INSIDE THE DALLAS POLICE DEPARTMENT: SENSITIVITY TRAINING

Former DPD Officer Newsom Conducts Classes Aimed at Increasing Police Understanding Of Gays & Lesbians.

DALLAS — Michael McKinney of TWT NEWS recently had the opportunity to view sensitivity training classes conducted by the Dallas Police Department to increase officer awareness when dealing with members of the gay and lesbian community.

The session was conducted by officer Earl Newsom of Wylie, Texas. Newsom is widely remembered for having helped create a working relationship between the police department and the Dallas gay and lesbian community when he was with DPD.

Newsom explained to the participants that even though he was not gay himself, he had been invited by the department to lead the sensitivity training session because of his extensive experience with the gay and lesbian community. He also explained that no gay officers could appear before the class because they would be faced with possible disciplinary action due to the department's anti-gay hiring policy.

Newsom said that Dallas has the third-highest concentration of gays and lesbians in the nation, and that there are larger percentages of homosexuals in the nation's major cities because those who grow up in small towns find a greater degree of tolerance in larger cities.

"What should our concerns be when we are doing our job?" Newsom asked the class. "We must realize that we will encounter gays and lesbians all around the city when we are on patrol. We are there to enforce the law; we are not the enemy. We must recognize gays and lesbians without the stereotypes. They are solid citizens and contributing members of the community in Dallas.

The discussion then turned to the terms "gay" and "lesbian," and Newsom explained that those were the labels most acceptable to the homosexual community. He then asked participating officers for slang terms they had heard before, and the resulting list was extensive.

"What I say in private I carry over to the public," Newsom said. "It's hard to switch over. That is why you should try to drop those derogatory terms from your private use. You must consider the attitude of the words you use, because you don't want to look down your nose at them."

When an officer asked about the term "Queer Nation," Newsom explained, "Gays and lesbians have turned around a derogatory phrase, just like the use of the pink triangle during World War II. They now use it to identify themselves. Police officers have been called 'pigs,' so I have a belt buckle at home that says, 'Pigs Are Beautiful.' It's the same thing."

Newsom went on to explain that approximately 10% of the general population is considered to be homosexual, with about twice as many males as females. He also listed famous gay and lesbian historical figures.

"Gays and lesbians don't fit into stereotypes; they are in all walks of life," Newsom said. He then listed some of the most common stereotypes concerning gays and lesbians.

One misconception is that gays and lesbians are not interested in "normal" activities, Newsom said. "[They] are no different than you and I are in our needs for food, shelter and safety."

Secondly, homosexuals are not "child molesters." Newsom said that 90% of those crimes are committed by heterosexual males against female children.

When the notion that homosexuality can be "cured" was raised, one officer responded, "How can you cure what doesn't qualify as a disease?"

Newsom explained that gays and lesbians do not take on the traits of the opposite sex, as is often assumed. He said that less than 15% of males, and 5% of females could be recognized as being gay or lesbian.

"Sexual preference implies a choice, while sexual orientation is the way we are, not what we choose," Newsom explained. "No one knows why people are gay or lesbian." He also suggested that officers use the term "non-gay" instead of "straight,"

ANTI-GAY 'REVIVAL' STAGED IN MONTROSE BY CHRISTIANS

Queer Nation, Other Activists Confront Fundamentalists.

HOUSTON — Members of several Houston-area churches staged an anti-gay "revival" meeting in the Montrose area Saturday night, complete with hymns and testimony from the saved, and they were met in force by members of Queer Nation and other gay and lesbian activists.

Rumors circulating earlier in the day had the fundamentalists, numbering in the hundreds and even thousands, either rallying on or marching down Pacific Street, and the gay activists first gathered there, looking forward to confronting them.

But it soon became apparent the church members were not on their way, and the activists, carrying signs denouncing hatred and calling for tolerance, then left the area and marched across Westheimer down to the parking lot of a local copy shop, where the fundamentalists had gathered.

The church members, numbering 50 to 60, formed a circle and sang hymns, then gathered together to hear a number of their speakers who testified they had been "saved" from their sins.

Members of Queer Nation and other activists staged protest against anti-gay rally by conservative Christians last Saturday night. TWT NEWS photo.

The gay and lesbian activists were kept on the sidewalk by the police, but that did not stop them mounting a loud and boisterous protest against what was obviously considered an invasion of the gay and lesbian turf by hostile outsiders.

Joining in the protest against the fundamentalists were staffers and cast members of the Minister Mike Show, a Houston cable program which parodies television evangelists.

There were no reported acts of violence or other trouble.

After their parking-lot rally, the church members broke up into smaller groups and proceeded towards the Montrose, with the gay and lesbian activists in hot pursuit.

AUSTIN CLINIC OFFERS WELLNESS SESSIONS

Free Classes Offered through Peer Education Program.

AUSTIN — The Austin Immune Health Clinic is now offering personal and confidential HIV/AIDS health and wellness education sessions free of charge to HIV-positive people through the Peer Education Program, which is funded by the city.

The sessions are designed to help clients respond to AIDS as a manageable chronic condition, with emphasis on self-help and cost-effectiveness. Participants are encouraged to take control of their health by shifting toward health consciousness and stress management.

Clients are asked to commit to an initial six sessions to discuss their HIV history and important issues affecting their health. Then a holistic health plan is designed for each individual.

Clients may receive up to 12 sessions free of charge. For a free appointment, or for information, call (512)472-2753.

PROGRAM TO ADDRESS GAY SUBSTANCE ABUSE

Nationally Known Counselor Patricia Woods Featured Speaker.

AUSTIN — Informe SIDA and Outyouth Austin are sponsoring an educational presentation this Monday, March 16 entitled "Substance Abuse and the Gay and Lesbian Community," featuring an address by Patricia Woods. Woods is a substance abuse and HIV counselor with the University of Washington.

Compulsive behavior has in the past often been accepted as one of the many facets of gay and lesbian people's lives. The significance of alcoholism and drug use as a problem in the community is indicated by the fact that more gays and lesbians have fallen victim to substance abuse than to AIDS.

HOME INFUSION FIRM DONATES COPIER TO SAN ANTONIO AIDS FOUNDATION

*Company Adds to Record of Helping Local Service Agencies
In Fight Against Epidemic.*

SAN ANTONIO — When the San Antonio AIDS Foundation [SAAF] recently found itself in dire straits, Home Nutritional Services San Antonio [HNS] stepped forward to lend assistance, and in doing so demonstrated how a company with a social conscience can help make a difference in the fight against AIDS.

SAAF was trying to make do with an ancient copy machine that was in constant need of repair. Executive Director Sharen Rupp has said the situation got so bad that Foundation employees would often spend their own money to have copies made at a nearby copy shop.

SAAF Executive Director Sharen Rupp [l] thanks Frank A. Brown of Home Nutritional Services for donation of copy machine.

HNS found out about the Foundation's pressing need for a reliable copy machine, and SAAF now has a newly reconditioned IBM copier.

HNS has aided the local fight against AIDS in other ways. The company became a corporate sponsor of the November "Walk for Life" walkathon organized to raise funds for SAAF and the Bexar County HIV/AIDS Consortium.

HNS also recently provided the underwriting for an educational prerecorded telephone information service which can be called for AIDS information and referral free of charge to area residents. The messages will be in both English and Spanish.

Rupp commended HNS for their public-spirited approach, and said the company's actions would serve as a positive example to other firms.

"Our hope is that more local companies will recognize there are a variety of ways to help agencies fighting AIDS, and give freely."

HNS was one of the first home infusion companies in the nation to treat persons with AIDS.

AIDS SERVICES OF AUSTIN BENEFITS FROM TWO RECENT FUND-RAISERS

Workout for Life, Memorial Concert Bring in Over $4,200.

AUSTIN — Two benefits held recently raised over $4,200 for AIDS Services of Austin [ASA].

The Workout for Life, organized by Zein Dowling, was held Saturday, February 22 at three different Austin-area health clubs. Participants took one-hour aerobics classes and made contributions to ASA. The event brought in over $1,000.

The Whit Dudley Memorial Concert was held Tuesday, February 25. Credit goes to Paula Bird and many of the late Whit Dudley's musician friends from the Austin Symphony who donated performances and brought in over $3,200 for the Whit Dudley Fund. The fund is named in honor of the nationally known harpist who performed with the Austin Symphony and other symphonies across the nation.

Both of these efforts added to the fund-raising "pie" which ASA so critically needs in order to serve the clients in its swelling HIV caseload. Those interested in helping with upcoming benefits or volunteering their time in other areas may contact AIDS Services of Austin at (512) 451-2273.

COMMENT

Bradley Wears Many Hats As Activist

Dear TWT:

If you watch television news in Houston, you have undoubtedly seen his face. Brian Bradley is everywhere. As an AIDS activist, gay rights activist and gay rights radical, rarely a week goes by that he does not appear in our living rooms.

Perhaps he's protesting an appearance of Guns 'N' Roses, filing a lawsuit against his employer, demonstrating at a George Bush fund-raiser or soaking himself in fake blood and lying on the steps of City Hall.

Whatever he is doing, Brian Bradley makes sure everyone knows it. "I wear a lot of different hats in Houston," he says. And if anyone has a large hat collection, it is him. Bradley sits on the Board of the Greater Houston AIDS Alliance and the Ryan White Planning Council, and he is a member of Queer Nation/Houston, People with Immune System Disorders [PISD] and the Q Patrol.

"Sometimes it's hard to tell which hat I'm wearing at the moment," he says. "As a gay activist, I try to work within the system to bring about change; but as a gay radical, I am an 'in your face' queer, and I can be quite intimidating and demanding. It all boils down to the same objective, though: civil rights. Whenever someone is treated differently, whether it be because of their sexual orientation, their skin color, their HIV status or whatever, I'll be there to stand up with them."

Putting on yet another hat, Bradley has stepped into the media spotlight in his role as an AIDS educator, handing out condoms to students at area high schools. "Actually, it is more that just handing them a condom; hopefully they would use it, if they were going to have sex, but that would be a one-time thing. My mission is to educate these young people about how to protect themselves from AIDS, so along with the condom, we give them a pamphlet on how to put it on.

"A lot of people laugh at that, but I'll bet most people do not know how to put on a condom. So, we educate them. The condom we give them might be used just to 'try one on,' it might be used in a sexual act, it might be used as a water balloon or it might be saved for later use. But the pamphlet will be read. And once the information is absorbed, it is my hope that they won't forget how to use a condom.

"We have two problems in distribution of condoms: 1) The right-wing do-gooders who would rather risk kids' lives by preaching abstinence than educating them about safer sex; and 2) funding."

The "right-wing do-gooders" have never proven to be too much of an obstacle for Bradley. "I look crazy enough to scare them, so they don't want to get too close! It's the funding thing that is the real obstacle." Buying the condoms in bulk, at about $75.00 per thousand, and printing the accompanying brochure, folding and attaching the condoms to them comes out to about $100 per thousand, or ten cents each.

"It is ten cents that can save someone's life, but I'm running out of donors. I even have a way of allowing people to claim the 501(c)(3) tax-deductible status for their contribution, if they will call me," he says.

"It is imperative that we get some funding soon. Spring break is coming up, and there are going to be a lot of festivals and events where we could pass out condoms and save some lives."

Those who would like to make a donation may leave a message for Brian Bradley, care of Q-Patrol, P.O. Box 66973, Suite 1017, Houston, Texas 77266-6973.

Metroplex Helped Them

Dear TWT:

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all the wonderful people in the Metroplex who have helped me to survive the loss of my spouse, Peter Rutherford, aka Christy Dykes. Anyone who has been through this devastating experience knows the true value of friends.

First of all, to my employer/friend, Thomas Hirsch, during the months of treatments and hospital stays, you gave me the time and space I needed, and you were always there for both of us, and you're here now for me.

Thanks also to Daryl and Carlton, my pillars of strength; Michael and David, Lohn and Scottie—what can I say that hasn't been said?; John and Carey, Terry and bill, Lea and Loretta, Donna and Dale, and all the members of the Imperial Court de Fort Worth/Arlington—thanks for being there and thank you for the benefit show.

Gerald Ford, Billy Ray Hill and the Raina Lea Memorial Fund—you were a lifesaver; Mama, Terry and the staff of Across the Street; James, Countess and the staff of the 651 Arlington; Danny, Rhonda Mae and the staff of the Office Lounge; Ashley Rhone and her girls; thank you all for the shows that benefited the Raina Lea Memorial Fund and the Community Outreach Center.

Precious and Allen—words seem so empty at a time like this; Jessica, Kati, Sherry and Norman—thank you from the bottom of my heart, Mother would have been so proud; Mother Gary and little brother—I love you; Kevin, thanks for letting Michelle participate; Rev. Brenda Hunt and the staff of Agape Community Church, Rev. Jo Crisco and the Texas Gay Vets—thank you for a beautiful memorial service.

Dr. Nightingale and his staff at the AIDS Clinic at Parkland, and Tom of the Visiting Nurse Association—thank you for the care you gave Peter; a special thank-you to Patsy on Parkland Nine West—thanks for the love and care you gave Peter during his last days—I'll never forget you for that; Dick and Sandy—I can't find the words to express my feelings; Steve and Alan—you were always there for us when we had The Copa.

I would like to close with these lines from the song sung by Diana Ross, "Corner of the Sky": "So don't ask where I'm going, just listen when I'm gone and

MCCSA Offers Course

Dear TWT:

Many of the members of our community here in San Antonio are devout, spiritual people. We have become aware than many of them are searching for ways in which to express their spiritual nature and the means by which they can participate more fully in the soon-to-be realized Kingdom of Jesus Christ. We think we have just the thing to meet this need:

We are offering a brand new, three-week course on "Gifts of the Spirit," beginning this Sunday, March 15. Running three Sunday evenings in March, each class begins promptly at 6:30 p.m. and ends promptly at 8 p.m. The seminar is free of cost and includes materials (participants should bring their own bibles) and refreshments as part of the third session.

Infighting Doesn't Help Us

Dear TWT:

In response to a number of recent letters condemning people who choose not to wave a flag or announce their sexual preference on the job, I have to say that we all need to stop long enough to realize that both sides are right; so why are we at odds?

If a gay individual decides to live their life by not disclosing their sexual preference to others, and they are perfectly happy and live a life that is productive, then that is their choice and they should not be chastised for it, especially if they have made behind-the-scenes contributions to help improve the gay community, such as the person who wrote in and [said he] had hired many gay individuals at the company he worked for.

On the other hand, if a gay individual chooses to be on the front line waving picket signs and marching in protests and staging events that they honestly feel are making a difference for all of us (and I am not saying they are not), then that is also their choice and they should be allowed to live their life as they see fit.

So with both types of people working at their own pace (the "closeted" person and the "activist" person), we still have a concise effort from both ends to improve the acceptance of gay people everywhere. Behind-the-scenes efforts are just as important as the front line.

What concerns me is that with all the infighting going on in the community, in the various letters to the editor that everyone, both gay and straight, reads, we are giving the appearance that we can't get our act together, so why should we be taken seriously? Since we are struggling for acceptance, we have to be twice as careful in our image presentation to the rest of the metroplex, and if we can't even accept each other with bickering, then how can we expect others to give us the time of day?

Dallas is stocking up on letter sweaters, slide rules and Brylcreem for the Turtle Creek High reunion. The Turtle Creek Chorale will be bebopping and sha-na-na-ing the night away at the Morton H. Meyerson Symphony Center, March 22 at 8 p.m. $10-$25. (214)528-SING. See you there!

Do not wait until March 22 to see Jerker by Moonstruck Theatre Company. That night is their last performance, and most people return repeatedly to experience all its messages. Fridays and Saturdays at 11:30 p.m. At the Hickory Street Annex Theatre, 501 Second Avenue at Hickory Street in Deep Ellum. $10. (214)526-2700.

Music from the Baroque through the Romantic and into the contemporary will be featured in the Women's Chorus of Dallas's Invitation to Romance concert, March 27 and 28 at the Irving Arts Center. (214)330-ARTS.

You won't believe they're Amateurs at Theatre Three, these actors' opening night party at 2800 Routh (Quadrangle). The host is mad, the guests are crazy, the local critic has a heart attack. But the show must go on! Through April 11. (214)871-3300.

Love, insanity and appalling restaurant service will drive anyone into therapy, but it takes Curtains to go Beyond Therapy, into comedy. Opens tonight at 8 p.m. with a champagne reception. $10. 3722 Washington Avenue in Houston. (713)862-4548.

Evinced an ephemeral visual sense and exacting technical accomplishment, Stanley L. Moore has created a series of platinum prints that are on exhibition at Melting Pot Studio, 1508 Westheimer in the Montrose. (713)529-0060.

"Herculean Still Life #23" by Stanley Moore.

Also celebrating Foto Fest '92, Ben DeSoto's arresting photography of urban poverty is displayed at DiverseWorks, 1117 East Freeway. (713)223-8346.

In Granbury they thought it odd, The Female Odd Couple, but now they like it. Friday and Saturday nights at 8 p.m., Saturday and Sunday afternoons at 2 p.m. at the Granbury Opera House. $11-$13, special discounts available. (817)573-9191.

This is the weekend of the Texas Indian Market and Southwest Showcase in Arlington. Collections, art, entertainment, education about Native American culture. At the Convention Center.

Prelude to a Kiss is a touching and erotic love story, and a fable that ponders the risks of loving. It's about the promises of lifelong faithfulness we long to hear and the abandonment issues we try to hide. At Stage West, at the Caravan of Dreams, Sundance Square in Fort Worth. (817) STG-WEST.

The celebration will be two-fold:
beginning in the gymnasium with hits from homecoming is truly a time to revel in the versatility

CORY ALLEN of Austin

This week's cover man is 25-year-old Cory Allen of Austin. Born in Michigan and raised in Houston, Cory moved to Austin in 1986. "I love the Capital City, it's my home."

Cory is a talented and popular part of the Lone Star Male Revue. He has always enjoyed performing and has great plans for his dancing career. "If I can please people and work on my body at the same time, why not make money at it?"

Unfortunately, Cory is not a single man. He hopes to settle down with his current love and go back to school at Southwest Texas State University. His studies will center on the health care field.

In his spare time, Cory enjoys swimming and spending lots of long, hot days in the sun.

With this issue, THIS WEEK IN TEXAS begins its eighteenth year of covering all of the happenings and events that affect the gay citizenry of this, our Texas. To many, we have been the magazine you grew up with—the magazine you came out with. And we have always been the one source for the most complete statewide coverage of all things gay.

We've been through a lot, together, in the last 17 years. Here, for your enjoyment, is a sampling of No. 1 tidbits since the magazine's birth in 1975:

CLASSIC TWT

By BOB DINEEN

Issue No. 1 Through the Years

1975: Eight pages, five advertisers and a desire for greatness. The Entre Nuit and Terry's Ranch in Dallas and the Purple Lady in Fort Worth all celebrated anniversaries, and the Bayou Landing in Houston hosted the 23rd Annual Diana Awards.

1976: Union Jack grand-opened in Highland Village in Houston, while The Act III reopened as Crews Inn II in Dallas. Bailey Street Wherehouse prepared for the Miss Gay Fort Worth pageant, while San Antonio's El Jardin showed us "what gay bars are all about." And we dined at the Fickle Fox in Dallas and Tooter's in Houston.

1977: BOOGIE TALK listed Thelma Houston's "Don't Leave Me This Way" and Shalimar's "Uptown Festival" as the toe-tapper set's favorite songs while cinemaphiles enjoyed the big-screen adventures of Myles Longue (Get it? Like Miles Long—NOT) in Rough Trades at the French Quarter and The Hooded Man at Mini Park, both in Houston.

1978: Eartha Kitt, Charlie, Darla Child, Cheree, Adrian St. Clair and Burgandy Woods welcomed the new Miss Gay Houston, Ramona Sims, to the stage at the Midnite Sun in Houston, while Lynn Christopher, Bette Sheba and Mahogany headlined at the Mad Hatter in Arlington. The Montrose Mining Company grand-opened in Houston, while the Villa Fontana remained the oldest gay bar in Texas—in Dallas, of course.

1979: Eighty pages, well over 100 advertisers and coverage of events in a five-state area. Fitness mixed with cruising as gyms and health clubs across Texas, including Metro Baths in Dallas and Club Houston lured the masses with enticing ads of skimpily-clad "hot, sweaty mens."

1980: George Bala, oh-so-gorgeous and hirsute Renny Valdez, Brian Simoneaux, Jim Bromley, Anson Cox and former Mr. Texas Rick Price bared all as the magazine's sixth anniversary cover boys as party-goers at Raintree Landing in Dallas, the Other Place in Fort Worth, Sunset Boulevard in San Antonio and Numbers in Houston gasped in delight at the latest example of TWT's photographic capabilities.

1981: Numbers in Houston became Babylon, as The Landing in Dallas celebrated its first anniversary and live entertainment experienced a resurgence as a popular form of gay entertainment with Nightlife performing at Houston's Lampost and Dena Kaye at The High Country in Dallas.

1982: Expanded entertainment coverage highlighted TWT's eighth year, with such living legends as Jack Varsi and Rob Clark penning their SHOWBIZ and ENTERTAINMENT columns respectively. And staff writers and reviewers opined on no less than two films, two plays and two books.

1983: The magazine celebrated the beginning of its ninth year with the introduction of color to its pages. That—plus 124 photo-filled pages and coverage of Donald Robinson, the new Mr. BRB in Houston, and David Carr, the new Mr. Gay San Antonio—made this one of the most popular anniversary issues ever.

1984: Lone Star gays enjoyed drink specials around the state, including Dollar Drinks each Thursday and Sunday at Austin's Boathouse, free drinks at Abilene's Walnut Street Pub and $1.25 margaritas at Corpus Christi's Speak Easy.

1985: Naomi Sims, Donna Day and Tasha Kohl bid farewell to the Ultra Hot Chocolate at the Copa in Houston just prior to her departure on a tour of Australia as Miss Gay Texas Pauletta Leigh brought her unique talents to The Lumber Company in Fort Worth. And in Austin, Nicole welcomed Killer B Dion Martell, Coco, Marlena Phillips and Candy Love to Oz.

1986: The AIDS crisis took a firm hold on our community, as evidenced by the increase in benefit shows and related events spotlighted in the pages of TWT. Austin's AIDS Awareness Week, a call for Buddies by the Buddy Project of the Oak Lawn Counseling Center in Dallas and the efforts of Fort Worth's own Sharon Hubber in promoting safe sex all focused attention on the killer disease.

1987: 800 Pacific paid tribute to the people of Houston following that city's post-Mardi Gras bash with Grace Jones. In a different tribute, Tiger Lil, one of Texas' best-loved performers, was honored with a benefit show in her memory at The Vickery Station in Fort Worth.

1988: Texassexuals grew accustomed to the faces, and other body parts, of the latest trend in gay entertainment—male dancers. And who could blame them, with pictures of such minimally-clad beefcake as Evan, Taj, Stallion, Thom Collins and the Victims of Desire gracing the pages of the glossy.

1989: "Regular Guy" began his relentless assault on anyone who did not behave exactly like him—bigoted, conceited, arrogant and malcontent—proving that even bourgeois, babbitty buffoons like him could lend their voice to the COMMENT section of TWT.

1990: Bigger, brighter, more colorful—and Sweet Sixteen! And if the bars couldn't find you a husband, the new 900 numbers now listed surely could!

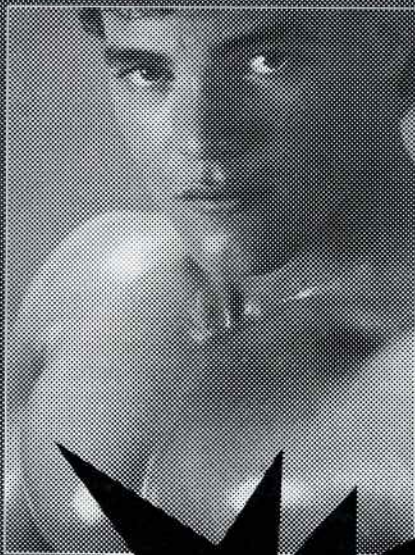

1991: The March on Austin for Gay and Lesbian Rights, the Third Annual Houston Conference on AIDS in America and self-help encounter groups and hospital programs—all a far cry from the early popper-filled days of Gay Texas.

I'm just a bit vekkelped from all this nostalgia—17 years worth! It's all right, it'll pass...talk amongst yourselves. There, I feel better.

And so it was, through the years this week in Texas.

Week of March 13-19, 1992

by Leonard Byram, MAFA

Welcome to the first of two Fridays-the-13th in 1992. The other one occurs in November. Interestingly, both take place with the Moon in Cancer.

Three significant astrological happenings affect this week: In chronological order, they are Venus in Pisces on Friday; Mercury going retrograde Monday evening; and a Full Moon in Virgo Wednesday afternoon.

Venus in Pisces is excellent for romance for Pisces, to a lesser degree for Cancer and even lesser for Scorpio, all water signs.

The Full Moon in Virgo brings about a make-or-break mentality in all aspects of life, especially with Pluto retrograde in Scorpio.

Mercury's going retrograde does not help matters, throwing everyone into a short-term psychological recession. It is imperative for all signs to delay decisions during this time until April 9, when Mercury will go direct again.

PISCES: (Feb 18 - Mar 20) Until April 6, you get extra help in love from Venus, which moves into your solar first house late this afternoon. If you were born between February 22 and March 3, you are the most strongly affected as Venus passes over your Sun. This is great for singles and partners: singles attract more easily, and partners' romantic ties deepen. Best day: Friday.

ARIES: (Mar 21 - Apr 19) A date with an acquaintance looks promising. Venus makes you more acceptable to groups. Approach people who can help you get ahead financially. Friday make travel plans for the not-too-distant future. Monday is confusing. Tuesday is exciting sexually. Wednesday the Full Moon forces you to check into the finances of those close to you. Thursday you need rest. Best days: Saturday and Sunday.

TAURUS: (Apr 20 - May 20) Discord among friends has been a primary concern since Wednesday, causing behind-the-scenes anxiety. This dissipates by midweek. However, don't get involved in any situation that even hints of impropriety. Friday, enjoy being around friends. Saturday, go out alone and look innocent, as this will attract others. Money is high on your list of priorities. Thursday is not a good day for dating. Also, stay as far away as possible from a lover, as you might reveal something that could hurt your relationship later. Best day: Thursday.

GEMINI: (May 21 - Jun 21) Along with Virgo, you are the most affected by the retrograde of Mercury. Complete unfinished business before Monday night. Venus brings love through people you've met recently at home. The Full Moon in your tenth house makes this a hectic week. You'll make many decisions and change your mind about just as many. Monday through Thursday, try to avoid major decisions. Best day: Sunday.

CANCER: (June 22 - July 22) Friday belongs to you. This weekend is a good time to review financial assets. Venus makes you philosophical about love. Many minor infatuations through early April. This weekend's Moon encourages you to do things on your own. The Full Moon causes concern about friends. Thursday hard work is noticed by superiors. Best day: Friday.

LEO: (July 23 - Aug 22) Friday you are forced to make a value judgment. Saturday and Sunday, the Moon is in your first house. Romance is satisfying; however, don't be too confident as this Moon transit brings on overly optimistic expectations. Monday and Tuesday, solitude helps you discover solutions to problems that have cropped up since the 4th. On Thursday have friends over, but keep it platonic. Best days: Saturday and Sunday.

VIRGO: (Aug 23 - Sep 22) This week there is a great deal of instability with the advent of Venus into Pisces, your opposing sign. Let partners and others take the lead and make decisions now. Jealousy is unwarranted. Virgo tends to get more perfectionistic when under stress. Quit worrying about other peoples' lives; focus on your own. The Full Moon occurring in your sign brings added pressure. Stick close to a trusted friend. Best day: Tuesday.

LIBRA: (Sep 23 - Oct 23) The Quarter Moon in Gemini this past Wednesday warns you not to take things too seriously. Love and sex should be playful, not rushed. Saturday, be diplomatic and tactful in romance. Monday evening, you tend to overreact. When upset under the Moon/Venus aspect, you could overspend. Although Thursday is great career-wise, keep a low profile as you are easily duped. Steer clear of all forms of speculation. Best day: Wednesday.

SCORPIO: (Oct 24 - Nov 21) Venus will make you feel more like talking about a romance than actively participating in it. Glimpses from the past enter the picture also. Just don't get carried away on nostalgia. If you are creative during this period, you can sweep away the cobwebs holding you back from a solid relationship. Late Friday, get something straightened out with a lover;
or, if single, get unsingle. Sunday night you're too hard on everybody, including yourself. Midweek avoid abrupt lifestyle changes at all costs. Best day: Friday.

SAGITTARIUS: (Nov 22 - Dec 21) Begin the weekend with an emphasis on health. Consult others before making decisions until Wednesday. You see a co-worker in a different light. Work provides the backdrop for romance. Thursday, Taurus and Libra may be hard to deal with. Be realistic romanticallly. Best days: Saturday and Sunday.

CAPRICORN: (Dec 22 - Jan 19) A change in attitude occurs in subtle ways. Love becomes secretive and private. On Friday you question a recent alliance. The rest of the weekend, let significant others make all the moves. Be very attentive to your health midweek. Sex is unique on Wednesday and Thursday. Don't let yourself be affected by another's greed. Late Thursday you could feel a little depressed. Best day: Tuesday.

AQUARIUS: (Jan 20 - Feb 18) This week judgment tends to be poor. Faulty information complicates love. This is a better time for dealing with finance rather than romance.
Feelings are not as easily expressed; partners are subdued. Relatives and neighbors cause unexpected problems. Don't lose your temper! Anger will only heighten an already bad situation. Thursday is a poor night for any expression of love, including sex. Best day: Wednesday.

COMING NEXT WEEK: Sun moves in Aries and spring begins; fourth Quarter Moon in Capricorn.

PAUL C. "TANK" TANKERSLEY

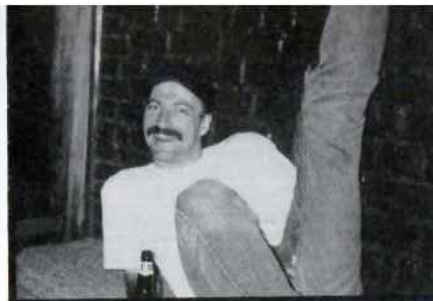

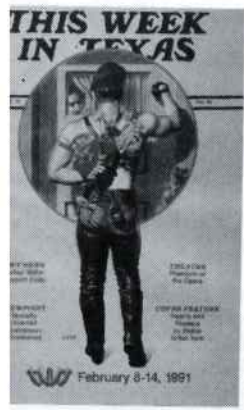

Tank was born March 30, 1949 in Old Westbury, Long Island, New York and died peacefully in his sleep of HIV complications March 8, 1992 in Dallas. Tank was raised in East Texas and made his home in Dallas with his life mate of 14 years, Steve Worley.

He lived in New York for 12 years where he studied at The Arts Students League and turned his artistic talent into a career as a commercial artist. With his background in theatre, he designed and illustrated several Broadway and feature film posters including On Golden Pond, 42nd Street and Peter Pan. He won several awards for the 10th anniversary of Radio City Music Hall poster.

Under the name TANK, his first drawing was "Texas Pickup," which appeared as TWT cover, and the response was overwhelming. It led to a series of duo cowboy prints featuring models he found in Texas—mostly from Dallas. These works appeared in his 12-man show entitled "The Men of Texas." His work has graced the pages of such publications as Advocate Men, Frontiers, Guide magazine, Stallion and This Week in Texas magazine.

Tank is survived by parents, Paul R. and Joan Tankersley of Terrell; two brothers, Donald of Terrell and David of Tyler; sister and brother-in-law Carol and Rev. Harvey Zmer; niece Deborah; nephews Steven and Rusty, all of Fort Worth; life mate Steve Worley of Dallas; and numerous friends from across the country.

Services were held last Tuesday, March 10, at Anderson-Clayton Bros. Funeral Home Chapel in Terrell, Texas, with interment at College Mound Cemetery. Donations in Tank's memory may be made to the AIDS organization of your choice.

[above] will enter in the near future. On St. Patrick's Day, be sure to sample one of the Pot O' Gold shots they'll be serving. It seems the recipe has been handed down from generation to generation of Don Breedlove's family.

OBITUARIES

— In Loving Memory —
Daniel H. Lucio (above)
"LaTonia Regay"

Danny Lucio, 32, a Texas native and 15-year resident of Fort Worth, died peacefully Sunday, February 23, 1992 in John Peter Smith Hospital from AIDS complications.

He is survived by his loving parents, two brothers, two sisters, nieces and nephews, all of San Angelo, and many, many friends.

Danny's friendship will be with us all forever. A memorial service and benefit show will be held at D.J.'s Bar and Restaurant starting at 9:30 p.m. Saturday, March 14. Proceeds will go to the family for the gravestone.

We love you and miss you
Steve, Joe, Ricky, Robin, D.D., Bart, Jeff, Dale, Josie, Darlene,
Jesse, family and friends

1/5/47 - 3/1/92

Bill Redfield passed away on Sunday, March 3, 1992. A native Houstonian, Bill attended Lamar High School and went on to earn degrees in history, math and pharmacy at University of Houston. Bill taught school in Fort Bend School District for two years and worked in the field of pharmacy for 17 years. In 1986-87, Bill was owner/manager of Plants & Accessories on Richmond, and he was a familiar face at Charlie's in '91. Bill is survived by his sister, Connie, and her family, John, Mary Catherine and Miles Klepper.

Bill, we will miss the company of your warmth and humor, but we know that the good feelings and love you shared with us will always be available at the snap of a memory! See ya' later—Phil.

aka "Ethyl Thunderpussy"
3/17/55 to 3/1/92

Robby passed away on March 1, 1992, after a long and courageous fight. He is survived by his lover of nine years, Mike Seyster, and two brothers and sisters, plus his mother. Born in Ferdinand Beach, Florida, Robby lived in Arlington since 1988. He was one of the nicest and kindest people we have ever known. Your friends and I are sure gonna miss you, bubba!

April 10, 1968 - February 29, 1992

Roger passed away on February 29, 1992 at 12:55 p.m. Funeral services were held in Ingleside, Texas on March 3 and a small memorial service was held in Houston on March 8. Those of us fortunate enough to have known Roger will always remember his charming smile, scathing wit and zest for life. Sharing part of his life is a treasure—a treasure we shall always cherish. Roger is survived by a host of family, friends and his lifemate, Mike. Donations may be made to the Names Project/Houston.

Roger, we miss you dearly and know that we shall meet again.

All our love,
Meyer, Cheryl & Mike

August 6, 1958 - March 2, 1992

Donnie passed from this life on March 2, 1992 in Joplin, Missouri where he had relocated on February 2, 1992 to be with his family. He had struggled and lost the fight that has taken too many of our dear friends.

Don was a past member of Colt 45's and a current member of TGRA and the Royal Sovereign and Imperial Court of the Single Star as Duke VI. Don was also a past Mr. TGRA in 1989. His unselfish giving of countless hours to those in need will always be held in the highest esteem.

He is survived by his loving parents; Galen and Freda Culver of Riverton, Kansas; sisters Dianne and Connie; nieces and nephews and many friends.

Go in peace my friend... I am very proud to have been there for you in your time of need.

Love, Sherrie Weaver
Memorial contributions can be made in Don's honor to the Houston Clinical Research Network, P.O. Box 66251, Houston, TX 77266-6251.

A memorial service followed by a balloon release will be held Sunday, March 22, 1992 at 3 p.m. at Bell Park on Montrose.

May the road rise up to meet you,
May the wind be always at your back,
May the sun shine warm upon your face,
And the rain fall soft upon your fields,
And until we meet again,
May God hold you in the palm of His hand.

"The rose beyond the wall." A rose once grew where all could see, sheltered beside a garden wall, and, as the days passed swiftly by, it spread its branches, straight and tall.

One day, a beam of light shone through a crevice that had opened wide. The rose bent gently toward its warmth, then passed beyond to the other side.

Now, you, who deeply feel its loss, be comforted, the rose blooms there.

Its beauty even greater now, nurtured by God's own loving care.

Although you have gone from us, Tom, your memories and love will live on in our hearts and minds forever.

From his whole loving family.

THE GUIDE

A weekly city-by-city listing of TWT's supporters and advertisers across Texas.

BRIAN DESMOND HAWKINS BRI ALEXANDER 1963 - 1992

Brian was born May 9, 1963 at Fort Hood, Texas. In 1981, he graduated from Killeen High School, where he was involved in the band and drama club. He was awarded many honors for his participation in the competitive speech program and was editor of the yearbook. After high school, he moved to Austin and went to work for Sears, Roebuck and Co. in a position he held until the time of his death.

He met Hector Patino, his partner in life as well as business, in 1981, and shortly thereafter began his career as a female impersonator. Bri's talent and beauty won him many titles, including Miss Travis County, Miss Alamo City and Miss Las Gueras (San Antonio). In 1990, he won the prestigious Dion Martell Spirit Award in the Miss Gay Texas Pageant, and had the honor of presenting that same award to the winner in the following year's pageant. Their production company, Alexander-Fox Productions, produced numerous pageants across Texas, among them some of the most successful contests for both men and female impersonators.

With Hector at his side, Brian died at 1:45 AM on Tuesday, March 3 at Seton Hospital in Austin after a long fight with diabetes. He will be missed by all who knew him for his honesty, sincerity, intelligence and talent.

In addition to Hector, Brian is survived by his parents, Kenneth and Florence Hawkins of Killeen, brothers Dennis, Connelly, Barry, Dwayne and sister Kathy as well as countless friends all over Texas.

An excerpt from Brian's favorite poem says, "I asked God for all things, that I might enjoy life. God gave me life that I might enjoy all things." Remember Brian with a smile.

A memorial show in Brian's honor will be held at the Jamaica Racquet Club in Austin on Wednesday, March 25. Any remembrances should be made to the charity of Brian's choice, AIDS Services of Austin.
