What's Out of Interest to Gays and Lesbians

Consider yourself formally invited to the GLAAD Media Awards ceremonies this Sunday, March 16, in Los Angeles and March 31 in New York — and you won't even have to get gussied up in your favorite tux or formal! The annual event by the Gay & Lesbian Alliance Against Defamation, which honors individuals and projects in the media and entertainment industries for their balanced and accurate representations of gay men and lesbians and the issues that affect their lives, will be broadcast to the global online community by Pride! and CompuServe. Netizens can plug into the cybercast using White Pine's CU-See Me audio/video software and enjoy one of the best seats in the house. Here are the connections to remember and names to drop to get past the bouncers: CompuServe's website at <http://world.com/puserve.com/glaad>, and websites www.pridemedia.com/glaad and www.glaad.org/glaad/media-awards; plus, there's a free demo download of the CU-See Me software at the CompuServe site or at www.wpine.com....

Speaking of GLAAD, in keeping with its new policy of educating and not alienating celebrities, the watchdog group organized a recent sit-down with Mel Gibson, whom it has chastised and protested for his attitude and actions many times in the '90s. A great article in the Spring '97 Double Issue of Entertainment Weekly describes the lunch and seminar on the Los Angeles set of Gibson's new film The Conspiracy Theory; Gibson and producer Joel Silver chatted amicably with GLAAD's new entertainment media director Chastity Bono (who organized the peace-pipe event) and nine up-and-coming lesbian and gay directors selected by GLAAD. Make love, not war....

Love, courage and a good script the network can live with finally have ABC bringing Ellen out of the closet to declare herself prime-time lead character who's openly gay on April 30. The character played by Ellen DeGeneres will talk to a therapist (Oprah Winfrey) about her attraction to a gay woman (Laura Dern) on the episode. All season long there've been teases and rumors that Ellen Morgan might turn out to be lesbian, but it's taken until now to finally make ABC executives (the network is owned by the Walt Disney Co.) comfortable with the premise and ready for the almost-certain backlash sure to be led by the radical right. Ellen was almost put on two-month hiatus this spring, but producer DeGeneres led the successful push to squash that move. The historic episode also reportedly will guest-star Melissa Etheridge and k d lang....

BY BRUCE WILLIAMS

Speaking of Etheridge, it was right after the deadline for last month's column that she and partner Julie Cypher became parents. Cypher, a former UT-Austin student, gave birth to 8-pound, 10-ounce Bailey Jean Cypher on Feb. 10. It's a girl; congratulations!...

Turning our attention back to Hollywood, Elton John's annual Oscar night AIDS benefit gala is all set for March 17 at Beverly Hills' Maple Drive restaurant. About 250 luminaries are expected at $10,000 a dinner table, and it's a sellout. It's also the "Rocket Man's" 50th birthday. After the Oscars, there'll be more partying and a special toast to the 1996 independent films. John's AIDS Foundation has already raised $14 million for the fight against the disease....

On another note, former Village People lead singer Victor Willis (the cop) was exonerated when a judge dropped drug and false imprisonment charges March 6. Willis, 45, of San Francisco, was arrested Feb. 15 at the Flamingo Hilton in Reno, Nevada; police said they found about 45 grams of rock cocaine in his room. But the woman who accused and turned in Willis

We're hearing a lot of good things about Hot Cops 3: The Final Assault, a Centaur Films video directed by Chip Daniels. To order, call Centaur Films at (800) 446-8843; an editor's cut version of the film that won't be available in stores can be ordered by phone, too....

Muscle East Video flexes its talents with The New Breed, their second release in a series of tapes showcasing the top physique talent on the East Coast. In this video, seven bodybuilders are beach-bound, eager to oil up and...Oh, just call (800)566-8523 to order, and enjoy some hot bodies. There's no nudity, though....

And then there's Billy. He's the world's first mass-market doll depicting a gay character, according to producer Totem International Ltd. Billy began life as a limited-edition doll, designed and hand-crafted in Great Britain and coming out in 1994 for the London AIDS Benefit. Now he's invading America's major cities (no Texas outlets are on the list yet, though), for a suggested retail price of $49.95. For more info on Billy, call (212) 367-8227....

Here's a bisexual's perfect dream: Raquel Welch as a man. Or, the next best thing, Raquel replacing Julie Andrews and Liza Minnelli for the starring role in Victor/Victoria on Broadway. It might happen, rumors say, on June 1. Raquel already won us over as Myra Brackenridge; do it again, gal!...

Last, but definitely not least, our best wishes and get well soon to Elizabeth Taylor, recovering in L.A. from surgery for a benign brain tumor. Her taped birthday party was an inspiration to us all and the real thing at Hollywood's Pantages Theatre was a huge success last month, raising more than $1 million for the Elizabeth Taylor AIDS Foundation. Get well quick; we need you back out there on the front lines!

REVIEWED BY STEVEN LINDSEY

Going strong into the 78th week of its metroplex run, it seems Forever Plaid might live up to its title and stick around for eternity. Of course, this would be one of the greatest gifts citizens of Fort Worth and Dallas could ever be given. This wildly funny tribute to the all-male singing groups of the '50s and '60s is entertaining enough to see on a regular basis.

If you haven't seen Forever Plaid and don't know much about it, the premise is simple. It's 1964 and the four Plaids are on the way to their first big gig at the Airport Hilton. A busload of Catholic schoolgirls on the way to see the Beatles debut on The Ed Sullivan Show crashes into the Plaids and kills all four of them instantly. Now, more than 30 years later, through a combination of musical magic and cosmic occurrences, the Plaids are sent back to Earth to put on the concert they worked their whole lives to perform.

The Plaids' uproarious tribute to The Ed Sullivan Show is alone worth the price of admission.

Played by Todd Hart, Paul Taylor, Neil Mowles and Chris Williamson, the plaid quartet sings all the numbers in their repertoire with beautiful, ethereal voices that fill the theatre with joy.

But it's not just great four-part harmony that has given this long-running show timeless charm. Since the guys haven't performed in decades, their choreography is rather rusty and forced. It's through these so-bad-they're-good moves that some of

*Musical Magic and Hilarious Moments
Make Casa Mañana's
Long-Running
Forever Plaid
a True Delight*

the most hilarious moments in Forever Plaid ensue, and with such a talented cast, these mistakes appear to be legitimate.

Nearly 30 songs are sung during the show, so nostalgia buffs will be in musical heaven. One of the biggest show-stoppers is a Calypso-themed medley that would make Saturday Night Live's Sweeney Sisters insanely jealous. Complete with palm trees, lighted bananas and loads of maracas, it'll make you laugh so hard that you'll find it hard to catch your breath once the routine is over. (Especially if you join in on the sing-along parts).

Even funnier and more energetic is the Plaids' uproarious tribute to The Ed Sullivan Show, where all the most famous characters in that program's history parade on stage in a quick-change, action-packed montage set to the sounds of "Lady of Spain." This one number alone is worth every penny you'll spend on admission.

In every possible way, Forever Plaid is a true delight. For anyone who's ever tried to accomplish a lifelong dream, this musical shows you that it's never too late.

Since its Fort Worth debut in 1995, Forever Plaid has helped raise over $14,000 in audience donations for the Tarrant County Community AIDS Partnership.

Forever Plaid is officially playing now through June 29, although recent rumors indicate that it may continue even longer. Performances are at Casa Mañana's Theatre on the Square, located on the third floor of the historic Knights of Pythias Hall at 109 E. Third St. in Sundance Square, downtown Fort Worth. Performances are at 8 p.m. Thursdays and Fridays, 5 and 9 p.m. Saturdays and 2 p.m. Sundays. Tickets range ($16 to $22) are available by calling (817)332-CASA or any TicketMaster Outlet.

The Hidden Door - Dallas thanks its loyal customers for giving it the ability to make cash contributions of over $42,000 in the past year to non-profit organizations providing services that improve the quality-of-life for gay and lesbians in North Texas. The contributions include a recent Twelve-Thousand Five-Hundred Dollar ($12,500) unrestricted donation to the Foundation for Human Understanding in Dallas. The Foundation operates the AIDS Resource Center and provides services to thousands of lesbian and gay Texans each year.

"The employees of The Hidden Door believe a business that depends on gays and lesbians for its success has an obligation to put a sizable part of its profits back into the community," says Tony Bobrow, President and General Manager.

"While we make regular contributions to the AIDS Resource Center and other assistance programs, there are special, immediate needs at the services funded through donations to the Foundation for Human Understanding that our lump sum contribution of $12,500 will help it meet.

"When Jim Roberts founded The Hidden Door over seventeen years ago, he had the philosophy that it would be the kind of neighborhood meeting place where all are safe, welcome and can relax with friends. Putting part of our profits back into services for our brothers and sisters is what Jim wanted us to do. Our ability to contribute is a result of our loyal customers. We thank them for making it possible."

The Hidden Door, Inc., operates bars in Dallas and Corpus Christi, Texas. The Hidden Door - Corpus Christi contributed over $5,000 to non-profit gay and lesbian-related groups in South Texas in 1996.

'Positively All That'

Dear TWT:

I want to express my sincere appreciation and gratitude to all involved in the "Positively All That" variety show held at the Brazos River Bottom on Sunday, Feb. 23. Over $900 was raised to benefit Body Positive-Wellness Center.

To all the entertainers: Time after time, you rise to the occasion, generously donating your time and talents to benefit those who need assistance. Thank you. The gay and lesbian community is blessed with incomparable talent!

To everyone in attendance who tipped the performers so generously, my heartfelt thanks!

But, Houston, to sum it all up, you are "positively all that." We will be back next year!

Christopher House Was Like Heaven

Dear TWT:

My name is Raymond (Butch) Meyer, [I am] a person living with AIDS. I was tested positive January of 1989, and the horror began. I lost my lover, Louis Arebalo, Aug. 2, 1990. Totally alone, scared and broken-hearted, I felt no one would ever understand the pain. So I turned to prescription pain medications so that I would not feel — totally cutting myself off from the world. I lived in horror — alone, but numbed with drugs.

Next I met a wonderful man six months after I lost my soulmate. This sweetheart, named Chris, tried for five years to console and carry me through the nightmare; nothing helped. Everyone I knew was dying, one after another, so my addiction became stronger to the drugs. In and out of cold and lonely hospital stays where the nurses, who looked like something from Star Wars, feared touching me and made matters worse. I felt like I was nothing but toxic waste, and that my blood was poison, and no one was there to love me and talk to me to vent my fears of living with this horror. A virus was eating me alive, both mentally and physically. It was hard enough to grasp that I really had this. But to start losing everyone as well as my mind, I just became numb, totally unaware of what was going on. I learned to live in major denial until it hit me, or should I say, knocked me down (PCP).

Then I was put in Christopher House — or should I say Heaven? — where the faculty treated me with love and respect like no one else had. They were so full of love and it was very real...I was lucky to have my "babies" with me — my dogs, Mimi, Chula and Chico. That was a big burden off of me, not having to worry about them. Plus, having them at my side was just a blessing.

I just can't put down on paper how incredible the staff was — angels sent from above. The feeling of having people not afraid to touch me or love me eased my mind tremendously. These wonderful nurses loved my dogs, just as much as they did me. It was an absolutely fabulous feeling and made the treatment so much easier.

So why does this have to be taken away? Finally, a place we can call Heaven, a place where we can feel like we are not toxic waste. Now it is gone. Why, God, why?

Tenth Annual AIDS Benefit in Galveston

Dear TWT:

This year will be my tenth annual AIDS benefit for the AIDS Coalition of Coastal Texas in Galveston. This year will mean more to me than anyone could imagine!

Having been involved in an almost fatal automobile accident, along with close friend Joe Rios, I believe we were given a second chance in life.

The accident left me with a fractured humerus and a damaged radial nerve, which was removed. During my hospital stay (21 days), I was informed that two friends had passed on.

Lying there, I realized how many of my friends I had lost that were unable to call or visit, but [was] thankful for the new friends I met through the years that were there when I needed them the most.

Please don't take life for granted, because one minute it's there and the next minute, who knows?

The date for my tenth annual AIDS benefit will be June 6 at the New Kon Tiki. Anyone wishing to participate can do so by calling me at (409)766-1270. Please make your plans now, for those who have supported me through the years hope to see you again.

Last year's benefit raised $2,520; it was very well appreciated. I only hope to raise more this year, not less. As long as more is raised, I will feel that I am not wasting anyone's time. Until we meet again, hope to see you June 6.

Pansy Division, the kings (queens?) of alternative queer rock, come to Houston this Sunday, March 16. It's the third time they bring their in-your-face lyrics and songs like "Fem in a Black Leather Jacket" and "James Bondage" to Fitzgerald's, 2706 White Oak. Joel Sandel [l] and Jerry Miller star in Tennessee Williams' Vieux Carré, which has its Southwest premiere at New Heights Theatre in Houston.

Vieux Carré, a rarely performed memory play which Tennessee Williams described as his most autobiographical drama, is being presented in its Southwest premiere at Houston's New Heights Theatre, 339 W. 19th St. Williams' recollection of his first sojourn in New Orleans is full of wry humor, compassion and portraits of the eccentric and colorful characters in a run-down boarding house. Shows are Fridays and Saturdays at 8 p.m. through April 12. For tickets ($15), call (713)869-8927.

Longtime metroplex favorite Forever Plaid has been extended through June 29 at Fort Worth's Casa on the Square due to popular demand. Originally scheduled to end in 1995, this musical comedy about the members of an all-male singing group who are killed on the way to their first big concert returns to earth to perform the concert that never was. Shows are at 8 p.m. Thursday and Friday, 5 and 9 p.m. Saturday and 2 p.m. Sunday. Tickets ($16 and $20) are available by calling (817)332-CASA or at any TicketMaster Outlet. Casa Mañana's

For reservations or more info, call (512)454-TIXS.

Smell the fires? That's the aftermath of the conjunction of expansive Jupiter with explosive Uranus in early March. When these two heavy hitters collide, the world turns upside down. Check to see where anarchy reigns in your sign. Heck, sometimes it's good to have a little Molotov in your cocktail.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - March 20) Although you may not feel like fighting hidden enemies now, the Jupiter/Uranus conjunction forces them out into the light of day so you can cut them down to size. In fact, anything hidden or repressed will be forced out into the open. Good thing, too, friend. Why not step out into the light of day and show your true pride colors? The planets now command you to do so.

ARIES (March 21 - April 20) If friendships have been the source of surprising awakenings, thank Jupiter and Uranus. Proud Rams may have had a rare opportunity to meet unusual and enlightening folks, or ascended to the leadership of an extraordinary social circle. Whatever has happened, make the dream last by fortifying platonic bonds. Give as good as you get.

TAURUS (April 21 - May 21) Gay Bulls learned early in the corporate game that slow and steady wins the race. Now, however, with the Jupiter/Uranus conjunction, you've been given a significant leg up on the competition. Why ask why, dear, queer friend? Take full advantage of the revolution and assume your rightful place in the rogues' gallery of corporate stuffed shirts. Be kind on the way up.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21) The past two weeks might have offered too much of a good thing for travel-hearty pink Twins. The Jupiter/Uranus conjunction made you feel like a hostage on a merry-go-round, with trips upon trips and no time to recoup. Rest easy now, dear. The planets have settled and so have you. But recall what you've gained from all these far-flung enterprises and take it to the outer limits.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23) Passionate pink Crabs may have gotten a major sexual zetz during the Jupiter/Uranus conjunction. For those "shelled" types, the planets may have given you the outing of your life. (If so, good for you.) For others, it may have been the defining moment of who you are in your beautiful gay soul. Hopefully the corks popped and you got more than one glass of champagne.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23) Partnerships may have undergone a complete change or transformation during the Jupiter/Uranus conjunction. Proud Lions can be especially generous with possessions as long as they're given the adulation they think they so rightly deserve. Maybe the planets have taught you that generosity alone should be reward enough. Knowing gay Leo, though, I would say not.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23) Grab your manifesto and charge the gates! The Jupiter/Uranus conjunction ferments a revolution at work. Gay Virgins may have experienced dramatic changes in their day-to-day jobs.

HOUSTON BLACK GAY GROUP ANNOUNCES '97 HONOREES

AALGA Awards Banquet Set for Saturday, March 29.

HOUSTON — The African-American Lesbian and Gay Alliance of Houston has announced winners of the group's annual AALGA Honors Awards, which will be handed out March 29. Each year AALGA recognizes outstanding individuals and organizations for making contributions to bisexuals, lesbians, gay men and transgender people of African descent. Last year, more than 120 people attended the organization's awards banquet.

Rev. Carolyn Mobley [l] and U.S. Rep. Sheila Jackson Lee are among honorees at the March 29 awards banquet of the African-American Lesbian and Gay Alliance.

"This year we hope to continue the legacy that began last year," said Martina Cartwright, AALGA Co-Chair. "The banquet theme, 'Our Mission, Our Place, Our Purpose,' will be well represented by the award recipients and speakers." The keynote address will be delivered by Dr. Lee P. Brown, a professor of sociology at Rice University. Dr. Brown is a respected national leader, and made history when he became the first African-American chief of police in two major cities, first Houston and then New York.

"Our mission and, most importantly, our place transcends the boundaries people set for 'the gay community,'" Steve Walker, AALGA Co-Chair, said in a statement last week. "It is great to be able to honor so many people for their commitments to our community, and have so many of our allies to be a part of the process."

This year's honorees include U.S. Congresswoman Sheila Jackson Lee, winner of the Barbara Jordan Spirit Award. The award honors Lee for her commitment to the lesbian, bisexual, gay and transgender community, in Houston and throughout the nation. Lee was the only member of the Houston House delegation not to vote in favor of the Defense of Marriage Act last year.

The James Baldwin Arts Award, recognizing outstanding literary and artistic achievements by a black lesbian, bisexual, gay or transgender person, is going to Linda Villarosa, Executive Editor of Essence magazine. Villarosa will be honored for her writing discussing the issues of homophobia, sexuality, racism and spirituality in Essence, and other writing in Essence and the black lesbian anthology Afrekete, as well as her appearance in the documentary All God's Children.

Attorney Marvin Prevost, a member of the Houston HIV Prevention Community Planning Group and Chair of the HOPE [HIV Outreach, Prevention and Education] Project, will receive the Essex Hemphill HIV/AIDS Advocacy Award. Prevost is a longtime advocate and organizer of the black lesbian and gay community. The AALGA Health Awareness Award will be presented to Dr. Joseph Gathe, a world-renowned HIV treatment specialist at Park Plaza Hospital.

The UJIMA Award, which is given to a traditional African-American organization that openly collaborates with, welcomes and affirms bisexuals, gay men, lesbians and transgender people of African descent, will be presented to the pastoral staff of St. John's United Methodist Church. St. John's, a historically African-American congregation, openly welcomes all people, including the gay community.

The Houston chapter of Parents, Families and Friends of Lesbians and Gays will receive the AALGA Advocacy Award, while Incognito the Club will be recognized for its community development work with the AALGA Community Empowerment Award.

Outstanding achievement awards will go to three AALGA members. The Audre Lorde Award, recognizing an outstanding black lesbian, and the Bayard Rustin Award, which honors an outstanding black gay man, will be presented to Dr. Janis F. Hutchinson and Barry Barnes, respectively.

The Kenneth A.B. Harris Founder's Award, recognizing outstanding overall efforts to organize and increase the visibility, empowerment and education of Houston's black bisexual, lesbian, gay and transgender community, will be presented to longtime activist and organizer the Rev. Carolyn Mobley.

The Second Annual AALGA Awards Banquet and Gala will be held at the Holiday Inn Medical Center Hotel, 6701 S. Main, on Saturday, March 29, from 6:30-10:30 p.m. Tickets are $55.

'ART-POSITIVE' SHOW OPENS THIS SUNDAY IN DALLAS

Portion of Proceeds from Sales Benefit Legacy Counseling Center.

DALLAS — ART-Positive, the third annual gallery show and sale featuring the work of HIV-positive artists, opens Sunday, March 16 at the Edith Baker Gallery, 2404 Cedar Springs Road. ART-Positive presents a wide range of paintings and sculptures from local area artists who are HIV-positive.

"This is an event about living," explains ART-Positive founder Carolyn Knox. "The artwork is truly remarkable. Each painting, sketch and drawing reveals something special about living with AIDS and HIV. The quality of art is unquestionably first class, but its value is so much more when you consider how each piece reflects a unique place along a path of surviving HIV and AIDS."

Over the past two years, ART-Positive has sold over $20,000 worth of art. A portion of the proceeds benefits Legacy Counseling Center, a non-profit mental health care agency that provides counseling and emotional support to individuals, friends and family members challenged with AIDS and HIV.

"Art is life and growth. It gives real meaning to the emotions found in the struggles of living and ultimately dying," Knox says. "One artist commented that he had never thought it possible to be so happy again and to have another 'first' in life—his first gallery showing."

AUSTIN C&W DANCE GROUP CELEBRATES 4TH ANNIVERSARY

Southern Country's 'Capital City
Crawl' March 21-23 to Double
As International Convention.

AUSTIN — Southern Country Austin is celebrating its fourth anniversary with the "Capital City Crawl" March 21-23 in Austin. The event will act as a semiannual convention of the International Association of Gay and Lesbian Country and Western Dance Clubs.

Southern Country Austin's members enjoy and promote country/western dancing in Texas' capital city, and also raise funds for charities and nonprofit organizations. The Capital City Crawl's proceeds will benefit the Pediatric AIDS League, which is based in Austin. The group also has been a co-host of the area's Round-Up for AIDS in the fall; but the Crawl remains SCA's largest annual fund-raiser.

The International Association of Gay and Lesbian Country and Western Dance Clubs consists of 32 chapters of member clubs around the United States and internationally. Among the latter are groups in Canada, which will be represented at the Crawl, and Australia; U.S. chapters expected to attend include California, Florida, Massachusetts, Kentucky, Georgia, Virginia, North Carolina and others.

The weekend's main event is the Grand Ball, at 7 p.m. Saturday, March 22, at the Red Lion Hotel, which is the host site for the weekend and is located at 6121 N. IH-35. Tickets are $3 in advance or $5 at the door, and the Ball will feature dance exhibitions, raffle items, a cash bar and a lot of slidin', stompin', swingin' and boot-scootin'. There also will be a "jail" set up in the ballroom as a fun fund-raiser.

Also on the schedule Saturday are intermediate and advanced dance lessons in the Red Lion Ballroom. The cost to attend both is $5, payable at the door. Paul Ross will teach the intermediate group at 2 p.m., and Allan Blume will give advanced instructions at 3.

At 2 p.m. Sunday, March 23, there will be a dance swap event at Rainbow Cattle Company, 305 W. 5th St. This party will be an opportunity to learn different dance patterns, and Texans, Georgians and folks from all will over exchange steps, lines and styles. This event is informal, and there is no admission charge.

A delegate general membership meeting for the IAGLCWDC is planned for 10 a.m. Sunday at the Red Lion.

"We're planning to have a busy, fun weekend," said Joanna Johnson of Southern Country Austin. "It'll be a good chance to dance, and to meet dancers from a lot of different places. It'll also be a good chance to raise some much-needed money for the Pediatric AIDS League. We're expecting a very large turnout."

TRANSGENDER LAW AND EMPLOYMENT CONFERENCE SET FOR JULY 11-12 IN HOUSTON

*6th Annual Gathering
To Include Workshop About
Religious Influence on Law.*

HOUSTON — Transgender people and the legal and employment issues that affect them are the focus of the 6th Annual Transgender Law and Employment Policy Conference, to be held in Houston July 11 and 12. In addition to workshops on Friday and Saturday, there will be luncheons and keynote speakers on both days.

Topics covered in workshops will include the religious influence on law relating to transgenders; the legal needs of female-to-male and transgender people of color as well as nontranssexual transgenders; and activism and lobbying training. There will also be legal updates on employment law and policy, health and insurance issues, documentation of status, family law concerns and prison-related concerns.

Plans for a luncheon keynote are still up in the air for Friday, July 11, but organizers promise a worthy speaker. The Transgender Pioneer award will be handed out at that time. The Friday evening keynote speaker will be Reginald E. Jones, Commissioner of the federal Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, who will speak on "Transgender Employment Discrimination." The Transgender Advocate award will also be handed out Friday evening.

Kerry Lobel, the Executive Director of the National Gay & Lesbian Task Force, will speak on "Transgender Advocacy and Its Positive Impact on the Lesbian, Bisexual, Gay and Transgender Freedom Movement" during Saturday's luncheon.

Cost to take part in the conference is $46.50 per day (which includes luncheon; $36.50 if payment received before June 1).

The conference hotel is the Ramada/Astrodome-Medical Center, 2100 S. Braeswood. A flat rate of $62 per night (for up to four persons), plus 15% city tax, is available for conference attendees. Call (713) 797-9000.

NORTH TEXAS CHURCH BUYS PROPERTY, SUES OVER USE PERMIT

Harvest MCC Seeks Ruling Under Federal Religious Freedom Law.

DENTON COUNTY — In an attempt to expand both its facilities and service to its mostly homosexual congregation, Harvest Metropolitan Community Church recently requested a special use permit for 12.5 acres of land on the east side of Interstate 35, which is zoned "light industrial."

Even though the church was led to believe that the permit would be easily obtained, the Corinth City Council denied the request in order to remain consistent with past voting procedures as well as to keep from losing potential tax revenue that might come from a for-profit business that could use the same land. For the past six years, the church has been located at 5900 S. Stemmons on commercially zoned land.

A recent plea for the City Council to reconsider was also denied, so purchasing the land would force the church to sue the City of Corinth to receive the special use permit. The Board of Directors of Harvest MCC brought all the facts before the congregation for a vote, and the decision was made to hire legal counsel, purchase the land and sue the city for the special use permit.

Legal counsel has stipulated that the case will be based on the Religious Freedom Restoration Act. "I believe the council has denied the special use permit because of citizen pressure based on discrimination," Harvest board member Jonna Naylor said. "They said they'd welcome us in residentially zoned land, but with no residential land available which can accommodate our needs, this seems like an empty promise intended to force us out of Corinth. We have been here for six years and God has blessed us with consistent growth, and we aren't leaving."

Rev. Colleen Darraugh told the congregation that this was primarily a spiritual decision for them. "The vote indicated that the congregation clearly believes that God intends this land for this church and ministry."

Harvest will continue to hold services on Sundays at 10:30 a.m. and 6:30 p.m. in their original 5900 S. Stemmons location until further notice. A legal defense fund has been established for anyone wishing to assist in any way. Contact Harvest MCC at (817)321-2332 or write them at 5900 S. Stemmons, Denton, TX 76205.

HOUSTON GROUP LAUNCHES 'FOUNDER'S CLUB' TO FINANCE LOCAL GAY/LESBIAN COMMUNITY CENTER

Proceeds Will Be Used to Lease Initial Space in Montrose Area.

HOUSTON — The long-anticipated yet never-realized dream of establishing a viable center for the Houston gay and lesbian community may have taken one step closer to reality with the launch of a new fund-raising effort last week. The Houston Lesbian and Gay Community Center, Inc., which is working to set up such a facility, announced the formation of a "Founder's Club," with an initial goal of bringing in $3,000. Proceeds will be used to rent an initial site.

"We've accomplished a lot in the last few months — establishing a website, talking to a wide variety of organizations regarding the community's needs," Brian J. Tognotti, President of the group's board, said in a release his organization issued last week. "We are now ready to find a space and begin offering services."

The Founder's Club will be made up of individuals and groups that donate $250 or more to the Center effort. "We are offering Houstonians a chance to be a part of history by helping us make this community center happen," Tognotti said.

A similar campaign was used to found the Cornerstone Community Center in Austin two years ago. "Cornerstone has almost immediately become a vital part of Austin's gay and lesbian community. We hope to bring the same energy and sense of unity to Houston," Tognotti added.

The Center's board has established meeting space, communications and organizing community events as its top three priorities once the new space is open. Houston currently has hundreds of lesbian and gay organizations, but consistent, accessible and affordable space to hold meetings is still difficult to come by. The Center plans to offer meeting rooms on a scheduled basis and maintain bulletin boards for organizations to post notices.

The Center also hopes to maintain a comprehensive calendar of meetings and events and distribute the calendar throughout the community, especially to those new to the city. Finally, the Center will look to partner with other organizations to co-sponsor activities such as community forums, cultural activities and social mixers that bring the community together.

The Center board is seeking enough funds to lease a space in the Montrose area that will serve as an initial site, with the idea of eventually purchasing a more permanent facility.

The Houston Lesbian and Gay Community Center is a 501(c)(3) tax-exempt organization and all donations are deductible to the fullest extent of the law. Anyone who wishes to join the Founder's Club should contact the Center at (713) 867-7904 or write to P.O. Box 2304, Houston, TX 77252-2304. Brochures are also available at many locations throughout the Montrose area. The Center's website can be reached at www.hlgcc.org.

For all you boys and girls who read FRESH BEATS and live for the CD compilations we tell you about, but rarely venture into the vinyl stores, I've got a big surprise for you! The boys at L.A.'s Moonshine Records have taken all of their best mixes from their recent vinyl-only releases and slapped them all on one low-priced CD. Included in this barrage of delectable melodies are Stateside ("Gonna Make It"), F.K.O. ("De la Casa"), Doc Martin ("Lunatic" and "Free"), plus two mixes of Elli Mac's smash "Celebrate." So if you're a CDaholic or one of those mobile-type girls with a CD-mixer, this compilation is surely for you. Be on the lookout for the new Keoki single "Majick," due out soon from Moonshine....

Speaking of CD junkies... Have you just about worn the groove off your good ol' Salsoul records? It's no wonder. Were those the years, or what? Well, now you can get ahold of all your old Salsoul favorites once again. They're re-releasing all the classic 12"s all over again (many on both vinyl and CD). I mean, imagine having a brand new copy of Grand Master Flash's "Salsoul Jam"! If you're having trouble finding them at your local shop, you can call (212)951-3041 and ask Stan White to order direct....

Is it LaBouche or is it LeClick? Look, the story is too long to get into here (watch for a FRESH BEATS interview on that later this spring), but I must admit that I was less than delighted at the original release of LeClick's new single, "Call Me." However, the remixes by Darren Friedman and Junior Vasquez are the tea. Sort of poppy, sort of housey, but catchy nonetheless. Logic Records is set to release a LeClick album later this spring as well as Martha Wash's Greatest Hits, continuing its assault on the American marketplace....

Undergrounders will be thrilled at the new releases from Submarine Records (Popular's progressive imprint). There's a clever, dreamy track by One Drop ("Creativity"), a track produced by Josh Wink under the name Winc with a clever remix by Mark Moore (S'Express) and this incredible little ditty by Popcorn, "Tap Moi La." Talk about a crowd-waker-upper! This one rolls a little funk, with some chicken noises, cute organs and Charvoni's ever-so-diva-like vocals into one lovely dance/sushi roll for your nerves. Submarine? They've got it goin' on!...

for aerobics instructors each year. Did you know that there is actually a real company that does both cassettes and CDs specifically formatted for the workout session? The name? Power Music, of course. They put out two series, one for instructors and the other for your basic home use. If you've worked out at Bally's or any other of those larger gyms, you've probably worked out to one or more of Power's programs. You can call (800)777-BEAT for a catalog, or visit their website at powermusic.com....

Like hip-hop? Like acid jazz? Good, then check out eightball's new compilation dedicated to the hip-hop/acid jazz fusion,

Easy 2. Easy 2 takes your world down a thousand with 12 velvet tracks on the jazzy tip licensed from all over and compiled by Butter Foundation's Jon Creamer and Chillfreez of Giant Step, two of the world's most renowned progressive jazz and groove deejays. Together with the re-release of their Easy 1 from some time ago, complete with new packaging to compliment the series, eightball takes jazzy hip-hop to the next level with this critically acclaimed Easy series. Take it easy with Easy 1 and 2.

Mark, Dale and the men are getting ready to host the entire state of Texas for the Freedom Dance on Saturday, March 22, the night before The March in March against hate crimes. The Forum also features martinis and a Pro/Am Strip-Off on Mondays and Drag-in-a-Bag on Wednesdays....

Things are steamin' at Midtowne Spa, and that's not just in the sauna or hot tub.

At 9 p.m. this Saturday, March 15, they're presenting the Ides of March Toga Party; fellas, you don't want to miss this! If you bring three nonperishable food items or toiletries between 8 a.m. Monday and 6 p.m. Thursday, you'll get half price on a locker or a regular room. And the items are donated to AIDS Services of Austin, so everybody benefits....

Cuties Randall and Shawn (right, l-r) always have things hoppin' behind the bar at The Edge. Besides the nightly madness of fun and surprises, Warren and Michael T. are prepping for "Da Peace Party" from 2-9 p.m. Sunday, March 23, featuring munchies, draft beer specials and more. Plans for the opening of Sister's Edge in a few weeks proceed feverishly apace. And come see Carl at the jello bar in back Fridays and Saturdays. Does he have some stories to tell!...

Busy-busy-busy doesn't even begin to describe all the activity at Rainbow Cattle Co., where the CRUISE CAMERA recently captured boss Bill Bailey powwowing with bigwigs Ray McDermott and David Green from Charlie's [above, l-r]. On Monday, March 17, it's the St. Patrick's Day Party, featuring corned beef and cabbage (of course!). Thursday the 20th is Mike Love's Round-Up Party, benefiting Pediatric AIDS League and including the giveaway of a pair of tickets to the March 22 Trisha Yearwood concert. Don't forget Heather Thomas' show on Wednesday the 19th. And so much more! The United Court of Austin also is selling $2 drawing entries to win a travel package to the seventh annual Gay & Lesbian Day at Magic Kingdom festivities June 5-8 in Orlando, Florida; the drawing benefits UCA and Cornerstone, and Alexis Travel is a co-sponsor, with the winner to be drawn and announced May 4....

If you haven't yet checked out A.C.I.-Austin, well shame on you. It's time to start getting into shape for swimsuit season and First Splash, you know. The new club at 500 Chicon features weights, exercise gear, jacuzzi, lockers, TV room, game room and a lot more. It's open every day from 7 p.m.-9 a.m., and you can get half price on a locker with the coupon in their ad elsewhere in this issue. See ya there!

DALLAS TEA — This Sunday the 16th is the Bear Trap Contest at 8 p.m. at the Dallas Eagle, so gather all your hunting gear and come prepared to catch a bear, followed on March 21 by one of the club's famous Fetish Parties. Fetish attire is strongly requested. Besides, everybody's doing it and you don't want to be left out. A little further into the future, make plans for the Gulf Coast Drummer contest on May 16, 17 and 18. Also materializing in the near future are the Mr. Texas Fantasy contest and comedian Shan Carr. The Eagle is the place to meet the bear of your dreams this spring....

Happy anniversary to George and Joe at the Trestle, who are celebrating this weekend. Their weekend after hours are heating up with the warm weather finally here. Check it out....

"...And the winner for Best Actress in a Drama is...Valerie Lohr!" Well, that probably won't happen this year, but you'll definitely hear plenty of exciting announcements all night long at the Academy Awards Party at JR's on March 24. Everybody will get to fill out their own ballots and the one with the most correct answers will win $250. Not too shabby, eh? Come check out the festivities that take place all weekend long at JR's....

Throckmorton Mining Company has done it again. They've added more great beers to their already huge draft selection. Stop by and sample these new brews soon at TMC. Maybe Monday night would be a good time. That's when Wanda hosts the popular double-elimination pool tournament. Make sure you wear extra green, or Wanda will chase you around the bar until she gets a good pinch. Just a warning!...

Get out those wire hangers, girls! It's time for the Round-Up's spectacular Queen of the Closet Ball. The TGRA's benefit pageant begins at 7 p.m. this Sunday, and they promise plenty of surprises.

Come join the fun and cheer on your favorite contestant. After that, stick around for the hottest in country music. You might even be lucky enough to take the winner for a spin around the dance floor. Monday night, the Round-Up hosts a Positive+Personals social for HIV-positive men and women from 8 p.m. to midnight. Make sure to use the back entrance for this event, since the Round-Up is normally closed on Mondays....

Moby Dick recently announced that hot pizza was being served at the bar, and now it seems the newest item on the menu is ham — actually two hams to be exact.

Yes, that's Tommy and Samantha [left, l-r] who jumped in front of the poor little bartender who was posing for the CRUISE CAMERA. But they're cute and having fun, so who cares? Maybe it was the new Sunday night lineup that got them so excited. The BBC (Balcony Beer Club) meets upstairs at 4 p.m., then Video Post Office begins at 7. After that, Nakoma hits the stage for a best chest contest followed by a special midnight Karaoke contest. They've got everything you want every night of the week at Moby Dick, so y'all stop by now, y'hear?...

The weather's starting to get warmer, but a little Coco is always in season at Kolors. That's right, the divine Coco is hosting an all-male review tonight at 11 p.m. and there'll be more men there than you can shake a — well, you get the idea. For even more manliness, Monday becomes Manday in honor of Kolors' Dallas Strip-Off at 10:30. Then stick around and dance to the great music provided by deejay Robert [right]. He'll get your rhythm going....

After dancing the weekend away at Village Station, you'll want to stop by on Monday to meet the members of Team Dallas for their 501 Party. Not to be confused with the famous jeans, 501 refers to the number of days until the Gay Games in Amsterdam. Then on Friday, March 28, legendary adult video director Chi Chi Larue will be at the Village with megahunk Matt Bradshaw in celebration of the Falcon Talent Search. In addition to these great stars, you never know who you'll run into at Village Station. Cavendish CEO Jack Polachek and his sweetie Dr. Jamie Vasquez [above, l-r] were seen enjoying everything the Village has to offer....

Things are gettin' cheap at Sue Ellen's on Tuesdays. Well, the drinks, anyway. The crowd is always first-class. Speaking of top quality, you know you're walking in a fantastic place when you're greeted by the beautiful door staff [left]. This Sunday, bring all your friends to Sue Ellen's and relax on the patio, play volleyball and enjoy the afternoon cookout. They're all back until next fall, so make plans to spend all your Sundays at Sue Ellen's....

It seems a lot of you out there may be playing hooky from work in order to be a part of the morning fun at Zippers. It's a great time of day to enjoy friendly conversation and a refreshing drink, and it seems to be getting more and more popular as each day passes. If you are skipping work, just forward your calls to Zippers and Greg might just impersonate a receptionist for a little extra something in his tip jar!

Actually, this weekend Greg will be turning 39 (the guys made us print that!), so stop in and wish him an extra special day! Speaking of extra special, it looks like Maverick [right] may be running out of room in his G-string for all those dollar bills. Make Zippers a stop on your St. Patrick's Day Tour of Bars, because they'll be having the requisite green beer and maybe even a couple of leprechauns running around. Pay no attention if one of them looks a lot like Billy or Greg....

Rub-a-dub-dub, it's two men at The Club. David and Michael [above, l-r] look like they're thoroughly enjoying all they have to offer. If the 15-man jacuzzi and weekend cookouts aren't enough to tempt you to check out Club Dallas, then stop by this Thursday for special half-price dressing rooms. Then work out or hang out for the rest of the night. You'll be glad you did....

You wear the boxers and The Brick will provide the beads. Take part tonight in one of the greatest new club concepts in Dallas — The Brick's Beads and Boxers Party. With plenty of skin showin' and lots of beads throwin', it's like Mardi Gras all over again. Next Thursday, things get spicy for the Miss Fiesta USofA Pageant. Then, next Friday, even Adrienne Barbeau and Jamie Lee Curtis can't save you as the mist rolls in for the all-new, sexy Fog Party. Adding to the mysterious night will be the best high-energy dance music in town. The Brick's deejays always know just what to play to get the crowd wild. As soon as you see Fuzzy [right] or one of the other great record spinners, you know you'll be in for a night of dancing....

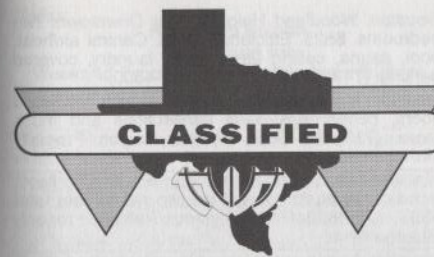

Everybody's favorite Chi Chi is coming back to town and she's got only one thing on her mind — hot, sexy men. If you've got what Miss Larue's looking for, then she might be putting you in the overhead compartment and taking you back to Falcon Studios. That's right, she's hosting a model search at Alternatives on Thursday, March 27. Call ahead for an appointment. Even if you don't want the world to see all your business, you should still stop by for an autograph and photo of this infamous star. All proceeds will benefit the AIDS Resource Center. Luscious Travis Wade will be at her side, too....

The Clydesdale horses recently appeared on the horizon [above] before making their way down Cedar Springs. No, they weren't stragglers from last September's Freedom Parade. Rather, they were pulling a wagon full of Budweiser in celebration of selling the one millionth case of beer to local gay clubs on and around Cedar Springs. Hmm, maybe they should consider making their slogan "The Queen of Beers." Speaking of the parade, the Dallas Tavern Guild has announced the date for this year's huge event. The fourteenth annual Alan Ross Texas Freedom Parade rolls down Cedar Springs beginning at 3 p.m. on Sunday, Sept. 21. You can help support this year's parade by attending the Tavern Guild's two fund-raising events: the Maple Avenue Carnival on Sunday, May 4 and the Big Event Carnival on Sunday, Sept. 7....

If you welcome flashbacks in your life, then you'll definitely want to stop by Crews Inn tonight for the ultimate Trash Disco experience. The grooviest tunes and the sexiest men combine for an evening of retromania. If more updated music is what you crave, then Saturday is the night for you. Come dance or just kick back out on the patio for an evening you won't want to end. Sunday's afternoon happy hour is gaining popularity, too. And, of course, for the most packed place on Tuesday nights, there's no place like Crews Inn. Coming up soon to Crews Inn and Zippers, it's the Texas Bear Round Up 2 April 3-6. If you remember the first one, you won't want to take a chance on missing this one.

TIMOTHY LYNN ROGERS

Nov. 30, 1955 - Feb. 13, 1997

Tim passed away peacefully in his sleep in the morning hours of Feb. 13, 1997, in his hometown of Terre Haute, Indiana. Having lived in Houston since 1981, Tim moved back home in November 1996 to be with his family and friends.

Tim is survived by his father, Dean Rogers; mother, Inga Rogers; a sister, Debra Ann Rogers; two brothers, Fred and Dave Rogers; and seven nieces and nephews, all of Terre Haute.

He is also survived by his extended family, Mark, Ruth and Rick Daniels, all of Houston, and numerous close friends in Houston and Terre Haute.

All who knew Tim, knew of his loving, caring and most giving nature. He provided all of these wonderful gifts of himself, and very seldom did he ask for anything in return for himself. I am very thankful for the nine years that he and I shared our lives together. He will be greatly missed by many, but we must all seek comfort in knowing that he is at peace.

His family wishes to extend their gratitude to his doctors in Houston, Dr. Gordon Crofoot and Dr. Adan Rios of OnCol Medical Associates, as well as the staff of Twelve Oaks Hospital, 7th floor.

Funeral services were held on a bright, sunny day on Feb. 15 in Terre Haute.

A memorial service in celebration of his life is being planned at this time. For information as to date and location, please contact Mark Daniels at (713) 710-0035.

Until we shall all meet again
Love ya and miss you
Mark, Ruth and Jeff

Bob Strange
Sept. 15, 1918 - March 1, 1997
Bob was born in Greenville and passed away Saturday, March 1, in Dallas at the age of 78. One of Dallas' most colorful characters, Mr. Strange owned and operated many of Dallas' oldest and most infamous gay bars and businesses, beginning in the early 1960s with the Villa Fontana and continuing on through the 1970s with the Silver Dollar, Bon Soir, the Bachelor Quarters Baths, The Landing, The D-III and Dimension III and Emporium Clothing Store.

Bob will long be remembered for his sense of humor and generosity. A celebration of his life will be held this Sunday, March 16 in the back bar at Zippers, 3333 North Fitzhugh, beginning at 3 p.m. All of Bob's friends are invited to attend.

William A. "Billy" Hathaway

Born May 13, 1959 as the youngest in a family of five. Died March 6, 1997 after being attacked in his home in Dallas.

Billy worked as a bartender/doorman for Jugs for the past several years, and previously had worked at other gay nightclubs in Dallas, including the Landing. He performed as a female impersonator, under the stage name of Leslie Dumont, for many years, and was a member of Glitz-n-Glitter Over Texas, a non-profit organization that raises money for various AIDS service organizations and gay and lesbian community causes.

Billy will be remembered for his sharp tongue and his truly generous heart.

He is survived by his mother and stepfather, Virginia and Hugh Kane; his sisters, Nancy, Peggy and Cindy; his brother, Earl; and his adopted family in Dallas: Joe Elliott, Yolanda Jones, Candy Cave, Connie McLain, Bill Lindsey, Michael Champion, Bill and Lola Cave, Alyce Schweitzer, Sarah Gaylord, Theresa Farrell, Windy Churitch, his co-workers at Jugs and the cast and crew of Glitz-n-Glitter.

A memorial service was held Sunday afternoon, March 9, at Jugs.

Jack R. Presley

Born Aug. 4, 1951
Died Feb. 24, 1997

Longtime hotel executive and co-founder of Moonstruck Theatre Company. Of complications from AIDS. Memorial and interment at Greenwood Cemetery, Fort Worth.

Ray Walter Davis

Died March 8, 1997 in Houston. A memorial service will be held at the Venture-N, 2923 S. Main, on Saturday, March 15 from 6-9p.m. All donations may be sent to Colt 45's in Ray's name.
