ACTIVISTS CONVERGE ON HOUSTON TO OPPOSE GOP POLICIES

*Local, National Groups Staging
Series of Actions to Coincide
With Republican Convention
Beginning this Weekend.*

HOUSTON — The Republican Party holds its national convention in Houston next week, and on hand to greet the GOP will be representatives of gay and lesbian, AIDS, women's and other groups. Local activists are being joined by others from around the country in a series of demonstrations, rallies and other actions to voice their opposition to Republican policies.

The Gay and Lesbian VOICE '92 Action Center for the Republican Convention opens at noon tomorrow, Saturday at the offices of the Houston Gay & Lesbian Political Caucus, 900 Lovett. The Action Center and press office will be open from 8:30 a.m.-6 p.m. or later during convention week. Call (713)521-1000.

The Houston chapter of the National Organization for Women (NOW) is holding a Rally for Choice tomorrow, Saturday, from 3-5 p.m. to "show the Republican National Convention and Operation Rescue that we want a choice," according to Sunni Smith of Houston NOW. Carpooling to the grassy field on the west side of the Astrodome is planned from various parking lots in the area.

Frances "Sissy" Farenthold, Ben Reyes, Linda Morales, Jacsun Shaw and other activists, artists and entertainers will be on hand to lead the rally. For more information, call (713)668-9008.

Tomorrow evening, Queer Nation and ACT UP/RNC [AIDS Coalition to Unleash Power/Republican National Convention], an umbrella organization of over 25 ACT UP chapters nationwide, are holding a legal briefing from 7-10 p.m. with the National Lawyers Guild at the ACT UP/RNC and Queer Nation Houston workspace at DiverseWorks, 1117 East Freeway. Call (713)223-8929 for details.

The Houston Tribe of Queer Nation will demonstrate against the lack of attention to gay and lesbian youth issues at the George Thomas Leland Federal Building, 1919 Smith, on Tuesday, August 18 at noon. Noting that gay and lesbian young people have a risk of suicide three times higher than that for straight teens, Queer Nation is urging the next presidential administration to implement programs focusing on the needs of this group.

Queer Nation activists will also stage a demonstration against anti-gay discrimination in the military at the Military Entrance Processing Station at 701 San Jacinto at noon next Wednesday, August 19. Call Queer Nation at (713)529-2969 for information updates.

ACT UP/RNC is sponsoring various actions during the Republican convention, including a "Focus on State Delegates" that will target delegations from states with particularly heinous AIDS policies. Also taking part will be Queer Nation/Houston and the Radical Activist Truth Squad [RATS] of Portland, Oregon.

The National Gay and Lesbian Task [NGLTF] and the Gay Men's Health Crisis [GMHC] of New York host a "Town Meeting" next Wednesday, August 19 to explore the role and power of gay men and lesbians in the 1992 race for President. NGLTF Executive Director Urvashi Vaid, nationally acclaimed author and activist Suzanne Pharr, openly lesbian Houston City Council candidate Annise Parker and HGLPC President Chris Bacon will discuss the 1992 Presidential elections and attempt to answer the question, "What's in it for us?" 7-9 p.m. 5200 Fannin.

The Ad Hoc Committee to Protest the Republican Convention, of which HGLPC is a part, is a coalition of gays, lesbians, African Americans, Latinos, whites, men, women, seniors, youth, homeless and others who have organized a march of unity to take place this Sunday, August 16 at 3 p.m. beginning at Wiley Park in the Fourth Ward and culminating with a rally at Mary Elliot Park (one block west of Kirby, on Chevy Chase). Urvashi Vaid and Tim Sweeney, executive director of the Gay Men's Health Crisis, will speak.

For up-to-date confirmation of events, call the Gay and Lesbian VOICE '92 Convention Action Center at (713)521-1000.

VICTORY FUND ENDORSES BIRDWELL

Dallas Judge One of Three Candidates Recommended by National Gay Political Group for Financial Support by Members.

DALLAS — The Gay and Lesbian Victory Fund recently recommended three more political candidates the group will be supporting for public office. William Waybourn, executive director of the Victory Fund, said members are being encouraged to support the three candidates by contributing to their campaigns.

Judge Jerry Birdwell, appointed to the 195th District Court in Dallas by Gov. Ann Richards, faces his first election in November. The Dallas Republican Party has already taken an aggressive position against Birdwell because he is gay, and has chosen a conservative candidate strong on so-called "family values" issues to run against him.

Judge Birdwell, a longtime attorney and gay activist, was the first attorney to sign an affidavit to remove Judge Jack Hampton from the bench. Birdwell's action came after Hampton gave what was widely considered a too-lenient sentence to the murderer of two gay men. Hampton attempted to justify his decision by saying the lives of gays were not worth as much as those of heterosexuals.

Birdwell took a professional risk in joining the effort to have Hampton removed, because he was a practicing attorney in Hampton's court at the time.

Also recommended by the Victory Fund is Steven Camara, a six-term member of the Fall River (Mass.) City Council and a former member of the town's school committee. Camara is seeking a seat on the Governor's Council, which advises the state's chief executive on judicial appointments. If elected, he would become the state's only openly gay public official at the state level.

The third candidate the Victory Fund has recommended is Jim Haas, who is running for the post of district director of the San Francisco Bay Area Rapid Transit [BART] system.

In order to receive the group's endorsement, candidates must run as openly gay or lesbian, as well as take an aggressive position on AIDS funding and antidiscrimination measures. The candidates must meet also meet certain viability tests, including declaring their support for federal gay and lesbian civil rights protection as well as reproductive choice.

Individuals join the Victory Fund with an initial fee of at least $100, then agree to contribute $100 or more to at least two candidates recommended by the Fund.

For more information about the Victory Fund or any of its recommended candidates, call (202)842-8679, or write to the Gay and Lesbian Victory Fund, 1012 14th Street NW, Suite 707, Washington, DC 20005.

GAY REPUBLICANS CONVENE IN HOUSTON THIS WEEKEND

25 Chapters Across U.S.*

HOUSTON — The National Federation of Log Cabin Clubs, a nationwide organization of gay and lesbian Republicans, holds its national convention in Houston this weekend. Organizers say the location and timing of the gathering are no coincidence.

In a statement issued last Sunday, Texas State Log Cabin President Paul von Wupperfeld said, "The time and place for this meeting are deliberate. We want to be in Houston to show the Republican Party and the nation that we will not allow a minority of bigots to drive us out of our party."

"The Republican Party is the party of limited government and individual freedom, and we need to remind our leaders of that."

Delegates to the convention will be discussing their efforts to challenge anti-gay elements within the GOP and will consider making endorsements for the November elections.

The Log Cabin convention is being held at The Woodlands Resort and Conference Center, located in The Woodlands, a suburb of Houston, and begins with an informal dinner reception this evening at 6 p.m. in the dining room of the Conference Center. A reception for arriving delegates and guests will follow.

Tomorrow morning, members will choose national and regional officers and discuss endorsements for the November elections. Tomorrow afternoon, delegates

Sunday morning, Mike Duffy, chair of the Massachusetts Commission Against Discrimination, will speak on measures being taken in Massachusetts to combat anti-gay discrimination.

An awards ceremony will be held Sunday evening from 9-11 p.m. at the Sheraton Grand Hotel to honor those Republicans who have shown support for Log Cabin's beliefs. Special guests will be Massachusetts Gov. William F. Weld and New York Rep. William Green.

OLCCC PATROL CUTS CRIME IN DALLAS' OAK LAWN AREA

Plans Underway to Add More Cars, Establish Storefront Station.

DALLAS — With crime levels continuing to rise in major cities throughout the U.S., and with governmental funding to law enforcement agencies being reduced, local civic organizations are attempting new and innovative approaches to ensure the safety and protection of citizens and businesses.

One such approach, developed and implemented by the Oak Lawn Concerned Citizen's Coalition [OLCCC], involves the use of off-duty Dallas Police Department officers, hired by the Coalition to patrol the Oak Lawn neighborhood in radio-equipped marked cars.

OLCCC, formed to represent the businesses, residents and property owners of Oak Lawn in their efforts to negotiate and interpret the new definitions being applied to the Oak Lawn Special Purpose District by the City of Dallas, believes that it is the crime, drug and prostitution problem in the neighborhood, and not the area nightclubs, that pose the greatest threat to area residents. With this in mind, the group devised a plan to utilize Dallas police officers, recruited specifically for the Oak Lawn project, to patrol an area bounded roughly by Lemmon, Wycliff, Maple and Oak Lawn. These officers, armed and with full policing authority, offer direct response to crimes as they occur and provide the community with a highly visible deterrent force that has proven effective in forcing crime out of neighborhoods. With one call to the emergency phone number—911—the Crime Patrol is notified by radio at the same time DPD receives the emergency call. The Crime Patrol, already patrolling the streets of the neighborhood, is then positioned for an immediate response to the crime in progress.

OLCCC President Ed Oakley told TWT NEWS that the program, which went into effect the first week of July, has proven so effective that distress calls logged from the Crossroads area of Oak Lawn—the intersection of Throckmorton and Cedar Springs that was targeted for the first phase of Patrol intervention—have decreased dramatically. The program is such a success, in fact, that other neighborhood organizations in Dallas have approached the OLCCC about providing the service in their areas.

One of the primary reasons the program is so successful appears to be that the Patrol is staffed by police officers who, in some cases, have volunteered to participate in the effort. They are officers who are sensitive to the needs of the gay community in Oak Law, as well as the Hispanic and black residents of the area. Overseeing the recruitment and scheduling of Patrol shifts is Dallas Police Corporal Lynn Albright, a veteran of the force who receives no compensation for her extra efforts.

Plans are underway to increase the Patrol to such an extent that crime will be pushed completely out of the Oak Lawn neighborhood. Added Patrol cars will extend the reaches of the Patrol to Perry Heights and Maple Springs, and, in the future, to Inwood, Turtle Creek and Highland Park. Additionally, a storefront command station is being established at the Foundation for Human Understanding's Gay and Lesbian Community Center at 2701 Reagan. The addition of this station will bring the Patrol a higher level of visibility, and will offer the officers involved a central location in the neighborhood from which to operate.

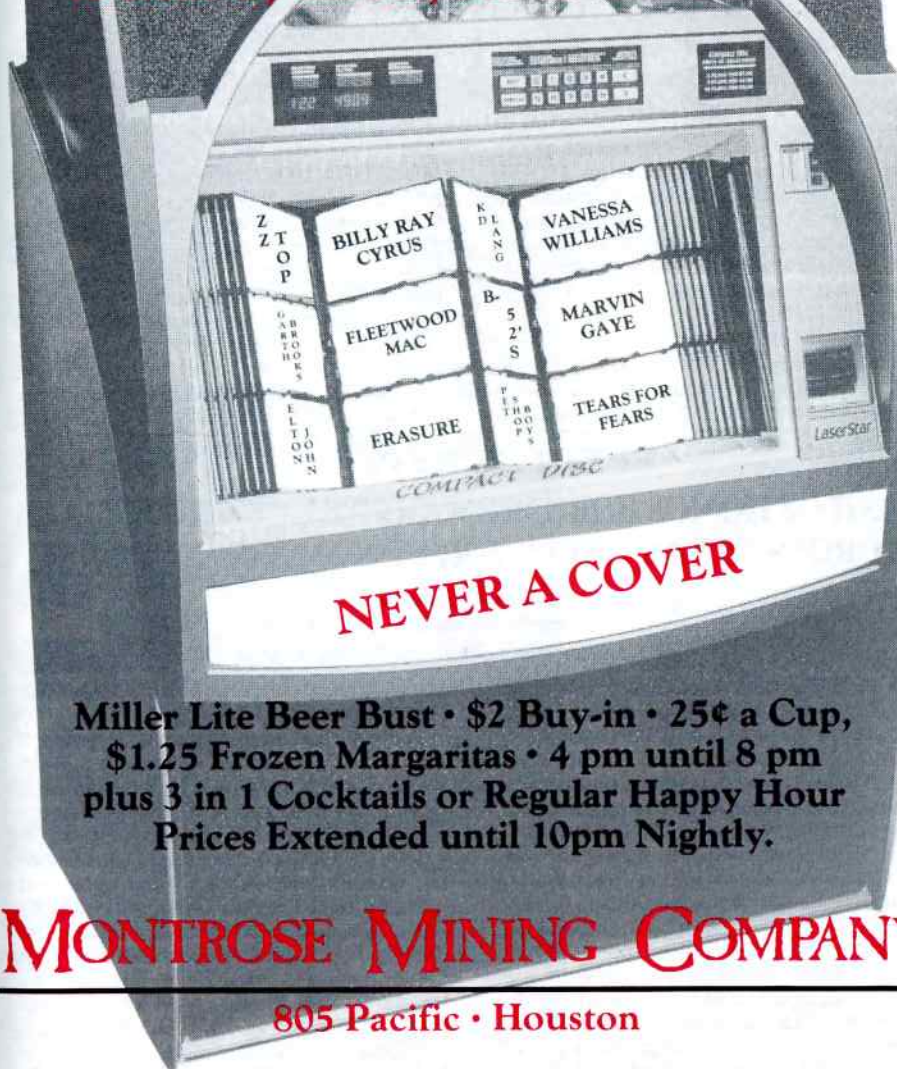

Funding for the Crime Patrol is derived completely from Oak Lawn residents, property owners and businesses. To sup-

SPECIAL REPORT

RASH OF HOMOPHOBIC REMARKS BY CITY OFFICIALS ACROSS TEXAS CALLS FOR STATEWIDE RESPONSE

*by Laurie Eiserloh Executive Director of
The Lesbian/Gay Rights Lobby of Texas*

Currently, there is a disturbing trend in Texas that all gay and lesbian people should be aware of and act upon. City council members in three major Texas cities have made extremely denigrating statements concerning the gay and lesbian community and the AIDS community. These incidents occurred nearly simultaneously. The communities involved are Houston, San Antonio and Corpus Christi.

In Houston, City Council member John Goodner said, concerning spending on AIDS, "Money is simply going down a one-way tube, and it does not return in the economy." He also described AIDS activists as "screaming about the money," and recalled the quarantine threatened in the early years of the epidemic, suggesting that quarantines were a useful idea. These statements resulted in protests at Houston City Council and, consequently, the brutal arrest and detention of Queer Nation activist Brian Bradley.

According to local activists, Mayor Bob Lanier and Council member Vince Ryan have been supportive in condemning Goodner's remarks. However, other council members have not been as supportive.

Houston activists are calling for Goodner's resignation from city council and have suggested that people contact both the Mayor and Goodner with their comments. Once again, remember that Mayor Lanier has been supportive. The address for both the Mayor and for Council member Goodner is P.O. Box 1562, Houston, TX 77251.

A similar incident occurred recently in San Antonio, where City Council member Weir Labatt condemned those living with AIDS and HIV. Labatt stated, "I'm real tired of the AIDS community having this notion that there is something special about them... The reason they have AIDS is their lifestyle—the majority of them being IV drug users or having engaged in male-to-male intercourse. The only people they should be upset with is themselves...."

This incident is particularly egregious, since Labatt is the city council representative to the San Antonio AIDS Commission. Local activists have met with the Commission and with Mayor Nelson Wolff. They expect to meet with Council member Labatt in the near future.

According to Janice Olsen, co-chair of the San Antonio Lesbian/Gay Assembly, local organizers are calling for Labatt's resignation from the city AIDS Commission. In a 14-to-1 vote, the AIDS Commission agreed with the stance taken by local activists, and also called for Labatt's resignation. However, the Mayor has refused to ask Labatt to step down. If readers would like to show their support for the move to have Labatt removed from the San Antonio AIDS Commission, they may write P.O. Box 839966, San Antonio, TX 78283-3966.

Yet another alarming incident occurred in Corpus Christi, where City Council member Leo Guerrero stated on a Spanish-language radio program that he wished to banish all the "homosexuals" from the sea wall area of Corpus. He also stated that homosexuals "don't have any business at Bay Fest," a city-wide festival. Guerrero also said that he would like for the city to start charging $1 admission to Bay Fest in order to keep the "drunks" and the "homosexuals" away from the festival.

I spoke to Council member Guerrero on the phone, and he stated that there was a problem in the translation of his remarks. He explained that, in Spanish, the word "homosexual" connotes a whole range of perversions, and that in fact his real concern was keeping child molesters off of the sea wall and out of Bay Fest. However, many Spanish-speaking activists in the Corpus Christi area have disagreed with this interpretation.

On Monday, I spoke with Michael Roberts, an activist from the Port Aransas area and owner of the Sea Horse Inn, who stated that Guerrero has continued to make disparaging remarks about our community. In Corpus Christi, local activists are requesting that Guerrero apologize to the lesbian/gay community and refrain from making homophobic remarks.

In addition to his work on City Council, Guerrero is also the manager of Sunrise Mall, a popular place for both locals and tourists visiting Corpus Christi. Some local activists are calling for a boycott of the mall unless Guerrero apologizes for his remarks.

Readers who would like to help our community in Corpus Christi may contact Erick Larson, the supervisor of Sunrise Mall, at (602)971-7838 (voice) and (602) 971-7421 (fax). Tell him that you will not purchase any items at Sunrise Mall until the mall's manager, Leo Guerrero, apologizes and stops making homophobic statements. Also contact Mayor Mary Rhodes. She has been extremely supportive of the gay/lesbian community during this crisis. It is also important to contact Guerrero and let him know your feelings about his remarks. Letters may be sent to the Mayor and Council member Guerrero at P.O. Box 9277, Corpus Christi, TX 78569.

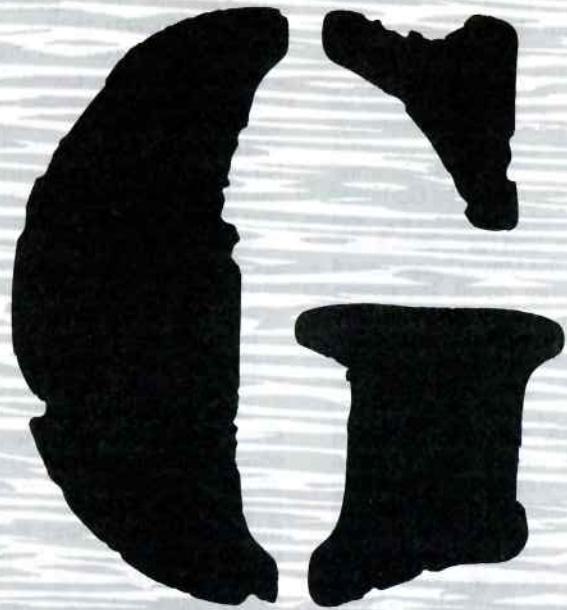

It is clearly difficult to bring about a statewide response to local incidents like these. However, if this is a statewide conspiracy to bash our community on a local level, then a statewide response is necessary. I encourage even readers who do not live in Houston, San Antonio or Christi Christi to write letters. Here are some things to keep in mind. San Antonio and Corpus Christi are both popular tourist sights for lesbian and gay people. Those writing letters should mention that our community spends a lot of money visiting these cities. Writers should also mention any visits they have made to the two cities or are planning for the future.

Also, there are medical research facilities in both Houston and San Antonio. Those writing letters should remind city officials that medical research projects, particularly those focusing on AIDS, will be less likely to locate in cities where AIDS-phobic city council members could hinder scientists' work.

Are these incidents related to next week's Republican National Convention in Houston? It is certainly possible. Right-wing activists from all over the U.S. are converging on the state to make their voices heard at the convention. In light of this right-wing frenzy, we must make our voices heard. Please write your letters to San Antonio, Corpus Christi and Houston, and if you can, come to Houston to participate in the protests of the Republican Convention.

COMMENT

Protest Decision to Take Funds from GHAA

Dear TWT:

I am writing in response to the recent decision by the Harris County Commissioners' Court to remove funds from the Greater Houston AIDS Alliance. Leaders in the HIV-positive and the gay and lesbian community—the community which has been hardest hit by AIDS—have fought long and hard for the ability to gain representation on boards and committees that control how AIDS services are delivered in Houston. Due to the hard work by these persons, the community has been able to gain a voice in these important decisions. With the vote on the Commissioners' Court to remove funds from the Alliance, our community has lost that representation. The decisions will now be made by those who possess the least knowledge concerning where the greatest needs exist.

Additionally, I find it interesting that for years when the community was struggling to address AIDS, it was met with a deaf ear by both city and county officials. Now that there are funds available, those same individuals seem to be only too happy to control the resources.

Judge [Jon] Lindsay has attempted to justify his position by stating that there is a conflict of interest between the Alliance board and the Ryan White Council. This is untrue. In fact, Robert Soliz, who is the chief of the Western Branch of HIV Services of HRSA, the federal agency which oversees the funding, has been quoted as stating that he is unaware of any serious conflict of interest. Additionally, why has Jon Lindsay been in such a hurry to move the funds and attempt to close the Alliance? Why were the other Commissioners not provided the information or time to make an informed decision?

If you believe that those most affected by this health crisis should have input in how those funds are spent, contact the County Commissioners and indicate your outrage with their recent decision. Their phone numbers are listed in the blue pages of the telephone book. The leaders in our community have fought too long and too hard to have the rights earned by those most affected by HIV so quickly and easily removed.

County Actions Mean Bleak Future for PWAs

The following letter was sent to Harris County Judge Jon Lindsay concerning the recent vote to take most federal funding away from the Greater Houston AIDS Alliance.—Editor

Dear Judge Lindsay:

The intent of this letter is to express my disgust and immense trepidation over the recent political maneuvering surrounding the attempted dissolution of the Greater Houston AIDS Alliance [GHAA].

While I agree that there may have been potential conflict of interest among some of the sitting board members, and that board micro-management is intolerable for any viable organization, I must also point out that the proposed solution appears to be nothing more than a selfish, politically-motivated, ill-planned maneuver aimed at preserving the jobs of certain individuals whose management capabilities are questionable and under review.

It is my opinion that the GHAA board was too large to be effective. I also find it unacceptable that every board member also sat on the Ryan White Planning Council. However, perhaps the public should be aware that you had the authority to intervene much sooner, and perhaps circumvent much of the existing turmoil. Additionally, why was your action aimed at total destruction of the Alliance? It seems that several more rational alternatives should have been considered.

The fact you waited until most affected service providers were in Amsterdam at the VIII International Conference on AIDS indicated that you have little interest in making informed decisions, and even less concern for attempting to reach consensus.

If the inept management and operations of the Harris County Hospital District are any example of how Ryan White funds will be administered, those of us in AIDS service provision face a bleak future indeed.

Most heinous is that it appears no one considered the thousands of persons living with AIDS in the Houston SMSA.
These persons will now be faced with fighting an insensitive, unresponsive county bureaucracy that seems more concerned with politics than in preserving the rights, dignity and well-being of those who daily struggle to attain the well-being for which you, Judge Lindsay, do not have to struggle.

Finally, I would like you to know that these observations are not based on hearsay or third-party observation. I sit on the Board of Trustees of AIDS Foundation
Houston, am a graduate social work intern at Omega House and the Diocesan AIDS Ministries, and, most importantly, am HIV-positive. What sort of future can your recent actions provide me? They portend,
I believe, to be bleak indeed.

GHAA Vote Appalled Him

*The following letter was sent to Commissioner El Franco Lee, who along with other members of the Harris County Commissioners' Court voted last month to remove most federal funding from the Greater Houston
AIDS Alliance and place it under county control.—Editor*

Dear Commissioner Lee:

Your vote on the recent Greater Houston
AIDS Alliance issue appalled me. You either are too stupid to understand the issues or too callous to care.

You obviously care nothing of me personally, the community I am a part of,
or the issues surrounding the disease I have. You are politically powerful. But how poor you are when the issues of honor, compassion and allegiance are concerned.

No Vote Is Vote for Bush

Dear TWT:

To Lars Eighner ["Don't Vote, Go Fishing," Vol. 18, No. 20], Tipper Gore is not on the ballot in November, nor is Hillary Clinton. I ask you, what effect has Marilyn had on public policy in the last four years? By going fishing on election day, you are, in effect, voting for the incumbent. Do you want four more years of George and Dan? Another thing—if Marilyn can't even teach Dan how to spell "potato," what effect do you think Tipper Gore will have on public policy?

The fact is that the movement that Tipper Gore is associated with wanted to establish a guide for parents on the outside of albums, CDs and cassette tapes. There was never any attempt to change what was on the inside. Lars, you suggest that the movement wanted to suppress First Amendment rights, free speech and the free press. That is simply incorrect. The movie industry has a rating system that seems to work fairly well. Why not the music industry?

Now to the real issue. Bill Clinton is the best chance that the lesbian and gay community has had in a hell of a long time. Bill Clinton has promised to sign the Lesbian and Gay Civil Rights Bill. He has also promised to issue an executive order banning discrimination in all areas of federal employment, including subcontracting and the military. Lars, that is what Bill Clinton has to offer us.

So if you don't vote, you vote for George Bush. If you do vote for Bill Clinton, you vote for an end to discrimination against lesbians and gays. I'm voting for Bill Clinton; the odds are a hell of a lot better than me catching any fish!

Wonderful Memories for John Michael Gordon

Dear TWT:

Over the past couple of months, I have had the honor of being on hand as my successors to the Mr. Razzle Dazzle Dallas and Mr. Texas All-American titles have been awarded. On September 13, I will pass along my national Mr. All-American title to the new winner in Louisville, Kentucky.

My success this past year would not have been possible without the help and support of some very giving people. I wish to extend my sincerest thoughts of appreciation to those who have been a part of my success.

For their assistance, support, encouragement and friendship, I would like to thank the following: my "friends in low places" and backup dancers from the Pegasus Softball Association and the Dallas Independent Volleyball Association; Razzle Dazzle Dallas; Trella Thomas, Autumn Leaves, Michael Lee, Tom Davis, Dwight Matthews, Richard Baker and to Barbara O'Brien, Gail Glass and David Robertson. My sincere appreciation also goes to all of the great entertainers who graciously donated their time and talents to appear in my benefits and to my friends and biggest fans, John "Marge" McMahan and Rodd "Patti le Plae Safe" Gray, for coming to all of my shows. To Anthony Martinez of Todd Allen Hair Salon and to Steve, Alan and Lady Shawn of TWT, I couldn't have done it without you.

A special note of thanks to Lee

Covington, Gibb Hauersperger, Bob Gale, Reggie Moore and Norman Jones of Norma Kristie, Inc. The opportunity you offer to gay men through the Mr. All-American and Miss Gay America systems is unparalleled!

I truly hope that those of you not mentioned by name will know in your hearts that what you have given me will remain a wonderful memory of 1991 and 1992.

Can't Afford Elitist Attitude

Dear TWT:

With regard to Lar Eighner's letter of July 30, suggesting that Bill Clinton is not worthy of the gay community's vote and we should therefore "go fishing" on election day—Mr. Eighner, what are you on? That kind of "I'm above all this corruption" elitism is a luxury we cannot afford in 1992. Go fishing on election day? Lar, your GOP convention VIP pass is in the mail.

Goodner Owes Apology

The following letter was sent to Houston City Council member John Goodner in response to remarks he made recently concerning money spent on AIDS. —Editor

Dear Mr. Goodner:

I am writing to express my displeasure regarding your inappropriate remark about AIDS research funding.

Many HIV-positive persons are your constituents as well taxpayers and respected members of our community. They are our children, our family and our friends. And, Mr. Goodner, you and your family are not immune to the terrible scourge of AIDS. It can strike anyone!

You owe an apology to the HIV-positive and AIDS-afflicted community. You owe me an apology because these individuals are an integral part of my extended family, and in effect you are sentencing them to death without a trial. Your callous remark was not only offensive, but displayed an inordinate lack of sensitivity and understanding of this disease and its innocent victims.

May I suggest that you attend one of our meetings in an effort to increase your awareness of both the community you have offended and their families. As a mother of four children, two of whom are gay, I would welcome the opportunity to educate you to the real world.

Portrait of a Lesbian Love Affair?

After a year of intense negotiations with members of the lesbian and gay community asking for more gay content, the Public Broadcasting System's [PBS] latest offering, "Masterpiece Theatre's" Portrait of a Marriage, is as controversial within the community as it is on the outside, and for good reason.

Based on a book written by Nigel Nicolson about his parents, English aristocrats Harold Nicolson and Vita Sackville-West, Portrait of a Marriage attempts to tell the complex story of their love and marriage, as well as the story of Sackville-West's lesbian relationship with Violet Trefusis.

The criticisms from within the community are many and have earned the series the nickname "Distortions of a Marriage." Edits made by PBS include two-and-a-half minutes of lesbian sexual content and 34 minutes which were reportedly removed to "speed up the pace." The good news is that the edited version still contains lengthy lesbian erotic and sexual imagery, but many critics who have seen the unedited version said they believed the cuts were made in an attempt to distort the storyline and the importance of the lesbian relationship.

Critics also found some of "Masterpiece Theatre" host Alistair Cooke's introductory remarks heterosexist, trivializing and offensive; he characterizes the lesbian relationship as "an affair that lasted over three years, convulsed four lives and almost shattered the marriage."

Actually, the relationship between Vita Sackville-West and Violet Trefusis began in childhood and spanned their entire lives, and the depth and intensity of their relationship is captured in moments within the series. At one point, Violet asks Vita why she married Harold. "Because I love him. If I had been a man and he had been a girl, I would have married him just the same. He's a friend." "More than I?" asks Violet. "Oh, much more than you. You are a lover." "One of many, I suppose," says Violet. "No. The only one."

One can only conclude that Portrait of a Marriage would have been better had they made it Portrait of a Lesbian Love Affair.

So readers can let PBS know how they felt about this program by sending comments to Jennifer Lawson, Executive Vice President, Programming; PBS; 1320 Braddock Place; Alexandria, VA 22314.

We Are The World, Too

Turning to the evening network news, ABC World News Tonight with Peter Jennings has been leading the pack with its coverage of lesbian and gay issues.

First, there was a piece about the military's anti-gay hunts. Then, a week later, World News did a story about Bruce Hays, an openly-gay Olympic gold medalist in swimming who is now working to promote Gay Games 1994.

Most recently, World News aired a story about the fight against an anti-gay initiative that would ban lesbian and gay rights protection in Oregon. The story reported on the increase in anti-gay violence since the campaign began.

Thank World News for leading the way in reporting on issues that affect their entire viewership, including gay men and lesbians.

New York Times: Rich in "Family Values"

Will there be a new trend of heterosexuals taking their children to see gay theatre in order to teach them "family values"? There may well be if quality plays like Falsettos have no greater competition than the current offerings of flashy Broadway musicals.

Writer Frank Rich makes a convincing case in a wonderful and well-written piece that appeared in the "Theatre" section of the Sunday, July 12 edition of the New York Times. Rich, a heterosexual father himself, tells of his decision to take his two sons to see Falsettos, the critically acclaimed William Finn production currently playing at the Golden Theatre in New York.

Rich claims that, considering the alternatives, he felt that Falsettos was the most wholesome choice. Instead of joining most of the country's other families that weekend at Lethal Weapon 3, he wanted to provide his sons with alternatives to "the monolithic images of masculinity" they are routinely assaulted with by television and movies, and he also wanted them to be entertained in a way that "reinforces the idea that there are many ways to be masculine, from selfish to generous, from brutal to brave, and that it is up to each boy to make a choice."

Rich also clearly states that it is of value to him to take his children to a show where "homosexuals are depicted neither as abject victims of prejudice or disease, nor campy figures of fun, but as sometimes likable, sometimes fallible, sometimes juvenile, sometimes noble people no more or less extraordinary than the rest of us."

Everyone should read Rich's piece and then write to him at The New York Times; 229 West 43rd Street; New York, NY 10036.

"GLAAD Tidings" is written by members of the Gay & Lesbian Alliance Against Defamation, Inc., a nationwide organization which monitors media coverage of lesbians and gay men. To report on such coverage in Texas, contact GLAAD/Dallas at P.O. Box 190712, or call (214)526-4523. To reach the national office, write to GLAAD/New York; 150 West 26th Street, Suite 503; New York, NY 10001. Or call (212)807-1700.

STARSCOPE

By LEONARD BYRAM

Week of August 14-20, 1992

A Full Moon in Aquarius this week makes everyone more sociable and carefree; free also to become more active and make important decisions since Mercury went direct again on August 12.

On the weekend, the Moon moves into Pisces, setting a mood for the mysterious. Look after your mental health, and be wary of becoming infatuated. If you indulge in a bit of narcissism, you may be more easily excused as you're not in control as much as usual. Control freaks, on the other hand, will have a banner weekend.

LEO: (July 23 - Aug 22) This is the last week the Sun is in your first house, which has brought a mixed bag; the vacillations between intense highs and lows let up somewhat. A conflict from this past week can be resolved now. Avoid Scorpio temporarily. Watch out this weekend, as illusions may surround you. You might also feel oppressed by others this week. Enjoy an erotic encounter on Tuesday; by then, you've earned it. Best days: Monday and Tuesday.

VIRGO: (Aug 23 - Sep 22) The recent end of Mercury's retrograde brings relief to your sign in particular. Nevertheless, this weekend you need to let others take charge; and the Moon is not favorable to your sign this week. Sunday and Monday, sex tends to take an unusual turn. Tuesday, some turbulence for dates, but on Wednesday it stabilizes, with passion peaking Thursday afternoon. Best days: Wednesday and Thursday.

LIBRA: (Sep 23 - Oct 23) With the Full Moon in your house of love affairs, you're inclined to date indiscriminately, but probably with fortunate results. Friday night, friends may seem insensitive to your needs. Plans made Sunday through Tuesday may end in disillusionment. Tuesday night, love is chaotic; but stay on an even course. Thursday morning, conflict with Scorpio or Aries is likely; Thursday evening, sex takes on a surrealistic feeling. Best love prospect is Pisces. Best days: Tuesday and Thursday.

SCORPIO: (Oct 24 - Nov 21) Overindulgence tempts you this weekend; moderation is called for especially now, in all matters—including sex, believe it or not. Sunday and Monday, you're too open about your feelings, with the resulting danger that you may reveal too much. If cruising Wednesday or Thursday, allow others to share the initiative; otherwise, they may see you as domineering and pushy. Best day: Friday.

SAGITTARIUS: (Nov 22 - Dec 21) Not the week to tell secrets to or about your neighbors. Sunday through Tuesday, be highly visible but also knowledgeable as others ask questions. On Thursday afternoon, a lucky romantic streak materializes and carries on into the night. Best days: Sunday and Monday.

CAPRICORN: (Dec 22 - Jan 19) Old resentments get stirred up this week, but with the possibility of good results. Beware of letting long-repressed feelings toward siblings infect present relationships either with friends or romantic interests. Indulging passion demands more responsibility now. Possible love with a co-worker. Guard against jealousy on Tuesday. Wednesday, move on others; Thursday, let them move on you. Best days: Sunday, Monday, Wednesday and Thursday.

AQUARIUS: (Jan 20 - Feb 18) Since the Full Moon occurs in your house of self-image, this is a perfect time to make a change in your appearance. Friday and Saturday, sex comes unsolicited and unexpected. Monday, avoid a hasty move that may otherwise damage your self-esteem. Tuesday and Wednesday, tramp around with another Aquarian or a Libra. Best prospect for sex this week is a down-to-earth person, preferably a Taurean. Best day: Tuesday.

PISCES: (Feb 18 - Mar 20) This weekend

favors finding new romances, but by Sunday you feel drained by all the excitement. Monday evening, friends may be argumentative. On Thursday, love is best; but avoid sexual clashes with Aries. Be more sociable toward superiors. Any hasty decisions or rash actions could cause a personality clash, especially in regard to lovers who make more money or who are unemployed. Best days: Friday, Saturday and Thursday.

ARIES: (Mar 21 - April 19) Assume more responsibility for your health this week. Something minor may alarm you; but by Tuesday, your anxiety over that dissipates. Wednesday and Thursday, all love affairs need to be handled diplomatically. Established partners, too, must be handled with kid gloves. Someone appears stand-offish, but really isn't. A good week for self-promotion. Beware of delegating too much responsibility or appearing power-happy toward co-workers or those under you, particularly friends. Best days: Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

TAURUS: (Apr 20 - May 20) Temptations arise out of the blue this weekend. Sex can be all-consuming mid-week, to the point that you let work fall by the wayside. Wednesday, you're at your most attractive. Thursday, be ready for an unusual day, as situations change instantly. Just when you feel you understand the situation, another person may change their mind; ride out the confusion. Best days: Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

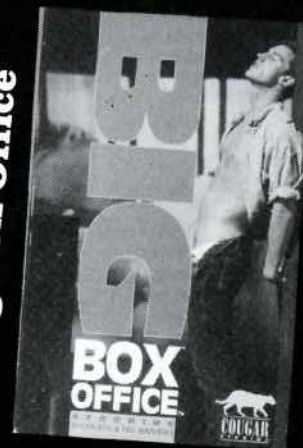

GEMINI: (May 21 - Jun 21) Due to the Full Moon earlier this week, your imagination could run away with you. Avoid accusing anyone until you have the facts. You feel more eager for action and decision as your ruling planet, Mercury, is now direct. You can afford to be more adventurous with a lover this week. Tuesday and Wednesday, others could find you opinionated or, even worse, bossy. Spare the gory details about a relationship to someone who really could be spared them. Best day: Monday.

CANCER: (June 22 - July 22) This weekend, everything in sight turns your head. Friday is good for sex, but Saturday evening slows down. Sunday feels lethargic while Monday is energizing. Thursday, it goes well for you with all other signs except Scorpio, as all your senses are finely tuned. An especially good week for all social activities. Best days: Friday, Monday and Thursday.

Next week: Sun enters Virgo finicky and making healthier living a priority.

On Our Cover RYAN BONN of San Antonio

Our cover man this week is Ryan Bonn, a 26-year-old, blue-eyed Aquarian who has great love and admiration for the theatre. An actor himself since he was a child, Ryan has performed in numerous plays and musicals, including the revival of Starmites in Manhattan.

Other hobbies of Ryan's are playing the piano and writing songs which he hopes to record one day. Ryan shares his life with his dog, Bruno, and many friends in the San Antonio area. He enjoys listening to the music of Bonnie Raitt, Rickie Lee Jones and, of course, Barbra Streisand. Ryan says his greatest dream is finding that perfect lover to share his life with and receiving a recording contract with a major record label.

You can catch Ryan doing a one-man show, "Blame It on a Summer Night," at the Alamo City Theater at the Josephine now through September 5.

GAY WORLD SERIES

Los Angeles — The 1992 Gay World Softball World Series takes place August 18-22 in Los Angeles. The games are held under the auspices of the North American Gay Amateur Athletic Alliance [NAGAAA] and hosted by the Greater Los Angeles Sports Association.

The Series will begin with opening ceremonies next Tuesday, and the games start immediately thereafter. There will be two sites for all games, Hjelta and Balboa Fields. The championship games will be played on Saturday, August 22. A closing banquet will follow for participants at which time trophies will be awarded.

In the women's division, the format adopted in 1991 will be used again. The games begin with round robin play leading to a double elimination tournament to determine the division champions. Women's division teams use an 11-inch softball in their games.

The open division [primarily men's teams, but can also include women's or mixed teams] will have a new format this year consisting of three subdivisions. The first subgroup will consist of the championship team from each league; the second sub-group, any league team other than the champion, with a .500 or better record; and the third sub-group, any league team with a record under .500. This last group is a special effort to recognize and include purely recreational teams in the World Series. Open division teams use a 12-inch softball in their games.

Teams from Houston and Dallas will make the trip to Los Angeles to compete. For Dallas, the Stripes softball team will represent the Pegasus Softball Association's competitive division and the Hidden Door will represent the recreational division. The Briar Patch Texans and the Montrose Mining Company will represent the Montrose Softball League of Houston.

Good luck to all the Texas teams at the Gay World Series from TWT SPORTS.

GAY BIKE RIDE

Houston — The Chain Gang Bicycle Club will be riding West Oaks tomorrow, Saturday, at 5 p.m. This ride will be 40 to 50 miles long at a fairly speedy pace. Meet at the parking lot by the southwest entrance to Mervyn's at West Oaks Mall, Highway 6 and Westheimer.

This Sunday, August 16, the Chain Gang performs the "Conroe Switch," biking two Conroe routes, one of 22 miles for the Easy Rider division and a second route of 55 miles for the speedier Chain Smokers. Rides start at 9 a.m. in the town square in Conroe, between Jack in the Box and Wyatt's Cafeteria. Everyone is welcome and taking part is free. For more details, call (713)622-4481.

TEAM PEGASUS

Dallas — With only one dissenting vote, those attending the June meeting of the former Team Dallas chose "Team Pegasus" as their official name. The group was forced to change their name when a commercial establishment incorporated the right to "Team Dallas" and denied the group the use of the name. The group will take part in Unity '94: Gay Games IV in New York City under its new name.

Tomorrow, Saturday, the group holds a car wash from 9:30 a.m.-3 p.m. on the parking lot of The SubCulture and the Crossroads Gym. This is the group's first fund-raiser and will help finance their quest for the gold at the Games.

Team Pegasus has begun preparing for their first Sports and Cultural Festival to be held on October 18-11, 1993. They are planning to sponsor a bowling tournament, tennis, volleyball, running, bodybuilding, basketball, wrestling, swimming and other sports events. Also in the works is a Cultural Festival, including a choreale and band concert, art show and street fair.

If interested in becoming involved with the Festival, contact Jon at (214)827-4388.

George "Marcial" Suarez, age 35, left this world after a valiant battle with AIDS on Monday, June 29, 1992 at Park Plaza Hospital. He was born in Matanzas, Cuba. He moved to the United States in May of 1966, was a resident of Texas, and became a United States citizen in 1980. Marcial is survived by his companion Gerald Ennis, his loving mother and stepfather Francisca Suarez and Albert Galvez, brothers Julio Suarez, Javier Suarez and wife Cyndi, all of Austin, Texas; sister Barbara Glover and husband Ronnie of Overton, Texas; and father Julio Suarez of Miami, Florida. Unmentioned survivors include a host of aunts, uncles, nieces and cousins, plus numerous supportive friends.

A special thanks goes out to his doctors, Dr. Didier F. Plot, Dr. Joseph Gathe Jr. and Dr. Edward Stool, for their compassionate caregiving, to the entire staff of the Special Disease unit (8th and 9th floors) of Park Plaza Hospital for their outstanding work, and to HNS (Home Nutritional Services) and their staff, for their care, support and friendship. Those wishing to make contributions in Marcial's name, please send them to: The Assistance Fund, 2476 Bolsover, Suite 455, Houston, TX 77005.

3/6/47 - 8/2/92

Greg was born in Flint, Michigan, where he obtained a Masters degree in history from the University of Michigan. He then moved to San Francisco, where he lived for seven years and was a prominent chef and bartender. Greg then moved to Houston in 1980, living there until his passing. He is survived by his longtime companion, Beau Manning, and best friend James Wilson of Houston; mother, Francis Western of Michigan and many other friends. Greg fought courageously with AIDS for six years. He was loved and was a genuine individual who will be missed tremendously. Greg won the hearts of many with his kind and gentle nature. Memorial services will be held at MCCR Saturday, August 22 at 2 p.m. Donations can be made in his behalf to F.I.R.M. at 701 N. Post Oak Rd., Suite 330, Houston, TX 77024.

May you rest in peace now.

With love, Beau.

Praise the Lord:

I will extol the Lord with all my heart in the council of the upright and in the assembly. Psalm 111
Samuel Richie Killingsworth (above)

April 10, 1954 to July 12, 1992

After a brief stay at Tyler, Texas at H.I.S. House, Sam went to be with his Lord and those friends who have gone on before us. Sam had been fighting the AIDS battle for about a year and a half in Shreveport, Louisiana. He lived most of his life in Longview, Texas. Twice he moved to Dallas, where he made many friends. He was on the bowling league there. He helped many a drag queen get ready for stardom. His 6-foot-2 frame from time to time could be seen imitating Patsy Cline and, yes, he even performed as Brad from Rocky Horror.

We friends left behind remember our friend Sam, who knew us and still loved us just as we are.

Memorials may be sent to Church with a Vision MCC, P.O. Box 1287, Longview, TX 75606.

J. Vincent Cerda (above)
11/29/65 6/29/92

In the presence of family and friends, Vince made a peaceful transition from this earthly life on the evening of June 29, 1992.

Originally from San Antonio, Texas, where his family still resides, Vince moved to the Dallas area upon graduation from East Texas State University in 1988.

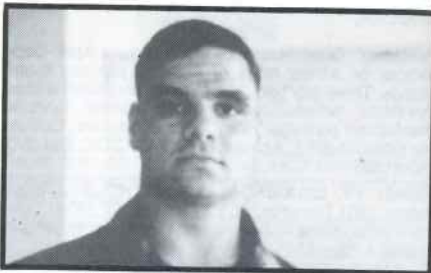

While a student at East Texas State, Vince was Vice-President of the Delta-Tau-Delta fraternity and an orientation leader.

He was an office supervisor of the Richardson Branch Adia Personnel from January of 1990 until his passing.

Services were held in San Antonio, his fraternity brothers serving as pallbearers.

Vince, thank you for the best years of my life. Until our paths cross again,

With all my love
Randy

Ed Bertram died of AIDS on July 27, 1992.

A native of West Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, Ed enlisted in the United States Marine Corps upon graduating from high school. He achieved the rank of lance corporal prior to relocating from California to Houston in 1987.

Ed loved and excelled at many sports, and played softball for the Galleon and the BriarPatch. He was employed as a bartender at The Barn and as assistant manager of Kindred Spirits.

Ed was a generous, caring, fun-loving person who is deeply missed. Survivors include his lifemate of six years, Barry Baxter; mother, Vicky; sisters, Gina, Lori and Marcie; niece, Morgan; grandmothers, Josephine Dudich and Stella Bertram; and numerous aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

In accordance with Ed's wishes, no memorial service was held. Please honor his memory by helping others with a donation to the Colt 45's AIDS TroubleFund or the Visiting Nurse Association.

Rick left this world peacefully on July 3, 1992 after a long battle with AIDS. He was cremated and his ashes were buried next to his mother, Helen, in Canfield, Ohio, as he wished.

He is survived by his lover of 18 years, Ron Black, a loving father and stepmother, John and Elva Orben, Sr., and his brother John, Jr. and family. Also, his many friends at the Venture-N and Ed's, and all his computer board friends. Last but not least, his many pets, Shotzie, Ginger, Blackie and Cotton Candy.

There was a beautiful memorial service held at the Green Haven Memorial Gardens in Canfield on July 11. For his Houston friends, there will be a get-together at the Venture-N. The date will be announced later.

January 9, 1942 August 8, 1992

Kenneth L. Haight, 50, made his transition, Saturday, August 8, 1992, after a valiant fight against pneumonia. Ken spent the past 24 years in Houston. A graduate of the University of Texas at Austin, Ken was born in Odessa, Texas and raised in Lynder and Midland, Texas.

In the mid '80s, Ken served as a volunteer at the AIDS Foundation and with Stone Soup. During the last two years, Ken served as the Administrative Director of Body Positive/Houston and spent many long hours in support of its pursuits.

Ken will be remembered for his dedication, consideration and support of many people. Ken is survived by his partner in life, Jim Baker, and numerous friends in Houston and elsewhere.

A memorial in celebration of Ken's life will be held in the Chapel of Unity Church of Christianity, Houston, at 1:30 p.m., Saturday, August 29. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to Body Positive/Houston, 1475 West Gray, Suite 176, Houston, TX 77019.

Larry Millard, born February 27, 1965, passed away Saturday, July 4, 1992. He graduated from South Houston High School in 1984. He was preceded in death by his mother, Dorothy Lou Millard. He is survived by his father, Jack D. Millard, Sr.; sisters, Linda Miller of Houston, Texas and Jamie Millard of Austin; brothers Jack Millard Jr. and Joe Millard of Montgomery, Texas and Les Millard of Houston, Texas; six nieces and nephews.

Larry was a member of the Austin Men's Choir and the MCC Church of Austin. He is loved and missed by many who knew him. The family wishes to thank all those who supported him through his battle for life.

You were born 4/26/63 in San Antonio and then on 7/23/92, you passed peacefully in your sleep at our home in Austin surrounded by myself, your mom Josie, your sister Loreen and Mike, your friend and nurses' aid. You were also survived by your sister Louise, her fiancé Carlos, stepfather Gustavo, gramo Virginia, tio and aunt, cousin Katanna, friends Olga, Georgie, Ray, Rick, Denise, Alicia and Laura, Tricia, Bernie, Matt, Jim and numerous other aunts, uncles, cousins and many other friends, all of whom came to spend time with you in your last months. In the end, even your real father, Luis C., came through and was there with you.

Yes, Luis, you were loved dearly by all of us, and I shall always treasure the six years that we shared. Know also that you have inspired all of us who were with you to join in the fight against this horrible disease, AIDS. We all wore freedom rings and red ribbons at your funeral mass and interment. Then we all gathered at our home for your wake, complete with everything you wanted, food, margaritas, cas-carones, fish and balloons. Never have I seen the unity and love that was displayed by the church, family and friends in these difficult times, and never did I encounter any of the prejudice against us that we so feared.

Luis, I will miss you terribly, but I shall carry on your legacy and spirit and because of that, I know that I will not be alone and that I shall be happy. I love you, Luis, and I'll miss you.

Till we meet again,
Mark W. Henderson

P.S. Per your request, we will make memorials to the Paul Kirby Fund of AIDS Services of Austin, P.O. Box 4874, Austin, TX 78765
