GAY, LESBIAN TEXANS GET MAJOR POSTS

*Dallas Attorney Birdwell Named
District Court Judge;
San Antonio Activist Fitzwater
Receives Appointment to State Funeral Commission.*

TEXAS — Jerry Birdwell, a well-known openly gay Dallas attorney, was appointed by Gov. Ann Richards to Dallas' 19th District Court. The Court seat was left vacant when Judge Joe Kennedy resigned to accept an appointment to a federal court position.

Birdwell, who is apparently the first openly gay district judge in the state, will face an as yet unnamed Republican challenger for the 195th District Court position in November.

Openly gay Dallas attorney Jerry Birdwell appointed to 195th District Court.

The Governor's announcement of Birdwell's appointment came on Friday, May 22, and he was sworn in that afternoon.

The Republican and Democratic Executive Committees of Dallas County each select a candidate to run for the 195th District Court position. The Executive Committees, made up of Dallas County precinct chairs of the two parties, must select their candidates at least 65 days prior to the election.

Birdwell has been selected by the Democratic Executive Committee to be their candidate in the general election. The Republicans are currently considering two candidates, County Criminal Court Judge Cas Dunlap and former judicial candidate John Helms.

Many in the lesbian and gay community were disappointed when Birdwell was passed over for two previous appointments, which went instead to John Cruzot and Jan Hemphill. Birdwell is set to face his first jury trial on Monday, June 1.

TEXAS NEWS

In other good news for the Texas gay and lesbian community, the Governor also appointed Martha Fitzwater of San Antonio to the Texas Funeral Services Commission. Fitzwater, an attorney and lesbian activist, is apparently the first woman, and certainly the first openly lesbian woman, ever to be appointed to the funeral commission. Her appointment was announced Friday, May 22.

Fitzwater's appointment is considered by community leaders to be especially significant because the funeral commission has had a history of discriminating against gays and lesbians.

SAN ANTONIO BEGINS MONTH OF PRIDE CELEBRATIONS

SALGA Conference, Tenth Annual Picnic Highlight Observances.

SAN ANTONIO — "Out Is In," according to the theme adopted for this year's Lesbian/Gay Pride Month, and residents of the Alamo City have a full schedule of events to choose from in celebrating their pride.

SALGA, which means "come out" in Spanish, also stands for San Antonio Lesbian/Gay Assembly, the organization sponsoring the city's pride celebrations. Former SALGA board member Martha Prentiss, who is helping organize the pride month, said the group had prepared a month-long schedule of events that defy San Antonio's undeserved reputation for sleepiness and apathy.

While other cities across the state have lesbian/gay pride weekends or weeks, this marks San Antonio's fourth year in the evolving tradition of being the only Texas city to keep the entire month open for the celebration of lesbian/gay pride.

The month's events begin with performances of the "Mujer Canto," a musical presentation dealing with the issues facing lesbians and all women, at 8 p.m. to night, Friday, June 5 and tomorrow at the Esperanza Peace and Justice Center, 1305 N. Flores. Admission is $5.

This Sunday, June 7, there is a "Couples Get Acquainted Brunch" from 11 a.m.-1 p.m. at Little Naples Restaurant, 1923 Blanco.

On Saturday, June 13, an all-day conference organized by the San Antonio Lesbian/Gay Assembly will explore topics like the media, organizing, politics, student issues, parenting, HIV/AIDS, relationships, family law issues and others. Featured speakers are lesbian activist and lawyer Deborah Johnson of Los Angeles and former executive director of Lambda Legal Defense and Education Fund Tom Stoddard of New York. 8:30 a.m.-5 p.m. in McCreless Hall on the San Antonio Community College Campus. $15.

Saturday evening, following the conference, a "Community Party" will be held at the home of Martha Fitzwater and Kay Ford, with Johnson and Stoddard as guests of honor. $5.

On Thursday and Friday, June 18 and 19, the Lesbian/Gay Media Project and the Esperanza Peace and Justice Center sponsor "Out at the Movies," a festival of lesbian and gay films and videos, at the Guadalupe Cultural Arts Center, 1300 Guadalupe. $5.

On Saturday, June 20, the Alamo City Men's Chorale presents its Pride Concert at the Bonham Exchange, 411 Bonham. $7.

On Sunday, June 21, the tenth annual Lesbian/Gay Pride Picnic takes place from 2-8 p.m. at San Pedro Park. Admission is free. For more information, call (512) 637-0041.

On Monday, June 22, SALGA and the Bisexual Veterans of America sponsor a Get Acquainted Meeting at 7:30 p.m. at 1136 W. Woodlawn. Admission is free.

On Wednesday, June 24, a Pride Ecumenical Service will be held at 7:30 p.m. at Metropolitan Community Church of San Antonio, 1136 W. Woodlawn. Admission is free.

On Thursday, June 25, Club Orgasm, billed as an alternative club event to raise funds for Arts for Life and Jump Start Performances Co., takes place at 10 p.m. at Bonham Exchange, 411 Bonham. Admission is $8 before 11 p.m., $10 thereafter.

On Saturday, June 27, the San Antonio Lambda Students Alliance hold their Stonewall Soiree from 6-9 p.m. at the Esperanza Peace and Justice Center, 1305 Flores.

This fifth annual pride celebration will feature videos from before and after the Stonewall riots. Admission is free.

On Sunday, June 28, the Fourth Annual Lesbian/Gay Art Show runs from 6-9 p.m. at the Esperanza Peace and Justice Center, 1305 N. Flores.

JUDGE GIVES HOUSTON COUNCILMAN REYES SECOND CHANCE AT HOUSE RACE

Agrees with GLPC-Endorsed Candidate that Crossover Voting Cast Doubt on Runoff Results

HOUSTON — Houston City Councilman Ben Reyes won a court ruling last Thursday that overturned the results of the April 14 Democratic runoff in which he lost to State Sen. Gene Green by 180 votes.

State District Judge John Delaney agreed with claims by the Reyes campaign that the election results were tainted by evidence of "crossover" voting. The judge ruled that a new election will have to be held to choose a Democratic nominee for the House seat.

Green has said that he will appeal the ruling.

Reyes filed suit last month to have the results of the runoff election voided after evidence of voting irregularities surfaced shortly after the runoff.

The Reyes campaign maintained in its arguments before the court that many voters had cast "crossover" ballots—that is, that they voted in the Democratic runoff race after having voted Republican in the first round on March 10. Such a practice is illegal under state law.

Of the more than 300 crossover voters who were called on to testify in court, most revealed that they had voted for Green.

The date for the special election, which if held will probably take place in two or three months, has not been set, pending the outcome of Green's appeal.

The winner of the special election will face Republican nominee Clark Kent Ervin in the November general election.

Reyes received the endorsement of the Gay & Lesbian Political Caucus for the Democratic nomination for the 29th Congressional District.

HOUSTON'S TOP 10 REASONS TO COME TO JR'S DURING THE MONSOON

10. There's less competition to meet the man of your dreams.
9. You won't be home to curse your TV when your cable goes out.
8. The moisture and severe humidity will give your skin a youthful glow.
7. You can generally find a parking space within ten minutes or less.
6. Rather than being bitter at the weather, you can come out and meet your next ex-lover.
5. You can come out and admire how much better everything looks with an inch of water on it.
4. It's a great excuse to leave work early, then stop by JR's for Happy Hour.
3. To tell stories about people in Los Angeles painting their grass green, while you can raise goldfish in your yard.
2. It's free ... never a cover.

And the Number One reason to come to JR's during the monsoon ...

AUSTIN MAYOR TODD To JOIN IN MCCA DEDICATION

Congregation Celebrating Move to New, Larger Facility.

AUSTIN — This Sunday, June 7, the Metropolitan Community Church of Austin holds a service to dedicate its new building, and to show its appreciation for those who have helped make the congregation's new home possible. Austin Mayor Bruce Todd is among those who will be joining in the festivities, which start at 3 p.m.

MCCA was organized in 1975 as the Austin Independent Community Church. In October of 1978, the church was incorporated as MCCA, Inc., and became affiliated with the Universal Fellowship of Metropolitan Community Churches.

In November of last year, MCCA issued $300,000 in first mortgage bonds and sold out the entire issue by February of this year. The church then purchased its new facility, located at 425 Woodward Street. After some remodeling, the congregation held its first services at the site on Easter Sunday.

COURT OF CRIMINAL APPEALS WON'T HEAR 21.06 APPEAL

Case Still Pending Before State's Highest Civil Court.

AUSTIN — Saying it does not have jurisdiction in the case, the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals indicated last Wednesday that it would not hear Attorney General Dan Morales' appeal of a recent ruling that Section 21.06 of the state penal code is unconstitutional.

Morales also filed an appeal with the state's highest court for civil cases, the Texas Supreme Court, and that appeal is pending.

21.06, which criminalizes homosexual conduct, was declared unconstitutional by the Third District Court of Appeals earlier this year. The civil lawsuit challenging 21.06 was filed by the Texas Human Rights Foundation, which located plaintiffs and is paying court costs.

TEXAS GROUPS GET FUNDS FROM LAWYERS' TRUST ACCOUNTS

Four Organizations Provide Legal Services to PWAs.

AUSTIN — Four Texas organizations that provide legal services to people with AIDS are among 61 groups receiving funds from the Interest on Lawyers' Trust Accounts [IOLTA] program. The program is administered by the Texas Equal Access to Justice Foundation.

The Texas Supreme Court created the IOLTA program in December of 1984 and made it mandatory in 1988. The trust accounts are sums of money held in trust by lawyers pending the outcome of insurance or other court cases involving money.

Such money was historically placed in non-interest-bearing accounts, but the state high court changed this and mandated that the interest accrued be awarded to nonprofit groups providing legal services to low-income Texans.

The Dallas Legal Hospice received $100,000, the AIDS Outreach Center of Fort Worth got $40,000, AIDS Services of Austin was awarded $45,000 and the Alamo Area Resource Center of San Antonio received $40,000.

To be eligible for consideration to receive IOLTA funds, organizations must be 501(c)(3) nonprofits that provide legal services to indigent Texans.

AGAPE MCC PASTOR ON TV PANEL SHOW

Rev. Hunt Discusses Gays & Churches with Other Ministers.

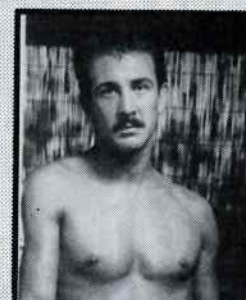

FORT WORTH — The gay and lesbian community in Fort Worth is making itself known and heard in a variety of ways this summer.

Rev. Brenda Hunt, senior pastor of Agape Metropolitan Community Church in Fort Worth, recently taped two video programs for the American Religious Town Hall program. The talk show is broadcast on 140 stations around the country.

The format of the religious show features a panel of ministers representing several different faiths, moderated by Seventh-Day Adventist Pastor Robert Leiske. Hunt's conversation with the other ministers will be broadcast on Channel 11 this Sunday, June 7 and next Sunday, June 14, at 7 a.m., statewide. The programs on which Hunt appears are entitled "Rights of Homosexuals in the Church" and "Rights of Homosexuals in the Church: Ministers and the Congregation".

"I want to spread the message of God's love to the world," said Hunt, who is senior pastor of Agape MCC. The congregation is a part of the Universal Fellowship of Metropolitan Community Churches. The UFMCC is a Christian denomination with a very strong outreach to gays and lesbians and a predominantly gay and lesbian membership.

Another well-known personality in the Metroplex area will be the guest speaker at Agape's all-church potluck dinner tomorrow, Saturday, June 6. Bob Ray Sanders, a former columnist for the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, will present and discuss the video program he narrated in 1989 on the late Dallas gay activist, Bill Nelson.

"The potluck dinner starts at 6:30 p.m. and is followed by Bob Ray Sanders' presentation at 7:30 p.m.," Ron Rasmussen told TWT NEWS. "Everyone is invited, but it's a potluck dinner, so bring your appetite and something to eat."

"And if you're looking for some outdoor action in the sunshine this summer, come out and join us in a rousing game of volleyball on Sunday afternoons at 2:30 p.m. behind the church," Rasmussen added. "It will be played for the fun of it, with no one being made to feel intimidated."

For more information on the potluck or the volleyball games, contact Ron Rasmussen at (817)763-5414.

In other news from Fort Worth, the Fort Worth Police Department [FWPD] has been taking a greater interest in its relationship with the city's gay and lesbian community. Police Chief Thomas Windham spoke at a recent monthly meeting of the Tarrant County Lesbian/Gay Alliance [TCLGA], stressing the importance of citizen involvement in law enforcement.

On May 15, Lt. Joe Bellar was named the Department's uniformed liaison officer to Fort Worth's gay and lesbian community.

Current plans call for Bellar to coordinate special events as well as law enforcement and public safety efforts with the lesbian and gay community. Windham and Bellar have already met with TCLGA representatives and club owner Billy Ray Hill. The new liaison officer is a detective-lieutenant with the FWPD's South Division.

COMMENT

A Mom's Thanks and Love

Dear TWT:

Thank you for the beautiful Mother's Day tribute, which I consider the nicest honor that I have ever received from "our" community.

The response has been tremendous, as evidenced by the stacks of cards and letters received at your office, as well as the many that have been presented to me personally. Most impressive were contributions that were made in memory of a lost friend or lover and the letters expressing how painful these losses have been.

Gifts ranging from $1 to $200 were received; however, I full treasure those cards and letters that contained no contributions but told of a heartbreaking experience and loss of a dear one to this, the most devastating plague of the century. May God answer our prayers for a vaccine/cure before the end of this century and that I will live to see this happen.

Please remember that I am a member of your community by choice and appreciate all the unconditional love that I receive from each and every one of you. I wish good health and happiness to you all.

With much love and gratitude,
Jan Barton
Dallas, TX

Thanks for Helping Michael

Dear TWT:

We would like to thank all the fine people who helped Michael Pitman for the past few years and especially the last five weeks of his life.

First of all, Crown Books, his last employer, who kept extending his leave of absence so he could continue his insurance benefits.

Secondly, the seventh floor staff of Twelve Oaks Hospital; Bobbie, Dawn, Teresa, Jim, Randy, Raymond, Anne Marie, Peggy, Ms. Grey, Sheila, Diane, Obi, Dorothy, Margie, Dee, Agnes, Atra, Barbara, Linda, Deborah, Rosiland, Sharon, Terry, Freda, Annie, Mary, Ida, Yvrose, Evelyn, Valerie, Rhonda, Sherie, Loretta, the Third Floor outpatient staff and the support staff. Also, the Home Health Store and Michael's visiting nurse, Barbara.

We think that it is important to thank those people and companies who understand the difficulties of AIDS.

Many Contributed to Success of 'Encuentro'

Dear TWT:

History was made in Houston on May 21-25, 1992, as Latino gay men and Latina lesbians gathered to assess the impact of the HIV/AIDS crisis on our community. The first national "Encuentro" was sponsored by the National Latino/a Lesbian & Gay Organization [LLEGO], based in Washington, DC.

Over 250 participants were provided with a range of skills in diverse areas including leadership and public policy, the arts and humanities, health issues, resource development and fund-raising. National speakers included Mildred Bralio, a Puerto Rican attorney from San Juan battling to repeal Puerto Rico's sodomy law; Juan Palomo, Houston Post journalist; Letitia Gomez, LLEGO activist in Washington, DC; Cherrie Moraga, San Francisco-Berkeley professor and Jose Toro, Puerto Rican AIDS activist.

As Co-Chair for the Local Planning Committee, I would like to thank the many people who made this event a great success, especially the following Committee Chairpersons: Odilia Mendez,

Response to Fort Worth
Pageant Overwhelming

Dear TWT:

I would like to take this opportunity to say thanks and congratulations to the winners and participants in the 1993 Miss Gay Fort Worth Pageant. As a first-time promoter, I was overwhelmed by the response received this year.

Congratulations to Raquell Lord, our newly crowned winner, along with first alternate Kristina Kross, second alternate Tracey Donovan and Tawdry Lane, recipient of the first annual Raina Lea Congeniality Award and first annual Bette Sheba Spirit Award. All of the contestants truly shined this night.

Everyone viewing the pageant was honored with former Miss Gay Fort Worth titleholders, performing to the max, who included Tiffany Rene, Rachel Masters and, of course, the infamous Tasha Kohl. Our sister city brought entertainment by the current reigning Miss Gay Arlington, Essence DeVille, and the current reigning Miss Gay Tarrant County, Sabrina Adams.

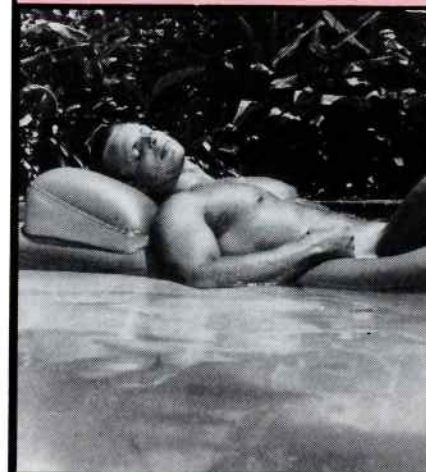

A staff of many, each of whom I could not have done without, included Porter Pierce, David Hicks, Michael Cheves, Staci Adams, Greg, Kevin and each of the five judges, Molly, Carlton, Peaches, Rudy and Cristina. Super job, guys.

Our current reigning Miss Gay Texas, Amazing Grace, once again proved why she holds this title.

A special thanks to all employees of Bananas Club, who went out of their way to accommodate us all, Dennis, Terri, Haley, Paulette, Larry and Tonya.

Thank to Lady Shawn for his support and guidance.

To China Blue, you were breathtaking in your beauty and performance on this night as you passed your crown down to the newly deserving winner. I am proud to add your name to Fort Worth's who's who of former titleholders.

This pageant was dedicated to Stuart Himmelstein, who not only accepted this dedication graciously, but graced our stage in a performance of strip dancing that gained everyone's undivided attention.

Last, but certainly not least, Ashley Rhone proved himself to be an outstanding mistress of ceremonies and performer. Your groundwork prior to and your execution of the job I bestowed upon you proved to be rewarding. Be proud of yourself; I most certainly am. I can't thank you enough.

Well, we will be off to the Miss Gay Texas Pageant very soon. I hope to see you all there to support this pageant as well as you did mine. Again, thanks to you all.

Help Make Switchboard Carnival a Success

Dear TWT:

I am writing to solicit your readers' support for the Gay & Lesbian Switchboard Carnival. The Carnival will be held Saturday, June 20 from 11 a.m.-5 p.m. at 1000 Missouri. This is an official Lesbian/Gay Pride Week event, and we are making every effort to ensure that we receive maximum participation throughout the community.

We are asking for support at this time in order to bring about this event in a cost-effective manner. All supporters of this event will have their names displayed on a highly visible marquee. Therefore, your support, should you decide to offer it, would be well-recognized.

We are asking for the following: game prizes, costumes (loaned or donated), gift certificates, cash donations or anything else readers feel would enhance our carnival atmosphere.

Options You Can Live With

There is no cure for HIV. But there are treatment options. The AIDS/HIV Treatment Directory, published by the American Foundation for AIDS Research (AmFAR), is a guide to the full range of approved and experimental treatments. A one-year subscription to the Directory (4 issues) is only $30.00. To subscribe, or to make a contribution, send your check to AmFAR. Your options may be greater than you think.

Garden Party Beneficiaries

Dear TWT

The 1992 Garden Party, "Queens of the Nile," will be held July 26 at Rich's, 2401 San Jacinto, from 3-7 p.m. Proceeds from this year's Whore-to Culture Extravaganza will benefit the Assistance Fund, the Bering Community Service Foundation, the Colt 45's AIDS Trouble Fund, and the Gay and Lesbian Switchboard of Houston.

These beneficiaries were selected from a number of choices nominated by the Garden Party membership. Each nominee is carefully scrutinized as to how funds are dispersed. We consider many factors such as administrative expenses, salaries, how many people are helped, how much money goes to people in need and overall response to the community.

This year's party promises to be one of the best yet. Tickets are $20 ($25 at the door) and will be available at Basic Brothers, 1232 Westheimer, beginning July 11. For more information, call (713) 688-0336.

Scriptures Neither Anti-Gay, Anti-Straight

Dear TWT:

I very much enjoyed the editor's response to my letter in TWT COMMENT ["They Weren't 'Ex' After All," Vol. 18, No. 11] as regards Christ's possible homosexuality. Of course, this was only an aside in a story about two "ex-homosexuals" who discovered, somewhat amusingly, that they were not "ex" at all. As I'm prone to do in a footnote like this, I stretched my poetic license to the point of outright falsehood in referring to a "consensus among Bible scholars" that Jesus was gay. Certainly, TWT is correct in saying no such consensus exists. In fact, the Bible itself contains no reference to Jesus' homosexual practices, and certainly any such reference would have been among the scriptures deleted at the Council of Trent, when the King James version was written (or compiled).

Indeed, the only prominent Bible scholar I know to have published any scriptural reference to Jesus' homosexual episode(s) is Dr. Morton Smith, an Episcopalian priest and professor of history at Columbia University. The reference is certainly not in the Bible itself, but is contained within two passages of a gospel composed by Mark in Alexandria after the death of Peter, and was supposedly intended only to be read by new converts to the religion. The episode took place in Bethany, and the passage reads in pertinent part:

"...Jesus told him what to do and in the evening the youth comes to Him, wearing a linen cloth over his naked body. And he remained with Him that night."

Having studied so many of these ancient scriptures, Smith readily recognizes the language used to describe a homosexual episode, because it is consistently employed. But I think there are a couple of benefits to be gained from studying this.

First, if you are a Christian, which I am certainly not, it must be important for you to know that these scriptures aren't anti-gay any more than they are anti-straight. Many passages condemn all sex, but they are inconsistent and self-contradictory, and really bizarre sexual acts of all kinds occur throughout the Bible, but are not consistently condemned. Certainly the passage above does not condemn homosexuality. Because they are in the majority and control most churches, heterosexuals can easily look up anti-gay passages, while ignoring all the ones that condemn their own sexual practices. But this proves nothing.

Secondly, if you are homosexual and have self-esteem and pride in yourself, then you must surely know that the statement that Jesus was gay is without opprobrium. Much to the contrary, it is the finest compliment we could pay him!

Of course BACKSTAGE tells you about all the glitter and sparkle—That's What Friends Are For. June 13 at Houston's Westin Galleria, starring Billy Stritch, featuring The Wiseguys and honoring Liza Minnelli and Dr. Adan Rios.

Dave Clemmons in Les Miserables.

Victor Hugo knew it; misery loves company. Les Miserables is revolutionary in its portrayal of early 19th century France, and of the tension between the individual and society, the injustice of criminal punishment, the regeneration of people debased by circumstances and the nobility of suffering that remind us of our own times. June 16-21 in Jones Hall.

And on June 18, Les Miz After Midnight...Beyond the Barricade, at the Tower Theatre, is a cabaret to benefit the Colt 45s of Houston. Call (713)524-4365 and ask for Tony.

It's splashy, sparkly and flashy, fun enough to draw an audience from across the state. It's the Texas Cabaret Musical Festival, and it's at the J.W. Marriott Hotel in Houston, 5150 Westheimer, by the Galleria. Rebecca Plant (formerly of Montgomery, Plant and Stritch) and Jeffery Murray are the team behind United Allied Productions and this extravaganza. Amanda McBroom will dazzle Texas through June 7, followed by Sharon Douglas, June 11-14, and three more exhilarating acts through July 5. At 8 p.m. and 10 p.m. Thursday through Sunday nights. $20. Call (713) 629-3700.

The Alamo City Men's Chorus invite you to "Take Five" and relax with them as they perform choral, solo and small ensemble music in celebration of their fifth anniversary. Saturday, June 20 at 8 p.m. in the ballroom of the Bonham Exchange. $6. Call (512)822-6325.

GLAAD Tidings

MEDIA

by Donald Suggs

Member of Gay and Lesbian Alliance Against Defamation, Inc.

Supporting Those Who Support Us On Public Television

*"20/20" Lets Troubled Teens
Speak for Themselves*

*Say No to Anita on
"The Maury Povich Show"*

The high rate of suicide among lesbian and gay teenagers has only recently come to the attention of the mass media. So when a network news show not only reports on the issue, but allows the voices of lesbian and gay teenagers to be heard, it's a groundbreaking move.

It isn't their homosexuality that drives many teenagers to suicide, it's the homophobia they face from parents, teachers and classmates alike. While this may not be a revelation to most lesbians and gay men, this perspective is often missing from media coverage of lesbian and gay teens. That's why GLAAD Tidings was so pleased to see a recent segment on ABC's 20/20 entitled "No Way Out" that not only conveyed this information, but allowed a group of lesbian and gay teenagers to speak for themselves about the harassment and isolation that led them to attempt to take their lives.

Lesbian and gay teens spoke candidly about rejection by their parents, indifference on the part of school administrators and being ostracized or abused by their classmates. The segment also focused on the people who perpetuate the ignorance and alienation these teens face.

"If they want to kill themselves, then that's their problem," said one young straight high school student. There was also a young mother who has begun to teach her kids at home rather than have them receive sexual education that includes information about homosexuality. Asked about the high rate of suicide among lesbian and gay teenagers, she actually said that the answer isn't to fight the homophobia these teenagers face; "the answer," she asserted, "is to prevent homosexuality."

But perhaps the most affecting portion of the segment was an interview with a mother whose fundamentalism had led her to harass and ultimately reject her gay son. Convinced that her bigotry contributed to her son's death, she appealed to other parents to learn to accept and support their lesbian and gay offspring before it's too late.

GLAAD Tidings encourages readers to write to 20/20 producer David Sloane and tell him how much they appreciate his latest effort and to urge him also to try and be more inclusive of the experiences of lesbian and gay teenagers of color in future segments.

Write to: David Sloane; Producer, 20/20; WABC-TV; 7 Lincoln Square; New York, NY 10023.

For many gay and lesbian people, the name Anita Bryant is synonymous with homophobia. The former beauty queen's successful campaign to overturn Dade County, Florida's civil rights law in the 1970's is probably the most widely publicized bashing of the gay and lesbian community. That's why GLAAD Tidings was shocked to see her warmly received by host and audience alike on a recent segment of The Maury Povich Show.

Not only did Povich allow Bryant to soft-pedal her hate-monger past—she claims her campaign against lesbians and gays was "misunderstood"—he gave her the opportunity to shamelessly promote her latest book, in which she more subtly articulates her familiar views.

Let those who are unfamiliar with her past be fooled by her pleasant demeanor and her respectful reception by the audience, one of these views is that AIDS is a "ramification of a choice of lifestyle." Please let The Maury Povich Show know that you change the channel on programs that fawn over notorious bigots like Anita Bryant.

Public television is under attack. That's why it's time for the gay and lesbian community to express its strong support for the Corporation for Public Broadcasting's [CPB] efforts to provide culturally diverse programming.

Lesbians and gay men have always agreed with Television Program Fund Director Donald Marbury when he says that "those who talk, walk, look, love or pray differently than the majority society must be seen and heard on the airwaves."

Because our community understands how critical it is that public television continue to reflect the lives and accomplishments of all members of society, we have historically been generous supporters of public television.

Gay and lesbian people also understand that right-wing extremists and fundamentalists are seeking to curtail or eliminate entirely CPB's ability to provide this kind of programming. We must encourage CPB to continue its fight on behalf of public television. And we must remind conservatives that the majority of Americans do support their right to programming that both challenges and intellectually enriches viewers.

Please write letters of support to Donald Marbury; Director, Television Program Fund; Corporation for Public Broadcasting; 901 E Street NE; Washington, DC 20004.

"GLAAD Tidings" is written by members of the Gay & Lesbian Alliance Against Defamation, Inc., a nationwide organization which monitors media coverage of lesbians and gay men. To report on such coverage in Texas, contact GLAAD/Dallas at P.O. Box 190712, or call (214)526-4523.

On Our Cover RANDY EAKIN of Austin

This week's cover man is 28-year-old Randy Eakin. Originally from Moody, Texas, Randy has lived in the capital city for the past two and a half years. It's certainly no surprise that a beautiful man like Randy has a boyfriend, who lives in Missouri.

Randy works as a customer service representative for an Austin bank, and intends to make his career in the banking industry.

He devotes his spare time to a broad range of interests, including water skiing, snow skiing, swimming, aerobic workouts, and country and western dancing.

Week of June 5-11, 1992

You have totally new ways of thinking about the people you allow in your home environs, as Mercury moves into Cancer Tuesday.

The First Quarter Moon in Virgo insists on cleanliness. People are ultra-picky. If you're looking for love and affection, your surroundings are especially important. Sex in alleyways just won't do, at least not for now. Everything should look right and smell nice, but not sweet. If planning a dinner, don't surprise anyone. Serve their favorite tried-and-true. Everyone is awkward sexually, so don't feel alone.

GEMINI: (May 21 - Jun 21) Everything goes right for you, but you still have vague feelings of mental discomfort. Because of a beneficial aspect earlier in the week, you are upbeat and lucky. Later in the week, you feel overworked, but any sex this weekend will be passionate and will make you forget this week's problems. Best prospects are people raised in rural areas. Experiment in lovemaking Monday and Thursday night. Best days: Monday, Tuesday and Thursday.

CANCER: (June 22 - July 22) Get ready for heart-to-hearts with all those in your life, both those recently met and those you've been out of touch with. Thoughts about your parents or upbringing surface with more frequency. Mercury enters your house of appearances at 12:28 p.m. Tuesday, emphasizing your self-image. Buy something to enhance your looks. A word of caution: When Mercury is in one's house of appearances, he or she tends to be obnoxious. Though you are already one of the least aggressive signs, until the 27th, avoid saying or doing anything that you have doubts or hesitancy about. Best day: Thursday.

LEO: (July 23 - Aug 22) Family members may say something about your sexual orientation. For the moment, just let it stand. You'll turn introspective this weekend and may confess too much to another. Avoid contact with anyone you suspect dislikes you. Don't seek their approval now. Sex is reciprocal and simultaneous on Monday. You feel overwhelmed by responsibilities on Thursday, but this may clear the way for promotion. Best days: Friday, Monday and Tuesday.

VIRGO: (Aug 23 - Sep 22) What you're doing to yourself now amounts to self-flagellation. This coming week, make new friends and rearrange your life. Others look to you for guidance and/or help. Be very safe sexually. This lasts until next week's Full Moon and lunar eclipse. Saturday night, Mars, the planet of passion, lends you a hand. Best days: Friday and Sunday.

LIBRA: (Sep 23 - Oct 23) Long, frank discussions are favored this weekend. The Quarter Moon occurs in your second house, accenting taking care of financial affairs. Budget or save for something you've long wanted. Dating goes particularly well on Tuesday and Wednesday, but be forewarned that you could easily overpromise and hurt someone. Thursday, avoid the telephone and outside influences. Best days: Tuesday and Wednesday.

SCORPIO: (Oct 24 - Nov 21) Short trips prove interesting and unique. Tempers may flare over sex and themes of domination. You're very partner-oriented and feel more of a need to settle down, but you may need to get away from someone else to accomplish this. Having shared interests is accented, as is a healthy dose of understanding friends. Best days: Wednesday and Thursday.

SAGITTARIUS: (Nov 22 - Dec 21) It's your turn to relinquish the driver's seat; let others decide where to go and what to do, and you'll enjoy it. As therapy, write down your thoughts on whatever ails you emotionally. Friday sets off a long list of accomplishments in career. Saturday is the best night for dating. Shared interests of a sexual nature are accented. The rest of the week, lovers should clarify their financial arrangements with one another. Best day: Monday.

CAPRICORN: (Dec 22 - Jan 19) This is a highly uncertain time in finances. Speculating is out of the question. Higher education is avored. This week, your libido decreases as you try to understand what makes relationships work. Saturday and Sunday, talks with friends resolve misunderstandings. Monday evening, you take on extra responsibility. Both Monday and Tuesday, resolve problems with higher-ups, while remembering to be patient with a lover Tuesday. Best days: Saturday through Tuesday.

AQUARIUS: (Jan 20 - Feb 18) Love and lovers are uppermost in your mind. Although a spat with a lover could occur Friday, it will resolve itself by Saturday evening. All week, take extra care of health and follow up on any medical advice. Your extra-good days for love are Tuesday and Wednesday. A date at your home Thursday evening could bring someone already interested in you into your life on a more permanent basis. Best days: Tuesday and Wednesday.

PISCES: (Feb 18 - Mar 20) Home becomes the focal point for you until late June, especially if you have been feeling dissatisfaction with your residence. This weekend, lovers can be met in places where singles normally meet or through group situations. The rest of the week, you are asked for many favors from others; but take care of personal needs first. Wednesday night and Thursday are best for asking someone on a date. Be assertive when you ask; if asked, give an unequivocal answer. Best day: Thursday.

ARIES: (Mar 21 - April 19) Your mind is extremely quick and you can find your way out of any situation. Look in your own area for romance. There's no need to go traveling across town. Currently, lovers need more breathing space. If single, a free spirit is your best bet; also, anyone in the medical profession, like nurses, pharmacists, etc. Saturday night, you're great to be around in the evening, when a date will be in for a uniquely passionate time with you. Best days: Friday and Saturday.

TAURUS: (Apr 20 - May 20) You feel pulled in two directions. Stick with the known. This weekend, privacy is accented; lovers feel betrayed if you talk about them. This week it is easy for others to run away with your heart, and next week you won't have any idea why you were interested to begin with. Avoid confrontations Wednesday and Thursday. Sunday through Thursday, a Venus/Saturn aspect gets you truthful answers to any questions you ask. Best days: Saturday through Wednesday.

Next week: The lunar eclipse in Sagittarius and how it affects gay and lesbian Texans. Mars enters Taurus.

CHAIN GANG BICYCLE

Houston — The Chain Gang Bicycle Club's off-road division, the Rough Riders, visit Sam Houston National Park tomorrow, Saturday, June 6. They will explore the wonders of the piney woods near Huntsville starting at 10 a.m.

On Sunday, June 7, the Chain Smokers, riders who like a moderate to quick pace, will be riding in West Oaks. The ride will be about 40 miles and start at 9 a.m. from the parking lot of Mervyn's at West Oaks Mall.

The next Easy Rider division ride will be June 14. Rides in all divisions are free and everyone is invited. For more information, call (713)522-4481.

LAMBDA ROLLERSKATING

Houston — The outdoor group of the Lambda Rollerskating Club will skate to either downtown Houston or Montrose this Sunday June 7 at 8:30 p.m. They will meet at the MCCR church, 1919 Decatur off Washington. Call Daniel for information at (713) 862-2091. This skate is for more experienced skaters.

Daytime weekend outdoors skates are also planned for skaters of all expertise. Rental skates will be available from the Montrose Skate Shop. Anyone interested in helping plan or lead these activities may call the club at (713)523-6381.

GAY ICE SKATING

Houston — The next gay ice skate night at the Galleria Ice Rink is this Tuesday, June 9. The cost is only $4.50 and includes skates. The session runs from 8-10 p.m.

These ice skate get-togethers, which are also open to the general public, have been attracting 20 to 30 people from the gay and lesbian community each skate night. They are sponsored by the Chain Gang Bicycle Club, the Houston Outdoor Group and the Lambda Rollerskating Club. Everyone is invited to join the fun and skaters are urged to wear pink to the skate.

Later in the month on June 23, another skate will be held as an official Pride Week event. For more information or to get on the free mailing list, call (713)523-6381.

ADVENTURING OUT

Austin — The Adventuring Outdoors group has several events lined up for June. Tomorrow, Saturday, the group is taking a day trip to Bastrop Park for hiking and enjoying nature. Then, on June 20, they'll hold their monthly potluck/meeting at a member's home.

The activities sponsored by Adventuring Outdoors are cooperative in nature. Individuals participate at their own risk and with the understanding that trip leaders are not to be considered experts. The group depends on the involvement of its members to sponsor activities.

For more information on the group and to get a complete list of activities for June, call (512)445-7116.

MONTROSE SOFTBALL

Houston — The Briar Patch Texans of the Montrose Softball League won the championship at the recent Texas Shootout in Dallas. The Texans beat out the Kansas City team in the competitive division with a score of 9-6 to win the tournament, which was hosted by the Pegasus Softball Association. The New Voice won third place in the open division.

MSL and the Houston Women's Softball League will host a fund-raising event tonight, June 5 at the Magnolia Ballroom. A Casino Night will be held from 7:30 p.m. until 12:30 a.m. Tickets are $10, which entitles you to $2,000 in gaming money. Additional door prizes will be given away every half hour.

The following is the schedule of play for the league this Sunday, June 7:

9 a.m.—Ripcord vs. Voice, 10 a.m.—BRB vs. Gentry (rec), 11 a.m.—EJ's vs. Ripcord, noon—Pacific Street vs. Voice, 1 p.m.—BRB vs. Briar Patch, 2 p.m.—EJ's vs. JR's, 3 p.m.—Fairlanes vs. Pacific Street, 4 p.m.—Montrose Mine vs. Gentry (comp.) and 5 p.m.—JR's vs. Fairlanes.

The public is invited to Tim Hearne Field, 4200 Scotland at Memorial and Waugh. For more information on the league or their fund-raisers, call Ray West at (713)877-8329.

MASSEURS

STATE CERTIFICATION POLICY

Texas law clearly requires that only bona fide, state-certified masseurs can be listed in this category. Therefore, twt policy requires that all masseurs must publish their state-certification number within their advertisement and that a photocopy of their state masseur's license be on file at TWT.

MODELS/ESCORTS

TWT POLICY

Because prostitution is illegal in Texas, state law prohibits the placement in this category of any such ads. Therefore, twt policy stipulates that we will not and cannot knowingly accept any advertisements suggesting solicitation. It's the law. Also, state law prohibits non-licensed massage therapists from using terms such as "massage," "swedish," "acupressure," "Shiatsu," "reflexology," "body rub," "back rub," "body massage" or any term which indicates bodily contact.

OBITUARIES

July 4, 1963 - May 23, 1992

After a courageous fight with cancer, Franz Antony Winters died on May 23, 1992. He had been undergoing chemotherapy treatments in his hometown of Grand Rapids, Michigan since January, 1992. Franz had resided in Houston and Austin and had made a multitude of friends over the years. He graduated from UT in May, 1991 with a BA in Psychology and Sociology. His passing brings a great sense of loss to all those who loved him.

In lieu of flowers, Franz's family has asked that donations be made in his name to the American Cancer Society.

I don't know where the road is going to lead me
All I know is where we've been and what we've been through

If we live to see tomorrow, I hope it's worth
all the pain

It's so hard to say goodbye to yesterday.
Goodbye, Franz

We will never forget you.

(3/5/53 - 6/2/91)

In remembrance of the first year since Bob King's passing, Gregory Demler and Bob's family would like to thank everyone who contributed to Bryan's House. In the fall of last year, a tree was planted in Lee Park in his memory. Although it has been a year, Bob will live on in our hearts and minds. He is and always will be greatly missed.

Died May 22, 1992

On May 22, 1992, Bill Thacker left this world after a valiant battle with AIDS-related lymphoma. He leaves his lifetime companion, Trent Mixon, his devoted dog Buster, a very loving family and a multitude of caring friends. My little leprechaun is dancing with the stars and waiting for me.

Your uniqueness of loving made us look deep into ourselves and see who we really are; helped us to find courage to rise above obstacles; made us find compassion for others when they were down by opening our blinded eyes. You made us laugh in the face of conservative conventionalism and dared us to be different. Your energies were spent on us until there was none left and made everything right for all to the end. From the loved ones you've touched—thank you for being you. We'll cherish you lovingly, forever.

Keep love in your heart,
Joy in your soul,
And at peace with yourself,
And God—

Who so ever you conceive
Them both
To be

Keep the faith
Love, Burt

Sunny Struhall Mekaska
3/14/49 - 3/20/92

Oh, Sunshine,

You brightened our lives with your glowing personality; picked up our defeated heads with a wonderful smile so we could rise again and forget our woes. Your sense of charity, never let us stray from dignity. We'll not forget your making us laugh at ourselves. So when we remember you—it is with the morning sunshine and a knowing, loving smile we'll carry always. Thank you, true friend, loving son, kind brother for your unforgettable glow in our lives. May God bless you eternal in his unquenchable light.

February 18, 1960 - May 15, 1992

Roger was born in Medellin, Colombia and lived in Chico, Memphis and Sacramento where he graduated from high school in 1978. Roger lived in Hawaii; Portland, Oregon; and Los Angeles before moving to Houston in 1989. Roger was employed by Rust Consulting Group in data processing. His co-workers and employers were supportive throughout his illness. Roger moved back to Sacramento in November where he was supported by his mother and a very loving hospice team. Roger's passion for music throughout his life will be remembered by his close friends. Paula Abdul lost one of her great fans! Roger will be missed by his friends in Houston and Los Angeles. He was survived by his mother, Elaine Rees of Folsom, California and his close friend Ken Nations of Houston. Services were held in Sacramento June 1. Memorial contributions may be made to the Roger Rees Charitable Trust, 480 Crestridge Lane, Folsom, CA 95630, for the Sacramento AIDS Foundation.

March 2, 1944 - May 22, 1992

Hank was taken from this in the company of his loved ones. His legacy is one of love, sharing and a daily celebration of life. He leaves in each of us that he touched a fond memory and an appreciation of righteousness. Thanks for the memories.

Let Heaven and nature sing.

Bill D. Pylate

Our friend Bill passed away on February 15, 1992, at the age of 34. He was hospitalized in the VA Hospital in Biloxi, Mississippi and died from complications due to AIDS.

Bill spent most of his adult life residing in Dallas, and is remembered by all of us as a very talented floral designer, along with being a dear friend.

Bill is survived by his life partner Chris Tucker of Houston, and was a devoted father of Chris Pylate (15), Amanda Pylate (11) and Amy Pylate (10). Other survivors include his loving mother Mrs. James Pylate of Columbia, Mississippi.

In loving memory,
Randy Rhew and David Scott
San Jose, California

5/17/59 - 5/24/92

Samuel E. Cox Jr. passed into a peaceful rest at his home in Dallas at 1:55 p.m. on May 24, 1992 after a courageous fight against CMV.

Rob Hensley presided over a graveside burial at Sparkman Hillcrest.

Sam, I love you with all my heart and take my heart with you.

November 9, 1958 - May 26, 1992

Michael passed away on Tuesday, May 26, 1992, following a long and courageous battle with AIDS.

After graduating from the University of Houston, Michael was politically active in the gay and lesbian community. For the past two years, he was a volunteer with Bering Care Center.

Michael's sunny disposition and generous spirit were inspirational to his many friends and family. He will be sadly missed by everyone who knew him.

Michael leaves behind his significant other Steve Mayse and his longtime companion David Fowler, his mother and father, three brothers, one sister and Harvey Milk, his cat.

A memorial service will be held at Rothko Chapel, Sunday, June 7 at 1:30 p.m. Remembrances may be made to the Bering Foundation.

For the loving and compassionate care that Michael received while at Twelve Oaks Hospital, his friends would like to extend their gratitude to the entire staff, especially the seventh floor personnel.

We love and miss you—'til we meet again, Denise Parkin, Peggy De Cora, Steve Mayse and David Fowler.
