Supportive, Caring and Inclusive Assistance Greets Clients of Waterloo Counseling Center's New CROSSROADS Substance Abuse Program

Babs Geminden has high hopes for the potential of the new Crossroads Substance Abuse Program, based at the Waterloo Counseling Center in Austin and offering help primarily for gays, lesbians, bisexuals and transsexual/transgendered people.

"We now have just one of three such programs in the state, and the only gay/lesbian-specific program offered in Austin," explained Geminden, who has served as program director since the two-phase treatment plan was established in late 1995. (The others are in Houston and Dallas).

"So many parts of this population find it hard to relate to Narcotics Anonymous and Alcoholics Anonymous. Many 12-step programs insist you can develop your own concept of a higher power and then, like churches, they proceed to tell you what that higher power should look like. AA is mostly a white, male, middle-class, Christian model; it lacks diversity, which is what our community is. They tend to be judgmental, punishing...all words that churches use to describe God. If that's the person I have to depend on for my sobriety, I'm in trouble. Also, there's often a lot of homophobia at NA and AA meetings, except perhaps the Lambda ones."

Thus, Crossroads was carefully designed to meet individual needs by creating a safe, gay-affirmative environment in which substance use, relapse, relapse warning signs, sexuality and life issues can be discussed openly and honestly. The treatment philosophy is drawn from the 12-step models of AA, NA and Al-anon, but it also addresses the impact of living in a society that often teaches members of sexual minorities to disconnect, ignore their true identities and create false selves.

"When you're coming from a segment of the population that's at best 'second-class citizens,' it's more crucial that your individual importance and self-worth be reinforced and renewed," Geminden said. "We buy into a lot of what we're told — and it's so subtle in so many ways. That affects our self-image, our self-esteem. When that negative gets reinforced every time you turn around, it makes it very difficult to have positive thoughts about yourself."

Crossroads aims to change that progression. The program is divided into two phases: a six-week intensive, featuring ten hours per week of outpatient work that includes six hours on Saturday, three hours on Sunday and an hour one-to-one with an individual psychotherapist during the week. Then there's Phase II, a 12-week aftercare service targeted for relapse prevention featuring two-hour meetings each Saturday; clients may continue beyond the 12-week period if they desire or think they need such an extension to maintain and strengthen their recovery process.

The Austin program got its first client in January, and has been progressing very slowly, with a number of growing pains. One problem is that Crossroads has not yet been able to get on the provider list of insurance plans, so funding has been tight and "out-of-network." Crossroads tries to work out sliding-scale payment plans based on its clients' abilities and needs. The program is in the process of securing new funding grants and getting the word out to build up its clientele.

Geminden is enthusiastic that the initial grant will enable Crossroads to plan services until at least May. "The staff at Waterloo has been very supportive, even though we're still fighting the economics of it," she said. "We want to let the community know that the program even exists; that will help a lot. I don't think you can ever do too much of that. The more we can expose the general population to information about addictions, that something can be done about them, then there is hope; I think that's very crucial."

Studies on alcoholism and other drug abuse among gay men and lesbians indicate that at least 25 percent suffer from "definitive drug and alcohol abuse problems," according to Dr. Robert Rus' "Addiction and Recovery in Gay and Lesbian Persons." Studies also suggest that an additional significant percentage experience "suggestive or problematic" abuse patterns. The Crossroads program attempts to meet that problem head-on.

"We try to market it as gay/lesbian/bi/trans-friendly, but not exclusive," Geminiden said. "We've made it open to anyone. In fact, we have had a few heterosexuals make inquiries that may come into the program. We can't be exclusive....But our primary concern is a safe, healthy environment, especially for our gay and lesbian clients."

"As human beings, we shoot ourselves in the foot, if you will, by devaluing ourselves. Sometimes a person almost has to be pushed into a corner before they'll meet their own needs. Anyone that's interested in the Crossroads programs, if they call the Waterloo office, the staff will schedule an intake (interview session) with me. Then we determine if they're an appropriate client, then for which program and then we start to worry about the struggle for their financial needs and go from there."

The services offered by Crossroads are all outpatient, at least during the initial start-up phase. Geminiden hopes that will change one day, to better help people who need around-the-clock support in battling their addictions. With honesty, openness and a desire to get better, the program director believes anyone can leave their self-destructive habits behind and move on to a happier, healthier life.

"You learn you're not alone, that there are other people with similar problems and needs. You learn to help and care for one another. There are a whole lot of possibilities in the way of embracing and developing a more positive lifestyle. And that's what we hope to help people discover."

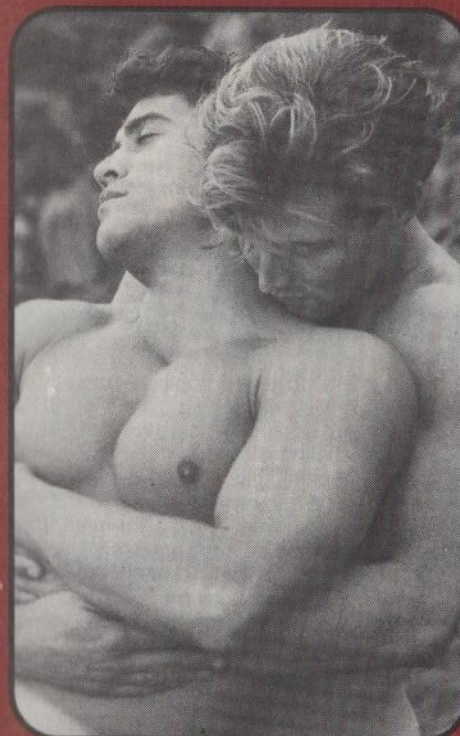

For more information about the Crossroads Chemical Dependency Program, call Waterloo Counseling Center in Austin at (512)329-9922. Programs are ongoing, and new participants may join at any time once their status and needs are determined.

CRAIG NELSON

FINDING TRUE LOVE IN A MAN-EAT-MAN WORLD

THE INTELLIGENT GUIDE TO GAY DATING, ROMANCE, AND ETERNAL LOVE

REVIEWED BY
BRUCE WILLIAMS

Finding True Love in a Man-Eat-Man World: The Intelligent Guide to Gay Dating, Sex, Romance, and Eternal Love; by Craig Nelson; Dell Publishing; New York, NY; trade paperback; nonfiction; 1996; 298 pp.; $12.95

Mr. Right...A White Picket Fence... Happily Ever After...

Did you have a pleasant Valentine's Day, full of candy or flowers or hugs and kisses or warm fuzzies?

Has the recent beautiful weather given you an early case of spring fever, ready for warm days and minimal clothing and hot bodies and romance?

If you can't answer "yes" to at least one of the above questions, or if you've got a relationship going that no longer gives off the fireworks you'd like, never fear: Here comes Craig Nelson to the rescue. No, he doesn't have a hot list of names and phone numbers to make life easier for you. But he does have a new book on the shelves — Finding True Love in a Man-Eat-Man World — which tells you just about everything and anything you might want to know about escaping Old Man Lonely or Mr. Boredom and going on to find and nurture the love of a lifetime. Or however long it lasts. And this book's loaded with ways to improve and extend any relationship that's worth renewing. It even provides ideas on healthy ways to get out of unhealthy, tired situations, to keep the pain and the future repercussions to a minimum.

"While it's common to think of us queers as being continually on the prowl for sex (and admittedly, many guys are doing just that), a new day has dawned in most or our emotional lives," Nelson writes as he warms his readers up to the topic at hand. "Ten years into a never-ending plague of AIDS, combined with a generation of baby boomers hitting their 40s, have created a profound social shift: Never have so many wanted so quickly to settle down and get spoused — and never have so many had so much trouble doing exactly that."

The author goes on to explain why his book is primarily for gay men, as advice to lesbians would call for a whole different set of explanations and emotional answers — the wide difference between the sexes and their interpretations of life and love. If a lesbian, or even a straight person, looks close enough, there are plenty of suggestions and recommendations in Finding True Love... on how to improve their sex and love lives. But Nelson keeps his focus squarely on answering the questions and addressing the needs of gay men.

There are answers and options here — both intelligent and "you really don't want to do that that way, do you?" — from A to Z. The novice gay male, as well as the shy guy just coming out of the closet, can get a lot of tips and ideas as Nelson talks about modern love, where to meet men, how to go into a bar, and sex and dating tips. Along with hundreds of humorous (and not so humorous, if the memories strike a bit close to home) vignettes, the book goes on to consider weightier issues like when things get serious; when things begin to get unserious; introducing your new love or partner to your family; and, probably the most important point of this book, to always keep communicating honestly (well, okay, a little white lie every once in awhile may not be totally awful) and to look out for your own health (physical, mental, spiritual and emotional) as the bottom line for everything in life.

"Know (and love) thyself" is the No. 1 rule of the game for romance and good love, Nelson says. Other tips include "think about tomorrow, Scarlett," "be kind," "accrue patience," "being wrong, in and of itself, is no big deal," "don't be stingy," "don't be quick to take things personally," "stop looking out for Number One," "give 200 percent of yourself" and "love your spouse but respect your man." "Remember to be little boys together," Nelson cajoles. "Every man, no matter how forceful, mature, strong, masculine, straitlaced, rational, analytic, and powerful he may be, has a little-boy side to his personality...Remember to play."

Nelson discusses potential hang-ups — both yours and your partner's/date's — and gives numerous clear, easy ways to face up to and deal with them. Though mostly written in a lighthearted, fun, adventurous style, this book doesn't avoid serious topics like AIDS and sexually transmitted diseases, abusive partners and the green devil of infidelity and jealousy. It also offers advice on how to make your relationship legal and how to handle issues like wills, power of attorney and joint ownership of home and property.

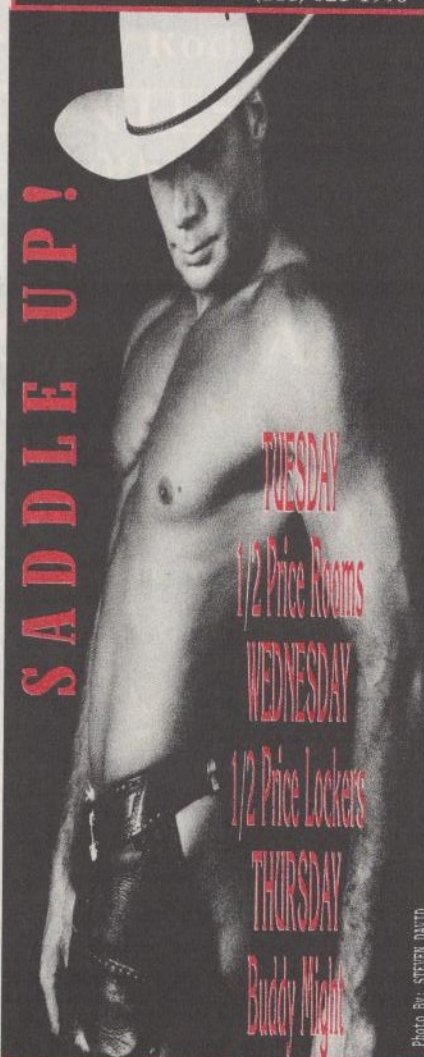

Finding True Love in a Man-Eat-Man World is as handy an emotional toolbox and guide as that owner's manual on your '96 Ferrari. The book's meant for skimming and dog-earring, for constant use in building and improving your relationships and love life. Like that guy on The Tonight Show used to say, "Everything you ever wanted to know..." is in this book, waiting to instruct and inspire you. Even if you've got something good going (lucky dog!), Finding True Love... is right there with ways to make it even better.

So what're you waiting for? Spring has sprung; don't waste it, with a lover's aid like Nelson's new book available. And there'll be no excuses come next Valentine's Day if you don't find yourself smothered in your fair share of warm fuzzies.

A couple weeks ago, I told you about Babble's new single, "Love Has No Name." This week I received their CD, Either. There are ten really nice tracks, all of them wonderful. Basically, all the cuts are ambient, sort of trancy in nature, "head music" so to speak. And remember, Babble is actually Alannah Currie and Tom Bailly from the Thompson Twins. This one's available on Reprise/Warner.

Also on Warner, check out The World Wide Message Tribe's CD, We Don't Get What We Deserve. This release contains 12 Hi-NRG trinkets for your boogie pleasure. I've never heard of this group before, but I can tell you one thing for sure — they are truly hot! One track that works me over is cut #3, "We Talk to the Lord (Buddy Riches 2 Rags Dub)," sort of a jazz/energy hybrid.

Now this next CD is available only on import and it's sort of pricey. So if you wait awhile, you can grab it cheaper when it's released domestically. But for those of you who simply cannot wait, pick up your import copy of Billie Ray Martin's Dead- line for My Memories now! Many of the tracks have already been huge hits. Selections include "Your Loving Arms," "Running Around Town" and her latest, "Imitation of Life" — which is climbing the charts as we speak. Grab it!

It's been a long time since we've had anything from the 49ers (no, not the football team!). But ZYX has brought us a wonderful gem entitled "Loving You," with four smart mixes to kill you. The lead vocals, by Ann Marie Smith, put it on in your world and the Daisy Dee samples are the one!

Also on ZYX is Double You with "Because I'm Loving You." This record gets the Cheddar Cheese Award — namby-pamby Hi-NRG of the cheesiest kind. I think it sucks! What a disappointment. He's sooo cute, and what a voice! Too bad he hasn't had anything worth listening to since "Please Don't Go" — which was a cover anyway.

Real McCoy has a new single out and

I'm sure it will take dance floors by storm. This release sports two tracks, "Sleeping with an Angel" and "Ooh Boy." The latter is the one to hear — typical Real McCoy stuff. Female vocals ladled with a male rap background. Everyone needs a copy of their CD, Another Night.

Remember a few weeks ago I told you about this acid jazz stuff? Yet another jazzy piece is floating my boat lately. The group? Galaxy People. The song? "A Mystical Journey" — house/jazz at its best. Primo stuff here, folks. A must-have.

That flawless Aqua Boogie label is at it again. Their two new releases are all that and a bag of chips! Check out Raw Essence Volume 1 and Two Short Brothers' "I'm in Love, Acidol!" Hot!

Daphne, Daphne, Daphne! Maxi Records' diva Daphne is on a roll in a big way. You may remember our interview with her not long ago and her latest single, "I Found It," which went to #1 in Billboard recently. Here's the latest on her... Scope the new mixes of her smash, "Change" by Brothers in Rhythm and Fathers of Sound, available from Stress as an import and now Maxi domestically. Daphne has been starring in Rent, which is being presented at the New York Theater Workshop, located in the East Village. Rent is an East Village adaptation of the opera La Bohème. She plays the lead, and in this version she's dying of AIDS instead of tuberculosis. It's been critically acclaimed by USA Today, The Village Voice and The New York Times, and Daphne is enjoying rave reviews. Best of all, the show is going to Broadway in April.

BY JIMMY SMITH

Kudos to Daphne.

One more item... Check out the new remixes of Taylor Dayne's "Tell It to My Heart" on Arista. They're absolutely incredible. The song needs no introduction, and the new mixes by Love to Infinity are the bomb. You need it!

And that's dance music THIS WEEK IN TEXAS.

MCA Beneficiaries for '96

Dear TWT:

The Miss Camp America Foundation, Inc. Board of Trustees approved the Designated Charities Committee's selection of the 1996 grant recipients. These grant awards, which provide HIV/AIDS-related assistance, will be presented at our organization's 28th Annual Pageant, which will be held in September at the Music Hall. Since obtaining our nonprofit status in June 1992, Miss Camp America Foundation has given over $142,000 to AIDS-related charities.

On behalf of the Foundation, I would like to thank all of the organizations that applied to be recipients of one of our grants and for patiently awaiting our decision. Unfortunately, it was not possible to award all 17 groups that applied this year.

After lengthy consideration, the following organizations were selected: AIDS Foundation Houston/Stone Soup, The Assistance Fund, Bering Care Center, Body Positive/Positive Friend Program and the NAMES Project-Houston.

We extend our best wishes to all the organizations that assist the Houston HIV community. We hope you will join us for our major fund-raising event, the Miss Camp America Pageant, the ultimate spoof on the Miss America Pageant, to be held in September at the Music Hall. The Foundation members, with their size-14 pumps and hairy legs, will once again be bringing smiles and laughter to the stage and into your life.

A Wonderful Reign

Dear TWT:

I would like to take this opportunity to thank the Houston community for the support given me during my reign as Empress XI of the Royal, Sovereign and Imperial Court of the Single Star of Houston. This past year is one that will never be forgotten. I have had the opportunity to meet so many people and work with many organizations in helping raise money to fight AIDS and increase awareness of the rich diversity of our community.

Through the hard work of the members and because of the support of so many, the Court raised approximately $18,000 in direct benefits this year for several organizations, including Bering Community Service Foundation, PWA Coalition, Omega House, AVES, Loving Arms Foundation, Body Positive, Pet Patrol, Gay & Lesbian Switchboard, Community Visions, Lady Victoria Lust PWA Holiday Fund, the Montrose Clinic Capital Gifts Campaign and the Colt 45's charities.

In addition, at PR Ball II we presented the Colt 45's a check for $10,000, which represents the net proceeds from our reign and from our major fund-raiser, Coronation XII. Additional monies from PR Ball will be distributed shortly which will take the total money raised for our community to over $30,000.

There are many who feel that we are just a "drag queen" organization, but I can assure you that there is more to it than meets the eye. We are proud to count among our ranks many men who do not wear dresses and several women who do not wear pants. They work just as hard as, if not harder than, the "drags" and offer an abundance of love and talent. I, for one, am proud to be associated with each and every member.

I extend a very special thank-you to the bars, leather/levi clubs, businesses and organizations in this city and promise to continue my work and support. Congratulations to Emperor XII Jim Halbert and Empress XII Ruby Stone. I hope that your reign is as wonderful as mine was and I assure you I will be there to help whenever you need me.

High school's over and hanging out in the convenience store parking lot is in when Theater LaB Houston presents the Southwest premiere of Eric Bogosian's drama/comedy subUrbia. A group of disillusioned kids drink, smoke and listen to music, until the arrival of an old school friend on a fast track to rock stardom breaks the monotony with devastating rage and unexpected tragedy. Opening night is Wednesday, March 6 at 8 p.m.; regular performances will be Fridays and Saturdays at 8 through April 13, with one Sunday show at 6 p.m. on April 14. For tickets ($15) and more info, call (713)868-7516. Theater LaB Houston is located at 1706 Alamo.

The Pointer Sisters [Ruth, Anita and June] star in the musical hit Ain't Misbehavin', at Jones Hall in Houston April 2-7.

Tickets are now on sale for the new production of the Broadway hit Ain't Misbehavin', starring the Pointer Sisters, which comes to Jones Hall in Houston April 2-7. Packed with 30 songs either written or made famous by the legendary Fats Waller, the multi-award-winning musical brings to life the glamour, the spirit and the excitement of the swinging '30s in Harlem and the Golden Age of places like the Cotton Club and the Savoy Ballroom. Showtimes are Tuesday-Friday at 8 p.m., Saturday at 2 and 8 p.m. and Sunday at 2 and 7 p.m. Tickets ($36-$42) are available at TicketMaster locations or may be charged by phone at (713)629-3700.

Arts & Letters Live opens its fifth season Monday, March 4 and continues until May 30 at the Dallas Museum of Art, 1717 N. Harwood. Two main series of readings are planned, with "Texas Bound," featuring readings of Texas stories by Texas actors, as the first part. Performances, scheduled for various nights, are at 6:30 and 8:30 p.m. each night. For tickets ($10-$12) and more info, call (214)922-1219.

"Jazz Hot Mamas & Country Cousins" is the next offering by the Women's Chorus of Dallas, on March 8 and 9 at the Caruth Auditorium, on the campus of Southern Methodist University. These shows will pay tribute to America's own music, with jazz and blues renditions guaranteed to blow your skirt up! Performances begin at 8 p.m. For tickets, call (214)520-ARTS.

Stage West in Fort Worth brings George Bernard Shaw's Misalliance to the stage March 8-30 at the theatre, 3053 South University Dr. The story revolves around a dashing airplane pilot and a Polish lady acrobat who drop into a placid country estate, with romance and politics tossed into the merry whirl. Performances are at 8 p.m. Wednesdays-Saturdays, with a 3 p.m. show on Saturdays and 7 p.m. show on Sundays. For tickets ($13-16), call (817) 784-9378. Student Rush tickets ($5) are available 30 minutes prior to each show.

The "New Access" guest artist series being presented by Jump-Start Performance Co. in San Antonio continues with a pair of shows this week by out-of-town talents at the Jump-Start Theater, located in Building B at the Blue Star Arts Complex, at the corner of S. Alamo and Probandt. At 8 p.m. this evening (March 1), New York-based writer/performer Peggy Shaw presents "You're Just Like My Father," an autobiographical piece on growing up butch in the 1950s and the conflicts faced in defining one's identity. At 8 p.m. Monday, March 4, Los Angeles-based writer/performer Monica Palacios explores her Chicana lesbian libido in "CONFESSIONS...A Sex-plosion of Tantalizing Tales," which employs performance monologues, poetry, a spoken word/slide show and carne asada tacos. Admission to "You're Just Like My Father" is $7/general and $5/students and senior citizens; for "CONFESSIONS..." it's $3/general and free for UT-San Antonio students and staff. For reservations or more info, call (210)227-JUMP. Both of these events are sponsored by the Esperanza Peace and Justice Center.

WEEK OF MARCH 1 - 7, 1996

JOHN HEARD
BORN MARCH 7, 1945

Although they always say, "March comes in like a lion and out like a lamb," I refuse to believe it. I believe that, with the Sun moving from mystical Pisces into pioneering Aries, March comes out loud, proud and rambunctious, as we all should. Amen! Let's welcome mighty March this week.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - March 20) Prepare for a dollop of self-confidence as various planets energize your public persona in March. It may seem that you can do no wrong, so get out there and show the world what you do when you're inspired. One word of advice: surprises are in store from the most unexpected sources. Some you will like and some you won't. Keep your third eye open and focused.

ARIES (March 21 - April 20) Use this affirming time to strategize and revitalize all projects that will help you leave your mark on the world. It's time to consult spiritual advisors (ahem...) and meditate on what secret obstacles are holding you back. Then, in true Rambo fashion, pick up the lavender gauntlet and charge ahead. Others had better get out of the way...fast.

TAURUS (April 21 - May 21) Friends provide the support you need to deal with major career changes. Thank goodness proud Bulls are fairly stable folk, because the effects of both Uranus and Pluto this month will have you reevaluating long-held views on professional goals and how they affect your inner contentment. Have you built your house of cards on other people's money and values? Expect a stale wind.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21) A warm Sun shines on professional aspirations in March. It may seem as if your timing is spot on this month as ideas and opinions find their way to the right authoritative ears. The secret is, of course, to balance career with the needs of partners. Expect transformative changes for all pink Twins in some relationships. You can't live with 'em and you can't live without 'em!

CANCER (June 22 - July 23) Even sheltered gay Crabs need to poke their heads out of their shells every so often for a breath of fresh air. This is the time. Get out there and see the world. If funds are tight, improvise, dear; try a foreign film and an exotic dinner. It's time for changes in your day-to-day work and I suggest that you find some inspiration in these unlikely sources.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23) Proud Lions have more than their fair share of sexual decisions to make this month. The Sun highlights the beauty of sexual intimacy coupled with self-realization, while other planets upset the applecart of harmonious domesticity. Expect surprises galore in partnerships, for good or otherwise. Thankfully, volcanic Pluto knows how to have a good time. Buy a lottery ticket.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23) If you thought work was boringly predictable, think again, dear Virgin. The planets conspire to throw all queer Virgos into a tailspin on the job. It may all seem too much, but I believe that sometimes it's good to throw a Molotov into the mix. Who knows, you may take over the entire company, and you can clean it out from the ground up. Don't forget to spoil partners mercilessly this month. LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23) Sociable Libras should focus efforts on detailed, work-intensive projects. Your energy level is high, your mind is keen and focused and you'll accomplish a great deal with relatively little stress. Fun, on the other hand, may have its ups and downs. Just when you thought it was safe to dive right in, someone drained the pool. Never fear; a fabulous lifeguard is there to revive you.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22) Early March will have you swaying to the music, feasting lavishly on sweets and partying up a storm, but just wait. Dissipated Scorpions needn't worry about the impending swimsuit season. Exercise will pay off handsomely for all motivated Scorps who have access to a Nautilus machine. Use the latter part of the month to rack up those weights and to eat sensibly.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22) Gay Archers have several "outer" planets in very personal places. What this means is that great changes and modifications are in store for you in the basic areas of your life — what you value, how you communicate and even how you appear to others. It may be that the world will see a brand new you from head to toe to brain next year at this time. Wear clean underwear.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20) Even serious, conservative Caps mirthfully chatter on this month. You're in the process of cleaning out your cosmic closet and it will feel as if a weight has been lifted off your shoulders. The Sun brightens communications, so use this energy to put in a good word or write an insightful letter to the editor and push our agenda one step forward. Heck, make it two steps forward!

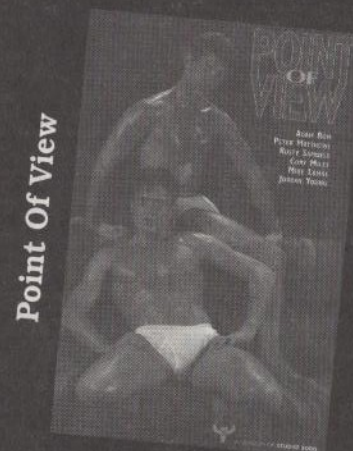

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19) Surprises are in store for all Aqueerians who are planning that big coming-out party. Feisty Uranus plants a wet one on your best-laid plans, but don't panic. The Sun is there to keep you strong, steady and always in fashion. You have the composure and the wherewithal to keep on dancin' to the beat even as the planets rock and roll. Show 'em how it's done, honey!

ELECTION CAMPAIGNS PICK UP STEAM AS PRIMARIES NEAR

*Maxey Running Hard in Dist. 51;
Log Cabin Republicans Plan
Presence at Party Convention.*

TEXAS — With party primaries fast approaching on March 12, and absentee balloting already well under way, candidates for local, state and national offices and their supporters are stepping up their efforts to raise money and convince people why they deserve to be elected.

Democrat Glen Maxey is running for a fourth term as state Representative from District 51 in Austin. He may be the incumbent, but he's running hard to prevent rivals Eloy de la Garza and Abel Ruiz from pulling any surprises in the primary. Maxey has faced attacks from his opponents for being the only openly gay legislator in the Texas House, and for being a white male representing an Austin district with a large Hispanic population.

Maxey received the endorsement recently of the Austin American-Statesman, but even as the paper praised him, its editorial played up alleged shortcomings. "Maxey shows signs of growing into the job after Texas Monthly got his attention by naming him to the list of its ten worst legislators in 1993," the daily said. "...Since then, however, he has broadened his legislative efforts....Maxey, like some of Austin's elected officials, has on occasion chosen a Pyrrhic victory over slow progress, with only ashes to show for his efforts.... Maxey is the best candidate in the race to represent District 51. He isn't an outstanding legislator yet, but he could be."

Maxey received a more enthusiastic endorsement from the Austin Lesbian/Gay Political Caucus [ALGPC]. The Caucus's membership voted to endorse a total of 19 candidates recently, and urged its community to publicize the supportive positions of those candidates to the gay/lesbian/bisexual public. At the group's next meeting, this Monday, activists will begin mapping strategy for the March 12 precinct caucuses and the March 30 county and senatorial district party convention, as well as report on the endorsements.

Meanwhile, the Maxey Campaign is hosting a Texas Independence Day gala and fund-raiser from 6:30-9:30 p.m. this Saturday, March 2 at 15 Pillow Road in Austin. For more information, call (512) 441-7112. On Sunday, March 3, the Bayou City Committee for Glen Maxey, a group of Houston-area supporters of the candidate, will host a fund-raiser from 3-6 p.m. at the Lovett Inn, 501 Lovett.

In San Antonio, the Log Cabin Republicans of Texas continued preparations for the election season as the group elected officers for its newest chapter. Scott Moore was elected president, Roderic Wilson vice president, Cherie Ballard secretary and Robert Bell treasurer; five more members were voted to the steering committee.

"This chapter's founding is especially important for three reasons," State President Dale Carpenter explained. "One, there's currently a serious struggle in Bexar County's party convention for control between moderates and members of the Radical Right. Second, the Republican state convention will be held in San Antonio in June; having a chapter there will help us coordinate Log Cabin's presence — we plan to be very active at the convention.

"There are currently three very important races at least in Bexar County; there are 130 contested precinct races between moderates and the Religious Right," Carpenter explained. "There's a struggle going on for Bexar County party chair — Roy Barrera's a moderate, while his opponent is associated with the Religious Right. The state Representative race has Frank Corte, who's been second only to Warren Chisum in the House in anti-gay rhetoric and voting record, facing challenger Caron DeMars.... Though the chapter won't be doing any group activities for candidates, it will be supporting with money and votes the moderates who we need elected."

The next meeting of the Log Cabin San Antonio chapter is from 4-6 p.m. Saturday, March 16 at the Candlelight Coffee House. For more information, call (512) 467-9797 or (713) 758-3293.

One of the most heated statewide races is for the U.S. Senate, where there are four Democratic candidates and three Republicans, including incumbent Phil Gramm. The Houston Gay & Lesbian Political Caucus endorsed John Odam in the Democratic race, while the San Antonio Equal Rights Political Caucus backed one of his rivals, John Bryant. No endorsements were made in the Senate contest by Dallas or Austin groups. Nevertheless, a number of Austin community members took part in a fund-raiser for Bryant on Feb. 25.

Another important race in the Austin area is for Travis County Sheriff. Margo Frasier received the nod from ALGPC among the six Democrats in the contest.

HOUSTON FACILITY WILL TREAT PWAS, THEIR FAMILIES

TWU, AFH Sponsor Spirit Clinic, Scheduled to Open in March.

HOUSTON — A new clinic dedicated Monday will provide free health care to people with HIV and their families through the joint efforts of several local institutions. The Spirit Clinic, which will open in March, is being sponsored by Texas Women's University and AIDS Foundation Houston.

A ribbon-cutting ceremony held Monday was attended by officials with AFH and TWU as well as the Harris County Hospital District and the law firm of Vinson & Elkins, which have also been instrumental in helping set up the clinic.

Among those helping cut the ribbon at last Monday's dedication of the new Spirit Clinic in Houston were City Councilman Felix Fraga (l) and Lois Moore, president and chief executive officer of the Harris County Hospital District.

The Spirit Clinic will operate by appointment only, on a part-time basis, three half-days per week. Assistance will be available to anyone in need who can provide documentation of HIV diagnosis, and will not be limited to clients of AFH itself. An AFH volunteer team will staff the office.

The clinic "...is dedicated to the care of persons living with HIV/AIDS and their families," said Dr. Diane Ragsdale, a TWU professor of nursing who worked with AFH to establish the clinic. Glaxo-Wellcome, a pharmaceutical company, has funded a start-up grant for the continued purchase of medical supplies for the facility.

"The vision of AFH is to achieve a social service prototype delivering client-friendly services to the Houston community," said Sara Selber, Executive Director of AFH. "The collaborative efforts that have resulted in the opening of Spirit Clinic are an exciting step in the fulfillment of this vision."

The concept for Spirit Clinic grew out of the need to provide long-term care to the growing numbers of HIV-infected persons in Houston. One out of ninety people in the area are believed to have the virus.

The TWU College of Nursing at the university's Institute of Health Sciences Houston Center will provide care in the clinic using nurse practitioners and master's practitioner students. Occupational, physical and nutritional therapy will be offered on site as needed to children, adolescents and adults.

AFH is providing the clinic site, a one-bedroom apartment that was renovated to create a reception area, two private examination rooms, a bath and a kitchen. AFH will also supply a telephone, fax machine, hazardous waste removal, security, office equipment and furniture. TWU will provide a computer with a medical records program as well as other medically-related equipment and supplies.

For more information about the Spirit Clinic, call (713) 524-6052 (after March 25).

GAY/AIDS GROUP IN DALLAS NAMES NEW DIRECTOR

*Charles Domingues to Succeed
John Thomas as Head of FHU.*

DALLAS — After a nationwide search that lasted months, the Foundation for Human Understanding — which operates the AIDS Resource Center, the Nelson-Tebedo Community Clinic and the Gay & Lesbian Community Center — has announced the selection of a new executive director. Effective April 1, Charles Domingues will succeed John Thomas, who retired at the end of January due to health reasons.

Domingues is currently the executive director of Friends for Life: Capital Area HIV/AIDS Services, Inc. in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. Prior to assuming that post, he worked with Critical Care America and the Kelsey-Seybold Foundation, both located in Houston. He also served as president of the board of Houston's HIV Service Providers, Inc. and was co-chair of the Houston Unit of the National Association of Social Workers' Gay & Lesbian Issues Committee.

"I appreciate the opportunity that the board of the FHU has given me and am looking forward to the challenges," Domingues said in a statement released last week. "I'm also very honored to follow in the footsteps of John Thomas, who is so well-respected in Dallas."

Thomas will continue to give advice to the AIDS group and will serve on a volunteer basis in several capacities.

"We are very pleased to have someone of Charles' caliber joining our organization," Steven B. Hawkins, president of the board of the Foundation, said in announcing Domingues' appointment. "We believe his background and experience fit well with our agency and that he will be a significant contributor in helping us achieve our goals and moving us forward."

FEDERAL BUDGET CRISIS JEOPARDIZES DALLAS AIDS HOUSING

Local Agency Seeks Private Funds To Complete Two New Facilities.

DALLAS — AIDS Services of Dallas [ASD], one of the nation's leaders in supportive housing for people living with AIDS, is experiencing a major budget crisis due to the gridlock that has arisen in Congress. As a result, the two new facilities ASD had planned to open later this year, which would make the agency the nation's largest supportive housing service for people living with AIDS, are now in grave jeopardy.

Don Maison, chief executive officer of ASD, said that the budget crisis could not have come at a worse time for the agency. He explained that it is impossible to plan ahead because there is no longer a guaranteed dollar amount of government funds. "If we don't have any money for services at one of the new facilities, Hillcrest, we're not opening it," Maison explained.

He added that stretching his agency's tight budget could risk the future of the entire organization. "We're licensed by the Texas Department of Health. We have to maintain standards, and if we can't maintain them, I'm not going to jeopardize our license. And it will just be the responsibility of the city, county and local taxpayers to figure out a way to help us open that building."

AIDS Services of Dallas is trying to obtain private funds, but local support is hard to come by. "I think we have a uniquely difficult time in Dallas because AIDS is still very much stigmatized in this part of the country due to a lot of socioeconomic, political and religious factors," Maison said. "But obtaining private funds to complete and operate the two new facilities is the most critical issue facing ASD in the wake of congressional wrangling on the budget."

Maison estimated that it would take another $400,000 to complete one of the projects, Comal Gardens, which was funded in part by a grant from the Department of Housing and Urban Development.

ASD currently houses 53 people and has a waiting list of more than 30 approved applicants. Ninety-five percent of ASD's residents have incomes below the poverty line. If the two new facilities were allowed to open, ASD could double its occupancy and become the nation's largest supportive housing service for people with AIDS.

*Stopgap Budget Approach Leaves
Status of AIDS Funds Uncertain.*

HOUSTON — The budget showdown between the President and Congress has faded from view as the race to choose a GOP presidential nominee has heated up, but a Houston activist group is trying to call attention to the resulting uncertainty in national AIDS funding.

Queer Nation staged a protest last Friday in front of the Mickey Leland Federal Building in the downtown area to call attention to its demands that Congress pass a continuing resolution giving AIDS programs funding for the remainder of fiscal year 1996 and reauthorize and fully fund the Ryan White CARE Act. A small contingent of members flashed signs at passing cars and pedestrians while one of their number, dressed in black robes and a white skeleton mask, stood in the background brandishing a scythe.

The Ryan White Comprehensive AIDS Resources Emergency Act was designed to provide emergency funds for those cities and states hit hardest by the AIDS epidemic. Congressional authorization for the program officially expired five months ago, and a new act has not yet been passed to reauthorize the program. Funding for the program is part of a massive appropriations bill that Congress has not passed.

Under short-term spending measures called "continuing resolutions" passed by Congress and signed by the President, federal HIV funds continue to flow to cities and states. The latest continuing resolution extends funding through March 15. Reauthorization bills have passed both the House and Senate, but have not yet been reconciled by a conference committee.

Lobbyists have attributed Congress' failure to extend the life of the Ryan White Act — which enjoys broad support — to conflicts between Republicans and Democrats in Congress over how best to balance the federal budget, as well as to the distraction created by recent negotiations between the President and Congressional leaders.

Temporary spending measures fund the CARE Act only at last year's levels and make it hard for service providers to effectively plan for the future. Without a full year's worth of funding, agencies at both the federal and local levels are uncertain how much money will be available in fiscal year 1996, which began Oct. 1, 1995.

GALAS IN AUSTIN, GALVESTON BRING OUT REVELERS

HIV Service Agencies Benefit From Feb. 16 Events.

AUSTIN/GALVESTON — The Mardi Gras Masked Ball Gala set records as nearly 350 revelers took part in a black tie/masquerade party to raise money for the Jack Sansing HIV Dental Clinic, the only facility in Central Texas dedicated to treating patients with HIV and AIDS. The event brought in an all-time high of just

"It went fabulous!" exclaimed Kay Rosenwasser, a member of the Gala Committee, in describing the bash, held Feb. 16 at the Four Seasons Hotel in downtown Austin.

Silent auction items such as an antique cigar humidor, a genuine leopard coat and two pedigreed greyhounds helped bring out the generosity in celebrants, who paid $75 a ticket for an open bar, hors d'oeuvres and dancing to live music. After paying expenses, which Rosenwasser estimated at about 20 percent, all the remainder of the money raised will go to the clinic, a project of AIDS Services of Austin, for the purchase of equipment and to help patients who are unable to pay for their treatment.

In Galveston, 750 people attended the ninth annual Silk Stocking Ball, also held Feb. 16, in the Hope Arena at Moody Gardens. The ball, which benefits AIDS-related charities in Galveston County, raised approximately $5,000. Part of the proceeds will go the AIDS Coalition of Coastal Texas [ACCT] and the Gulf Coast Center-HIV Division, which is bringing the AIDS Memorial Quilt to Galveston July 12-14.

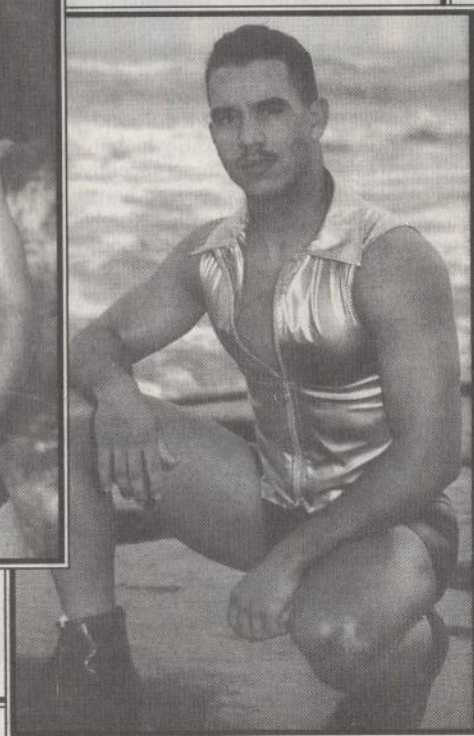

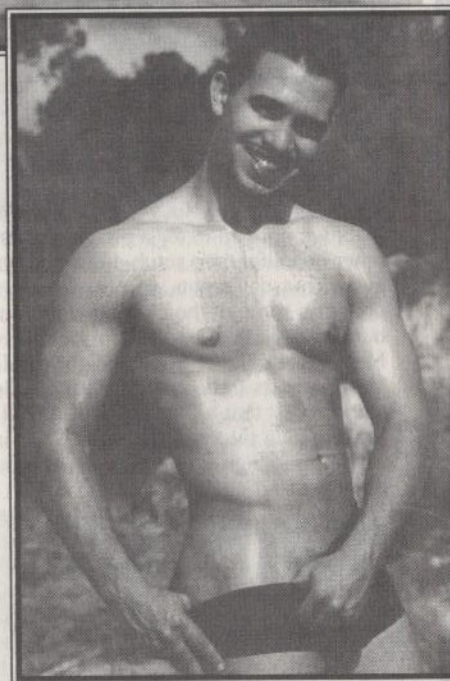

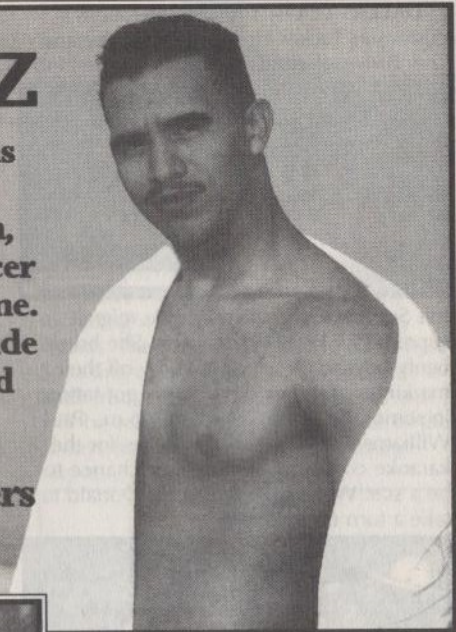

This year's event, "The Streets of New Orleans," featured an actual parade of costumes with police motorcycle escort; a color guard provided by the Knights of Regina; and a carriage, pulled by two Arabian horses, that carried the parade marshall, recording artist Marilyn Maye.

DALLAS TEA — You can bet that JR's customers Tucker Hoss, Brian McVey and Trey Brown [below, l-r] will be at the club this Sunday night when Wanda reigns supreme for her tattoo contest. She brings beefy boys up on stage to show off their markings, and they've certainly got tattoos in some odd places. Then, at 9 p.m., Paul J. Williams takes over emcee duties for the karaoke contest, when it's your chance to be a star. We're still waiting for Donald to take a turn up on stage....

The handsome fellows pictured above are some of the friendly cowpokes who helped raise over $1,100 at the Round Up's Rent-A-Cowboy Contest, which benefited OLCS' Buddy Project recently. If you missed that event, never fear, because on Sunday, March 6, the Leather Knights present their "Welcome to Hollywood" show, starting at 9 p.m., with funds going to many Dallas charities. You'll definitely be able to rope a cowboy, or probably two, at TGRA's Dance Contest, slated for Sunday, March 10. The fun begins at 6 p.m. that night....

recently at Village Station, where they impressed the crowd with their moves on the dance floor. You can, too, since the club boasts the largest floor space in town to cut a rug. Sundays are always hopping at the club, offering you a chance to get an early start on the evening with T-Dance, which starts at 5 p.m. The legendary Trash Disco, with the best disco hits you've ever heard, gets underway at 9 p.m....

Club Boxx Office hosts the Miss Texas Sweetheart Pageant this Saturday with reigning Miss Texas Sweetheart Katrina Lashawn and special guest Miss Gay Texas, Lauren Taylor. Don't miss it!...

If you're in a lather to see some hunky male dancers, then Brickbar's Towel Boys are your answer — they appear in the see-through showers throughout the week. Towel Boy Dickie [above] was there the night we popped in for a pic. There are other beautiful men scrub-a-dub-dubbing away. Thursday nights, you can usually count on some of the club's own humpy bartenders to take a splash in the showers. New at the club for Sunday nights, Trella Thomas hosts Trella & the Fellas, a male strip contest that brings out sin-sational-looking men to compete for the $100 in cash prizes. Sign-up starts at 10:30 p.m. and they start peeling things off at 11. Tonight, the Flashlight Party takes center stage, with gorgeous men "flashing" each other with the flashlights they'll pick up at the door...

Buddies is gearing up for the Miss Gay Las Colinas Pageant, which is scheduled for Thursday, March 7 at 10:30 p.m. A host of special performers will be on hand, including emcee Kourtney Wells, Celeste Martinez, Kelly Cruise and Miss Gay Texas Lauren Taylor. Over $1,500 in cash and prizes will be awarded, so make sure you're there to see who wins!...

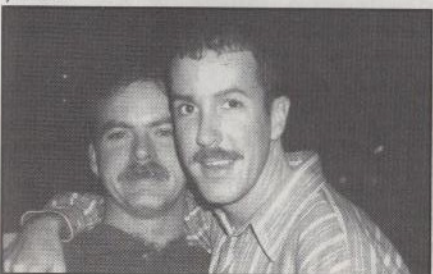

Crews Inn is known for its packed Tuesday nights, which is when practically all of Dallas hits the club, but it's also known for its friendly staff, two of whom are Robert and Spanke [below, l-r], who you can usually find in the back bar slinging drinks and taking care of business. If you haven't been to CI's new Trash Disco on Friday nights, you're really missing out on the action, because that's when deejay Chris Austen and Glennaphonics pump out the best retro hits from the dance years....

With the weather warming up, you can definitely take advantage of Moby Dick's patio, where you can soak up some rays and cool breezes as well, or you can head inside, which is where we found Todd Allen and Eddie Martin [above, l-r] recently. There, you can take in the latest in music videos or, if Broadway is more to your liking, then Tuesday Show Tunes night with reigning diva Wayne Smith is for you....

other night, where they were raving about the club's 15 new types of draft beer, including microbrewery and specialty brands. They also have the old stand-bys. Speaking of old standbys, Heda Quote is back from jetting off to down under and will be assuming her role as emcee of the always-fun Bear Buns contest Sunday nights...

The incredibly beefy Maverick [above] was just one of the 17 contestants at Midtowne Spa's recent Dancer of the Year Contest. Shogun, from New York City, took top honors, with Maverick placing second. The dancers donated their tips, which came to $911, to the AIDS Resource Center. If you'd like to see more beef on parade, they hold a dancer contest every Sunday night starting at 9 p.m. sharp that always attracts the hottest hunks around....

Michael Feinstein brings his silky voice and piano expertise to Dallas courtesy of the Turtle Creek Chorale on March 17, 19 and 20 at the Morton H. Meyerson Symphony Center. The show will focus on the music of Gershwin, with the Turtle Creek Chorale also performing their magic. For tickets, you can call (214)871-ARTS. But you'd better hurry — we're sure they'll go quick....

Vanessa Duvall wants you to be at Another Bar tonight when she emcees a benefit for the AIDS Resource Center's Food Pantry. Not only will you be graced with the talents of Vanessa, but a hot male dance troupe will be there to tantalize and put you in the giving mood....

White Rock Community Church's HIV/AIDS Ministry is helping the AIDS Resource Center's Food Pantry by offering Dallas-area PLWAs free "dry goods" at their "General Store," such as batteries, razors, bath tissue, soap, hair spray and other items needed on a daily basis. First-time shoppers must bring their medical letter of diagnosis, and PLWAs can use the store up to twice a month. The church is located at 722 Tenison Memorial Rd. For more info, call them at (214)320-0043.

TEXAS TELETYPE — At the Good Time Lounge in Denison, our CRUISE CAMERA caught the staff of the club dressed up as the cast of Nunsense, which was part of a fund-raiser that brought in close to $1,000 for the AIDS Resource Center of Texoma. Pictured in the center is Gene Kincaid, director of ARC/Texoma, who was grateful for the assistance.

HOUSTON TEA — During JR's Mardi Gras Madness party, the smiling faces of Scott Hilton and John King [above, l-r] welcomed everyone to the blowout celebration. JR's has long been a great place to unwind after a busy week. Fridays feature All-American happy hour until 10 p.m., complimentary hors d'oeuvres, hourly drawings for free gifts and seven gorgeous male dancers all night long. On Sunday, March 10, JR's is hosting the Triple Diamonds Grand Casino Coshatta Adventure. Seats on the three buses are filling up fast, so reserve yourself a place now....

ready and waiting to serve the multitude of dance music devotees that are sure to pack the club this Sunday when ResErection welcomes the phenomenal voice of The Weather Girls, Black Box and C + C Music Factory, Martha Wash, for a special midnight show. She'll perform selections from her catalog of hits including "Strike It Up," "Everybody, Everybody," "Give It to You," "It's Raining Men" and more. On Saturday, March 9, Heaven presents Planet Soul, the artists who brought you the #1 dance smash "Set U Free." If music is your religion, let Heaven be your sanctuary....

Friendly Montrose Mining Company staffers Chris NaPier and Leon Tindel [above, l-r] told us all about the club's new Sunday Double Double Bust. Beginning at 4 p.m., you can relax on the club's beautiful patio with their regular beer bust or you can try their new frozen rita bust. Hardcore Dancers are also there to double your pleasure at the Montrose Mine....

The Houston Council of Club's Let Us Entertain You Weekend was an amazing extravaganza. With 508 guests and hosts, representing 28 states and three foreign countries, a good time was definitely had by all. We're ready to do it again....

Sporting fashions from Leather by Boots, Boy Toy dancers Michael Reper and Shawn Black [above, l-r] displayed their incredible talents for the LUEY guests who invaded Gentry last Saturday. Tomorrow at the club, the Soiree Aubergine silent auction opens at 8 p.m. and runs daily through next Friday, March 8 at midnight. Next Sunday, March 10, Soiree V rounds out its fund-raising festivities with "La Soirée Grande" featuring music from Rob Pitre and The Zydeco Playboys. Flesh and fantasy abound at Gentry with Boy Toy dancers Thursday-Sunday and male strip frenzy every Sunday and Wednesday....

At Pacific Street's "Diamonds and Studs" warehouse party, we focused in on handsome Dirk Martin and Alan Waggoner [above, l-r] enjoying the hot leather and flesh action. This Monday, the club hosts "Cutthroat Island," where all spiced rum drinks will be served with special souvenir treasures. Tuesday at P.S. is Executive Night, with no cover when you present your personalized business card. Cage Craze Wednesdays allow newcomer and professional dancers to take a turn in the club's infamous cages of decadence....

To wrap up LUEY Weekend, the BRB hosted "Dallas Does Houston (With Love)." This special reciprocal benefit show raised over $3,000 for the Colt 45's Stone Soup Fund and featured some dynamic Big D entertainment, including the high-energy talents of Carmen Del Rio [above]. This Sunday at 7:30 p.m., the Imperial Court presents "Hams From Hams," an all-star revue benefiting the Lady Victoria Lust PWA Holiday Fund....

At Rich's special Whatever Wednesday strip-off, hosted by Simply Divine [above, r], we discovered that Ted Ryan [l] is not only the "filthiest," but also one of the most gorgeous men in town. This Sunday at 8 p.m., the club hosts "Heaven Can Wait," an exciting benefit for the Human Rights Campaign starring Sweet Savage, Bubba McNeely and Yolanda. Two more fun-filled events coming soon to the downtown hotspot are the 25th annual Miss Gay Houston Pageant on Friday, March 15 and a St. Patrick's Day Street Pub on Sunday, March 17. See you there....

SAN ANTONIO TEA — Sundays at the Wild Club feature an all-new format with special performances by the Wild's lovely staff, including the two stunning vixens Tim and Clint [above, l-r]. The "Step Back Sunday" concept showcases the Wild Club bartenders in camp drag performing impromptu numbers throughout the night plus music and drink prices from an era long forgotten. Don't miss it this Sunday. Yes, the rumors have been confirmed — the Wild Club will host San Antonio's first foam party on March 23, so mark your calendars....

Tonight the Bonham Exchange hosts the Miss Bexar County US of A Pageant starring reigning Miss Bexar County Amber Nixx, Miss Texas US of A Kelly Lauren, Vanessa Gordon, San Antonio NOY Layla Larue and emcee Pauletta Leigh....

The Pegasus christened its new deejay/veejay booth last week and now cranks out hot dance/disco and cruise music from a perch overlooking the club's main bar. The Pegasus patio and beach area also opens soon, offering up its lushly landscaped tropical paradise complete with sparkling pool. Can't wait!...

Our CRUISE CAMERA caught newest Silver Dollar Saloon employee Martin [above] working at the door — no easy task on a Sunday when tons of cowboy studs stream in for trash disco. On Thursdays, you can get a cocktail on the Silver Dollar patio served up by guest TGRA bartenders, who turn their tips over to charity, while AUSTINteaCIOUS — Charlie's was the place to be as they had events happening all last week. The CRUISE CAMERA was lucky to get a picture of the hottest bartender in town, Steve, with loyal customers Tony, Greg and Paul [above, l-r]. This Sunday's show has Victoria West doing what she does best, along with Miss Gay Texas Lauren Taylor. Showtime is at 11:30 p.m. We've talked about steaks at Charlie's before, but not till you sink your teeth into one will you experience that feeling of euphoria. The steaks are cooking from 6-8 p.m. on Tuesdays. If you missed the tribute show for Nicole, see next week's TWT for details....

TWT POLICY

Because prostitution is illegal in Texas, state law prohibits the placement in this category of any such ads. Therefore, TWT policy stipulates that we will not and cannot knowingly accept any advertisements suggesting solicitation. It's the law. Also, state law prohibits nonlicensed massage therapists from using terms such as "massage," "Swedish," "accupressure," "Shiatsu," "reflexology," "body rub," "back rub," "body massage" or any term which indicates bodily contact.

OBITUARIES

Douglass D. (Doug) Pate

Douglass D. (Doug) Pate, 40, passed away suddenly at his home on Monday, Feb. 19, 1996. He was a native of Houston and president of Food Services Group. Those who survive him include his partner, Jim Benton; mother, Eloise C. Pate; sisters, Kathryn Pate-Byrd and husband, Andy, of Nashville, Tennessee, and Julie McCole and husband, Matt, of Denver, Colorado; brother, Edwin Bruce Pate III and wife, Donna, of Katy, Texas; nephew, Clark Gregg and wife, Lisa; and nieces, Kathryn Gregg and Sarah Pate.

Visitation was held Wednesday, Feb. 21 at Bering Memorial United Methodist Church. Funeral services were held at the church on Thursday, Feb. 22. Interment and graveside services were held in Hillsboro, Texas on Friday, Feb. 23.

In lieu of usual remembrances, memorial contributions may be made in Doug's name to the Bering Memorial United Methodist Church Support Network.

Michael Ray Bass

May 26, 1942 - Feb. 20, 1996

A native of Nacogdoches, Texas, Michael was well-respected and well-loved in Houston and Louisville, Kentucky, where he co-owned National Horseman magazine. Long employed by Acker-Blum & Associates as a Realtor, Michael was known for hosting board games, dinners and titillating conversation. A Bridge Grand Master and a bingo fanatic, he will be missed by many. He received much loving care from his family and from the Nacogdoches Convalescent Center. At his request, a service will not be held.

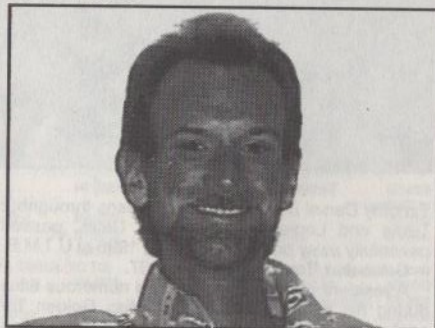

In lieu of flowers, donations may be sent to: The Hospice of Deep East Texas; 217 N. Mound; Nacogdoches, TX 75961

Jack Dickinson, born on Jan. 27, 1930 in Lake Charles, Louisiana, died on Feb. 25. A 45-year resident of Houston, Jack was a well-known singer and voice teacher and for many years performed with the Houston Grand Opera. After his retirement, Jack sang with numerous church and temple choirs, including those of Christ Church Cathedral, Congregation Beth Israel and others. Jack was an active community member, and had volunteered with Omega House and the PWA Coalition, where he worked with their buddy program. Jack was also a past member of EPAH, the Executive and Professional Association of Houston.

Jack is survived by his sister, Toni Mullan of Houston; nephews Paul and Phil Mullan of Houston; and other relatives. His many close friends will greatly miss his sense of humor and uplifting spirit. A celebration of his life will be held on Tuesday, March 5 at 4 p.m. at the Rothko Chapel, 1409 Sul Ross at Yupon.

Lyle D. Starkey [above]

Born June 17, 1959 in Edmond, Oklahoma
 Died Feb. 2, 1996 in Austin, Texas

Lyle Starkey died peacefully early on the morning of Feb. 2 with his mother by his side. Lyle made his living in Austin as a massage therapist and hairstylist, most recently at Travis Hair Styling in the Omni Hotel. He was also a great cook and a very gifted pianist. Lyle's greatest gift, however, was his generosity and his love for his friends and family. His loss will be deeply felt by all of those close to him.

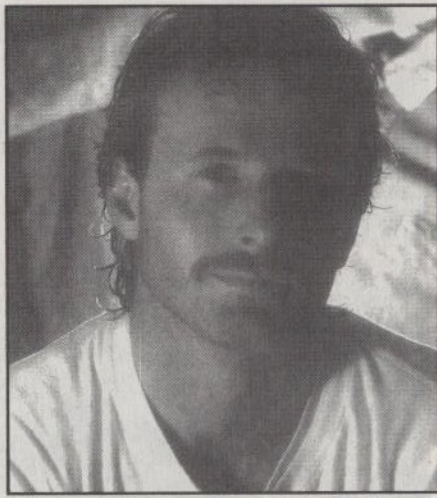

Timothy Daniel Doyle [above]

Timothy Daniel Doyle, known to his fans throughout Texas and Louisiana as Babette Davis, passed peacefully away on Friday, Feb. 16, 1996 at U.T.M.B. in Galveston, Texas at the age of 37.

A resident of Beaumont, he held numerous titles during his drag career such as Miss Golden Triangle, Miss Copa, Miss Sundowner Emeritus, Miss Southeast Texas/USA Emeritus, to name just a few. On June 12, 1995, he, along with his soulmate of 16½ years, Robert Greenleaf, were joined in holy union. Then in September, the Beaumont community got together to host a benefit of life in his honor, at which time Babette performed her final show.

Timothy is survived by his father and stepmother, one brother, two sisters, nieces, nephews and his soulmate, Robert.

A memorial service was held at the family church on Monday, Feb. 19 in Mauriceville, Texas

Snatched away
Gone
Taken
No warning
Just reality on the shortness of life
So we are left with...
Memories, dreams and loves
And with our Patrick a little deeper
In our hearts...
