BY MARK DEATON

Well, you've finally decided that Don Ho, Gilligan and the highest-rated of all the Brady Bunch episodes must know something that the inborn gay gene isn't telling you. You're ignoring the inbred calls of South Beach, Key West, Provincetown and even Mykonos, and have decided that America's Polynesian Paradise is where you're going to warm your cold Texas bones this winter. Break out the paper drink umbrellas, plastic flower leis and silly grass skirts; you're going to winter in the hotbed of the gay and lesbian marriage rights fight, you've just booked an all-expense-paid vacation to Hawaii! Actually, you're really in for a good time, but please read on so you'll know that ordering poi for pupus is not what you want and why that roast pig looks much better in the luau brochure that it will on your paper plate.

First things first. The name of the beach where all the homosexuals tend to hang out really is "Queen's Beach." The full name is Queen Kapiolani's Surfing Beach, but the locals prefer their own spin. This is a great meeting space and intro to the worldwide drawing power of Hawaii. Convenient snack bars and restrooms are close by. Hunky and hunk-ette pro volleyballers are 100 feet away. People from Australia to Austria can be met on this beach, and with a small request like "Would you smear this on my back(side)...?" you've just become an international ambassador.

Gay-Vacationing in That Paradise

Hawaii

Since most beach holidays start at the beach, choosing the appropriate accommodations is crucial. Not too close to the beach — you must be able to make a grand entrance — but not so far away that you need a cab to manage it. The Sheraton Moana Surfrider is it, a hotel so deluxe that the lobby market is a Hermès boutique. Now for those of us living in the real world, anything with the word "Outrigger" in front of it will suffice. This is a chain of hotels so prevalent that it makes Kroger look like a mom-and-pop operation. Finally, you're so gay that what you really want is economy with charm, cleanliness and a condom on the pillow. Try the Hotel Honolulu; it's the only gay/lesbian-owned hotel on Oahu (chief of the Hawaiian islands). Each room has its own theme (Norma Jean, Bette Davis, the Bamboo Room) plus a continuing journal every guest can add to. With this kind of reading, you might not need the bars after all.

So now the sun's going down and you've just begun to notice that paradise seems to have a large population of Japanese gangs that use fashion as a weapon. One more Versace shirt paired with blue-and-orange polka-dot shorts and you'll be knocked unconscious. Time for Happy Hour. The most infamous of all Honolulu nightspots is Hula's Bar and Lei Stand. Built around a ficus tree 100 feet tall, Hula's is the central meeting point before and after dinner or late at night. When Hamburger Mary's closed two years ago, Hula's just swallowed it whole and expanded. Hula's is a great place to meet the locals, be they islanders, West Coast transplants or military boys just off the boat. The locals love Hula's because the endless parade of tourists is like a buffet line that changes nightly ("Look, Joe, that New Zealand Kiwi is fresh...").

A couple other bars deserve mention. Michelangelo's and Windows, both in Eaton Square, are quieter and sometimes have an older clientele. Punani's (they want you to snicker at the name) is where you can watch a boy do the hula without having to suffer while Harold and Madge tell you about their 25th anniversary. After the dancing stops at Hula's and elsewhere at 2 a.m., remember that they're still going hard at Fusion till 4 a.m., full bar and everything. The humpy strip show there ain't bad, and if you make it to 4 a.m. you can call your friends back in Texas just as they're off to work and remind them that you're in Hawaii and they aren't.

Back out in the sun, you've rented a car to go check out the other beaches. Diamond Head is where everyone supposedly cavorts in the buff; well, naturalists, catch a plane to another island because the wildlife here is limited mostly to pretty birds and a mongoose or two (and there are no snakes in Hawaii because of those Riki-Tiki-Tavi's). Drive on to Hanauma Bay, the best easy snorkeling in the world. Gear rental is on-site and two feet into the water, you've got fish everywhere. Now for watching surfing, or the surfer boys, check out

Sunset Beach to the north. Cocky young daredevils strut around on the sands, ride monster waves and occasionally need mouth-to-mouth from the lifeguard of one's dreams.

There are a lot of different sides to Hawaii and if you want the true Polynesia, a trip to an outer island is the only way to go. The Big Island is beautiful and even has several gay resorts, including Kalani Honua, right on black sand beaches that don't remind you of an oil accident in the Houston Ship Channel. Hana Plantation Houses on Maui offer swimming in secluded waterfalls along the road to MT Haleakala, the house of the setting sun. Kinda romantic, huh? I prefer the island of Kauai, where Jurassic Park was filmed and you can bump into Charo and Bette Midler at the supermarket. The beaches there are all your own, hospitality is gracious and gays run the best guesthouses on the island. World-class restaurants are located in strip malls along the road and time is but a nuisance to everyone.

When it's time to go home, thank God and your travel agent that American, along with Delta, offers a nonstop from Hawaii to Dallas, and Houston is only 45 minutes farther. Remember, no matter how cute that hula shirt looked on you last night while you were getting lei'd at the bar, your friends back here in Texas are going to be merciless the first time you pull it out to wear. For souvenirs, stick to the pineapples and your golden tan. Show them the pictures of you bathing in the waterfalls off a dormant volcano. They will be politely jealous and you will know that traveling well is the best revenge.

What's Out of Interest to Gays and Lesbians

Betcha celebrities never have a problem with their holiday gift shopping...But we're always in a tizzy this time of year, trying to remember who likes what and who got what last time around — not to mention updating our lists on who are coupled and who are single. More on the pains and perks in an upcoming feature on last-minute gift ideas.

For now, we're eternally thankful to those fine folks at Our Tribe Marketing for their newest Cardpack; the Fall/Holiday Edition is a smorgasbord of ideas from advertisers ranging from the 1997 AIDS Benefit Calendar to Titan Media to Naked Magazine to Pride Labels to Bound & Gagged magazine to the travel newsletter Out & About to OASIS: Retreat for HIV Caregivers to...and the list just goes on and on. Our Tribe Cardpack publisher Charlie Conard has a real winner on his hands; you can get a free subscription through their website at www.ourtribe.com. Or call (212)462-0036 for more info — and tell 'em TWT sent ya!...

Provocateur magazine is part of the Fall/Holiday Cardpack, and it made some news of its own recently as Tom Hencz was promoted to publisher of the unconventional year-old publication, which focuses on the "art and culture of men and masculinity." His predecessor, Robert

BY BRUCE WILLIAMS

Madde, moves on to spearhead European marketing efforts in the London office of Alluvial Entertainment, Inc., parent company of the bimonthly Provocateur...

Elsewhere in the ever-expanding gay media world, one of cyberspace's newest landing pads is "Tinseltown's Queer Web Site," a multimedia Internet locale which includes political commentary, a celebrity photo gallery, free HIV-testing information (in Los Angeles) and the site's newest addition, glitzy video clips featuring glamorous settings such as the Playboy Mansion, Universal Studios, celebrities and more. Gay entertainment activist Nicholas Snow plays a large role in the endeavor, an offshoot of his 3½-year-old Tinseltown's Queer! cable television show. Join in the fun at www.gaywired.com/townqueer. You can also check out Hangin' OUT, Snow's interactive talk show for gay men, lesbians, bisexuals and transgendereds, at www.hanginout.com...

For those old-fashioned folks who still aren't regularly on-line, there's the old standby of videos to brighten an evening. Interesting new temptations are I Like You...I Like You Very Much and Beautiful Mystery, billed as the first-ever male erotic films from Japan. They've been put out by Water Bearer Films, Inc., of New York, as is Cruising Men, touted as England's best-selling gay video of all time. A special package of all three videos is $99.95, a savings of about $20; for more info, call (800)551-8304....

On the printed-word front, Austin author Marion Winik won a Violet Crown Award at the recent Texas Book Festival for First Comes Love, her controversial memoir about her late gay husband Tony, who died of AIDS, and their ups and downs. The Feminist Bookstores' Catalog, published out of San Francisco, touts books, music and video that celebrate women's lives and works and that are available through over a hundred feminist bookstores across the United States and Canada — including BookWoman in Austin and Inklings Bookshop in Houston. And Rising Star Records & Publishers out of Atlanta has its own extremely interesting merchandise catalog, available by calling (800)247-3108....

If you like hitting the road every now and then, a take-along not to be missed is the Damron Accommodations Second Edition, which not only covers gay-friendly accommodations in the U.S., Mexico, Canada and the Caribbean, but has new listings for Europe and Australia as well. The Damron Company received this year's Out & About Editor's Choice Award for Excellence in Gay Travel Media....

AIDS is once again a popular focal point of magazines. Newsweek's Dec. 2 cover story teases "The End of AIDS? Not Yet — But New Drugs Offer Hope." And this month's Essence presents "AIDS in the Family," profiling a young woman who is HIV-positive, and includes sidebars like "Sisters at Greater Risk," which looks at the big increase in cases among African-American women....

Another good read is in the November issue of Harper's Magazine (if you can still find it — try your local library). "Wedded to an Illusion," by Fenton Johnson, delves into the issue of whether gays should be aspiring to the conventional model of marriage, or instead building something better....

If you're like us, you need a calendar in every room to keep plans organized and running smoothly. It's time to hunt up those 1997 wall-hangers, and Frontiers (out of West Hollywood) did a nice article in its Nov. 15 issue on some of the choices we face. There sure are a lot of sexy calendar men (and women) for 1997, including Steve Kelso's COLT calendar from Eagle Studios. Frontiers covers (and uncovers) them all, from super-hot men to wonderful women to ahh-some romance to fetishes, even. Decisions, decisions!

Happy holidays!

THE BENEFIT ALBUM

PWT PRODUCTIONS

A few days ago, I received a fax asking why I never mention techno music anymore. As its own genre of dance music, techno faded as quickly as it came onto the scene, in the process influencing other genres and evolving into several subtypes itself. One can surely observe techno influences in trance, trip-hop, some house records and certainly in the many above-140BPM releases that make their way to the U.S. from countries like Germany and Italy, where some forms of pure techno thrive even today. But here in the States, techno as a pure art form was basically a musical flash in the pan. A very important flash in our little pan, however — one that opened the door for some of the great producer-driven tracks we enjoy today.

Many argue that such tracks are screwing over the artists, while others will remind you of a time when many an artist's career would take off and he or she would move on to fame and fortune, leaving the producers behind and out of the picture. The reality is that we need both the artist and the producer in order to advance the scene, so everyone needs to just get over their egos and get on with making music. Whether it's a producer-driven track or a diva-driven vocal, if it makes people dance, then it's the tea, right? (Where did that come from?)...

Okay...Techno influences...We find many wonderful producer-driven pieces with techno influences, some from right here in the U.S. One American label that puts out loads of great techno-flavored trinkets is Moonshine. On their releases we'll find acts like Electric Skychurch (lovely ambient trance album), Cirrus, Elli Mac, Keoki (hello!) and Doc Martin, whose current projects, "Free" by Discfunctional and "Lunatic" by Blackdoctor, are really making a buzz on dance floors from coast to coast. "Lunatic" is a straight-up, bang-your-head-against-the-wall track, while "Free" offers more of a Latin, almost flamenco, hypnotic blend of hard and soft, soulful yet trippy. Anyway, both tracks are found on one 12-inch for a nice bargain, so check it out. And if you're ever in L.A., you can hear Doc spin at Metropolis; in NYC he does his thing at Twilo. (That's right, he commutes.) Don't forget to ask your local retailer about those très fabu Moonshine compilations, and if you want to go there, sign on at <http://www.moonshine.com>....

How about some more Mighty Dub Katz? Check out their latest, "It's Just Another Groove (I Think We Should Get Back Together)," complete with Lisa Marie Experience mixes to kill. A follow-up to the Top 40 dance hit "Magic Carpet Ride," "Groove" is a fun disco house crowd-pleaser that takes its melody from the classic disco single "Disco Juice" by Cloud One. The record's already a huge import success, but be on the lookout for the domestic limited edition colored ten-inch vinyl release on Sm:)e, with mixes by DJ Duke, Doc Martin and Jason Nevins....

Speaking of follow-ups, make sure you try out the Maxi release "Take Me Over" by Fathers of Sound featuring Judy Albanese. Once again, as in her past hits on Maxi ("That Ain't Right" and "Happy"), Judy gives us a brilliant vocal workout on this magnificent, straight-up house fare. Check out the Bonus Mix by Brian Bristol — hot! You may also want to grab the Maxi compilation (now licensed to Twisted), Danny Tenaglia Presents "Gag Me With A Tune", which features Judy along with fellow Maxi artists Daphne, Shay Jones and Cevin Fisher and more — mixed by Danny at Twilo, NYC's hottest nightclub....

And finally, for those who were waiting for the new Byron Stingily (of Ten City fame) record "Get Up," it's here! Check out this hot Nervous release from Byron's upcoming album — it's a party record! To many of you who are familiar with Nervous's material, the production on this one will sound familiar. It was released earlier this year as a track (one of those producer-driven tracks we mentioned earlier) by Zack Toms Club. Well, leave it to Stingily to get on up with some killer vocals and team up with Roger S. and Zack Toms to burst forth with this ever-so-Sylvesterish "Dance (Disco Heat)" reincarnation that'll make you raise your hands in the air and carry on and things. See what happens when people are over their egos? Maybe these guys just wanted people to dance or something....

And that's dance music THIS WEEK IN TEXAS.

Austin's Powell Clinic Earns High Marks

Dear TWT:

Medical needs in our community are being addressed by several systems and clinics that are funded by several methods, including city and county funding and grants from corporations and the federal government. Many thanks are due to the people from all walks of life who carry on this mission.

The David Powell Clinic is one such organization. Being a client at this clinic is not only necessary but also very valued. Staff and patients alike are fortunate to have some of the best professional medical personnel as team members in our daily and long-term care.

When I [Eric Silvernale] became ill, I was working for a company that provides no benefits of insurance, sick pay, profit sharing or retirement. Consequently I was forced to go on Medicaid, and now the MAP Program of the City of Austin and Travis County. The professionals at Powell Clinic have never treated anyone in my presence with anything but dignity, concerning themselves with only the best care possible with limited resources.

Recently, the Ryan White Foundation performed a three-day evaluation of the clinic and its program. I, as well as many others, am extremely pleased to learn of the outcome. David Powell Clinic passed the evaluation with high marks in every area. This is not a surprise to those of us who are its patients.

The staff of this clinic are always available to answer any question about our illness without hesitation, offering their caring and nurturing support at all times, using compassion and nonjudgmental understanding of the unique and complicated concerns of the HIV patient.

Eric D. Silvernale and Glenn Helton

MCA Seeks Beneficiaries

Dear TWT:

As Vice President, Community Affairs for Miss Camp America Foundation, Inc., I am excited to announce that the Foundation is beginning its fund-raising campaign for 1997. Funds raised during the campaign will benefit local charitable organizations that provide services to persons in the greater Houston metropolitan area affected by HIV/AIDS.

It is the tradition of Miss Camp America Foundation, Inc. to provide financial assistance to nonprofit 501(c)3 organizations whose programs, philosophies and ideas reflect a unique or innovative approach to the HIV/AIDS problem. Charitable organizations that provide HIV/AIDS-related programs of direct care; clinical, social and mental health services; public policy; advocacy; housing; financial aid; education/prevention programs; and support services are eligible.

Funds granted by Miss Camp America Foundation, Inc. must be used to support all costs associated with projects and programs as described in the organization's grant application.

Grant applications for the 1997 fund-raising campaign are now being accepted. Jan. 1, 1997 is the deadline for submitting grant applications. Applications received after the deadline (postmarked after midnight Jan. 2, 1997) will not be considered. Applications should be submitted in the form of a packet containing the organization's letter of intent, information that describes the organization and its mission, financial statement and operating budget, and evidence of the organization's 501(c)3 tax-exempt status.

Applications should be mailed to the following address: Miss Camp America Foundation, Inc.; Attn: Vice President, Community Affairs; P.O. Box 742; Bellaire, TX 77042.

For the Christmas season, Deep Ellum Opera Theatre in Dallas is producing Gian Carlo Menotti's opera Amahl and the Night Visitors. Opening tonight (Dec. 6) and running through Dec. 29 at the Theatre on Elm Street, 3202 Elm St., it can be seen Thursdays-Saturdays at 8 p.m. and Sundays at 2:30 p.m. To order tickets ($10-$20), or for more info, call ARTTIX at (214) 871-2787.

Dallas-area performance artist Dalton James transforms his original alternative fairy tale romance into a poetic, hard-edged fantasy complete with a fire-breathing dragon in Wet Willie Loves Pyro at the Swiss Avenue Theater, 2700 Swiss, tonight and tomorrow (Dec. 6 and 7) and Dec. 12, 13 and 14 at 8 p.m. Tickets are $10 each and are available by calling Michael Starcher at (214)522-9646.

The Alamo City Men's Chorale, in conjunction with the San Antonio Vocal Arts Ensemble and Judge Bonnie Reed, delight San Antonio audiences with yuletide favorites when they present Home for the Holidays Sunday, Dec. 15, at 4 p.m. and Monday, Dec. 16, at 8 p.m. in Ruth Taylor Concert Hall at Trinity University. Tickets to this tenth anniversary holiday concert are $12 (discounts available); for more info, call (210)495-SING. Shows will be interpreted for the deaf.

Rob Nash plays (among many other characters) Fred, the long-lost son who has AIDS, in 12 Steps to A More Dysfunctional Christmas.

Former Houstonian Rob Nash continues performances of his 12 Steps to a More Dysfunctional Christmas (which was incorrectly referred to here last week as the earlier 12 Steps to a More Dysfunctional You) through Dec. 31 at Stages, 3201 Allen Pkwy. Follow the ill-fated, troubled-plagued Smiths through funerals, hospitals and their live appearance on talk TV. Shows are Fridays and Saturdays at 8 p.m. and Sundays at 5 p.m. (with special shows Dec. 18 and 19 and New Year's Eve). For tickets ($13-$15), call (713)527-8243.

The Gay Men's Chorus of Houston offers up Simple Gifts, "an assortment of songs for the holidays," at First Unitarian Universalist Church in Houston on Saturday, Dec. 14, at 7 p.m. and Sunday, Dec. 15, at 2:30 p.m. Sign-language interpretation will be provided at both performances. Tickets ($10) are available at Crossroads Market, 1111 Westheimer; Inklings Bookshop, 1846 Richmond; or Lobo, 3939 Montrose, or by calling (713)521-SING.

The Capital City Men's Chorus, under the direction of Jeffrey M. Jones, offers its first subscription concert of the 1996-97 season at 4 p.m. this Sunday, Dec. 8, at St. Martin's Lutheran Church, 606 W. 15th St. in Austin. Entitled Home for the Holidays, the program includes seasonal music from the traditions of Kwanzaa, the Quakers, Yuletide and Christmas, and will also honor Hanukkah with portions of Handel's Judas Maccabaeus performed by renowned organist Thomas Pavlechko. Also heard will be the operatic spoof Insalata Italiana with soprano Suzanne Ramo, plus the holiday satire Tomorrow Will Be My Shopping Day. Tickets may be ordered at (512)499-TIXS; for more info, call (512) 477-SING.

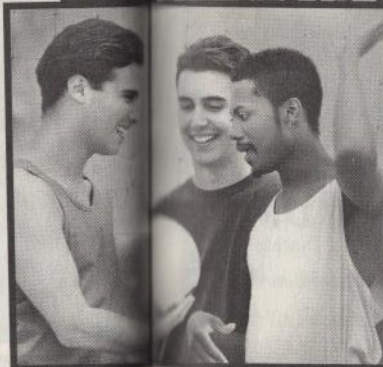

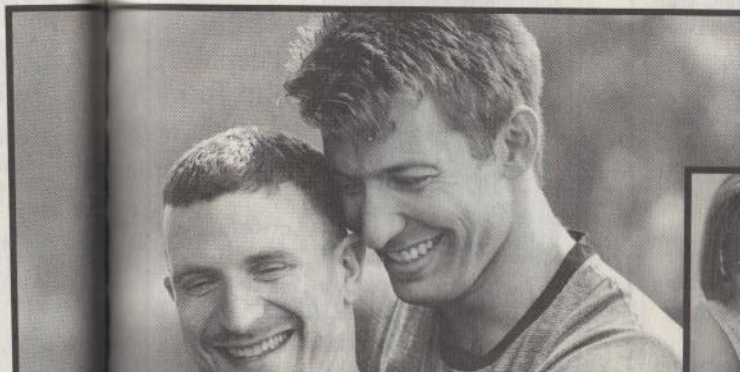

Broadway Austin treats local audiences to The Gift of the Magi through Dec. 21 at Frontera/Hyde Park Theatre, 511 W. 43rd St. in Austin. Performances are at 8 p.m. Thursdays-Saturdays and 6 p.m. Sundays; for reservations or more info, call (512) 499-TIXS.

Truman Capote's A Christmas Memory will be presented at 2 p.m. on successive Sundays Dec. 8-22 also at Frontera/Hyde. Joe York directs the tale of Capote's fond remembrance of a childhood Christmas spent with a special friend. For tickets or more info, call (512)499-TIXS.

Be Smart About HIV

NEW RESEARCH SUGGESTS THAT REDUCING THE AMOUNT OF VIRUS MAY HELP YOU LIVE LONGER

A public health message from the National Minority AIDS Council and the National Lesbian and Gay Health Association in association with GlaxoWellcome
Copr. © 1996 Glaxo Wellcome Inc. DTP133R0 October 1996

KEEP THE VIRUS DOWN LONGER

It's now known that HIV stays active in your body from the moment of infection. Even though you may feel fine, the virus does not let up. Instead, it's busy copying itself, always producing more virus. Your immune system needs help to fight back, to lessen the amount of virus in your blood. And, reducing the amount of virus may help you live longer.

KNOW THE POTENTIAL BENEFITS OF NEW TREATMENT OPTIONS

Now is the time to discuss with your doctor what you can do to fight HIV. A good diet, a commitment to exercise, and healthy living are all important steps that can help you. If appropriate, your doctor may recommend new treatment options.

Recent studies report that new treatment options are producing results never seen before. In some people, they are reducing the amount of virus in the blood to levels so low it can't be detected. And new research suggests that reducing the amount of virus may help you live longer. Results like these demand your attention.

SEE YOUR DOCTOR NOW AND TREAT YOURSELF WELL

The latest medical findings tell us that while there is no cure, treating HIV aggressively may be one of the smartest things you can do for yourself. Keep in mind, people will respond differently to various treatment options. Whether or not you've been on treatment before, the time to consider new options is now.

See your doctor or healthcare professional—be smart about HIV.

The stars send us an early holiday gift; this week expansive Jupiter tickles zesty Mars and delightful Venus. Our ardor could net us big dividends if we play the market correctly. Frankly, friends, I've always found it preferable to buy low and sell high....

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22) Even if the career has been getting you down, proud Sags can professionally rise and rejoice with the Jupiter/Venus/Mars aspect. Hidden enemies are flushed out, efforts are recognized and valued by those in authority and you may get a little extra dough for your sweat. Not bad! But strike while the corporate fire is raging; lazy Archers are shuttled to the mailroom or, even worse, research.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20) Gay Goats take the legal profession by storm with the Jupiter/Venus/Mars transit. Disputes can be resolved to your benefit as you win friends and influence people to act on your behalf. Even the most afflicted Caps make spectacular first impressions; dress the part and take it to the stage. This is an excellent time to plan (and execute) the perfect vacation. Do I see Key West on the itinerary?

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19) Aqueerians rev up their internal resources to achieve personal harmony and professional stability. Volunteer for a good gay cause and see how much you can achieve for the benefit of our community. Jupiter, Venus and Mars form an unbeatable offensive line that's poised to score (and since this transit affects sexual energy, need I say more?...).

PISCES (Feb. 20 - March 20) Partnerships find a way of bridging your more global ideas with the concerns of local social groups and organizations. Seek advice and guidance. Queer Fish should use the Jupiter/Venus/Mars transit to harness various commitments and adapt them to bona fide gay concerns. Also use this time to improve relationships or to seek one that's right for you. The planets don't lie.

ARIES (March 21 - April 20) Queer Rams find that the beneficial aspects between Jupiter, Venus and Mars can launch a career into the stratosphere. If you've been putting the time and effort into your professional dream, be prepared to see that dream come true. Of course, this transit can also mean that a honed bod can catch the eye of the boss as easily as a honed mind. What type of retirement plan did you have in mind?

TAURUS (April 21 - May 21) If you hanker to express yourself creatively, I suggest you dive into it now in a wild artistic frenzy. What delightful pastimes can lead you to new, exotic and possibly international adventures? I don't know, but you may want to ask Jupiter, Venus and Mars, who are, even now, buying your ticket. It could be for a trip to the moon on gossamer wings (...and ain't it always just one of those things?)

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21) Proud Twins may yearn to feather their nests as Jupiter, Mars and Venus kiss their personal lives. Home, work and deep interpersonal interactions blend to a melodious harmony. Belt it Out, baby, and tend to any irksome issues in these areas now when your charm alone seems to quell restive waters. If you're not proudly out to your parents, this is a good time to open up that closet!

CANCER (June 22 - July 23) Queer Crabs wax eloquent when Jupiter, Venus and Mars buddy up this week. Any relationship, whether for business or pleasure, reaps the benefit of your astute insights. But honey, words alone won't get the job done; it's also time to roll up your sleeves and get physical. Happily, all efforts go to a good cause (your happiness), so get off your duff and get a little dirty.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23) Extravagant gay Lions will either break the bank or have it crash on their paws. What matter these wounds? Jupiter, Mars and Venus have a way of making your life a little easier no matter how irresponsibly you behave. Family relationships go a bit more smoothly now and even the day-to-day job gives you the recognition and payback you deserve. So what type of reward do you actually deserve?

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23) Stand back, world; proud Virgins are divas for a day. Mars, Venus and Jupiter form an unbeatable triumvirate which grants you unparalleled popularity and charm. Milk it for what it's worth, dear, queer Virgo and cram that foot into the slipper if you can. This fabulousness will fade with the dawn and you'll be back to tending the pumpkin patch in your rags before you can bat an eye.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23) It takes more than pure moxie to make the world a little louder and prouder, queer Libra. The Jupiter/Mars/Venus partnership enhances your ability to make good deeds pay off figuratively and literally, so put your money where your mouth is or seek contributions to our cause. Harmony reigns even at home. Does this mean you've reconciled with your family?

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22) Resolve any disputes you have with friends or social acquaintances during the Jupiter/Venus/Mars transit. You can turn even your most underhanded, specious motives into something unequivocally divine. In fact, you won't settle for less than mutual honesty and harmony, even if you have to discuss it to the nth degree. Is this the gay Machiavelli we have all come to know?

HAWAII COURT SAYS STATE SHOULD ALLOW SAME-SEX MARRIAGES

Heartened by Decision in 'Baehr v. Miike' Case, Activists Pledge Broad Fight on Issue.

HAWAII — In what is being called a first in U.S. history, a Hawaii state court ruled Tuesday that civil marriage law cannot discriminate against lesbian and gay couples. The decision served to encourage gay activists, who are fighting efforts to preempt same-sex marriage rights by Congress and state legislatures.

The First Circuit Court of Hawaii's ruling on Baehr v. Miike is by no means the last word on the issue, in that state or elsewhere around the country. Earlier this year, Congress passed and President Clinton signed into law the so-called Defense of Marriage Act, which seeks to preempt eventual recognition of same-sex marriages by reserving federal protections and benefits for heterosexual married couples.

Hawaii has indicated it will appeal the ruling, which was the latest development in a case filed on behalf of two lesbian couples and one gay male couple by Honolulu civil rights lawyer Dan Foley and the Lambda Legal Defense and Education Fund, Inc.

And if state Rep. Warren Chisum of Pampa has his way, Texas may follow the lead of other states that have passed laws specifically denying recognition of same-sex relationships. Chisum filed such a bill last month in anticipation of the next session of the state Legislature, which convenes in January.

But local and national activists were gratified and cautiously optimistic Tuesday. "This is a historic moment for lesbians and gay men," said Evan Wolfson, Director of the Lambda Marriage Project, who with Foley is co-counsel in Baehr v. Miike. "When required at our trial to justify its discriminatory marriage law, the government couldn't do it. The court today agreed that there is no compelling or logical reason for discriminating against lesbian and gay couples...."

"State by state, court by court, we will put an end to this illogical discrimination."

Three Hawaii couples — Ninia Baehr and Genora Dancel, Pat Lagon and Joseph Melillo, and Antoinette Pregil and Tammy Rodrigues — were denied marriage licenses by the state Department of Health in 1990. The next year, they jointly filed a lawsuit alleging that the denial was unconstitutional, and eventually the case was appealed to the Hawaii Supreme Court.

In 1993, the state's high court ruled that, under Hawaii's constitution, allowing civil marriage licenses only for opposite-sex couples and not same-sex couples is sex discrimination. The State of Hawaii was ordered to show what compelling interest justified such discrimination. First Circuit Judge Kevin Chang heard the case Sept. 10-20 of this year.

The Lambda Marriage Project was created by LLDEF to help prepare for the Hawaii case and more generally to serve as a clearinghouse for groups working to advance same-sex marriage rights across the U.S.

Dianne Hardy-Garcia, Executive Director of the Lesbian/Gay Rights Lobby of Texas, has said she believes activists will have a vigorous fight on their hands to prevent passage of Chisum's measure by the next session of the state Legislature. Hardy-Garcia said Tuesday she was heartened by the Hawaii decision and its potential for furthering discussion of gay issues, but conceded that it might further energize opponents of same-sex marriage.

MEMORIES, HOPE FOR FUTURE MARK AIDS OBSERVANCES LAST SUNDAY

Sense of Loss, Determination Drives Participants.

TEXAS — They gathered. By twos, tens, hundreds. Across Texas, the United States, the world. They remembered, tears mixed with smiles. They looked ahead, with hope.

World AIDS Day was recognized around the globe last Sunday. This year, 3.1 million people have been infected with HIV, the virus that causes AIDS, bringing the total number of persons with HIV or AIDS to 22.6 million, according to UNAIDS. There have been 35,000 cases reported in Texas, the fourth-highest state total in the U.S. behind New York, California and Florida. Approximately 6½ million people worldwide have died of the disease since the early 1980s.

A special Tree of Remembrance was lit and decorated with special ornaments recalling those lost to HIV in Houston.

It's the sense of loss, and the determination to strive together to defeat the epidemic, that participants marked and celebrated around the world last Sunday.

— In Austin, Body Count 1996 got hundreds of people involved in a community performance art event that shut down the Congress Avenue bridge for a few hours. The sixth renewal of a demonstration initiated by local artist Sally Jacques included a march from the Capitol building down Congress to the bridge, with participants Alneda Davis [r] was honored last Sunday as Personal Caregiver of the Year at a reception held at Park Plaza Hospital in Houston. She posed with Park Plaza CEO Judy Novak [l] and Howard Anderson, whom Davis has provided care to for the last seven years (and who nominated her for the honor).

sitting silent with candles and then lying as "dead" for 15 minutes, draped with clear plastic to commemorate the disease's victims. Speeches and musical performances followed, but the crowded rapidly dwindled after Body Count 1996 because of the chilling evening wind. The day was also marked as Day Without Art in Austin, with many paintings and other artwork draped to salute lost talents.

— In Dallas, 85 bricks inscribed with memorials to AIDS victims were unveiled at the Gay and Lesbian Community Center, bringing the total that now line the walkway to about 300.

— In Houston, professional and personal caregivers of HIV patients were recognized at a reception hosted by Park Plaza Hospital and TENET HealthSystem Sunday afternoon. Claudia Commo, who as Director of Nursing for Omega House hospice has actively trained more than 350 caregivers, was honored as "You've Touched My World of AIDS" Professional Caregiver of the Year, while Alneda Davis (who was nominated by Howard Anderson, for whom she has provided care for the past seven years) was recognized as Personal Caregiver of the Year.

Houstonians also honored the memory of those lost to the disease with the annual Tree of Remembrance ceremony, which included music by the MCCR Sanctuary Choir and others and the traditional tree-lighting.

— In San Antonio, a "die-in" was held on the Patio of the States in front of the Convention Center. About 30 people had chalk outlines drawn around their bodies as they lay on the pavement, in memory of those lost to AIDS. The day-long schedule of local events included a luncheon honoring local leaders involved with the HIV/AIDS community, a stage production on AIDS awareness performed by local high school students, a candlelight vigil and a reading of theatrical works dealing with AIDS at the Blue Star Arts Complex. The Witte Museum is presenting a comprehensive exhibit called "What About AIDS?" for all ages through Jan. 1.

The day was not just a Texas thing, though, with events all across the country and around the world. Celebrities like Yoko Ono, Judith Light and Claudia Schiffer were a part of observances, and Elton John even had a hospital named after him in recognition of his many efforts against the disease in Great Britain.

The memories live. The fight goes on.

HOUSTON SERVICE PROVIDERS SPONSORING CONFERENCE ON AIDS ADVOCACY

'ACTIVATE! U.' Meant To Convey Lobbying Skills.

HOUSTON — Three local organizations that provide services to people with HIV and work to educate the public about the disease are sponsoring an AIDS advocacy conference on Monday, Dec. 9. "ACTIVATE! U.," a joint effort by Amigos Volunteers in Education and Services, the Bering Community Service Foundation and the WAM Foundation, will be held from 9 a.m.-5 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall of Bering Memorial United Methodist Church, 1440 Harold. The organizers said the conference is designed to equip participants with the skills necessary to communicate with elected and other government officials about AIDS-related issues.

"The only way to confront and influence state and federal officials into responding to the needs of persons impacted by AIDS is by learning about what goes on in Congress," Angela Mora, Executive Director of AVES, said in a statement her group issued last week. She added that the conference would help local AIDS advocates and grass-roots organizations learn how to use the political process to improve conditions for people with the disease.

Topics include approaching and establishing relationships with elected officials; the budget- and bill-passing process; and how people can make a difference through effective writing to their representatives. Learning tools and techniques will include interactive workshops, role-playing exercises and hands-on training, and the latest information about HIV treatment and research and future political trends concerning AIDS will be available.

Other participating organizations are the AIDS Action Council, headquartered in Washington, DC, and the Texas AIDS Network of Austin.

Registration is $10, which includes breakfast and lunch. For more information, call Mora at AVES, (713)626-2837.

'CELEBRATE '97' BENEFITS HOUSTON'S BERING FOUNDATION

Bayou City Boys Club Joins in Producing New Year's Eve Party At Wyndham Warwick.

HOUSTON — The Bering Community Service Foundation and the Bayou City Boys Club are teaming up to present the Fourth Annual Community New Year's Eve Party, to be held Tuesday, Dec. 31, at the Wyndham Warwick Hotel.

"Celebrate '97 Hollywood Style," which benefits Bering Community Service Foundation, a local HIV service provider, gets underway at 9 p.m. in the Grand Ballroom with dinner and dancing, cabaret entertainment, casino games and champagne toast at midnight followed by breakfast buffet.

Revelers may choose from two packages for the evening. Package one begins in the Penthouse Ballroom from 8-10 p.m., with a reservations-only seated dinner that includes cocktails, a four-course dinner and Hollywood-style entertainment featuring performances by Miss Camp America, Bering & Friends and the Halloween Magic Players. This package includes party tickets to all of the evening's activities and provides VIP access to the Penthouse throughout the event. Tickets for the dinner package are $150 per person, with tables for ten guests available for $1,500.

The second package includes party tickets without the dinner, with festivities running from 9 p.m.-2 a.m. in the Grand Ballroom with open bar, hors d'oeuvres, dancing, cabaret entertainment, casino games, party favors and a champagne toast at midnight followed by breakfast buffet. Individual tickets are $80 per person.

Absolut Vodka and Continental Airlines are underwriting beverage and travel costs, while the Wyndham Warwick, 5701 Main St., is offering special room rates for "Celebrate '97," with Standard rooms priced at $85, Junior Suites at $115 and Parlor Suites going for $135. For room reservations, call (713)526-1991 and ask for the Bering Foundation rate. Rooms must be reserved by Dec. 16. In addition, Al's Formal Wear is offering $15 off tuxedo rental for event ticketholders.

Tickets for "Celebrate '97" are on sale at Inklings Bookshop, Basic Brothers, Custom Valet Cleaners and the Bering Community Service Foundation. To charge by phone, or for information on how to charge by mail, call Bering at (713)524-9304.

DALLAS COMMUNITY CENTER TO HOLD OPEN HOUSE ON PROGRAMS, CLASSES

Public, GLCC Members Welcome to Dec. 10 Event.

DALLAS — As 1996 draws to a close and the New Year rapidly approaches, many people may be starting to consider ways of improving themselves in '97. The Gay and Lesbian Community Center has a schedule of courses available for the coming year that could enhance many areas of the lives of gays and lesbians. Perhaps best of all, many of the programs are free or available for only the cost of materials.

Several of the programs are practical in nature, including "The Basic Facts About Homosexuality," a parenthood series which deals with issues like adoption and artificial insemination, and even a self-defense series designed to make gay men and lesbians feel safer and more confident.

For those interested in something a little less serious, there are dance and bridge lessons, "Understanding the Wine You Drink," and learning all there is to know about beer in the course "Beer: From Lagers to Ales."

If taking a class is a more stressful endeavor than a person may want to tackle, the GLCC also offers such relaxing events as Movie Night and Brown Bag Lunches.

The above mentioned are just a small sampling of the many courses and events available at the two-building Center, located at 2701 Reagan. In order to help GLCC members and the public get more information about the courses, the community center is having an Open House on Tuesday, Dec. 10 from 6-8:30 p.m. Staff and volunteers will be on hand to answer any questions people might have about the Center and its programs. There will also be refreshments and live entertainment provided by acoustic guitarist Elizabeth Wills. For more information about the courses, call (214)528-9254.

'HOLIDAY SCHMOOZE' BENEFITS CENTER FOR AIDS IN HOUSTON

Storefront Information Project Moves to New Location in January.

HOUSTON — Next Thursday, Dec. 12, the Center for AIDS hosts its second Holiday Schmooze, a fund-raiser benefiting the Storefront Information Project. The event will take place in the agency's new facility, 1407 Hawthorne, from 6-8 p.m.

Beginning in January, all the activities and services of The Center for AIDS, including the RITA! and RITA! Fax newsletters, community forums and treatment mixers, will be housed at the new location. The treatment and research information center will serve the entire affected population, and the Center for AIDS said it hoped the new location would help create greater visibility and openness and a greater sense of community among those with HIV.

To date, companies and foundations supporting the storefront information project include Abbott Laboratories; Agouron Pharmaceuticals; the Barrow Foundation; Bristol-Meyers Squibb; Gilead Sciences; GlaxoWellcome, Inc.; the Houston Endowment, Inc.; and Merck & Co.

Food is being provided by Boulevard Bistro. Entertainment in the form of holiday music will be performed by The Morris Minors. Admission is $50 per person. For more information, call (713)527-8219.

Founded in 1995, The Center for AIDS focuses exclusively on treatment information and advocacy.

AUSTINteaCIOUS — It's just one big party after another at 5th Street Station!

First came the Second Annual Chili Cook-Off, with Damn Bobby [right, r] winning the Overall and Turkey divisions and Dwight [l] capturing the Texas Chili division. That evening came the United Court of Austin's Monarchs Show, raising $567 for Christopher House and other charities. Three days earlier, the Right Sisters hosted another benefit that raised $453. The serious fun continues at 9 p.m. this Sunday, Dec. 8, with Hard Candy Christmas IV, benefiting the Pediatric AIDS League; Mr. Round-Up at the Ranch 1997 Dwight Arnold is the host and a lot of surprise guest performers are expected. On Friday the 13th, it's the Twisted Christmas Show of the United Court of Austin, emceed by Mona Littlemore. The legendary Nicole returns to host a show Dec. 11. Whew!...

Daddy Wayne's 15th annual Thanksgiving Day dinner [left] was a rousing success once again at Charlie's, with an estimated 250 served. Daddy and his culinary elves cooked up 11 turkeys and all the trimmings — free! It was one big, happy family! This Sunday, Lauren Taylor returns to emcee after three weeks running around the country fulfilling her Miss Gay America obligations; her guests will be Katherine York and Ashley Collins. And those geniuses at Charlie's have done a magnificent job of shrinking the patio and still keeping it warm despite recent cold waves; it's always a warm time out on the Northeast Porch. Charlie's opens at noon this Saturday so Longhorn fans can come root Texas to victory over Nebraska in the Big 12 title matchup...

'Bout Time is getting ready for its major annual December endeavor, its Toys-for-Kids holiday program. Pam reminds contributors not to forget the teens when you drop off a new wrapped toy; older young ones are often forgotten, and they appreciate games, puzzles, books, etc. just as much as the tiny tots love their toys. Ask your friendly bartenders for more suggestions on how to help out. This year's Pink Santa will be the best ever, with everyone's help....

The Rainbow Cattle Company also said "thank you" to its patrons with a free Thanksgiving western dinner. Things are getting back to normal with a busy month ahead, including Men's Oil Wrestling at 9:30 p.m. this Sunday, Dec. 8. On Thursday, Dec. 12, there's an On the Road Again country attire contest. Also get ready for the return of Nashville recording artist Jeff Miller Dec. 19 and 20. There's also a Christmas Show by the Austin Baptist Women coming Sunday the 15th....

The rooftop bar at The Forum is one of our all-time favorite hideaways, especially when we're being entertained by hard-working David, Dave and Elijah [above, l-r]. The Forum and its sister bar The Cuff aren't even a month old, and they're already the talk of the town; it's really an excellent workout making the rounds of the two on a Friday and Saturday — the places are so full you never know who you'll bump into next. We love the surprises — and Teasin' Timm Groovy says we ain't seen nothin' yet, with some of the special events being planned....

The Blue Flamingo is still serving up Super Special Happy Hour Shows every Friday, and the most amazing clientele and music mix for late nights. The band lineup coming up includes El Insecto (Formerly Alien Sweatshop), the Hamicks and Reclusives this Saturday, Dec. 7; Little Boy Henry, Mutie and Speedcop on Tuesday the 10th; Whistle Armstrong, Bedwetters and Royal Company Scam on Wednesday the 11th; and the Thangs and Christler on Thursday the 12th....

We promised to show you Chain Drive Full Moon Contest winner Kelly, and here he is — though you had to be there Nov. 24 to see his best side.

The next contest is Dec. 24, and anyone can enter. TGRA ran a magnificent cookout last Sunday, featuring chili and ham and beans; they started with four crockpots full, and still had to run home for more! This Sunday, the Chain Drive staff is cooking Frito pie from 4-9 p.m.; then Dec. 15 is Santa's Twisted Playhouse, brought to you by the Capitol City Riders....

FOOT-LONG NOTES: Things are still hot at Oilcan Harry's, especially when they play Post Office on Wednesday nights. Check out the free buffet on Monday, Thursday and Friday....Next door, the Edge is planning to hold its grand opening on Thursday, Dec. 12; come see what Wild Warren and his Warriors have cooked up to enliven the neighborhood....The Victory Grill in East Austin is having a 10th Birthday Bash for local soul band Hot Wax at 8 tonight. And come wish Eva a happy birthday on Sunday....There seems to be a race on to see which of two "ladies-oriented (gay)" clubs will open its doors first, at 317 E. 6th St. or 113 San Jacinto.

DALLAS TEA — Kolers celebrated its gala grand opening last Friday with style and class. Of course, there were a few nearly naked men thrown in for the rest of us [above]. Congratulations on a truly successful event! Don't worry if you were away for the weekend because the guys at Kolers have plenty scheduled for the weeks ahead. Drop by anytime between noon and 10 p.m. daily for what's gotta be one of the longest happy hours around. Paul Gonzales and Michael Schmelzer invite you to take advantage of their free valet parking on Friday and Saturday and get ready for special guest entertainers from across Texas coming soon. Mark your calendars now for the Mr. Gay Dallas USA contest on Friday, Jan. 16. Come to cruise, come to dance or be adventurous and try a little bit of both at Kolers....

Chachi. Just the name brings back fantasies about Happy Days' Scott Baio. Fortunately for Dallas, Village Station has its very own Chachi [right]. He's just one of the hot dancers who grace the stage in Village's side bar. Kind of motivates you to work out every day, doesn't it? Look for him when you stop by on Sunday night for the funkier, hippest RetroTrash around. Don't forget to take a mental vacation up east with a tall, cool Long Island Iced Tea. (They're on special all night). After you've sufficiently quenched your thirst, you'll be ready for a journey up to the Rose Room where you'll find all your favorite drag superstars ready to give you a thrill through their always-showstopping performances. But hey, you don't have to wait until Sunday. Cruise in tonight from 10:30 to 11 for no cover and cheap drinks....

Moby Dick's Friday night Happy Hour is reeling in some of the hottest men in Dallas week after week. Don't even bother to go home and change after work. You'll want to head straight to Moby's to start your weekend off right. Mark, Isaiah and Jaime [above, l-r] knew where to spend their Thanksgiving weekend for a good time, and it sure wasn't at grandma's. Although Granny would be ever so proud to hear you sing your little heart out at the wildly popular Video Karaoke every Sunday night at 10 p.m. Recent participants even got free baseball caps, so you never know what you'll get when you jump up on Moby's stage and chip away at your 15 minutes of fame. Even if you don't, there's plenty of reason to celebrate with a mimosa or other favorite juice drink. They're all priced low and the cute bartenders will throw in a bit of their charm at no extra cost....

If The Dallas Observer picked the best gay bar in Dallas, which one would it choose? If you guessed the Hideaway, then you're absolutely, 100% correct. Stop by and discover a whole new world of gay entertainment, like multi-talented Antonio

Edwards [left], who appears every Thursday and Sunday along with Buddy Shanahan. There's always a song in the air or a show on the stage at the Hideaway because they never take a vacation from providing Dallas with the best live entertainment daily from 5 p.m. to 2 a.m. Or if you're the morning type, drop in after that Egg McMuffin for an early morning treat. They open the front bar every day at 8 a.m., except for Sunday. You'll have to find something to do in bed until noon....

Hot, fresh and made to order. Sure, that could describe a fast food chain's line of burgers and sandwiches, but it seems much more appropriate for Crews Inn dancer David [right]. Now there's a guy you could take home to Mom and Dad. Or you could be selfish and keep him all to yourself. But even if he's taken, there are countless more hot studs just like him every night of the week at Crews Inn. If you haven't been to Crews Inn lately, you better hurry in this weekend. They're pouring all your favorite drinks at super low prices and, of course, the tastiest dancers you can find. And don't forget, Tuesdays are still one of the best nights to cruise the Crews. There just seems to be something that draws people in every week. Stop by this Tuesday and find out why....

Longing for a longneck? Then JR's is your brewski headquarters. Or would you rather sip a little voddie? They've got all your favorite domestic brews and Smirnoff Vodka drinks at super low prices every day, so save up your coins and bring all your friends. Don't tell them how low the prices are and they'll be amazed at your generosity when you buy the first round of drinks. Give it a try tonight. It'll get you some practice receiving the admiration of a crowd, which is exactly what participants get every Tuesday in Valerie Lohr's Talent Night contest. So brush off the tap shoes and shake out your feather boas. By the way, did we mention there's cash involved? If you're not sure you're ready to be lumped into a "talent" category, then perhaps Wanda's Sunday night "Anything Goes" is more your speed. Whether you're there to perform or just to watch, Wanda always manages to tantalize and surprise. Then stick around as the hilarious Paul J. Williams hosts their Sunday night Video Karaoke party at 10 p.m. Or you could just cuddle up in the corner with someone you love. Maybe you'll find somebody handsome like cheery Mike McCoy [right]....

You won't find all the beautiful women in the world if you stay home watching Melrose Place or Savannah, but you will find the most beautiful women in Dallas at Sue Ellen's. And they're a whole lot friendlier than those catty vixens Mr. Spelling throws your way. Just to prove how sweet and friendly the gals at Sue Ellen's are. You won't have to pay a dime to get in on Monday nights. Of course, Sue Ellen's has plenty to keep you occupied until Monday. There's Cruisin' the Crossroads every Friday and Saturday night with the hottest dance music pumping away all night long. On Sundays, relax and enjoy live music, cheap draft beer, and (will their generosity ever end?) no cover all day long....

Throckmorton Mining Company is ready to heat things up even more. As if the high energy of Cruisin' Into Overdrive weren't already enough to get your weekend off to a great start every Friday and Saturday, TMC has added a few surprises to close out your weekend every Sunday. That's right, they've got each night covered for you. Every Friday and Saturday from 10:30 to 11 p.m. the already low draft beer prices plummet further. The same thing happens on Sunday, too. But you'll have to try hard to keep your drinks cold at 10 p.m. when the Bear Buns Contest begins and Dallas' hottest men show off their squeezable assets. Then start your week off right and stop by and visit with Wanda while she hosts the ever-popular Monday night pool tournament. Remember, everybody needs a little TMC....

It's almost time for one of the highlights of the holiday season — "Hard Candy Christmas," the T.G.R.A. yuletide show at the Round-Up Saloon and Dancehall. The festivities begin at 6 p.m. on Sunday, Dec. 15 with emcee Michael Lee leading the extravaganza. Naturally, you already know the Round-Up is famous for its spectacular shows. Anyone who attended Miss Charity America 1996 knows that for a fact, and of course HOT TEA was there to capture the moment for the enjoyment of many generations to come. Just one look at winner Edna Jean Robinson [above, c] and you know it was a night to remember. Time is also running out for you to get back in the two-step of things. There are only a couple of weeks left this year for free Thursday and Sunday dance lessons....

Why waste a perfectly good Thursday night watching Must See TV or doing your laundry for the weekend? Set your VCR and take your clothes to the cleaners because you won't want to miss a minute of the action at the Ice Factory with 94.5, The Edge. Your favorite radio personalities stop by on Thursday nights to give away CDs and other prizes while the crowds dance the night away. Friday nights are award-worthy, too. There's no cover before midnight and they've dropped their beer prices lower than Marky Mark's pants. Saturdays, Ice Factory is the place to be for well drinks from 9–11 p.m. and once again, there's not a bit of cover before midnight. Drink an extra cappuccino before you go, though, because the party doesn't really get going until the wee after hours. Dance and party till 4 a.m., have an early breakfast with someone special and watch the sun rise. There's no better way to cap off an exciting evening at Ice Factory....

It's a dimension of sight (you'll see hot men). It's a dimension of sound (you'll hear the voices of hot men). It's a dimension of the mind (you'll be a hot man). It's...The Zone and you'll want to be right in the middle of it this weekend. Be there early on Friday and help everyone celebrate the grand opening of this great new club. They've got beer specials all day long. You can also enjoy well drink specials, and even "schnapp-till-you-drop" specials from 9–11 p.m. Anyway, back to the hot men. They're on parade every night dancing around in next-to-nothing, and they're all mmm-mmm, good. Remember, The Zone wants you to be happy every day of the week, so stop by from 4–9 p.m. Monday through Thursday or noon–10 p.m. Friday to Sunday for extra-long happy, happy hours. Get into The Zone soon....

Bamboleo's knows how to get in the spirit of the season. Make plans to attend the Benefit Show for the Pilgrimage of Faith Conference and the Huerta Foundation this Sunday, Dec. 8. Of course, after the show you're free to do something good for yourself. With hot Tejano music and the greatest dance hits, Bamboleo's is always a great choice for festive fun any day you stop by. ¡Viva Bamboleo's!...

What can you give that special someone who has everything? Sure, the his-n-her (or would that be his-n-his?) hot air balloons from the Neiman-Marcus catalog would be a grand gesture, but wouldn't the guy in your life rather have a hot Steve Kelso calendar from Alternatives of New Fine Arts? Or maybe a new Ryan Idol video? Maybe a stocking full of video booth tokens? So, this year, instead of leaving cookies and milk for Santa, slip a video into the VCR and leave the remote control by the fireplace. He might just leave you all the toys.

TEXAS TELETYPE — Good Time Lounge in Denison presents their holiday show this Saturday, Dec. 7 starring metropex divas Sheri Powers, Carmen Del Rio, Paige Saxon and male dancer Drew. All the fun starts at 10:30 pm, so get there early as they kick off the holidays in a big way. By the way, happy birthday wishes go out to club owner Jerry Harvey, who's celebrating this weekend....

HOUSTON TEA — Having visited many of the Thanksgiving buffets in town, we can say that one of the finest was at JR's.

Gregory Hardy, Morgan Burcham, Carol Gilford and Craig Mallinson [above, l-r] were just four of the many club staffers helping serve the bountiful feast. The holidays come once a year, but one of the hottest parties in town happens every Sunday at JR's. Gorgeous male dancers, the swimwear strip contest and that infamous well vodka juice drink special have made the club's weekend wrap-up a Houston tradition. This Monday, Dec. 9, your favorite 800 Pacific staffers celebrate the holidays with "Round Young Virgins," a turnabout show benefiting the Employee Emergency Fund and Q-Patrol....

This Sunday, Mary's kicks off the Montrose holiday season with their annual community Christmas tree lighting. The ceremony at 6 p.m. will be followed by a customer appreciation party featuring a complimentary buffet and lots of holiday cheer. See you there....

They know how to have fun at Heaven. Recently, we found Sunday and Thursday hostess Kofi [right, r] getting cozy with delectable Men of South Beach dancer Christopher [l]. This Sunday, Heaven hosts the first annual TWT Cover Model of the Year contest. Come see all your favorites compete for over $3,000 in cash and prizes. Every Thursday, before and after the amateur strip contest at 11 p.m., deejay Steve Underwood will take you on a journey back in time with the best in Trash Disco. Get out those bell bottoms and platform shoes and truck on down to Heaven for your weekly trip through the sensational '70s....

Tonight at Rascals, Video Post Office returns for another evening of creative cruising. At a recent Wednesday night Lil' Rascal male strip contest, we focused in on the tantalizing trio of first runner-up Ron Fury, winner Niko Scardino and second runner-up Brook Brigrance [above, l-r]. Don't forget about the club's free happy hour buffet Monday–Friday from 6–8 p.m., Sunday Tea Dance with the best basket and buns contest at 10 p.m. and Monday night football on the big screen upstairs....

Last Sunday, the Gentry staff [above] donned some dynamic drag for the club's annual "Turnabout Hysteries" revue. Tomorrow night, Allan Gibson and Renee Monroe will crown their successors at the 1997 Mr. and Miss Gentry Contest starting at 9 p.m. sharp. Next Sunday, Dec. 15, the Imperial Court presents "We Three Queens of Dis-Orient Are," a totally gay Christmas show. The weather outside is certainly chilly, but Gentry continues to sizzle with male strip contests every Sunday and Wednesday and Bad Boy dancers seven night a week....

Even though Pacific Street bartenders Joe Fontenot and Glen Fillmore [left, l-r] kept their clothes on, many of the patrons at last Sunday's "Briefs, Boxers & Skivvies" party did not. It was so much fun that they're doing it again this Sunday and those willing to brave the elements and show off their most daring undergarments will get in free. As always, shameless Caged Heat dancers will heat you up and cheap drinks will cool you off....

This Monday, Dec. 9, the Ripcord celebrates its fourteenth anniversary. This "black tie, black leather affair" is an event not to be missed; the men at Houston's premiere leather, levi and uniform club really know how to throw a party....

This Sunday at 6:30 p.m., the BRB hosts the tenth annual PWA Christmas Finale, a star-studded extravaganza in memory of the late Lady Victoria Lust. At the Colt 45's holiday show last Sunday, emcees John "Bubbles" Dye [right, l] and Crystal Rae Lee Love [r] posed with organization president Norm Seguin [c]. Community service recognitions went to Danny Villa Award winners Nevada and The Garden Party, Golden Colt recipient RSICSS and B.J. Summors Entertainer of the Year Anita Mann. Congratulations to everyone....

Rich's invites everyone to join them for "A Holiday Evening Not To Be Forgotten." Fifteen of Texas' finest performers, along with club manager Lonnie Allsbrooks, will take part in this all-star evening of entertainment. Coming next Friday, Dec. 13 is Rich's annual employee turnabout show. This show should give new meaning to "don we now our gay apparel."...

Next Saturday, Dec. 14, the Midtowne Spa introduces "Wild, Wild Western Night" with hunky dancers and barnroom mayhem to stimulate your cowpoke cravings. To further satisfy your senses, Midtowne presents Shower Dancin' every Wednesday at 10 p.m. and every Friday at 11 p.m. They also offer half-price rooms every Monday and Wednesday....

Running Man Productions opens Gary Laird's Christmas Present tonight at the Chapultepec Theater (formerly Absolute Theater, adjacent to Chapultepec Restaurant, 813 Richmond). This gay adult comedy features popular male dancer Drew Manning in the title role. Call (713) 862-3802 for info and reservations....

Ring in the season this Sunday, Dec. 8, at the Edwin Hornberger Conference Center is the tenth annual "A Christmas Songfest," which gives Houstonians a chance to get in the holiday spirit while benefiting The Assistance Fund and Omega House. General admission is $45 at the door; for more info, call (713) 683-0485.

TEA BY THE SEA — This weekend, thousands of people will converge upon Galveston for the city's annual Dickens On The Strand festivities, and one of the best places to enjoy the celebration is the Kon Tiki. Along with loads of holiday cheer, they'll be serving up three nights of super sexy dancers and great shows. Tomorrow night, Garza Productions presents special guest Oprah DeMarro.

SAN ANTONIO TEA — Santa has made his plans to be at the Bonham Exchange on Saturday, Dec. 21 for their Red & White Ball and Brenda, Rodrigo and Danny [left, l-r] have, too. There'll be no adult cover from 8-10 p.m. and gorgeous go-go boys starting at 11 p.m. along with all of the club's usual specials. Tickets are now on sale for Bonham's New Year's Eve Spectacular....

James, David and Tabitha [right, l-r] agree that Eagle Mountain Saloon is a great place to spend an evening. The club hosted a surprise anniversary party, the first of many more to come, for Jaime and David. Food and champagne were shared with friends and fun was had by all. On Dec. 11, Jaime hosts his final Mr. EMS benefit show starting at 10 p.m., with proceeds going to the San Antonio AIDS Foundation. Then, on Dec. 15, the club plans a fantastic show to benefit Krissie's Kids at 10 p.m....

Speaking of Krissie's Kids, Pegasus held a benefit recently which raised over $1,000 for that worthy organization. The Chain of Command invites you out to the club tomorrow night, Saturday, Dec. 7, for their Christmas benefit, entitled "Santa's SM Fun-raiser." Look for games, "buy-a-swat" paddle booth, box auction, Daddy's boy contest, raffles, food and more. Tips earned will be donated to Bullfrog's Benevolence Fund and admission will be a food item to be donated to AIDS Resource Center's Food Pantry or a toy for Providence House....

Everyone loves to play blackjack and what better place to play it than Woody's, where dealers dole out winning hands Thursday through Sunday. San Antonio's premier video club also features bartenders in their underwear on Mondays, Absolutely Fabulous Wednesdays and Manager's Night on Saturday.

Meanwhile, cute Aaron [right] is the first of many beautiful people you'll see at the Wild Club. If he's not working the front door, he's busy bar-backing. Remember, there's never a cover for adults and only $3 for minors after 11 p.m....

Don't forget about Cowboy Madness every Monday at the Silver Dollar, which features ridiculously cheap longnecks, well and draft and offers you the chance to be a star and win cash in their Kowboy Karaoke Kontest. The last Monday of every month, it's "King Kowboy of Karaoke" where the weekly winners return and compete for an even larger cash prize. Belated birthday wishes go out to happy hour bartender David, who celebrated recently....

With the holidays in full sing, cute boys and gorgeous girls can be found at The Saint. Coming Thursday, Dec. 12 is a benefit for everyone's favorite former Miss Gay know that this benefit is just to help her with bills she incurred after breaking her leg and after a fire at her home. Talk about hot trade! Finally, make your plans to be at the club the following Thursday, Dec. 19, for the Miss Gay River City USofA Pageant starring Erica Andrews and last year's winner, Vanessa Gordon. For applications, check with the front door at the Saint or see Lena Lavelle....

LICENSED MASSEURS

STATE CERTIFICATION POLICY

Texas law clearly requires that only bona fide, state-certified masseurs can be listed in this category. Therefore, TWT policy requires that all masseurs must publish their state-certification number within their advertisements and that a photocopy of their state masseur's license be on file at TWT.

TWT POLICY

Because prostitution is illegal in Texas, state law prohibits the placement in this category of any such ads. Therefore, TWT policy stipulates that we will not and cannot knowingly accept any advertisements suggesting solicitation. It's the law. Also, state law prohibits nonlicensed massage therapists from using terms such as "massage," "Swedish," "accupressure," "Shiatsu," "reflexology," "body rub," "back rub," "body massage" or any term which indicates bodily contact.

OBITUARIES

Bill Ramsey

There will be a celebration of the life of Bill Ramsey on Wednesday, Dec. 11, from 7-9 p.m. at the Lovett Inn, 501 Lovett Blvd. Bill passed away on Aug. 11, 1996, after a long battle with cancer.

He and his late partner, Cary Chellette, founded J. Ross Real Estate, The Swim Club and others. He served with Mayor Kathy Whitmire, Commissioner El Franco Lee, state Rep. Debra Danburg and as Executive Assistant to Gov. Ann Richards. Bill also served as the Executive Director of the Harris County Democratic Party. Bill was a founding member and past president of EPAH, founding member of the first Montrose Activity Center and received awards from the Diana Foundation. On Sept. 28 in Austin, he was awarded the Political Lifetime Achievement Award by the Human Rights Campaign.

Memorial contributions to the charity of your choice.

James Dickson "Dick" Garner
James Dickson "Dick" Garner died Nov. 15, 1996 of heart complications. As an innovator in silk floral design, he owned Dick Garner, Inc., in the Quadrangle and had been employed at the Market as a floral designer for the last 13 years.

He was active in the Prime Timers, DFW Man and the Lakewood Social Club.

He is survived by his sisters and their family and friends. Dick enriched many lives and will be greatly missed. He was loved by all who knew him.

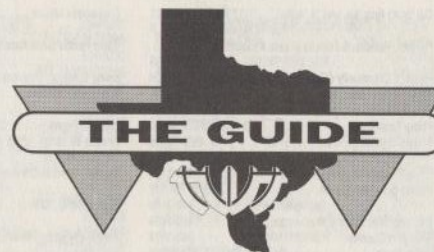

Charles A. Dally, IV
Charles A. Dally, IV, 41, passed away Tuesday, Nov. 27, 1996, at his home in Houston. Chuck was a 1977 architecture graduate of Kent State University and held masters degrees from Texas A&M University. He was employed by the City of Houston for the past six years as a manager in the Planning Department. Chuck loved travel, music, movies and reading and had participated as a supernumerary in a number of productions of the Houston Grand Opera and the Dallas Opera.

He is survived by his life partner, David Neu, Houston; parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Dally, III, Sewickley, Pennsylvania; and sisters, Elizabeth Dally, Portland Oregon, and Mary Sue Dally and Kate Shriver, Pittsburgh.

A memorial service will be held this Saturday, Dec. 7, at 6 p.m. at Bering Memorial United Methodist Church, 1440 Harold St. in Houston.
