difficult. Use the April 30 New Moon in your eleventh house to advance yourself socially.

LEO: (Jul 23 - Aug 22) The April 30 New Moon is a big boost to your career, since it illuminates your tenth house of employment. Now is your best time of the year to go job hunting, to seek a promotion, to gain the support of coworkers, and to push forward your creative ideas about relating to your job. You are now able to easily convince others of your self-worth and the worthiness of your abilities.

VIRGO: (Aug 23 - Sep 22) Next Monday's New Moon marks a period for new beginnings in matters of education and travel. Both of these aspects of your life are now blessed by the ninth house illumination of the lunar light. Long distance matters can be solved and dealt with expediently and successfully. Don't be surprised if a sudden trip avails itself. Go! The time is right.

LIBRA: (Sep 23 - Oct 23) Next Monday's New Moon gives you the excellent opportunity to solve any tax problems, estate matters and mutual money deals. You can benefit from dealing with other people's money. Sexually, the New Moon is a terrific boost not only to your sensuality, but also to your ability to perform repeatedly. Your mind is now broadcasting a signal of lust.

SCORPIO: (Oct 24 - Nov 21) Next Monday's New Moon caves in all marital problems, as it occurs in your seventh house of marriage. Partnership problems disappear, conflicts subside and agreements can be easily reached. Harmony yields compromise, enabling parties to benefit. Now is your best time of the year to either get married or fall deeper into an already-existing state of romantic partnership.

SAGITTARIUS: (Nov 22 - Dec 21) Next Monday's New Moon shines from your sixth house of health with the blessings of good well-being. Any ailments, pains, aches and disturbances in your life can now be solved. A visit to the doctor or dentist will yield an accurate diagnosis, a prompt prescription and a speedy recovery. All Sagittarians should visit their houses of health between April 30 and May 13, while the blessings of the New Moon remain operable.

GAPRIGORN: (Dec 22 - Jan 19) Your love life is to get a strong boost during the New Moon which shines from your fifth house of love affairs beginning next Monday. During the two-week cycle, from April 30 to May 13, you will be a very popular person when it comes to romance, as admirers will be abundant. Do not spend this New Moon cycle locked in a room. Be out, about and visible, so the public can absorb your magnetic desires.

AQUARIUS: (Jan 20 - Feb 18) Now is the time to buy a house, move to a new address, sell real estate and dabble in domestic endeavors, because the April 30 New Moon illuminates your fourth house of the home. Make your home-related desires moveable before May 13, while the New Moon is growing larger. As the New Moon grows, so do your chances for ringing up success in home-related matters.

PISCES: (Feb 18 - Mar 20) If you have important papers to sign, contracts to formulate, ideas to communicate and items to sell, then make your move during the New Moon, which becomes favorably operable on April 30. During the two-week New Moon cycle, until May 30, you can achieve your goals in matters of communication. Short trips can also yield benefits. Use this period for new beginnings, since the New Moon shines from your third house.

ARIES: (Mar 21 - Apr 19) Money, money, money. Watch it grow and accumulate after the New Moon of April 30, because the lunar light will shine glowingly from your second house of finances. This is your best period of the year for investing, saving, earning and making wise financial moves. Do not let this beneficial period prior to May 13 pass you by.

Coming next week: Your May LOVE-SCOPE—a monthly STARSCOPE forecast for romance!

Homegirl

by O. Flores Alvarez

Chola cries,
"I'm scared of you!"
and she is
She has good reason to be scared of you
You're "Homegirl" moved downtown and somehow you managed to take your soul with you
You left the barrio and the avenues behind
No more warrior make-up
Just you and Chola, who used to be your best friend, staring hard into each other and trying to remember last year
Last year
when you would get blind drunk and go crazy
in an effort to stay alive just one more day
She's trying to be funny
You're trying to be cool
From here it looks like a major war

The Dance Goes On

by Larry Farrar

You are the music maker;
I am the dancer
I move to your every beat, whirling around to exhaustion.
You play your tune, faster and faster
not caring what song makes me dance.
The music stops as you walk away from me . . .
But the dance goes on.
