MIXED RESULTS FOR LG-PAC CANDIDATES IN DALLAS VOTE

*Johnson Racks Up Huge Win
For U.S. House Race;
Blair Loses to Price in County Commissioner Contest.*

DALLAS — Those candidates who received the endorsement of the LG-PAC did not fare very well in the recent Super Tuesday primary elections.

The Political Action Committee of the Lesbian/Gay Coalition of Dallas issued a list of candidates who had specifically requested the group's endorsement.

Fred Blair was defeated by John Wiley Price for the Democratic spot for Dallas County Commissioner in Precinct 3, getting 33% to Price's 62%.

Paul Banner received only 26% to Jack Hightower's 73% in his bid to become the Democratic candidate for Place 3 on the Texas Supreme Court.

County Court at Law #1 saw the endorsed candidate, a Republican, finish third. George White received 27% of the vote, while Richard Johnson got 33% and Daniel Perez 38%. Johnson and Perez will face each other in the runoff.

Lamar Walton lost his bid to be the Democrats' candidate in Precinct 8 race for Constable. Walton garnered only 13% to Joe Bagby's 74% and James Fantroy's 11%.

In the race for Texas Senate District 23, Jesse Oliver could only manage 28% to Royce West's 57% and Jerald Larry's 13%.

In the Texas House of Representatives District 109, Lunita Johnson White received 41% of the vote to Helen Giddins' 58%.

The other candidates endorsed by LG-PAC were either unopposed or are facing runoffs in their bids for the Texas House of Representatives. Steve Wolens in District 103, Roberto Alonzo in District 104 and David Cain in District 107 all ran unopposed.

Jan Gore faces a runoff with Yvonne Davis in District 111. Gore received 27% to Davis' 43%, with also-rans Robert Beckles and Jamal Rasheed getting 21% and 7% respectively.

Ken Molberg was unopposed in his bid for Democratic County Party Chairman. Also running unopposed were Jan Hemphill and John Creuzot, Democratic candidates for Criminal District Courts #1 and #4, respectively.

In the race for the Court of Civil Appeals 5th District, Ron Chapman, Place 1, and Barbara Rosenberg, Place 5, were unopposed. In Place 6, the LG-PAC-backed candidate Kevin Wiggins beat Richard Weaver 58% to 41% for the Democratic spot.

The Democratic candidate for County Tax Assessor/Collector was unopposed. David Bradley will face the Republican candidate, David Childs, in the general election.

Justice of the Peace, Precinct 1, was won on the Democratic side by LG-PAC-endorsed candidate Charles Rose, who got 64% to Dianne Gibson's 18%.

In the Criminal Appeals Court race, Charles Baird beat Sam Paxson in the Democratic race for Place 1 by a margin of 72%-27%. In Place 2, Morris Overstreet beat out opponent Gene Kelly by a margin of 75%-24%.

The biggest victory was won by Eddie Bernice Johnson against Adolph Hauntz in the race for the Democratic nominee for the U.S. House of Representatives, 30th District. Johnson garnered 91% to only 8% for Hauntz.

DALLAS' AIDS RESOURCE CENTER TAKES OVER PAYMENTS FOR PWAS

Will Handle PWA Insurance Premiums in Wake of Problems With AIDS Arms Network.

DALLAS — Eighty-three PWAs can breathe a little easier this week, due to a recent decision by the AIDS Resource Center. They're the people who take part in a special program which helps them to pay their insurance premiums.

The original problem arose because the calendar year for funding ends in March. In the coming year, the Dallas area will receive $135,000 earmarked for paying the insurance premiums of those who are HIV-positive.

A new agency was to be named to distribute those funds, and recipients were told that until the agency was chosen, they would have to find other means to make their April insurance payments. The AIDS Resource Center has stepped in and offered to make those payments.

ARC Executive Director John Thomas explained to Michael McKinney of TWT NEWS that the funds in question represent five months' worth of aid that had been tied up due to mismanagement by the AIDS Arms Network. The Network was named last year to distribute the state funds. As the funds become available, the AIDS Resource Center can use the money to help PWAs make payments on their insurance premiums.

Thomas added that a new regulation that went into effect this year requires, among other things, that those receiving the funds be unemployed. Houstonian Bill Scott, HIV-positive representative on the board of the Texas Department of Health, has said that he will appeal the new unemployment requirement.

Thomas said, "We must always look at people with AIDS and how we can best help them. That's why it is important to have client services driven by people who are HIV-positive.

"Others who are HIV-negative will never have the sensitivity and the urgency of people with the virus themselves."

One PWA TWT NEWS spoke with described his own life as being like "a house of cards," and said not being able to make his insurance payment for one month would shake up his whole world, much like "removing a vital card from the house."

LLEGO TO HOLD NATIONAL MEETING IN HOUSTON

May Conference Will Assess Impact Of AIDS on Latino Community.

HOUSTON — The National Latino/a Lesbian & Gay Organization [LLEGO] has announced it will be holding a national conference of Latino/a lesbians and gay men in Houston on May 21-25.

The conference, "El Primer Encuentro Nacional," will assess the impact of the HIV/AIDS crisis on the Latino/a community and culture and on the lives of its members. The overall theme chosen for the conference is "Our Survival in the Face of HIV/AIDS."

El Encuentro will begin with two pre-conference AIDS/HIV seminars: Clinical Trials and Treatment Options for Latinos/as with HIV on May 21; and AIDS/HIV Policy and Education for Latinas and Latinos on May 22, sponsored by the National Task Force on AIDS Prevention.

Conference topics will be divided into five major tracks and will be structured in educational forums, discussion groups, roundtables, presentations and work sessions to develop strategies and recommendations for action.

Highlights of topic areas will include Leadership and Policy, HIV/AIDS Education and Prevention, Latina Lesbiana/Gay Latino Health, and Arte, Cultura and Historia.

LEGO Local Committee Co-Chair Odilia Mendez of San Antonio said the May gathering would give gay and lesbian people in the Latino community a voice, and represents an important step in formulating a comprehensive national strategy for Latina/o lesbians and gay men.

WELLNESS CLASSES OFFERED IN AUSTIN

'Taking Charge' Explores Range of Options for Maintaining Health

AUSTIN — To help promote strategies for healthy living, Sylvia Lopez, AIDS Services of Austin's Wellness Educator, will present an introductory three-part series for people living well with HIV infection.

The program, "Taking Charge: Strategies for Healthy Living," is designed to offer a practical guide for addressing questions and exploring the options available for maintaining health and managing HIV infection.

The course is especially appropriate for those newly-diagnosed HIV-positive. Among the topics covered are immune function, T-cell monitoring, basic nutrition, stress management principles, complementary (non-Western) therapies and antiviral therapies.

Recent studies have shown that HIV-positive men and women who take an active approach to promoting health of body, mind and spirit fare better than those who only react to their illness, and far better than those who do not act at all.

Sessions will be held the next three Wednesdays, March 25, April 1 and April 8, from 6-8 p.m. at the ASA offices, 825 E. 53½ Street, Suite 103.

A donation of $5 is requested, which will include a light meal at all three classes and will also cover the cost of printed materials supplied to participants. No one will be turned away for lack of funds. For maximum benefit, attendance at all three classes is strongly encouraged.

For more information on the Wellness Series program, call Lopez at (512)406-6162 or ASA at (512)451-2273.

City Officials & Dignitaries Join Hundreds of Participants in Emotional Ceremony

The Living Tribute in Lee Park, an idea that began 2½ years ago as a project of the Dallas Tavern Guild, was formally dedicated last Sunday, March 15 in a beautiful, moving and well-attended ceremony.

Guild Executive Director Alan Ross, the moving force behind the project ever since its inception, was allowed to leave his hospital bed at Humana Medical City only long enough to attend the ceremonies, which began at 6 p.m.

A large crowd had gathered in the area adjacent to Arlington Hall where the tree itself, a 15-foot elderica pine evergreen, was planted several months ago, along with 2,300 daffodils which represent the number of Dallas County citizens already lost to the disease.

Following an invocation by Rev. Charles Carnahan of the AIDS Interfaith Network and a moving song by The Turtle Creek Chorale, Mr. Ross presented plaques to the Dallas County Health Department, the Dallas Park and Recreation Board and to the City of Dallas.

Council members Paul Fielding, Lori Palmer and Chris Luna receive plaque from Dallas Tavern Guild's Alan Ross.

Council member Paul Fielding and Deputy Mayor Pro Tem Chris Luna joined Council member Lori Palmer at the podium in presenting Ross and the Tavern Guild with a Proclamation of Special Recognition signed by Dallas Mayor Steve Bartlett. In it, he acknowledged the City's appreciation and the significance of the gift, as well as the dedication shown by

'LIVING TRIBUTE' DEDICATED IN DALLAS' LEE PARK

Ross and the Tavern Guild in bringing the project to fruition. The proclamation recognized the "families, lovers and friends who have suffered and have lost a part of their own lives because of AIDS," as well as the "men, women and children of Dallas County who are now living with HIV infection and AIDS." It went on to "honor and cherish the presence of all Dallas County volunteers, professionals and financial contributors who stand as strong and unafraid as the evergreen as they continue to fight AIDS on many different levels."

After another selection by the Chorale, Rev. Carol West of MCC Dallas gave a stirring address before reading the dedication: "We honor and bless the memories of those who are no longer with us; We honor, love and care for those of us who are ill or infected; We honor and cherish the presence of those who stand unafraid like the evergreen."

As the sun set and darkness fell upon the park and the crowd, and as soloist John Coffman gave an affecting a capella rendition of "Refugees" by Michael Greer, the tree was gradually illuminated. It will be lighted on World AIDS Day, December 1 of each year and will remain lighted during the entire month of December beginning this year.

Overcome with emotion, Mr. Ross closed the ceremonies before being surrounded by the crowd, who waited patiently to express their love, appreciation and admiration for his dedication, hard work and tenacity.

UPDATE

GLEN MAXEY'S WIN & ITS SIGNIFICANCE FOR THE GAY & LESBIAN COMMUNITY

By Laurie Eiserloh
Executive Director of
The Lesbian/Gay Rights Lobby of Texas

Glen Maxey's victory in the race for State House District 51 is a victory for gay and lesbian people all over the United States. Maxey's honesty about his sexual orientation, his determination to get elected despite all predictions that "it couldn't be done in Texas" set an example for us all.

Maxey was my predecessor as Executive Director of the Lesbian/Gay Rights Lobby of Texas, and he is a friend, so certainly I have my biases. But I think Maxey is a hero for our community who serves as a role model not only for those of us now living, but also for other unborn generations of gay and lesbian people who will read about him in history books.

Despite Maxey's obvious appeal to the gay community, it is my belief that this last campaign differed from his previous campaign because, this time around, to some extent, "gay" was not the issue. Maxey was a strong voice in the Legislature for gay and lesbian rights, but he also did excellent work on a number of other issues, including ethics, consumer rights, health care, individual rights and the environment. He was one of only two legislators to receive a rating of 100% from a coalition called the Texas Voter's Guide. However, I think the issue that garnered the most votes for Maxey in this last election was the environment.

In Austin, there are currently two pressing environmental issues, both of which directly affect Maxey's district. One of these issues concerns development along Barton Creek which has already caused contamination of Barton Springs, a spring-fed, rock-lined swimming pool in the heart of Austin.

Environmentalists fear that further development along Barton Creek will endanger the creek and this lovely swimming area. While Maxey's opponent, Luisa Flores, had some dubious connections with developers along the creek, Maxey's spotless environmental record impressed voters.

Another important issue was a gasoline storage facility in East Austin which may have contaminated the surrounding neighborhood, including several schoolyards. On Sunday, March 8, the Austin American Statesman reported that Flores had taken campaign money from the oil companies operating the facility. Once again, Maxey's strong environmental stand paid off.

I believe that Maxey's campaign illustrates several important points for our community. First, his election makes apparent the importance of coalition work for us. He could not have been elected to public office if he had not done important coalition building with women's organizations, consumers' groups, environmental organizations, the Hispanic community and the African-American community. As gay and lesbian activists, we must always remember that real power comes from coalition building.

Another important issue that was brought forth by Glen's campaign is the necessity of being "out" and making the community as a whole sensitive to gay and lesbian issues. It is much easier for individuals who do not know gay people to bash us and make ridiculous assumptions about our lives. But when someone like Glen Maxey comes forward and gains respect, gayness becomes less of an issue and more of a given.

In his first campaign for District 51, in March of last year, the media portrayed Maxey as the "gay candidate." Now, after a year in office, he is portrayed as the progressive candidate who also just happens to be gay. I believe this change indicates that people are much more comfortable with the thought of being represented in the state Legislature by a gay person. It is my hope that this new confidence in gay elected officials will not only manifest itself among voters in District 51, but with other voters across the state.

TEXAS HUMAN RIGHTS FOUNDATION WINS FAVORABLE DECISION IN 'MORALES' CASE

by Suzy Wagers

THRF Director of Development and Administration

Wednesday, March 12, 1992, will go down in history as an historic day for gay men and lesbians in the state of Texas. In a swiftly issued and decisive opinion, the Third District Court of Appeals in Austin ruled unanimously that Section 21.06 of the Texas Penal Code is unconstitutional.

At this point, with all the press generated by Mica England's attempts to join the Dallas police force as well as the Texas Human Rights Foundation's [THRF] case challenging 21.06, just about everybody is familiar with this issue. What many people don't know is how they can get involved and show their support for the removal of this archaic statute. That is what this article will talk about. But first, some discussion about what happened on March 12.

A panel of three justices, sitting on the Third District Court of Appeals, had heard oral arguments in the Morales case on January 29 of this year. THRF expected that the Court would not rule until May.

But last Wednesday, a decision written by Chief Justice Jimmy Carroll was handed down. This decision upholds District Judge Paul Davis' ruling of December 10, 1990, that Section 21.06 is unconstitutional because it violates the right to privacy. The Appellate Court opinion said that the State could show no compelling governmental objective to justify the intrusion into individual private lives necessary to enforce Section 21.06.

In the strongly worded, seven-page opinion, the Court reasoned that "we can think of nothing more fundamentally private and deserving of protection than sexual behavior between consenting adults in private. If consenting adults have a privacy right to engage in sexual behavior, then it cannot be constitutional, absent a compelling state objective, to prohibit lesbians and gay men from engaging in the same conduct in which heterosexuals may legally engage. In short, the State cannot make the same conduct criminal when done by one, and innocent when done by the other."

Also, the Court rejected the State's argument that the plaintiffs did not have standing to challenge the constitutionality of a criminal statute in a civil court, saying, "The appellees are confronted with this dilemma: They suffer actual harm from the existence of 21.06, harm that the State acknowledges, yet they are unable to attack the statute's constitutionality because of the State's apparent refusal to enforce the statute. Appellees, therefore, claim that they lack an adequate remedy at law. We agree."

Obviously, the opinion is very strong and well-reasoned. But we have not won. Not yet.

State Attorney General Dan Morales has said that he is appealing the Court's decision to the Texas Supreme Court. That is worrisome to our cause, to say the least.

The Third District Court's decision does have statewide jurisdiction, so the best course of action for us would be if Morales did not appeal this decision. The Texas Supreme Court is a conservative body, and we fear we'll lose if we have to go before them.

So what can readers do? Well, a couple of things.

First, they can support the Texas Human Rights Foundation, which is sponsoring this lawsuit. As the sponsors, THRF is paying all court costs and attorneys' fees on behalf of the plaintiffs. Those costs already exceed $60,000. If the case does go to the Texas Supreme Court, that figure will easily exceed $100,000. Remember, any contribution of $21.06 or more will entitle the donor to annual membership in THRF and that all donations to the Foundation are tax-deductible to the fullest extent allowed by law.

Second, readers can call or write the Justices who handed down this opinion and tell them that they did the right thing. There is no doubt that our opposition is making their dissatisfaction known; we must make our appreciation known.

The Justices are Jimmy Carroll, Chief Justice; Mack Kidd; and Tom G. Davis, retired from the Court of Criminal Appeals, sitting by assignment. Address all mail to them to Third District Court, Supreme Court Building, 14th and Colorado Streets, P.O. Box 12547, Capitol Station, Austin, TX 78711. The phone number is (512)463-1733.

To all those who have supported us through this ordeal, we thank you. To Patrick Wiseman and plaintiffs Linda Morales, John Thomas, Charlotte Taft, Tom Doyal and Pat Cramer, we salute you for your courage and for your commitment to your own right to live in freedom and dignity.

Now, more than ever, our community must mobilize. I urge readers to join with the Texas Human Rights Foundation and fight for the removal of this statute which goes to the very core of our existence. We are truly in a fight for our lives.

The Texas Human Rights Foundation is a statewide nonprofit organization dedicated to fighting discrimination against gay men, lesbians and HIV-positive individuals through litigation and education. For general information, call (512)479-THRF or write P.O. Box 49740, Austin, TX 78765. For HIV-related information, call 1-800-828-6417. COMMENT

Show Support for Fight Against 21.06

Dear TWT:

The Texas Human Rights Foundation would like to encourage all individuals who support the removal of 21.06 to call or write the three justices of the Third District Court of Appeals thanking them for making the right and principled decision. They are Chief Justice Jimmy Carroll, who wrote the unanimous decision; Mack Kidd; and Tom G. Davis, who is retired from the Court of Criminal of Appeals and was sitting by assignment.

The address is: Third District Court, Supreme Court Building, 14th and Colorado Streets, P.O. Box 12547, Capitol Station, Austin 78711. Or call (512)463-1733.

In addition, it would be most helpful to our cause if you would include in your thank-yous one to Gov. Ann Richards and Land Commissioner Garry Mauro. They have both taken a stand in support of removing 21.06. These addresses are: Gov. Ann Richards, Capitol Building, Austin 78701, (512)463-2000; and Commissioner Garry Mauro, General Land Office, Stephen F. Austin Building, 1700 N. Congress, Austin 78701, (512)463-5256.

Most importantly, the Texas Human Rights Foundation would like to thank all those individuals who have supported this lawsuit. Special recognition must go to Patrick Wiseman, plaintiffs Linda Morales, John Thomas, Charlotte Taft, Tom Doyal and Pat Cramer for their courage and commitment.

The fight is not over by a longshot. Our legal fees and court costs already exceed $60,000. With an appeal to the Texas Supreme Court, that amount will surely come to over $100,000. We urge everyone to join THRF by sending $100, $50, $21.06, or whatever they can, today. Any contribution over $21.06 entitles you to annual membership in THRF, and all contributions are tax-deductible to the fullest extent allowed by law.

Make checks payable to THRF, and send to P.O. Box 49740, Austin, TX 78765. For more information on THRF and any of its projects, or to obtain a copy of the Appellate Court's opinion, call (512) 479-THRF. For information on HIV-related issues, call 1-800-828-6417.

HIV and Me

Dear TWT:

I live with a monster now. He wasn't invited into my life, he just moved in. He doesn't pay any bills. This monster is a littler monster right now. He's growing up, though. Most people don't know about him; I'm afraid they wouldn't want to be around such an obnoxious monster. So I keep him a secret. He sleeps with me every night and sometimes takes all the covers so that I shiver; but sometimes huddles so close I sweat. He awakes when I do, just to make sure I ache all over so that I don't forget he's there. He watches me get ready in the morning and often laughs at me for even making the effort. He won't give me any privacy. He goes everywhere I go, even though I wish he'd stay home. He comes with me to work and bothers me so much at times, I can't even concentrate. When I'm socializing, he's always there demanding my attention so that I seem preoccupied to my friends. Sometimes he invades my mind so drastically, I can think of nothing else but him. If I meet someone I'd like to get to know better, he reminds me that three is a crowd. He often tries to steal some of my energy, just a little at a time. He often punches me in the stomach, just so he can watch the ensuing sickness. When I try to sleep at night, he jumps on the bed to keep me awake. When I do fall asleep, he sneaks into my dreams.

This monster is going to kill me someday. He's going to win. He knows that. He knows I know that. He makes me live in limbo. He laughs at the fact that I have to allow him to stay with me until he is good and ready to do me in. He plans to do it as slowly and as painfully as possible. Even though I know what he is planning, I can't scream or yell at him. I can't be mean or rude to him. I'm not supposed to even let him know that he bothers me. That would make him stronger and me weaker. That's what he's waiting for. He knows I'm afraid of him. So I'm learning to live with this monster because he won't go away. He won't go away until he wins. I never imagined I'd have to live with my murderer.

Hide the 'Strange Stuff'

Dear TWT:

During the last episode of 48 Hours on CBS, the topic was hate. They showed a segment on gays, and what looked like a gay pride parade. In the parade they showed guys all painted up, and one [was] licking and kissing a motorcycle tire.

I am sure not everybody in the parade acted like that. It makes all of us look bad. I am sure it was all in fun. Why do people have to act like that in public? If these people like that stuff, they should do it in their bedroom or their garage.

When strange acts like this happen, we wonder why somebody gets attacked. I know people who do this are all to blame, but they don't help. That kind of fun should be done where it is welcome, and not in the streets.

It's not like I hate this kind of fun. I have a few friends who do this. One is very good at it and makes a lot of money. He just doesn't do it in the street.

In a time when we want people to come out, we need to watch what we do. The press will only show the strange stuff.

Thoughts the Morning After

The following was written by Harold Servetnick after he and his wife attended ceremonies of the AIDS Memorial Quilt in Los Angeles and presented a quilt panel in memory of their son, Neil Servetnick.—Editor

First they fought the unknown, the unseen invader that secretly crept within them and lay in ambush, and it was regrettably shared with the loved, the innocent. And after a brave, hard battle, they succumbed to the now identifiable enemy, HIV. The pain, agony and suffering were over, leaving a chasm in the lives of their loved.

Perhaps a day, a month, a year or several pass and the memories, still unfaded, invade the spirit of the parent, friend or lover who must express with the tools on hand the change that the loss has made in them, and graphically they try to identify the things they have learned to live without since the departure of that someone.

The work is done, the portrayal of a life is reduced to a three-by-six piece of cloth, never enough to make a complete picture, but an attempt to diagram a life that never was, that mattered to many, but especially to the maker.

A meeting place, for the living and deceased, the AIDS Memorial Quilt. People, new found friends, old acquaintances, compassionate faces and warm smiles surround you, and while in their midst, you surrender the graphic symbol of that precious but too short life to show the world what it has lost.

You leave, but you have left a portion of your life behind, that panel, that love, that life.

Harold Servetnick

CLASSIC TWT By BOB DINEEN

years ago this week in Texas

Lone Star gays of the day, such as Gary Monier, Scarlet Fever, Tiffany Jones, Danny Villa, Gene Harris, Eddie Kleppinger, Stan Head, Frank Caven, Bo Mead, Gary Majors, Bunch Brittain, Joe Elliott, Danny Bull, Naomi Sims, Donna Day, Gene Howle, Rocky Lee Baber, Robert Jones, Dale Brown, Pauletta Leigh, Mister Laverne, Hap Veltman, Billy Walker and Rick Bushue would take exception to licentious! Sensuous, maybe, but never licentious!

Coming to our aid in our community's efforts to change Judge Lewis' opinions were A.C. Kinsey, W.B. Pomeroy and C.E. Martin, who, in their report "Sexual Behavior in the Gay Male," suggested that if society wanted to criminalize homosexual acts, then they must also legislate relations with prostitutes, premarital sex and intercourse between young boys and farm animals. Thanks... we think.

Finally, Chuck racked up the mileage on his TEA cart to provide Texassexuals with all the latest information from across the state. And with the TEA leaves spelling out tales of Taka Boom's and Debbie Jacobs' recent Texas appearances, as well as reviews of The Montrose Men's recent singing gig and a clandestine appearance by George Maharis in one of San Antonio's more notorious cruise bars, it was no wonder that readers of the column found this feature so entertaining.

And so it was, this week in Texas, 1980.

Eddie "The Licentious" Kleppinger.

Let us think that, in 1980, THIS WEEK IN TEXAS was little more than a gossip rag filled with pictures of just dozens of hot men, let us please remind you that the editors of the magazine prided themselves on providing their readers with information that both enlightened and enlivened. And if Adam Dennis' column DEAR ADAM (which tackled such politically correct topics as the appropriate footwear to wear for hours of nonstop disco dancing) wasn't enough to confirm that fact, then there's just no convincing you.

Speaking of disco dancing, the most popular places to do same 12 years ago this week—just in case you forgot—were the Austin Country in Austin, the Copa in Beaumont, Astraptes in College Station, the Village Station in Dallas, the Old Plantation in El Paso, the Other Place in Fort Worth, Numbers in Houston and Sunset Boulevard in San Antonio.

Have you ever considered yourself licentious? Have you ever felt that your lifestyle was likely to lead to moral decay? Well, that's exactly how U.S. District Court Judge Oren R. Lewis of Virginia perceived homosexuals in his ruling on a citizenship application from German hairdresser Horst Nemetz, who had been residing in the United States since 1967.

Week of March 20-26, 1992

Spring began today as the Sun crossed into Aries at 2:49 a.m. This week people tend to be more direct and outspoken, sometimes even abrasive.

More typically, the Spring Equinox brings new beginnings. It also means spring break (this weekend), Easter and Splash Day, in that order.

Friday and Saturday, once the sexual interest is over, anyone you meet is a likely long-term prospect. People are keenly aware of what they want from life and love.

But for this weekend, don't neglect personal aspects as this is the best time of the week for a boost to a low libido or for curing the lull in a stagnant romance.

Saturday afternoon, everyone feels slightly better about themselves. Lovers who spend the day together will feel closer to each other; on the other hand, spending time apart may make each partner see what originally attracted them to the other and deepen appreciation of that person.

Monday and Tuesday, it is easy to get into disagreements over religion, politics and philosophy. On Wednesday, the third Quarter Moon in Capricorn occurs in the evening, putting an emphasis on honesty. Be sincere in whatever you do.

Thursday is a day for changes for everyone except Aries and Scorpio. But they, too, may be affected through the people around them, and should not let themselves be pulled into the fray.

ARIES: (Mar 21 - Apr 19) With the Sun entering your First House, others empathize with your deeper feelings. The past two months have been difficult for communication. Approach those you have disagreed with, but be prepared to give a little more than you expect. Sunday afternoon, you experience mixed feelings and inner conflicts. Anything started this week produces poor results. Concentrate on your job Thursday. Best days: Monday and Tuesday.

TAURUS: (Apr 20 - May 20) This weekend, you may feel opposed by nearly everyone. Seek another Taurus for consolation. Someone unexpected shows an interest in you. Your first reaction may range from annoyance to irritation. Later you're intrigued, so don't immediately reject a proposition. Capricorn is a good bet for a fling or a temporary reunion with an ex. Best day: Thursday.

GEMINI: (May 21 - Jun 21) With your ruling planet Mercury retrograde, you have a difficult time communicating. Write thoughts down to help you with this. This weekend is excellent for spring cleaning. Sunday, answers come out of the blue. Avoid taking on new responsibilities Monday or Tuesday. Thursday is rocky. Best day: Sunday.

CANCER: (June 22 - July 22) You have a keen insight into others, almost as though you could read their minds. You may feel a little down due to a marital spat, or else to the lack of a marital partner. But you'll get a second chance to reconcile. This weekend, try new places and explore new avenues. On Thursday, possible altercations with Capricorns. Best day: Saturday.

LEO: (July 23 - Aug 22) Impulsiveness lowers your chances for success this week. But love takes on new dimensions, putting you sexually at your peak until April 6. Don't overspend this weekend. Monday and Tuesday, the Moon is in your fifth house of love affairs, tempting lovers and making sex doubly exciting for singles. Wednesday and Thursday, your thoughts are on the home front. On Thursday, a shopping trip yields good results as long as you don't get carried away. Others see you as egotistical and this may cause arguments. Best day: Tuesday.

VIRGO: (Aug 23 - Sep 22) Health is emphasized until April 18. Others are attracted to you as Venus, the planet of love, is in your seventh house, the house of marriage and partnership. The only problem with relationships is that Mercury, your ruling planet, is currently screwing up the way you deal with partners. Slow down Saturday afternoon, as an aspect brings you self-confidence. Best day: Thursday.

LIBRA: (Sep 23 - Oct 23) You're still recovering from the Full Moon in your sign. The Sun enters your seventh house, illuminating your marital situation. Unattached Libras feel a need to be with others. Friends are reassuring. Saturday, self-understanding increases. Avoid dating Monday night. Thursday, insight into a love problem proves correct. It may come in the form of a dream. Follow hunches. Best day: Saturday.

SCORPIO: (Oct 24 - Nov 21) With the Moon in your first house, everything goes your way. Sunday, a good aspect occurs which helps you patch up a rift in a friendship. Decisions about money are correct early in the week. Tuesday night, there are moments of self-doubt and concern about family. Midweek, friends cheer you up considerably. Wednesday is great for late-night romance. Best day: Saturday.

SAGITTARIUS: (Nov 22 - Dec 21) Saturday starts off on a good note. Start a budget this weekend. Monday you're easily hurt. Do not start anything with a co-worker even if prodded to. Someone lets you down; you recover quickly. Wednesday afternoon, others are cooperative with you. In the evening, however, you feel subservient. On Thursday you find others argumentative. Best days: Monday and Tuesday.

CAPRICORN: (Dec 22 - Jan 19) Satisfaction should be sought at home. Plan a party. This weekend, go out with a neighbor. Saturday night you get too serious. Tuesday morning, you receive good advice. Thursday, someone asks for more consideration in a relationship. You're too reserved in expressing your emotions; the situation calls for more spontaneity and expression. Best day: Wednesday.

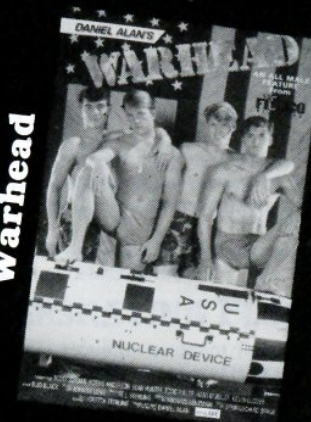

AQUARIUS: (Jan 20 - Feb 18) This is the last week Mars will be in your first house. Currently you have more drive and good ideas, but restlessness is often a problem with this transit. Mixed news comes from a relative. This weekend, a change of heart about a friend. Tuesday, you break out of a rut. Thursday night, your imagination could be your own worst enemy. Best day: Tuesday.

PISCES: (Feb 18 - Mar 20) With Mars entering your Sun sign next week, you'll find the pace quickening. With Mercury and Venus already in your sign, changes come more quickly. You are more attractive to others now. This weekend you feel playful. Get outdoors as much as possible. Sunday your original ideas are the best ones. Tuesday morning is uplifting. Thursday night you're super-sensitive. Don't overreact, as you didn't get the meaning. Best day: Saturday.

COMING NEXT WEEK: Mars in Pisces, and the New Moon in Aries.

IGLA SWIM MEET

Seattle — The King County Aquatic Center, a world-class swimming facility constructed for the 1990 Goodwill Games, will be the site of this year's annual International Gay and Lesbian Aquatics (IGLA) championships.

Hosted by Seattle's Orca Swim Club, the meet will draw an estimated three hundred swimmers, divers, and water polo players on July 3-5. "The ILGA meet will bring together athletes from the seven seas of the globe to compete against one another in a world-class setting," said meet coordinator Paul Sherman. It's even possible world records will be broken at the meet, which is an officially sanctioned event.

The meet will coincide with the Northwest Gay and Lesbian Sports Festival, also held in Seattle. Along with swimmers, water polo players and divers, Seattle will host athletes competing in soccer, tennis, running, softball, golf, croquet and other events.

Hosted housing and transportation can be arranged by the Orcas, and athletes registering early will receive a registration discount. Entry deadline is May 15, 1992.

Interested athletes are encouraged to contact IGLA, c/o Orca Swim Club, P.O. Box 20173, Seattle, WA 98102. Phone inquiries can be made by contacting Matt Palmer at (206) 325-6940 or Paul Sherman at (206) 322-0871.

For more details on the Northwest Sports Festival, call Team Seattle at (206) 634-1843.

MONTROSE BOWLING

Houston — The Montrose Monday Night Men's League has ended its winter season and begun the championship tournament.

After the first week of play, the standings are tight: 1—Free-To-Lay [4-0], 2— [six-way tie] Headhunters LTD., Gutter Girls, Exploring Your Anus, U R 1 2, Erect Pins, & Big Judy & the Las Vegas Showgirls [2-2], 8—Stiff Competition.

In the Roll-Off Tournament, Bowlers with Backgrounds [2469] is in first followed by Sisters in the Hood [2462] and Bowlerinas [2449].

There are just two more weeks of tournament play, after which the league will take three weeks off and then begin their summer season. For more information on the league, call Steve Stepleton at (713) 529-3261.

OAK LAWN BOWLING

Dallas — The Oak Lawn Bowling Association reported the following standings after 25 weeks of competition:

SPORTS

By BOBBY MILLER

Black Division: 1—Euro Trash, 2—Cumin' & Goin', 3—Half-N-Half and 4—The Holsteins.

Blue Division: 1—She's Still Disturbed, 2—Eight Balls, 3—The Accommodators and 4—Lucky Strikes.

High game for the men was bowled by Mason Norlander and the series was rolled by Richard Boyce. Connie Moore took both for the women.

For more information on the league, call Ken Stewart at (214) 528-1287.

ROLLERSKATING FLOOD

Houston — Houston's recent floods destroyed the floor at the Carousel Rollerskating Rink and the owners report that they have no plans to reopen. Anyone interested in purchasing the 30-year-old rink on Old Katy Road may contact owner Kenny Parker at (713) 467-9919 or Jean Parker at (713) 973-2229.

The Lambda Rollerskating Club is currently discussing the possibility of continuing Lesbian & Gay Skate Nites at the Trade Winds Roller Rink located at 5006 W. 34th at 290 or at the Dairy Ashford Roller Rink at 1820 S. Dairy Ashford. Other rinks will also be contacted. Anyone with ideas on restarting Skate Nites can contact John at (713) 523-6381.

GOOD SPORTS

Houston — Good Sports is planning its annual event for college basketball's national championship showcase, The Final Four. The group will meet on Monday, April 6, at 7 p.m. for the live CBS telecast from the Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome in Minneapolis.

"This will be a super way to spend time with Good Sports and meet other fans in the community," said organizer Lee Harrington.

The Final Four three-weekend extravaganza is now second only to the Super Bowl in revenue and prestige for sports championship events. The 64 teams were announced on March 15. On March 23 Good Sports will mail its members a "Final 16" pick card to complete and postmark by March 25.

To get your card, call and state your name, favorite college team, address, and home and work telephone numbers. The winner gets a prize at the Good Sports April 6 party. For location and food arrangements, call Good Sports at (713) 523-9000.

RAZZLE DAZZLE DALLAS PRESENTS

Miss Dionne
Warwick

Originally from East Orange, New Jersey, Dionne Warwick began singing in a church choir. She formed her own trio, the Gospelaires, while studying at the Hartt College of Music in Hartford, Connecticut. While working in New York as a backup singer in 1960, Miss Warwick caught the attention of then-unknown composer Burt Bacharach, a discovery that turned out to be a stroke of genius for both the singer and the songwriter. Beginning in 1962 with the Bacharach/David composition Don't Make Me Over, Miss Warwick enjoyed a steady, nonstop string of hits including such standards as Anyone Who Had a Heart; Walk on By; You'll Never Get to Heaven; Message to Michael; Trains and Boats and Planes; I'll Never Fall in Love Again; Alfie; and her Grammy Award-winning Do You Know the Way to San Jose?. She sold an unbelievable twelve million records between 1963 and 1966.

In the 1970s, Miss Warwick attained superstar status and yet another Grammy nomination for her No. 1 single Then Came You, which she recorded with the Spinners. The 1980s brought even more acclaim and as Miss Warwick celebrated the 20th anniversary of her first hit, she was collaborating with such entertainment institutions as Stevie Wonder, Elton John, Johnny Mathis, Carol Bayer Sager, Barry Gibb, Barry Manilow and Luther Vandross.

Her 1986 hit, That's What Friends Are For, won Miss Warwick the Grammy for Best Performance by a Duo or Group and remained No. 1 on Billboard's Top 100 for four consecutive weeks. That song has become an unofficial anthem in the struggle against AIDS as well as a sentimental favorite of gay people everywhere.

Her screen and television credits include hosting the nationally syndicated show Solid Gold, hosting the annual Soul

Train Music Awards and appearances in Rent-A-Cop and The Woman in Red.

Much more than a musical superstar, Miss Warwick is the recipient of numerous awards and honors including Harvard University's Hasty Pudding Club Woman of the Year, the NAACP's Image Award and Starlight Foundation's Humanitarian Award of the Year. She was also awarded an honorary Doctorate of Law from the University of California.

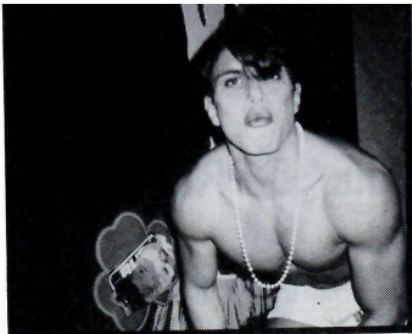

Called on by her country, Miss Warwick was appointed America's first Ambassador of Health by President Ronald Reagan in 1987. It was in this position, which she has also held during the Bush Administration, that Miss Warwick became active in the effort to raise public consciousness about health issues and to lead the nation's battle against AIDS.

Miss Warwick's Dallas appearance was made possible by the hard work of an all-volunteer steering committee made up of Razzle Dazzle Dallas, Inc. members. Organizers are hopeful of selling out the 1,900-plus seats in the Meyerson. Indeed, as of press time, the house was more than 75% sold out.

A message from Texas Gov. Ann Richards will kick off the evening and Dallas Deputy Mayor Pro Tem Chris Luna will present Miss Warwick with a Key to the City.

Executive Producers Tom Davis and Michael Doughman told twt, "She's been a delight to work with, and told us she's looking forward to returning to the Meyerson." Her Texas fans are certainly looking forward to her return as well.

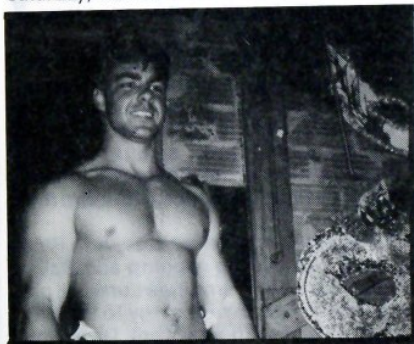

Razzle Dazzle Dallas, Inc. presents Dionne Warwick in concert at 8 p.m. this Wednesday, March 25, at the Morton H. Meyerson Symphony Center at 2501 Flora Street in downtown Dallas. For ticket information, call (214)330-ARTS.

HOUSTON HOTTea — Here's what's going on THIS WEEK IN HOUSTON from Space City HOT TEA...

L.A.'s trendiest male dancer, Thom Collins, thrilled the crowds at Heaven [above] last weekend. Be at the club tomorrow night for their customer appreciation party, beginning at 9 p.m. Heaven is definitely "where the boys are" this Sunday as they celebrate the rites of Spring with their Spring Break Beach Party....

Houston Lesbian/Gay Pride Week '92 will be the beneficiary of funds raised this weekend on Heaven's parking lot from a garage sale, and the Houston chapter of NLA and the 1992 Reign of the Imperial Court of the Single Star will benefit from a car wash and bake sale they are sponsoring. All the fun begins at 7:30 a.m. tomorrow, Saturday, March 21. Check it out....

Across the parking lot at JR's, the CRUISE CAMERA captured hunky Tyler [above], just one of the many gorgeous Men of Santa Fe dancers who perform at the club. New for 1992: JR's Bar & Grill presents the Grab for Cash contest four nights a week. Take a chance and win up to $500 in cash and prizes on Sundays, Mondays and Wednesdays. The Jamaica Racquet Club was packed for the Miss Travis County Pageant on March 8. Miss Gay Texas Amazing Grace and Miss Texas/USA Jennifer St. John [above, l-r] were two of the special guests that performed that night. Poison Alexander walked away the winner doing an illusion of Anita Baker that had the crowd screaming and yelling. The CRUISE CAMERA caught a picture of the top and first runner-up Kristee Pevey. Be sure to be at the Racquet Club on March 26 when they host a special benefit show in memory of Brian Hawkins, a.k.a. Bri Alexander. The show starts promptly at 9 p.m. Don't forget to catch the amazing Naomi Sims on March 29. She will be on stage for some of the antics only she can carry off....

The Crossing officially reopens their patio bar this weekend with specials all weekend long. Their garden patio is the perfect place to take advantage of Miller

Mondays when all Miller products will be on special. Glenn Nees and Greg Burch [above] are two of the regulars you can catch there most any day of the week....

Oilcan Harry's presents dancers every Sunday and Thursday for your enjoyment starting at 10:30 p.m. Watch for information about their underwear party to be held in April, which is a benefit for the Capital City Men's Chorus. You can catch their Friday happy hour buffets catered by Mathews Catering with some of the best in afternoon munchies....

San Fran Cisco's has been packing them in for the best in country and western music and dancing all through the week. You can challenge some of the cowboys to a pool game or a round of air hockey and take advantage of their drink specials....

TGRA secretary Tom Turbeville, vice-president Russell Smith, president Robert Jackson, treasurer Ben Mayorga and state rep Frank Martinez [above] were on hand last Sunday when the Austin chapter donated over $10,000 to the Austin Immune Health Clinic, Project Transition and also the Pediatric AIDS League. Thanks for the much needed funds. You can catch another one of TGRA's garage sales on March 28. If you would like to donate any items or would like to know where it is being held, contact the organization at (512)323-2732.

TWT POLICY

Because prostitution is illegal in Texas, state law prohibits the placement in this category of any such ads. Therefore, TWT policy stipulates that we will not and cannot knowingly accept any advertisements suggesting solicitation. It's the law. Also, state law prohibits non-licensed massage therapists from using terms such as "massage," "swedish," "acupressure," "Shiatsu," "reflexology" "body rub," "back rub," "body massage" or any term which indicates bodily contact.

Michael J. Teager
November 9, 1956 - March 12, 1992

Michael moved to Houston in 1976 to attend the University of Houston as a pharmacy major. Michael began a career in the food service industry at The Houston Country Club. He then joined the staff at Nino's briefly before moving on to become a mainstay of the waitstaff at Ruggles in Montrose. All along the way he gathered many friends through his loving, caring, laughing way. I met Michael when I joined the staff at Ruggles. He made very long hours bearable.

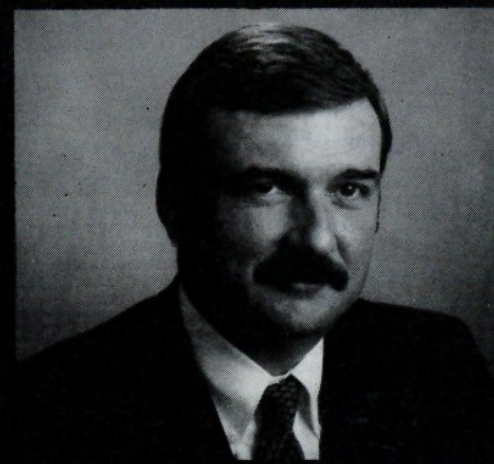

When I returned to the brokerage industry, I asked Michael to join me at Texas First Securities. Michael immediately became a very loved member of our Texas First family. He never forgot a birthday, or to send a card to someone who was down (I could use one of those cards now, Michael). Michael's love of life and his love for his friends and family has bridged some great distance, he has enabled many walks of life to cross paths, and made us all better people for knowing him.

Michael is survived by brothers Bill and Tom, his stepfather Harold of Illinois and by more loving friends than space allows us to print. Michael's life will be celebrated on Monday the 23rd at 6 p.m. at Earthman's Funeral Home, 8303 Katy Frwy. Visitation will begin tomorrow, Saturday the 21st at 5 p.m. In lieu of flowers, Michael requested that you remember him through donations to the AIDS Foundation, the Omega House or Kolbe House. I hope to see all of you who knew him and loved Michael on Monday. Mike, I love you.

—Missy

JOE FRANK TAYLOR
September 18, 1948 – March 9, 1992

Joe Frank Taylor, a native Texan whose happiest years were spent in Houston, died March 9, 1992 at his residence in Houston. He was a 1977 MBA graduate of the University of Texas. An accountant whose specialty was federal taxation, Mr. Taylor was most recently employed by ConTel of Washington, D.C.

Mr. Taylor will be remembered for his generous gifts of time and professional expertise in the formative years of the Montrose Clinic and the AIDS Foundation of Houston, as well as an early treasurer and board member of the Montrose Counseling Center. Joe took special pleasure in his association with, as member and treasurer, the now infamous Tea for Two Thousand collective. Abusing the nom de femme Suzie Wong, he was an occasional Chinese Business Woman. A select few knew him as Miss Kabuki.

Mr. Taylor is survived by his mother, Mrs. Margaret Wise Taylor, of Mesquite, a host of friends, a number of admirers, sufficient enemies to confirm enormous character and a great many people who didn't know what the hell to make of him.

A memorial gathering will be held at the Rothko Chapel at 4:30 tomorrow afternoon, Saturday, March 21.

OBITUARIES

Kenneth W. Rossmeyer (above)
October 11, 1955 - February 29, 1992
Services were held at 10 a.m. March 3 at the Cook Walden Funeral Home followed by the interment in Cook Walden/Capital Parks Cemetery.

Kenny was a true humanitarian. He was an active volunteer of AIDS Services of Austin and a grassroots member of ACT UP/Austin. Kenny also worked with the Blue Santa and Brown Santa volunteer programs.

Your welcoming smile opened every door. Good times shared will always be cherished.

Until then "a girl's gotta do what a girl's gotta do"

Your "sister"
Sharon

In Memoriam
1/29/58 - 3/20/91

You live in our hearts with love until we meet again.
Tom.

Peter Charles Maersch

Peter Charles Maersch passed away March 5, 1992 in Parkland Hospital. Born September 12, 1961 in Sellersville, Pennsylvania. Survived by mother Susan Boring of Irving; sisters Jeanne McKissick of Universal, Indiana; Angela S. Pickett of Manassas, Virginia; four nieces and one nephew; aunts Sarah Price and Sharon Wright, both of Irving, and Sheila Urich of Vallejo, California; uncles Charles Boring of Anchorage, Alaska; James Boring of Foley, Alabama; Bill Boring of Lynchburg, Virginia; stepfather William Kratz of Irving.

Peter loved life more than anyone I knew. A nasty disease called AIDS took him from his family and friends. His wish was that parents should educate their children about AIDS, how it is contracted and make an effort to stop it. The only way to stop it is to educate. Our loss is great, but thank goodness there is a God in heaven, for Peter is now at peace and has no more pain.

Following a brief illness, Doug Swanson passed peacefully into eternity on March 2, 1992 in Dallas. Having resided in Houston, Fort Worth and Dallas, Doug had returned to his family in San Angelo, Texas.

Also known as entertainer Tiana Taylor, Doug made a tremendous impact on the world of female impersonation with his makeup artistry and hair design, and had worked with major performers throughout the country. A calm and unprepossessing exterior contrasted with a solid intelligence and a keen wit that created a most remarkable individual. Be at peace until once again we meet.

"When you remember me, if you remember me, I hope you see it's not the way I want it to be. For I'd be with you now, but wherever you go, My love goes with you."

June 3, 1955 - March 11, 1992

Danny passed away in his mother's arms at 5:15 p.m., Wednesday, March 11, 1992 at Twelve Oaks Hospital of complications from AIDS. His courage in the face of death is an inspiration to his surviving father, mother and brother; as well as all his friends. His humor and wit live forever in the hearts of the multitude who knew him. The unselfish devotion of his family during his illness reflects the strength of character and blind dedication that made Danny such an integral part of so many lives. He rests in his beloved native New Orleans, and our hearts are sick at the loss of his confidence, grace, wit and genius.

The sparkle is gone here, but the stars are now blessed with a brilliant new light.

Jeff Bray, Jeff Pickett & Friends

January 9, 1946 - March 3, 1992

Tommy Jones left this world on March 3 in Midwest City, Oklahoma after fighting a long and courageous battle with AIDS. He moved back to Oklahoma a few days before Christmas where his loving mother took care of him. He worked for Southwestern Bell in Oklahoma and Dallas for 19½ years. He was in the military for three years and served in Vietnam for one year. He left behind his loving parents, relatives and many friends.

Your friend always,
Jerry

Wade Strauch, owner of the Bonham Exchange in San Antonio, has died at the age of 28.

Wade was born December 22, 1963. He is survived by sisters Teresa Ann Strauch and Sheryl Strauch Guerrero, William Shultz and his partner in life, Tony Bobrow, owner of the Hidden Door in Dallas.

The Bonham Exchange has experienced a great loss of a very dear friend and employer. Wade had a great head for business which gave him a great presence in dealing with people. He always wore a friendly smile and was outgoing.

Wade had a way of touching people, and he touched many. When it came to dealing with a dreaded disease, AIDS, Wade jumped into the problem very aggressively and took control of what may otherwise have been a hopeless situation. With the help of Kenneth and his sister Teresa, Wade dealt with every problem head on.

All of this and more made up our good friend Wade. These were but a few of the drops of water that made up the river of his life. When you combine these precious thoughts of Wade with the memories that each of us carry within, the river is complete.

Wade has left us, but our memory of him and precious thoughts of him remain to keep him alive inside each and every one of us forever.

Memorials for Wade should be made to the San Antonio AIDS Foundation.

March 18, 1960 - February 20, 1992
Mr. B.R.B. 1988

On the afternoon of February 20, 1992 at 2:20 p.m., David departed this life at the age of 31, in Park Plaza Hospital, Houston, Texas.

He leaves to cherish his memory, his loving father and mother, Bubba and Shirley Savell; two brothers, Tommy Savell and wife Vickie, Johnny Savell and wife Brenda; one sister, Barbara Bigham and husband Robert; a loving grandmother, Mary M. Bowley and many other relatives and friends.

God's garden must be beautiful
For he only picks the best

Adam Cooper aka Eva James (above)
1/15/63 - 3/9/92

Adam left us Monday after a courageous fight with a bitter enemy—AIDS.

Adam moved to Dallas in 1983 and quickly warmed the hearts of those he met. Because of his creative and outlandish talents as a female impersonator, he earned himself such titles as Ms. Buddies '88-89, Ms. Razzle Dazzle Dallas 1990, Ms. Metroplex-at-Large and Ms. Lone Star U.S.A.

He worked as a waiter for Tolberts and the Hard Rock Cafe until he was no longer able, and most recently worked at Buddies nightclub where he was the host and emcee of Saturday night shows.

His enthusiasm for life, mischievous smile and sense of humor will be sorely missed.

Adam is survived by his parents Charles and Penny Cooper, grandmother Barbara Bissell and beloved uncle Brad, all of Eugene, Oregon. Also, the two men he loved most—his lifemates Tony West and John Hornberger of Dallas, along with countless friends and fans.

Eva, "your high heels won't be easily filled."

We love you
Have a jalapeno on us!

▼ PUT PRIDE IN YOUR LIFE ▼

Recovery Has Many Faces.

There is often great isolation in feeling different, in being different. It can be painful. Addictions can hide the pain - for a while. But at a great cost. At Pride Institute, we are here to help you. We affirm your differences - in color, gender, race, sexual orientation - and support your recovery.
