Newt's Half-Sister Shares the Personal and the Political in Her Memoir The Accidental Activist

The Accidental Activist, by Candace Gingrich, with Chris Bull; Scribner; New York, NY; hardback; autobiography; 1996; 242 pp.; $23.

Every coin has two sides, every cloud has a silver lining. In the 1994 congressional elections, the victory by a majority of Republicans gave the powerful job of Speaker of the House of Representatives to Newt Gingrich, close friend of the Christian Coalition and committed opponent of fair and equal rights for homosexuals.

Newt's elevation to power and prominence did, however, bring his half-sister Candace out of her quiet life as a lesbian into the forefront of the fight for fairness. "My brother's celebrity (or should I say notoriety?) offered me a platform from which to raise a strong, distinctive voice for gay and lesbian rights," she recalls. "What others would call courage just felt like being myself and doing what needed to be done....Some people say that I was pushed into gay activism. But I wasn't pushed. I jumped — headfirst. At age 28, I had found my calling, at long last."

Had the pendulum of power never swung toward the GOP and Newt Gingrich, the world might never have gotten to know the woman who was Candace Gingrich: determined, committed, conservative and unprepossessing but also uncompromising in what she saw as questions of basic fairness and equal opportunity. With the help of writer Chris Bull (who also coauthored The Religious Right, the Gay Movement and the Politics of the 1990s), Gingrich tells the tale of her ordinary yet unique life in The Accidental Activist, from her childhood as the youngest Gingrich sibling to her recognition and acceptance of her sexual orientation to her stepping forward as an example and instructor to people about what their real choices are, what real brotherhood and sisterhood is.

The Accidental Activist is basically an ordinary book, the ordinary story of an everywoman who follows her heart and freely makes her own choices. Through no choice of her own, Candace shares the same family upbringing as Newt; as he gains recognition and power, so is she seemingly thrust to the front to counter "Brother Newt's" (as she often refers to him) influences. In easy, conversational language, she engages the reader over the gains to be made in thinking for oneself and not being swayed by rhetoric and dark pictures of the kind painted by Newt and his supporters.

The release of this book is extremely timely, coming as it does on the eve of important elections this fall which will decide how much power Gingrich's brother and his people will be able to exert in the near future. "The best motivation for gay voters, I'm sorry to report, is the danger posed to their interests by Newt's Republican henchmen," Candace Gingrich warns.

"When you convey the absurdity of the GOP's attacks on gays, and the imperative of stopping the right, gay audiences tend to perk up. Even then, it's difficult to convey just how terrible this Congress really is."

The author's story is an "everyperson's" lesbian/gay journey of discovery: finding out what's right for her, looking for love, worrying about what others will think and deciding how much to reveal to those close or casual acquaintances in her life. "I openly admit that I'm a bit reserved when it comes to sex and my choice of partners," Gingrich relates. "As long as consenting adults practice safe sex and respect each other's limits, whatever happens between them is none of anyone else's business. Sexual choices are intensely private; only a person knows what's right for herself."

The transformation from the private Candace Gingrich (she notes her family prefers the pronunciation "ging'-rick" over "ging'-rich") to the more public, open persona — and Gingrich's efforts to stand up for the things she believes in — forms the heart of this book. What The Accidental Activist may lack in excitement and drama, it counterbalances with frankness and forthright exuberance. Readers get a look at the human faces and the behind-the-scenes insights and feelings connected with public events and figures. From gays in the military to same-sex marriage, from religious fervor to communicable diseases, Gingrich gives examples of how issues are dealt with by her brother and his supporters, and how she and other activists and lobbyists try to present a clearer alternative vision in such debates.

The author's greatest service is in providing one more clear, well-reasoned voice in support of young people's freedom of choice and in opposition to mindless violence against people because of their sexual orientation. She cites Texas' problems with hate crimes and anti-gay rhetoric, and holds up to the flame of reality people like Rep. Dick Armey and Sen. Phil Gramm for their prejudices and self-serving actions. She does it clearly and with the support of examples, and asks her readers to make up their own minds — after they've listened open-mindedly to the presentation of facts and feelings.

"After spending much of the last year and a half under intense scrutiny on the road," she writes, "I know how the pressure and constant criticism can get to people. I spent lonely nights in austere hotel rooms wondering if I had made the right decision to leave my comfortable life in Harrisburg (Pa.). As much as I cared about the cause, were all the lost sleep, hard work and antagonism from hatemongers worth it? Ultimately, I'd discovered, the answer was yes."

Ultimately, The Accidental Activist is a rousing success because it deals humanly with a situation that can often seem inhuman. If such an often mean-spirited person as Newt Gingrich can have a softer side, as well as a blood sibling who's almost the complete opposite of him, then there's something positive that anyone can find in their own struggles and situations. This book is subtitled "A Personal and Political Memoir," but it's the personal side that makes Candace Gingrich's tale so engrossing, so uplifting. Today's political climate allows her brother to be one of the most powerful people in government; here's to the day when it will be her turn on top.

MCA Bering's 'Shining Star'

Dear TWT:

Bering Community Service Foundation is so proud of Miss Camp America and their astounding accomplishment with Saturday's [Sept. 14] 28th Annual MCA show! It was an incredible evening. It is hard to imagine how many long hours MCA spent rehearsing, staging and costuming to give the community such a fabulous show. We appreciate every minute they spent!

MCA's presentation of $25,600 to the Bering Care Center is a generous symbol of their love and dedication to Bering. We are grateful for their generosity, which enables us to sustain our devotion to caring for persons with HIV/AIDS.

MCA is truly Bering's shining star. They have been with us throughout the year, from last year's pageant through New Year's Eve and this year's pageant. We appreciate their unending support. The membership of Miss Camp America sparkles in our hearts and lights the road ahead.

A Distinct Honor

The following letter was addressed to Perrie Dolph, President of Houston's Miss Camp America Foundation, Inc. — Editor.

It is a distinct honor to be named a beneficiary of the 28th Annual Miss Camp America Pageant. On behalf of our Board of Directors and volunteers, I would like to express our deepest gratitude for the $6,400

we received. It will be used to continue our mission to use the AIDS Memorial Quilt to help bring an end to the AIDS pandemic.

Miss Camp America's ability to bring us laughter and at the same time raise a significant amount of money for local AIDS service organizations is admirable. The pageant was truly an extraordinary evening of "campy" entertainment enjoyed by all.

The tireless dedication of the members of Miss Camp America is certainly remarkable. The NAMES Project Houston applauds all the members of the Miss Camp America Foundation for their grandiose efforts that continue to grow with every show.

David B. Jackson
Chair of the Board

Blood, Sweat, Tears and Mascara

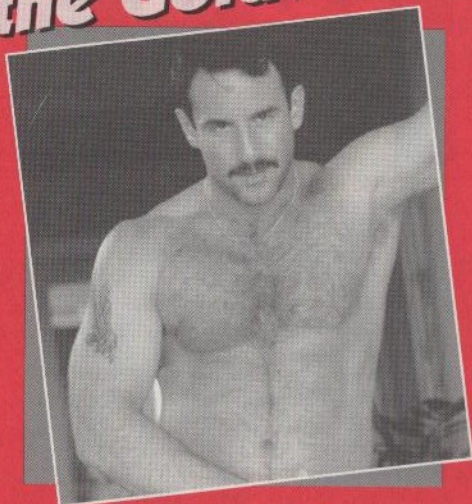

Dear TWT:

On behalf of the Board of Directors of The Assistance Fund, I want to thank the Miss Camp America Foundation for their generous support from the 1996 pageant. Because of this generous gift, we can continue to meet the needs of the HIV community. By helping our clients retain quality healthcare, they will maintain quality of life, dignity and peace of mind.

Our community should be proud of the Miss Camp America Foundation, since over the past few years they have donated over $150,000 to local AIDS service providers. All the blood, sweat, tears and mascara spent on these events pay huge dividends in the lives of HIV patients.

Just last week we were talking about old records and how difficult it is to find some of them, and that remakes and remixes were often the best one could do...in most cases. Not so with all the old classics released on Dallas' very own Oak Lawn Records. Ray Cooper and the Oak Lawn guys have kindly released two classics CDs, both containing some of the biggest hits from the Oak Lawn catalogue — original artists, original mixes. First we have Retro Club Classics, which features tracks like CCCP's "American-Soviets," MCL's "New York," Voyou's "Houseman" and "Fahrenheit" by Umo Detic. In all, there are 12 tracks to work you over on a journey to the retroteria. But that's only the beginning...The Energy Club Classics CD gives you an energy overdose with megahits like Paul Parker's "Time After Time" and Robin Stanley's "Get Ready" and ("There Is) A Stranger," plus three (count 'em) hits from the Uptown Girls — "Rescue Me," "I'm Gonna Love You" and ("I Know) I'm Losing You." What memories!

If you could find all the songs on these CDs on vinyl, you'd end up spending a fortune for them; now you have the option of owning clear copies on compact discs at a quite reasonable price. Thanks, guys!

Another label that continues to put out one great product after another is Logic Records. Under the direction of the tall and lovely Kelly Schweinsberg, Logic was named Best Dance Label at this year's Winter Music Conference. Keep an eye out for their new Club Classics series on vinyl. The current project, hot off the press, is Rapnation and Kim Mazelle's "Love Me the Right Way '96," mixed by Danny Tenaglia; new life for an already brilliant record. Not interested in the vinyl? Pick up the Killer Divas Collection Vol. 1 on CD that I told you about last week. You'll find this track plus nine others that'll have you in lipstick before you can say "cover girl."

There's also Logic's Killer Latin Tracks Vol. 1, just out in stores as well, which features 13 hot Latin lovelies by acts like Ilegales, El General and more from the melting pot of fabulous BMG products.

If Latino music is your love, you must own a copy of Tropicana's "La Tropicana" on frr. Primo stuff here, darlings. The Original mix gives a very Ricky Ricardo-flavored number over a housey sort of beat, but if that's too pure for you, the Hard Tropical mix and deeper mix carry on with more of an edgy fervor. The lyrics are, obviously, in Spanish, so I have no idea what they're saying; but all the mixes are hot!

FRESH BEATS

BY JIMMY SMITH

More Latin house comes our way via Chicago's Prescription Records, a division of Cajual. Check out A Man Called Adam's "Qué Tal America." This smooth Latin houser gives us more vocals in Spanish that I don't understand (but that's okay, now that we're listening to music with greater perception). This is not one of those slap-you-in-the-face records; it's quite laid back, sort of like the Mighty Dub Kats or old Tito Punte — mellowish. Keep an eye out for this one.

Speaking of Cajual, find a copy of "Braxton Holmes Presents John Redman 'People Everyday.'" Now this is house music. If you're into that lovely Chicago scene, this record is for you. This soulful romp — produced, arranged and mixed by the Basement Boys — is about as sweet and pretty as they get. You're totally gay if you love this one on the first listen! Like the Michael Proctor record? Then give this one a try.

Now that we've gotten all of the "commercial" LaBouche like "Be My Lover" and "Sweet Dreams" (two years later, thank you) out of our systems, we can finally get down to some "real" LaBouche for those with good taste. Their latest single (and their best), "Fallin' in Love," is finally here! The record was actually released about a year ago on Logic, but no one was really getting it. Now it's round two and the '96 mixes, by AME, Soul Solution and Anthony Acid, join the previous Logic mixes on one RCA double pack to kill you! And again, if you're not into vinyl or CD singles, you can always get the full-length CD "Sweet Dreams."

Staxx of Joy is back with a long-overdue return, "Shout." It's one of those big, classy housers featuring hefty diva vocals, in this case by Cheryl Lucas (what happened to Carol Lemming?). All the mixes are wonderful here, but the Playboys vocal and Mark Picchiotti versions are my favorites. "Shout" can also be found on the Columbia compilation Global Basics — Dance Music for the Millennium.

Kristine W, Kristine W, Kristine W — I just can't get enough of Kristine W. For one, Miss Thing is gorgeous, and two, every one of the songs from her debut CD, Land of the Living, is musical perfection. So it's no wonder that the dance mixes of the title track are no less than perfect either. That Deep Dish Land of the Lost remix? Aside from waking up next to Keanu Reeves, life just gets no better than Land of the Living. From the "Don't Get Around Much Anymore" intro to the mid-stream vocal interlude and jazz-flavored "outro," Kristine takes you on a nonstop journey into musical ecstasy. When we interviewed her for FRESH BEATS a year and a half ago, some asked, "Who is she?" You better ask again.

And that's dance music THIS WEEK IN TEXAS.

than 99.9% accurate.

The day has finally come when you can get tested for HIV in the comfort of your own home. Presenting the Home Access Express HIV-1 test system. It's totally anonymous, extremely easy—and every bit as reliable as the tests used by doctors and hospitals.

Here's how it works: You collect your own blood spot specimen (done by a simple finger stick). Then you send the sample to our lab using the express shipping envelope we provide. Your results are available within three days (excluding Sundays and holidays) and are easily retrieved by phone 24 hours a day, seven days a week. At that time, you'll have the option of personal counseling sessions, regardless of your test results.

What's more, you have our guarantee of absolute anonymity. No names are ever associated with test results, and results cannot be linked to purchase.

The Home Access Express HIV-1 test system is also surprisingly affordable. For just $49.95 (plus $5.00 shipping and handling), you receive everything you need, mailed in a plain brown container to ensure confidentiality.

No matter why you've hesitated getting tested (or retested) for HIV, it's time you learned about the home testing system that's clinically proven—and safe to use.

GORE VIDAL
BORN OCTOBER 3, 1925

Let us take a moment, friends, to look into ourselves with the onset of October. October commemorates National Coming Out Day, and what better way to celebrate than to open up the closets in our horoscope?

Astrology charts have three closets; the first is ancestral stuff (garbage that family foists upon us; conform or else!). The next contains the deep psychological and sexual challenges we face in merging with others. The third is more intuitive and spiritual. It's where we allow our own self-undoing through the prisons we create for ourselves. Ready to break out? Read ahead.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23) If you face any barriers preventing you from coming out proudly, they probably originate in family baggage. Your closets are ruled by stable earth signs, which provide you with ample common sense. However, Capricorn casts a pall over your "roots" and I suspect Mums, Dad and the clan are less than pleased with your lifestyle. Tough. You gotta live your life. SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22) Passionate Scorps glide into their lifestyle choices far more easily than other signs. That's because all your closets contain air signs, which blow and cool off the hot embers of any raging temperamental fires. While you may play the sexual gayfly (after all, frivolous Gemini sits in the sex closet), you know how to handle family issues and are spiritually in harmony.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22) What do you get when you combine a bigmouth like Sag with closets filled emotional water signs? A lot of wailing and yelling, perhaps, or maybe a sarcastic, spot-on appraisal of where others are full of garbage. Your step out won't be quiet and dignified, but it will sure entertain audiences. Out loud and proud is always the best way, I think. Others will have to adjust.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20) Serious,

BY C. LICHTENSTEIN

SEPTEMBER 27 -
OCTOBER 3, 1996

conventional Capricorn is anything but where your closets are concerned. This is because they're filled with rambunctious fire signs. You are regal and dramatic sexually, but probably need a lot of confirmation from lovers. Be aware that this ramrod energy will not take no for an answer when family dictates get in the way of inner needs. AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19) The only closet that appears to creak is the one containing secrets, personal undoing and spiritual fallow. Ever hear of the old saying that you are your own worst enemy? It's possible that all the junk you stuff away and hide is beginning to fester and smell. Open up and toss it out! Happily, other closeted pot-holes in your chart are less problematic.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - March 20) Spiritual Pisces may feel at odds with the barriers in their closets, but thank goodness all those air signs blow a clean breeze through every so often. The worst I see is fragmented nerves and related stress, but like everything else, this, too, shall pass and you will have the satisfaction of knowing that you're living your life openly, freely and unafraid.

ARIES (March 21 - April 20) Your closets are ruled by water signs, which means that you're more emotionally involved with those areas of your life than most folks. You have more attachments to family, home, deep sexual commitments and spirituality than you'd care to admit in a public forum. (Your secret is safe with me!) Gather all kindred souls and create something for yourself that was denied you by Mom and Dad. TAURUS (April 21 - May 21) Accept me for who I am or tough luck! Gay Bulls who seem so emotionally committed to others can turn off the spigot and go their own way if their needs are not supported. You probably never faced inner conflicts over who you are and if people would accept you. Instead, the fire in your closet houses enables you to seek the company of those who would accept you for who you are, hooves and all.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21) You probably had a difficult time coming out. Part of the problem is the general fickleness of the Gemini nature, which leaves you unable or unwilling to settle down with one special person. In your case, chalk up the extra angst to dour Capricorn, now sitting in your sexual closet. You can run but you can't hide, so why not do yourself a favor this October and talk to someone who can help.

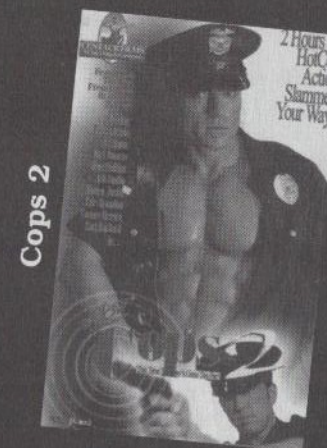

CANCER (June 22 - July 23) Pink Crabs seem emotionally centered on the outside, but I'd bet that all your closets are swirling with hurricanes and tornados. It must be all those air signs in there, stirring up your neuroses and making you try desperately to seek balance, harmony, justice and logic where none may exist. Crabs don't have a backbone, but you may find one tucked away on a back shelf. Try it on for size.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23) Seek and ye shall find, pink Lion. All your closets are ruled by water signs, which indicates that you should allow your emotions free rein. Family restrictions have never seemed to bother you; you're able to undermine the current regime rather easily. The pothole exists in your sexual expression. Dramatic as you are, there are some things that even you won't discuss openly.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23) You may not appear to be a firebrand, but don't let naysayers and homophobes get in your way! All your closets are full of fire and it's evident that throughout your life, it's been your way or the highway. Remember that fire is not conducive to quiet contemplation. Try stepping back from the heat every so often and taking stock of who you are, body and soul.

FEDERAL DEFENSE OF MARRIAGE ACT BECOMES LAW

President's Signing of Controversial Bill Condemned.

WASHINGTON, DC — As expected, President Bill Clinton has signed into law a controversial bill meant to short-circuit the drive to win for same-sex relationships the same recognition accorded heterosexual marriages.

The Defense of Marriage Act defines marriage in federal law as a union between one man and one woman, and gives states the right not to recognize same-sex marriages performed in other states. Gay activists have condemned the bill as an election-year ploy by right-wing Republicans in Congress and said they doubted it would stand up to constitutional scrutiny. Clinton signed the bill shortly after midnight last Saturday.

Same-sex marriages are not currently recognized in any state of the Union, although a case now before a Hawaii Circuit Court, Baehr v. Miike, may lead to legal recognition of gay relationships in that state.

The House of Representatives passed DOMA 342-67 on July 12. The Senate followed suit by a vote of 85-14 on Sept. 10.

Clinton indicated earlier this year that he had long been opposed to same-sex marriages and would sign DOMA if it passed Congress. He said that he hoped the law would not be used to justify hatred or bigotry toward gay people, and his stance on the issue does not appear to have led to widespread defections of gay supporters from his reelection effort. But activists still condemned Clinton's move and promised to challenge DOMA in court.

"What the president has done is shameful," Elizabeth Birch, Executive Director of the Human Rights Campaign, said in a statement issued last Saturday. "He has become the first president in history to trample on states' traditional jurisdiction over marriage. With the stroke of his pen, he has condoned the exclusion of all lesbian and gay Americans from the federal benefits and responsibilities that come with marriage, even though it will be years before such an institution becomes available to them."

AUSTIN CAUCUS ENDORSES FALL ELECTION HOPEFULS

But Gay Group Passes on Rep. Lloyd Doggett's Bid.

AUSTIN — The Lesbian/Political Caucus endorsed nine candidates running in the fall elections at its community meeting and endorsement forum last Monday.

More significantly, though, the group voted to take no stand in the race for U.S. Representative from District 10, in which incumbent Democrat Lloyd Doggett is facing Republican Teresa Doggett (who is not related to the incumbent) and Libertarian Gary Johnson. Lloyd Doggett has been a longtime friend of the gay and lesbian community in Austin, but he angered and upset many people by voting for the Defense of Marriage Act, which denies federal recognition of same-sex marriages, and by refusing to sign on as a co-sponsor of the Employment Non-Discrimination Act.

Lloyd Doggett was unable to attend the endorsement meeting, sending a representative and a letter in which he explained that pressing business kept him at work in Washington chairing joint House/Senate hearings. "I do seek your vote," he wrote. "...Despite our recent differences we have shared a common concern for human rights, including the right to privacy. Working together is a two-way street; we can either tolerate each others' differences, or permit Newt Gingrich to declare victory in having driven a wedge between us. I will respect your decision now as I have always respected you."

The majority of ALGPC members present for the endorsement procedure weren't sufficiently impressed or forgiving. In the initial vote, 18 were for endorsing Lloyd Doggett, one for Teresa Doggett and 18 for no endorsement, with two abstaining. In a runoff between the top two vote-getters, neither Lloyd Doggett nor the "no endorsement" position got the necessary 60 percent, so the race will be entirely left off ALGPC's endorsement ballot.

Also left off the endorsement card will be the County Commissioner Place 1 race between Democrat Sam Biscoe and Libertarian Vincent J. May. Official "no endorsement" stances were adopted in three races: Supreme Court Chief Justice, Supreme Court Justice Place 2 and Criminal Appeals Judge Place 2.

Receiving ALGPC endorsements were (all Democrats) gay incumbent Glen Maxey (State Rep. Dist. 51), Margo Frasier (Travis County Sheriff), Elliot Naishtat (State Rep. Dist. 49), Patrice Barron (Supreme Court Justice Place 1), Frank Maloney (Criminal Appeals Judge Place 3), Margaret Cooper (District Judge Dist. 353), Ronald Earle (District Attorney Dist. 53), Nelda Wells Spears (County Tax Assessor-Collector) and David Bintliff (Constable Precinct 2).

Candidates had to return questionnaires and say they were seeking ALGPC's endorsement to be eligible for it. In a number of races, such as the Clinton/Gore campaign, the ALGPC executive committee will be making informal recommendations, but cannot officially endorse. Candidates with official endorsements are eligible for contributions from ALGPC's PAC and for group efforts on their behalf.

DALLAS CONFERENCE EXPLORES MINISTRY TO GAY HISPANICS

Workshops, Trip to State Fair Part of 'Peregrinación de Fé' On Oct. 10-13.

DALLAS — Arrangements are being finalized for "Conferencia Peregrinación de Fé," a conference that will explore ministry to gay and lesbian Hispanics in Dallas Oct. 10-13. The conference will include workshops, community liturgical celebrations and a trip to the Texas State Fair with participation in National Coming Out Day events.

"This will be an ecumenical gathering addressing some of the issues facing gay and lesbian Hispanics — like forgiveness in the Hispanic community, Hispanic leadership, the increase of AIDS among Hispanics and the state of being Christian and gay or lesbian — to name a few," said Mike Felan, one of the conference coordinators.

"Ministry to gay and lesbian Hispanics is a few years behind what is happening in the community at large," said Eduardo Mercado, another conference coordinator. "According to the Census Bureau, there are an estimated 500,000 Hispanics in the Metroplex, with a large number being primarily Spanish-speaking, yet there is no church that currently ministers to sexual minorities in Spanish."

Felan said the conference's mission is to promote spirituality and cultural understanding of gay and lesbian Hispanics. "Who better to gather and talk about our needs and desires than Hispanics? We have some guest speakers from Puerto Rico and Mexico, but most of the conference speakers will be from the Metroplex. There will be many opportunities for conference attendees to be a part of all the activities," he said.

For more information about the "Conferencia Peregrinación de Fé," contact Eduardo Mercado at (214)520-8026 or Mike Felan at (214)521-2260.

DAY-LONG ROUND-UP FOR AIDS GOES WELL

Weather Fails to Dampen Spirits At Austin Fund-Raiser.

AUSTIN — Dwight Arnold, the recently elected Mr. Round-Up at the Ranch 1997, lifted tiny Adrian in his arms as he prepared to do a number during the Round-Up for AIDS 1996 celebration and fundraiser last Saturday at the Dry Creek Equestrian Center.

Children like Adrian, Arnold reminded the enthusiastic crowd, were one of the main reasons the participants and entertainers were there. Adrian had been born HIV-positive, now the infant is HIV-negative, with the prospect of a long and healthy life stretching before him.

So it went, as despite threatening weather a good crowd turned out and took part in the annual event to raise money for the Pediatric AIDS League and for Christopher House. Festivities included live entertainment, auctions, arts and crafts, an outdoor foam party, free beer, food and lots more. The event was a joint effort of Round-Up at the Ranch, Southern Country Austin and the United Court of Austin, and although it was the first time such groups combined on such a large undertaking, everything seemed to proceed nicely.

At presstime, the amount brought in by the event was still being tabulated, and no grand total was yet available. Spokesman David Blackburn of Round-Up said the official announcement will be made and, he hoped, the checks presented at a thank-you party planned for 3 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 20 at 5th Street Station.

"The rain may've hurt some participation a little, but we thought overall it went real well," Blackburn said. "We're expecting still that it will turn out to have been a record year. We learned a lot about working together on something like this, and plan for an even bigger and better Round-Up for AIDS next year."

Deejay Warren Mills kept the music rolling when there weren't live performers like Miss Xanna Don't and the Wanted of the Babbist Women on stage. Chad Martin and Scarlett Leigh completed their respective reigns as Mr. and Miss Round-Up at the Ranch 1996, and Arnold, Paula Scoggins and Brandi Lynn were introduced as the new Mr., Ms. and Miss to reign from now until the 1997 event.

Publicist Don Massa of Christopher House was pleased and appreciative of all the good things and support Christopher House received from Round-Up and its participants.

"There are a lot of good, generous people out here, and we're really thankful to them all. It's hard to put into words how much help their donations really do for those who are suffering from AIDS complications," Massa said.

HGLPC PAC SUPPORTING FOUR HOUSE CANDIDATES

Incumbents' Votes on DOMA Overlooked for Favorable Records.

HOUSTON — The Houston Gay & Lesbian Political Caucus' Political Action Committee voted last week to endorse three incumbent Democratic members of Congress as well as U.S. Representative Tom DeLay's Democratic opponent.

"Sheila Jackson Lee, Ken Bentsen and Gene Green have all strongly supported fair treatment for all people throughout their years of public service," HGLPC PAC Chair Clarence Bagby said after the endorsements. All three officials have nondiscrimination policies banning discrimination based upon sexual orientation in their Congressional offices, according to the HGLPC PAC questionnaires they signed.

Scott Douglas Cunningham was also given the nod in his bid to unseat House Majority Whip DeLay, a Republican, who did not respond to an invitation to screen with the group, according to Screening Committee Co-Chair Jay Seegers. Seegers said all candidates for Congressional districts in the greater Houston area — Republican, Democratic and Libertarian — were sent letters about the group's screening process.

Lee, running to retain her seat representing the largely African-American 18th Congressional District, was the only Texas member of Congress who didn't vote for the Defense of Marriage Act. She voted present. Bentsen and Green were among over 350 House members who supported the legislation. All three voted to amend DOMA to include ENDA.

"While we were disappointed with the incumbents' stances on DOMA," screening panelist Annise Parker said, "they have proven track records on equal-rights issues."

Bentsen's race for the 25th Congressional District seat has reportedly been targeted by religious right activists including Republican activist Steve Hotze. State District Judge John Devine, a candidate for the 25th District, is allegedly receiving significant financial support from Hotze. Of the field of 11 candidates running for the 25th District seat, two are Democrats.

The HGLPC PAC endorsed candidates in other national, state and local races at a meeting held in early September. Nearly three dozen Democrats and one Libertarian received the group's endorsement at that time. A previous news story, based on incomplete information provided to TWT NEWS at the time, erred in stating that no Republican candidates had appealed for the Caucus' support. In fact, two Republicans and two Libertarians had sought the endorsement of HGLPC PAC.

GAY AUTHORS MAKE TEXAS STOPS

Keith Boykin, Alan Helms to Sign Books in Dallas, Houston.

TEXAS — Authors of a book that examines the present and future of the black and gay communities and a memoir of high-flying gay life before Stonewall make appearances next week in Dallas and Houston.

Hailed as an "important, bridge-building report" by Publishers Weekly, Keith Boykin's One More River to Cross begins with an account of the author's own coming out to family and friends, then examines the perceptions held by blacks and gays about themselves and each other and the relationship between the two worlds. Boykin reportedly conducted interviews around the U.S. for two years prior to writing his book, which also tackles numerous controversial issues.

Boykin graduated from Harvard Law School in 1992 and served for two years as Special Assistant and Director of Specialty Press for President Bill Clinton. Currently he serves as Executive Director of the National Black Gay & Lesbian Leadership Forum. Boykin appears at Crossroads Market & Bookstore in Dallas, 3930 Cedar Springs Rd., on Thursday, Oct. 3 at 7 p.m.

Alan Helms appears at receptions in Dallas and Houston to sign copies of his autobiography, Young Man from the Provinces, A Gay Life Before Stonewall. Helms' memoir provides a look at upper-crust gay life in New York City in the 1950s and 1960s, a world he became part of after a painful childhood and adolescence in Indiana. He found himself much sought after as a very good-looking "golden boyman," rubbing elbows with celebrities and indulging a nonstop life of travel, parties and sex.

Later, facing middle age alone and bat-ling drug abuse and severe depression, Helms found self-acceptance through therapy and moved to build a different, better life for himself. He has taught at the University of Massachusetts/Boston since 1971.

'BAY AREA RAW RAHS' MARCH IN DALLAS THIS SUNDAY

Local Cheering Squad Hosts San Francisco Counterparts For Texas Freedom Parade.

DALLAS — The Bay Area Raw Rahs, the first and longest-running professional gay cheerleading team in the world, will be taking part in the festivities this weekend at the Alan Ross Texas Freedom Parade. Cheer Dallas will host the Raw Rahs during their stay just as the California group hosted the Dallas squad during San Francisco's pride parade, and the two groups have remained close. "We're all very excited to be coming to Texas and look forward to seeing our Dallas friends and performing for the Dallas community," said team captain Morgan Craig.

As of August, Craig and the other 15 members who comprise the Raw Rahs are in their 17th performance season. Performing in events like the Dallas parade is nothing new for the California team. "We're constantly being asked to perform at birthday parties, company picnics, same-sex wedding receptions, beauty pageants and grand openings. You name it, we've done it," Craig said.

With the San Francisco group receiving so many offers, Dallas is fortunate to have the team in attendance. Perhaps things were stacked in Big D's favor since Empress XXX of San Francisco proclaimed Dallas and San Francisco "sister cities" when Cheer Dallas was in the Bay Area. The Raw Rahs and Cheer Dallas are just two of the groups who will be performing at the Alan Ross Texas Freedom Parade, which begins at 3 p.m. this Sunday on Cedar Springs.

A collage of 15 black and white photographs showing various theatrical performances, including dance, drama, and musicals, from the 1950s to the 1980s. The photos are arranged in a non-linear fashion, overlapping each other. The performances range from group dances on stage to solo acts, musical numbers, and dramatic scenes. The costumes and sets are diverse, reflecting the styles of different decades. Some photos show actors in elaborate costumes, while others show dancers in more modern or traditional attire. The settings include stage sets with curtains, painted backdrops, and simple stage floors. The overall theme is the history of theatrical arts in a specific region, likely the Pacific Northwest as indicated by the text on the right.

True Greatness

A man is as great as the dreams he dreams,
As great as the love he bears;
As great as the values he redeems,
And the happiness he shares.
A man is as great as the thoughts he thinks,
As the worth he has attained;
As the fountains at which his spirit drinks,
And the insight he has gained.
A man is as great as the truth he speaks,
As great as the help he gives,
As great as the destiny he seeks,
As great as the life he lives.

"Farewell My Sweet Prince. I'll love and miss you forever." - Gregory

George Lee Leonard II
George passed away peacefully on Sept. 18 after a valiant fight against HIV. He was born in Amarillo and grew up in Arlington. He had been a resident of Dallas for the past eight years. He was preceded in death by his mother, Mozell. He is survived by his partner, Rob; his father, George Sr.; his brother, Bryan; and countless friends.

A celebration of his life will be held Sunday, Oct. 6 at 9 p.m. at the Trestle in Dallas.

John "Chuck" Rogers
Dec. 5, 1969 –
Sept. 12, 1996

On Sept. 12, at 12:50 p.m., the Angels claimed a very special piece of our world in Fort Worth. A star-studded tribute to this special person is scheduled for 10:30 p.m., Oct. 26 at the 651 Arlington, benefiting the Arlington A.O.C. Homes Project.

The family has asked that donations be made to the Arlington A.O.C. Housing in his memory. Chuck may have passed, but he will live forever in our hearts.

Always, Porter, Kris, Brian, Danny and all your Family and Friends

Johnnie Leftwich

Paul L. Childress
1959 – 1996

On Sept. 9, 1996, our friend Paul passed from this physical life into a more peaceful and satisfying spiritual presence.

The pain and anguish of his life on earth has now passed him; may he forever rest in peace with his new family.

His friends and family here on earth will forever miss him. As you look down upon us, remember, we do, and always have, cared.

Your friends and "family"

Michael E. Dudley
April 11, 1958 –
Aug. 2, 1996

Michael departed this life, left to play his 'cello amongst other gifted classical musicians in the heavens. Michael's long, courageous battle against AIDS and constant struggle for more affordable and effective medications has ended.

Michael graduated from Rice University magna cum laude with bachelor's and master's degrees in music. He is survived by his loving companion of over ten years, Robert W. Yale.

A scholarship fund has been set up in his name with the Shepherd School of Music at Rice University, and a benefit entitled "A Musical Tapestry" will be held Oct. 1 at 7 p.m. at First Unitarian Church, 5200 Fannin. Five of Houston's premier chamber ensembles will be featured. Tickets are $10 for concert, or $25 for concert and meet-the-artist champagne/dessert reception.
