League and its role in the fight against AIDS in Houston.

In his opening remarks, the Mayor described AIDS as a societal problem that must be addressed by addressing the ways in which people treat each other. AIDS Equity League President Ed Bradshaw thanked the Mayor and Mrs. Lanier for hosting the reception, and announced plans for the Elyse Lanier Rose Garden, to be planted on the grounds of Omega House. The rose garden is being funded by League board members.

AIDS Equity League President Ed Bradshaw [c] was among those joining Mayor Bob Lanier [l] and his wife Elyse [r] at reception for League held last Friday evening.

Mrs. Lanier described the firsthand experience she acquired when a close acquaintance fell victim to the disease.

In addition to AEL members, those attending included local gay and lesbian leaders and activists, elected officials and others.

AIDS Equity League board members Alfredo Tijerina [l] and Clair Koepsel [c] joined Houston City Council member Ben Reyes [r] at reception for League held at Mayor Bob Lanier's home. TWT NEWS photos.

The reception is regarded by community leaders as a sign the Mayor will not ignore issues of concern to the gay and lesbian community, which in general supported his opponents in last year's city elections. Pacific Street owner Jay Allen and Neil Sakheim of Carter & Cooley underwrote the expenses for the reception.

The evening served as a kickoff to this past weekend's Pride events, which culminated in the Pride Parade and Rally on Sunday.

DALLAS COUNTY PASSES OVER AIDS RESOURCE CENTER FOR FUND DISTRIBUTION

*Commissioners Choose Bethlehem Foundation as Conduit for

DALLAS — Dallas County Commissioners have done the unexpected. They have rejected a recommendation by the HIV Services Planning Council [HSPC] and designated the Bethlehem Foundation as the agency to distribute funds for rent and utility assistance to people with AIDS.

"The AIDS Resource Center [ARC], the Dallas County Welfare Department and the Bethlehem Foundation had all been considered to distribute Ryan White Title 1 funds for rent and utility assistance," ARC Executive Director John Thomas told TWT NEWS.

"The proposal review committee had unanimously recommended to the HSPC that the AIDS Resource Center be chosen to disperse the $172,000 in government funds. The HSPC had in turn unanimously recommended to the County Commissioners that the [AIDS Resource] Center be named. Now, for the first time, they have disregarded the people they appointed and who have studied the issue in great detail."

The original proposal, to name ARC as the agency to distribute the money, was never voted on. An alternate proposal, actually a substitute motion, recommended the Dallas County Welfare Department. That motion was defeated. The second motion was to name the Bethlehem Foundation, and it passed.

Of the five Commissioners, John Wiley Price was in favor of choosing a minority-centered service agency. Commissioner Jim Jackson did not want an openly gay-centered agency to distribute the funds. Chris Semos was out of town, so that left only Nancy Judy and Lee Jackson. The votes of three Commissioners out of a possible five are needed for a proposal to pass.

Thomas said intake sites had been designated within the communities of south and west Dallas to facilitate the distribution of money in the event the AIDS Resource Center was chosen. Now, no such

GREATER HOUSTON AIDS ALLIANCE TO FILL BOARD POSITION

Community Groups Holding Election to Choose Representative For Nonmedically Indigent Seat.

HOUSTON — The AIDS Equity League, Body Positive Houston and the People With AIDS Coalition/Houston have announced they will be holding an election to refill the alternative nonmedically indigent position on the Greater Houston AIDS Alliance Board.

Self-nominations will be accepted either in person or by mail at 1475 West Gray, #163, Houston, TX 77019. Nominations must be submitted by Thursday, July 9, 1992. No exceptions will be permitted.

Each nomination must be accompanied by a written statement of interest and a list of reasons the candidate feels he or she can make a contribution to the GHAA board. A short biography and proof of non-medically indigent status must also be attached.

The election will be held on Saturday, July 11, at the Metropolitan Multi-Service Center from 11 a.m.-1 p.m. Candidates will be available to meet with the community from 10 a.m.-11 a.m.

Voting in the election is open to all. The candidate receiving the most votes will become the alternate nonmedically indigent representative on the GHAA board. A majority is not required to win. The winner will be announced immediately following the election.

Representatives from the AIDS Equity League, Body Positive, the PWA Coalition and the Greater Houston AIDS Alliance will be present throughout the entire election.

As part of the duties of the office, the newly elected representative should be prepared to attend all GHAA board meetings to stay informed.

The person elected will be announced at the GHAA board meeting to be held in August.

For more information, call the PWA Coalition at (713)522-5428.

'LAMBDA WEEKLY' CELEBRATING 10TH BIRTHDAY IN AUGUST

Miss KNON Pageant, Paul Lekakis Performance Among Summer Benefits Supporting North Texas' Only Gay/Lesbian Radio Program.

DALLAS — "We have some very exciting things coming up this summer, as we approach the start of our tenth year in late August," Bill Travis told TWT NEWS. Travis, along with Alonso Duralde, hosts the Lambda Weekly program heard on radio station KNON 89.3 FM.

The program airs each Sunday afternoon from 2-4 p.m., and features news about events in the gay and lesbian community. Political leaders both within and from outside the community are given a forum for expressing their viewpoints. The show also provides a stage for gay and lesbian performers to entertain.

"This Way Out," a 30-minute nationally distributed program produced in Los Angeles, airs during the Lambda Weekly time period. Travis said "This Way Out" is heard on affiliate stations all over Europe, Australia and the U.S. It features news of national interest, and is heard on Top 40 radio formats in the United States.

"We are the only radio program in the North Texas area that is directed towards gays and lesbians," Travis said. "Our listening range goes from as far north as the Sherman/Dennison area, to south of Waco and west of Fort Worth. We are told that anywhere from 5,000-10,000 people listen to us weekly."

Benefits for the radio program coming up this summer include a performance by Rayn at Monopoly, 907 N. Harwood, on July 15. Paul Lekakis will sing at the Wave on July 25 at 11 p.m. Travis said organizers are trying to arrange an autograph party with Lekakis earlier in the day, at a location to be announced later. In August, David Diebold will be perform at the Wave.

"We are also very excited about the Miss KNON Pageant, to be held on September 18 at the Blue Parrot," Travis said. "Already we have over $4,000 in prizes to

HOUSTON LAWMAKERS, COMMUNITY MEMBERS HOLD ROUNDTABLE

Meet Provides Participants Chance To Get Acquainted, Talk Issues.

HOUSTON — Last Wednesday, members of the gay and lesbian community had a chance to meet with some of the people who represent them in the state Legislature. The lawmakers came away with a clearer picture of an important part of their constituency, and their constituents may now have a better idea how to influence the political process for gay and lesbian issues.

Coordinating the discussion was LGRL Executive Director and lobbyist Laurie Eiserloh.

Legislators present for the discussion included State Reps. Debra Danburg, Mario Gallegos, Garnet Coleman and Ken Yarbrough, State Senators John Whitmire and Rodney Ellis, as well as first-time state House candidates Diana Davila and Scott Hochberg.

After introductory remarks by Eiserloh and each of the lawmakers, audience members were invited to make comments and ask questions. Topics brought up for discussion included domestic partnership legislation, spousal abuse, the status of Section 21.06, gay and lesbian youth, and laws concerning transgender people and name changes.

Eiserloh said the meeting was important because it brought legislators and their constituents face to face. "It helped to give a human side to our issues, for them [legislators] to see the issues represented by actual people talking with them... It really does help them put names and faces together, and they remember that."

The Houston roundtable was one in a series of such meetings that Eiserloh is conducting around the state. A similar meeting was held in San Antonio a few weeks ago, and more are planned for other cities.

The Houston meeting, sponsored by

LGRL, the AIDS Equity League, the Houston Gay & Lesbian Political Caucus and Queer Nation, was also billed as a Pride Week Event.

Eiserloh said such gatherings aid her in her job as the lobbyist for gay and lesbian issues at the state Capitol. "It helps for the legislators to see the lobbyist with a big group of gay and lesbian constituents from their area."

"I think the roundtable went very well, and can serve as a model for this type of meeting."

MCA INC. BECOMES MISS CAMP AMERICA FOUNDATION

*Organizers Say New Status
Should Help Them Raise More
Funds for Nonprofit Groups.*

HOUSTON — MCA, Inc., which produces an annual parody of the Miss America Pageant held in Atlantic City, has reorganized and applied for 501(c)(3) tax-exempt status. Organizers say they hope the new status will help the organization, now known as the Miss Camp America Foundation, in its efforts to raise funds for Houston-area charities.

John Cox, in charge of community affairs for the Foundation, told TWT NEWS that the group has reorganized and incorporated in the state of Texas as a nonprofit foundation.

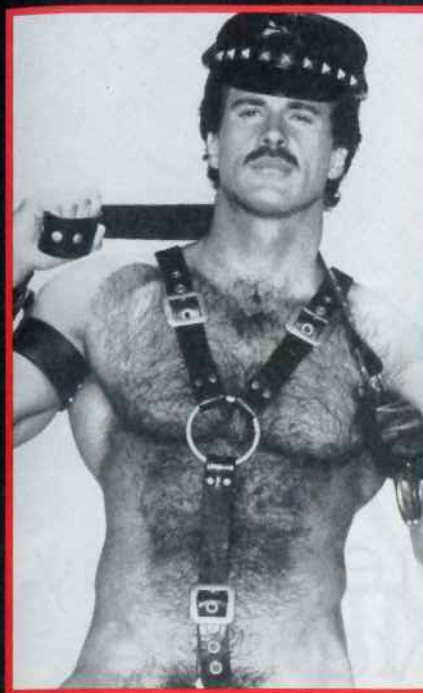

"As a private foundation, our main purpose will be to raise monies for charitable organizations, especially local AIDS-related charities. Our designated charities for 1992 are The Assistance Fund, the Colt 45's and the Pet Patrol."

Cox said the 24th annual Miss Camp America Pageant has been scheduled for September 19 at 8 p.m. at Houston's Music Hall. The theme chosen for this year's Pageant is "Les Dames, Les Dames, Les Dames." The gala will feature the fabulous aquatic effects of "Dancing Waters" of New York.

This year's Pageant, which kicks off the organization's Silver Anniversary year, will culminate with the crowning of the 25th Miss Camp America. For ticket information, call (713)520-STAR, or write to the Miss Camp America Foundation at P.O. Box 742, Bellaire, TX 77402.

THRF Thanks Miss Charity America Pageant

Dear TWT:

We are writing on behalf of the Texas Human Rights Foundation [THRF] to express our sincere thanks to all those who helped make the Miss Charity America Pageant, held June 17 at the Round-Up in Dallas, such a success. All the proceeds from the event went to THRF and our lawsuit challenging Section 21.06.

Special thanks to Patti Le Plae Safe, John Michael Gordon, Tom Davis, Tom Sweeney and all the staff at the Round-Up (especially the bartenders), Valerie Lohr, Razzle Dazzle Dallas and, of course, the contestants.

Thanks for making the evening so special, especially you, Patti!

Dear TWT:

Dallas is an incredible city full of incomparable people. I want to thank you for the support you have given me during these last six years, because a dollar can't be raised to fight AIDS without you. You make the difference. Please continue to be the best role models you can be, and set good examples for our gay and lesbian youth. They are watching closely and desperately need our support.

As I look back over this past year, I feel so lucky to know such great friends. I feel like I reached out to you and you gave your all. It means more to me than anything in the world that you can call me your friend and that I can say the same. Life is worth living because of you. Reach for all your dreams they are yours for the taking—I will help you!

I was lucky to share my crown with the highest title holders in America. B.J., National Lady of the Year, you stand taller than I, dear; I look up to you. And Mr. Gay All-American John Gordon, my best friend, what can I say? You have all my love forever.

I will always be proud that I was your Miss Razzle Dazzle Dallas. Thank you for supporting Razzle Dazzle Dallas this year. We all had a spectacular time with each other, didn't we? I clicked my heels 3 times.... Some day I will let it be a memory, but for now I will hang on to this fabulous sensation. You guys watch me, I am on my way to the top. Before I say goodbye, remember: whatever you do to make it safe in bed, make your love real and you will have love. Play safe forever!

Rubberly yours!

Customers' Safety Is Club Owner's First Concern

Dear TWT:

I would like to make public a situation that occurred on Friday, June 12 at JR's Bar and Grill-Houston. A very sick and emotionally disturbed individual discharged some type of chemical agent in the restroom area of the Santa Fe Bar, and then again in the front area of JR's. This is the second time that this depraved sociopath has subjected innocent customers of JR's to his or her twisted form of terrorism.

On Thursday, June 25, this individual struck again, this time at Heaven during the evening's Deee-Drage Show. This person tends to discharge his or her hand-held chemical agent in the area around the restrooms.

As a gay businessman, I work hard to create an environment that is comfortable, fun, entertaining and safe for all members of our community and their friends. By making this incident public, I hope to accomplish three things. First, I want to ensure the safety of all of my customers by stopping these incidents with the apprehension of this person. Secondly, I want all of our guests at JR's Bar and Grill-Houston and Heaven to be informed and to please report any suspicious behavior to management. The safety of all of our guests is always our greatest concern. And finally, I want to offer a $1,000 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the depraved individual responsible for these terrorist acts. If you see anyone with a suspicious item cupped in their hand, please immediately notify management. It only takes a second to squirt this chemical agent, then flee out the door. If anyone knows this person, it will only take a phone call, and you may be in for a $1,000 cash reward.

If you have any information as to the identity of the individual responsible for these terrorist acts, please contact Mr. John Freund at Charles Armstrong Investments, Inc. (713/521-0193), Mr. Richard Hebert, Editor, THIS WEEK IN TEXAS magazine (713/527-9111) or Crime Stoppers (713/222-TIPS). The individual responsible needs psychiatric help. Please assist us in helping this individual get the professional attention that he or she needs.

Glad to Be in Dallas

Dear TWT:

My life partner and I would like to say thank you to the communities and businesses of the Dallas/Fort Worth area for making our adjustment to big-city life so very comfortable. Recently we moved to Arlington and we were apprehensive about the atmosphere of the gay community and the fast pace of the big-city lifestyle.

The community has welcomed us as part of their own; the shop owners, bars, restaurants and all of the other wonderful businesses have been more than accommodating to both of us.

We have visited Dallas on many occasions and have had many good times—this past weekend during Razzle Dazzle Dallas 92 was one of the best! To see the community interact with itself while having a great time, and doing their part to help others, and in such a relaxed manner, reminded us of being back home. We are both very glad that we are now located in the Dallas/Fort Worth area, not only for the new-found friends that we have made, and the new businesses that cater to the gay community, but also to be able to interact with a community that has so much pride and self-respect.

We are looking forward to many happy years in the Dallas/Fort Worth area, and we know that they will be because of all the wonderful people of the gay community. Our hats are off to all of you, with the deepest of respect and warmest loving thoughts and admiration.

American teens.

On Club MTV—one of MTV's special programs best described as similar in format to American Bandstand or Soul Train, but for people with shorter attention spans—a gay male couple dancing together last week got a lot of camera time.

That was a one-time treat, perhaps, but on MTV's 13-week docudrama The Real World, which features the real lives of seven young people living together in a fabulous Soho loft, one of the seven is Norm, who is apparently either gay or bisexual. Reports are that he's adorable and ambitious—he's the head of his own design firm—and that he's just as wacky as his (presumably) heterosexual roommates.

What about lesbians? Well, I'm sure most everyone remembers the controversy surrounding Madonna's homoerotic video "Justify My Love," which was banned from MTV in 1991. It would be a step forward, then, if the lesbian kiss which appears in the recent Siouxsie & the Banshees video "Fear of the Unknown" had made it onto the MTV airwaves. Too bad it doesn't appear in the version of the video currently showing on MTV. But readers can thank Siouxsie for putting it in in the first place.

To make a statement concerning the kiss that was left out of the MTV version, write to Siouxsie and the head of her record company, David Geffen, at Geffen Records, 1755 Broadway, New York, NY 10019, or call (212)841-8600.

Readers can also write to MTV and insist that same-sex kissing and other homoerotic images remain in the versions of music videos shown on MTV. Let them know that lesbian and gay people are watching and we want more. To encourage the inclusion of diverse lesbian, gay and bisexual people in all aspects of MTV's programming, and to stress the positive effect that lesbian and gay visibility on MTV could have on lesbian and gay teens, readers can write to Tom Freston, CEO; MTV; 1515 Broadway; New York, NY 10036.

"GLAAD Tidings" is written by members of the Gay & Lesbian Alliance Against Defamation, Inc., a nationwide organization which monitors media coverage of lesbians and gay men. To report on such coverage in Texas, contact GLAAD/Dallas at P.O. Box 190712, or call (214)526-4523.

Week of July 3-9, 1992

The Moon in Virgo casts a watchful eye over this weekend, emphasizing health. Cruising becomes more cautious as people tend to play safer and are less likely to overindulge. Friday night, avoid ultimatums as illusions about love are shattered easily.

On July 4, by day the Moon makes it pleasant for recreation and love, and by late night for sex.

On Sunday, others respond slowly at first to romance, which can become overwhelming for them. If going out with someone, be careful not to be suffocating and the day will end on a harmonious note.

On Monday, people do unexpected and aggressive things, and they'll say they did them for love. Don't respond with your first impulse, as everyone is ultrasensitive. That evening, the First Quarter Moon allows stability to get the upper hand.

Tuesday, little goes as anticipated as plans get waylaid. On Wednesday, desires are more intense, and on Thursday emotional storms rule the day.

CANCER: (June 22 - July 22) Sexual energy is up, and mentally you're at your best. All you need is a little confidence, which you should find easily since Venus is in your sign until July 13, making you more attractive and alluring. Sunday, make sure everything is out in the open with loved ones, as small tiffs in love could lead to larger rifts. Best days: Saturday, Wednesday and Thursday.

LEO: (July 23 - Aug 22) Finances and romance continue to mesh, with the usual dangers, as Venus, the planet of love, is still in your house of money. On Tuesday, your ruler, the Sun, brings some challenges and opposition with friends, but stay on a predictable course. Thursday, you may be in over your head in a situation when all you need to do is ask for help. Best day: Monday.

VIRGO: (Aug 23 - Sep 22) This can be a great weekend if you brush aside all thought of work, settle back and get rid of routine. It's also a time to evaluate yourself psychologically and see if there are areas of your life that are too stressful to continue. Your attention to externals may not be as keen as usual later this week; errors occur. After Monday, the rest of the week is unusually restful. Best days: Friday and Saturday.

LIBRA: (Sep 23 - Oct 23) You get away with less tact this weekend, but all next week you're filled with diplomacy. On Friday, you could make an unwise decision concerning love. Wait until Friday evening, when the situation becomes clearer to you. Due to the fact that the First Quarter Moon is in your sign, the rest of the week is carefree. Disregard inner turbulence on Thursday. Best days: Monday and Tuesday.

SCORPIO: (Oct 24 - Nov 21) Decisions made Friday night are faulty, and done without merit or with little thought to the few facts at your disposal. Wait until Wednesday, when Mercury, the planet of communication, gives you clearer insight. This weekend, the Moon in Virgo leaves you with much thinking to do about advice received in the past but pertaining to the present. Best days: Wednesday and Thursday.

SAGITTARIUS: (Nov 22 - Dec 21) You find yourself pressured by the coming week. Petty jealousies abound and don't deserve an answer. The First Quarter Moon accents relationships that you haven't been in for sometime, reviving the memories and lessons of those experiences together. Date on Thursday in anticipation of the good weekend that will follow. Best day: Wednesday.

CAPRICORN: (Dec 22 - Jan 19) The Moon in Virgo this weekend brings many strangers and compelling thoughts into your life. You're attracted to those who give you new direction, and bored with those who lack it. But Tuesday, you seek solitude to sort out conflicting messages. Any sort of exercise will put you back in touch with yourself mentally and socially. Best day: Saturday.

AQUARIUS: (Jan 20 - Feb 18) The weekend prepares you for your best day of love on Sunday. What starts off in conversation could end in bed; so don't disregard potential lovers, particularly the wiser. Passion runs deep beginning Sunday. Look to Aries for relief. It's important to realize how much control you have in all situations this week, due to planetary aspects. Best day: Monday.

PISCES: (Feb 18 - Mar 20) This weekend, you may be out of sync with the rest of the gay and lesbian community, but that shouldn't discourage you as you are intuitive. Venus lends a helping hand by being in another water sign like yours. So with a little thought and prodding, this could be one of your better weekends. The rest of the week brings new opportunities and expansion in the areas of philosophy and higher education. Best days: Wednesday and Thursday.

ARIES: (Mar 21 - April 19) Allow yourself to get involved in an uncharted relationship, one that you can chalk up to experience. You can work out positions later. This week is reflective and you'll learn much more about your patterns of loving. Changes in attitudes are essential to keeping current relationships fresh. Monday gives you a new perspective. On Wednesday, there is an extra dose of reality, but a Mars/Neptune aspect in early evening aids resolution of difficulties. Best day: Monday.

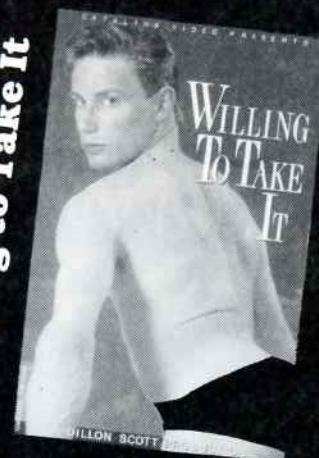

TAURUS: (Apr 20 - May 20) The weekend begins on an unharmonious note and you may feel restricted and out of step with your peers. Meeting new people alleviates some concerns. You also turn your attention toward others and their well-being. On Sunday, Venus, your ruling planet, bestows a long-overdue change, giving you a much-needed psychological boost. Best days: Friday and Saturdays.

GEMINI: (May 21 - Jun 21) You're still feeling drained from transits and aspects with Mercury, your planetary ruler. If you feel left out of others' plans, ask for an explanation. It's not that others are misreading you, just that they feel left out. This week gives you the chance to catch up with both new and old gossip and just generally become one of the gang again. Love begun now is different because you're the last one to expect it. Best days: Monday and Tuesday.

Next week: Venus enters romantic Leo. Full Moon in Capricorn focuses expectations on career.

On Our Cover PATRICK PLAIN of Dallas

This 32-year-old Pisces has lived in Dallas for the past 10 years. Patrick has spent most of his time in Dallas working as a chemist, spending his free time traveling the world as much as possible. Experiencing the different cultures has been influential in his decision to change to a career in nursing.

"Seeing the world has forever broadened my view of life. There is so much beauty and diversity, but also pain. I want to do my part to ease that suffering, beginning in our community. Going back to school after 10 years is tough, but I am positive that I've made the right choice."

Patrick stays very busy with his studies and freelance graphic design projects, but enjoys biking, workouts, movies and dancing.

"I like the positive energy expressed in club dance music."

Recently, Patrick has entered the realm of country & western dancing, though he says, "I have yet to pass Two-Step 101!"

HOG EVENTS

Houston — The Houston Outdoor Group [HOG] is planning a trip to the Guadalupe River. Canoers, kayakers and tubers will challenge the river's 60-degree water for a weekend of fun and frolic. Members will camp at New Braunfels from July 10-12.

On Saturday, July 18, HOG hits the trail for a day of horseback riding. They'll meet at the Heather Hollow Stables, located an hour outside of Houston, for Western-style riding. Lessons for novices will be available.

Then, on the evening of July 18, the HOG monthly social will be held. This is a great way to get to know the HOGs and learn more about their upcoming events. Everyone is welcome.

For more information, call the HOG line at (713)K-A-M-P-O-U-T (526-7688).

GAY SKATE NIGHT

Houston — The next lesbian and gay skate night is this Monday, July 6. The music by deejay Nora and the superb conditions of the Trade Winds Roller Rink floor have been credited for the success of the new skate night. The Trade Winds is also a good place to practice with rollerblades. A pair can be rented at the Montrose Skate Shop (528-6102).

The cost for skate night is only $5, which includes skates. The doors open at 7:30 p.m. and the fun lasts until 10:30 p.m. The Trade Winds is located at 5006 West 34th Street at Hwy 289, next to K-Mart.

JAMES A. PARISI MARCH 27, 1956 – JUNE 21, 1992

James Parisi was a native of St. Louis, Missouri. He moved to Dallas in 1980, where he resided at the time of his death.

He earned a Bachelor of Music degree from Southern Illinois University and, in 1978, moved to Europe after receiving a scholarship from the Belgian Ministry of Dutch Culture. After graduation, he remained in Belgium to continue his studies. In 1979, James returned to the United States and served as Assistant Organist at Christ Church Cathedral in St. Louis, where he went on to work as interim Director of Music as well as Associate Choirmaster. Moving to Texas in 1980, James began his graduate studies at Southern Methodist University, where he earned a Master of Sacred Music degree as well as a Master of Music degree with an emphasis on choral conducting. He most recently served as organist and Music Director for St. Elizabeth's Catholic Church in Dallas.

He worked as a credit representative for The Dallas Morning News until the time of his death on Sunday, June 21 at Baylor University Medical Center in Dallas. He was 36.

Following memorial services in Dallas, James was buried at Resurrection Cemetery in St. Louis. He is survived by his mother, Edith Brinkley of Sun City, Arizona; sister, Jacqueline Lawrence; brother, Vincent Parisi; niece, Lauren Portell, all of St. Louis; and his beloved nephew, Jeffry Portell of Dallas.

At the family's request, memorials should be made to AIDS Services of Dallas or the Nelson-Tebedo Clinic.

He was President of the Houston Gay and Lesbian Political Caucus in 1984. Norman worked in political campaigns over the last 12 years. He was a member of numerous organizations in the gay community.

Survivors include his mother, Dorothy Guttman; sister and brother-in-law Dena and Norman Wolfisch; nephew and wife, Robert and Karen Gray; numerous cousins and close friends, David Fowler, Chris Dorman, Denise Parkin, Bruce Wolfe and many, many others.

Special thanks to Dr. Gary Brewton and the Seventh Floor staff at Twelve Oaks Hospital for their love and support. A memorial service will be held on July 8 at 7 p.m. at Temple Emanu El, 1500 Sunset Blvd. in Houston. Donations in Norman's name may be made to the Assistance Fund, 2476 Bolsover, #455, Houston, TX 77005. We love and miss you—'til we meet again, David Fowler, Denise Parkin and Chris Dorman.

May 20, 1957 – May 15, 1992

Chris Alan McGonagle, 34 years of age, passed away peacefully at his home in Washington, D.C. on Friday afternoon, May 15. Chris died of complications associated with AIDS. His parents, Jean and George, were at his side when he passed.

Chris was born in Canton, Ohio and was a graduate of Ohio State University; a true Buck-eye fan. He moved to Dallas in 1982 from Columbus, Ohio to join his lover Peter Giura, who also relocated to Dallas in '82 from NYC where they met. Chris and Peter were an item for 7 years. Chris was relocated to Washington D.C. in 1989 with his company, MCI, to enhance his career as a corporate training specialist. Chris was active in HIV-positive/AIDS support groups in Dallas and D.C.

Chris was loved by all. You could count on him being the life of the party. He was a very people-oriented person who loved to travel and enjoyed the outdoors, and he especially loved spending quality time with his family and many friends.

Chris is survived by his parents, of Fairfield Glade, Tennessee; his sister Patrice; two brothers, Mike and Kevin; and many friends, including his special friend Peter Giura of Dallas. Our beloved Chris will be deeply missed. He will live on forever in many of our hearts.

A memorial service was held on May 21 in Washington, D.C. and a mass of resurrection on June 19 at St. Francis of Assisi Catholic Church in Fairfield Glade. His ashes will be interred at the church's columbarium.

Contributions in Chris' name may be made to the Whitman-Walker Clinic, 1407 S. St. NW, Washington, DC 20005.

John Paul Jackson

John Paul Jackson, 44, passed away April 9, 1992 in Jacksonville, Florida after an extended time with AIDS. John lived the majority of his life in Dallas and Houston before moving to Jacksonville five years ago to work for Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Florida as a Human Resource Consultant. John was a graduate of Baylor University and a lifetime member of the Phi Mu Alpha fraternity.

John's most enjoyment came in helping his fellow man in recovering from alcohol and drugs as a volunteer for more than 12 years. Friends request memorials be made to the Houston AIDS Foundation or memorials of your choice.
