Welcome back to SURFING THE NET, where we explore that great, vast electronic expanse out there, with a special emphasis, of course, on sites of interest to gay people. We have a ton of sites to tell you about, so buckle up and let's blast off for another exciting tour.

Our first stop is the web page for this year's Gay Games, at www.gaygames.org. As you know, they'll be held in Amsterdam August 1-8, and this is an excellent place to learn more about the games if you're lucky enough to be planning to attend what will be the gay world mecca this summer. And, of course, a "sister" site is the homepage for the city of Amsterdam itself, more specifically gay Amsterdam, at www.gayamsterdam.com. Not only does this one have all the requisite travel info, including hotels, tourist sites and where to exchange your American dollars, there are also some great free picture galleries....

Let's fly back to our own continent, and to the state of Texas, where TWT reader Kevin told us about a huge Internet site set up for those bound for Houston, www.houstongayweb.com. Here you'll find a ton of facts about Space City and its nightlife, including — but definitely not limited to — gay life. There's also an incredible links section for Texas and the U.S. Another Houston site is Community Gospel Church's page on the Net at www.communitygospel.org, which describes their congregation and includes worship schedules, their newsletter and other things, including a map giving directions to the church....

If you're heading north, and we mean way north (like out of Texas!), then The Gayly Oklahoman, a gay newspaper that covers the Sooner State, is up and running at www.gayly.com. This site contains community news, features from their current issue and a guide to their advertisers, including the infamous Habana Inn....

From Oklahoma you can fly out to Los Angeles, where Frontiers Newsmagazine is based. While it's mostly a southern California publication, Frontiers has been distributed nationwide for some time now and, of course, has its own web page, at www.frontiersweb.com. Just about everything that's included in the magazine's newsstand issue is packed into this site, including their no-holds-barred classifieds section, offering some of the most revealing "escort" pix you'll see anywhere....

But if California, Texas and Oklahoma aren't big enough for you, pardner, then try www.gaybars.com, where you can surf to just about any gay watering hole in the U.S. and elsewhere around the world. However, this site consists mostly of lists of the clubs and their addresses and phone numbers, and not much more than that. Still, it's a good resource that'll give you an idea of how many clubs and what kind a particular city has. There are also links to the bars themselves and an excellent link to Ambush Magazine, New Orleans' gay club guide....

Next let's head over to one of the oldest AIDS organizations in the country, the New York-based Gay Men's Health Crisis, which has set up a very informative web page that discusses all aspects of HIV and where to turn for help, including an extensive AIDS library. Another excellent resource is the Centers For Disease Control and Prevention's National AIDS Clearinghouse site at www.cdcnac.org, which has a vast amount of information about the disease available from CDC databases and through links on the net and new information about HIV and AIDS....

J.D., a loyal reader in Houston, recommends these sites if you're interested in music and harmony with a gay flavoring: www.queernet.org/outvoice, which talks about current gay music and includes reviews and links to artists' sites; Outloud, www.euronet.nl/users/mclaren/outloud.html, an Amsterdam-based site that's devoted to the history of gay music; www.gloradio.com, which, in addition to letting you listen to live gay radio, offers news, archives, book and CD reviews as well as info on live events and even concerts from Dallas' Cathedral of Hope MCC; www.ladyslipper.org, where you'll find plenty of women's music; and <http://freshfruit.com/store>, the site of longtime gay songwriters/performers Romanovsky & Phillips.

Our friend James in Dallas (the one who just loves backseats) told us about another cool site, www.scoopy.com, where you can see just about any celebrity sans clothes. They post "faked celebrity nude pictures" that have sprung up all over the net, alongside real shots of the movie stars in various states of undress. The site also has an "augmentation" feature that allows you to view computerized creations of what some people might look like with exaggerated "features." One address we really liked was Gary's Shirtless Celebrity Site, <http://users.aol.com/realcelebs/>, which posts hundreds of photos of the rich and famous like Antonio Sabato Jr., Dolph Lundgren, Greg Louganis and tons more, all in G-rated but very sexy poses showing off their pecs and other tantalizing parts. However, you have to be an AOL subscriber to access this cool place. But you don't have to be on AOL to make your way to a site where there are dozens and dozens of hunky, oiled-up muscle studs, www.musclenet.com; it presents body-builders from all over the United States and some excellent pix that'll make you want to head over to your local gym — but don't forget to actually work out once you've arrived and gotten a look at all the men!...

We ran across a site for those K-Mart shoppers who are always looking for blue-light specials, Discount Video at www.discountvideo.com. This online video store has an extensive library of adult video films that you can purchase with the click of a mouse. Another place where we're sure you'll want to stop and load up your shopping cart is CyberSexToys, at www.sextoy.com. They have over 600 products with pictures to match, and you don't even have to bag them yourselves!...

Speaking of porn (and weren't we?), we zoomed over to a web page for one of the busiest male adult video stars around, Jordan Young, who's made quite a splash in the biz the last few years. Not only are there pix of the young star, but scenes from his movies and his co-stars. You can find him at www.asianqueen.com. The studly Cole Tucker, star of many an all-male adult leather video movie, has his own site at www.cole-tucker.com. Pix of the tattooed and muscled Mr. Tucker are included as well as information on his escort service. And the porn site of all porn sites is called, naturally enough, The Porno Pages; located at <http://www.pornopages.com>, it includes literally hundreds of links to gay and lesbian sites out there on the web. Another great place we surfed to was www.sexgalleries.com/gay, which includes links to the 50 top gay sites on the web. You'll spend days, maybe even weeks, connecting to all these hot places....

Geoff, another friend and reader in Dallas, told us about a great place to find pictures easily, www.pictureview.com. This site downloads thousands of photos on a daily basis from newsgroups and has any category of pictures you can imagine, from the mundane to the bizarre. There's a charge, though, so you might check out their sample photos first to see if this one's for you; some of them are really way out there! However, if you don't have time to surf to dozens of sites for pix, this would be a great place for you....

GRUF, <http://www.gruf.com>, is another picture site, sort of an online magazine with what its creators call "Great Unshaven Faces and More." And they certainly do have more, with tons of pix to download, from bears to beefcake. This is free, but you'll need Adult Check for it. We also found <http://www.chisel.com>, which is a pay site, but they have some excellent free samples along with a free sample video clip that was actually pretty good. Zone Blue, at www.zoneblue.com, is another pay location, but with some excellent free pix and very appetizing young studs you guys will drool over. At www.mensden.com, there's even more pix for you to tuck into your zip drive; just remember, you have to go to work the next morning, so don't stay up all night!

That's all for this issue. Thanks again to all the readers providing us with some excellent websites. If you know of an interesting site, gay or nongay, e-mail me at ChrisDallas@aol.com and we may just mention it in our next installment. Till then, have fun surfing the web!

THIS WEEK IN TEXAS assumes that every individual entering an adult website is over 18 and capable of making his or her own choices. Some sites contain nudity, and some of them also lead into pay sites, so make sure you read everything. TWT accepts no responsibility for such fees or for anything else that happens when readers access the sites in question. Also, some Web pages change locations, go down for a time or disappear completely. All the sites mentioned in this article could be reached as of Monday, April 6.

LOST IN SPACE GETS LOST ON
BUT YOU'LL FIND FUN IN
EFFECTS

Danger, moviegoer! Danger! This movie makes no sense! And I loved it! Not since Tom Cruise dragged a helicopter into the Chunnel at the end of Mission Impossible has such a confusing movie been so much fun. Okay, so Gary Oldman is no mincing queen like the original Dr. Smith, and the kids all whine like they're on Jerry Springer, but what cool ray guns and neat-o cheesy sets the filmmakers have come up with! Go see Lost in Space, just leave your brain at home. Whiz-bang eye candy, that's what it is. A lot of fun is all we seem to want these days in a movie and, well, believe me, you get your seven dollars worth with this one.

Now, if you're hoping to see a retread of the old TV series, I would suggest to stick to the Sci-Fi Channel. The story has been updated for the movie and it's totally PC for the dawn of the next century — although, come to think of it, racial and other diversity is not this film's strong point. Who knows, maybe in the sequel they'll make little Will Robinson gay... There's an idea. Anyway, the Robinsons are off to Planet Alpha Prime to set up a matching gate to hyperspace. (Hello, plagiarism police! Did anybody see Stargate?) You see, everybody has to evacuate Earth, which is perilously close to eco-disaster. The evil but inept Dr. Smith sneaks aboard the Jupiter 2 to sabotage the trip and kill everybody. Unfortunately for himself, though, Smith can't get off the ship in time. Suffice it to say that, in a knockout first half-hour, the family finds itself, ahem, lost in space.

There's a lot going on in this movie.

REVIEWED BY MARK DEATON

Everyone keeps talking. Boy do they keep talking — about how important a family is. Family this and family that. It's like my parents at Thanksgiving; all right already! On top of that, there's Matt LeBlanc playing the ultimate straight-guy hero, Major Don West. As the Jupiter 2's pilot, Matt is actually not bad. William Hurt plays Professor Robinson, and for the first time in years, I thought I saw warm blood flowing through Hurt's veins; he actually seemed alive. I tell you, this movie's special effects are amazing! Mimi Rogers has a throwaway role as Maureen Robinson, i.e., Mom, but she looks good doing it. Lacey Chabert and Jack Johnson as Penny and Will — genius problem children from hell — have a lot of fun running around solving problems the adults can't even comprehend. It's like one big visit from young Wesley Crusher of Young Will Robinson [Jack Johnson] is followed by the robot in New Line Cinema's Lost in Space.

Star Trek: TNG fame. With kids this smart, how do the adults ever get into space?

When it isn't parroting right-wing tripe about keeping our degrading family units together, the script is full of fun and whimsy. Whimsical sci-fi, who'd have guessed? The flying space spiders and computer-generated alien monkeys are completely in keeping with the camp of the original TV show. However, there was a brief moment when this space chimp and LeBlanc were in the same frame and I had a terrible flashback to that monkey as a baseball player in that movie LeBlanc did last year. I felt the popcorn coming right back up!

Seemingly random bubbles of space-time are floating around to further confuse the plot (Hello! Star Trek to those plagiarism police, come in, please!), so not only are the Robinsons lost in space, but lost in time too! Today is yesterday, and tomorrow is now...boy, you've lost me, so, yep, let's blow something up. Let me tell ya, it works every time.

I think if director Stephen Hopkins (who has such illustrious credits to his name as Predator 2 and A Nightmare on Elm Street: The Dream Child) had taken a firmer hand, the story itself might have not veered off in so many indecipherable directions. But you know what? I just can't help liking this movie. It's silly and never seems to take itself too seriously (although the group hug at the end is a little much).

As in any sci-fi movie, the special effects are critical in Lost in Space. The opening shots of a dogfight in space set the tone and raise the bar on all future effects films. Exploding planets and slick spaceship fly-bys all show incredible detail, to a degree that has never been achieved before. The overcrowded world of the future portrayed in this film is more or less believable (no Jetsons-type personal spacecraft, for example), and the takeoff launch pod for the Robinsons' ship looks like the microphone tower on the Hyatt in Dallas. Hey, they even get to say, "Houston, all go for takeoff."

I was happy to see that the robot even made it into the picture. He gets to both shoot everybody up and save the day. Even he made no sense. Just go with a grin, dig the groovy sets and remember, it's only a movie.

With CD compilations flowing about abundantly these days, it's often the blues to try and sort out which ones are right for you. With circuit music really taking hold, here's one that's perfect for any gay gaggle. Check out Winter Party 1998, released by Centaur Records (order toll free at 888-9-CENTAUR) and mixed by supercircuit deejay Julian Marsh. Some of the songs include "Love Is Leaving" (Boy George), "On Silent Wings" (Tina Turner), "Carry On" (Martha Wash) and "Show Me Heaven" (Chimira). It's worth buying the album just to have a copy of "Show Me Heaven" on CD; this track is extremely hard to come by in any configuration. Marsh weaves a solid, throbbing trip over this double-CD set. Visit Centaur's web site at www.centaurmusic.com....

When it comes to hi-NRG girls, there's no comparison to Kylie Minogue. Her new single is absolutely stunning. "Breathe" offers four mixes on its CD-single package, by Sash, Dave Ball and Todd Terry, making for a nice assortment. On this song, Kylie totally departs from the old little-girl bubble-gum styling and reaches a new level that'll appeal to both older fans and the new kids alike. If the cards are placed right for this single, it might move right into pop radio here in the States. But will Deconstruction Records, an indie label, spend the money to make it happen? And if you haven't seen Kylie lately, sister looks lovely! You'll thank me later for this CD, which comes complete with the video for all you CD-ROMers....

Speaking of Minogues, don't forget that Kylie's little sister, Dannie Minogue, also has a brand new album that just came out about three months ago. Très fabulouss!...

Ever since we told you about how Hot Track's NRG for the '90s included a dance mix of Donna Summer's "Someday" (which can also be found on the Disney compilation Mouse House), we've often been asked if we know where to find a single. Well, you're about to get lucky. It appears that "Someday" will come out as a single this summer to hype the musical that Donna has just finished writing, which is slated to start touring around the same time....

And what about Cher? Her Loveliness is hard at work producing her newest album with none other than Junior Vasquez. Now, Rumor Central stopped by the FRESH BEATS gossip desk last week and spilled a little tea that could really have been juice. At any rate, someone said that Ms. Vasquez and her little entourage of sycophants were at Miss Cher's abode one day when they engaged in plenty of loud, annoying antics that really ruffled the artist's Cherokee feathers, to the point that they were all thrown out, and now there's a possibility that the producing marriage may have been annulled. We'll keep you posted as our little friend lets us in on all the dish. William Orbit, anyone? And what was that thing on her head at the Oscars? It looked like something you put on the counter to dry the dishes in!...

While we're digging here in the diva chest, we might as let you know what's up with Billie Ray Martin these days. The former lead singer of Electribe 101 burst forth about three years ago in a new incarnation of herself, garnering a string of several pop hits with Elektra. While we're not certain what's happening with her contract domestically, we do know that Martin has just recorded her first two singles on React Records in the UK. "Don't Believe A Word" and "Honey" were done with producer/writer Fred Jorio (a former eightball artist and one of Junior Vasquez's key programmers) and are due out shortly. We'll just have to let you salivate on this for a while, okay?

And that's dance music THIS WEEK IN TEXAS.

HOUSTON

The Houston Bar Association AIDS Outreach Committee and the Houston Area Women's Center are sponsoring free legal clinics this Saturday and next Saturday, April 11 and 18, at the Houston Area Women's Center, 1010 Waugh. Each day will begin with a free talk on legal issues relating to HIV/AIDS (custody of children, child support, planning for future), and lawyers will be present from 9 a.m.-1 p.m. to discuss specific questions and/or to draft free wills, power of attorney documents, living wills and other legal documents. Appointments are encouraged for wills and other documents, but walk-ins are welcome. For appointment or free info packet, call Ann Kloeckner at (281)331-6106, ext. 1421. Child care will be available.

The Metropolitan Community Church of the Resurrection celebrates the 25th anniversary of its founding on Saturday and Sunday, April 25 and 26. There'll be a banquet at the Red Lion Hotel on Saturday, with the Rev. Elder Troy D. Perry, founder of UFMCC, as keynote speaker. On Sunday, former pastor Rev. Elder Jeri Ann Harvey will preach at the 9 a.m. service and former pastor Rev. Elder John Gill will preach at the 11 a.m. service. Tickets for the banquet ($35/general and $50/reserved seating) are available through the church office; call (713)861-9149.

The Montrose Clinic and attorney Mitchell Katine hold the second in a series of HIV information seminars on Monday, April 13, from 7-9 p.m. at the clinic, 215 Westheimer. This free seminar, a health insurance update, will review new state and federal laws regarding maintaining and obtaining health insurance; there will also be discussion of opportunities and benefits available to people with HIV in obtaining, keeping and continuing insurance. For more info, call (713)830-3000.

The Houston HIV Forum will hold a meeting on Wednesday, April 15, at 2 p.m. at the Center for AIDS, 1407 Hawthorne, to seek input to the Ryan White Planning Council, the HIV Care Consortium and other funding groups of the greater Houston area. Any person with or affected by the disease is urged to attend. For more info, call (281)646-1242; for directions, call (713)527-8219.

Clarence Bagby, President of the Houston Gay & Lesbian Political Caucus, will speak to the Gay Alumni Noon Group at its next meeting, this Saturday, April 11, at 1 p.m. at the Montrose Library, 4100 Montrose. The topic of Bagby's address will be "Gays in Politics: Past and Present." Meetings of GANG, which sponsors a speaker each month of interest to gays and lesbians age 40 and older, are free and are held the second Saturday of every month. Call Jim at (713)622-6918.

A support group for gay men who are survivors of domestic violence (emotional, verbal, mental, physical or sexual abuse in current or past relationships) is now forming through the Bering Support Network and scheduled to meet for eight weeks on Monday nights from 7-8 p.m. beginning April 20 at Bering Memorial United Methodist Church, 1440 Harold St. For more info, call Russ Robinson, MS, LPC, LCDC or Rev. Troy G. Plummer, MS, MDiv, LPC at (713)526-1017 and leave name and safe phone number where your call can be returned. All group members will complete a brief assessment/screening to determine appropriateness for group. Men who are violent are not appropriate for this group and will be referred to other community services.

One of the most talked-about new plays in recent memory opens this Saturday, April 11, in Austin when Zachary Scott Theatre Center presents the Central Texas premiere of Angels in America, Tony Kushner's two-part Tony Award-winning epic. Part 1, Millennium Approaches, runs April 11-May 17, while Part 2, Perestroika, will open Zach's 1998-99 Mainstage season and run Sept. 19-Oct. 18. Shows (3½ hours, with two intermissions, on the Kleberg Stage at 1421 W. Riverside) are at 7:30 p.m. Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays and 2:30 p.m. on Sundays. There are discounts for seniors, students and groups of ten or more and to patrons who buy tickets to both Part 1 and Part 2 in the same phone order. Tickets are available at the box office, 1510 Toomey Rd., Monday-Saturday, noon-7 p.m., or can be charged at (512)476-0541. Angels contains adult language, graphic scenes and nudity.

Donna the Dominatrix [Jennifer Savoy, l] is more than Paul Bland [Robert Kislin] can handle in Eating Raoul at Theater LaB Houston.

Money is the only thing that stands in the way of the Blands, a super-square couple who dream of opening their own restaurant in Eating Raoul, which takes the stage on Wednesday, April 15, in its Southwest premiere at Theater LaB Houston. This new musical version has book by Paul Bartel, based on his 1982 cult film classic. The story's set in the hip, hedonistic L.A. of the '70s, where swingers rule, and the Blands come up with a novel way out of their dilemma that both brings in the necessary funds and reduces the number of "weirdos" and "sexual perverts" out there. Performances are Fridays and Saturdays at 8 p.m. through May 23, with Sunday shows on May 17 and 24 at 6. Tickets ($18) are available by calling the box office at (713)868-7516. Theater LaB Houston is located at 1706 Alamo.

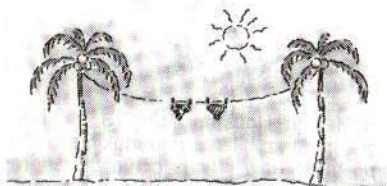

American modern dance's most prominent visionary brings her 14-member company to Jones Hall in Houston April 16 for Twyla Tharp's most ambitious undertaking to date, Tharp!, three new pieces of vastly different styles, created and honed on the corps of young dancers handpicked by Tharp from auditions across the United States. "Sweet Fields" is an exploration of American spirituality as found in the American music of the 18th and 19th centuries; it incorporates hymns from the Shaker tradition as well as choral compositions by William Billings. "66," which is set to "bachelor pad" music by such artists as Esquivel and Dean Martin, depicts Highway 66 in the 1940s, the main path to the Great West, land of opportunity and dreams. "Heroes," which reunites Tharp with composer Philip Glass for the first time since In the Upper Room, serves as a musical response to the legendary David Bowie/Brian Eno album of the same name. Tickets ($12-$40) are available at the Houston Ticket Center in Jones Hall and Wortham Center, and at TicketMaster locations, or can be charged by phone at (713)227-ARTS or (800) 828-ARTS.

The 28th Annual USA Film Festival takes place April 16-23 at AMC Glen Lakes Theatres, Central Exprwy and Walnut Hill Lane in Dallas. The opening night highlight is a Master Screen Artist tribute to actor Christopher Walken at 7 p.m., and the Southwest premiere of Mr. Jealousy, a new comedy with Eric Stoltz (who stars and is executive producer) in attendance, closes out the festival. Other highlights include a screening of (under the rubric "Bad Movies We Love") Where the Boys Are, with Paula Prentiss attending; I Think I Do, in which six college pals reunite for a crazy wedding weekend and one of them discovers his long-time crush on a pal may not be so unrequited; and the National Short Film & Video Competition. Advance tickets are available through TicketMaster at (214)373-8000 or metro (972)647-5700; tickets are $7 ($6 for Festival members), $15 ($12/members) to the opening night tribute. Complete schedules are available at TicketMaster outlets and AMC Glen Lakes, by calling (214)821-NEWS or at the web site, www.usafilmfestival.com.

Claire Danes
April 4, 1979

BY C. LICHTENSTEIN

APRIL 10 - APRIL 16, 1998

It's not every day that a little ray of sunshine casts its spell on our squalid little corner. Pack your shades this week, friends, as mighty Aphrodite wends its way into mystical Pisces. Venus turns those of us hellbent on destructive tendencies too mellow to yellow. Why ask why, comrades? Simply lie back and enjoy it.

ARIES (March 21 - April 20) Venus in Pisces gives proud Rams that inspirational feeling of oneness with the world. Stock up on the karma, kids, and dole it out in dollops for good gay works and charitable community endeavors. Even a small effort has impactful and lucky results now. However, stop everything and take a necessary vacation if you find yourself mumbling the Barney the Dinosaur song.

TAURUS (April 21 - May 21) They don't call you "sociaBull" for nothing. Venus in romantic Pisces now widens and enlivens your social circle. Plot tête-à-têtes with kindred souls. If you're interested in joining a particularly select group (read: snotty), chances are better than average that you'll be accepted. But gay Bulls are far too plebeian to hang around white shoes without eventually scuffling them.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21) Plan your corporate ascent when Venus enters no-holds-barred Pisces. The sky is the limit, or at least it seems that way. Proud Twins are affable folks and can charm almost anyone. Try your hand with superiors and those in power now with Venus' magic fingers. Then build a corporate gay mafia. If absolute power corrupts absolutely, try to become absolutely corruptible.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23) Pink Crabs should now envision themselves lolling around in some faraway hot tub or on some faraway island. Venus in languid Pisces seems to reward the laziest of the Crab set. Life could be worse, you know. You have approximately three weeks to set sail for your own piece of paradise. After that, Venus moves on and so will your interests and desires.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23) Venus in romantic and sensual Pisces provides the bubbles in your champagne, so don't be afraid to pop your cork while the planetary energy is right. You're even more sexually inspired than usual. Proud, regal Lions now recognize that life is a bowl of cherries...or is it a bar full of cherries? Whatever the heck it is, take a few nibbles.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23) Relationships go from the ridiculous to the sublime with delightful Venus in sympathetic Pisces. Queer Virgins now tend to overlook the deficiencies and quirks of partners thanks to a somewhat idealistic piscean influence. But all good things eventually pass, so don't allow too many nights to go by with underwear on the lampshade. Some things even a delusional Virgo cannot abide!

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23) Gay Libras know the value of a good day's work when Venus traverses visionary Pisces. All projects, no matter how onerous, go more smoothly and the rewards seem more palpable.

Other things may be brewing on the job aside from a cup of coffee; lovely Venus can awaken the carnal desires of even the lowliest of drones. Push your pencil in my direction, buddy.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22) Party-hearty gay Scorps can go well beyond the limit thanks to feisty Venus in excessive Pisces. The temptation will be to try everything and anything now, but show some discretion, cousin; the piscean energy doesn't recognize limitations and you could find yourself a dissipated old relic with sandbox mouth before the transit is over. Yet what a way to go!

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22) Venus in Pisces will help queer Archers find common ground with difficult relations. There's no need for you to feel that you have to compromise, but the planets do insure that you can make your point without rupturing family relationships forever. Venus also enables you to establish comfortable home surroundings for yourself. Heck; you deserve it.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20) Astute gay Caps can charm the stars from the sky when Venus enters Pisces. Use your considerable power of persuasion to take the gay agenda one giant step out and about and give it clout. Charismatic Venus almost guarantees you a large following of adoring groupies. Are you sure you can handle diva status? You may have to bag that pocket protector.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19) Everytime it rains it rains pennies from heaven. Well, maybe it's just a case of generous Venus in Pisces that turns on the golden waterworks. Aqueerians can enjoy their fiscal success now but should consider saving for a dry spell. Do your investment homework, consult trusted financial advisors and plan your eventual retirement now. Good things can sprout, and I don't mean hay.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - March 20) Delightful Venus in your own sign makes you queen of the ball. Pink Fish find themselves in the epicenter of all social activities, so dive into the pool and expect to get wet. Meet as many new folks as possible now; new beginnings bring fabulous results. But beware of excess, cousin. Jupiter is also in Pisces now, which means expansion. Don't outgrow your gills.

OAK LAWN SOCCER DOMINATES

DALLAS — The three teams of the Oak Lawn Soccer Club continued to dominate their respective league divisions last week. Friday night, the Pride, the club's co-ed team, won its game against Cornfused 6-0. Scoring was led by Dee Grant's two goals and single goals by Jeff Bartels and Marcos Arredondo. The Pride is now tied for first place in its division of the North Texas Co-ed

Soccer Association.

In men's action, the Sideburns won their Wednesday night match against Ernst & Young 3-1, with Pepe Conforme taking responsibility for all three Oak Lawn points. Sunday afternoon, the Sideburns took on the undefeated Club Deportivo Aguila and tied the game 1-1 with an incredible diving header goal by newcomer Koji Ishigure. The Sideburns remain in second place in their ten-team division.

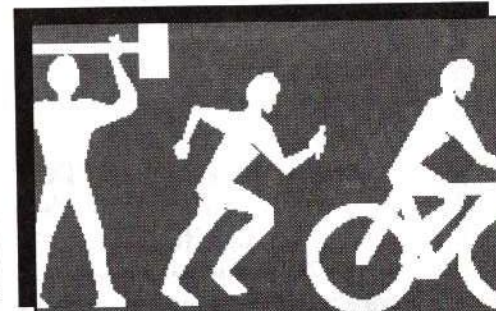

Finally, the women of the Oak Lawn Soccer Club tied a hard-fought game 2-2 against the Stars. Goals were scored by Cindy Rau and Janet Youngblood, who rejoins the team after an early-season injury.

Wednesday night practices have moved back to North Dallas High School from 6-8 p.m.

For more info about the Oak Lawn Soccer Club, call the hotline at (214) 941-3566 or check the group's web site at <http://web2.airmail.net/astrojet/olsc.htm>.

CATHEDRAL OF HOPE IN DALLAS IS TARGET OF BOMB THREAT POSTED ON INTERNET

*No Services Canceled by Church;

DALLAS — The Cathedral of Hope Metropolitan Community Church, the world's largest predominantly gay and lesbian congregation, has been the target of a bomb threat posted on the Internet.

The threat, received last Thursday morning by The Dallas Morning News, is being investigated by the FBI.

The Rev. Mike Piazza, senior pastor of the congregation, said the church would continue to operate normally. "Our stance is that we need to release this information so our members know [and] can make their choice. We're going to have services, but people have a right to know what they are coming to," he said. Piazza also noted that last year's bombing of an Atlanta gay bar and more recent bomb attacks on abortion clinics had forced the church to view all threats with concern.

The threat against Cathedral of Hope affected attendance this past Sunday, but all services were held as scheduled.

The Internet threat contained condemnations of homosexuals and included the statement, "You think Oklahoma City was bad, wait until you see this."

"We strongly condemn these threats to our constitutional rights to worship and free assembly," said the Rev. Troy D. Perry, Moderator of the Universal Fellowship of Metropolitan Community Churches, the parent denomination of Cathedral of Hope. "Over the past 30 years, more than 20 Metropolitan Community Church congregations have been targets of the hate crimes of arson or firebombing, and many more have faced threats to both worshippers and property."

"I call upon all people of goodwill to uphold the Rev. Mike Piazza and the congregation of Cathedral of Hope with their love and prayers during this time," Perry said. "I salute the church for keeping its doors open to gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgendered persons....Through their boldness and love, our members and friends in Dallas are communicating the message that we don't have to be afraid anymore."

DOCUMENTARY ON ANTI-GAY RALLY IN SAN ANTONIO TO PREMIERE WEDNESDAY

'Uncivil Rights' Looks at Religious Effort Against Job Bias Protection for City Workers.

SAN ANTONIO — A documentary that portrays a right-wing religious group in action against a proposal to outlaw job bias against gay city employees premieres next Wednesday, April 15, in a free screening at 7 p.m. at the Gay & Lesbian Community Center, 3126 N. St. Mary's.

Uncivil Rights chronicles an anti-gay and lesbian rally held in the chambers of San Antonio City Council on Jan. 29 of this year. The production is distilled from over four hours of off-air tapes made during the "Citizens to Be Heard" portion of that day's meeting of the City Council, which was due to vote on a policy that would provide gay and lesbian city employees equal job protection, which is already provided to racial and religious minorities. Cheered on by a crowd of around 350 religious fundamentalists, 70 speakers condemned the proposal as giving "special rights" to gays.

San Antonio City Council took the job protection measure off its agenda after the fundamentalists' protest.

"The 30-minute video not only exposes the Christian Coalition's agenda to defame and demonize gays and lesbians in the same way the Nazis attacked their victims in the 1930s, it exposes their strategy to pit minority groups against one another, to censor by intimidation local bookstores, movie theatres, network television and school libraries," said Rob Blanchard, who along with Harry W. Haines produced the video, with funding from the local chapter of the Log Cabin Republicans.

The screening of Uncivil Rights, which will be followed by a discussion. For more information, call (210)732-4300. The Community Center is handicapped-accessible.

HOUSTON'S LiB PICKS NEW OFFICERS, MEETING PLACE

Women's Empowerment Group Aims to Diversify Membership.

HOUSTON — LiB, a women's empowerment group, has elected a new slate of officers for 1998 and moved its meetings to a new location.

Suzanne Anderson will serve as President, along with Dr. Jackie Doval as Vice President, Elyse Meyer as Treasurer, Peggy Testa as Secretary and Mary Ann Smith as Member-at-Large. This is the second term as President for Anderson, who along with Testa is one of the five original founders of LiB, known in full as Lesbians in Business.

"It's a very proactive board," said Anderson. "I want to build LiB up in membership and to rejuvenate it."

Anderson said she also hoped to draw a more diverse range of women into the group, whose name may have led some potential members to conclude that they weren't eligible.

"One of the things that we've had to overcome is that because it's called 'Lesbians in Business,' women have the idea that they have to own their own business in order to join.

"LiB welcomes lesbians of all abilities, interests, races, educational backgrounds and areas of employment, as well as those seeking additional or new opportunities."

LiB meets the third Friday of each month beginning at 6:30 p.m. for networking and 7 p.m. for the general meeting. The Holiday Inn Select, 2712 SW Frwy, will be the group's new meeting site beginning April 17. For more information about LiB and its activities, call (713)529-0077.

VIGIL IN HOUSTON WILL REMEMBER CRIME VICTIMS

*April 19 Gathering at Montrose Counseling Center
Will Promote Healing Around
Killing of Marc Kajs, Others.*

HOUSTON — A candlelight vigil will be held Sunday, April 19, at 7:30 p.m in the parking lot of the Montrose Counseling Center to remember Marc Kajs and other victims of crime. Kajs was killed on Sunday, March 29, by his ex-partner, who then killed himself moments later in a busy public area on Montrose Blvd. The vigil coincides with the first day of Victim's Rights Week, which runs April 19-26.

"The purpose of this vigil is to promote healing within the community around the tragic murder of Marc Kajs," said Kristina Friman, a therapist at MCC who works with survivors of same-sex intimate partner violence and sexual assault. "We will also be remembering and raising awareness of the many other lives that have been lost or affected by same-gender domestic violence and other types of violence."

The vigil will include comments from community leaders, including City Councilmember Annise Parker, Troy Plummer, M.Div., LPC, of Bering Memorial United Methodist Church and the Rev. Janet Parker of Maranatha Fellowship MCC. The lighting of candles will follow.

Friman said the vigil should also help to reassure people that they are not alone in feeling the loss of someone they love.

The Montrose Counseling Center is located at 701 Richmond Ave. For more information about the vigil or about MCC's services for survivors of intimate partner violence, sexual assault or hate crimes, call (713)529-0037.

DALLAS TEA — The Round Up Saloon presents an Easter Sunday Festival with the Bunny opening the doors at 6 p.m. for early dancing and fun. The place will be hopping this Easter, starting with an extravagant egg hunt and photos with the Easter Bunny. Don't forget their annual Easter Bonnet contest starting at 8 p.m. with Juanita teaching the Bunny Hop, Round Up-style. TGRA will present some of your favorite entertainers throughout the evening, so don't be late. There's no cover charge to get into all the Easter fun this Sunday at the Round Up. See you there with your boots and bonnets on....

Dallas Eagle welcomes the members and friends of Leather Knights for Club Knight the last Friday of every month from 8 p.m.-11 p.m. Tomorrow, Saturday, April 11, check out the Boot Auction benefit immediately following the Mr. Dallas Fantasy contest, which starts at 8 p.m. Congratulations to new Mr. Texas Leather 1998 Ronnie Fansher, who'll be competing along with over 80 other contestants at the International Mr. Leather competition in Chicago this May. Best of luck, Ronnie!...

Caven Enterprises has been named Outstanding Volunteer of the Year by the Volunteer Center of Dallas, for having donated more than 500 hours a year to Oak Lawn Community Services in addition to the monthly social events they offer. The employees of Caven clubs have volunteered continuously and will be recognized for these efforts this Monday, April 13, at a special awards ceremony, with over 1,400 expected to attend, at the Hyatt Regency. This is the largest Volunteer Awards event in North Texas. Caven was chosen as the worthiest from among all 200 nominations. Congratulation to Caven C.E.O. Jack Polacheck and the excellent volunteers. To find out more about all the neat stuff going on at Caven, check out their web site at www.caven.com and get connected to all the information about promotions, schedules, specials, pictures, calendars, links, news, community and more 24 hours a day, seven days a week....

When you have a thirst for something that you just can't seem to put your finger on, check out all the brews TMC has to choose from. They offer over 50 different varieties, and the sexy staff and clientele are enough to whet your appetite any night. Check it out for yourself tonight, and don't forget about Wednesdays, when the club reduces the price on selected draft pints....

Sue Ellen's has a week-long schedule that everyone enjoys, like customers D'nette and Brandy [right, r-l], who were snapped having a great time recently. Check with your favorite bartender about all the stuff you'll find at the club nightly. See you there....

Zippers has hot male dancers seven nights a week and the staff is always ready, willing and able to serve your favorite beverage. Cute customer Anthony [left] is just one of the guys who find a good time every time they get into Zippers. You should, too....

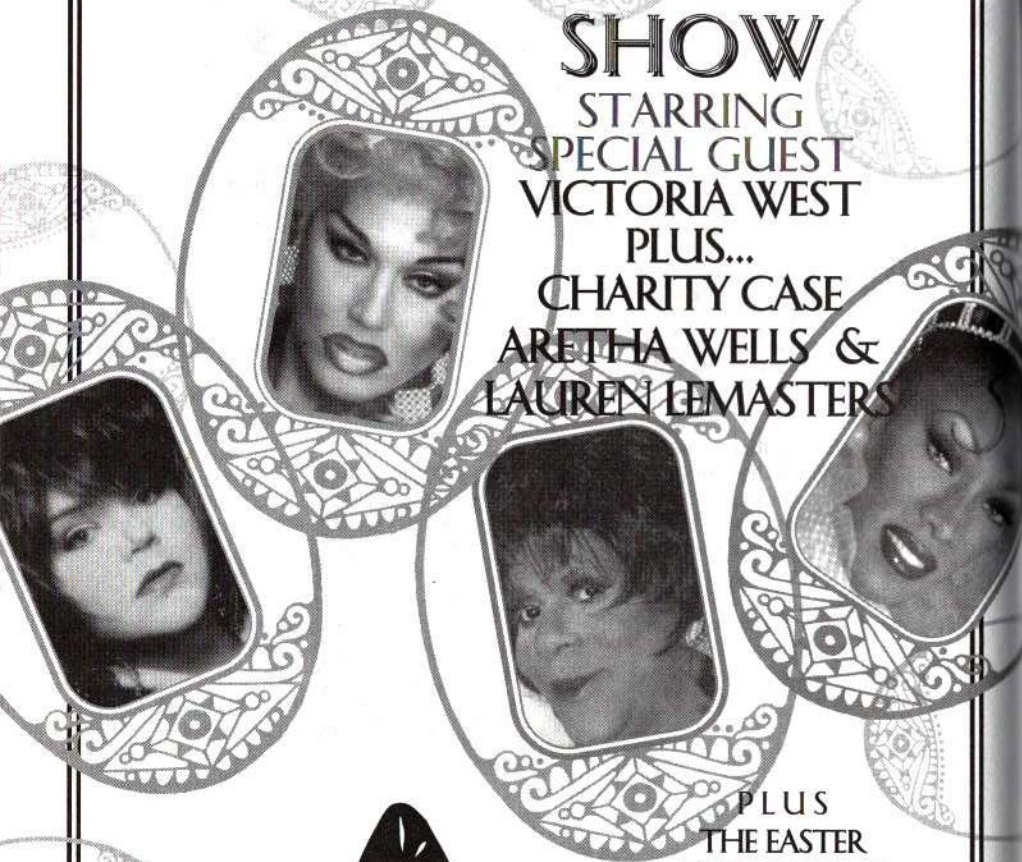

Crews Inn's Stars Inn: The Spotlight shows are really packing the crowds into the club. This Monday's starstudded show features the talents of Sweet Savage, Krystal Klear, Raven St. James and Laken Edwards. You can bet Monday with Miss Mona will never be the same again. There are rumors that she might make a surprise appearance one of these weeks. But that's just like her to tease everyone and leave all of us feeling just like her legs — "open and hoping." Tonight will satisfy the retro dance queen in you as you dance the night away to the Trash Disco sounds everyone loves on those special boogie nights. See you there....

Moby Dick offers you four nights of fun with Texas' hottest male dancers every Thursday through Sunday. The Balcony Beer Club is back, and the club offers its lowest prices for draft beer on the front balcony all day Sundays. You might find the Easter Bunny all over town, but their hot dancers will be found only at Moby. For more information, check with your favorite bartender. Don't forget to catch the Moby/Brick shuttle beginning at 9 p.m. this weekend....

The Brick welcomes the return of the White Party, coming up on Saturday, May 16. Popular deejay Ric Herrington [right] celebrated his birthday last weekend with a few hundred of his friends and well-wishers. If you missed the party, the CRUISE CAMERA photo of Ric captured his beautiful birthday boy smile....

Bamboleo's has got what you need to get into the party spirit from the minute you walk through the doors. That's where the CRUISE CAMERA found staffers Guera, Hector, and Pedro [above, l-r]. Make your plans to check out all of their great party nights every Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Their Sunday shows are legendary with lots of pageants scheduled throughout the year. Miss Cinco de Mayo is coming up May 1. See you there....

White Rock Community Church invites everyone out to their Easter Sunday service. This Sunday is also the largest fund-raising event of the season for the Cornerstone Fund, which helps the church to continue growing and needs the support of all members. It is especially fitting at this holiday to enable those who wish to remember a loved one with a financial offering of $100 to the Cornerstone fund. This is also one of the rare times when your one-time offerings may be made on your MasterCard or Visa. Everyone is encouraged to attend this special Easter service when there's so much excitement going on within WRCC. See you there....

Kolors has dancers and shows on most nights and you can get in on the action at the 2525 Wycliff club seven nights a week. The CRUISE CAMERA captured emcee Edna Jean Robinson [above, c] with dancers Mike and Garrett. If you like what you see, check out all the action out tonight. And get ready for the Miss Gulf States Pageant coming soon.

HOUSTON TEA —

Just as we promised, here's a fun photo of Kofi [right] as Monica's phone-tapping friend Linda Tripp at JR's April Fools' Day presidential spoof. One of the best parts of Easter weekend has to be Bunnies On The Bayou, and once again, Rich's is providing free shuttle service to and from the party. This will make it very easy for you to tip on in to the club's official post-party beginning at 7 p.m. Last weekend's Black Party was truly fantastic. From the decorations to the dancers to the multitude of magnificent men like Gregory and John [right, l-r] who packed the place, everything was absolutely awesome....

When The Black Party proceeded on to Pacific Street, the action was hot and heavy. DeeJay Adrian Viscarra and lots of house all night long. Speaking of good-looking guys, the gang at the club is still looking for a few good men to enter the eighth annual Mr. Texas Drummer Contest next Sunday, April 19. Special guest emcee Frank Norwiki will oversee the interview, leather image, fantasy and jockstrap categories....

This Sunday, Gentry breaks slightly from holiday tradition with an Easter Man Hunt featuring an auction of hot studs followed by a fabulous all-star revue. Auction and show proceeds benefit AVES. Springtime at Gentry sizzles with sensational male strip contests every Sunday and Wednesday and beautiful Boy Toy dancers seven nights a week....

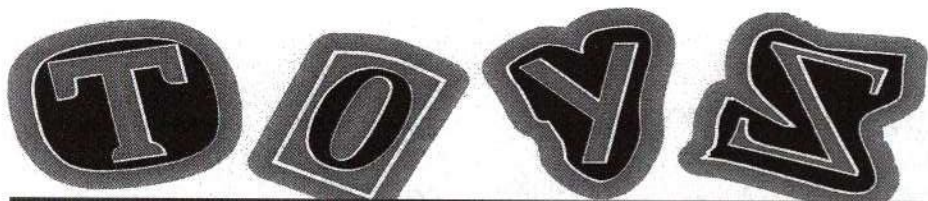

Tomorrow night, the Bayou City Boys Club presents Jungle Lust VI. This annual event invites you to return to the wild once again at The Spencer Company, 1609 Ennis at Leeland. Proceeds will benefit The Assistance Fund, Body Positive Wellness Center and AVES. Tickets are $45 at the door if any are still available....

Underground House Party featuring music by deejay Alex T., male and female dancers and everything-on-the-shelf drink specials. This Sunday, the club's Easter Super Show features emcee Jenny Kraiggg with special guests Denise Mykels and Vanessa Von Ray. This Easter Sunday, the 2015 Place hosts the TGRA Easter egg hunt & bonnet extravaganza, so come out and enjoy Easter with your "real family." The fun begins at 7:30 p.m. with a prize-filled egg hunt and then the fun continues at 8:30 p.m. with the Easter bonnet contest with prizes awarded for first, second and third place. Then, the TGRA folks wind it all down with a western-style Easter show at 9 p.m., with all proceeds benefiting the TGRA San Antonio chapter....

The Eagle Mountain Saloon will kick off its Fiesta celebration with a big blowout on April 16 at 9 p.m. Don't miss any of the excitement. Do not miss Monday Mania at EMS this week. The Dash for Cash at 12:30 a.m. will help you make up for all those dollars you spent this weekend and faboo deejay Stormin' Norman always keeps the dance floor full. Remember, parking is free at the EMS...and those studly security guards are always there to make sure your car is, too. The Eagle Mountain Saloon played host to several birthday parties this past week, and there was a great turnout for Ben and his pals, who threw a real big surprise party for Marty. Construction projects continue at the EMS, with changes happening almost daily and continuing right up to Fiesta week....

If you missed the anniversary party and switch night at the Annex on April 1, you missed out on some really great camp presentations. Staff from both the Annex and EMS took part in the show, which raised $340 for the Blue Light Candle Project and TGRA. The show even featured their very own Ab doing what he does so well — a live rendition of Hank Williams. An encore was demanded by the audience, and they got it. The management reminds everyone to be sure and get your registration forms filled out and returned, if you plan on attending the big Chain of Command party the evening of April 25 at Mick's Hideaway. Registration is available at both the Annex and Mick's. Things are also heating up for the Mr. San Antonio Drummer contest, scheduled to take the Annex by storm in just two weeks. If you'd like the best view in the house, be sure to reserve one of those new party areas. Remember, the Annex will celebrate its first year all month long...stop by and show your appreciation for a club that shows its customers appreciation every day of the year....

Congratulations to Miss Gay South USofA Pageant winner Tersa Matthews, who stormed the contest this past weekend on the Saint stage. Our CRUISE CAMERA captured the winner's circle featuring second runner-up Leandra Lang, first runner-up Alexis Nicole Whitney and the winner [above, l-r]. Congrats to all the girls! This Sunday, the Saint's Super Sunday Show cast celebrates Easter by welcoming the long-awaited return of the "all-new" Lauren Taylor. Those of you familiar with the remarkable talents of the former Miss Gay America may be pleasantly surprised by her recent transformation into full-fledged goddess. Be sure not to miss this show as Miss Taylor returns to the Saint stage after a rather lengthy hiatus. Also on the ticket, San Antonio local Jade DeSanté and, of course, the stellar cast including Shady Lady, Pauletta Leigh and Erica Andrews. Friday, April 17, the Saint will kick off the Fiesta San Antonio celebration with Babe Meyers's presentation of the Miss Gay Fiesta Pageant. The all-star lineup will include the reigning Maya Douglas, Erica Andrews, Pauletta Leigh, Shady Lady, Amber Nixx and many more. Applications are available at the front door and there's no entry fee for the contest. For more info, call Babe at (210)735-4482....

The LaVillita Assembly Hall will play host to this year's Tejano Street Fair, on Sunday, May 3, from noon until 8 p.m. The event will feature food, dancing, games and live musical acts. The $6 admission will benefit the very worthy Blue Light Candle Project and will include a fabulous show featuring The Pointless Sisters — a San Antonio tradition....

Bonham Exchange has been getting everything ready for Fiesta for months now and everything is ready. Kenny, Angie and Eva have lots more plans for the mammoth complex inside and out. Get ready for the rooftop patio to have a totally new look. If you think the service from the bartender is quick now, just wait till you see how fast everything's going to flash before your eyes with the all-new register system they've got coming. You'll think you've pushed the fast-forward button on the VCR. The hot dance crowds and party people that flock to the club regularly should be intensified when the visitors hit town during Fiesta starting next weekend. Make it a point to let the staff know what a great job they're doing and check out all the improvements. See you there....

Be sure to check out the San Antonio ad section in next week's Fiesta issue of TWT. The town will explode with the annual convergence of hundreds of thousands of partiers packing every corner of the city, all in their quest to have a good time. All clubs, organizations and businesses will be welcoming multitudes of party pilgrims to the Alamo City for ten nonstop days and nights of parties, parades and celebrations. Check out next week's issue to plan your party schedule so you won't miss a moment of the excitement.

AUSTINteaCIOUS — The Forum is all about having fun. Back to the Boathouse Wednesdays are all the rage — they have all your favorite '80s dance music and cheap cocktails to boot! We had the pleasure of seeing the lovely Kelly Kline [right] at her talent night on Thursday. Barbi has nothing on this living doll. Why is Sunday the day we all look forward to? Burgers, shorts, friends and cold adult beverages, to name just a few examples, and all of them can be found on the only rooftop patio in Austin. Then, enjoy the antics of Paris Channel and her "Best Chest" and "Wet T-Shirt" contests. We are told by a source close to the action that Aaron has a new beau. It might be best to stay out of the stall when he's in the bar, girl!...

'Bout Time is always a fun place to play, offering darts, pool and volleyball. Couple all this competition with an occasional drag show and you have a festive time waiting for you. Tomorrow night, the Austin chapter of TGRA is having a show, while the United Court of Austin presents a benefit for PAL next Saturday, April 18. Miss Universal Thang is coming up quick. It's time to give up the crown, Bibi, but you'll always rein in our hearts....

Over at the 1920's Club, Chef Chase [left] is cooking up a storm. We wouldn't have made it through our night on the town had it not been for his culinary delights. Couple this with the delightful atmosphere and all the cuties out looking for a date, and you have all the ingredients for a night to brag about over brunch. The very handsome Jerry is your weekend host, and he insures us your pleasure and comfort are his prime objectives....

Charlie's is celebrating their annual Blue Bonnet festival. We of Central Texas love our bonnets, blue and otherwise. In honor of the occasion, Jame Perry [right] decided to appear almost naked for her amateur strip contest on Tuesday. Now there's something new, ha-ha! Speaking of new, welcome new happy hour bartender Aaron to the fold. He's cute, 27, single and blond. We love him! We also love all the cuties in the Monday night "Wet Underwear Contest" starring comedian Heather Thomas. She gives you a good dose of camp and the boys give you a good dose of bulging undies and "swinging" boxers. The only way to check out the "weenie wiggle" is to show up. Out on the patio, you can have a yummy Jerry-burger every Sunday afternoon....

The Edge is as festive as ever. Care to play a little blackjack? Kevin is dealing up a storm. Lil' Debi is your weekend happy hour bartender. He's always good for a laugh and a tasty beverage. Sunday crooning at karaoke with the fabulous Rob will definitely pick your spirits up, as will Freaky Thursday with deejay Bang. Dandy Don Engal keeps you on the dance floor all weekend with his wax attack....

Rainbow Cattle Co. was sad to say farewell to Andre, whose smiling face will be missed as well as the view he gives when he bends over the beer box. Speaking of box, they want to welcome new happy hour bartenders Sam and Jason. We also welcome new deejay Kaye to the Rainbow family. You can hear her spin on Saturday nights. Stop in and tell her hello. The Austin Babtist Women present their 11th annual Easter Show this Sunday. We feel certain Ophelia will be wearing white shoes for her trademark cartwheels [right]. The girls are well on their way to reaching $11 million in funds raised. Our hat is off to these dedicated philanthropists....

There's a rumor that two new bars are coming to the capital city. The rumor is true. HOT TEA has scouted out the clubs and both promise not only to be fun but to add a new dimension to the club scene in our fair city. Be on the lookout for new places to cruise, see and be seen. Speaking of see, we had the pleasure of seeing deejay deluxe Tank in nothing but a pair of short shorts. Tank, Tank, Tank, you've invaded our dreams and we couldn't be happier.

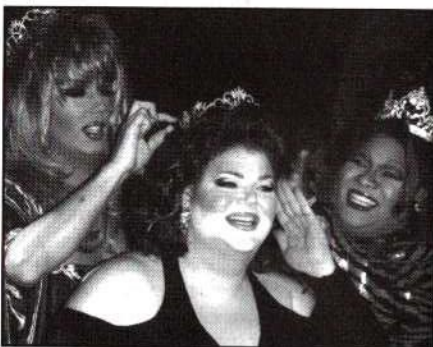

TARRANT TEA — Fort Worth Community Festivals presented Springfest 98 last weekend on the Corral Club's adjoining property. A good time was had by all. If you missed out on all the fun, make sure and check with your favorite bartender for the next festival on the schedule....

This Easter Sunday, the show at Magnolia Station features the talents of Victoria West, Charity Case, Aretha Wells and Lauren LeMasters. The Easter Bunny will be on hand to give out some very special cash-stuffed Easter eggs....

H.E.L.P. is sponsoring a social support and relationship-building program for all gay men, both single and partnered, HIV-negative or positive. The issues change from week to week, but everyone can have a fun and entertaining time from 6:30-8 p.m. every Wednesday in April and May. For more information, call (817)332-7722....

Lancaster Beach Club gives you seven nights of party every week. Mondays are Mary's pool tournaments with cash prizes. Tini Tuesdays offer with show tunes emceed by Amazon Pearl. Karaoke on Wednesdays is a scream. On Thursdays deejay Travis spins retro sounds. Fridays and Saturdays are just a day at the Beach. Sunday brings Tiffany Rene's talent show at 9 p.m. Check it all out this week.

PAGEANT TEA — Buddies II in Dallas was the site of the recent Miss Gay Las Colinas Pageant. At the end of the contest, last year's winner, lovely Victoria West [above, l] and Miss Gay Texas Kofi [r] crowned the ever-popular Charity Case [c]. We wish her and first alternate Giszelle Bevon-Ashton the best of luck at the state competition later this year.

PALM SPRINGS TEA - Check out the City of Palm Springs advertisement page in this week's TWT. It has a lot of information to consider when planning your next vacation or travel planning. Palm Springs is an inviting place for visitors to really feel pampered and they have many attractions to appeal to folks from all walks of life. The Fabulous Follies of Palm Springs was the featured subject in an Academy Award nominated in the short film category. They have so much to offer, you may want to make P.S. an annual destination just to experience all they have going on through out the year. Check out their full page ad for more information and call to get your travel pack #22.

KEY WEST TEA - The gay destination for travelers is Key West, Florida. The easy going lifestyle of the residents of Key West are as free and easy as the gulf breezes that sweep across the Florida Keys. For your copy of the free 52-page color guide and map, check out their ad in this issue and give them a call today.

Danny Lee Jacobs

April 6, 1966 – Feb. 24, 1998

Dan was tragically taken from us while walking his dog, CK, in White Oak Park. Dan had lived in Houston ten years and was employed by GTE Wireless for the last three years, and previously at Continental Airlines. Dan is survived by his mother, Gloria; father and stepmother, Dennis and Joyce; and two brothers, Jeff and Randy, of Billings, Montana, Dan's birthplace.

Dan was a caring, generous person, and I shall miss him desperately. A memorial service was held Feb. 28. The funeral and burial was Feb. 30 in Billings.

Your friend, Scott

Paul Tenorio Gonzales

Paul was born on Dec. 17, 1959, in San Antonio. He attended school in San Antonio until he was 17, when he moved to Dallas to live with his aunt, Minnie Tenorio, who was also his second mother. Paul attended Eastfield College for two years. After leaving college, Paul worked at different hotels and managed a Travel Lodge and a Holiday Inn. Paul and his partner, Michael Schmelzer, own the bar Kolers on Wycliff in Dallas. Even while Paul was ill, he continued to make improvements to the bar and actively participated in the construction. Paul always wanted to make things better than they were and to change those things he could.

Paul's loving partner, Michael Schmelzer, was at his side at Baylor Hospital on Wednesday, March 18, at 8:45 p.m. at the time of Paul's departure to be with Jesus. Also present were Paul's mother, Alicia Pena; pastor, Leon Linfoot; sisters, Ruth, Gloria and Rosalinda; aunt, Carrie de la Vega; and other family and friends.

Paul's gifts to his family and friends were his generosity, kindheartedness, humor and loving ways. The staff at Baylor seemed more like Paul's own family. When Paul had to return this last time, it was as if he was just going home. Paul was always helping those who needed him. Both his time and his money were freely given to his family and friends. Paul was the one they all looked to for help.

Many of the staff and the customers of Kolers were a constant source of joy to Paul. He spoke about how much he appreciated their faithfulness and honesty, their flowers, cards and gifts. Paul hosted benefits for many worthy causes at Kolers. A year ago, Paul invited the choir from Grace Fellowship in Chris Jesus every first Sunday evening to do outreach ministry and a fund-raiser at Kolers. Paul would always be touched by the Christian music, and a special tribute to Paul was given at the March benefit.

His sister, Alicia Alvarez, and his brother, Luis Garcia, preceded Paul in death.

His partner Michael Schmelzer survives Paul. His mother, Alicia Pena of San Antonio; father, Paul Gonzales, Sr., and stepmother, Margaret; sisters, Ruth Lara, Gloria Escamilla, Rosalinda Alvarez, Herminia Alcantar; brother, Jose Angel Alvarez; any many nieces, nephews, other relatives and many, many friends also survive Paul.

A rosary was held for Paul in San Antonio on Sunday, March 22, at Max Martinez Mortuary. A service was held Monday, March 23, at St. John Berchleman Catholic Church. Interment was at San Jose Burial Park in San Antonio.
