REVIEWED BY STEVEN LINDSEY

Get ready to sit back, relax and enjoy an hour and a half of gay short-attention-span theatre! That's exactly what Plano Repertory Theatre is offering up with The Only Thing Worse You Could Have Told Me..., and it's an incredibly refreshing break from the tedium of some recent stage offerings.

Dan Butler, best known as Bob "Bulldog" Briscoe on NBC's Frasier, is the playwright of this delightful look at the wide spectrum of gay male personalities and the "non-gays" with whom we interact. At first, I was under the impression that Butler himself would be starring in the production and was disappointed on arrival to see that local actor Terry Martin was the star (and sole) performer. Within minutes, however, I was completely in awe of the poignant, often hilarious ways Martin transforming himself into each new character with surprising believability. There wasn't a single character portrayal which lacked credibility.

And there are plenty of characters to channel. In fact, the one-man show features 12 different characters in 15 brief-yet-bull's-eye-accurate vignettes, ranging from a straight man's reaction to a male friend's coming out to a young boy's first encounter with homosexuality. In between are many slices of gay life that are at one moment sidesplittingly hilarious and then suddenly full of deep, genuine emotion.

The one common thread running through the scenes is the fact that homosexuality — and what it means to be gay — is not the same for any two people. Of course, there are plenty of stereotypical traits given to the characters, but don't we all know at least one person who fits each gay stereotype at one time or another? It is these truths, mixed with deeper character development, that make for such an enjoyable experience.

Some of the best characters include the aforementioned straight man; a radical, hypocritical protester from ACT-UP; a wacky homeless "performance artist"; and an endearing Southern man dealing with a man with AIDS on his "Meals on Wheels"-type delivery route. It is this last character who closes the show and provokes the most emotion of all. Never before have I teared up at a live performance, but Martin's incredible acting had me misty-eyed for nearly the last five minutes of the show.

Proud to Be a Part of Community

The following is an open letter to the gay community from rodeo champion Gene Mikulanka, the subject of the documentary American Cowboy. — Editor

I would like to take this opportunity to thank the gay community for the overwhelming love and support I received at the recent premiere of American Cowboy at the Museum of Fine Arts, Houston.

I am very proud to be a part of a community whose members support each other, not only during times of crisis but also in celebrating one's success. The night of the premiere was truly one of the highlights of my life.

A very special thank-you to the director, Kyle Henry, and to the co-producers, Calvin Preece and Dan Delaney, for trusting me as their subject for a project that has already cost in excess of $80,000.

I would like to say "thank you" to THIS WEEK IN TEXAS and the Houston Voice for their wonderful reviews, interviews and publicity surrounding the film, and to the members of the media who respected my privacy prior to the opening of the film.

I would also like to thank Randy Richard, Jason Champion and Victor Chavez for all their hard work in organizing the reception following the premiere at Bering Memorial United Methodist Church.

Thank you and God bless.

Gene Mikulanka

Dallas Royalty Thank Community

The following letter is addressed to the Dallas gay community. — Editor

Four months ago, the United Court of the Lone Star Empire elected Maverick and me Emperor and Empress XXIII of Dallas. In this time, we have worked hard to meet the needs of the community while remaining visible to our community.

In the four months since our election, we have been involved in many fund-raising activities and raised over $12,000. Some of the money has already been dispersed to AIDS Services of Dallas, the AIDS Food Pantry and the Oak Lawn Community Center.

We appreciate all the help that our community has given us, because only through you can we take care of our community.

We would also like to take this opportunity to thank the various clubs who have allowed us to use their facilities in these four months: Kolors, Buddies II, the Dallas Eagle and Bamboleo's. We have a lot of functions planned and hope that you will be able to join us in our efforts to raise $50,000 for our community.

Once again, thank you, the gay community of Dallas, for all your support and love. We are proud to be your Emperor and Empress.

It's great to let you know that Da Hool has been signed to the RCA label and will be one of the featured artists on RCA Dance's Club Cutz 3, which is due out this spring. Da Hool, aka DJ Holligan, has been a fixture on the European techno scene since the early '90s, playing such events as Mayday (the infamous Rave Cruises) and in cities such as Paris, London, Stockholm and even Miami. "Meet Her at the Love Parade," his debut single, took Da Hool from the turntable straight to the top of the pops, selling 600,000 singles in Germany and eventually turning into a Pan-European club anthem. Also, collectors beware: there are already Nalin & Kane remixes of this classic circulating around at the moment as well. (They're the guys who tore it up earlier in the year with their "Beachball" record.)...

Be on the lookout for the new Pagan Records compilation Big Beat Conspiracy 1. This series premieres with a collection of anarchic electronic music that's conspiring to take over the world. Rock music as we know it is pretty much a lame duck, with little clue which way to turn. Dance music is the only thing left kids can scare their parents with — the evils of drugs and mindlessly cool trainers. Dance music does all those youth-affirming things that rock stopped doing a long time ago. Let's face it, your mother loved "Wonderwall" but hated "Firestarter." Big Beat Conspiracy 1 really reflects the past, present and future of the music that's sweeping the globe.

BBC 1 features Fat Boy Slim's "Give the Po Man A Break" and Psychedelia Smith's "Fixy Jointy," plus Bently Rhythm Ace and St. Étienne, as well as the tea Chemical Brothers remix of The Charlatans' "Nine Acre Dust," for starters.

Then there are the future hits. Watch Sniper take off this year, not to mention J Knights, Hardknox and Surreal Madrid! Really, mama, this record has it all — classics with a twist, current sensations and a few that are yet to come. This is the real world of electronica — the sound of now....

Move over for the new Columbia dance compilation Total Dance Explosion. This set is due in stores on the 17th, and with

A SCENE FROM ROZALLA'S DEBUT VIDEO "DON'T LOSE IT BABY"

17 of the greatest gems from the past year, it's sure to set CD players afire. Everything from "I Like It Like That" to "Fired Up," Planet Soul to Jelly Head (the Motiv 8 mix of "Crush" is truly essential listening!). The album also includes Ino's Top 40 crossover phenomenon "Love You Down" and the fiery return of the Ghostown DJ's unstoppable "My Boo," which was second only to "Macarena" in dance-floor popularity and recognizability. Aficionados of international dance/pop will go off over this mixer responsible for MTV's party to go, Total Dance Explosion is a fluid blend of pop melodies perfect for the car, the gym or any deejay's pee-pee break!...

Things are setting up nicely for the spring release of Rozalla's new album Coming Home. The new single, "Don't Go Lose It Baby," is blowing up all over, complete with an all-too-yummy video that was shot in the streets of NYC. It looks as though sister is "ready to fly"...again. And that's Dance Music THIS WEEK IN TEXAS.

The Gay Men's Chorus of Houston continues its season of travel with "Sing of Love," a whirlwind excursion into passion and romance from historic Lambert Hall in the Heights, on March 28 and 29. Soloists, small ensembles and the full chorus take turns guiding the tour through the monuments of love — emotion, physical attraction, passion for freedom and heritage, and devotion to the eternal. Along the way, the chorus will perform Italian and French romantic and Renaissance selections, African-American spirituals, selections from Rent and Jekyll and Hyde and tidbits of barbershop, Brahms and pop, as well as the world premiere of a new work by Houston composer John-Michael Albert, The Familiar Shadow. Departure times are at 8 p.m. Saturday, March 28, and 7 p.m. Sunday, March 29. Lambert Hall is located on Heights Blvd. at 17th St. Tickets are $12 and $15, and available at Lobo and Crossroads Market. For more info, call (713)521-SING.

New Heights Theatre presents the Houston premiere of Carole King's Tapestry now through April 18. It's a lively yet nostalgic revue that takes the audience on a melodic journey from the '60s to the present. The songwriting team of King and Gerry Goffin came up with some of the most beloved and memorable songs in pop music history; the numbers in Tapestry range from jazz and blues to soft rock, and include "Up on the Roof," "A Natural Woman," "You've Got a Friend," "Will You Love Me Tomorrow" and "One Fine Day." Regular performances begin this evening, March 13, and continue on Thursdays at 7:30 p.m. (tickets $10) and Fridays and Saturdays at 8 p.m. ($15) through April 18 (no show on April 16). For reservations, call (713)869-8927. New Heights Theatre is located at 339 W. 19th.

Scriptwriters/Houston is accepting scripts for its Eighth Annual Ten by Ten Competition. Ten winning scripts will be produced this summer; works must be no longer than ten minutes, with minimal characters, sets and technical demands. Entry deadline is April 6. For official guidelines and entry application, send a #10 self-addressed, stamped envelope to: Scriptwriters/Houston; P.O. Box 981106; Houston, TX 77098. Forms will also be available at the next S/H meeting, on Monday, March 16, at 7:30 p.m. at Jones Hall on the campus of the University of St. Thomas, Yoakum at Alabama. For more info, call (713) 707-5194.

Norman's grisly hobby of reenacting gruesome and famous historical murders causes problems in his marriage in Anthony Shaffer's Murderer, which opens this evening, March 13, in Houston at Commerce Street Artists Warehouse, 2315 Commerce. When his wife Elizabeth says she'll no longer play the victim in his twisted scenarios, Norman finds a mistress, Millie, who eagerly agrees to go along. But then a neighbor calls the police and claims to have seen Norman murder Millie; is Norman just an eccentric with an outré sense of humor, or really a murderer? Performances of this dos chicas production are Fridays and Saturdays at 8 p.m., with some Sunday matinees, through April 4. Tickets are $8, with a portion of all proceeds to be donated to Steven's House, an intermediate care residence for people with HIV/AIDS. For reservations or more info, call dos chicas at (713)862-1626. This production contains graphic violence and nudity and is intended for mature audiences.

In its first concert offering for the spring season, the Capital City Men's Chorus, to be joined by Angela Hand, Brett Barnes and Anna Torres, will treat audiences to selections from the great musical traditions of opera and the Great White Way. Selections include "The Toreador Song" from Carmen, "The Pilgrim's Chorus" from Tannhäuser, nautical selections from Gilbert and Sullivan, "Ain't Misbehavin'" and "Mack and Mabel." Performances are Saturday, March 28, at 8 p.m. and Sunday, March 29, at 4 p.m. at the First Unitarian Universalist Church of Austin, 4700 Grover. Tickets ($10 in advance, $12 at the door) can be obtained by calling (512) 454-TIXS. Proceeds benefit the Capital City Men's Chorus general operating fund.

Talkative Mercury collides with aggressive Mars in pioneering Aries this week and sends our communication into combat missions that could pockmark the landscape. Frankly, I'm tired of that "don't ask, don't tell" nonsense. As long as we're going into combat, it's time to yell it proud and queer. Leave it to the planets to fire the opening salvos.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - March 20) Pink Fish may make some snap fiscal judgments during the Mars/Mercury conjunction. Be careful of rushing into investments based on scanty knowledge or a mere hunch this week. Chances are your hard-earned swag may swagger off into the sunset. On the other hand, you may reach a personal epiphany and realize that money really can't buy happiness; nah!

ARIES (March 21 - April 20) You're a fighting force to be reckoned with this week when Mercury and Mars conjunct in your own sign. Queer Rambos make overwhelming first impressions. Choose your debuts carefully lest you maraud through the wrong tea dance and find yourself on the "D" list (as in "never darken our door again!"). Your little ray of sunshine can cause sunstroke.

TAURUS (April 21 - May 21) Use the immense power of Mars/conjunct/Mercury to blow your closet door off its hinges and into outer space. Gay Bulls can't be contained any longer and will break free of any straight and narrow constraints. This transit also sparks intuitive rifts and grounding spiritual insights. You'll find that affirmation comes from within and is most effective when it's let out.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21) Opinions and actions designed to control the group dynamic are amplified during the Mars/Mercury conjunction. Gay Twins have an opportunity to stir the social scene up into a frenzied boil. This is fine when everybody boogies to the same tune, but expect prickly interchanges among rugged individualists who insist on waltzing. You can't please everybody, so forget about it!

CANCER (June 22 - July 23) Pink Crabs let loose at work during the Mars/Mercury conjunction. You're a one-person tidal wave, so wash out entrenched upper management while you're foaming the waters. At the very least, clear a new path for yourself or explore opportunities elsewhere. It's never too late to stake your claim in the corporate hierarchy and frankly, it's bloody well about time.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23) Personal philosophy undergoes a reevaluation and road test during the Mars/Mercury conjunction. Regal, proud Leos feel they have all the answers (so what else is new?) and are tempted to take immediate action. Go for it after you sufficiently review all the pros and cons. You're playing with reckless planetary energy and don't want your rainbow armada to hit a sandbar.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23) They call you many things behind your back, but "hot to trot" is not usually one of them. Prove the experts wrong during the Mars/Mercury conjunction when your flame is fanned into a crackling roar. Queer Virgins sometimes have an interestingly seamy side that can manifest itself in fetishes or over-the-top sexual gluttony. Dirty panties or people? Your choice.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23) The Mars/Mercury conjunction makes for a combustible cocktail in relationships. Proud Libras may find that sparks will fly over the most innocuous of actions; so be it, cousin. Maybe this tired old combination needs a bit of excitement and you're not above trying to push things over the edge. Just know when to kiss and make up when the planets move on.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22) A new broom sweeps clean at work. Heck; a gigantic vacuum cleaner takes the rug off the floor with the Mercury/Mars conjunction. Queen-of-Mean Scorps wield a stick with which they whack underlings into action. The problem is that, in this karmic world, rats usually get their tails caught in a vise. Why not use this planetary punch to get yourself crowned the Queen of Hearts instead?

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22) Letting gay Archers loose on the party scene now may not be advisable...for the party. The feisty Mars/Mercury conjunction makes this proud player too hot to handle and too wild to control. Rein it in, cowpoke; you're a guileless chatterbox under normal circumstances and now you're the mouth that roars. Words pack a nuclear punch. Duck and cover, comrades!

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20) Home sweet home rocks and rolls during the Mars/Mercury conjunction. Queer Caps will either make some dramatic changes in their personal surroundings, or will search and destroy family dictates. Instead of torpedoing the Mayflower, why not simply redecorate it in rainbow bunting? You're capable of changing the world; why not start with Mums and Dad?

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19) Aqueerians make their point rather effectively during the Mercury/Mars conjunction. The problem is that it's a very sharp, jabbing point. As long as your communications pack a wallop this week, make it your business to promote anything and everything gay. Your views will rise above the static and may even bring results. Tell Jesse Helms a thing or five while you're at it.

DALLAS SWIMMERS TEAR UP THE WATER

DALLAS — Team Dallas Aquatics proved to be very potent recently when the swimmers competed in Salt Lake City and in Dallas the same weekend. Their performance was all the more noteworthy in view of the fact that the Dallas team was smaller than teams from Paris, France and the East and West coasts.

The Queer Utah Aquatics Club stage their annual Ski 'n' Swim weekend Feb. 14 and 15. Twenty teams competed, with Dallas taking eleventh place by scoring a total of 19 points. In addition to the swimming events, Rex Toltchin, Larry Mock and Page Nance enjoyed ice-skating, skiing and partying with master swimmers from all over the nation and Europe.

In the Dallas meet, Tim Kessler took two second places and one third, while Phil Johnson won all five of his events.

Team Dallas Aquatics is a predominantly (though not exclusively) gay and lesbian swim club comprised of swimmers of all ages and abilities. The 20 members work out Tuesdays and Thursdays from 8-9 p.m. and Saturdays and Sundays at 11:30 a.m. at the Centrum Sports Club. To encourage camaraderie, the club publishes a newsletter and holds monthly meetings and socials. Those wishing more information are encouraged to call (214)333-1465.

APARTMENTS FOR PWAS TO OPEN IN SOUTHEAST HOUSTON

AIDS Housing Coalition Is Refurbishing and Will Operate Complex Aimed at Minority Communities.

HOUSTON — The board of directors of the nonprofit AIDS Housing Coalition of Houston has announced that it will renovate an apartment complex in the southeast area of the city and operate it as a shelter for men, women and children with HIV in minority communities. The agency is asking for volunteers and financial assistance to help with the effort.

AHCH said it had entered into an agreement with a local private family group of owners to operate the 12-unit complex, located off 288 South and OST. The facility will be called the TLC Center Apartments.

AHCH already operates a community shelter in the Montrose area known as TLC House, which opened in 1994. The agency holds a mortgage on that facility and owns an adjacent tract of land, on which AHCH hopes to build 12 apartment units for more HIV housing in 1999.

"Your labor of love will help AHCH sponsor housing grant awards to residents," AHCH Executive Director Matt Locklin said Monday in asking for volunteers to restore the complex and make it ready for residents. Among services and assistance that will be made available to residents are rental lease payments, on-site HIV-related services, mentoring and other family support services.

The "Fix It Up '98" event will be at 6207 Tierwester from 8 a.m.—4 p.m. Volunteers are urged to bring any gardening tools, donated flowers and shrubbery and other items that might help in efforts to spruce up the complex.

The wish list for donations includes paint, a sturdy picnic table and a swing set as well as appliances such as refrigerators, stoves, TVs, etc. (in good working order). Also of interest, to local artists, is a 60-foot wall facing the street that is available for a mural project. Locklin said cash donations are also welcome, and contributions will be tax-deductible.

For more information about volunteering, or to make donations, call Locklin at (713)521-1613.

PWA COALITION OF HOUSTON APPEALS TO PUBLIC FOR HELP WITH SHORTEALL

Donations of Furniture and Household Items Will Go to Agency's Warehouse Program.

HOUSTON — The People With AIDS Coalition-Houston, which helps its clients to lead independent lives, is asking for donations of used furniture and household items for distribution through its Warehouse Program.

Executive Director Lynn Pannill said the Coalition has a client list of 1,700, and is currently signing up around 60 new clients each month. Those who need large items like furniture are placed on a rotating list and receive goods as they become available.

The group took out an ad in the Houston Chronicle before Christmas which brought in a flurry of donations. But most of those items have already been given away, and the Coalition needs to restock its Warehouse Program.

All donations are distributed free of charge to eligible clients of the program.

"We give all this stuff away," Pannill said. "We're a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization, and provide donors with tax receipts if they want to take deductions."

"Little things like dishes we generally have, though right now we're very short even on those," Pannill said, adding that flatware, pots and pans, small appliances and sheets and towels are also in short supply, as are furniture items like dressers, tables, chairs and lamps.

Donations may be dropped off at the main offices of the Coalition, at 3400 Montrose, Suite 106 (at the corner of Montrose and Hawthorne). Office hours are Monday through Friday from 8 a.m.—5 p.m.

Program staffers can also pick up donated items, particularly furniture. To schedule a pickup, call Dora Lomeli, Program Director, at (713)522-5428.

"The main thing to realize is that these people just don't have the money to buy this stuff," Pannill said. "They're poor, and they live on disability of $400-$500 a month."

"People are living longer [with HIV], and they need to be able to live in an independent environment."

HOUSTON LESBIAN AND GAY COMMUNITY CENTER SIGNS LEASE

House in Montrose Area Planned As Meeting Space for Local Organizations, Special Events.

HOUSTON — The Houston Lesbian and Gay Community Center announced recently that it has signed a lease on a large house at 803 Hawthorne in the Montrose area that will serve as the site of the organization's Community Center.

"We are very pleased to have reached this stage in the development of the Houston Lesbian and Gay Community Center," said Carl Riedl, President of HLGCC. "We believe that the 803 Hawthorne property is a place that the entire community can be proud of. The property is ideal in that it is a former mansion that has been utilized more recently for offices, which means it has the attributes of both — a comfortable home where the community will enjoy visiting, while [also] being highly functional for conducting business. The wonderful yard provides opportunities for numerous activities such as cookouts." The 803 Hawthorne site may be remembered by many in Houston as a former location of the Montrose Clinic.

A grand opening for the facility is being planned for April.

The organizers envision the Center as a focal point for the community. "We have a tremendous number of gay and lesbian activities in Houston," Riedl said. "The Community Center will hopefully serve as a conduit in developing synergistic relationships among these diverse entities. We also hope that the Center will help in developing new organizations and programming that will help to continue in the maturation of the lesbian and gay community in Houston.

"There have been so many exciting developments in the community in the last year, such as the election of Annise Parker, the inauguration of the Houston Gay and Lesbian Film Festival and the huge success of the Empower '97 expo developed by the Greater Houston Gay & Lesbian Chamber of Commerce. We feel that events like these indicate that the community is ready to participate in the realization of a lesbian and gay community center in Houston."

HLGCC is asking the community to assist in development of the center by volunteering or in-kind or through financial contributions. "We have four main committees," Riedl said, "fund-raising, programming, public relations and facilities management. We are asking that organizations or businesses interested in having either office space, meetings or special events at the center contact the Programming Chair, Kevin Davidson."

The Houston Lesbian and Gay Community Center can be reached at (713) 867-7904.

SAN ANTONIO TEA — We highly recommend stopping by the Eagle Mountain Saloon to check out the studly barstaff's impromptu performances behind the bar. We found bartender Michael [right] all prepared for "YMCA" — playing the part of the construction worker...YUM! The Eagle Mountain Saloon unveils their brand new Bourbon Street Corner party room this weekend.

The management recommends that you make your reservations as soon as possible, since Fiesta is right around the corner. appointment as the manager of EMS. Happy birthday to Dan and Daniel tonight, Friday the 13th. All this and it's a full moon night....

The new look at the Annex is the talk of the town, and the place was packed last weekend. The owners and staff wish to congratulate Ralph on his promotion to manager and wish him luck — what a cutie! Get on over and say hello, while he serves you a fantastic cocktail at some of the very best prices in town. Don't forget, details are available at the Annex and EMS for the upcoming Mr. Drummer contest as well as the Chain of Command's annual run — both scheduled for April....

Bullfrog invites everyone to submit their suggestion for the new name of the bar located on the Pegasus patio. It's outside in the solarium area, and your entries must be received in the mail postmarked no later than Friday, April 3, to meet the deadline of Monday, April 6, to be eligible for the $100 prize if yours is chosen....

Congratulations to Silver Dollar Saloon employee of the month, barback Richie (left). He received a $50 bonus and reserved parking — right up front.

Silver Dollar welcomes TGRA as they present their annual Indoor Rodeo this Sunday, March 15. Make your plans to be there for this event benefiting TGRA charities. New to the Silver Dollar Sunday lineup, everyone receives a lottery ticket at the front door, and if they draw your number at 1 a.m., you'll get to draw a coin from the money bowl worth from $10-$100. Be sure and stop by....

Zebra's showroom on Euclid features lots of new products you just can't live without. Among them, the now infamous and anatomically correct Billy doll has a boyfriend! Carlos, Billy's boyfriend, is also anatomically correct and complete with mustache, goatee and a tattoo of Billy's name inside a heart — very cute. Also check out Eros, the newest lubricant on the market. It's the first of its kind — silicone, not water-based, and a totally new experience....

The Saint welcomes its newest employees. At the front door you'll find James [below, r] and behind the bar adult video star Karl Thomas [l]. Tomorrow night, the Saint presents a flashlight and undergear party. The first 200 guests receive free flashlights, and coat check will be available for those who dare to go bare. Sunday, the long-awaited Miss Gay San Antonio UsofA Pageant takes the Saint by storm. Enjoy such talents as reigning MGSA Layla Larue and Miss Gay Texas USofA Whitney Paige plus formers like Erica Andrews, Denise Mykels, Ree Hunter, Aaron Davis, Victoria West, Melissa Crawford, Amber Nixx and many more.

AUSTINteaCIOUS — Yeeeeeehaw! The rodeo is in town! We love any event where men in chaps grab hold of the "reins" and ride hard for a while. Everyone who went this year was treated to a great time! Our favorite is the bull-riding — for obvious reasons. We do not, however, remember there being an official rodeo "queen." We nominate the newly crowned Miss Southwest UsofA Lauren Taylor [right]. She's from Texas, has big hair and lots of sequin outfits, and we know the girl likes to ride....

As we begin this week's travels, our first stop is on the north side at 'Bout Time. We chatted with manager Corey and Paula, the official "drink-slingin' woman" of Austin. Friday happy hour always features something yummy from the kitchen to nibble on while you let go of the week's troubles. Stop in for "Cash Tuesday" and get your tickets for the three drawings, two for $25 and one for $50. Nothing spends as well as someone else's money! Volleyball time is almost upon us, so get your gaggle of gamers together and sign up early for good placement. Last year's competition was fierce and a ton of fun!...

Charlie's is the next stop on our cavalcade. You can see the previously mentioned Miss Taylor here every Sunday along with a star-studded cast of lovelies. Last week we had the pleasure of seeing the incomparable Maya Montana! We can see why she won at Miss Gay America. P.S.: Lauren crowned her — cool, huh?

One of Austin's favorite bartenders, Arnie (left), tells us he has a new beau. They met at Wednesday video mailbox — or was that a new bow in his mailbox on Wednesday? Either way, he has something new to put on his head. The Monday night wet underwear contest with Heather Thomas is going strong. She's always a hoot and has the cutest guys in nothing but their underwear and a smile. What a lucky girl! Speaking of getting lucky, make sure you put Friday liquor bust on your calendars — You can't beat the price and the place is packed!...

As we continue our travels, we come to Rainbow Cattle Company. Right off the bat we realized that, yes, there is a reason to wear Wranglers. They make a man's backside look as inviting as a welcome mat. These two cowboys [above] may not be bull-riders, but we bet they can hold on for more than eight seconds! R.C.C. is the proud sponsor of the B.E.A.N. awards this year. The big night is Monday, March 16, at 9 p.m. Dance lessons are held on Taco Tuesday, and Big Beef Thursday is steak night. Sandwiched in between is Karaoke Wednesday with Michael T. and cartwheel Bob. A whole week of fun is waiting for you at the end of the rainbow....

Right around the corner we're on The Edge. If you've gotten the gambling bug, be sure to say "hi" to Kevin at the blackjack table. He deals quite a game of cards. This past week we had the pleasure of watching two cuties suck face so hard it started a vacuum in the room! Thank goodness Murrah opened the front door! We were beginning to feel our hair get caught in the suction! The fabulous Rob is still the Sunday night songbird at karaoke. You can croon a tune or rip out some rap, take your pick. DeeJay Bang continues to pump out the tunes for you on "Freakquency" Thursday and all weekend as well. Life is an adventure. Live it to the fullest. Take it to The Edge!...

Strolling down the avenue, we stop in at The Forum, where there's always a party happening. Boathouse Wednesdays are the deal for all of us who love '80s music. Memories of our youth and the aforementioned club get us all misty for the good old days when drinks were cheap and platform shoes were out of fashion. The lovely Kelly Kline is your hostess for the weekly talent search. All you boys who like putting on wigs should give it a try on stage. First prize is $100, and we could all use the cash. The bar welcomes the comedy of Heather Thomas as their special guest next Thursday, March 19. They have the tunes you want on Friday and Saturday. High-energy and pumping — all the same things we look for in a date!...

Merrily we roll along over to the Country Edge, where right off the bat we were greeted with a snappy shot from Eddie. A man with liquor is almost as good as a man who's a—. Make sure to put Sunday night dance lessons from 5–7 p.m. on your calendar. You can also play pool in the weekly tournament at 8 that same night. Wednesday is oldies night — no, silly boys, not the clientele, the music!...

Onward through the streets of Austin we go in search of adventure. As we approach the final stop on our tour, we pause for an attitude check. It's there and so we enter the sumptuously appointed 1920's Club.

The authentic tommy gun on the wall is matched by the authentic Tommy wear on the patrons. As the soothing jazz wafts over us, we find ourselves sinking into overstuffed chairs and chatting with people we don't know — positively scandalous! What will everybody think? They'll think we're as nice as they are. Pleasantness is in vogue here. Wow! What a concept....

Tomorrow night, return to ancient Rome as the Midtowne Spa presents a red hot toga party with special guest entertainer Kayla Taylor. Thursday, May 21 will be the premiere of The Garage, an exciting evening of levi and leather. All this and more is waiting for you at the Midtowne Spa....

A last tidbit for you, my darlings. Rumor has it that there's a new bar on the way for the capital city. The owner is a familiar face and a previous bar owner. We wonder who, and where could it be? Come on Randy, you can tell us — we'll keep it quiet...promise!

PAGEANT TEA — At Buddies II in Dallas, lovely Marina Moore [above, c] was crowned Miss Gay Twin Cities 1998 by the reigning Miss Gay Texas Kofi [l] and last year's winner Nikki Lamour [r]. Coming up on Thursday, March 26, M.A. Productions and Buddies II will present the 1998 Miss Gay Las Colinas Pageant with special guests Kofi, Maya Douglas and last year's winner Victoria West. Judged categories include talent, creative fashion, on-stage question and evening gown. Registration is at 8 p.m. and the pageant begins at 10 p.m.

OBITUARIES

Lindsey Akins

You brightened up
this world from Sept. 24, 1957 until Feb. 24, 1998, and then God decided
He needed your bright, smiling light somewhere else.

You touched many lives with your love and laughter, but you touched mine the deepest. I am a better man because of you.

You will be missed by me, and by your mother,
Verdine; your brother,
Jon, and your sisters, Jane and Elizabeth; as well as a host of friends and relations.

We are soulmates! So I know that we will be reunited again somewhere, sometime. I will be waiting.... I love you, pumpkin.
