WACO MAN CLAIMS DISCRIMINATION OVER HIV STATUS

*Says He Was Fired from Job as Waiter after Employer Learned
He Was Infected with Virus.*

WACO — Just a few days before the employment discrimination provisions of the Americans with Disabilities Act were to go into effect, a Waco man was fired in what appears to have been a case of discrimination against him based on his HIV status.

David Walker, who is gay, had worked as a waiter at the local Ryan's Family Steak House for a month. He says he was informed Friday, July 17 that he was being let go. His last actual work day was the following Wednesday, July 22. The restaurant is part of a nationwide chain with locations in 20 states.

Walker says he has known he is HIV-positive for over three years but has not yet suffered any AIDS-related infections. He says his HIV status came to the attention of his immediate supervisors and Ryan's corporate headquarters in Greer, South Carolina, apparently at the same time. When questioned by his superiors, he acknowledged that he was HIV-positive, and his manager told him the manager would have to notify the corporate office.

Walker told TWT NEWS his manager then informed him that Ryan's home office had already learned of Walker's HIV status, and told the Waco restaurant that his employment was to be terminated immediately.

According to Walker, his immediate superiors told him they were reluctant to fire him because they were very satisfied with his work. He says his employers were so happy with his job performance that he was helping train new employees at the time of his firing.

Walker says he was told by Randy Hart, Vice-President of Human Resources for Ryan's that the company had determined it was within its legal rights to fire him, and that other employees had previously been terminated for being HIV-positive.

Walker says Hart justified his dismissal by citing potential problems with co-workers and restaurant patrons if he had been allowed to stay on the job.

Walker insists that while on the job he was never blatant about being gay, but also made no attempt to hide it. He added that he sometimes wore a small pink triangle on his work uniform.

The job discrimination provisions of the Americans with Disabilities Act went into effect on Sunday, July 26, less than two weeks after Walker found out he was losing his job. He says he believes the timing of his dismissal was not coincidental.

Calls placed by TWT NEWS to Hart at Ryan's Family Steak House's headquarters in South Carolina were not returned.

LGRL RESTRUCTURES IN FACE OF BUDGET SHORTFALL

*Lobby Taking Steps to Assure
For Upcoming Legislative Session.*

AUSTIN — Facing a budget shortfall, the Board of Directors of the Lesbian/Gay Rights Lobby [LGRL] voted last Saturday to eliminate the staff position of development director. The positions of full-time lobbyist and executive director are unaffected by the move.

"The efforts of the Lobby must go on," Board co-chair Pat Gandy of Houston told TWT NEWS of LGRL's intention to maintain a strong gay and lesbian presence at the state Legislature in spite of the cost-cutting. "We have to get lean and mean."

Gandy added that the Lobby would be looking for other ways to cut costs, and is conducting a direct-mail appeal for financial support.

LGRL has till now been staffed by an Executive Director, who also served as the lobbyist, by a development director and by part-time staffers. The development position had been in place for six months with a requirement for review at this time.

In a statement released Monday, State Rep. Glen Maxey said, "LGRL's highest priority over the next nine months should be maintaining a full-time lobbyist in Austin. This session is critical in our efforts to repeal Sec. 21.06 of the penal code, pass hate crimes legislation, and deal with AIDS and women's health care funding and policy.

"As difficult as this decision was for the entire board, it seems to be the best fiscally responsible action to be taken to assure uninterrupted efforts on the primary responsibility of keeping a gay/lesbian presence at the Legislature."

LGRL has also begun taking steps to restructure its board of directors to insure a broader base of representation across the state. In an effort to strengthen board communication and administration of LGRL, the board will in the near future hold a comprehensive strategic planning meeting. This plan will be developed and adopted in the next six months.

INTERNATIONAL AIDS CONFERENCE: POLITICS AND HOPE

*Dallas' John Thomas Believes
U.S. Gov't Relieved Gathering Was Not Held In This Country.*

DALLAS — The Bush administration may have breathed a sigh of relief as the eighth annual International Conference on AIDS convened in Amsterdam recently. John Thomas said he believed moving the event from Boston to the Dutch city put distance between the focus on AIDS and the current U.S. administration. The Executive Director of Dallas' AIDS Resource Center just returned from the weeklong conference.

"The move from Boston to Amsterdam was not in the best interests [of the fight against AIDS]," Thomas said. "The administration was not forced to face the AIDS issue because the event was not at their back door." The conference site was moved this year because of objections to American policy on immigration and PWAs.

Thomas said many of those attending the conference believed the event has become too political, and should be reserved for physicians and researchers.

"In the early years, researchers held their findings until they were published in the medical journals, or until the conference," Thomas explained. "The activists fought to change this. 'If something is not effective, tell us now,' they in effect argued, 'because we want to know now. We don't have time to wait.' I think it's healthier that research has been affected in this way by the activists," Thomas added.

Thomas said that much discussion at the conference also focused on the impact of multiple losses in the gay and lesbian community, with comparisons being made to the effects of post-Vietnam traumatic syndrome.

"In San Francisco, people now say, 'I don't have the virus yet.' The prevailing attitude is that if you don't have it, something is wrong with you—sort of a survivors' guilt syndrome," he explained.

Thomas said he believed that HIV education efforts should focus on targeting sexual behavior per se rather than on sexual identity. He said that too many lesbians and heterosexual men still disregard the transmission message because they don't identify themselves as members of high-risk groups.

Thomas cited a study involving a group of PWAs in San Francisco who tested positive over 12 years ago, of whom 35 percent have yet to develop a single opportunistic infection. He said people needed to be made aware of such encouraging news, and learn how to live with HIV rather than giving up.

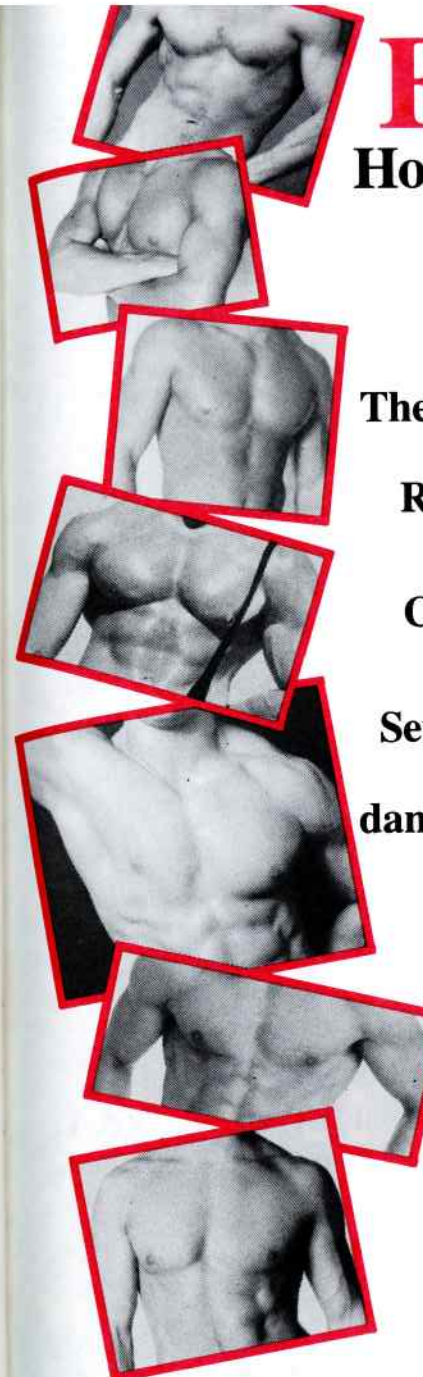

"In Amsterdam, where the age of sexual consent is 12 years old, there is a very high compliance with safe sex practices. Not one person I spoke with witnessed a single incidence of unsafe sex. And this is in a country that is very open about sex, with backroom bars, brothels and sex workers," he added.

CONFERENCE ON TRANSGENDER ISSUES THIS MONTH IN HOUSTON

*Aug. 26-30 Meet to Include
Legal Study Committees,
Featured Judicial Speakers.*

HOUSTON — What is being billed as the First International Conference on Transgender Law and Employment Policy will be held in Houston later this month.

Attorney Phyllis Randolph Frye, who is organizing the conference, told TWT NEWS the gathering will kick off with a cocktail party hosted by the Bar Association for Human Rights [BAHR] at the Courthouse Club in downtown Houston on Wednesday, August 26.

Thursday and Friday, nine committees will meet to study transgender issues as they relate to specific areas of the law. Qualified attorneys will moderate the committees, which will make reports to the conference on transgendered persons and housing, insurance, probate, health, discrimination, criminal law, family law, employment and the military.

Four judges are scheduled to address the conference. The Thursday, August 27 luncheon will be addressed by the Honorable Eric Andell, Judge of the 315th Family District Court in Harris County. Judge Andell is knowledgeable on transgender issues.

Addressing the Friday luncheon will be the Honorable Alice Oliver, Chief Justice of the Texas 1st Court of Appeals in Houston. Oliver is a supporter of the pre-op change of gender identification.

Speaking at the Friday evening dinner will be the Honorable Fred Biery, Justice of the Texas 4th Court of Appeals in San Antonio, a classmate of Frye's.

The Saturday dinner banquet will be addressed by the Honorable Charles Baird, Justice of the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals in Austin. Frye said Baird would discuss his court's efforts to protect the rights of Texans in ways the federal court system has failed to do so.

All four banquets will be held at the Hilton Southwest, 6780 Southwest Freeway. Individual tickets for each event are available at $30, with tickets to the Saturday banquet $40.

The State Bar of Texas has awarded 10 hours of Minimum Continuing Legal Education [MCLE] hours to the conference. Members of BAHR will receive the MCLE free, while other interested attorneys can receive it for an additional $10.

For more information on the conference and a registration form, send a SASE to Phyllis Frye, 5707 Firenza, Houston 77035.

FORT WORTH CLUB TO HOST BENEFIT SHOW FOR AGAPE MCC

Proceeds Will Be Used to Acquire Much-Needed Transportation.

FORT WORTH — Tony Doss, events coordinator of the Spiritual AIDS Ministry [SAM] of Fort Worth's Agape Metropolitan Community Church, knows how badly Tarrant County PWAs are in need of transportation, and hopes the August 28 benefit at the Corral club will help.

The Spiritual AIDS Ministry was started as an outreach of the church. The focus of SAM is to provide care teams in conjunction with the Tarrant County AIDS Interfaith Network, as well as to provide spiritual counseling to PLWAs on a nonjudgmental, nondenominational basis. Half of SAM's six board members are PWAs.

In other church news, Michael Ekbladh has been appointed the new Minister of Music. A graduate of East Texas State University, Ekbladh founded and directed ETSU's student choir, the Anonymous Chamber Ensemble. He also worked with the faculty baroque instrument ensemble. Ekbladh brings to Agape MCC vast vocal and instrumental qualifications. Under his direction, the church is starting on a seven-month-long series of free public performances entitled, Moving Lives... Changing Spirits. Ekbladh told TWT NEWS, "Moving lives and changing spirits through the gift of music is how I hope to bring others to the love of Christ."

MONTROSE CLINIC BREAKS GROUND

*Volunteers, Elected Officials
Among Those Attending Ceremony
At Future Location.*

HOUSTON — Supporters of the Montrose Clinic gathered last Friday to break ground for the Clinic's new location on lower Westheimer. Those present included current and former board members, volunteers as well as city, county and state officials. The ceremony was held under a large tent on a grassy lot next to the building being renovated.

Presiding over the groundbreaking was clinic board president Richard M. Grimes. Among those speaking were Harris County Judge Jon Lindsay; Helen Chang, representing Mayor Bob Lanier's office, who read a statement proclaiming Friday Montrose Clinic Day; and State Rep. Debra Danburg, who read a statement of support from Gov. Ann Richards. Also speaking was City Council member Vince Ryan.

Clinic Executive Director Ralph Lasher recognized Cal Moran of the Colt 45's, club owner Walter Carter and Bering Community Service Foundation administrator Jody Huckaby for the support they have shown the Clinic. Also recognized were three of the Clinic's original founders, Dr. Gary Brewton, Dick Adams and Craig Litton, as well as Claudette DiNal of the Houston Endowment, which has made a grant of $233,000 to the Clinic.

Also recognized was Dr. Patricia Salvato, founder and director of the Houston Immunological Institute, who volunteers with the Clinic. Dr. Salvato underwrote the costs of the groundbreaking ceremony.

About a dozen members of Queer Nation and other activists staged a demonstration on the sidewalk during the groundbreaking ceremony, shouting slogans and blowing whistles. They were protesting the participation of Lindsay, who has been the target of criticism by AIDS activists for his role in a recent decision by county commissioners to transfer control of nearly $6 million in federal money from the Greater Houston AIDS Alliance to the county.

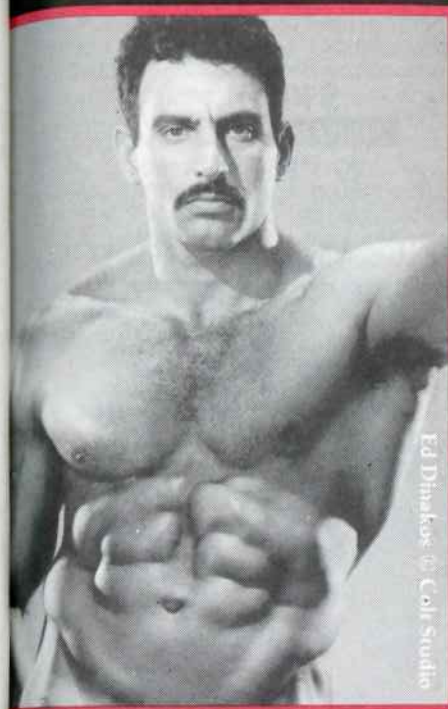

Danburg and other clinic supporters concluded the ceremony by breaking ground with beribboned shovels, and Dr. Lasher then cut a cake, donated by Randall's Supermarkets, baked in the shape of the new Clinic building.

Lasher acknowledged the demonstrators' grievances, but said he thought they had chosen an inappropriate time and place to stage their action.

"I respect their right to express their opinion, but I'm sorry they decided to interrupt this affair and these people who are fully as concerned about AIDS as they are. I feel it [the protest] was an affront to a lot of people who have done a lot of work."

When renovation is complete early next year, the location at 215 Westheimer will bring together under one roof services the Montrose Clinic currently provides at three separate sites.

Making a Difference Through Love and Hard Work

Often Laura Mitchell-Island works past midnight, even though her office hours are during the day. Though she is efficient and well educated and possesses a commanding presence, it is not the grant-writing, program-developing or reams of paperwork that delay her at her job. It is her love of her patients and her exasperation with "the system" that inspires her dedication. Laura Mitchell-Island, MSSW, ACSW is the social worker of the Montrose Care Center, a Medicaid-funded nursing home, one of the few that accepts people with AIDS in Houston.

Cathy Holman is the "administrator with a heart of gold," according to those who know and work with her. It was she who insisted to Living Centers of America, the chain that owns Montrose Care Center, that people with AIDS be accepted as residents at the facility. Holman is a parent of five children, two of whom are handicapped, and she suffered for those people who, because they had AIDS, were treated as pariahs.

"I love my patients with AIDS because they are young, motivated and socially inspired," she explained. "It is a totally different experience than geriatrics."

In 1990, when the first few PWAs were admitted, staff members, older residents and the relatives of residents protested in fear. Some would not be reassured by the educational campaign started by the center others could not overcome the prejudice they felt toward the new patients.

"In the beginning, the hardest thing was hiring staff who were culturally aware, and competent to do nursing of people with AIDS," Holman says.

Of 130 beds in the Care Center, 40 on the second floor are reserved for residents with AIDS. One of Island's first priorities when she began in January of this year was to develop a therapeutic program to help her charges deal with their impending deaths. She facilitates a bereavement group for survivors and a family group with about 35 family members and patients, and also does "forgiveness counseling," in which people seek to understand the past and welcome back each other's love in time to say goodbye.

"I do a lot of parenting to my patients," she says tenderly. "They need a lot of love."

They also need a lot of money. The Montrose Care Center is part of a for-profit network of long-term care facilities, but the expenses incurred by those with HIV represent a serious drain for the company. Island has written two grant proposals for funding by the Ryan White Act, but was denied both times. Ninety-eight percent of the Care Center's residents with AIDS are referred there by the Harris County Hospital District, and are state funded. "The problem is," Holman explains, "AIDS is more expensive to treat than other illnesses and Texas' reimbursement rate to nursing homes is the lowest in the country."

Father Roy Rowell was consecrated four weeks ago as Chaplain and Auxiliary Bishop of the Houston Diocese of the Community of Companions of Saint Francis of the Orthodox Old Catholic Church. He transports patients to Thomas Street Clinic, to the Veterans Hospital and on the occasional social outings they look forward to so eagerly. He is well known and well liked in the community; he is also respected as a capable advocate of his patients' needs. "I give service to the community by taking good care of people with HIV disease," he says.

"Taking good care" of his patients can mean soliciting gifts for them of magazines or movies on video, or by coordinating day trips to Galveston for them.

Saint Agnes Missionary Baptist Church generously underwrote such a trip for them recently, providing the cash and volunteers needed to give 22 HIV-positive residents a day at the beach. Because of the special needs of this population, the outing cost $900. They won't have the opportunity to do it again soon.

The Montrose Care Center gratefully accepts help in the form of time, money or services. Call Cathy Holman at (713) 529-3071. And if you see Father Roy on the road to the clinic, give him a thumbs-up.

COMMENT

Seek Continued Support

The following letter was sent to The Tropics [formerly Sadie's] in Odessa by representatives of the Permian Basin AIDS Coalition.

—Editor

Dear Steve and Greg:

Our apologies for not acknowledging your contribution to the fund-raiser that was held at Sadie's on February 29, 1992. The amount of money raised was $139, in addition to a large box of nonperishables that were collected through a food drive.

The Ways and Means Committee of the Permian Basin AIDS Coalition would appreciate your continued support as we incessantly fight the battle against the AIDS virus.

Shows Appreciation

Dear TWT:

This letter is in appreciation to both Denis Weir of Caven Enterprises and Howard Okon of the Wave in regards to the police patrol in the Oak Lawn area. Several apartment and land owners are also involved in the funding for the extra protection that we have. As a patron of both clubs and a resident in the area affected, I just wanted to say thanks on my behalf and that of the other residents and patrons who are enjoying the service, and who are not fully aware of who truly is responsible.

On a last note, I wanted Denis Weir to know that the added trees on Cedar Springs are a most welcome touch. Keep up the good work, gentlemen.

Show Our Family Values

Dear TWT:

This year the Republican Convention will be held in Houston, on August 17-20. I propose we create a chapel in the Astrodome area open to anyone who wants to get married to affirm that our community has always had "family values." We should also celebrate our marriages and anniversaries by placing photos and announcements in the wedding and engagement sections of the Houston Post and Chronicle as a gay couple in Austin did recently in the Austin American Statesman. God knows we have contributed to the profits of these publications in the death notice section.

THIS WEEK IN TEXAS and The New Voice could also start a celebration section for profit. We need to build the self-esteem of our community. We need to celebrate our joys. We need to show people that we do have the same goals and dreams and we need to affirm them now.

To place your announcement for Sunday, August 16, send a tasteful photo and short biography and send to the Houston Chronicle, Special Occasions Dept., 801 Texas Ave., 4th Floor, Houston, Texas 77002, or call (713)220-6801 or 800-669-4600; and to the Houston Post, Special Occasions Dept., P.O. Box 4747, Houston, Texas 77210-4747, or call (713)840-6885 or 800-877-1887.

Don't Go Fishing

Dear TWT:

It was with great interest I read Lars Eighner's letter in the July 24 issue of TWT ["Don't Vote; Go Fishing," Vol. 18, No. 20]. Because of Tipper Gore's attempt to have the record industry rate itself, as the movie industry does, he is very adamant that the gay vote "go fishing" on election day. Though it is his prerogative, I hope no one listens to him.

We have more than a presidential election this November. Each race, from the local level to the national level, is filled with candidates who are supported by people who not only want to deny gays and lesbians civil liberties, but who desire to persecute us and want the legal right to do so. Ignoring the bigots won't have them go away. They are focused in the system and we can't let them gain control of everyone. Know your candidates and vote—not only in this election, but in every election. It is your representation and tax dollars that are at stake. Remember that over one-third of your work dollars goes to your government in one form or another. Your only voice is your vote and your involvement.

Clinton's Pro-Gay Stand Enough to Win His Vote

Dear TWT:

I had mixed emotions as I read a letter from Lars Eighner that suggested that people not vote for Bill Clinton because of Tipper Gore's movement to have parental warning stickers affixed to music releases whose lyrics are of an adult nature. While I was appalled at an opinion laced with willful ignorance, twisted logic and a generally hateful and destructive attitude, I was pleased that the combination was not being used to denigrate homosexuals, as it often is.

Tipper's idea was to urge the music industry to warn parents when lyrical content may require parental guidance. This is hardly suppression of First Amendment rights. It is merely good manners.

Also, to suggest not voting for a candidate because of his running mate's spouse's opinions is simply irrational. It would make as much sense not to vote for Clinton because a friend of his uncle wears white after Labor Day!

If elected, Bill Clinton would be the first president of the United States who does not believe that civil rights should be withheld based on sexual orientation. If his holding that one simple, rational belief is not sufficient to get our votes, I do not know what is.

monsters that ultraconservatives and evangelists make us out to be.

Also, more lauds for running the public service announcements of Parents and Friends of Lesbians and Gays. After the initial shock of seeing the ad, a friend and I "high-fived" and yelled "yes!" so loud, I'm sure our entire apartment community heard us. Hopefully, the entire world will soon be saying "yes" to the gay community in all aspects of society.

Thank you again for your efforts and your support of Dallas/Fort Worth area gays and lesbians.

Flattered to Be Nominated for EOY

Dear TWT:

I would like to express my most sincere apology for my absence at the Texas Entertainer of the Year pageant. Unfortunately, due to personal reasons I was unable to attend.

I was very flattered and honored to be nominated among such top names in female impersonation today.

For those of you who voted for me, I am truly grateful and appreciate your confidence in me. Thanks, guys.

I'd like to congratulate all the nominees. To Coco and Donna Day, you're absolutely the most. Especially to Amazing Grace, you're unbelievable. Congratulations.

Good luck to all you guys in your endeavors.

Glad She Was at EOY

Dear TWT:

What a show! I would like to recognize and commend the producers of Texas Entertainer of the Year. The contest was innovative, organized and, most of all, entertaining and fun. I almost didn't make it to the pageant because of preparations for Miss Texas USA in August, but I'm very glad I did. It was indeed an honor to have been on the same stage with so many talented entertainers, especially my idol, Tasha Kohl.

All aboard, last call for the "A Train" in Big D! The music, the costumes, the song and dance of Duke Ellington are spotlighted in the Dallas Summer Musicals' Sophisticated Ladies, through Sunday at the Music Hall in Fair Park. Call (214)373-8000 or 647-5700 or you'll be singing "I Got It Bad and That Ain't Good" next week.

You have to be pretty miserable already to look forward to Barry Manilow's "Copa-cabana," but a spoof of that song to the tune of late-night fast food at the Taco Cabana, now that's Less Miserable, and that's playing now at the Pocket Sandwich Theater Friday and Saturday nights at 11:15 p.m. $8. (214)824-8272.

If you live in Dallas, you know Trella Thomas, the bar and club illusion of Coy Covington. Coy is impersonating star Mary Dale in Red Scare on Sunset at Hickory Street Annex Theatre, and word is, she's Mary! And married to one of her fans, but he's being manipulated by the Communists. And the Communists are taking over the world! What will Mary do? See for yourself Friday and Saturday evenings at 8:15, Sundays at 7:15 p.m. $10. (214) 526-2700.

Some of us celebrate Halloween year-round, we love it so much. Body Positive and the Foundation for Interfaith Research and Ministry [FIRM] love it because they're the beneficiaries of the Halloween Magic activities surrounding October 31, 1992, including Hair Wars, the sequel to Roxie Whorra Beauty Shoppe. Organizers get to wear wigs, fishnet stockings and spike heels. Call Tori Williams at (713)682-5995.

Was the Lone Star Symphonic Band (two fingersnaps!) fabulous Sunday at the Venture-N? Many in the audience have been moved to drag their old instruments out of the closet and call about membership. "No problem," says director Andy Mills, "No auditions, everyone is welcome regardless of degree of proficiency." (713) 527-0931.

There's no question as to the proficiency of Kenny Joe Spivey. He is a genius, and his Nasty Disposition proves it! Cigar-chewing nuns, singing fish and serial killers are all crowd pleasers, to be sure, but it's the nurse who's the real star! At Kuumba House, 3412 LaBranch at Holman, Fridays and Saturdays at 8:30 p.m. with the late show Saturdays at 10 p.m. through September 5. $8. (713)994-9019. During the day, the art studio at Kuumba House is sponsoring a Political Art Show this month. Free. (713)524-1079.

Diversity in Our Community: A Republican Perspective

by Paul von Wupperfeld

To live in the gay and lesbian community in the 1990s is to live with paradoxes. No word is more used, no goal more important than "diversity." Yet in no other community are certain of its leaders more exacting that we all march in lock-step with them.

As the State President of the Log Cabin Republicans of Texas, an organization with gay Republican clubs in Austin, Dallas and Houston, and part of a national federation with 25 chapters around the United States, I have seen Log Cabin men and women committing a great deal of personal time as volunteers in the fight for gay civil rights. We fight within the Republican Party against the likes of Phyllis Schlafly, Bill Dannemeyer and Jesse Helms. We speak against the state party's abominable "hate planks" and take our lumps on the convention floors.

It is not an easy place to fight for gay rights, but the Log Cabin clubs are playing an increasingly important role as part of the coalition of moderate Republicans fighting for the heart and soul of our party. The frontline battle for gay rights has taken place in the Republican primaries, far from the reach of most gay activists. Nothing makes the message "We are everywhere" clearer for the American public than to see a conservative Republican who is also a gay or lesbian.

One might think that the gay community would be glad that there are gay and lesbian Republicans volunteering their time to fight for our community's rights and dignities from within the Republican Party. One might think that more gays and lesbians would understand that the struggle for our rights is too important to rely entirely upon a one-party strategy. Unfortunately, we frequently find the very opposite to be true: the difference between fighting for gay and lesbian rights in the Republican Party, as opposed to fighting as a Democrat, is the lack of support we receive from our community. Most gay and lesbian Republicans agree that they are frequently more welcome as gays at Republican events than they are as Republicans at gay events.

Ironically, the self-righteous zealotry that we oppose within the Republican Party is mirrored in our own community by self-righteous fascism from the left. It is not uncommon for Log Cabin groups in other states to be met with threats and insults when they participate in gay and lesbian pride marches and other community events. Frequently, we are treated with more hostility and rudeness by other gays and lesbians than we are by the religious right.

Unfortunately, too many gay Republicans have been successfully intimidated by the gay political establishment to get involved in our community's efforts. With a community so determined to devour its own for being politically incorrect, is it any surprise that so many gays and lesbians remain apolitical?

When The New Republic recently ran a story about gay Republicans, several gay and lesbian "leaders" were asked to comment. Do you think they used this opportunity to show the straight world how supportive of diversity our community can be? Barney Frank, openly-gay Congressman from Massachusetts, called us the "Uncle Tom Club," and Queer Nation leader Greg Scott said that we shouldn't be permitted in gay businesses or gay beds. Thanks for the support, fellas.

It is also important to note that Frank, for all of his rhetoric, endorsed Massachusetts Democratic gubernatorial candidate John Silber over pro-gay Republican William Weld in 1990. Silber had a terrible anti-gay record at Boston University, where he compared homosexuality to bestiality. Who is the real Uncle Tom? As for Mr. Scott, I hate to break the news to him, but many of those gay businesses he does not want to let us into are owned by gay and lesbian Republicans. What does this say about our community? What does this say about our diversity?

So why all of this hatred in our community against gay Republicans? I suspect that it has a lot to do with the fact that gay activists have been in the Democratic Party for so long. They have accumulated power and a mindset that inextricably ties them to the Democratic Party. Every revolution creates its own elites and power structure. The political ambitions of some gay and lesbian Democratic leaders require that they be able to deliver our community's votes to their party each November; the presence of gay Republicans, especially young, politically active men and women, is frightening to a status quo that has come to take our votes for granted.

Most frightening of all is when gay and lesbian Republicans succeed. When we get gay support on "day one" for a Republican candidate, we end up with political leadership like that of Gov. William Weld of Massachusetts. Weld is widely considered the most pro-gay governor in the nation, putting himself in the forefront of the struggle for our rights. Weld is so good that even a partisan Democrat like Barney Frank was forced to concede that Weld had accomplished more for the gays and lesbians in Massachusetts than any Democrat, including Frank himself. With Weld about to extend domestic partnership to all state employees in Massachusetts by executive decree, I think that our own Ann Richards could pick up a few tips from that Republican on just what a pro-gay governor can do when he or she is willing to take a few risks for us.

"Gay Republican" is not an oxymoron. The growth of the gay and lesbian Republican movement is instead a sign of our community's maturation. We are growing, and we are prouder and stronger than ever before. We are choosing more fronts to fight our battles and we are making a positive difference in the Republican Party and in the gay and lesbian community.

Our community needs to do more than pay lip service to diversity; we need to learn to recognize it when it's right in front of our faces and celebrate it. We need to support all the variety of political avenues that our community uses to achieve equality. There has never been a better time for us to use our diversity to advance our cause.

Paul von Wupperfeld is also Co-Chair of the Austin Lesbian/Gay Political Caucus.

STARSCOPE BY LEONARD BYRAM

Week of August 7-13, 1992

The Moon in Scorpio sets an ultrasensuous scene Friday night, promising carnal joys beyond the usual expectations; especially so for Scorpio, Sagittarius and Aquarius. The same continues to a cooler degree through Saturday.

Also this Friday morning, Venus moved into Virgo, bringing luck in romance to that sign. It remains there until August 31, so gather your rosebuds while ye may.

Mercury's going direct late Wednesday night makes it safe again to make major purchases and conduct other important financial business.

Thursday morning, the Full Moon arises in Aquarius, but more on that next week.

LEO: (July 23 - Aug 22) Beware of conflicts with Capricorns this weekend. If with a Capricorn lover, getting away for awhile is advisable as bickering is otherwise likely. Also beware of alienating authority figures on the weekend. Although some unpleasant interchanges could develop, this little tempest blows over and is quickly forgotten after the heat of the moment. Love lives become quieter and more subdued at this time. Midweek, illusions tend to get in the way of plans; you find someone inviting only in the short run. Best day: Friday.

VIRGO: (Aug 23 - Sep 22) With Venus in your sign this week, heads begin to turn your way. Romantic possibilities are promising, and love expectations high. This weekend is a good time to discuss the future of a relationship. Wednesday, luck turns even better as your ruling planet, Mercury, goes direct just before midnight. Best days: Friday, Saturday and Thursday.

LIBRA: (Sep 23 - Oct 23) You make your desires more evident and readable Friday as a Mercury/Venus aspect enhances your power to communicate. You're creative and more confident than usual. Don't allow others to make decisions for you; you're more than competent at this time. Best days: Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday.

SCORPIO: (Oct 24 - Nov 21) Friday you can accomplish much. Use Saturday to relax, putting off prospects until Sunday. Avoid giving a Leo grief this coming week. Relationships may also feel stale, but there's no reason to retreat or search out greener pastures as this feeling is only temporary. A focus on career is extra important over the next two weeks. Best day: Friday.

SAGITTARIUS: (Nov 22 - Dec 21) Friday is a time for financial plans. Saturday, it's difficult to stick to your agenda. Sunday, you prefer quiet places; fortunately, those happen to be the best at this time anyway for meeting a partner you want to be involved with, if only for a short time. A perfect aspect Sunday morning brings luck with Pisces and fosters all things spiritual. Best days: Friday through Monday.

CAPRICORN: (Dec 22 - Jan 19) Saturn, your ruling planet, opposes the Sun Friday, leaving you feeling a bit left out. Watch health carefully during this aspect. Sunday and Monday are ideal days for getting your point across. The whole week favors going out with those already known to you, platonically or otherwise, rather than with new prospects. Best days: Monday and Tuesday.

AQUARIUS: (Jan 20 - Feb 18) Since the Full Moon occurs in your sign next Thursday morning, a lot of planning should be firmed up now, and activated Wednesday as Mercury goes direct. Get things out in the open with lovers and ex-lovers. This weekend, taking up activities around home could bring you a pleasant surprise. Sunday and Monday, a good time to review your financial situation. Best days: Tuesday and Wednesday.

PISCES: (Feb 18 - Mar 20) This week, a time to rejuvenate yourself by taking some days away from your usual locality. With Venus now in Virgo, you'll have to try harder to avoid a slump in your love life. But while this aspect may try to cloud your love life till August 30, it puts your mind at a high all this month also, and makes a course of study, or learning a new skill, recommended. Sunday is an extremely good day for spending time with a Sagittarian or someone who is independent and adventurous. Best days: Saturday, Sunday and Monday.

ARIES: (Mar 21 - April 19) The Moon's entry into Capricorn makes your sign restless this week, urging you to start an ambitious course of action by Sunday. Best date prospects for you this week are Virgo and Gemini. Tuesday and Wednesday nights are good times for finding someone through a bar or social organization. The more crowded a place is the better. Wednesday morning, a worrisome situation is resolved to your satisfaction. Thursday is not good for mixing until after 11 that night. Best days: Friday and Wednesday.

TAURUS: (Apr 20 - May 20) With Venus in your house of love affairs, you're surprised by the increase in the number of offers you get. Wednesday, due to the Moon's presence in Scorpio, let a partner or close friend handle all the rough situations and don't worry over insignificant details. Sunday and Monday, you start getting your fair share out of a relationship, benefits as well as work. Best day: Sunday.

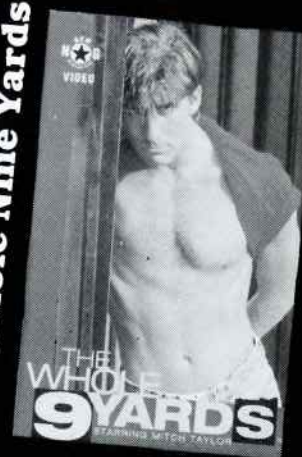

GEMINI: (May 21 - Jun 21) You are favored romantically as the weekend kicks off. You have a knack for knowing just what to say and when to say it. Sunday, you're too hard on yourself. Tuesday night, avoid dating or giving an opinion as someone is willing to take offense at anything you say. Your three weeks of having people misunderstand what you say finally end Wednesday as Mercury goes direct again. Thursday evening is favorable for an intimate dinner at a restaurant in your area of town. Best day: Monday.

CANCER: (June 22 - July 22) Friday, you tend to send mixed signals to everyone, particularly that night. Saturday is a time for errands or, even better, sex, as otherwise you could get bored easily. Sunday and Monday, the Moon challenges the Sun, causing frustration and tempting you to quit, but don't; it's also a good time to be passive sexually. You and Pisces hit it off together extremely well, but on Tuesday and Wednesday, Aquarians are your best bet. Thursday, the Full Moon heightens your libido, making you feel infatuated. Slow down and be logical. Late Thursday is tailor-made for you for something special. Best day: Monday.

Next week: Last Quarter Moon in sensual, laid-back Taurus.

On Our Cover KARL THOMAS

If this week's cover man looks familiar, it's no surprise. Karl Thomas has done extensive print and modeling work and starred in over 30 adult videos. You may have also seen him in person — he dances all over Texas under the name "Angel," most recently at Paper Moon in San Antonio and at the Wave in Dallas as a member of C.J. Harrington's Muscles in Action dancers.

Originally from Chicago, Karl has lived in Texas for the past five years and divides his time evenly between the Alamo City, Big D and the West Coast. It's obvious that Angel enjoys exercising, running and working out on a daily basis, but he also loves gardening. Caring for his home (which he shares with two dogs) and artwork are also of interest to him.

For the record, he's 24 years old, 5'10" tall and weighs 175 lbs. Those are all of the vital statistics we can print. If you want to know the rest of his measurements, then don't miss Angel's newest Matt Sterling video releases, Euphoria and Predators I and II.

OBITUARIES

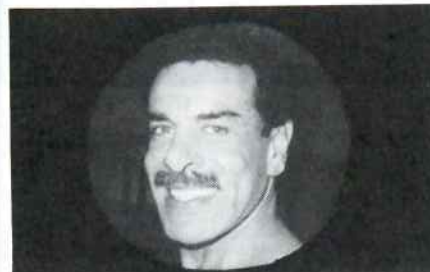

Richard H. Galenec
January 3, 1955 July 28, 1992

Rick Galenec died in Houston July 28, 1992. He was a Pennsylvania native who chose Houston in 1981 and remained to become among those who must be OBEYED. Graduating with honours in Education from Penn State in 1977, Rick continued to become a graduate registered nurse of St. Margaret's School of Nursing in Pittsburgh. Mr. Galenec was on the staff of St. Luke's Episcopal Hospital in Houston.

Rick will be remembered for his enthusiasm, wry wit and the generosity of his zest for life. From his early association with Tea for Two Thousand, Rick went on to join the Grey Party hosts and become a founding member of Wigs on Fire, Nellie Ribbons, Bunny F and other events which, over the years, touched thousands of lives with joy and affirmation.

Rick is survived by his mother Dee and sister Linda, both of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and numerous friends in Houston and other cities. He was preceded in death in March of this year by his confidant and co-conspirator, Joe Taylor. Doubtless they are, even now, with delicious humor and wicked wit, planning that reunion tea dance, to which we will all come, with joy, in time.

A memorial gathering in celebration of Rick's life will be held at the Rothko Chapel, 3 p.m. Sunday, August 9, 1992. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to The Assistance Fund, 2476 Bolsover, Box 455, Houston, TX 77005, or the organization of your choice.

Manuel F. Vega, 53, a resident of Dallas, died at his home on July 22, 1992. Mr. Vega, a member of the Imperial Society of Teachers of Dancing of London, England, was a longtime teacher and coach of ballroom dancing. Survived by sisters Myriam Vega de Morales of Panama City, Panama, Violeta Vega de Gross of Managua, Nicaragua, and brother David Vega and his wife, Rita, also of Managua. Other survivors include close friend Koy Kelly of Dallas, niece Mercedes Gross of San Francisco and numerous other nieces, nephews and friends.

8/14/46 - 6/14/92

Lee graced the lives of his many friends and loved ones for too short a time, but his spirit lives on in the loving memories of those who remain, especially his life-partner, Frank Piedad of Houston; daughter, Jenny Arnold of San Leandro, California; and his mother, Erla Jane Arnold of Millersville, Pennsylvania.

Lee was full of life, vibrant and strong. He didn't wish to be remembered sorrowfully. It was his custom to dance in memory of his friends, so it is appropriate that his friends gather to celebrate his life at Pacific Street, 710 Pacific, on August 14, 1992, his 46th birthday, at 8 p.m. Memorial donations may be made to St. Stephen's Episcopal Church.

Todd Christopher Hall, age 23, was born on August 22, 1968 in New Jersey. He was called to heaven on July 16, 1992 from his home in San Antonio, Texas. He was preceded in death by his mother Dolores Gutowski Hall. He is survived by his father Loren Lyman Hall, his stepmother Shirley Hall, his sister Holly Hall, his two nieces Andrea Hall and Jalisa Hooks, his lifemate Wm. Stacey Hawthorne and countless loving friends. Expressions of support may best be shown by donations to the Todd C. Hall Memorial AIDS Program, 3114 W. Ashby, San Antonio, TX 78228.

David A. Bryan, 36, of Austin, died July 14, 1992, of a heart attack. David was born and grew up in Lubbock where he was valedictorian of his class at Monterey High School. He received his B.A. in chemistry, cum laude, in 1977, from Texas Tech University and there after received his Doctor of Jurisprudence, cum laude, in 1981 from the Texas Tech University School of Law, where he served as an Associate Editor of the Texas Tech Law Review and was a member of the Order of the Coif.

David was admitted to the practice of law in Texas in 1981. He began his distinguished legal career by working for the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit for three years: first as a Staff Attorney; then as a Law Clerk to Judge Carolyn D. King; and finally as a Law Clerk to Judge Thomas M. Reavley. After leaving the Court, David practiced corporate law with the law firm of Porter & Clements in Houston for five years. In 1989, he left Porter & Clements to serve as the Executive and Legal Director of the Texas Human Rights Foundation—a nonprofit foundation sponsoring gay and lesbian civil rights education and litigation—for a year. After 1990, David limited his law practice to representing nonprofit organizations.

Immediately upon his graduation from law school, David became an active and dedicated advocate for civil rights for gays and lesbians in Texas and the United States. In addition to serving as its Executive and Legal Director, David served as a member of the Board of Directors of and a volunteer attorney for the Texas Human Rights Foundation for numerous years. Those who knew David will remember him as a relentless advocate and fundraiser for gay and lesbian civil rights and charitable causes.

A memorial service is scheduled for Sunday, August 16 at 3 p.m. at the Rothko Chapel, 1409 Sul Ross, Houston, Texas. The Rothko Chapel prohibits flowers; accordingly, memorial contributions may be made to any AIDS charity.

Stephen T. Harris

Stephen T. Harris, 36, a longtime resident of Houston, died Wednesday, July 29, 1992 in Houston. He was a member of the First Baptist Church of Purcell, Oklahoma and the Executive and Professional Association of Houston. Survivors include his parents Truman and Dorothy Jean Harris of Norman, Oklahoma; sisters, Jean Ann Harris, also of Norman, Oklahoma, Debra Jane Holloway of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; brother, James Mark Harris of Woodbridge, Virginia; nieces, Sunny Holloway, Skye Harris and Lisa Harris; nephews, Michael Holloway, Joshua Holloway and Jim Harris. Funeral services and burial will take place in Norman, Oklahoma. For those desiring, contributions may be made to the Colt 45's AIDS TroubleFund, (713)526-6077.
