Ease and Variety Place Cruises At the Top of the List For Gay Travelers

When it comes to travel, there are so many options. But when it comes to value, the field narrows and cruising stands out as the clear winner. The all-inclusive nature of cruising is extremely attractive to most travelers — meals, on-board entertainment, accommodations and, often, airfare as well, are all included in the upfront, prepaid price. The only extras are gratuities and options (drinking, shore excursions, drinking, shopping, drinking...). In fact, it's possible you may never have to spend another dime if you don't want to. Plus, you get the added bonus of visiting multiple destinations on one trip without the hassle of packing, unpacking and schlepping all your bags.

Ditto for exclusively gay cruises. As the travel industry evolves to include more destinations and types of cruises, gay cruise options blossom as well. At one time, the only cruise lines interested in all-gay charters were the low-priced lines desperate to fill ships. Now, some of the mid- and higher-priced cruise lines are taking notice and salivating over the gay community. Most recently, there have been sold-out all-gay charters on Carnival Cruises, Crown Cruises and even the Club Med 1.

Naturally, with so many more choices to select from, the most frequently asked question is, "What's the best cruise for me?" That depends; there are so many factors to consider when selecting the best cruise for anyone. What interests you most? What is your budget? What area of the world do you want to see? What time of year can you travel? Clearly, the cruise that's best suited for "Joe Cool" might not be best for "Laid-back Larry." In the past, people went on an all-gay charter simply because it was exclusively gay. Well, times have changed and you now have the luxury of picking and choosing what part of Foam was given its birth in Ibiza, Spain, where night is the only life and everyone dances until dawn. This year, The Hosts of White Party '96 offer you gorgeous men, complimentary clothes check and FOAM to give you a taste of Ibiza's nightlife. There's an abundance of well-sculpted boys at White Party '96 waiting to see you. It's a party you will not soon forget.

REVIEWED BY BRUCE WILLIAMS

The Prolific Larry L. King
Gives New Life
To Four Late Leaders in

The Dead Presidents' Club,

World-Premiering in Austin

The world may not have the late Richard M. Nixon to "kick around" anymore, but that doesn't prevent award-winning writer Larry L. King from giving audiences a few chuckles over the well-known mannerisms of one of our most controversial presidents.

In fact, King's premise for his latest stage masterpiece has four former Supreme Commanders with debatable records on earth killing time in a waiting room of the hereafter, on hold while God and a panel of saints try to decide what's to become of them: damnation, heavenly bliss or, perhaps, a recycling trip back to Earth. Lyndon B. Johnson, Harry S. Truman and Calvin Coolidge have been in the barracks-like holding station for some time, and now they're joined by Nixon.

Nixon and LBJ are the solid center-points of the action, and their sparkling repartee and barbs about one another's early successes and failures are the highlights of The Dead Presidents' Club, which is making its world premiere at the State Theatre in Austin. There are still some slow spots and weaknesses to be ironed out before King has another mega-hit like his The Best Little Whorehouse in Texas; but there were enough bright spots and fun moments to give the opening-night audience (which included the likes of former First Lady Barbara Bush and ex-Gov. Ann Richards) plenty to laugh about and applaud.

King has his presidential caricatures down cold, though Truman (played here by Thomas C. Parker) and Coolidge (Michael Hankin) don't have much to do but be feisty and word-sparing, respectively. From Nixon's (G.W. Bailey) paranoia to LBJ's (Dennis Letts) shooting from the hip, it's all there on stage, as big as life.

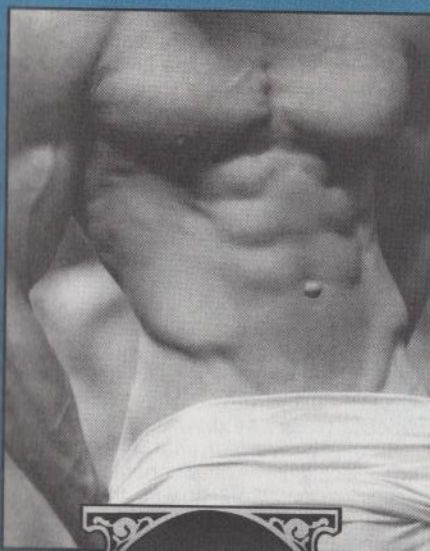

Nixon, of course, schemes up a plan to bypass the committee of saints and take the ex-presidents' cases directly to God. They do that by buttering up The Heavenly Bureaucrat (Luther "Corky" Williams) — and there are no better margarine-spreaders than Nixon and Johnson. The four get their audience with the Almighty (Eve L. Willis Tate) in the second act, but she's not at all what they had anticipated. Thus the statesmen are put in the unfamillar position of having to defend their records — honestly — although LBJ argues, "Your Grace, I'm a politician; it's my life to tell people what they want to hear."

King has "been there and done that," from writing for magazines to serving as a Congressional aide and speechwriter to penning award-winning plays and novels. The native Texan has a special fondness for Austin's Live Oak Theatre, which now operates out of the State's stage.

"By my knowledge, the Live Oak is the only theatre in America that's done all my plays," he noted in an interview with TWT on the eve of the premiere of his newest work.

"I told the owner a couple of years ago that I'd been thinking about this play for a few years, and I wanted to do it here first," continued the easygoing writer, who's not to be confused with that impostor with the similar name and the TV show. "This is a good test for it, in LBJ country. There's a certain political sophistication in Austin, what with the state capital and the university....I love Austin, it's my favorite place in Texas; Fort Worth's second, Midland-Odessa (where he grew up) 183rd!"

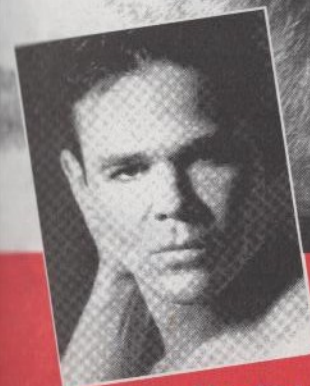

King pointed out that he personally knew all his play's major characters except Coolidge and God. "It was the most fun play I've ever written," he continued, "maybe the most fun thing I've ever written. With the characters as I perceive them, you had plenty of opportunity for comedy and fantasy — as you also deal with power, myths, the mystery of the afterlife and a lot of other serious subjects. There's preachments, but I hope they don't show."

What does show is an excellent, professional cast, led by Letts and Bailey, who is also directing. There's little change of scenery, and brief blackouts are used to denote passages of time. This play rises and falls with the actors and their dialogue, and most of the time everything succeeds nicely. Complicated effects, especially in the second act, are carried off mostly smoothly by lighting designer Ken Hudson and sound designer Lou Rigler.

The Dead Presidents' Club runs through June 2 at the State Theatre, 719 Congress Ave. in Austin. Performances are at 8 p.m. Wednesdays-Saturdays and 6 p.m. Sundays. Tickets are $17 Fridays and Saturdays and $15 other evenings, with discounts available for students, seniors and groups. For reservations or more information, call (512)499-8497.

RYAN BLOCK
Tantalizing Thursday

Last week as I packed my bag for a much-needed weekend in Dallas to engage in some fun and frolic and a little work. I found myself digging through a new pile of promo CDs for something to listen to during the five-hour journey. Well, I absolutely fell in love with one of the records. Tina Arena's Don't Ask is one of the most refreshing collections of music I've heard in awhile. One cut, "Chains," is already on the radio and climbing the charts, and there are lovely dance mixes floating around by Teri Bristol and Tony Moran. Tina's style of music fits right in there somewhere between Alanis and Mariah. Some of the tracks are folk-sounding in nature, there are ballads and one song — "Heaven Help My Heart" — is even a perfect three-stepper! So don't be surprised if you hear Tina in your favorite homo country bar soon. Grab a copy, it's worth it. Oh, and everyone over 30 needs to know that the coordinator of this album was none other than Tony DeFranco. How's that for a blast from the past?

Ever since the massive success of "Dreamer," everyone has been starved for more of Livin' Joy. Now the wait is over as we celebrate the release of her latest, "Don't Stop Movin'," complete with exclusive mixes by Visnadi (one of Italy's finest). This track is a beautiful hi-houser that carries on with all the same fervor that "Dreamer" did, but for some reason I like this one better. There are four brilliant mixes to keep it fresh for awhile, and the production and pressing are first-rate. Of course, it's on MCA/UK.

Future Diva Alert: I don't know where this Natalia girl came from, but I bet Aqua Boogie is glad they found her. Check out "More of My Love," yet another fine house record. All the mixes are great, but the two that really kill me are the Joya Club Mix and A.J.'s Energy Trip. The Joya version is dominated by Natalia's strong vocal attack and piano that'll wear you out, while the A.J. mix is funkier, incorporating sirens and some break-beat action. I'm telling you, when you see an Aqua Boogie record at the store, just take it. They're all great.

Last week I opened a package that contained this cute EP by Poi Dog Pondering. The record includes four tracks guaranteed to get you to the floor. The first one, "Platectonic," is very NRG-ladled and sort of traditional, as is "God's Gallipoli." But if you flip it over, there's some lunchy electronic stuff found on "Zap Disco" — very grindy and yummie (sounds like the Grid). And the fourth track is another example of that growing genre known as "dream music." It's called "Diva" and it's really gorgeous. Check out this EP; you won't believe it's domestic.

All right, I've almost about had it with all these covers of Alanis' "You Oughta Know." Yes, I've received yet another one! The latest can be found on ZYX by Twice As Good featuring Jillé. Brace yourselves; this one definitely takes you for a ride. I think as far as covers of this song go, this one's the winner. There's more kick, more umph, ya know? Okay, ZYX is now redeemed.

Want more? The long-awaited release of the new Reel 2 Real is finally here. It's the title track from their forthcoming album, Are You Ready for Some More. This song is highly kinetic, ragga-tipped and quite the deal, actually. The mixes are done by Erick "More" Morillo and Todd Terry. You collectors may want to find the limited edition colored vinyl copy to add to your treasures. It's from the good folks at Strictly Rhythm.

Power Pick of the Week: Move over, RuPaul, Lady Bunny is here. Bunny is best known as the founder, organizer and emcee of New York's Labor Day dragfest, Wigstock. She also had roles in Wigstock — the Movie and To Wong Foo and has appeared on MTV, CBS This Morning and Real Personal. Now, thanks to the foresight of Claudia Cuseta and Maxi Records, you can enjoy Bunny's debut record, "Shame, Shame, Shame!" a remake of the old Shirley and Co. disco smash from the '70s. Bunny's version, produced by Dmitry of Deee-lite fame, is an electric club anthem that's sure to move ya. The artist is touring all summer, and for booking info contact Claudia at Maxi Records at (212) 213-9800. That's dance music THIS WEEK IN TEXAS.

KELLY DuPONT

This week's cover man is 25-year-old Kelly DuPont. Originally from Minnesota, Kelly has called Houston his home for three years. His favorite pastimes include movies, music, traveling and spending time with his lover, Jerry. He also loves to dance and can be seen performing regularly at Houston's Pacific Street.

Rodgers and Hammerstein's musical masterpiece Carousel comes to the Dallas Summer Musicals and the Music Hall in Fair Park June 11-23. Winner of four London Olivier Awards and five Tonys, including Best Musical Revival, this production features the wonderful songs "If I Loved You" and "You'll Never Walk Alone." Performances are Wednesdays-Saturdays at 8 p.m., with matinees at 2 p.m. on Saturdays and Sundays. Tickets ($7-$48) are available at the box office at (214) 647-5700.

Theatre Three in Dallas, the theatre-in-the-round located in the Quadrangle, opened its new season May 18 with Murderer, a mystery-comedy by Anthony Shaffer. Shaffer, best known for his earlier play Sleuth, won critical raves for Murderer when it premiered in London. Praised for its ingenious plot, its central character is an artist with an obsession for famous murder cases. This play contains violence and nudity. Performances are Thursdays-Saturdays at 8:15 p.m. and Sundays at 2:30 p.m. through June 16. For tickets ($17-$24), call the box office at (214)871-3300.

The Turtle Creek Chorale's next performances are June 9 and 12 at the Morton H. Meyerson Symphony Center in downtown Dallas. The concerts, entitled A Slice of American Pie, will feature selections of "new American music." Singer Cynthia Clawson will be the Chorale's special guest for the two evenings. Concerts begin at 8 p.m. Tickets ($18-$56) are available by calling (214)871-ARTS.

Houston Ballet's Prima Ballerina Janie Parker dances the tour de force Image, based on the life of film star Marilyn Monroe, through June 2 at the Wortham Center.

Houston Ballet's Prima Ballerina Janie Parker begins the final performances of her 23-year career with the solo tour de force Image, which is being presented through June 2. Inspired by the life of film legend Marilyn Monroe, the work portrays both the awkward, shy young girl and the great star, full of poise, presence and sex appeal, she later became. Image is being presented along with two other ballets, also by Artistic Director Ben Stevenson, Four Last Songs and Bartók Concerto, at the Wortham Center in downtown Houston. Performances are at 7:30 p.m. May 23, 25, 31 and June 1 and at 2 p.m. May 26 and June 2. For tickets ($10-$75), call (713)227-ARTS or (800)828-ARTS.

The Sherlock Holmes legend takes a new turn when Main Street Theater in Houston presents the premiere of Hugh Leonard's comedy/mystery The Mask of Moriarty. The super-sleuth is called upon to clear a man of murder charges, whereupon he immediately senses the involvement of his archenemy Moriarty and the game, as they say, "is afoot." Performances are June 6-July 7 at Main Street Theater (Chelsea Market), 4617 Montrose, with shows at 7:30 p.m. Thursdays, 8 p.m. Fridays and Saturdays and 4 p.m. Sundays (no shows on June 7 or July 4). For tickets ($10-$15), call (713)524-6706.

The Pitchfork Disney premieres this evening (May 24) and runs through June 22 at Planet Theatre, 2307 Manor Rd. in Austin. Bonnie Cullum directs the VORTEX Company's latest play, a dark and terrifying journey into the fears of Haley and Presley. British playwright Philip Ridley provides this dangerous edge to your darkest nightmares. For more info, call (512)478-LAVA; for reservations, call (512)499-TIXS.

Capitol City Playhouse in Austin presents "Scrutiny" and "No Exit," two new works by Ariel Dance Theatre, Thursday through Saturday, May 30-June 1. Tickets are $9 general and $7 students, seniors, Dance Umbrella and AcOT members; shows are at 8 p.m. May 30 and 8 and 10 p.m. the other days. Capitol City Playhouse is located at 214 W. 8th St.; for reservations or more info, call (512) 469-2901 or (512)499-TIXS.

PATTI LaBELLE
BORN MAY 24, 1944

BY C. LICHTENSTEIN

WEEK OF MAY 24 - 30, 1996

If life takes on a wild and woolly hue, chalk it up to an extraordinary number of planets in retrograde (six — count 'em, friends). Plans are shaken, not stirred, and what is comfortable and familiar undergoes intense reevaluation. On the bright side, one retrograde planet — chatty Mercury — goes "direct" this week. It's time to stop talking to yourself and get the message out loud, proud and queer.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21) Retrograde planets highlight where we don't feel comfortable in our own skin. Now, a barrage of retro energy causes otherwise proud Twins to downplay their feisty style to suit the whims of others. Don't compromise, cousin! Thankfully, this naive pandering passes, but not before you face yourself in the mirror. Mercury plays a role in this personal epiphany as intuition sharpens up and marks a path.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23) Any misunderstanding with friends can reach a mutual accord, at least when Mercury goes direct. Pink Crabs are sensitive souls. Of course, sensitive is one thing and playing the martyr is another; don't let ego stand in the way of common sense. All the rest of the retrograde planets can hoist you on your own petard. Make sure you wear clean undies in case you get run over by a taxi!

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23) What might have become a fatal corporate faux pas is splendidly salvaged thanks to direct Mercury. Roar all you want; I suspect that the powers that be will give you the extra inch now (some of us like it that way...). Proud, regal Lions may be forced to balance partners' needs with the demands of the job as a result of those annoying retrograde planets. But balance is, after all, everything, darling.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23) If "zounds" is a usable word, I'd say "Zounds! All retrograde planets are stirring up a mean mixture of too much fun, too much work and too much partnership angst!" Queer Virgins are happier sitting this dance out and escaping to parts unknown when Mercury goes direct. Travel plans suddenly fall into place. Great! Get out while the getting out is good (and, of course, being out is always good).

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23) Have your best sexual signals been falling short of the mark? Relax, dear, queer Libra; sexual static is a thing of the past with Mercury direct. Flirtatious Scales are love 'em and leave 'em types. Have you learned your lesson? Hopefully a bit of depth has been added to your repertoire. If not, those retrograde planets can demonstrate how no one is an island, even living in the big city.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22) Scorps feel the release when Mercury goes direct. Finally partners are listening intently. Interestingly, you're listening to them in return. The sticky wicket here is that you may agree to disagree, especially when it comes to living arrangements, leisure activities and (dare I say) frequency and quality of sex. Lusty queer Scorps can be too hot to handle. Offer partners an oven mitt to intensify the love play.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22) Poor Sag has been feeling like a rat on an assembly line treadmill, but scurry no more. Mercury direct makes you feel as if your thoughts and opinions are finally having an impact on the job. The important task at hand, though, has more to do with those retrograde planets stirring up an internal hornet's nest. What do you truly value? Can you attain inner harmony and affirmation? CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20) Queer Caps regress to an earlier stage of personal development. How you appear to others and the social signals you emit are poised for a rehaul and reassessment. It's shocking how one so capable can have such a low self-image, but suffer no more, friend! Thank the stars for Mercury direct, which gets the party hot and hopping. That alluring bit by the bar may help you regain your self-confidence.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19) Altruistic Aqueerians open up a Pandora's box thanks to all those retrograde planets. Do you really want a full psychological analysis of why you avoid intimacy and fight for the greater cause and throbbing masses? Thought not...Mercury direct gets the message across to family members that your lifestyle is not a choice but a destiny. Speak from the heart and the results will prove heartening.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - March 20) If you've ever had a hankering to loudly, proudly voice an opinion, this may be an opportune time with Mercury direct. Pink Fish get their point across (isn't it impolite to point?). Advisory: Those retrograde planets have a way of altering your public persona. Friends may not view you in the same way, or your best-laid charitable plans may fall into confusion. Well, it all makes life more interesting....

ARIES (March 21 - April 20) Investments make more sense thanks to Mercury, which had the good sense to go direct. Proud Rams must now reassess all they hold near and dear. The unusual number of retrograde planets shake, rattle and roll how you deal with others, whether they're friends, foes or authority figures. Avoid mustering the troops into battle until you get clear orders and a faithful band of followers who'll do the dirty work.

TAURUS (April 21 - May 21) Fearsome queersome Bulls trot out into the limelight and play the diva when Mercury changes course. But the rest of the retrograde planets insure that a combination of social obligations, travel plans and career intentions will have a way of tangling and tripping you up. It's time to reflect on what is and is not important in the global social arena. Do you want to be party pope, queen or corporate despot?

ACTIVISTS HAIL HIGH COURT DECISION STRIKING DOWN COLORADO LAW

6-3 Vote to Overturn Anti-Gay Amendment 2 Called
'Outstanding Moral Victory.'

U.S. — Jubilation mixed with a note of caution filled the air earlier this week with the announcement on Monday that the U.S. Supreme Court had struck down a proposed amendment to Colorado's Constitution barring civil rights protections for homosexuals. Gay activists and supporters called the ruling a significant one, yet warned that it is only one more step in a long struggle.

A large crowd gathered in Tranquillity Park in downtown Houston Monday evening to celebrate the Supreme Court's decision overturning Amendment 2.

"This decision is an outstanding moral victory," Elizabeth Birch, Executive Director of the Human Rights Campaign, said Monday of the 6-3 ruling that overturned Amendment 2. "And this triumph is especially important in light of the congressional gay-bashing, which has reached an all-time high in the last two weeks."

"Amendment 2...classifies homosexuals not to further a proper legislative end, but to make them unequal to everyone else...." Justice Anthony Kennedy said in writing for the majority. "It is not within our constitutional tradition to enact laws of this sort." Kennedy was joined in the majority by Justices Stephen Breyer, Ruth Bader Ginsburg, Sandra Day O'Connor, David Souter and John Paul Stevens, while Justice Antonin Scalia filed a dissenting opinion joined by Justices William Rehnquist and

Clarence Thomas.

While the court's ruling did not deal with gay issues per se, it was considered a major victory by activists because it struck down a statute that threatened efforts by homosexuals to seek legal remedies against discrimination, in Colorado and by extension elsewhere. Right-wing groups, on the other hand, decried what they saw as the Supreme Court's decision to flout the popular will.

Amendment 2 was passed by Colorado voters in November 1992. In addition to repealing all existing statutes, regulations and ordinances forbidding discrimination against people on the basis of their sexual orientation, the measure (which never took effect) would have prohibited the state and any political jurisdictions within the state from passing or enforcing such laws in the future. A legal team opposing the proposal sought and won a temporary injunction against the enforcement of Amendment 2.

In July 1993, the Colorado Supreme Court upheld that injunction, a decision that was appealed to the U.S. Supreme Court by the State of Colorado; that petition was denied. In December of that year, Amendment 2 was ruled unconstitutional in Denver District Court, a decision that was upheld by Colorado's Supreme Court in October 1994 but was then appealed by the state to the nation's high court. The state court's judgment in the case, Romer v. Evans, was affirmed by the U.S. Supreme Court on Monday.

"I am heartened by today's decision," said state Rep. Glen Maxey, D-Austin, at a press conference held Monday at the Capitol Building in Austin, "...that gay men and lesbians are entitled to equal protection under the law. This is what I and many others have been saying all along: That gay and lesbian citizens ask not for special rights, but for equal rights."

"We're not only delighted by the outcome, but we intend to use it," declared Jay Jacobson, Executive Director of the American Civil Liberties Union of Texas, who also spoke at the news conference. "If Colorado can't do it, then Texas can't do it. We're going to take this decision and press the issue until everyone is equal under the law in this state."

"In Texas, we have long lived with the scars of anti-gay ballot initiatives in both Houston and in Austin," Dianne Hardy-Garcia, Executive Director of the Lesbian/Gay Rights Lobby of Texas, told a large crowd that had gathered in downtown Houston Monday evening to mark the ruling. "But today, we have the tools to fight back. I'm very pleased with this ruling, and I think it all gives us for what we can do in the future. But I hope we'll use this energy today, this celebratory mood to reignite our fight to secure the protections lesbian and gay Texans need. So let us fight on."

Rallies were also held Monday evening in Dallas and Tuesday in Austin.

HOME HIV TEST WINS FEDERAL APPROVAL

Initial Availability Will Be Limited to Texas, Florida.

TEXAS — The HIV testing experience will begin changing for Texans next month when a home test kit for the virus becomes available. The U.S. Food and Drug Administration last week gave its approval to the "Confide HIV Testing Service" kit.

HIV testing has traditionally been performed in more conventional settings like doctors' offices and clinics by medical professionals, and has usually been accompanied by pre- and post-test counseling. Users of the home test kit will prick a fingertip to obtain a blood sample, which will then be placed on a special test card bearing a 14-digit number. Seven days after mailing in their samples, clients can then call a toll-free number to receive test results and counseling.

Those who test positive will be informed of their results by a staff counselor, who will also provide referrals and other information. Those who test negative will receive that news and additional information through a recorded message, though they may also speak to a counselor if they so choose.

Texas is one of only two states (the other being Florida) in which the Confide kit will be available during an initial trial period; Texans can call 1-800-THE TEST to obtain the test or purchase it over the counter at drug stores, public health clinics and other such locations. In Florida, kits will be available only by calling the toll-free number. The kits, which will cost around $40, should be available elsewhere in the U.S. by sometime next year.

The whole idea of home testing has caused concern among some activists and medical professionals, who fear that people learning of their HIV status under such circumstances might not receive adequate counseling. Those who support the concept counter that it will help slow the spread of the disease more effectively than conventional testing methods. The Texas Legislature legalized the kits during its last session a year ago.

NEW DALLAS GROUP FORMS TO COORDINATE LOCAL FUND-RAISERS

Greater Unity, Camaraderie Sought by Organizers.

DALLAS — Imagine how much easier planning might become if there were an organization that compiled a calendar of fund-raisers and other events so that there would be no overlaps in scheduling. A group of Dallas gays and lesbians is doing just that with the formation of what they call the Dallas United Council.

Two meetings have already been held at the Dallas Gay & Lesbian Community Center, and more monthly gatherings are scheduled to help the new group get off the ground.

The organization will consist of one or two members of each group that wishes to take part in the new effort. Currently, TGRA/Dallas, the Dallas Silver Sabres, Dallas Buddies, U.C.L.S.E., Inc. and the Texas Motorcycle Club are charter members. There will be no president or vice-president, but a board of directors will be chosen to help run the group.

The stated purpose of the Council is to work toward a common goal of helping charitable organizations as individual groups, as well as working on an annual fund-raising event involving all member organizations, to be called "United As One." No date for that fund-raiser has yet been set.

The Council also plans to develop a calendar of events so that organizations will be aware of the schedules of other groups.

Those forming the Council said they hoped to strengthen the camaraderie of gay men and lesbians in Dallas by helping members become better acquainted with other participating entities. They also believe such efforts will foster a spirit of unity among clubs and organizations that become members.

MCC-AUSTIN HOSTS DISTRICT CONFERENCE

Church Looking for New Property; Opening Set for Cornerstone.

AUSTIN — Metropolitan Community Church of Austin enjoyed probably the busiest weekend in its history by hosting the four-state South Central District annual conference of the Universal Fellowship of Metropolitan Community Churches, held May 16-19, while also closing the sale of its property at 425 Woodward St. last Friday. At the same time, plans continued for the June 1 Open House marking the grand opening of Cornerstone, Austin's Gay and Lesbian Community Center, in which MCC-Austin has played a large role.

"I cannot even tell you!" the Rev. Ken Martin said about the extraordinary events happening all at once for the church. "When I signed the lease, I felt like a ton had been lifted from my shoulders."

The property was bought by the Travis County Commission for the Deaf, which intends to turn it into a community center for hearing-impaired persons. MCC-Austin will lease back the worship space on Sunday mornings and evenings and continue holding services there for the next year; at the same time, Martin said, plans call for the purchase of some property where the Austin church can build its new sanctuary, since a ready-made site has still not been found after two years of searching.

In the meantime, the offices of MCC-Austin will be located at Cornerstone, which is opening at 1117 Red River Ave. The new facility's Open House will include a reception from 4-5 p.m. for the over 300 members of Cornerstone's Founders Club; then from 5-6 p.m., there will be a public open house, with everyone invited to tour the new space that will be home to numerous Austin-area gay, lesbian, bisexual and related organizations.

"We really looked very seriously for one site to hold all the groups that wanted to be involved in Cornerstone," Martin said. "We did feasibility studies on five or six places, and looked at at least 20. Finally we decided to break it up; we're just going to have to do it in two spaces. There are 30 groups in Austin that have used our facilities in the past year, and we intend to keep helping everyone we can."

Meanwhile, 323 registered delegates descended on Austin for the MCC district conference. Twenty-eight churches in Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana and Arkansas were represented, and special speakers during the weekend included the Rev. Elder Nancy Wilson, pastor of UFMCC's parent church, MCC-Los Angeles, and district rep and vice-moderator on the UFMCC Board of Elders, and the Rev. Mel White of Dallas, UFMCC Minister of Justice.

Numerous district awards were handed out at the conference's banquet last Saturday. In addition, the first annual Justice Award was presented to state Rep. Glen Maxey, D-Austin, for his support of civil liberties for all people.

Last weekend's gathering marked the first time in 16 years the district conference has come to Austin; next year's event will be in Little Rock, Arkansas.

TEXANS TAKE PART IN AIDSWATCH '96 LOBBYING EVENT

Group Visits Congressional Offices, Urging Greater Funding.

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Eight Texans took part in AIDSWatch '96, a national lobbying initiative that aimed to educate state Congressional delegations about HIV/AIDS prevention, care, research and housing needs last Sunday through Tuesday in the nation's capital.

"There were three from Houston, a couple from the Dallas area, three from San Antonio and myself from Austin," Carolyn Parker, Executive Director of the Texas AIDS Network and the event's Texas regional coordinator, told TWT NEWS by telephone from Washington Monday evening. "I believe we wound up with over 400 (total participants from across the country)."

The Texans visited the offices of congressmen and senators from their state on Monday and Tuesday, talking to legislators when available but primarily to staffers. "Our delegation had 16 appointments scheduled (Monday), where we had constituents or thought we had. The other 16 we had to drop-in visits planned. We covered 26 congressional offices today; we go for the senators tomorrow, and the congressman we have left — one of whom is my congressman, Lloyd Doggett, who said he hoped to be back from Austin to meet with us personally."

AIDSWatch '96 participants had an opportunity to attend the 13th annual International AIDS Candlelight Memorial and Mobilization on Sunday, an evening walk from the White House to the Capitol to show public concern for AIDS issues. A few participants were among the limited number of invitees on hand Monday when President Bill Clinton signed the five-year extension of the Ryan White CARE Act, earmarking $738 million toward treatment and support services for AIDS patients.

"Our purpose," Parker said of AIDSWatch '96, "was to talk about appropriations for fiscal (year) '97. There are two primary elements to that: Labor, Health and Human Services, and then the National Institutes for Health.... We were saying the President's numbers were not enough, but we'd like to start with that as the floor for discussion. The strategy we are using was drawn up by Rep. Gerry Studds (R-Conn) and Rep. Connie Morella (D-Calif), and we're trying to get Texans signed on to that plan."

"There's a lot of tough battles ahead of us for funding.... There are some legislative barriers to dealing with this disease.... The struggle's not over (despite the extension of Ryan White); it's just one step of many that needs to be done."

MELTDOWN '96 MIXES FUN, GOOD CAUSE IN AUSTIN

Weekend of Activities Benefits Local AIDS Efforts.

AUSTIN — A series of parties over the Memorial Day weekend that begins today (May 24) are intended to serve dual causes: to bring a large number of so-called "Boyz" and out-of-towners to Austin to enjoy the many good things the Capital City has to offer, and to raise money to benefit people living with AIDS.

Ben Parsley, executive director of Helping Hands for Life, Inc., a nonprofit organization, is the guiding force behind MELTDOWN '96, which starts today and officially runs through the break of dawn Monday, May 27. Four major parties and events are on the agenda, as well as many private gatherings and free time for participants who are expected from as far away as New England, Florida and California. All payments are tax deductible, with net proceeds benefitting the fight against AIDS.

"We did RIP'D '95 here last fall," Parsley explained of his previous fund-raising endeavor. "We had about 2,500 guys, and with the one party we raised about $10,000 for Christopher House (an Austin treatment facility for people with AIDS). This time we're doing four parties, and we hope to raise significantly more!"

The festivities begin with a Welcome to Austin Party from 8 p.m. to midnight this evening on the top floor of the Hyatt Regency Austin, 208 Barton Springs Rd. There's no charge for the open cocktail party.

MELTDOWN is Saturday from 9:30 p.m. to 3 a.m. at the Austin Music Hall, 208 Nueces St. DeeJay Mike Durreto from the Probe in Los Angeles will handle the music, and spray water bottles and squirt guns will be available. Tickets are $20 in advance, $25 at the door.

Sunday from 11:30 a.m. to about 5:30 p.m., it's Captain Morgan's Run Run at Lake Travis, featuring three party barges off Hippie Hollow. The 350 barge seats sold out early, but there will be plenty of related partying ashore on the swimsuit-optional beaches. Admission to Hippie Hollow is $5 per car, $2 per pedestrian, with money collected going to the Parks division of Travis County.

The last big blast starts at 10 p.m. Sunday at Proteus nightclub, 501 E. 6th St., and continues to dawn and beyond. New York deejay Julian Marsh will set the mood, and tickets are $25 at the door.

VIP weekend passes for MELTDOWN '96 have sold out, adding to Parsley's enthusiasm about the fund-raiser's success. The event's major sponsors include Captain Morgan, Genre magazine, Hyatt, Continental Airlines, Atlantis and more. For additional info and event updates, call (512)478-1210.

 enjoying a night out at Wild Corner, where major changes are unfolding as we speak. There's no cover all weekend long and phenomenal drink specials are in effect, plus porno stud J.T. Sloan makes a special appearance tomorrow night beginning at midnight. Make sure to drop by and check out their all-new weekly schedule, which includes entertainment, drink specials and no cover except for after hours on Fridays and Saturdays....

The Eagle Mountain Saloon continues to offer an entire week's worth of startling drink specials with hot, hunky cowboys, bartenders serving it up nightly plus Norm and Ken serving it up from the deejay booth. Join them for happy hour daily or make it a stop on your night out. Either way, it's the place to be for a good time in the River City....

The Pegasus pool is filled with cool water and mouthwatering men. Visit them every day from 2 p.m.-2 a.m. for nonstop cruising and unbelievable drink prices and stop by their sister club, the Silver Dollar Saloon, for equally flawless drink specials and a host of friendly bartenders to please you all day and night....

The Saint invites you to join legendary diva Shady Lady [above] for hot male dancers on Wednesdays and again on Fridays. The all-new quiet bar, though still under construction, is now open. Look forward to many more great things from this hip and happenin' dance club in the coming months. This Sunday, the Saint welcomes Charity Case and Cruella Divine to its stage along with Erica, Shady and Pauletta. FLASH! The club has just confirmed that the Southwest Regional Entertainer of the Year Pageant has been scheduled for Sunday, June 23 with special appearances by Coco and Tasha Kohl....

Bonham Exchange hosts its infamous annual street dance this Sunday, May 26 with food, games and music by S.A.'s favorite deejays Jimmy Smith and Rose. Don't miss this outdoor extravaganza, bristling with traditions like "Vickie's Beer Bob" and, of course, Ava, Teresa, Lee, Danny and the entire Bonham family....

We found Vincent, Diana, Roell, Ernest and Jeff [above, l-r] enjoying the sights and sounds of Woody's. The club's theme nights, including Melrose Mondays and Showtunes Thursdays, ensure a packed house seven nights a week. ReBar's recent Uniform Party was such a success that plans for the next themed event are already under way. Watch HOT TEA for details...

AUSTINteaCIOUS — The Capital City's Memorial Day weekend promises to be very memorable, with the first-ever MELTDOWN '96 taking place all over town. See the NEWS story elsewhere in this issue for more about the event, whose net proceeds will benefit persons living with AIDS through organizer Helping Hands for Life, Inc....

Proteus, the two-story bar that welcomes everybody and their sister, welcomes MELTDOWN '96 celebrants this Sunday, May 26, and boss Kevin Campbell says the fun will last till dawn and beyond....

'Bout Time is so proud of deejay Brad that it wants the world to know about him.

He handles Bring Your Own Music Night from 7-11 p.m. Mondays and also Wayback Wednesdays from 7 to whenever. Danny Cardiel does it dynamically with live music from 8 p.m.-2 a.m. Thursdays-Sundays. Oh the talent!...

Oilcan Harry's is also unleashing musical rapture this week, as "Dune" (the sounds of South Beach) joins house hero Carlos. May 24, it's deejay Jo Jo Odyssey and Saturday it's deejay "E-N" Appell. This Sunday, May 26, all-male porn star David Burrill appears at 10:30 p.m. Yum!...

Last Saturday at 5th Street Station, the Texas Gay Rodeo Association raised $260 with its breakfast tacos and jail on the judges' final decision was announced at the Miss Gay Austin America Pageant. These girls gave awesome, elaborate talent performances in a great (though lengthy) event hosted by the inimitable Heather Thomas. No show this Sunday, but also no cover all weekend long. On Wednesday, May 29 at 10 p.m. is a benefit in honor of Cliff Taylor for the HIV Wellness Center....

Bobette and Dianne [above, l-r] were among the patrons saying, "You're welcome!" at Kansas' second Customer Appreciation Night last Friday. Tuesday, May 28, it's the album release party for Everything But the Girl's Walking Wounded; there'll be prizes, videos and more....

A visit to Chain Drive caught Holly, Smitty and Roda [above, l-r] discussing which aliases to use for the weekend. Funny girls! Last Sunday the Bears showed they know how to cook chicken — as the Heart of Texas Bears made chicken sandwiches. This Sunday, May 26, the United Court of Austin man the fires starting at 4 p.m., and rumor is they're going to kabob us. Double yum!...

his last day and he's off for Martha's Vineyard; thankfully, he promised to return in October. The Amateur Comedy Drag Contest on May 15 was won by Irene Scare-a; Wednesday nights belong to pro hot oil wrestlers for the summer. Start getting ready for Charlie's 12th Anniversary Party, coming up June 2....

Naked Grape door divas Slade, Richard and Bob [above, l-r] try to make sure everyone's having a good time. This Saturday, May 25 the Foam will be back for Austin's first daytime Foam Party, from 12:30-4 p.m. Marcy Fletcher hosts the amateur dancer contest at 11:30 p.m. Mondays. Crown Prince Royal Bobby and friends are holding a benefit for the Pediatric AIDS League at 9 p.m.

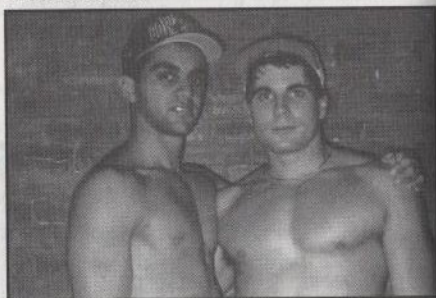

DALLAS TEA — Tonight, Dallas plays host to the final night of competition in the Miss Gay US of A Pageant in the magnificent Ballroom of the fabulous Dallas Grand Hotel, located downtown on Commerce St. Maya Douglas will crown the victor from this year's field of 71 competitors. Unclaimed tickets may be purchased at the door one hour prior to the start of the pageant at 10 p.m....

Tad Thompson and Carlos Hernandez [above, l-r] are just two of the patrons you'll probably see at Moby Dick, Dallas' tropical video bar, which is celebrating the completion of their new balcony that lets you walk between the other two balconies — now's there's more Moby than ever to view Cedar Springs, to enjoy the awesome music and the incredible videos that play constantly on the club's dozens of video monitors....

Men, men, men is what Another Bar gives you starting this Sunday, when they inaugurate a new weekly show featuring sizzling male strippers and male entertainment, with the hottest man getting an incredible cash prize of $169. Thursday nights, the club is starting a new pool tournament at 8 p.m. that also features hard, cold cash to the winner. While you're there, say "hi" to new manager Steve "Junior" Todd, who'll make sure you have a grand time at the club that's not just another bar....

Our CRUISE CAMERA caught two of Midtowne Spa's sexy dancers, Jordan and Kyle [above, l-r], before they took part in the Monday night dancer competition that always features the hottest men Dallas has to offer. There are other things you'll enjoy, such as the jacuzzi, the workout room and, of course, the private rooms and lockers, where you can meet Dallas' sexiest men seven days and nights of the week....

At Crews Inn, we found doorman Christian Carter [below, l] with cute customer Joey [r] in tow, and they're just two of the friendly people you'll meet at the club, which is famous for its Tuesday night blowout, when the hottest music and the hunkiest men in Dallas converge on what is the party place for that night. Besides the music and the men, they also feature an outdoor patio and two back patios that bartenders such as the ultra-sexy Zak Hamilton, Spanke and Richard keep hopping....

Round Up Saloon will be the site for a huge Memorial Day Cookout, with hamburgers and draft beer and, of course, those studly cowboys out on the patio — what more could you want? If you do want more, there's free dance lessons, again with a host of hot cowpokes, with National Dance Champion Juanita Burnell every Thursday and Sunday night at 8:30 p.m....

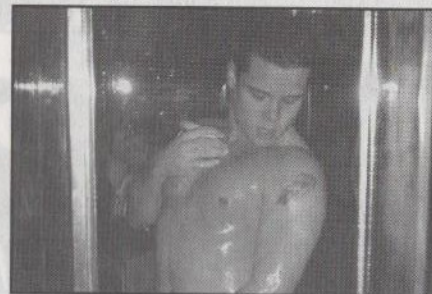

If you haven't seen the one and only Chi Chi LaRue, director of many of today's best XXX male videos, you've really missed something, but Alternatives of New Fine Arts on Mockingbird will let you see her live and in person Thursday, June 20. The exact time hasn't been set, so watch HOT TEA for more details. In the meantime, check out Alternatives' hundreds of video titles, four theatres, leather items and gay pride merchandise, along with magazines and books....

TMC customers Donnie Wright, Carry Thomas and Brad Duncan [above, l-r] cast their votes, and they're in favor by leaps and bounds of the bar's new 15-draft beer bar, which features micro-brews and imports along with some domestics, so you can try a different brand of brew every night. Check out the club this Sunday to celebrate Memorial Day, when they'll offer special drink prices from 4-8 p.m. and other specials from open till close. Then Heda Quote takes to the stage at 10 p.m. that night to emcee the Bear Buns contest, which always packs 'em in....

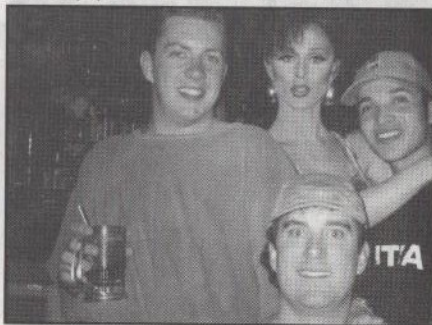

Hector Espinosa is the hot new deejay at Bamboleo's and he'll be spinning the latest hits all weekend long so you can take your turn out on their huge dance floor. The club also will have drink specials all weekend long, along with after hours on Saturday and a Sunday buffet you won't want to miss. There's also a gala show Sunday night at 11 p.m. with Miss Bamboleo's Lucia as emcee and Tierra Mikels, Lindsay Adams and Vanessa Duvall performing....

Like wet and wild? No, we're not talking about the amusement park, but the Brickbar's showers, where the likes of hunky Ryan [above] can be seen lathering up on the weekends. If the sight of these squeaky-clean men isn't enough for you, this Sunday porn star (and legend, we might add) Karl Thomas will be shaking things up at the club's Shirtless Tattoo Party. He'll be applying tattoos to customers, so we're sure he'll leave a good impression on you....

Incredible porn star Ryan Block will appear at The Metro downtown Thursday, May 30 to tantalize you with his buffed body and incredible looks, not to mention the sizzling show he'll put on. So make sure you're there to see this hunky man and enjoy the rest of the bar as well....

The club will be the site for another gala, the 27th annual Miss Gay Dallas Pageant, Friday, June 14 with Donna Day as emcee and a host of former titleholders performing. Next Friday, May 31 will be your chance to hear the pop group Everything But the Girl's new CD, and you just might win some of the posters, T-shirts and CD singles they'll be giving away....

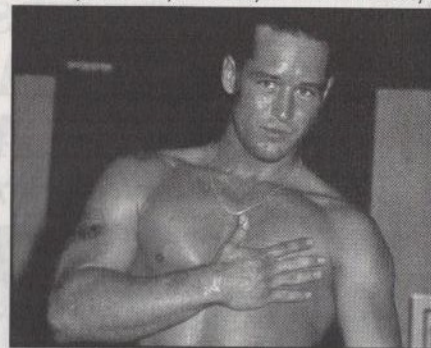

Oscar Williams and Mike Stanley (above, l-r) were at JR's the night our CRUISE CAMERA roamed through the club. You'll definitely want to stop in and stay awhile this Sunday when they feature incredible drink prices that day and night. You'll also want to check out the fun Totally Tan Show that Wanda hosts at 8 p.m. Then, Paul J. Williams takes to the stage and oversees karaoke, so if you're in the mood for some fun and maybe singing a song or two, head to JR's....

Memorial Weekend should be even bigger at Zippers, with Fluffy and Gladys out on the patio Sunday flipping those free hamburgers and hot dogs that always draw a crowd — it's your chance to see some wienies out on the patio, and we're not talking about Fluffy and Gladys. Of course, all weekend long inside the club the hottest male dancers in Dallas will be strutting their stuff nightly for your viewing pleasure....

Park once and party all night long, that's the idea behind Caven Enterprises' new parking lot behind 4001 Cedar Springs. It's a safe, secure, well-lit and attended paid parking lot close to the Crossroads, and 10 percent of the proceeds going to the AIDS Resource Center and Immunocise.

HOUSTON TEA — Your Memorial Day celebration should definitely include a trip to JR's, especially on Sunday. Prior to the big event next door at Heaven, the club's White Pre-Party kicks off at noon with that infamous well vodka juice drink special, happy hour until 11 p.m. and magnificent male dancers from 5 p.m.—2 a.m. JR's will also be serving up "Pre-Foam," so stop by and sample their new collection of six premium draft beers. The club continues to offer tantalizing male strip contests on Sunday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

The list of recent winners includes lots of handsome hunks like gorgeous Glen [above]. While you're enjoying the action at JR's, be sure to pick up a copy of Circuit Noize, the magazine for crazed party boys, because JR's is their only distribution point in Texas....

Speaking of parties, everyone in Houston is gearing up for one of the biggest holiday celebrations of the year and the gang at Heaven is no exception. This year, their annual Memorial Day weekend White Party brings you the rage that's sweeping the nation, "Foam: A Wet Undergear Party." The bigger and better festivities will be highlighted by complimentary clothes check, atmospheric engineering by Steve Underwood and Michael Pruitt and lots of gorgeous go-go gods. Boy Bar Thursdays at Heaven feature the one and only Kofi [above], along with rotating co-hostesses Lindsay Love and Regina Dane, and a bevy of super sexy male strip contestants....

LICENSED MASSEURS

STATE CERTIFICATION POLICY

Texas law clearly requires that only bona fide, state-certified masseurs can be listed in this category. Therefore, TWT policy requires that all masseurs must publish their state-certification number within their advertisements and that a photocopy of their state masseur's license be on file at TWT.

MODELS/ESCORTS

TWT POLICY

Because prostitution is illegal in Texas, state law prohibits the placement in this category of any such ads. Therefore, TWT policy stipulates that we will not and cannot knowingly accept any advertisements suggesting solicitation. It's the law. Also, state law prohibits nonlicensed massage therapists from using terms such as "massage," "Swedish," "accupressure," "Shiatsu," "reflexology," "body rub," "back rub," "body massage" or any term which indicates bodily contact.
