BY JIMMY SMITH

Now that Halloween is over and everyone has wiped all the liner from their eyes, we can head into the holiday season, when labels will undoubtedly flood the market with tons of albums, compilations and box sets in time for us to fill our stockings full of music in a couple of months. Only 46 shopping days left, so you'd better get busy! Keep an eye on FRESH BEATS for our annual "Give the Gift of Music" edition in a few weeks. We'll be giving you all the info on all sorts of musical morsels to help make your shopping a bit easier. But for now, let's get down to business, shall we?

It's all about that Toni Braxton this week. The girls over at LeFace have gone and cranked out lovely dance mixes of "Un-break My Heart." This one is, without a doubt, my absolute favorite track from the entire album, and to be quite honest I was a bit concerned when I heard about the mixes. I wasn't sure the song would flow right as a dance record. How I love to be wrong! When I tell you that Frankie Knuckles turned it out for these mixes, oooweeee! A work of art! Once again, Frankie carries on in his usual "Franktified," flawless way by giving the track a danceable mix while managing to leave the song intact. Throw in a little dash of house juice and a sprinkle of soulful, romantic keyboard action over a rather infectious-without-being-abrasive platter of bass, and there you have it — another Toni Braxton club smash! If "pretty" doesn't work for you, flip the record over and give a listen to the Soul Solution mix for a bit more of a progressive slant....

Another R&B track that's been given dance floor life with a smart remix is "Keep On Movin'" by Soul II Soul. Wow! This record really stirs it all up for me. The Booker T. Club Classic mix is definitely the one to go for, although the dubs are great as well. Grab a copy of this Virgin/UK release now!...

"Ready or Not, Here I Come"... "Gonna Find You"... Yeah, you all know the song by the Fugees. Well, here we go again with another cover of their material, this time from ZYX. Try out G-Groove's rendition of "Ready or Not," because it's truly the one. They give you a cute little ambient intro and take you off to a driving electronic tribal trip that's guaranteed to work your chemicals over. If you like those dark and sensuous records, try this one on for size....

I was checking out a music store last week and the clerk turned me on to a really cool track on Chicago Style Records, a smaller label distributed through Cajual, which is Dajae's label (so you know it has to be good). Anyway, find this "Standing Here All Alone" record by Michelle. A really slammin' track here, and it's one of those heavy hitters that command a good response across the board. The hi-house track is very busy, with lots going on around the vocals. There are several ambient bridges and clever builds throughout, which keeps things interesting; yet it's done in a way that keeps the record vocally-driven. This one should have everyone's hands in the air, definitely! ¡Si mijal...

Another record from an itty bitty label that really cooks is "Ain't" by Status 96, on School Yard Recordings. This one sounds like a cross between Rick Astley, Take That and Jamiroquai. I think what they did here was to take the a cappella from the original Status 4 release (which came out on Radar Records back in '83) and lay it over a new house track. But whatever they did, it sounds really wonderful. Check out those haunting vocal harmonies and (ouch!) the keyboard work, which is killer! If you have trouble finding "Ain't," you might try faxing the label at (212)629-0982....

Be on the lookout for the new Connie Harvey offering, coming soon from Eightball Records. "Make Sweet Music" is a finger-snappin', raise-your-hands-with-a-white-hankie gospel houser that gives us that good ol' Garage flavor we all love so. This motivating spiritual anthem should do quite well in the clubs. Next time one of "those" people gives it to you about club music twisting the minds of today's youth, you can throw on Connie and say, "There!, now what were you just saying?"...

Okay, here we go...make certain to get the following record. Don't even bother listening to it in the store; just grab it and take it home. Logic Records goes off again with their release of "Hot & Wet (Believe It)" by Tzant. It's already become a huge hit overseas in the UK, and Logic is prepped for the US assault. No kidding, this record is one of the hottest of the year! The intro is so incredible that you have to hear it from the beginning, and from there they give you the works. Thick production, cascading keyboards and vocals by Verna Francis come together for a package that's sure to climb to the top of the charts. If you like the AM:PM records, try the Tzant record; it's in that same over-the-top league. And if you're looking for a bargain, "Hot & Wet" is also featured on Logic's Killer Diva's Collection Vol. I. Gottahavitt!

'Accidental Activist' CANDACE GINGRICH

Talks About Bill and Newt, the HRC's Agenda and What Lies Ahead for the Gay Movement

Two years ago, Candace Gingrich was leading a quiet, comfortable life in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. Working as a data processor for the Pennsylvania Department of Education by day and loading parcels for UPS by night, the admittedly apolitical Gingrich spent her free time playing rugby and hanging out at the D-Gem, a local women's bar. In November 1992, when the Republicans swept both houses of Congress, and half-brother Newt became Speaker of the House of Representatives Candace had an awakening that changed her ordinary life forever. Angered by the increasingly intolerant tone of the Republican Party and outraged by her brother's anti-gay comments, Gingrich outed herself to an observant Associated Press reporter. She spoke candidly about her sexual orientation during the infamous Gingrich family Eye to Eye with Connie Chung interview, adding that Newt Gingrich was "probably more embarrassed that I'm a Democrat."

For liberals, it couldn't have been more perfect. The Speaker's sister was a lesbian. Along came the Human Rights Campaign, the country's largest gay political group, who recruited Gingrich as spokeswoman for its National Coming Out Day campaign. She embarked on a grueling 51-city tour, speaking out on gay rights and generating almost as much media interest as brother Newt. This led to her appearance as a minister on the lesbian wedding episode of the NBC series Friends. Gingrich, 30, has since authored her political memoir, The Accidental Activist (Scribner), written with The Advocate's Chris Bull, and has spent the bulk of 1996 working on a voter-mobilization project for the HRC, urging gays and lesbians to go to the polls. Today she resides in the Dupont Circle area of Washington, DC, plays rugby for the Washington Furies and has a new steady girlfriend, co-worker Kris Pratt. During a recent visit to Philadelphia, Candace spoke with journalist Mary Woodward about politics, gay rights and her famous sibling.

With the passage of the Defense of Marriage Act [DOMA] and the failure of the Senate to pass the Employment Non-Discrimination Act [ENDA], 1996 has been a disappointing year for gays and lesbians. How do you move forward from here?

I don't think the failure to pass the Employment Non-Discrimination Act is a failure. I actually think it's an accomplishment that we were able to get a pro-gay piece of legislation even voted on in this Congress. The Defense of Marriage Act has been a catalyst for a lot of people to understand the importance of being out there, whether it's coming out, or registering to vote for the first time or writing a letter to their member of Congress. By hearing that debate, the rhetoric and the demonization, instead of running back into the closets, people seem to be running out of them saying, "I'm not taking this anymore." It really underscores the importance of individuals and organizations working with the politicians who are running (and the people already there) about these issues and helping them along, changing their opinions or changing the names on the doors.

Many gays and lesbians feel betrayed by Clinton for signing DOMA. They feel he's taken them and their votes for granted. Do you support the President? Yes, I do. When I look at the past four years, I see a lot of ups and downs. When he was running in 1992, he was the first presidential candidate to welcome and want the gay community's support. We took that to heart. I thought that as soon as we got him elected, that would be it; everything would happen. I've felt disappointed. I do think he has a basic understanding of fairness and the discrimination that we face in the workplace. Gays in the military was a huge disappointment. There was no excuse for his decision to sign the Defense of Marriage Act. He stated that he knew why the issue was coming up at this time, [that] he thought it was scapegoating [gays]. He could have decided not to sign it or let it die on his desk. I also acknowledge that over the past four years, we've come further because of him and the work of his administration, by appointing openly gay people, endorsing ENDA, addressing our community and having a liaison. He acknowledged that we existed.

Do you think he will make up for DOMA and gays in the military?

I'm not sure anything can be made up. The marriage issue is one for the courts now. One way to make things better for the future would be for him to nominate Supreme Court justices who would rule on that issue fairly and nonbiased, and who would go by the Constitution...like they are supposed to.

Half the Senators in this country just failed to support a bill protecting gays and lesbians from discrimination in the workplace? Where is the gay rage?

It's not just the gay rage, it's the gay moms' and dads' rage, the gay friends' rage. A lot of gay and lesbian Americans don't think they can be fired for being gay. They don't know, because it hasn't happened to them. When it does happen, you can't challenge it. It doesn't get into the papers, so you don't read about it.

Many gays see more concerned with what to wear to the bar than fighting for their civil rights.

Right. Their lives are cozy and comfy. They don't see any real reason why there's a need for them to do anything. It happens all over, I hate to say.

The Christian Coalition is blowing the gay rights movement away at the grass-roots level, particularly by infiltrating schoolboards across the country with antigay agendas. How do you fight back?

Gays and lesbians need to be aware of this threat. Once again, it's a matter of people who are just not aware of what's going on. One reason (they are beating us at it) is, every Sunday they have a captive audience. They'll say, "We're having a Christian Coalition meeting today after services. We'll be talking about such and such." If they use enough inflammatory language, they have an instant group of people there. We don't have that instant access to hundreds of people at one time, so it takes extra legwork and people willing to do the extra legwork.

It seems the gay community needs stronger leadership.

Unfortunately, to this day, our community as a whole has not been able to agree on many things. Before there can be national leaders, there has to be agreement on what we should be doing.

What issues will be the prime focus of the Human Rights Campaign in 1997?

The week after the election [last Tuesday], the political department has a week-long retreat and will be going over our goal and plans. ENDA will be a goal and will see progress. Sen. Kennedy said it will be one of the first goals in the 105th Congress.

In private, Newt has always accepted your lifestyle. Why can't he do it publicly?

There are a couple possibilities. One, he actually believes the things that he says publicly and is hypocritical in his relation to me, or two, it's merely political posturing. He may view his embracing of me as political suicide and a way to scare off his ultra-conservative supporters. I don't have an answer.

Today politicians seem more concerned with pleasing their constituents than voting their conscience or convictions. They're supposed to be pleasing their constituents. It's not the constituents who are pulling the strings, it's religious political extremists and the Christian Coalition. If they listen to their constituents, then the 85 percent of Americans who oppose discrimination in the workplace would have been translated into people voting for ENDA. Extremists have a lot of power and control and use it to push their narrow agenda on politicians.

Newt has said to the press that he would not attend your wedding. Do you ever see him doing a "Barry Goldwater" and coming around on gay issues?

That's one of my hopes. I actually have in my possession a photograph of Barry Goldwater and my brother when Barry was campaigning for my brother during one of his first runs. Barry didn't have his enlightenment until after he was already out of office, and that may be the case here. There are very few people that I don't have any hope for. I still have hope for my brother.

In two years, Newt has gone from king of the Republican Party to not being allowed to address his own convention during prime time. Why has he fallen so fast, so quickly?

The people who voted in 1994 wanted change. I don't think the people were ready for the change that they got. It was far more radical and cunning than they expected or anticipated. The backlash has kind of fallen upon his shoulders. The people who were unhappy with what happened or frightened by what they [Republicans in Congress] tried to do have now turned their wrath on him, as the head and the bringer of all of that. He's kind of become the poster child for what didn't happen or what went wrong. Do you think he underestimated America's disdain for political extremism, both liberal and conservative?

That's one aspect of it. It's possible that in his head, as a strategist, he had a plan, knew what had to be done to carry the plan out and went ahead and did it and forgot that he was talking about people. There were humans involved and those humans were not going to appreciate what was going on in their lives.

Some critics have labeled you a political opportunist who rode Newt's coat-tails. Others feel that with your blue-collar background, you're way out of your league writing a political memoir. I think it's a duty for us to be political. The personal is political. Anyone who has an awakening and recognizes their power — whether it's as citizens to vote and participate or whether it's as someone who has an opportunity to speak out and does it — anyone has the right to author or write a political memoir. We should all be political and we should all have the right to do that. As for the first part, no shit. Life is full of opportunities; you take them or you don't. What I'm doing is seizing upon an opportunity that not many people have had the chance to even consider. I've been speaking out and talking about something that I care very deeply about and hopefully bringing people with me to that point where they realize that it's in their best interest to be active. Jeb Bush and [Texas Gov.] George W. Bush never get called political opportunists. It's always Democrats. [Laughs] I think it's a sign that people are paying attention. If you have critics, it must mean that someone is listening.

Do you have any future political aspirations?

Nothing that I've been actively planning or thinking about. What I've been doing and talking to people about has been working. Until sometime down the line somebody convinces me differently, that's what I'll keep doing. I would certainly not say, "No, never," because if you would have asked me a couple of years ago if I was going to be doing this, I would have said, "You're crazy."

I can see the headlines now: "Candace Gingrich Defeats Incumbent Rick Santorum" [Republican Senator from Pennsylvania].

That would be really fun! I actually joked about that to my girlfriend a couple weeks ago. I said, "Yeah, when's Santorum up?" My friends back in Harrisburg call him "The Weasel."

Do you support the outing of closeted gay members of Congress?

I don't support the outing of anyone. I have to admit that I do understand people's frustration and anger, but I don't think forcing someone to come out or telling somebody when it's time for them to come out is the way to do it. From my own experience, and from talking to people, I know it's a personal and private journey. You've got to take it yourself at your own pace. I don't think it's anyone's right to tell you when you should come out. If the person is the most vitriolic, hateful, active, mean person who is doing every single thing in their capacity to keep us down and second-class citizens, I might consider it.

How about someone like Rep. Jim Kolbe of Arizona, who was recently forced out of the closet due to his support of anti-gay legislation?

It's my hope and my belief that in time everyone — whether they're politicians, schoolteachers or bank tellers — will find out and realize how much better, how much more powerful and how much more productive it is to be out at their own pace.

Our home HIV test will save you a trip to the doctor. It could also save your life.

Introducing the new Home Access Express™ HIV-1 test system. It's fast, confidential and greater than 99.9% accurate.

The day has finally come when you can get tested for HIV in the comfort of your own home. Presenting the Home Access Express HIV-1 test system. It's totally anonymous, extremely easy—and every bit as reliable as the tests used by doctors and hospitals.

Here's how it works: You collect your own blood spot specimen (done by a simple finger stick). Then you send the sample to our lab using the express shipping envelope we provide. Your results are available within three days (excluding Sundays and holidays) and are easily retrieved by phone 24 hours a day, seven days a week. At that time, you'll have the option of personal counseling sessions, regardless of your test results.

What's more, you have our guarantee of absolute anonymity. No names are ever associated with test results, and results cannot be linked to purchase.

The Home Access Express HIV-1 test system is also surprisingly affordable. For just $49.95 (plus $5.00 shipping and handling), you receive everything you need, mailed in a plain brown container to ensure confidentiality.

No matter why you've hesitated getting tested (or retested) for HIV, it's time you learned about the home testing system that's clinically proven—and safe to use.

MARK FRAZIER

The thirteenth annual TGRA Rodeo calls Dallas home and so does this week's coverman, Mark Frazier. The word versatile certainly describes Mark, the object of many a leatherman's fancy. But there's much more to Mark than just his numerous titles, which include Mr. Gulf Coast Drummer 1991 and Mr. NLA International 1994. He currently serves as male co-chair of NLA International.

This 37 year old, born under the sign of Cancer in Russellville, Arkansas, is a current member of TGRA and served as past president of the Dallas Chapter. Mark is co-owner of the Dallas Eagle.

Last night's Rodeo activities kicked off with the '97 Royalty Contest and tonight's highlight is the appearance of the phenomenal Eddy Raven at 8pm in the Grand Ballroom of the Harvey Hotel. For a complete schedule of Rodeo events, turn to pages 6 and 7.

Theatre Three, Dallas' year-round, in-the-round professional theatre, opens a new production of Noel Coward's classic comedy Blithe Spirit, previewing this Saturday, Nov. 9 and running through Dec. 8. Blithe Spirit stars Sharon Bunn as the madcap spiritualist Madame Arcati, who manages to summon up the spirit of her client's first wife. Performances are Tuesday through Saturday evenings at 8:15 p.m., with Saturday and Sunday matinees at 2:30 p.m. Tickets ($17-$24) are available by calling the Theatre Three box office at (214)871-3300. Theatre Three is located at 2800 Routh St. in the Quadrangle.

Pleiades Productions Presents A Night of Music and Comedy with Jamie Anderson and Romanovsky & Phillips, who'll present their unique brands of comedy, music and — believe it or not — baton twirling. The performance is this Saturday, Nov. 9 at 8:30 p.m. at the Agape Metropolitan Community Church, 4615 S.E. California Parkway in Fort Worth (note new location). Proceeds from the concert will go to the "Raise the Roof!" Campaign, which will fund the building of a Gay and Lesbian Community Cultural Center in Fort Worth. Tickets ($18 in advance; $22 at door) are available in Fort Worth at Connections Bookstore, (817)923-2320; Agape MCC, (817)535-5002; and Cowgirls Oasis, (817)924-0224; and in Dallas at Crossroads Market, (214)521-8919.

The Capital City Men's Chorus and friends present Music for Life!, a special concert benefiting the Paul Kirby Fund at AIDS Services of Austin, at 7:30 p.m. this Sunday, Nov. 10, at the Cathedral Church of Saint Mary's, 10th and Brazos streets in Austin. The evening will include traditional chants, spirituals, arias and duets. A special reception will follow the concert at the Little City Coffee House, 916 Congress Ave. For more info, call (512)472-4540.

Money, greed and marriage are the keys in the comedy The Way of the World, the season-opening presentation of Different Stages which starts today (Nov. 8) and runs through Dec. 7 at The Acting Studio, 5811 Burnet Rd. in Austin. Shows are at 8 p.m. Thursdays-Saturdays (no show on Thanksgiving, Nov. 28), and a 2 p.m. matinee on Sunday, Dec. 1. Tickets are $11, with Thursdays pay-what-you-can. For reservations or more info, call (512)499-TIXS.

A Christmas Cactus runs Nov. 14-24 at Beverly Hall, 2600 Exposition Blvd. in Austin. Detective Kate "Cactus" Riley could use a miracle or two before midnight on Christmas Eve in this holiday play by Eliot Byrrum. Performances are at 8 p.m. Thursdays-Saturdays, with matinees at 2 p.m. Saturdays and Sundays. For reservations or more info, call (512)499-TIXS.

Theatre Suburbia in Houston is mounting its own production of A Christmas Cactus, with showings this evening (Nov. 8) through Dec. 7. Performances are Fridays and Saturdays at 8:30 p.m. and Sunday afternoons (Nov. 24 and Dec. 1 and 13) at 3 p.m. For reservations ($6-$8) or more info, call (713)682-3525.

[From the top] Scott Tesh, Mark Roberts and Jason Douglas bring The Compleat Works of Wilm Shakespeare (abridged) to Houston audiences Nov. 20-Jan. 11, 1997.

New Heights Theatre of Houston's second show of the season is the irreverent comedy The Compleat Works of Wilm Shakespeare (abridged), by Jess Borgeson, Adam Long and Daniel Singer. Othello becomes a rap number and Titus Andronicus a cooking show, while the histories are enacted as a football game. Previews are Nov. 14, 15 and 16 at 8 p.m., with the regular run opening Wednesday, Nov. 20 and regular shows Fridays and Saturdays at 8 p.m. and Sundays at 7 through Jan. 11, 1997. Preview tickets are $10, Friday and Saturday tickets are $15 and Sunday tickets $12. For reservations and more info, call (713)869-8927. New Heights is located at 339 W. 19th St.

NOVEMBER 8 - 14, 1996

HEDY LAMARR
BORN NOVEMBER 9, 1913

We have an event that doesn't come around very often — Heavy hitters Saturn, Uranus and Pluto all form a good aspect to one another. This means that our persevering hard work pays off in unexpected, transforming ways. It's payback time, kids, so grab your pawn stub and get out of hock now.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22) If you've been feeling like an old rat on a treadmill, thank Saturn, Pluto and Uranus for the planetary reprieve. Hard work pays off and queer Scorps can cash in their chips for a tidy sum. Don't be a shortsighted putz; invest in a happy home life in which you can feel warm, cozy and comfortable with who you are. Surround yourself with affirming folks and spare no expense at entertaining.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22) Proud Sags have pretty big mouths (which often accounts for their popularity in certain circles....). Now, with the fabulous aspect of Saturn, Pluto and Uranus, your words pack a punch like never before. Literally interpreted, if you've been noodling around with some after-hours project just for the fun of it, you may suddenly be caught like a deer in headlights, in the center of all the attention. Don't trip over the edge.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20) Dear, queer Caps, we've spoken about this before; you are undergoing a vast and cathartic internal transformation. Now, with the Saturn/Pluto/Uranus aspect, this personal journey will be a little less painful. You may find that all that you value is surprisingly valueless. This is an important step; reevaluate home, family and spiritual obstacles blocking you from true affirmation and ultimate happiness.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19) Aqueerians are in their element with the Saturn/Pluto/Uranus consortium. You have the urge to take up the rainbow banner and wave it for all to see. Now you won't be waving it alone, nor will your voice go unheard. Social outlets transform and strengthen any good gay cause and Saturn's influence gives your words a wise and studious feeling. Shout it from the rooftops, cousin. I know you will triumph.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - March 20) Hidden enemies may have temporarily succeeded in biting you on the butt, but now, with the Saturn/Pluto/Uranus aspect, you'll get the opportunity to bite back. Career tracks, which have recently appeared rather muddled, open up like a superhighway. Swim directly, pink Fish, and gather in the rewards while the energy is hot. You receive a beneficent hand from out of the blue. Why ask why?

ARIES (March 21 - April 20) Attention to personal appearance pays when Saturn, Pluto and Uranus aspect. Proud Rams have friends indeed, friends who provide a surprising entree into international society. On a low level, it may mean that a pal connects you to the Internet under an apt e-mail moniker, but don't waste this energy on small stuff. Set your personal agenda on go-go-go and send it out globally. That's the Rambo moxie I've come to expect!

TAURUS (April 21 - May 21) Hidden enemies may have been making mincemeat out of your best corporate efforts, but their power has peaked and passed. The Saturn/Pluto/Uranus aspect unleashes all gay Bulls in a china shop, charging, conquering and breaking through to success. Expect a psychological epiphany at this time; if you're closeted at work, prepare for an unexpected outing. I just love outings, and so should you.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21) Queer Twins may be balancing the needs of friends with those of partners. Sadly, even the most imaginative of Twins can't serve two masters at once, so Saturn, Pluto and Uranus are gonna make you queen for a day. Expect a royal opportunity to forge an international peace treaty between these two warring factions. If that doesn't do the trick, you can always escape to fabulous parts unknown for a bit.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23) Pink Crabs have worn their claws down to nubby stubs (and very few people like it that way...) trying to have their professional efforts recognized and rewarded. While you might have given up hope of grabbing the brass corporate ring, pout no longer; Saturn, Pluto and Uranus are about to ring you up. The clarion call will come in loud, proud and queer through the most unexpected sources.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23) Dramatic and proud Lions continue to expand their horizons and talents through artistic and creative enterprises. Saturn, Pluto and Uranus hand you a mandate; do what you love to do and it will find its proper, adoring audience. Who knows, even partnerships or other relationships could provide you with the spark of direction that pushes this puppy into the global gay community. Remember us when you become famous. Aw, you probably won't....

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23) Get thee to a gym, Virgin, and hone that queer bod. You need to be in the right place at the right time to cash in on the Saturn/Pluto/Uranus aspect. Attention to health and diet helps you attract that perfect older (or maybe just wiser) lover and transform your drab home into a love nest. If you're a lethargic diva, it may also be possible to meet your dreamboat at work. Ain't life wonderful?

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23) Sociable gay Libras find that their gleeful participation in a funfest may in fact lead to more powerful and far-reaching enterprises. Communication packs a punch when Saturn, Pluto and Uranus converge, so be warned. If you're still trolling for a perfect partner, you may find that creative outlets or artistic venues place a few delicious possibilities on your plate. It always pays to eat out, dear.

HOUTEX XVI THIS WEEKEND

HOUSTON — One of the largest gay and lesbian tennis tournaments in the country, HouTex XVI, is being held this weekend (Nov. 9–11) in Houston. More than 200 players from across the country are expected in town to compete for titles in 16 events, including singles, doubles and mixed doubles in five different ability divisions. The weekend kicks off with the draw party this evening (Nov. 8) at JR's Bar & Grill, 808 Pacific, from 7–11 p.m.

Many of the best players on the gay tennis circuit will be participating in the Houston tournament, including last year's Men's Open Singles champion Chris Walker of New Orleans. Memorial Park will host the top two men's divisions, with all other divisions played at Lee LeClear Tennis Center, 9506 S. Gessner, beginning Saturday morning at 8 a.m. Play continues Sunday, with finals on Monday in all events at Lee LeClear. The public is invited to attend.

HouTex XVI is sponsored by Miller Lite, Charles Armstrong Investments, Advance Damron Vacations, Home Loan Corporation, Naya Water, Whole Foods Market, Damron Guides, Bob Niel Glassworks and the City of Houston.

LONGHORN BOWLING

FORT WORTH — In the latest standings reported by Longhorn Bowling [11/4/96], Where Is Uranus? is in first place, followed by 4 Queens Beat A Straight in second and Betty and the Boops! in third.

For more info, call Evan at (817)294-3816.

AO TO ATTEND SCOTTISH GAMES

AUSTIN — Members of Adventuring Outdoors will be traveling to Salado today through Sunday [Nov. 8–10] for the 35th annual Scottish Games, put on by the Central Texas Area Museum. There will be all kinds of vendors, workshops, competitions, parades, exhibitions and, of course, men in kilts. Admission is $4 per day. For more info, call (512) 440-2037.

WOMEN'S FLAG FOOTBALL

HOUSTON — The Houston Women's Flag Football League, a nonprofit group dedicated to creating opportunities for women to play football, seeks players, coaches, referees, cheerleaders and league/team sponsors.

HWFFL play began on Oct. 5, and continues through Feb. 1, 1997. The league plays four games on Saturdays from 9 a.m.–1 p.m. at Wilson Elementary School, located on Fairview between Mandell and Yupon. On Sundays at 4 p.m., the league shows videotapes of games at Ms. B's, 9218 Buffalo Spdwy. For more info, call Tonya Medrano at (713)315-9368.

RAINBOW FISH FRY

HOUSTON — The Rainbow Fishing Club holds its first get-together/party at the 611 Hyde Park Pub, 611 Hyde Park, next Thursday, Nov. 14 from 7–9 p.m. Everyone is invited.

The following Saturday (Nov. 16), weather permitting, the club will go fishing out of Galveston on the 70-foot deep-sea cruiser Texsun II. To make reservations for that outing (or to get on the group's free mailing list), call John at (713)523-6381.

The Rainbow Fishing Club will then hold a fish fry at the 611 on Sunday, Nov. 24 starting at 2 p.m. Everyone is welcome to attend and sample the catch.

L.A.M.B.D.A. BOWLING

DALLAS — Daddy's Girls, Jello Shots and Dynamic Duos hold the top three spots in the latest L.A.M.B.D.A. Bowling standings [10/31/96].

For the men, Jim Savage bowled high scratch game of 256 and handicap game of 273, while Paul Hollis bowled high scratch series of 652 and Charles Urich bowled handicap series of 703.

For the women, Kelly Nolan bowled high scratch game of 213 and high scratch series of 570, while Kristina Stakes bowled handicap game of 250 and handicap series of 664.

For more info, call Keith McCall at (metro 817)267-9055.

CLINTON COASTS TO REELECTION WIN

But Gay Leaders Take Cautious Attitude After Incumbents Dominate Balloting.

TEXAS — The surprises went out of Election '96 shortly after polling places closed statewide Tuesday night. It took national networks like CNN and ABC less than three minutes to declare Republican Sen. Phil Gramm and the Republican presidential ticket of Bob Dole and Jack Kemp as winners in Texas balloting.

Barely an hour later, even without the support of Texas, President Bill Clinton and Vice President Al Gore were declared national winners of another four-year term. In fact, nationally Tuesday's elections were primarily a reinforcement of the status quo, with most incumbents winning and little change in the balance of power expected when close races for the U.S. Senate and House of Representatives were finally decided. The Republicans were projected to retain control of Congress, though with perhaps a narrower margin in the House.

In U.S. House races being watched closely, Reps. Sheila Jackson Lee (District 18) and Gene Green (District 29) of Houston appeared headed for easy reelection, as did Rep. Eddie Bernice Johnson (District 30) of Dallas. All three Democratic incumbents were forced to run in redrawn districts after the Supreme Court earlier this year struck down the original districts. Rep. Ken Bentsen, also a Democrat, ended up in a runoff for the hotly contested District 25 House seat. All four had been supported by the gay community.

Dianne Hardy-Garcia, Executive Director of the Lesbian/Gay Rights Lobby, was holding her breath somewhat and taking a wait-and-see approach to what the final breakdown in the state's House and Senate would be.

"I don't know what's going to happen in Texas," she told TWT NEWS. "The key races for us will be out in West Texas and East Texas; those are seats that used to be traditionally Democratic, and are becoming more and more Republican."

"I'm really pleased about the President. So much of our future depends on getting positive Supreme Court justices, and we know there will probably be some retirements in the next four years."

Glen Maxey, the only openly gay member of the Texas House, won a fourth term from Austin's District 51 in a landslide; he had nearly 72 percent of the vote against two rivals with nearly half the ballots counted, on a night in Travis County when the vote-tabulating process was maddeningly slow.

"I think I'm in sync with my district," Maxey said after his win became apparent. "We stress environment, public health, public safety....We're going to hit the ground running tomorrow; we've got probably a hundred pieces of legislation (to push)."

President Clinton won reelection on a night that saw incumbents dominate many other races.

Another Democrat, Margo Frasier, was narrowly ahead in the race for Travis County Sheriff against Alvin Shaw, hand-picked by outgoing Republican County Sheriff Terry Keel, who was winning the District 47 state Representative race. Frasier has been very active in and supportive of Austin's gay community.

Republicans seemed likely to all but sweep the state Supreme Court. Among the winners for Criminal Appeals Judge, Place 2, was Paul Womack, who had been endorsed by both the Log Cabin Republicans of Austin and the San Antonio Equal Rights Political Caucus.

SAERPC endorsed two Republicans, and both were winners Tuesday, group co-chair Dan Castor pointed out by phone from San Antonio. "That's important, because it says good candidates of either party can come to us for an endorsement and still win," Castor said.

SAERPC-backed winners included Ralph Lopez for Sheriff in a hotly contested battle and James Whitworth for state Senator, District 21. An SAERPC loser was Nettie Bratton for the State Board of Education, District 5; Bratton's Christian Coalition-backed Republican foe, Robert Offut, used as a scare tactic the fact that she had been endorsed by the gay group, a strategy that appeared to have worked.

BLACK TIE DINNER DRAWS RECORD SAN ANTONIO CROWD

Alamo City Men's Chorale, Others Honored for Human Rights, AIDS Fight.

SAN ANTONIO — A record crowd of well over 600 attended the 1996 San Antonio Black Tie Dinner last Saturday at the Marriott RiverCenter Hotel. This was the eighth annual gala benefiting the Human Rights Campaign and other participating organizations.

Col. Margarethe Cammermeyer, whose story was depicted in the film Serving in Silence after she was forced out of the military because of her sexual orientation and was then reinstated by a judge, was the evening's featured speaker. Special guests also included Maj. Debra Meeks, a San Antonian recently acquitted of sodomy and conduct unbecoming an officer charges in a court-martial trial that many thought represented continuing persecution against perceived gay service personnel.

"The Colonel's keynote was wonderful," said Dan Kaster, a past Black Tie Dinner co-chair who was among the estimated 649 people in attendance. "It was more personalized, more humorous and quite moving."

Event director Cynthia Cone echoed Kaster's sentiments, noting, "I'm sure the evening's highlight was Col. Cammermeyer; this being a military community, we had a very attentive audience. It was really good to see the mayor, Bill Thornton, among those in attendance; it was a first. There also were several other local politicians who came."

Part of the evening went to honoring citizens for their outstanding efforts in the human rights field and the battle against HIV/AIDS. The evening's honorees were the Alamo City Men's Chorale, which also performed; Bill Bearden, former Executive Director of the Alamo Area AIDS Resource Center; Dr. Bruce Jarstfer, former chairperson of the San Antonio Equal Rights Political Caucus; Michael Robert, Democratic Party activist and adviser to former Texas Gov. Ann Richards; Martha Prentiss, past chairperson of the Texas Lesbian Conference; and Mat Young, the first openly gay student body president at Trinity University. Robert's award was posthumous.

The event had corporate sponsors for the first time: the Gay Yellow Pages and Zazu's, a local restaurant.

The amount raised by the dinner will be announced in about 30 days, after everything is tabulated and bills are paid.

TEXAS STOPS ARE ON BLACK GAY AUTHOR'S BOOK TOUR

James Earl Hardy Will Sign Copies of '2nd Time Around.'

TEXAS — They are "B-boys." They come from a street culture that values toughness and attitude; some of them are gay or bisexual, though they may hesitate to identify as such; and they don't fit the stereotypical idea that white gays and even many blacks have of gay black men — that of the effeminate queen brought to the public consciousness by the drag performer RuPaul and others. They also have been invisible in gay fiction until recently, but an author responsible for giving black gay men — including those B-Boys — a voice that's not filtered through white perceptions makes book-signing stops in Texas next week.

When Alyson Publications put out James Earl Hardy's B-Boy Blues — the first gay novel grounded in the "Africentric" experience — two years ago, it sold well over 40,000 copies, a huge figure for a book from a small gay and lesbian press. Looking at the experience of gay black men through their own eyes, and refusing to ground its story in a white world, B-Boy Blues told the story of Mitchell Crawford, a journalist, who falls in love with Raheim Rivers, a bicycle messenger and B-boy — "a gangsta, a menace to and of society, a troublemaker," who's not as comfortable with his sexuality as Mitchell is.

B-Blue Boys was rejected by numerous publishers before Alyson accepted it. The book met with greater acceptance in the mainstream press than among gay critics (some of whom savaged it), and was virtually ignored in the black press. The recently released sequel, 2nd Time Around, follows the further adventures of the two (they get back together after a fight, the hunky Raheim becomes a fashion model and he and Mitchell begin ironing out their relationships with their fathers).

The 29-year-old Hardy, a graduate of St. John's University and the Journalism School of Columbia University (where he is a member of the faculty), is an award-winning entertainment feature writer, reporter and critic. His work has appeared in The Washington Post, OUT, Essence, Newsweek, Entertainment Weekly and Vibe. He is also the author of a biography of filmmaker Spike Lee and a portrait of the rap group Boyz II Men.

Hardy, who was born and raised in the Bedford-Stuyvesant section of Brooklyn, currently resides in Manhattan.

Hardy will appear and sign copies of his books in Houston on Monday, Nov. 11, at 7 p.m. at Crossroads Market, 1111 Westheimer, (713)942-0147, and on Tuesday, Nov. 12, at 6 p.m. at Nia Gallery and Book-sellers, 7725 W. Belfort, (713) 729-8400; in Austin on Wednesday, Nov. 13, at 7 p.m. at Book People, 603 N. Lamar, (512) 472-4288, ext. 404, and on Thursday, Nov.

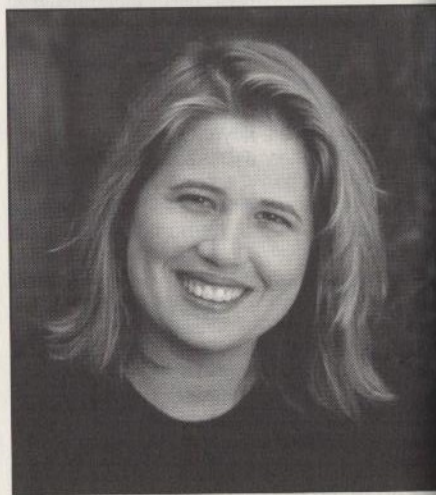

14, at 5:30 p.m. at Folktales, 1806 Nueces St., (512)472-5657; and in Dallas on Friday, Nov. 15, at 7 p.m. at Crossroads Market, 3930 Cedar Springs Rd., (214)521-8919, and Saturday, Nov. 16, from 5-7 p.m. at Black Images, 230 Wynnewood Village, (214) 943-0142. A reception will follow the Wynnewood Village appearance at Metro Bar, 2204 Elm St.

CHASTITY BONO VISITS HOUSTON NEXT FRIDAY

Writer/HRC Spokeswoman To Appear at LiB Meeting.

HOUSTON — Writer Chastity Bono, who earlier this year joined the Human Rights Campaign as a spokeswoman for the organization's National Coming Out Project, brings her message of openness and activism to Houston next Friday when she will appear at a meeting of Lesbians in Business, a local women's empowerment group.

Bono is the daughter of Cher and Sonny Bono, who at the time of her birth in 1969 performed as the pop duo Sonny and Cher. Chastity Bono was forced into the public spotlight in January 1990 when the HRC spokeswoman and writer Chastity Bono comes to Houston next Friday for an address to LiB and an appearance at Rascals nightclub.

Star, a supermarket tabloid, ran a story "outing" her as a lesbian. At the time, she denied being gay. For the next three years, Bono continued to be the subject of headlines in tabloids regarding her sexual orientation.

In 1993, her lover at the time became ill with cancer. Bono nursed her lover until the woman's death in 1994. Finally, after a series of off-the-record meetings with the national gay and lesbian newsmagazine The Advocate, Bono came out as a lesbian in its pages on April 18, 1995.

Bono started writing for The Advocate about a year ago, with a focus on the entertainment industry that includes reviews and interviews of actors and musicians. (A recent issue featured an interview by her with her mother.) One notable exception was a profile of Bono's father.

Cher, who is still a recording star, has also become an award-winning actress, while Sonny Bono was elected a Republican member of the House of Representatives from California several years ago.

Bono will appear at next Friday's (Nov. 15) meeting of LiB. A networking social at 6 p.m. will be followed by the meeting at 7, at 20 Greenway Plaza (Innova Bldg.). Cost to attend is $3 for members, $20 for non-members. Bono will also make an appearance as spokeswoman for the Human Rights Campaign at 8 p.m. at Rascals nightclub, 1318 Westheimer.

'COLOSSUS IV' PROMISES EVEN MORE FUN, ORGANIZERS SAY

Cheer Dallas New Year's Eve Event Benefits AIDS Charities.

DALLAS — For the fourth year of its Colossus party, Cheer Dallas is committed to hosting their biggest, best New Year's Eve event ever. Tickets are now on sale to the general public and they're selling at a steady pace.

Over 1,500 people attended last year's party and nearly 200 more people were turned away at the door, according to Ken Jorns, Cheer Dallas founder. To help solve the not-enough-space problem, this year's celebration will be held at the Dallas International Apparel Mart, allowing 2,500-3,000 people to attend. "We want to give everybody a chance to get a ticket," Jorns said.

Pulling off a task as large as Colossus IV isn't easy, but Cheer Dallas is well prepared. "We've been working on it for the last five months. It takes a lot to put on a great event," Jorns stated.

In addition to being one of the largest New Year's Eve celebrations in the metroplex, Colossus IV has one major difference: charity. Proceeds from the year-ending party will benefit the AIDS Crisis Fund of the Cathedral of Hope, IMMUNocise (a fitness program for HIV-positive people) and the Cheer Dallas AIDS Fund.

Over 75 hosts for Colossus IV have already committed, but it isn't too late to sign up. "To be a host, you need to sell a minimum of 12 tickets. This will get you into the host party on Dec. 30, a special host bag, a regular guest bag, valet parking and a special area at the event," Jorns said.

Persons willing to sell the share of tickets required to be a host are encouraged to call (972)445-5151. Jorns doesn't want people to feel like the hosts are getting all the benefits, either. Regular guests are promised a variety of incentives for the $65 price of a ticket, including four drinks and a champagne toast at midnight, free parking, food and one of the famous guest bags.

"Each guest bag will have a commemorative T-shirt, a CD from Priority Records, another T-shirt from one of the corporate sponsors, gift certificates, subscriptions and much, much more," Jorns said.

Colossus IV will also offer several different areas within the Apparel Mart to appeal to a variety of tastes in music and noise levels. There will be areas with high-energy dance music, others with soft music and even some secluded, quiet areas ideal for visiting with friends. Jorns also promises a "fabulous video and light show."

Last year's Colossus attracted people from 36 different states and six countries, but Jorns still sees the event as something for the Dallas area. "My vision, my dream, is for Colossus to be an event for our Dallas friends and families," Jorns added, "There's nothing else like it and we're all very proud. I still have people coming up to me telling me what an incredible time they had last year."

Tickets for Colossus IV are available outside Crossroads Market every Friday from 7-11 p.m., Saturday from 11 a.m.-4 p.m. and 7-11 p.m., and Sunday from 1-5 p.m. They can also be purchased inside Crossroads Market, at the Cathedral of Hope, IMMUNocise, or from any Cheer Dallas member or Colossus host. Credit Card orders can be made by calling (214) 922-9229.

AUSTINteaCIOUS — Is the Halloween-ieing finally over? We need a long nap.
Goblins and goodies and good and bad ghouls and so much more — now that's our kind of lifestyle. For an idea of how the Capital City parties, check out the Halloween pictures on page 28....

On the club scene, the AntiMen [above] were a big hit with the Blue Flamingo night crowd on a recent torrid Tuesday. Miss Laura is planning a Birthday Event to End All Birthday Events Nov. 13-15 at the kinky little club on the corner; one day just won't be big enough to hold all the things she has planned. Muscle boys, drag shows, blood-pumping rock, cakes, candles and so much more! The nighttime musical lineups will include Mineral and Trail of the Dead on Wednesday; Motards, Phantom Creeps, Chumps, Mike & the Molesters and more on Thursday (the Duchess' true b-day); and the Wannabees and Silver Scooter on Friday the 15th. Before then, there's Silver Scooter and Charlie's Angels tonight after the weekly drag and hunky happy hour show, and The Kiss Off and Houston's Junior Varsity on Saturday....

No doubt about it: They love Lauren Taylor [left], our new Miss Gay America 1997, at Charlie's — and she loves the family at her hometown bar right back. She was joined by Chevelle Brooks and Kelly

Kline for another flawless show last Sunday (those male dancers weren't too bad, either!), and this Sunday they'll celebrate the one-year anniversary of Showtime with Valerie Lohr (she was here at that very first show) and Mickey Norvell as Lauren's special guests. Every night at Charlie's is turning into wall-to-wall wildness, with Steak Night on Tuesdays, Hanky Panky Wednesdays, Nacha Type's show Thursdays and more dancers than you can handle heating up a cold near-winter's night. Get ready for another of Daddy Wayne's traditional Thanksgiving feasts at Charlie's coming soon; more details ahead....

They're celebrating the Boss's Birthday up at 'Bout Time, too. Lady Pam is inviting all Scorpios to help her celebrate on Saturday the 16th (her true day is the 18th, but who cares!), and there'll be a show with all the usual suspects, treats and more. Her employees have some wicked fun planned, and say she can't fire them all — though Pam swears she can too. The fab BT family raised a record amount for Project Transitions with its Halloween Haunted House and partying; congratulations! The volleyball leagues' banquet is at 7 p.m. Wednesday the 13th. And the Monthly Blackjack Tournament finals start at 6 p.m. this Sunday, Nov. 10....

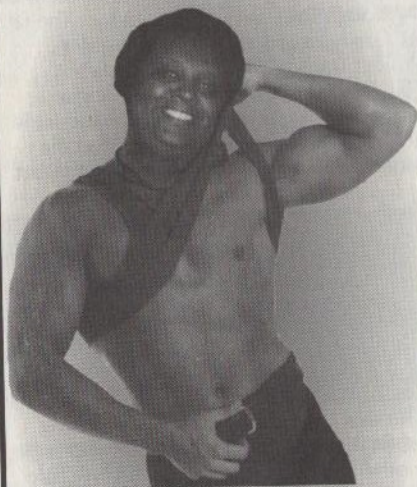

Robert, Alan, Billy and David [above, l-r] finally agreed to smile for the birdie on another crowded night at Rainbow Cattle Company. We were awed last Sunday by the musical talents of Jeff Miller, a gay Nashville recording artist who put on two fantastic shows for appreciative crowds. Come back soon, dude! The Rainbow is planning a special Thanksgiving dinner for its patrons; stay tuned. And coming in December is male oil wrestling (can we be in the celebrity division?)....

There's no cookout this week at Chain Drive, but TGRA did an awesome job last weekend making hamburgers fit for a queen. If your group would like to raise some money and make people smile by hosting a monthly cookout from 4-9 p.m. on a Sunday, contact Dave the manager. Mark your calendar now for the Holiday Pork Roast Nov. 24 to benefit ASA's Food Bank. And show up Monday the 11th to celebrate Veterans Day the right way with the Chain Gang — and also to wish Bryce yet another happy birthday that evening....

Over at Oilcan Harry's things were hopping as always. We're still recovering from "The Attack of the 50-Foot..." but that won't stop us from playing post office come Wednesday night. Check out the male dancers' moves Thursdays-Sundays — or show some of your own on the always-happening dance floor. Coming Saturday, Nov. 16, will be giveaways from Flip-It Records and special guest Miami deejay Tony Garcia....

Birthday boy Carlotta [above] got a cake and a kiss from Robert at 5th Street Station, the family hangout where you can really feel the love. Miss Cynthia is channeling all the hits every night, and the schedule is full of surprises. Last Sunday, Scarlett Leigh was special guest for the Showcase, which features Heather Thomas (you're ready for a career in standup comedy, girl!), Jame Perry and Kristin Lucci; this Sunday, DeDee "Dolly Parton" Davis will add her big talents to the show. The TGRA is planning a special benefit for 9-11 p.m. Wednesday the 13th; be there. And see if you can come up with a record that those evil deejays up in the booth don't have; we bet you can't!...

FOOT-LONG NOTES: The Forum and its sister The Cuff are now aiming to open next Friday, Nov. 15; check a few days early to see if they're doing dry runs.... We're having too much fun at Midtowne Spa, ma!...Back to the parties!

DALLAS TEA — Halloween has come and gone, but memories remain of the ghouls, goblins, ghosts and thousands of drag queens who invaded the area bars and businesses, which are probably still recovering from the terrific business they did for the spookiest holiday of all. The street party brought in huge crowds (20,000 by police estimates) and every club in town was packed to capacity. If you went out at all that week (or even if you didn't), check out all the frightful sights that were Halloween '96 on page 29. You're in for a treat....

Get a rope...it's rodeo time! The Texas Gay Rodeo Association Rodeo is happening this weekend and, of course, the Round-Up has wrangled up some great things to do after the rodeo. Hang out or dance with all the hunky participants and fans who'll be flocking to the club when doors open each night at 8 p.m. Bring your mate, bring your boss or even bring your brother — Frank Trevino [above, l] brought his, John, [r] for a recent night of the best in country music and country men. Let's Rodeo!...

After waiting anxiously, the newest craze to hit Moby Dick has arrived! That's right, Video Karaoke is now a reality every Sunday night at 10 p.m. It's all happening after Ida Poppter's Gay Singled Out at 7 p.m. Grab someone special, like Michael Davis and Keith [above, l-r] did recently, and make a night of it. Only at Moby Dick every Sunday night....

If you haven't been to the Hidden Door lately, well, shame on you. Of course, judging by the nightly crowds, it seems that everyone in town has been going. Perhaps it's because of the great atmosphere or the great drink prices. But if the truth be told, it's probably due to the fantastic staff members like Harvey and Bob [above, l-r]. Stop by and say hello....

It may be hard to believe, but the smorgasbord of hot male dancers at Zippers has gotten even hotter. There's nothing better after a long, hard day at work than sitting back with your hands on a frosty beverage and your eyes on a heavenly body. Who knows, you might even wind up adding a few seconds to your "15 minutes of fame" like Kent and Levi [above, l-r]. Anything's possible at Zippers....

What's got more celebrities than a Love Boat reunion movie, more perfume than the Charlie factory, and the Queen of all queens? If you guessed the star-studded salute to Dallas' dazzling diva Donna Day, then you guessed correctly! That's right, the fabulous Donna Day is celebrating over 25 years in the art of illusion on Tuesday, Nov. 19 at Village Station. Everybody who's anybody will be there. Chuck and Lee [above, l-r] are sure to be, so clear your calendars. Oh, and don't forget to stop by this weekend and wish Bradley Robertson and William Riddley a happy birthday....

JR's has what it takes to make any visit an event. There's Martini Madness on Mondays, Cruising the Crossroads on Friday and Saturday and Sunday night insanity with Wanda's "Anything Goes" Show, and the list goes on and on. Add head bartender Buttons' birthday to the list and you've got your calendar filled in for the week. Hurry in....

Throckmorton Mining Company is ready for action with Rodeo Daze this weekend. TMC's a great place to hang your hat, kick off your boots and sit a spell after the rodeo. Don't forget the Sunday night pool tournament, either. Y'all come, now....

"Bad boys, bad boys. What'cha gonna' do?" It's hard not to sing the theme to COPS when you see Dallas' finest out patrolling our community on their new, community-sponsored, back-the-blue bikes. Officers Lucy Barnett and Lynn Albright [above, l-r] are just two members of the recently instated bike patrol in the Oak Lawn/Cedar Springs area. They're a great asset to the community and are doing a great job making things safe so we can all concentrate on having fun and enjoying life. Keep up the great work!...

Ice Factory is known as "the cool place to dance," but Clint and Lee [above, l-r] took off their shirts and tried their best to heat things up. Funny thing, it worked! Naturally, Ice Factory always attracts more than its fair share of hot men who feel driven to go topless for the benefit of the crowds on the dance floor. Drop by soon and see for yourself. The club's Amateur Talent Contest is now on Thursday at 11 p.m. with $100 cash going to the winner....

Alternatives of New Fine Arts has what you're looking for in adult entertainment. Of course, they've got all your favorite magazines and videos, but they also have a wide variety of fantasy T-shirts and other items you may not have expected. Pop in and browse for a while....

Sue Ellen's is giving away tickets to one of the concert events of the fall. Stop by on Thursday, Nov. 14 for your chance to win a pair of tickets to the Melissa Etheridge concert on Saturday the 16th. Next to carrying her baby, it's the only sure way you'll get to see this fabulous performer. Speaking of fabulous, HOT TEA would like to wish all the best to Irene Zamora and Susie Martinez, who were caught by the CRUISE CAMERA celebrating their anniversary at Sue Ellen's....

Fashion 2000: A Major Happening for the Millennium will be held this Saturday, Nov. 9 at the newly-reopened Starck MCMXCVI and will benefit DIFFA [Design Industries Foundation Fighting AIDS]. With influences ranging from grand opera to Broadway, the Golden Era of film to MTV, and haute couture to the street, Fashion 2000 features the cutting edge in today's and tomorrow's fashions. The festivities begin at 7:30 with a cocktail reception sponsored by ABSOLUT Vodka until 9 p.m. DeeJay Tony Aco will spin music during the live performance.

HOUSTON TEA — One of the best Halloween costumes we saw was Pacific Street's very own Witchiepoo [right]. Would you believe that this is actually hunky Leather Loft bartender Matthew Remington? We were impressed. All this weekend, Pacific Street celebrates its fifth anniversary with three days full of fun and surprises. The festivities will climax on Sunday with a traditional toast at midnight. As always, shameless Caged Heat dancers will heat you up and cheap drinks will cool you off. See you there....

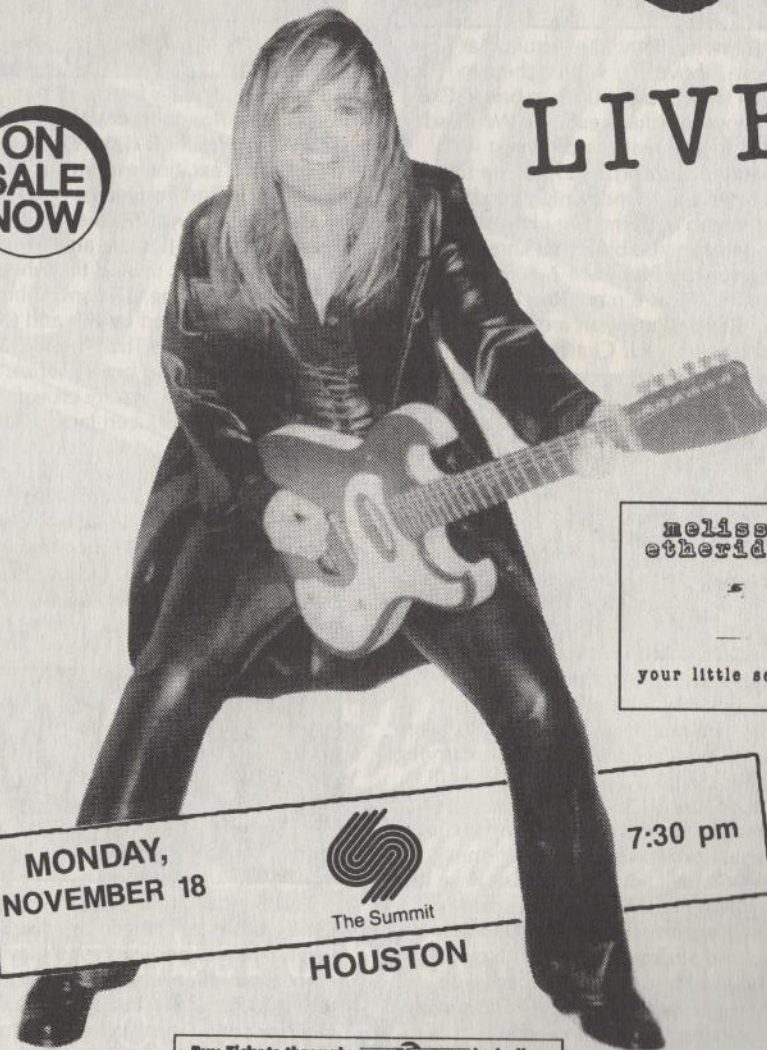

Are you ready to get wet, wicked and wild? The Midtowne Spa now presents Shower Dancin' every Wednesday at 10 p.m. and every Friday at 11 p.m. with a Wet Shorts Contest on Wednesday. They also offer half-price rooms every Monday and Wednesday from noon-midnight....

They've seen Paris and they've seen France. They want to see your underpants. Tomorrow night, Rascals is having their first Underwear Party. We're sure that Ron and Steve [above, l-r] will be there to scope all the beautiful boys in briefs. Don't forget about the club's exciting Wednesday night Lil' Rascal male strip contest with over $400 in cash prizes to the top five competitors and Monday night football on the big screen upstairs. The club is also reviving that incredible event known as Tea Dance every Sunday from 2-6 p.m. Next Friday, Nov. 15 at 8 p.m., Rascals and the Human Rights Campaign are hosting a special reception for Chastity Bono....

We couldn't resist printing one more Halloween photo of the outrageous Randall Jobe [above, r]. This one was taken backstage at Heaven while he was carrying on with irresistible male dancer Niko [l]. The Super Sunday Show at Heaven continues to present the finest in female impersonation. The special guest lineup includes Shady Lady and Vanessa Raye this Sunday, Nov. 10, Maya Douglas and Tommie Ross on Nov. 17 and Denise Mykels and Stacey Holliday on Nov. 24. New on Wednesdays is The Edge, with superstar deejay Michael DeGrace serving you music from the cutting edge....

JR's has now added two new events to its exciting weekly entertainment lineup. On Wednesdays, Kofi emcees the Joe Boxer Shorts Contest at 11 p.m. While sexy young men strut their stuff, you can register to win your very own pair of Joe Boxer shorts. In addition to Sundays and Thursdays, Marsha Carlton [below, second from l] now hosts another evening of Show Tunes every Fridays from 6-9 p.m. Karaoke regulars Marlon Johnson, Jerry DeWeese and Wade Hescht [l-r] want you to join them for an exciting evening of sing-along fun. It's the rage from coast to coast....

On Sunday, Oct. 27, the giveaway of the year was held at JR's Bar and Grill, putting one lucky winner behind the wheel of a 1997 Ford Mustang GT convertible. The giveaway, sponsored by JR's and Central Ford and benefiting The Houston Black Tie Dinner and its 1996 beneficiaries, was held in front of a capacity crowd. Emcee Randall Jobe introduced Jack Jackson, who drew the winning ticket. Jackson was the recipient of The Houston Black Tie Dinner's 1995 Humanitarian Award. Also present for the drawing were volunteer chairpersons for the event, Amanda Barhorst and Jason Davis. Judy Hart of Rhode Island held lucky ticket number 2340, which was drawn as the grand prize winner of the new car....

Last Sunday at the BRB, "We Need A Little Christmas," hosted by Miss BRB Day-Leigh Edwards and everyone's favorite emcee Jody Blankenbaker [above, l-r] raised $392 for the Lady Victoria Lust PWA Holiday Fund. This weekend, come on down to the Brazos and boot scoot the night away to your favorite country western tunes. Every Sunday, the BRB serves steak, baked potato, salad and all the trimmings from 5-9 p.m....

During a recent Imperial Court benefit at Gentry, we focused in on Empress XI and Soiree Aubergine co-director Crystal Rae Lee Love and Imperial Princess Royale XII Vanna White Lee Love [above, l-r]. This Sunday, Empress XIII candidate Anita Mann presents "Fall Into Action" benefiting Soiree Aubergine at 9 p.m. Speaking of fall, the weather may be chilly but Gentry continues to sizzle with male strip contests on Sunday and Wednesday and Bad Boy dancers all week long....

Tomorrow night at Rich's, The Four Seasons presents its Military Ball and Stars & Stripes USO Revue. Proceeds from this red, white and blue extravaganza will benefit Milam House. Next Friday, Nov. 15, Rich's hosts The Pre-Snow Ball, a send-off to South Beach with circuit master deejay Abel. Every Sunday, the downtown hotspot presents Klub Kamp, a comedy revue that you don't want to miss...

To help raise funds for operating expenses, The Lady Victoria Lust PWA Holiday Fund has organized a series of guest bartending events. Last Sunday, Don Gill and John Szewczyk [above, l-r] kicked off this fund-raising with a shift at the Venture-N. Upcoming dates include Sunday, Nov. 17 at Mary's with Daddy of Montrose Ken Claude; Friday, Nov. 22 at the BRB and Friday, Dec. 6 at The Ripcord with Mr. Gulf Coast Drummer Don Woods.

SAN ANTONIO TEA — The clubs of SA pulled out all the stops, making this year's Halloween celebrations the biggest in Alamo City history. The costumes were fantastic and the crowds were huge all over town. For lots of photo coverage, turn to page 31....

Gorgeous Saint employees, assistant manager Juan and bartender/dancer Mark [above, l-r], were photographed in the midst of asking manager Steve Alejandro about having a "Hooter's Night" at the club when HOT TEA zoomed in. New for Mondays is Video Drag-a Rama, an entirely new concept in shows, starring Layla LaRue, Selene Crawford and guests. You're guaranteed a great time and there's even a chance to win cash prizes. Don't even think about missing the huge benefit for the Tandi Andrews Benevolence Fund next Tuesday, Nov. 12. That's when the cast of the famed Baton Show Lounge of Chicago converge on San Antonio for one of the biggest and most highly anticipated shows of the year, starring the top names in female impersonation in the show of all shows. There is limited seating available, so call early. Special thanks to Jim Flint of the Windy City for making this once-in-a-lifetime extravaganza possible....

Pegasus customers Ruben, Kayla, Ariel, Ruben H., Gilbert and friend are shown [above] anxiously awaiting the arrival of HRC Black Tie Dinner honoree Bill "Bullfrog" Bearden while enjoying cocktails in the club's annex bar. Pegasus has hot male dancers seven nights a week and there's never a cover — so check it out....

Woody's bartenders Troy and Darrin [above, l-r] invite you out to the club for dart league action every Tuesday and pool tournaments on Wednesdays and Sundays — plus drink specials all day and all night. Watch HOT TEA for details on their upcoming Anniversary party at Woody's and ReBar — we'll tell you more next week. In the meantime, drop by and wish a happy birthday to everyone's favorite Polish Princess, Greg Ciuk, who's celebrating this week....

At Wild Club, manager Rene and patron Monica [above, l-r] are excited because of the club's Trash Disco every Thursday with discounted drink prices and Latino night on Sundays. Both fun evenings feature deejay Rose on the wheels of steel, spinning for your enjoyment. And watch for the reopening of Wild's fantastic patio, a great place to party....

Encore and Zebra'z offer 25 % off regular prices of Lubricants during the month of November, so slide on over and stock up for those cold winter nights. While your there, check out their wide variety of merchandise and huge video selection. Early holiday shopping has never been easier....

Never ones to rest on their past successes, the fun folks at Eagle Mountain Saloon are constantly making changes and updating their beautiful location, making sure it remains "your party headquarters for friends, fun and great drink prices." Manager Roy Pope and owner John Downum [below, l-r] encourage you to come by and check out the improvements and additions which have already been made. By the way, did you know that the club is available for private functions, including birthdays, anniversaries, weddings, etc? Contact Roy for additional information — he can make your next affair one to remember.

TWT POLICY

Because prostitution is illegal in Texas, state law prohibits the placement in this category of any such ads. Therefore, TWT policy stipulates that we will not and cannot knowingly accept any advertisements suggesting solicitation. It's the law. Also, state law prohibits nonlicensed massage therapists from using terms such as "massage," "Swedish," "acupressure," "Shiatsu," "reflexology," "body rub," "back rub," "body massage" or any term which indicates bodily contact.

Jerry L. McCall Jr.

9-10-61 - 11-12-88

Son,

It's been nine years since AIDS took you from us. It seems like only yesterday we were all together: You, mommy and I running around Westheimer/Montrose over to your apartment on Hawthorne. What wonderful times we three had together. On your birthday, September 10, 1996, you received a birthday card in the mail. It was from Randy, and on the card was a poem to you. Here is your poem.

Of Jerry, Nine Years Past

Softly weeping
I wake
From a dream
—A beautiful dream—
Of feelings stored
Of dormant emotion:
Fleeting,
I am with you
Close
And Radiant,
Embracing you,
But fleetingly.
I pray to forever
Wake from dreams
—Beautiful dreams—
Softly weeping.

Randy

Until next year, my beloved son.
We love you and miss you.
