MAYOR TODD ATTENDS MCCA DEDICATION

Says Congregation Should Be Proud Of Its Accomplishments.

AUSTIN — Metropolitan Community Church of Austin [MCCA] welcomed approximately 300 members and visitors to dedication ceremonies held at the congregation's new facilities this past Sunday. Mayor Bruce Todd and Clark Friesen, District Coordinator of the South Central District of USMCC were among those in attendance.

In November of 1991, MCCA issued $300,000 in first mortgage bonds, which were sold out by February of this year. MCCA then purchased its new location at 425 Woodward Street, which consists of 2.637 acres and two buildings providing 12,000 square feet of space. The first service at the new location was held on Easter Sunday, April 19.

Under the direction of Rev. Wendy J. Foxworth, the church has grown tremendously during the past two years. Total membership now stands at 194, with numerous friends of the church, as well as non-members, also attending.

Austin Mayor Bruce Todd told the congregation, "You need to be proud of the volunteerism and community involvement that made the dream of this new church become reality. The congregation here at MCC Austin is one that should be proud of its members and the bonding together to get things accomplished."

Many others were recognized at the ceremony for their contributions and hard work.

For more information on MCC Austin and any of the services offered by the church, call the church office at (512) 416-1170.

RAZZLE DAZZLE DALLAS RETURNS TO MARKET HALL NEXT SATURDAY, JUNE 20

*Fourteenth Annual Event
Should Be Largest Ever*

DALLAS — Market Hall will be transformed into the "Land Of Oz" next Saturday, June 20, for the city's largest annual fund-raiser, Razzle Dazzle Dallas.

The most popular attractions from past parties are back, including the disco, the silent auction and the Mr., Miss and Ms. contest finals. Returning this year are the Ruby Slipper Drag Race and gaming in the casino. Entertainment includes the grammy-award winning Dixie Chicks in the C&W dance hall, plus Rayn and the Boys, Jack-O-Pierce and Ann Armstrong & Steve Hughes in the theatre.

Once again this year, chartered buses will run throughout the evening between Oak Lawn and Market Hall, helping to ease the parking congestion for the 8,000-plus people expected to attend this year's event.

Last year's event drew over 6,000 people and raised over $58,000 for ten Dallas-area AIDS charities, bringing the total raised over the past 13 years to more than $350,000.

Razzle Dazzle Dallas, Inc. also presented Dionne Warwick in concert at the Morton H. Meyerson Symphony Center earlier this year as a second annual fund-raiser. That event raised over $32,000, also for Dallas-area AIDS service organizations.

Advance tickets to this year's event are priced at $15 and available through this weekend only at the Crossroads. After Sunday, tickets are $20 and available at An Occasional Piece, Curious Times, Off-The-Street, Union Jack and at Crossroads Market, all on Cedar Springs in Dallas. Tickets are also available at Crossroads Market's new Houston location on W. Alabama.

U.S. DISTRICT COURT RULES FOR DALLAS MAN IN MEDICAL INSURANCE CASE

*Decision May Affect Companies'
Ability to Cancel Coverage of HIV-Positive Policyholders.*

DALLAS — How to meet medical expenses in this age of AIDS is a question that many of us are faced with daily. Insurance companies routinely deny or discontinue coverage for those people who are found to be HIV-positive. A recent legal ruling may affect all that.

The case, Golden Rule Insurance Co. vs. David Smith, was handled for the plaintiff by two Dallas attorneys, Scott Hendler and Tom Owens. They successfully argued that people who are HIV-positive should not be denied health insurance.

Almost five years ago, David Smith tested positive for the HIV virus. After losing his job and health insurance, he applied with Golden Rule Insurance for coverage. The application he filled out asked whether in the last ten years he had had any indication or diagnosis of, or treatment for, a blood abnormality, immune deficiency or sexually transmitted disease.

Smith was advised by medical professionals to answer the questions in the negative, since his HIV status was not covered by the questions on the application. Smith's decision to seek medical professional advice was a key part of his defense.

Golden Rule Insurance accepted Smith's application without further investigation. In September 1989, after 18 months of coverage, Smith inquired whether AZT was covered by the policy. After learning that Smith was HIV-positive, the insurance company filed suit in the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Texas, seeking a declaration that the policy was null and void. The company also charged Smith with deliberately misrepresenting his condition on the application.

The case was tried before a federal jury in U.S. District Judge Sidney Fitzwater's court in March of this year. Dr. Edward Goodman testified that the mere presence of HIV antibody in one's blood constitutes neither a sexually transmitted disease, blood abnormality nor an immune system deficiency. Smith's attorneys also argued that he had made a good faith effort to seek professional medical advice on the issue of his HIV status, and did not intend to deceive Golden Rule.

The jury ruled in Smith's favor. Fitzwater entered a judgment that Smith's policy was in full force and effect from the original date of issue, for as long as he lived. The major medical policy was for one million dollars.

Last week, Judge Fitzwater denied the insurance company's motion to set aside the verdict or to grant a new trial. Golden Rule Insurance Co. now has 30 days from May 26 to file a Notice of Appeal with the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals.

Scott Hendler, with the law firm of Baron & Budd, P.C., and Tom Owens, with the law firm of Akin, Gump, Hauer & Feld, L.L.P., said they believe that the ruling could have a far-reaching effect.

"While the verdict in this case seems 'fact specific,' it has a more far-reaching impact and could influence public policy concerning coverage for persons with AIDS. Insurance companies systematically attempt to avoid coverage for policyholders who develop AIDS because policy nullification is an easy way for insurance companies to avoid paying their full coverage obligation, thereby preserving profits.

"This case stands as living proof that those efforts can be defeated and the rights of one of the most victimized classes of people in America can be protected."

The $5,000 is the first installment of $15,000 the doctors have pledged to the League. Twelve Oaks Hospital has agreed to donate matching funds, bringing the total to $30,000.

Present for check presentation by Houston physicians to AIDS Equity League were [seated, l-r] Dr. Adan Rios, Dr. Gordon Crofoot, League president Ed Bradshaw, League treasurer Claire Koepsel, Dr. Jorge Quesada, and [standing, l-r] Twelve Oaks administrator Wally Ornstein, League members Doug Moon and Brenda Callovet, League corresponding secretary Gene Harrington, Dr. Gary Brewton and League trustee Tim O'Reilly. Harrington told TWT NEWS that the funds would go toward the League's six-month budget beginning in July, which includes plans to rent office space and hire an executive director.

The AIDS Equity League was formed in 1990 to insure that Houston's gay and lesbian at-risk population would have a voice in AIDS funding decisions made at the local government level.

CROSSROADS '92 HONORS THOSE LOST TO AIDS, SURVIVORS

Commemorates 11th Anniversary of First Diagnosed U.S. AIDS Case.

HOUSTON — Last Friday evening, a group of people gathered in a small park on Montrose Blvd. to honor those lost in the fight against AIDS, as well as survivors and care givers.

Dozens upon dozens of crosses, triangles and stars of David, most of them bearing the names of people lost to the disease, were placed along paths of Bell Park on Montrose Blvd.

Emceeding again this year was Houston Chronicle medical reporter Ruth SoRelle, who is believed to have written the first article on AIDS published in the Houston area. SoRelle read statements of support from local elected officials, as well as a message from Mayor Bob Lanier proclaiming Friday, June 5 Crossroads '92 Day.

Among those addressing participants were AIDS educator Bart Loeser and TSU law professor and activist Gene Harrington, who called on the audience to remember the "forgotten" victims of AIDS—women, the poor and other minorities.

Perhaps the most affecting testimony was given by Walter Porter, who recounted how he and his wife had lost their son to AIDS.

Mo Jones, who has lived with HIV for several years, struck a note of defiance in his speech, challenging public officials who prefer to ignore the AIDS crisis.

"We will not go away, will not be quiet.... Despite the wishes of some public officials, I'm not going away anytime soon."

Houston attorney and activist John Paul Barnich was one of organizers for Crossroads '92.

Closing the observance were performances by Heartsong and the Montrose Singers, followed by a candlelight vigil.

Crossroads '92 was organized by activists John Paul Barnich and Claire Koepsel. Donations made to Crossroads '92 will help furnish a waiting area at the Stone Soup pantry's new location on Westheimer.

pay a for-profit agency than allow a group closely associated with the Dallas Gay and Lesbian Alliance, to present the same AIDS information for free.

The AIDS Resource Center was scheduled to present education awareness seminars on three different occasions. The first was to be presented to the Parent-Teacher Association, the second to the school's administration and the AIDS counsel, and the third to junior and senior high school students.

Jamie Schield, Education Manager of the AIDS Resource Center, told TWT NEWS that the center made the first presentation, to the PTA, in March. The second meeting was held on April 9 for the administration, but without the district's sanction. The meetings with the students were never held.

"Religious zealots were originally saying that they wanted no AIDS education in Duncanville, but they changed their approach, and went after the messenger—us!," Schield said. He explained that advance notice was being sent to parents who might not want their children to attend the presentations.

Instead of allowing ARC to do their presentations for free, the Duncanville ISD has hired the Fort Worth-based American Institute for Teen AIDS Prevention. The company, formed two years ago by Duane Crumb, has managed to secure contracts with schools and organizations in 29 states to do educational seminars, for a price. Duncanville is reportedly paying the organization $3,000 to do what ARC was doing at no charge.

The fee for the initial presentation is reported to be $300, with additional presentations on the same day going for an additional $200 each. If brochures are provided, the fee rises to $500. Crumb is now scheduled to do four days of presentations with three assemblies each day, for a total fee of at least $3,200 to the school district.

AIDS Resource Center officials say the primary reason the center was not being allowed to present their program was their close association with the Gay and Lesbian Community Center.

Schield recently sat in on a panel that included Duane Crumb. Schield noted that Crumb's approach was to point to people who have AIDS and HIV as examples and to tell his audience to "learn from their ways and not make their mistakes."

HOUSTON YOUTH GROUP HOSTS EVENING WITH MARY GRIFFITH

A Mother Comes to Terms with Her Late Son's Sexuality.

HOUSTON — The tragic suicide of a young gay man nine years ago has had an ironically positive effect on his mother and, in turn, on those she shares her story with.

Mary Griffith began to realize how important it is for parents to accept their gay and lesbian children after her own son's death. In despair over his inner feelings of isolation and lack of support from family and others, Bobby Griffith committed suicide in 1983.

Mrs. Griffith's religious convictions had led her to believe that her son's homosexuality was wrong, and that he could learn to overcome it. But her outlook began to change soon after his death.

The resident of a small California town some 30 miles from San Francisco, Mrs. Griffith has become one of the most vocal and articulate members of her local chapter of P/FLAG, and serves as its president. She was guest of honor at a reception held at Houston's Hiram Butler Gallery last Saturday. The evening was organized by the Houston Institute for the Protection of Youth, Inc. [HIPY].

Though she no longer attends the same church she belonged to at the time of her son's death, Mrs. Griffith said the experience hasn't turned her against religion per se. Her perspective has changed, however.

"I have found my own spiritual path. Bobby has taught me a lot of things...A lot of horizons have opened up for me.

"I don't want to validate Bobby through the Bible...The fact that Bobby existed was validation enough."

Psychotherapist Bill Scott, who is Clinical Director of HIPY, closed the presentation with an appeal to the community to dig into its pockets and support the organization. He noted that HIPY will be serving both gay and straight young people, but cannot obtain government funding for its services targeted specifically at gays.

"It's terrible that we have to lie in this day and age...We will have to fund our own programs."

HIPY began operations last month, and will provide support and assistance for lesbian, gay and bisexual young people, as well as homeless, runaway and HIV-affected youth. For more information, call (713) 942-YUTH.

TEXAS DEMS REJECT PLAN TO UP GAY DELEGATE NUMBERS

But Community Gets 10 Delegates Or Alternates Statewide; Lovell Wins Executive Committee Spot.

HOUSTON — At their State Convention held last Friday and Saturday, Texas Democrats increased the number of gay and lesbian delegates who will be going to their national convention this summer, but also rejected a rules change under which the party would have made greater efforts to increase gay and lesbian representation.

The plan, put forward by Houston gay community leader and Democratic activist Rob Bridges, would have added gays and lesbians to a set of guidelines under which the party seeks to give other groups like blacks and Hispanics greater levels of representation.

The rules change was voted down in committee 28-5, and the members voting in favor then brought it before the entire convention, where it was again defeated, though by a much smaller margin.

Bridges said that, although the defeat of the proposed rules change was disappointing, he was heartened by the fact that the vote by the whole convention had been close—60%-40% or better.

Sue Lovell of Houston won a position on the State Democratic Executive Committee from Senate District 17, which includes Montrose. Gay & Lesbian Political Caucus President Chris Bacon described Lovell's victory as significant.

"Sue's win was quite a coup for the community, since she ran against a candidate who had very strong backing from the political establishment."

Pat Gandy, also of Houston, ran a very close race to represent District 15 on the Committee, losing by only 11 votes.

Members of Lesbian/Gay Democrats of Texas [LGDT] met Saturday to choose new officers. The organization sponsored a hospitality suite at the Hyatt Regency in conjunction with Charles Armstrong Investments, Inc. and the Ripcord.

COMMENT

Thanks to Basic Brothers

Dear TWT:

I would like to extend a sincere thank you to Basic Brothers and owner Richard Wiederholt for the gift certificate I received as a prize at their tenth anniversary open house.

For years, Mr. Wiederholt and his staff have graciously served the community, not only as a retail outlet, but as a role model for our unity as a community. No one can deny how wonderful it is to have such a business present—a business that not only appreciates our dollars, but also invests back into the community.

Mr. Wiederholt has for many years graciously and selflessly given both his time and financial support to many of our organizations, so that we all may benefit from his success.

As Lesbian/Gay Pride Week approaches, let us all take a moment to celebrate our strengths, take pride in our achievements and remember to support all those who have helped us attain our goals.

A heartfelt thanks to our business community.

Queer National Responds

Dear TWT:

First and foremost, your readers should know that the Houston tribe of Queer Nation is autonomous; we are not connected in any way to other tribes around the country. But just to keep the record straight, the Cracker Barrel would never have gotten away with excluding Jews or Blacks from employment, and I suspect that with the antisemites and white supremacists in this country, such actions would have resulted in a boost in business also.

Queer Nation has succeeded in doing a great deal in Houston, not the least of which is to wake up a very apathetic community. Our history boasts an incredible response to homophobia, hatred and discrimination on a local and national level.

Selective memory is convenient for Mr. Smith ["Whose Side Are They On?," TWT COMMENT, Vol. 18, No. 12], and as a member of Queer Nation, I would like to enumerate some of the Houston tribe's accomplishments.

July 1991—Four days after Paul Broussard's murder, members organized and staged "Take Back the Night," in which 2,000 people were called to the streets to put the city on notice that we would not continue to be victims of hate-related violence without reacting. We networked with HGLPC and other community organizations to have Broussard's murder officially acknowledged for what it was—a hate crime—allowing harsher prosecution.

Gay Pride Week 1991—Queer Nation reminded the community that Houston City Council members did not speak up, as many of them had promised to, for a gay/lesbian council district.

August 1991—Queer Nation protested M.D. Anderson Hospital's response to an operating room technician's disclosure that he was HIV-positive by reassigning him to a purchasing position.

August 1991—Queer Nation hand-delivered nearly 2,000 letters to Gov. Ann Richards and Lt. Gov. Bob Bullock educating them to support the only hate crime bill out of three being considered that included sexual orientation as a protected class. The proper bill passed.

August 1991—Queer Nation responded to the firing of Juan Palomo by the Houston Post for a coming-out article run in the Houston Press. Aligning with the Hispanic community and Palomo's fellow employees, Queer Nation staged a large protest. Juan Palomo was rehired, crediting and thanking Queer Nation for its help.

September 1991—Queer Nation began a boycott of the Greensheet for its refusal to allow the words "gay" and "lesbian" to

VIEWPOINT

Meeting the Needs of Lesbian, Gay and Bisexual Youth

BY JON BOURGAULT

I work at a lesbian and gay bookstore in Houston. Two weeks ago, a young woman came into the store before closing time, in tears. Her parents had just found out she was a lesbian, and had told her that she could no longer live with them. I did my best to comfort her, but there wasn't much I could say. If she couldn't find a friend to take her in, she would probably end up on the streets.

Her situation is not unique. It's faced by thousands of lesbian, gay and bisexual teenagers every year in this nation. One study estimates that 50% of the young people living on the streets of Houston are gay. They're not there because they ran away, but because their parents threw them out.

Homelessness is only one of the problems faced by young gay people. Those who are under 16 can be committed to psychiatric hospitals by their parents. Most young gay people live in fear and isolation. Those who do come out almost always face harassment and violence from schoolmates, and in many cases this harassment is condoned by teachers and administrators. Most alarmingly, studies have shown that gay teenagers are three times more likely to attempt suicide than straight teenagers.

These problems are not new. They've been with us since before the Stonewall rebellion. Yet in the 23 years since Stonewall, only a handful of organizations around the nation have been created to deal with these problems. While thousands of young people were living and dying on the streets, our community has done next to nothing.

We have let the right-wing fanatics, with their accusations of child molesting and recruiting, keep us from helping younger gay people. We've been scared that if we reach out to the younger members of our community, it will seem as if those accusations are true.

We cannot let this fear stop us. Reasonable people in this nation know that the overwhelming majority of child molesters are heterosexual, and that gay people are not recruited. The people who accuse us of such things are going to do so no matter what we do.

Things are looking up for young gay people in Houston. There is finally a social service organization in town that is dedicated solely to meeting the needs of young people, the Houston Institute for the Protection of Youth. Six years ago, there were no youth support groups in Houston. Now there are two, HATCH and SMYAL. In March, the Houston Independent School District offered training, organized by Queer Nation, to junior high and high school counselors on working with lesbian and gay youth.

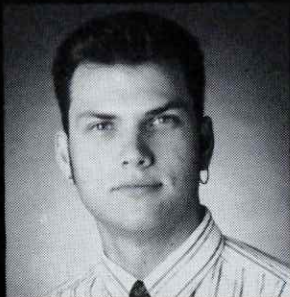

But we still have a long way to go. There is no place for young gay people to turn if they've been kicked out of their homes. There are no safe social spaces where young people can learn to be themselves outside of the bars. No local school district has information about homophobia or the positive contributions of lesbian and gay people in their curricula.

If we're going to improve the lives of young lesbian and gay people, we need all those things and more. However, we won't

Gain Weight Fast!

NUTRALORIC

Nutraloric was developed by a pharmacist for his patients who needed to gain weight. Nutraloric provides up to 35% less carbon dioxide production. This allows for almost a 20% increase in oxygen stores, allowing for less breaths per day. This accounts for calories being used for weight gain and not for breathing harder to eliminate the additional carbon dioxide which has been produced. Nutraloric is ideal for patients with AIDS or emphysema. For more information, call 1-800-851-3663.

achieve any of these things without the dedicated effort of hundreds of lesbian and gay people, working in several different areas. If the people reading this don't get involved, young people will keep dying.

That's why a coalition of community groups is holding a Town Meeting on the Needs of Lesbian, Gay and Bisexual Youth on June 20 at the First Unitarian Church, 5210 Fannin. Registration for the meeting will start at 8:30 a.m., and the meeting will last from 9-4 p.m., with a break for lunch. We will be discussing the needs of the younger members of our community, and plan action items to see that those needs are met.

Now is the time for every lesbian, gay and bisexual person in Houston to start looking at themselves and seeing what they can do to help the younger members of our community. Because it's time to save our children.

Week of June 12-18, 1992

Love gets a strong boost from the Sun and Venus this weekend. Conversations go well with the help of Mercury and Jupiter. People have a good time and luck is everyone's ally.

The Full Moon and its partial eclipse occur in Sagittarius Sunday evening. Great ideas are exchanged. The Full Moon is great for getting things in the open, especially with lovers. The partial eclipse will be visible to Texans beginning at 10:27 p.m., obscuring a maximum 69% of the Moon by 11:57 a.m. and ending at 1:27 a.m.

Mars nudges into Taurus Sunday, remaining there until July 26 and bringing more passion to the likes of Taurus, Capricorn and Virgo, and cooling the heels of Scorpio and, to a much lesser degree, Pisces and Cancer. But Scorpio is inventive and will find a way around this sensually calm six-week period.

GEMINI: (May 21 - Jun 21) An excellent time for commitment and relationships. The Sun in your house of appearances, along with the Full Moon in your house of marriage, make you feel better about yourself and prepare you to share intimate feelings. This transit forces you to deal with reality. This is the last week that Venus, the planet of love, remains in Gemini, so get out and be seen. You're attractive in a mysterious way Thursday night, when you're given an ultimatum. Best day: Saturday.

CANCER: (June 22 - July 22) You're on the verge of finding what and who you want. Remember the old adage "Be careful of what you ask for, because you just might get it." This weekend, romance someone you've had a business relationship with. Your monthly lunar low cycle is on Tuesday and Wednesday, so let lovers or friends sweat the tough stuff. Thursday, keep an open mind and open eyes for romantic opportunities. Best day: Thursday.

LEO: (July 23 - Aug 22) You're a cutup this weekend; you pull people out of their shells and are sometimes the life of the party. Due to the brilliant Sun/Venus aspect occurring in your third house, putting the make on a neighbor could bring mutually satisfying rewards. This occurs shortly before 11 a.m. on Saturday. Over the weekend, you're drawn to intellectual types. Best days: Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

VIRGO: (Aug 23 - Sep 22) You're able to stop being analytical. Virgo likes to be the controlling person in all situations, but there's a deep desire for emotional bondage. In any case, this weekend you're in an upbeat mood and able to talk about what's gratifying. Tuesday and Wednesday, you're focused and in touch with others, but Thursday you find people unyielding. So leave discussions for another day. Best days: Friday, Saturday, Monday and Tuesday.

LIBRA: (Sep 23 - Oct 23) You receive help from the Sun in furthering career goals, and from the Moon in articulating plans. This weekend Venus, your ruling planet, helps you to realize a romantic dream. Outside chores attract another's attention. Mars' move into Taurus takes the blahs out of your sex life. Manuals on lovemaking remind you of the finer aspects of sensuality that you may have missed lately. Emphasis should be on pleasing a partner. Best days: Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

SCORPIO: (Oct 24 - Nov 21) This weekend, you'll find that sex and finances are more intertwined. A receptive attitude makes a partner more responsive. To attract others, don't back down in your beliefs. While it never hurts to appear well off, others will go for that sort of thing now even more than usual. Monday and Tuesday, others see you as fickle and flighty. Mars finds your libido temporarily decreasing, but Venus finds you more attractive. Best day: Wednesday.

SAGITTARIUS: (Nov 22 - Dec 21) This weekend, resolve any conflicts by talking them out. Changes in lifestyle are implemented during June. Saturday afternoon, problems with another Sagittarius or a Cancer could surface. Mars emphasizes old flames and possibly love at first sight until August. Get your financial picture clear. Late night Monday is best for a clandestine romance. Best days: the weekend.

CAPRICORN: (Dec 22 - Jan 19) This weekend, you feel less like being out and about. However, Mars is making you more attractive to people who are quite different from you, but you'll still enjoy it. Sunday, something you previously had reservations about brings you enjoyment. Monday and Tuesday are great for dealing with other gays and lesbians on any level, but avoid dating Thursday. Best days: Monday and Tuesday.

AQUARIUS: (Jan 20 - Feb 18) You get introduced to plenty of interesting, potential partners. If already married, make new friends with couples, but make sure you specify whether your relationship is open; it's easy to give the wrong impression. Mars puts emphasis on privacy; you feel inhibited. Tuesday evening is best for a quiet, intimate dinner. Though Wednesday and Thursday are good days, you're easily misunderstood. The less said the better. Best day: Wednesday.

PISCES: (Feb 18 - Mar 20) Mars may make you feel a bit out of step with others, while it also makes acquaintances more attractive. It also causes a roving eye, so keep a tight rein on desires as judgment is easily impaired. A dream Friday morning gives inspiration and motivation. Tuesday night is the best dating night, preferably with a Capricorn. Don't start new projects Thursday. Best day: Tuesday.

ARIES: (Mar 21 - April 19) This week you become interested in strangers and people Mom warned you to stay away from. At its extreme, people become involved in dangerous situations and liaisons. Monday and Tuesday, the Full Moon makes home your focus. Wednesday, late-night arguments get out of hand. Avoid people who are easily angered or psychotic; they lose control easily. This includes abusive lovers, past or present. Thursday you feel fatigued. Best days: Saturday and Sunday.

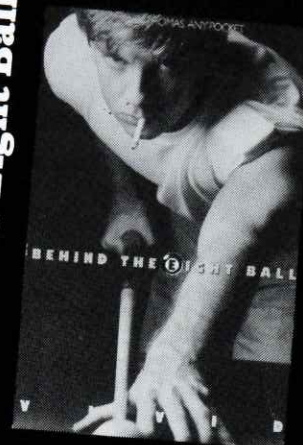

TAURUS: (Apr 20 - May 20) Mars, the passionate planet, enters your first house, making you the one people want to be seen with. On Saturday, the Sun and Venus light up your love life, so the rest of the week you're more likely to play the field. The Full Moon strongly encourages you to take care of health matters until July 14. Lovers get good news Monday afternoon. Best days: Monday and Tuesday.

Next week: Venus moves into Cancer Friday. On Saturday, the Sun follows suit. Summer solstice and longest day of the year.

That's what Friends are for...

Third Annual AIDS Charity Event

On Our Cover: Board members Seth Cortigene, Gail Gerrard, Larry Garrett, Linda Champagne and Wayne Glemser. Not pictured: Wayne Grabein and Jim Walker.

"That's What Friends Are For" was conceived three years ago by Houstonian Larry Garrett who, at the time, served as Mr. TGRA. Mr. Garrett invited his Ms. and Miss TGRA counterparts, Melanie Ashcraft and Bruce Herling (also known as Brucella DuVall), to join him as co-hosts, and what resulted was a grassroots, all-volunteer effort. It culminated on January 29, 1990 at the Tower Theater and raised over $3,300 for the Montrose Clinic, the Bering Foundation, the Montrose Activity Center and the Omega House Building Fund.

As successful as the first event was, Garrett felt driven to make the 1991 effort even bigger. "Dallas has its Black Tie Dinner, and it's highly successful. Why can't Houston do the same thing?" Garrett thought at the time.

And larger the second event was, more than doubling the amount of money raised and benefiting the Colt 45's AIDS TroubleFund, Body Positive Houston, the Montrose Activity Center and TGRA's charities in the amount of more $7,200. Comedian Nancy Ford emceed that year's event, which was held at Rich's.

With this year's income already exceeding $25,000, there's no doubt that "That's What Friends Are For III" will be by far the largest event in the organization's history. This year's proceeds will benefit a diverse group of service organizations, including the Houston Clinical Research Network, the AIDS Mastery Workshop, the Texas Gay Rodeo Association, the Pet Patrol, the Colt 45's AIDS TroubleFund/Stone Soup projects as well as Casa de Esperanza de los Ninos, a group that cares for children with AIDS.

Scheduled to begin at 7:30 p.m. this Saturday evening, June 13, in the Grand Ballroom of Houston's posh Westin Galleria Hotel, this year's event will present former Houstonian Billy Stritch of the renowned vocal group, Montgomery, Plant & Stritch; and the Wiseguys, the former Dallas residents who now headline in New York and across the nation. Other entertainers for the evening include Nancy

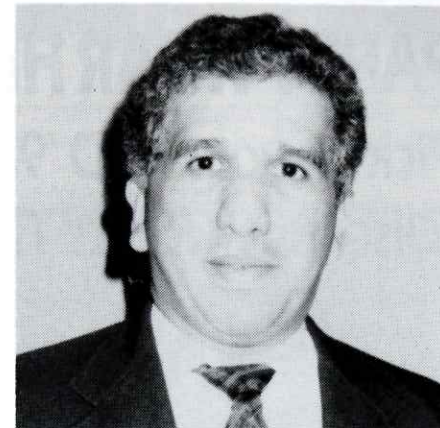

Billy Stritch will headline tomorrow night's "That's What Friends Are For III."

Ford, Atwood & Comeaux, Gail Gerrard, Marsha Carlton, Harlan Holt, Michael Brown, Michael Acord and illusionists Brittany Paige, Dyan Michaels and the legendary Naomi Sims. The evening will be hosted by Lisa Trapani, co-anchor of KTRK-TV's Good Morning, Houston.

Co-honorees for "That's What Friends Are For III" Dr. Adan Rios (above) and Liza Minnelli (below).

Famed AIDS researcher Dr. Adan Rios will be recognized as will co-honoree Liza Minnelli, who, although originally scheduled to attend, will be unable to because of scheduling conflicts. Miss Minnelli will appear via videotape receiving the award, presented in recognition of her efforts in raising AIDS awareness.

July 23, 1957 - April 19, 1992

Mario lost his battle with AIDS at 5:30 a.m. on Easter Sunday in Mexico City. He is survived by his mother and father; brother, Miguel; sisters, Maria and Cecilia; and many friends in Mexico and Houston. He left us with echoes of his laughter and images of his antics. His extraordinary ability to make us laugh at ourselves is now an immortal part of our experience. We, his gay family, will love him and miss him and keep him in our hearts always.

4/22/51 - 1/5/92

It is with deep regret that we announce the passing of John Anthony Guerrero, a previous resident of San Antonio and Austin, to his many friends. John owned John Anthony Designs of Fort Smith, Arkansas for the past five years.

As an interior designer, he left his mark on many and will be long remembered for his talented work and his sweet, loving, fun personality.

He is survived by his companion John Hale and his sisters, Toni James, Trish Bauser and Yvonne Guerrero.

A celebration of John's life was held January 9 at the Bonneville House in Fort Smith. His remains were spread at his parents' grave during the past Fiesta in San Antonio.

Acquaintance to many,
Friend to most,
the best friend to me,
the best a friend could be.
Selfishly missing you more each day,
Painfully I realize the toll you'll no longer have to pay.
Until our paths cross once again,
Love, Jeff (Perry Ellis)

February 9, 1955 - June 5, 1992

Mark grew up in Baltimore and graduated from the University of Maryland. In 1981, he moved to Houston and went to work for the City. He also worked part-time at Marshall Field's Galleria. Mark is survived by his companion of seven years Joe Salas, mother Pauline Swett and daughter Stacy Decker of Baltimore, aunt Dorothy Gerren and cousin Kenneth Edwards of Houston, and sister Barbara Fletcher of Allentown, Pennsylvania. Special thanks to the doctors and staff of St. Luke's Hospital, home care nurse Jim Augsberger, Mark's supervisor Daphne Sands, Cith Health Dept. employees, Field's shoe dept. employees, and friends Mike Shaver, Patrick Newport and Lewis Kauffman. Please make donations to American Cancer Society and AFH. Services were held in Houston and Baltimore, with entombment in Maryland. Mark's quick smile, sharp wit and fierce loyalty will be greatly missed.

Until we meet again
Love, Joe

Above all, Tony was an artist. Not only did he restore beautiful works of art, he also created them. He lived his life like art, spontaneous and free. He will be deeply missed by everyone who knew him, but his inner strength and humor will always be with us. Arrivederci, Tony! Your spirit will live in our hearts forever.

Memorial services will be held at the Rothko Chapel at 4 p.m. Sunday, June 14. In lieu of flowers, donation can be made to the Omega House.

Larry C. Kirk (above)
March 4, 1948 - May 17, 1992

I love you,
Rennie

July 9, 1960 - May 7, 1992

Freddy died peacefully at his home in Harlingen, Texas after his long struggle and battle with AIDS. He obtained an A.A.S. in computer programming at Texas State Technical Institute in Harlingen, Texas. He had lived in Houston for four years with his longtime companion, Marco Segovia (deaf). He worked with Fiesta Mini-Mart for three years.

Sisters Corina, Rosie, Mary Lou and his brother Joey, and especially his mother Dolores; Luis Villarreal, Jame Youngblood, Fiesta Mini-Mart friends and his pets Macho, Honey Bunny and Royal.
