ACTIVISTS CALL FOR BIGGER INCREASE IN AUSTIN AIDS FUNDING

City Hall Demonstration Supports HIV Commission Recommendation.

AUSTIN — Last Thursday, AIDS activists and representatives of Austin-area AIDS service organizations held a very peaceful rally outside Austin City Council Chambers to support a proposal to add $280,000 to the 1993 City budget for AIDS care and education work through community-based agencies. The funding increase was recommended by the Austin-Travis County HIV Commission.

The city budget for fiscal year includes a tiny one-percent increase, from $695,000 to $703,000, in funds granted to community-based organizations dealing with the epidemic.

But the number of people in Austin and Travis County living with AIDS increased by 24 percent in the year ending last June 30, and the total continues to grow. Another person is diagnosed with the disease every 24 hours, and every 32 hours brings another death from AIDS. Fiscal year 1993 began October 1, 1992.

Protesters signed huge card later delivered to members of Austin City Council.

Commission members believe the one-percent increase actually represents a decrease in the level of services available to the HIV-infected. The fear has also been expressed that spending less now on prevention and community-based services will eventually result not only in greater human suffering but in a greater cost to the public in such areas as increased unreimbursed hospital stays, lost wages and an even faster spread of the virus.

TEXAS NEWS

In 1991, Austin was 13th in the incidence of HIV infection among 93 U.S. cities with populations of 500,000 or more. Military recruits from the area have tested positive for HIV at twice the national rate.

Although City Council has not voiced any opposition to the budget increase, no council member has as yet committed to putting the proposed amendment on the agenda. Organizers of the rally had hoped the timing of their action would coincide with Council's consideration of the spending increase, but the amendment was not on the agenda Thursday.

Rally spokesperson Paul Clover, who is a person with AIDS as well as a co-founder and previous Director of Education at AIDS Services of Austin, told the crowd of nearly 100 that adequate AIDS funding was crucial.

"We are here to tell the Council that until the cure or vaccine arrives, there will never be a year when the level of funding for the epidemic is a responsible action," Clover said.

"AIDS has to be a priority funding item. Fiscal responsibility and our common humanity demand it."

A large red ribbon was wrapped around the City Council building during the demonstration, and a 4' x 8' card addressed to city officials claiming that "AIDS Won't Wait" was signed by rally participants and delivered to City Council along with the ribbon.

DALLAS NAMES PROJECT ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

*Co-Chair Will "Use Connections"
In Attempt to Motivate Politicians.*

DALLAS — The Dallas chapter of the NAMES Project, the national effort to create a memorial to the victims of the AIDS virus by crafting quilt panels dedicated to those who have died of the disease, recently elected new officers to their board. These new board members will be entrusted with the routine operations of the Dallas organization, in addition to coordinating the events surrounding the planned display of the entire quilt in Dallas in early 1994.

New board officers include co-chairs Marvin Shelley and Mitch Gill, recording secretary Linda Fredette and treasurer Bill Oden. Shelley, one of Dallas' top realtors and developers, comes to the project with far-reaching connections. He said he will use those connections to motivate politicians and government officials to allocate funding for AIDS research and benefits, and to increase awareness of the disease in the Southern region with the display of the quilt in Dallas.

To fund these goals, the NAMES Project staff will concentrate their efforts in the coming year on scheduling a series of fund-raisers. Planned events include concerts, dinners and auctions. All proceeds will be used to fund Dallas' quilt display.

Volunteers and community input are needed if the NAMES Project is to maintain its excellent record in honoring the victims of AIDS and in increasing public awareness. To assist the group in their goals, or to obtain more information, please contact Linda Fredette at (214) 285-7476. All interested persons are also invited to attend the group's monthly meeting on the second Thursday of each month, at 8 p.m. at Dallas' Southland Center Hotel, 400 North Olive Street.

HIPY EXPANDS HIV OUTREACH TO GAY/LESBIAN TEENS

Funding for Services Comes from Grant to Montrose Clinic.

HOUSTON — The Houston Institute for the Protection of Youth, Inc. [HIPY], formed less than a year ago to assist homeless and "throwaway" young people, will be expanding its HIV education outreach to gay and lesbian street youth in the Montrose area with the help of funds provided by the Montrose Clinic.

The money comes from a grant the Clinic received from INSURE, a public foundation supported by contributions from life and health insurance companies. The Clinic is subcontracting with HIPY to provide the service.

The Montrose Clinic grant is just one of several HIPY has either received or applied for recently to help it expand its outreach to "throwaway" adolescents in Houston. The group was recently awarded $31,000 by the Texas Department of Health [TDH] to extend the hours of its drop-in center. The facility will now be open from 10 a.m. - 10 p.m. seven days a week.

TDH has also awarded the group funds to expand its outreach to minority female teens. Two adult women and two adolescents recently completed a training program that will enable them to provide education in HIV and sexually transmitted diseases specifically targeted to minority female adolescents. The state funds will also be used to open two facilities in the Fourth and Fifth Wards to provide HIV/STD testing and counseling.

HIPY has applied to the United Way for a grant to open a HIV/STD testing facility targeted to homeless youth. The clinic would be housed at the Institute's drop-in center, with personnel to be provided by the Montrose Clinic.

NEVER A COVER.

HIPY Executive Director Tracy Brown explained that a facility devoted to testing street youth for HIV and other sexually transmitted diseases is needed because homeless adolescents typically will not go to clinics that serve a primarily adult population.

HIV testing is already provided one day a week during "Teen Night" at the Montrose Clinic on Wednesdays, which includes counseling by specially trained adolescent HIV educators. But Brown said too many at-risk street youth are simply not being reached.

"Of all the kids that we see, 90% have never been tested, even though just about all are engaging in high-risk behavior."

Attending grant presentation to Montrose Clinic were (l-r) HIPY Executive Director Tracy Brown, INSURE representative Robert Blevins, Clinic Executive Director Dr. Ralph Lasher and State Sen. Rodney Ellis.

Brown added that the proposed new testing site will also provide follow-up counseling, support groups and other services that have not previously been available to HIV-positive teens in the Houston area.

"Before, if they went and got tested at an adult clinic and found out they were HIV-positive, the only follow-up available was adult support groups," he said.

The Institute's STATUS program, or "Students Taking Action to Understand Society," provides peer education to classes and individual students. There are currently 80 teens participating in the program. To be eligible to become peer educators, students must maintain a 3.0 grade average, obtain three faculty recommendations and submit a 300-word essay explaining why they want to be part of the program. Then they go through a two-weekend all-day training course.

The Houston Institute for the Protection of Youth will be open December 24 for a Christmas Eve party from 7-9 p.m., and Christmas dinner will be served at noon on Christmas Day. A tree and decorations were donated to HIPY by IntraCare Hospital, and gifts have been donated by Shocking Grey, Don't Panic, Universal Spada, IntraCare and Palais Royal.

THRF PICKS OFFICERS, NEW BOARD TRUSTEES

*Nancy Molleda Chosen President,
Tom Henderson Vice President;
Incumbents Alan Levi,
Eric Chiarizio Retain Offices.*

AUSTIN — At its 1992 Board of Trustees meeting held recently in Port Aransas, the Texas Human Rights Foundation [THRF] elected officers for the upcoming year as well as four new board members.

Nancy Molleda of Houston was elected President. Molleda, the first woman to serve as president in the organization's history, works at the Texas General Land Office as a Field Program Specialist. Recently she served as co-chair, with newly elected THRF Vice-President Tom Henderson, of the statewide lesbian and gay get-out-the-vote campaign for President-elect Bill Clinton. Molleda has also been a board member and president of the Executive and Professional Association of Houston and has served on the State Democratic Committee.

Members of the THRF Executive Committee are [l-r] secretary Eric Chiarizio, treasurer Alan Levi, vice president Tom Henderson, president Nancy Molleda, Legal Committee chair Robert Rosenberg and Fund-raising Committee chair Worth Ross.

Henderson, who is currently CEO of 4E Technologies, Inc., was a delegate to the Democratic National Convention last July (along with Molleda) and served as Assistant to the Commissioner at the Texas General Land Office for six years. Alan Levi, a C.P.A. from Dallas, was elected Treasurer of THRF for the fourth consecutive year, and Eric Chiarizio, an attorney from Houston, was reelected to a second term as secretary.

Four new trustees were also elected to the board, two from Dallas, one from Austin and one from Port Aransas. Hector Garcia is an actor as well as a captain at the Riviera Restaurant in Dallas. He is currently working in television and radio commercials and feature films.

Garcia is Vice Chair of the Human Services Commission of the City of Dallas, Democratic Precinct Chair and a sustaining member of the Dallas County Democratic Party. He was a delegate to the Democratic National Convention in July and serves on the board of directors of the Turtle Creek Chorale.

Jose Plata, also of Dallas, holds an administrative position with the Baldwin Family Music Center. He worked as a teacher in Dallas from 1979-1986 and currently serves as Vice Chair of the City of Dallas Cultural Affairs Commission. He also serves on both the executive committee and board of trustees for ArtReach of Dallas and for the Sammons Center for the Arts. He has served on the City of Dallas Mayor's Hispanic Advisory Committee and on the board of the Anita N. Martinez Ballet Folklorico, Inc.

Newly-elected THRF trustees include Michael Robert of Port Aransas and Eugene Sepulveda of Austin [not pictured: Hector Garcia and Jose Plata].

Eugene Sepulveda of Austin is Senior Vice President at New First City Bank. He is currently chair of the Austin/Travis County HIV Commission and serves on the Austin Minority Purchasing Council Advisory Board. He is a member of the Austin International Business Council of the Austin Chamber of Commerce as well as the Hispanic Chamber of Commerce and has served on the San Antonio-Austin Dinner Committee for the Human Rights Campaign Fund.

Michael Robert of Port Aransas is owner and manager of the Seahorse Inn. A graduate of Southwest Texas State University in San Marcos, he has worked as a teacher in Los Angeles and has resided in London.

THRF board incumbents Virginia Raymond, Bruce Monroe and Dick Peebles decided not to seek reelection. Peebles, who has been chosen to receive THRF's lifetime achievement award at the organization's annual Robert Schwab Memorial Awards to be held in Dallas in February, served on the board for 14 years, acting as both president (twice) and as treasurer from (1980-1989).

DALLAS GROUP PUSHES PARENTAL RESPONSIBILITY ACT

*'Better Than The Best' Believes
Childrearing Courses Needed
To Combat Violence, Crime.*

DALLAS — After years of watching a decline in parents' interest in the educational progress of their children and its contribution to the problems and ills now experienced by our society, one Dallas teacher has decided enough is enough. With the formation of a new lobbying group, Better Than The Best, James Dunn hopes to stem the ever-increasing tide of violence and crime that now appears to be accepted by most citizens as "normal."

One of the initial goals of the group will be to lobby the incoming Clinton administration to pass a Parental Responsibility Act with 100 days of the presidential inauguration. The Act would require all parents who claim a child as a deduction on their income tax returns to complete a government-approved parenting course and to attend at least one parent conference per semester. The group leaves the establishment of these parenting courses to the executive branch of the government.

According to Dunn, the group is aware of the limitations of the proposal. "We know that it [the proposal] would increase the already huge bureaucracy of the federal government. But every time we build a new federal prison to house the criminals that should not have become criminals, the federal government grows also."

"It would be much better to have the federal government grow in a positive way than in a negative way. Increasing the number of prison cells is not a positive way for the government to grow."

Dunn believes that parenting classes should teach parents to teach their children how to love themselves, and how to respect others and the property of others. "A nightmare that I witnessed once involved the father of a 15-year-old boy who told me what he did when his son told him he was gay. The father told me that after a good beating, his son didn't say he was gay anymore. The beating, according to the father, had made his son as 'straight as anyone else.'

"I know that not only had the beating been ineffective in eradicating the son's homosexuality, but now the son was a physically abused, mentally abused and possibly emotionally scarred homosexual, growing up in a home where he was learning to hate himself."

"A parenting class might have prepared the child's parents, whether they like it or not, for the possibility, no matter how remote, that their son, or any kid, may be born homosexual. Most people do not raise their children to be homosexual, but they should be prepared for this possibility. Instead of beating the child, the parents might have known to reassure him, and to let him know that he is, and will always be, loved. They would have known to tell him that there are many members of society who are productive, worthwhile and homosexual."

"The beatings and the hatred will only make the child hate himself, and his home-taught self-loathing may manifest itself in alcoholism, drug abuse, addiction or other self-destructive behaviors commonly associated with low self-esteem."

Gay parents are not immune to these and other issues. The stress and strain of society's judgment on the sexuality of the parent can be a contributing factor in negative parenting. The bottom line, according to Dunn, regardless of the child's or the parent's sexuality, is "that something is dysfunctional in a society when that society becomes accustomed to an ever-increasing murder rate, carjackings, incest, rape, robberies, etc. Something is wrong in a society when honest people lock themselves in their homes, behind heavy bars, afraid even in broad daylight. Something is wrong in a society when people cannot drive their own automobiles without fear of carjacking. 'Few people feel safe in their homes, fewer people feel safe on the streets.'"

"The parenting classes we're requesting should teach parents to teach their children how to love themselves and how to respect others and the property of others. Classes could prepare parents for situations that have been traditionally difficult to resolve positively; those situations that could result in emotional scarring of their children."

"Raising children is not a hobby to be dropped or picked up at one's pleasure. Raising children is a serious responsibility. Human lives are at stake. Society is at stake."

'HEARTS IN VICTORY' RAISES OVER $50,000

Proceeds Will Go to San Antonio AIDS Service Agencies.

SAN ANTONIO — The first AIDS telethon ever held in Texas brought in $50,000 and helped erase the stigma attached to the disease, organizers say.

Proceeds from the "Hearts in Victory Lone Star State HIV/AIDS Telethon '92," broadcast last Sunday from 2-6 p.m. on San Antonio Fox affiliate KRRT Channel 35, will go to agencies that provide AIDS services and education in the San Antonio area.

The four-hour fund-raiser brought in over 500 pledges totaling at least $50,000, with more expected. The largest contributors were Sebastian Hair Care Products and Sunbelt Sportswear, which pledged $10,000 each.

Hosts for the fund-raiser were Jennifer England of KRRT, Tony Fama of KSAT and Deborah Daniels of KMOL. Bexar County Judge Cyndi Taylor Krier and San Antonio City Council member Bill Thornton made special appearances to appeal to San Antonians to open up their pocketbooks and support the fund-raising effort.

Organizers Scott Gambuti of the Alamo Area Resource Center [AARC] and Fran Mendez of the San Antonio AIDS Foundation [SAAF] said they were very pleased with the response to "Hearts in Victory."

"It was a wonderful success," Gambuti told TWT NEWS. "It helped erase the stigma of AIDS and educated people while bringing many others together."

Those who still wish to make donations may do so by calling Gambuti at (210) 735-AIDS or Mendez at 225-4715.

Urge Passage of Gay Rights Bills

Dear TWT:

Now is the time for all gays and lesbians to unite while Congress is considering passage of Senate Bill 574 and its House companion measure H.R. 1430 that protects our civil rights, while the attention is still on us because of Bill Clinton's victory. If these bills are passed, we will have the same rights as heterosexuals in marriages. Gay couples will have the right to adopt and will have custody rights in a divorce. Schools will be allowed to teach that homosexuality is an option and not unnatural. Churches will not be allowed to reject gays and lesbians who seek ordination.

The gay and lesbian lobbies are out in full force to convince senators and congressmen to endorse these bills. We've been told we're small in number and loud in voice, but I believe we can no longer complacently sit by and not be counted. Therefore, it is urgent that you write your U.S. senators and congressman and let them know your count.

The American Psychiatric Association stated years ago that homosexuality is not an unnatural condition. Homosexuals do not molest children any more than straights do, and do not try to convert young people or anyone else into becoming gay. We commit no more crimes than straights. We were born the way we are and not made gay by an absent parent or a childhood seduction. Psychotherapy will not make us different. We can make excellent leaders and are good role models for children. The majority of people are neither gay nor straight, but somewhere in between. So please write today. The addresses of Texas' two senators are Sen. Lloyd Bentsen (D-Tx), 703 Hart Senate Office Bldg., Washington, DC 20510; and Senator Phil Gramm (R-Tx),

The Perfect Gift

Dear TWT:

As the holiday season swings into full gear, many of us feel the panic. I'm probably the worst. I wait until the last minute to try to complete my shopping list. Well, this year my problems are solved.

The new Voices for Life project has created a double CD and cassette highlighting 30 tracks of the best variety of music Houston has to offer. I have heard few songs on the album that aren't short of incredible! But the best part is that almost 90% of the proceeds from sales of the products go to the programs at AIDS service agencies that provide direct services to people living with AIDS here in Houston.

Where else can you buy a gift of such quality music where the proceeds go such a long way to directly help others? The double CD is sold for $20 and the double cassette can be yours for just $15. Stores such as Lobo, Crossroads Market and the Unique Boutique are generously offering the products without any markup. They are also available at most Houston record outlets.

If albums aren't your bag, "Voices for Life" has also produced a line of beautiful full-color T-shirts and posters. So, hopefully no one needs to worry about finding "that perfect gift" for everyone on their list.

If you need further information on Voices for Life, please call their office at (713)988-3117.

Remind Clinton

Dear TWT:

President-elect Bill Clinton has decided to give more study to his campaign pledge to lift the ban on gays and lesbians in the military. What this means exactly, I am not sure of at this point. But there is no better example of the conduct of gays and lesbians in the military than the Gulf War.

Under the Freedom of Information Act the files of the Army's Criminal Investigation Division have been opened and the information they contain addresses this issue well, as do the records of gays and lesbians who have fought in all our wars.

From August, 1990 through July, 1991, after the deployment of more than 195,000 Army troops, there were only four cases of homosexual sodomy prosecuted. Army women during the same period filed 16 complaints of heterosexual harassment. Their complaints were based on repeated unwanted sexual propositions, fondling of breasts and buttocks and threats of coercion for sex. The Army found enough evidence to warrant six court-martials for rape in other cases. The testimony in Rep. Patricia Schroeder's House Armed Services Committee hearings last summer concerning the Tailhook scandal would indicate that it is very probable that for every case of reported rape or harassment there were dozens that went unreported. Of the four cases of homosexual sodomy three involved consenting adults. More soldiers committed suicide and eight times as many were killed in traffic accidents than were accused of sodomy. This is something the president-elect should give some study to, as I am sure he will.

If conduct, as the president-elect says is the measure by which gays and lesbians should be judged, their conduct in the Gulf War proves the ban should be lifted. In combat and in every other aspect of military service, the conduct of gays and lesbians showed we could be as patriotic and heroic as anyone else. Our enemies no longer can say we are a security risk, so they claim that lifting the ban would be disruptive to military life and counter-productive to the military's mission. The facts prove the opposite is true, and despite the fact the military allows heterosexuals to serve, it still manages to get the job done. There are only three real reasons for the ban: ignorance, hate and prejudice. If the ban on gays and lesbians is lifted, we will continue to serve as we will always do. And I am sure we will enlist in the same numbers as always. As in so many other countries, the question of sexual orientation will not be asked. That and the fact that a person will not be discharged simply because of who they are will be all that changes in the military. In the society at large, we will be able to assert our right to be even more, because the opposition will not be able to deny our existence, our contribution to the protection of the country, and the rights that naturally are a result of that sacrifice. President-elect Clinton is caught up in political complexities and there are those he must make concessions to. I have no doubt that he is a good man, but like all politicians, I am sure his own interests are factored into much of what he does. If we want him to do the right thing, we have to keep him aware of the fact we are a major reason he was elected. Because as a recent meeting of 40 powerful conservative groups in Washington shows, there are many who are pressuring him to keep the ban. This is not a done deal until the executive order is signed.

OUT OF EVERY THREE GAYS AND LESBIANS IS CHEMICALLY DEPENDENT.

A FACT THAT'S HARD TO LIVE WITH.

Chemically dependent gays and lesbians have special concerns that must be addressed in treatment and recovery.

Pride in Recovery offers a safe place where you can talk freely about your lifestyle with a staff who is fully supportive and understanding.

We strive to help you overcome your need for drugs or alcohol as well as develop a more positive self-image. And maybe, for the first time in your life, you can face the world with a fresh, uninhibited outlook.

The holiday season descended upon 1983 Texas like snowfall in the mountains, and you can be sure that each and every Lone Star gay descended upon the nearest Neiman-Marcus to try on the latest in Christmasy gay apparel. With extra special holiday parties planned by all the major nightspots across the state—such as the fifth annual Christmas show with just-crowned-the-week-before Female Impersonator of the Year Naomi Sims, Donna Day, Tasha Kohl, Hot Chocolate and Mr. Tiffany Jones at Houston's Copa and the "Biggest Party of the Year" at the Old Plantation in Dallas—you could be sure that none of the selected ensembles would be wasted.

If the parties weren't enough to satisfy your taste for excitement and holiday glitz, then surely the tree lighting ceremonies across the state were. In Dallas, the Oak Lawn tree lighting took place on the grounds of the Oak Lawn branch of the Dallas City Library and was attended by Dallas Gay Alliance president Mike Stewart and Dallas City Councilmember Paul Fielding while in Houston, her honor Mayor Kathryn J. Whitmire threw the switch illuminating Montrose's official tree, perched demurely atop Mary's, of course.

Tree-lightings and drag shows weren't the only holiday options available to Texasians in 1983, especially given the slew of new Hollywood releases offered at local movie houses. Regrettably, few of the new films carried the true spirit of the high Christian holiday, particularly Barbra Streisand's newest, Yentl. That film, plus Gorky Park and Scarface, the stories of Russian espionage and Narcotics Anonymous dropouts, did little to foster the principle of "good will towards men."

Spotted out and about avoiding films, fem mimic revues and civic events were Ron Griswold, Dennis Ashby, David Hanson, Ron Bilbo and Tim O'Reilly serving the masses at Tim's Coffee Shop in Houston; Samantha Samuels and Linda Hefner entertaining the same mass at Rascal's, still in Houston; C.L. Salazar managing the lights and the club at the Old Plantation in Dallas; Billie Moon and Buddy Jones roping some cattle in the cowtown city of Fort Worth; Ralph Ford, George Law, Rodney Mendick, George Tyler, Candie Hall, Carlos Trevino, Raymond Mendez, Lisa Panzullo and Mauro Garza walking the planks at Lafitte's in Corpus Christi; and Gary Monier and Vance Gilliam turning off the neon at The Saint in Dallas.

Even before the arrival of the U.S. Navy at the sparkling city by the sea, Corpus Christi was always a SPORTSMAN's paradise, and the magazine's heavy coverage of all things jockular in the city proves that point. From the formation of the first Gay Tennis Association to the establishment of a new Sports Committee covering everything from bowling to badminton, you could be sure that if balls were involved, so was THIS WEEK IN TEXAS.

Finally, SHOWBIZ maven and confidant to the stars Miss Jack Varsi regaled his fans with stories of Steve Martin's heavy film schedule—a schedule that included co-starring duties with the likes of Lily Tomlin, Gilda Radner, Penny Marshall, Tyne Daly and Charles Grodin.

Quite an impressive list, doncha think?...

And so it was, this Christmas week in Texas, 1983.

On Our Cover

J.D. MARTIN & STUART MICHAEL

Because the holidays are all about being with those who are near and dear to you, TWT has selected two hot young men who plan on spending this holiday together.

Cuddly J.D. Martin is a 29-year-old native of Columbus, Ohio. He's made his home in Dallas for the last nine years, and is currently a student pursuing a degree in the apparel industry. When he's not serving his many loyal customers at Throckmorton Mining Company, you can find him sketching or dancing the latest two-step at his favorite country western bar.

J.D.'s best friend, handsome Stuart Michael, is Mr. Dallas All-American, and will represent Waco as Mr. Waco All-American in next year's Mr. Texas All-American contest. Stuart is a 27-year-old graduate of the University of Texas at Austin, and is currently working in advertising in the Metroplex. He enjoys camping and hiking, and has been teaching aerobics and fitness training for the last four years.

These two popular Dallas residents represent the true spirit of the holiday season—a time for giving, a time for joy and peace, and a time for sharing. Merry Christmas!

Week of December 18-24, 1992

The Moon's entry into Scorpio makes for a sultry and erotic mood for all on Saturday and Sunday. Monday morning, the Sun enters ambitious and materialistic Capricorn, marking the beginning of Winter at 8:45 a.m.

On Wednesday and Christmas Eve, late shoppers, under recent materialistic influences, opt for more practical gifts. Plan for a relaxing and quiet Christmas Day even though nothing is likely to go as planned, with unexpected guests and phone calls in the afternoon.

SAGITTARIUS: (Nov 22 - Dec 21) Enjoy this last weekend with the Sun in your sign. It can bring diversity at its utmost. But also concentrate on your mental well-being. Relaxation with another Sagittarius or Taurus can be extremely sensual. Heed Scorpio's advice. Be prepared for the cycle of socializing that begins Monday. Accept all invitations to holiday parties Monday night. Wednesday and Thursday, a little research goes a long way in confirming your suspicions. Best days: Friday through Tuesday.

CAPRICORN: (Dec 22 - Jan 19) Like Sagittarius, you're in the party spotlight over the weekend. If invited to parties, reciprocate or others will think you're selfish. Wednesday is the best time all year to begin anew. Plan New Year's resolutions that night; or better still, begin resolutions Thursday. The current Sun transit exposes you to public scrutiny. Make plans Thursday as judgment is better. Best days: Sunday through Thursday.

AQUARIUS: (Jan 20 - Feb 18) Career choices and jobs are emphasized this weekend. Invite a superior out, resolve disputes with co-workers or forgive an employee's insubordination. Monday is best for partying. Wednesday and Thursday, consider what you really desire and what it takes to make it happen. An excellent time to begin meditation, self-hypnosis, physical exercise program or therapy. Those met through parents or grandparents Thursday night bring change. Best days: Friday and Thursday.

PISCES: (Feb 18 - Mar 20) This week, a parent or grandparent unwittingly introduces you to a gay prospect, likely your best bet for sexual fulfillment. Early Sunday, your insight is keen and your ideas more creative when it comes to Christmas presents. Meditate or relax the rest of the day. On Wednesday, make a New Year's resolution to further your education or save money for an overseas vacation. Late Thursday, you are easily distracted. Best days: Saturday and Sunday.

ARIES: (Mar 21 - April 19) A gradual and major change for the better begins and later blossoms overnight. Most likely it changes your sex life as well as your relationships, strengthening and deepening them. Seek Scorpio's advice Sunday. Monday you can more easily cut away from deadbeat friends and frivolous ways. Wednesday and Thursday, career is highlighted; work is a priority and success more likely. Best day: Friday.

TAURUS: (Apr 20 - May 20) This weekend, your ruling planet Venus encourages you to go after anyone you want, but specifically another Taurean or a Libran. For luck, take a Sagittarian with you. Don't let a jerk upset you late Saturday. Sunday through Tuesday, a Capricorn points you in the right direction. Make intimate plans those nights. Skip lunch and go to a museum Tuesday. Wednesday and Thursday, devise a way to mix business with pleasure in the coming year. Best days: Friday through Monday.

GEMINI: (May 21 - Jun 21) Your imagination runs away with you, your thoughts and fantasies tripping over each other. This weekend, watch health as you're prone to excess. Let others take care of you Monday. If going away for the holidays, make arrangements by Monday night. You react harshly to the slightest criticism Tuesday morning. Reunions go well early in the week. Put final touches on holiday ideas mid-afternoon Wednesday. Unexpected money comes through a story a lover or friend tells you. Best days: Friday, Monday and Wednesday.

CANCER: (June 22 - July 22) If single, a favorable time to set out a plan of action to find a lover. Resolve to be receptive to others' plans for next year. Marriage is definitely indicated, but with compromise. Saturday is slower than anticipated, leaving you estranged from others that night. Socialize on Sunday, as you get along with anybody, and vice-versa. On Monday, assert your independence; Tuesday morning, you're efficient; Wednesday, ambitious; and Wednesday evening, harmonious and ready for intimacy, preferably with a Capricorn. Thursday afternoon, avoid a hassle with Sagittarius. Thursday night, beware of excessive optimism, as you too easily feel put upon. Best days: Sunday and Tuesday.

LEO: (July 23 - Aug 22) Balance work and health. You appear more serious than you actually are. Take steps to fit in more at work and arrange for a physical. This weekend you profit emotionally and financially from being around the home. Monday, take risks and the advice of someone older and/or more experienced. Wednesday night you break a gridlock that has harmed a friendship. Forget about enemies; they sap too much energy. Best day: Monday.

VIRGO: (Aug 23 - Sep 22) You can break free of negative emotions concerning love, rejection or disappointment. You're attracted to very young persons; care is needed not to hurt or be hurt. This weekend, tensions with relatives are likely. Environment and moods go hand in hand. Monday, new ideas and reunions go better. Wednesday, confront others you don't trust. Christmas Eve favors an affair. Best days: Monday, Wednesday and Thursday.

LIBRA: (Sep 23 - Oct 23) You could easily fall in love this week. If already in love and seeking a commitment, you're likely to succeed now. Watch your purse strings and possessions closely this weekend. Monday night, a significant other makes his or her intentions known. The rest of the week, plan ways to make your residence more comfortable. If thinking about moving Wednesday, talk to a realtor or loan officer first. Best days: Friday, Saturday and Monday.

SCORPIO: (Oct 24 - Nov 21) This weekend is one of your best. Go for what you want. If rejected, persist. Don't let negative influences hold you back. On Sunday, drop people who use you; break up relationships that are dead and have no chance of reviving. Also let go of exes, whether alive or deceased. You can now change whatever you wish about your life. Sunday evening, if single, much is accomplished with others; likewise, if you're in love be alone with your beau. Discard the past and make amends with siblings and neighbors. This whole month stresses forgetting past grudges. Best days: Saturday and Sunday.

Next week: Christmas and how the New Moon affects it and New Year.

GAMBLER'S BOWLING

Austin — The Gambler's Bowling League reported the following standings to TWT SPORTS as of December 8

1—Oilcan Harry's, 2—'Bout Time, 3—The "Straight" Pins?, 4—Buns of Steel and 5—Snappers.

High scratch game for the men was rolled by Sam Nelson and for the women by Carla Ives.

The second half of the fall-winter season begins on January 5. New teams and individual bowlers are welcome. For more information, call Lucky at (512)451-5607, Michael at 990-0601 or Steve at 346-4306.

WOMEN'S TENNIS

Texas — 1992 witnessed a dramatic increase in the number of women participating on the lesbian and gay tennis circuit. During the 14 years gay and lesbian tennis has been formally organized in the United States, the participants have been predominantly men—that is, until recently.

To see the change, one only needs to look at the National Tennis Tournament hosted by the Los Angeles Tennis Association this past Labor Day weekend. A record 67 women from across the country converged on suburban Long Beach for the annual tournament. Only two years earlier, there had not even been women's divisions.

Fifteen major cities across the country have lesbian and gay tennis associations which host a wide range of activities, including tournaments. As women's events continue to become more visible on the tennis circuit, they can only increase in size and quality. The camaraderie and competition shared in the tournaments and in the tennis associations should continue attracting a growing number of women.

Also supporting the growth of lesbian and gay tennis in general is the Gay and Lesbian Tennis Alliance, a nonprofit organization formed two years ago. Volunteers representing clubs across the nation help promote awareness of tennis activities within the community, help new clubs organize and have even established a computerized national tennis ranking system for the gay and lesbian tennis circuit.

Persons interested in further information about lesbian and gay tennis associations, or in upcoming tournaments, may write to Gary Sutton, 12750 Centralia St., #126, Lackwood, CA 90715 or contact the Houston Tennis Club at (713)524-8046, the Oak Lawn Tennis Association in Dallas at (214)739-2726

GAY GAMES IV

New York City — Gay Games IV, in conjunction with the Stonewall 25 celebrations, will be the largest gathering of the lesbian and gay community in the history of the world and an extraordinary demonstration of the community's diversity, talent and spirit.

Men, women—gay, lesbian, queer and none-of-the-above—young and old, people of every ethnic and cultural background, HIV-positive and differently abled people will present the true diversity of the community, and Gay Games IV should be an event like no other. More than 10,000 athletes are expected to take part.

The first Games were held in San Francisco in 1982 and again in 1986. The 1990 Games were held in Vancouver, Canada and set a tradition of participatory excellence from the beginning. The Games have more than doubled in size each time. The 1994 Games are expected to be the largest multi-sport event ever held anywhere—gay or straight.

Anyone is eligible and welcome to compete in the friendly and supportive environment of the Games, from Olympic gold medalists to weekend softball players. More than 300 teams from over 50 countries and all 50 U.S. states are expected to participate.

Held in conjunction with Gay Games IV will be a major gay and lesbian cultural festival featuring an array of artistic excellence as diverse as the community, with band and choir concerts, art exhibits, theatre and many other cultural events.

The whole event will cost an estimated $5 million to present. Fund-raising is underway and a call for support has gone out to the worldwide gay and lesbian community. "Founding Friends" are asked to support the effort at any level they possibly can.

For more information, contact New York in '94, Gay Games IV, Times Square Station, P.O. Box 202, New York, New York 10036, (212)633-9494. For more information locally, call Team Pegasus in Dallas at (214)946-8112/ 821-1653, Team San Antonio (210)224-9175 or Team Houston at (713)439-0102.

Phil Donahue has given prime time its first real gay kiss. America's first talk show host recently celebrated his 25th anniversary on television. The prime-time salute contained highlights from Donahue over the years and included a clip of TV's first gay "wedding," a commitment ceremony between two men that included the customary kiss.

NBC initially refused to allow the kiss to appear, but after lengthy negotiations with the network's Broadcast Standards and Practices department, Donahue succeeded in keeping it in, making network history as the first real gay kiss to be seen on prime-time television.

Phil Donahue has long been a friend of the gay and lesbian community, appearing regularly at benefit events and voicing his support for gay civil rights. Donahue was the first program to bring lesbian and gay issues into America's living rooms. Readers should write and let Donahue and the people behind the scenes know that we are proud of their sustained commitment to telling the truth about gay and lesbian people's lives.

Write to Phil Donahue, the Phil Donahue Show, NBC, 30 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10112.

On a sour note, a well-known news anchor's editorializing biased a recent television report against the gay and lesbian community.

During a segment on the ban lesbians and gay men in the military, NBC anchor Tom Brokaw asked a guest if he believed that lifting the ban would encourage other minorities to ask for a "special place" in the military. The religious right has continually tried to distort the struggle for gay and lesbian civil rights by claiming that what we're asking for are "special rights." This point of view is appropriate for a news program to cover, but not to promote.

Brokaw's comments clearly show his bias and insensitivity, and both he and NBC should be alerted to the fact that comments like this promote ignorance and a lack of understanding of what lesbian and gay rights are all about.

Write to Tom Brokaw, NBC Nightly News, NBC, 30 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10112.

TEXAS TELETYPE — Here's what's happening around the state THIS WEEK IN TEXAS...

Just because you live in Dallas or Fort Worth doesn't mean you have to always party there, particularly if you happen to be traveling between the two. Mid-Pointe is just the place to break up the monotony of an I-30 trek, especially on Wednesdays. That's when Miss North Central Texas Kourtney Wells presents a pair of hot, hunky men in the club's male dancer revue. Join them and some of the mid-cities' best-looking people at the geographic center of the Metroplex, Mid-Pointe....

Drew, Chuck, Don and Orlando offered us a bit of Valley HOT TEA for your pleasure. Seems PBD's in McAllen is having their MCC Benefit Christmas Spectacular this Saturday, December 19, starring an international cast with guests from Corpus Christi to Monterey. That, plus the club's free New Year's Eve party, make McAllen and PBD's a hot spot this holiday season....

The Gig in Texarkana brings back a host of your favorites for a benefit show to help the Texarkana AIDS Project this Sunday, December 20. This is your chance to help East Texas persons living with AIDS. Make it a point to stop by and support this very worthy cause....

DALLAS TEA — Here's what's happening THIS WEEK IN DALLAS from Big D HOT TEA...

One of Dallas' most popular clubs, the Hidden Door, celebrated its 14th anniversary last week. People who've been regulars for many years, plus lots of new faces, got together to honor owner Tony Bobrow and his wonderful staff on the big event. That's Tony [above, far r] surrounded by the reasons for the club's popularity. Congratulations to Tony and the staff on reaching this incredible milestone....

Village Station is definitely the home of some of Texas' finest female impersonators, as evidenced by the two gorgeous ladies below. While amateur drag watchers would probably think these two stunning beauties were Rachel Masters and Valerie Lohr, those in the know recognize them as Ruby and Ava, better known as Denis Weir and Michael (formerly Zsa Zsa) DeVore, gathered for this Crossroads Turnabout Show that benefited AIDS Services of Dallas and the Food Pantry. Can you say gorgeous?...

Union Jack continues to give away revealing posters of Calvin Klein's most successful underwear model, Marky Mark, with every CK purchase. According to Union Jack salesman Mark Stephens, both the posters and the cotton crotches are going fast....

JR's has been mentioned before in this column as a popular gathering place for out-of-towners first visiting Big D, and once again the CRUISE CAMERA proves the point. Spotted out enjoying the ambience of the club were [above, l-r] Justin Williams and David Teague. For those of you who didn't know, David performs at Central Station in Shreveport....

The Knight Club at the Wave is definitely proving to be more successful than the marriages of some of Britain's royal family, and handsome bartender John Falcon may be one reason why. Another may be the terrific line-up of hot video stars that the club has been importing lately. If you thought Ryan Idol and Kris Lord were incredible, wait until you see Sean Colby next Friday night....

Speaking of Sean Colby, he'll be making a special appearance the following day, Saturday, December 26, at Alternatives to New Fine Arts on Mockingbird from 2-5 p.m. Formerly La Cage, Alternatives is the most beautiful and fully stocked bookstore in Dallas, a definite stop on your Christmas shopping spree for that hard-to-find, unique gift....

Alan Blatt and Gary Chevalier of Simple Elegance believe in giving back to the community, especially at Christmas. You already know about the Belgian chocolates you'll receive with any $25 purchase. But did you know that 10% of every purchase between now and Christmas will be donated to the Dallas NAMES Project to help them bring the Quilt to Dallas in 1994? Well now you do. Thanks, guys, for everything....

Crowds will definitely be in attendance for the opening of Dallas' newest nitespot, Damewoods, right next door to Panda's on Cedar Springs. Managing those crowds come opening will be two of Dallas' best, handsome Rick Espillat and gorgeous Peggy not sure how true that is, however, given the expression on emcee Cozy White's face [below]. She'll explain when you get there....

SHOWS PROMISE IN TREATMENT OF HIV

Canadian Herbal Formula Now Available in U.S.

by Bob Dineen

The AIDS pandemic has resulted in an increasing number of new treatments, both medical and non-traditional, as a means of coping with the physical effects of the dreaded disease. More and more researchers are beginning to appreciate the benefits of holistic approaches—particularly herbal medicine—in the treatment of HIV and other life-threatening illnesses.

One such herbal treatment—Essiac—comes to the United States from Canada. Containing Burdock root, sheep sorrel herb, turkey rhubarb root and slippery elm bark—all of which grow abundantly in the Canadian province of Ontario—this natural alternative to chemical treatments has shown great promise in treating fatal illnesses.

According to Dr. Jim Chan, a naturopathic physician and instructor at Bastyr College in Seattle, Burdock root contains inulin, a very powerful immune modulator. The inulin hooks on to the surface of white blood cells and makes them work better.

Essiac was discovered by Rene Caisse, a Canadian nurse, through a patient in the hospital where she worked who had been cured of cancer. The patient had used an herbal remedy—Essiac—given to her by an Ojibway Indian herbalist.

Caisse began gathering the ingredients and preparing the remedy in her own kitchen, administering it to all who came to her. Most patients were referred to her by physicians certifying that the person had an incurable or terminal cancer and that they had been given up by the medical profession as untreatable. The results were impressive. While many died anyway because of severe damage to vital organs, others were cured and lived 35–45 years. Many are still living.

So startling was the effectiveness of this remedy that the Canadian Ministry of Health and Welfare became involved. In 1938, Essiac came within three votes of being legalized by the government of Ontario as a remedy for terminal cancer patients. Intense lobbying from medical societies prevented its legalization.

Today, Essiac shows promise in combating AIDS. It was utilized in Long Beach and San Pedro through Los Angeles' AIDS Project. The Project had sent 179 patients home to die. All 179 had pneumocystis carinii pneumonia and histoplasmosis. Their weight was down to about 100 lbs., and their T-4 cell counts were less than 10. Five of the 179 patients were taken off AZT and ddI and given Essiac three times a day. They are the only five of the 179 alive today. They exercise three times a day and their weight is back to normal.

Essiac is now available in Texas, and is being distributed by the Wilson Marketing Group, a Dallas-area business. According to Mary Lou Wilson, Essiac is "good for anybody that wants to balance their bodies. From my understanding, Essiac pulls the imbalances and toxins out of affected organs. It balances them."

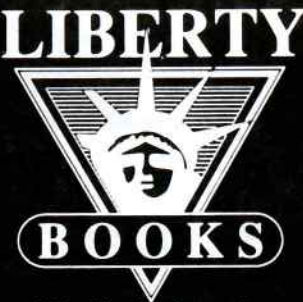

From all indications, Essiac is making a difference for people infected with the virus that causes AIDS. "Essiac has only been available in the United States for six weeks," states Wilson, "and it takes so long to see results with AIDS. I have one young man whose T-cell count was plummeting. His T-cell count has stabilized in six weeks. And another gay man says he feels so much better, he has so much energy now. I've got an angel, a registered nurse, working with me and working in the gay community. She's been a godsend in getting the product to people who need it."

One may wonder why Mary Lou is involved with Essiac, and why she feels so strongly about its benefits. "I have a brother who is gay, and like so many others, I've lost some very close friends to AIDS. But basically, I'm a humanitarian who runs to help everyone. I love people. Even if it only touched 50% of the people, think of what we could do to help them."

"I'm not in this to make money. I'd be more than willing to turn the profits over to an organization for them to use, or use the profits to give the product free-of-charge to people who need it. I just believe that if there's someone out there who's terminally ill, and we can help them, it's our obligation to help them."

For more information on Essiac and its benefits in balancing the body, contact Mary Lou Wilson at Metro (817)572-0722. She can provide additional information about the product, and can arrange for you to speak with the health care professionals that she works with.

TWT POLICY

Because prostitution is illegal in Texas, state law prohibits the placement in this category of any such ads. Therefore, twr policy stipulates that we will not and cannot knowingly accept any advertisements suggesting solicitation. It's the law. Also, state law prohibits non-licensed massage therapists from using terms such as "massage," "swedish," "acupressure," "shiatsu," "reflexology," "body rub," "back rub," "body massage" or any term which indicates bodily contact.

OBITUARIES

July 23, 1952 - November 18, 1992

Valiantly and peacefully, Larry Phillips accepted death after being overcome by AIDS. After a long and courageous struggle with the opportunistic diseases which drained his energy, Larry sensitively, yet firmly, shared with his friends and family that the battle had become too overwhelming to continue; he chose to die at home, surrounded by his mother, his friends and his life's partner.

As a longtime employee of Southwestern Bell Telephone, Larry was involved in community service through The Pioneers of America. At the time of his death, he was the treasurer of a local chapter. Larry also volunteered with the annual Sweet Charity event, sponsored by the Foundation for Interfaith Research and Ministry.

Larry is survived by his partner of ten years, Patrick Callahan of Houston; father and stepmother, L.W. and Edna Phillips, brother Rodney of Fort Myers, Florida; mother and stepfather, Doris and Vern Turner, sister Donna of Independence, Missouri; other relatives and a great circle of friends who were very special to him.

Larry's concern and sensitivity to the needs of those he did not know personally were as immense as his love and compassion for his ever-widening circle of friends. With him he took our love and devotion; with us he left his perspective on life, his focus on companionship, and memories.

In honor of Larry's wishes, his ashes will be scattered without formal ceremony.

Bruce E. Fannin

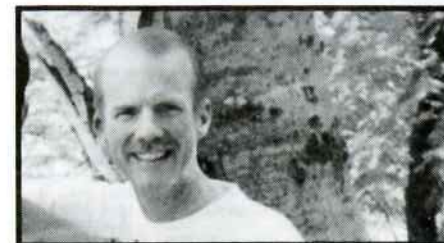

Bruce E. Fannin, 35, died early Monday morning, November 16 at his home due to complications from AIDS.

He was born October 14, 1957 in Oberlin, a son of Frank Fannin, who survives in Olive Hill, Kentucky, and Jessie Armstrong (Fannin) Mellott, who survives in Bucyrus, Kentucky.

Mr. Fannin had been employed in the restaurant business for 16 years. The 1976 graduate of Bucyrus High School attended Columbus State University and after college moved to Houston, Texas, returning to Bucyrus a few months ago due to his failing health. He was active in the Marion AIDS Task Force, as well as the support group for HIV infected persons, sponsored by the task force.

In addition to his parents, he is survived by his longtime friend, Joe Gesenhues, Houston; five sisters, Fonda Fannin, Judy Alt, Pam Rigdon and Lisa Johnson, Bucyrus, and Nancy Eisenhard, Tiffin; three brothers, Richard and Gordon Fannin, Bucyrus, and Harold Mellott, Jr., San Francisco, California; and 17 nieces and nephews. His stepfather, Harold Mellott, preceded him in death.

Bruce's remains were buried Saturday, November 21 in Armstrong Cemetery in Kentucky.

Patrick Edward Nugent (above) MADE I
12/4/51 - 12/7/92

Be praised, my Lord, for those who forgive because they love You;
For those who bear sickness and trials. They are happy, who accept all in peace, For they will be crowned by You, Most High!

Marcangelo

Marc died peacefully at home December 6, 1992. Marc is survived by many friends, including Lavada Clifton, Robert Woodard and Rocke Corley. Funeral services were held Wednesday, December 9 at Sparkman/Crane Chapel, Rev. William Richard officiating. Friends gathered the night before at the funeral home to honor Marc's memory.

Entombment Calvary Hill Mausoleum. Memorials may be made in Marc's memory to Oak Lawn Community Services, 3434 Fairmount, Dallas, TX 75219.

2/7/44 - 11/23/88

Dean left this life four years ago. He is with all the Saints from the gay and lesbian community who are now with our Lord and Savior.

A Tribute to Dean

God never promised we'd have blue skies, or lighted pathways all our lives. He has not promised peace without pain, joy without sorrow, sun without rain.

God has promised eternal life, peaceful rest from a world of strife. Within our moments of despair and also in our sorrow, we turn to Him for inner strength to see us through tomorrow.

God gave us Dean for a little while, to enrich our lives and make us smile. He loved to party and "scoot his boots," he was very proud of his Texas roots. He lived with dignity, he died in pain; he was the sun after the rain.

When I'm alone and daylight ends, I feel an overwhelming loss, for my son and dearest friend. When the angels came for Dean, much sooner than I planned, I mourn his passing every day and try to understand. At evening prayers I always say, "Dear Lord, Thy will be done," and add a special prayer, for my beloved son.

David — Chuck Wilson
