BOYS LIFE 2

Will Charm Audiences
With Its Vignettes on
Gay Men and Youths

For those of us with attention spans about as long as the average Mentos commercial, it's quite a delight to see a film designed especially with us in mind. Actually, that may not be the real reason for combining four award-winning gay short films into one feature-length presentation, but I certainly got that impression with Boys Life 2, the follow-up to the 1995 film Boys Life.

Chronicling slice-of-life stories from gay adolescents to adult gay men, Boys Life II is like switching channels and watching four different network shows. Of course, all the networks would have to be gay networks, but you get the idea. Another perk, which is perhaps intended more for the small-bladdered than the attention-deprived, is that the credits for each film run immediately before the next one starts, so you even have built-in restroom breaks — just like good ol' TV.

As with any compilation of short films, some of the entries here are going to be better than others. Fortunately, Boys Life 2 gets the worst one out of the way immediately with Must Be the Music. This official selection from the Sundance Film Festival is poorly acted and basically pointless. It follows the story of four friends on a night out on the town and their encounters with ex-lovers and potential romances. While the 18-ish guys all have great looks going for them, they don't have much of a story to work with. So, if you get caught in traffic on the way to the theatre or the line for popcorn is really long, don't worry. You can easily miss the first installment and still get your money's worth.

Nunzio's Second Cousin is, appropriately enough, the second story in the series. This one grabs you by the throat from the very beginning as a group of teens prepare to gay-bash an older male couple walking the dark streets of Chicago.

REVIEWED BY STEVEN LINDSEY

In a matter of seconds, the tables are quickly turned when the bashers discover that one of their targets is a police detective. As this story unfolds, a twisted game of revenge is played out in such a way that anyone who's ever been harassed in any way will feel great satisfaction. Vincent D'Onofrio plays Tony, the almost-psychotic cop hellbent on teaching young homophobe Jimmy the meaning of respect. As if the scare tactics used against him weren't enough, Jimmy must also face an even bigger ordeal — dinner with Tony and his mother, played with several screws loose by Private Benjamin's Eileen Brennan. While the ending may not satisfy all, it definitely leaves room for the audience to draw its own conclusions. Nunzio's is definitely worthy of the Grand Prize award it received at the Aspen Film Festival, as well as your time. It was during this film that I got the hunch that it was going to be worth sticking around for the next two selections, and I was right.

Anyone who grew up gay in any small town will quickly relate to the feelings of isolation and confusion that surround Jack Gudmanson, a handsome young man trapped in Alkali, Iowa with a deep secret and a family with an even deeper one. Alongside his gay-hating grandfather in the fields every day, Jack must "butch it up" in order to keep the peace in his fatherless family. Things get complicated when Jack digs up an old lunch pail with clues to his father's past and a few "treasures" for any closeted gay man living in the middle of nowhere. With all the gay men in the area restricted to cruising each other in wooded areas, it makes you want to call up Southwest Airlines and buy these poor souls a one-way ticket out of town. The tone of Alkali is much deeper than that of any of the other three shorts, but it maintains a steady pace and enough heartfelt sentiment to keep it realistic and captivating, yet without being heavy-handed. This one has won several prestigious awards, including First Prize at Dallas' USA Film Festival for Fiction.

Finally, we come to the jewel in the Boys Life crown. Trevor is the story of a young boy infatuated with Diana Ross who lip-synchs to her albums in his room. I'm sure you can see where this one is leading. Played magnificently by Brett Barsky, Trevor is the perfect embodiment of what it's like growing up "dramatic" in middle-class suburbia. As he belted out tunes in his front yard, all those fond memories I have of spinning around in my backyard pretending to be Wonder Woman came flooding back. You can all relate, I'm sure (can't you?).

Jonah Rooney and Brett Barsky are Pinky and Trevor in Trevor, which opens in Dallas today at Landmark's Inwood.

All the while — from the trials and tribulations of parents who ignore his attention-seeking suicide attempts to the overwhelming sting of reality he suffers when the cute boy he's had a crush on dismisses him as a fairy unworthy of living — Trevor manages to keep his sense of humor. It is this very same sense of humor that many gay people rely on to face the obstacles of everyday prejudice and lack of understanding. Most of all, Trevor makes one feel good to be gay through its campy celebration of a young boy's world, where Endless Love is the soundtrack to life and Fame is some sort of heavenly world we can only dream of reaching someday. If I had to choose only one film in this series to see again, this Academy Award-winning short would most assuredly be it.

Boys Life 2 begins a limited run nationwide today. In Dallas, you can "get caught up in the drama" at Landmark's Inwood Theatre, 5458 Lovers Lane.

ALL OVER ME

Takes Dark Look at Coming of Age in the '90s

I left the screening of All Over Me with one overriding thought: If the Deity suddenly tapped me on the shoulder and told me I could be 15 again, I'd spit in her face. All Over Me, a Sichel Sisters film opening in Houston this evening (May 9), is that kind of movie. It's the story of two best girlfriends, Claude and Ellen, at a moment when, according to the filmmakers, "a girl has to make choices for her own survival." Set in the world of Hell's Kitchen, this is what it is to be young and carefree in the '90s.

According to the press release, the film "presents a refreshingly different side of New York City," "one where Patti Smith, not Frank Sinatra, is the patron singer/saint, where gay punks and grandmas share the streets of Hell's Kitchen, where girls roller-skate and rock out." Let's be very clear about this. If I could choose from every adjective in current usage to describe this movie, and I can, "refreshing" would not be one of them. This film is dark, dark, dark.

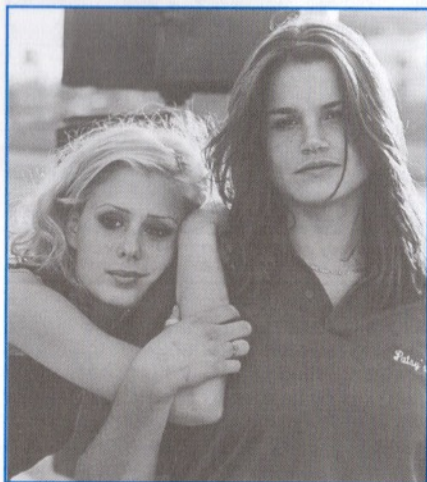

Claude (Alison Folland) and Ellen (Tara Subkoff) are best friends, but there's a problem. Claude loves Ellen. I mean Claude loves Ellen. I'm not giving away a plot line here. Claude is a solid, what-you-see-is-what-you-get kinda girl whose name is Claudia, but who insists on "Claude." Ellen is a wispy little blonde thing with a penchant for micros and makeup. You figure it out. I gotta tell you, I was a little disappointed with the sisters Sichel on this one. A little bit of a switch on the obvious would have been, well, refreshing.

Anyway, the girls' world is suddenly shaken to its foundations by the appearance of Luke, one of the aforementioned gay punk rockers, who befriends Claude, much to the chagrin of Ellen, who doesn't, like, get it, you know? Luke is played by Pat Briggs, lead singer and front man for the band Psychotica. This is Briggs' debut as a feature film actor, but, again according to the press release, "a life-size figurine of Briggs in full Psychotica regalia is part of the permanent exhibition at the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame." I'm not making this stuff up!

Ellen [Tara Subkoff, l] and Claude [Alison Folland] are best friends in All Over Me.

Meanwhile, back at the story line, Ellen is bummed, and turns to her new boyfriend Mark, played by Cole Hauser (who is not currently immortalized in wax anywhere, or we would know about it). Now it's Claude's turn to be chagrined, mainly because it's patently apparent to a child of four that Mark is a drugged-out psychotic criminal with bad table manners, and Claude feels he doesn't have Ellen's best interests at heart.

When Claude confronts Ellen with this observation, Ellen responds, with her usual razor-sharp powers of analysis, "Whatever." It's about here that I wanted to slap everyone involved. Obviously, "decisions" have to be made, but decisions are not a strong suit in a 15-year-old's bag of tricks. That, I suppose, is the crux of the movie, and it's presented with a frightening reality. These people are not adults, but they are being asked to make adult choices, and they just can't. Watching them try is excruciating, because you want to help, but they're out of reach. It's like watching a sick goldfish.

All Over Me is a coming-of-age movie, more brutal than most. Its themes are timely and, for some, cutting-edge. Here it tries too hard, but that's always a danger. It delivers what it sets out to deliver, and that's good, but be aware that it's no Gidget Goes Hawaiian.

Whatever.

The exclusive Houston engagement of All Over Me starts this evening (May 9) at Landmark's River Oaks 3, 2009 W. Gray. For more information, call (713)524-2175. The movie will open elsewhere in Texas in June.

We're constantly speculating about how we're going to take dance music to the next level. When are we finally going to hear some of the great tunes we're dancing to in the clubs on the radio? I've said it before and I'll say it again...these things will just have to take a little time. Remember, we have to give those corporate muckety-mucks time to catch up with our refined little homo ears. How about a couple of years ago? It seemed as though every other song you heard in gay clubs was a hi-NRG cover of some old song found on Klone or Almighty or something; Nicki French was the disco diva of choice, and so on. If that era did nothing else for dance music, it showed executives the marketability of what some call "La-La" or "Fluffy" music at the mainstream level. Call it whatever you want, one thing is certain: This stuff is selling in huge quantities. So much, in fact, that the majors are jumping on the bandwagon. And this is a good thing.

Take Columbia, for instance. It should tell you something that they've licensed a record like "Break My Stride," a remix of the old Matthew Wilder song redone by Unique II. You can surely bet that they're banking on a huge summer hit with this one. Jade Davies, the lead singer of Unique II, was born in Vienna, but grew up in South Africa. She's fluent in French, Afrikaans, Zulu and German. Discovered while singing at a karaoke contest, Jade has gone on to rack up huge hits all over Europe. "Break My Stride" topped charts in Austria, the Czech Republic, Denmark, Hungary and Israel, to name just a few countries. It reached platinum in Austria and gold way down under in Australia. Check out "Break My Stride"!

How about those new remixes of Kristine W's "Feel What You Want"? I think they're kinda cute! The "Vocal" mix is sort of commercial and on the garage tip, but scope out the stunning "Dekkard Offworld Vocal Mix." Kristine's vocals shine through Rollo's luscious synth work, giving new life to this three-year-old song...

Samantha Fox? Yes, that Samantha Fox. The '80s diva bounces back to the NRG scene with her new circuit smash, "Let Me Be Free." This turbocharged hi-houser is already rocking the house across the waters, and we've just learned that a summer stateside release on Popular is in the works. No telling what flawless remixing stops Popular guru Jurgen Kordulech will be pulling out for this one. But if you're in a hurry to get your hands on this little gem, you can always pick up a copy of Popular's latest compilation, Dance Hits Supermix '97, which features Samantha's and a host of other fab singles, all mixed together by Miss Funky Monkey '97, Harry Frank Towers. It's a good deal, fellas!...

And something new...a good while back, we told you about a new remix service, Remix!. Well, you have to check out their newest product — "En Español," America's first Latin remix service. It will feature Latin house and other Latin-flavored tracks which have been pulled apart, re-edited, restructured and remixed for the dance floor. ¡Muy caliente! For more information on Remix!, call (888)REMIX01....

Finally, it's all about the new Ultra Nate record on Strictly Rhythm/AM:PM. Massive! The title of the track is "Free," and it'll truly take you there. (I was beginning to wonder if Strictly was ever going to have

If you want to hold out for a bit, you can grab the new mixes by RIP and Hustler's Convention that are coming out soon on AM:PM. This one's going down as one of the year's biggest anthems.

And that's dance music THIS WEEK IN TEXAS.

DRĀK DEMAY

This week's coverman is thirty-year-old Drāk Demay. A native of The Netherlands, this Capricorn/Sagittarian now calls the North Texas town of Mineral Wells home and enjoys bodybuilding, swimming, dancing and watching movies. To relax, Drāk likes fast driving, eating out and sleeping in. His love of the outdoors keeps him on the go and you never know where you might run into him. But you can count on seeing him this weekend when he appears this Friday, Saturday and Sunday at Crews Inn and Zippers in Dallas.

Urge Chrysler's Return to Ellen

Dear TWT:

Chrysler Corporation pulled its ads from the April 30 episode of Ellen because they felt that it was "not sound business to be involved with an episode that is in such a highly polarized and emotional environment." Chrysler has not made "any decision on sponsorship beyond the April 30 episode."

Chrysler is seeking the public's opinion on whether they should continue to sponsor the Ellen show. To express your opinion, call the Chrysler Customer Center at (800)992-1997 or contact any local Chrysler dealership in Texas.

Let's keep Ellen on the air.

A Doctor with a Heart

Dear TWT:

My story begins three years ago, when I found out I was HIV-positive and had active AIDS.

My partner and friend had passed away five years before, so I was no stranger to the process. Nine months after the notice of my HIV status, I contracted pneumonia and was hospitalized for 21 days.

When I returned home, I was referred by Christopher House to the David Powell Clinic for outpatient care. I called for an appointment, which was set with Dr. Kenneth Blair. Let me preface by saying I am not fond of allopathic medicine as, I have been in the holistic health profession for ten or more years and maintained that mind-set.

I went grudgingly to my appointment, having preconceived ideas about how I would be treated. The first thing Dr. Blair asked was, "Michael, how are you handling your illness...emotionally?"

Boy, I was not expecting that! My entire visit was approximately 20 minutes or more, dedicated wholly to my mental/emotional state. He listened intently and spent only the last five or so minutes discussing my physical condition — stating clearly what "we" could do for me at that time.

I stood up to leave and extended my hand to thank him for his time. He took my hand and pulled me close for a hug; at that moment, all my composure began to melt away. It took all my resolve not to burst into tears at that very moment. I had no idea how much that touch and caring was needed.

I left feeling somewhat confused but very uplifted, asking myself, "Could this doctor really have such compassion and unconditional love for his patients?" I have since found out that yes, he does! He treats every patient with equal compassion and unconditional love, taking whatever time is needed with each and every one of us. He does not treat by the clock, but by the time needed. Be prepared to wait; it is worth the time.

I strongly feel Dr. Blair's care has played a large part in my health and emotional well-being, along with the "new" meds, of course.

I recently experienced dementia and have fully recovered. Recovering from this experience, I have realized the importance of taking the time to let those in my life know how I love and appreciate them. Although I am aware of many who feel the same as I do about Dr. Blair, I don't know if any take the time to tell him. I am taking this opportunity to let him and others know how much we appreciate, respect and love him.

Thank you, Dr. Blair. I am deeply grateful for your loving care and compassion.

BEA ARTHUR
MAY 13, 1926

Lovely Venus changes signs this week, moving from sensuous Taurus to flirtatious Gemini. Don't be surprised (or frustrated) if expressions of love become more talk and less action. Sometimes we need a little sugar to spice things up.

TAURUS (April 21 - May 21) They say you should never count your chickens before they're hatched, but now, with Venus in Gemini, you have an innate ability to hatch a clever investment strategy. Seek financial advice from a reputable professional and plant those money seeds now when the planetary energy is right. Who knows what will sprout? Think retirement in South Beach....

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21) Venus in your own sign amply demonstrates why gay Twins can be among the most charming folks in the zodiac. You pack a lot of power in your personality now. Use this hot intensity for niceness and not for nastiness. The temptation may be to settle an old score, but you know that revenge is one of the few dishes that's best eaten cold.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23) Build up the good karma points when Venus enters Gemini. Good things come to those proud Crabs who generously give back to our community. The secret is to galvanize all your best charitable volunteering forces to produce effective results. It's time to stand up and be counted, my comrades-in-arms. If not now, when? If not you, then who?

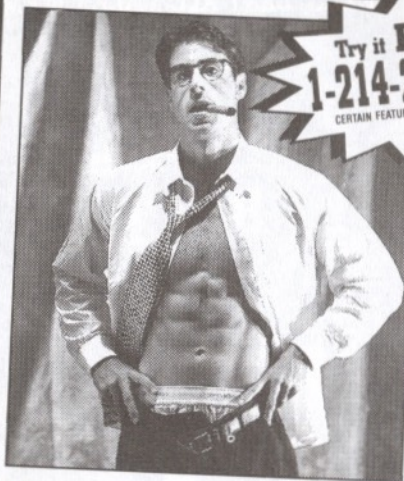

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23) Friends are putty in your hands with Venus in Gemini. Pals gravitate to you as you command the group dynamic. This is fine as long as you don't let the party turn into a great gay Lion Oscar-winning performance. There's a time for the conquering diva and a time for democratic camaraderie. Choose the latter; eventually Venus moves on and the blush will be off your rose.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23) Plan your career climb when Venus enters Gemini. Projects that you've undertaken as part of your overall plan for advancement may begin to blossom and pay off. Proud Virgos sometimes don't know when to push the envelope with bosses. Now, not only is your timing right to push but the envelope bears first-class postage.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23) Even if you're no longer a student, use this terrific Venus-in-Gemini energy to expand and enhance your life's course of study and your overall knowledge. The planets give you a truly global perspective and the itch to travel. Who knows, gay Libras may even snare foreign comrades to help in such affirming journeys. They say two travel as cheaply as one if they share a bed.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22) Lucky queer Scorp charm the pants off just about anyone when Venus enters chatty Gemini. Your sexuality is electric hot, so prepare for a surge and be sure to pack extra fuses. But

HOUSTON AIDS WALK WILL RAISE MONEY FOR LOCAL AGENCIES

Organizers Hope to Draw 2,000
For Eighth Annual Fund-Raiser.

HOUSTON — The Southwestern Bell Houston AIDS Walk, which raises money for local efforts against the disease, takes place on Sunday, May 18, at Sam Houston Park-Downtown. Now in its eighth year, the event is a 10K "Walk 'N' Roll-A-Thon," produced by AIDS Foundation Houston and benefiting that organization and 13 other service agencies. Participants can walk or roll (skates, rollerblades, strollers, wheelchairs, bikes). Registration is free, and can be done in person at the AFH offices, 3202 Wesleyan Annex, until Friday, May 16, or at the Walk itself. A reported one in every 90 Houstonians is HIV-positive, and will thus benefit from the success of the May 18 event.

Walkers can take part individually or in teams. Those who raise certain minimum amounts will be entitled to receive Walk T-shirts or sweat shirts. According to AIDS Foundation

Houston, more than 85 companies and organizations last year formed Walk Teams, which AFH encourages because of the group spirit and excitement they engender.

After registration from 8-9 a.m., opening ceremonies take place at 9. The Walk and Roll kicks off at 9:30 a.m., to be followed by a party around 11 a.m. featuring entertainment by the group Rare Seed. Walk participants will be welcomed back to the stage area by a personality from KRIV Fox 26 TV.

Scheduled to appear are emcees Dana Tyson and Weaver Morrow of Sunny 99.1 and Lanny Griffith of 107.5 The Buzz. On-stage talent will include child performers from Genesis Talent, Marsha Carlton, the Gay Men's Chorus, the Pride Band and the High School for the Performing & Visual Arts Jazz Quartet. There will also be other talent and cheerleaders from area schools along the 10K route.

In addition to AFH, this year's beneficiaries are AAMA, Inc.; AIDS Alliance of the Bay Area, Inc.; Body Positive/Houston Wellness Center; CASA, A Special Hospital; the Colt 45's, Inc.; Metropolitan Community Church of the Resurrection; the Montrose Counseling Center; the New Hope Counseling Center; Omega House; the People With AIDS Coalition-Houston; the Southeast Texas Legal Clinic; The Assistance Fund; and the WAM Foundation.

For more information on Walk Teams, call (713)629-WALK. Pledge sheets are available at area Walgreen drug stores, Supercuts locations, Starbucks Coffee locations and Kroger stores, or by calling (713)629-WALK.

'TWILIGHT' SHOWING BENEFITS TWO AUSTIN ORGANIZATIONS

Co-Producer Charles Duggan
To Speak After Show
This Evening at Paramount.

AUSTIN — Charles Duggan is sponsoring a benefit presentation of the new Showtime film Twilight of the Golds at 8 p.m. this evening (May 9) at the Paramount Theatre, 713 Congress Ave. Proceeds from the showing will go to the Austin Gay and Lesbian International Film Festival and the Austin Federal Club of the Human Rights Campaign.

"I'm very supportive of both these groups," Duggan, of Austin, told TWT NEWS. He produced Twilight of the Golds as a stage play from California to Austin to Broadway, and is co-producer of the film version. "From my own point of view, I want people to see this film. I think it sparks today."

Twilight of the Golds deals with strong human themes, from prenatal gay genes to abortion. The play was written by Jonathan Tolias, who also wrote the screenplay with partner Seth Bass; the film's cast includes Garry Marshall, Faye Dunaway, Brendan Fraser and Jennifer Beal.

"It's easy to make people laugh; it's easy to make people cry. The difficult thing is to make people gasp. We got three definite gasps in the play," said Duggan, who will speak briefly to the audience after the screening. "It'll be interesting to hear people's reactions, since most of them will not have seen the play. I'm hoping this is a very important topic for the community. In one sense, it's not a gay play or a gay film...it's really about how people are going to deal with the information genetic research gives us. That makes it very current, and addresses a whole different audience."

Tickets are $10 for reserved admission or $35 for preferred seats, which includes a private reception after the screening. Tickets can be purchased at the Paramount box office or at any HEB store, or by calling UTTM at (512)477-6060.

'BLENDORAMA '97' PUTS FUN TO WORK FOR AIDS IN DALLAS

Proceeds from Party on Saturday
Go to Local DIFFA Chapter.

DALLAS — This weekend, the Dallas branch of Design Industries Foundation Fighting AIDS [DIFFA] presents "Jim & Ken's Blendorama 1997." According to Executive Director Al James, the fund-raising event had humble beginnings, but it has really grown.

"It started out with two guys, Jim and Ken, who were doing this blender party in their back yard. They had tip jars out and money raised helped different organizations. After a while, it got too big, so they turned it over to me and it has now evolved into the fund-raiser it is today," James said.

The event is scheduled during an exciting time of the year for DIFFA. The local board will be reviewing the funds for grants this month. Then in June, the national board reviews them and announcements are made of the beneficiaries in July. To date, DIFFA Dallas has granted over $865,000 and James hopes that the announcement in July will push them over the $1 million mark. "We're hoping to raise several thousand dollars at this event alone. There's already a good buzz in the community and the hosts have actually come back for more invitations," James said.

Several companies have donated goods and services for the event, including Absolut Vodka, Bud Light, Domtar Papers, Sally Black, Captain Morgan's Rum, Copy Max and Media Wise; in addition, Kroger, Moby Dick and The Brick will be providing free shuttle service to the party from both bars and Smoothie King will be providing the blenders for the drinks.

James added that there will be plenty of fun for people who want to attend but don't want to drink. There will be nonalcoholic choices as well as a deejay spinning great music. Additionally, James claims there will be someone at the party dressed in a very festive costume to fit the theme. T-shirts will also be on sale to help benefit DIFFA even more.

Jim and Ken's Blendorama 1997 is completely underwritten by the more than 30 hosts who are participating. The event is this Saturday night, May 10, from 8 p.m.-midnight at Arlington Hall in Lee Park. Tickets are $20 per person and are available at the door. For more information about the event or DIFFA, call the group's offices at (214)748-8580. Proceeds from this bash will go directly to DIFFA to help those infected with and affected by AIDS in the Dallas/Fort Worth area.

Parker will be competing to replace outgoing Councilwoman Gracie Saenz, who cannot run for reelection due to term-limit provisions. Parker began accepting campaign contributions earlier this year, and hopes to raise at least $100,000 by this summer and line up important individual endorsements. She has been endorsed by former City Controller George Greanias, who is himself running for mayor.

Parker, who served as president of HGLPC from 1986-88, has waged two previous campaigns for Houston City Council, in 1991 for a district seat and in 1995 for an at-large position.

TOP TEXAS DANCERS EARN SPOTS IN INTERNAT'L CONTEST

*Couples from Austin, Houston
Will Compete in November Championships at TGRA Rodeo.*

AUSTIN — Two couples from Austin and one from Houston were crowned state champions at the Texas Gay Rodeo Association's 1997 Open State Dance Competition, held April 20 at Rainbow Cattle Company. The event took place during TGRA's state convention, which ran all weekend in the state capital.

State champions advance to the International Gay Rodeo Association dance championships, to be held in July in Salt Lake City.

Winning in Division IV, for first-timers who had never entered before, were Belinda and Vivian of Austin; fellow Austinites Barb and Ronda placed second. In Division III, for beginners with some dance experience, the Austin duo of Tami and Mark captured first place. Division II (intermediate) was ruled by Cindi and Paul of Houston; there were no entrants in Division I (advanced).

Over 80 members attended the weekend state convention, and shows and events put on by TGRA raised about $2,000 for their charities.

Austin preliminaries are planned for August or September to choose qualifiers to the 1998 Open State Dance Competition. That event will be held in November in Houston, in conjunction with the annual state TGRA Rodeo.

CIRCUIT PARTIERS TO DESCEND ON AUSTIN FOR 'MELTDOWN '97'

Proceeds from May 23-26 Bashes Benefit AIDS Services.

AUSTIN — "The Circuit" is recognized as a series of gay parties held around the world, giving participants — most of whom are hunky young well-to-do men with muscles on top of their muscles — a chance to escape the day-to-day pressures of living. To quote Circuit Noize magazine, a Florida-based publication designed for circuit partiers, "When the Circuit comes to town, that town becomes an instant gay ghetto full of hot men who are behaving as queer as they care to be."

The Circuit is strongest in events in Florida, California and New England. Helping Hands for Life, Inc., made its case for Texas as a great tour and party destination with its RIP'D and Meltdown parties in Austin, and it's back on the fun agenda with Meltdown '97 May 23-26 (Memorial Day weekend) in the state's capital.

The event isn't just fun and frivolity. Last year Helping Hands and its parties raised $10,500 for local AIDS-related charities, such as the now-closed Christopher House. This year's Meltdown will benefit AIDS Services of Austin, and thousands of revelers are expected to participate.

The weekend includes:

- A First Call welcoming party from 8 p.m.-2 a.m. on Friday, May 23, at Oilcan

Harry's. Tickets are $5 at the door, except for those who purchase the VIP weekend passes, which range from $85 to $980 platinum packages for ten people.

- The main Meltdown '97 party from 9 p.m.-4 a.m. Saturday, May 24, at the Austin Music Hall. Tickets are $25 in advance, $30 at the door; Warren Gluck of New York City spins the music and Mark Steed of Miami will work the lights, while special entertainment from San Francisco is planned.

- The Captain Morgan's Rum Run on Lake Travis from 11 a.m.-6 p.m. on Sunday, May 25, with four barges traveling together in a round trip to Hippie Hollow. Austin's Michael Tank will handle the music; tickets are $50. Space is limited for those without VIP weekend passes.

- The Aurora Party from 8 p.m. Sunday till dawn the next day at The Forum. Tickets are $15 in advance, $20 at the door, and Julian Marsh of New York City will mastermind the music.

The weekend also will include Kitty Meow from South Beach in Florida as a guest party host. Major sponsors are Captain Morgan, ATI Travel, Continental, Hyatt, Labnet, Miller Lite and others. Tickets go on sale this weekend at N-8 and Sparks in Austin, Lobo in Austin and Houston and Crossroads Market in Dallas and Houston. For updates or further information, call (512)419-1763, (888)464-5678 or (512)478-6126, or check the Web at <http://www.partyaustin.com>.

PROJECT FOR KIDS WITH HIV WINS LEADERSHIP AWARD

*AIDS Foundation Houston's
'Camp Hope' Returns
Weekend of Sept. 19-21.*

HOUSTON — AIDS Foundation Houston [AFH] was recently named the winner of the 1996 Leadership in Action Award, presented by Leadership Houston, for the foundation's special "Camp Hope" project. "Camp Hope," which just completed its inaugural season, won the top honors in the "Health & Human Services" category.

"Camp Hope" provided a weekend for children living with HIV disease on Sept. 20-22 last year at Camp John Marc near Dallas. Twenty-two children (ages 6-16) attended the camp, which provided participants the chance to "be like other kids" and enjoy fishing, arts and crafts, baseball, the country and, most importantly, life itself.

"We are extremely honored to have been selected for this prestigious award, and can't wait for all the children to hear of the exciting news," Mike Mizwa, Director of Education for AFH and Director of "Camp Hope," said in a statement issued April 28.

Building on last year's success, "Camp Hope" 's weekend camp will be repeated at Camp John Marc again Sept. 19-21, with 40 children attending. AFH and "Camp Hope" plan to extend the project to a full-week camp in 1998 through a collaboration with the Camp For All Foundation. The camp will be a barrier-free facility fully equipped (including its own on-site medical service) to serve chronically ill and/or disabled children.

AIDS Foundation Houston was the sole HIV/AIDS service organization chosen by the Camp For All Foundation to provide summer activities.

To help sponsor a child for "Camp Hope," or to volunteer, contact Mizwa at (713)623-6796.

DARK BEAUTY

Steven Patterson Explores the World of Jean Genet at the Houston Fringe Theater Festival

Theater LaB Houston and its producing director, Gerry LaBida, have taken on yet another project for the dramatic arts in Houston. This is the 50th anniversary of the Edinburgh Fringe Festival, held in Edinburgh, Scotland. The Festival, having now grown to some 1,000 events, is a touchstone of the theatre world, and now Theater LaB is producing Houston's first Fringe Theater Festival. Gerry is excited.

"This is a great opportunity for Houston audiences to experience theatrical performances that have not come to Houston through more conventional programming. It is a special honor for TLH to join the ranks of other major festivals, and to enable Houston to play a part in this emerging trend in the theatrical art form." LaBida hopes the Festival will become an annual event.

As a part of this first series, Theater LaB will present Beauty, a work created and performed by Steven Patterson, inspired by the early work of French novelist and playwright Jean Genet. In Beauty, Patterson explores the dark and erotic world of Genet in a one-man presentation that has run exclusively in San Francisco and Los Angeles for the past three years, and has toured both in Canada and the U.S.

I spoke with Steven by phone at his home in San Francisco. He was gracious and eager to talk, despite my having interrupted Baywatch. I had forgotten the time difference. "Beauty has pretty much taken on a life of its own. The response has been amazing. We've played in Canada; we were in Palm Springs for Easter. It'll be in Atlanta in November, without me, for the first time. And we're coming to Houston."

He's been interested in Genet for years, ever since he discovered him in high school, where he read him in translation. Steven was dealing with his own coming out, his own sexuality. "I was amazed by the way Genet dealt with it. He never compromised, never apologized. He was always so upfront, 'deal with it.' I found that so liberating. It was a revelation."

So why deal with this material now? "Now is the time to consolidate the gains we have made as a community. Genet fought all his life against the powers that were screwing the underdog, dismissing the marginal in our society. He believed that unless everyone is free, then no one is, and this has never been so true as it is today."

Beauty explores the world of Genet, often dark and ugly. "I wouldn't have wanted to know him," Patterson says. "But he found and created a beauty from what he had. We all have to go with what's out there, create beauty from that, and that's what I'm doing in Beauty. I love going there. I'm pretty conservative emotionally, but I like going places that are new and threatening. Beauty allows me to go there, and I can take the audience along to someplace they wouldn't get to go."

Steven's performance has been described by critics as "electrifying," "raw" and "powerfully erotic." It is something everyone in the community should experience.

There will be only six performances of Beauty, which opens Wednesday, May 14, and closes Saturday, May 17. Reservations are a must. This work contains nudity, and is for adult audiences only. For reservations and more information on other Houston Fringe Theater Festival events, call the Theater LaB box office at (713) 868-7516.

DALLAS TEA — The first fund-raiser for the annual Alan Ross Texas Freedom Parade is coming up on Sunday, May 18. The Maple Avenue Carnival will be held on the parking lots between Buddies II and The Brick from 2-6 p.m., with tons of carnival booths manned by your favorite bar employees featuring food, games, beer and much more. The raffle tickets are available from your favorite bartenders at all Tavern Guild member clubs....

New doorman Pete [left] is ready and waiting to welcome you to all the huge events at The Brick this month. Their new Latino night on Sunday got off to a great start with a fabulous crowd. It's going on every Sunday, so stop in and experience it for yourself. Tonight, it's the Beads and Boxers Party where you can get ultra-creative with your bead placement, since they're providing a clothes check. It'll bring back all those fond Mardi Gras memories. They've announced the special appearance of Steve Rambo on Friday, May 30 and we know you won't miss out on seeing him. Of course, the big news this month is the famous White Party, returning in all its glory on Saturday, May 17 with deejays Troy Sands and Ric Herrington and a special performance by Marlon Ramos. Then, get ready for the infamous tent foam party on Sunday, May 18 with deejay Chet Green. Get your tickets now! White Party's whitewear headquarters is Union Jack on Cedar Springs, of course....

Here's the proof we promised you of the outrageous Miss Big Thickette Pageant held recently at the Round-Up. Tikera Mockingbird [above] won the coveted crown and helped the event raise over $6,000 for the TCC AIDS Fund. With all the great events they've got goin' on, May at the Round-Up is going to be exciting. Coming up soon is the Switch-Hitters Ball, a Pegasus Softball Association Show on Sunday, May 18. As they say, turnabout is fair play! Then, from the Round-Up's own softball team, there's going to be a huge Memorial Weekend Hamburger Cookout on the patio. But if you're in the mood for a simple down-home good time, drop in tonight and soak up the atmosphere at Texas' greatest country bar. Here's a flash you won't believe, and remember, you read it here first: For the first time in over 16 years, Round-Up will be hosting Disco Dance nights on Wednesdays beginning May 21. Their beautiful facility and state-of-the-art sound system guarantee a mid-week experience like no other in Big D history....

JR's always brings out the best in everyone and sometimes even gets them downright cuddly. Just ask Mark and Gary [above, l-r] why JR's has such a powerful effect on people. It's probably the videos and music, but it could be the weekend dancers. Then again, it's probably JR's generosity. Some of you lucky people out there will be going to the Erasure concert courtesy of JR's. Just be there on Tuesday and Wednesday, May 13 and 14, and enter the drawing. A pair of tickets will be given away each night, so come to both and double your chances. The concert's on May 17, so clear your schedules and plan on coming back to JR's to close the evening on a great note. Come in this weekend and see all the changes that have been made....

Together, Crews Inn and Zippers make Fitzhugh the best place on earth to get your daily dose of the most gorgeous male dancers. Guest dancer Santo [left] recently came in all the way from Houston, and he drove the crowd crazy with his moves.

This week, TWT coverman Drak Demay sizzles with appearances tonight and Sunday at Crews Inn and Saturday at Zippers. Add to that Crews Inn's fantastic Trash Disco tonight and you have all the elements to get your weekend off to a wild start. Remember, there's never a cover charge at Crews Inn or Zippers and there's always plenty of free parking....

If you haven't seen the new outdoor bar at Moby Dick, then you probably haven't seen Darrell [above], either. He's the great bartender they put to work on the balcony, so visit him soon. He'll pour you a cold one since things are heating up outside. Speaking of hot, wasn't Moby's Cinco de Mayo fiesta a blast? It was so popular, they had to really hustle to keep up with the demand by the huge crowds for Mexican beer. This week, the demand is going to be for something different — Erasure. That's right, Moby Dick is putting together a fabulous prize package consisting of tickets to the Erasure concert on Saturday the 17th, pre-concert cocktails at Moby's and a post-concert blowout at the Brick's fabulous White Party. You can stop by now and fill out an entry form, but make sure you're there for the exciting drawings on Tuesday the 13th during Wayne Smith's Broadway Show tunes and Wednesday the 14th during Nakoma Shaye's hilarious comedy night. Even if you don't win the tickets, you'll see two of the greatest shows in town....

Rodney and David [above, l-r] wanted HOT TEA to take their pictures when they were at Village Station recently. They're both single and lookin' for a love connection! That's reason enough to head over to Village right away and see if you can find one of these great guys. There's more to Village Station than finding a date. For starters, Village Station hosts some of the most dazzling pageants around, like last night's Miss Gay South USofA. Even bigger still is the big event of the year, Miss Gay USofA, coming to Village Station the week of May 18–22. It's gonna be wall-to-wall divas every night. For a real treat, make sure to attend the "Stars of USA" show and preliminary awards presentation on Thursday, May 22 from 8–10 p.m. Titleholders from years past will join Miss Gay USofA Natasha Richards in a once-in-a-lifetime extravaganza of glitz, glitter and stars. Speaking of stars, one of Village Station's stellar employees, Jeff Schroeder, is celebrating his birthday this week. Stop by and wish him the best....

Those cowboy butts really are driving them nuts at TMC's Tuesday night Country Music Night. Put on your Stetsons and check it out. If you're looking for a sure bet, then just wait for their Casino Night this Thursday, May 15, produced by the Leather Knights. They're bringin' in all your favorite casino games for a night of wild, high-rollin' fun benefiting the Foundation for Human Understanding's Meals on Wheels program. Odds are you'll have a fantastic time....

Gulf Coast Drummer is only a week away at the Dallas Eagle and they're ready to make it an event you won't soon forget. If you haven't been to one of these manly competitions before, you're in for a real treat. They've rounded up the hottest men who perform and show off their dynamic leather. The festivities officially begin next Friday, May 16, at 10 p.m. during a special "Meet the Contestants" party. Then, get ready for the big event on Saturday, May 17, and see who'll be heading for the competition in San Francisco. Stop by this weekend for a taste of what's yet to come....

Mr. T.G.R.A. '98 Candidate Kris Hamby hosted a benefit show for his candidacy at Kolors recently and raised $556.75, which went to the AIDS Resource Center's Hot Meals program. This Sunday, he'll be at Buddies II beginning at 9 p.m. in a benefit show for the Nelson-Tebedo Breast Cancer Program....

Looking for an outrageous show this week? Then look no further than Sue Ellen's. They've got the "New Sue Revue" cast show every Thursday at 11 p.m. and it's always a real show-stopper. If you can't wait till Thursday, though, you'll definitely want to come spike a few in a friendly game of volleyball on Sunday afternoon. All the best people can be found on both of their patios every weekend, so why not add your name to the list?..

D.J. Productions and Universe/Globe Paganry have two big events planned for next month: Miss Texas Universe is scheduled for June 13, followed by the Mr. American Nationals on June 27. Both events will be held at Centerstage Cabaret. For information contact Joe, Jeff or David at (800)662-6804.

HOUSTON TEA

— With special guests like Miss Texas Continental Melissa Crawford [right], sexy, sassy and simply sensational is the only way to describe the Super Sunday

Show at Heaven. This weekend, hostesses Kofi and Kourtney Van Wales welcome Miss Gay World Tommie Ross and Miss Gay USofA Natasha Richards. Memorial Day is coming and the club is gearing up for its annual White Party featuring Foam '97. Mark your calendar for Sunday, May 25, because this wet and wild undergear extravaganza is sure to be the event that will kick your summer into high gear. Stop by and see your favorite bartender for an invitation....

Our trip to JR's Tropical Fiesta last weekend was like a south-of-the-border vacation that included service with a smile from club manager David Wilcox [above, l] and bartenders Keith "Show Me The Cleavage" Jones [c] and David Schultz [r]. The guys invite everyone to join them for JR's 15th Anniversary Party on Saturday, May 24. There'll be a traditional toast of well drinks and longnecks from 8–10 p.m., hourly prize drawings from 8 p.m.–midnight and hard-bodied hunks with candy kisses for all....

Last Sunday at Gentry, Miss Ofeel Ya Upp [above, r], twin sister of Emperor XII Jim Halbert, and National Leather Association president Mike Geinzer [l] hosted "That's Upp With 2 P's" benefiting the NLA: Houston Children's Charity. A bevy of friends and fans were on hand just to see the host's lovely transformation. In addition to great daily drink specials, Gentry continues to sizzle with seductive and sinful male strip contests every Wednesday and Sunday and super sexy Boy Toy dancers seven nights a week....

Speaking of NLA, next Saturday, May 17, the members of the Houston chapter and Pacific Street present "Military Man-euvers II" in honor of Armed Forces Day. Along with your chance to get a temporary tattoo, there'll be no cover for men in uniform. As always, Pacific Street's high-energy dance music and shameless Caged Heat dancers will heat you up, while their cheap drinks cool you off....

Pleasure is their business. With three theaters, 18 private viewing rooms, a multitude of magazines and videos and much, much more, Alternatives of Adult Video Megaplexxx is Houston's newest entertainment center. Take a drive to 8100 North Freeway at Canino Road and explore your Alternatives....

This Sunday at the Briar Patch, the Imperial Court presents "Fiesta Mamacita" at 8 p.m. This star-studded revue seasoned with a Latin flavor benefits AVES. Every Thursday, join the gang at the BP and enjoy the musical shenanigans of Edith Head; she's always a hoot....

On the subject of campy capers, Rich's welcomed the return of comedienne Monique Marvez last Saturday. Between shows, we found Monique [above, c] getting cozy with party boys Mark Deaton [l] and Jody "Lateace" Miller [r]. Tonight, Klub Kamp hosts the second annual Miss Gay Texas World Pageant with special guests Tommie Ross, Stacey Holliday and last year's winner Yolanda. Next Friday, be sure to be on hand as Regina Dane crowns her successor at the third annual Miss Gay Houston USofA At-Large Pageant....

Still looking for that perfect summer ensemble? Get on over and see Ken Claude [below] at Basic Brothers. The store carries an amazing variety of sportswear, swimwear and clubwear. If something looks different at Basic Brothers, you've probably noticed the newly-expanded display window that allows them to show off all those fabulous fashions....

Once again, thousands of people converged upon Montrose for The Westheimer Street Festival. One of the weekend's highlights was definitely the Rooftop Revue at Mary's. The list of crowd-pleasing entertainers included Rashelle Stevens, Roxanne Lee Love and Lyndsey Shea [above, l-r]. Across the street at Chances, we made our way through the multitude of folks waiting to join Wiley Walters [below] for a trip on The Luge. If you've never sucked a shot off of a 300 lb. block of ice, make plans to be the at next Street Festival for an experience you won't forget.

at SA's newest hot spot. The second anniversary party for Eagle Mountain Saloon is in full swing and both EMS and The Annex are packed nightly — it's like Fiesta never ended! The celebration continues this weekend, so drop by and join in on the fun. Last Sunday, May 4, Charanga was crowned Miss Blue Light Candle 1997. She raised close to $2,000 for those in need and EMS is very proud to have sponsored her. Mario, the club's Mr. TGRA '98 candidate, hosted a tremendous show in honor of Cinco de Mayo and is well on his way to bringing that title to San Antonio. EMS dance instructor Terri continues to fill the floor every Thursday night beginning at 9. Come by — it's fun and it's free....

Pegasus staffers Tim and Sam [above, l-r] are all smiles now that the club's pool and beach are open for summer. After all, some of SA's hottest dancers take full advantage of the beautiful surroundings and tan their hides poolside. Join them daily beginning at 2 p.m. and then stick around for the party. Monday nights feature go-go gods, out-of-this-world drink specials and a great crowd weekly....

AUSTINteaCIOUS — Thank heaven there's no law against having too much fun! We're still basking in the glow of all the fun things we got into (so to speak) during a magnificent First Splash weekend in Austin. What a way to start a month! And we just may be ready for more immediately, because there are a lot of interesting things planned in the days ahead....

It's up, it's hot and it's aimed primarily at women, who finally have "their own" bar in Austin once again! It's Sister's Edge, and we caught owner Warren and hard-workin' Mary, Teri and Kerrie [above, clockwise from top] greeting folks at the door. DeeJay Leigh "Get" Downing was playing sensational dance music, and the huge dance floor was getting a good workout. A patio and lots of other surprises are planned....

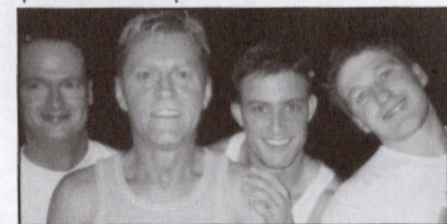

Her older brother, The Edge, just keeps getting better and better about five blocks away in Guytown. Tony and his hot male dancers work Thursdays from 9:30 p.m. to 12:30 a.m.; the Big T is still looking for fresh blood to add to his crew. Michael T.'s Karaoke Night on Tuesdays has a large, loyal following — and anyone can become a star....

We caught hunky J.T. [above, c, with Ray McDermott and David Green] holding court at Charlie's patio bar; the jovial one really puts the "happy" in happy hour from 4-9 p.m. Sundays-Fridays. Lauren Taylor and guests Whitney Paige, Jame Perry, Kelly Kline and Sean Colby and Texas of the Team Texas dancers put a perfect cap to First Splash with Showtime last Sunday. This Sunday, while lucky Miss Gay America is in Florida, the show will feature guest emcee Vanessa Gordon, Chevelle Brooks, Scarlett Leigh and more. Nacha Type has another big show on Thursday, May 15, with guests Cynthia Dior, Loreal Brooks and Miss Ricki. Happy birthday to David the 12th and Jesse the 13th....

The Chain Drive may have a big hit on its hands with its Sunday openers every other week. Last week, the gang celebrated Cinco de Mayo with a mariachi band and breakfast tacos. On May 18, they'll be opening once more at noon, with Bryce Holtry's Good-Time Band providing the tunes to go with the food. Congrats to Michael Reese, named new General Manager, and to Chris, the new Assistant Manager. Don't forget the dress code for Saturday nights, and get ready for a big Uniform Party on May 17 to celebrate Armed Forces Day; the club will not open until 8 p.m. that night only. The Texas Gay Rodeo Association will be handling the Mother's Day cookout this Sunday on the patio from 4-9 p.m....

Oilcan Harry's is the true home of "Gaywatch"; say no more! We love watching bartenders Bill, Steve, Scott and Chris [above, l-r] make everyone happy, even on busy weekend nights. Miss H and SidLicious are two of your favorite deejays; they know how to keep our feet moving! Check out the happy hour buffet on Mondays, Thursdays and Fridays, always one of the best feasts in town...Love their male dancers!...

The turnout was huge at The Forum and The Cuff when the clubs hosted the Human Rights Campaign's Ellen Watch Party April 30 [above]. For a wild time, come play Drag-in-a-Bag with Heather Thomas and the gang on Wednesday nights....

Back bartenders Gary [above, l] and Patrick are always lots of fun to visit with at Rainbow Cattle Company. Thank you, deejay Cecil, for one of the best dance mixes we've ever enjoyed the Saturday night of First Splash weekend: Village People, Madonna and more. We've got to learn that group revolving dance they do to "Wild Wild West"; wonder if Colton teaches it during his free country dance lessons at 9 p.m. Mondays? RCC is hosting a benefit for the Community AIDS Resource and Education Program at 8 p.m. May 18; more on that next week. We've just got to compliment the new Caruso's Cafe next door (its Marge handles RCC's Thursday Grilled Steak and Chicken Night) for great late-night food; just wish Caruso's was open more than only 6 p.m.-4 a.m. Fridays and Saturdays....

The Blue Flamingo is planning changes and renovations, but it'll always stay our favorite Red River home for live music and livelier people. Another big rock night this Saturday with a lineup scheduled to include U.L.M., Motards, Stanley, Teen Cool and more. Be there or be square....

Tomorrow night at 10:30 p.m., 'Bout Time hosts the finals of the Miss Universal Thang contest. The gals from the Capital City Queens and The Royal We will be on hand along with hostess and mistress of ceremonies Augusta Blush. Don't miss the return of Austin's original high camp comedy drag pageant.

TEXAS TELETYPE — Following last Sunday's Super Show at Magnolia Station in Fort Worth, cast members Lauren Le Masters, Charity Case and Aretha Wells, along with special guest Maya Douglas [back, l-r], gathered to wish Jerry "Big Mama" Cassidy [front, c] a very happy birthday. You, too, can congratulate Jerry on this special occasion by joining her for a sensational celebration next Wednesday, May 14. Special birthday wishes go out to "Miss Double Nickels" from all of us....

At Decisions in Longview, our CRUISE CAMERA caught up with superstar female illusionist Hot Chocolate [above, l] and club show director Jason Reed [r] following her recent North Texas appearance. The club has shows every Sunday, so be on the lookout for even more great special guests.
