BY CHRIS GRAY

Welcome back to another installment of SURFING THE NET, where we take you on a fascinating tour of the gay and lesbian segments of the world wide web. We also thought we'd give you a few non-gay sites that were recently the hands-down winners at the Webby Awards, the net's equivalent of the Oscars, which were held on-line and in the pages of PC Magazine. With so many awards for the numerous areas of the net, we thought we'd offer a very brief rundown of some of those homepages....

For arts sites, top honors went to Entropy at www.entropy8.com, while rounding out the top three were www.adaweb.com and www.atlasmagazine.com. Film buffs will want to check out the movie database winner, www.imdb.com, which swept the category, as the runner-up awards went to www.eonline.com and www.film.co. For gamers, www.bez.erk.com was number one, and for the health conscious, the winner was www.mayohealth.org. The health category was rounded out by www.drweil.com and www.thebody.com, with its extensive HIV information.

Women were also represented as www.gurl.com was named their favorite, although www.planetout.com and www.swoon.com were close behind. News groupies chose www.abcnews.com as their leading site, but www.msnbc.com and www.nytimes.com also placed. The "weird" category's first place winner was the very humorous "Bert Is Evil" website at www.fractalcow.com/bert. Following Bert was www.blairmag.co, and www.theonion.com also received kudos.

Some more interesting sites include www.musicmaker.com, for the music lover out there who doesn't want to spend a fortune buying every CD on the market. This site allows you to buy individual songs and put them on a single CD. If you want to give your state or national congressmen a piece of your mind, you can reach your Texas State Representative at www.house.state.tx.us or your State Senator at www.senate.state.tx.us. For the U.S. House of Representatives, go to www.house.gov, and for the U.S. Senate, try www.senate.gov.

That's a quick review of those spots you might want to surf when not checking out our gay locales, of which we have more than enough to keep you surfing for days. So, our first gay site is one place we mentioned last issue but neglected to give its actual address. If you were were disappointed that you couldn't surf to The Gay Men's Health Crisis, one of the oldest AIDS organizations in the country, the address is <http://www.gmhc.org>. Stop here for a very informative web page that has an extensive AIDS library and also discusses all aspects of HIV and where to turn for help.

If you're looking for a quiet place in the country for a few days, The Triple B Ranch and Resort at Cedar Creek Lake, Texas may be for you. Preview this hideaway at www.srjmarketing.com/tripleb.

There are several places devoted to gays and religion on the information super highway. You can find the national electronic address of the Universal Fellowship of Metropolitan Community Church at www.ufmcc.com which has links to MCC churches all over the country. Another site devoted to religion is The World Congress of Gay and Lesbian Jewish Organizations at www.wcgljo.org/wcgljo, which offers a listing of member organizations, upcoming events and other info you'll find useful. Yet another destination for those looking toward religion is the Catholic Gay site at www.dignityusa.org, which contains their monthly newsletter, handbook and list of chapters across the United States. The Gay Quakers (and yes, there are gay Quakers), aren't about to be left out of the web. You can read all about their organization and religion at www.geocities.com/WestHollywood/2473/flgc.html.

Releasing's web location. This film company distributes numerous movies of interest to gays and lesbians, and you can find them at www.strandrel.com. You can read the descriptions of the new movies they're releasing or peruse the new video releases, like Latino Boys Go To Hell.

Of course, we have some randier sites (for all those randies out there!), with several home pages by many of the male adult movie performers. For instance, Ren Adams is up (so to speak), at www.ren-adams.com. Another Star, whose name is just Austin, is waiting for you at www.mind-spring.com/~austinxxx. Big, blonde and beefy Chance Caldwell is online at www.chance-caldwell.com. Billy Dare wants you to come see him at www.man-sex.com/billydare, and the gorgeous Talvin DeMachio hopes to see you at www.talvindemachio.com. Jon Vincent, who likes to snarl at poor helpless guys in his videos, has seemingly been around porn forever (though he still looks good) and has a site of his own at www.jonvincent.com.

You can find some porn video companies playing their wares, like Zeus Video who makes manly movies for men into leather and brute force. Surf to www.zeusstudios.com for their website that has tons of pics from their cinematic treasures. Palm Drive Video is another place where the men are men and the sheep are nervous! Seriously, you can find out all about their leather and gruff videos at www.palm-drive.com. For the men who really know what they want, go to the Total Tops website at www.jocks.net/tops, and you'll find some incredibly sexy men and their photos. You'll need AdultCheck (www.adult-check.com) for this one, though.

For those wanting the 411 on all those hot circuit parties happening all over the United States, we have a great site for you. Electric Dreams at www.partyplanet.com has an exhaustive listing of just about every party there is coming up across the country.

If you want to see how the guys on that island across the Atlantic live, surf on over to www.gaytimes.co.uk for the British GayTimes Magazine web site with some pretty men and a very entertaining location. Knock with your email address and they'll let you in. Another place we're sure you'll want to zip over in the mother country is www.zipper.co.uk, where Zipper Magazine and Vulcan Magazine have joined forces. They bring young, cute and "real" British men from their magazines in tons of pics and no age verification.

We also have a few picture sites, where you can download or just look at some gorgeous studs, such as the Handsome Hunks site at www.handsomehunks.com, or maybe California guys are more your speed. If so, www.california-dudes.com is the place for you. They also have some great latino men featured on this site. An incredibly hot-looking California "dude," Kelly Slater, who has gone on to fame and fortune through his surfing (real-life ocean, not webbing) has a site devoted to him at www.geocities.com/pipeline. You'll find pictures of him modeling in front of his surfboard and out in the ocean catching some waves, as well as pics from his modeling assignments for Versace and other designers. He's quite pretty, and if you want to see even more famous hunks, then you might want to check out the Young Male Stars homepage, www.yms-homepage.simplenet.com, with big names like Leonardo Dicaprio, Keanu Reeves, our favorite, Jared Leto and a host of others.

Lastly, we leave you with a bit of info about the exploding world wide web. According to the United States Commerce Department, in 1994 a mere 3 million people were online throughout the world. Today that number has surged to over 100 million "net"izens, 62 million of which are Americans, clicking away. The traffic on the internet is now doubling every 100 days. Isn't it just amazing? So don't be left out; get connected today!

That's all for this issue. If you know of an interesting website, gay or non-gay, email me at ChrisDallas@aol.com, and we may just mention it in our next issue. Til then, have fun surfing the web!

THIS WEEK IN TEXAS assumes that every individual entering an adult website is over 18 and capable of making his or her own choices. Some sites contain nudity, and some of them also lead into pay sites, so make sure you read everything. TWT accepts no responsibility for such fees or for anything else that happens when readers access the sites in question. Also, some Web pages change locations, go down for a time or disappear completely. All sites mentioned in this article could be reached as of Tuesday, April 28th.

REVIEWED BY STEVEN LINDSEY

Campier than a National Enquirer headline...more provocative than an episode of Jerry Springer...Look, up on the stage! It's a virgin. No, it's a drag queen... It's Vampire Lesbians of Sodom! Yes, I could probably end the review right there, and the title alone would be enough to lure you zombie-like to the theatre, but please read on. There's a lot more to the story than just a catchy name.

With Vampire Lesbians and the accompanying one act play Sleeping Beauty or Coma, Dallas' Pegasus Theatre continues its tradition of producing shows that are a little bizarre, a whole lot wacky and always a couple wontons short of a pu pu platter. In other words, the casts are often unbalanced when it comes to talent, but the weaker links, when there are any, are never enough to bring down those with true ability. In fact, by seeing two one-act plays starring the same actors, it was fun to see which ones actually had range.

SODOM REINCARNATES
A VIRGIN
IN LAS VEGAS

The evening began with Sleeping Beauty or Coma, a "you got your peanut butter in my chocolate" combination of Snow White and Sleeping Beauty. Set in merry old London in the 1960's, it's a tiedyed circus of crazy characters in the cut-throat fashion world. Centering around has-been designer Sebastian Loré and his plot to ruin the newest modeling sensation, Briar Rose, it has wit and charm.

On its own merit, the play offers genuine laughs. However, by casting the in-full-drag Coy Covington as sex pistol Briar Rose (Enid Wetwhistle before her glamorous transformation), the play takes on a new spark. I don't know if the play was intended to star a man in drag, but it makes the dialogue and situations all the more festive and hilarious. Covington is grand, commanding in the role and looks fabulous in every outfit.

Two other standouts are Pegasus Theatre faves Lisa Anne Haram as Loré's assistant Miss Thick, and Jennifer Earhart as Fauna Alexander. Both women have such fun with their roles that they bring life to every line, even the clunkers.

TIE-DYES AND THE FASHION WORLD COLLIDE IN SLEEPING BEAUTY OR COMA

Starring as the hot fashion photographer Ian McKenzie, David Noel packs himself into some tight pants and brings the tackier side of the sixties to life with pizzazz.

The only detriment to this first play would be the over-the-top performances by Raymond Banda (Loré) and Andi Allen (Anthea Arlo). To best complete Banda's villainous overacting, the costume department should have given him a long enough moustache to curl as he devised his evil schemes. Allen's squeaky voice got to be too much to handle, but to her credit she completely made up for it with her role in Vampire Lesbians.

(how's that for a segue?), the theatre naturally saved the best for last. This little gem takes the audience from ancient Sodom to 20th-Century Las Vegas and plays upon the intermingled lives and reincarnations (or continuations, depending on how you look at it) of the horrid Succubus (Allen) and her virgin target (Covington). The two are destined for conflict, and century after century, they meet for new battles of will.

The play starts out with two half-naked men running around trying to find a virgin. This is probably the scariest scene, and you'll know why when you see it!

Allen shines this time as the campy vampy and is a great counterpart to Covington's cross-dressing leg crosser. With one raise of an eyebrow and a sideways glance, Allen elicits more laughter than some of the witty lines. Her accent is delightful, and her outfits are appropriately ravishing (well, except when she becomes a cleaning lady).

Once again, Covington steals the show as the virgin (what better character type could a drag queen ever hope to portray?). She screams and faints like a true damsel in distress and it's great fun to watch her transformation as she seeks revenge on Allen's characters over the years.

Pegasus Theatre claims in its press release that the play really has nothing to do with lesbians, even though the vampiress only wants to suck the blood of young women. In vampire lore of all types, bloodsucking is always viewed as a sexual metaphor, but hey, maybe they just don't want to scare away the Metamucil set. Either way, I must applaud Pegasus for trying something new. For a small theatre company, they do a fantastic job of entertaining, and isn't that why we go to the theatre anyway? So forget high drama and Juillard-trained actors, and spend the night with a few hippies and fanged femmes.

Sleeping Beauty or Coma and Vampire Lesbians of Sodom, both by Charles Busch, continue at the Pegasus Theatre, 3916 Main Street, through June 6. Performances are Thursday through Saturday at 8:15 p.m. with a 3 p.m. matinee on Sunday, May 31. Tickets range from $12 to $15, with beer and wine available at the concession stand. Call the theatre at (214) 821-6005 for tickets or more information. Tickets are also available through TicketMaster at (214) 373-8000, metro (972) 647-5700 or online at www.ticketmaster.com.

Radio Music Theatre presents Hotter Than Houston. The play by Steve Farrell, opened last night, May 14, and will run through August. This satirical comedy is about a young Californian party-boy who prematurely meets his demise in 1978. Saint Peter cannot decide whether to send him to heaven or to hell, so he sends him to Houston. Hotter Than Houston is a comedy about a dead man trying to earn his wings in The Bayou City. The show features plenty of original music as it traces Houston's recent history through the boom years, the bust years and the long years of recovery leading to the present. The song-filled adventure features RMT veterans Vicki Farrell, Rich Mills and writer/director Steve Farrell. Performances are every Thursday and Friday at 8:30 p.m. and Saturday at 8 p.m. and 10:30 p.m. Desserts, munchies, champagne, wines, beers, cappuccino and soft drinks are available throughout the show. Admission is $14, and reservations are required. Tickets must be purchased in advance at Radio Music Theatre, 2623 Colquitt, near Richmond and Kirby, or by calling (713)522-7722....

Also in Houston, the Alley Theatre presents Noises Off, by Michael Frayn. Directed by Gregory Boyd, Frayn's side-splitting comedy assembles a cast of has-been and never were actors in a hilarious send-up of life in the theatre. The play opens tonight (May 15), and runs through June 14. For more info call (713)228-9341, ext. 350 or 346....

Currently running in Austin, at Live Oak Theatre at the State, is the Off-Broadway hit, As Bees in Honey Drown. This Texas premiere under the direction of Don Toner stars Babs George as Alexa Vere de Vere with a powerhouse cast. John Vincent Hoff takes on the role of the naive up-and-coming author, Evan Wyler, who Alexa seeks out to pen the screenplay for the story of her life. She vows to make him a star and begins molding him into a major player, all on his tab and always adding a little something for herself. Written by Douglas Carter Beane, As Bees in Honey Drown takes a hilarious look at who we are through the lives of Evan and Alexa. The play runs through June 7 with performances every Wednesday through Saturday night at 8 p.m. and Sundays at 6 p.m. Ticket prices are $15 for Wednesday, Thursday and Sunday nights and $17 for Friday and Saturday performances. Reservations can be made by calling (512) 472-5143.

In Dallas, PIECES has announced it's upcoming European performance. The non-profit semi-professional dance company will be performing in the Cultural Exchange Venue, Open Podium at the Gay Games in Amsterdam during the week of August 1-8. The group is the only cultural arts organization from Texas to be chosen to perform at the festivities. The dancers will be performing "The Dying Swan", The "Peasant Pas de Deux" from Giselle, and "Kitri" from Don Quixote. Other selections slated for the overseas performance include a neoclassical ballet, a liturgical solo choreographed by Artistic Director, J. Davis Hobdy and a modern work choreographed by Hobdy, Andrea Beckham and Michele Manley. The group will be taking a crew of fifteen to the Netherlands for the twelve day excursion which will also include teaching master classes at studios throughout Amsterdam.

Also in Dallas, Inwood Theatre Lovers Lane will be premiering Loofa Tuesday, May 19 at 10 p.m. Written and directed by Brad Keller, this hilarious faux-documentary pokes fun at the film industry. The movie was filmed entirely in Dallas with an all-Dallas cast and crew. Loofa stars Mark Hanson, Scarlett McAlister, Jack Watkins and John Steakley. The screening is open to the public, and the cost of admission is one canned food item, to benefit the AIDS Food Pantry. For more info, call the AIDS Resource Center at (214)521-5124.

Contemplative Mercury squares delusional Neptune this week, while the Sun faces off with powerful Mars in randy Taurus. Think of it as speeding on a freeway with a road map covered in assorted food stains. Before you pull over for lunch, take a nibble out of the following insights:

TAURUS (April 21 - May 21) Proud Bulls make quite a first impression this week when the Sun and Mars conspire to rip the seat of your pants, just as all eyes turn your way. (Crotchless panties? Your call...) Meetings with the power cadre should be postponed until next week after the Mercury/Neptune transit has passed. In the game of chutes and ladders, you could slide down into the sub-basement.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21) That spark of enlightenment that sets the world on fire could just be gas when the Sun conjuncts Mars. Avoid any grandiose displays that stir up the masses and then leave them in the lurch. Queer Twins are usually crystal clear, but this week Mercury and Neptune conspire to turn almost any idle thought into a feckless adventure. It is a time of great creativity, so quietly create.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23) Gay Crabs can step over the platonic line this week when feisty Mars conjuncts the wistful Sun. Friendships can turn into much, much more in the passion of the planetary moment. Mercury and Neptune add some moon dust to the heated festivities. Will it be a trip to the moon on gossamer wings? Next week it may just be one of those things.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23) It may be difficult to convince the powers that be that you're an evil corporate shark when you're such a cute little guppy outside of work. Such is life's little ironies when Mercury squares Neptune, but proud Lions can put on a professional show thanks to Sun conjunct Mars. Bellowing roars fill the boardroom in a sound and fury. Ultimately though, what does that signify?

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23) Contrary to your usual nature, gay Virgins would rather play than work now. Chalk up this lapse to Sun and Mars which offer enticements to escape, but make sure that you're not leaving any loose ends before you leave. Mercury squares Neptune which indicates that there is something that you are either not seeing or are seeing incorrectly. Leave no turn unstoned.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23) Queer Libras are packing a pistol this week as the gay Sun conjuncts lusty Mars. Both the Sun and Mars conjunction and the Mercury Neptune square rev up the pleasure boat and skim the waters. Neptune encourages you to go one step too far though; so party within your means. It's just one long love fest this week, but will they respect you in the morning? Do you care?

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22) The planets give you a new perspective on partnerships, sharing, family and personal space this week. This is good as long as you realize that both transits are fleeting and difficult. Don't overreact to seemingly intractable issues because the Sun and Mars are screaming now! now! now! Wait, wait, wait. Neptune is blocking a new light that you can cast in a dark corner next week.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22) Sagittarian foot in mouth disease can strike at work this week if you become frustrated and angry. Count to ten and smile, proud Archer; the Sun/Mars conjunction and the Mercury/Neptune square could easily undo all the good will that you have been building over the past few months. Put your mouth into motion for more enjoyable pursuits, and stay off work issues.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20) Fun turns out to be pricier than expected. Gay Caps are not considered bon vivant spendaholics, but this week you have an itch to splurge on tawdry times. Chalk it up to the combination of the Sun/Mars conjunction which revs you into the party hearty mode and the Mercury/Neptune square, which blithely pulls large denominations out of your billfold. No checks please.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19) Who you are can come into direct conflict with who your family would like you to be. The Sun/Mars conjunction pushes any latent or long festering family problem to the fore while the Mercury/Neptune square environmental pits against genetics. Frankly Aqueerian, in my opinion, you have no issue to worry about. It's their problem. Just be your beautiful self.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - March 20) Mystical pink Fish are usually fairly intuitive, but now during the Mercury/Neptune square, your psychic signals get sidetracked. Avoid possible embarrassment by reigning in what you would normally say. The Sun/Mars conjunction wants to blast your nuclear missives from the rooftops without thinking about the fallout. The less you say, the wiser you will appear to be.

ARIES (March 21 - April 20) All this planetary activity in practical Taurus has pioneeringly queer Rams peeking over their shoulders. Hold onto your gotten gains when the Sun conjuncts Mars. You're tempted to spend first and tally the damage later. Are pals in need of a few bucks or some free advice? When Mercury squares Neptune, it may be hard to tell friend from fiend.

A Simple Man from the Country, Tagged as "Mr. Wonderful" Don Gill has Left His Mark in Texas

Recently, several members of Houston's gay and lesbian community came together for "A Roast and Toast of Don Gill" to celebrate the accomplishments and contributions of an outstanding individual. Over the past four years this hairdresser, President and Chairman of the PWA Holiday Charities and owner of Don Gill Productions has raised over $200,000 for Houston and Dallas charities. With many accolades to his name, including Mr. Venture-N '93-'94, Daddy of Montrose '93, Mr. Prime Choice '94, Male Grand Marshall - Houston Gay Pride Parade '95, and the RSICSS CommUnity Spirit Award (just to name a few), he has received recognition and appreciation from Governor Ann Richards, Mayor Bob Lanier, Representative Debra Danburg and most recently, City Councilwoman Annise Parker and Mayor Lee Brown.

After Roast and Toast which yet again raised money for two worthy causes, the Montrose Clinic Women's Program and the Houston Buyers Club, I was able to meet with Don and discuss what has brought him to this point and where he sees his future.

In the backyard of his house/business, (Studio 911), I sat and watched his chickens (roosters and hens) as he proudly showed me his tomato and pepper plants. Now, farm animals and vegetable gardens might seem strange in the heart of Montrose, but not for this country boy from Leesville, LA. The youngest of nine children, Don came to Houston to live with his sister and "find himself." After living in the Channelview area with six months of dealing with anti-gay statements such as constantly waking up to find panties on the windshield of his car, Don decided he would move to Montrose. "I was really scared about coming to the Montrose area to cut hair. Even though I was a good hair-cutter, being so country as I was and being so withdrawn, I was intimidated by a lot of people, especially successful gay people. I thought I would never be able to attract that." Well Don was wrong, as he has many successful, faithful clients who happen to be doctors and lawyers, who enjoy learning from Don's simplicity, just as he learns from their education. "My Dad was a great listener, and being total illiterate said 'a person's weaknesses can make up for another's strengths,' and he raised nine kids. He was a great man." Don explained that his mother was very religious and reared him in the same manner. Even though he tried to "buck the system," he later went on to bible college and decided it was time to stop hiding, "I got a taste of the fruit, so to speak."

Don's first lover, Don Dowden, became one of his best friends and brought him into the fundraising scene. Dowden was Mr. Prime Choice, and Gill watched him represent the title in the community. "I said I was gonna do it. I had no idea that what my parents taught me, about watching and listening, would be so beneficial. I have been honored."

The first production that Don organized was the "Lady Victoria Lust Roast." Along with Regina Dane and Pat Petty, he produced his first major benefit. Afterwards, many leaders in the community came to Don and explained that the event was one of the best they had seen, and they asked him not to stop. "It was an honor that, all you have to do is ask. And that is the important key of being a fundraiser. Number one is to be respected for who and what you are, and number two, to be successful at it, is just ask. They're gonna tell you 'yes' or 'no'."

In 1995, Don was asked to produce "Night in Black Leather" for Soiree Aubergine and the Bering Community Service Foundation to help raise funds within the leather community. "That's how it got started. We had our fourth 'Night in Black Leather,' just this year, and have raised $34,000 from the four events."

We discussed the success of his fundraising endeavors and what the drive behind that success has been. "Fund-raising has been rewarding in my life. It has allowed my family to know more about me because my sister tells them, 'He's fundraising...' I was at my mother's the other day and showed her the proclamation that I received the other night (The Mayor's Proclamation of Don Gill Day). I told her, 'This is what you taught me, to take the bull by the horns.' I have lost too many friends, and family members."

Don has taken care of many friends, lovers and family members. "These are the choices we make, to have these friends, and we have a choice to take care of them or not to take care of them. But which choice is going to make that friend feel better? My mother was a caregiver, and I am a caregiver. Acting in that manner is protecting them from the obstacles that you know they don't like. Even with the smallest things, because you love them."

"When it comes to fundraising, there are so many benefits to it, but the greatest reward is the trust. I have been in a bar, and I've had a gentleman hand me three one-hundred dollar bills and say 'this is for your charity work.' And you're damn right that those thirty-thousand pennies go directly to a charity because I'm not building up anymore bad karma in this life because whatever I did in the last one, this one has been hell!"

Knowing the awards and recognition Don has received along with the amount of money he has raised for the community, I asked him what goals he had, if any, for the future, and he explained that "as long as the need is there, we can make a dent. We can change people's approaches, but only science, itself, can change this (HIV/AIDS). So we have to continue to take care of our friends, as long as we have the energy to do it. When will my journey be over? When I'm not successful. But as long as I am, I will continue." He pointed out that he has been asked, the last few times, to produce the Mr. Venture-N, now Mr. Nighthawks, Contest. He plans to concentrate his efforts on that contest, the Mr. Prime Choice Contest and "Night in Black Leather," as well as continue to oversee, promote and raise funds for the PWA Holiday Charities.

Don attributes much of his success to the late Marvin Davis a.k.a. Lady Victoria Lust. "The way we got to know each other was that I would go to Mary's, on an average of four nights a week, because that was the only place you were going to find him! And he taught me so much, and I learned because like I said earlier, I learn from listening." As far as role models Don expressed his admiration for Lady Victoria Lust, Bob Bouton, Regina Dane and Jeannette Vaughn. He stressed how he looks up to the work they have done, the support they have shown him and the respect they have within our community. "The reason I'm not a member of any one organization is because I work with all of them." He also expressed his respect for The Royal, Sovereign and Imperial Court of the Single Star of Houston, Inc. and The Colt 45's, Inc. for what they do in the community and the advocacy he has received from their members.

As far as the future, Don said he hopes to see more unity. "I see it coming... I see it coming very smoothly, thanks to people like Marlene Beago and Barbara Walker connecting to the male members of our community. It is becoming more apparent, but as always, united we stand, divided we continue to fall."

He dreams of having a house out in the country, with more chickens, goats and a much bigger garden. But for now, he's content relaxing with his favorite poetry entitled AIDS and the Working Man by Peggy McCue Rhoads while sitting amongst his chickens.

"I know that I'm a pretty good person, it's just like hair-cutting. I'm a good hair-cutter. I'm not the best, but I'm definitely not the worst. That's the way my life is, I'm not the best at anything, but I'm definitely not the worst."

Towne Square Party

Dear Neighbors:

Please mark your calendars for Sunday May 17, and plan to attend an afternoon with all of our neighbors from Towne Square and Maple Springs Area. The festivities will begin at 1 p.m. at Cherrywood Park (you know, the park down the street at the corner of Hudnall and Cedar Springs.) Plenty of beer, soft drinks and hot dogs will be provided.

I have invited Victor Morales, Candidate for the 5th Congressional District seat, Senator David Cain, Royce Wes and State Representatives Steve Wolens and Harriet Erhardt.

Recent events by Newt Gingrich, Dick Arme and the current Congressman from the 5th District, Pete Sessions, have set a perilous course for our friends who are teachers, our parents who are retired, those in our community who are living with AIDS and women's rights to privacy with their physicians. Victor Morales told me that he shares our concerns in these areas and that he would like to do all that he can with your support.

Please plan to attend this event for an afternoon of fun and feel free to invite any of your friends from the community. If you have any questions, call me at (214)460-7090.

Steven's House Thanks

Dear TWT:

I want to publicly acknowledge and thank the Krewe of Olympus for choosing Steven's House as one of their charities this year. Their hard work and dedication, in conjunction with the great support of the community, allowed the Krewe to donate $8,000 to Steven's House.

This donation will allow us to finish some renovations that we were not able to complete upon moving to our larger facility.

For those of you who have experienced not only the Ball but also the other events the Krewe sponsors, you know what a talented, dedicated and creative group they are. If you aren't familiar with this group, keep an eye out, and begin to ingratiate yourself to someone for an invite to the ball.

I know I speak for all of this year's charities in thanking the Krewe of Olympus for sharing with all of us their time, talent and treasure. We will be looking for you in the parade.

James Griffith, C.P.

Prime Thanks

Dear TWT:

It has now been two months since I was honored to be named Mr. Prime Choice Texas at the Ripcord in Houston. The opportunity to work with Don Gill, the Ripcord and all of the people associated with the contest was remarkable. At the same time the contest raised over $20,000 for local charity organizations in Houston and Dallas.

I intend to continue to raise dollars for our organizations. In addition, I challenge everyone: straight, gay, lesbian, and bisexual to make a difference in someone's life by making a donation to your favorite charity.

I want to thank everyone who made Mr. Prime Choice a reality for me: Don Gill, the Ripcord (especially Gary), Leather by Boots, Ken Claude, the judges and contestants, all of the past Mr. Prime Choices, Lee and Ed, Steve and my better half, J.D. I will always be indebted to you and look forward to serving the state of Texas over the next year.

HARRIS COUNTY DEMOCRATIC PARTY ELECTS FRANCISCO SANCHEZ, JR AS SECRETARY

First Openly Gay Secretary is the Second Highest Ranking HDGP Official

HOUSTON — Long-time Democratic Party operative Francisco Sánchez, Jr. was recently elected Harris County Democratic Party (HDGP) Secretary. Sánchez chose not to seek re-election to the State Democratic Executive Committee earlier this Spring, so that he could focus on helping to rebuild the local party. As Secretary, Sánchez will be largely responsible for coordinating communication among the party's leadership, key organizers and candidates.

"I am grateful for the overwhelming support from the members of the local executive committee," said Sánchez. "In the end, we all share the same goals for the Democratic Party here in Harris County. Now with this election over, we can pull ourselves up by the boot-straps and get to work. We have a long way to go to bring this county back into the Democratic fold, and the sooner we get started the better off we are."

The race was being closely watched by the Texas gay and lesbian community. Later this year, all four openly gay members of the State Democratic Executive Committee (SDEC) will be stepping down or not seeking re-election. Although the four are from Houston, they represent the statewide interests of the gay and lesbian community. Sánchez received the support of his fellow SDEC members in this election.

"I believe that the vision and leadership I offer will be an asset to the party's efforts to prepare for November. With Sue Schechter as the incoming chair and a new team at the helm, I am confident that we can rebuild this party," explained Sánchez. "Certainly, I will make sure our community is a part of that process."

Sánchez committed himself to be instrumental in enhancing accountability of party officers, increasing communications and creating a party website. Sánchez launched an aggressive campaign and garnered broad-based support. While the outgoing secretary initially sought re-election, Sánchez was elected by acclamation.

"The meeting marks the tone of the new party. We need energy, enthusiasm and commitment to elect Democrats in Houston. We've done enough workshops, it's time for work. There's been enough rhetoric, it's time for results."

This election makes Sánchez the second highest ranking Harris County Democratic Party Official, the second largest county in the nation. At age 26, Sánchez was recently profiled in The Advocate as one of the country's up and coming gay/lesbian political figures. He was also honored last year as the youth honoree of the LBJ Lifetime Service Award.

TEX-PRESSIONIST MUSICIAN C. RIDGE FLOYD PERFORMS IN AUSTIN

*"The Yardman Cometh"
Closes at the Paramount Theatre
Monday, May 18*

AUSTIN — The Texas Hill Country's favorite composer, C. Ridge Floyd, will be closing the Austin run of his tour this Monday. The pianist/composer/singer/gardener has been described as classical and modern, American folk and gospel, outside the beltway and just inside the loop, alternative lifestyles and Christian ideals and even as an Irish tenor at the ashram. Best of all, his music has been described as beautiful, lyric piano and vocals taken from the heart of Texas and delivered to the world.

A child musical prodigy, he worked as a yardman to purchase his first piano. The hill country homes containing pianos would often find him playing on them during his breaks from the yard work. Inspired by long days of toiling in the gardens of the hill country under the hot Texas sun, some may consider the basis of his original compositions to contain a bit of whimsical and a lot classical training.

Floyd's music is firmly rooted in the Texas Hill Country. A resident of the tiny hamlet town of Hunt, Texas, Floyd spends his days writing, composing, performing and working as an honest-to-goodness "yardman." He composes and composts; he mulches, makes music and mows. Floyd has performed in such venues as St. Paul's Cathedral in London, Notre Dame in Paris and the holiest of Texas shrines, The Alamo. He has no qualms about running a landscape or digging in the dirt. "I can be equally creative in both fields," says Floyd. "When my hands are in the dirt, my head is in heaven writing music."

A true Texas original, this young man is pure Texan through and through. His music reflects all of his diverse interests, and his skills are evident in his compositions. He fuses together his own unique classically trained approach on the piano with a meditation on traditional American Folk songs and spirituals.

He explained, "I am thrilled that this tour is taking me through Austin. It really is like returning home for me. I graduated from the University of Texas and even worked as a yardman here."

C. Ridge Floyd's music is familiar to many Austinites. His first two independently released CD's, Japonica and FM 1340, both received a ground-swell of fan support and critical praise. They are currently available in Houston, San Antonio, and in Austin at Tower Records and Waterloo Records. The Dallas release should occur near the end of this month.

Floyd's final show at the Paramount Theatre will be this Monday, May 18, at 8 p.m. Ticket prices range from $18 to $27.50 and are available in advance through Star Tickets (888)597-STAR or at the box office one hour prior to the performance.

NAMES PROJECT RELEASES FILM OF OCTOBER '96 QUILT DISPLAY IN WASHINGTON, DC

30-Minute Video Captures the Highlights of the World's Largest AIDS Display

SAN FRANCISCO, CA — The NAMES project has released the official documentary video of the showing of the AIDS Memorial Quilt that covered Washington, DC's National Mall in October 1996. Produced and directed by Emmy Award-winning videographer David Thompson, the 30 minute piece, "Lest We Forget: The AIDS Memorial Quilt in the Capital, October 11-13, 1996," is introduced by actress Mary Steenburgen and features music by Kathy Mattea.

"Like the quilt itself, 'Lest We Forget' reveals the enormous swath HIV has cut in the lives of so many in our society," says actress Mary Steenburgen. "The individuals whose stories we hear in this film are young and old, and of every race and geographic origin. They participated in this monumental event to show their love and respect for those we've lost to AIDS, and to rekindle their personal commitment to end the tragedy."

"Lest We Forget" captures highlights of the historic weekend which drew 1.2 million people to Washington, DC. The piece features interviews with visitors and NAMES Project volunteers, aerial views of the mile long display, protests, marches and the first-ever visit of a U.S. President and Vice President to the Quilt.

About his tribute to all the men, women and children who have been lost to AIDS, Director Thompson said, "It expresses the optimism in the fight against AIDS that

In keeping with our promise to bring your attention to more than just dance music, we're delighted to tell you about one of the year's finest compilation discs currently available. An aria is literally defined as "atmospheric air, melody, or tune; specifically: an accompanied elaborate melody sung (as in an opera) by a single voice." Aria is an album conceived and performed by Paul Schwartz and Mario Grigorov. The CD features small excerpts from powerful moments in opera, such as Madame Butterfly, The Magic Flute and Carmen, and blends live vocals with ambient dance rhythms. This compilation has fused these classic masterpieces with a new organic sound. The result is the most inventive, stimulating and sensual CD of the year.

Unlike most ambient dance music, Aria is not based exclusively around keyboards and samplers. The music was conceived to feel as live and real as possible. With that in mind, one prominent feature is a large string orchestra, recorded in the extraordinary acoustics of Abbey Road's Studio #1 in London, and none of the vocals are sampled. Featuring Broadway star Rebecca Luker (who is currently playing Maria in The Sound of Music) on most cuts, all vocals are true, which lends to the entire project a vitality and presence almost never felt in this style of music. The way in which these living, breathing elements are combined with driving grooves provides a thrill for both the soul and the heart. Whether you're into opera or not, Aria is a smart buy if you're the sort that likes to boast about having the perfect music collection. Non-specific in genre, this gem is a pleaser across the board.

Check out the new Marina single on MRK Records. Already circulating as an advance promo, "Totally Fabu" is a new departure, stylistic for the blonde diva. Fabu carries on, in more of an underground way, with yummy mixes courtesy of Richie Santana, Anthony Acid and San Antonio's "Deejay Rise", Leonard Trujillo. This campy stomper carries on! And how about this? It seems as though Marina and that Hi-Energy goddess from the UK, Hazell Dean, have been speaking quite a bit these days and have become very comfy. The word is that the two are now in the studio working on a Summer cover record, to be followed with a bit of collaboration on some new material. Ooooh, now how juicy is that?

Speaking of something that's not quite out yet, save for a few select promos. How about the new Kevin Aviance record, Do You Know Me? The vibey, electronic hand-bagger was written and produced by Joi Cardwell and Manny Ward and is already causing mavens to go out "in search of." Sorry fellas, you have a few more weeks to wait. Personally, I feel that this is Kevin's best performance so far, thanks to the prolific lyrics and original production prowess of Joi and Manny. Look for it, it's coming soon on Wave Music.

As warmer weather descends upon us, things at Gentry continue to heat up with sizzling strip contests every Sunday and Wednesday and Boy Toy dancers seven nights a week. Loyal patrons like Freddy, Andy, Eric and Richard [above, l-r] just can't get enough of the plentiful parade of beautiful bodies and delightful drink specials. See you there.

SAN ANTONIO TEA — Home to nearly every major Texas pageant preliminary, the Saint in San Antonio hosted yet another star-studded affair last weekend and crowned Amber Nixx the 1998 Miss Texas Continental. The spectacular evening was highlighted by the talent competition category, featuring the most impressive group of well prepared contestants in recent history, and a group of evening gowns that would have easily fared well on a national level. Our winner's circle photo includes: [l-r] first runner-up, Silkie Munro; 1997 winner, Melissa Crawford; winner, Amber Nixx; Miss Continental USA, Tasha Long and second runner-up, Misty Duvall. Amber and Silkie are now both qualified for the Miss Continental USA Pageant held Labor Day Weekend in Chicago, Illinois. Best of luck to them both. Join the Saint staff this Monday for Jenny McCall's zany Monday Night Madness show with Layla LaRue, Tessa Matthews and a rousing special guest each week. Super low drink specials and a maniacal hostess on the mic make for a more than memorable night out...be sure to stop by and cap off your weekend by starting the new one off with a bang. Shady Lady continues to entertain with her weekly slew of godly go-go boys each Wednesday and Friday evening. Dancing dynamo Denise Mykels joins Shady for the Wednesday revue, and Friday evenings sport an after hours party starring deejay Jr. Hernandez who will keep you dancing till you drop....

Our CRUISE CAMERA captured Eagle Mountain Saloon barback and bartender Ricky [right] who's all geared up for the upcoming "Tejano Stampede" this Sunday. Look for their ad in this issue for all the details. The Eagle Mountain Saloon will also be planning another fabulous weekend for the Memorial Day Holiday. Look for further details in upcoming ads. Our apologies for recently reporting that Richard and Jerry, being sponsored by the Eagle Mountain Saloon, would compete for the 1999 Mr. TGRA title. Apparently, they will compete for the 2000 Mr. TGRA title....

The Annex remains one of the hottest bars in town and, no doubt, the hot men, hot music and great drink prices are to blame. Their Wednesday night pool tournament has become so popular that they are now opening up another tournament for Sunday evenings. Come on over and get all the details about all the special evenings and special events sponsored by the club, including a big event this Saturday (May 16), produced and promoted by the local Firedancers. Door prizes, food, hot men and a show by the Pointless Sisters at 9pm will guarantee fun for all. We'd like to wish a happy belated birthday to Annex bartender Ab from all of his regulars and the staff and management of the Annex and EMS....

The Bonham Exchange welcomes newest staffer and barback Dawn [left] to it's tightly knit fold. Dawn has arrived just in time to be a part of one of the Bonham's infamous annual celebrations wrought with tradition... namely drinking a lot. The Bonham's Memorial Day Street Dance, scheduled to unfold this Sunday, will breach the walls of the landmark Bonham Building and spread into the streets of downtown San Antonio in a tidal wave of gay merriment unequaled in recent past. Enjoy food, drinks, great music and the great outdoors then stick around for a blowout party inside the club come nightfall. This Thursday, enjoy great drink prices during the Bonham's Wednesday night party and show off all the work those precious hours at the gym have provided. A best shorts contest each Thursday will award cash prizes for the best sets of gams in the house while customers guzzle up low priced cocktails. Stop by and put your best foot forward....

Congrats to the Silver Dollar Saloon's April "Employee of the Month" Richard Gomez [above,r] —shown here receiving his $100 bonus from Mark Silva who was recently promoted to bar manager. Mark will replace studly Todd Keeney who returns to the Pegasus, where he has been promoted to bar manager. Stop by both clubs this Monday and congratulate them all. The Silver Dollar's Monday line-up includes a Karaoke contest with cash prizes, while Pegasus offers up some of some River City's finest specimens from the Hunkarious Dancerosus species. Biology 101 never looked so good.

AUSTINTEACIOUS — Although it is officially Spring, the thermostat has hit the 100 degree mark so we in the Capital City know that Summer has arrived. Crank up your a/c, take the top off of your jeep and head to the lake. But make sure to stock up on sun block. We wouldn't want "Mr. Happy" to get a nasty burn. Ouch!...

The 1920's Club has started Sunday brunch. They serve up a lovely assortment of pastries, fresh fruits, omelets, eggs benedict and other yummy, brunchy type foods. As the cool jazz cradles your ears, your taste buds sing with delight over the creations of owner/chef, Farhad. Of course, this being Austin, everything from shorts to suits can be found in this posh, landmark establishment. Bring a date, sink into an overstuffed chair with a refreshing beverage and enjoy the abundance of something we all appreciate, style....

'Bout Time has been quite the "busy beaver" these days. Lovely Amber [right] was on hand for a recent benefit. Our north-side philanthropists are always raising money for a worthy charity. You go girls! The Lesbolympics have been rolling along at a great pace, and the pool tournaments have been fraught with competition. The talent portion is this Saturday night (May 16). Imagine, if you are able, Lesbians in make-up! What is the world coming to? Last year, the girls tore up the house, and we feel certain they will outdo themselves this year. Just a reminder, the Miss Universal Thang Pageant is coming up May 23. Get your big hair ready, ladies, it's time to work for that crown!...

Dick's Deja Disco is cranking out all your favorite "boogie down" tunes. They have also started having "after hours" on Fridays and Saturdays. This way you can "get down and funky" till the wee, wee, wee hours of the morning. This past Friday, the shower dancers were so hot there was steam wafting out the doors of the bar. We thought it was fog, but they don't have a fog machine. So we figured it had to be the dancers lathering themselves into oblivion and sending us into a frenzy of our own. This wild and raucous set of guys [above] was on hand to insure a good time was had by all who entered. No, they don't work there, they simply included everyone in their party. We love that!...

The Edge always has a party waiting for you. Not only do they have amateur strip on Mondays, but they have the male-female strip off on Tuesdays and professional male dancers on Wednesdays. There are mostly naked people in there, all the time. Yea! Let's think about this, naked boys and cocktails, yes Jane, they do go hand in hand. Freaky Thursday is still the pumping rage of the strip. The tunes are all but hypnotic. Once you get on the dance floor, you will not want to leave. We are told by a "reliable source" that cute new bartender Jonathon has something to be proud of. Let's just say, he isn't ashamed to be seen in the showers. Think about it....

Charlie's is celebrating their 14th anniversary this weekend. Tomorrow (May 16) there will be a buffet with drink specials. Stop in and celebrate with Austin's oldest gay bar. This group of lovelies [above] is sure to be there and you should be too. Happy birthday to manager David Green and bartender deluxe Jessie Ojeda. They are both young enough to give us a big smile. Thanks divas! Here is an update for you all: Arnie is still in Paris but has decided to see if he can sneak the Eiffel Tower out of the country in his

"special carry on." Good luck sister, but I think you will look a lot taller....

Forum is as festive as ever. They have a fierce new bartender working on the patio.

His name is Clayton, and he is so totally adorable. Shown here with manager Chris, they would make such a cute couple. Back to the Boathouse is still the hottest thing around for Wednesdays. It is like reliving those good old days for some of us. Conversely, it is like experiencing them for the first time for some of the rest of you. We want to wish a happy birthday to Greg and Ryan on the 21st. They will be celebrating on a party barge at Hippy Hollow. The bar is also happy to announce the return of Heather Thomas to the Forum family. She will bring her comedy style back to the bar on a night to be announced next week....

HOT TEA ventured over to the new Splash Video Bar that's reaching its final preparations and it is definitely going to be festive. With hot summer nights ahead, this bar promises to cool you down with refreshing beverages inside and out on their multi-level patio bar. See you there.

DALLAS TEA — Tonight, (Friday, May 15th), everyone will be at the Meet & Greet party, as the Dallas Eagle rolls out the red carpet for all of the dignitaries arriving in town for the Tenth Annual Mr. Gulf Coast Drummer contest. You'll have a chance to meet all of the contestants, promoters, sponsors and fans tonight. The most masculine of all competitions begins tomorrow night (May 16), with contestants vying for top honors and the right to compete at the International Mr. Drummer contest in California. Catch the White Party Shuttle all night long....

Employee Turnabout Drag show at Moby Dick is this Thursday, May 21st. If you have ever had a fantasy about one or more of the sexy staffers Like Shea Sisk and Jan Miltstead [below], you may want to cover your eyes, or have your dreams shattered by the visions of loveliness that will be presented this Thursday. You may not even be able to tell which girl you see is the guy of your dreams. Either way the cocktails should be consumed prior to and during the show just in case! This event should be such a scream. Speaking of people who can make a man scream, Falcon superstar stud Chase Hunter will be at Moby Dick tonight at 11:30 as a review to the White Party. This guy is as hot as they come, and he wants to see you tonight at Moby. You can get a real good look at his good looks during his autograph session following his performance....

Because prostitution is illegal in Texas, state law prohibits the placement in this category of any such ads. Therefore, TWT policy stipulates that we will not and cannot knowingly accept any advertisements suggesting solicitation. It's the law. Also, state law prohibits non-licensed massage therapists from using terms such as "massage," "Swedish," "acupres-sure," "Shiatsu," "reflexology," "body rub," "back rub," "body massage" or any term which indicates bodily contact.
