HOUSTON MEETS NGLTF HEAD UP CLOSE THIS WEEKEND

*Urvashi Vaid to Address Issues

HOUSTON — Urvashi Vaid arrives in town tomorrow, Saturday, January 18. The Executive Director the National Gay and Lesbian Task Force will go on a whirlwind weekend tour of Houston's gay and lesbian community, making numerous appearances and speeches to a variety of community groups.

Tomorrow Vaid addresses the Houston Leathermen's Conference at 2 p.m. The gathering is being held at the Montrose Palace, 1505 Nevada. The Houston chapter of the National Leather Association is underwriting this event.

At 6 p.m., Vaid will speak at Inklings Bookshop on the the future of lesbian and gay civil rights. A fund-raising reception hosted by NGLTF will follow. This event is being underwritten by Intracare Hospital.

At 9 p.m. Body Positive hosts another fund-raiser at the Lovett Inn. This event is being underwritten by Home Care, Cura-flex and Body Positive. Vaid will discuss AIDS and the future of the gay and lesbian movement.

On Sunday at 10 a.m., Vaid speaks on "Backlash: Violence Against Women" to the Women's Group of the First Unitarian Church. This event will be held in the church's Sojourner Truth Room.

From 5-7 p.m. Vaid will attend a private fund-raiser hosted by Houston therapist Bill Scott and NGLTF. The event is sponsored by Hiram Butler Gallery.

From 7-9:30 p.m. Queer Nation presents "Together We Can" at the Heights Theatre. Vaid will speak to the need for increased activism in Houston's lesbian and gay community. Performance artist Tim Miller will follow up with a display of his unique talents. Vaid's appearance at the Heights is being underwritten by Queer Nation and the Gay & Lesbian Political Caucus.

Vaid has been NGLTF Executive Director since August of 1989. She has been involved in the feminist and gay and lesbian civil rights movements for more than a decade.

Vaid, an attorney has written and worked extensively on prisoners' rights and the rights of prisoners with HIV and AIDS. She was named Advocate magazine's 1990 Woman of the Year.

DALLAS CITY COUNCIL SETS HEARING ON POLICE HIRING POLICY

Vote May Be Close on Rule Banning Gays From Serving on Force.

DALLAS — A public hearing has been scheduled for January 22 by the Dallas City Council on the issue of the Police Department's hiring policy that bans lesbians and gays from serving on the force. The council's decision followed a closed-door session in which city officials considered the lawsuit filed by Mica England.

The Dallas woman filed suit after she was denied a police job because she had admitted she was a lesbian.

A summary judgment motion was scheduled for a hearing on Monday, January 13 before District Judge Paul Davis. He is the judge who in December of 1990 issued a ruling overturning Section 21.06 of the state penal code, which criminalizes sodomy between consenting adults. Section 21.06 is the state statute the Police Department uses to disqualify gays and lesbians from serving on the force, because they can be considered to be breaking the law under this law.

Police Chief Bill Rathburn could not be reached for comment, nor were any police officials willing to go on record on the matter, citing the pending lawsuit. England's lawsuit was filed in May of 1990.

"I believe any type of discrimination is immoral and shouldn't be condoned by the city of Dallas. We are on very bad ground," said newly elected City Council member Domingo Garcia.

Garcia, along with council member Lori Palmer and Deputy Mayor Pro Tem Chris Luna all said they believed there were a "significant" number of votes on the newly elected 15-member council to change the hiring policy. Palmer, who appears to favor changing the policy, said that she felt it would be a close vote, because "there [is] no clear majority for settlement." Council members favored the hearing so Chief Rathburn could express his views.

Even though Mayor Steve Bartlett opposes changing the hiring policy, he said that the public hearing was a good idea. "We shouldn't make policy issues in executive session based on a single piece of litigation."

Mica England filed suit in 1990 over Dallas Police Department's refusal to hire gays and lesbians.

Luna says he does not feel that employment should be denied on the basis of sexual orientation. "The city spends a lot of money on needless lawsuits, and this is one of the examples I use. The policy should be changed." Luna said he favors a public hearing to allow Dallas residents to have input on the police department's hiring policy.

Last year, Judge Davis ruled that Section 21.06 of the state Penal Code is unconstitutional. Morales v. Texas, the case on which Davis issued his ruling, is currently being appealed by the state Attorney General. The law in question makes oral or anal sex between people of the same sex a misdemeanor.

Bruce Monroe, president of the Dallas Gay Alliance, advised the community to take a cautious approach to the decision. "I'm concerned about the public hearing. The rights of minorities will never be heard unless someone takes a leadership stand."

'DARE TO DREAM' BRINGS IN $3,380 FOR AIDS SERVICES OF AUSTIN

Plans Being Made for Agency's Next Fund-Raiser.

AUSTIN — AIDS Services of Austin's [ASA] Dare to Dream Raffle II has brought in $3,380 as of January 9, when the prize of an expenses-paid trip was given away.

Sallye Akin was the lucky winner who will be taking a trip to either San Francisco or New York. The night of the 9th, ASA Development Director reached into the box and drew Akin's ticket.

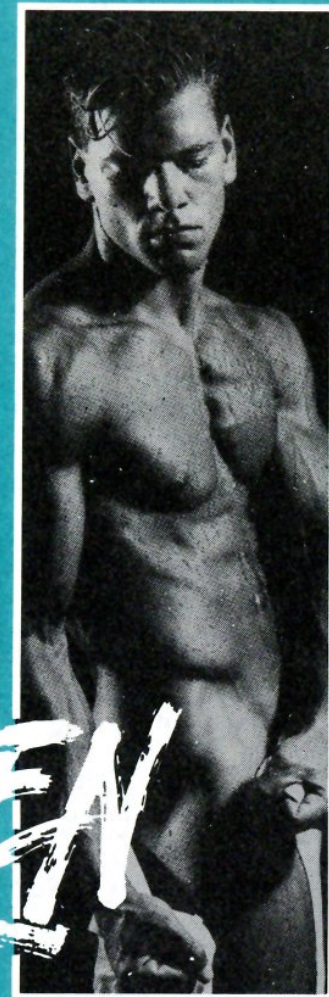

Even though the goal set for the drawing was not met, the fund-raiser succeeded in bringing in much-needed money for ASA's General Fund account.

Becky Clutter, volunteer coordinator of the raffle, told Chris Zimmerman of TWT NEW that Liberty Books was the seller of the winning ticket and will receive the prize of a night on the town. The night on the town includes passes for two to Capital City Playhouse along with dinner for two at Sfuzzi Restaurant.

Plans are now being made for ASA's next fund-raising effort. Those interested in volunteering their time may call Dara Gray or Lorretta Holland at (512)451-2273.

DGA, ARC REPORT INCREASE IN AIDS EDUCATION EFFORTS IN 1991

*Keeping It Up Campaigns Start in Dallas & Fort Worth;
Calls to AIDS Hotline Jump
50% Over Previous Year.*

DALLAS — 1991 was a very busy year for the Dallas Gay Alliance and the AIDS Resource Center. Figures showed that more people were receiving education on the subject of AIDS than in the previous year. DGA and ARC officials attribute this new awareness to former NBA player Magic Johnson's disclosure that he had tested positive, as well as to the media attention given to "C.J.," the woman who claimed that she was knowingly spreading the AIDS virus.

There were almost 22,000 phone calls to the 24-hour AIDS hotline during 1991, compared to approximately 14,000 calls during 1990. Nearly 24,000 people were reached a series of 242 public speaking engagements on AIDS-related topics, compared with 9,300 the previous year. The 115 speaker shifts took volunteers over 7,800 miles to reach rural communities.

The Keeping It Up! campaign, which was begun in February of last year, was an aggressive effort to reach out to the gay and lesbian community with the safe sex message. "Getting Off," begun in September, became the monthly newsletter for the Keeping It Up committee. DGA also worked with the Fort Worth Public Health Dept. in setting up a Keeping It Up campaign in Tarrant County.

A relapse study involving over 2,400 questionnaires was distributed to determine the reasons people fall relapse into unsafe sexual behaviors.

In their outreach programs to the community, DGA and ARC reached almost 20,000 people with safe sex packets and information. The month of July saw the beginning of safe sex seminars in Dallas-area health spas.

The Dallas Gay Alliance and the AIDS Resource Center continued their education programs to the metroplex through the mailing of almost 600 brochures to persons requesting them, and over 100 videos covering AIDS and HIV were loaned out.

MONTROSE CLINIC TO MOVE TO NEW LARGER LOCATION

Will Spend $1.9 Million to Renovate Abandoned Hotel on Westheimer.

HOUSTON — Faced with an ever-increasing need for its services and woefully inadequate facilities, the Montrose Clinic is planning a move to a larger building that will allow it to centralize its operations as well as maintain and increase the level of services it provides to the community.

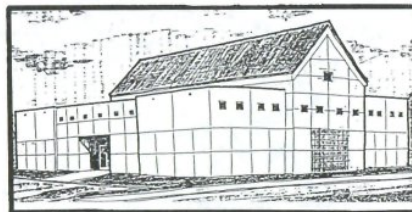

The clinic's offices are currently housed at four different sites which have become inadequate.

The site of the clinic's future home is an abandoned motel at 215 Westheimer. The building will be completely remodeled with donations and Community Development Block Grant Funds. The grant will total $500,000 and the balance of the $1.9 million to be spent on the project will come from donations. The new facility is expected to be ready by fall.

The Montrose Clinic is a nonprofit organization and a leading provider of anonymous testing and counseling for AIDS and other sexually transmitted diseases, pharmacy services and safer sex education in the Houston area.

Abandoned building [above] on lower Westheimer will house new offices of Montrose Clinic. Below is artist's rendering of site after remodeling is complete.

HOUSTON'S COURT OF SINGLE STAR TO ELECT EMPEROR, EMPRESS

Longtime Member Jeanette Vaughn Appointed to Board of Directors.

HOUSTON — The year-end meeting of the Royal, Sovereign and Imperial Court of the Single Star [RSICSS, Inc.] held surprise announcements for members. Board Chairman Lonnie McElwain announced that longtime court member Jeanette Vaughn had been appointed to the organization's board of directors.

Vaughn, who is popular with the membership, has served on various committees and as court treasurer for the past two years.

McElwain told TWT NEWS that the voting boundaries for the court had been extended to include all counties that share a boundary with Harris County. "Our organization functions within the boundaries of Harris County, with a primary focus on the Houston community."

"We had discovered that many individuals who support our fund-raising activities throughout the year are residents of surrounding counties," McElwain said. "They have expressed their desire to be involved in the election of our monarchs."

"Their support is vital to our community, and we are expressing our appreciation of their support by extending the boundaries for voting purposes only," he added.

Any resident of Harris County—and now all counties bordering it—is eligible to vote for candidates campaigning for the positions of Emperor and Empress. Those elected serve one-year terms as co-moderators and as official representatives of the court. There are five candidates competing this year, three running for the position of Emperor and two vying for the title of Empress.

The court is a social and service organization, and the titles are intended as "camp," part of the fun of belonging to the group.

There are more than 50 courts in the U.S. Canada and Mexico, and though many follow traditions laid down by the original founding courts, each court operates as an independent organization, and is not bound by international rules or regulations of the sort that other groups typically must abide by.

The election of Emperor and Empress VIII is being held next Saturday, January 25. The voting booth will be located on the mezzanine level of the Holiday Inn Medical Center hotel and will be monitored by Houston's Colt 45's. Voting hours are from 5:30-7:30 p.m. Voters need only present a valid Texas-issued driver license or ID proving residence in Harris or contiguous counties.

Coronation '92 begins at 7 p.m. in the Center Ballroom at the hotel. Tickets are $20 and will be available at the door.

NOMINATIONS BEING ACCEPTED FOR SEAT ON GHAA BOARD

Eligible Candidates Must Be HIV-Positive or Have AIDS, Be Medically Indigent.

HOUSTON — Nominations are now open for a seat on the board of directors of the Greater Houston AIDS Alliance. Interested candidates must be either HIV-positive or diagnosed with AIDS, and must also be medically indigent. A current ID card from the Thomas Street Clinic will be required as proof of medical indigency.

Nominations are being accepted in person or by mail at either the Body Positive/Houston office (Suite 176) or the PWA Coalition office, Suite 164 in the Metropolitan Multi-Service Center, 1475 West Gray.

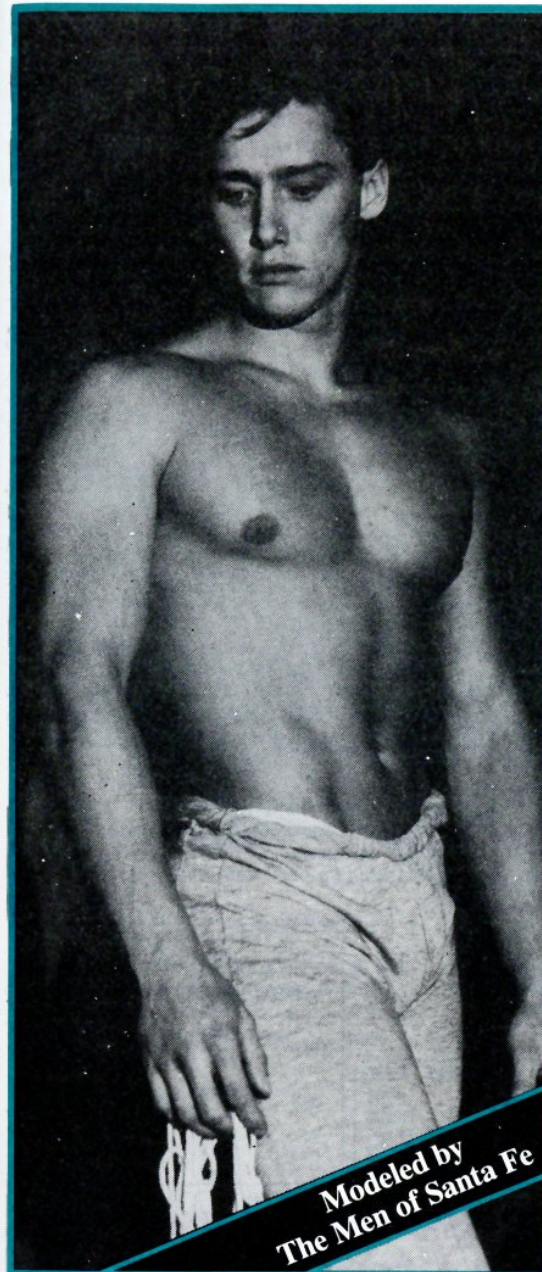

Body Positive and the PWA Coalition are conducting the election of the board position. A board member and alternate will be chosen.

Prospective candidates will be required to show proof of their HIV condition and evidence that they are medically indigent. In addition, they must be willing to have this information made public.

All those who are running for the board position must be available to answer questions at a meeting to be held Saturday, February 1 at the Metropolitan Multi-Service Center between 11 a.m. and noon.

The election will be held from noon to 2 p.m. on Saturday, February 1. Ballots will be counted immediately after 2 p.m.

For more details on running for the GHAA board position, please call the PWA Coalition at (713)522-5428 or Body Positive/Houston at (713)524-2374.

Village Station Thanks Community

Dear TWT:

As we say good-bye to 1991 and begin a new year, it is time to reflect and say thank you to the community for their generosity.

It was in the spring of 1991 that Village Station began setting a jar at the front door, accepting donations for various AIDS-related organizations in the community. The money that has been raised through that jar has done some wonderful things throughout the past year.

Through the holiday season, we were able to give $1,800 to the Food Pantry for Thanksgiving, and we able to supply turkeys to the PWA House and 285 chickens to the Food Pantry for Christmas. Your caring and generosity enabled us to provide the newly-located Daire Day Care Center with a freezer, a stove, electrical work for their washer and dryer and remodeling that was needed for the kitchen, totaling $2,557.83. We have also been able to help the AIDS Resource Center and the Alan Ross PWA Christmas Basket Project.

Saying "thank you" does not seem enough, but thank you.

We will continue to keep the jar at the front door so we can continue to help where needed. We wish you a prosperous and safe new year. God bless you and thank you, again.

Unity Requires Work

Dear TWT:

I'd like to compliment Mr. Miller for raising many valid points, but I hope he is realistic enough to disown these people and their problems. He obviously has a conscience, but he shouldn't waste his time and energy over people who do nothing for the collective efforts of our community.

If I were caught in this conflict, I would have little time for my career in AIDS services, my involvement with friends who have become ill, the AIDS Mastery Workshop and the Buddy Program. I hope that Mr. Miller and others who share his opinion will divert more time and energy to being grateful for those who do get involved to make a difference.

Where would any of us be without the Gene Harringtons, the Glen Maxeys, the Debra Danburgs, the Annise Parkers and the Ray Hills of the world? I, for one, am grateful for people like these. We need more of them.

I also feel that unity and cohesion in the gay and lesbian community are for those who are willing to work for these goals. The people who don't contribute are causing their own problems, not ours and certainly not mine. To hell with them! Some of us in the gay and lesbian community pull our own weight and then some!

Thanks to Many for Success of 'fort worth formal'

Dear TWT:

It is with great pride that I write to tell you about the phone calls that I have been receiving. Old and new friends have been calling to say what a good time they had, to thank me and to express pleasure at the success of "fort worth formal," Tarrant County's lesbian/gay New Year's Eve party.

It is very tempting to take all the credit for the success of this event. But all along the way there was help which deserves my public gratitude.

This event would have been possible had not First Friday's Janet and Beth organized the first very successful New Year's Eve event last year. This year many individuals assisted during every phase of planning and execution, primarily the president of the Tarrant County Lesbian/Gay Alliance, and my good friend Carlos Northam. All the bars, several businesses and over 60 individual sponsors assured the success of the fund-raising aspect. Finally, and most importantly, "fort worth formal" would not have happened without the lesbians, gay men and straight friends and families who purchased tickets and had a marvelous time.

My apologies to those who were unaware of this year's event. Advertising was minimal due to limited space. I promise next year's event will be at least twice as large and widely publicized.

Home for the Holidays

Dear TWT:

Watching our first PLWA take his trip home was really moving and we have tears in our eyes as we compose this open letter to the community. So many people helped to make this dream come true, for him and the rest who will be leaving within a few days or so. But the first just takes the tea! You had to be there. The emotions are so incredible and so naturally high!

Our fabulous entertainers, sponsors, supporters, volunteers and audiences were gracious to take time out of their own busy holiday schedule to make a big difference in the lives of five PLWAs. This is what Christmas is all about! You've helped to eliminate the travel expenses for trips home for Christmas. You'll never know just how much your performance at "Home for the Holidays" was appreciated. Although we did not get to send as many home as we all would have liked to, we definitely made a point. Essentials are important and necessary, but making a PLWAs dream come true can be positive and vital to his/her health as well.

A simple thank-you is really not enough for what you did to make "Home for the Holidays" a success of $1,809. If you could be here and see this guy leave for home, anything verbally conveyed would go unnoticed; you would feel the thank-you in your very soul.

Five people are going home: one to New York, a father and son to Rhode Island (the father is very sick and the son hasn't seen his grandfather in a long time), one to Georgia (who has been separated from his family for many years), and one to Michigan. There is $11.50 left over and you can't beat that!

We express our heartfelt thanks to Jamie and Abacus Printing, Denis, Keith, Paul and Caven Enterprises, THIS WEEK IN TEXAS, the Dallas Gay Alliance Membership Committee, emcee Donna Day, Flavio of Men in Motion Art Studio in Amarillo for the original art (door prize) and Bruce Horton of Dragon Lady Jewelry for the incredible earrings (door prize), emcee Lady Shawn, stage manager Rachael Masters, Bill and Oak Travel, Razzle Dazzle Dallas, Chris and the Village Station staff, and the 42 extraordinary entertainers and volunteers. This was a "first" and we are proud that you were a part of our productions.

Again, thank you for everything you did to make "Home for the Holidays" a dream come true for Dallas' PLWAs. See you next year!

Let Gays, Lesbians Serve

The letter below was sent to Rep. Sam Johnson of Texas protesting the U.S. military's policy of excluding gays and lesbians from serving in the armed forces. Johnson's reply follows.—Editor

Dear Mr. Johnson:

I am sorry that I was unable to attend the Plano Town Meeting last Saturday concerning national defense issues. I'd like to take a few moments of your time to express my opinion on one particular issue.

As you know, the Pentagon has a policy of excluding and dismissing gay and lesbian people from the armed services. I believe this policy can no longer be justified under the guise of "...incompatibility with military service." The Pentagon's policy is simply one of ignorance and not based on fact. The Pentagon's own research fails to substantiate the policy.

Secretary Dick Cheney himself has expressed his reluctance to continue to enforce this discriminatory policy, calling the policy "an old chestnut" which he had "inherited." ROTC organizations across the country at our universities are coming under fire for upholding a policy that violates the university's policy of nondiscrimination.

In an article published in USA Today on August 20, the newspaper reports that "[a] federal appeals court in San Francisco recently ruled that the Army will have to prove that there is a rational basis for its 48-year-old ban on homosexuals. The judges said past decisions upholding the military's policy were based, in part, on acquiescence to the prejudice of others. 'Private biases may be outside the reach of the law, but the law cannot, directly or indirectly, give them effect,' the Supreme Court said, and that language was cited by the federal appeals judges."

In the same issue of USA Today: "The American Psychological Association, declaring the military's policy of excluding homosexuals is 'based exclusively on prejudice and not on fact,' plans to assemble a coalition of professional, scientific and higher education organizations to fight the ban. The governing board of the 108,000-member association also voted to ban military advertising in association publications after 1992 unless the Pentagon policy is abolished."

Certainly you realize that gay men and lesbians have been serving this country in the military for decades, despite the Pentagon's policy.

You represent and I live in a conservative district. Please be aware that you do have gay men and lesbians living in Collin County and we deserve to have due representation in Congress. Isn't it time to stop the foolishness and tell the military that their exclusion of gay men and lesbians is no longer acceptable? Thank you very much for your attention.

James B. Hansen
Plano, TX

Dear Mr. Hansen:

Thank you for contacting me regarding the prohibition on homosexuals in the military. I appreciate having the benefit of your views.

I do not believe that homosexuals should be allowed to serve in the armed forces of this country. Homosexual behavior is immoral and disruptive to the morale required in a military environment. I also believe that allowing homosexuals to serve in the military would indicate an endorsement of this lifestyle by the federal government.

Our government should reflect the traditional morals and values that constitute the foundation of this country. I will oppose legislative efforts to overturn the current ban on homosexuals in the armed services.

Again, thanks for contacting me. I hope you will not hesitate to contact me in the future on matters of interest to you.

Host a House Party

Dear TWT:

AIDS Foundation Houston [AFH] is expanding its safer sex campaign by finding new ways to promote safer sex behavior. As most of you know, there are still many gay and bisexual men who rarely consider being safe when having sex. Even more men in our community are woefully ignorant—or are at least uncertain—of the facts.

This is a common problem, especially in the minority community and among younger men. Many are too scared of sex or too busy trying to find a partner who they think is "low risk," and rarely consider learning how to have a good time without the fear.

AFH offers safer sex workshops at their office twice a month—the third and fourth Tuesdays (January 21 and 28 this month)—that explore all the issues in a confidential and entertaining atmosphere.

AFH also sponsors the popular "Safer Sex House Parties" which give people an opportunity to host a group of their friends to a fun workshop in their home on their own time.

If you want to schedule your very own "Safer Sex House Parties" or have any questions regarding safer sex, please call me at AFH (713)623-6796.

DALLAS

Congratulations to Dallas Gay Alliance and their Keeping It Up! campaign. They were cited in a Hamilton, Ontario, Canada study as an example of the new types of education that need to be made available. After handing out 62,000 condoms, 30,000 packets of lube and a few thousand suckers in 1991, 148 Condom Runs (by the Condom Guerrillas) and 42 safer sex presentations, plus the seminars at Club Body Center and Midtowne Spa, those helping out with Keeping It Up! are also examples of dedicated volunteers of the very highest order! Texas salutes you, DGA!

Beth El Binah is holding Shabbat services every second Friday evening of each month at 8:15 p.m. at the Gay and Lesbian Community Center, located at the corner of Brown and Reagan.

You can enjoy Lambda Weekly Radio (KNON 89.3 FM) Sundays 2-4 p.m.

The Texas Lesbian Conference is being held in Dallas this spring. Workshops on communication, health, relationships and social issues will be presented. The Lavender Pages, a telephone directory of women-owned businesses, will also be distributed. This is the only statewide gathering of lesbians in Texas and your help is being solicited. Call Lesbian Visionaries at (214)528-2426 to volunteer, or Angela Lansey at (817)292-2009 for listings or ads in the Pages.

This Sunday, January 19, Dignity/Dallas presents Phil Johnson, Dallas' most prominent gay historian. Mass begins at 7:15 p.m. and afterwards there will be a reception honoring Johnson, who will speak about "Gay Life History in Dallas." Dignity is a nonprofit organization of lesbian and gay Catholics and their friends. Dignity Dallas meets at 6525 Inwood Road, on the first and third Sundays of every month at 7:15 p.m. starting with Mass.

FORT WORTH

Gay Pride Week will benefit from the show at D.J.'s tonight (January 17).

This Sunday (January 19), Gay Pride Week meets at the Across the Street Club.

Tarrant County AIDS Interfaith Network is offering a support group for our everyday heroes, the care partners of PWAs. Every Monday night from 7-8:30 p.m. in the North Minister Room on the second floor of St. Stephen Presbyterian Church, 2600 Merida. Thanks, TCAIN!

HOUSTON

Learn creative new ways to play with your Christmas toys! Improve your sex life! Attend the next safer sex workshop on Tuesday, January 21 at 7 p.m. at the AIDS Foundation Houston, 3202 Wesleyan. The workshop is offered every third Tuesday of each month and explores the fun, excitement and sensuality of safer sex. Free to all. (713)623-6796.

The Executive Director of the National Gay/Lesbian Task Force, Urvashi Vaid, will be at Inklings Bookshop, 1846 Richmond tomorrow (January 18) at 6 p.m. to speak on the future of lesbian and gay civil rights. Donations to the National Gay/Lesbian Task Force gratefully accepted. (713) 521-0780 or 521-3369.

Queer Nation, the Houston Gay and Lesbian Political Caucus and the National Gay and Lesbian Task Force are hosting performance artist Tim Miller and NGLTF Executive Director Urvashi Vaid for "Together We Can," an evening of art and speech this Sunday, January 19 at 7 p.m. at the Heights Theater, 19th Street (between Ashland and Rutland). (713)521-1000 or 529-1223.

The most fun in town is at the Houston Lesbian and Gay Pride Week meetings where plans are made about the Parade and other Pride events and happenings. It would be even more fun if there were more women and people of color. The next meeting is Tuesday, January 21 at 7 p.m. at the Metropolitan Multi-Service Center, 1475 West Gray. (713)529-6979.

The Prime Timers are meeting tomorrow (January 18) at 900 Lovett, #201, Room 15 at 2 p.m. The topic will be "Stress Management/Biofeedback." Prime Timers is a social and support group for mature gay and bisexual men and their admirers. P.O. Box 30381, Houston 77249-0381.

If one of your New Year's resolutions was to get out more, meet new people, have fun and get involved in positive community activity, call (713)522-0181. That's the number of the Lone Star Symphonic Band, whose resolution is to play, and play music. All levels of proficiency are represented from beginners to pros, and all are instrumental. GLAAD Tidings

Although Superman has not yet come flying out of the closet, a major comic book company has been putting out some strong portrayals of gay characters.

Marvel Comics is one of the two largest comic book companies, along with DC Comics. Their characters include Captain America, Spider Man and the Fantastic Four—names familiar to many people from their childhoods. In fact, comics exert a tremendous influence on millions of young people. They give youth ideas about the value of right and wrong, and the qualities that make a hero. In the sixties, seventies and eighties, comics often took strong stands in decrying racism and sexism. It looks as if in the nineties they may have come around to supporting gays, too.

Marvel's recent gay-positive story appeared in The Incredible Hulk. It presented a gay couple and a single male who run a clinic for AIDS as normal and caring people who are friends of the Hulk. The issue also sought to teach its readers not to have irrational fears about being around people with AIDS.

But Marvel's best news comes from another book. Alpha Flight is a serial about a team of Canadian superheroes. In its next issue, a hero who has been with the team since its beginning—over eight years—will be coming out of the closet.

In the most recent issue of Alpha Flight, there was a foreshadowing when Northstar confronted three men who were harassing a gay couple in a bar. This kind of story is incredibly supportive to the book's young gay readers, and sends a message to its straight audience that gay-baiting is not cool.

There have always been subtle hints that this character, Northstar, is gay. Now Marvel is finally willing to let him reveal the truth. In the upcoming issue [No. 106], Northstar takes the plunge and comes out in a story dealing with gay issues. It's exciting that the topic is being handled with sensitivity and intelligence. Best of all, Northstar's revelation makes him no less a hero, and even more of a man. To thank the publisher of Marvel for these positive portrayals, write to Mr. Stan Lee, Publisher, Marvel Comics, 387 Park Avenue South, New York, NY 10016.

Encourage them to keep up the good work, and to add lesbians and gay people of color to the mix. Remind Lee that in the "real world," Marvel can be a hero by helping to fight some true villains—ignorance, hatred and fear.

In the realm of real-life heroes, the fight to overturn the U.S. Military's anti-gay policy continues. National publications have been taking on the issue, many coming out in favor of ending the ban on lesbian and gay personnel in the armed forces.

twin editorials by members of Congress on opposite sides of the issue. Under the heading "Gays in the Military," Democratic Rep. Ted Weiss of New York contributed the "yes" editorial. Weiss is a co-sponsor of the Congressional resolution proposing that the anti-gay ban be lifted. His column eloquently and systematically outlined the wasteful and hypocritical nature of the policy.

On the same page was a "no" column written by the infamously homophobic Republican Rep. William Dannemeyer of California. Dannemeyer's piece did not hinge on any rational argument, but instead engaged in name-calling, using terms like "the Lavender Left" and "odd squad," and an AIDS-phobic joke. He mentioned "homosexual sodomy" repeatedly, and included references to interior designers, perversions, anonymous sex and his apparent favorite, "their chosen life-style." There wasn't a single rational statement in it, and in any case, Dannemeyer's open hatred outdid even the blatant inaccuracies of his contentions.

Normally GLAAD objects vigorously when pro-gay opinions are treated as always needing an anti-gay rebuttal. Media outlets sometimes think they can only discuss an issue of importance to gays and lesbians if they also present a hysterical opposing view on the subject.

Whatever the reasons were in this case, it's tempting to commend the Chicago Tribune for printing the excellent and forthright Weiss editorial and for accompanying it with a most effective corroboration: the Dannemeyer piece. In some ways, the hysterical ranting of Dannemeyer made an equally good case for ending the military's anti-gay policy.

Either way, homophobes have a right to their opinion, but they don't have a right to have it invoked automatically anytime someone makes a pro-gay statement. To let the Tribune know how you feel about all this, write to Mr. Jack Fuller, Editor-In-Chief, Chicago Tribune, 435 North Michigan Avenue, Chicago, IL 60611. To call the Tribune, dial (312)222-3232.

"GLAAD Tidings" is written by members of the Gay & Lesbian Alliance Against Defamation, Inc., a nationwide organization which monitors media coverage of lesbians and gay men. In Texas, report on such coverage to GLAAD/Dallas at (214)526-4523 or GLAAD/Houston at (713)523-6109.

STEVE CRAWFORD
9-28-63 9-18-91

Dear Steve,

I am writing this letter to you because right now I am feeling very alone. It's been three months since you have passed on to a greater meaning of life, and I miss you very much.

In the four and a half years we were together, there were some difficult times building the relationship and sometimes we said things out of anger, but I truly believe as the end drew near, we realized how much we loved each other. I often think of the little things — especially how sometimes you would call my name. I now realize that you were my best friend, as well as my lover. I keep wanting to reach out and hold you, but I can't, and it hurts me so much.

The one thing that hurts to remember is the time near the end when we were lying together and you asked my how I thought you were doing. It was the toughest question I ever had to answer. My response was, "We know you are very ill, but people do go into remission, so we will just handle each ailment as it comes along." I can't tell you how hard it was, not to let you know I was crying.

You were so strong, and kept your sense of humor through the whole ordeal. I now understand that although I appeared to be the stronger influence in the relationship, it was actually the reverse.

Yes, Steve I have gone out since you've begun your new journey, and let me tell you, it's still just the same — which makes me realize all the more how much I miss what we had. I want you to know that whatever I do, or wherever I go, I will always love you. You were truly the wind beneath my wings.

I could go on and on, because while writing this letter I feel close to you. But I realize that you and I have things to do; we must go on with the process of Life — you in your space and me in mine — so I will let you go for a while . . . until I am with you again.

Love Always,
Sonny

Bern:

TRAVEL

Discovering the Real Europe

by David Meunier
Photographs by Stephen Hader

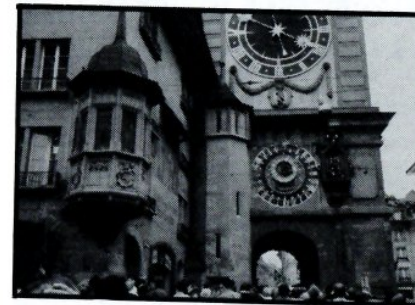

It's your first trip to Europe and you want to see it all. You soon find yourself rushing madly about the glamorous capitals of the continent like London, Paris and Rome. Despite the excitement and beauty of these major tourist destinations, you somehow feel there ought to be something more. Something, well, more European. Something that reminds you of a calendar picture, a storybook tale or a place that doesn't have a McDonald's. A place where there aren't major traffic jams or long lines at every attraction. A location that's quiet, graceful and charming, where there aren't too many T-shirt shops. A spot where you can slow the pace down to allow yourself to soak in the atmosphere.

If you're a practical traveler, you're probably using a Eurorail pass to get around. Journeying in Europe by train is a wonderful experience not to be confused with American train travel. Taking the train affords you the perfect opportunity to break up your vacation by stopping a day or two in a smaller city. If you're in Paris and planning to go to Munich, Berlin or Venice, you'll probably go through Switzerland. This is the time to jump ship—or train, if you will—and explore a city like Bern. It's a place that looks and feels like the Europe you've carried in your mind.

Bern is the capital of Switzerland and one of Europe's loveliest cities. The Duke of Zähringen established the city in 1191 while on a hunting trip. It had been agreed that the first animal caught would provide the new city with its name. It turned out to be a bear. The town was called Barn (later to become Bern) and a bear was placed on its coat of arms. Built on a peninsula of the winding Aare River, Bern has kept its old-world look intact.

The old-town section is the most fascinating area with its arcaded streets featuring the gothic and baroque facades of homes. The ground floors and cellars have been converted into boutiques, galleries and restaurants. All the important sights are within walking distance of each other, and the tourist office will provide you with a terrific map of the center of town, outlining a walking tour.

As you stroll up the Spitalgasse, leading into the Marktgasse, you will notice a series of 11 fountains, each with a different theme (piper, orge, Samson). You soon arrive at the clock tower (it was the city gate until 1256), which features an astronomical clock and moving figures of bears, kings and jesters. The clock was built in 1530 and is still ticking. You know what they say about Swiss watches. The performance begins at four minutes before the hour throughout the day. At the end of the old-town section you'll reach the Nydeggbrücke (bridge) where you can get a good view of one of the most charming features of the city—the irregular roofs of the houses. Unusual in precision-minded Switzerland, Bern has a law stating that homes cannot be built at the same size and height. It makes for a delightful effect. Practically across the street are the famous bearpits. These bears are spoiled and put on an achingly cute show for the tourists. There are even vending machines dispensing carrots to feed them.

For a grand view of the old town, climb the graded path to the rose garden. Heading back into town, stop at the Cathedral of St. Vincent. The high tower and flying buttresses of the gothic church are very impressive. Don't be put off by climbing the 254 steps to the tower's platform. The panorama of the Alps is worth it. Bern also has a number of excellent museums, among them The Swiss Postal museum with one of the largest permanent stamp collections in the world.

Bern is a perfect location to use as a base to make a day trip to the Bernese Oberland, where some of the highest peaks of the Alps come together. Surrounded by pastures filled with meadow flowers and clear blue lakes are the mountains of Eiger, Monch and Jungfrau. This region is one of the most famous mountain recreation areas in the world. You can take a series of train trips to increasingly higher vantage points, starting at Interlaken and going up through picturesque villages like Grindelwald. On a clear day it's unequalled, but even on a rainy day it's magnificent.

You'll leave Bern and its nearby environs refreshed and restored, and you'll feel like you've seen a small part of the "real" Europe. You might even be ready to tackle one of those high-powered cities again.

BACKSTAGE
 BY JAZZ PAZ

If it's not Shadowlands, it must be Homeward Bound at Theatre Three in Dallas. Elliot Hayes' modern comedy dissects the relationships of a family struggling with murder vs. suicide, illegitimate pregnancy, kidnapped children, the son's lover and the disintegrating husband. Pretty funny, huh? Through February 22. Various ticket prices and schedules. (214)871-3300. 2800 Routh Street.

"Everywhere you look in Dallas, there's something to make fun of, from rich matrons to cowboys to religious fanatics," observes Paul Williams, who along with Steven Crabtree plays all the roles, male and female, in Less Miserable, Dallas' funniest and newest act at Pocket Sandwich Less Miserable.

Theatre. Pat Skinner plays the piano during all the craziness tonight (January 17) and tomorrow and for the next three Friday and Saturday nights at 11 p.m. $6. (214) 821-1860.

If you're wild for Oscar Wilde, you'll be crazy over The Importance of Being Earnest. And if you're a supporter of the AIDS Resource Center, you'll want to buy your tickets ($19) for the Wednesday, January 22 performance at the Kalita Humphreys Theater at 3636 Turtle Creek Blvd., 7:30 p.m. The Dallas Theater Center has generously made 100 tickets available to The Crossroads Market, Curious Times and the AIDS Resource Center to sell for the benefit of ARC. Thank you very much, Dallas Theater Center!

Unless you're A Trifle Dead, you've seen or are planning to see this original comedy-murder-mystery by Kurt Kleinmann at Pegasus Theatre, 3916 Main Street, in Dallas. Tickets are $8-$15, shows are Wednesday-Sunday until February 22. You'll die laughing! (214)821-6005, Rainbow Ticketmaster at 373-8000 or metro 647-5700.

Do you ever think of all the things you don't think about? Performance artist Mark Anderson does, and he does it Manual, at DiverseWorks Artspace, 1117 East Freeway in Houston. This continuous 80-minute monologue and dance/mime reaches out to consider birth, death, afterlife, dreams, religion, government, sex and everything else tonight (January 17) and tomorrow night at 9:30 p.m. $8; $6 for members. (713)228-0914.

The Houston premiere of Jerker features John Renneau and Sam Niles.

Conservative retaliation against Jerker, of the Helping Hand: A Pornographic Elegy with Redeeming Social Value and a Hymn to the Queer Men of San Francisco in Twenty Telephone Calls, Many of Them Dirty is credited with bringing to the forefront the current national debate over the limits of artistic expression. What "they" are missing is that in Jerker, the sexual becomes spiritual. Opening at Curtains, 3722 Washington Avenue in Houston, January 22 at 8 p.m. and plays (at different hours) through Sunday, January 26. $8-$15. (713)862-4548.

Edward Albee wrote and is directing his first new work to be seen in the United States in nine years, Marriage Play, about the uneasy resolution that a couple forges when the husband announces that he intends to leave the wife he's been married to for 30 years. On the Alley Theatre's large stage, 615 Texas Avenue, Houston. $10-$33, through February 2. (713)228-8421.

Stage West, 312 Houston Street (but it's in Fort Worth). (817)STG-WEST.

Theatre EKLEKTOS presents Michael Cristofer's award-winning play, The Shadow Box, at the Mexic-Arte Museum, 419 Congress, Austin, starting tonight (January 17) through February 15, Thursdays-Saturdays at 8 p.m. Three families face the immediacy of death and the humanity of life in a way that causes the audience to examine the way we come together in moments of crisis and face our own fears and expectations. $8. (512)462-9273.

Jesse Helms doesn't believe in it, but Brad Fraser's Unidentified Human Remains and the True Nature of Love depicts gay and straight men and women interacting casually, sexual orientation as an ongoing area of exploration, and the role of violence and drugs in the lives of "normal" people. Contains sexually explicit material and nudity. Opens Wednesday, January 22 at 8 p.m. and continues Thursdays-Sundays at 8 p.m. with a matinee Sunday, February 23 at 3 p.m. (No performance on February 9 or 13). $7 and $8 except for students, who always pay $6. Vortex Performance Cafe, 1921 Ben White Blvd, in Austin. (512)448-2299.

Barbra Streisand
TRIVIA CONTEST

TWT wishes to thank the hundreds of people who entered our Barbra Streisand Trivia Contest. Below we provide the correct responses to the 12 questions about this legendary superstar. Some of our entrants provided the additional information which we have included in our answers.

- 1) Barbra Streisand made her Broadway debut in I Can Get It for You Wholesale as Miss Marmelstein.
- 2) She won two 1963 Grammy awards for The Barbra Streisand Album.
- 3) Her first television special, which was broadcast April 28, 1965 and won the Emmy award for Outstanding Program Achievement in Entertainment, was called "My Name Is Barbra."
- 4) Miss Streisand won an Oscar for her role as Fanny Brice in Funny Girl in 1968. She tied for Best Actress honors with Katharine Hepburn, who won for her role in The Lion in Winter.
- 5) "Evergreen," from the film A Star Is Born, won her the Academy Award for Best Song.
- 6) Barbra Streisand has been awarded eight Grammys.
- 7) Miss Streisand produced, directed, wrote the screenplay for and starred in Yentl, based on Isaac Bashevis Singer's Yentl, the Yeshiva Boy.

- 8) She has not co-starred with Elvis Presley, even though he was sought for the leading role opposite her in A Star Is Born.
- 9) "People" was Barbra Streisand's first No. 1 single. But after consulting musicologist Ray Cooper of Oak Lawn Records in Dallas, we decided to accept "Happy Days Are Here Again" as an alternate response. It was the B side of the "People" single.
- 10) Texan Tommy Tune co-starred as Ambrose Kemper in Hello, Dolly.
- 11) Miss Streisand portrayed Daisy Gamble in On a Clear Day You Can See Forever. But, when she was placed under hypnosis, it was revealed that Miss Gamble had been Melinda Winifred Wayne Moorepark Tentrees in former lives.
- 12) The Donna Summer/Barbra Streisand disco dance hit is "No More Tears (Enough Is Enough)."

Below are listed the names of the 50 people who provided the most correct answers to all 12 questions:

Roy Alejandro of Euless, J.M. Andrews of Dallas, Brennan Beyer of Dallas, Karl Black of Houston, Mike Burton of Houston, Greg Cameron of Houston, Eddie Casas of Dallas, Vincent Castillo of Dallas, Orlin Cullever of Houston, Anthony Dane of Galveston, Kris Dariegn of Dallas, Keith Emery of Dallas, Monica Espinosa of Houston, David Fowler of Houston, Daniel Garcia of Houston, John Gardner of Houston, Robert Gerber of Houston, Peter Grimmer of Dallas, Victor Guerrero of Dallas, Stephen Haddock of Houston, Bill Heimbach of Houston, Bob Hitchcock of Dallas, David Hobbs of Austin, Paul Iglesias of San Antonio, Robert Jimenez of Houston, Robert Killian of Arlington, Michael Kowalczyk of Irving, Chris Lewis of Houston, Steven Long of Dallas, Johnny Maddox of Houston, Johnny Marak of Alpine, Mitch Mitchell of Houston, Tom Moorehead of Beaumont, Mark Osenbach of Dallas, M. Let me just refasten that top button before we shoot, okay!

With the national recession—yes, George, there really is one!—firmly gripping our country, it sometimes seems as though there was never a time when the gay and lesbian community wasn't challenged by ill health and financial uncertainty. But 11 years ago, a powerful and unified family of gay men and women was enjoying a high-end lifestyle.

And while today we focus more on bankruptcies and closings, in 1981 business openings were the order of the day. San Antonio led the way with grand announcements of the River City's newest drinkatorium, Jennifer's Jewel Box on Fredericksburg at Culebra. Meanwhile, about 275 miles north on I-35, Dallas, the cultural mecca of Texas, announced not another club, but the official grand opening of the Oak Lawn Public Library—a different kind of bookstore! Houston, meanwhile, proudly added three—yes, three—more places to drown your sorrows, namely Houston Country, Wildwood Saloon and The Chicken Coop.

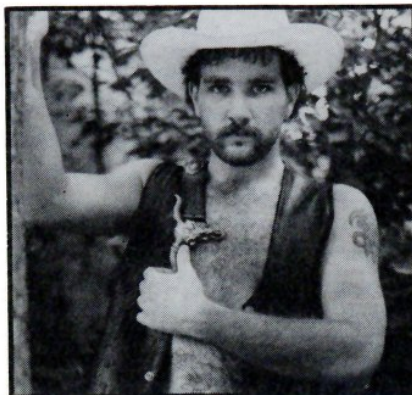

While I admit that attending bar openings has always been a favorite activity of mine, I would have gladly surrendered my invitations for the opportunity of partici-

Week of January 15-23, 1992

by Leonard Byram
Member, American Federation of Astrologers

This week's STARSOCPE concentrates on the two luminaries, Sun and Moon. The first event is the Moon in Cancer that begins at 5:26 p.m. Friday and reaches its fullness on Sunday at 3:30 p.m. We have not had a Full Moon in Cancer since December 31, 1990 and that Moon was a Blue Moon. "Blue Moon" refers to the occurrence of two Full Moons in a single month; hence the expression "once in a blue moon." There will not be any more Blue Moons until September of 1993. Incidentally, there can never be a Blue Moon in the month of February, as it takes 29½ days for the Moon to become full again. So even during a leap year like 1992, it just can't happen.

On Monday, the Sun enters Aquarius at 1:33 p.m., ushering in a period of respite for persons overworked and overstressed. This weekend you should be extra alert for people who might injure you emotionally or physically. Don't be led astray by a pretty face, at least not the first one.

On Sunday, the Moon enters Leo in mid-afternoon, bringing great times for those who like to party right into Monday. Monday starts off quickly with lots of gossip, most of it true.

Tuesday there's an air of optimism, but many feel a need to conform. Everyone is spacey. Wednesday people overwork themselves and get upset if they think others aren't doing it too. Thursday tensions run high, but the evening is beautiful and brings the week to a close.

CAPRICORN: (Dec 22 - Jan 19) This weekend the Full Moon puts emphasis on your seventh house of marriage and partnership. Put yourself in others' shoes. You tell one too many tall tales. Be as nonaggressive as possible without getting your own toes stepped on. An important aspect early Monday forces you to apply yourself to a task you've been avoiding. Anything done to further career goes further than expected. Best days: Monday, Wednesday.

AQUARIUS: (Jan 20 - Feb 18) Health concerns you more than thoughts this week. This weekend you may feel out of sorts from too much responsibility being placed on you. Monday and Tuesday continue in this vein, but on Wednesday you get to put the pressure back where it really belongs. This weekend sex is fun in an unusual way. Thursday night is great for approaching a difficult situation. Best day: Sunday.

PISCES: (Feb 18 - Mar 20) A fun and mystical weekend. Time to kick back your heels. But of all the signs of the zodiac, you are the most likely to be too hard on yourself. This weekend proves that you can be the life of the party. Just remember not to become the party as over-indulgence would be a problem. The work week goes smoothly for you. Best days: Saturday and Tuesday.

ARIES: (Mar 21 - Apr 19) A quiet reprieve for you at week's end. You feel a little out of sorts until Sunday. You lose your temper more easily and as a result may have a temporary estrangement from a lover or friend. Don't make a spectacle of yourself when faced with a hard decision early next week. A little resolve goes a long way at work, and extra effort now will lessen your work for the rest of the month. Best day: Monday.

TAURUS: (Apr 20 - May 20) You're introduced to someone unique, but you might have to go out of your way to meet them. On Saturday, call up any Scorpio you know, even if you no longer like them. The sex will be worth it due to a Venus transit. You really should touch people more; others think you're insensitive. Work flies by as you find interesting things to do. Any favor you ask Tuesday night is likely to be granted. Best days: Saturday and Wednesday.

GEMINI: (May 21 - Jun 21) This week is busy and exciting, with several romantic and financial opportunities, especially on Sunday. Look for love with a Sagittarius or Aquarius. Avoid speculation or gambling on Tuesday. Mix romance with business this week. Thursday night you breathe a sigh of relief as you get an answer you've been waiting for. Best day: Sunday.

CANCER: (June 22 - July 22) Everything changes for you this weekend. You have a keen mind and high intuition. With the Moon in your solar first house, you have clarity of sight. Use this to change things that are bugging you. You're a born voyeur, so go ahead and knock yourself out this weekend. Go out and cruise, take in an X-rated movie or dial a 1-900 number. You deserve it. Best days: Friday, Saturday.

COMING JANUARY 31 — MISS BAMBOLEO'S PAGEANT

LEO: (July 23 - Aug 22) Introspective and retrospective are key words for this coming week. Something intangible is bothering you. Avoid self-defeating behavior and addictive substances. Sunday afternoon, treat yourself to something you've wanted for a while. Monday is amusing, and you're in the middle of it all. With the Sun moving into your seventh sector this week, you feel somewhat schizo. Your love life is picking up, with two transits helping it along. Best day: Monday.

VIRGO: (Aug 23 - Sep 22) Friends are helpful and enjoyable this weekend and will keep you busy. An acquaintance gives you a brilliant idea Sunday. Stay in a crowd and remain positive, and you'll enjoy the whole week. Tuesday someone is deceptive. Don't let this disrupt your good mood, as Tuesday night is one of the best nights of the month for romance. You have an important decision to make early Thursday; your judgment works well. Best days: Sunday, Wednesday.

LIBRA: (Sep 23 - Oct 23) Prestige and status turn your head more easily at this time. On Saturday, conflicts in a relationship come to the surface, but don't panic or blow everything out of proportion. By making the right contacts this weekend, you can further career efforts or get a better job. A pleasant surprise Tuesday morning. Thursday afternoon, you take things too personally. A drive to a lake, river or ocean can help you find romance or build on it.

SCORPIO: (Oct 24 - Nov 21) It is especially important for Scorpions to be around water, as under this weekend's Moon you could feel somewhat destabilized. If Cancer is a voyeur, scorpions are exhibitionists. You just expose yourself with more class. Avoid the temptation to shock people emotionally, though. They can't handle the naked truth. Monday you feel more comfortable with the daily grind. A Cancer gives you extremely good advice. Thursday morning brings a reconciliation of sorts. Best day: Saturday.

SAGITTARIUS: (Nov 22 - Dec 21) A time of transition for you. You may feel that a part of your life has gone, or that life has passed you by, but it's only your perception. Venus is still illuminating your love life until next Saturday evening, so make hay while the sun shines. On Sunday afternoon, go out and meet people if you're single; you'll be extra attractive as both the Moon and Venus are helping you. Romance looks promising with a Gemini or Virgo. Monday is great, and you feel in sync with the world. Thursday someone backs out of an agreement. Best days: Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

COMING NEXT WEEK: Venus moves into Capricorn and 4th quarter Moon in Scorpio.

OAK LAWN BOWLING

Dallas — The Oak Lawn Bowling Association reported the following standings after 16 weeks of competition:

Black Division: 1—Zesty Testes, 2—Hubba Hubba, 3—The Yearlings and 4—Three Baskets & A Bushel.

Blue Division: 1—Bad Boys, 2—Tops to Bottoms, 3—Family Jewels and 4—Oh Spare Me!

High game and series for the men was bowled by Richard Boyce, and Beth Wenling took both for the women.

There is still room in the league for individual bowlers. If interested, call Ken Stewart at (214)528-1287.

5K FUN RUN

Houston — Over 3,000 runners are expected to participate in the 1992 Park Plaza Fine Arts 5K Run on February 8 at 8 a.m. A non-competitive walk will begin immediately following the runners' start. All proceeds benefit the Museum of Fine Arts of Houston.

The race begins and ends at the museum. The scenic 3.1-mile course winds through the Museum District past the Menil Collection, The Rothko Chapel and the Contemporary Arts Museum. There will be a post-race party in the museum's Cullen Sculpture Garden with refreshments, live music by the Ambulance Chasers and prizes.

Pack pickup/late registration will be held on Thursday, February 6 from 10 a.m. until 7 p.m. and Friday, February 7 from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m. at the museum.

Early registration is $15. All early registration entries must be received by January 24. After that date, a late registration fee of $18 will be charged. All participants receive a long sleeve T-shirt. Entry forms are available at the lobby desk in the museum, Houston-area parks and recreational facilities or by calling (713)639-7585.

GOLF SHOW

Dallas — Attracting more than 17,000 Dallas/Fort Worth-area golf enthusiasts in its successful inaugural year, the Dallas Morning News Golf & Resort Show returns to the Dallas InfoMart February 21-23 for its second annual appearance.

This year's event will showcase an expanded line-up of exhibitors and additional special features such as an indoor mini golf course and an amateur golf tournament. Drawing on one of the country's largest golf markets, show producers expect attendance to top 25,000 over the weekend.

Show times are on Friday, February 21 from 5-10 p.m., Saturday, February 22 and Sunday, February 23 from 11 a.m. until 6 p.m. The cost is $6 at the door, and children under 12 are free.

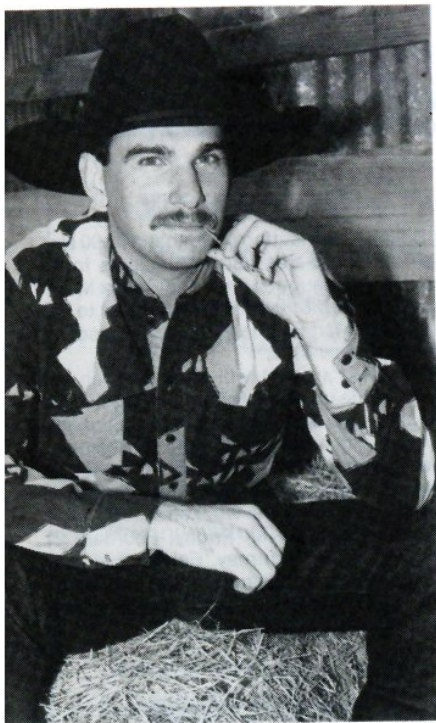

BIKE TOURS

Texas — Country Roads Bicycle Tours has announced their expanded 1992 bicycle touring schedule. This year there'll be many new destinations including a Louisiana Plantation Tour, a tour of the Natchez Trace area of Mississippi, mountain biking in the Ozarks, Mesa Verde, Colorado, Santa Fe/Taos and a wider choice of venues for cycling trips to the Big Bend and Fort Davis areas. A tour to the wine country of France is also planned.

Most tours are held over weekends, though tours of four, five and six days have been added. Accommodations range from fine Bed and Breakfasts and Country Inns to camping, with tour guides providing campsite service. The touring company's menus, a distinguishing signature of their unique approach to bicycle tours, continue to include the culinary ideas of renowned executive chef Robert McGrath of the Four Seasons Houston Center Hotel.

Tour prices range from $49 day trips to a weeklong Tour of the Old South for $998. Touring choices include both cycling and off-road mountain cycling.

Detailed itineraries can be obtained by calling Country Roads at 1-800-366-6681.

DON KENT

at The Fort Worth Stock Show & Rodeo

The Fort Worth Stock Show and Rodeo opens today, and Don Kent, this week's cover man, is ready for all the roping, riding and rowdiness that goes with the event.

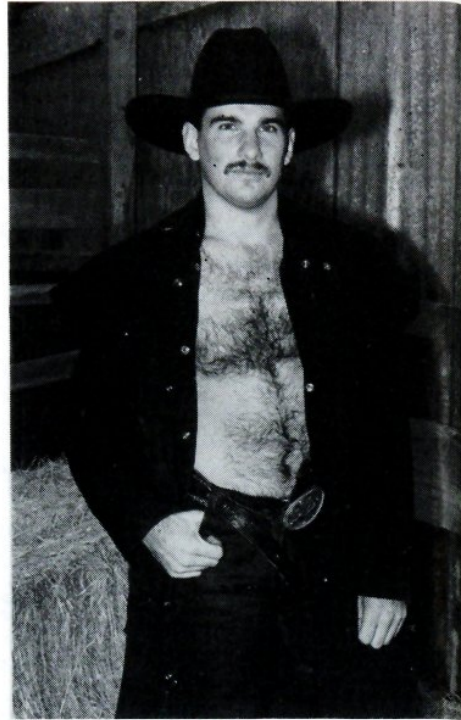

Originally from southern Indiana, Don grew up in a little town on a farm, helping out with the cattle ranching as he grew older.

By the time he turned 21, Don decided he was ready for a change, so he moved to Denver. "I was ready for something different, and that part of the country appealed to me."

While in Denver, he managed a western clothing store. In his spare time, he enjoyed camping, snow skiing and just being in the mountains.

When he finally tired of the cold weather, he headed south to the Metroplex area six months ago. "I really love being in Texas! It appeals to the cowboy in me."

Don is currently working on his horsemanship skills, as he is an active member of the Texas Gay Rodeo Association. He participates in some of the camp events, but really prefers chute dogging, steer riding and, someday, bull riding. He plans to compete in the gay rodeo in L.A. in March, and as many of the others this year around the country as he can schedule.

"Right now, I am just looking forward to spending a lot of time at the Stock Show. The action will be hot and heavy, and I am ready for it!"

The 1992 Fort Worth Stock Show Rodeo and 96th Annual Southwestern Exposition runs through Sunday, February 2. This year's rodeo performances will feature a traditional Mexican charro roping and riding act, six trained Brahman bulls and a trick-riding family performing daring acrobatic feats. The competition itself will feature about 700 cowboys competing for more than $300,000 in prize money. Rodeo admission includes access to the carnival midway, the exhibit halls and the Stock Show grounds, where more than 17,000 head of livestock will be judged. See you there!

well liquor drinks all day, all night, all week. Watch for more details coming up about their Freedom Ring party scheduled for January 31 and February 1...

John Araujo and Ricky Jones [above] of the Chain Drive invite everyone out the weekend of January 31 when Dennis of Cowtown Leathermen will be in town for your piercing pleasures. One of the newest fads in Austin is body jewelry. Drop by and check it out.

LUBBOCK Tea — Charlie's Lubbock will be celebrating its second anniversary this weekend. Friday night will include a special show with one of Texas' favorite entertainers, Naomi Sims, and also performing will be Fran Allen [below] from the Aladdin Club in Las Vegas. Also on Sunday, you can catch local female impersonation at its best with Candi Micheals and Sonja. Call the bar for more information and showtimes...

Pappy's Lubbock has been installing a new light show for your enjoyment and is also planning for live entertainment every Wednesday through Friday. Look for other exciting changes.

Finally, TWT extends a warm welcome to Faces, the newest club serving the gay and lesbian community of Lubbock.

TEA BY THE SEA — Excitement is building as the time draws near for Galveston's annual Mardi Gras celebration. This annual ten-day series of events draws thousands of revelers and visitors to the Island City. This year's theme is "Viva Espana: Festival de Dos Mundos." Costumes and parties with a Spanish flair are sure to abound.

One of the highlights of Mardi Gras in Galveston is the Silk Stocking Ball, which will be held on Friday, February 28 at the Garten Verein. The coordinators of this year's sophisticated soiree are pleased to announce that for the first time, the party has been included in the official schedule of Galveston Mardi Gras events....

Excitement of a different kind is going on at Evolution, Galveston's newest nightclub. Bar staffers Jason Falkowski, Craig Henderson and Chappa Zepata [above, l-r] are anticipating the arrival of the dancers from the Lone Star Male Revue, who perform every Friday and Saturday night. Wednesdays and Sundays are Dollar Nights, with $1 well drinks, beer and schnapps all night long....

Speaking of hot male entertainment, the Kon Tiki presents Muscles in Action every Friday and Saturday. Last weekend's Superstar Show featuring Tandi Andrews and Shady Lady was an outrageous success. Be on the lookout for even more fabulous extravaganzas starring the finest in female impersonation from across the state.

In memory of Gary Brown (Papa) (above) from his lover (Joey) and his kids and friends. We will miss you!

2/7/41 - 12/13/91

In loving memory of Jim Frank Skarda, who passed away at home December 13, 1991.

Jim, I think of all you've done to make my dreams come true, thanks and a special "I love you." Partners in life and best friends for many years.

John Hamilton

July 2, 1954 - July 10, 1991

Joe was in his Dallas home when he passed to a better life after a two-year battle with AIDS. He is survived by his lover and lifemate, Michael Boone.

Joe is missed by many relatives and friends who love, respect and admire him. His strength and determination to live his life to the fullest—even against oppressive odds—is an inspiration to us all. He was one of those rare people of whom the world has always needed more. People often search in vain for the qualities Joe possessed, and we are extremely lucky to have been involved in his life. The memories will always be cherished.

Services were held in Dallas on Saturday, July 13, 1991 at Laurel Land Memorial Park. Joe's body rests in the "Garden of Memories." There was also a memorial service held in West Palm Beach, Florida on Thursday, July 18, 1991.

Joe—
We love you—we miss you!

Ruben Z. Reyes (above)
December 6, 1949
June 19, 1991

He brought smiles and laughter to his many friends in San Antonio. We love you and miss you.
Your nephews

1/3/49 to 12/20/91

Johnny Boy was born and raised in Texas. He was a graduate of the University of Texas. During his second year in college, he was granted a patent on an oil well cleaning tool that he had invented. John went on to own his own companies in the oil industry and construction. He enjoyed racing dragsters and flying. He was a member of the Confederate Air Force. He is survived by his son and daughter and two grandsons. Johnny, I miss you and want you back. I'm sorry.

With all my love,
Bruce

September 21, 1961 - January 3, 1992

Michael passed away to a better life after a three-year battle with AIDS. He is survived by his companion Ed Aguilar and three half-sisters.

His strength and will to live was an inspiration to all of us, and no words can express the loss that we suffer. You will remain forever.

Love Always
Ed

OBITUARIES

Carroll D. Blacklock (above)
2/16/45 - 1/1/92

6/25/53 - 1/1/92

Beloved son, brother and friend, Chris entered into God's keeping after a hard-fought battle with the AIDS virus. Services were held January 6, 1992 in Greensburg, Kansas. Chris is survived by parents Clair and Wilda Banta, sister Deanna and brothers Bob, Tracy and Rex. Donations in Chris' name can be made to the Foundation for Human Understanding, Patient/Care AIDS Resource Center, P.O. Box 190712, Dallas, TX 75219.

Those of us who loved and cherished Chris will miss his warm smile and zealous addiction to canasta.

Your Friends Victor, Chris and Ken

David Hugh McJunkins, a bartender, died Wednesday in Fort Worth. He was 36. Memorial services were held at Harveson & Cole Funeral Home.

Mr. McJunkins was born in Fort Worth. He was a former resident of Denver.

He was a 1973 graduate of Lake High School and was a member of Smithfield Baptist Church.

Survivors: Parents, Bill and Marita Wampler of Granbury; and sister, Debbie Presley of Lillian.

In Memory of
Alvin Ernest Feldt

Born in Toad Lake Township, Minnesota, September 12, 1943. Passed away December 25, 1991 at the age of 48 years, three months, 13 days. Memorial services by O.E. Larson-Osborne Chapel on Saturday, December 28. Clergyman officiating the Rev. William J. Hyllengren. Survived by daughters Kimberly Dronen and husband Mylo, Christine Hite and husband Greg, mother Inez Dodds, sisters Shirley Bergstrom, Gladys McKnight, Dorothy Elijah, Janet Anderson, JoAnn Conklin, Barbara Maneval, Debra Ax Dahl, brothers Dale, James, Gene, Jon and Brian. Preceded in death by father Fred and a grandson.

November 11, 1940 - January 8, 1992
Parke Laney, a third-generation Houstonian, was born on Galveston Island. A foremost ladies' shoe salesman in the U.S., with Neiman-Marcus in Houston. Parke attended to the shoe needs of Houston's leading ladies for over three decades.

Mr. Laney is survived by his mother Ruth Parke Laney, his longtime companion Tod Barrett and many special friends.

A memorial service was held at 12 noon, January 14, 1992 at the Rothko Chapel, 3900 Yupon at Sul Ross. A private interment will be held at a later date.

Memorial contributions can be made to the Montrose Counseling Center, 900 Lovett, Suite 203, Houston, TX 77006.

Parke, you filled my life with happiness, passion and love. Loving a scorpio was full-time, and I loved every minute of it. These eight years of happiness will last forever. The angels are lucky, they're finally gonna have some pumps.

All my love
Tod

Milton Lee Black
Milton Lee Black of Bellmead, a Mart reserve police officer, died Wednesday (January 1, 1992) at a local hospital. He was 28.

Services were held Saturday at Bellmead Funeral Chapel, the Rev. Donald Olson officiating. Burial was at Waco Memorial Park.

Mr. Black was born August 10, 1963, in Waco. He worked for Foxworth-Galbraith Building Materials Center.

Survivors include his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J.R. Black of Waco; his grandmother, Bertha Bennett of Waco; a sister, Janet Luke of Killeen; and a brother, Glen Black of China Spring.

The family has designated the American Cancer Society and Hospice Home Health Care, in care of Hillcrest Baptist Medical Center, for memorials.

In Loving Memory of David Gotcher

David Gotcher was called to our Lord on January 3, 1992. He was born in Prosper, Texas and lived in Dallas with his lover of 24 years, Mark Melton.

Memorial services were held on Sunday, January 5 at Turrentine-Jackson-Morrow Chapel in McKinney.

He will be missed by all.
I'll see you there soon...
Love, Mark
