REVIEWED BY GARY LAIRD

You know how sometimes you have experiences that seem, on the surface, to be similar, but when you think about them, they aren't? Well, gentle readers, that's what happened to me last weekend. I went to see a play on Friday night, and another one Saturday evening. And that is where the similarity ends. The two works have virtually nothing in common, and yet each is ultimately very satisfying in its own way.

On Friday I went to see Cakewalk at Theater LaB Houston. Cakewalk is about the last years in the life of Lillian Hellman, one of our premier twentieth-century playwrights (The Children's Hour, The Little Foxes). It was written by Peter Feibleman, a lover of Hellman's who was 20 years her junior and who remained with her, more or less, until her death in 1984. Cakewalk is about the "more" and the "less." Hellman's life was never a cakewalk. Famous, or infamous, for saying exactly what she thought, Hellman charged through one crisis after another. She was born of Jewish parents in New Orleans in 1905, and at 20 she married the playwright Arthur Kober. Seven years later, she divorced him and began a long relationship with the writer Dashiell Hammett, who was probably the one great love of her life, but not the only one. During this period, the political witch hunts conducted by Sen. Joseph McCarthy raged in Hollywood, and Hellman was accused, subpoenaed and black-listed. She was perfectly willing to discuss her own activities, but refused to name names. It was against her principles, she said, and she closed with her famous remark, "I will not cut my conscience to fit this year's fashions."

Hellman first met Feibleman when he was a child of ten, the son of friends. When he was 28, having written a successful novel, they met again, and became first friends, then lovers. Hellman suffered neither friends nor lovers gladly, and the relationship was rocky from the start.

Sylvia Froman is the playwright Lillian Hellman and Mark J. Roberts is her young lover in Theater LaB Houston's production of Cakewalk.

This is the premise of Cakewalk, which is told by Feibleman from his point of view. The writing is sharp, contemporary and brutally honest. It's also biting funny, peppered liberally with Hellman's to-the-point zingers. This is the story of a love-hate romance, and Sylvia Froman as Lilly and Mark J. Roberts as Cuff (Hellman's pet name for Feibleman) give us both the upfront conflicts and the nuances of affection that made up such a pairing. The effect of these two on stage is stunning and exhilarating. Christian DeVries directs with a deft hand, and the production is top-notch. Kim Sevier, playing several supporting characters, contributes ably.

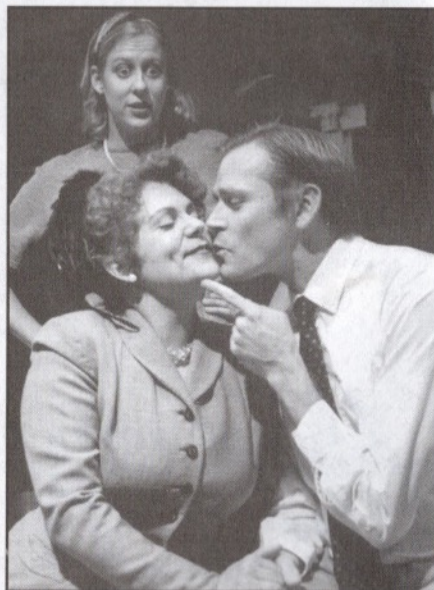

Now for the other experience. On Saturday I attended Main Street Theater's production of William McCleery's Good Housekeeping. This gentle family comedy was first produced in 1949, and is presented by Main Street in period. The years immediately following WWII in America were a strange and unsettled time, blurred somewhat by nostalgia. This was the period that gave us film noir, the Cold War and the House Un-American Activities Committee. It was a period of transition, and although we now look back on the time with a "good old days" sigh, things were not always what they seemed. Actually, they never are.

Good Housekeeping is the story of an American family, headed by father and university president Charles Burnett, played by Kent Johnson. His quiet life is disturbed by his wife Marian, portrayed by Theo Lane Moffet, and his teenage daughters, Christine and Katy, played by Stefanie Paige Friedman and Sara Macaluso, respectively. Marian is the central character, and while she is still drawn as the "help-mate," she has a touch of Lucy in her. The girls are grown, a maid runs the house and Marian has nothing to do. Instead of settling for a quiet decline into her twilight years, she searches for something to do to make a contribution, lighting upon the idea of running Charles for governor. She is aided in this by Christine's fiancé Eddie, a cub newspaper reporter, and daughter Katy's shutterbug boyfriend Nat. Good Housekeeping is a series of comic developments in the style of what used to be called "drawing room."

The ensemble makes it work. Moffet runs the show, a combination of Lucille Ball and Billie Burke, as she dithers and dabbles her way through a predicament of her own making. As the long-suffering Charles, Johnson blusters lovingly as Father-knows-best. Melinda deKay is a delight as Mrs. Benson, the maid, whose only requirement is total domination. (Marian is always adjusting something. She has even gone so far as to make her own bed.) Friedman and Macaluso make good as the daughters with troubles of their own — principally men — and Joel Stark and Todd Greenfield are perfect boyfriend types. Their entrances always get a giggle, and Greenfield is particularly charming as the hapless Nat.

Directed by Steve Garfinkel, Good Housekeeping is a gentle comedy that entertains. There's nothing cutting-edge here, although if you look really hard you may see the faint stirrings of women's liberation. But really, it's a snapshot in a family album. It's fun to look at and it makes you feel good.

So there you have it — two very different pieces of theatre. It all depends on what you're in the mood for. If you want a good stiff shot of tequila, go see Cakewalk. If you're in a mellow mood, go for Ovaltine and Good Housekeeping. Either way, you won't be disappointed. And then, of course, you can always do what I did. Go see them both. Theatre is diversity.

Cakewalk runs through Dec. 13 at Theater LaB Houston, 1706 Alamo. Call (713) 868-7516 for tickets and more information. Good Housekeeping runs through Dec. 14 at Main Street Theater's location at 2540 Times Blvd. Call (713) 524-6706 for tickets and more information.

PLAYS WELL WITH OTHERS

Plays Well with Others; by Allan Gurganus; hardback; fiction; 336 pp.; Alfred A. Knopf Inc.; $25.

You know how sometimes, when you're seduced by someone, someone who isn't just flash and showiness (that kind always leaves you feeling a little dirty the next morning), someone with substance, it may just be a brief night or two, but you remember it clearly years later? You ache for how good it was, and for how few others compare? I've just finished a book like that.

Allan Gurganus is subversive. I love that. Look at the brilliant cover of his book — happy, smiling tyke, with just a slight upturned smirk. It's called Plays Well with Others. You know, as in "Timmy is a rambunctious student, the class clown, and plays well with others." Allan Gurganus plays very well. He plays with his characters, young adults who've come to New York, leaving their blood families, to create art, and who wind up creating a community. A bedrock-solid loving dancing sexing drinking crying caring family.

Hartley Mims, Jr., aka Hart, arrives from North Carolina, to be what? A painter? Well, he settles on being a writer, and this is supposed to be his story. In telling you about this book, how do I convey that it's not just another AIDS novel, even though the prologue looks back at the '80s and the killing fields of Greenwich Village? God, this book is actually divided into before, after and after after. It's sort of a symphony that Hart's friend Robert might write. Glorious buildup, terrific culmination and saddened unraveling.

ALLAN GURGANUS

Hartley's story is about his friends in the '80s, about his Robert (the "prettiest boy in NY in his decade, you only get ten of them a century") and his Alabama, a five-foot-tall painter who'd have called herself Georgia, but O'Keeffe already had dibs. This AIDS novel is a chronicle of hilarity. Why do I have to get all serious to tell you how out-right funny this book is? It's about the extravagance of friends and about serendipity. And, God knows, these people love their gallows humor.

This is a fairy tale, Hartley reminds the reader. "Fairies make good subjects, though they are very hard to keep around....A fairy cannot marry. A fairy believes in magic, because he cannot get a credit line in anything else. And since he so believes in magic, he really gets to practice it at times."

Did you devour Midnight in the Garden of Good and Evil and love it? This is your kind of book. How about the Tales of the City series? The magic of Barbary Lane lives on Gurganus' lower Manhattan.

I read the press notes on this book lightly (they're just someone else's take on things, aren't they?). Gurganus says this isn't his autobiography. I don't know if I believe that. He writes Hartley with such laid-bare honesty, such faltering self-awareness, that I fell in love. I mean it. I would say that 99.5% of the time good literature is not what gets me hot. And yet I fought, desperately wanting to believe that Plays Well with Others is autobiographical, that it isn't fiction, that these people are real. I loved Gurganus' characters so much I believe that if I tried hard enough, I could will them into existence. "Okay, lost boys, clap your hands if you believe in fairies. Fly, Tinkerbell, fly!"

I don't know how Gurganus does it. He creates sentences that seem like Olympic gymnastic floor exercise routines. They barrel forward, words tumbling in elegant play, bouncing and springing back upon themselves. Something that's incredibly difficult is made to look so easy. His nouns are lurid, his verbs obscene with power.

Hartley is the one who's supposedly writing, though — it's his autobiography of the plague years. But as he says, our address books are our autobiographies. He still has all 14 he's ever owned. What to do with those people who have gone, who have died? Randomly leafing through one of his address books, he thinks, "Oh, I must call him," only to remember he no longer can. But erase them? That would never do....What to do....What to do?

Actually, Plays Well with Others is most like a World War II novel. Looking back to before protease inhibitors, it shows men caught off guard, called to war and sent in for the battle of their lives. Wandering Carnegie Hall and the Museum of Modern Art, it acknowledges the ones who "had been tucked back, small among the giant columns. Ready in a way to be heroic — but uncertain when they'd really have to start."

In the time I've been reviewing books for TWT, none better has come across my desk than Plays Well with Others. And I got it for free! Now if I can just figure out how to get the publisher to spring for a couple more copies, everybody would be getting the best Christmas present around.

Happy holidays, Mr. Gurganus, your friends make great company.

Allan Gurganus signs copies of Plays Well with Others this evening, Nov. 21, at 7 p.m. at Crossroads Market Bookstore & Cafe, 1111 Westheimer Rd. in Houston.

LIQUID is Out of the Closet

Alexia arrives not entirely a stranger to the U.S. market. DeeJays and import vinyl collectors already own Italian pressings of many of her previous top five European hits. Alexia's hit-packed album Fun Club was produced by Italian super-producer Robyx (Corona, Playahitty, Double You, K.C. & The Sunshine Band, Savage, Ice M.C.). A solid pop collection, it delivers great songs in a variety of musical styles. From high-energy Euro-pop club monsters like "Me & You," "Summer Is Crazy" and "Looking For My Baby" to smooth R&B jams like "Because I Miss You" and her No. 1 international hit, "Uh La La La," Fun Club is packed with proven hits. It includes a Spanish version (complete with flamenco guitars) of the current radio single "Number One." Exotic to some, pure pop to others, Alexia is ready for America.

How long have you been singing?

Since I was four years old. Who influenced you, who did you listen to while growing up?

Black American singers: Aretha Franklin, Stevie Wonder, Patti LaBelle.

Did you always want to be a singer, or did a career as a singer come as a surprise?

I always wanted to be — always knew I would be — a singer.

What was the first record you recorded?

"Jingle Bells."

How did you come to work with Robyx?

We met at a club where I was singing. I was in a band singing covers of songs by Madonna, Tina Turner....Robyx was there scouting for a new singer. He heard me and asked me to come to his studio to audition.

What was it like recording with Ice MC? My first serious job was recording with Ice MC. We did "Scream" in 1990. It was big in Europe. Working with him was everything to me! It changed my life!

Did you tour together as well?

Yes. It was great touring with him as it gave me the opportunity to learn so many things. I learned how to perform on stage and to relate to a live audience, and how to work with sound engineers on various sound systems. I also learned how to be more professional. Before, I was in a band with my friends, so I could be myself. When I began touring with Ice MC around the world, I became more professional and diplomatic. I got better at feeling the vibe of my partner on stage and in reading my audience. At first it was difficult to balance my professional and personal life. Sometimes it was very lonely because I was used to having my friends [the band] around. Now I'm okay by myself.

DWA is like an Italian version of Motown with a stable of producers, songwriters, and artists. How do you all interact with each other? Do you tour with other DWA acts such as Double You or Corona?

We have never toured together, only worked together in the studio with other artists. We don't write songs for each other. We each write our own songs.

How did Double You end up on "Me & You"?

He's an old friend. In 1992 I sang backgrounds on "Please Don't Go," so he returned the favor on "Me & You."

What is your favorite song on the album, and why?

"Uh La La La," because it reveals the real me. I'm still a child sometimes; I like to jump on the stage and be happy and be in front of my fans. I also like this song because I like the R&B style, I feel I sing better. My voice is more comfortable at an R&B tempo. I like dance music, but sometimes it is too fast for me to sing the way I really want to.

You've had some big hits in Europe. Where have you performed? Where was the best show? What has life been like for you?

I had to work very hard for this, but now I am very happy — busy, but happy. I've performed in Helsinki, Paris, Warsaw, Barcelona, Majorca, Napoli, Germany, Monaco, Montreal, Brazil and Mexico. I didn't go to Argentina, but would like to. Every week I go somewhere else. Helsinki was the best show: There I'm very famous — almost a star! [laughs]

What did it feel like when your first record went to No. 1 on the charts? Where were you when you found out?

I was in one of the many airports I often find myself in. I thought I was dreaming. I was in Pisa [Italy], I was leaving for Brazil to promote "Me & You" [originally released in late 1996 — ed.].

Who have you performed with?

I once performed with K.C. (as in The Sunshine Band) when he was in Italy on vacation. We sang in a club. I've also performed with Sandy, Double You, Netzwerk and Simon Jay.

Are there any other artists you'd like to meet or share the bill with, and why?

There are too many to mention. Stevie Wonder [laughs]. I'm crazy, I know that, but I love him very much. Also, Aretha Franklin. I'd like to sing with her — "Natural Woman" and "Respect" [singing]. Two weeks ago I met Boys II Men in Poland. The show was great and I took some pictures with them. We're on the same label in Poland. They're great! I'd love to perform with them. Yeah, why not? [laughs] — like Mariah Carey.

JIMMY

How important is duplicating your European success in America to you?

For a singer who has grown up listening to Aretha Franklin, it would be the best thing that could happen to me.

Where would you like to perform?

The Festival di San Remo, but only as a special guest. It's in San Remo [Italy], on the sea. It's a very famous festival; if you perform there, you're famous. But it's a competition and very commercial. You have to sing a song just for the Festival — special song, special outfit. You don't want to compete there, because the winner is not always the best. So I want to appear there only as a special guest.

You were recently in New York to perform at the BMG Convention and in Chicago for the Billboard Dance Summit. What did you think of New York and Chicago?

It was wonderful, but the cities were too big for me. I had no idea where I was.

What do you do when you're not singing or touring?

I spend most of my time answering fan mail. I work out. I train my voice. It's very important to my spirit. If you're a good cook and don't cook for six months, you forget everything, all your secrets.

Where do you see yourself in five, ten years?

I have no idea; don't want to think that far ahead.

Follies

8pm - Midnight

Those Fertles are at it again....Radio Music Theatre in Houston presents its 13th annual production of A Fertle Holiday, Steve Farrell's original yuletide comedy about the "Singing Fertile family from Dumpster, Texas." Farrell, Vicki Farrell and Rich Mills portray all the characters in this show, which chronicles the family's trouble-ridden reunion as they attempt to entertain their rich relatives from San Diego. Shows are Thursdays and Fridays at 8:30 p.m. and Saturdays at 8 and 10:30 p.m., Nov. 28-Jan. 17. Desserts and beverages are available throughout the show. Admission is $14, reservations are required and tickets must be purchased in advance either at Radio Music Theatre, 2623 Colquitt, or by calling (713)522-7722.

Scriptwriters/Houston presents three one-act plays by local writers David Bell, Tommy Gothard and Melore Rougere at The Actors Workshop, 1009 Chartres, tonight and tomorrow, Nov. 21 and 22, and next Friday and Saturday, Nov. 28 and 29. Tickets are $10. For more info, call (713)707-5194.

The Little Sisters of Hoboken strut their stuff in a most unorthodox benefit show in Dan Goggins' Nunsense, which opens Dec. 4 as a production of Fort Worth Theatre, Inc. at Orchestra Hall, 4401 Trail Lake Dr. When some of the sisters are accidentally poisoned by the convent cook, the survivors come up with a unique way to pay the burial expenses. Performances are Dec. 4-6, 11-13 and 19 and 20 at 8:15 p.m., with a Sunday matinee Dec. 21 at 3 p.m. General admission tickets are $14, and $10 for students/seniors. There's also a dress rehearsal/preview at 8:15 p.m. on Wednesday, Dec. 3 (tickets $6), and all tickets to the Dec. 11 show are $7. For reservations, call (817)738-7491, Tuesday-Friday from 11 a.m.-4 p.m.

Charles H. Duggan presents the Texas premiere of Some Like It Cole!, the internationally acclaimed celebration of the "sassy songs of Cole Porter," at the Tuna Little Theatre in the Wyndham Anatole Hotel in Dallas. Devised and directed by Joseph Lillis, it's a musical comedy revue blending Cole Porter's greatest song hits with lesser known gems into a memorable evening of soaring melodies and hilarious comedy. Making up "The Woolley Sisters," a 1940s-style trio who sing and strut their way through dozens of Porter treasures, are "Katie," the innocent goldigger type; "Eadie," the perennial sidekick or best friend; and "Hattie," who's a little bit Ethel Merman, a little bit Sophie Tucker and pure porter. Performances are Tuesdays-Fridays at 8 p.m., Saturdays at 6 and 9 and Sundays at 2 and 5. Tickets ($20 and $24) are available at Dillard's or by calling (800)654-9545, and at the Tuna Little Theatre or by calling (214)651-8862.

Get out those poinsettia earrings and dust off those Andy Williams albums, because the Yuletide approacheth in Tuna, Texas, home to the worst of the holiday spirit in A Tuna Christmas, which is coming to Dallas' Majestic Theatre. Quick-change masters Joe Sears and Jaston Williams (who wrote the play along with Ed Howard, who also directs) portray all 22 of the townspeople in Tuna, the third-smallest burg in Texas, where the annual Yard Display Contest is being sabotaged by a phantom and the Smut Snatchers are trying to censor "Silent Night" on the grounds that decent people just don't sing about "round young virgins." A Tuna Christmas opens Tuesday, Dec. 9, and runs through Dec. 14 at the Majestic, 1925 Elm St. Performances are at 8 p.m. Tuesday-Saturday and 7 p.m. Sunday, with matinees at 2 p.m. Saturday and Sunday. Tickets ($18-$42) are available at TicketMaster outlets or by calling (214)373-8000 or Metro (214)647-5700.

Jaston Williams stars as Petey Fisk, the one-man Tuna Humane Society (and many other characters), in A Tuna Christmas, at the Majestic Theatre in Dallas and the Grand 1894 Opera House in Galveston.

Coincidentally, A Tuna Christmas is also being presented at the Grand 1894 Opera House, 2020 Postoffice St. on Galveston Island. Shows are tonight, Nov. 21, at 8 p.m., Saturday at 2 p.m. and 8 p.m. and Sunday at 2 p.m. and 7 p.m. For tickets or more info, call (409)765-1894, (800)821-1894 or TicketMaster at (713)629-3700.

The Sun makes its inevitable move this week into clumsy Sagittarius, where it promptly crashes into volcanic Pluto. Plan for a dramatic turn of events, friends, as Pluto stirs the pot up into a frenzied boil.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22) Proud Scorps are well advised to hold on tight to their wallets this week. Coupled with volcanic Pluto, the extravagant solar Sag energy makes a shambles of your financial security. Money can evoke its own power, but you'll have to decide if that power is used for good or for evil. Also, don't flash your cash now; this transit attracts all sorts of skulls, shills and shysters.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22) The nice thing about being the center of attention is that all eyes are upon you. Of course, that's also the bad thing about being the center of attention. The Sun conjunct Pluto may offer you the rare opportunity to making a major first impression with an extremely powerful and influential person. How "major" is up to you, of course; will you insist on wearing those hot pink chaps?

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20) If you decide to spend your time this week volunteering for a great gay cause (and you should!), do so close to home. The Sun conjunct Pluto may unleash some unexpected mishaps on queer Caps who wander the streets at night. Sometimes that's not a bad thing, but during this particular transit an intriguing stranger is a little too intriguing for my personal taste.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19) Aqueerians are one of the few signs who are naturally people-oriented. Now, with the Sun conjunct uncompromising Pluto, friendships may be temporarily put to the test. Some people may feel the need to "help" you along the "right" path. This power struggle may result in a complete reassessment of the relationship. Some things must change or else! But let them down gently...

PISCES (Feb. 20 - March 20) Since your career path has never run smoothly, the conjunction between the Sun and Pluto will not throw you for a loop. Pink Fish may be put to the professional test this week, but will emerge swimmingly well after the stormy waters settle. Optimistic Sun in Sag will help you distinguish fish from foul. Follow your rainbow no matter what; the pot of gold won't be far behind.

ARIES (March 21 - April 20) The Sun conjunct Pluto places you behind the wheel of a steamroller. The urge is to venture out, dear, queer Aries, to blaze new trails and build new structures for the world to admire. Before you rev up your motors and start tearing up the landscape, though, check to see if there are any buried landmines. They'll be scraping you off the sidewalk with a spatula if you don't tread carefully.

TAURUS (April 21 - May 21) Sex with the proper stranger may be mighty improper now for most gay Bulls. The Sun conjunct Pluto turns up the intensity in any skin ceremony, but leaves common sense tucked away in your wallet. Know thyself, but know others as well this week. Don't get carried away by just another demanding pretty face and do something you don't feel comfortable doing.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21) How did you wind up married to Attila the Hun? (perhaps he's better than Ralph Reed, but not by much...) The Sun in independent Sag collides with powerful Pluto and creates a power struggle in relationships. Gay Twins should seek their counterparts but not their reflections. It is said that in love, one plus one equals one, but let's face it, kids, we all know that one plus one equals two.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23) How reckless can one be at work? I guess it depends on how much you will allow subordinates free reign over your kingdom. Pink Crabs may find themselves quashing a rebellion. Keep the fire bombs at home where they belong, dear, queer Cancer; the Pluto/Sun conjunction moves quickly, and the more you destroy now the more you'll have to mop up later.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23) Fun runs amok during the Sun/Pluto conjunction. Proud Lions feel the muse but the muse may bite back. Don't tackle anything (or anyone) gigantic now; the urge is to take on much more than you can comfortably handle in both hands. (and more than that is usually wasted.) Relax, bubbeleh; use this transit to slowly recharge your creative spark. Meanwhile, avoid light sockets.

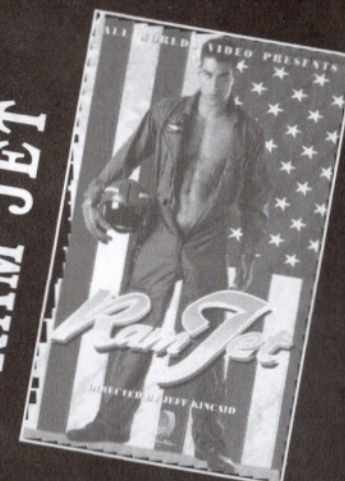

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23) Gay Virgos face a difficult situation with relatives during the Sun's conjunction with Pluto. Do you continue to suffer in that straitjacket for the sake of family peace, or do you use that forthright Sag energy to proudly set the record queer with the folks and talk turkey? Obviously there can be no more compromise. The honest Sag Sun has spoken.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23) What a week! That proudly-honest-to-the-point-of-indiscreet Sag energy infiltrates the diplomatic demeanor of every gay Libra. What you think and what you say seem to occur simultaneously now with powerful Plutonian implications. This is certainly the time to speak up and fight for what you believe in, but be prepared for a few rotten tomatoes to be launched in your direction. So what? Wear red.

PLAY DATE This Bi, White male, 5'11, 175lbs, in great physical shape, is looking for someone to play with as I'm very horny. Interested? (Amarillo) #9384

ME AND MY PARTNER

My partner and I have been together for 5 years and we'd like to meet another guy, our age or younger, to share good times with. I'm 33, 6ft, 155lbs, with an average build. My boyfriend is 35, 5'8, 140lbs. We like hanging out, going out for the evening, movies, and quiet nights at home. (Austin) #9413

COOK SOMETHING UP

This cute, friendly, 24 year old, White male, 5'7, 155lbs, with dark hair and Hazel eyes, seeks someone, 18 to 30, with similar interests for friendship or more. I like cooking, meeting new people, and hanging out. (Austin) #9424

MY ONE AND ONLY I'm a 19 year old, Blond guy, 5'11, 150lbs, with Blue eyes, looking for that special someone. If you're him, I hope you call soon. (Beaumont) #8003

THE OLD FASHIONED

WAY I'm a stocky, worked out, White male, 29, 5'10, 185lbs, with Brown hair and Green eyes. I'm looking for someone who wants to spend time getting to know each other. I'm not a drinker or smoker and don't care for the bar scene. (Dallas) #9091

RAUNCHY TREAT

This horny bottom likes big tops who are well hung. I love getting kinky and nasty. If you're into anything raunchy, let me know. (Dallas) #7021

BAREBACK RIDES If you're as confident, horny, and free feeling as I am, I know we can ride all night long. I enjoy waterskiing, horseback riding, hiking across the countryside, and much more. Let's rustle up a good time. (Edna) #9102

LINKED FOR LIFE I'm a little new at this but know that I'm looking for. I need a commitment from a guy who knows what he wants and is ready to settle down. I'm a healthy, well built, White male, 5'6, 165lbs, into hunting, fishing, dining out, and parties, among other things. (El Paso) #9302

I'VE GOT THE GOODS

This 21 year old, Gay, Hispanic male, 5'11, 165lbs, is a good top, a good bottom, and very good looking. (El Paso) #9284

AT THE AIRPORT

This tall, slim, attractive, submissive, Black brother, 6'3, 175lbs, seeks a dominant, Black top, who's good looking, fun loving, and likes hot times. (Fort Worth) #9239

WILLING TO SERVE

This attractive, Gay, White male, bottom, in west Texas, 24, 5'9, 140lbs, with long, Blond hair and Blue eyes, seeks an in shape, stocky, hairy guy, for a long term relationship. I'll relocate for the right man. #9433

ZEUS NOT REQUIRED

This 24 year old, Single, Gay, White male, on the north side, 5'10, 145lbs, wants to find a friendship that might lead to a relationship. You don't have to be a Greek god but you should be easy going, laid back, funny, and definitely honest. (Houston) #9203

DESERVE TO BE

SPOILED? I'm looking for somebody to have good times with and spoil a bit. This attractive, masculine, professional Black male likes Black or Hispanic men, in their 20's or 30's. You should be masculine, well built, and athletic. (Houston) #6657

PARK TO POSTERITY

Looking for someone to walk through the park and love life with? This down to earth, 18 year old, Hispanic male, with Brown hair, light, Brown eyes, and a muscular body, may be the one. (Lubbock) #9025

LETTER TO DADDY

I need a top man, 37 to 47, to be my daddy. I'm a good looking, Hispanic male, 5'11, 200lbs, and a hot bottom. I'd prefer that you be professional, over 6ft tall, and financially secure. (San Angelo) #9412

ROCKIN' RICAN Are you a masculine, top man, 18 to 35, with the urge to merge? I'm willing to do most anything to satisfy you. This sexy, good looking, young, hot, Black, Puerto Rican male, can't wait to meet you. (San Antonio) #9520

ALAMO AMIGO

I just moved to the area and I'd like to make some new friends and see what else happens. I'm 5'5, 145lbs, with Brown hair and eyes. I'm into the outdoors, traveling, art, and most any kind of fun. (San Antonio) #9573

COUPLA COWBOYS

This good looking, well built, Gay, White couple, both around 6ft, 185lbs, seek an energetic, well endowed top, for safe, rowdy sex. Any race is fine, as long as you can handle two men at once. (San Antonio) #9595

I LOVE EVERYBODY

I'm a good looking, laid back, Black male, 20, 5'11, 195lbs, with short hair, a goatee, and a sexy, hairy body. I'm a submissive bottom seeking dominant, top men, of any race, because I love everybody. Let's kick back and have some fun. (San Antonio) #8535

MY HAIRY BUDDY

This sexy, very well endowed, African American male, 24, 5'11, 155lbs, with dark hair, Gray eyes, and a goatee, seeks men, over 25, for hot fun. I love one on one action as well as group scenes. I'm into older, hairy men, especially dominant tops, although I'm versatile. All races welcome. (Sherman) #9584

HOUSTON CAUCUS PAC HOSTS FUND-RAISER FOR COUNCIL HOPEFUL PARKER ON MONDAY

Gay Political Group Is Urging Voters to Take Advantage of Early Balloting for Dec. 6 Runoff.

HOUSTON — Houston City Council candidate Annise Parker is the focus of a fund-raising reception hosted by the Houston Gay & Lesbian Political Caucus's Political Action Committee this Monday, Nov. 24, from 5:30–7 p.m. The reception will be held at the Moose Café, 1340 W. Gray.

Parker made local history Nov. 4 when she became the first openly gay or lesbian candidate to make it into a runoff for an at-large seat on City Council. She and front-runner Don Fitch face each other in the second round of voting on Saturday, Dec. 6.

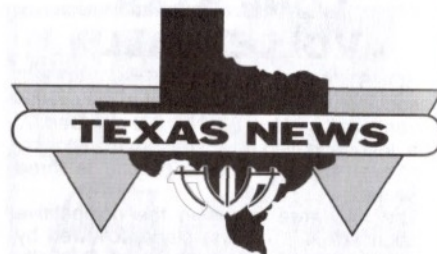

Alfonso Delaney, one of Parker's opponents on Nov. 4, endorsed her for the runoff, according to HGLPC PAC officials. Delaney, who had also screened with the Houston gay political group, received 18% of the vote.

Parker had earlier gotten the endorsements of a wide range of political and other organizations, including, in addition to HGLPC PAC, the national Gay and Lesbian Victory Fund, the Houston Police Officers Union, the Houston Chronicle, the Jewish Herald-Voice and Log Cabin Republicans-Houston. Elected officials supporting Parker include U.S. Rep. Sheila Jackson Lee, state Senators Rodney Ellis and John Whitmire and state Representatives Garnet Coleman, Debra Danburg, Scott Hochberg, Sylvester Turner and Ken Yarbrough.

"Annise Parker represents mainstream Houston voters," HGLPC PAC Board Chair Clarence Bagby said. "Her broad range of endorsements illustrate that fact."

Parker's organization said volunteers were still needed for the runoff campaign. Her campaign can be reached at (713) 521-7338.

At press time, underwriters for the Parker fund-raiser included Bagby, HGLPC PAC Co-chair Jay Seegers, Christopher Bacon, Bill Clevenger, Tom Cordell, Kevin Davidson, Jewel Day, Rick Flowers, John Freeman, Robert L. Johnson, Clair Koep-sel, Joel Laser, Lane Lewis, Steven Ovalle, Anne Pike, Shelley Porter, Ray Ramirez, Steve Tarry, Gary Van Ooteghem and Cicely Wynne.

Complimentary hors d'oeuvres will be served at the event, and a cash bar will be available. The general public is invited. A suggested $25 donation is requested.

The Caucus is urging voters to take advantage of early balloting, which ends at 4:30 p.m. on Tuesday, Dec. 2. Early voting locations are open Monday–Friday from 8 a.m.–4:30 p.m., and on Saturdays and Sundays from 1–6 p.m. Inner-city locations include the Metropolitan Multi-Service Center at 1475 W. Gray and the Kmart store at 8230 Kirby Dr. at O.S.T. and Main. For information on other early voting locations, call (713)755-6411.

HOLIDAY GIFT PROJECT IN DALLAS KICKS OFF ITS 12TH SEASON

Tavern Guild to Distribute Hundreds of Baskets to People Living with AIDS.

DALLAS — In 1986 Alan Ross, then Director of the Dallas Tavern Guild and a tireless worker for gay rights and advocate for people with AIDS, began what has in a dozen years become one of the largest grassroots holiday projects in Texas, if not in the U.S. Ross' initial vision of providing gift baskets to people with AIDS in area hospitals, PLWA Housing in Oak Cliff, the AIDS Food Pantry and the Daire Center of Oak Lawn Community Services has grown over the years and now between 500 and 700 of those much-welcome presents are distributed.

Since Ross' death in 1995, members of the Dallas Tavern Guild have continued this project in his memory and in his name. The baskets consist of colorful gift bags or boxes filled with apples, pears, trail mix, hard candy, juices, cookies, stuffed animals and an appropriate seasonal greeting card explaining the gift and listing those generous contributors who make it possible.

While some of the included items are donated by area businesses and others are underwritten by Dallas organizations and clubs, the vast majority of the funds needed to complete this yearly undertaking are donated by members of the community. Because no administrative costs whatsoever are associated with this project, the cost of each gift is between $15 and $20, and with approximately 700 scheduled for distribution the week before Christmas, the Dallas Tavern Guild seeks the community's help in this undertaking.

Suggested contributions are as follows (although gifts of any amount will be accepted and gratefully acknowledged): individual contribution: $10 or more if possible; couples contribution: $20 or more if possible; organization contribution: $30 or more if possible; and business contribution: $40 or more if possible. The deadline to have one's name printed on the greeting card as a contributor is Dec. 12, so contributions should be mailed as soon as possible. Contributors may, of course, remain anonymous if they prefer. All checks should be made payable to the Dallas Tavern Guild and mailed to 3300 Reagan Street, Dallas, Texas 75219. For additional information, call (214)521-0622.

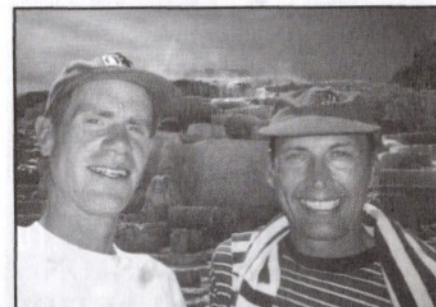

HOUSTON CABLE SHOWS TAKE QUEER TRIPS AROUND THE WORLD, INTERNET

*'Hanging 10 on the GayNet,' Joins 'Pharm Boys' on the Air
This Month and in December.*

HOUSTON — Television is taking gay-themed jaunts around the world and over the Internet these days with two productions — one brand new, the other a veteran among local cable productions — that can be seen in different time slots in November and December.

Hanging 10 on the GayNet, which began airing earlier this month, features well-known local entertainer Kelly Lauren as instructor/hostess. The 30-minute show, billed as an introduction to the "pinker" side of the Internet, takes its audience on a tour of e-mail, newsgroups, Web sites, chat rooms and more, with illuminating comments from local figures. Producer Kevin White described the title as a play on words deriving from surfers' lingo (as in "surfing the Net") and a spicy sexual reference.

Houstonians Reed Anderson [l] and John Sahm take viewers on a gay trip around the world on Pharm Boys.

Revealing a bit of behind-the-scenes production gossip, White said that "straight guys who saw 'Mr.' Lauren flipped out with excitement....When you see the show you'll see what I mean."

White said he has included a very diverse group from the local community "to help shed light on the Internet" from a lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgendered perspective.

Hanging 10 on the Internet can be seen on Access Houston Community Television this Sunday, Nov. 23, at 2 a.m., Nov. 28 at 5 p.m., Dec. 4 at 11 a.m., Dec. 16 at 2 p.m., Dec. 19 at 5 p.m. and Dec. 22 at 12 a.m. Channels are Warner 17, Phonoscope 72, Optel 8 and TCI (check TV listings).

Hanging 10 joins Pharm Boys, a sort of campy, freewheeling travelogue that has been airing in Houston the last four years. Producers John Sahm and Reed Anderson take video equipment with them on their trips around the world, recording their experiences and adding personal commentary and those special touches that many a resident of Montrose, the Heights and other Houston neighborhoods will enjoy.

"If you're gay you'll understand; if you're not, you'll just think it's cute," Sahm said of Pharm Boys.

Show times for Pharm Boys #13 are Nov. 24 at 10 p.m., Nov. 26 at 1 p.m. and

Nov. 27 at 6:30 p.m. Pharm Boys #12 can be seen Dec. 1 at 2 a.m., Dec. 5 at 9 a.m., Dec. 7 at 2:30 a.m., Dec. 12 at 2:30 p.m., Dec. 16 at 11 a.m., Dec. 21 at 1:30 a.m. and Christmas Day, Dec. 25, at 8 a.m.

In addition to his television project, White has set up a Web site that he hopes will serve as a central repository for local gay-oriented information, including a calendar of events. The site should be fully up and running in another week or so.

Sahm said he and Anderson are also setting up a Web site, which should be accessible shortly and which will allow viewers to see segments of Pharm Boys while on line.

RED RIBBON TOY DRIVE IN HOUSTON BRINGING IN YULETIDE PRESENTS FOR KIDS

*Joint Effort Will Distribute
Gifts to Hundreds of Children
With or Affected by HIV.*

HOUSTON — AIDS Foundation Houston, The Alley Theatre, Texas Children's Hospital and the University of Texas-Houston Health Science Center are teaming up to make the holiday season a bit brighter for children infected with or affected by HIV. Beginning this Monday, Nov. 24, Houstonians are being asked to bring new, unwrapped toys to the Alley box office, 615 Texas Ave., to receive a 20% discount off tickets to selected showings of the theatre's production of A Christmas Carol.

Toys can also be dropped off at AIDS Foundation Houston, 3202 Wesleyan Annex; Evin Thayer Studios, 2643 Colquitt; or Giovanni, 4444 Montrose.

Last year's drive brought in toys for 635 children. This year's effort hopes to serve more than 750 HIV-infected and affected kids ranging in age from birth to 12 years.

"For more than nine years now, the Alley Theatre has brought A Christmas Carol and the spirit of the holidays to thousands of children in Houston," Alley Theatre Managing Director Paul Tetreault said. "We are familiar with how their faces light up in delight with even the smallest holiday memento. Our holiday wish is that the children — those with AIDS-related burdens — who receive the gifts from the Red Ribbon Toy Drive will find peace and joy with their families this holiday season."

According to statistics provided by AFH, two Americans under the age of 20 become infected with HIV every hour of the day, and youth 13-24 are at the highest risk of HIV infection. Most recipients of donations from the Red Ribbon Toy Drive live on fixed incomes and are unable to provide toys for their children.

Patrons who bring a gift for the Red Ribbon Toy Drive at the Alley Theatre will receive 20% off tickets to A Christmas Carol. Tickets must be purchased in person at the Alley box office, and there is a limit of four tickets per gift. Tickets are available for performances Dec. 1-12 only, and are subject to availability. For more information, call the Alley box office at (713)228-8421. For general information, call the Red Ribbon Toy Drive Event Line at (713)629-9255.

Ask anyone across the country where the top female impersonators make their home and they'll tell you Texas. In fact, a list of the top entertainers of the past and present reads as a virtual who's who of Lone Star lovelies. This week, as Lauren Taylor passes her Miss Gay America crown on, TWT brings you a little behind-the-scenes peek at some of your favorites, all of whom reside in Texas and have current national titles.

*Texan Lauren Taylor of Austin
Miss Gay America 1997*

When Darrell Cantu was born on October 9, 1969, no one could have guessed the accolades awaiting this bouncing baby boy. The adopted son of educators, his father a high school principal and his mother a librarian, this 28-year-old Libra graduated from King High School in Corpus Christi before moving to Austin in 1989 where he attended Austin Community College and Southwest Texas State University in San Marcos.

Lauren acknowledges fellow Texan Victoria West as the entertainer who has most inspired her in the development of her stage persona, and fully credits her lover Tom Kidwell with guiding her career on its meteoric rise and for helping her attain so many goals in such a relatively short time. "We met at Miss Gay America two years ago and things really took off after that, both personally and professionally." Lauren, who began entertaining in 1988 in Corpus Christi, has been a consistent winner since day one. Her first contest appearance, at the Top Hat Club, resulted in a win and she's never looked back. She was crowned Miss Gay Texas in 1996 and placed as first runner-up at Miss Gay America that year. She returned the following year and captured the Miss Gay America title in Charlotte, North Carolina out of a field of 61 contestants.

Lauren returns to Charlotte this week and will be on hand, along with some of the top names in female impersonation, to crown Miss Gay America 1998 at Ovens Auditorium this Sunday evening. "One should be grateful for the things they receive and never take them for granted. I am very blessed to have friends, family and my career, and I do believe that you can accomplish anything in your life because dreams do come true. I know, because mine did."

*Texan Maya Douglas of Dallas
National Entertainer of the Year 1997*

Although Maya has only called Texas home for a year and a half, her hold on all of us is firmly established and easily understandable. All of Texas, and especially Dallas, has embraced Maya as its own and that love is definitely a two-way street.

Born on September 13 in Rochester, New York, Maya graduated from Ben Franklin High School where she was a member of the National Honor Society, was active on the Year Book staff and served as vice-president of her Senior Class. It was while Maya was still in her teens that she began studying cosmetology and, on Valentine's night 1980, entered the Miss Rochester Pageant at Jim's Disco, placing second runner-up. She went on to garner the "coveted" title Miss Jim's 1981 and then decided to get serious about her career. Returning and winning Miss Rochester the following year, she won the Miss Central New York Pageant in 1983 and made her first trip to Chicago in 1984 to compete at Miss Continental, where she placed as fifth runner-up.

She returned the following year as Miss New York Continental and won the prestigious national title. Maya honed her craft during eight years at the famed Baton Show Lounge in Chicago and in 1994 entered and won the Miss Central States USofA Pageant, going on to win Miss Gay USofA 1995 in Dayton, Ohio. She traveled extensively during her year, moved to Dallas in 1996, was nominated for and won Texas Entertainer of the Year 1997, and went on to sweep the field at the national finals in Louisville, Kentucky, the fourth Texan to do so in that pageant's seven-year history.

Maya shares a lovely home with her lover of three years, Kevin Gonzalez, a color specialist and visual artist, and their cats Spanky and Buckwheat. "I've been very fortunate during my career, and credit those around me for my success. I've always found it ironic that while it takes 51 facial muscles to frown, it only takes 12 to smile."

*Texan Tamisha Iman
of Houston
Miss Gay Universe 1997*

A true native of the deep South, Willie Crawford was born on October 16, 1970 in Birmingham, Alabama. His family eventually moved to Atlanta, Georgia where he attended the School for the Performing Arts. By the time he graduated, he was no stranger to the stage. A lasting love affair with the theatre, fueled by his outstanding dramatic and dance abilities, had begun. Seven years ago, the lure of the spotlight led him to explore a new theatrical outlet and Tamisha Iman was born.

Tamisha has had the distinction of winning two of the three national competitions that she has entered the first time around. The first of these was Miss National for Female Impersonators. She cites former and current Miss Nationals Tommie Ross, Tasha Long and Cezanne as performers who have shown her the level of professionalism that can be achieved in female impersonation. During her reign as Miss National, Tamisha had her first taste of Texas hospitality during the 1996 Miss Gay USofA Pageant. This introduction would leave a lasting impression. The following year, Tamisha left a lasting impression on Texas by returning to Miss Gay USofA in Dallas and placing as third runner-up. Those who didn't know her name when they got there definitely knew it when they left. "Tamisha Iman, I know ya know me" has become her unforgettable catch phrase. Impressed by what Texas has to offer those who are perfecting the art of female impersonation, Tamisha moved to Houston and entered this year's Miss Gay Texas USofA Pageant where she received second runner-up honors. Her second crowning accomplishment was her sweeping victory at the newly-revived Miss Gay Universe Pageant in August.

Tamisha is currently touring the United States promoting Miss Gay Universe and the Global Pageantry System. "It is an honor and a privilege to live in a state that encourages talented young entertainers to explore their diversity. With the love and support I have found here in Texas, I am truly ready to take on the universe."

*Texan Whitney Paige
of Dallas
Miss Gay USofA
At-Large 1997*

Whitney came into this life 35 years ago, on May 10, 1962, as Darryl Kendrick in Clarksville, Tennessee, where he resided until the age of 20. A graduate of Clarksville High School, he went on to attend Austin Peay State University and the University of Tennessee, where he majored in Music and Voice. He received an associate's degree in Music and Theatre from Belmont College in Nashville before moving to Texas in 1982.

Texas' love affair with Whitney began more than 15 years ago. An only child, she knew early on that her future was in the performance arts and it wasn't long until this multitasking performer's path led her to the art of female impersonation. She garnered her first title, Miss Gay Arlington, in 1983 and has been a consistent winner ever since, walking away with the Miss Gay Texas America, Texas Entertainer of the Year, Miss Gay Dallas USofA, Miss Gay Texas USofA and the Miss Gay Texas USofA At-Large titles before realizing her ultimate goal of winning a national title: Miss Gay USofA At-Large, which she won from that contest's largest and most competitive field ever.

Whitney makes her home in Dallas along with her lover of four years, Michael Pennington, and their pitbull chow named Pugsley. Whitney appears regularly in the Rose Room of Dallas' Village Station, where her huge legion of loyal fans refer to her as the "national bank of Whitney," a testament to her unparalleled money-making abilities in that venue. Whitney credits the late Jimi Dee and Naomi Sims as the inspiration for her phenomenal career and, in fact, honors Naomi by referring to herself as "The Eyes of Whitney Paige."

We hope that our readers have enjoyed this look into the inspirations and aspirations of Texas' finest female impersonators. We wish them the best of luck in all of their future endeavors.

HOUSTON TEA — Last week, Heaven hosted the annual Miss Houston for Female Impersonators Pageant. Winner Tara Dion [above, c] celebrated her moment of crowning glory with second runner-up Lana Blake [l] and first runner-up Kaviar [r]. While on the subject of crossing the gender line, Heaven will present recording artist and club diva Kevin Aviance in a special midnight show on Saturday, Nov. 29. He'll be performing his Billboard dance hits "Din Da Da," "Cunty" and more. We hope that everyone is ready for some red-hot party action next week because the club's El Niño Wednesday Thanksgiving Eve blowout is sure to be one of the biggest midweek parties of the year. In addition to deejay Kamikaze spinning the best in Latin and progressive house, they'll have the Houston release of Cyndi Lauper's "Ballad of Cleo & Joe" with prize giveaways all night long....

Phase One of the renovations at JR's is complete. The club's plan for a bigger and better look will continue after the holidays. Speaking of holidays, the friendly foursome of Mark, Mike, Chad and Jim [above, l-r] want you to join them for JR's traditional Thanksgiving Day feast. Next Thursday, Nov. 27, from 1:30-4:30 p.m., they'll have a bountiful buffet with all the trimmings. Thanksgiving weekend will feature three days of great music, super videos, sexy dancers and nightly drink specials....

Tomorrow night, The Club Houston invites you to get away from it all and join them for The Grind. Along with a catered buffet and beverages, they'll have drawings for a color TV, a boom box and a clock radio. Everything you need to forget your troubles is waiting for you at The Club....

Last Sunday, Gentry kicked off the holiday season with "A Gobble Gobble Good Time" featuring Thanksgiving dinners served by caring volunteers Val, Erik, Kurt, Robert, Debbie and Carol [below, l-r]. A star-studded show and a successful raffle also benefited AVES and their efforts to feed over 100 families on Thanksgiving. If the fall weather's making you chilly, get on over to Gentry and warm up to the club's sizzling strip contests on Sunday and Wednesday and Boy Toy dancers seven nights a week. Next week's Thanksgiving Eve competition is sure to make you hungry for more than turkey and dressing....

One thing you can always be thankful for at Pacific Street is hot men and hot music. Next Wednesday, it's "Pure Party Pleasure" with no cover for those visiting from out of state. Thanksgiving night at P.S. will help you work off that holiday dinner with "Master Bait II." There'll be no cover for men in leather, so get on over to the club and find yourself something to keep you warm on these chilly November

The club at 220 Avondale is now called Liquid and it's "out of the closet," with special events for the gay community every Wednesday-Sunday. Their grand opening festivities from Nov. 26-30 begin with "Another Shade of White" next Wednesday featuring the Twisted Elegance fashion concert. All five nights will bring you an abundance of drink specials, promotions and theme events to help you experience the latest East Coast club crazes....

If you're looking for something to get your weekend off to a great start, Fuel Fridays at Rich's will definitely shift you into high gear. Starting Nov. 28, the club's atmospheric engineers Chris Sill and James Montgomery [below, l-r], along with Atomic Music's DJ Fusion and the always glamorous M. Pussycat, will make sure you're heated up and ready to go. Tonight, Rich's hosts the first annual Miss Gay Galaxy Pageant with special guests Jill Jordan, Lauren Brach, Laura Lee Love and porn legend Jeff Stryker....

And if you can't get enough of Jeff Stryker, the adult video megastar will be at Alternatives of Adult Video Megaplexxxx tomorrow to sign autographs from 2-6 p.m. Does this whet your appetite even more? Check out Alternatives' extensive selection of videos, magazines and novelties....

Last week's coverboys, Mason and Dixon [left], put on a spectacular SRO show at the Midtowne Spa. Tonight at 10 p.m., join host/hostess David Richardson aka Barbara Velour for a Houston send-off show as he departs for Austin. Tomorrow night, The Garage returns for another exciting evening of Levi and leather. Every Wednesday at the Spa, it's amateur strip at the place where the night never ends....

Over at Vera's Closet, the QT's staff is all abuzz about the club's all-new Saturday night shows. From 10 p.m.-2 a.m., hostess Shawna Roberts serves up a bevy of super

Every Monday, Bubbalicious and friends want you to follow them to Q Cafe at the corner of Richmond and Greenbriar for "The Party." An evening of billiards, dancing, conversation and specially priced well drinks is a taste of the high life that's hard to resist. Everyone will be there....

Last Saturday's Elegant Elephant banquet was a gala evening that featured a cocktail reception, dinner, a silent auction and several inspiring speeches. Notables at the event included prominent businesswoman Marion Coleman, Log Cabin Republicans of Houston president Ben Whittle, keynote speaker Rep. Jim Kolbe of Arizona and former LCRH president Gary Van Ooteghem [above, l-r]. Congratulations to everyone involved with this annual event.

SAN ANTONIO TEA — The Silver Dollar Saloon offers something that would make a Yankee blush as they present their annual pre-Thanksgiving feast for the sons of the Deep South to enjoy this Tuesday evening, Nov. 25. Check out their annual Catfish Fry from 7-9 p.m. this Tuesday and you'll get that feeling of true Southern hospitality. Catfish with all the trimmings will be spread before the masses for all of you to enjoy. Don't get too full, though, because at 9:30 they've got the karaoke contest with $100 in cash prizes going to the winners. Longtime drinkslinger and Silver Dollar manager Lonnie [right] invites everyone to come on down to the club each Thursday for an all-new night of drag and male dancers with hostess and emcee Ophillia Dickie. Don't miss it....

Pegasus gives you something that will whet your appetite on Tuesday, too. They bring out the best of their male dancers to strut and stride all night long. Don't miss their ever-popular happy hour prices all day and all night on Tuesday. They've always got something you'll be thankful for at the Pegasus....

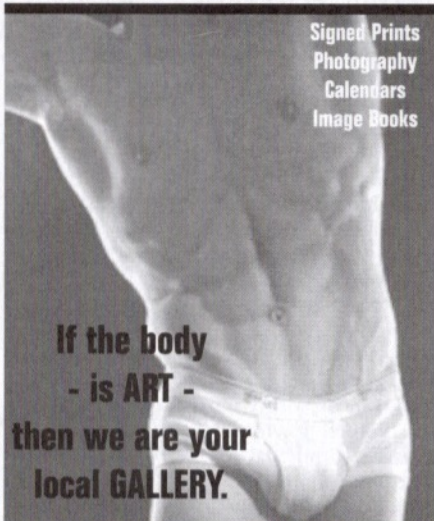

The Saint welcomed a double dose of Texas royalty last weekend when reigning Miss Texas Continental Plus Kelexis Davenport [left] and reigning Miss Texas Continental Melissa Crawford joined the cast of the club's Super Sunday Show. Be sure to be at the club on Sunday, Dec. 7 when the Miss Gay Tri-States pageant takes to the Saint stage. The star-studded lineup is scheduled to include last year's winner Amber Nixx, Miss Gay USofA Jacquelyn DeVaroe and former titleholders Kourtney Van Wales, Jame Perry, Sweet Savage and Nicole Dubois. For more information, call the club's party line at (210)22-SAINT or e-mail them at sasaint@ix.netcom.com....

Today, Prisms offers you TGIF happy hour from 4-11 p.m. with no cover until 10 p.m. and dancers starting at 10 p.m.

Saturday, it's hot music and cheap drinks with no cover until 10 p.m. On Thanksgiving Thursday, they open at 6 p.m. with no cover until 10 p.m. and the show starts at 11 p.m. with lots of guests....

The Eagle Mountain Saloon is now home to Mr. Bexar County Bear for 1998 Norm Morris [right]. Our congratulations go out to Norm. Everyone knows he'll represent his title well during the coming year. The club play host to the Jansman Bowling League this Sunday for their big event. Get on over and join in the fun, while helping others in the community. Lots of new happenings are going on over at the EMS, including a hot, new ultimate mix dance night on Mondays that features none other than "Stormin' Norman" as deejay. The club has also announced an all-male revue with their amateur strip contest starting at 10 p.m., with over $100 in prizes to the winners. Don't forget to join the staff for their "friends of the community" Thanksgiving dinner this Thursday, Nov. 27 starting at 6 p.m....

The Annex will be paying tribute to all their friends with a big Thanksgiving dinner feast on Thursday, Nov. 27, starting at 6 p.m. It's their way of saying "thank you" to the whole community for helping make the Annex one of the most popular clubs in San Antonio. The fireplace will be roaring and there'll be an abundance of food. So, get on over to your "home away from home" and enjoy the evening with your "other family."

AUSTINTEACIOUS — Well, friends, the holiday season is upon us. This week is Thanksgiving and, as usual, many of us will eat too much and love every minute of it. We'll watch football, play cards, chat and spend the day with our families or our spouses' families. Then, about 9 p.m., most of us will shriek, "Get me out of here! I must have a cocktail and be around other gay people!" So there we'll be, in the bars exchanging turkey-day family horror stories, laughing at how funny all our friends' families are. I love this time of year!...

Charlie's has wonderful news: The long-awaited Charlie's calendar is now available for sale. Twelve pages long, it's filled with gorgeous studs selected by you at the club's calendar boy search this past summer. Ask your favorite bartender for your copy. Also, once again Daddy Wayne is having his annual Thanksgiving Day dinner. The feast is set to begin at 1 p.m., and will go on until the food is gone. Anyone who's ever eaten his cooking knows that Wayne sets out a spread that is truly reason to give thanks. Speaking of giving thanks, that's just what we'd do to have this handsome stud [right] come over and stuff our turkey! Nacha Type is still working it for you on Thursdays. This week, she welcomes Bridgette Bodet as her special guest. Heather Thomas is still showing you all the cuties on wet underwear Mondays as well as comedy on Mondays, too. Charlie's, the place to be in Austin....

Happy birthday to you, happy birthday to you...The Forum marks their first anniversary this weekend. We congratulate them on a successful first year. They're celebrating with a White and Gold Anniversary Party, and we've been promised balloons, champagne and a great time. Speaking of partying, talent night is quite the festive event, and hostess Jame Perry [left] is always a party waiting to happen! On Turkey Day, Bob Wassar will have a feast spread out for your dining pleasure starting at 1 p.m. — yet another stop on the Thanksgiving Day rolling buffet....

The Edge has a new lineup: Mondays are now Retro Nights as well as hairdresser and bar staff appreciation nights, with happy hour all day and all night. Wednesdays are amateur strip-offs, with Chocolate as your hostess. Thursdays are camp lounge nights, with all your forgotten lounge and disco favorites along with martini specials all night! Sundays are now

Male Call, with dancers from 8 p.m.—midnight. Go see hunks in next to nothing move and groove for your viewing pleasure....

Rainbow Cattle Company keeps all the boys happy — the beer is cold and the men are good-looking. These two cowboys [above] certainly seem to be having a great time. We're always on the hunt for a new hat, guys. Dance lessons on Tuesdays continue to be a festive time for everybody; the boys are getting better and better, as you can tell on any Saturday night. The dance floor is packed full of buckle-polishers. We love a man who knows how to twirl. Some to remember: Austin's only country bar is also having a buffet on Thanksgiving Day, and it starts at around 3 p.m. So go down and stuff yourself with some of the bird and look for a stuffer of your own....

N8 Clothing has begun their own food drive. Everyone who brings in a food donation will receive a special in-store discount. A can of soup = a discount; macaroni and cheese = a discount; Tide = a discount. Get the picture. So while you're there being a good citizen, let friendly staffer Cody [left] help you pick out some hot and festive clubwear and holiday apparel.

Latex, spandex, cotton — N8 Clothing has all your favorite styles in the hottest looks around....

'Bout Time has a huge event on the horizon: They're planning a comedic musical revue of our favorite lesbian singers. And guest what: Actual lesbians are going to perform as lesbians! Some of the gals you can see are Jone Jet, K.D. Lame and the ZZ Girls. Thursdays continue to be a real hoot with the very competitive pool tournaments. Your hosts Peter and J.D.

are on hand to ensure there's no sleight of hand. These fun folks are always coming up with something new to show you a good time. Go on up to the north side and say "hi" to Tom, Pam, Corey, Marshall, Chaz, Carey, Jerry, Monte, Raul, Pat and Roger, your northside neighbors and fun-time hosts....

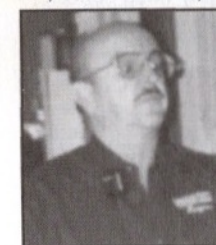

During the Thanksgiving season, let us remember our friends who need us. Your donations to the AIDS Services of Austin food bank will be even more appreciated at this time of year. Let's help everyone to enjoy a plentiful day on Thursday. Please give from your heart at the food bank and in donation barrels at your favorite clubs. A little from each of us will go a long way toward helping a lot of people. We all can have a great Thanksgiving. Bon appétit!

DALLAS TEA — TMC's got the hottest men around heading into the club for some of their legendary warm and friendly service, like customer Danny Mendez [right]. They've got the music you enjoy hearing every day and the coldest drinks around. Make sure you get into the Mine and they'll make sure you have a good time....

This Sunday, Nov. 23 Alternatives of New Fine Arts brings the legendary adult video star and monumentally talented actor, the one and only Jeff Stryker, to Dallas for an exclusive personal appearance from 3-7 p.m. This is a rare opportunity for you to meet the star of Stryker Force and scores of your other favorite films during an autograph and photo session. An extensive collection of Jeff's videos will be available for purchase during his appearance for you to get autographed. Jeff Stryker will be on hand to announce the winner of the raffle for one lucky person who'll accompany manager Mark Lock to the Gay Adult Video Awards in Los Angeles next month. Make your plans now to attend this special event that is only made possible through Alternatives of New Fine Arts. They're located at 1720 West Mockingbird Lane between Harry Hines and I-35; use the rear entrance and check out the new construction on their ever-expanding store while you're there. Don't miss the incredibly talented Jeff Stryker this Sunday from 3-7 p.m....

Village Station manager Uncle Terry [left] is always keeping an eye on the door and greeting the regulars who've been having fun at the number one dance club for years. Make your way up to the Rose Room and catch their fabulous cast of regulars this weekend, joined by special guest the beautiful Jamie Hunter from Florida. Sunday's special guest is Nakoma Shaye along with Donna Day, Celeste Martinez, Cassie Nova and Maya Douglas. Miss Gay USofA Jacquelyn DeVaroe is coming to the Rose Room next weekend....

The men at the Hidden Door have their traditional Thanksgiving dinner planned for all their friends to enjoy. When you've been doing things right for so long, is it any wonder that the holidays with old friends are the best holidays? Stop in and see all your favorite Hidden Door staff on Thanksgiving and let them know how much you like the way they stuffed the turkey. They do everything so well. You can't help but admire these guys, who really know how to please their men....

JR's barback Julian [right] looks like he has everything under control. He's got his work cut out for him with the crowds that pack the club day and night. No wonder he looks so good — he has to keep in tip-top shape to make sure everything runs smoothly so you're always guaranteed a great time seven days and nights a week. Congratulations to manager Donald Solomon and the folks at JR's on their 17th year in operation at Dallas' favorite corner....

The Turtle Creek Chorale present their holiday concerts at the magnificent I.M. Pei-designed Morton H. Meyerson Symphony Center starting Nov. 30 at 8 p.m. They'll be joined by the Hamilton Park Male Chorus for a program filled with holiday gospel music. "Like No Other Sound On Earth" is the aptly titled concert theme for four days. Tickets are $10 to $30, and available by calling (214)526-3214. TCC shows are always a sellout, so call now....

The Brick presents Butch Ball next Friday, Nov. 29, with music by legendary deejay Troy Sands. Get there early and let the music move you starting at 9 p.m. The men at The Brick have a party going every weekend, but next Friday is really going to be one of those parties that kick the weekend off in a big way. So make your way to the big Butch Ball on Maple Avenue. Catch the Brick Moby shuttle all night long....

Moby Dick has a weekly lineup that can't be beat. It's sweeps week and that means fun times are waiting for you all day every day. Monday's Post Office with Bartenders In Briefs at 10 p.m. is guaranteed to stamp out the blues. Tuesday's Show Tunes with Wayne Smith kick into high gear at 10 p.m. Wednesday's Gay Family Feud is a fun-filled riot with emcee

Steve Andrews. Thursday's Gong Show is coming up on Dec. 4 at 10 p.m. with that irrepressible emcee Wayne Smith. The weekend is full of special events that are definite winners. Make sure you don't miss out on the club's reduced drink prices from 9-11 p.m. every Friday and Saturday night. Make sure you catch the Razzle Dazzle Dallas fund-raiser for Home for the Holidays during Show Tunes night this Tuesday, Nov. 25....

Bamboleo's owner/manager Alfredo [right] brings the annual Best of Bamboleo's Pageant to the club tonight, Friday, Nov. 21. The star-studded show features favorites from past and present and the crowning of the 1997 queen. Make sure you don't miss this once-a-year extravaganza. Thirsty Thursdays are the best time you can have, with no cover and drastically reduced drink prices all night long. The hottest dance music around and their huge dance floor also make for a fun time....

Crews Inn dancer Karl [right] is just one of the men you can be thankful for this Thanksgiving. Owner Gary Monier is always on the lookout for something to feast his eyes on. The Friday night Trash Disco crowds make it a lot easier for Myrna to find a man or two who'll catch his attention. The legendary Crews Inn Tuesdays are still the best Tuesday night party in town....

The Odysseus Guide offers the finest international gay travel planner, covering more than 110 countries worldwide from Albania to Zimbabwe and beyond. Odysseus is available at your favorite gay bookstores worldwide. Make sure you request their free color brochure. Odysseus travel arrangements are available from your local IGLTA travel agent....

Miss Ellie [left] will be on hand to greet everyone for Zippers' annual Thanksgiving Day Feast. The whole gang gets in on the act and brings their favorite holiday recipe for the buffet table, and the wonderfully delicious food seems never-ending. The feast for your stomach is truly memorable and the feast for your eyes will be quite remarkable, too. Male dancers are the order of the day every day at Zippers. Make your way to the club this week and you'll definitely have something to be thankful for....

Dallas Eagle has the hottest after hours around every Saturday night. Check with the club about all their man-sized holiday plans. Matt and the guys are always glad to see a new face and last weekend was no exception. They hosted the Leather Knights Man-euvers, and the place was packed the entire weekend with the hottest men coming in from all points of the globe. That was just a taste of the holiday weekends coming up. Get ready for New Year's Eve. What a party that's going to be! Why wait? It's a party tonight and every night....

Congregation Beth El Binah invites everyone to celebrate Shabbat every second and fourth Friday of the month at the Community Center, 2701 Reagan Street at Brown. Shabbat begins at 8:15 p.m. and all are welcome. While you're there, ask about the building fund and how you can be a part of this wonderful work.

TARRANT TEA — Fort Worth's legendary 651 Club will be serving up their 28th annual Thanksgiving day lunch starting at 1 p.m. Donations are requested for We Are Doing Something For Charity. The Miss Plymouth Rock Pageant is at 7 p.m. Thanksgiving night. They have an ATM cash machine for your convenience. Stop in and see what Scott and the boys have planned for the Christmas holidays....

Magnolia Station's annual Turkey Trot keeps the crowds moving and grooving all night long. The music is hot and the men are hotter. Make sure you go by and see big Mama and find out what she's got planned for the holidays at Magnolia Station. The Sunday shows are not-to-be-missed, with fabulous cast regulars and special weekly guests....

Arlington 651 congratulates Mr. TGRA 1998 Kris Hamby, who raised thousands of dollars for charity at the club while campaigning for his title. Good Luck this year. If you missed the Office Lounge reunion show last night, don't think that you'll have to wait for another show with that big of a cast. Tomorrow night, Saturday, Nov. 22, the courts of Fort Worth/Arlington and Dallas hold a Grudge Match between East and West cities, with all proceeds to be divided up evenly between the two for all the charities they'll be supporting during the upcoming holidays. Make your plans to see this show, which will be hosted by ICdeFW/A Empress Erica Chatelaine and UCLSE Empress Donna Dumae. Happy birthday to "H-A" Jim next Saturday, Nov. 29. Be sure you're on hand to help Jim celebrate.

TWT POLICY

Because prostitution is illegal in Texas, state law prohibits the placement in this category of any such ads. Therefore, TWT policy stipulates that we will not and cannot knowingly accept any advertisements suggesting solicitation. It's the law. Also, state law prohibits non-licensed massage therapists from using terms such as "massage," "Swedish," "acupressure," "Shiatsu," "reflexology," "body rub," "back rub," "body massage" or any term which indicates bodily contact.

OBITUARIES

David Lawrence Watts
Born September 5, 1969, departed November 7, 1997 after a stressful battle with Aids/Hodgkin's Disease. David had returned to his birthplace, Anniston, Alabama where he lies in peace at his father's side, amongst the mountains and the valley. We love you David: Pat Romine Kimber (mother), Bruce Kimber (step-father), your special friends; Reagan, John, John L., Carlos, Tony, many of hte employees and customers of Charlie's Coffee Shop, and numerous others.
See you later!
