Texas' First Gay Pride Parade - 25 Years Ago

Part 2: Execute the Homos!

Saturday, June 24, 1972

The day arrived that all of Dallas had been babbling about, the day of the "Queer Parade." Since Rob Shivers had decreed that my car go first, I arrived early at Kennedy Memorial Square to park in lead-off position. But I found others already there. All were drag queens decked out in feathers and gowns, false eyelashes from here to there and tons of blue eye shadow. And all were black. Shivers would not allow them to walk in the parade, fearing that they'd be the easiest targets, unable to run in high heels if there was violence. So they climbed onto the floats and all over the cars. They would not be dissuaded. "If those m---f---ers attack, they gotta take us first!"

Soon gays, lesbians, "liberal" straights, hippies, love children, moms and dads began arriving from all directions. Shivers had planned for the heterosexuals to have their own platoon, but they insisted on marching shoulder to shoulder with their "brothers and sisters," their "extended families." Individuals and small groups came from Fort Worth, Denton, Austin and

San Antonio. Others came from Oklahoma City, Miami, New Orleans, Chicago and

Iowa. Houston sent the biggest truck you ever saw; it bore the famous Leonard Matlovich quote, "They gave me an honorable discharge for killing two men and a dishonorable discharge for loving one."

About 50 people began picking up pre-made signs: "I'm Not Prejudiced, I Like Heterosexuals," "My God Loves Everyone, Sorry If Yours Doesn't," "Mom, Dad — Surprise!"

In all, there were 14 decorated cars, a truck and two painfully amateurish floats. I seem to recall that we had a $12 budget to make the Circle of Friends float, and the damn thing collapsed on its journey to Kennedy Square. Hurriedly put back together, it bore a banner that declared, "Gay — as American as the Flag and Apple Pie." The Metropolitan Community Church's float said, "God Loves His Gay Children, Too." The banner on my car read, "Homosexuality, Neither Sickness Nor Sin."

Shivers had previously gone to the police chief to ask for protection should the crowd attack. The chief assigned 25 officers to the parade and promised that his men would allow no violence. (Right, but in those days what gay person would trust the police?) So the American Civil Liberties Union sent a representative with a camera. If we were attacked, he would record the carnage and the refusal by the police to do anything.

And So It Began

The parade started out silent and somber, slowly moving down Main St. Then the drag queens began singing and clapping their hands. The others started chanting, "Two, four, six, eight. Gay is just as good as straight. Three, five, seven, nine. Lesbians are mighty fine."

We passed Madam Fertilizer, Dallas' oldest and most prominent female impersonator, standing on the curb. She looked heartbroken. Born around the turn of the century, she had never dreamed of a day when gays would openly parade. I yelled for her to join us, but she said her boss wouldn't allow it.

In contrast to our joyous noise, those standing on the curbs were curiously silent. No one threw anything and I heard no catcalls. The crowd just stood as if stunned. But as we made our way, gay people on the curbs suddenly found their nerve and left the safety of anonymity to join our ranks.

Following at the end and struggling hard to keep up was Mrs. Addie Barlow Frazier, who called herself Dixie Liber ("rebel" spelled backwards — in those days people were into spelling things backwards, and everyone was into "into"). Dixie was a liddle ol' lady with gray hair which she tried to dye red (but which turned out orange). She was also the head of the Ku Klux Klan. Her sign read, "God's Word Demands Legal Execution of Homosexuals." Many in the crowd broke out in applause in support of "God's Word." Later Dixie told reporters, "I'm in favor of laws for execution of them. Read the Bible, Exodus 20 and 13."

Rob Shivers approached a policeman and pointed out that Dixie wasn't part of our parade and since we had to have a parade permit to march, why didn't she? The officer promised to remove her but, of course, did not. Which was just as well, because she was indeed the star of the day and proved our point better than we.

Down Main St. right on Harwood and into the First Presbyterian Church's parking lot. The church had given us permission, indeed welcomed us. We ended the two-mile march with about 200 joyous people.

The Reaction

Reporters asked spectators what they thought. "I'm not gay, but I can't see the sense in discriminating against people who are," said the ACLU attorney. "There are all kinds of people in the world, and if we can't accept one, then we can't accept another." A bystander said, "If my boss found out I was a homosexual, he'd fire me immediately." Still another: "These people amaze me, but their cause is one I can't relate to because most of them have severe emotional problems."

"I think they are a disgrace to the male sex." "I wouldn't waste my time throwing rocks and bottles at these people. Anyway, they're harmless." "I've got nothing against these people. No one stops me from loving my husband, so why should I stop them from loving each other?" Many quoted the Bible and predicted we'd burn in hell.

My favorite was, "If the City Council allows a Queer Parade next year, there will be a topless parade the following year. And the year after that, God will rain destruction down from the heavens and Dallas will lie in ruins!"

Because Council members vowed they would never again allow this to happen, the Circle of Friends had to do it the next year to prove we could and would. Council members, having learned their lesson, didn't try to stop us and thus there wasn't as much publicity. Or as many spectators. Dallas wouldn't see another parade until 1980.

As for the prediction, yes, there was another Queer Parade in 1973, but no topless parade in '74. In all, Dallas has seen a total of 19 gay pride parades, God has not rained destruction down from the heavens and Dallas still stands.

Do you suppose God is trying to tell us something?

REVIEWED BY GARY LAIRD

Theater LaB Houston has become a skating rink. But not to worry, they're doing fine. Couldn't be better, in fact. The conversion was made to accommodate their current production of The Rink, a touching and splashy Broadway musical that deserves a comeback. This Tony Award winner, with book by Terrence McNally and music and lyrics by John Kander and Fred Ebb, originally starred Chita Rivera and Liza Minnelli. Reworked for the Musical Theater Works in 1995, it's being presented in Houston by Theater LaB, with direction by Jim Phillips and musical direction by Steven Jones.

Angel [Jentry Brown, l] and her mother Anna [Susan Shofner] fight over the old family skating rink and other matters in The Rink at Theater LaB.

The Rink is the story of Anna (Susan Shofner) and Angel (Jentry Brown) Antonelli, an estranged mother and daughter who have more than their share of issues. Anna has decided to sell the family business, a roller skating rink on the boardwalk, and is about to walk away into a new, and she hopes, improved life, when Angel shows up. Things quickly return to square one, and the barbs fly. Anna to Angel: "You have two outfits that drive me crazy, and you're wearing both of them." Angel is something of a mess, and Anna is svelte and sexy at fiftysomething. Issue number one. Enter, in flashback, Dino (Paul Nicely), the love of Anna's life and Angel's father, who left when Angel was a little girl. Issue number two. And don't worry, there are plenty more.

The songs, by the same team who brought us Cabaret, Chicago and Steel Pier and, with McNally, Kiss of the Spider Woman, are biting, poignant and bitter-sweet. And the production is top-notch. From the moment you walk into the space — transformed by set designer Christian DeVries into an old-fashioned rink, complete with colored lights and snack bar — you have been transported into a special world, a carney atmosphere where anything might happen. The marvelously talented cast takes over and holds you there, for I don't really know how long — I lost track of time and was disappointed when it ended.

The wrecking crew chorus line comes off somewhere between The Seven Dwarfs and The Village People. Their show stopping skating routine à la Busby Berkeley is worth the price of the ticket.

Susan Shofner as Anna is a delight. Returning to Houston after ten years on the New York stage in such productions as The Best Little Whorehouse in Texas and La Cage Aux Folles, she brings a sexy, earthy quality to her character that makes you fall in love without hope. Her voice is brassy and beautiful; she can deliver a lyric with a tear or a laugh, or both. And her legs aren't bad either. The program mentions that she is the grandmother of three. As Angel, Jentry Brown returns punch for punch. Dressed in the two outfits that her mother hates, she is the picture of rebellion with a mission. Don't mess with this one. Her voice is marvelous, and when she trades blows with Anna, as in "Don't 'Ah, Ma' Me," she gives as good as she gets.

Shofner and Brown are backed up by one of the unlikeliest chorus lines in musical theatre — the wrecking crew, come to demolish the rink. Paul Nicely, Terry Jones, Greg Coles, Joseph Hudson, Marc Shelum and Pablo Bracho play the singing and dancing wrecking ball, and double as the other men in Anna's and Angel's lives. As a team they come off somewhere between The Seven Dwarfs and The Village People, taking up the slack and moving the story along. Their show-stopping skating routine à la Busby Berkeley is worth the price of the ticket. Separately they acquit themselves beautifully, especially Nicely and Jones as the man Anna loves and the man who loves Anna. And credit must certainly be given to Jim Phillips' direction and choreography, and to the musical direction of Steven Jones. No matter what else it has going for it, a musical lives or dies on the quality of the music. Here it's first rate; I actually heard one of the patrons leaving the theatre singing the songs.

As you can probably tell by now, I liked this one. Oh, all right, I loved it. I felt that I was having an evening Off-Broadway, or on the Fringe in London's West End. That's not an easy thing to accomplish in Houston in the summer, but it can be managed. Theater LaB is one of the places where it can be arranged, so grab your skates and head for The Rink.

The Rink runs through July 27 at Theater LaB Houston, 1706 Alamo. For reservations and more information, call (713) 868-7516.

It's a long, hot fourth of July weekend and what we have for you is a recipe for some great listening, courtesy of the wizards at Warner Brothers. Now this recipe works best if you're reading this during your favorite Friday happy hour, but the times can be adjusted accordingly. It's 8 p.m. and you've had a few of your favorite libations. Time to head out. So now what you need to do is find your favorite CD-type place and wear out the Visa card on the following ingredients for our "4th of July Surprise":

- 1 CD — Kenickie, At the Club
- 1 CD — Rickie Lee Jones, Ghostyhead
- 1 CD — David Byrne, Feelings
- 1 CD — Phajja, Seize the Moment
- 1 CD — soundtrack from Batman and Robin; and
- 1 CD — k.d. lang, Drag

Now the first thing you want to do is pop the Kenickie into your car stereo. This one's going to be your driving backdrop all weekend. At the Club features 16 tracks of head-bobbing, bangin'-on-the-steering-wheel madness. These kids are one of the coolest teenage (believe it or not) British pop/rock acts to come along in a while. It all started back in the early '80s when two of the members — Lauren Lavern and Marie Du Santiago — met on a school playground. One had a doll that went pee-pee at the press of a button. The other wanted to try it out, and the two bonded for life. A decade later, the two started singing together and took the name Kenickie (after the character in Grease). By 1994, they had recruited one of their pals, Emmy Kate Montrose, and Lauren's brother, Johnny X (for percussion), reinventing the group as a day-glo riot of glitter, fake fur and PVC — all part of the teen-wear pop phenomenon of the time. Soon they were opening for bands like the Ramones. After they'd had great success with indie projects, Warner snagged Kenickie for their first long-player, At the Club. It features all their previous hits and live favorites, plus a handful of stunning new songs, notably the effervescent pop of the first single/video, "In Your Car," the eerie electronic alienation of "Robot Song" and the new reflective melancholia of "People We Want." And still more great "driving around" songs....

Well, you've made it home, eaten and decided to get ready to go out after all. What you need now are some getting-ready tunes. Get the bath water going and throw on the David Byrne CD. If you remember the Talking Heads, then you surely remember David as their lead singer. There's no way to mistake his voice. Feelings gives you a great melting pot of styles from the soft, almost jazzy "Fuzzy Funk" to the light and bouncy, Latin-flavored "Miss America" to "Dance On Vaseline," which is more reminiscent of his Talking Head days. On "Soft Seduction," Byrne plays the auto-harp and the production is stripped down to the bare essentials, showcasing him splendidly. He even goes to a sort of folk/country feeling and throws in some drum and bass rhythms on "Gates of Paradise," while yodeling on "Daddy Go Down." In all, there are 14 tracks here for the big primp....

Saturday morning and you were put through it last night. You need some sound, but nothing to rumble the gray matter. Something fresh, soothing; time for some R&B. Chill out and bask in the grooves of Phajja's debut Warner Bros. album, Seize the Moment. The group has surely attracted world-class talent to their side for this project, working with writers and producers like Roger Troutman, Troy Patterson, Michael O'Hara and Andrea Martin (who worked extensively on En Vogue's new album). Phajja is comprised of sisters Nakia and Kena Epps and Karen Johnson. Seize the Moment kicks off with "I Need You," an a cappella tour de force that shows off the group's harmonic capabilities. Songs like "Never Be Hurt Again" and "What Are You Waiting For?" (the first single) deal with the mysteries of love and loss, while "Sad Story (A Dedication Song)" and "So Long" lend a jazz and gospel undertone to their elegant harmonies. Phajja's version of "Sailing" (the Christopher Cross classic) is truly a stunning highlight, as is the very sleek "I Don't Wanna Feel." In a nutshell, they've basically gravitated toward a classic R&B vocal approach à la Gladys Knight, Diana Ross and Jennifer Holliday — recalling a time when sophisticated R&B ballads dominated the scene and love was best expressed in song — rather than the harder-edged hip-hop of today. The group's name couldn't be more appropriate; "Phajja" means "new beginning" in Arabic. It's a new Saturday morning and you've kicked back with some great new grooves from Phajja. Don't you feel much better?...

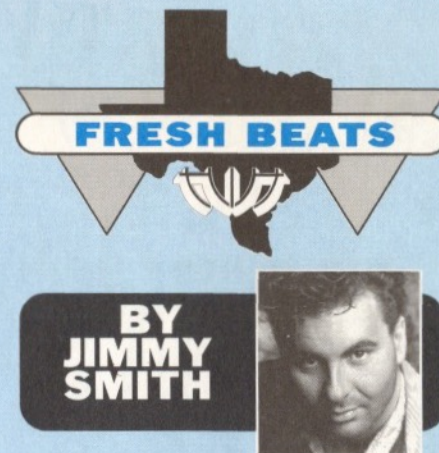

You've managed to make it through the day — picked up the dry cleaning, spruced up the place with fresh flowers and the like. You're ready for that big night on the town.

Time for more primping, and this time we'll primp to Rickie Lee Jones' latest Reprise release, Ghostyhead. We've loved Rickie ever since she burst onto the scene in '78 with her self-titled debut, which brought forth the hits "Chuck E.'s in Love" and "Young Blood." After winning a Grammy for Best New Artist of the Year, she went on to release the innovative Pirates, Girl at Her Volcano and The Magazine before moving on to Geffen for Flying Cowboys, Pop Pop and Traffic From Paradise. Ghostyhead is Jones' first album since she returned to Reprise in 1995 for the live acoustic collection Naked Songs, which was basically a collection of her best to date. Much of the inspiration for her new album had its roots in hip-hop. "I had been hearing a lot of interesting music and some inspirational texts from hip-hop," Jones remarks, "and was attracted by the way the tension is built with subdued drum mixes." With Ghostyhead, she travels to what she calls a "new musical landscape," bringing us along with a voice and a vision that is at once familiar, yet completely unexpected.

A quick spray of Gautier and you're gayly on your way!...

You're back home and you have ten or so with you. What we need here is something eclectic; pop in Batman & Robin and press "play." You'll get loads of greats like Smashing Pumpkins' "The Beginning Is the End Is the Beginning," Arkarna's "House on Fire," R.E.M.'s "Revolution," Jewel's "Foolish Games" (a lovely rockish ballad), Moloko's huge smash "Fun for Me" and the inimitable Me'Shell Ndegé-Ocello's "Poison Ivy," as well as numbers by Bone Thugs-n-Harmony, R. Kelly, Goo Goo Dolls, Lauren Christy, Soul Coughing, Eric Benét and Elliot Golden-thal. How's that for a lineup? It's over. Now tell everyone to get out! Well, maybe not everyone....

Now here's where you have to improvise a bit. Since you may have a guest, and since some like a cigarette afterwards (are you following me?), what better choice than k.d. lang's latest smoker of a collection, Drag? Talk about a situation record here! You may ask why a well known non-smoker would record an entire album using tobacco as its general theme. "Simply to have an absolute, creative, cinematic, visual framework to inspire my own imagination," she explains. "It's a thesis, not a conclusion. It's a study of the act of smoking, the act of addiction and the act of love. In fact, it's not really even about smoking. That's just a cipher for the real theme of the record: how love is an elusive thing that all of us crave. We 'smoke' it and then it's over and then we crave it again, even though it kills us. Between the lines of all these cigarette songs are incredible expressions of heartbreak or celebration. Cigarettes themselves can be symbols of defiance, suggesting self-destructiveness, or rebellion or sexiness."

The inspiration for Drag came from k.d.'s attraction to Peggy Lee's aching classic "Don't Smoke in Bed" (the opening track for the LP). Let k.d. lull you as she makes her way through "The Air that I Breathe," "Smoke Dreams," "My Last Cigarette," "The Joker," "Theme from Valley of the Dolls," "Your Smoke Screen," "My Old Addiction," "Till the Heart Caves In," "Smoke Rings," "Hain't It Funny" and "Love Is Like A Cigarette." What we have here is an album that looks at love through the filter of longing and loneliness, need and nicotine. Oh, but please don't fall out with a lit one. And, whether you're alone or not, it's a great collection to tuck you in.

It's Sunday and you're off to brunch. Just think, now you can impress your friends with your vast knowledge of some of the greatest new Warner Bros. albums for the season. Hoping for your enjoyment, that's music THIS WEEK IN TEXAS.

Paul Parkinson Presents
Monday Nights

LA CAGE!

Follies

Featuring
Lauren Taylor

8pm - Midnight

The McKinney Avenue Contemporary, 3120 McKinney Ave., Suite 100 in Dallas, presents their exciting summer schedule of film and video screenings, including the "Best of the Fests" video screenings on Wednesdays, as well as new monthly programming and special screenings. Most films are shown in the CineMAC at 8 p.m. Call for tickets, $5, at (214)953-1212 or access <http://www.atypical.com/THEMAC>. On the schedule this Wednesday, July 9, is Jupiter's Wife, Grand Jury Prize Winner at the Sundance Film Festival.

Dallas Pocket Sandwich Theatre presents A Night Of Chickens and Monks tomorrow Saturday, July 5. Rubber Chicken, Dallas' favorite all-improv comedy troupe, teams up with Monk's Night Out, Austin's #1 comedy troupe, to create wild and crazy comedy — based on your suggestions — before your very eyes. There'll be two shows, at 8 and 11 p.m. Seating with food and beverage service begins at 6:30 p.m. for the 8 p.m. show; for the 11 p.m. performance, at 10:30 p.m. Tickets are $10 for the first show and $8 for the second. For tickets, call (214)821-1860. PST is located at 5400 E. Mockingbird Lane, Suite #119, in Mockingbird Central Plaza.

Fort Worth's Hip Pocket Theatre at Oak Acres presents Daughters of Zeeack July 4-27. Harken back to Fort Worth in the 1930s and meet Mama Dowdy and her three daughters as they unravel a mystery. Tickets are $10 and can be reserved by calling (817)237-5977. HPT features delicious dinners served at 6:30 p.m. by James Quave's Oak Acres Barbeque Restaurant. Curtain is at 9 p.m.; the theatre is located at 1620 Las Vegas Trail North at 820 North near Lake Worth.

Bob Morgan [l] and Paul Drake help Dos Chicas Productions bring Charles Busch to EZ Credit in Houston July 10-Aug. 2.

Courtesy of Dos Chicas Productions and EZ Credit Theater, Vampire Lesbians of Sodom descends on Houston July 10-26 and Aug. 1-2 along with another of Charles Busch's one-acts, Sleeping Beauty or Coma. In Vampire Lesbians of Sodom, two ancient feuding vampires finally realize their love for each other in 1980s Las Vegas. Sleeping Beauty or Coma probes the sordid fashion world of 1960s London, as a hot young designer and her photographer boyfriend elevate a kooky office temp to supermodel status. After the July 10 preview, performances (at EZ Credit Theater, 314 Main St.) are Fridays and Saturdays at 9 p.m. Tickets are $5; come dressed in your best drag and you can be part of a post-show fashion event with the "girls" in the cast. Call (713)862-1626. A portion of proceeds benefit Steven's House, a residence for people with HIV/AIDS.

Auditions are being held for a Houston production of End of the World Party, a comedy about six gay friends sharing a summer house on Fire Island and looking for love in all the wrong places. Chuck Ranberg's play is being produced by The Group and will open at Main Street Theater's Village location Aug. 22. Needed are eight male actors 21-40 years old; auditions (to be held at the theater, 2540 Times Blvd.) are Saturday, July 12, from 2-4 p.m. and Sunday, July 13, from 7-9 p.m., and will be read from the script. For more info, call director Joe Watts at (713)522-2204.

Rob Nash, creator of 12 Steps to a More Dysfunctional Family, presents the world premiere of his work-in-progress Freshman Year Sucks! today through July 19 at Planet Theatre, 2307 Manor Rd. in Austin. Performances of the one-man, 20-character show are at 8 p.m. Thursdays-Sundays; tickets are $9-$12 (reservations strongly recommended). For tickets or more info, call (512)454-8497.

The Violet Crown Players continue their inaugural season with Stephen Sondheim's A Little Night Music July 11-26 at the Scottish Rite Theatre, 207 W. 18th St. in Austin. Performances are at 8 p.m. Fridays and Saturdays and 2 p.m. Sundays; for tickets or more info, call (512)454-TIXS.

Sugar, a musical spoof based on the 1959 Jack Lemmon-Tony Curtis movie hit Some Like It Hot, takes the stage today through Aug. 23 at the Josephine Theatre, 339 W. Josephine in San Antonio. Showtimes are 8:15 p.m. Fridays-Saturdays and 2:30 p.m. Sundays; for reservations or more info, call (210)734-4646.

JULY 4 - JULY 10

DAVID HODO
JULY 7, 1950

If you enjoy a little cognac in your coffee, this week's transit is for you. Lovely Venus "opposes" surprising Uranus and pushes us into temptation. The pursuit of happiness packs a punch, so be careful what you wish for; this time, the planets give you what you want and much, much more. Pack a pillow to soften your splat when the transit passes.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23) The sad fact of life is that love doesn't come cheaply. This is quite evident during the Venus/Uranus opposition. Gay Crabs can sit at home in that old shell and count their pennies or they can say, "What the hell, everyone's gotta eat" and serve 'em up some safe but saucy Crab meat. It's amazing what can be accomplished with a feather boa and an egg timer.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23) Proud and regal Lions test the limits of the Venus/Uranus opposition with an imperious strut onto center stage. You are too beautiful for words, so don't let partners become jealous. If you have a solid relationship, it will withstand the call of the diva in you. If the partnership is built on sand and a dream, expect an earthquake. Planets know what needs to be done and undone.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23) "Good things come to those who serve" is usually the motto of self-sacrificing queer Virgins. But Venus opposes Uranus and changes your motto to "No good deed deserves to go unpunished." It's not as bad as it sounds, friend; just don't expect a thank-you and a pat on the back at work. Fact is, as long as you're personally fulfilled, why do you care what the yahoos think?

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23) Friends heat up the pot when Venus opposes Uranus. If you're planning a summer funfest, be sure to add a dollop of pals into the mix to insure a deliciously good time. Queer Libras may find themselves trolling for the bottom feeders, though, if they allow the good times to get out of control. Excessive behavior tips the scales. Stay balanced.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22) Your ascent to the corporate starchamber is easier thanks to benign Venus, but like everything else in this capitalistic world, it exacts a price. Venus opposite Uranus unleashes surprises at home and with family. Remember, proud Scorp, change can be cathartic and liberating. If surroundings are not in sync with your synchronization, change it.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22) Proud Sags are the travelers of the zodiac and this week, with Venus opposite Uranus, your itchy hooves may lead you into surprising situations. Prepared to start an international incident? Anything is possible with a well-placed word or five. Your winning personality can avoid an all-out nuclear war, but it may take time for cooler heads to prevail.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20) Is it a trip to the Moon on gossamer wings or just one of those things? Gay Caps may find themselves uncharacteristically floating on cloud nine with their latest fling, but when Venus opposes Uranus, this love is definitely for sale. Be prepared to open up that checkbook and pay up. Don't be your stingy self, lover; believe me, you'll get what you pay for.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19) The demands and attentions of partners may prevent you from doing something independently fulfilling, but let your frustrations pass. The opposition between Venus and Uranus should teach all Aqueerians the importance of give and take in a relationship. Balance is everything in this old life, and that goes double for love.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - March 20) Things are going so well at work that you may be tempted to toss all caution to the wind and bare your soul (among other things) to coworkers and subordinates. Will you be able to face yourself in the mirror next week? If so, go for it! If not, bare it all at the health club and forget about making work more affirming for the time being.

ARIES (March 21 - April 20) Grab the good-ies while you can, but try not to trample on the toes of friends in the frantic rush for fulfillment. Proud Rams may wind up quietly nursing a major hangover in the glorious aftermath of the Venus/Uranus opposition. Although you'll never admit it, it's possible to have too much of a good thing. You're never too old, it seems, to have that one drink too many....

TAURUS (April 21 - May 21) The comforts of home may be shaken to their foundations during the opposition between Venus and Uranus. Gay Bulls are wrenched from quiet but enjoyable domesticity and thrust into the political maelstrom of their careers. It's time to fight the sharks again, kids, but this time you're destined to triumph. The secret is to never let the bastards know what you're really thinking.

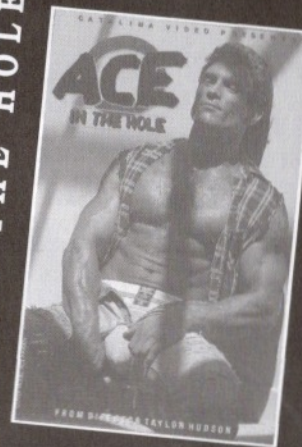

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21) Ever had a thought which took on a dramatic life of its own? Get ready to create a few new lives when Venus opposes Uranus and your ideas are released to the immediate universe. Choose your outlets wisely, dear, queer Twin; your gems must not fall on deaf ears or be wasted on nonsense. The force is with you; start the revolution across the world or across the street.

TEXAS

THE BEST QUALITIES

This good looking, Single, Black male, 29, is intelligent, open minded, outgoing, loving, romantic, and unafraid to express my feelings. I'd like to spend some quality time with a similar guy, with love on his mind. (Dallas) #3091

WHAT HAPPENS

NEXT? I wanna meet some guys, go out, have some fun, and see what happens. I'm a good looking, very well built, White male, 5'8, 150lbs, with short, shaved, Brown hair and Hazel eyes. I'm usually a submissive bottom but can be versatile. If you want to be serviced, or just have a good time, let's talk. (Dallas) #2895

TOWERING

POSSIBILITIES New to the area! I'm 6'5, have Brown hair and eyes, moderately hairy all over, well endowed. Ex-college basketball player. I'm straight acting and very discreet. Call me and let's discuss the possibilities. (Dallas) #2808

CLEVELAND BROWN

I'm in Cleveland but I can't find what I'm looking for here. This good looking, masculine, Black male seeks other rugged, aggressive, Black men who are into sports and athletics. You should be professional, intelligent, and willing to travel to meet me. (Fort Worth) #28214

FIRST CONTACT

I'm interested in meeting guys like me. I'm a Hispanic male, 36, 5'6, 160lbs. I'm mainly a top. If you're Hispanic, good looking, and near my age, make contact. (Dallas) #32476

GIVING IN GIDDINGS

I love to go out to clubs, eat fine cuisine, drink champagne, and spend evenings in the arms of the one I love. (Giddings) #2961

THE TAN MAN

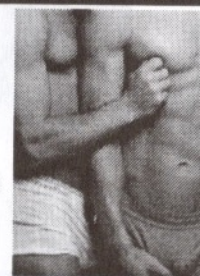

I'm looking to hook up with other good looking, young guys, 18 to 25. I'm an attractive, very fit, White male, 20, 6'2, 190lbs. with a great build. I'm tan, with longish, Brown hair and Blue eyes. (Greenville) #2721

A WHOLE LOT

COUNTRY I'm a little bit country, and a little bit rock and roll. This nice looking, 38 year old, White male wants to meet another music lover, my age or younger, who's a nice guy. (Houston) #2833

GAY GAMES GRAPPLER

I wrestled in the Gay Games and want to find some work out partners, into wrestling, who can help me stay in top form. I'm a good looking, very well built, White male, 5'10, 180lbs. (Houston) #2699

BODY CONSCIOUS

Well built, light skinned, Gay, Black male, 39, 5'5, 150lbs, seeks a workout partner, friendship, and good times. You should be between 30 and 40, masculine, mature, and body conscious. (San Antonio) #3012

YOU'RE ONE IN A

MILLION I'm masculine, bearded, educated, endowed, and imaginative, but I have much more varied interests than you might think. I'm an attractive, White male, in my mid 40's, 5'9, 165lbs. I'm looking for someone clean shaven and slender for a long term relationship. (Tyler) #21640

DOGS AND DEVOTION

Slender, smooth, attractive, Gay, White male, in my early 40's, 5'8, 135lbs, with Brown hair and Hazel eyes, is overdue for a relationship. I'm HIV positive but healthy and I hope to meet a Gay, White, or Hispanic male, who's also HIV positive. You should be relationship oriented, sincere, thoughtful, caring, and a dog lover. I have a wide variety of interests. (San Antonio) #21268

COUNTRY LIFE

I own property, with three homes, and want a country boy type to share it with. I enjoy the outdoors, traveling, and seek a monogamous, long term relationship with a nice guy, 5'9 or shorter, with an average build. Age is not a factor but I prefer that you not be a heavy drinker or smoker. (Sulphur Springs) #2682

I LIKE 'EM SMALL AND SMOOTH

This tall, cute, well endowed, 28 year old, White male, 6'4, with short, Blond hair, deep Blue eyes, and smooth, football build, wants to meet younger guys, 18 to 25, who are small and smooth, especially with dark hair and Green eyes. A large endowment is a definite plus. I love to be on the bottom but am versatile. Let's start something romantic, sincere, long term, and special. #16605

Making Lives Easier

Dear TWT:

On June 6, I held my tenth annual AIDS benefit at the New Kon Tiki in Galveston. With the help of many talented entertainers and the generous community of Galveston and surrounding areas, we raised $5,241.

The amount was far more than my goal ($3,000), which goes to show that someone really does care.

I want to thank Dr. Parr and the board members and clients of AIDS Coalition of Coastal Texas for the plaque, Lew Wiggs of ABBA for the certificate and Earlene Cartwright (class of '57) for the banner.

Helping clients with HIV each and every day, you all deserve these awards more than me. But I do accept them proudly in memory of the victims we've lost through the years. Thank you all!

To entertainers Tommie Ross, Carmen Del Rio, Black Velvett, Jessica Daniels, Sophie, Kent (Maggie), C.C. Ryder, Sha Nay Nay, Lil' Jo, Myra Sanchez, Brenda Kay, Buffie Galore, Poopsie Kline, Naomi Warwick, Chevelle Brooks, Chelsé Allen, Kristian Taylor, Lex and C.J. Harrington of Muscles in Action, thank you all—I could not have done it without you.

To Blue Wrecker Service; Quality Cab; Lew Wiggs; Dana Finley; Stephen Bryant; Jesse Garza, Arthur Lowe; Jesse Mann and Mark Grace; Grace Technology in memory of son, Gene Moore; Robert Barnett; Jimmy Sweeney; and last, but not least, Ron Burgess and Johnny (Ms. Thang), where would I be without your generous donations?

If I've missed anyone, please do forgive me, but remember, you did make someone's life easier.

To Dewey Parker, Naomi and Chelsé Allen, Rosie, Denise and Renee, Charlie Burgers and everyone else, thanks for the delicious buffet.

To Walter Flores, Johnny Brandt, Jesse Garza, Frank Ramos, Heather and Bob

Shafer and the employees of the New Kon Tiki, thank you all for your strong support.

Donations continue to come in from Don Ice, Kofi, Dyan Michaels, Paivi Lee Love and Victoria Nicole. Thanks.

To volunteers Stanley, Tim Summa and Steve Lamb, keep up the good work. Last but not least, to my employer and Smokin' Joe Rios, thanks for your support and for being a part of my life!

Until we meet again, you all take care and make plans for next year!

Brotherhood Benefits HIV

Dear TWT:

Steven's House wishes to thank the Brotherhood of Pain for their charitable donation of $2,230 representing the proceeds from the first Daddy/Master auction held at the Ripcord on June 13. We are all aware of and appreciate the amount of work and time that goes into organizing a fundraiser. Judging from the participants, there was widespread community involvement. Ken Claude, Mr. Texas Drummer, and Don Gill, Chair of the LVL Holiday Fund, led the auction list, which included Dirk Martin, J.R. Ewing, Michael Craig, Jeff Bays and Jeff McDonald, Mark Walker, John Tillotson and Eric Schoenburger.

Although some may not be attracted to this particular expression of gay life, we as a community must respect the Brotherhood's dedication to, and involvement in, the community. HIV/AIDS continues to present us with needs and challenges today, and we are most grateful for the generosity of everyone joining together to meet those needs.

Thanks to all who gave from their hearts.

JAZZ SHOW TO BENEFIT SAN ANTONIO AIDS FOUNDATION

4th Annual 'Ken Slavin — Live!'
Next Friday at Carver Center.

SAN ANTONIO — A special cocktail party and silent auction will be part of the excitement when jazz crooner Ken Slavin presents his fourth annual concert benefiting the San Antonio AIDS Foundation at 8 p.m. next Friday, July 11.

Doors will open at 7 p.m. at the Carver Community Cultural Center, 226 N. Hackberry St., for the cocktail reception, which will feature a fully stocked cash bar provided by Absolut Vodka, with all drink sales earmarked for the Foundation. Also on hand will be the famous "Absolut Girls," who will hand out samples of flavored vodkas made by Absolut.

In addition, the Hard Rock Cafe in San Antonio has donated one of its trademark $300 bomber-style leather jackets to be offered as a silent auction item during the reception and intermission, with proceeds from the highest bidder going to SAAF. Slavin will present the jacket to the winner during the second half of the show.

Ken Slavin — Live! will showcase the singer's smooth, "uptown" vocal stylings in a smorgasbord of classic jazz and American pop standards from the 1930s, '40s and '50s, as well as a selection of traditional Spanish-language boleros. As in years past, Slavin will be joined by local award-winning jazz duo Small World (Polly Harrison on guitar and Kyle Keener on drums) and an all-star band featuring Chuck Moses on acoustic bass, Fred Salas on piano, Bill Holman on tenor saxophone, clarinet and flute, and Ed Sherry on trumpet and flugelhorn. Special musical guest this year will be the legendary Sebastian Campesi, an internationally acclaimed jazz violinist who has performed with many of the biggest names in the music industry.

Slavin — who appears regularly at San Antonio's Laboratory Brewing Company on "Lounge Wednesdays" — began producing the annual benefit concert in 1994. Since then, the event has raised more than $8,000 for the San Antonio AIDS Foundation. In conjunction with last year's show, he released a 14-song CD entitled Tender

Is the Night, with all sales earmarked for the Foundation. The album, which has garnered positive statewide and national reviews, has raised more than $2,000 for the cause.

"The Foundation and the people it helps are very near and dear to my heart," Slavin said last week. "It's a privilege to be able to put my talents to work for such an important cause — and it is a real honor that so many people have embraced the concert every year."

Slavin said attendance has grown steadily, from about 250 in 1994 to more than 350 in 1996. His goal is to sell 500 tickets this year, adding that this will be the first time the show reflects a "100-percent profit" for SAAF.

"We have received some very generous corporate underwriting this year, which should cover all of the expenses related to staging a quality production," he says. "That means [that], for the first time, every cent of every ticket will go back to the Foundation. Therefore, we have the potential to raise more money than ever!"

This year's program will include several favorite songs Slavin has selected from his play lists at local gigs — as well as a few that have been well received in past concerts. But, as always, he promises a generous number of new selections and a couple of surprises that will showcase his wide-ranging repertoire of jazz, pop and Spanish-language standards.

Tickets to Ken Slavin — Live! are $15 and tax-deductible, and can be reserved and purchased by calling the San Antonio AIDS Foundation at (210)225-4715. Tickets may also be purchased at the door on the evening of the production. Cash, checks, Visa and MasterCard will be accepted.

HOUSTON NIGHT PARADE DRAWS HUGE CROWD SATURDAY

Crowning Event Brings End
To '97 Pride Celebrations.

HOUSTON — A huge crowd lined the sides of Westheimer last Saturday evening for the city's first nighttime pride parade, which culminated over a week of celebrations by the city's gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender communities.

Police estimates put the number of spectators turning out for the event at around 50,000. The Houston Pride Committee's Jack Valinski said this year's crowd was double the size of the 1996 procession. Whatever the numbers, organizers and spectators alike seemed to be rating the parade a big success.

"It got dark and the floats lit up, and that was magic," Valinski said. "I think we're going to have some other cities trying to copy what we're doing." The Pride Committee is the umbrella executive group that sponsors local pride celebrations.

This was the inaugural year for the after-dark celebration, billed also as the first of its kind in all of North America. The event was moved from its traditional midday Sunday slot, partly in response to long-running complaints about the summer heat.

A small group of religious protesters who stationed themselves at the kickoff point near Mandell St. failed to disrupt the proceedings, and Valinski said the parade came off without any serious problems. While the parade was somewhat shorter than last year's, it took about as long to reach its end point at Stanford, with several units stopping to perform in front of the judges' reviewing stand on Lincoln.

In addition to a wide-ranging roster of floats, cars and walking/marching units that represented community organizations and businesses, the parade drew its share of elected officials and other notables, including U.S. Rep. Sheila Jackson Lee; former City Controller George Greanias, who is running for mayor this year; and activist and community leader Annise Parker, who is campaigning for an at-large seat on Houston City Council.

At a ceremony held shortly after the parade, the Astro Rainbow Alliance of the Deaf was awarded the Houston Trophy (given to the best nonprofessional motorized float). The Stonewall Trophy (for best unit commemorating pride) was awarded to Parents, Families and Friends of Lesbians and Gays, and the Glowing With Pride Trophy (a newly named award for best interpretation of slogan) went to OutSmart magazine. Winning the Edison Trophy (best nonprofessional lighted unit) was Amigos Volunteers in Education and Services [AVES], while the Rainbow Lights award (given to best professional lighted unit) went to Community Gospel Church. The Gypsy Trophy (best out-of-town unit) was given to Cheer Dallas and the Ruby Slippers Trophy (best walking unit) went to the Pride Team at Texas Commerce Bank.

Judges of the parade entries were attorney Judith Meyer; Pat Gandy, Democratic Party activist and a former president of the Houston Gay & Lesbian Political Caucus; Ben Santillán, Office Manager with AVES; Harold Schultz with Texas Commerce Bank; and Audrey Gassama, founder and Executive Director of the Loving Arms Foundation.

Houston Gay/Lesbian Pride Week holds its next general meeting on Tuesday, July 15, at 7 p.m. at the Metropolitan Multi-Service Center, 1475 W. Gray. Valinski said that meeting would be devoted primarily to wrapping up unfinished business from this year's pride celebrations. New officers will probably be chosen in August. For more information, call (713) 529-6979.

SECOND DEFENDANT CONVICTED IN MURDER OF GAY MAN NEAR HOUSTON

Ronald Gauthier Given Ten Years Probation in Death of Fred Mangione.

HOUSTON — The second of two men involved in the killing of a gay man was convicted of murder last week, then sentenced to ten years probation for the crime.

Ronald Henry Gauthier and his half-brother, Daniel Christopher Bean, were arrested in January 1996 and charged in the killing of Fred Mangione. Mangione, 46 at the time of his death, was stabbed 35 times in his van outside a nightclub in Katy, a small town west of Houston. Mangione and his lover, Kenneth Stern, had reportedly befriended Gauthier and Bean, who said they were visiting from out of state and were linked with a neo-Nazi group called the German Peace Corps. The two suspects told other bar patrons they were going to attack a "fag."

Jurors reportedly gave Gauthier such a lenient sentence — from a range of punishments that included life imprisonment — because they believed the prosecution failed to prove that he took an active role in Mangione's killing.

Bean was convicted of murder in August last year and sentenced to life in prison.

Mangione's killing, one of a series of hate-motivated crimes committed against gay people around Texas, provoked widespread reaction among activists in Houston and elsewhere.

COMMUNITY CENTER IN SAN ANTONIO RECEIVES GRANT FROM STRAUSS FOUNDATION

$10,000 Award Will Go to

'HIV Support Plus Club,'

Other AIDS-Related Services.

SAN ANTONIO — The Gay and Lesbian Community Center of San Antonio has received a $10,000 grant from the Levi Strauss Foundation for the support of individuals affected by HIV and AIDS. The grant was awarded specifically to operate the agency's "HIV Support Plus Club" and to maintain various other HIV/AIDS assistance and services.

The "HIV Support Plus Club" is planned as a weekly meeting for HIV-affected people who have not yet experienced serious medical symptoms and who wish to maintain a healthy, positive lifestyle. Regular meetings are to be held at the center and will feature speakers, cooking classes, introductions to alternative treatments, relaxation exercises, nutritional information and group counseling.

The Gay and Lesbian Community Center and the San Antonio Metropolitan Health District also provide free and anonymous HIV testing and counseling on the first Sunday of each month at the center, 923 E. Mistletoe. The center also provides prevention and educational materials, condoms and referrals to medical and financial assistance.

Another program which assists men and women with serious medical conditions is the Red Ribbon Food Program. This program fills a gap in the existing meals-on-wheels programs by delivering hot meals on weekends. Persons who are homebound and under the age of 55 can request this service by calling Mary Parra at (210) 732-4300 from 1-8 p.m. daily. The Red Ribbon Food Program is a cooperative project of the center, the Hispanic AIDS Committee and the Metropolitan Community Church.

Statistics issued by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention rated Bexar

County as having the sixth highest rate of AIDS in the state of Texas from March 1994 to June 1996.

OUT YOUTH AUSTIN HIRES NEW DIRECTOR OF DEVELOPMENT

*Rob Faubion to Handle
Fund-Raising and Other Duties
For Capital City Group.*

AUSTIN — Following an extensive search, Out Youth Austin has selected Rob Faubion to serve as its new Development Director. In that position, he will primarily handle fund-raising, public relations and community awareness for the group, whose headquarters are in The Cornerstone at 1117 Red River St.

"I'm very excited about the possibilities for Out Youth," Faubion said. "The program is one of the best in the nation, and I'm glad to be part of its expansion." He said numerous new events and programs are being planned, with announcements about the growth expected later this summer.

Faubion has extensive experience with nonprofit organizations, having previously been involved with the American Heart Association-Capital Division, Southwest Texas State University's A.D.E.P.T. program, Capitol City Playhouse and Artistic Repertory Theatre. He has also been a member of the Austin Baptist Women performance group.

Out Youth Austin is Central Texas' only organization serving gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgendered youth. The organization's mission is to promote the physical, mental and emotional well-being of sexual minority youths so they can openly and safely explore and affirm their identities. Steve Siefert has been the group's Executive Director since February, when he succeeded co-founder Lisa Rogers.

In addition to a phone help line at (512) 477-HELP that is manned by volunteers, Out Youth has a toll-free help line for young people across the country at (800) 96-YOUTH. The agency's drop-in center is open from 5:30-9:30 p.m. Wednesdays-Sundays, and it also offers programs, support groups, volunteer training and parties and special events. New volunteer orientation sessions are held from 7-9 p.m. the first Tuesday of each month. For more information, call (512) 708-1234.

DALLAS TEA — Throckmorton Mining Company features the largest variety of frosty brews that you can find anywhere.

Their pints are a chilling refresher from the summer heat. Customer Larry Morse [right] can always keep cool with the rest of the regulars that meet with the men in the Mine daily. Stop in and let manager Frank and the gang help you celebrate this 4th of July weekend with a bang. Don't forget to check out their Long Island tea special tonight and Saturday. Then, on Sunday, drink for cheap with reduced prices on all well drinks and domestic longnecks from open to close....

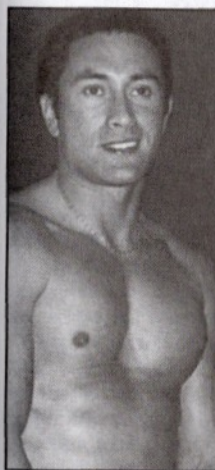

Bamboleo's presents their special Independence Day show tonight, the 4th of July. Catch the stars shining bright tonight and Sunday. Next Friday, July 11, JCF Productions presents a double crowning of Miss Gay Hispanic Dallas and Miss Gay Hispanic Irving, with the winners going on to the state finals at Miss Gay Hispanic Texas Estados Unidos 1998. Over $500 in cash and prizes is up for grabs. Coming up is the Miss Bamboleo's Pageant on July 25....

Round Up staffers Robert Bisset and Rafael [above, l-r] are ready for all the Fourth of July party crowds heading to the club this weekend. TGRA's annual Miss Firecracker Pageant lights up the night this Sunday, July 6. Doors open at 6 p.m. and the pageant starts at 7 p.m. Get there early and enjoy hot dogs on the patio. DeeJay Jeffrey Rigby spins the hottest dance tunes every Wednesday. Round-Up's mascot, Ping, will be celebrating her 11th birthday this Wednesday, too. With all the friendly folks at the Round Up, it's no wonder they've been a Texas legend for over 17 years....

Dallas Eagle presents their notorious Bear Trap contest next Sunday, July 13 at 8 p.m. They'll be having Christmas in July on the following Sunday, July 20, at 7 p.m. You'll definitely want to be at the club every Saturday night for after hours that can only be described as sizzling. Matt, Mark and the guys kicked off the Fourth of July weekend last night and the party continues through Sunday. Don't miss a minute of the nonstop action they have planned for you this weekend....

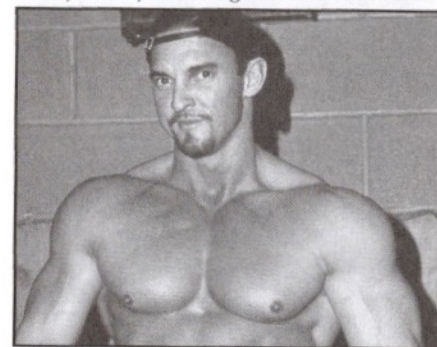

Shower dancers like former TWT coverman Daniel DeLeo [left] make The Brick one sweltering spectacle worthy of your undivided attention. The club offers you something fierce every Friday in July to whet your appetite. Their "First Friday Flashlight Party" is tonight, followed by Leather Fetish Night next Friday, July 11. July 18 heralds the return of their infamous Beads-N-Boxes party. You definitely want to mark your calendars for their last Friday of the month: that's when special guest adult video star Tom Chase will be appearing. Friday and Saturday nights, the club offers no cover to men in leather. The return of the hottest party of the year is on Saturday, Aug. 2. House of Heat will heat up the night in a big way as only the men of Big D can....

The Metro welcomes the hot men of New York Undercover this weekend. Don't miss this troupe of male dancers tonight, Friday, July 4. Catch the Sunday shows at 11 p.m. starring the Dallas Divas. Monday Madness amateur talent night features hostess Sophia MacIntosh. The Chitlin' Sisters bring their irreverent improv to the club the first and third Friday of every month. That means fireworks for the Fourth....

Crews Inn's Trash Disco tonight will surely have you seeing fireworks with their capacity crowds, drink specials, hot dance music and their incredible light show. Check out the action on the patio this weekend. The staff and dancers, like Fitzhugh favorite Maverick [above], keep you smiling through the steaming hot holiday heatwaves. Make your way to the Crews Inn this weekend and see what kind of fun you'll find....

Moby Dick offers you a cool way to cool off with cheap well and beer until 10 p.m. daily. Staffers Brian Clark and Craig Matthews [above, l-r] will help you quench your hot holiday thirst this weekend on the balconies. They've got cheap drinks from noon until 2 a.m. all weekend long. All American beers are on sale this Independence Day weekend. With Moby Madness every Friday and Saturday from 10-11 p.m. and Sunday from 7-8 p.m., what are you waiting for? Catch their new Sunday sensation with Sophia MacIntosh hosting the Bare Chest contest at 8 p.m. with $100 cash going to the winner....

Zippers has the grill going on the patio and that means only one thing this weekend — Gladys is cooking up one of his famous holiday feasts this Sunday, July 6, featuring over a hundred pounds of barbecue beef, ribs and maybe sausages, too — if she has enough time on the smoker. All of this comes compete with all the traditional holiday trimmings she can come up with from 5-8 p.m....

JR's Bar & Grill is growing at breakneck speed [above]. They'll be getting ready to unveil all of the wonderful additions to the club on Dallas' favorite corner before you know it. You'd better get on the list for their very special "invitation only" pre-reopening party, to be announced at a later date....

Sue Ellen's will have you sweating out on their volleyball courts and bartender Chris Craig [right] will keep you cooled off with your favorite refreshing beverage. The patios at the club are great people-watching perches for this holiday weekend. Stop in and try their daiquiris tonight and Saturday and then, on Sunday, cheap drink prices are the plan all day and all night.

HOUSTON TEA — "Glowing With Pride," America's very first nighttime pride parade, was a glowing success. A record number of people turned out for this landmark event. In addition to all of the illuminated entries, the fantastic folks of Outrage, Inc. outdid themselves with their pre- and post-parade blowouts. We're certainly looking forward to what the Pride Committee has in store for next year....

Heaven capped off Gay and Lesbian Pride Weekend with a Rainbow Foam Party. John, Skippy, Mark and Larry [above, l-r] had the best job in the house; they were in charge of the clothes check. Tonight, the club celebrates Independence Day with "Free, Gay & Happy" featuring deejay/veejay Steve Underwood, gorgeous go-go gods and great drink specials. For a trip to the cutting edge, check out International Underground Saturdays and take a musical journey around the world with deejay Shawn Byrne. This Sunday, Kofi and Kourtney Van Wales bring to a close a fabulous year of entertainment as they host the Super Sunday Show Finale. Their special guests will be Whitney Paige and Jenny Kraiggg....

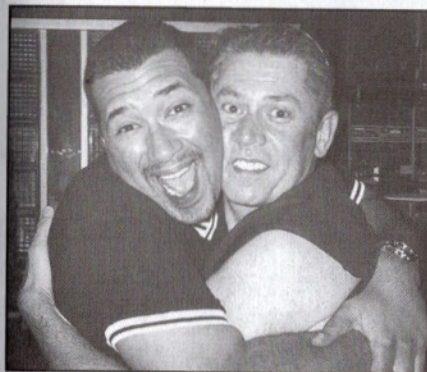

Fourth of July weekend at JR's is going to be "Red, Hot & Blue." Tonight at the club, show your independence and win an award for the best red, white and blue ensemble. Tomorrow, JR's Saturday night Video Post Office gives you the chance to send a daring video mail message to anyone in the club. If you'll say it, they'll send it! Sundays at the club are still the rage with that infamous well vodka juice drink special, SRO karaoke, hunky male dancers and the sensational swimwear strip contest with Lindsay Love. The staff at JR's also extends a warm welcome to all the fans and participants of this weekend's Texas Invitational Bowling Tournament....

Across the street at the Montrose Mining Company, Miguel Venegas, manager David Snyder, Michael Ruggiero and Giovanni Lamond [above, l-r] were all smiles as they welcomed a multitude of men to the club's 19th anniversary party. We wish them many more years of continued success. Every Sunday, the Mine hosts Houston's biggest beer bust. This Bayou City tradition is a great place to see old friends and meet some new ones. Are you ready for some midweek excitement? Check out the Mine's Anything Goes Tuesday featuring some of the most amazing drink specials in town....

At the Club Houston, they're serving up a weekend of fun in the sun. Tomorrow and Sunday from 1-3 p.m., they'll be partying by the pool with complimentary buffets and lots of door prizes. Just be careful not to burn your buns....

Giving new meaning to the term "all-nighter," Chicago deejay Ralphie Rosario [above, l] brought lots of high-energy excitement to Rich's Sunrise Service dance-till-dawn extravaganza. Popular local spinmeister J.D. Arnold [r] also helped to keep the joint jumpin' until the wee hours of the morning. Tonight, Klub Kamp presents "Boom" starring Simply Divine and Lana Blake. Next Friday, July 11, the club hosts the Mfss Gay Harris County/Miss Gay Metro Houston USofA double crowning with special guest Erica Andrews and emcees Paivi Lee Love and Dyan Michaels....

Following the parade, Rascals' Pride '97 show boasted the amazing talents of Socca Simone, Chevelle Brooks, Cookie LaCook [above, l-r] and many more. This weekend, Rascals is having a 4th of July blowout. Tonight brings you some of Texas' hottest men dancing for your viewing pleasure and a special midnight performance by "the Anita Baker of Houston," Chanel Nicole. On Saturday, it's "Everybody Dance" with male and female dancers followed by The Super Sunday Show starring The Rascals Untouchables....

Recently, Gentry was the site of the Finlandia Vodka Best Bartender in Houston finals. The club's own Val Rodela [below, l] was the first runner-up, while Barry "Vanna White Lee Love" Larson [c] of Chances captivated the judges' taste buds to capture top honors. Yvonne of Rich's [r] rounded out the top three. Summertime at Gentry continues to sizzle with male strip contests every Sunday and Wednesday and Boy Toy Dancers seven nights a week. If you've had a rough weekend, the road to recovery can be made a little easier by visiting Jeremy

If hot men in black leather acting out exotic fantasies sounds exciting, then you need to be at Pacific Street this weekend for the Mr. Texas Drummer contest.
Tomorrow night, there's a contestant registration party featuring no cover for men in erotic leather. On Sunday, the club opens at 7 p.m. and the contest begins at 9 p.m. with special guest emcee Shann Carr.
For a good spot where you can see all the action, get there early....

Last Sunday at Inergy, Juan Bernal of J&R Productions celebrated his birthday with a flawless fund-raiser for Miss Houston International USofA Jade DeSante. She and her friends from San Antonio wowed the crowd with a series of incredible performances. This Sunday, the club hosts an all-star fund-raiser for Ricci
Andrews on her way to Miss Gay Texas USofA. Inergy's weekly party schedule is highlighted by Monday Talent Night with Martina Reese, Wild & Crazy Wednesday with Jenny Kraigg, Friday and Saturday

and Super Sunday Shows with emcee Lady Shamu [r]....

Today is the 4th of July and the Midtowne Spa invites everyone to join them for the special kind of indoor "fireworks" that only they can present.
They'll also be serving Strawberry Delight on the patio from 4-8 p.m., and that's a treat you won't want to miss. Next Saturday, July 12, Esco-Zima Designs and Basic Brothers present "Forces of Nature," a swimwear fashion show benefit for AIDS Foundation Houston....

Over at the BRB, Miss Southeast Texas
Shawna St. John and Mr. Montrose Johnny
to Rydell," a Grease-inspired variety benefit for H.A.T.C.H. This afternoon at 2 p.m., the BRB will be serving a complimentary holiday buffet featuring deep-fried turkeys and all the trimmings. If you like country cookin', this is the place to be. The Brazos River Bottom is also gearing up for The Denim Party. This event gets bigger and bigger every year, so mark your calendars and make plans to be at the BRB on Sunday, July 27, for a happenin' hoedown that you won't forget anytime soon....

There's a storm brewing and it's headed for Houston. Landfall is scheduled for Saturday, July 26, when the Bayou City Boys Club presents "Hurricane '97" at Garden in the Heights, 3926 Feagan at Waugh. In the eye of the storm will be New York City guest deejay Julian Marsh. Proceeds will benefit The Center for AIDS, Casa de Esperanza de los Niños and The Buyers Club. Tickets are available at Lobo in Houston and Austin, Basic Brothers and Custom Valet Cleaners....

Tonight at the Venture-N, Empress XIII Anita Mann hosts the Miss Firecracker Pageant. This comedy drag contest begins at 10 p.m. See you there.

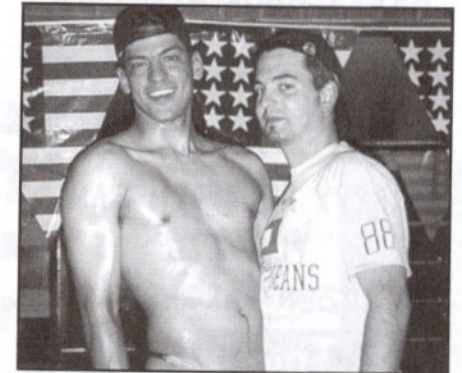

TEA BY THE SEA — For the 4th of July, the Kon Tiki in Galveston gives you more bang for your buck with red hot shows all weekend. Tomorrow night, Garza Productions presents the dynamic duo of Tara and Kara Dion, while the super sexy men of Muscles in Action will be there tonight, tomorrow and Sunday. Birthday wishes go out to Kon Tiki owner Ron Burgess and bartender Bob Joyce. Special congratulations go out to everyone who helped Misty Valdez's tenth annual star-studded benefit raise over $5,200 for the AIDS Coalition of Coastal Texas. Keep up the very, very good work.

SAN ANTONIO TEA — Eagle Mountain Saloon happily welcomes its newest staff member, Elijah Stone [above]. Stop by and let him serve you a knock-out 4th of July cocktail. EMS played host to a special benefit show presented by Mario for the Blue Light Candle Project last Sunday. The club was packed and the show was terrific, raising over $400 for the needy. EMS hosts a surprise party for a very special friend this Saturday beginning at 10 p.m.; plan to be there. Both EMS and The Annex feature "Glow Nite" this Saturday; see their ad for details. Over at The Annex, Ken and Jeff serve up some great meat with their Sunday hamburger and Wednesday steak nights, which feature your choice of ribeyes or T-bones with all the fixin's. The tasty fun starts at 6 p.m. EMS also features great home-cooked tacos on Fridays, Saturdays, Sundays and Mondays at a price that can't be beat....

Make your plans to be at The Bonham Exchange next Friday, July 11, when J.D. Productions presents the official Miss Gay Capitol of Texas At-Large Pageant. The fun gets under way at 10:30 p.m. and guests include Shante Whitney, Cinnamon Sweet, Kathrine Knight and special guest, Mr. Texas International Jesse Perez. For more information, contact Jesse at (210) 921-1546....

The July 4th holiday offers double the celebration at the 2015. Not only will Dick and his boys celebrate our independence, they'll also be celebrating Dick's birthday with unbeatable drink specials, male dancers and great dance music. Our CRUISE CAMERA caught sexy dancer William and bartender Michael [above, l-r] gearing up for the weekend blowout. Don't miss it....

This weekend at Mick's Hideaway will be filled with surprises and lots of fun things to do. You never know what Doug will be barely wearing! A kilt, shorts or who knows what? You'll just have to see it to believe it. Cheap drinks every Friday entice you, but it's the friendly staff and free buffet that keep you coming back. This Saturday, July 5, they've scheduled a patio barbecue brisket with the works. Don't miss out on the dart tournament at 8 p.m. Finish off this festively hectic holiday on Sunday night with all drinks reduced. Check with manager Roy Pope for more details about upcoming events....

The holiday weekend is sure to draw some of San Antonio's hottest men out to the city's hottest hangout, The Saint. Studly party boys like David (left) can be found dancing to the ultimate mix turned out by deejay Junior Hernandez all weekend long. A special holiday edition of the Sunday

Super Show will feature special guest Tamisha Iman, direct from Atlanta, and former Miss Gay USofA Sweet Savage along with goddesses in residence Erica Andrews, Shady Lady and Pauletta Leigh. Don't miss Jenny McCall's Drag Races every Monday night with Talissa Michaels and Layla LaRue....

There's no better way to kick off summer than with a visit to Zebra'z, San Antonio's number one resource for unique cards, gifts and gay-themed merchandise. There's also no better way to show your pride than with a trip to Zebra'z, unless, of course, it's a trip to Encore Video, home of San Antonio's largest selection of movies, both mainstream and adult....

If you see only one show this year – it must be Texas Entertainer of the Year, scheduled for Sunday, July 20 at The Saint. The top female impersonators in Texas, as determined by your votes, will be on stage to compete for over $2,500 in cash and prizes and the right to represent Texas at Entertainer of the Year this August in Louisville, Kentucky. Current national titleholder Monica Munro will join Texas EOY Whitney Paige as she crowns her successor. Texans have traditionally done extremely well at EOY. In fact, three of the six national titleholders – Tasha Kohl, Amazing Grace and Coco – have all hailed from the Lone Star State. The top fifteen vote-getters will be announced next Friday, July 11.

AUSTINteACIOUS — The first All-American Calendar Boy Search at Charlie's was a big success on June 23, as Chad, Jason, emcee Heather Thomas, Mark and Stephen [above, l-r] entertained the crowd. Jason was voted Mr. January, Mark Mr. February and Stephen Mr. March. The next three winners will be decided July 21. The official Miss Gay Austin Pageant on July 29 ran afoul of a couple of power blackouts which prematurely ended the show; hostess and current Miss Gay America Lauren Taylor said all four entrants (Jordynn Scott, Ashley Collins, Victoria Lee and Kyra Calloway) would likely represent Austin at the Miss Gay Texas Pageant in Dallas in late September, since it'll be difficult to reschedule Miss Gay Austin. Congrats to all! Charlie's celebrates the Fourth of July today with a free buffet from 5-8 p.m. and male dancers from 6-9 p.m. Sunday Showtime this week boasts special emcee Danyelle Winters and guests Kelly Kline and Janae St. James. The Wet Underwear Contest continues at 11:30 p.m. Monday. The United Court of Austin's benefit show, "Found: A Miracle," raised $485 on June 25....

Midtowne Spa-Austin is ready for a Fab Fourth today with free strawberry daiquiris on the patio from 4-8 p.m. and lots more surprises. Jame Perry hosts another Bare Buns Contest at 10 tonight, and also emcees the weekly Male Dancer Contest at 9 p.m. Mondays. Between the sundeck, the gym, the wide-screen TV and the latest in adult male erotica 24 hours a day, Midtowne has really caught on in the Capital City....

Deejay Roland [above] will be spinning scintillating sounds as The Forum celebrates the Fourth in a booming way today; seats on the roof are first-come, first-serve to see the city's fireworks shows. Michael Tank and Danny Cardiel also will be packing the dance floors with their music this weekend. The lower floor of The Forum will be closed for remodeling July 7-10, but the partying will continue on the roof every day. And get ready for the huge Reopening Party next weekend....

The fun continues to build at Sister's Edge, Austin's new Ladies' Bar. The United Court of Austin cooks on the patio from 4-8 p.m. every Saturday to benefit the Breast Cancer Research Center and Pediatric AIDS League. Wait'll you see what else is coming....

The Edge held a great party to celebrate manager Michael T.'s [above] birthday on June 24, and the evening's karaoke talents were some of the best we've ever seen anywhere! The star was late, of course, but we loved her hat! This Sunday, July 6, Boyd Vance and friends will be back to give a CEACO benefit show at 10 p.m. Louria and Mac sing your favorite songs from 8-11 p.m. Thursdays, and the happy hour goes all day on Sundays, Mondays and Tuesdays. Don't forget the Male Strip-Off Contest at 10 p.m. Mondays....

Over at Rainbow Cattle Company, they're celebrating the Fourth in a big way with another Boots & Boxers Night this evening, including a contest at 1 a.m. Helen has stepped in to teach the Monday Night Dance Lessons at 9 p.m. while Colton recuperates; get well soon, guy! Margie's Grilled Steak and Chicken Night makes Thursdays special. And don't forget TGRA's big show coming July 20....

Speaking of the Cap City Riders, this weekend is their Mirage VII "Hang 10" tenth anniversary party. It's $50 to participate, and the busy schedule includes: Friday, registration from 11 a.m.-noon, trip to Austin Tavern Guild's Fourth Picnic at Waterloo Park, Midtowne Spa sojourn 3-6 p.m., bar tour in the evening originating at Chain Drive, more cocktail parties; Saturday, 8 a.m. bus leaves for Recreation Plantation, back to Austin late afternoon, banquet 7-9 p.m. at Carrusso's, more cocktail parties; and Sunday, noon meeting at Chain Drive for brunch, awards and farewells. For more info or to register, call (512)326-2595....

Back bartender Ferdinand [above] always knows how to cheer us up at the Chain Drive. Our favorite leather bar has TGRA cooking on the patio from 4-9 p.m. this Sunday; last week's MamaBurgers were done perfectly by the Capital City Riders. Happy Hour lasts from 2-11 p.m. Fridays. The next Full Moon Contest is July 20....

Mona Lee [above, r] was one of the star performers as 'Bout Time and Mr. TGRA '98 candidate Wayne Marion held the "Hot Summer Nights" show last Saturday. The talented boys and girls raised $190 for charities. It's going to be a normal weekend this Fourth of July holiday at the neighborhood bar up north, which means lots of volleyball and hamburgers on Sunday and lots more surprises. Be sure and drop by Tuesdays, when there are drawings for prizes throughout the night. Wednesday's pool tournament is also hot!...

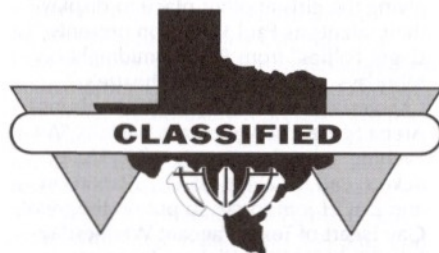

FOOT-LONG NOTEPAD: Top of the Marc, over Katz's Deli at 618 W. 6th St., is giving the girls another place to display their talents as Paul Parkinson presents "La Cage! Follies" from 8 p.m.-midnight on Mondays.... Zachary Scott Theatre's Z Cabaret at ZACH's John R. Whisenhunt Arena Stage also welcomes back its "An Evening at La Cage" on July 11-13; for tickets, call (512)476-0541.... Parkinson and ZACH join forces to put on the Miss Gay Heart of Texas Pageant Wednesday, July 23, at ZACH's Kleberg Stage at Riverside and S. Lamar.... Alternative Clubs, Inc. is having a huge pool party at 8 p.m. Saturday, featuring live music, drag performers, male dancers and more; it's free for all club members.... Blue Flamingo is throwing a birthday party for the legendary Bill Bronson from 4 p.m.-2 a.m. this Sunday, July 6; bring a covered dish, and all his friends are welcome.... Gothic fans can satisfy their tastes at the Independence Day Blowout from 9 p.m. to dawn today (Friday) at Atomic Cafe, 7th and Red River; the fun will include Erotic Fetish, shadow and cage dancers and a torture garden!

TARRANT TEA — Fort Worth's legendary 651 Club heats up your 4th of July with a $5 all-you-can-eat fish fry, sponsored by Jim Beam, from 2-8 p.m. tomorrow on their new patio. Get ready for some very special appearances by the casts of touring productions direct from Broadway, courtesy of Casa Mañana Theatre....

Fort Worth JazzFest '97 at 619 Hemphill, the Corral Club's "north forty," starts at 1 p.m. tomorrow, Saturday, July 5, and runs until 9 p.m. The event features Dwayne Washington and Faces, Darts with Renee Ringler, B# Trio, Chris White and Joey Carter with Pam Pride, Nick Kithas and The Barnabus Smith Trio. Get your tickets tonight at the Corral for $5 or at the gate tomorrow for $7. They've got lots of food, friends, fun, booths and some special giveaways, too. Enjoy the weather and some hot jazz music this weekend....

Arlington 651 has a red-hot celebration in store for you this weekend as they complete 16 years in business and kick off their 17th year of service to the community with parties each night all weekend long. Join Stella Welfelt, Arlington's "First Lady of Political Incorrectness," for their red, white and blue celebrations at Arlington's number one party bar.

MODELS / ESCORTS

TWT POLICY

Because prostitution is illegal in Texas, state law prohibits the placement in this category of any such ads. Therefore, TWT policy stipulates that we will not and cannot knowingly accept any advertisements suggesting solicitation. It's the law. Also, state law prohibits non-licensed massage therapists from using terms such as "massage," "Swedish," "acupressure," "Shiatsu," "reflexology," "body rub," "back rub," "body massage" or any term which indicates bodily contact.

OBITUARIES

Donnie Keith Allsbrooks
Donnie Allsbrooks, 39, of Houston, slipped away from his earthly body to join his father above on the evening of June 24, 1997.

Donnie was an avid admirer of art and lover of people, animals, plants, food and trips to Las Vegas. He never met a stranger and always made everyone around him laugh.

All of the friends and acquaintances he made in his life will miss him dearly. He was one of a kind.

We love you and miss you
William, Punkin and Precious

Dr. Randall Segal
Dec. 18, 1954 - May 30, 1997

Randy was more than my psychiatrist, he was my mentor in the gay world, he was my therapist who knew all my quirks and personality traits. But most of all, he was my friend, a friend I could depend on at any given time.

"You will be missed more than you will ever know! I still find it hard to believe you are gone. I can only hope that God is taking excellent care of you now. You truly deserve a mansion in heaven.

"You were my first love in the process of coming out. I always will love you and think of you often.

"When my time comes, I look forward to seeing you there with open arms.

"Good-bye, my dear friend. You will always be remembered. We went through so much together. How could I ever not have loved and cared about you? Guess it is time to go. But Godspeed you on your journey.

"Good-bye for now, 'cause I know we will meet again!"

Love
Micheal Stone
June 26, 1997

Charles Hight

Born July 18, 1951, Homing, Oklahoma, Charles went to his heavenly reward June 6, 1997 at age 45. He died at Children's Medical Center, burn unit, from a tragic gas leak explosion at his residence just before dawn on June 4.

He was active in the Oak Lawn Community in Dallas and was an eight-year employee of Centex Corporation. A memorial service was held June 24 in the courtyard of the company. He will be sadly missed by his family and relatives in Oklahoma as well as his many close and dear friends at Crews Inn and Zippers in Dallas.

In Loving Memory:
David Keith Staggs
July 8, 1996
