

A full-page photograph of a muscular man wearing a light-colored cowboy hat and an open, plaid shirt. He is holding a thick rope with both hands, one near his head and the other lower down. He has a serious expression and is looking directly at the camera. The background is slightly blurred, showing what appears to be a wooden structure.

Take A Look Back!

1996 was a great year for Alternatives, thanks to all of our wonderful patrons! We would like for 1997 to be even greater!

Alternatives will continue to provide the largest gay adult video selection in town and continue to bring you the hottest talents in the industry for those "up close and personal" autograph and photo sessions.

Plus, we'll offer the most competitive prices on items that keep our lives interesting and safe!

With your help, we will also continue to support the gay community and the fight against HIV/AIDS.

Now bend over and look straight ahead as we push forward to give you more!

BY ELIZABETH BIRCH

In a few years, when we all have some true perspective, gay and lesbian Americans will look back on 1996 as a turning point for our movement for two very critical reasons. First, 1996 was the year that gay marriage hit the national consciousness — for better or for worse (although I would argue ultimately for better). The other watershed was the U.S. Supreme Court's ruling in the Colorado Amendment 2 case, an opinion that tantalizingly hints at how this court will deal with other gay and lesbian civil rights questions.

Religious political extremist organizations shoved gay marriage into America's collective face in their quest for a new fundraising tool that they hoped would have the added bonus of torpedoing Bill Clinton's reelection. Their scheme was clever and dextrous, as their skills methodically introduced anti-gay marriage bills in statehouses across the country in a build-up to the mother of them all, the Orwellian and unconstitutional Defense of Marriage Act.

In the short run, their strategy was both a success and a failure. A total of 16 states and the U.S. Congress passed anti-gay marriage laws. (The governors of Alabama and Mississippi pettishly issued executive orders after their state legislatures refused to pass such spiteful bills.) I can only presume that this issue proved to be a cash cow for such hate groups as the Christian Coalition, the Family Research Council and the Traditional Values Coalition.

But 19 states that considered such bills did not enact them. President Clinton disarmed the gay marriage missile targeting by announcing that he would sign the federal legislation.

By plucking the question of gay marriage out of the Hawaiian universe and depositing it in the living rooms of Americans everywhere, religious political extremists have, I believe, helped advance our cause in the long run. Rather than pouring into the streets to stop the terrifying gay marriage juggernaut, people are pausing to think about the question, most of them for the first time. And as more and more grasp for valid, logical reasons to deny gay people legal marriage, more and more are having to admit there are no valid, logical reasons. There are emotional and historical and, perhaps, religious rationales for barring same-sex marriage; but this is not a theocracy — Pat Robertson, are you listening? — and our legal system and our Constitution were created to protect the interests of the minority from the tyranny of the majority.

The other result of this anti-gay marriage campaign has been to evoke new empathy from reasonable people who have suddenly thought about and now understand how unfair it is to deny committed gay couples the same privileges and responsibilities enjoyed and endured by married couples. Opinion leaders like William Safire and Ann Landers agree that gay spouses should be entitled to virtually everything heterosexual spouses can claim, but they stumble on the word "marriage." In the meantime, DOMA defenders (like sponsor Rep. Bob Barr, R-Ga.) sound increasingly absurd as they rail that gays, by seeking this most conservative of institutions, are somehow threatening civilization's very foundation.

The other seminal event of 1996 was the Supreme Court's ruling in May in the case of Romer v. Evans. This eloquent decision embodied a quantum leap in juridical thinking, particularly when held up against Bowers v. Hardwick, the last ruling that had such broad implications for gay Americans. The latter decision, handed down in 1986 by a far more liberal court, found nothing unconstitutional about sodomy laws that solely target gays.

Justice Anthony Kennedy, a Reagan appointee, opened the Romer opinion with a quote from the dissent to the infamously wrongheaded Plessy v. Ferguson decision, which legalized the "separate but equal" system for black Americans. He could not have been clearer when he wrote that there is nothing "special" about laws protecting gay people from discrimination — thereby tearing down the hateful claims that what we seek is not basic equality. And he proclaimed almost poetically that no state has the authority to make one class of people "a stranger to its laws." This is a strong signal that a majority of this court is ready to listen to cases relating to the treatment of gay people in society and to judge them on their legal merits alone.

This was not a unanimous decision, however. Justice Antonin Scalia wrote one of his typically scathing dissents — and was joined by Chief Justice William Rehnquist and Justice Clarence Thomas — arguing that it is perfectly proper and constitutional for society to deplore and legislate against gays, just as our system discriminates against convicted felons. But they gave voice to a kind of irrational prejudice against gays that is becoming less common and less acceptable in our society. While it is unfortunate that three members of the court harbor such illogical malice, it's heartening — and a social barometer — that the other six do not.

Finally, those who know how invested I am in passing the Employment Non-Discrimination Act might be wondering why I haven't mentioned the Senate's near-passage of ENDA as among the chief reasons why 1996 will go down in gay history as a signal year for our community. That's because I fully expect ENDA to pass before the turn of the century. And once that has happened, the fact that 1996 saw the first vote on the bill in one congressional chamber will be only a footnote to the larger victory of enacting the first civil rights law covering gay and lesbian Americans.

very far to see that the new year is already in full bloom, with plenty of "flowers" for the picking. One of the latest additions to our little musical garden comes to us via Madonna. How about those dance mixes of "Don't Cry For Me Argentina," produced by Miami's Pablo Flores? What type of fabulous record is this?! Oweee! It's one of those covered records that, if not done just right, could end up being a total mess. Here they've given us a dose of hi-NRG combined with Latin-flavored production, and the Material Girl takes it to the bank with yet another stunning vocal performance. Although at times it almost seems a bit overproduced and a little busy compared to many of today's popular NRG-ish releases, you overlook that because those things just seem to fit the piece so well. I mean, really, it is from Evita, after all. Be on the lookout for an end of January/early February store date....

For those who've been waiting for the new Livin' Joy single "Follow the Rules," it's finally here, complete with new lead vocalist Tameka Star. While the track definately holds its own, don't buy it with the thought that you'll be hearing something like "Dreamer" or "Don't Stop Movin'." This song simply doesn't go there. Don't get me wrong; it's a great record, but it ain't Janice Robertson. Sorry, maybe a name change is in order....

Next up is another single from Me'Shell

Ndegocello entitled "Stay." I believe it's safe to say that this girl is really on her way to massive stardom. Her latest offers up a healthy portion of class with mixes by Peter Daou, Cevin Fisher and more on this well-worth-it double 12-inch. This velvety smooth, mid-tempo houser is the third from her album Peace Beyond Passion. Go ahead, you need both....

It's been a while since we've received flawlessness from Army of Lovers, but their new single "Give My Life" is, in my opinion, the best thing since "Crucified." This is hi-NRG at its best; full-on vocals, soaring production and a chorale hook of life should propel this single right to the top of NRG charts the world over. And as an extra bonus, there's a Candy Girls remix of "Crucified" as well. Wuuurrrk!...

I'm not quite sure how I feel about this next record, so I'll just tell you about it and you can find it and decide for yourself. Give a listen to "The Boy from Ipanema," a little Italian import by Crystal Waters. What?! (I know, that's what I said, too.) I don't think this one's going to take over the charts, but if you're an avid collector, it's surely one of those novelty records you'll want to own. For now, I'll reserve my opinion; let's see if there are domestic mixes coming and how they sound....

Ever since the Happy Clappers hit big two summers ago with "I Believe," we've continued to move and shake to their fabulous work. Whether it be their original tracks with featured vocalist Sandra Edwards or remixes of others' material, they have had a way of moving us. Their latest, "Never Again," incorporates a "Garage"-style production with diva vocals and more subdued stylings for something that's more along the lines of the Brand New Heavies. There's a nice vibe happening here, and it's a cute change for the new year....

And...in our last edition of FRESH BEATS, we named AM:PM as Label of the Year. However, we failed to make an honorable mention of another UK outfit that continues to amaze clubland, Azuli. With over 50 records (all the teal) now under their belts, they've become one of those labels whose work you can buy knowing it'll be good, even without hearing it first. Their latest is "All of That" by diva Thelma Houston. Look for Azuli's product to be released domestically on Twisted. More on that in a later issue.

And that's dance music THIS WEEK IN TEXAS.

The Josephine Theatre in San Antonio seems to have a huge prospective hit on its hands as it presents The "King" and I (or, The Revealing Shocking Secrets of How Elvis Lit My Light) starting this evening (Jan. 3) and running through Jan. 25 at the theatre, 339 W. Josephine in the Alamo City. Directed by Greg Hinojosa, the musical comedy tells the tale of Elvish wannabe Brother P.B. and his memorial service commemorating Elvis' birthday, which winds up with special incognito testimonials from women who turn out to be Cher, Barbra Streisand, Liza Minnelli and Dolly Parton. Shows are at 8:15 p.m. Fridays-Saturdays and 2:30 p.m. Sundays; tickets are $15 adults and $8 children under 12, with discounts available. A special "Elvis Birthday Bash" from 7:30 p.m.-12:30 a.m. on Tuesday, Jan. 7, includes the show (at 8:15) and a reception with hors d'oeuvres, beverages and much more; tickets for that special evening are $35 — and there'll also be an Elvis impersonation contest, with a $100 cash prize. For reservations and more info, call (210)734-4646.

VORTEX presents Panoptikon starting Saturday, Jan. 4, and running through Jan. 25 at Planet Theatre, 2307 Manor Rd. in Austin. The musical is Part II in the X & Y Cybernetic Opera trilogy by Ethos; this will be the show's world premiere. For tickets or more info, call (512)478-LAVA.

The longest-running show in Austin history returns to the Zachary Scott Theatre Center as Shear Madness takes the stage Jan. 11-Feb. 16 on the Whisenhunt Arena Stage, 1510 Toomey Rd. Performances of the audience-participatory whodunit are at 8 p.m. Thursdays-Saturdays and 2:30 p.m. Sundays. Tickets are $18 Thursdays and Sundays and $20 Fridays and Saturdays, with discounts available. For reservations or more info, call (512)476-0541.

The Dallas Video Festival returns for its tenth year Jan. 9-12 at the Dallas Museum of Art, corner of Woodall Rodgers Frwy and St. Paul St. One of the largest of its kind in the U.S., the Dallas Video Festival is presented by the Video Association of Dallas and the Dallas Museum of Art. Tickets are $8-$10 for day passes or $25 for an all-festival pass at the door or at Crossroads Market. There will be ten films of interest to the gay and lesbian community, including Homosuite, Bubbeh Lee & Me and Jodie, An Icon. For more info, call (214)651-8600 or visit the festival's web site at <http://www.videofest.org>.

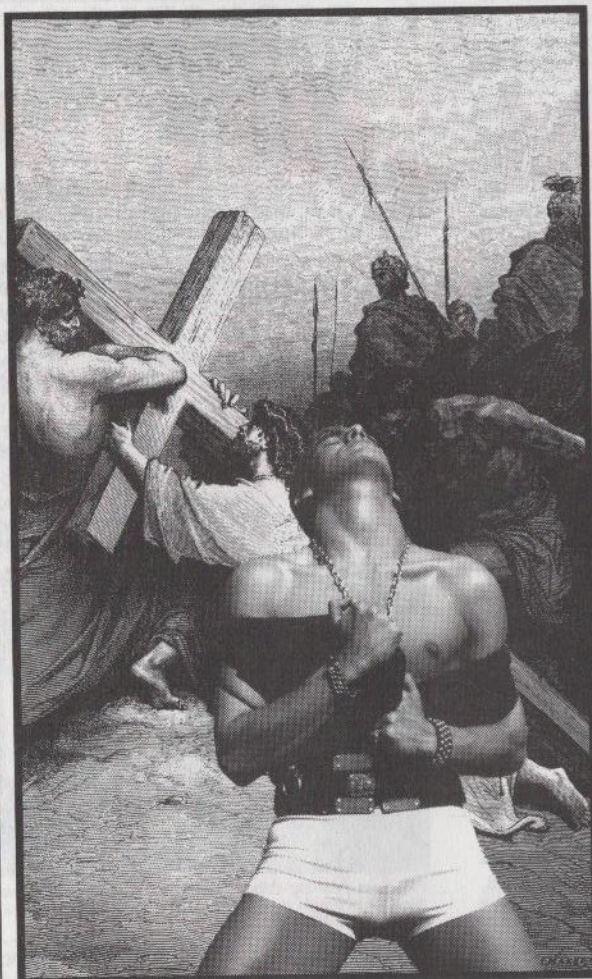

The Dallas Theatre Center brings to the stage as its first production of 1997, Jean Cocteau's Indiscretions (Les Parents Terribles), newly translated by Jeremy Sams. Filled with overheated desire and sexual intrigue, Indiscretions spins the feverish tale of one family's exploding passions. Low-priced previews begin on Thursday, Jan. 9. Opening night is Tuesday, Jan. 14, and performances continue through Sunday, Feb. 2 at the Kalita Humphreys Theatre, 3636 Turtle Creek. Ticket prices range from $16 to $44.50 ($11 to $24 during previews). For specific time and date info, or to order tickets, call the Dallas Theater Center box office at (214)522-TIXX.

Phantom [starring Glory Crampton, I, as Christine and Richard White as the Phantom] returns to Houston's Music Hall through Jan. 19.

Phantom, the critically-acclaimed gothic thriller by playwright Arthur Kopit and composer Maury Yeston, returns to Houston's TUTS at the Music Hall (where the show had its world premiere in 1991) through Jan. 19. Based on the 1911 novel The Phantom of the Opera by Gaston Leroux, it's the musical story of a disfigured genius and his passion for a beautiful soprano. Performances are Tuesdays-Saturdays at 8 p.m. and 2 p.m. Saturdays and Sundays, with a 7:30 show on Jan. 12. Tickets ($18-$48) are available at TUTS, 4235 San Felipe, or by calling Advantix at (800)766-6048.

JANUARY 3 - 9, 1997

NICOLAS CAGE
BORN
JANUARY 7, 1964

Now that the New Year's hangover has (hopefully) dissipated, what better time to begin our 1997 resolutions than in January, when a cluster of planets in uncompromising Capricorn gives us strength, direction andchutzpa? Let's review the month of January this week. Full steam ahead, brothers and sisters!

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20) Every cloud has a silver lining, so it's a good thing to have all those planets clouding up your sign. This is an excellent month to begin new projects and test the waters with a new wardrobe or hairstyle. Have we achieved stylish cult status yet? If not, seek the advice of those in the know. It may be true that you're just the type to wear those hot pink chaps. Then again...maybe not.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19) Although the Age of Aquarius is still a few years off, all those planets in Capricorn turn on the mystical bubble machine full force. Aqueerians are well advised to let the spiritual energy flow freely and seek affirming kinships to strengthen their fortitude. It also couldn't hurt to volunteer for a worthy gay cause. Karma builds on all levels now. Build a pink palace.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - March 20) Pink Fish find a comforting school to swim in now. Thankfully, all those planets in Capricorn enable you to draw friends from all ranges of social groups. Choose carefully, dear, queer Pisces; you only want to hang around those who make you feel proud and happy with yourself. There can be no compromise. You don't have to dance with just anyone who asks.

ARIES (March 21 - April 20) Queer Rams have full professional plates now when all those planets in Capricorn pile on the responsibilities. Are you prepared to ascend to the starchamber, my proud master builder? A word to the wise: All this stressful corporate activity may leave you fairly short-tempered and snarly, so avoid any avoidable confrontations with partners now.

TAURUS (April 21 - May 21) All these planets in Capricorn may tickle the hooves of even the most complacent and sedentary queer Bulls. Maybe it's time to get your show out on the open road, cousin, and seek some of our lost tribesfolk. (A good place to start is some beach somewhere...oh, let's say maybe Key West or Sobe.) Expand your mind while you're at it and breathe that continental air.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21) If January feels hot and sultry, maybe it's because gay Twins feel hot and sultry themselves. Sexual stimulation is a must-have with all those planets in Capricorn. But be warned: As you dance the night away in your alluringly drafty leather outfit, friends may feel a little like old, peeling wallpaper. Try not to ruffle the feathers of a few good birds.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23) All these planets in Capricorn demand that you reassess what you're looking for in a relationship. Be rational and practical. Heck, be lusty and sleazy! Then examine yourself in the mirror, warts and all, and see if your idealized partner would be attracted to you. If the answer is a resounding yes, then get out there and seek your mate. Come clean, but don't come cheap!

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23) Although I've always recommended that proud Lions should eat out as often as possible, you may find an après-holiday bulge where that fabulous flat stomach used to be. Use the month of January and all those disciplined planets in Capricorn to choose a diet and exercise regime and develop a svelte, alluring you. Cruise season is a year-round sport in my book.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23) If you thought the party season was over, think again, proud Virgin. All those planets in Capricorn seem to be plotting and planning a jolly January, so don your party hat and hop on the party train. You may feel slightly sexually repressed (so what else is new?...), but take heart; even if money can't buy love, it can certainly buy an excellent bottle of strong champagne.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23) Queer Libras may get their fill of family mandates this month. Expect all those planets in Capricorn to stir up all the ancestral dust you've been shoving under the rug. Good thing, too; you can no longer live your life according to the mandates and expectations of others. Life is far too short to compromise. Come out, come out, wherever you are!

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22) Manipulative and calculating queer Scorps will be happily surprised at how well their repartee is received. Give thanks to all those planets in conservative, discerning Capricorn for the bountiful bons mots. Perhaps you can put your eloquence to work for one of our worthy community causes. Try shouting and waving the rainbow flag where everyone can hear and see.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22) Helping friends in need comes at the expense of fun and frolic, but who cares? Queer Archers realize that their value systems need a recount, so grab a calculator and add up the points. There's money to be made by those of you with a clear sense of risk and reward. Thankfully, all those planets in practical Capricorn prevent you from buying that fur-lined bathing suit!

DALLAS VIDEO FESTIVAL FEATURES
GAY, LESBIAN FILMS

*'Butch Wax,' 'Bubbeh Lee & Me'
Among Entries in Jan. 9-12

DALLAS — The Dallas Video Festival returns for its tenth year Jan. 9-12 at the Dallas Museum of Art, and it promises to be one of the gayest festivals yet. With nine or more gay-themed videos and multimedia entries scheduled, Dallas residents can treat themselves to more homosexually-oriented films in four days than usually come to the city in several months.

Additionally, the festival will feature the latest techniques and technology in its entries.

"The tenth anniversary will highlight innovation in television, computers and other video programming from the past and the future," said Bart Weiss, Artistic Director for the Dallas Video Festival.

The following entries are of particular interest to the gay and lesbian community:

On Thursday, Jan. 9, at 9 p.m., Jennifer Lane's Butch Wax will be shown in the Horchow Auditorium.

Bubbeh Lee & Me, a humorous portrait of the relationship between a young gay man and his Jewish grandmother, is a testimony to the possibility of bridging the generational and cultural divides that inhibit love. It was directed by Andy Abrahams Wilson for HBO's Family Video Diary Series. Bubbeh will show Sunday, Jan. 12 at 1 p.m. at the Video Box in "Mispochech: Jewish Families."

A collection of four evocative pieces on being gay in America by Rudy Lemke, Homosuite, is on CD-ROM in the Interactive Zone.

Identities is Nino Rodriguez's deconstruction of a conversation with a person who has AIDS; this short video examines the importance of silences in communication. The moments when the subject is remembering and formulating what he is about to say force us to evaluate the maxim "Silence = Death." Identities will be screened Friday, Jan. 10, at 9 p.m. in the TV lounge.

In I Hung Back, Held Fire, Danced and Lied, artist Tom Kalin confronts the experience of loss, while also dealing with feelings of closeness and estrangement. Throughout the piece, he intercuts the names of people who have died of AIDS, some famous and some known only to their friends and families. This work will be shown Friday at 7 p.m. at the Video Box in Spiffy Visuals compilation.

AUSTIN BUSINESS GROUP EXPECTS BUSY YEAR

*Stonewall Chamber of Commerce
Elects New Officers, Plans Expansion of Networking.*

AUSTIN — Expansion and networking are two of the main projects on which the Austin Stonewall Chamber of Commerce anticipates it will be focusing in 1997.

The business group has been a loose-knit association of Austin-area businesses and individuals for nearly seven years, but it organized as a chamber of commerce only a year ago. From March to September 1996, membership in the gay- and lesbian-oriented group doubled to 65 and the goal is that by the end of '97, there will be over 100 paid members. Stonewall also has begun proceedings to achieve a presence in the Greater Council of Chambers, and to get its tax-exempt status approved.

"Our main goal right now is to expand how we network and who we network with," explained Charles Thornton, co-chair of the group's Programs Committee. "We're going to have an expo in the fall, and we're also discussing a number of social events we hope to hold."

Officers for 1997 were elected at the group's general meeting at the end of last November. Chosen were Jack Schulze, president; Doña Hatch, vice president; Bryan Uecker, treasurer; Joel Hueske, secretary; John Farmer, public relations; Thornton and Barry Izsak, programs; and Amy Krause and Stan Korn, membership. Dues for membership in Stonewall are $50 a year, and benefits include a quarterly newsletter, which began last year.

On the third Thursday of each month, Stonewall holds a business dinner meeting with featured speakers discussing topics of interest to the membership and the community. The next meeting is at 6 p.m. Jan. 16 at Thai Passion restaurant, 620 Congress Ave.; discussion will center around program plans for the new year. Stonewall also holds a business breakfast meeting on the first Wednesday of every month, at which members have an opportunity to exchange business promotion ideas and business leads.

HOUSTON HIV SERVICE GROUPS WIN CORPORATE GRANTS

AFH, Omega House and Community Partners Are Among Beneficiaries of 'Passport Fund' Established by Macy's West.

HOUSTON — Three local organizations that provide HIV/AIDS-related services are recipients of grants announced recently by a department store chain.

AIDS Foundation Houston, Omega House and Community Partners join 30 other such groups in five states (the others being Arizona, California, Minnesota and Nevada) as the first beneficiaries of the Passport Fund, a grants program for HIV/AIDS education, treatment, care and prevention that Macy's West established in 1996 in cooperation with its parent company, Federated Department Stores, Inc. Macy's West does business in the five states that are home to the grant recipients. A total of $231,000 is being distributed to the 33 agencies.

A grant of $10,500 will be awarded to Community Partners, which has operated a school-based AIDS Prevention Project for the past two years. The grant will partially fund an HIV/AIDS counselor on site at three school-based clinics in the Houston area, serving 600-800 students annually.

Omega House, an eight-bed residential care facility for people with AIDS in the last months of their lives, received a grant of $5,000. AIDS Foundation Houston, Inc. will use its $5,000 grant to fund bulk food purchases for its Stone Soup program, which provides food and personal hygiene items to low-income people with the disease.

The new funding comes from money raised by Macy's "Passport" fall fashion show, held annually in the Bay Area and this year in Los Angeles as well. One of the nation's most successful HIV/AIDS fundraisers, "Passport" has contributed more than $4.1 million to education, research, prevention and care since becoming a benefit in 1988. Hosted by Elizabeth Taylor and Earvin "Magic" Johnson, this year's events raised $1.5 million.

In addition to supporting seven Bay Area and Los Angeles beneficiaries, Macy's set aside a portion of the 1996 proceeds to initiate grants to HIV/AIDS organizations throughout the Macy's West chain.

"AIDS is an issue that is of vital concern to customers and employees in all our markets," Michael Steinberg, Chairman of Macy's West, said in a statement issued Dec. 18 in conjunction with the announcement of the awards. "The Passport Fund allows us to reach further into the HIV/AIDS community and provide assistance to HIV/AIDS organizations wherever we do business."

GAY RODEO ASSOCIATION SEEKS EVENT POSTER

Deadline for Entries in Design Competition Is Jan. 9.

TEXAS — Planning is underway for the 14th Texas Gay Rodeo, which will take place the second week of November this year in Houston. Among items on the agenda is the selection of an event poster, which will be chosen from among entries in a design competition being held this month.

The designer of the winning poster will receive a $100 prize, and his or her design will be placed on display around the country. In addition to being considered a collectible item, the poster is the major media element in advertising for the organization's annual rodeo event.

TGRA stressed that poster designs should reflect the organization's purposes, which are "To promote and stage an annual rodeo event at locations situated in the State of Texas; to promote communication among [TGRA's] members and fellowship among its members by encouraging the participation of its membership in western-related events (e.g., rodeo performances); and to engage in charitable activities, whether by volunteering the services of the Corporation and/or its members or by the raising of monies, with such activities and the proceeds derived therefrom being donated to those charitable organizations that the membership of the Corporation may choose."

"Professional, artistic expression of the sport of rodeo" and the creation of a "respectable, marketable fund-raising item for years to come" are also important. All contest submissions must be in a camera-ready format.

Entries for the TGRA poster contest must be submitted by Jan. 9 to the group's Vice President, Michael A. Gaitz, at (713) 777-1444, or to one's local TGRA chapter.

The winning poster will be selected by the TGRA State Board of Trustees at their next state meeting, to be held Sunday, Jan. 12, at the Brazos River Bottom nightclub in Houston.

GAMBLERS BOWLING

AUSTIN — The Austin Gamblers bowling league reached the halfway mark of its season with Clueless, The Phoenix and Longshots holding the top three spots among the 22 teams after 15 weeks of competition.

For Week 15 on Dec. 17, Ease It In recorded the highest scratch team game (851), scratch team series (2334), handicap team game (937) and handicap team series (2592). The individual bests for that night were Jason Hoogervorst's 243 scratch game and 621 scratch series, Irene Gutierrez's 258 handicap game and Bobby Killebrew's 677 handicap series. Gutierrez had the evening's best for pins-over-average with 74, eight more than runner-up Ryan Ramirez.

The second half of season play begins Jan. 7, with practice at 8:15 p.m. and play at 8:30 at Dart Bowl. Action takes place every Tuesday, except for holidays.

HOUSTON BILLIARDS

HOUSTON — After nine weeks of play, rankings in the Houston Metropolitan Billiards League show Jackson 5 in first place, followed by Oui Cousins, Ripcord Maniacs, JR's Cue Crew, Masters of the Mine, BRB Wranglers, Crazy 8's, Chupacabra, 611 Sticks, Cousins Challengers, Boozers, EJ's High 5's and Tight Racks.

Play resumes Tuesday, Jan. 7. The third monthly meeting will be held Sunday, Jan. 12, at 2 p.m. at the Montrose Mining Company. Half of season dues will be due at that time, $24.50 per person or $122.50 per team. Jan. 14 is the last date for player status change.

LAMBDA SKATING

HOUSTON — The Lambda Rollerskating Club holds its first skate night of 1997 next Wednesday, Jan. 8, from 8-10 p.m. at Starlite Skating Academy, 8075 Cook Rd. Admission is $5 plus $1.50 if you need skates. There will be door prizes, a fast skate, train and more.

For more info, call (713)787-0625 or e-mail lrs@neosoft.com.

HOG STARTS NEW YEAR

HOUSTON — The Houston Outdoor Group heads into the new year with its next general meeting, on Thursday, Jan. 23, at 7 p.m. at the offices of The Assistance Fund, 1116 Jackson Blvd. Members will also meet at Toopee's Coffee Shop, 1830 W. Alabama, for breakfast at 9 a.m. on Saturday, Jan. 18.

There are no formal membership requirements to join HOG, whose participants organize sports as well as social activities (indoors or out) individually or in ad-hoc groups. For more info, or a free trial newsletter (and subscription form), call (713)KAMPOUT or write to: HOG; P.O. Box 980893; Houston, TX 77098.

Gay people who aspire to elective office or who want to help other gay people win the electorate's trust face the same challenges as other politicians, and some unique ones as well, and a Washington, DC-based organization founded a few years ago works to help prepare them for those challenges. The Gay and Lesbian Victory Foundation, which takes its "Training Institute" on the road to cities around the country, is coming to Houston Feb. 6-9.

The Gay and Lesbian Victory Foundation got its start in 1993, when some members of the Gay and Lesbian Victory Fund decided there was also a need for an organization that would pursue the mission of training candidates and the professionals who help them win elections. While the Victory Fund (which dates back to 1991) works to elect openly gay men and lesbians at the local, state and national levels through its nationwide donor network, the Victory Foundation, a 501(c)(3) organization, focuses on longterm leadership development, candidate and manager recruitment, and training in nuts-and-bolts campaign and community organizing.

"We're very pleased to offer strong, potential gay and lesbian leaders the leadership development training and technical support they need to enter public life," Jonathan Wilson, Executive Director of the Victory Foundation, says.

The foundation's Training Institute boasts that the majority of its graduates have already put what they learned to use in at least one election cycle on an essentially full-time basis, either by running for office, managing campaigns, working as full-time campaign staffers, leading state and local steering committees fighting anti-gay initiatives or by "taking concrete, measurable steps to prepare to run." The Institute also points to the diversity of those benefiting from its classes, reporting that 49 percent of graduates are women, while 25% are people of color.

The Institute's stated mission is "to prepare a diverse group of extraordinarily talented leaders to enter public life; to create a corps of talented campaign professionals who can run smart, winning campaigns; to encourage team-building and partnership among potential candidates and managers; and to develop and sharpen the community-building skills of our next generation of leaders."

is under the direction of David Fleischer, a New York-based campaign professional and community organizer with more than a decade of experience in campaign management and leadership development. In addition to Fleischer, who serves as Coordinator of Training, the Institute's faculty is composed of openly gay and lesbian elected officials and leaders as well as experienced campaign professionals and trainers.

Participants go through what is described as "an intensive, nonpartisan three-day training designed specifically for announced or potential openly gay and lesbian candidates; the managers who want to run their campaigns; and community leaders entering public life, particularly those who take demanding, full-time roles combating anti-gay initiatives."

Training sessions offer instruction that focuses on the following areas:

- Electoral organizing, which includes building the broad base of support needed to win; mobilizing and making the best use of volunteers; and winning over undecided, persuadable voters;
- Fund-raising, which looks at how to raise money, as well as how to develop a reliable donor base and get the most out of it;
- Communications and message, which covers how to come out without becoming a "single-issue" candidate or public figure, and how to elevate one's public speaking skills;
- And Planning and strategy, which includes evaluating one's readiness to run; putting together a realistic and comprehensive plan, timetable and budget; and making efficient use of one's time and resources.

"When I was out on the stump, people would ask me why I was running, since politics tends to be so corrupt," candidate Barbra Kavanaugh said after winning her race for a seat on the City Council of Buffalo, New York in 1995. "I would tell them about the moment in the [Institute] training when one of the trainers challenged us and said, 'If you leave electoral politics to the sharks, the sharks have it, and then they have all the power.'"

"But it doesn't have to be that way. The training provides the tools to beat the sharks — not to copy them, but to be better than them, to out-organize them, and to make politics a better game."

The Victory Foundation Training Institute is underwritten by grants from individual donors and foundations. Tuition is $300, with a limited number of partial scholarships available (travel and meal expenses are additional). Tuition is due upon acceptance to the Institute.

The Houston Training Institute is scheduled for Feb. 6-9. Thursday hours are 7-9:30 p.m. while Friday, Saturday and Sunday sessions run from 9 a.m.-6 p.m. For more information, or to apply for the training, call Fleischer no later than next Friday, Jan. 10 (or by this Saturday, Jan. 4, if possible), at (718)230-9865.

AUSTINteaCIOUS — It was a sad, sad evening as family and friends bid farewell to 5th Street Station last Friday, Dec. 27, its final night in operation as a gay bar (it will be remodeled and open as a straight club under a new name in late January). A million and one memories oozed from every corner of Cynthia Clark's pleasure palace. The club hosted its last benefit Dec. 20 when the United Court of Austin held its wild Turnabout Show, raising oodles of money (a final total was not available at press time) for the Pediatric AIDS League and AIDS Services of Austin. Emperor III Bobby Barnett [left] showed a new side of himself as Kristi Kelly. Austin just won't be the same without the 5th....

Thankfully, good ol' Charlie's just keeps rolling along with fun and festive times for all. Daddy Wayne and his merry elves made a lot of stomachs happy with their annual free Christmas Day dinner; delish! And the day also was Scott's 33rd birthday; happy happy, dear Orca, but you're still going to have to show us that idea whenever you step out from behind the bar! The partymeisters at Charlie's have done it again by unleashing male dancers on Monday nights, too, from 7-9 p.m. and 10:30 p.m.-1:30 a.m. Miss Gay America and Austin's own darling diva Lauren Taylor hosts another talent-packed Sunday Showtime at 11:30 p.m. this Sunday, Jan. 5, which will include special guest Laken Edwards and more surprises....

Up north at 'Bout Time, Mona Lee [right] was among the superstars wowing the crowd in the Pink Santa Xmas Show on Dec. 21. The benefit raised over $1,000 for the kids at the Pediatric AIDS League. Perky Pam continues to gather recipes for the Ultimate Cookbook the bar is compiling; be sure to bring your recipe and a sample of your masterpiece (for photographic purposes) to the bar at 5 p.m. any Sunday in January, and your talents may be immortalized. Way-Back Wednesdays will be spinning again soon, and the volleyball court is ready and waiting to be used when the good weather hits. 'Bout Time also will host free HIV screening by the Austin/Travis County Health Department from 6-9 p.m. this Sunday, Jan. 5....

There's twice the fun under one roof (three times if you count up on the roof) on Congress at The Forum and The Cuff. Welcome new general manager John Kupec, who came all the way from Seattle to become part of the family. There are male dancers in both bars Tuesdays through Saturdays; on Thursdays, be sure to play Video Mailbox from 10 p.m. to closing....

Chain Drive hosted another exciting HOT Bear Quarterly Contest on Dec. 20, featuring competitors Jose, Leo, Jack, Dave, Steve and Tony [clockwise from back l]. "Bear Guy" Dave, up all the way from Orlando, Florida, won first prize; Steve was second and Leo third. On Dec. 15, Santa's Twisted Playhouse, hosted by the Capital City Riders Motorcycling Club, was lots of fun and raised over $400 for Christopher House. The Full Moon Contest Dec. 24 was won by Alex over five rivals; more on that next time. Drop by Sundays from 4-9 p.m. and check out what's cookin' on the patio....

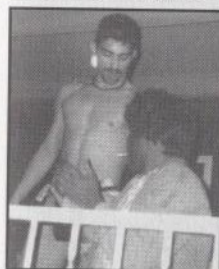

They're still dancin' the nights away over at Rainbow Cattle Company, where country recording artist Jeff Miller from Nashville brought down the house with a couple of tremendous shows. If you like great eating, then you know all about Margie's Famous Steak Night on Thursdays, the Happy Hour Buffet on Fridays and Sunday's special Chuck Wagon Buffet. If you want to get a step up on the competition, check out Colton's country western dance lessons at 9 p.m. every Monday....

close out 1996 on a big (and loud!) note. Duchess Laura's corner kingdom invites you out to their Spade Tournament (yes, the card game) from 2-6 p.m. this Sunday, Jan. 5; it's $2.50 per person or $5 per two-player team. This Saturday night the 4th it's the Adults, the Knievels and Regional Action providing the music; Tuesday the 7th is the Rogues....

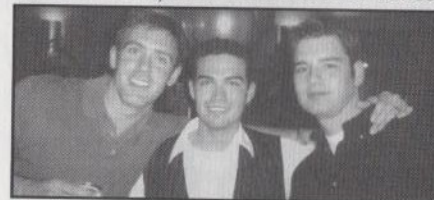

Over at Oilcan Harry's, they're busy busy making plans for their anniversary party on Jan. 18; we can't wait to see what surprises Freeman and the gang cook up! They really had the Christmas spirit over the holidays at the 4th St. landmark, with three Christmas trees brightening one corner, a little one over the bar and sexy Slade brightening your mood when you walked in the front door. Now that's what we call a greeting!...

FOOT-LONG NOTES: Raucous Ricco [left] was among those entertaining the crowd at the Hot House Christmas Revue on Dec. 21 at Victory Grill. The lineup also featured emcee Jacqui DeShawn, Sabrina Ross and Topaz.... Down at Momma's Diner, they brought in $750.75 for Christopher House during a Christmas Day fund-raiser; dashing Dale cooked a roast and a ham (in just five hours!), and there was a potluck dinner and white elephant gift exchange. Way to go, girls!...Kenji won $500 as champion of the year-end Amateur Strip Contest at Area 52....The Edge is still putting the finishing touches on its magnificent mansion; the doors should be opening to the public almost any day now....Hope your new year is nothing but smiles and goodies, friends!

this weekend, stop by on Friday night for reduced-price bottle beer and no cover before midnight. The same holds true for Saturday night, with high-energy dance music all night long and two hours of super-low well drink prices starting at 9 p.m. There's also no cover until midnight on Saturday, so get started early each night and make a weekend of it at Ice Factory....

Hope you all got plenty of money over the holidays, because you're going to need a lot of extra bills to stuff in the G-strings of all the hot dancers at Crews Inn. They've got hunky guys like Jesse [right] every single night. Next time you're in, look for new dancer James Stratton and make him feel welcome. He's young and hot and doesn't mind if you stare! Don't forget that Crews Inn is the best place around to spend an otherwise dull Tuesday night. The place is always packed full of sexy men ready to party the night away. Wednesday through Monday, Crews Inn offers a great beer bust with a low buy-in price and even lower-priced refills. And, as always, there's never a cover when you cruise at Crews....

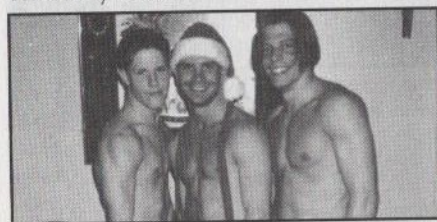

Now that the holidays are over, Wanda Wednesdays are back at JR's. That means a pool tournament with over $100 in prizes and well drink, longneck and Smirnoff vodka specials all day and all night. Oh, and we can't forget Wanda. It's always fun to stop in and see what she's up to. Terry and Michael [left] dropped in recently to catch the great videos and watch all the drama unfold on the streets of Cedar Springs through the huge windows at JR's. Hang out there this weekend and enjoy great drink specials and really cheap longnecks. Sunday night is still the Video Karaoke party. There's always something going on and always somebody to see....

The results are in! Midtowne Spa's recent Quarter Finals Strip Contest produced some excited, well-deserving winners, as you can see for yourself [above]. Look for these buff bods in the near future at Midtowne Spa. They'll be strutting their stuff and getting ready for the finals, coming soon....

Still upset that you didn't get that "Tickle Me Donna" doll you wanted for Christmas? Well, get over it and get to the Rose Room where the grand diva of drag herself is ready to tickle your funny bone and tantalize your senses along with the best female impersonators in town. There's always a show, and always a couple of show-stoppers. So bring in those last few relatives lingering around town and show them some real fun tonight at the Rose Room....

After spending early Friday night cruising JR's, Sue Ellen's and TMC, where should you spend the rest of the evening? Village Station, of course! Get in for free from 10:30-11 p.m. tonight and get ready to spend some quality time dancing, dancing and dancing. They've got the hottest dance hits, the hottest male dancers and the hottest drink specials all night long. Speaking of hot, even if the temperatures are hovering right around the freezing mark, Village Station knows its customers like to go outside to its great patio and deck area. So, like an overprotective mom, they've put out several heaters for your comfort. It's a great way to cuddle up with someone special under the stars, just like Ross and Chad [right] did recently. On Saturday, cruise in to Village early — from 9-9:30 p.m. you can get in without a cover charge and spend your Saturday night with all the great people at Village Station....

Cruise in 1997 at Throckmorton Mining Company and you'll be ready to Cruise into Overdrive every Friday and Saturday from 10:30-11 p.m. During that time, prices will plummet on each of their selection of 16 draft beers. It's a great way to relax and burn calories. Yes, you heard correctly. Your body can burn 123 calories just by drinking eight glasses of an ice-cold beverage. While draft beer may not be exactly what those medical guys have in mind, hey, we're not here to judge! While you're at TMC, grab a stick and shoot some pool with a few buds. Three men who got chummy for our CRUISE CAMERA recently were Mike, Thom and Leonard. They were just getting started on an evening of excitement at TMC. Make tonight exciting and get there early....

Everyone always says you gain ten pounds over the holidays. Then most everyone makes a New Year's resolution to work out and shed those extra inches. But working out can be so dull! Not at the Round-Up, however. Drop in every Thursday and Sunday at 8:30 p.m. It's a fun way to get some exercise and an even better excuse to get really close to another man! And with reduced drink prices every Wednesday through Sunday until 10 p.m., once you get to the Round-Up, you'll know why it's the home of the best-looking, best-dancing men in the country....

Kolors is ready to shine in 1997 as it prepares for the fantastic Mr. Dallas USA competition on Jan. 16. It'll be a great show, so make sure that night is free on your calendar. Another great show took place recently at Kolors and HOT TEA was there to capture the moments for all our readers. The Leather by Boots Leather Fantasy Show was a whip-smackin' good time [above]. It was hot and wild, just like Kolors. Remember, they've got happy hour prices every day from noon-10 p.m. and male dancers starting daily at 5 p.m. See you there tonight....

Moby Dick is all decked out for a new year of great music and videos, gorgeous men and fantastic drinks. Moby's got well drink and bottle beer specials until 10 p.m. every day for your thirst-quenching pleasure. If you're feeling a little more adventurous, try a shot of Goldschlager. They've got it priced so low, it won't cost you much silver. Perhaps that's why Jason [right] is smiling so much. Or it could be that he's ready to knock 'em dead at Moby's Sunday night Video Karaoke. We may never know exactly, but everybody's always smiling when they're at Moby Dick. Go find out for yourself — soon....

Bamboleo's is still the only choice in town for spicy Tejano music and incredible people. There's a whole lot planned for the coming year that you won't want to miss out on. First up in January is the Miss Bamboleo's Revue in memory of Jim Coronado and Ray Martin. It's going to be a nonstop extravaganza. Stay tuned to HOT TEA for all the details coming very, very soon.

HOUSTON TEA — Every year, the lineup of seasonal festivities in Houston is highlighted by the "Holiday Divas" show at Heaven. For this annual event, Super Sunday hostess Kofi welcomed drag superstars Hot Chocolate and Tiffany Arieagus along with the lovely Nicole Perria. The club's list of upcoming special guests includes Kelly Lauren and Vanessa Raye this weekend, Maya Douglas and Sweet Savage on Jan. 12, Shady Lady and Melissa Crawford on Jan. 19 and Whitney Paige and Jennifer St. John on Jan. 26. Don't forget that this Sunday, as well as the first Sunday of every month, Heaven offers 2-for-1 cover. Every Thursday, before and after the male strip contest at 11 p.m., deejay Steve Underwood [above] takes you on a journey through the sensational '70s with the best in Trash Disco....

Fridays are fabulous at JR's. The club that's twice the video bar is sure to double your pleasure with All-American happy hour until 10 p.m., complimentary hors d'oeuvres, Show Tunes group sing-along from 6-9 p.m. and seven gorgeous go-go gods like Kevin, Chris and Brook [above, l-r]. Glenwood Webber [second from r] definitely enjoys the company of these super sexy men and we're sure you will, too. JR's weekly entertainment lineup also features the Pump! professional male

Every Saturday, the clubs of 800 Pacific invite you join them for their weekly Block Party. For two hours, you can enjoy reduced price well drinks and domestic longnecks from 9-9:30 p.m. at the Santa Fe Bar, from 9:30-10 p.m. at the Montrose Mining Company, from 10-10:30 p.m. at JR's and from 10:30-11 p.m. with no cover at Heaven....

Over at the BRB, the second annual "Miracle on Brazos Street" extravaganza hosted by former Mr. BRB Armand Posas [above, r] and co-emcees Clint York [l] and Nevada [c] brought in over $4,000 for the Loving Arms Foundation. Congratulations on a wonderfully successful show. Mark your calendars and be sure to be on hand as Day-Leigh Edwards crowns her successor at the Miss BRB Pageant on Sunday, Jan. 12. The Mr. BRB Contest is scheduled for Sunday, Jan. 26....

One of Houston's favorite gyms, Fitness Exchange, has come home to Montrose. The new bigger and better facility is now open at 4040 Milam. In honor of their grand opening, Fitness Exchange is having a "buy 1 membership, get 1 free" sale. Take advantage of this offer now and you'll be able to make that New Year's get-in-shape resolution come true....

While you're working off those extra holiday goodies and enjoying the high-energy music on the laser-lit dance floor at Pacific Street, be sure to say hello to Leather Loft bartender Matthew Remington [right].

He's ready and waiting to serve you a refreshing beverage. The club's weekly party planner continues to feature Male Overload Sundays, Escape Mondays, Executive Night Tuesdays, Prime Meet Wednesdays, Sexx Thursdays, Friday Foreplay and Leather and Flesh Fantasy Saturdays. As always, shameless Caged Heat dancers strip and strut every night for your pleasure....

If Santa Claus didn't bring you some new gay apparel, get on over to Basic Brothers for their post-holiday sale. You can save up to 60% on selected active wear, casual wear, clubwear and more. Ken Claude and the staff at your out and proud clothing store are prepared to help you dress to impress....

Holiday revelry at Gentry kicked into high gear with the Imperial Court's "We Three Queens of Dis-Orient Are," hosted by Viscount XII Steve Simpson and Empress VIII Pittypat Magnolia Sugarbaker [left, l-r]. We're wondering how "the original PMS" felt after her intoxicating "12 Days of Christmas" number. This Sunday, Emperor XIII candidate Jerel McNeil presents "The Red Beans & Rice Revue" at 9 p.m. No matter what the weather is like outside, Gentry continues to sizzle with male strip contests on Sunday and Wednesday and Boy Toy dancers seven nights a week....

Bartender Rob Miller [right] wants you to stop in and check out the fabulous drink specials at Rascals. On Saturdays, well drinks are drastically reduced from 9-11 p.m. On Sundays, the price of all domestic beers gets chopped all night long. The club's fun-filled schedule also includes free happy hour buffet Monday-Friday from 6-8 p.m., Sunday Tea Dance with the best basket and buns contest at 10 p.m., Wednesday night Lil' Rascals Strip-off and Video Post Office on Fridays at 9 p.m....

Rich's "Holiday Evening Not to Be Forgotten" was exactly what it claimed to be — unforgettable! Fifteen of Texas' finest performers, along with co-emcees Lonnie Allsbrooks and Sophia McIntosh [above, l-r], put on a phenomenal show. We're definitely looking forward to more events like this one at Houston's downtown hotspot. To start your weekend off right, Friday Fizz gets things bubbling with its "1-2-3 Shake Your Body Down" drink specials. On Sundays, Klub Kamp brings you a festive romp through the world of female impersonation. See you there.

SAN ANTONIO TEA — The new year brings changes galore to the Alamo City. The ever-changing Wild Corner begins phase one of a massive remodeling project by creating an all-new dance floor and adding two new shows each Thursday and Sunday featuring cast members Kourtney Balboa and Cindy Woods. The Thursday shows will also feature local talents, while Sunday's guest slot will be filled by entertainers from around the state. Join them this Sunday, Jan. 5, when former Miss Gay Texas USofA Jacqui DeShawn headlines the kickoff show....

Just next door, Woody's still offers a Friday buffet created by Polish princess Greg Ciuk plus happy hour daily from 2-4 p.m., and, of course, gorgeous bartenders like Rick [left] are always ready to serve you. Upstairs, the ReBar shakes things up with male dancers seven nights a week. And don't forget, adults never pay a cover on the Wild Corner....

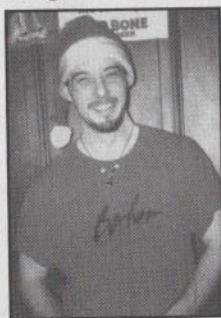

Chances, the newest addition to a growing list of San Antonio nightspots, offers River City's ladies a spectacular lineup of special events. The January calendar is scheduled to include a benefit show for children with AIDS and a regular steak night plus Karen's Strip Tease Show on Thursdays, plus drink specials to keep you partying without going broke. And if trying new things is one of your New Year's resolutions, stop by and try Judy's original cocktail creation, "Sex on a Pool Table," recently featured in a national bartending magazine....

2015 Place owner Dick [above, r], pictured with bartender Harry [l], boasts a change worthy of congratulations: Adorable bartender Michael Saunders has been promoted to management. Stop in and wish him well any Sunday, Monday or Tuesday when the club features happy hour all day and all night, or on Thursday or Friday when male dancers take to the stage from 10 p.m.-midnight....

We can only assume that goatee-sporting Bonham Exchange barback Darrell [right] is smiling due to a recent brush with the new Thursday night Martini Madness, hosted by cocktail goddess Vicki. Whether you prefer yours shaken or stirred, rest assured that Vicki will make it a martini even James Bond would appreciate. Saturday, Jan. 18, the Bonham celebrates the infamous anniversary of the building that houses the legendary nightclub. This year they're celebrating the 105th year that the stunning brick structure has held its ground, just a stone's throw from the Alamo. Like so many Bonham traditions, this party is not to be missed. Happy birthday to Bonham babe Mary, who celebrates tomorrow....

Changes abound on the Main Street strip as well. You've undoubtedly seen the stunning new illuminated awning that now crowns the entrance to Pegasus. Changes on the inside are also on the way just as soon as bar manager Bill "Bullfrog" Bearden warms up that circular saw, and you can bet he'll bang out a fabulous new interior before you can say "ribbit." Over at the Silver Dollar Saloon, folks with a knack for belting out show tunes are raking in the cash during the Monday night Kowboy Karaoke. Weekly winners take home $25 and the winner of the monthly finals receives $100....

On Christmas Day, our CRUISE CAMERA captured Saint deejay Oscar Reyna and Jimmy Smith [above, l-r] turning out the hits for a packed house. Jimmy, now a New York deejay and representative for Eightball Records, returned to guest-deejay and give the San Antonio crowd a chance to enjoy some not-yet-released tunes. Stay tuned for more guest appearances by the former San Antonian plus fabulous music giveaways courtesy of Eightball. The Saint's Super Sunday Show cast welcomes Katherine York and Layla LaRue to this Sunday's performances. Coming up Tuesday, Jan. 28, Layla will take the stage again for the now infamous Newcomer of the Year Pageant, featuring emcee Pauletta Leigh and finalists from every month who'll compete for the prestigious title. Thursdays at the Saint feature Tandi's Tea, emceed by Victoria West and including her goddess revue — Erica Andrews, Layla LaRue and the recently returned Melissa Crawford....

The Eagle Mountain Saloon has added Tuesday Night Tejano for 1997, plus free country and western dance lessons each Thursday from 10-11 p.m. They'd also like to thank each and every patron for continued support last year, and the club has a suggestion for 1997 — look out, world, you haven't seen anything yet....

The elves have finished their work and are taking some time off at Mick's Hideaway. Elves Santiago and Dale [above, l-r] found themselves enjoying Hot Oil Wrestling, which is held Sundays at 11 p.m.; the club also presents male dancers Fridays and Saturdays at 11 p.m. Coming up this month, you ladies will have a night all of your own at the Hideaway featuring gorgeous dancers and drink specials.

LICENSED MASSEURS

STATE CERTIFICATION POLICY

Texas law clearly requires that only bona fide, state-certified masseurs can be listed in this category.
Therefore, TWT policy requires that all masseurs must publish their state-certification number within their advertisements and that a photocopy of their state masseur's license be on file at TWT.

TWT POLICY

Because prostitution is illegal in Texas, state law prohibits the placement in this category of any such ads. Therefore, TWT policy stipulates that we will not and cannot knowingly accept any advertisements suggesting solicitation. It's the law. Also, state law prohibits nonlicensed massage therapists from using terms such as "massage," "Swedish," "accupres-

OBITUARIES

Jeffrey Glen Edwards
May 20, 1953 —
Nov. 29, 1996

Jeff passed away at his home in Friendswood as a result of an AIDS-related brain infection. He was born in New Orleans, raised in Fort Worth and spent his adult life in Austin and Houston. His cremated remains were interred in the family plot in Corsicana. Rest in peace.

Jeffrey W. Gillihan
Jeffrey W. Gillihan, D.V.M., born Sept. 7, 1965 in Fort Worth, died Wednesday, Dec. 11, 1996 of complications of AIDS at the age of 31.

He attended Texas A&M University, where he received a BS in animal science, a BS in biomedical science and a degree of doctor of veterinary medicine.

Jeff was preceded in death by his brother, Russell Cory Gillihan. His loving family includes his parents, Linda Gay and Thomas C. Watson, of Azle, and partner, Robert H. Poste, Jr.

For those desiring, memorial contributions may be made to The Assistance Fund; 1116 Jackson Blvd.; Houston, TX 77006-1210.

Gail Elisabeth Archibald
1944 — 1996

SapphFire of Austin lost one of its own in November. Longtime member Gail Archibald passed away Thanksgiving Day after a long and courageous battle with ovarian cancer. She will be greatly missed because she was so much loved. In sisterhood and in sympathy, we offer our condolences to her partner Mayrene Henderson. (Sisters, please have annual checkups!)

Gary Lee Wagner

Gary Lee Wagner was born April 23, 1953 in Ephrata, Pennsylvania and died Dec. 13, 1996 as a longtime Houston resident. He is survived by his dear daughter Heidi; his loving parents, Helen and Paul; and his three brothers, all of Denver, Pennsylvania.

In memory of Gary, his longtime Houston friends dedicate this tribute:

"There is an empty spot in the hearts of those of us who have known and loved Gary, a dear friend and part of our family. We can only take comfort in knowing that beyond the darkness, there is the light to which Gary has gone, to find peace and the loved ones who have gone before. Let us lift our cups in a toast to wish Gary safe passage."
