THE BIGGEST PARTY IN SOUTH BEACH

BY TOM HENDERSON

Finally, some in the Republican Party have begun to understand that most Americans do not believe that hate is a family value. They have learned to at least profess their opposition to "discrimination of any kind," but carefully avoid specific support for equal rights for gay Americans. Unlike the clarion call to cultural war sounded by Patrick Buchanan and Pat Robertson in Houston in 1992, a kinder, gentler version of the Republican Party was on full display in San Diego this summer. Republican Vice Presidential candidate Jack Kemp, in his call for a "big tent party," asked for the "support of every single American" and promised that "we're not going to leave anybody out." Those words must have provided great comfort to the three (yes, as in 1-2-3!) openly gay Republican convention delegates.

But has the Republican Party really changed its past views on gay and lesbian Americans? Hardly! Republican Presidential candidate Bob Dole was the lead co-sponsor of the anti-gay "Defense of Marriage Act" [DOMA], and told the right-wing Washington Times that he opposes "the special interest gay agenda...from gays in the military...[to] special status for sexual orientation under federal civil rights statutes." In his most recent debate with President Bill Clinton, Dole again voiced his opposition to "special rights" for those living a particular "lifestyle."

On May 25, Jack Kemp criticized the U.S. Supreme Court's decision striking down Colorado's initiative to deny specific civil rights protections for homosexuals, saying, "I think Justice [Anthony] Kennedy was wrong in suggesting that the people of Colorado had an animosity toward gay people. What they were basically saying was, they shouldn't get special rights." As

TALK THE TALK AND WALK THE WALK

Why Gay Voters Should Stick with the Democrats

Secretary of Housing and Urban Development, that same Mr. Kemp opposed a contract with a federal employees union because he said it was viewed as extending domestic partner benefits to gay and lesbian HUD workers; said that firing gay teachers was acceptable because "I think a school board should have the right to choose what type of example we have for our children in public schools"; and backed efforts to require mandatory reporting of those who test HIV-positive.

What about the Republican Senate majority? Last month, not one single Republican Senator voted against Mr. Dole's DOMA, and despite rhetoric about inclusiveness and "equal rights, not special rights," only eight of the 53 Senate Republicans found it within themselves to support the Employment Non-Discrimination Act [ENDA], which failed 50-49. That means the other 45 Republican Senators (including Texas Senators Phil Gramm and Kay Bailey Hutchison) believe someone should be able to be fired from his or her job simply because he or she is gay or lesbian!

One could go on and on about the hate-filled, homophobic rhetoric of the Republican platform and the continuing gay-bashing antics of Republicans like Jesse Helms, Phil Gramm and Bob Dornan. But are the Democrats any better? Contrast the two conventions.

In Chicago, the 150-plus gay and lesbian delegates were welcomed with open arms, and in our daily caucus, we heard from prominent members of the U.S. Senate and House, as well as the White House and party leaders at all levels. We also adopted a platform which fully embraces our struggle for civil rights.

In his acceptance speech, President Clinton pledged his continued support for HIV/AIDS research, prevention and treatment efforts, and specifically included gay Americans in his call for unity — a first for any American president. In the second debate between the two major presidential candidates, he again voiced his support for ENDA and made an eloquent plea for inclusiveness and unity.

Are the Democrats perfect? Hell, no! Does much remain to be done? Hell, yes! But there is a huge difference between openness to such progress and support from a majority of Democratic Party members, and open hostility from the Republican faithful.

What about DOMA and ENDA? Sadly, only 14 Democrats had the courage to vote against DOMA. But 41 of 47 Democratic Senators voted for ENDA, and three who voted against us (including lead bigot Sam Nunn) are retiring this year.

The partisan differences are clear and stark. However, progress toward gay civil rights still must be led by our community, and in the most important cases, affirmed by the U.S. Supreme Court. It should be noted that the next president could appoint as many as three members to that court.

Officeholders of both parties must be courted and cajoled to do the right thing. But our chances of success are clearly greater with Democrats as a whole than with Republicans. Republicans may be beginning to learn how to talk the talk, but they have a long way to go before they learn how to walk the walk!

Tom Henderson serves as co-chair of the Texas Lesbian/Gay Leadership Council for Clinton/Gore. Next week: Why gay and lesbian voters should consider Republican alternative.

BY JIMMY SMITH

When for 20 years your entire life revolves around music, rarely does one song have such an impact that you forever remember exactly where you were and what you were doing the very first time you heard it. I was 19; it was the summer of '82, a Sunday night in Dallas, and we had just come in from the "tea dance." The time? Well, drag time, of course, and front and center we sat. About four songs into the show, the emcee introduced the next queen. It was Lindsay Love and the number she lip-synched was "Come to Me" by France Joli. The song was so overwhelmingly gorgeous from start to finish, one of those that just pull on your heartstrings. Not only did I rush out the next day and buy the record, I was so inspired that I also decided it was time for my first wig and pair of high heels (but that's another story).

A few months ago, I was told by Harry Towers of Popular Records that they had signed France Joli. In July, I saw her perform her new single, "Touch," at the Billboard Dance Music Summit in Chicago. It was a performance that literally brought tears to many eyes; she looked and sounded fabulous! Last week I was able to hear some of the other songs on her forthcoming debut album on Popular, and they are absolutely amazing. After speaking with France recently, I can say with utmost certainty that she is definitely back where she belongs.

TWT: Success came for you at a very early age. How does a 16-year-old come to be such a huge star overnight like that? You weren't even old enough to get into most of the places where you were performing!

France Joli: That's very young. But I knew at a very young age that I was going to be a singer. I had no doubt, so I started working towards my career very early. I had the support of my family, so that helped a lot. At the age of 11, I left public school for private school so I could devote more time to piano classes, ballet classes, drama and singing classes. So in the morning I would go to regular classes and in the afternoon I went to school for my career. By the time I was 15, I had met up with Tony Greene, who wrote and produced "Come to Me."

How did you manage to balance being, basically, a child with being a star?

I didn't balance anything. I just went for success and in a way I stopped being a kid. It all happened so fast and it was so big that there was no time to play anymore. Everything that I had worked for was happening, and I was so happy that not being able to be a kid didn't matter to me.

Why the move from Prelude to Epic?

It was time for me to move on to a bigger label. I was feeling that "Gonna Get Over You" was a big record for me, but it didn't cross over. So I figured that maybe if I was at a bigger label, I might be able to reach more of a pop audience. Not that I didn't like dance music or wanted to stay away from it. I just wanted to expand and maybe have the pop chart on my side. So after I left Prelude Records I was shopping around for a major label and ended up with Epic where I did one album with Giorgio Moroder and another one with George Duke. After the two albums with Epic, I had a very hard time getting some material and producers together and finding another label.

Do you regret making the move? So many times when an artist goes to a major, the label will try to change them or compromise their sound. Was this the case for you?

Well, I'll tell you something. I think there was a lot of confusion back then, where dance music was not the dance music that I've known. After my last record with Prelude, it seemed that dance music was changing. It didn't seem that the good ol' songs I was doing were in style anymore. It was very, very hard for me to find my niche. I took some chances and I didn't know exactly where to go at that time. Sometimes you just try things. [The producers] had their own sound and they had their own ideas as to what I should be doing, of course. It was a combination of them wanting something different, me wanting something different, the label wanting something different. There were also some different writers...it's hard to explain. There are so many people involved in putting together an album, and you're pulled in so many directions. You sometimes get pushed by the company and the producers that you should "do this song because it's a hit record," even if you don't like it. You just keep your fingers crossed for something to happen, and we did that for two albums.

Once again we find you reunited with Tony Greene for the new album on Popular. The two of you obviously have this sort of magical way of putting out such wonderful music. How did this happen? Well, for years we didn't speak because he had his thing to do and I had my thing to do. About three or four years ago we started connecting again. And then, I guess about two and a half years ago, he said he had a song for me and he played it for me. It made me feel as good as when he first offered me "Come to Me." So we decided that maybe it was time to work on an album again. Tony knows what I want to do as an artist and as a vocalist and he seems to be able to create that. I'm really happy to be working with him again. When we put our talents together, there are sparks. Good things happen.

Were there any artists who inspired you growing up?

Barbra Streisand was my idol and so I was learning every song of hers. She was basically my singing teacher. I was singing over and auditioning with her records. She was just everything to me; such a great singer, great actress, great artist, great everything! I'm just a big fan! So I learned singing songs, ballads, with her.

Can we expect some ballads, then, on the new album, especially now that you've developed your songwriting abilities?

Yes, right now there are three and we're looking at maybe a fourth one. For me, songwriting is very simple. I didn't say, "Oh my God, I'm going to write a song." I started off just by having fun and every three or four days I would come up with something new, until now I have a huge catalogue at home. You know, some of them are not good and some of them are quite good, actually. And, of course, my writing has evolved now and I'm a grown-up woman, so I write differently now than I did then. But there's a song called "Brother" that's going to be on the album. It's about my brother that died several years ago. It's one of the first songs I wrote, and it's on the album as like a prayer; an honor to him. I just felt that it should be on this album.

Now that your career has come full circle, you're all grown up, your songwriting abilities are there, etc., what is the moment during a project where you can sit back and say, "Yeah, this is it; this is right; this is what it's all about"?

Actually, there are two things and they are totally opposite, but together they are the peak of it for me. One is in the performance when everyone is singing along with you and they're going through all sorts of emotions. It's an automatic high for me. You don't need drugs...The tons of applause is the high for me. On the other side, the part of the studio — or the creation — is as rewarding, I find, because there's nothing to tell you or no fans to tell you it's great. But when you're creating it, it's actually finished. You know? You say, "Wow, I've also done my work." In the studio, when you're performing a song and you just give it all you've got and you listen back and you can actually say, "Wow, this part's giving me goose bumps." It's like, I hope they're gonna get the goose bumps as much as I do.

The closing night of Studio 54, France Joli performed "Touch" for the first time, before a capacity crowd of screaming fans, all of them sporting goose bumps. Studio 54's closing marked the end of an era for many, but for France it marked a new beginning, a triumphant return. For her many fans, it was as though she'd never left.

"Touch" is now available on 12-inch and CD5. Be on the lookout for France Joli's album, due out January '97.

The Rites of Eleusis, seven planetary plays written by Aleister Crowley, starts at 8 p.m. this Saturday, Oct. 26, with a new performance every five days at Bohdi Yoga & Massage Center, 1710 Houston in Austin. The first show is "Saturn," a traditional; the second, on Thursday, Oct. 31, will be "Jupiter," a Renaissance-themed piece for which the audience is encouraged to wear costumes. Tickets are $5, or $31 for a season pass. For more info, call (512)467-8703. A full-moon drumming also will be held after the opening-night show.

The Spiral Dance, a ritual for the feast of Samhain, will be put on at 8 p.m. this Saturday, Oct. 26, in The Yard at Planet Theatre, 2307 Manor Rd. in Austin. The Tejas Web, a magical community, is presenting this audience-participation event; a $5 donation at the gate is requested in lieu of tickets. For more info, call (512)478-LAVA. Planet Theatre also is planning a tree-planting in honor and memory of T.J. Gaudette at 6 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 31; Gaudette was a member of the Austin Circle of Theatres and Vortex Repertory Company until his death one year ago.

ProArts Collective, a new African-American arts organization in Austin, presents its first annual Halloween Eve Hot House Revue at 10 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 30, at Victory Grill, 1104 E. 11th St. The show will feature some of Austin's most talented illusionists, dancers and entertainers, portraying the likes of Cher, Diana Ross, Grace Jones and others. For more info, call (512)474-4494. ProArts also hosts a "Big Foot" Shoe Sale from 11 a.m.-6 p.m. this Saturday, Oct. 26, at Victory Grill.

From the composer of Sunset Boulevard and the lyricist of The Lion King comes Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat to Fort Worth's Casa Mañana Theatre, 3401 W. Lancaster. Shows are at 8 p.m. this evening, 2 and 8 p.m. Saturday and 2 and 7:30 p.m. Sunday. Tickets ($15-$40) can be purchased at the box office or by calling (817)332-2272.

The International Theatrical Arts Society of Dallas presents its first special show of the 1996-97 season, the virtual reality theatrical experience of Grand Hôtel des Étrangers (Grand Hotel of Strangers), in which live actors interact with three-dimensional computer-generated images. Performances are Thursday, Oct. 31, at 6:30 and 9:30 p.m., Friday, Nov. 1, at 7:30 and 10 p.m. and Saturday, Nov. 2, at 7:30 and 10 p.m. at SMU's McFarlin Auditorium. Tickets ($14-$30) are available at the box office or by calling (214)528-5576.

The Fine Arts Chamber Players open their new season of 4th Saturday performances this Saturday, Oct. 26 at 3 p.m. in the Horchow Auditorium at the Dallas Museum of Art, 1717 N. Harwood, with a concert for harp, flute and viola, featuring harpist Ellen Ritscher. Admission is free. Call (214) 520-2219 for more information.

Direct from a sold-out New York cabaret run, Steven Brinberg brings Simply Barbra to Theater LaB Houston this weekend. Brinberg himself conceived and stars in this tribute to the incomparable Ms. Streisand. Performances are this evening and Saturday (Oct. 25 and 26) at 8:30 and 10:30 p.m. Seating is very limited; for tickets ($25), call (713)227-ARTS. Theater LaB Houston is located at 1706 Alamo.

Slawomir Mrozek's political satire Tango was part of the absurdist theatre which swept over communist Eastern Europe during the 1960s. Arthur, a young man living in an eccentric household with his bohemian parents, stages an elaborate "coup d'état" out of a desire for order and a return to tradition — only to realize that his impulse will lead to a restriction of freedom than the celebration of it. Stages Repertory, 3201 Allen Pkwy in Houston, presents Tango at 8 p.m. Wednesdays-Saturdays and at 5 p.m. Sundays. For tickets ($10-$25), call (713)527-8243.

Now, more than ever, surviving with AIDS requires sound choices and aggressive financial planning. You'll be happy to know that when it comes to choices, thousands of people have trusted us to help them make the right ones. By offering one of the best creative financial alternatives available, we help you help yourself...

When you choose us to sell a life insurance policy, you'll be amazed at how different we truly are. Our company tries to work with everyone, even if you're healthy. And, you'll be relieved to know that unlike some of our competition, we don't call to bother you after the sale.

With our program, you'll also get something no other viatical company can give you: a free membership in A Better Benefit for Life™—a comprehensive medical advisory network that offers assistance in obtaining valuable information and discounts on medical services.

We want you to make the right choice. Survival.

HALLOWEEN

TEXAS

The gayest of all holidays is upon us and you can bet that this year's crop of costumes will be the wildest and most imaginative ever. There are so many celebrations planned across the state that you can count on something going on every night of the week between now and October 31. The main contests and parades will take place this Saturday, October 26 and on Halloween night itself; check this week's magazine for details on other happenings. While you're out celebrating, look for this week's pirate coverboy, 29-year-old Morgan Adams. Play safe and have the best Halloween ever.

If life seems a little more conquerable, give a great thank-you to Saturn and Pluto. These two movers and shakers "trine" to make all of our best efforts victorious. Strike while the planets are hot, kids; this type of magic doesn't come around too often.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22) Even the most menial task will have a profitable payoff when Saturn trines Pluto. Queer Scorps should use their considerable strategic insights to plot and plan a financial attack from the deep trenches. I also advise a clear, sensible look at exercise and diet. Long-term profitability is in the stars now and you want to be able to celebrate in those tight leather chaps.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22) Pastimes or side businesses may be the yellow brick road leading to Oz. Queer Sags should pursue any creative enterprise with mucho gusto during the Saturn/Pluto trine; I can almost guarantee that it'll lead to a new circle of influential acquaintances, momentous new beginnings and a new gay you. Drop those drab togs, darling; your entrance needs to be flashy and fabulous.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20) Gay Goats may feel like the sanitation workers of the zodiac as they haul all that psychic garbage out of their closets and dump it where it belongs. Liberation abounds! Even nasty home-related projects will meet with closure and success during the Saturn/Pluto trine. All your struggles have not been in vain, dear, queer Cap; get ready for a true sense of affirmation and personal satisfaction.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19) The Saturn/Pluto trine has an interesting effect on Aqueerians and their long-term goals.

ELSA LANCHESTER
BORN OCTOBER 28, 1902

Prepare for an abrupt change in your life's patterns and a transformation of all you hold near and dear. New friends beat a path to your door, but avoid the lunatics; you are far too susceptible to powerfully delivered messages no matter how crazy. No, no, no; the Christian Coalition is not for you!

PISCES (Feb. 20 - March 20) Pink Fish may feel swimmingly at home on their chosen career paths, but the Pluto/Saturn trine has a way of changing all best-laid plans for the better. This is a crucial time, friend; the planets prepare to pour the concrete foundation for your professional mansion. Make sure it has the best location with the best view. Examine your value system to make sure you'll be the true lavender you.

ARIES (March 21 - April 20) Even the proudest of Rambos may have felt the tinge of self-doubt with dour Saturn casting an unflattering light on their self-images. Hunker in the shadows no more, cousin; Pluto-trine-Saturn pumps up your self-confidence, hands you a personal victory or two or three and brings the adoring world to your door in a big way. Thank goodness gay Rams would never let all this adulation go to their heads....

TAURUS (April 21 - May 21) The most interesting aspect of the Pluto/Saturn trine is how you'll be able to blend the mystical, higher karma of service and devotion with down-to-earth sexual interaction. Maybe it means that you'll meet that perfect lover through volunteer work. Maybe it means that physical connection is sparked with a soulful connection. Maybe it means that you'll be the one wearing the saddle or leash.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21) Many gay Twins have trouble concentrating on just one person, especially when they have so many fabulous friends who are willing to help them fill the time with delightful diversions. Happily, the Saturn/Pluto trine helps you balance the needs of partners with the call of friendships. In fact, don't be surprised if one helps spur the other. Play it to the limit. After all, balance is everything, darling.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23) If pink Crabs have been feeling like a pair of ragged claws toiling at the grindstone for little recognition and reward, worry no more. Now, with the Saturn/Pluto trine, any effort on the job will have lasting impact on your long-term career. You haven't wasted your time and struggled for nothing, dear. It's time to reap the rewards of hard work. Be kind to us serfs when you reach the top.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23) The Saturn/Pluto trine offers dramatically proud Lions the opportunity to gain the global recognition that (they think) they deserve. Anything having to do with creative pursuits and fulfilled pastimes has a way of changing and/or strengthening your basic philosophy of life. Grab all the colors of the rainbow and take the muse farther than you ever thought possible. As your agent, I'll take the usual 15%....

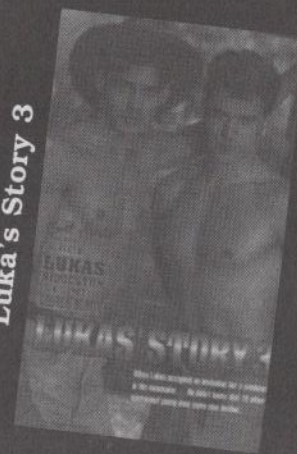

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23) Even the most affirmed of Virgins might have been feeling a tad repressed recently with stern old Saturn casting a cold pall on your hottest urges. Worry no more, sweetheart; the Pluto/Saturn trine has lovers knocking down the door. Feel strong in your sexuality and don't let relatives rain on your pride parade. You'll be surprised at how compelling you can be and how well others respond.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23) Gay Scales always strive for balance and harmony. Unfortunately, balance was probably one of the most difficult positions for you to achieve in relationships. Tip no more; the Saturn/Pluto trine enables you and your partner to see eye to eye. All it will take is open communication and a bit of patience. So much has been swept under the rug that the rug is three feet off the ground.

EIGHTH BLACK TIE DINNER PART OF BUSY WEEKEND IN SAN ANTONIO

Col. Margarethe Cammermeyer
To Speak at Benefit for HRC, Other Charities.

SAN ANTONIO — A record turnout is anticipated for the eighth annual San Antonio Black Tie Dinner, which will be held Saturday, Nov. 2, at the Marriott River-Center Hotel and which benefits the Human Rights Campaign and a number of participating organizations.

Col. Margarethe Cammermeyer, whose story was depicted in the film Serving in Silence after she was forced out of the military because of her sexual orientation and was then reinstated by a judge, will be the featured speaker at the dinner. The evening starts with cocktails at 6 p.m., followed by dinner and later dancing with music provided by a deejay. Local jazz singer Ken Slavin, who has performed with Helen Reddy, also will perform.

Jeff Sachse of Chicago, who is the Co-Director of the board of governors of the Human Rights Campaign, also will speak at the San Antonio dinner. The list of special guests also includes Tom Gaynor, HRC staff member for the Southern Region. The emcee will be Maria Elena Toralvo-Alonso, who works for the Hearst Corporation and is a potential San Antonio mayoral candidate.

Individual tickets for this year's event are $145 now, and a crowd of 550-650 people is anticipated. Last year's event, the first held at the Marriott RiverCenter, drew a record 525 and raised nearly $50,000.

In addition to its primary beneficiary, the Human Rights Campaign, this year's dinner will also help participating organizations such as the Alamo City Men's Chorale, the Esperanza Peace and Justice Center, the Lesbian/Gay Rights Lobby of Texas, the San Antonio AIDS Foundation, the Texas Human Rights Foundation, the Unity Foundation, the Wellness Connection and the San Antonio Equal Rights Political Caucus.

The eighth annual dinner marks the first time corporate sponsors have come on board; they are the Gay & Lesbian Yellow Pages and Zazu. Table captain sponsors include the Hearst Corporation, the Bexar County Democratic Party and Constant Cravings. Letters of congratulations, welcome and support have been received from a variety of political officials, ranging from President Clinton to Bob Bullock, Gary Mauro, Dan Morales, John Sharp and Henry B. Gonzales. Co-Chairs of this year's dinner are Rick Martinez and Liz Flores.

For tickets or more information, call (210)824-5178.

The Black Tie Dinner will be part of a busy fund-raising weekend in San Antonio. The Walk for Life, sponsored by the San Antonio AIDS Foundation, takes place on Sunday, Nov. 3, starting and ending at Market Square. For more information on the Walk, call (210)225-4715.

HOUSTONIAN CHOSEN PRESIDENT OF NAT'L NAMES PROJECT

Local Chapter Also Receives
'Friends of the Quilt' Award.

WASHINGTON, DC — A bit of history was made recently when a Houstonian was chosen to head the NAMES Project Foundation, which sponsors and coordinates displays of the AIDS Memorial Quilt. The Board of Directors of the organization, which is headquartered in San Francisco, elected Jackson Hicks as their new President at the Board's recent annual meeting, held during the Oct. 11-13 display of the entire Quilt in Washington, DC.

Hicks' appointment marked the first time someone other than a resident of San Francisco has been chosen to head the national organization.

"Jackson is well known for his generosity and philanthropy, but has particularly embraced the Quilt," Perrie Dolph, who served as Volunteer Chair of the Hirshorn Museum (Central U.S.) Area of the Quilt display, said last week. "He will surely bring his trademark elegance and efficiency to the new job as National NAMES Foundation President."

Hicks founded Jackson & Company Caterers, a special events production and catering firm, in 1981. He served as Chairperson of the NAMES Project Houston for two terms and as Display Chair for the 1990 Houston Quilt Display, has been a member of the National Board since 1992, is immediate past National Vice President and was Chair of "A Night to Remember," a black tie gala held Oct. 11 in Washington that raised over $1,000,000.

Houston also found itself in the spotlight when the city's NAMES Project group was honored as Chapter of the Year by the national organization. The "Friends of the Quilt" Award was presented to David Jackson, Chairman of the Houston chapter, at "A Night to Remember." Dolph said the award was made "in recognition of the chapter's diligence in leading the way for its fight against AIDS." Six members of the Houston chapter had served as host chairmen for the Central Hirshorn Region.

VICTORY FUND HEAD KEYNOTES BLACK TIE DINNER IN HOUSTON NOV. 2

State Rep. Glen Maxey, Former Event Co-Chair Frank Campisi to Be Honored.

HOUSTON — As the 1996 Houston Black Tie Dinner Committee finalizes the details of its Nov. 2 gala, organizers say the event is shaping up to be the biggest and best the city has seen. Jonathan Wilson, Executive Director of The Gay and Lesbian Victory Fund, has been announced as the keynote speaker, with New Orleans cabaret singer Mary Griffin and the Ed Gerlach Orchestra with Sharon Montgomery providing the evening's entertainment.

The Dinner begins at 7 p.m. next Saturday in the former banking lobby of the First City Main Building, 1021 Main. There are still a few tickets available; for more information, call (713)523-9611.

The Black Tie Committee has announced that the 1996 Humanitarian Award will go to Frank Campisi (a former co-chair of the group) in recognition of his outstanding fund-raising efforts in the fight against HIV and AIDS. The 1996 Hollyfield Political Service Award will go to state Rep. Glen Maxey, recognized throughout Texas for his support of equal rights, environmental issues and consumer affairs.

The Houston Black Tie Dinner emphasizes community needs and local beneficiaries. This year's event benefits 12 local and statewide organizations as well as one national group, the Victory Fund. The other beneficiaries are the Allan Calkin Fund, The Assistance Fund, The Bering Community Service Foundation, Body Positive/Houston, the Lesbian Health Initiative, the Montrose Clinic, the Montrose Counseling Center, the NAMES Project Houston, Omega House, the People With AIDS Coalition Houston, PFLAG Houston and the Texas Human Rights Foundation.

Last year, the Dinner netted over $100,000 for its beneficiaries. This year, the Committee anticipates even greater grants with an expected 1,100-plus sell-out crowd in attendance. The evening will consist of a silent auction, cocktail hour, seated dinner, dancing and entertainment.

CHEER DALLAS SCHEDULES TRYOUTS FOR NOV. 10

Pep Squad Also Holds Practice Sessions This Sunday, Nov. 3.

DALLAS — Dallas area gymnasts and cheerleaders will have an opportunity on Nov. 10 to join the nationally prominent Cheer Dallas gay and lesbian cheerleading squad. Interested participants are encouraged to attend one or both of the squad's practice sessions at 6:30 p.m. this Sunday, Oct. 27, and on Sunday, Nov. 3, at Dallas Gymnastics, 2620 Willowbrook.

"The next two Sundays, we are inviting anyone interested in being a part of Cheer Dallas to come work out with us. They will see how we work out and how we do our stunts," said founder Ken Jorns. "We also want them to get an idea of what we do besides the cheerleading. We also do fund-raising events like Colossus, our New

Since performances at the Alan Ross Texas Freedom Parade, AIDS LifeWalk, and the Texas/OU Street Party, Cheer Dallas has been overwhelmed with people interested in joining the squad, so attending one of the practice sessions could give a prospective member an edge over the competition. In addition to tryouts for the regular squad on Nov. 10, Cheer Dallas will also have official tryouts for people who want to be on the competition squad.

"The competition squad will be participating in the NCA (National Cheerleaders Association) All-Star competition which will be held in February in Dallas," Jorns said. "We're especially looking for people with previous cheerleading or gymnastic experience." Participants in the tryouts will be judged on motion, technique, gymnastic capabilities and overall appearance as a performing cheer squad member.

All practice sessions and tryouts will be held at Dallas Gymnastics. For more information, Cheer Dallas can be contacted at (214)922-9229.

ROUND-UP FOR AIDS HANDS OUT CHECKS TO '96 CHARITIES

Christopher House, Pediatric AIDS League Share in Over $6,000 Raised at Sept. 21 Event.

AUSTIN — The three groups that make up Round-Up for AIDS held an Appreciation Party for those who worked the day-long event at Dry Creek Equestrian Center, and also presented checks totaling over $6,000 to the primary AIDS/HIV-related charities for whom the benefit was held.

Round-Up at the Ranch, Southern Country Austin and the United Court of Austin worked together for the first time on the event, held Sept. 21. They announced that $6,326.50 was raised, and presented Pediatric AIDS League and Christopher House with checks for $3,163.45 each during festivities last Sunday at 5th Street Station.

"A lot of people put a lot of effort into this event, and we're grateful for everyone's help and support," said Joanna Johnson, President of Southern Country Austin. "We hope to make next year's event even bigger."

Certificates of appreciation were presented to corporate sponsors such as 5th Street Station, Proteus, Rainbow Cattle Company, Charlie's, Rolling Rock Beer, Labnet and others; to entertainers such as Murrah and Miss Xanna Don't and the Wanted; and to individual supporters like Colonel Bob. The checks were accepted by Bob Edelstein, board president of the Pediatric AIDS League, and by Don Massa of Christopher House.

LOG CABIN HOUSTON ENDORSES TWO IN LOCAL RACES

Jeff Pynes, Sergio Trevino Supported in Runs for Constable, Justice of the Peace.

HOUSTON — The local chapter of the Log Cabin Republicans has given its support to two GOP candidates in the general election. The candidates are Sergio Trevino, running for Justice of the Peace, Precinct 1, Place 1, and Jeff Pynes, who is running for Constable in Precinct 1.

"Both candidates showed us a commitment to equality under the law, regardless of sexual orientation, and that's what we are looking for in judges and in law enforcement," Gary Van Ooteghem, president of the Houston Log Cabin Republicans, said last week. "We don't want any 'special rights,' just equal rights." Trevino and Pynes had screened with Log Cabin and appeared before the group to ask for its support on Nov. 5.

Trevino told the group that he opposes discrimination against gay and lesbian people and that he proudly lists his gay support along with that of others.

Pynes pledged that he would institute a formal, written nondiscrimination policy protecting gays from discrimination in his office. He also promised to begin sensitivity training for officers under his command to encourage them to treat gay people with civility and respect — a procedure Van Ooteghem said the incumbent Constable, Jack Abercia, has failed to institute.

A motion to endorse presidential candidate Bob Dole caused extensive debate within the group, but eventually failed by a two-to-one margin.

HOUSTON TEA — Everyone is gearing up for Halloween, especially the family of clubs at 800 Pacific. Their "Curse of Ancient Egypt" block party features street parade costume contests tomorrow and next Thursday at 9:45 p.m. The outrageous Randall Jobe [above, r], caught camping it up with JR's deejay Doug Barnes [l], will emcee these outdoor competitions. They'll be giving away over $10,000 in cash, prizes, tickets and trophies. Just follow the searchlights....

At Heaven, "The Pharaoh's Afterlife" brings you Saturday and Thursday costume contests at 11:30 p.m. In addition to all these holiday festivities, Heaven continues to bring you five nights of exciting entertainment with Video Rewind Wednesdays, Boy Bar Thursdays featuring amateur strip competition, Fierce Fridays, International Underground Saturdays and Super Show Sundays. Recently, hostesses Kofi [above, c] and Kourtney Van Wales [l], along with club manager Jerry Resseque [r], welcomed crowd-pleasers Whitney Paige and Jennifer St. John [back, l-r]....

JR's "Museum of Frightening Artifacts" will also have Saturday and Thursday costume contests at 11 p.m. This Sunday, the party continues with The Mummy's Karaoke at 6 p.m. and a swimsuit male strip contest at 11 p.m. The highlight of the weekend will be at 9 p.m. Sunday when The Houston Black Tie Dinner Committee announces the lucky winner of their Ford Mustang giveaway. Time is running out, so get your raffle tickets now....

Across the street, the Montrose Mining Company invites you to witness "The Revenge of The Sphinx." Costume contests on Saturday and Thursday at 11:30 p.m. offer more cash and prizes to the winners. Every Sunday, Brian Smith, Michael Draemer and Joey Reid [below, l-r], along with all the other men of the Mine, serve up reduced price longnecks and well drinks, as well as that delightful draft beer and frozen margarita Double Bust....

Tomorrow night, The Club presents the return of The Fog Party. A delicious catered buffet will sustain you as you feel your way through an evening of steamy excitement. The fun begins at 11 p.m....

Rascals is having three days of traditional Halloween revelry. Tomorrow at midnight and next Thursday at 10:30 p.m., their costume contests offer big cash prizes. This Sunday, the Mr. and Miss Halloween contest will crown the sexiest man and the most beautiful drag queen. Don't forget about the club's exciting Wednesday night Lil' Rascal male strip contest. Last week, we found pageant promoter Craig Henderson [above, r] getting cozy with rowdy rascal Victor [l]....

The 611 is hosting two giant Halloween parties filled with prizes and surprises tomorrow and Thursday. The club's weekly schedule features Sunday brunch, Hamburger Thursdays, Pizza Fridays and male dancers on Fridays and Saturdays....

Are you ready for the ultimate trip? Pacific Street's Halloween extravaganza is a six-day journey that includes Flashback Friday tonight, Erotic, Exotic & Psychedelic tomorrow, Decades of Decadance on Sunday, '70s Escape on Monday, Leisure Suit Tuesday, Tie-Dyed Wednesday and Psychedelic Explosion on Thursday. Of course, shameless Caged Heat dancers like Maverick [left] will be strutting their stuff all week long....

The BRB wants you to come down and experience "Horror On Brazos Street" at their pre-Halloween party tomorrow night and at their costume contest on Thursday. This Sunday, Lady Victoria Lust celebrates her birthday with a extra special benefit for the Colt 45's Stone Soup Fund. Special guests for the evening will be the one and only Right Sisters of Austin....

Imagine being surrounded by hundreds of good-looking men and suddenly, the lights go out. This fantasy can become a reality at the Midtowne Spa's "Dim All The Lights" flashlight party next Friday, Nov. 1. Midtowne also offers half-price rooms every Monday and Wednesday....

As predicted, thousands of people converged upon Montrose for the Fall Westheimer Street Festival. Between performances at Mary's Rooftop Revue, we snapped this photo of the newly-crowned Miss Central Texas World Roxanne Lee Love and the ever-popular Lee Chardon [above, l-r]. It was so much fun, we can hardly wait for the next one....

Starting tonight, The Ripcord transforms itself into "The Haunted Gay Bar On Fairview." This spooky spectacle culminates with a costume contest next Thursday at midnight. We don't think butch men in black leather are frightening, do you?...

Gentry promises to be your Halloween headquarters with costume contests on Saturday at midnight, Sunday at 10:30 p.m. and Thursday at 11 p.m. as well as a "Chills and Thrills" holiday show, hosted by Emperor XIII candidate Jerel McNeil, and a Gremlins & Goblins male strip contest this Sunday. Fall has descended upon us, but Gentry continues to sizzle with male strip contests every Wednesday and Bad Boy dancers all week long....

The Outrage "Disco de los Muertos" party tomorrow night at Rich's is definitely one of the most highly anticipated events of the Halloween season. Their costume contest features $500 in prizes. Party proceeds will benefit the PWA Coalition and the Pet Patrol....

Next Friday, Nov. 1, The Loving Arm-y presents a Casino Night benefit for the Loving Arms Foundation Day Care Center at the Crowne Plaza Hotel, 2222 West Loop South. Gaming begins at 8 p.m. The high roller of the evening will receive a grand prize trip for two to Las Vegas. For more info, call (713)849-5558.

SAN ANTONIO TEA — Hopefully, by the time you read this, Wild Club will have reopened and promises to be better than ever! Owner Jimmy Lee [right] took HOT TEA on a tour of the club and we assure you, it will definitely be worth the wait.

Make your plans to be at the Wild on Halloween night for their huge blowout featuring free well drinks all night long, huge cash prizes and a balloon drop. By the way, TWT needs to clarify an error in last week's magazine. The drink specials advertised for Woody's actually should have applied to Wild Club, which was not yet opened. We regret the error and any inconvenience it may have caused. Upstairs at ReBar, you are invited to experience San Antonio's hottest

The Saint is known far and wide as the home of some of the most beautiful female impersonators in Texas, but the men are equally as hot, as evidenced by our CRUISE CAMERA photo of sexy dancer Adrian and Atlanta mogul Lou Haskell [above, l-r]. Saint's Halloween line up includes the return of deejay Oscar Reyna and giveaways all night for VCRs and TV sets. Speaking of TVs, the club's show that night features Victoria West, Erica Andrews, Melissa Crawford and Layla LaRue. Coming up at the club: The Baton Showbar of Chicago presents a huge benefit for the Tandi Andrews Benevolent Fund on Tuesday, Nov. 12. Then, on Nov. 17 David Alvarado and New Generation Productions present Miss Tri-States....

Eagle Mountain Saloon's Halloween activities include an Oct. 31 carnival sponsored by The Firedancers and a costume contest at midnight. Add all of this to their weekly lineup of drink specials and you have a combination that can't be beat. It's no wonder that EMS is one of San Antonio's favorite nightspots, both with locals and those traveling Texas....

Make it a point to stop by Silver Dollar next Friday night and wish owner Joe Ganey a happy birthday. Joe's one of our favorite people and does an awful lot for the gay community of San Antonio. The club's happy hour from 2-9 p.m. daily is extremely popular as is their Trash Disco with deejay Ron every Sunday beginning at 4 p.m....

Be sure and be at the Pegasus this Sunday, Oct. 27. That's when Miss TGRA candidate Destiny Harper hosts the first annual Princess of the Pegasus, a benefit for the Bullfrog Benevolence Fund, beginning at 9 p.m. While you're there, ask about the changes that are planned for the bar in the coming weeks, including renovations to the back bar....

Joey [below] looks proud of Zebra's beautiful new mural, as well he should be.

San Antonio is indeed fortunate to have stores of the caliber of Zebra's and Encore Video serving the needs of our community. This is your last week to take advantage of their special discount of 25% off all magazines in stock. Next month that same special applies to all lubes — see store for details....

Dick Kader and the staff of the 2015 welcome the TGRA in a special benefit show on Thursday, Oct. 31. Make sure you're there to see this one on Halloween night....

El Jardin bartender Billy Walker wants everyone to come out and compete in three categories on Halloween in their annual contest. He'll be serving up the wickedest witches' brew in town. That will definitely put the spirit into your party.

AUSTINteaCIOUS — Flawlessness was the word of the evening as 5th Street Station hosted the Miss Austin World 1996 Pageant Oct. 15. Sharing the spotlight were [above, clockwise from back left] Miss Texas World at Large Jill Jordan, Miss Texas World Yolanda, first runner-up and Miss Travis County World Kelly Kline, this year's winner Jame Perry and second runner-up and Miss Central Texas World Roxanne Lee Love. We hope you're getting ready for the Karaoke Fiends of the Night party Oct. 31; so many prizes and contests, with proceeds from the tip bucket going to Christopher House. Karl Thomas was his usual flawless self in last Sunday's Showcase; this Sunday's special guest is Jordan Scott....

This Saturday, Oct. 26, is going to be a big day at Chain Drive, our favorite leatherman's library. It's the Black Hole Underwear Party, with doors opening at 4 p.m. and free flashlights and glow necklaces to the first 150 people after 8. There also will be another Full Moon Contest tomorrow night at 11, with prizes and surprises. We plan to check our clothes at the door and have a huge time! Dynamic Dave the manager also has big plans for the patio's facelift; go see how far they've gone at Sunday's cookout....

We meet so many fun-loving new faces at Charlie's that we just never can keep them all straight (so to speak). Meanwhile, we're looking forward to the huge homecoming party this Sunday night for Austin's own Lauren Taylor, the new Miss Gay America 1997, who won the title last week in North Carolina. We are so proud of you, girl! Pauletta Leigh and Sabrina Ross sparkled in last week's Showtime; and now the Queen returns! Charlie's also has big plans for its X-Files Halloween, with costume contests at midnight Thursday the 31st and again Friday the 1st — along with cash prizes! And there are dancers 10:30 p.m.–2 a.m. every Wednesday....

They're also celebrating Halloween in a big way up at 'Bout Time, beginning with the Monster Mash preview show at 10:30 p.m. this Saturday. The annual Haunted House creaks opens from 9 p.m.–midnight Monday, Oct. 28, and the fun continues the next three nights as well with all proceeds to Project Transitions....

The Friday Night Happy Hour male dancers and drag show at Blue Flamingo have become a huge success in a very short time. This place really lives up to its reputation for the best "live music and livelier people," as we found out when we went bonkers with [above, l-r] Ken, John, Jeremy, Deanna and Stan. Miss Laura is already making huge plans for her two-day Birthday Blowout Nov. 13-14. There's a spooky benefit show/party coming up Tuesday the 29th; check it out....

The hunks down at Rainbow Cattle Company are getting ready for Nashville country and western recording artist Jeff Miller's shows at 9 and 11 p.m. on Sunday, Nov. 3; no cover, y'all! Meanwhile, the fun continues with nearly nonstop happy hour specials, football and more on their big screen, Margie's Famous Steak Night from 7-9 p.m. Thursdays and the Chuck Wagon Buffet from 4-9 p.m. Sundays....

If you haven't met new Oilcan Harry's happy hour bartenders David and J.D., you're missing something special. We were sorry to see Kelly and Ed go, but these new bar gods helped ease the pain. Secretive Freeman is keeping the Halloween Party plans on the hush-hush, but you can bet the 31st will be a night to remember....

FOOT-LONG NOTEBOOK: General Manager Kevin Campbell [below, l] and owner Doug Foreman [r] threw a third anniversary party for their club Proteus that we'll never forget; way to go, guys, and many more!...We also had a grand time as Phobia (formerly Ohms) officially opened its doors with nonstop fun thanks to Miss Topaz and company....The Midtowne Spa Austin is holding a Flashlight Party at 9 p.m. this Sunday, Oct. 27, featuring the Demon Dancers. And there's a Halloween Party at 9 p.m. Friday, Nov. 1. There are also dancers Friday through Sunday starting at 9 p.m., and amateur contests with cash prizes at 9 p.m. every Monday. Now those are our kind of workouts!...The United Court of Austin threw an elegant little masked party called "A Big Piece of Love" last Sunday at Kansas, raising about $400 for the Christopher House Wings Project and Breast Cancer Research. The busy, busy Court has the Trudy and Topaz Show scheduled for Wednesday the 30th at 'Bout Time; for a fuller event rundown, call their hotline at (512)292-9495.

DALLAS TEA — Still don't have a costume? Then you might want to hurry in to Union Jack because Juicy's got her own designs on sale. Her sewing machine has been wheezing and smoking from all the extra use it's gotten to get costumes ready for the Halloween street party. Stop by and pick something out to wear. You'll be glad you did....

Caven Enterprises' TX/OU Street Party was a huge success again this year. Fans of both teams (and even some nonpartisan partiers) filled the streets for a night of pep and spirit [above]. This weekend, Caven's pulling out all the stops for Halloween Street Party '96. Once again, the street will be closed off for your roaming pleasure. Donna Day will be on hand to host the costume parade as well as a live performance by the popular "Naked Barbi." It's all happening tomorrow night, so do whatever it takes to get there....

Buddies II is celebrating their 12th anniversary tonight. Make sure you go by and congratulate Sandy and her staff. Tomorrow night you could be a winner in their Halloween costume contest, with random judging throughout the evening. Photography by Sundie Evans will be available for portraits to capture your costume. Check it all out starting tonight at Buddies II....

Halloween hauntings are happening this week at the Mortuary On Maple when the Ice Factory presents their bone chilling costume contest this Saturday, Oct. 26 with emcee China Blue as judging begins at 11:30 p.m. You can compete for over $500 in cash prizes in your choice of four frightening categories. Then dance the night away with extra-long after hours....

night event. Every week there are new guests performing and making appearances. You missed out if you didn't see Mr. Gay Dallas All-American Louis Bradford come down the stairs in drag. Talk about a show-stopper! Don't forget to cruise by this weekend and see your Moby favorites in their Halloween best and Wayne Smith coordinating costumed contestants competing for $500 in four categories on Saturday starting at 10 p.m. Sign up early at 8 p.m. Moby's Brett Hunter will be around, but look carefully — he might be disguised as his alter ego Dewanna Bea Star. As always, the balcony's a frightfully great place to catch all the action....

The Halloween festivities at Village Station won't end when this weekend is over. Your share of $600 in prizes is just waiting for you if you've got the best costume around on Thursday night. The preliminaries begin at 10:30 p.m. with a ghoulish midnight showdown between the winners of the contests at the other Caven bars. It'll be truly spooktacular. Speaking of great, check out Rich Rangnow, Chuck Edwards and Derrick Nix (above, l-r). They've already got their costumes ready to be the "Three Hunketeers."...

Throckmorton Mining Company is getting ready for a wild Halloween weekend and you won't want to miss a moment. Stop in and show off your costume while enjoying one of their many "witch's brews;" they've got 16 of 'em on tap. If you've seen Twister, you have an idea of what they have planned for you at TMC this week. The men at the Mine are going to really blow you away....

Hidden Door's Halloween costume contest, beginning at midnight tomorrow, features cash prizes in three categories. Tony and guys give you a great time all the time anyway; but this week should be extra special, with all those hunks running around in disguise. Who knows what you might find when things go bump in the night! Don't you dare miss it....

Always cheerful, always fun, always camera shy. Yes, those are good ways to describe Chili Pepper (left), one of the fine group of guys at the Round-Up. Love the mum, Chili! Don't forget to stop in this weekend and show off your Halloween spirit. Thanks to the time change, you can stay even longer than usual this Saturday night. Join the Round-Up for a great Halloween Costume Contest Thursday night at 10 p.m. with Michael Lee....

The Dallas Eagle gang will be partying hard this Saturday with their costume contest in full swing at midnight. Stop in and see what leather fantasy you might like to receive in your Halloween bag this year. The selection of tricks and treats should be quite scrumptious, from what we know about Matt and his friendly staff. Make Dallas Eagle your halloweekend destination....

JR's is gearing up for Halloween, as well. On Halloween night, Oct. 31 there'll be an invasion out-of-this-world "H31" costume contest at 10 p.m. The winner of that contest will then proceed to the grand finals at Village Station at midnight. If you win, it'll be something to sing about, which is just what Richard Taméz (right) would probably do. He recently serenaded the crowd at one of JR's famous Sunday Karaoke nights. Wanda's Wednesday Pool tournament has not only moved to 8:30 p.m., but the format is also changing. Wanda tells us that from now on "Anything Goes;" it'll add more variety to the weekly action....

Bamboleo's becomes BamBOOleo's this weekend with Halloween fun Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights. Come dressed to thrill all weekend long for three nights of mayhem. Enjoy the best Spanish disco on Sunday night, too. Then head back on Halloween night for an exciting costume contest with $500 in prizes to the winners in four different categories. It all starts at 11 p.m....

Crews Inn dancer Laron [right] recently showed off his "Hunky God" costume, receiving no complaints from anyone at the bar. Your chances to show off your best costume are coming up Saturday night and Halloween night.

Just wear the spookiest, kookiest, grooviest thing you can find and join hostess Deva Sanchez for a wild night of masquerade madness. The judging begins at midnight....

It's official. "The Club Formerly Known As..." is once again Starck and to celebrate, they're hosting their Masquerade Ball this Sunday, Oct. 27 beginning at 10 p.m. DeeJays Freeze and Mary XTC will be on hand along with hosts Ang and Licorice Girl, who encourage everyone to come in costume and their most flamboyant attire. There's no cover all night....

The Metro welcomes the 18 and over crowds to the club every night. This Saturday, Ray and the Metro crew present Nightmare on Elm Street II with lots of scary surprises pulsing all night long. Catch the hottest ticket in town during Monday Madness talent night with the incomparable Deva Sanchez and some incredible talent....

Alternatives of New Fine Arts always has more than a handful of great gay videos in stock, calendars, cards, gifts, clothing, the latest magazines and so much more.

In fact, they have Texas' largest selection of videos for sale and rental. Just ask manager Mark Lock [above] for your favorite title and he'll do his best to get you fixed up....

TEXAS TERROR-TELETYPE — Goodtime Lounge just North of Big D in Dennison has a Halloween party planned for Saturday, but you'll want to make your way back next Saturday for their annual Miss Texoma Trailer Park Trash Pageant and Texas-size hair contest starting at 8 p.m. Don't miss it....

David's in Waco will be the place for costumed contestants from around central Texas to congregate on Halloween night to try for cash prizes. The club opens at 8 p.m. and Mario will be spinning his haunting web of hit music at 9 p.m. Go see what the lucky pumpkins have in store for you.

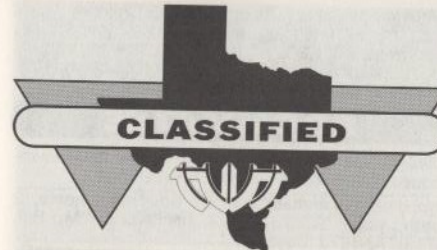

PAGEANT TEA — If there's any doubt in your mind that Texas is home to the nation's top female impersonators, take note of what occurred last Sunday night: superstars from the Lone Star State took top honors in two national pageants, both held Oct. 20. In Charlotte, North Carolina, gorgeous and talented Lauren Taylor of Austin won the twenty-fifth annual Miss Gay America title. First runner-up honors went to Laken Edwards of Dallas, while Kofi of Houston was named Miss Congeniality. We'll have lots of MGA pageant photos next week. In San Antonio, Stacey Holliday of Midland [below, c]

STATE CERTIFICATION POLICY

Texas law clearly requires that only bona fide, state-certified masseurs can be listed in this category. Therefore, TWT policy requires that all masseurs must publish their state-certification number within their advertisements and that a photocopy of their state masseur's license be on file at TWT.
