VOICES AND VISIONS

The Alamo City Men's Chorale Celebrates Its First Decade of Musical Excellence with a Big Birthday Bash Saturday, June 21

The Alamo City Men's Chorale was born June 22, 1987. One day shy of its tenth anniversary, the group is throwing a big birthday bash with a little help from some friends from Dallas, the world-famous Turtle Creek Chorale.

The concert, "Voices and Visions," is at 8 p.m. Saturday, June 21, in McAllister Auditorium on the campus of San Antonio College. Tickets are $10 in advance and $12 at the door, and indications are that a sell-out is very likely.

"We're looking forward to people coming in from Atlanta, Houston, Dallas and all over the state," said Richard Reams, the Public Relations Director and a first tenor for the chorus. "Things have been going real well in rehearsals leading up to this, the final concert in our tenth anniversary season. The Turtle Creek Chorale is appearing as a birthday present to us, and we're really looking forward to sharing the stage with them."

ACMC will perform the Texas premiere of a major new choral work, Prayers for Bobby. This 40-minute composition for male chorus, soprano and tenor soloists, narrator and chamber orchestra features music by Dr. Jay Kawarsky of Westminster Choir College, who will be in attendance.

BY BRUCE WILLIAMS

Based on Leroy Aarons' acclaimed book, Prayers for Bobby tells the true story of Bobby Griffith and his mother Mary, who must struggle with her faith as she seeks to understand her gay son's sexuality and suicide. A portion of the concert proceeds will benefit Parents, Family and Friends of Lesbians and Gays in memory of Bobby and in honor of his mother.

"Having a chamber orchestra playing with us is real exciting," Reams said. "It'll largely be a string orchestra, with some woodwinds as well; we haven't finalized who all will be in the group yet.

The Turtle Creek Chorale is going to be singing the first half of the concert; they'll be doing a '60s retro show, plus some selections from Naked Man (another major new choral work). We'll do the second half with Prayers for Bobby, and then we'll all sing the final song."

Now in its 17th season, the Turtle Creek Chorale is the most recorded men's chorus in history, with 16 compact discs that feature a diverse repertoire. Dr. Timothy Seelig became the group's Artistic Director in 1987. In 1993, TCC made its Carnegie Hall debut, and two years later a film about the group won an Emmy Award while the Chorale toured Europe.

ACMC isn't as old as the "Turtles," but it has grown rapidly in its first decade of existence. It has emerged as one of San Antonio's most innovative and vibrant musical ensembles, with a repertoire that embraces everything from classics and pops to spirituals and new works.

The all-volunteer, ethnically diverse singing membership of ACMC currently stands at approximately 40 men; the group is open to all men age 18 and older. Each singing member must pass an audition, pay dues and rehearse an average of five hours a week during the September-to-June concert season.

Dallas' famed Turtle Creek Chorale join their San Antonio counterparts for a season-ending concert at McAllister Auditorium in San Antonio.

Reams said the Chorale had flourished despite losing ten members to HIV disease since its founding. As an expression of support for people with AIDS, ACMC provides free tickets to PWAs, performs annually at the Procession of Hope sponsored by the Hispanic AIDS Committee and regularly donates a portion of its concert proceeds to local AIDS organizations.

For the past five years, Matthew S. Goodson has been ACMC's Artistic Director. During Goodson's tenure, the Chorale has performed in Houston at the Wortham Center and with the San Antonio Symphony at the Alamo City's Majestic Theatre. In 1995, ACMC presented its first commissioned work, Alice Gomez's Estaciones (Seasons). The Chorale also has performed on National Public Radio and CBS This Morning. As it approaches its second decade, the Alamo City Men's Chorale is making preliminary plans to record its first CD, featuring music that will reflect the Hispanic heritage of San Antonio.

The June 21 concert will be interpreted for the deaf. To order tickets, or for more information, call (210)495-SING, or visit ACMC's website at <http://users.aol.com/acmcboyz/>.

GAY PRIDE THRU PACIFIC STREET- LEADERSHIP!

An Open Letter to the Community:

Eighteen months ago, Anheuser-Busch Inc. began a program to eliminate Returnable Longneck Bottles. They left the disposal of the empty bottles to the consumer. Miller Brewery followed shortly afterwards and eliminated their returnable bottles. I let their people know that I felt that was bad corporate citizenship and that they should rethink their programs. However, they maintained that they didn't want the responsibility of the returnable bottles. I then contacted our state legislative representative about the situation. But, in Austin, there was no support for a mandatory glass deposit program similar to those in a majority of other states.

Since then, we at Pacific Street have contacted numerous local glass recyclers and even attempted our own hauling system to the glass recycling plant. However, there is no economic incentive for used glass and very little interest in it. I believe we cannot continue to dump our long-loved longnecks into the landfill. From Pacific Street alone this represents over 12 semi-trucks buried in the land fill each year. This environmental assassination cannot be continued.

We at Pacific Street would like to offer leadership on this issue. For the month of June, to show our pride, we will offer your domestic beers in a choice of longnecks or recyclable aluminum cans. All proceeds from the aluminum recycling program will be divided between the Colt 45's Trouble Fund and The Avondale Beautification Effort. We ask for your comments and support in our effort.

We'll start off this week's gaggle of gorgeous grooves with a smart little release by People Underground from our pals over at Nervous Records. The title of this clever gem is "Music Is Pumping" and it features the muy buenos vocals of Sharon Williams. Her thunderous delivery truly carries the track; a Zach Toms production offers a garage-ish, disco slant coupled with a pseudo-pop flavor. The remixes for this fabulous CD5 are done by Cevin Fisher, Eric Kupper, Tony B and Vision & Lorimer, so you know the girls didn't play around. What a lineup! A quite uplifting and really fun spring record that's certain to get any party going. Grab it!...

On the compilation front this week, seek out a copy of Waako Records' latest collection of danceable treats as they present Nightlife Essentials, a continuous-mix CD by renowned deejay Kenny Carpenter. The comp features hits by Michelle Wilson ("Key of Life") and "Neverending Source of Love"), Michael M ("Move Up"), Mood II Swing ("Take Me Baby"), Lenny Fontana ("Get Down & Get Funky"), the smash hit by Gisele Jackson that everyone's looking for, "Love Commandments," plus many more. The CD is worth it alone just to have the Jackson track (By the way, both the Guzman and Tenaglia mixes are included.). Over the past several months, "Love Commandments" has become huge in gay clubs and it's beginning to get some radio action; believe me, this record ain't over yet! Watch for a new Gisele in about a month — "Keep Fooling with My Love," produced by Xavier Bernard, remixed by Eddie Baez and bop-slammin'!...

Another domestic label that continues to deliver the goods is LA's Interhit Records. In just a short time, they've managed to garner a nice string of hits with their NRG and DMA Dance compilations, Donna Summer, Ondina, Culture Beat and Outta Control. One of the talented producers in their camp is Barry Harris (of Kon Kan fame). Check out Barry's new and very popular "Filter Queen EP," a smashing follow-up to his internationally successful EP "Wailin'." The EP features three tracks in all — "Funk Like Dat," "You're Mine" and "Need I Say More." Those who consider Interhit to be a Euro/NRG label should think again and grab a copy of this floor-pumpin' underground project and crank it up. Interhit...the teal...

And here's the tea on Todd Terry's long-awaited album on Logic. Mark your calendars for this Tuesday the 17th as Ready for A New Day (his first U.S. album in over four years) makes its way to the racks of your favorite record retailers. Terry is surely one of the most influential and respected figures in dance music.

Always ahead of his time, Todd's sound wasn't embraced right away in the States, but the opposite was the case in Europe, where dance floors lived for his now-classic tracks like "Bang (Go to the Batcave)", "I'll Take You to Love" and "Sum Sigh Say." Eventually, we "colonists" got it together and now there's not a dance music aficionado alive who doesn't have a Todd Terry record in his or her collection. Terry's remix of "Missing" by EBTG gave them their first worldwide smash in '95, and last year we were dazzled by his remixes for Garbage ("Stupid Girl"), Cardigans ("Love Fool"), EBTG ("Wrong") and Robin S. ("Givin' You All That I Got") for the multi-platinum soundtrack to Space Jam, to name a few.

BY

"Ready for A New Day is a whole different vibe," says Todd. "I made this record specifically for dance music lovers worldwide, for people who enjoy songs or beats or however they want, just to enjoy it." The album features the vocal stylings of Martha Wash, Jocelyn Brown, Shannon and Bernard Fowler. The album's first single, "Something Goin' On," is a stunning duet with Martha and Jocelyn, a shimmering follow-up to their multinational #1 hit last year, "Keep On Jumping" (which is also on the LP). As the album progresses from one track to the next, we're taken on a mini-tour of Terry's various stylistic offerings, brilliantly straddling the fence between underground "cool" and commercial marketability. Todd describes the various cuts as "freestyle meets house," "garagey deep house," "more breakbeat" or "kinda Miami bass meets Kraftwerk." We'll simply call it fabulous, surely one of the most important releases of the year. Must have!

And if our interview with Kevin Aviance last week left you curious, check him out in Dallas next Friday, June 20. Kevin performs at Gridlock, 2612 Commerce St. Scope!

And that's dance music THIS WEEK IN TEXAS.

Liberace Remembered

Part 5: The Final Curtain

Ten years after his death, how is Liberace remembered? As a smarmy pianist, but a gifted entertainer. A man costumed in near-drag who camped up a storm while strenuously denying he was gay. And as a old queen who died of AIDS.

Liberace's was a life of exquisite paradox. Of flamboyance and repression. Of kitsch and concealment. He was both a devout Catholic and a closeted queen. Beloved by multitudes of middlebrows, he had difficulty maintaining emotional intimacy with the men who were his lovers.

When he died, the world lost a sweet-natured extrovert and a lonely soul. Two days later, his commemorative service attracted 1,500 curiosity seekers, carloads of press, but few genuine mourners. Most of those in attendance were on his payroll. He had had many acquaintances, a string of gay lovers, but few friends.

At a 1973 press conference, the entertainer insisted, "I am not a homosexual. I am against the practice of homosexuality because it offends convention and society." At a time when the gay community was trying so desperately hard to gain a toehold of acceptance, this was a slap in the faces of those who might have been his friends.

Liberace's public life had been brilliant. It radiated from seven dizzyingly over-decorated homes. Walk-in closets were filled with glittering duds and fur coats, of which his favorite was a $300,000 Norwegian blue shadow fox cape with a 16-foot train. In his homes, there were a total of 27 pianos and thousands of antiques. His garages housed a fleet of fancified cars.

In contrast, Liberace's secret life had been one of the worst-kept secrets in show business. Joan Rivers and Debbie Reynolds both said the entertainer believed that no one knew he was a homosexual, which was "preposterous."

Yet, even as the death watch began, his loyal staff tried to protect the Liberace image by denying that he was dying of AIDS, a disease at that time associated with gay men. Liberace's manager asserted that it was a "watermelon diet" that had leached dozens of pounds from his once hefty body. Even his physician insisted, "The rumor of Liberace having AIDS is as ridiculous as Elvis having a drug problem. People can say anything about anything, but it is all just rumor. Elvis never had a drug addiction."

The death certificate noted that the 67-year-old entertainer died of cardiac arrest brought on by subacute encephalopathy. But the Riverside County coroner issued a statement saying, "Somebody along the line tried to pull a fast one on us. He [Liberace] died of cytomegalovirus pneumonia due to or as a consequence of human immunodeficiency virus disease." In plainer words, AIDS.

Farewell Performance:

Where Else But Radio City Music Hall?

For 40 years, Liberace had dazzled crowds in the casinos of Las Vegas and in concert halls across America and Europe. He had packed Carnegie Hall and Madison Square Garden and had even played for two presidents and for the Queen of England. The act stayed the same, but each year he felt compelled to outdazzle the previous year's shows. The ultimate opportunity came in 1985 when he was offered the Easter Show at Radio City Music Hall. This would be his greatest challenge; could he sell his sugary show to sophisticated New Yorkers?

He played the classics, danced a bit with the high-stepping Rockettes, dedicated a Chopin medley to his mother (up in Heaven) and played a Strauss waltz in sync with the dancing waters.

Even the critics who came to sneer left with second thoughts. The Times noted: "Liberace has arrived at a style that is not classical, jazz or pop but an ornamental genre unto itself. He is a one-of-a-kind musical monument." The Post added: "He gave a fashion show, an all-singing and all-dancing review and endless, good-natured shtick in his well-paced show." The suave critics had, at last, learned what the public had known for years.

Since nothing $ucceed$ like $ucce$$, Liberace did it again the next Easter, this time for 21 performances. For the 1986 show, he would step out of a giant Easter egg as a pink bunny. What could be more campy, more Liberace-ish? Again he was a smash.

But he would not see another Easter.

It is not known when Liberace became infected with the deadly virus or by whom. His last two lovers were HIV-negative. So, was it AIDS or was it his desperate flight from old age that led the showman to play the Music Hall the fall of the same year? While denying it, Liberace had undergone plastic surgery twice and had had a deep skin peel. But surgery, makeup, youthful wigs, jewelry, glitzy costumes and gimmicks couldn't hide the fact that Liberace didn't look well. Two months before, when his old friend Phyllis Diller saw his face, she recognized something that she had seen in other friends recently lost.

However, the 67-year-old Liberace was determined, and seemed as exuberant as ever as he made his entrance soaring above the stage like a young Peter Pan, all the while trailing an enormous silver cape edged in purple plumes and joking, "Eat your heart out, Mary Poppins!" Two and a half hours later he'd given the 5,874 fans everything he had: six costume changes, four cars, the abbreviated classics, skits and his usual breezy banter.

However, an astute critic for Variety noted, "The thrill is gone. Maybe not for some of his adoring fans, but certainly for the less-than-committed and apparently for the performer himself. All the shticks which once were fresh, like his myriad fancy pianos and costume changes with valet and car on-stage, etc., no longer have much excitement."

If the magic was beginning to fade, what did Liberace have to live for? When the engagement ended on Nov. 3, the world didn't know that the most outrageous showman in history had given his farewell performance. Did he? As he had thousands of times before, he ended the show with his theme song, "I'll Be Seeing You." He never would.

Tired and thin, the performer embarked on a brief book-signing tour to promote The Wonderful Private World of Liberace. Exhausted, he went home, canceled all his future engagements and died.

It's customary for show people to eulogize show people. But perhaps the greatest tribute ever paid Liberace had been made by Bob Hope years before:

"You have to admire that Liberace, he's such a colorful guy. He's the only fellow I know who leaves a chartreuse ring around his tub....The older women really go for him. When he makes a personal appearance, you can hear the corsets snapping all over town....Did you ever see such a smile? He's got so much ivory in his head, when he takes a bath he and the soap float together....But it isn't his fault, really. You see, he was such a delicate baby that instead of slapping him, the doctor patted him with a powder puff and he's been smiling ever since."

Next Friday, June 20, the Internet and cable join Oprah, The Rosie O'Donnell Show, other daytime talk shows and daytime soaps for the Fifth Annual Day of Compassion, an international media event designed by Hollywood Supports to generate compassion and support for people affected by HIV and AIDS. Internet participants planning to take part include America Online, CompuServe, Prodigy, Yahoo! and Infoseek; a web page containing regular updates on participating shows, photos, PSAs and other ways to take part is featured at www.hsupports.org.

Dallas' Hip Pocket Theatre opens its 21st season with the premiere of Johnny Simons' *The Noses and the Toeses and the Shoulda, Coulda, Woulda this evening, June 13, for a three-week run closing June 29 at the outdoor Oak Acres Amphitheatre Friday-Sunday at 9 p.m. Oak Acres is located at 1620 Las Vegas Trail North at 820 North. Described as a "tragicommedia," the play features the return of several longtime Hip Pocket actors and tells the story of a family of homeless hobos, a troupe of wandering performers. Tickets are $10, $8 and $5. For more info, call (817)237-5977.

Fort Worth's Stage West presents the second American production of Neville's Island by British playwright Tim Firth. The play previews this weekend (June 13, 14 and 15) and continues its regular run through July 12. This darkly riotous comedy spends 24 hours with four out-of-condition, middle-aged businessmen on a corporate team-building weekend at a camping area in the outback of England's Lake District. Once their boat sinks, stranding them on an inhospitable island, their civilized behavior erodes and the fun begins. Tickets are $13-$16 for performances Thursdays at 8 p.m., Saturdays at 3 and 8 p.m., and Sundays at 7:30 p.m. For tickets or more info, call Metro (817)STG-WEST (784-9378). Stage West is located at 3055 South University Dr.

Move over, Elvis. Janis lives and rocks, too! "Love, Janis," a rocking musical tribute to the life of former Austinite and rock trailblazer Janis Joplin, makes its world premiere at the Zachary Scott Theatre Center's Kleberg Stage, Riverside Dr. at S. Lamar, June 15-Aug. 31. Gala previews hosted by Threadgills and with special guests Laura and Michael Joplin (Janis' sister and brother) are at 8 p.m. today and Saturday; tickets (limited) are $50. A Champagne Opening Night show Saturday, June 21, is $25; regular performances at 8 p.m. Thursdays-Saturdays and 6 p.m. Sundays range from $21-$25. For reservations or more info, call (512)476-0541.

This evening and Saturday, June 13 and 14, Keith Hennessy explores the social, political, spiritual and psychic crisis of prisons and American racism with his solo work The Box. Performances are at 8 p.m. at DiverseWorks, 1117 East Frwy.; for reservations ($12 general public, $10 DiverseWorks members, $7 students and seniors), call (713)228-0914. Next weekend (June 20-22), QuAC: the Queer Artist Collective presents Closer to the Bone, the third installment in DiverseWorks' residency for young gay and lesbian people. Performances are at 8 p.m. Friday and Saturday and 3 p.m. Sunday. For reservations ($10 general public, $7 everyone else), call (713)228-0914.

The Absolute Theatre in Houston returns back from its recent hiatus with two new plays by local playwright Douglas Mitchell, Any Old Passion and All Wrapped Up, which open this evening (June 13). Any Old Passion makes the audience a fly on the wall during a couple's fifth wedding anniversary; what makes the party interesting is that the guests include all the people Thad and Miriam have had affairs with during their open marriage.

Thad's guests, 17 blonde bimbos, are no match for Miriam's guests, two homosexual men and one lesbian. In All Wrapped Up, a middle-aged couple experience the discomfort and, finally, the terror that come with the arrival of anything new in their lives (metaphorically represented here by a delivered package). Performances are Fridays and Saturdays at 8 p.m. through June 28 at The Absolute Theatre, 813 Richmond Ave. For reservations ($8 general admission, $5 students/artists/groups of ten) or more info, call (713)597-3473.

Volcanic Pluto opposes Mercury this week, which means that our thoughts and speech could set the world on fire. This can have its good and bad points, kids, depending on whether you've remembered to bring the marshmallows. Tempt fate this week by giving your communication a full range, but wear your asbestos suit, just in case.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21) Queer Twins face the classic dilemma when Pluto opposes Mercury. Is it possible to retain your own sense of identity within a relationship? You'll test the limits of your powers and the flowering of the partnership during this transit. Laugh and the world laughs with you; kvetch and you sleep alone.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23) Your day-to-day job may suddenly chafe at the collar. Pluto opposite Mercury makes you realize that schlepping along at some dreary old job no longer feeds the soul (as if it ever did...). Can pink Crabs achieve self-actualization and still be able to pay the rent? Sure, as long as you prioritize your time. Keep working, but volunteer a bit for our community as well.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23) You'll be amazed at how even simple suggestions from friends lead you to exuberant creative expression. Proud Lions always know how to make good use of an appreciative audience and now you seem to be heading into Tony territory. Go for the gold, darling, and demonstrate the dramatic tour de force of Pluto opposite Mercury.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23) Hey, who wouldn't like to retire? I know I would, but I've gotten used to eating. Queer Virgins ache to be able to cash in their corporate chips when Pluto opposes Mercury, but refrain from any extravagant, spur-of-the-moment actions. This transit shall soon pass and it would be a shame to leave the game just as it was getting interesting.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23) Pluto opposite Mercury gives you a rare opportunity to be diplomat to the world. Gay Libras not only can expand and reshape their global view, but can also share their personal opinions with masses of others and win a few converts in the process. Ever thought of politics? It's about time the White House was painted pink.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22) Sex doesn't come cheaply when Pluto opposes lascivious Mercury. Queer Scorps get lost in the passion of the moment as Pluto upends and shatters all your long-held beliefs and values. Will you be reduced to a spineless, quivering mass of protoplasm that can be molded by lovers? If so, request a sculptured physique.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22) Gay Archers can always use a fashion tip or five as well as a general reappraisal of their appearance. Now, with Pluto opposite Mercury, rely on partners to give you the best overall advice; after all, they have your best interests at heart. It's time to trade in those tired old togs for something a bit more topical. Remember, the '90s are not the '60s upside down.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20) Don't be surprised if you can adapt portions of your job to more personally fulfilling pursuits when Mercury opposes Pluto. Leave it to a queer Goat to construct the perfect balance between work and community service. This is a transforming time for you; Pluto doesn't tolerate anything hidden or repressed and will blow the bolts off your closet. Welcome the liberation.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19) Is it the Age of Aqueerius yet? Maybe not, but with Pluto opposite Mercury we can begin the celebration now. Creative ideas must be shared with as many folks as possible. Aqueerians will be the party planners of the century during this transit and can mingle with just about any crowd.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - March 20) Pluto opposite Mercury can affect your career. Pink Fish may be tempted to test new corporate waters, but a little fish can get lost in the big shark tank if he or she doesn't plan such moves carefully. Use the considerable mental energy generated by Mercury to reevaluate what is and what is not important to your sense of security. Then take a calculated risk.

ARIES (March 21 - April 20) Proud Rams are not usually the most eloquent of folks, but who really cares as long as others sit up and listen? Your words pack a global wallop thanks to Pluto opposite Mercury. Get your opinions out and catapult our political cause to greater heights. A tree that falls in the forest will be heard if Aries says so.

TAURUS (April 21 - May 21) They say that all that glitters is not gold, but don't tell that to a gay Taurean when Mercury opposes Pluto. Personal values are in for a grand reassessment, but, if you're a tried and true Bull, the balance between good, hard cash and higher moral character may tip to one side. Fact is, cousin, even louses look good in green.

TEXAS

NO HAIR ANYWHERE

This bodybuilder and personal trainer, Gay, White male, 28, 5'11, 165lbs, with a 45" chest, and 29" waist is totally smooth. That means smooth everywhere. I want to meet young, smooth, lean, males for hot times and friendship. (Dallas) #2015

DO YOU LIKE 'EM BIG?

Are you into big, hairy guys? This good looking, Gay, White male, 40, 300lbs, with Brown hair, Blue eyes, beard, and hairy body seeks men who are down to earth, and monogamy minded. (Dallas) #1834

OPEN ROAD I'm looking for hot, young, bottoms, 18 to 25, into traveling and fun. I'm a good looking, 21 year old, male, 5'10, 160lbs. I'm eager to go. (El Paso) #1890

OUT OF AFRICA Dark complected, 21 year old, African American male, 5'10, with a nice body seeks other well built, African American men, 20 to 29, to enjoy sports, dining out, movies, and quiet times together. (Galveston) #1407

ATTRACTIVE

ATTRACTION I'm looking for other fun loving guys with some of the same physical qualities I have. I'm a good looking, White male, 6'3, 180lbs, in good shape, with Blond hair and Brown eyes. If you're attractive and like a good time, let's hook up. (Greenville) #1808

TOO HORNY FOR WORDS

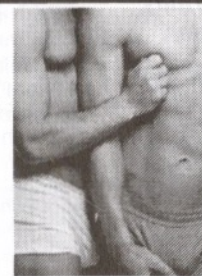

I'm too horny to go into detail now. I'll tell you all about what I need on the phone. I'm a Single, Gay, White male. (Houston) #1814

BEACH BRIGADE I wanna hook up with military guys and other masculine men. I'm a good looking, 23 year old, White male, 165lbs, with Brown hair and Green eyes. I have a great tan because I go to the beach a lot. (Jacksonville) #1208

SOCIAL BUTTERFLIES Me and my lover would like to meet guys for socializing, and good times. We're both healthy, fit, White males, 37 and 42. We have a pool, spa, and deck where we can all relax. We're also interested in movies, dinners, and other fun. Let's talk. (Katy) #1778

IT'S GETTING HAIRY I love hairy guys. I'm a good looking, pretty well built, White male, 36, 6'1, with Blond hair. I'm versatile and want to get close to a hairy guy, 25 to 40. (Lake Jackson) #1531

BOTH ENDS OF THE SPECTRUM Anything goes with me. I'm an attractive, White male interested in quiet evenings, socializing, and music, from classical to alternative. (Waco) #1670

LOOKING GOOD? I'm looking for a Single, professional, male, over 30, who looks hot, likes to have fun and is unafraid of commitment. I'm a good looking, moderately hairy, Hispanic male, 28, 6'1, 240lbs, with dark hair, dark eyes, and a mustache. I'm well hung and uncut. I have a variety of interests including travel, sports, and all outdoor activities. Uncut guys especially turn me on. (San Antonio) #1923

I'M JUST ME I'm looking for dates, friends, and a possible love. This handsome, stocky male, 19, of Hispanic, Indian, and Caucasian descent, 6'4, 245lbs, is looking for someone special. I'm not the most masculine guy in the world but I'm not the most feminine either. I'm just me. (Magnolia) #1866

FUN OF ALL KINDS I wanna meet a Gay, Hispanic, or White, male, 25 to 40, who, like me, is caring, honest, and sensitive. I'm an attractive, HIV positive, Gay, Hispanic male, 26, 5'8. I'm very outgoing and enjoy all kinds of fun and excitement. I'm interested in a relationship with someone similar to me. (San Antonio) #1880

BOOTS AND BUDDIES I'm ready to meet a quality guy for more than just a couple of dates. I'm a handsome, 29 year old, Gay, White male, into country music, boots, Wranglers, cowboy hats and baseball caps. I enjoy camping, fishing, yard work, and anything else outdoors. I'm most attracted to tall, stocky guys, especially with hairy bodies. I'm pretty easy going and want to get to know you. (Spring) #1983

TICKLE MY FANCY

This very ticklish, 38 year old, White boy, 5'10, 160lbs, with Brown hair and Brown eyes, is very aroused by tickling. I love to be attacked with the fingers and made to beg for mercy. I also like to turn the tables and do the same to you. I'm interested in fit guys within 10 years of my age. I also like music, the outdoors, and many other things. I'd love a tickle-filled relationship. (Livingston) #1874

KICKOFF PARTY, 'PUMPED UP ON ART' OPEN CELEBRATIONS IN HOUSTON

*Autographed, Customized Shoes
Will Be Auctioned Off Next Friday
In Benefit for Pride Committee.*

HOUSTON — The Houston Gay and Lesbian Pride Week Committee, which coordinates local pride celebrations, holds its kickoff party next Wednesday, June 18, from 6:30–8:30 p.m. at DiverseWorks, 1117 East Frwy. The party, which is open to the public and free (though donations will be accepted), will preview events scheduled in conjunction with the celebrations, and the Grand Marshals, Deborah Bell and Jim Carper, and other Pride Committee personnel will be present.

On Friday, June 20, the Pride Committee of Houston's annual "Pumped Up On Art" gala will be held at 7 p.m. at the Majestic Metro, 911 Preston. Elizabeth Taylor, Cher and Emma Thompson are among celebrities who have donated autographed pumps or high heels and other items for the gala, proceeds of which benefit the Pride Committee. One shoe from a donated pair is autographed while the other is used in the artwork created by local artists. The creations will go to the highest bidders in live and silent auctions held during the evening.

Cher is among celebrities contributing to "Pumped Up On Art," which benefits the Houston Pride Committee.

"The response from the celebrities has been amazing," Nick Brines, Fund-Raising Coordinator and Chairman of this year's Pumped Up On Art, said last week. "We have participation from Oscar and Grammy award winners, Broadway stars, supermodels and even an Olympic gold medalist (diving champion Greg Louganis). There is definitely something for everyone this year."

"You have here a pair of psychedelic pumps from a crazy old lady," Phyllis Diller said in donating her shoes. "Thank you for asking me to help support this important event," she added. Emma Thompson was more than happy to donate one of her not so comfortable pairs of shoes for the event. "I wore these shoes during my second Academy Awards show and they killed my feet," she said. "I hope they are better for your event. Best of luck!"

*The Shirley Jones entry features both a pump and a school lunchbox covered with memorabilia from the actress's TV series, The Partridge Family.*

Corporate sponsors for Pumped Up On Art include Walgreen's, Texas Commerce Bank, Neiman Marcus Town & Country, The Response Network and Richard Hill of Swilley-Hudson Realtors.

Tickets to the gala, a semi-formal affair, are $25 per person. For more information on this or other Pride Week activities, call the PCOH Pride Line at (713)529-6979 or visit the organization's website at www.pridehouston.org.

RAZZLE DAZZLE DALLAS IS 'OUT IN THE STREET' THIS SATURDAY NIGHT

Organizers of Annual Pride Event Promise to Break All Previous Attendance Records.

DALLAS — Razzle Dazzle Dallas, Inc., a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization, presents its thirteenth annual event tomorrow night, June 14, from 8 p.m.–1 a.m., at the Crossroads of Dallas' Oak Lawn area. The streets will be barricaded with police presence to assure a safe environment upon entering the four-block area spanning from the 3800–4000 blocks of Cedar Springs Rd. and along the 3100–3200 blocks of Reagan and Throckmorton streets.

The special entertainment for the event will include the return of The Uptown Girls, performing live on the West Stage at midnight, and deejay Matt Myers on the East Stage spinning from 8 p.m.–1 a.m. Other attractions for the event include food, dancing, games and go-go dancers.

Shuttle bus service will be running from nightclub parking lots on N. Fitzhugh, Maple Ave., Wycliff Ave. and the parking lot of Cathedral of Hope MCC, located at 5910 Cedar Springs Rd. near Inwood Rd. Advance tickets are available at local merchants for $10, or can be purchased at the gate for $12 the night of the event. All proceeds benefit Texas AIDS organizations. For more information, call (214)407-3553 or check out the website at <http://web2.airmail.net/scottc1>.

Will Go to Local Chapter of National AIDS Group.*

HOUSTON — Next Thursday, June 19, has been designated "DIFFA Day" at Houston-area restaurants taking part in "Eat Out & Chip In." Those establishments will donate a portion of their proceeds from food sales to the local chapter of the Design Industries Foundation Fighting AIDS (DIFFA).

In addition, Southwestern Bell will match every dollar raised through the effort with a donation of 25 cents.

Honorary co-chairs for the event are Jerry Jeanmard of Wells Design and Ann Criswell, Food Editor of the Houston Chronicle.

Restaurants taking part are Affresco; Armando's, Inc; Barnaby's Cafe; Benjy's in the Village; Bistro Cuisine; Brazil; Cafe at the Houstonian; Carmelo's Italian Restaurant; Crossroads Market; Damian's Cucina

Italiana; Dessert Gallery Bakery & Cafe; Élysée; Fred's Italian Corner Restaurant; JAGS; King Biscuit Patio Cafe; Last Concert Cafe; Niko Niko's Greek American Cafe; Patrenella's Ristorante Italiano; The Rainbow Lodge; The Ritz Carlton Dining Room; Riva's Italian Restaurant; Riviera Grill; Russo's Cafe Anthony; Solero; Spruzzare; Ann Swain Catering; This Is It Houston Soul Food; Toopee's; Treebeard's on Market Square; Tutto Bene! Italian Family Restaurant; and Ziggy's Healthy Grill.

Dimitrios Fetokakis [c], owner of Niko Niko's, posed with Linné Girouard [l] Board Chair of DIFFA/Houston, and Tori Williams [r], Executive Director of DIFFA/Houston.

Percentages will vary according to the restaurant. Dimitrios Fetokakis, owner of Niko Niko's, is participating by donating 50% of the sales at his popular Montrose Blvd. restaurant on "Eat Out & Chip In" day. Fetokakis is taking part in the effort for the second year.

DIFFA/Houston is the largest source of private dollars for AIDS care in the greater Houston area. Since 1987, the chapter has granted over $2 million for HIV/AIDS care, research, treatment and prevention.

For more information on "Eat Out & Chip In," contact Tori Williams, Chapter Director of DIFFA/Houston, at (713)552-9445.

DINNER SERIES FINALE, MUSIC MARATHON BENEFIT ASA

Next Round of Austin Dine-Out Fund-Raisers Begins July 28.

AUSTIN — The 1996-97 Red Ribbon Dinner Series came to a rousing, spirited conclusion with a magnificent combination of fine food and sincere supporters on Monday at the Bitter End Bistro. The nearly 50 diners helped push the amount raised by the six-dinner series to over $22,000.

The dinner was the second major ASA event in three days. Last Saturday, the ninth annual Mostly Music Marathon at First Unitarian Church in Austin ran 12 hours and raised over $12,000.

"I want to thank everyone for making this my first and most successful event," ASA Special Events Coordinator John Joines, a relative newcomer to the agency, told the diners as they savored five courses of Bitter End's best, ranging from spinach salad and roasted duck broth to salmon and grilled lamb loin, with hazelnut crepes for dessert. Joines, dinners Chair Tamra Swindoll and ASA Executive Director Peter Brownlie took turns thanking the participants and praising the restaurant's delicious contributions to the evening, credit for which went to Chef Kathryn Mathis and her staff. A sampling of five fine wines also enlivened the evening, with tastes ranging from Hill Country Honey Mead to a Rothschild cabernet.

The 1997-98 Red Ribbon Dinner Series begins July 28 at Coyote Cafe. This series will feature nine evenings through the end of November 1998; the schedule will change thereafter so that the Series will remain within a calendar year each edition.

The Mostly Music Marathon featured a wide variety of performers and entertainers. Nationally known columnist Molly Ivins proved a very popular and witty guest speaker during the evening portion of the fun. A large silent auction offered everything from CDs and books to art prints, gift baskets and certificates.

Besides the next Red Ribbon Dinner Series, the fall will be full of events to raise funds for ASA. The second annual St. Thomas Celebration and Fashion Show will be Sept. 20 at the Renaissance Hotel; for sponsorship information and reservations, call (512)406-6175. Dining for Life takes place Oct. 6 at nearly 100 restaurants all day all around the Austin area. AIDS Walk Austin (formerly known as From All Walks of Life) will be Oct. 19; it is annually the largest one-day fund-raiser for AIDS in Central Texas.

To get involved with ASA, or for more information, call (512)458-AIDS.

HOUSTON NAMES PROJECT DEDICATES NEW QUILT PANELS

*Former Surgeon General
Joycelyn Elders Urges Continuing Commitment in Fight Against HIV.*

HOUSTON — "What do we have to celebrate?" Joycelyn Elders, M.D. asked the crowd. "Courage," the former U.S. Surgeon General continued, launching into a call for renewed commitment to the fight against AIDS.

Elders was special guest speaker at the memorial panel dedication held by NAMES Project Houston May 31 at Main Street Theater. The ceremony, which has been held annually for several years, incorporates new local panels into the NAMES Project AIDS Memorial Quilt, a huge (well over 40,000 panels at last count) tribute to those lost to the disease.

Former U.S. Surgeon General Joycelyn Elders urged continuing commitment to the fight against AIDS at recent NAMES Project ceremony. TWT NEWS photo.

"Those of us who know, we've got to be leaders, real leaders; we've got to take risks, we've got to empower our people," Elders said in a rousing, at times humorous speech. "We've got to be bold.

Opportunity is like hair on a baldheaded man — you've got to grab it the first time around!"

"When you're concerned, it's negotiable; when you're committed, it's not negotiable."

Jane Hakala, a health and HIV educator with the Houston Independent School District, compared AIDS quilt panels to the quilts her mother and grandmother had sewn when she was a child. Also addressing the audience was young David Gustafson, who talked about his decision to make a quilt panel as part of a project at his school.

Eleven panels were dedicated at this year's ceremony, a dramatic drop from previous years. Perrie Dolph of NAMES Project Houston attributed the decrease to the timing of the all-Quilt display in Washington last October.

Representatives of the NAMES Project Foundation will be joined by Houstonians on Sunday, July 20, for "A Decade of Remembrance," a gospel brunch at JAGS restaurant celebrating the tenth year of the AIDS Memorial Quilt. Cleve Jones, founder of the Quilt, will speak at the brunch, and portions of Lest We Forget, a recently released documentary about last year's display of the entire Quilt in Washington, DC, will be screened. Some 100 panels of the Quilt will also be on display at the restaurant.

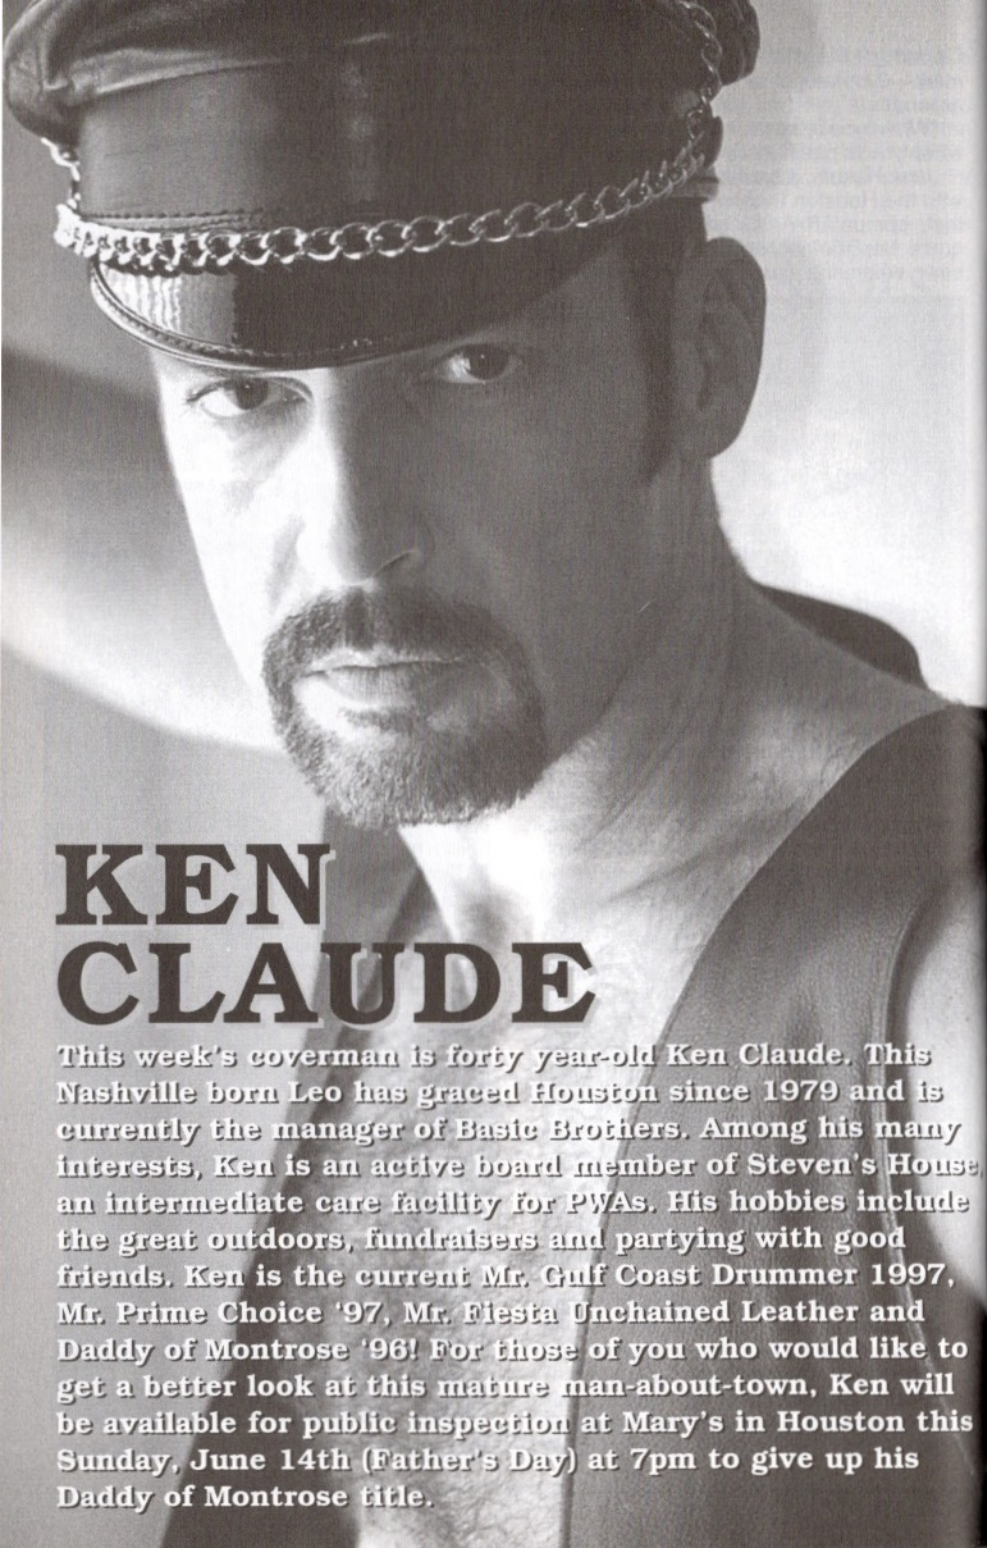

The brunch, which is underwritten by Jackson Hicks, runs from 11:30 a.m.-2 p.m. Co-chairs are Chree Boydston, Janine Brunjes, Alden Clark, David Greiss, David B. Jackson, Phil Lacy, Barry Mandel and Dr. Scott Sawyer, and Angela Mora.

For tickets or more information, call (888)99-NAMES or access david_leuck@quilt.org.

TARRANT COUNTY GAY PRIDE PARADE

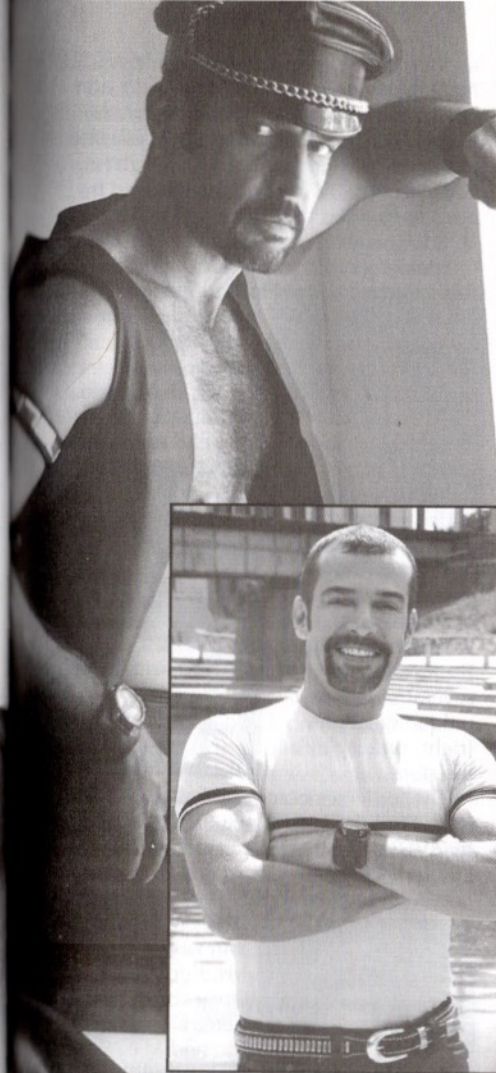

FORT WORTH, TEXAS

KEN CLAUDE

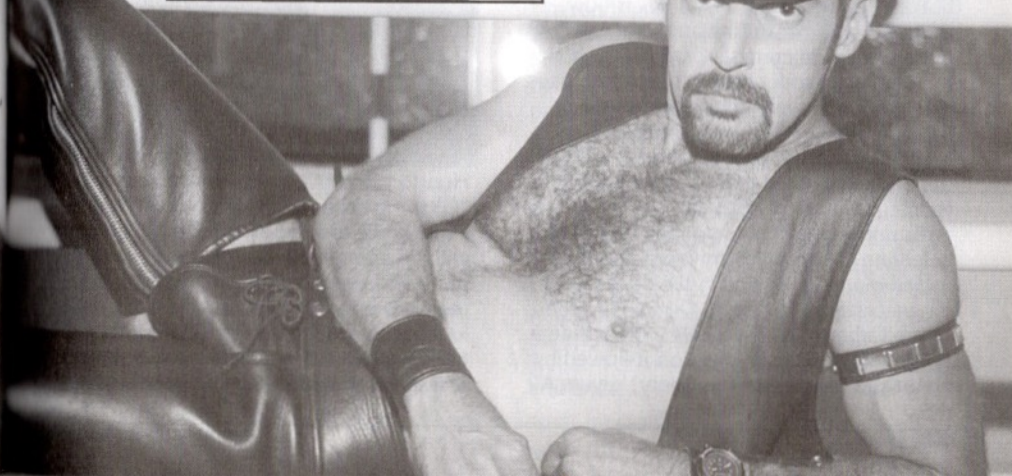

This week's coverman is forty year-old Ken Claude. This Nashville born Leo has graced Houston since 1979 and is currently the manager of Basic Brothers. Among his many interests, Ken is an active board member of Steven's House, an intermediate care facility for PWAs. His hobbies include the great outdoors, fundraisers and partying with good friends. Ken is the current Mr. Gulf Coast Drummer 1997, Mr. Prime Choice '97, Mr. Fiesta Unchained Leather and Daddy of Montrose '96! For those of you who would like to get a better look at this mature man-about-town, Ken will be available for public inspection at Mary's in Houston this Sunday, June 14th (Father's Day) at 7pm to give up his Daddy of Montrose title.

HOUSTON TEA — Are you ready to dance? If you are, Heaven is the place to be. Every Wednesday, ResErection and deejay Michael DeGrace bring you the best music and videos from the '70s, '80s and '90s. On Saturday, deejay Shawn Byrne and the International Underground take you on a musical journey around the world. The club's weekly party schedule also includes Boy Bar Thursday with amateur male strip, Fierce Fridays, great drink specials and good-looking go-go guys like Glen [left]. This weekend, the Super Sunday Show celebrates Kofi's 35th birthday with Miss Gay USofA Jacquelyn DeVaroe and a bevy of sensational special guests. See you there....

Be sure to check out all the new events going on at JR's. Beginning June 21, the club's Saturday night Video Post Office gives you the chance to send video mail messages to someone special. If you'll say it, they'll send it! Tuesday at JR's is now 2(x)ist Twosday, featuring an extraordinary underwear strip contest, Grab for Cash at midnight and your chance to win free pairs of 2(x)ist underwear courtesy of Basic Brothers. Kelly, Megan and Andrea [above, l-r] are sure to be there to check out all the fun and excitement going on at the 800 Pacific family of clubs...

Tomorrow night, everyone is invited to celebrate Gentry's 7th anniversary with incredible reduced price well drinks and longnecks from 8-11p.m. On Sunday, the club's Father's Day festivities will include a "Date With A Daddy" auction followed by an all-star "Show Me The Booty" revue. All auction and show proceeds benefit A.V.E.S. Next Sunday, June 22, the Imperial Court hosts a reception for 1997 Pride Parade Grand Marshals Jim Carper, Deborah Bell and the Krewe of Olympus. A delightful buffet from 6-8 p.m. will be followed by the star-studded "Don't Rain On Our Parade" revue at 9 p.m....

Speaking of Pride Week events, the Pride Committee of Houston presents "Pumped Up On Art" next Friday, June 20 from 7-10 p.m. at the Majestic Metro, 911 Preston. Autographed high-heeled shoes donated by celebrities like Julie Andrews, Cher, Fran Drescher, k.d. lang, Susan Sarandon, Elizabeth Taylor and many more are used to create fabulous works of art which will be displayed and auctioned at this gala event. If you can't wait until next week, stop by Basic Brothers; they have several of these unique creations [right] on display at the store....

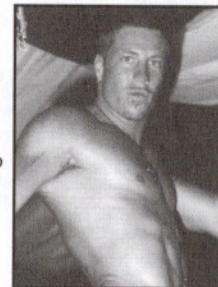

The festivities continue next Saturday, June 21 at the 1997 Pride Gala. Sponsored by AVES and Mr. TGRA candidate Xavier Luna, this event begins at 8:30 p.m. at the Edwin Hornenberger Conference Center, 2151 W. Holcombe. Join newly-crowned Ms. Pride Gala Stacy Gruemmer [left], along with Mr. and Miss Pride Gala Virgil Burke and Shelby St. John, for this fantastic celebration of Houston's diversity....

Outrage, Inc., in conjunction with the Houston Pride Committee, will present "Glowing With Pride," the official Pride Party, on Saturday, June 28. This event will get you going with a pre-parade cocktail party and keep you glowing with a post-parade blowout. A shuttle from the party's location at the Garden in the Heights will take you to and from the site of America's first nighttime pride parade. Tickets go on sale today at Basic Brothers and Lobo....

Continuing the subject of sensational Pride Week soirees, Rich's brings you two nights of amazing party action. On Friday, June 27, Rich's will host the third annual "Unchained" gay pride celebration. Get your invitations now. After the parade on June 28, dance till dawn at the club's Sunrise Service extravaganza. Deejays Chris Sill and J.D. Arnold will be joined by special guest circuit master deejay Ralphie Rosario for an all-nighter that will also feature circuit party dancers like former TWT cover model Casey Sanders [right]....

The throbbing beat of high energy dance music continues to call multitudes of men to Pacific Street. Once inside, they abandon their clothes and their inhibitions. After working up a sweat on the dance floor, they take a break on the patio and enjoy their favorite refreshing (and cheaply-priced) beverage. Come on down and join the celebration of flesh and fantasy that is Pacific Street....

Warm weather has returned and so have the catered pool parties at The Club Houston. Every Saturday and Sunday from 1-3 p.m., you can enjoy their marvelous poolside barbecues along with all the fun in the sun you can handle....

Last Sunday at the BRB, Michael Gaitz [above, l] hosted the third annual TGRA Houston President's Show. In addition to outstanding entertainment coordinated by Armand Posas [r], the evening was highlighted by the presentation of the Houston chapter's contributions to nine local charities totalling more than $40,000. This Sunday at the club, Byron Norton presents "Broadway," the second annual Mr. Montrose contest with special guests Shelby St. John, Day-Leigh Edwards, Paivi Lee Love, Lana Blake, Kara Dion, Tuna Melt, Shawna St. John, Oscar Paredes and Crystal Rae Lee Love....

Normally, we would tell you to come out of the closet, but this time, we're telling you to get into the closet - Vera's Closet at QT's, that is! Every Saturday night at 10 p.m., the club's male strip contest features emcee Jessica Van Shelton and a bevy of beautiful boys taking it off just for you.

Next weekend, grab your surfboard and head to the Midtowne Spa's Beach Blanket Bingo party on June 13, 14 and 15. The wet and wild party action will kick off on Friday with performances by China Doll, Fancy Pace-Lawrence, Rainbo DeKlown and dancers Kyle and C.J. Brooks. At noon on Saturday, emcees Henry Hall and David Richardson welcome award-winning vocalist Warren [right] of Hearts Afire to their Star-B-Que. On Sunday, Chef Brett's delicious buffet returns with door prize drawings all afternoon.

SAN ANTONIO TEA — The Saint and Divine Productions present the Miss Gay Alamo City USofA Pageant Friday, June 20, starring Alexis Nicole Whitney, Erica Andrews, Chelsea Pearl, Ariel Andrews, Toi Brooks, Pauletta Leigh and emcee Shady Lady. For information, call Cruella Divine at (210)736-0969. Special guests for this Sunday's show are Chevelle Brooks and Talissa Michaels along with Pauletta, Shady and Erica....

Each Saturday The Annex now features a leather contest at 11 p.m. with a $50 cash prize to the winner. We found Firedancers Secretary Robert Good, BDR, Larry Phillips and Firedancers President Bill [above, l-r] all geared up to judge the contestants, so

The San Antonio Chapter of the TGRA distributed the funds raised in 1996 last weekend at the Eagle Mountain Saloon [below]. A total of $17,012.24 was raised in 1996 and six local charities received funding from the group. Chapter President Victor Zapata hosted the event. Congratulations on another successful year and keep up the good work. EMS hosted the annual awards banquet for the SA Gay Dart League and the turnout was great, with the catered dinner and trophy presentations. With two Pride Picnics this weekend, EMS manager Alfonse got a group of volunteers together to man booths at both events with glow sticks, rainbow necklaces, T-shirts and caps available to make this Pride Week a memorable one....

Our CRUISE CAMERA caught 2015 Place bartender and birthday boy James [right] taking a break this past week. The Pride Picnics this Saturday, June 14, from noon-8 p.m. at San Pedro Park and Sunday, June 15 from noon-8 p.m. at the Sunken Gardens. Both events offer free admission and will have something fun for you to do no matter what your age. So have a safe and festive Pride Week.

AUSTINteaCIOUS — Mailman Joe Rivera [above, l] always delivers to satisfied customers at Oilcan Harry's during MaleBox, which is open every Wednesday night and a lot of fun for all players at Austin's busiest gay bar. Something's always happening at Oilcan Harry's, which sizzles even during after hours from 2-4 a.m. Fridays and Saturdays with the wild music of Miss H., Dig'M and Sid-A-Licious. Coming Friday, June 20, is the big Flashlight Underwear Party; come ready to see and be seen! And coming up the third weekend in July will be Red Hot VI....

The Chain Drive is ready to celebrate Father's Day Sunday with a Daddy Contest at 10 p.m. GM Michael Reese says come as you are and be ready for fun. Earlier that day, June 15, the Heart of Texas Bears will be handling the meat at the cookout on the patio from 4-9 p.m. The HOT Bears Quarterly Contest has been moved back one day, to 11 p.m. Saturday, June 21, leaving Friday the 20th for the club's Full Moon Contest. The Cowtown Leathermen from Fort Worth made a great impression last Saturday as they visited (twice!) during their bar run through Austin, which also hit Rainbow Cattle Company and The Cuff....

at Rainbow Cattle Company on June 5; the United Court of Austin event raised $280. There're three more CforC's left on Thursdays (June 19, July 3 and July 17) starting at 6 p.m. The Cattle Company's Boots and Boxers Night June 6 was a huge success, with Bruce (not me, dam it!) the hunky champion from among nearly a dozen entrants in the 1 a.m. contest. They loved it so much they're gonna do it again the first Friday of every month, with the next fun on July 4, which'll give us something to look forward to after we shoot off our firecrackers! Helen is now teaching intermediate country/western dancing from 8-9:30 p.m. each Tuesday.

And check out the frozen margarita specials Sundays-Thursdays....

Charlie's is sizzling this summer with Wet Underwear Contests at 11:30 p.m. most Mondays; Heather Thomas hosts, and there's a $75 prize. Starting June 23 and thereafter, the "third" Monday of each month will be a special All-American Calendar Boy Search, with $250 prizes per winner. The initial contest this month will crown Mr. January, Mr. February and Mr. March for the 1998 Charlie's calendar that's sure to be a huge hit. Last Sunday's Showtime was marvelous, thanks to special guest Aaron Davis plus guest emcee Heather Thomas and guests Artesia Wells and Scarlett Leigh. This Sunday, Miss Thomas will be joined by Obsession and Rashelle Stevens. Wet Wednesdays are still wonderful really cheap wells and beers (nonpremium). Coming Wednesday, June 25, is the United Court of Austin's benefit show "Found: A Miracle" at 10 p.m....

New bartender Andrew [right] has only been on the job a week at The Cuff, and the cutie is already one of our favorites. Come check him out during happy hours. The roof is still on top of it all, and manager Tiger promises it's going to get even better (if that's possible), with live music soon. The main part of our favorite three-in-one is The Forum, and we're definitely hooked on the Friday Five O'Clock O.R.G.Y. (Our Recipes Gratify You), featuring free buffet and all kinds of surprises. The happy hour 2-9 p.m. Mondays-Saturdays really makes us happy with reduced price wells, drafts and domestic longnecks....

Up at 'Bout Time, the magnificent Monty celebrated yet another birthday last Monday; are you legal yet, girl? The neighborhood bar up north features blackjack Tuesdays and Sundays; there are also drawings for cash prizes throughout the night each Tuesday. If you're hungry Sundays, check out the B.T. Cookout, featuring $1 hamburgers at 5 p.m....

At The Edge, Crown Prince Gregg East and Baroness Bebe Hughes of U.C.A. put on a magnificent show June 4, "A Night with Disney," that raised $465 for the Holley as Aladdin getting tips from barback Steven. The next U.C.A. show at The Edge is "Turnabout," 8-10 p.m. this Saturday, June 14. Coming up June 24 is a special night of karaoke to celebrate manager Michael T.'s birthday. And don't forget Little Debbie's Daring Drag Shows each Sunday at 10 p.m. Coming soon on Monday nights: Men's Strip-Offs!...

Sister's Edge is now featuring cookouts from 4-8 p.m. every Saturday. Last Sunday's 8-Ball Pool Tournament was the busiest yet, with over 20 entrants — and the Air Hockey Tournament that same night was also packed. Sally won the 9-Ball Tournament Thursday, June 5. Coming on Wednesdays is FemBox, a better version of a mailbox, where secret admirers can enjoy themselves all night....

Midtowne Spa-Austin is still offering half-price everything while June lasts. Come enter the Bare Buns Contest at 10 p.m. each Friday with host Jame Perry, who's also in charge of the Male Dancer Contest at 9 p.m. each Monday. The water's great; why aren't you here?...

Everybody at Blue Flamingo is wishing a get-well-soon to boss lady Laura. Meanwhile, the fun never ends at the club with a little bit for every decibel lover. Great shows last weekend packed the building for Xanna Don't and the Wanted, Reclusives and other favorite bands; coming up are U.T.I. (with its 7-inch release), Ignorance Park and Stress Magnets tonight (Friday); Rat Bastard this Saturday the 14th; KVRX Nite on Monday the 16th; and Coreopsis, Cactus Smack and Nothing But Gil on Thursday the 19th.

DALLAS TEA — Have you noticed the dramatic changes over at JR's Bar & Grill? The renovations are still going on at full force, but don't let the construction keep you away. Get your invitation now for their preview party. This week's birthday boy, manager Donald Solomon, tells HOT TEA that everything is still going on as usual seven days a week, including their Friday and Saturday happy hour from 9-11 p.m. and Saturdays from 9 p.m.-2 a.m. when you can enjoy their male dancers. Jump-start your week with a martini and a fine cigar on Mondays and then check out Valerie Lohr and her Trash Can talent night every Tuesday. Register now to win two tickets to Patti LaBelle's July 14 concert.

calling (214) 871-ARTS. Concerts are at 8 p.m. at the Morton H. Meyerson Symphony Center....

The Brick offers all you leather lovers a little variety with a leather shop inside the club. Next time you're in the club, say hello to David [above] while you feast your eyes on all they have to offer. If you like leather on your back, then you'll love the fact that Lester's back during the day. Stop in and welcome him back today. The First Friday Flashlight Party was a huge success and speaking of huge, adult video star Jeff Palmer will be appearing at the club on Friday, June 27 during a midnight performance for their Last Friday of the month shows....

Round-Up Saloon and Dancehall recently hosted their annual Miss Round Up Pageant, with quite a bevy of beauties vying for the crown. Check out HOT TEA in the next issue for photo coverage of the contestants in their swimsuits — yes, you read that right! Happy birthday to bartender Tony "Chili Pepper" Valdez, who's celebrating this Wednesday. Make sure your Wednesday hump night schedule includes the Disco Dance with sounds that are sure to get you out onto the dance floor. Just ask Lemy or Robby [above, l-r] how they went from the honky-tonk two-step to the ever-popular hustle. They must have had a few dance lessons with Juanita Bernal.

CELEBRI-TEA — Several weeks ago, we told you about Houstonian Roxanne Lee Love [below, l] winning the Tina Turner look-alike contest sponsored by Hanes Hosiery to coincide with the singer's recent tour. One of her prizes was to meet Miss Turner [r] during her Houston appearance and now we bring you the photographic record of the inspirational meeting between the legend and one of her biggest fans.

If something happens to you, can you trust your family to take care of your lover as you would?

Don't take that chance.
 Let us discuss your options.
