THE SAINT

BY BRUCE WILLIAMS

Over a calm lunch recently in a downtown Austin restaurant, Dianne Hardy-Garcia talked about the anything but calm battles that lie ahead for the Lesbian/Gay Rights Lobby of Texas, of which she is executive director.

The 75th session of the Texas Legislature opens on Jan. 14, 1997 in Austin, and there are a number of issues and causes LGRL will be championing for the state's queer communities. The list ranges from employment nondiscrimination to gay marriage to the rights of the transgendered to health issues; but heading the list — as it did during the last legislature — is the issue of hate crimes and hate-related violence, and getting out a clear message that that sort of thing should not and will not be allowed by honest, law-abiding Texans.

"If the (state) Senate becomes controlled by Republicans, hate crimes (legislation) will have a real tough time," Hardy-Garcia predicted as she sipped an iced tea. "We know we're in for a lot of legislative fights, such as on marriage issues. But the one that gets to me the most is hate crimes; we're so close! It's a continual issue, and we have a lot of support from both gay and non-gay people."

An effort to strengthen and clarify Texas' hate crimes laws failed to make it to a state House floor showdown by just one vote last time around. LGRL and the resolution's supporters had to settle for just minor technical tinkering to existing statutes. Hardy-Garcia said those laws must be made stronger, clearer and more enforceable to truly deter those who would pick on others for differences like race, sexual orientation, religion and the like — and to truly punish people who do commit such crimes.

"We're trying for three specific things," Hardy-Garcia said of the hate crime law proposals. "One is penalty enhancement; we have something, but what's on the books doesn't say specifically who it protects, and it's considered vague and rarely used. It needs to be made clear that it's based on religion, disability, sexual orientation, age, etc. — targeting someone for any of those should be clearly a hate crime.

"Second, we want to create civil penalties for hate crimes, give people the opportunity to sue for damages. This part is modeled after California's statute.

"Third, we need more training for police officers (on hate crimes), and we're asking that money be earmarked for that. Currently there's no real training in most areas on what hate crimes are, how to handle a population where hate crimes exist, how to work with the populations, and so on."

"Our groups are more out today than ever; our events are more out," Hardy-Garcia observed. "It's much easier for people to find us. A gay man was never really taught to be careful, as more women are; they tend quite often to walk alone, to go places that are dark or potentially dangerous. Even as these are increasingly freer and more open times, they still call for care and some caution — because there are still quite a few people who only know how to hate and hurt waiting to prey upon us."

Each week there seems to be a new case illustrating the urgency of LGRL's push for stronger hate crimes laws. Over the summer, three Austin-area men were murdered in what are still being investigated as potential pick-up crimes against gay men. In Fort Worth, a six-foot cross was burned on a family's front lawn, with anti-gay slurs and "DOA" around it. In Arlington, a man was stabbed to death by someone he may have met in an adult video and bookstore in an unincorporated area of southeastern Tarrant County. In Port Aransas, an inn owner and longtime gay activist was robbed and murdered, allegedly by someone he'd taken in.

The Fort Worth and Arlington cases led to a press conference Sept. 25 at the offices of the Tarrant County Lesbian/Gay campaign to combat

is the Pledge Project.

Alliance, with Hardy-Garcia among the speakers. "Hate crimes terrorize whole groups of people — not just minorities or homosexuals," she told those in attendance. "It's time to do all we can to slam the door on that kind of hatred."

At the forefront of the current campaign to combat hate crimes is the Pledge Project. By signing the Pledge, which has been circulating across the state, Texans make a commitment to do what they can to stop hate crimes.

"About 10,000 people have signed so far; now we're trying to add Texas public officials to the list of those who're standing up and saying enough is enough," Hardy-Garcia said. "On March 23 of next year, we'll be organizing a March to the Capitol, whose theme will be 'It's Time for Justice'; we hope at that time to have 50,000 signed pledges to present to Gov. George W. Bush."

The Pledge and a Hate Crime Resolution were presented at precinct and county conventions across Texas during the summer, and the resolution was supported and passed in many instances. It passed overwhelmingly at the Texas Democratic Convention, and was pushed hard by the Log Cabin Republicans of Texas and others before failing to pass at the Republican State Convention.

Hardy-Garcia described the Pledge as a simple yet efficient way to educate and sway neighbors, families, friends and co-workers to support laws that "address this useless violence and bigotry." The Pledge Project has been endorsed and supported by such groups as the NAACP, the AFL-CIO of Texas, Texas Faiths United, the Texas Council on Family Violence, the Gray Panthers, Texas NOW, the Texas Freedom Alliance, Mexican American Democrats of Texas, People for the American Way, the Texas AIDS Network and many others.

Equity PAC, the independent political action committee which is associated with the Lesbian/Gay Rights Lobby of Texas and is dedicated electing state officials who are committed to ending discrimination based on sexual orientation, is holding an "Old-Fashion Barbecue" from 5:30-7:30 p.m. this Saturday, Oct. 5, at Lazy Oak Inn, 211 W. Live Oak Dr. in Austin. Donations will be accepted, and people can RSVP to (512)447-8873. The barbecue will follow a Texas Gay Community Meeting sponsored by the Texas Victory Democrats from 1:30-5 p.m. at Capitol City Playhouse, 214 W. 4th St.; Hardy-Garcia will be among the speakers, along with Garry Mauro, state Land Commissioner and Texas chair of the Clinton/Gore campaign; Melinda Paras, executive director of the National Gay & Lesbian Task Force; state Rep. Glen Maxey; Richard Socarides, White House Lesbian and Gay Liaison to President Clinton; Bill White, Texas Democratic Party Chair; Dallas City Councilman Chris Luna, and many other officials. For more information on that event, call (512) 494-1525.

Back at a calm lunch amid the gathering storms, Hardy-Garcia's attention once again turned from the window to the present. "Our community needs to make itself felt in a positive, unified way; that's the best way to confront those who would hurt us and tear us down," she said firmly. "We need to talk about our anger, our disappointments, and then turn that into productive energy. We have to get people excited and energized."

"Our ultimate goal is that once we pass this (hate crime) law, we can do something to prevent these crimes. It will deter, possibly help catch and reeducate perpetrators in the early stages when they're slurring and harassing us, before they go on to rob and hurt people. If we can get a lot more gay and non-gay Texans involved, we can take a big step in putting a definitive stop to this hate crime behavior."

REVIEWED BY GARY LAIRD

The hills are alive with the sound of music. Pretty spooky, when you stop to think about it. And the idea of a small theatre group producing a musical is almost as terrifying. I'm sure we all remember where we were the last time we sat through yet another amateur production of Bye Bye Birdie. But not to worry; with New Heights Theatre's production of Hello Again and Theater LaB Houston's production of Passion, you're in good hands.

Theater LaB's Gerry LaBita is a man who doesn't know the meaning of fear, and for that we should be grateful. He produced Sondheim's Assassins last year, and is presenting the exclusive Southwest premiere of Passion as the last show of the current season. Mounting a Sondheim work is arguably one of theatre's more difficult tasks, with all the elements of drama, music, movement, costume and set to coordinate. Add to that the extremely limited space available to Theater LaB, and you have all the ingredients for disaster — or triumph, and the performance I saw was a triumph.

Director Ed Muth and Musical Director Steven Jones led the able cast through the intricacies of the piece with polish and skill, turning the theatre's liabilities of space into assets, drawing the capacity audience into an intimate experience that would not be possible in a larger house. Julia A. Kay was a standout as Fosca, the tormented woman in love with the handsome and desirable Giorgio (Greg Coles), who in turn is in love with the beautiful Clara (Robin Smith). Kay's performance portrays a love without reason or pride, unconditional and selfless, that is both painful and inspiring. Fosca's love for Giorgio has in it elements of love that most of us have shared at one time or another, and the recognition can be a jolt. The music underscores the emotional depth of the story, leaving haunting traces long after the show is over. The subject is passion, and as usual, Sondheim knows whereof he speaks.

New Heights Theatre's entry into the musical sweepstakes is Michael John LaChiusa's Hello Again. Billed as "an erotic musical fantasy," LaChiusa's work is loosely based on La Ronde, a sexual farce that has inspired, among others, Stephen Sondheim's A Little Night Music. The plot revolves around the sexual indiscretions of several couples as they overlap each other. The twist in Hello Again is that the couples' escapades overlap in time, leap-frogging the decades from the 1900s to the present in ten scenes.

The cast is young, good-looking and sexy, and they are obviously having a good time. They are also talented, with voices to match their looks. Hunky Paul Nicely, last seen in Theater LaB's Poor Superman, struts his stuff in one of the show's gay scenes (and he can sing, too), and Matt Joseph, whose character is billed as "The Young Thing," manages to be sexy and funny at the same time in a romp with Rod Arndt, on board the Titanic yet. Jonathan McVay, who spent most of last year with the Alley Theatre, shows his dancing talent, and quite a bit more, as a horny soldier on leave in both WWI and WWII.

Hello Again is more in the style of the traditional Broadway musical, with singing and dancing "numbers" punctuating the action. The musical quality of the score aspires to Sondheim, with whose work it has been compared, but it doesn't quite make it. It's pleasant enough, but not memorably so. Try as I might, I couldn't remember one melody past the theatre door. Music Director Kim Hupp and Choreographer Christopher Ayres have done their jobs, and Ron Jones keeps the whole thing together. As a sex romp Hello Again certainly delivers, but it may have been trying just a little too hard. I haven't seen that much crotch-grabbing since the Thriller tour, and it got a bit stale. There must be some other way to convey raunch.

In any event, both Passion and Hello Again hit their marks, and both shows deserve your attention, so get out there and sing along!

Passion runs through Oct. 20. For more information, call Theater LaB, 1706 Alamo, at (713)868-7516. Hello Again runs through Oct. 12. Call New Heights Theatre, 339 W. 19th St., at (713)869-8927.

Artist/Producer/Remixer Georgie Porgie Hopes to 'Make It Stick' On His Debut House Album, Due Out in January

If someone were to make a list of all the great male house artists, Georgie Porgie would have to be placed somewhere near the top. Georgie started out as a deejay during the infancy of house music in Chicago. "The thing at the time was for deejays to put out their own records with somebody else singing on them....I did the unexpected and sang on my own record." During the summer of 1985, Georgie recorded the KA Records release "Baby Come Back," the success of which laid the foundation for his performing career.

In addition to being a talented artist, Georgie is a brilliant producer, writer and remixer. He has worked on remix projects for Michael Jackson's "Billie Jean" as well as songs for Love Happy, Jody Watley, Sophie Shinas, Rozalla, Cathy Dennis, Xavier Gold, D'Bora and Meechie. Georgie also wrote and produced many of the songs coming out of Chicago's legendary Vibe Records, which has evolved into what is now known as Music Plant.

Georgie Porgie's current single, "I'm in Love," is blowing up all over the U.S. and Europe and its remixes on Quality Records are helping bring the song to radio. The artist is currently working on his first full-length album, which will no doubt showcase all his many talents. Thanks to Music Plant's Xavier Joshua, we had a chance to visit with Georgie recently.

TWT: So what's new, Georgie? How about the new deal with Quality?

Georgie Porgie: I signed a brand-new deal with Quality Records. I'm very happy; things look very good. They're "delivering the goods," as people would say. They're really going out there and pushing. I've been on tour for quite some time now. The record's doing good. I mean, it did well on our label and that's what made them pick it up, and they're going to take it to another level.

Most dance artists on independent labels go from an indie to a major. Why

Quality, a major independent?

Actually, it started off at the Billboard Dance Summit. There were different labels that had approached me — quite a few majors and quite a few indies. I decided to go with a major independent because I just got tired of, you know...I've been with two majors, Warner Bros. and MCA, and it just didn't work out. You end up getting lost in the shuffle. You're competing with artists who've sold gold and platinum albums. And the majors — it's like the "spaghetti theory." They throw it to the wall and see if it sticks, and if it sticks they're like, "Okay, let's go after it." I just felt that this time around I didn't want someone to throw it to the wall and see if it sticks. They're making sure that it sticks this time.

How about this debut album?

It's really coming together. We're going to have a lot of variety on there. It's going to be, of course, all my dance music, and a few R&B songs, a couple of ballads. It's going to be a well-rounded album. We should be done in the next couple of months, and we should see a January '97 release.

Do you find it difficult to balance being an artist with running a label? Does it get in the way sometimes?

If you surround yourself with incredible people like I have, people who really work hard and love the business, it doesn't get in the way. When I'm doing business, that's George; but when I go behind that door, that's Georgie Porgie who's writing and producing. And it was hard at first, but one thing I've learned is that the artists who succeed are those who've taken care of their business.

BY JIMMY SMITH

You've done such great work for so many artists. Is there someone else you would really like to do work for?

I'd love to write something for Madonna, Stevie Wonder, Earth, Wind and Fire, that's who I grew up on. Quincy Jones. The guy's brilliant. You know what I really like? It's like taking a no-name artist and working with them and watching their career take off. Watching Meechie come from where nobody really knew her to having a #1 record with "You Bring Me Joy" — that was incredible! Don't get me wrong; there's a lot of people I'd love to work with, but taking someone up like that is a real accomplishment. It's a real high for me.

There's a certain quality we find in Chicago house music. We can listen to a record and say, "Oh, that sounds very Chicago!" What is it about that Chicago sound that sets it so far apart from other forms of house music?

What I'm about to say is no disrespect to anybody and I really mean that, because I love house music from everywhere. But this [Chicago] is where it originated and that's what really keeps it having that edge. There's a lot of people who've mimicked what we've done, but don't get me wrong; they've started by mimicking and then developed their own style. I love the New York sound; there's the L.A. sound that's hopping right now. They've got their own type of house music that's blowing up, too, and it's helping us go to radio. It's just that we all grew up with house music here and it's what we do. It's totally a feeling and it's difficult to describe it.

It's a vibe.

[Laughing] There you go. How about that?

AMERICAN BANKRUPTCY INSTITUTE

Actors Theatre of Houston has opened its 11th season with a special production of David Mamet's raw, satirical comedy/drama Speed-the-Plow. Punctuated with a combination of partial nudity, profanity and sometimes explicit dialogue, this play portrays the L.A. film industry and Hollywood's crass commercialism — a world without friendship where callousness passes for refreshing frankness. Performances are Thursdays-Saturdays at 8 p.m. ($15) and Sundays at 4 p.m. ($10) through Nov. 3. For more info, call (713) 529-6606.

Life, the American adventure and the human spirit will be celebrated on Thursday, Oct. 17 when the Grand 1894 Opera House, 2020 Postoffice in Galveston, presents Having Our Say: The Delaney Sisters' First 100 Years. Spanning the entire century, this story illuminates those moments when our country has triumphed, and sometimes stumbled, as we travel with Sadie (103 years old) and Bessie (101), sisters and pioneering African-American women. They talk about their lives, from post-slavery days in the South through Harlem in the '20s and up to the present day. Showtime is 7 p.m.; for reservations ($14.50-$35.50) or more info, call (409) 765-1894 or (713)480-1894.

The life and times of two pioneering African-American women come to the stage of the Grand 1894 Opera House in Galveston Oct. 17 with Having Our Say: The Delaney Sisters' First 100 Years.

The Gospel at Colonus has its Southwest premiere Oct. 5-Nov. 10 on the Kleberg Stage of Zachary Scott Theatre Center, 1421 W. Riverside Dr. in Austin. Lee Breuer's adaptation takes the Greek myth of Oedipus and reincarnates it as a musical set in a rousing Gospel church service. Performances are at 8 p.m. Wednesdays-Saturdays and 6 p.m. Sundays; tickets are $20 Fridays and Saturdays and $18 other days, with discounts for seniors, students and groups. For reservations or more info, call (512)476-0541.

Auditions for Panoptikon (A Cybernetic Opera) are being held by appointment only this Sunday, Oct. 6, at Planet Theatre, 2307 Manor Rd. in Austin. Bold performers of all colors, ages, experiences and sexes are sought by director Bonnie Cullum for part two of the X&Y Trilogy by Ethos. Performances will be Jan. 4-25, 1997, and a small stipend is available to performers chosen. To arrange an appointment, call (512) 478-LAVA. Auditioners must provide a one-minute contemporary song, résumé and photo (optional).

Frontera at Hyde Park Theatre presents the premiere of Enfants Perdus, a modern movement opera with fake French and real danger, written by San Francisco playwright Erik Ehn in conjunction with the F@HP Company. A preview is scheduled for 8 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 10, at 511 W. 43rd St.; regular performances will run Oct. 10-Nov. 2 on Thursdays-Saturdays at 8 p.m. Tickets are $6 and $8 until Oct. 20, $8 and $10 thereafter; Thursdays are always pay-what-you-wish. For more info or reservations, call (512)499-TIXS.

Dallas' Theatre Three presents Sylvia, A.R. Gurney's latest New York smash comedy. This surprise hit about a man's love for his dog (played by an actress) runs Oct. 5-Nov. 3. Tickets for the in-the-round production range from $5 to $24, depending on day and time. For more info about special performances and prices, or to purchase tickets, call the box office at (214) 871-3300.

Hair, the American "tribal love-rock musical," opens this evening (Oct. 4) at Dallas' Deep Ellum Opera Theatre and runs through Oct. 27. Shows are Thursdays through Saturdays at 8 p.m. and Sundays at 2:30 p.m. Tickets ($20) are available by calling ARTTIX at (214)871-2787 or at the Theatre on Elm Street, 3202 Elm Street.

Lovely Venus changes signs this week, moving from dramatic Leo into practical Virgo. Our affections take on a more pragmatic cast; just what the heck are we getting out of this scene? What is our motivation? Prepare for a few moments of clarity and perhaps a happy zetz or two.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23) If gay Scales exhibit a spark of intuition now, give a big thank-you to Venus, which shines a light on an otherwise dark and mysterious corner. It's also an excellent time to volunteer for a great gay cause. (Is there any other?) Doing good gay deeds brings happiness to others and builds up those personal karmic points like money in the bank.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22) Greta Garbo wanted to be alone, but now, with Venus traversing Virgo, you should do otherwise. Queer Scorpions find that friends and large social gatherings provide you with affirmation and a sense of well-being. Is this the self-possessed, independent Scorp we have all come to expect? I wouldn't be surprised if you were crowned homecoming queen by the end of this transit!

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22) What advice can I possibly give to one with the key to political charm? That frightening Sagittarian foot-in-mouth disease is temporarily out of commission; Venus in Virgo stirs up your best diplomatic cream and gay Archers are ready to spread it around. Use it to grease the corporate machinery and climb into the inner sanctum. Grab for the glory when the energy is right.

OCTOBER 4 -
OCTOBER 10, 1996

SIGOURNEY WEAVER
BORN OCTOBER 8, 1949

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20) Venus in Virgo casts you a wide net. Take a walk on the wild side, cousin, and see what the world has to offer. The urge to explore and experience unusual people and exotic places may be too tempting to otherwise staid Caps. The beauty of Venus also enables you to benefit from a course of study or perhaps gain the upper hand in a legal issue. I'd take the exotic stranger...

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19) If the hot tub rages to a stiff boil, thank the pleasantly perky vibes of Venus in Virgo. Aqueerians can relax now and enjoy themselves sexually, so choose your quarry wisely and safely jump in. Of course, the other opportunity available to you now is a more personally probing one. You can get to the root of any deep psychological problem. Heck, probe someone instead.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - March 20) Gay Fish need romance as they need air and water. Thankfully, with Venus in Virgo, if you're serious in your pursuit of a meaningful relationship, you may just succeed in your search. For those lucky Fish who are already part of a pair, use this delightful energy to affirm, enhance and spoil your partner.

the most exciting prediction in the world, I see an easier time for you on the job. Gay Rams can master any task more easily, whether it's hauling rocks in the salt mine or hauling weights at the health club. Any way you slice it, it's time to roll up your sleeves and tackle strenuous or onerous details now when the planetary energy is strong. It will build up self-confidence.

TAURUS (April 21 - May 21) Despite even the most persistent obligations, proud Bulls will find time to lie back and smell the flowers when Venus changes signs. Pastimes and delightful pursuits have a way of fitting into your busy schedule just when you need a lift, so don't fight it. See if you can combine business with pleasure; the dabs of creativity that you paint today can become the masterpieces of tomorrow.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21) Pink Twins can face the familial music much more easily when Venus glides into Virgo. If parental constraints have kept you from being your true self, at least Venus can help pry open that closet door a bit wider. Affection and respect reign, so do what you must do to be fulfilled and proudly happy. Life is far too short to compromise.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23) Gay Crabs can become fairly mouthy when they set their minds to it. Now, with delightful Venus entering Virgo, even the most recalcitrant Cancer feels the urge to say what they feel and feel what they say. Thankfully, the planets sugar-coat and refine more inflammatory remarks, so you can more easily take your manifesto to the immediate world and set the stage for the election.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23) Lovely Venus helps all devil-may-care gay Lions to get down to the financial brass tacks of life. Take a good look at your monetary picture while Venus holds the candle. You may be able to make a purse out of a sow's ear. (And goodness knows we often have a sackful of sows' ears at our disposal...) Prepare! Prepare! Fairly soon, you'll have to put your mouth where your money is.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23) Venus in your own sign prepares you for a magnanimous grand entrance. Meet and greet, cousin, and don't stop until you've exhausted all opportunities. Proud Virgins exude diplomacy charm and may display more self-confidence than usual. It may be that, as you open up to the world, you will gain a few insights into the inner, real you. Take what you learn and build on it.

TEXAS OPEN '96

DALLAS — The Oak Lawn Tennis Association has announced that the Texas Open '96 tennis tournament, a national tournament on the GLTA circuit, is still accepting entries for those tennis players who want to participate. In its 17th year, the Texas Open '96 is one of the many events on this year's 1996 GLTA circuit schedule. Even though the entry deadline has passed, openings are still available.

Focusing on women tennis players, the Texas Open '96 is expecting to play host to 12 or more women — by GLTA standards, a great representation in OLTA's first attempt to offer women's divisions. Organizers add that this year's event will be one of the best and most player-friendly tournaments on the circuit. Major sponsors are American Airlines, Avis, Powerbar, Gatorade and Netplay.

Great prizes will be awarded the night of the tournament banquet, on Oct. 14, which will be held at Bellini's. For more info or a tournament entry form, contact Blaine or Sheila at the OLTA Hotline, (972)390-0787.

Meyerson Symphony Center on Monday, Oct. 7 at 8 p.m. Benefiting AmFAR (the American Foundation for AIDS Research), the concert will feature many top contemporary and legendary performers highlighting music from the first 12 years of rock and roll (1955-1967), as well as a high-energy performance by the man who started it all, Chuck Berry, who is celebrating his 70th birthday.

In addition to Berry, other performers at the event will include Carl Gardner & the Coasters, the Shirelles, Charlie and Will Sexton, Tony Rich, Sam Moore (of Sam & Dave fame), Ben E. King, Maxi Priest and Ann Wilson of Heart. Screen legend Elizabeth Taylor will be in town on the day of the concert and will make an appearance on behalf of AmFAR.

Marlene Meyerson will chair the benefit along with honorary chairmen Carl and Jimmy Westcott. JCPenney, the nation's largest department store and catalog retailer, is the Title Sponsor. "As the Dallas area is home to JCPenney, this event gives us the opportunity to reach out to the community," said Gail Duff-Bloom, president of marketing and company communications for JCPenney. "Also, it coincides with the opening of our latest flagship store in the Valley View shopping center Oct. 19."

American Airlines, a supporter of AmFAR in the past, has also generously contributed to the evening's festivities.

Another business joining forces with AmFAR is AudioNet, the broadcast network on the Internet. The company will assist the Rock of Ages fund-raiser by broadcasting a photo and personal message recorded by Sharon Stone, chairman of AmFAR's three-year Campaign for AIDS Research to raise $76 million.

AmFAR is the nation's leading nonprofit organization dedicated to the support of AIDS research, education for AIDS prevention, and sound AIDS-related public policy. Since 1985, AmFAR has awarded more than $83 million in grants to more than 1,700 research teams. AmFAR will donate a portion of the Rock of Ages proceeds to two Dallas-based nonprofit organizations, Bryan's House and the AIDS Resource Center.

Individual tickets for the event range from $50 up to $500. The $500 tickets includes a pre-concert '50s feast and a post-performance reception.

Running concurrently with the concert will be a special benefit exhibition of photographs of important rock and roll personalities at the PHOTOGRAPHS DO NOT BEND GALLERY, 3115 Routh St. Photographs of famous rock and rollers Chuck Berry, James Brown, Little Richard, Bob Dylan, Tina Turner, Jimi Hendrix, Janis Joplin, the Beatles, Frank Zappa, Elvis Presley and Bruce Springsteen will on display along with many others. A portion of proceeds from sales at this exhibit will also benefit AmFAR. The showing continues through Oct. 26 and can also be viewed on the World Wide Web at "http://www.flash.net/~pdrb".

HOUSTON CONFERENCE LOOKS AT HEALTH CARE, HOMOPHOBIA

Speakers Call for Effort to Break Down Barriers for Gay People.

HOUSTON — More than 120 health care providers, consumers and students attended a conference last Friday focused on gay people and health care issues. The one-day event, sponsored by the Montrose Counseling Center, was held at the Renaissance Houston Hotel.

The Center brought together its own local experts and national authorities for the one-day event, and there were also keynote speeches and workshops. The conference was motivated in part by studies that have shown that many gay and lesbian people are not "out" to their doctors and that some health care providers are uncomfortable with gay men and lesbians and may even refuse care to such patients.

Opening the conference was David M. Hawkins, MD, president-elect of the American Group Psychotherapy Association, who talked about the "continual and life-long" process of coming out faced by gays and lesbians. Dee Mosbacher, MD, PhD., who gave the luncheon keynote address, screened two of her films on homophobia, and talked about using the videos as teaching tools to open discussion of the issue. Mosbacher was also present at the Inklings exhibit booth to sign autographs. Her newest film, All God's Children, sold out during the conference.

The closing keynote speaker, Karen A. Holmes, PhD, Dean of the Graduate School of Social Work at the University of Houston, discussed institutionalized homophobia and heterosexism in academic settings, with a focus on student perspectives.

The most popular workshops were those dealing with gay and lesbian relationships. Also well attended were workshops on attitudes about gay people in the African-American and Latino communities.

Those interested in being placed on the mailing list for future MCC conferences should call the agency at (713)529-0037.

'TEXAS TRIANGLE' TO CLOSE AFTER OCT. 10 ISSUE

Rising Printing, Other Costs Blamed for End of Statewide Gay Paper.

AUSTIN — The Texas Triangle, which has billed itself as "The State's Gay News Source" and has offices in Austin and Houston, will cease publication after its Oct. 10 issue because of rising printing bills and other expenses.

Kay Longcope, editor and publisher of the free weekly which has a circulation of between 10,000 and 15,000 across the state, said the closing became unavoidable as the Triangle's bills grew and revenues failed to keep pace. The final issue will mark almost exactly four years of publication for the paper.

Wyatt Roberts, executive director of the American Family Association of Texas, claimed that his conservative Christian-aligned group played a key role in shutting down the Triangle by boycotting "the state's largest homosexual newspaper," he said in a press release. "One by one, mainstream advertisers have continued to disappear, only to be replaced with ads for 1-900 numbers, telephone sex and gay bath-houses. When that happened, I figured it was only a matter of time before they folded."

Longcope scoffed at AFA/Texas' claims. "Mr. Roberts and the AFA's campaign had nothing to do with our financial bottom line," she said in a statement. "As a matter of fact, his campaign only helped us. Unfortunately, it didn't help us enough."

"Barbara and I had really deep-sixed reality for the last few months," Longcope added, referring to partner and Triangle general manager Barbara Wohlgemuth. "(At the end of September) we took a hard look at the bottom line and realized that our receipts do not exceed what we owe."

The Triangle won numerous awards for journalism and community service. But industry-wide increases in the price of newsprint, and a volatile economy that made advertising sales hard to come by consistently, led to around $30,000 in bills.

AUSTIN LOG CABIN ISSUES ELECTION ENDORSEMENTS

*U.S. House Candidate
Teresa Doggett Praised as
'Open, Honest' in Winning
Support of Gay Republicans.*

AUSTIN — The Log Cabin Republicans of Austin, one of five Log Cabin chapters in Texas, has announced it is endorsing five candidates for the November elections.

"Log Cabin wants to elect qualified Republicans to office, who are in touch with the mainstream ideals of nondiscrimination and equal rights," said Log Cabin/Austin President Steve Labinski, whose group was founded in 1990 and works locally to advocate equal rights for gays and lesbians. "We found most local GOP candidates to be supportive of Log Cabin, and opposed to discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation."

Candidates endorsed by Log Cabin/Austin are Teresa Doggett, U.S. House District 10; Shane Phelps, Travis County District Attorney; Alvin Shaw, Travis County Sheriff; Bob Vann, Constable Precinct 2; and Irby "Red" Ford, Travis County Tax Assessor-Collector. All five are Republicans.

Of Doggett, who is running in the district that represents mostly Travis County, Labinski said, "She is in a tough yet winnable race against a very liberal Democrat (incumbent Lloyd Doggett, who is no relation to her). Teresa came to our (Sept. 23) membership meeting. She was very open and honest about her attitude towards civil rights and nondiscrimination."

"Lloyd Doggett has exhibited an arrogant attitude and used a sleight of hand towards the gay community in Austin. Teresa's honesty is a breath of fresh air," Labinski added that the Republican candidate said she had misgivings about ENDA (the Employment Non-Discrimination Act), but would work with Log Cabin/Austin to craft and support a non-discrimination bill in Congress.

Of other endorsees, Labinski claimed, "Shane Phelps and Alvin Shaw are interested in prosecuting criminals to the fullest extent of the law, and they possess experience to back up their claims. Their opponents are politicians without experience in the field."

'SPECTRUM '96' EXPO THIS WEEKEND IN HOUSTON

Business Exhibits, Lectures and Entertainment Planned.

HOUSTON — Spectrum '96, billed as a "Business Expo, Art Expo, Speakers Program and Entertainment" event for the "LeTs Bi Gay" and gay-friendly community, takes place this weekend in Hall A of the George R. Brown Convention Center. The event is being sponsored by Town Meeting, Inc., a nonprofit organization. Last year's expo drew around 2,500.

An event kickoff party this evening (Oct. 4) at EMO's, 2700 Albany, features a performance by Miss Xanna Don't & the Wanted, an "alternative country" band whose classically trained lead singer has hair "tall enough to make the Tower of the Americas nervous" and a voice just as big. The kickoff party begins at 9 p.m., with entertainment set to start at 10:30 p.m.

Business exhibit hours are 10 a.m.-6 p.m. on Saturday and noon-5 p.m. on Sunday. In addition, there will be giveaways, entertainment and presentations on subjects of interest to the community.

On Saturday at 11 a.m., E. Donald DeYoung of Life Today Financial Services, Inc. will discuss viatical settlements and the effect new AIDS treatments have had on such arrangements. At 1 p.m., attorney Mitchell Katine of Williams, Birnberg & Andersen, LLP will speak on "Creating the Perfect Work Environment for Gay & Lesbian Employees."

At 12:30 p.m. Sunday, attorney Connie Moore of Moore & Hunt will speak on "Documenting Our Relationships," wills, touching on powers of attorney, living management trusts and other legal instruments. At 1:30 p.m., representatives of the Lesbian/Gay Rights Lobby of Texas will present and discuss the group's 1996-97 legislative agenda. At 3:30 p.m., Julie LaRue, a financial advisor with the Acacia Group, will discuss financial planning for gay men and women.

Authors Marc Adams and George R. Melton and male pinup star Steve Kelso were originally scheduled to take part in Spectrum '96, but their appearances were canceled. Spectrum Director B. Alan Bourgeois said Tuesday that Adams, whose book The Preacher's Son comes out this month, and Kelso will be in Houston for a Spectrum-related event on Nov. 3.

HOUSTON BLACK GAY GROUP SEEKS GREATER DIVERSITY

AALGA Alters Leadership Structure, Expands Board.

HOUSTON — The African-American Lesbian and Gay Alliance has announced a change in its leadership structure and expansion of its board of directors in order to increase representation of women and transgendered people.

"The new structure illustrates a commitment to ensure that men and women are equally represented in the leadership of our organization and our community," Steve Walker, Co-Chair of the organization, said in a statement issued by his group last Friday. "There must be a deliberate effort to promote gender equity at all levels of the community."

AALGA's board unanimously approved bylaw revisions that abolished the one-leader system, and elected Co-Chairs of both sexes. "I look forward to an invigorating year," said AALGA Co-Chair Martina Cartwright. "There is much we need to do, not only in the greater gay and lesbian community of Houston, but our individual ethnic/racial communities as well."

In addition to the new leadership structure, AALGA revised its mission statement and is making plans to increase its visibility in both the black and lesbian/gay communities in Houston. Those plans include the formation of a community forum on homophobia and the black church, an event to recognize World AIDS Day, the opening of a local office and the formation of a political action committee.

For more information on AALGA, call (713)864-2242.

SAN ANTONIO TEA — If you missed Gay Fiesta last Sunday at La Villita, you missed out on one of the biggest parties of the year. Much fun was had by all and loads of money was raised for the Blue Light Candle Project. Watch next week for all the photos....

With the fall weather in full swing, it's always great to stop into one of SA's coziest neighborhood bars, the 2015. They open daily at 4 p.m., with Mike [above] at the helm all afternoon. Try out one of six brands they serve on tap — the coldest in town!...

Our CRUISE CAMERA caught up with Jerry of Q-Bookstore and party-stud Roger at the Silver Dollar Saloon [above]. The Dollar packs 'em in seven nights a week with great drink specials, hot male dancers and an assortment of activities that'll keep you entertained throughout the week. Start off on Mondays, when drinks prices are low all day and night. On Wednesdays, the club outdoes itself for Tejano night. And it's nonstop for the weekends; from Friday's happy hour buffet to Sunday's Disco Flashback, the Dollar always gives you a great reason to "come on out."...

Everyone over at the Wild Corner is gearing up for the big Halloween celebration. Jimmy Lee is throwing up a huge haunted house in the old Alamo Station location next door and there's a block party in the works with proceeds to benefit SAAF (and the rumor is that RuPaul may appear). Watch HOT TEA for more info. Wild general manager Rene also informed HOT TEA that they're bringing "country" back to the corner very soon. Yee haw! Don't forget about Vanessa Gordon's fabu talent night every Sunday with cash awarded to the winner. The contest is limited to the first ten who sign up, so get there early....

If you want to win cash but wigs and makeup aren't for you, try out the strip-off at ReBar on Tuesdays. It's standing room only for Cortney Balboa's campy event....

Things are always hopping at the Eagle Mountain Saloon. In fact, it's been so good lately that they're adding on. Go in and check out the remodeling in the club and the larger "rest facilities." AUSTINteaCIOUS — On wild Wednesdays at Charlie's, you can find whacky guys like Scott, Arnie, Austin and Zach [above, l-r] ready for fun and good times. Where's the hanky, fellas? Sunday's Showtime is also extremely popular, and a large crowd was on hand again last week as hostess Lauren Taylor kept things swinging with special guests like Tommie Ross and the Pecs Unlimited dancers; this Sunday Lauren's special guest is Sweet Savage. Charlie's is hosting a special on Miller products on Saturday, Oct. 5; we're ready! We're also adding a lot to our education from the Charlie's chaps; last week we learned that a lesbian dinosaur is an "eatalotapus," and a gay male dino is an "alotasaurus." What knowledge will we pick up this week?...

Bartender Scott [above] always makes us dizzy at Oilcan Harry's — or is our camera just malfunctioning again? The heart of the Guytown/Warehouse District continues to make doing nothing special seem like the most special thing around. Miss Texas World at Large 1996 Jill Jordan was special guest at last Sunday's show, and she wowed 'em on a talent-heavy extravaganza that included Heather Thomas and Jame Perry. Did you see the eclipsed Full Moon from 5th Street's palatial patio? Best view in town! And we still get a big kick when Michael T. takes charge Thursdays for a night of karaoke....

It's going to be the biggest, best circuit party Dallas has ever seen. Mark your calendar in pen for Saturday, Oct. 12. It's guaranteed, you won't want to miss out....

By the way, for those of you temporarily out of the loop, this is the club space of the fabulous Starck. (It can't be called that right now due to a minor snafu. At least now you're in the know). RuPaul and Dennis Rodman (part owner of the club, by the way) kept the crowd screaming and dancing all night long. By the time it ended, the sun was on its way up and the Club Formerly Known As... was on the national party map again.

March 16, 1959 – September 25, 1996

Good night, My Angel
 Good night, my angel
 Now it's time to sleep
 And still so many things I want to say
 Remember all the songs that you sang for me
 When we went sailing on an emerald bay
 And like a ship out on the ocean
 The water's dark
 And deep inside this ancient heart
 You'll always be a part of me.

Good night, my angel
 Now it's time to dream
 And dream how wonderful your life will be Someday your lover may cry
 And if you sing this lullaby
 Then in your heart
 There will always be a part of me.

Someday we'll all be gone
 But lullabies go on and on
 They never die
 That's how you
 And I
 Will be.

Mark is survived by his lover and companion, Neil Day.

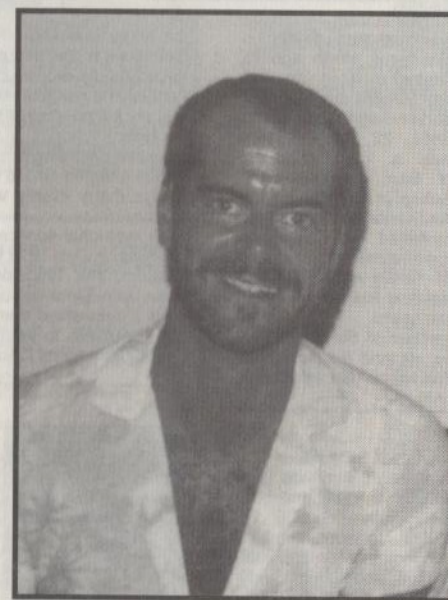

Mark is also survived by several friends: Patti, Kirk, Tom, Hazel, Spencer and others too numerous to mention.

With gratitude to Dr. Gutherson and the 8th Floor nurses at Park Plaza Hospital.

Frank Collins

May 6, 1947 –
 September 6, 1996

September, 6 1996 marked the passing of Frank Collins, whose memory will long touch friends and family from San Francisco to New York, yet mostly in Dallas and Houston. Most recently, Frank was known in Dallas through the garment industry with Rapid Transit. In Houston, prior to that, Frank was a well-known deejay at both Numbers and The Parade Disco.

On Sunday, Oct. 6, there will be a service/reception at the Reichenstein Manor at The Springs, 4810 Cedar Springs in Dallas, from 5-8 p.m.

In his music and in his person, Frank inspired an entire generation of us with treasured memories of being held captive on the dance floor. Many of us grew up on the dance floors of Numbers and The Parade Disco. For those of us who will live to remember, there will be what seem like unbelievable tales of a time when friendship had created the most amazing family; and the most amazing experiences shared together were oftentimes graced with the passion and artistic sounds of Frank Collins.

His music made us dance. His music would make us remember. And his music would live on in our hearts forever.

To many of us who knew him well, there will never be another man like him. He was one of a kind and our hearts will bear this loss for a long, long time to come.

Stephen L. Wirth
Stephen L. Wirth, age 43, passed away in Gloucester, Virginia after a long and courageous battle on Sept. 22, 1996. Steve was a 1971 graduate of Sam Houston High School in Arlington and an Air Force veteran. He established the Oak Lawn Exterminating Co., and the family wishes to thank all of his loyal customers and friends who supported him throughout the years.

He was an active member of his community and a true "giver" in life. He and his Christmas Village on Wycliff in Dallas will be greatly missed.

Neil Brian Starr
Neil Brian Starr was born March 4, 1962 and died peacefully Sept. 14, 1996. He is survived by his mother, Maryann Talkington, and sisters Cindy, Brenda, Tracy and Beverly, all of Pennsylvania, and many friends in Dallas.

Neil was gifted by an inner light that touched everyone he met. Though his soul has left this earth, his memory and the joy he brought so many will forever remain. He loved everything about life, from daffodils in spring to Stevie Nicks in the summer to the first flakes of snow in December, and how those of us left behind will see, hear and feel those things. Let us not feel sorrow, but rejoice that his spirit lives on in each of our hearts.

A memorial service was held Sept. 28 at Southland Memorial Cemetery in Grand Prairie. A celebration of his life will be held Oct. 6 at the home of Vance Seaton. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to VNA Hospice Memorial Fund; 1440 W. Mockingbird Ln.; #500; Dallas, TX 75247.

Robert (Bob) J. Hill
Services were held in Shreveport, Louisiana on Sept. 18, 1996 for Robert Joshua Hill, with family and friends in attendance. Interment was at Waldo Cemetery, Waldo, AR.

Bob Hill passed away on Sept. 16 after a courageous battle with cancer. Bob will be remembered by many from his years of working as the doorman at the Round-up Saloon. His smiling face and classic laugh greeted all who were fortunate to be welcomed by Bob. His undying giving spirit smiled upon many who were befriended by Bob.

Bob's final steps in life as an avid landscaper again enabled him to touch the hearts and souls of his many clients with his never-ending generosity.

A memorial service celebrating Bob's life will be held on Oct. 12 at the White Rock Community Church, 722 Tension Memorial Rd. in Dallas. Rev. Jerry Cook will be officiating.

It is requested that donations, in lieu of flowers, be made to White Rock Friends, c/o White Rock Community Church.

Maceo Scott Bragg III
April 9, 1958 -
Sept. 21, 1996

Maceo Scott Bragg III passed from this life suddenly on Sept. 21, 1996. He maintained his dignity, courage and self-reliance to the end. All who knew him loved him. He leaves behind his beloved mother, sister, nephew, two brothers and his life partner of six years, Mark Donald Ryan Stern.

Ours was a rare and beautiful relationship. We never had an argument or said words in anger. Every day we proclaimed our love for each other. We have no regrets. This was my beloved, and this was my friend.

Special thanks from us both go to Dr. Steven Pounders, Bubba, Tuula, Renee, Judy, Linda, Fran, Michael, Sandra and Beverly for six years of highest quality medical care.

Charitable donations may be made to the AIDS Resource Center and CareLine.

Goodbye, my friend. You had no equal. Ani l'dodi, v'dodi li.

Rob Sharp

My friend Rob Sharp died from AIDS Aug. 3, 1996. He was 43. A former Texas resident, he lived in L.A. where he was a neckwear buyer for Robinsons-May. Rob left behind his lover of 11 years, Bob Ischinger; mother, Yolanda Sharp; a brother, Ralph; a sister, Millie; nieces and nephews; and many friends and associates. Memorial services were held at The Umlauf Sculpture Gardens in Austin Aug. 17.

Rob, I knew you 14 years. Not long enough. Our good times are legendary. Physically you may be gone, but your spirit will always be. Until I see you again, as we used to say, TAKA BOOM!

Love, Don
