HEART STRINGS COMES TO TEXAS WITH QUILT THIS SPRING

*National AIDS Fund-Raiser Stops
In Dallas, Houston & San Antonio
As Part of 35-City Tour.*

TEXAS — In June of 1987, Cleve Jones and a clutch of strangers gathered in a San Francisco storefront to document what they feared history would ignore: the lives of their loved ones who had been killed by AIDS. The memorial they started that summer has since inspired the world to recognize the carnage produced by the epidemic.

Almost five years later, the NAMES Project AIDS Memorial Quilt stands as a powerful symbol of the health crisis in our midst. Thousands of individual 3' x 6' (grave-size) quilted panels, each memorializing a life extinguished by AIDS, have been crafted together as a reminder of the tragedy that continues to engulf us.

The NAMES Project AIDS Memorial Quilt has had an enormous impact on those who have viewed it and made panels for it. In 1990, Heart Strings, the musical event incorporating a display of the Quilt, made a stop in Houston on its national tour and raised $700,000 in cash and in-kind contributions for people living with AIDS locally.

The 1992 tour of 35 cities is a joint project of the Design Industries Foundation for AIDS (DIFFA), a nonprofit, all-volunteer organization which raises money to support all aspects of the AIDS crisis; and the NAMES Project Foundation. This year's national fund-raising goal has been set at $5,000,000.

In Dallas, Heart Strings will be performed at the Majestic Theater on April 26. A special free showing will be offered the next day for PWAs, students and AIDS service providers. Then on April 29, Heart Strings plays in Houston's Jones Hall. Organizers in Houston hope to raise $1,000,000. All funds raised through Heart Strings remain in the host cities and are distributed to local service and educational agencies.

On May 4, Heart Strings travels to the Majestic Theatre in San Antonio, where local organizers have set a goal of raising $250,000. Debuting this year will be San Antonio's gala "Fantasy Silent Auction," to be held in conjunction with Heart Strings. Bidders can see their dreams come true when they successfully complete for fabulous collections of merchandise and services.

Act I of Heart Strings is a new production of the extravagant musical variety show. Act II is the free public display of the NAMES Project AIDS Memorial Quilt in each city hosting Heart Strings. Visitors will have a chance to stroll about and feel the power of the love that created each panel. No speeches are made at this point during the display; only the names of people who have died of AIDS are read aloud.

Visitors can inscribe the name of their deceased loved one on a signature panel, or create a memorial panel and dedicate it during the display.

In 1988, the Quilt was nominated for the Nobel Peace Prize. In 1990, Common Threads, a film about the Quilt, won an Academy Award for Best Feature Documentary.

The Quilt will be on display in Dallas at the Museum of Art April 3, 4. In Houston, the University of St. Thomas will provide space to display the Quilt May 1-4. In San Antonio, the Quilt will be on display at the Henry B. Gonzalez Convention Center on May 9 and 10. The Quilt will return to Dallas for a display at the Fair Park Tower Building May 14-17.

Act III is a call to action. At each Quilt site, local AIDS services organizations will have representatives available to assist participants who have decided to become more actively involved by volunteering their talent, time or money in the collective challenge that AIDS.

'LIVING TRIBUTE' TREE TO BE DEDICATED

Ceremony Will Bring 2½-Year Controversy to an End.

DALLAS — The Living Tribute in Lee Park, a gift to the city of Dallas by the Dallas Tavern Guild, will be formally dedicated in ceremonies on Sunday, March 15. The ceremony, which begins at 6 p.m., takes place at Arlington Hall and will include performances by John Coffman and members of the Turtle Creek Chorale. The public is cordially invited.

As readers will recall, the project has been plagued with problems since its inception. The original tree, a 20-foot deodar cedar, was planted in January, 1990 and later died. Then, Dallas Tavern Guild Executive Director Alan Ross went to battle with the city over the wording of the commemorative plaque that was to be part of the memorial.

The Dallas Park and Recreation Board objected to the original wording on the plaque, which was to include the words "gay," "lesbian" and "AIDS." In June of 1991, a compromise wording was agreed on in which the words "gay" and "lesbian" were eliminated, but the word "AIDS" was allowed to remain.

A replacement tree, to be furnished by Lambert's Nursery under the guarantee covering the original tree, was ordered and, after arrival at the nursery, awaited planting last fall.

Another controversy arose when the replacement tree turned up missing, and there was some confusion as to whom it had been sold to and under what circumstances. After the nursery advised Ross that another species of tree would flourish better in the Dallas climate, he opted for the 15-foot elderica pine that is being dedicated March 15.

The beautification project, finally approved by the Park and Recreation Board on June 13, 1991, will "celebrate the lives of the estimated 2,300 Dallas County residents who have perished from opportunistic infections caused by AIDS, as well as helping to comfort and console surviving families, lovers and friends who have suffered and lost a part of their own lives due to AIDS," Ross told TWT NEWS.

In addition to the tree, 2,400 daffodil bulbs have been planted in the area. "We also honor the estimated 10,000 men, women and children of Dallas who are living with AIDS, ARC or HIV, and we honor and pay tribute to over 100,000 volunteers, professionals and financial contributors—both homosexual and heterosexual—who work side by side fighting this devastating disease," Ross added.

Near the base of the tree will be a bronze plaque reading:

FORT WORTH BOARD CALLS FOR ANTI-BIAS ORDINANCE

Mayor, Council Members Say There Is Little Support for Such a Law.

FORT WORTH — Gays and lesbians in Fort Worth have either scored a victory or suffered a setback, depending on how you look at recent events.

The Human Relations Commission, an advisory board, ruled 11-5 to recommend that the City Council consider a proposal to prohibit discrimination based on sexual orientation. Seven out of nine council members have said that they intended neither to study or consider the proposal at this time.

The Human Relations Commission meeting last Tuesday lasted 10 hours, running well into Wednesday morning, and was attended by approximately 600 people. Many of the speakers who opposed the ordinance quoted Bible passages, or raised the issues of AIDS and child molestation by gays and lesbians.

David Hall, dressed as the Grim Reaper and wearing a sign on his back that said "AIDS," demonstrated outside City Hall. "We're concerned for the safety of our children. We don't want the homosexual lifestyle to represent Fort Worth," said Hall, who described himself as a spokesman for Associated Conservatives of Texas.

Hall also said that passage of the ordinance would encourage homosexuals to move to Fort Worth and lead to the proliferation of what he called a "degenerate lifestyle."

"It will make Fort Worth a less attractive place to do business," he said.

"It is an issue of fairness," said Ron Streff of the Tarrant County Lesbian/Gay Alliance [TCLGA]. "Everyone has a right to a place to live, to a job and to public accommodations."

Streff also said that anti-gay speakers at the meeting were "promoting age-old stereotypes and myths" and "showing a very simplistic mindset."

In an article in the Fort Worth Star Telegram dated February 24, Robert Camuto explained that the jurisdiction of the proposed ordinance had been exaggerated by opponents. He said it would effect large companies and apartment complexes, but not smaller firms or small property owners.

Companies with less than 15 full-time employees would be exempt, as would property owners with less than four single-family units. Religious organizations would not be forced to hire anyone against the principles of their faith.

Austin is the only city in Texas that has an antidiscrimination ordinance in effect which protects gays and lesbians. Nationwide there are 17 states, 19 counties and 77 cities that ban discrimination based on sexual orientation.

Fort Worth Mayor Kay Granger said she receives about 30 calls daily on the ordinance, and most oppose its passage. "The constituency is saying it's not a priority."

City Council member David Chappell concurred with the Mayor, adding, "I don't intend to bring it before the council. I doubt if there is one council member who will bring it before the council."

Council member Bill Meadows said, "On any issue that is emotionally charged like this one, the council must decide what positive achievement would result from our dealing with it," Meadows said.

"We are an advise-and-consult board. It will be my duty to inform the council of our decision. They can vote to accept it, vote not to accept it or ignore us altogether," said Jack Tollett, chairman of the Human Relations Commission. He said the commission's overwhelming vote in favor of the ordinance indicates the commission's belief that City Council should consider the measure.

Streff said he was disappointed that council members did not want to raise the issue, but that he still felt gays and lesbians in Fort Worth had made progress. "The fact that [the ordinance] got as far as it got is good. Some progress was made," he added.

HOUSTON PANEL TO ADDRESS SEXUAL HARASSMENT, GAYS & LESBIANS

*March 12 Program Sponsored by

HOUSTON — The Bar Association for Human Rights of Greater Houston [BAHR] is sponsoring a panel discussion on "Sexual Harassment in the Workplace: Issues for the Gay and Lesbian Community" next Thursday, March 12 at 7 p.m. at the Montrose Palace. The program is free, and open to nonmembers and nonattorneys.

The panel will consist of two lawyers specializing in employment law, Margie Harris of the law firm of Butler & Harris and Robert Johnson of Baker & Botts. Chris Bacon, an employment lawyer with the firm of Vinson & Elkins and vice-president of BAHR, will serve as the moderator.

Sexual harassment in the workplace has received considerable attention from the mainstream media ever since the confirmation hearings of Supreme Court Justice Clarence Thomas. The effect that sexual harassment has on the gay and lesbian community, however, has been largely ignored.

Bacon noted that members of the gay and lesbian community, particularly women, are more likely to be victims of sexual harassment than their straight counterparts. In such cases, the fear of "outing" often deters the victims from reporting such incidents. Bacon adds that in some cases, both the victim and the harasser are gay or lesbian.

The panel will discuss the remedies, legal and otherwise, available to the victims of sexual harassment. The discussion will also focus on harassment suffered specifically because of an individual's sexual orientation.

For example, while an employee who is the object of flirtations by his boss may have a legal cause of action, an employee

DALLAS GAY ALLIANCE
CREDIT UNION OFFERS
BOND FINANCING

*MCC Cathedral of Hope
To Benefit from Program.*

DALLAS — Last year, TWT NEWS reported that Dallas' Metropolitan Community Church, the largest MCC congregation in the country, was selling bonds in an effort to raise money for the completion of their new Cathedral of Hope. The bonds pay 11.5% interest, substantially higher than most other forms of investment.

Now the Dallas Gay Alliance Credit Union has joined forces with the MCC in offering members a unique opportunity to purchase MCC church bonds. Under this plan, qualified applicants may purchase a bond paying 11.5% by financing it through the DGA Credit Union at an annual simple interest of 9.5%.

The financing offer applies to bonds which will mature in May, 1996. Bonds are issued in denominations starting as low as $250 and the Credit Union requires a down payment of 15-20% plus a $10 loan application fee.

"This is a unique opportunity for our members," said Jeffery Campbell, chairman of the Credit Union. "Even as a member is paying off the note at 9.5% simple interest, that member is earning 11.5% interest, and ends up owning the bond. This is another service we can offer our members which helps our community."

"This is an example of how organizations can join together to boost our community," said Rev. Michael Piazza, senior pastor of MCC Dallas. "This is a program which is good for our members, good for MCC, good for the Credit Union and good for our community. Together, we can lift ourselves higher than we ever imagined," he added.

For additional information, contact the DGA Credit Union at (214)528-4233, or John Lochner of MCC Dallas at (214)526-6221, ext. 202.

'FESTIVAL OF DANCE' TO BENEFIT AIDS
SERVICES OF AUSTIN

*March 21 Gala at Paramount
Theatre Will Feature Performances
By Local Artists.*

AUSTIN — On Saturday, March 21, the best in Austin dance will be presented at the Austin Festival of Dance, to be held at the Paramount Theatre at 8 p.m. The festival is a dance gala benefiting AIDS Services of Austin [ASA].

Participating in the event are Ballet Austin, Sharir Dance Co., Tapestry, Roy Lazano's Ballet Folklorico de Texas, Heywood "Woody" McGriff, Deborah Hay and Kate Warren performing to the choreography of Kay Braden. Organizers believe the evening will be the most extraordinary night of dance Austin has seen this season.

This is the first time major Austin-area artists have performed on stage for a cause. The dancers are donating their time and talents to raise funds for the fight against AIDS.

ASA Development Director Dara Gray described the festival as an effort to create a fund-raising event which will appeal to all parts of the community.

Support and endorsements for the fundraiser have come from every segment of the community, including elected officials like Gov. Ann Richards, Land Commissioner Garry Mauro and Austin Mayor Bruce Todd. Major sponsors include Manual's Downtown, Centex Beverage, Padgett Printing, KVUE Channel 24, KGSR 107.1, the Austin American Statesman and the Austin Chronicle.

For more information on the Festival of Dance, contact producer Charles Santos at (512)451-4639 or Gray at ASA at (512) 406-6113.

Garrett added that table levels are now being offered at $2,500 and $5,000, in addition to $1,000, $500 and $250 tables, all of which seat ten. "We are planning a 44-page commemorative program in which advertising space is still available," Garrett concluded.

Thank-You from Soiree Aubergine

Dear TWT:

The Host Committee wishes to extend our sincere gratitude to the many individuals and organizations who made Soiree Aubergine possible, and to the many contributors both within and outside the community who helped ensure its success.

The outpouring of time, energy and talent we experienced was truly unprecedented, and we are pleased to report that your support enabled us to raise in excess of $14,000 for the Bering Community Service Foundation. This amounts to a 40 percent increase over our fund-raising goal, and we are indeed gratified by your response. While contributors are far too numerous to name individually, we would like to extend special thanks to the donor who boosted our total and our spirits with his anonymous gift of $2,000.

Again, we are most honored by your kindness and generosity, and look forward to your continued support of the vital programs and services provided by the Bering Community Service Foundation.

Thanks from Bering for Two Fund-Raisers

Dear TWT:

I want to say a special thank-you for two recent events for which the Bering Community Service Foundation was the beneficiary.

First, I want to thank the wonderful host committee of Soiree Aubergine, a weekend-long event held two weeks ago at Gentry. The incredible commitment of so many volunteers made it truly a community event! With the leadership of people like Barry Petree, the event was a wonderful success and is certain to become an annual event. The host committee, as well as so many others who participated in the various events of the weekend, are to be commended for their generous spirit.

Second, I want to thank Jim Chambers for his performance of Handel's Rinaldo last Friday evening at Ovations. Having started his own opera company, Jim coordinated a large group of volunteer musicians to debut what will undoubtedly be the first of many wonderful opera performances by his Occasional Opera Company.

The Bering Foundation is committed to providing quality adult day care, dental care, financial assistance and support services to those affected by HIV. Our work can only be accomplished through the generous efforts of the entire community. As we enter our fifth year of service to the community, we want to say thank-you on behalf of the many people who benefit from our services.

And watch for Soiree Aubergine and the Occasional Opera Company to be the new shining stars in the years to come. We encourage the community's support of their tremendous efforts at making a real difference in the lives of so many!

He's Not Interested

Dear TWT:

Mr. Vanderbilt's letter in your February 14-20 issue ["Honesty, Integrity and Pride," TWT COMMENT] is both insulting and inflammatory. Not only does he degrade the vast majority of homosexuals who are "out there" every day doing the best they can to earn a decent living and enjoy some happiness in life, he is equally adamant in his desire to destroy the very essence of that which he advocates, i.e., "if you don't think as I do, you are not entitled to an opinion."

Go away, Mr. Vanderbilt, and take your ne'er-do-well constituents with you. My closeted friends and I prefer changing public attitude with those deeds which make a contribution to society. Try creating a program to help a few middle class families get back on their feet or, better yet, get your gang together and clean up some of the filth those homos who care for no one but themselves leave all over our parks, restrooms and other public places.

As far as I'm concerned, Mr. Vanderbilt, you and yours represent all that is negative about gay life and I am not interested.

Austin Increases AIDS Funds

Dear TWT:

The City Council once again merits gratitude and respect from Austinites for their vote to increase AIDS funding for the continuation of previously City-funded programs at AIDS Services of Austin [ASA]. These programs offer direct help to people living with AIDS—allowing them to stay independent and out of public hospitals. The end result for overall '92 AIDS funding was that City Council continued their previously funded programs at ASA and added new hospice and pediatric care funds to other agencies.

AIDS is presently a serious threat to Austin's public health, and this intelligent and cost-effective use of city money is a model for other cities. There are urgent needs for additional funds—particularly for the programs that reach groups now being exposed to HIV in large numbers—the Hispanic and black communities and teenagers from all communities.

There will come a day when AIDS is no more. Until that happy day, the members of our City Council deserve our heartfelt thanks for their continued support of Austin's response to the epidemic.

Take Control of Health

Dear TWT:

Mardi Gras has come and gone, and hopefully we are all in one piece with happy memories. As is typical with this type of revelry, many people abandon more than just their inhibitions and may regret some of their actions. Although most of the guys still have unsafe sex—for many crazy reasons—even those who are committed to being safe can make mistakes from time to time. We tend to forget how the influence of alcohol, drugs and/or a high state of arousal can ruin the best of plans. Unfortunately, post-party regret or guilt can't alter life's realities.

If you might be infected with HIV and haven't been tested, it is important to realize that early intervention is your best chance against this disease. Those who wait to get tested only once they're ill and have no choice often find their options severely limited.

If you are HIV-negative, you probably want to remain that way, so learn everything you can about safer, erotic options and the right (and wrong) ways that people use condoms. Many cities have organizations that offer safer sex workshops—like AIDS Foundation Houston—even as

Best to Be Upfront

Dear TWT:

Two recent editions of the Oprah Winfrey and Donahue shows dealt with people being fired because of being gay, because of their personal lifestyle or because of what they do during their off hours.

My best friend and I have been discussing this topic. We both hold high positions at a major restaurant where he is assistant night manager and I am assistant delivery manager. We went to the owner and told him about the shows. While he had no comment about the shows, he told us to continue doing our fine jobs. In a nutshell, he knows about us. He knew about us when he hired us almost five years ago—as a matter of fact, everyone there knows about us and couldn't care less.

Why can't everyone be more open-minded?

Why Back Clinton?

Dear TWT:

Since [Arkansas] Gov. Bill Clinton is running for President and making an appeal for gay and lesbian votes and money, we thought we would send a little bit of information and background for your readers' consideration.

Arkansas has a gay and lesbian community, complete with churches, bars, organizations and groups. Arkansas also has AIDS cases.

Bill Clinton has run for governor five times. He has never once approached us for support. In fact, he has never mentioned us. Never responded to any inquiry or appeal. Never acknowledged us in any manner. Never met with any gay or lesbian political organizations. Never even answered any questionnaire.

Bill Clinton has never taken any position on repealing the Arkansas sodomy law when that issue has been before the legislature.

Bill Clinton's government spends no state money on AIDS.

Bill Clinton has never asked for any state appropriations for AIDS.

Bill Clinton has never met publicly with any AIDS or PWA group. He probably has never publicly met with any PWA.

Now, all of the sudden, when he wants to be President, he finds policies on AIDS and gay rights. He uses the "G" and "L" words. Has he kissed a PWA yet?

Where is his record on our issues? Hell, where is his record with us?

There has been a gay and lesbian community all 12 years Bill Clinton has been governor and he has acted as though we did not exist. Does this sound familiar? Does this remind you of anyone else?

Even [California Gov.] Pete Wilson had some sort of track record with us, and look where that got us. Hope this helps y'all decide about Bill Clinton for President.

Ripcord, Leather by Boots 'Keep Love Alive'

Dear TWT:

On behalf of the Houston NAMES Project, I would like to take this opportunity to thank the Ripcord and Leather by Boots for their most recent contribution of $145 to our "Pennies for the Houston NAMES Project" drive.

The penny drive was the first fund-raising effort that the Houston NAMES Project undertook when our local chapter was founded in the late 1980s, and though many bars and businesses have come and gone during that time, the Ripcord and Leather by Boots are the only remaining participants that consistently make donations of the funds they have collected. Their ongoing efforts to support the Houston NAMES Project are hereby recognized and are greatly appreciated.

Why Be Afraid?

Dear TWT:

I would like to respond to the letter by the anonymous Gay Christian who complained about the Minister Mike Show [TWT COMMENT, Vol. 17, No. 50]. I have not seen the show, nor have I seen the promos in TWT. I will, therefore, not comment on the tastefulness of the show itself, except [to say] that the gay community has been victimized by Christian hypocrisy, that Jesus did not seem to worry about the appropriateness of his actions in responding to the hypocrisy of his day, and that it is particularly the duty of gay and lesbian Christians to expose the hypocrisy of our persecutors.

That, however, is not the main issue of my letter: Given the exclusively male connotation that the term has been taking on recently, I will assume that the anonymous Gay Christian is male.

What is it of yourself that you are withholding? You say that you want the Christian community to accept your sexuality, but how can any community accept what you are too afraid to offer (ours included!)? I am not in your shoes, so I don't know your struggles. But the tone of your letter indicates anxiety and shame. I ask you: whence comes your anxiety? Who is it that you fear? More precisely, what is it that you covet? Are you afraid of your employer? There are deeply spiritual Gay employers, you know. Or is it your family? Are you not one of us? So let go and create your own. Perhaps you are afraid of rejection by your church—will you thereby gain their acceptance by your silence? Why remain, if that's the case?

Your ideas, though objectionable to many, are important—but where is their value without a name to back them? Would you trust anyone who offered you an unsigned check? Even if he or she did so by mistake, would that fact by itself change the worthlessness of the check? "Have no fear!" "Be not afraid!" Are these not written throughout your scriptures? Where the courage, faith and certainty of your convictions should be, I find only fear, shame and doubt—your battle cry for a crusade against the Minister Mike Show, therefore, rings hollow to my ears!

Permian Basin Coalition Thanks WTM

The following letter was sent to the West Texas Mining Co. thanking the club for its strong support of the Permian Basin AIDS Coalition.—Editor

Dear George and Sylvester:

On behalf of the Permian Basin AIDS Coalition, let me extend my gratitude to you both professionally as well as personally. During the month of February, my records indicate the following contributions by your establishment: February 10: $120 for the sale of Valentine Hearts; February 16: $45 for table and bar reservations; $103, miscellaneous donation; $82 for the sale of roses; $19.52 from donation jar; $20 for decorations; and $1,513.02 from Benefit '92.

This brings your contributions for the month of February to an astounding total of $1,902.54.

Even as I totaled these figures, I could not believe my eyes. According to the Board of Directors and the Ways and Means Committee, this has been the most successful fund-raiser in the history of the Permian Basin AIDS Coalition. We are greatly indebted to you and to your expression of altruistic service to those afflicted with HIV infection and AIDS. Know that, at your recommendation, these monies will be placed in the Hospital Fund to pay for client hospital stays.

Our prayers are continually with you and your continued success as individuals, and as the establishment, the West Texas Mining Companies.

CALL NOW TO SUPPORT GAY AND LESBIAN CANDIDATES WE CAN COUNT ON.

Now you can phone in your support to qualified, openly gay and lesbian candidates for public office in 1992. Your call will cost $19.92. Each individual's contribution gives financial clout to qualified gay and lesbian candidates. This effort is organized by The Gay and Lesbian Victory Fund. The Victory Fund is a national network of people highly organized and committed to financially supporting and electing qualified, openly gay and lesbian candidates to public office at the city, county, state, and federal levels. Your contribution to The Victory Fund will help build the network and directly promote recommended candidates.

You may choose to designate your contribution to any of the three candidates below, or directly to The Gay and Lesbian Victory Fund.

This phone call makes the difference between electing someone who forgets our support once elected, versus a qualified gay or lesbian official. As the adage "if you want it done, do it yourself" indicates, this is truly the difference between listening and being heard.

Your phone call is that important. Call now. If we don't help elect our own, who will?

Tom is running to become the first openly gay man ever to win election to Congress. (Barney Frank and Gerry Studds each came out after they were elected.) As the popular and accomplished former president of the San Mateo County Board of Supervisors, Tom is far more than just a "gay" candidate. But he does have tough opposition in the Democratic primary.

Your contribution could help him win and make history for all of us. (Since this is a federal race, corporate contributions are not permitted.)

TAMMY BALDWIN
Candidate for Wisconsin State Assembly

A member of the Dane County (Madison, WI) Board of Supervisors, Tammy could become the first openly lesbian/gay member of the Wisconsin State Assembly. As an attorney, she has an impressive track record representing gays and lesbians against discrimination.

She also lobbied for the creation of an AIDS Task Force and became its first chair. Tammy is locked in a fierce battle with three men and will need help from other lesbians and gay men to win.

GLEN MAXEY
Candidate for Texas House of Representatives

First elected in a special election last Spring, Glen is now running for a full term in the Texas House of Representatives. When he first took his seat, several colleagues moved because they didn't want to sit next to a "known" homosexual.

An important leader in ending Texas' anti-gay sodomy statute, Maxey needs your help to win a very tough primary battle.

CAPITAL REPORT

March 10, Super Tuesday, is the day of the presidential primary in Texas. While many of us have heard about Bill Clinton's extramarital affair and Bob Kerrey's Congressional Medal of Honor for service in Vietnam, very little media time has been devoted to pressing social issues like gay and lesbian civil rights. Thus, this week's CAPITAL REPORT will focus on the Democratic candidates' stances on gay and lesbian rights.

All the information in this column was taken from A Gay and Lesbian Guide to Presidential Candidates, compiled by the Lesbian Caucus of the National Women's Political Caucus. Since LGRL does not endorse any candidates, I will simply present the information and ask readers to decide which is the strongest candidate on gay and lesbian issues.

I will not deal with Republican candidates, because most of us are familiar with President George Bush's lack of leadership on AIDS issues and the fact that ultraconservative columnist Patrick Buchanan's pro-family stance is decidedly antigay. However, I applaud the work of gay Republicans who are diligently and successfully working to change the Republican Party's stance on gay issues.

The Candidates

Jerry Brown: The gay and lesbian community found Jerry Brown to be a supportive ally when he was Governor of California. He signed legislation repealing California's antihomosexual conduct statute. He supported passage of the California gay/lesbian civil rights bill recently vetoed by current Gov. Pete Wilson. Brown was also strongly opposed to Proposition 6, which would have prohibited school districts from hiring gay people. As Governor, he signed numerous gay pride proclamations. Brown has said that, if elected president, he will support the passage of a national gay/lesbian civil rights bill.

Bill Clinton: As Governor of Arkansas, Clinton has been silent about gay and lesbian issues. However, on the campaign trail he has made some pro-gay remarks. He has stated that he supports the repeal of the exclusion of gay and lesbian people from military service. Although activists have called on him to do so, he has not taken a position on the passage of a national gay/lesbian civil rights bill. Clinton failed to answer and return a list of questions sent him by Arkansas gay activists. Although bills have been introduced to repeal the Arkansas antihomosexual conduct statute, Clinton has never taken a position on repeal of the law. Clinton refused to sign a proclamation for National Coming Out Day.

Tom Harkin: The Senator from Iowa has supported some gay and lesbian issues; however, he has also made some homophobic decisions. He supported the Americans with Disabilities Act, which extends civil protections to people living with AIDS and HIV as well as other disabilities. He also supported the hate-crimes bill, which establishes several protected classes including gay and lesbian people. He voted against the Helms amendment to place restrictions on the National Endowment for the Arts in funding homoerotic art. However, Harkin has supported three extremely homophobic amendments brought forth by North Carolina Sen. Jesse Helms dealing with AIDS, AIDS education and homosexuality. Harkin refused to respond to a request to support the Iowa Gay Rights Bill. In 1981, he voted in favor of a homophobic amendment that forbade the expenditure of federal funds for legal services to gay and lesbian people. For the past 17 years, Harkin has repeatedly refused to support a federal gay/lesbian civil rights bill.

Very little media time has been devoted to pressing social issues like gay and lesbian civil rights.

Bob Kerrey: Early in his campaign, Kerrey was criticized for making an anti-lesbian joke. The Nebraska Senator seems to fluctuate on gay and lesbian issues. He has voted against many of Jesse Helms' homophobic amendments, including the move to cut NEA funding to gay artists. However, during his campaign for Governor of Nebraska, he stated that he would neither support nor push for any type of gay and lesbian civil rights bill in that state. He has stated that he believes homosexuality is morally wrong but that his belief is irrelevant to the question of fair treatment of gay and lesbian people in housing and employment. He supported the Federal Hate Crimes Act. He is not a co-sponsor of the Federal Gay and Lesbian Civil Rights Bill.

Paul Tsongas: The former Senator from Massachusetts has an extremely strong record on gay/lesbian issues. If elected, he says he will support a comprehensive AIDS policy including increased funding for care, research and education. He has lobbied President Bush to fully fund the Ryan White AIDS funding bill. He has stated in speeches and campaign literature that he strongly supports the gay and lesbian community, and he has campaign position papers on gay/lesbian rights and AIDS. Tsongas supported the Massachusetts Gay and Lesbian Civil Rights Bill. He supports the right of gays and lesbians to become foster parents. He supports an end to homophobic and AIDS-phobic immigration policies. He assisted in adding lesbian/gay civil rights to the Democratic National Convention Platform in 1980. He was the first Senator to sponsor the Federal Gay/Lesbian Civil Rights Bill.

Do you have one? That is, a ticket to see the Turtle Creek Chorale open for Dionne Warwick at her March 25 concert at the Morton H. Meyerson Symphony Center. This musical event is sponsored by Razzle Dazzle Dallas and is a fund-raiser for Dallas/Fort Worth AIDS service organizations. $25-$150. Call ArtTix at (214) 330-ARTS. To be included on the Chorale's mailing list, call (214)526-3214.

They call this a comedy? Old rivalries, new romances and "the arrival of the feared (media) critic" contribute to make Amateurs a sharp season finale for Theatre Three. A theatre group's opening night party is the cause of all the commotion, and it goes on until April 11 at 2800 Routh (Quadrangle) in Dallas. Call (214)871-3300.

Jerker, or the Helping Hand: A Pornographic Elegy with Redeeming Social Value and a Hymn to the Queer Men of San Francisco in Twenty Telephone Calls, Many of Them Dirty, is a phenomenal work with a misleading title. It is not pornographic (although that word seems to sell tickets) and it is not dirty. It is funny, loving, frightening and sad. Through March 22 at Hickory Street Annex Theatre in Deep Ellum, Dallas. $10. (214)526-2700.

Womandingo features Paul Salinas and Gertrude Baker.

Womandingo is a deconstruction of "pride and passion on the old plantation" with a twist: the men are played by women, the black people are the bosses and the palefaces are the slaves. It's all a satire on the way sex and race are depicted in genre films and pop literature. Through March 15 at Jump-Start Theatre in San Antonio. Tickets $5-$10. (512)227-JUMP.

When Peter promised to love Rita into old age, even when "her teeth had yellowed and her breasts sagged," he didn't expect that to happen quite so acutely. On their honeymoon, Rita's soul takes up residency in the body of a potbellied (yellow-toothed, sagging-breasted) old man. This is a love story that transcends all previous boundaries. Prelude to a Kiss, Stage West, 312 Houston Street, Fort Worth. (817)STG-WEST.

munity. Well, isn't that what you'd call such varied events as the multitudinous beef contests at Big Daddy's in Dallas; the Uniform Party at The Barracks, also in Dallas; the Hot Buns Contest at The Round-Up Saloon, still in Dallas; the Pacific Coast Dancers at JR's Bar and Grill in Houston; Texas' Largest Sunday Beer Bust at The Montrose Mining Company, still in Houston; and film star David Diamani, showing just about everything he had at The Crossing in Austin.

Keeping track of all these stimulating happenings was the ever-roving eye of the HOT TEA camera. From glamour shots of Damon Dyslin, the new massage therapist at the Fitness Exchange in Dallas; the winning photo of the new Mr. February, Todd Vesley, at the BRB in Houston; and the revealing shot of the new Mr. Waco, Carlos Miguel, at The Texas Rose; to the beaming pic of Austin's Best Bartender, Arnie; and the crowning exposure of Lisa Tidwell, the new Ms. Gay Dallas, it was a sure bet that TWT was the only publication in the state to keep wondering Texassexuals abreast of all new developments.

And so it was, this week in Texas, 1988.

The next-to-nothing talents of David Diamani.

As much as many people in our community hate to admit it, the art of illusion, pantomime and the dance—or drag, to those in the know—has long been an integral part of our community. Female impersonators are traditionally the ones who sign up for community benefits, and there was once a time when impressionable young homosexuals actually looked up to "the girls," viewing them as our own version of Hollywood glamour girls.

And as recently as four years ago this week, the magazine detailed all the comings and goings of our hometown celebrities, including Naomi Sims' return to the Village Station in Dallas after her weekly appearance at Numbers in Houston and a brief stopover at the TR-II in Dallas; Big David, Ron Sioux, Tracy (The Snake Lady), Lady Victoria Lust, "Diane" Michaels, Rikki O'Shea and Jerisa, all appearing on the same stage at Cousin's in Houston; Nakoma Shaye's capturing of the Miss Gay San Antonio Crown at the Paper Moon in San Antonio; and Romona Sims, Nakita Ross, Robbie Roberts and Lady Channel at The Lazy J, back in Houston.

Now that isn't to say that drag dominated the headlines. In fact, the staff of TWT endeavored, as always, to portray all of the varied interests of our diverse com-

Liza Minnelli
Born March 12, 1946

by Leonard Byram, MAFA

For better or worse, everyone's imagination runs wild this week.

A tendency develops to suspect others are out to sabotage your happiness or relationships. But look to yourself for the answers on this, as it is actually self-sabotage that is at an annual high now.

In love there's a leaning toward passive aggressiveness. Nagging may poison family, friends and lovers alike.

Sacrifices do not go unrewarded. People are more gullible than usual, with the second Quarter Moon having already occurred Wednesday morning in Pisces, embracing the Sun and Mercury already there also.

By the time the second Quarter Moon in Gemini occurs Wednesday evening at 8:37, whatever efforts you've made will be noticed. Everyone is more prone to exaggeration; careful, whatever truth you decide to stretch could become a self-fulfilling prophecy.

With Mercury now operating in Aries, we feel like ants on a warped record. Just when everything gets boring, there's too much excitement. Avoid hotheads.

PISCES: (Feb 18 - Mar 20) Money is the primary focus this weekend. Another's generosity is not as altruistic as they would have you believe. Saturday the day passes slowly, but the later you go out, the better your chances. You are drawn sexually to those you already know. This trend continues through Monday. Tuesday and Wednesday bring harmony to the workplace. Thursday your love life gets a boost from the Quarter Moon. Best day: Thursday.

ARIES: (Mar 21 - Apr 19) Get all work out of the way before the week begins. You have many ideas because Mercury is in your first house of personality, but some of them are very impractical. Listen to what a lover or trusted friend says. You give a first impression of being overbearing and dominating. You also feel you're being honest, but others think you merely crass. Friday night is excellent romantically. Wednesday hands you an unusual opportunity to do something for gay and lesbian society. The benefits will affect every area of your life. Best days: Friday and Wednesday.

TAURUS: (Apr 20 - May 20) You'll enjoy intrigue and adventure this weekend. Try something risqué. Then get geared up for socializing Sunday. Monday accept a lunch invitation. A co-worker gives you a helpful tip away from the job site. Take things easy midweek as Venus alters your perspective late in the week. On Thursday, butter up superiors to get ahead. Best days: Sunday and Monday.

GEMINI: (May 21 - Jun 21) There is much to get done before Mercury retrogrades on the 16th. Accomplish things related to work and long-distance communication. Let someone know just how much you care. On Tuesday you feel slighted when a pipe dream involving another is not realized. Sunday and Monday favor financial discussions. On Thursday seek out an old buddy for insight, but keep it platonic. Best days: Tuesday and Wednesday.

CANCER: (June 22 - July 22) It's easier to get things done after the recent cluster of personal planets in your first house. Anything you do romantically is blessed by the Sun, and as the week wears on, you will experience a change in the type you are attracted to. If you're dissatisfied with being single, the period beginning Thursday and lasting until early April is the best time of the year to find Mr. or Ms. Right. Strengthen ties in a current relationship. Best day: Thursday.

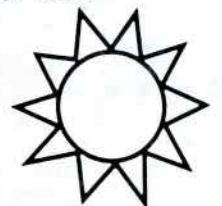

LEO: (July 23 - Aug 22) After a rocky start last month, romance gets smoother. This weekend, aspects between the Sun and the outer planets shed light on a current romantic problem, and you arrive at a decision. The second Quarter Moon on Wednesday also eliminates a problem with control either at work or in love. Thursday a behind-the-scenes maneuver by someone who does not have your best interests at heart actually backfires and works in your favor. Best days: Friday and Sunday.

VIRGO: (Aug 23 - Sep 22) Motivation may be difficult to come by with the current Sun opposing your Sun signature. This leaves you feeling more vulnerable. What feels like love may be infatuation. You let yourself be pushed around too easily. Tuesday, judgment is not up to par. Let others worry and do the work. A rejuvenating weekend is in order. Let others approach you in order to minimize awkwardness. Best day: Sunday.

LIBRA: (Sep 23 - Oct 23) Friday encourages you to explore and sets the pace for the weekend. You internalize too much. Late Saturday and early Sunday, you blame an innocent party. Focus on health on Sunday. Chances for romantic success are increased by dating a colleague or someone who understands your work. Sexual expectations should not be blown out of proportion, so keep your sense of humor intact about love. You feel ill at ease talking. Best day: Tuesday.

SCORPIO: (Oct 24 - Nov 21) Sexual encounters remain on the unattached level. This transit produces brief relationships and affairs with people not usually available on a longterm basis. If single, keep love attitudes lighthearted. If married, watch out for temptation. Avoid other Scorpions momentarily. Others find you competitive Saturday and Sunday. During the second Quarter Moon Tuesday and Wednesday, the less said the better. Best day: Thursday.

SAGITTARIUS: (Nov 22 - Dec 21) The urge for freedom causes you to reevaluate those closest to you. Love feels confining. Lovers may be confrontational, so seek an atmosphere that is less combative. Sex is great on Sunday. Monday and Tuesday, if something sounds too good to be true, run. Use the Quarter Moon to weed out people who may be using you. Best day: Friday.

CAPRICORN: (Dec 22 - Jan 19) Status is extremely important to you Friday. Sunday, spend time with someone creative. On Monday you have innovative ideas concerning your employment. Ending a relationship is more difficult than anticipated. Extricating yourself from a situation caused by this relationship is even trickier. At work, you'll be more efficient if you keep stress to a minimum. Best days: Sunday and Monday.

AQUARIUS: (Jan 20 - Feb 18) "Easy" is the key word. Money concerns you now, but with current planetary positions, you can enjoy yourself for very little. Don't allow yourself such an easygoing attitude toward debtors. Likewise, don't take on any more financial or emotional baggage. Enjoyment is to be found in your own bailiwick this weekend. On Saturday your ideas are practical and well thought out. If hurt in love, you gain insight. Romance comes when someone realizes your uniqueness. A lover or close friend learns something about you and is pleasantly surprised. Volunteer. Best days: Saturday, Tuesday and Thursday.

COMING NEXT WEEK: The Full Moon in the sixth house of health and well-being; Venus enters Pisces and Mercury retrogrades.

'FRIENDS OF TENNIS'

Dallas — The Oak Lawn Tennis Association is sponsoring the annual "Friends of Tennis" this Sunday, March 8, from 10 a.m.-2 p.m. at Samuel Grand Tennis Center.

"Friends of Tennis" is the annual membership drive which officially kicks off OLTA's 1992 tennis season. Plans are now underway for the 1992 Texas Cup—the intrastate rivalry with the Houston Tennis Club—tennis clinics, tennis leagues, the national gay tennis circuit and OLTA's Texas Open tournament, a mainstay on the national gay tennis circuit.

"Friends of Tennis" is designed to give all members a chance to meet and play with prospective members. Participation is open to players at all skill levels. New members pay a participation fee of $5, which will pay for courts, tennis balls, lunch and beverages.

BRICE MATEO of Dallas

Brice Mateo, this week's cover man, originally hails from Billings, Montana. He has been in Dallas almost ten years, but the way he came to live here is a little different.

"I moved here to be with my first lover. It just so happened that he had also been my best man when I got married. I had known him in college, but I never knew he was gay. After I separated from my wife, I took up with my best man!" Brice said with a laugh.

Although this Aries is only 32 years old, Brice claims to have been passionately in love with bowling for 25 of those years. He is the current Mr. Metroplex Bowl-a-Rama and is a former Mr. Gay New Mexico. Brice plans on becoming a professional bowler within two years.

"I travel all over the country participating in tournaments, to help prepare for my goal. I really hope that all gay athletes strive for their dreams," Brice said.

Brice studied economics at UCLA, and he currently works in business services for a major office supply company.

Besides his passion for bowling, Brice's second love is tennis, followed by water skiing. Obviously, Brice enjoys staying active. With his infectious smile and friendly personality, Brice is one guy you should get to know.

"On the bowling lanes and in life, you compete against others, yet the biggest challenge is yourself," Brice concluded. You can tell he also has a head on his shoulders! A good catch for any of you single guys out there!

Jon E. Holz, 40, died February 22, 1992. He was born in New Jersey, lived in San Francisco, but settled in Houston, Texas. He was an accountant employed by Prudential Insurance. Jon loved his many friends and we miss him. He is survived by his father, three brothers and special sister Ester.

That one day we will all be Happy must you feel now
In that paradise of grace and peace
Never alone will we be
Because you still live in our hearts
Let us know how it feels in our dreams."

Harry Goldberg passed away February 2, 1992 after a lengthy struggle with HIV-related illness.

It is with great sadness that the employees of Charles Armstrong Investments and the clubs at 800 Pacific say goodbye to a dear friend. Harry was a valued employee of JR's Bar and Grill and his absence will be sorely felt by his many friends. He traveled often and enjoyed life to the fullest. Those of us he left behind are richer for having known him.

It was Harry's desire that those who wish to remember him do so through memorial contributions to the United Negro College Fund or the AIDS assistance fund of your choice.

January 6, 1963 - January 3, 1992

On January 3, 1992, Carl Ray Lidster made the transition from this life to his heavenly home. Carl finally let go of life after a courageous battle with AIDS.

Carl touched the hearts of many people while he was here. But he will most be remembered for his kindness and dignity.

Carl, I miss you dearly and I'll be with you some day.

I love you
Ward

5/20/35 - 2/3/92

My beloved Allen, after a brief illness, died on Monday, February 3, 1992 in St. Louis, the city of his birth. A Houston resident between 1965 and 1974, Allen was a founding member of the A.M.B.C. bridge club and was employed as a manufacturer's representative in the Dallas Trade Mart. He enjoyed life to its fullest, including his passions for gourmet cuisine, leather and world travel. Allen is survived by a daughter, Julie, three wonderful grandchildren and a host of friends. After a memorial service in St. Louis, his remains were scattered from the Pail in Hawaii, at his request, by his former lover and friend Flav and lover of almost 14 years, Carl Reddick. You will always live in my heart, baby cakes...

Carl
