MOLLY IVINS TO KEYNOTE AUSTIN MEETING OF LESBIAN & GAY JOURNALISTS

May 3 Event Will Include Panel Discussion of Lesbian/Gay Issues.

AUSTIN — Texas humorist and civil libertarian Molly Ivins is slated to keynote a meeting of the Texas chapter of the National Lesbian and Gay Journalists Association [NLGJA] May 3 in Austin.

Ivins, a Fort Worth Star Telegram columnist and author of the best-selling book Molly Ivins Can't Say That, Can She?, will also moderate a panel discussion on lesbian and gay issues in the workplace, the mass media and political campaigns.

Panelists will include Austin American-Statesman Editor Maggie Balough, State Rep. Glen Maxey, Lesbian/Gay Rights Lobby Executive Director Laurie Eiserloh, KVUE-TV News Director Carole Kneeland and political consultant Mark McKinnon.

"We take a two-pronged approach to things. We're here to give people a place to connect, to feel supported and to directly impact the way in which the mass media deals with gay and lesbian issues," said NLGJA founder Leroy Aarons, former Executive Editor of the Oakland Tribune.

Aarons, one of the few openly gay executives to manage a major American newspaper, retired from the Tribune in 1991. Two years earlier, he had presented the first national study of lesbian and gay journalists in mainstream newspapers to the American Society of Newspaper Editors.

The study found that lesbian and gay journalists believe their industry does, at best, a mediocre job of covering people and issues important to the lesbian/gay community. Most of the journalists said they were content with their jobs, in spite of the subtle homophobia they said they faced regularly at work.

Anecdotal responses showed that many felt isolated and eager for a mechanism to connect with lesbian and gay co-workers.

"It [NLGJA] is an opportunity to compare notes, meet role models and see what has worked elsewhere," Aarons said.

NLGJA is a nonpolitical organization that follows commonly accepted standards of professional ethics. The group supports equal opportunity for lesbian and gay people and offers support to those facing problems in their workplaces related to sexual orientation.

NLGJA also supports a fair and professional standard for reporting on lesbian and gay persons and issues affecting their community.

Membership in NLGJA is open to anyone whose primary source of income is print or broadcast journalism. Student and associate memberships are also available.

The Texas chapter meets quarterly in different cities across the state. The May meeting is scheduled to coincide with Splash Day, the annual weekend at Lake Travis sponsored by the Austin Tavern Guild.

Events will include an informal gathering from 5-9 p.m. at the home of Kay Longcope, a longtime employee of the Boston Globe. Sunday's schedule includes brunch at 10 a.m., the panel discussion at 11 a.m., and a business and membership meeting at 12:30 a.m.

For more information, contact Juan Palomo 1(800)877-1887 or Kay Longcope at (512)327-7584.

FORT WORTH POLICE CHIEF ADDRESSES GAY ALLIANCE

Encourages Greater Involvement In Citizen Patrol Program.

FORT WORTH — "A person's sexual preference in and of itself is not a disqualifier for a police officer... We do not ask questions about a person's sexual preference," Fort Worth Police Chief Thomas Windham said. He was addressing the monthly meeting of the Tarrant County Lesbian/Gay Alliance [TCLGA], attended by approximately 50 people at the Colonial Cafeteria. "As far as gay or lesbian officers, I am sure we have them."

Windam, who announced his plans to speak to the group back in January, said he had been advised by many people not

CALL FOR ACTION AGAINST HATE CRIMES IN DALLAS AREA

DGLA's Anti-Violence Project Holds Press Conference Demanding Government Response to Problem.

DALLAS — The gay and lesbian community of Dallas has grown tired of violence directed against them because of their sexual orientation. The Dallas Gay and Lesbian Alliance is doing something about this through their Anti-Violence Project.

The group held a press conference on Thursday, March 19, to call attention to the enormity of the problem in the Dallas area. Standing in the 4100 block of Dickason, near Sam Houston Elementary School, Beverly Winters spoke of the murder of Brent Korol at that very site on December 28, 1991. She noted that one of the suspects had been caught, but the other two were still at-large. She also said it was one of four hate crimes committed last year in which people lost their lives.

"We bring these events to your attention and the public's attention in order to underscore the need for the abolishment of anti-gay discriminatory legislation and politics," Winters said.

"These crimes, reported and unreported, are the consequences of action and attitudes based on rigid moral judgment. In a city where the city council and mayor do not protect the rights of each of their citizens, theirs is a loud message that these crimes and resulting behaviors are justified and condoned."

Winters explained that the problem is greater than statistics indicate because so many hate crimes go unreported, partly due to the victims' fear of publicly admitting their homosexuality. The victims also experience guilt, shame and anger because they feel so powerless, she added, and they are at a higher risk of being victimized again by the original perpetrators.

"We call for vigorous official response at all levels. We demand the passage of local and state legislation protecting the rights and safety of all gays and lesbians. We seek hate crimes laws for all populations in danger of discriminatory violence and abuse," Winters said.

Reported incidences of hate crimes have increased greatly over the last few years, partly due to the increased visibility of the gay and lesbian community. Gay victim assistance agencies in Boston, Chicago, Los Angeles, St. Paul, New York and San Francisco documented 1,588 anti-gay incidents in 1990, an increase of 42% over the previous year. In a national poll of lesbians and gay men published by the San Francisco Examiner, seven percent reported having been physically assaulted because they were gay at least once during that year.

For more information or to become involved, contact the Dallas Gay and Lesbian Alliance at (214)528-4233.

WOMEN'S SERVICES AT HOUSTON'S THOMAS STREET CLINIC

Planned Parenthood Program Provides Wide Range of Free Testing, Birth Control to HIV-Positive, At-Risk Clients.

HOUSTON — Women who are HIV-positive or at risk have a place to turn to for free, confidential and anonymous testing as well as a wide range of other health services.

The Planned Parenthood operation at Thomas Street Clinic has been running since last fall, and Lee Virgilio has been doing outreach for the clinic since February. Sometimes the women's services program has only one patient all day, but it's not because of their fees. All of Planned Parenthood's services at Thomas Street Clinic are free to women who are HIV-positive, or are at-risk or think they may be.

Due to their current low patient load, the clinic is only open Mondays from noon-4 p.m., but Virgilio says that when publicity and word-of-mouth let a lot more women know about the Clinic's services, they expect to have more clients and will accommodate them with longer hours.

The Planned Parenthood program offers comprehensive physical examinations for birth control; birth control supplies and instruction, including the five-year Norplant implant, which normally costs about $600 in a private doctor's office; pregnancy testing; vaginitis screening and treatment for sexually transmitted diseases.

Also offered are Pap smears; heart and lung assessments; breast exams; blood pressure screenings; blood screenings for anemia; and urine screening for kidney disease and diabetes. All services are free, anonymous and confidential.

"No one else is doing this," Virgilio says, "Not for free, not with all the loving care we deliver it with. We do whatever it takes to make the woman okay. You know, a lot of women, especially women with kids, take care of their kids' or other family members' needs first, and then, if there is enough money, or child care available, they get medical care for themselves."

"We have removed the financial barriers, and if they don't have care for their children, we say, 'Bring them in, too!' We [staffers] take turns taking care of the kids and their mammas."

Because women with AIDS, and those who are at risk, have very different needs from gay men, partly because they are not as well organized politically, or as often included in the same support networks, Planned Parenthood's Clinic at Thomas Street offers free education and condoms with each visit.

"Some women think they don't need the condoms because they're using birth control, but we promote condoms as preventive medicine against syphilis, gonorrhea and AIDS. As for the ones who already have AIDS, well, they sure don't want to expose themselves to any more," Lee says.

"We don't care how the women got AIDS, whether they're straight, lesbian, bisexual or undecided, we just want them to know we're here, we care about them and our professional services are free, no questions asked."

Women who wish to take advantage of Planned Parenthood's services at Thomas Street Clinic may call (713)713/522-7557.

TGRA will also sell food and conduct a fashion auction of leather and western wear donated by local retailers.

The TGRA will also present checks to the Names Project and Healing Wings. Healing Wings is a public/private cooperative effort to revitalize an entire floor of John Peter Smith Hospital in Fort Worth and thus create a new center for AIDS care.

On Saturday, April 11, the Imperial Court de Fort Worth/Arlington will do a benefit show for TGRA at Across the Street, 700 South Jennings. There will also be a drawing for a color television at midnight, and raffle tickets are only $1. Everyone is welcome.

On Sunday, April 12, the TGRA will hold their statewide general membership meeting at Across the Street, to which everyone is invited. Gerald Ford of Fort Worth has been named Rodeo Director for the 1992 TGRA Rodeo, to be held in November in Dallas.

The TGRA state board has given the Fort Worth chapter approval to bid on bringing the International Gay Rodeo Association's October 1993 rodeo to Fort Worth. The bid is to be presented at the TGRA meeting in Minneapolis in August of this year.

'SPRING SOCIAL' IN AUSTIN THIS SUNDAY

Stonewall Business Society Sponsoring First Annual Party.

AUSTIN — The Stonewall Business Society [SBS] holds its first annual Spring Social this Sunday, March 29, at the home of SBS members Toby Johnson and Kip Dollar.

SBS was formed to provide a source of professional support within the greater Austin area for the businesses and professional individuals who cater to or welcome the patronage of the gay and lesbian community. SBS facilitates a communications network between businesses and their clientele.

The group also functions as a social outlet, providing a sense of unity to its members as well as to the community at large. SBS strives to fulfill its purpose in a manner which promotes a positive image among lesbian and gay businesses, organizations and individuals in the Austin area.

The Spring Social will begin promptly at 2:30 p.m. with champagne, non-alcoholic beverages and hors d'oeuvres. Door prizes will also be awarded by luck of the draw.

"The Spring Social will be the perfect time to meet the members of the organization and possibly consider joining yourself," Membership Chairperson Dale Curry told TWT NEWS. Annual dues are $20 for single membership and $30 for joint membership.

Membership meetings are held the second Monday of each month at the Hyde Park Theatre. For more details call (512) 454-9252.

HILL HEADS TOWARD RUNOFF WITH MORE ENDORSEMENTS

Has Support of Three Area Hispanic Groups, Women's & Vets' Organizations in Second Round.

HOUSTON — Ray Hill heads towards his runoff for Justice of the Peace, Precinct 1, Place 1 with the support of several endorsing organizations.

Dale Gorczynski got nearly half the vote in the March 10 primary, and Hill placed second with just over 13%. Hill now has the endorsements of the Mexican American Bar Association, the Harris County Mexican American Democrats and Mexican American Democrats de Houston.

Earlier he received the support of the Association of Women's Attorneys and the Gay & Lesbian Political Caucus. He has been endorsed by the Brotherhood of Vietnam Veterans, and said this week he would be also be seeking the support of area labor groups.

Hill explained that he was able to secure the support of the veterans' group in spite of his history as a peace activist because he was instrumental in getting the state to ban the purchase of Agent Orange by the Texas prison system. Vietnam veterans who did time in Texas were being further exposed to the toxic herbicide, which had been used in Vietnam and which was being used by the state prison system.

Hill expressed guarded optimism about his chances in the runoff election, saying that with the endorsements he has received and strong enthusiasm on the part of his core supporters, he will be a competitive candidate on April 14.

PWA Car Wash Cleaned Up

Dear TWT:

The People With AIDS Coalition appreciates all the support we received from the community at our car wash on March 14. We had wonderful weather and a great turnout. Thanks to all who brought their dirty cars, and special thanks to the following for their contributions:

Lillian and the rest of the staff of the Metropolitan Multi-Service Center for all their help; the PWA Coalition Buddies and Lorenzo Rodriguez for turning out in fantastic numbers; special thanks to Dignity Houston and Alton John (and his seven cars) for providing volunteers and media support; "Batty" Bob Robertson for working the streets and for the fabulous wig; and everyone else who participated in this event.

But most of all, we want to thank the community for supporting the PWA Coalition. We invite organizations to help with our next car wash on May 16. Call our office at (713)522-5428 if your organization is interested. Once again, thanks for caring.

Jay Slemmer

Help Support Montrose Activity Center

Dear TWT:

The Montrose Activity Center [MAC] has long been a vibrant contributor to the gay and lesbian community by sheltering numerous subcommittees under its 501(c)(3) umbrella. MAC, known as a "community center without walls" for many years, has identified a growing need within the community for a center "with walls." The gay and lesbian communities of Los Angeles and San Francisco, and yes, even our friendly rival to the north, Dallas, have recognized similar needs within their communities and have built or are developing their own community centers. Accordingly, the Board of MAC has developed a simple but ambitious plan to provide the fourth largest gay/lesbian community in the nation with a first class community center. MAC's plan will be implanted in two phases.

Phase one consists of the immediate acquisition of a temporary storefront property to increase its exposure in the community, to provide low-cost or no-cost meeting facilities to community groups and to further define the long-range needs of the community.

Phase two consists of a five-year effort to raise capital for the construction of a new facility, or the renovation of an existing Montrose landmark. A primary goal, in addition to those already mentioned, is the creation of a theatre/cultural complex to further enhance the appreciation of the gay cultural lifestyle.

To that end, MAC is currently soliciting donations to provide seed money for the temporary facility. Within the next few weeks, MAC will present a live, touring musical revue, fashioned around the old-time USO shows. In conjunction with the performances, MAC is giving away a 1992 Mazda pickup truck and a 1992 Suzuki motorcycle to some lucky persons who have made a donation of $25 or more. All donations are tax-deductible, as accorded to all donations made to a 501(c)(3) corporation. These vehicles will be given away during Pride Week '92.

Please show your support for this community-wide endeavor by attending one or all of the MAC Live UFO Shows and, most importantly, by making a donation in the amount of $25 or more to MAC. For more information, or if you would like to help in this effort, please call (713)236-0064.

Who knows, you might be cruising Montrose in a new pickup or have the wind blowing in your hair while riding a new Suzuki.

SPECIAL REPORT

21:06: QUESTIONS & ANSWERS

Since the Third District Court of Appeals ruled Section 21.06 of the Texas Penal Code unconstitutional on March 11, the Texas Human Rights Foundation has received a number of calls about the decision. I would like to address some of the questions we have most frequently been asked.

Will the case be heard before the Supreme Court?

Our case will never be heard before the Supreme Court of the United States because it is not a federal case. Our case, Morales et al. vs. the State of Texas, alleges that Section 21.06 violates the Texas Constitution, not the U.S. Constitution.

At what level is the lawsuit at this time?

Our case is currently making its way through the state court system. The first level was the district court level. The case was first heard before Judge Paul Davis on December 10, 1990. Davis ruled in favor of the plaintiffs and declared 21.06 unconstitutional from the bench.

That decision was appealed by Attorney General Dan Morales on April 5, 1991, so at that point, Morales was on its way to appellate, or second level.

Why did Dan Morales appeal? I thought he was on our side.

I'd really like to clarify this point. We wanted Morales to appeal Davis' decision. Why? Because the district court decision did not have statewide jurisdiction. District court rulings are not written or cited as law. For that reason, the plaintiffs, THRF trustees and other parties in the community felt it would better even to risk losing at the appellate level than to settle for a district court decision. Of course, the "other side" wanted Morales to appeal as well, so the Attorney General was in a politically advantageous position.

What decision was just handed down?

The case was just heard before the Third District Court of Appeals in Austin on January 29 of this year. The court handed down a decision on March 11, upholding Judge Davis' ruling that 21.06 does indeed violate the Texas Constitution.

What now?

There is still one more level to go: The Texas Supreme Court. The Attorney General has said that he is appealing the Third District Court's decision to the state Supreme Court.

We have won two battles, but we have not won the war. The Texas Human Rights Foundation is sponsoring the Morales case, paying all court costs and all attorneys' fees on behalf of the plaintiffs. THRF has retained Austin attorney Patrick Wiseman to represent them.

Wiseman and his law partner, Ed Tuddenham, are also representing Mica England in her lawsuit against the City of Dallas challenging the Dallas Police Department's policy of not hiring gay men and lesbians. Wiseman and Tuddenham have used the evidence and pleadings from the Morales case to support their argument in England's case. As Wiseman has stated, "The reason we can do Mica's case is because of Morales."

We urge readers to join THRF in support of these two landmark cases, and we will do everything we can to keep the community posted.

Mars slips into Pisces at 8:05 p.m. Friday, affecting Pisces and Virgo the most, and to a lesser extent Gemini and Sagittarius.

By Friday evening, everyone feels like they're coming out of a rut as the Moon has been void-of-course during the day. Friday and Saturday nights promise to be more enjoyable if you're with friends. The bigger the party, the better. It's difficult to alienate others.

Sunday afternoon is festive, but the night goes out with a whimper instead of a bang. So get your priorities set before nightfall. Decide who's going to stay where, and what your plans are, well ahead of time. Once you make up your mind, stay with the game plan.

Monday and Tuesday, people are more likely to be sympathetic and more likely to listen. It's a great time to ask for help or for a loan. On Wednesday, not much is accomplished at work. If people are easygoing early in the week, midweek is traumatic for those who have sensitive psyches. People are rushed, harried and anything but empathetic.

The New Moon occurs in Aries at 11:02 p.m. Thursday. This will be an excellent time for taking the initiative. Avoid acting on hunches; the longer you've thought something out, the better. Living well is the best revenge, so set goals during the New Moon to improve your life. Make the revenge something that improves you, not something that harms the other person. If you abuse the Moon's power, the Moon will sabotage all plans.

ARIES: (Mar 21 - Apr 19) With Mars in the twelfth house, you tend to leave the well-known for an uncharted course with a lover. You experience an urge to sow wild oats, no matter how many times you've done it before. Let experience and judgment be your guides. The weekend's Moon occurs in your third house, leaving you thinking of early memories. Monday evening, you defend a friend's integrity, gaining respect from all involved. On Thursday, calm down; pressure makes you lose your temper easily. Best day: Thursday.

TAURUS: (Apr 20 - May 20) Love is bumpy during this Mars transit. You feel secure for a few days, then become ill at ease. The best way to romance this weekend is to invite a friend or acquaintance (not an ex) over. Monday you feel ambitious; work hard until Wednesday. Thursday, look at the whole financial picture. Tuesday night is perfect for meeting a lover. Best day: Saturday.

GEMINI: (May 21 - Jun 21) Everything goes well for you as long as you postpone decisions. Make this a mental vacation time. You need a breather from roommates, lovers and others. A stagnant time when you don't feel assertive at work. This weekend, let lovers do as they want. Early in the week, work at home. Thursday, concentrate on security, mentally and financially. Best days: Saturday and Sunday.

CANCER: (June 22 - July 22) A renewed interest in love, but from a different perspective. This transit doesn't bring as much interest in you as you'd like, but the in-depth conversations and sex will more than make up for the lack of attention. Beware of people who put words in your mouth currently. Spend the night with someone Monday. Best days: Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

LEO: (July 23 - Aug 22) This weekend you feel out of step with others. Take a mini-vacation from friends, no matter how close they are; look for new ones. In love, your best chance is through a co-worker or fellow volunteer. Take a date to the theatre or a movie. You might meet people in the entertainment field, so if you enjoy name-dropping, now's your opportunity. Best day: Thursday.

VIRGO: (Aug 23 - Sep 22) You don't feel very passionate, and others pick up on this. Buy a sex manual and read more Dr. Ruth. A bit more kinkiness won't hurt, but play safe. Lovers take advantage of your vulnerability. This weekend a lover's, or ex-lover's, money becomes important for a variety of reasons. Monday you prove loyal to a friend; romance is great. Start a health regimen Thursday. Best day: Monday.

LIBRA: (Sep 23 - Oct 23) Strive for balance; extremes can be costly. In love, first impressions swing the ball into your court. This weekend, focus on what you perceive rather than on what is said. Friday you're content. Late Saturday, a wish comes true; not how you expected it, but better. Tuesday night is perfect for sex. Thursday, confrontations don't work out to your best advantage. Best days: Saturday and Sunday.

SCORPIO: (Oct 24 - Nov 21) Mars comes to your aid in a domestic squabble. A new relationship arises out of a dilemma. This weekend, your mind is on career or on those who can further it. On Tuesday, you compromise more than you'd like, but it'll work out to your advantage. Tuesday evening is excellent for settling an argument with a lover. Best day: Tuesday.

SAGITTARIUS: (Nov 22 - Dec 21) An old love brings intrigue and mystery. Friends are the most important help to enjoying your weekend. Monday and Tuesday, your productivity is enhanced. Thursday, a friend introduces you to someone and sex becomes unusual. Monday night, even the best thought-out plans could be a disaster. Avoid dating. Best day: Thursday.

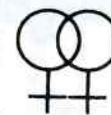

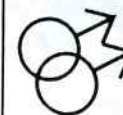

CAPRICORN: (Dec 22 - Jan 19) A lively period in all areas of your life. You'll laugh more than usual and be closer to friends than at any other time. This weekend you feel like being alone, but Monday you want to make up for lost time. Sunday you may become rather obsessive and workaholic. Thursday your job takes priority. People heed your advice. Best days: Sunday and Thursday.

AQUARIUS: (Jan 20 - Feb 18) This weekend everything turns out right, though you may feel solitary because of the position of Mars. Don't overreact. Saturday you resolve a longstanding feud. On Sunday, stay away from those who bring you down; you have internal struggles of your own. Thursday, resolve to either strengthen or pull out of a friendship on the skids. Best day: Saturday.

PISCES: (Feb 18 - Mar 20) Energy and stamina increase as Mars enters your first house. You know what you want and need from a relationship. You are likely to be insensitive to others sexually, and they are more likely to tolerate it now. Avoid binge spending this weekend. Saturday evening, something you have long fantasized about comes a few steps closer to reality. Sunday afternoon, others find you demanding. Monday and Tuesday, watch finances. Thursday you feel like telling something private about yourself. Don't! Best days: Monday and Tuesday.

COMING NEXT WEEK: Daylight Savings Time begins. Mercury reenters Pisces. Venus enters Aries. Mercury goes direct.

LONE STAR VOLLEYBALL CLASSIC TOURNAMENT

Houston — Easter weekend, April 16-19, Houston will host the Lone Star Volleyball Classic IV, an international gay men's volleyball event. The tournament is held annually by the members of the Lone Star Volleyball Association.

This year, the official sponsors of the classic are the Brazos River Bottom, JR's Bar & Grill, Heaven, Santa Fe, the Montrose Mining Company and Charles Armstrong Investments.

Nearly 30 teams have entered, representing such cities as Montreal, Mexico City, Los Angeles, San Diego, Chicago, New Orleans Lafayette, Dallas, Austin, Atlanta and, of course, Houston. Over 250 participants, spectators and guests are expected.

The tournament has become one of the largest North American Gay Volleyball Association events held in the South, and it enjoys an excellent reputation for good competition and great fun.

The tournament is divided into four divisions: AA, A, BB and B. Trophies are given to first, second and third place finishers. Each division also has an "All-Star Team" recognition.

The event takes six courts and is being held this year at the University of St. Thomas, the M.D. Anderson YMCA, the Salvation Army Gymnasium and the University of Houston.

The tournament agenda is as follows: Thursday evening, the BRB will host the registration party and captains meeting. A scoring clinic is also scheduled for Thursday at the host hotel, the Doubletree Allen Center.

Pool play begins on Friday at 8 a.m. at the University of St. Thomas [AA, A Divisions], M.D. Anderson YMCA [BB Division], and the Salvation Army Gymnasium [B Division].

On Friday night, a bracket party will be hosted by JR's. Saturday play begins at 8 a.m. at the UST and the University of Houston. Winners will be announced at the awards banquet to be held Saturday night at the Doubletree. A video highlight party will be held at Heaven later that evening. Sunday morning, the tournament committee hosts an Easter brunch for participants at the hotel.

It takes approximately $18,000 to put on a tournament of this caliber. Money is raised through registration, fund-raising events like raffles, and program advertising. As has been traditional in the past, the tournament committee hopes to raise enough money both to cover costs associated with the event and make a donation to an AIDS-related charity.

HEIGHTS BIKE RIDE

Houston — This Sunday, March 29, the Chain Gang Bicycle Club will tour the scenic and historic areas of the Heights. The tour starts off at 10 a.m. from the parking lot of Heaven and will cover about 20 miles at a moderate pace. Everyone is welcome and participation is free.

Following the tour, those interested in attending the first annual citywide "Bike Block Party" from 1-4 p.m. at the George R. Brown Convention Center are invited to join the Chain Gang contingent. The Mayor, Metro officials and City Council members have been invited, and the purpose of the gathering is to show them that bicycles are a solution to Houston's air pollution problem.

The Chain Gang will have a booth at the party featuring entertainment, concessions, speakers and exposition booths. For more information, call (713)522-4481.

SCOTT HUDDLESTON of Dallas

This week's cover man is Scott Huddleston of Dallas, although his fans are more familiar with his stage name, Maverick.

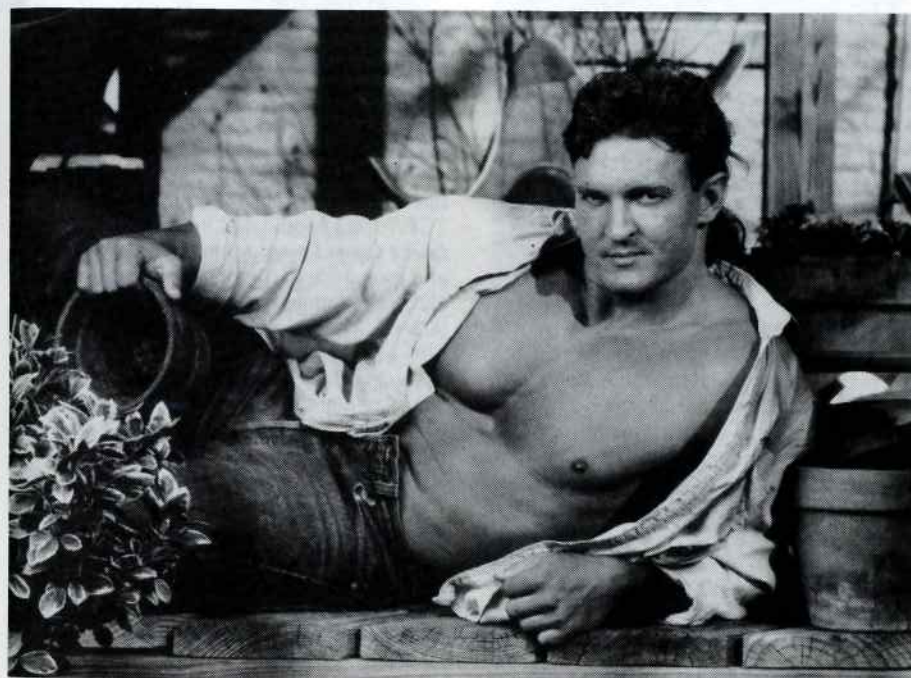

Originally from Clearwater, Florida, Scott moved to Dallas about a year ago and immediately fell in love with Texas. Looking at his photos, it's easy to believe that Scott's a physical education major at Metroplex University. He enjoys gardening and is currently filling his deck and patio with geraniums for spring. For all his bulk and brawn, Scott Huddleston is a kind, friendly gentleman, one you should definitely get to know.

Born under the sign of Aries, Scott will celebrate his birthday tomorrow, Saturday, March 28. Want to wish him a happy one? He'll be strutting his stuff at Zip-pers in Dallas tonight and tomorrow night and at the Crews Inn on Sunday evening.

Who knows? Maybe it will be Scott who gives you a birthday present!

LET'S PLAY HOUSE

Very nice, girl next door type TV seeking mate. I don't have the looks of a Hollywood star nor would I want to look like any of them. I'm just me and I'm happy with the way I look.

The right man will be white or Hispanic, at least 40 years old, social drinker, smoking OK, like candle light dinners, easy music, classical music, country music, slow dancing, NFL, nature TV programs, picnics and the outdoors.

Me, I'm white, 6 ft. tall, blue eyes, brown hair, 160 lbs., and I like all the above activities plus 50s and 60s rock, cooking, ballet, writing and much more.
HIV -

By day, I'm a chefs uniform cooking masterpieces, by evening, I'm rompers fixing dinner for my man, by night, I'm a baby blue nite gown wishing to make all my lover's dreams come true.

I will be waiting here for you. Call me at I'm Danni and I will be very happy to talk with you.

Austin. The Austin American Statesman seeks your help in identifying all the AIDS deaths in Austin and Travis County from January 1, 1991 to December 31, 1991. In a story on the virus' death toll, it wants to publish each person's name, age, date of death, occupation and photograph. It welcomes more information about these AIDS victims from their families and friends. It will respect the wishes of survivors who don't want the names of their loved ones included.

The paper seeks to list people born in the county who died elsewhere, as well as those born elsewhere who died in the area.

James Robert Measley (2-24-37 — 3-14-92)

It is so difficult to try and write the obituary of someone you love. To try and sum up someone's life in a few lines, yet capture their essence. There is so much I could say about Jimmy. He is one of the unsung heroes of this AIDS epidemic. He survived over four years, beating all the odds. We used to laugh about his recovery being at the amazement of his doctors and the disappointment of his insurance company. But what was it that allowed him to survive when most others didn't? First, he was a fighter. He held life to be sacred and not to be given up until every fiber of himself was spent. Second, he saw AIDS as an opportunity to learn and enrich his life and the lives of others. During the course of his journey he found himself and in doing so he, also, found a way of helping others. For many of us he became a teacher by his example. He was a graduate of and a supporter of the AIDS Mastery Program and one of the founding members of Legacy Counseling Center. He learned the value of emotional healing and felt a need to share this opportunity with others. Involvement in life, acceptance of himself and others, and inner peace were all keys to long-term survival. Emotional healing, not a cure, became his goal. It was nonetheless difficult and painful to complete the process and to end his journey; but the circle was complete March 14, 1992.

Goodbye, Jimmy. I love you. I miss you. I think of you often. I am grateful for your release and I delight in your new freedom. Mike

When he learned he had AIDS in February of 1988, Jimmy retired as a State Trooper with the Texas Department of Public Safety after 25 years of service. He is survived by his longtime companion, Mike Vandewater; two daughters, Janice Nolan and Janie McKinney, five grandchildren; two brothers and two sisters, all of whom live in Hughes Springs, Texas.

Memorial services will be held April 4, 1992 at 1:30 p.m. at the Episcopal Church of the Transfiguration on Hillcrest and Spring Valley in Richardson, Texas. In lieu of flowers, please make memorial donations to Legacy Counseling Center, 3511 North Hall #210, Dallas, Texas 75219.

OBITUARIES

Ron Brightman (above)
May 10, 1943 - March 6, 1992

In loving memory of Ron Brightman, longtime resident of Dallas. Ron passed away after a courageous three year battle with AIDS. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to a favorite AIDS charity.

To laugh often and much;
To win the respect of intelligent people...
To earn the appreciation of honest critics and to endure the betrayal of false friends;
To appreciate beauty, to find the best in others;
To leave the world a bit better....
To know even one life has breathed easier
because you had lived.
This is to have succeeded.

Emerson

4/9/50 - 3/14/92

In loving memory of Robert, who proved to me that Paul Engle was correct when he said, "The most important and profoundly felt thing is that to my surprise I come to the end of my life convinced that love is indeed possible in a basically unlovely world. It seems to me love is not only possible, but it is the ultimate reason for life on earth."

Robert, you were my reason. My Magic Man.

Mike

John S. Garza (above)
4/23/47 - 2/29/92

John Garza, 44, of Austin, passed away Saturday, February 29, 1992 with his companion of 14 years, Patrick, by his side.

A memorial service was held March 7 in Austin. Baby, do you remember the first time I told you I loved you? I do. You asked me if I was sure. I was. I will love you and miss you forever. Of this, I am absolutely sure.

Always your Baby,
Patrick

Bobby Salinas a.k.a. Millie Star (above)
12/29/56 - 12/13/91

Bobby was originally from Corpus Christi and had been a longtime Houston resident. He passed away quietly on December 13, 1991 at Ben Taub Hospital with family by his side.

Survivors include brother Pete Salinas of Oakland, California; and three sisters of Corpus Christi.

Bobby, we miss your smile and sense of humor.

All Our Love,

Alex, Arturo, Bria, Clayton and Pete

Craig DeVoll (above)
1960 - 1992

Craig DeVoll passed away January 30 at Brackenridge Hospital in Austin following a brief illness. He was surrounded by his family and friends.

In accordance with his wishes, a gathering celebrating his life was held following memorial services on February 1.

Craig was raised in Texas and attended South-west Texas State and Lamar universities. He re-located to Austin in 1990.

He was an active participant in Austin theatre, working as both designer and performer. His performance in the recent production of Torch Song Trilogy will be fondly remembered by many.

He is survived by his companion Larry Goad of Austin, his parents, Judy and James of San Antonio and many loving friends.

His love, friendship and talent will be greatly missed.

Memorials in his name may be made to AIDS Services of Austin.

Anthony leaves behind his mother and father, Gail and R.B. Clarke, Jr.; a sister and brother-in-law, Shirley K. and Jack P. Morgan; and his brother James.

Anthony also leaves behind his companion Ken; Mister Myles; the Board of Directors: CEO (Baby Boy) presiding; Uncle Don; Sandi; Bill; Jimbo; Gary; Johnny; Michael B.; Miss Kitty; and many other friends. Anthony enriched the lives of many. To have known him was to have loved him.

Stanley W. Stewart (above)

Stanley, known to his friends as Stan, passed on to a new life on March 17, 1992. This life began in Albany, Louisiana on April 12, 1965.

Sharing his joy are his sisters, Janet and Dorothy; brothers, Danny and Marvin, and special lifetime celebrants Jim Rawson, longtime companion; and Tom Theriot, devoted companion.

Known to many in the bars of Austin, and good friend to a fortunate few.

Your loving spirit will live eternally in the lives of all you touched so dearly, and your spirit will be magnified, dancing within the light until we are reunited once again.

8/14/50 - 3/14/92

David was born in Slaton, Texas and graduated from Tascosa High School. He moved to Dallas in the late 1970s and was owner and operator of Magnolia's Disco, the Bell Pepper Restaurant and was a partner in Patrick's Cabaret. Later, his company, Double Up Services, supplied bar equipment and supplies to many of Texas' club owners. He operated that business until the time of his death.

Survivors include his father and stepmother, T.J. and Georgia Eaves of Lubbock; and brothers Allen Lewis Eaves of San Diego and Rickey J. Eaves of Amarillo.

A memorial service was held in his memory on March 19 in Amarillo. He will be remembered by his countless friends across Texas for his honesty, dependability and sense of humor.

The family request that remembrances in David's name be made to the Crown of Texas Hospice, 1901 Medi Park Drive, Suite 1068, Amarillo, TX 79106 or to the Panhandle AIDS Support Organization, 816 West Ninth Avenue, Amarillo, TX 79101.

Michael Wayne Scott

October 28, 1947 - March 17, 1992

He was past vice-president of Metroplex Republicans/Log Cabin, past treasurer of Gay/Lesbian Hispanics of Dallas, active in Lakewood Social Club, Sunday Afternoon Book Club and a member of the National Republican Committee.

Mike will be long remembered for his vast literary knowledge and love of conservative politics. His friends are invited to celebrate his life in a memorial reception to be held at a private home in Oak Lawn Heights. Call (214)520-6655 for directions.
