REVIEWED BY GARY LAIRD

When you get right down to it, there are three things that make for good theatre — good writing, good acting and good directing. That's all there is to it. Everything else is lagniappe. Just three little ingredients; what could be easier? Well, there is one catch. You have to have all three at the same time, together. Any one without the other two is like a cake without baking powder; it just won't rise. (Don't worry, I'm not going to carry the culinary metaphor too far.) But Houston audiences who want to see a spectacularly successful theatrical soufflé (sorry, couldn't resist) shouldn't miss the current offering at The Little Room Downstairs, Richard Laub's little space at 2326 Bissonnet.

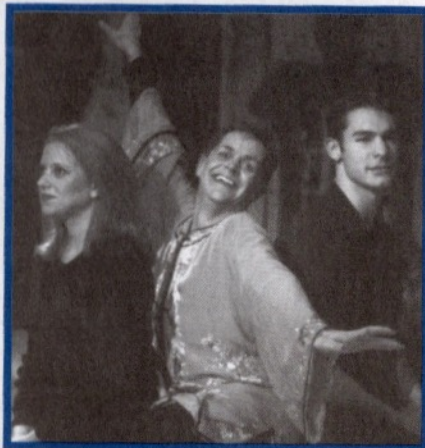

Let's begin with the writing. Laub has chosen to present two widely disparate one-acts, by two of the theatre's brightest gay playwrights, Harvey Fierstein and Lanford Wilson. Fierstein's piece is Forget Him, a wildly comic take on the art of matchmaking, with a gay twist. Here's the plot in a nutshell: Michael Delosa has engaged the matchmaking services of one Clydelle Marlowe, who has produced for him Eugene Sloane. The problem is, Michael wants to return him and get his money back. Clydelle is not amenable, though, and calls the two in for a conference, where Michael tries to make his point that the match is not suitable. Although it runs slightly less than 30 minutes, the laughs are nonstop in Forget Him. The feeling at intermission is comparable to having enjoyed a particularly good champagne with caviar — kind of bubbly and excited, and ready for the main course.

And for that we are served Wilson's The Madness of Lady Bright. In this longer work, the humor turns dark as we watch the lady in question, a "screaming, preening queen," go slowly mad over the course of a hot Sunday afternoon. Leslie is lonely.

I mean, the big lonely. Alone in his room, he acts out his memories while trying, with increasing desperation, to reach someone, anyone, on the phone, but as he descends slowly into madness, there is no help from outside. There will be no room for dessert.

And now for the acting. In Forget Him, Mark Albright as the complaining Michael is a study in the neurosis of romantic love. He has asked for the perfect mate and has been given Eugene, but it isn't enough. He's afraid that Mister Right may still be out there. Albright, returning to the stage after nine years (he used to be a regular at the old Chocolate Bayou Theater), is perfection as the kvetching client, ranting and railing against the implacable Clydelle. Clydelle, played by Marcy Bannor, stone-walls it as she punches hole after hole in Michael's argument, proving that she has, at least technically, fulfilled the terms of their contract. It's a flawless comic turn, and Bannor has the audience eating out of her hand. Ty Mayberry, as the damaged goods, makes the most of a part in which he has no lines. Putting aside the visual evidence that no one in his right mind would reject such a dishy hunk, Mayberry conveys with expression and movement a sexy innocence and charm that ultimately win the argument.

In Lady Bright, Gregory R. Brown is all over the stage as the aging and deteriorating drag queen who spends his days and nights in his romanticized past. The main feature of his apartment is a sort of "autograph wall," where all his tricks have signed their names, and he relives the moments, good and bad. Like Michael in Forget Him, Leslie longs for Mister Right, but he has no Clydelle to help him and no money-back contract. Instead he has a long list of one-nighters, a string of sex-for-pay encounters that he tries to legitimize into romantic love. In the end, even he isn't fooled. Brown gives the essentially pathetic character a sense of dignity, a longing that reaches the audience and makes them pull for him, against the odds. It's a memorable performance.

There are two other roles in this piece, "Girl," played by Kara Greenberg, and "Boy," played by Ty Mayberry. These two play a variety of characters — neighbors, a couple on the street, a couple at a bar — that act as counterpoint for Leslie's story. They weave in and out of the narrative, at times underscoring, at other times undermining. Greenberg's "Girl" is biting and acerbic, and Mayberry's turns as some of Leslie's "loves" are touching and effective.

And that brings us to the cook — I mean, the director — Richard Laub. Laub takes the ingredients given him and mixes them brilliantly. Using his remarkable talent for small spaces, he takes the characters in these two plays through their journeys with aplomb, and delivers an altogether satisfying evening.

So if you have an appetite for good theatre — really good theatre — then make reservations to see these productions. Remaining dates are Fridays and Saturdays, Nov. 14, 15, 21 and 22, with one Monday performance on Nov. 17. Because of severely limited space (25 seats or so), reservations are a must. Call (713) 523-0791 for tickets and more information.

MASON & DIXON

This week's cover men are the dynamic duo known as Mason and Dixon. Appropriately born under the sign of Gemini, these identical twins are originally from Illinois, but they now reside in Dallas. By day, they get a rigorous workout as part of a Big D construction crew. At night, they keep in shape with healthy doses of martial arts and dancing. Speaking of, everyone is invited to get a closer look at these two this weekend when they make three exclusive appearances at the Midtowne Spas in Houston, Austin and Dallas.

Club NRG Vol. 1, which just hit stores a couple of weeks ago, brings together some of the best of the hi-NRG sound from Europe and around the world. Nine of the 16 tracks have been international hi-NRG top ten hits, and there are over 70 minutes of nonstop dance mixes. The first single from the compilation is "Together In Electric Dreams," by Canada's Outta Control. The Toronto trio has already garnered three consecutive Billboard dance chart hits over the past two years. This souped-up cover of the Giorgio Moroder/Phil Oakley classic features a duet with lead singer Kimberley Whetmore and Kon Kan.

The compilation truly lets the girls have it, with two Madonna covers by Blonde Ambition, "Live to Tell" and "Don't Cry for Me, Argentina"; "Year Of Decision," by Dreamgirls; "I Believe I Can Fly," by Lawrence; and Newton's "Sky High." This one's simply too good to pass up, gurlies!

A certain highlight of Club NRG Vol. 1 is the record label debut of Texas' very own Jimmy James. James rides tall in the saddle with "Who Wants to Be Your Lover," an original score penned by Nozie Katzman ("Mr. Vain" and "Right in the Night") and produced by the Berman brothers (Real McCoy, Amber). Sources have indicated that a full radio campaign will take place and that a concept video was filmed in LA last week. Attagirl!...

While we're high-fiving fierce Texans, we have to tip our hats to Austin's Face Records, whose One-Texas Electronica

CD is truthfully the deal! This nine-track journey chronicles the evolution of underground electronic music in the Lone Star State. The first in a series, it presents a number of Texas artists who've been at the forefront of electronica over the past several years. Chris Anderson and Andrei Morant are partners in the Matrix Crew and are the largest rave promoters in Houston. Their projects have also done quite well across the Atlantic, especially in the UK, where they've been aired on the BBC. Both sides of the Texas smash 12-inch "Funk" and "Mental," by D-DAY PROJECT, are included, as are two tracks by Quaquaversal. Their self-titled CD debut was named "one of the brighter local releases" by the Austin American Statesman in a front-page feature entitled "Inside

Claude 9 is one-half of Austin's Raggamassive, and combines a bit of old-school reggae with some dub influences to bring a dash of drum & bass to the table with their two tracks "Essence Primeval" and "The Zone." And we're totally vibing to IQ Crew's "Passion Absorption," another drum & bass track that really turns you out. Miss Camp America, Inc. Seeking Beneficiaries

Dear TWT:

As chairperson for the selection of beneficiaries (charities) for Miss Camp America Foundation, Inc., I am excited to announce that the Foundation is beginning its fund-raising campaign for 1998. Funds raised during the campaign will benefit local charitable organizations that provide services to persons in the greater Houston metropolitan area affected by HIV/AIDS.

It is the tradition of Miss Camp America Foundation, Inc. to provide financial assistance to nonprofit 501(c)(3) organizations whose programs, philosophies and ideas reflect a unique or innovative approach to the HIV/AIDS problem. Charitable organizations that provide HIV/AIDS-related programs of direct care; clinical, social and mental health services; public policy; advocacy; housing; financial aid; education/prevention programs; and support services are eligible.

Funds granted by Miss Camp America Foundation, Inc. must be used to support all costs associated with projects and programs as described in the organization's grant application.

Grant applications for the 1998 fund-raising campaign are now being accepted. Dec. 1, 1997 is the deadline for submitting grant applications. Applications received after the deadline (postmarked after midnight, Dec. 2, 1997) will not be considered. Applications should be submitted in the form of a packet containing the organization's letter of intent, information that describes the organization and its mission, financial statement and operating budget, and evidence of the organization's 501(c)(3) tax-exempt status.

Applications should be mailed to the following address:

Miss Camp America Foundation, Inc.
Attn: Al Critz, Chairperson

Since 1992, Miss Camp America Foundation, Inc. has enjoyed the pleasure of awarding a total of over $300,000 in grants to various charitable HIV/AIDS-related organizations. We hope 1998 will be a record-breaking year for us!

On behalf of the members of Outrage and our 1997 charities, I would like to thank our friends and supporters in the Houston community for helping us raise $15,000 at our annual Halloween event, Decadance: A Night in the Quarter. We are extremely proud that our Halloween events have been able to raise more than $90,000 for our greater Houston HIV/AIDS community over the last several years. We gratefully acknowledge that without the support of the 800 attendees and our community sponsors and donors, this event could not have been successful. A hearty thank-you to our generous event sponsors, OutSmart, Uniglobe: First Choice Travel and THIS WEEK IN TEXAS. In addition, we are grateful for the generosity of our Ghosts, Goblins and Ghouls, and our donors, who included Copy.Com, Fox Diner, Mesa Grill, Laff Stop, Phoenix Comics & Games and Sam Houston Race Park. A very special thanks goes to the wonderful staff at Rich's, who really outdid themselves in supporting this event.

The Outrage "Hosts" are extremely proud to be a part of Houston's gay and lesbian community, and feel privileged to have the support of the community in our continuing quest to support the greater Houston HIV/AIDS community. Thank you for helping us make a difference

Casa Mañana in Fort Worth has extended Forever Plaid once again, through Dec. 28. The loving and hilarious tribute to the all-male singing groups of the '50s and '60s is the longest-running show in Metroplex history, and it's following the trend that's been set in places like New York, London and Las Vegas, among others, in breaking box-office records. It's about the Plaids, a hot, harmonizing quartet are about to play their first big concert when, alas, they're wiped out by a busload of Catholic schoolgirls. But they get a celestial second chance when they're returned to earth to fulfill that unrealized gig. Performances are at 8 p.m. Thursdays and Fridays, 5 and 9 p.m. Saturdays and 2 p.m. Sundays at Casa's Theatre on the Square, 109 E. Third (no shows Nov. 27 or Dec. 25). A special 6 p.m. show has been added on Nov. 30 as a benefit for the Food Bank of Greater Tarrant County. Tickets for all regular performances range from $16 to $22 and are available by calling (817)332-CASA or any TicketMaster outlet.

Ebenezer Scrooge returns for the 16th consecutive season at Pocket Sandwich Theatre, 5400 E. Mockingbird, Suite 119. Joe Dickinson and Laurie Tirmenstein's show is a musical adaptation of Charles Dickens' classic tale A Christmas Carol. Shows are Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays at 8 p.m. and Sundays at 7, Nov. 28-Dec. 23. Extra shows have been added on Dec. 9, 10, 16 and 17 at 8 p.m., and at 2 p.m. on Dec. 14 and 21. Tickets are $6-12; for reservations and more info, call (817) 821-1860.

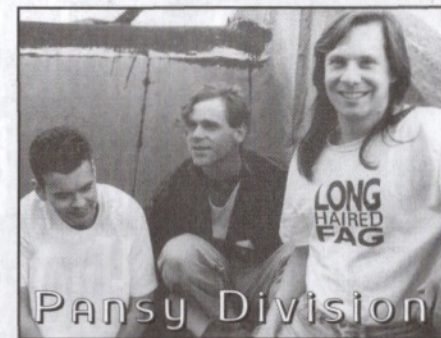

The USA Film Festival in Dallas presents the local premiere of Mondo Plympton, a bizarre and funny animation compilation, on Monday, Nov. 17, at 7:30 p.m. at the AMC Glen Lakes, 9450 N. Central Exprwy, as part of its Independent Showcase series. The audience will take a trip through the strange brain of award-winning animator Bill Plympton, with stopoffs at such classic shorts as "One of Those Days" and "25 Ways to Quit Smoking," as well as some of his brand new work. Tickets are $7/general and $6 for USA Film Festival members, and are available at the theatre one hour prior to showtime.

Country Playhouse, 12802 Queensbury in Houston, celebrates over 40 years of music on the silver screen with Blame It on the Movies, a revue by Ron Abel, Billy Barnes and David Galligan that includes "Have Yourself a Merry Little Christmas," "The Way We Were," "Laura" and many more favorites. Performances are Fridays and Saturdays at 8 p.m., with Sunday matinees (Nov. 16 and 23) at 2 p.m. Tickets are $15 (20% off for 20 or more), $5 off for student rush this evening, Nov. 14. The box office is open Monday-Saturday from 9 a.m.-1 p.m. For reservations, call (713) 467-4497.

Queer rock returns to Houston with a performance by Pansy Division on Saturday, Nov. 29, at Fitzgerald's, 2706 White Oak. The group's good humor, uncompromising stance and in-your-face lyrics coming through in songs like "Beer Can Boy," "Nine Inch Males," "Touch My Joe Camel" and "Bill and Ted's Homosexual Adventure." Pansy Division goes on promptly at 10 p.m. Also appearing will be Tsunami and local cuties Jessica Six. Tickets are $6. Call (713)862-7580.

Direct from the Moose Hall in Muncie, Indiana, on a personal appearance bus tour of the lower 48, The Taffetas take the Austin stage at the Fuselounge, currently ensconced at Zachary Scott Theatre Center's Whisenhunt Arena Stage, 1510 Toomey Rd. The fabulous sister quartet takes you back to a time when Connie, Annette and Debbie didn't need last names and chart-toppers like "Mr. Sandman," "You Belong to Me," "Old Cape Cod," "Volare" and "Sincerely" ruled the airwaves. The Taffetas plays on Zach's Arena Stage at 1510 Toomey Rd. through Jan. 1, Thursdays-Sundays. But that's not all. Forever Plaid returns to Zach and also takes you down memory lane, to a time of jukeboxes, Eisenhower, penny loafers and The Ed Sullivan Show. Beginning Saturday, Nov. 22, the two shows play on the same stage at alternating times. Call the box office at (512) 476-0541 Monday-Saturday, noon-7 p.m.

NOVEMBER 14 - NOVEMBER 20

BRENDA VACCARO
NOVEMBER 18, 1939

Are you afraid of change? This week volcanic Pluto begins an excellent aspect to surprising Uranus. This means that there's potential for exciting surprises in the next four months that may change our personal landscape forever. I guess it's time to buy that lottery ticket.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22) It's time to review your value system to see what's gold and what's dross. Gay Scorps have been known to place undue emphasis on the material world, to the detriment of their sense of self and their personal life. Now, the Pluto/Uranus aspect demands that the Material Girl in you make choices. You needn't dump all your worldly loot; just don't let it own you.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22) How about if it were possible to be your true lavender you no matter where you parked your carcass? Living life true to oneself is within reach; proud Archers undergo a complete transformation during the next four months during the Pluto/Uranus aspect. The world will look at you in a different, possibly reverential, way. Please make sure that your fly is zipped.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20) It isn't often that gay Caps peer out into the vast cosmos and contemplate their connection to the galaxy. The Pluto/Uranus aspect sparks that degree of inspiration. Your connection to our community is enhanced and affirmed during this transit. It's time to display your pride and get more involved in vital gay charitable efforts. Your closet will smell pretty stale.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19) You Aqueerians find that friends and social groups provide ample incentive for you to undergo a complete and radical makeover. Pluto and Uranus conspire to push you Out into the open and into center stage. Good thing too friend; how long can you go on selfishly keeping that fabulous personality under wraps? Peel a little back and let the world have a peek. Wow.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - March 20) Sometimes the evil machinations of those who don't have your best interests at heart go awry and give you an unanticipated boost. Lucky pink Fish may cash in on such a turn of events during the Pluto/Uranus transit, so keep an ever watchful eye peeled for opportunities, especially in your career. It's time to stop being a pincushion for every backstabber.

ARIES (March 21 - April 20) The brilliant aspect between Pluto and Uranus indicates that proud Rams should be looking beyond their own backyards for inspiration and friendship. The old saying "Seek and ye shall find" works like a mantra for you now. Revise your old philosophies and seek the advice of worldly or international-type folks. Travel not only broadens, it catapults. Watch your head.

TAURUS (April 21 - May 21) Gay Bulls may wake up one of these mornings and simply not feel like squeezing into that pin-striped gorilla suit ever again. This epiphany by Pluto and Uranus conspires to put crazy ideas in your head about personal fulfillment and its compatibility (or lack thereof) with corporate politics. Tossing it all away is tempting, but poverty is not a strong suit for Bulls. Marry wealthy.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21) Single, sassy Geminis are due for a match made in heaven with the Pluto/Uranus aspect. My crystal ball says that your partner-to-be will be quite different from you in nationality, age, religion or background. Make yourself available. For those gay Twins who've found their match, whisk your partner off to some fabulous locale and rekindle the spark. Start a raging fire!

CANCER (June 22 - July 23) Sexual sparks fly from surprising directions (such as work). If pink Crabs start eyeing the drone in the cubicle next door, blame it on the heated aspect between Pluto and Uranus. Can work and love mix? Measure the risk before you plunge. Maybe you'll undergo a change of philosophy about your job. One day you'll wake up and decide to try something totally new.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23) The Pluto/Uranus aspect may prove decisive for gay Lions who demand the entire spotlight for themselves. It may mean that you're showcased for an adoring crowd, or it could mean that you'll disenchant partners with your constant grandstanding. You don't need a crowd to feel affirmed; sometimes a special audience of one will do. Divas look nice but will sleep alone.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23) Proud Virgos face a trade-off between the day-to-day demands of the job and the sanctity of their home life when Pluto aspects Uranus. The choice is up to you, cousin; how much seepage between lives are you prepared to endure? Use this transit to measure the pros and cons of your current situation. Wise old Pluto may have a way of pushing you in the right direction.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23) Proud Libras are diplomatic folks at heart. Now, with the magnificent aspect between Pluto and Uranus, you wax poetic and can move mountains with a few choice words. Let yourself be swept up in the pride political movement and get involved in a grassroots effort for the community. Ever think of entering politics? You have my vote.

DALLAS AQUATICS IN HIGHEST FINISH

DALLAS — Members of Team Dallas Aquatics traveled to San Diego for the recent 1997 International Gay and Lesbian Aquatics Championships, where they finished 11th among 40 teams in the small team division. Paced by four-time individual event winner Phil Johnson, the finish was the team's highest, continuing a climb in recent years toward top-ten status. TDA has rapidly improved its standing in IGLA championships since finishing 39th in 1995.

The meet attracted more than 700 swimmers, divers and water polo players from seven countries.

Team Dallas Aquatics is a predominantly lesbian and gay masters swim team and a member of the International Gay and Lesbian Aquatics and United States Masters Swimming. All swimmers, regardless of age or skill level, are welcome. The team practices at The Centrum Sports Club on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 8-9 p.m. and on Saturdays and Sundays from 11:30 a.m.-1 p.m. For more info, call Bill Hartley at (214)522-6011.

GAY GAMES UPDATE

TEXAS — Fifteen thousand athletes are expected to participate in the "Friendship" Games next summer in Amsterdam. According to officials, almost half (7,454) have already registered and 33% are women. In an effort to reach an ideal goal of 50% men-50% women, spaces are reserved for women until the end of the year. Therefore, all athletes who have not registered or secured hotel space are urged to do so immediately.

As of Sept. 1, 54% of the athletes registered were from the United States. Such a figure indicates that the Games are becoming a worldwide event, and not a primarily North American event.

Because the cultural events are considered equally important as the sporting competitions, music, dance, theatre, photography, crafts and movie celebrations are planned.

The colorful Cheer Dallas Cheerleaders will perform in the opening and closing ceremonies of the Games as well as for many social and athletic events.

The total budget to promote and stage Gay Games V is $7 million. As of Aug. 1, $6 million had already been raised, mainly through corporate sponsorships.

For more detailed information, contact Team Austin at (512)453-8878, Team Dallas at (214)535-0883 or Team Houston at (713) 877-1191.

RAINBOW SEES RECORD CATCH

HOUSTON — Sixteen members of the Rainbow Fishing Club braved seas of five to six feet and all-day rain to catch around 320 fish Oct. 29. None of the participants got sick, and the rain brought the fish up towards the surface.

The biggest fish caught on the half-filled boat was an 18-lb. red snapper brought in by Dennis Entler. Entler, who is the owner of the 611 Hyde Park Pub, Rainbow's departure point, said he hoped to offer a few smaller charters next year, probably restricted to 12 people at a cost of $100-$120 each.

The club goes out this Sunday, Nov. 16, on the New Buccaneer (cost is $60 for the 12-hour trip) and again Saturday, Dec. 6, on a four-hour bay and jetty fishing trip ($17). Everyone is welcome to join club trips.

For more info, or to get on the Rainbow mailing list, call (713)523-6381.

AUSTIN BOWLING FUND-RAISER

AUSTIN — The Metropolitan Community Church of Austin holds a bowling fund-raiser this Saturday, Nov. 15, at Dart Bowl, 5700 Grover. All funds raised at the event, which starts at noon, will go towards the church's building fund.

Participants need to raise a minimum of $40 in collected pledges to bowl. Prizes will be awarded to those who collect the most funds, with a Compaq computer going to the first-place finisher, a Southwest Airline ticket to the person coming in second, a Nintendo64 game system for third, two Austin Steam Train tickets for fourth and a massage at Lake Austin Spa and Resort (donated by Martin Reiger) for fifth.

Everyone is invited to send in donations, even if they don't, or choose not to, bowl. For more info, call Tony Krug at (512)833-6581 or e-mail tkrug@mcione.com.

SERVICE AGENCIES, ART COMMUNITY To MARK WORLD AIDS DAY DEC. 1

Alley Theatre in Houston Will Honor Five Artists Lost to Disease.

TEXAS — Organizations in Texas will join many others elsewhere in the U.S. and around the world on Dec. 1 to mark World AIDS Day, which has been set aside to commemorate the memories of friends, family and colleagues who have been lost to the disease. Simultaneously, art galleries, theatres and other cultural institutions will stage their own observances of Without Art, in tribute to artists who have been lost to HIV. A special concern of organizers this year will be to fight the widespread perception that the AIDS crisis is "over."

"For the first time in many years of commemorating Day Without Art, we have hope," Houston Ballet Managing Director Cecil C. Conner said recently. "In September, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention announced that AIDS cases diagnosed in the United States dropped last year for the first time in the 16-year history of the epidemic. In addition, a whole new category of drugs — protease inhibitors — has substantially prolonged the lifespans of some individuals living with HIV."

"However, contrary to some reports in the media, we are nowhere near 'the end of AIDS.' We face a new landscape, with a whole range of completely different challenges."

"Thus, we...mark Day Without Art/World AIDS Day this year with a sense of cautious hope for the future and a determination to meet the challenges ahead in the next wave of the battle against AIDS."

AIDS has hit Texas especially hard, and groups in Dallas, Houston and other cities have scheduled observances intended not just to remember people lost to the virus, but also to stress that the struggle is definitely not over.

In Dallas, over 55 groups will be represented at the World AIDS Day '97 Expo, an education and awareness event to be held Dec. 1 from 10 a.m.-9 p.m. in the Great Hall at St. Matthew's Cathedral, 5100 Ross Ave. at Henderson.

The expo begins at 10 a.m. with an opening prayer by Pastor Jerry Cook of the White Rock Community Church. At 10:30 Mike Ator, Director of Development and Community Relations for AIDS Services of North Texas, will speak, followed by PFLAG Co-President Dave Gleason at 11. Representatives of many other Metroplex area HIV service agencies will also speak throughout the day.

Volunteers, financial assistance and in-kind donations are needed to help stage the Expo. Individuals and companies can be listed as sponsors or supporters, and businesses are urged to donate gift certificates to be used in different areas. Organizers said that specific needs include rolls of self-adhesive postage stamps and #10 envelopes. Checks should be made payable to Day Without Art/World AIDS Day '97 Expo. A number of organizations, sponsors and supporters are including information about the Expo in their newsletters.

For more information, or to volunteer or provide other assistance, contact World AIDS Day '97 Expo coordinator Jerry Lynn at (214)823-3899, or fax him at (214) 828-9118.

In Houston, 25 arts and theatrical venues will join with local AIDS service providers in observance of World AIDS Day/Day Without Art '97.

At 10:30 a.m. on Dec. 1 on the Alley Theatre's Neuhaus Arena Stage, luminaries from the city's arts community will join together for a Ceremony of Remembrance, open to the public. To dramatize the wide swath AIDS has cut through the Texas arts community, artists and administrators will memorialize Houstonians from five different artistic disciplines who have been lost to AIDS. Pages honoring these five artists will be added to Testimony: A Houston Arts Book on AIDS, which was created and displayed in 1995 at the Museum of Fine Arts.

Houston Symphony Conductor-in-Residence Stephen Stein will serve as host for the Ceremony of Remembrance. Houston Chronicle society columnist Maxine Mesinger, who serves on the national board of the American Foundation for AIDS Research, will give the keynote address.

For the ninth year, NAMES Project Houston will sponsor the Tree of Remembrance Ceremony, "A Night of Music Celebrating Life," on Dec. 1 at the Metropolitan Multi-Service Center, 1475 W. Gray, at 6:30. A new addition to this year's ceremony will be a candlelight vigil sponsored by the Alley Theatre following the lighting of the tree.

The NAMES Project will also display 12x12 sections of the AIDS Memorial Quilt at museums, theatres and schools around Houston.

[Additional information on World AIDS Day observances will be included in next week's issue.]

CLINTON URGES INCLUSION OF GAYS IN FEDERAL HATE CRIME STATUTES

*President Also Calls for Tougher
Penalties, Stepped-Up Reporting
At D.C. Conference Monday.*

WASHINGTON — The focus of presidential attention shifted on Monday from foreign affairs and politics to an issue of special concern to gay and lesbian people and other minorities, hate crimes. President Bill Clinton and other members of his administration took time to address more than 300 people who had come to the nation's capital for the first White House Conference on Hate Crimes.

"Our laws already punish some hate crimes committed against people on the basis of race or religion or national origin, but we should do more," President Clinton said in remarks opening the conference. "We should make our current laws tougher to include all hate crimes that cause physical harm. We must prohibit crimes committed because of a victim's sexual orientation, gender or disability. All Americans deserve protection from hate."

Clinton threw his backing behind a Senate proposal that would expand current hate crimes laws to include gay people, as well as the disabled and members of the opposite sex. He also spoke in favor of tougher penalties and better reporting of hate-related incidents.

As much as for any concrete proposals that might survive beyond Monday's conference, gay and lesbian participants were encouraged that a meeting called by the President included the recognition that gay people are among those who suffer from such crimes.

"It was very encouraging and inspirational to see so many people committed to doing something about hate crimes," said Dianne Hardy-Garcia, who is Executive Director of the Lesbian/Gay Rights Lobby of Texas and took part in the conference. "It's really refreshing to see the President behind this...It gives me a lot of hope."

In addition to gays, participants included Americans of Jewish, Hispanic and Asians extraction as well as disabled Americans. A small group of protesters who marched around shouting anti-gay and religious slogans outside George Washington University, where most of the conference was held, drew little attention.

Of over 8,500 hate crimes reported in 1996, according to the Justice Department, 12 percent were targeted against people because of their sexual orientation, with victims' race the factor in nearly two-thirds of such crimes, religion in 14 percent and ethnic origin in 11 percent.

"The initiatives the President announced today will help provide momentum and leverage for local individuals and organizations who deal with bias crimes and their aftermath, on a daily basis," Kerry Lobel, Executive Director of the National Gay and Lesbian Task Force, said Monday.

As part of her participation in the conference, Lobel delivered hundreds of petitions signed by individuals from communities from around the country, including cities in which Lobel had recently completed a seven-city tour called "Hate in the Heartland."

Also taking part in the hate crimes summit was the Rev. Troy D. Perry, founder and moderator of the Universal Fellowship of Metropolitan Community Churches, the largest gay and lesbian religious organization in the world. Perry said that seven percent of his denomination's churches have been the targets of hate crimes by arson or firebombing since UFMCC was founded 30 years ago.

In a related government move, Andrew

Cuomo, Secretary of the Department of Housing and Urban Development, held a press conference Monday to announce a new effort by HUD to fight housing-related hate crimes. Cuomo cited the case of a black family in West Virginia who said they had been continually harassed by white neighbors in an effort to keep them from moving into their newly purchased house.

HEALTH FAIR TARGETS WOMEN'S CONCERNS SATURDAY IN DALLAS

*Lesbian Health Initiative, FHU
Sponsor Daylong Schedule Of Tests, Counseling.*

DALLAS — Women who have hesitated to get needed medical checkups because they're worried about the cost or about having to deal with homophobic doctors can get screening and counseling in a reassuring environment tomorrow during the Lesbian Health Matters Fair. The fair, which is sponsored jointly by the Lesbian Health Initiative and the Foundation for Human Understanding, runs from 8:30 a.m. till 4:30 p.m. at the Nelson-Tebedo Clinic, 4012 Cedar Springs Rd. in the Oak Lawn area.

"Your health matters, so please join us for a day of health education and screening in a lesbian-sponsored, straight-friendly environment," said Starr L. Eady, M.S.H.P. who is Women's Program Manager at FHU. "Lots of women fail to get routine health checks for a variety of reasons including cost, fear of homophobic assumptions and time. We all know that many disorders can be treated successfully, if they are caught early."

Services available for women 35 years of age and older who have no preexisting condition and who have not had breast implants will include mammograms, Pap tests, breast self-examination training, women's health literature and dental health information.

Mammograms are available free to low-income women who are 35 years old or older and do not have insurance, or who have insurance that does not pay for mammograms. A charge of $60 is asked of those who can afford to pay. Likewise, Pap tests will be given free to low-income women who are 40 or older and do not have insurance, or have insurance that does not pay for such tests. For those who can afford to pay, $50 is requested. Training in breast self-examination as well as women's health literature and dental health information will be available free for women of all ages.

A second Lesbian Health Matters Fair is being planned for March 21 next year.

The mammograms and pap tests are being provided Saturday by the YWCA Women's Resource Center through funding by the Dallas County chapter of the Susan G. Komen Foundation/Dallas Race For the Cure and the Texas Department of Health. The Lesbian Health Matters Fair is jointly sponsored by OLCS, Planned Parenthood, Cathedral of Hope, YWCA and concerned individuals.

Up business manager Gary Miller told HOT TEA he was looking for "a gentle bear," and then he added, "Actually, I need to get a couple of big friendly guys for the weekend." (Did that get your attention, too?) Then he concluded that he was looking for a couple of big, friendly guys to work as doormen every night. What started out as a fabulous fantasy is actually a fantastic opportunity for the right guys, who should be able to handle a lot of men every night, keep smiling and greet the patrons at the door. If you think you qualify, see Gary at the club any night Wednesday through Sunday for all the details. These are a great group of guys to work with....

OBITUARIES

Timothy Staples
Aug. 10, 1947 — Oct. 16, 1997
On Thursday, Oct. 16, Timothy left this world peacefully after a determined battle with AIDS.

A home remodeler by trade, he was not only a true craftsman but an artist at his profession.

He will always be remembered for his response to the question "How are you?" He would smile that smile of his, strike a pose and simply say, "I be perfect!"

Survived by his mother, Joy Safirs; brothers, Michael and Glen; and a sister, Janice; and preceded in death by a brother, Gene. Tim's remains returned to Hot Springs, South Dakota with his mother, where he will rest in a family cemetery.

A fact Tim did not mention to many is that he was a Purple Heart veteran of the war in Vietnam. A special thank-you to Dr. Wright, Dr. Brinson, Nurse Lucy and Scott Jones with ASA. Tim's mother wishes to extend a special thank-you to all those who helped her through the loss of her son and for the assistance during those hectic days following his death. A memorial service was held in Waterloo Park in Austin last Sunday, Nov. 9, celebrating Timothy's life and sharing stories of the good times.

In Memory of Our Good Friend

Carl Edward Allen

June 12, 1952 — Nov. 6, 1996

"It's hard to believe it's been a year since you departed us and went to play pool in heaven (may they always have to rack!). You will always be remembered by those at T.M.C. for shooting pool one handed and winning.

"Some of our best memories are those of you playing pool at T.M.C. as well as the road trips to the Habana Inn in Oklahoma City and the Allen Park Inn in Houston. You were always full of life, and eager to experience all that life had to offer. You were a great friend who always knew exactly what to do or say to cheer us up if we were down. You were one of the few people who really would give a friend the shirt off your back. We miss your smile, laugh, good advice, warm heart and gentle touch. You will be in our hearts, minds and dreams forever!"

Our friend Carl was a successful Dallas businessman who was born in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, and raised in New Orleans. Carl moved to Dallas several years ago from Houston. Carl passed away suddenly due to complications from kidney and liver failure while awaiting a kidney and liver transplant.

Your best friends
