REVIEWED BY GARY LAIRD

So here's the story so far, boys and girls: A beautiful but lonely young girl, held in bondage to her ugly stepmother and even uglier stepsisters, wishes to go to the ball, where she dazzles everyone and the handsome prince falls in love with her and they live happily ever after. Moral: Good triumphs over evil. Neat.

Now the whole wonderful story is brought to the Wortham stage by the Houston Ballet, as choreographed by Ben Stevenson, and it's everything you could wish for. Lavish costumes, grand settings, fairies and godmothers and princes and...oh, c'mon, guys. It's our story, for cryin' out loud. And the ballet does it proud.

The story opens with Cinderella (Barbara Bears) being tormented by her step-sisters, danced on opening night by Timothy O'Keefe and Dorio Perez. Just think of all four Marx brothers turned loose on a stage in ballet drag, with Perez as Harpo, and you'll get the picture. This pair steals every scene they are in, and the audience loves it. As they busy themselves with their dressmakers, a dancing master is called for (a very prissy Phillip Broomhead in knee britches and a Glenn Close wig) who makes a sidesplitting attempt to teach the stepsisters to dance. Enter an ugly old crone, who transforms herself into the beautiful Fairy Godmother (Tiekka Schofield) — there's a lesson here about judging by appearances, perhaps apropos, but far be it from me to belabor it — and treats Cinderella to one of those magic spectacles that is a ballet convention, entertaining the principal character with a little ballet within a ballet. This one is a dance of the seasons, with fairies representing Spring (Dawn Scannell), Summer (Susan Cummins), Autumn (Lauren Anderson) and Winter (Sally Rojas) dressed appropriately as the seasons change. Anderson does a fiery turn as the Autumn Fairy, brilliant as always. She will dance the part of Cinderella for this Saturday's performance. This is the first time she will dance the part, and the prospect is exciting.

Her impromptu entertainment over, the Fairy Godmother sends Cinderella off to the ball in a splendid coach and four. (Yes, a real coach.) The staging throughout is marvelous, with effects seldom achieved on the stage. Nothing has been left out.

At the palace, the ball commences with a splendidly costumed court being entertained by the Jester, danced with a sexy bravado by Domonic Walsh. As the music swells and the dancers waltz, the Prince (Carlos Acosta) appears. Dressed in shimmering white, Acosta is every inch the Prince, and you can begin to appreciate the lengths a girl could go to. The stepsisters pounce, vying with one another to dance with the Prince, when Cinderella makes her entrance. Let's face it, Cinder-

ella's entrance is the one we try for all our lives, and for the fortunate few who attain it, well...we hate them! But somehow we love Cindy, and cheer as she takes center stage. And Barbara Bears does take center stage. A tiny figure in white on the immense ballroom set, she stops everything as she enters, and the moment when the Prince sees her for the first time is a magic one.

Well, you know what happens next. But it's not what happens, it's how wonderfully it's presented that counts. And the Houston Ballet spares no effort in bringing us a splendidly enjoyable presentation of this classy classic, so dust off that pumpkin, round up those mice, get out those glad rags and make an entrance of your own.

Cinderella is being presented through this Sunday, Sept. 28, at Brown Theater in the Wortham Theater Center, with performances this evening and Saturday, Sept. 26 and 27, at 7:30 p.m. and 2 p.m. matinees Saturday and Sunday. For tickets or more information, call (713)227-ARTS.

Sex Toys of the Gods, The Bear Book and More Tales of the City

Welcome back to GAYMEDIA, where we'll start with some exciting news we're sure you'll be glad to hear.

Filming has begun in Montreal on a sequel to Armistead Maupin's Tales of the City, the first installment of which was originally broadcast on PBS. And yes, Olympia Dukakis will reprise her role as Anna Madrigal (can you imagine anyone else playing her now?). Also back will be Laura Linney as Mary Ann Singleton, Thomas Gibson as Beauchamp Day and Barbara Garrick as DeDe Halcyon Day. William Campbell is also part of the cast as well (as Dr. Jon Fielding). Sad to say that the original actors who portrayed Michael ("Mouse"), Mona and the straight character Brian will not be in this second installment, which should air on cable in the summer of 1998. As you recall, PBS backed out of their commitment to film this second part of Maupin's six-part epic after pressure from the far right. Never mind that the original filmed adaptation garnered a Peabody Award. Jerry Offsay, president for programming for Showtime, said the film will be "bold and honest and uncensored." But if you can't wait for the next part in this incredible slice of gay life in San Francisco back in the '70s, that first PBS miniseries is available on video at gay video shops and more liberal-minded mainstream ones....

Another film of interest to gays and lesbians that's also been adapted from a book (this one nonfiction) is due out this Christmas, with Clint Eastwood, of all people, directing and starring. Eastwood reportedly fell in love with John Berendt's Midnight in the Garden of Good and Evil, which, after over 133 weeks, is still on bestseller lists and due out in paperback this fall. The book, which reads like a mystery novel, deals with the events surrounding a murder that occurred in Savannah, Georgia in 1981. The characterizations, based on those real people in that small Southern town, are rich in detail as is the description of the city of Savannah itself. The cast of characters includes a New York magazine writer coming to Savannah on holiday, a male hustler, a ne'er-do-well who moves into vacant houses, a close-to-crazy man who keeps flies on strings, a voodoo witch and a real-life drag queen, Chablis, who also has an autobiography (Hiding My Candy) out now on the newsstands. Besides Chablis, who will play herself in the film, there are other gay characters in the novel (and, of course, the film) who play pivotal roles, but we can't really say who's who without giving away part of the story. You'll just have to read the book (which was a real page turner) and see the movie for yourself. We can't wait!...

Be sure not to miss director Gregg Araki's (The Living End, Doom Genera- tion, Totally Fed Up) latest movie, No where, in which, as you'd expect, gay themes abound. The film, which looks teen angst and the lead character's sexual confusion, features the star of Araki's last movie (Doom Generation), James Duval. You can catch this one in some Texas cities in "arthouse" theatres....

Also of note and playing in some movie houses is the independent effort Star Maps, which depicts a young Latino's struggle to break into acting while dealing with his incredibly dysfunctional family (his father prostitutes him on the streets of L.A.). And Kiss Me Guido has been a hit almost from day one (albeit mostly in "art-house" theaters as well), as has the just-released In & Out. It's encouraging to see so many excellent gay and gay-themed movies emerging....

To no one's surprise, ABC is working up a TV movie about alleged spree killer Andrew Cunanan, while the owner of the houseboat Cunanan lay low in, Frank Mathias Ruehl, has turned the boat over to an Italian documentary producer who also plans to make a film about Cunanan....

On the book scene, Christian McLaughlin, author of the highly successful novel Glamourpuss (which won rave reviews), follows up with Sex Toys of the Gods in October. Described as a "fast-paced, over-the-top...skewering of the world of Hollywood," the book should be a fun read, with characters pursuing fame, fortune and sex — all topics of interest to most of us!...

And for those who aren't afraid of bears in the woods, a new book of essays has just been published for everyone who loves "bears," a part of the gay male subculture that has really come into its own of late. The Bear Book brings together both scholarly and lay treatments on the subject, dealing with the history of the rise of this part of gay life and discussions about bears in Europe and the rest of the world. For those who want even more on the subject, Bear Magazine would be a great place to turn....

Another magazine that's already fun to read should become even better when the five-year-old Advocate Classifieds evolves into Unzipped, a much more adult publication which will include more dish on porn stars, interviews and video reviews. Of course, those famous classifieds, which showcase everything from 900 numbers to just about every type of male escort, will still be a major part of the magazine....

One of the books we've come to rely on when we travel is Damron's Road Atlas, and we're glad to report that the sixth edition has just arrived in bookstores. With over 150 easy-to-read full-color maps of cities in North America and Europe, it's an indispensable guide if you're a stranger in a strange land. Besides those maps, this volume includes over 6,000 listings of gay and lesbian bars, bookstores, gift shops, restaurants and lodgings as well as gay help organizations....

Also on video is the uneven HBO film In the Gloaming, which stars Glenn Close and tells the story of a woman whose son (Robert Sean Leonard) has AIDS and has come home to live out his last days. The movie also features Whoopi Goldberg and Bridget Fonda, with Christopher Reeve doing director's duties. Another notable production out on video is Lest We Forget, a new documentary about the display of the entire AIDS Memorial Quilt in Washington, D.C. in October 1996. This one uses interviews with friends, lovers and families of those lost to the disease to tell the story of the names on the Quilt. Lest We Forget was produced by the national NAMES Project and may be hard to find in local video stores. It's raining men!...again. This time with a new twist, the legendary Martha Wash hit gets the once-over with a dazzling remake of the song sung by Martha along with RuPaul. The video was just filmed last Saturday and promises to be superb, as the H-Gun Labs Production Company worked the shoot. H-Gun has made giant waves in the multimedia world with their video productions for Nine Inch Nails, Smashing Pumpkins, De La Soul, Josh Wink and Soundgarden, to name a few. "It's Raining Men" will be the first single released from Martha's January '98 LP release on Logic/BMG, Martha Wash: the Collection. The 12-inch and CD single will feature remixes from the likes of Danny Tenaglia and Chi-town's Teri Bristol....

Island Records has announced the release of Amazing Grace, a compilation album featuring a unique group of artists from around the world including Angeliqe Kidjo, Bob Marley, Melissa Etheridge and P.M. Dawn. These artists have donated their songs to this project so that the profits from its sales will be distributed to the T.J. Martell Foundation, the Multiple Myeloma Fund at the Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center and other cancer research centers. While tracks on the album are diverse, they all share an atmospheric and spiritual quality — these songs are of hope and strength. This project is bookended by two distinct versions of the traditional title cut as performed by independent folk sensation Ani DiFranco and Daniel Lanois. Amazing Grace hits the shelves this coming Tuesday....

With all that out of the way, let's get to our favorite subject...boys. Grab a copy of Miami's Rio Boyz. Besides being absolutely gorgeous, their latest single, a turbo-charged version of the international smash "Tic, Tic, Tac," has been exploding quite nicely. With their fab looks, clever choreography and strong commercial appeal, Joey, Mick and Josh are destined to be one of the biggest crossover teen idol groups in the Latin and Anglo market, as their bilingual angle creates greater accessibility. "Tic, Tic, Tac" was put together by well-known producer/remixer Adam, who's had several remixes including "Children of the Night" and "Más Suave" by Dogma & The Afro-Cuban Rhythms as well as "Noche de Fiesta" by El General....

grab a copy of the Usher CD My Way. You need only know that this is a Babyface project and you'll know what to expect. My Way exudes pure pop/R&B brilliance, and the lead track for the LP, "You Make Me Wanna..." is already all over the radio. The album is filled with funky grooves, flawless hooks and infectious melodies that will thrill even the occasional R&B listener. From his grinding bumpers ("Just Like Me," "My Way" and "Come Back") to his romantic ballads ("Nice and Slow," "I Will" and "Bedtime"), Usher truly gives you your coin's worth. One of the highlights of the album is "Slow Jam," which features the total bomb duet with Monica — especially flawless! This is the sort of record you just can't miss out on, so run out and grab it today! It's a perfect fall sort of thing. And will you look at him?! He's so fine! (Doo lang, doo lang, doo laaang!)

And that's dance music THIS WEEK IN TEXAS.

Sin Fronteras A Beautiful Experience

Dear TWT:

Sunday, Sept. 14, was the last day for Sin Fronteras radio, Dallas' first gay Latino radio program.

So I wish to take this opportunity to say gracias to all those in the Dallas/Fort Worth metroplex who made Sin Fronteras a complete success. A big thank-you to THIS WEEK IN TEXAS for listing me often in their "Current Events" section, and thank you to the Dallas Voice for trading ads with me in their weekly newspaper. Thanks to all the listeners who gave money during pledge time, and thanks to everyone who attended a Sin Fronteras KNON benefit too. Without all your help, Sin Fronteras could not have continued for so long. Thank you all for the wonderful experiences I had with the radio show and the often wonderful opportunities to represent Dallas' gay Latino community.

With your support, I was able to turn Sin Fronteras, a bleep on the Dallas radio dial, into a voice that was well known and respected not only at home but across the U.S.A. and Mexico. Sin Fronteras opened doors and provided me access to people and events I normally would not have had; it was grand!

It was a beautiful experience until the very end, but it was time to move on after voluntarily doing the radio show for four years. I like to travel often and found having to be in the studio every Sunday restraining.

What next? Expect the Sin Fronteras name to help raise money and awareness for gay and lesbian Latino issues since I am taking the name with me. Also be watching for the opening of Dallas' first gay Latino-owned alternative art space called "ArteNativo," which I will open this Saturday, Sept. 27, with "DaVideo Diary: A Social Calendar of Gay Culture," an installation of video and video prints by David Bacon, and also featuring color serigraphs and murals by Rosemary Meza and Steve Cruz.

Hispanic Heritage Month is Sept. 15-Oct. 15, so remember the gay and lesbian Latino contributions to our community during this period....

And to those regular listeners out there, remember, "¡que les mando un besito allá donde te guste más!" This has been Jesús Cháirez with Sin Fronteras radio closing out. And until the next time, suerte, baby.

'Under the Big Top' An Overwhelming Success

Dear TWT:

Miss Camp America Foundation, Inc. hosted the 29th Annual Miss Camp America Pageant, "Under the Big Top," Saturday, Sept. 13, marking the end of the foundation's 1997 fund-raising campaign.

Thanks to overwhelming support from the Houston community once again, this year's pageant was an overwhelming success. As a result of fund-raising efforts throughout the year up to and including the pageant, the foundation was able to raise $80,000, which was distributed among its beneficiaries as follows: $32,000, Bering Dental Clinic; $17,600, The Assistance Fund; $14,400, People with AIDS Coalition/Houston; $8,000, Montrose Clinic/Frost Eye Clinic; and $8,000, Colt 45's Trouble Fund.

This brings the total amount of funds awarded since 1992 to nearly $290,000. The foundation extends its heartfelt thanks and gratitude to its supporters, Shell Oil Company and SKYY Vodka, for helping ensure the success of this year's fund-

Dear TWT:

Congratulations to the cast and crew of Miss Camp America for their stellar performance at the 29th annual pageant! The production was unparalleled! MCA truly produced their finest with this show.

Equal to their outstanding performance is the amazing total of their fund-raising efforts. The $80,000-plus their efforts netted is testimony to their unwavering devotion to this community, both on stage and off stage. Hearts As Big As Texas

Dear TWT:

On Sunday, Sept. 7, I was thrilled to be holding my Second Annual Birthday Bash Benefiting the Jan Barton AIDS Assistance Fund, which is an organization I truly believe in wholeheartedly. The total so far has reached $3,040. The turnout of entertainers and of people who care was overwhelming.

There are so many people I wish to thank for helping me make this show a success. First, to Jan Barton, I love you for being you. I know we both strive for the day when we won't have to do benefits or fund-raisers for AIDS or any other type of disease, but until that day comes, we'll both do all we can. To Gary Monier, Vance Gillian, David Moore and fellow co-workers at Crews Inn and Zippers, I truly appreciate all you did, from passing out invitations to making the food to — let's be honest — putting up with me. Love you. Mean it.

To Sheri Powers and Patti Le Plae Safe, along with Mark Manning, a job well done on emceeing. (By the way, Sheri, the Grand Mariner cake was absolutely fabulous.) To all the entertainers, thank you so much for your time and energy. Special thanks go out to Chili's, Uptown Bloom, Denny's, Lowell Hampton, Bill, Re-Mark and Michael Wilhelm.

But none of this could be possible if it weren't for the community, with hearts as big as Texas, who are willing to help out when there is a need.

Dear TWT:

On behalf of the Board of Directors and our clients, I want to publicly thank the Miss Camp America Foundation for their generous contribution to The Assistance Fund. This year, as usual, the members of the Miss Camp America Foundation, Inc. donned their wigs, feather boas, sequins and false eyelashes as they donated over $80,000 to local HIV service providers. Their very generous gift of $17,600 will help The Assistance Fund to guarantee continuity of medical care to our clients.

Although every month should include National Coming Out celebrations, only October carries the official holiday. That being the case, let's not waste any time dallying in our rancid closets. Beginning this week, let's release all of our gremlins; Saturn provides us with the courage, Jupiter the glory, Mars the oomph and Pluto the transformation.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23) Are you sharing your toys with partners? Saturn continues to provide a few lessons in the importance of give and take. (Give more, take less!) Make a fairly compelling case for whatever you want this month when Mars and Pluto crown you the great gay orator. Why not make the case for all of us? Take it to the streets and storm the barricades!

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22) Scorps will be tickled pink this October. Not only do Jupiter and Uranus turn up the volume on any jolly gay time, but a cluster of planets happily shine on any fiscal endeavor. Use your scorpion ingenuity to plot and plan your financial success. Spice it all up with relaxing pastimes. Fun and money too? Sometimes life just ain't fair!

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22) While it's hard to drum up any enthusiasm for an old favorite sideline, gay Archers can implement new plans and dreams this all-out October. Maybe you're too fixated on what's old and stale. Maybe it's time to break out and try something new. Use that fabulously big mouth of yours to talk to all and sundry and gather fresh ideas. Speaking of fresh, change the sheets.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20) Gay Goats get back to the basics this October when the major planets demand that you give back to our community in both time and money. We're not asking that you give up all your earthly delights and talk to pigeons, but we do require a certain level of charitable commitment and good gay citizenship. Hey, I'm talking karma here, buddy.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19) You may not mean what you say, but you're charming as heck anyway. Aqueerians must capitalize on their personality this October when chance meetings with strangers provide happy, expansive and surprising results. And don't forget your pals; Pluto and Mars transform and affirm platonic social outlets. Everyone into the maddening swirl!

PISCES (Feb. 20 - March 20) While you have not been known as an empire builder, the planets give you a chance to become Donald (or perhaps Ivana?...). Trump for the month. Saturn gives you a worn but wise attitude about money and Pluto tears down and then rebuilds long-term goals and outer success. Remember to institute partnership benefits after you throw the sharks out.

ARIES (March 21 - April 20) The planets provide all queer Rams with outer-directed energy this October. The secret to your success lies in stern old Saturn, which seems to diminish your self-confidence but, in fact, provides you with incredible strength and fortitude. As they say in Noo Yawk, "Don't take nuttin' frum nobody"; show the world what pride is all about. Try showing it in black leather chaps.

TAURUS (April 21 - May 21) There's a tiger in your tank this October when both aggressive Mars and volcanic Pluto stoke the flames of passion in your chart. Some proud Bulls may charge through china shops in their lusty quest for affirmation and the need to make up for lost time. Good thing, too, cousin; sometimes you have to break a few plates to get yourself served.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21) Geminis yearn for connection and are one of the most sociable signs of the zodiac. Now in October, queer Twins seek soulmates with a vengeance and strive for transforming connections. Venus provides the extra spark after the 9th if you've found the right match. Platonic relationships go only so far; Saturn demands more than a warm handshake, but use a glove.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23) October allows a breath of fresh air to waft through your relationship with your family and it's about time! Use this planetary transit to your greatest advantage, friend; proudly say what needs to be said and do what needs to be done. Saturn throws a few curveballs in your career, but that's just the way the planets remind you that even your career needs some attention now and then.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23) Happy surprises are in store for all proud Lions who recognize the value of a strong and committed partnership. That means, of course, that you can't always have your way or be the center of attention all the time, try though you will. Travel plans do not unfold as smoothly as expected, but Saturn provides a little lesson in every squalid corner of the world.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23) Any restrictions placed on your ability to come out to family shatter with a vengeance in open and out October. Both Pluto and Mars demand a revolution in no uncertain terms. Good; I hate oppressive power structures. Queer Virgos often try to please everyone else and, in the process, compromise themselves. Turn over a new leaf, cousin; there's a gem underneath.

AIDS LIFEWALK TO RAISE FUNDS FOR DALLAS-AREA SERVICE AGENCIES

OLCS' Annual Walkathon Set for Sunday, Oct. 5.

DALLAS — Thanks to corporate support, the commitment of team captains and participation of thousands of area walkers, Oak Lawn Community Services' annual AIDS LifeWalk 5K walkathon has become Texas' largest annual AIDS fund-raising event. In the seven years since it was established, the walk has raised some $2.2 million to support the programs of OLCS and other AIDS service agencies in Dallas.

This year's event will be held on Sunday, Oct. 5, at Lee Park (Lemmon Ave. and Turtle Creek). Team/walker check-in runs from 11 a.m.-1 p.m., with opening ceremonies at noon. The walk itself begins at 1 p.m. and returns to Lee Park for an afternoon of fun, entertainment and food. Last year's walk raised more than $600,000 and attracted 7,000 walkers and 800 volunteer teams. Organizers hope to bring in some $670,000 this year.

"AIDS LifeWalk has made a dramatic impact in the lives of people affected by HIV/AIDS because of legions of volunteers, team captains and walkers who contribute their time and resources to help those living with AIDS," said Kathy Hewitt, 1997 Co-chair. "We're proud AIDS LifeWalk has grown into such a successful and fun event for individuals, friends and families. We especially want to thank all the groups of friends, churches, organizations, schools and area businesses for their continued support. To show our appreciation, we have a great lineup of celebrities, entertainment, plus food and drinks after the walk to make this event fun for everyone, yet meaningful."

Dallas First Lady Matrice Ellis-Kirk and WFAA-TV anchor John McCaa are serving as AIDS LifeWalk's honorary co-chairs for 1997. Hewitt and Steve Habgood are the event's co-chairs. Hewitt, a vice president of Uptown Realtors, is a board member of the Greater Dallas Association of Realtors and serves on the D/FW Black Tie Dinner Committee. Habgood, principal of Source-One Marketing, is chairman of the Dallas chapter of the American Cancer Society and also serves on the Black Tie Dinner Committee.

In addition to OLCS, other agency beneficiaries for this year's LifeWalk are AIDS Arms, AIDS Services of North Texas, Bryan's House, Dallas Legal Hospice, IMMUNocise, Project Esperanza and White Rock Friends HIV/AIDS Ministry.

Sponsors of AIDS LifeWalk '97 include Miller Beer of Dallas, American Airlines, American Express, Armani Exchange, Bank of America, Caven Enterprises, the Dallas Morning News, Dallas World Aquarium, Daryl's by Design, Kroger, Lockheed Martin, Munsch Hardt, 94.5 FM "The Edge," SABRE Travel Information Network, Texas Instruments and

For more information about AIDS LifeWalk, call (214)443-WALK.

Established in 1981, Oak Lawn Community Services is a nonprofit organization providing a wide range of physical and mental health services for thousands of people in North Texas infected with or affected by AIDS, including transportation; a gay and lesbian info line; prescription pick-up; the Daire Center, an adult activity program; the Buddy Project support group for people with HIV; and the Candy Marcum Institute for Women's Studies.

AIDS HOSPICE IN CORPUS CHRISTI LOSES MOST FEDERAL AND STATE FUNDING, MAY HAVE TO CLOSE

*New Treatments Justified
Slashing Grants to The Passage, Local Service Consortium Says.*

CORPUS CHRISTI — A drastic reduction in its funding may mean that a local residential facility for people in the last stages of AIDS will be forced to close its doors before too long. The decision came at a meeting held Sept. 11 by the Bay Area Consortium on HIV/AIDS on how to parcel out $570,000 in state and federal funds.

The Passage, which last year received around $180,000 in grants, will get less than one-sixth as much — or $27,700 — this year. Officials at the hospice, which has served over 100 people since 1991, said the grants have made up around two-thirds of the facility's annual operating budget, and that such a drastic cut will make it very difficult for the facility to carry on.

"We cannot run our business on $27,700," Holly Hendricks, Executive Director of The Passage, said in an interview published in the Corpus Christi Caller-Times Sept. 12.

Officials with the Bay Area Consortium on HIV/AIDS have tried to justify their decision to slash The Passage's funding and put the money to other uses — like purchasing more medications — by pointing to the development of new HIV treatments that are enabling many people to live longer with the disease. They have also insisted that the need for hospice services will be taken up by hospitals and other agencies in the Corpus Christi area.

But Passage officials and others have countered that such a move will prove shortsighted in the long run because there is as yet no cure for AIDS and there will continue to be a great need for such facilities.

The consortium is composed of community volunteers and representatives from agencies providing AIDS-related services.

The majority of the funding — about $463,000 — divided up at the Sept. 11 meeting went to the Coastal Bend AIDS Foundation, for services like ambulatory/outpatient medical care, case management, home health care, medications, counseling, day or respite care and transportation assistance.

HOUSTON POLICE CHIEF, COUNCILMAN TO ADDRESS MEETING OF HOUSTON CAUCUS

*Bradford, Boney and Members of Political Group to Discuss Issues
Of Interest to Gay Community.*

Police Chief Clarence Bradford will speak at the Oct. 1 meeting of the Houston Gay & Lesbian Political Caucus.

HOUSTON — Police Chief Clarence Bradford and District D City Councilman Jew Don Boney will address the Houston Gay & Lesbian Political Caucus at the group's next meeting, on Wednesday, Oct. 1, at 7 p.m. The meeting will be held at the Lovett Inn, 501 Lovett Blvd.

HGLPC, the oldest gay civil rights organization in the South, works to advance its cause by lobbying officials at several levels. Its sister organization, the HGLPC

PAC, endorses for political office.

"Chief Bradford and Councilmember Boney want to hear from our membership and the community at large about issues of concern to the gay and lesbian community," Caucus President Lane Lewis said in a statement the group issued Tuesday. "We appreciate their commitment to being accessible in this way."

"The Chief came to speak to us a few months ago and, of course, Councilmember Boney has attended several Caucus meetings and functions over the past few years," Caucus Board Chair Clarence Bagby said. "We're happy to facilitate this type of open dialogue between members of the community and these officials; we consider this part of our organization's message."

Lewis serves as the HGLPC representative on the Houston Police Citizens Review Board, a position previously held by Annise Parker, a former Caucus president and board chair who is running at-large Position 1 on Houston City Council.

Complimentary wine, coffee and soft drinks will be served beginning at 7 p.m., with the meeting itself starting at 7:30. The general public is invited. For more information about HGLPC, call (713)521-1000.

NOTED AUTHOR EDMUND WHITE STOPS IN TEXAS ON TOUR FOR LATEST NOVEL

Will Sign Copies of 'The Farewell Symphony' in Austin, Dallas and Houston Next Week.

TEXAS — The author Edmund White, who has won widespread acclaim for his contributions to literature both in and outside of gay circles, makes stops in Texas next week while on a promotional tour for his latest novel. White will sign copies of The Farewell Symphony in Dallas, Houston and Austin.

The Farewell Symphony takes the reader from the early, fragile optimism of the Stonewall riots through the heady blossoming of gay life in the 1970s and early 1980s and then into the disaster of AIDS. "Never had a group been placed on such a rapid cycle — oppressed in the 1950s, freed in the 1960s, exalted in the 1970s and wiped out in the 1980s," the novel's narrator observes of the course of gay history over the past several decades.

The Farewell Symphony completes the trilogy that White began with A Boy's Own Story in 1983 and followed up with The Beautiful Room Is Empty in 1988. White has characterized the three books as "autobiographical fiction," eschewing the concept of the memoir. The title of the latest book is taken from the composer Franz Joseph Haydn's Farewell Symphony, in which the musicians leave the stage one by one.

White has been criticized by other writers like Larry Kramer for the fact that many of the male characters in The Farewell Symphony are preoccupied with sex. (Indeed, the narrator of the book claims to have slept with over 3,000 men.) "My novel is primarily a realistic account of what gay male life was like in a big city after gay liberation and before AIDS," White countered in a recent interview. "Anyone who was honest would admit that promiscuity was rampant at that period — as is well demonstrated by Larry Kramer's 1978 novel Faggots." And far from being simply the sum of their sex drives, White's characters pursue a range of rarefied aesthetic interests as well.

In addition to A Boy's Own Story and The Beautiful Room Is Empty, White's works include Forgetting Elena, Nocturnes for the King of Naples, States of Desire: Travels in Gay America and Caracole. He also co-wrote The Joy of Gay Sex in 1977 with Dr. Charles Silverstein. HOUSTON TEA

— Here he is, Miss Camp America! Yes, Ted Roundtree [right] is the new reigning queen. It'll be so nice to see Jessica Flame back in action. From sideshow freaks to concession stand treats, MCAF's "Under The Big Top" circus extravaganza was more fun than a barrel of monkeys. Or maybe just Faye Raye in a monkey suit? During the ceremonies, checks totaling $80,000 were distributed to the Bering Dental Clinic, The Assistance Fund, PWA Coalition, the Frost Eye Clinic and the Colt 45's AIDS Trouble Fund. Special thanks go out to the more than 1400 people who attended the show and to sponsors Shell Oil and Skyy Spirits for making this year's event a phenomenal success. For a look at the showstopping highlights, turn to page 59....

Over at the Midtowne Spa, we focused in on Flex, David Richardson, J.T. Stone, Ova Ewe, Jeffrey and Gimme Pilsen-Licher [above, l-r]. They were just some of the fantastic performers who were on hand to help celebrate the facility's twenty-first anniversary. Tonight, grab your chaps and spurs and head over to the Midtowne for "Round-Up!," a benefit for the Texas Gay Rodeo Association hosted by J.T. Stone and Barbara Velour. the divas in the show, we found Jackie O'Dare, Shirley Harwood, Gene Brake, Gregg East and Alix Courtne (below, l-r).

evening. The Eagle Mountain Saloon has announced their fall lineup of drink prices and it's certainly worthwhile checking them out. Look for the club's ad in this issue for all of the details. A benefit show was held last Sunday to help out Krissie's Kids and close to $400 was raised. The owners and staff want to thank everyone in the community who gave of their time and money and made this possible with their generous support. The calendar of events and parties for the next four to six weeks has something to please everyone. Check with your favorite management staffer for all the details. Stop by and say hello to their new door person, Allen, who'll be there to greet you every Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Don't forget the football games every Sunday and Monday. They've got it all going on right there at EMS. Get on over and get in on the action tonight!...

The Annex continues to pack the house inside and out on the patio, too. With friendly staffers like Ab, Ken, Phillip and the Dart League serving up your favorite cocktails, how can you miss out on the fun? They've got some scrumptious munchies every Sunday starting at 6 p.m. to help you keep up your strength while you catch the football game. They do it on Mondays, too, and give you their infamous Monday drink special, plus they feature a dart tournament on top of everything else. The staff welcomes new door person Steve — a good man to get to know. He'll be there to greet you and show you all the free lighted parking that's available. There's always something for everyone at the Annex, especially if you're looking for a good time.

AUSTINteaCIOUS — Rainbow Cattle Co. is all the rage these days. Cute cowboys and great country music add up to a fun night. Monday night football is off to a rousing success. The club's barstool queerterbacks...oops...quarterbacks are already running the whole NFL. If you don't know how to dance, come out for dance lessons on Tuesdays. They can show you how to twirl the night away. And don't forget the yummy buffets Margie puts on weekly....

The Forum is always a festive place to party. The weekly costume theme by the bartenders is always a shirtless wonder. We hear a rumor that soon they'll be having harness night...hmmm. These three studs [below] are ready to put theirs on. Say hello to an old friend, Kendall, at happy hour. After all these decades, he can truly serve up a cocktail. Also on Friday, Bob puts out...a buffet, that is — a scrumptious selection of goodies. Ask one of the go-go boys to stir your cocktail; he just might!...

'Bout Time is now open at 7 a.m. every Monday through Saturday. You'll definitely want to be there tonight, Friday, Sept. 26, to wish doorman extraordinaire Marshall a happy birthday. Corey, Pam and the gang will be on hand to help make it a most memorable one indeed. Make your way north to the hottest little spot in town. You'll be glad you did. 'Bout Time is still proving they can play as hard as the rest, and they never stop. From 7 a.m.-2 a.m. there's a crowd. A morning eye-opener, an afternoon quickie, a happy-hour beverage or a late-night cocktail...Corey's staff will keep you satisfied. Last week, the United Court of Austin held another benefit for the Pediatric AIDS League, raising another $800 for the children. Empress Alix Courtney tells us it's an honor to help such a worthy cause. We feel the same way, and on behalf of the children, thank you!...

Once again, Charlie's has outdone themselves. Not only were there 13 incredible studs in the Calendar Boy search on Monday, but the three men selected were beyond compare. Look for them in the upcoming 1998 Charlie's Calendar.

Jame Perry [right, r] got the honor of crowning the fabulous Nacha Type [c] as Miss Charlie's Emeritus, which came as quite a surprise not only to Nacha but also to Michelle Marco [l], as they used one of her crowns. Way to be a team player, girl!

The Friday liquor bust is now also Student Night — bring your college ID and get in for just $2. Jerryburgers are now being served on Sunday afternoons from 4-8. Come on out and sample some beef. This Sunday, Sept. 28, Lauren Taylor welcomes Monique Johnson and Kelly Kline to the show. Then on Oct. 5, former Miss Gay America Lauren Colby will be guest emcee. The Oct. 12 special guest is Celeste Martinez from Dallas. Whitney Paige will be guest emcee on Oct. 19....

Lil' Debi [left] is just one of the friendly faces you'll find over at The Edge. He spins some mean tunes and keeps the party rolling all night long. The fabulous Rob continues to keep the world singing with

Wednesday Karaoke Night. Last week he tried to get a choir started, but we were all too busy smokin' and drinkin' to watch the conductor. We were told that Paula hates to be known as the barmaid, so she can now be the "drink-slingin' woman"; we'll see if that meets with the approval of her happy hour crowd! We're also looking forward to Sunday M3 (men, music and madness) leather nights with deejay Don Engle...a new twist for a crossroads bar....

Sisters Edge was the host last Thursday for Excell magazine, their cameras and music critic Michael Cochran. They were there to hear the talents of Handful, a dynamic band that filled the bar with great rock and R&B tunes. All this over the new sound system by new deejay Jake the Snake — once again bringing live music to a gay bar in Austin. We thank the Austin American Statesman for supporting this alternative venue. Next Thursday, come hear The Jubilettes....

The Blue Flamingo continues to excite us. Studly dancer Ricco [left] moves and grooves for you along with a host of other entertainment. The Sunday Variety Show continues to bring in the crowds; from drag to live singers, they can keep you happy. Come down and say hi to cuties Steve and Phillip behind the bar — yum!...

The guys at Chain Drive are shaking things up. They've acquired the well-lighted parking lot next to I-HOP for those late nights when you want to pop by and see who's up. Manager Michael R. is working on the permits, but rumor has it that no permits are needed for parking there now. The Full Moon contest still makes men howl; last week's winner was hunky Chris, and we were also treated to a special showing of Bruce W.'s moon. Who'll drop their drawers and challenge these guys on Oct. 16? We all hope to be the "man in the moon"!...

DALLAS TEA — A crowd estimated by police at more than 15,000 was on hand last Sunday for the 1997 Alan Ross Texas Freedom Parade [above], making this year's

Moby Dick bartender Marcus Watkins [right] can help you keep cool when the excitement at the club gets to be too much to handle. Wayne Smith hosts a special Showtunes tribute to the Turtle Creek Chorale this Tuesday, Sept. 30. The employees of Moby Dick will welcome the gentlemen from the Turtle Creek Chorale AIDS Fund in a rare personal appearance. Moby will be showing some of the best video clips from past TCC concert appearances and the guys will also be performing a couple of tunes. All donations during their appearance will go to the TCC AIDS Fund. Make it a Moby night tonight....

Bamboleo's welcomes Raven Productions next Friday, Oct. 3, for the Miss Texas State At-Large Pageant starring Cinnamon Sweet and Skyy Lamasters. For more information, call Alberto James at (254)752-3121. Thursdays are always a great night to get to the club with no cover and 2-for-1 drinks from 9 p.m.-midnight. Sunday show nights are packed with party people and their Las Vegas Style Show stars Vanessa, Lucia, Candy and guests. Check it out this weekend....

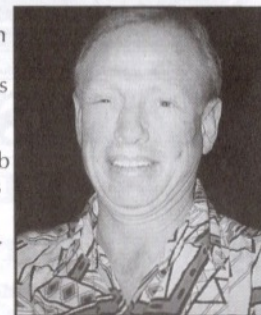

Round Up's giant Texas flag in the parade last Sunday collected over $4,000 for the AIDS Resource Center Food Pantry. In the past ten years they've donated over $50,000 from change tossed into the flag. When they say they're the home of good times and the home of good people, they aren't just bragging, it's a fact. Tom, Gary and the staff always show you the best of times. Stop in and check with bartender Keith Hunt [left] about the club's upcoming events in October. Last Wednesday night's CMA broadcast had everyone glued to the big screen for all of the glitz and glamour. For a little more localized glamour, check out the club on Sunday, Oct. 5, when Patti Le Plae Safe presents the Miss Gay South Pageant, a preliminary to the Miss Gay America Pageant in Charlotte, North Carolina in November. The Texas Gay Rodeo Association presents their annual rodeo in Houston coming up in November also.... Caven Enterprises will be producing their annual Texas/OU Street Party at the 3900 block of Cedar Springs Rd. on Friday, Oct. 10. Thousands of visitors will converge on the Crossroads to welcome the Longhorns and the Sooners with lots of food, fun, beer and music along with Cheer Dallas and athletes from around the country. They've scheduled their annual Halloween Street Party on Saturday, Oct. 25. All of this coming up in October at the Crossroads....

Village Station bartender Jay Dorssett [right] is just one of the reasons the mega-dance club keeps customers coming back again and again. Stop in this weekend and help wish bar-back Jay Blaylock a happy birthday. Jay will be turning another year older on the 29th. Best wishes from HOT TEA. Who needs a reason to celebrate? The Rose Room show cast have got a party going on every Wednesday through Sunday night, when you can catch the top talent in the nation in their exclusive Dallas engagements. Make the Station your destination tonight....

JR's Bar and Grill is bigger and better than ever before. Customers Bill, Laurie, Rich, Stephanie and Kirk [above, l-r] were snapped by the CRUISE CAMERA having a great time. Stop in anytime from 11 a.m. till 2 a.m. Monday through Saturday and starting at noon on Sundays. Valerie Lohr keeps the fun coming at you with her Talent Search night every Tuesday. Tuesday drink specials are the same low prices all day and all night. Give JR's a try tonight....

The Club never closes. They're open seven days a week and 24 hours every day. They've got a lot to offer all of their regular members and the State Fair visitors from across the country who'll be in town for the next month. Get into The Club and find out what they've got going on for you to enjoy....

Midtowne Spa manager Mike Castagne [right] and the staff celebrated their 21st anniversary last weekend. If you missed all the great events, don't panic; they've got a lot to offer you this month, too. The State Fair of Texas starts today and that means lots of out-of-town visitors will be stopping by and checking out the facilities. You should, too....

Kolors hosted the preliminary nights of competition for the 25th annual Miss Gay Texas Pageant this week. Monday nights, catch Kourtney Wells [left] as she emcees their Monday night shows. They've got male dancers during happy hour daily. Stop in this weekend and check it out. Good luck to all the contestants at Miss Gay Texas....

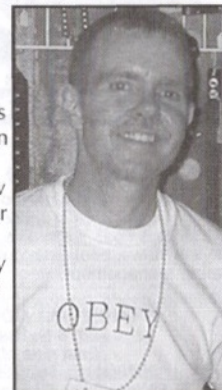

Leather By Boots had everything ready for the throngs of folks in town for the Miss Texas Pageant this week. All the out-of-towners have been stocking up on the great items available from Brock and the crew. You can always find something sensational at Leather By Boots. Check it out....

The Dallas Eagle welcomes the Dallas Bears this Sunday, Sept. 28, as they sponsor the Bear Hunt contest at 8 p.m. Hunt down your favorite bear or be prepared to get hunted down. It really gives the guys on the prowl a great way to find just the right guys in their sights. The Dallas Eagle is always right on target with bringing the men of Dallas what they want. Make your way over to the club on Saturday nights for the hottest after hours till 4 a.m. Monday night features football for your viewing pleasure. Come out and cheer for your favorite team at 8 p.m....

Alternatives of New Fine Arts had a fabulous float in the parade with adult video stars Jake Andrews, Tyson Cane and Travis Wade riding high above the crowds. After the parade, they all converged on the store for photos and autographs. Manager Mark Lock really knows how to give his customers what they want. Stop in and see super sales clerk Linda Little about what they've got for you to enjoy today....

The leather shop at The Brick has a wide variety of items for the manly man in your life. Let Tip Branson [right] show you what he's got for you tonight. They open at 9 p.m. every Friday, Saturday and Sunday. The shop has a little something for everybody....

Crews Inn owner Gary Monier has been under the weather lately. HOT TEA wishes him a speedy recovery. The customers are always ready to party seven nights a week. Our CRUISE CAMERA caught cute customer Robby Burns [left] out at the club recently. Stop in and see what you can find to tickle your fancy tonight. Fridays are almost as decadent as their traditional Tuesday nights.

Spankee's Saturday afternoon Big Band T-Dances from 4-8 p.m. are all the rage with the really-retro dance hits from the 1940s, '50s and '60s. They really get "In The Mood" and with all of the visitors in town for the State Fair, you can bet they'll keep the boogie woogie going all month long.

"One Year"

...YOU'RE A PART OF ME...

*I share the flow of life with you;
I feel the things you feel;
I sense your moments of concern,
The depths that you reveal.*

*My spirit filters into you,
As yours slips into mine.
I think of us as just one person
As our hearts combine.*

*I draw you close and gather in Your gifts of energy.
Our one-and-one are meshed as two,
And two blend perfectly.*

*We're closer than we've ever been—
We're unified in dreams.
There's joy in our togetherness.
We are living precious themes.*

*Eternity has lent us space—
Our moments are too few.
I'm grateful that you're part of me,
And I am part of you.*

God Bless and may He be with you always.
