Opposite Sex: The Opposite of Entertaining

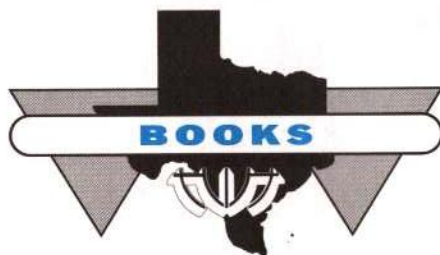

Opposite Sex: Gay Men on Lesbians, Lesbians on Gay Men; Edited by Sara Miles and Eric Rofes; paper, 288 pp.; New York University Press; $16.95

Never judge a book by its cover. Even though it's très cliché, it's really good advice. After all, had the cover of Opposite Sex: Gay Men on Lesbians, Lesbians on Gay Men been any indication of the contents, it would've seemed that I was in for an entertaining evening of witty insight into the complicated politics of male-female interactions, homosexual or otherwise. Boy, was I wrong.

Opposite Sex is an anthology which includes writing by lesbians and gay men about each other's bodies, interpretations of different male and female homosexual cultures and reflections on the history, sociology and changing discourses around queer sexuality. Contributors include scholars, artists, activists and journalists, all seemingly with the assignment to dwell on the mundane.

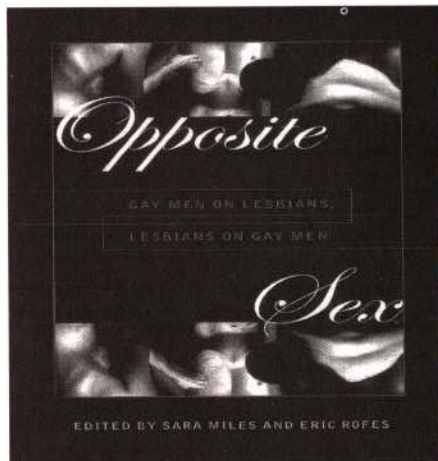

I should have known once I read the introduction that the book was going to be anything but entertaining, given the dull pretentiousness of the editors' comments on why such a book is so important to gay society. But hey, I'm forever the optimist, and I must admit I was genuinely intrigued, if not slightly repulsed, by the opening line of the first entry, Blackbeard Lost. "Let's talk about fisting as an instance of cultural migration, I suggest to the crowd of older leather dykes gathered around the buffet table." Now, that's what I call an enticing opening line. Unfortunately, the rest of the essay turned out to be a monotonous, analytical speculation of where it originated. Open wide - and yawn.

My main beef with the book is the unexplored potential of breaking open the thoughts and feelings of gay men and les-biens about each other. The press release boasts that "Opposite Sex brings the sex back into queer studies, making real bodies, acts and desires central...." Never before has bringing sex into something been so boring! Obviously, the intent of the book is to be analytical, but who really wants to lay out by the pool with a 288-page book that reads like all those textbooks so many of us avoided reading in college? Perhaps I'm too much a child raised by television. I love education, but there's no reason for it to be boring.

One strange oxymoron presented by the book, whether intentional or not, is its rampant use of vulgar terminology for various parts of the human anatomy and sexual behaviors. I mean, come on, you can only read vulgar words so many times without questioning its necessity. (Good grief, this book's turning me into a prude!)

Well, now that I'm done bashing the style of the material, I must take off my black hat for a moment and play the good guy. There are some interesting highlights to the book, though they're few and far between.

Lawrence Schimel's The Butch/Femme Dance was a much easier read than the rest because he chose not to write using every page of his word-of-the-day calendar. His observations about being attracted to lesbians who look like handsome, collegiate guys are very insightful and actually manage to extract a bit of humor from the subject matter.

In Los Angeles at Night, Susan Stryker (sounds like a porn name, doesn't it?) hits the nail on the head about transgendered people and other homosexuals for that matter. She says it best in the line, "I'm drawn to people who do gender with style." Isn't that the truth? What's better than a person proud of who they are with a strong will and a keen fashion sense to go along with it? Her descriptions are vivid and really bring you into the nighttime scene of gay L.A.

Intermingled with the essays is an against-the-norm chapter entitled "Slips."

In this section, almost exactly half-way through the book, an oasis of haunting, provocative art and poetry appears. At once disturbing and beautiful, this singular chapter opens more of a window into gay society in its concise seven pages than all the lengthy essays combined. Too bad it's not enough to salvage the rest of this mess.

Being the astute sleuth that you are, I'm sure by now you've more than figured out my stance on Opposite Sex, but should you need it spelled out, here it is. Life's too short for such tedium. If you really want to know what gay men think about lesbians and vice versa, go out and meet some of them for yourself. I guarantee you'll get much more colorful stories and get a far better education on the subject. That, or wait for the Cliff Notes.

Opposite Sex: Gay Men on Lesbians and Lesbians on Gay Men is available at bookstores now from New York University Press with a suggested retail price of $16.95 (or just call me and I'll sell you my copy for a quarter).

I'd like to start off this week by letting you know about two of the finest collections currently available. EMI-Capitol serves up two limited edition CD compilations with Essential Pet Shop Boys and Essential Duran Duran. Snag a copy of each, and you'll be reeling with delight over these rare and previously unavailable versions of both groups' biggest club hits. Each comes complete with extensive booklets and liner notes, unique photos and a custom die-cut slip case. The Duran Duran features "Planet Earth," "Girls on Film," "My Own Way," "Hungry Like a Wolf," "Rio," "New Religion," "Hold Back the Rain," "Is There Something I Should Know," "Union of the Snake," "The Reflex," "Wild Boys" and "New Moon On Monday." The Pet Shop CD boasts a swarm of alternate album tracks, extended mixes and a 7 inch version from their early recordings like "Domino Dancing," "West End Girls," "Opportunities," "Paninaro," "That's My Impression," "We All Feel Better in The Dark," "It Couldn't Happen Here," "It's Alright," "Left To My Own Devices," "In The Night," "Two Divided By Zero," "Love Comes Quickly" and "Being Boring." This pair of delectable collectables are available at stores everywhere, or you can order by calling (800)888-8574, while they last.

If you're in the mood for the club, but not the smell of smoke or the hangover the next day, pick up the latest in the series of United DJs of America compilation. This current edition features the mix-wizardry of San Francisco's Mark Farina. This 68-minute excursion is comprised of 13 tracks selected by Mark to fill your ears with pleasure. If you're into the subterranean housey stuff, this one's for you, babe.

Check out the latest Club 69 release "Alright" (Twisted!). This follow-up of "Much Better" features the vocals of Susan Palmer, who's voice seems to blend magically with the production style of mastermind Peter Ruahaufer. Additional remix support is provided by Hex Hector, who's remixes nearly always get a record to the top of any chart, with his blend of mainstream appeal and underground savvy. This one's essential!

And finally this week...I think this record will probably go down in the books as the quintessential record for the summer of 1998. Newcomer Erin Hamilton makes an impressive debut with an astounding rendition of the classic Gary Wright tune, "Dream Weaver." Now this is the kind of record that great dance floors are made off. All of the mixes are absolutely amazing, but my favorite from the pack has to be the Haarsh Reality mix (which is actually esteemed circuit party deejay Julian Marsh with Keith Haarmeyer). Their mix combines elements of the old-school, Saint-era Hi-NRG sound, with a keen sense of what's happening today, all adding up to a work that will appeal to virtually everyone. Make no error, this Erin Hamilton, girls, is a star on the rise! By the way, she's also the daughter of a star, the one and only Carol Burnett. And that's Dance Music, THIS WEEK IN TEXAS.

Welcome back to another installment of SURFING THE NET, where we take you on a tour of some of the best sites on the world wide web, with the gay universe especially in mind. We have a host of killer sites to hit, so let's get started!

First up, we have some excellent web pages to find out about gay life in Texas, including the ever popular club scene. For instance, Caven Enterprises, owner of some of Dallas' most popular gay night-clubs, has a new, expansive website at www.caven.com. It tells you about their bars, "what's going on" and includes an excellent links section to many Dallas and Texas gay organizations. The site has dates of important gay celebrations in the Dallas Metroplex, along with others across the state. A great site to find out about all the nightlife in Dallas is Party DFW Information Pages at <http://members.aol.com/partydfw>. This one is probably only accessed by AOL members, but includes some nice pics and the Yahoo Search engine. For those who like a little wilder nightlife, the Dallas/Fort Worth BDSM Resource Page, www.dallasbds.com, offers links to just about any group or organization that has anything to do with leather, BDSM or fetish you want in North Texas, as well as links to the world wide web on similar subjects. And of course, the current Mr. Texas Leather '98, Ronnie C., is up and online at www.flash.net/~ronniec. There are some great pics of this hunky man who has won the hearts of just about everyone he's met. Dallas Prime Timers, an organization for older gay men and their admirers, is on the web at www.primetimers-dfw.org. They are a great organization, and this site will give you the low-down on what they're doing in the coming months. Another excellent resource on the net is Dallas' Foundation for Human Understanding's (FHU) website, www.fhu.org. It includes information about the FHU's many services, and a great links section for HIV/AIDS and gay organizations. The Dallas-based, world-renowned Turtle Creek Chorale has a website, www.turtlecreek.org. With page after page chock full of information and history on the organization, this site offers a list of their upcoming events and an opportunity to buy all their recordings on the net.

Let's leave the Dallas environs and go south to Houston, where Pride Weekend is upon us. You can reach the Pride Committee of Houston at www.pridehouston.org to find out what's going on. Another Houston site, sponsored by The Center for AIDS, Hope & Remembrance Projects, is www.centerforaids.org. This is a Houston organization dedicated to HIV/AIDS treatment information for this part of the country, and with their website they can now reach just about everyone out there. The Montrose Counseling Center can be reached from your computer by typing www.neosoft.com/~mcc, for all types of pertinent info on their programs. The First Unitarian Universalist Church on Fannin is on the web at www.firstuu.org, and gives you info on this very diverse church, with a calendar of events and other activities. Houston's African American Lesbian and Gay Alliance can be reached electronically at www.ourworld.compuserve.com/homepages/AALGA. Also, they're known as PFLAG [Parents, Families and Friends of Lesbians and Gays] and if you've ever been to a Pride Parade anywhere, they're cheered for more than almost anyone standing by their own. To find out more about this great group, check out their Houston outpost on the web at www.insync.net/~pflagw.

We didn't forget Austin, where we also zipped over to some cool sites. The first one, The Lesbian, Bisexual Gay Student Association at www.utexas.edu/students/lbgas, will give you all you need to know about this collegiate group. One of the most amazing sites based in Austin is Eric's Cool Links at www.realtime.net/~e hunt. With so many links to Austin, Texas and national gay organizations, we're still surfing to some of them. (Eric must live on the web!) And don't forget PartyAustin at www.partyaustin.com. We've mentioned this site in the past, and it is also an excellent Austin resource. If boots, Stetsons and Night Wranglers make it hard for you to concentrate, you'll love the Texas Gay Rodeo Association's webpage, www.tgra.org. It'll give you all the information about this group dedicated to bringing out the cowboy in all of us.

And of course, what would a gay column in a gay magazine be if it didn't include some shopping tips. So, we have some online stores for you to whip out that credit card and get goodies by mail. First up, is one of the most famous (or infamous places) to buy erotica in the U.S. L.A.'s The Pleasure Chest at www.thepleasurechest.com is where you can purchase anything online from leather, latex and toys, to personal lubricants for waxing your rear (or whatever). Another place that had some interesting wares was Fetish Central at www.fetishcentral.com, with men and women's clothing, along with accessories such as shoes and CD Roms. For those hard to find items, try Dungeonware Products online catalog at www.dungeonware.com, where you can find that just right gift to titillate that special someone. Another electronic adult store was Blowfish, www.blowfish.com, with a huge selection of toys that require batteries and all kinds of pumps and fun things!

For the music lover out there, the new CDNow at www.cdnw.com lets you sample thousands of releases on CD, and of course, offers them for sale. It's a great place to shop! Leather Tongue's Video online catalog, www.sirius.com/~leather, has thousands of titles to choose from, with Asian, independent, cult, gay and adult movies represented. Plus, they give you an excellent search feature to look for that movie you may only remember part of the title, an actor or director. For an even wilder selection of videos, Redboard Video at www.sexcat.com/redboard will give you plenty of rough male action featuring the likes of Cougar Cash and titles like Beverly Hills Bondage Club.

We had a fun time reading the very catty Heartless Bitches International website at www.heartless-bitches.com, where you can check out the Heartless Manifesto and see if you, too, are a heartless bitch! (We missed by just a hair...) If drag is your bag, then the Dragdiva site, www.dragdiva.com, is where you should park your heels for awhile and check out this site dedicated to female impersonators.

We have a few of those sex-rated, oops, we mean x-rated picture sites for you. The first is Jane's Gallery at www.janesgallery.com. Jane must really like guys 'cause she has tons of young, cute guys for you to peruse. The Sensuously Spandex Clad Men homepage at www.geocities.com/WestHollywood/Village/1870 has some hot photos for you to download all kinds of delectable men, from those in spandex on ten-speeds, to muscle boys and even a few guys in gas masks (they must have heard about the Texas air!).

That's all for this issue. If you know of an interesting website, gay or non-gay, email me at ChrisDalas@aol.com and we may just mention it in our next issue. 'Til then, have fun surfing the web!

THIS WEEK IN TEXAS assumes that every individual entering an adult website is over 18 and capable of making his or her own choices. Some sites contain nudity, and some of them also lead into pay sites, so make sure you read everything. TWT accepts no responsibility for such fees or for anything else that happens when readers access the sites in question. Also, some Web pages change locations, go down for a time or disappear completely. All sites mentioned in this article could be reached as of Friday, June 5.

Houston has plenty going on in the performing arts, this next week. To celebrate Gay Pride, The Houston Gay Men's Chorus will close their season with Time Travel. The chorus is prepared to take listeners on a time-honored sentimental journey in a retrospective of American popular music. The production of Time Travel exemplifies the talents of recently transplanted, from Seattle, arranger and composer Charles Baker. He has spent numerous hours arranging, into four part harmony, recordings by well remembered popular artists such as, the Shirelles' "Dedicated to the One I Love," the Supremes' "Stop! In the Name of Love," and the Beatles' "Yesterday," just to name a few. To more fully enhance the visual impact of this production, small ensembles and the full chorus will perform these arrangements to specific choreography. Performances will be tomorrow, June 20, at 8 p.m. and Sunday, June 21, at 7 p.m. Both performances will be held at Lambert Hall at Heights and 17th. Seating is limited, and tickets can be purchased at Basic Brothers, Crossroads Market and Lobo Bookshop and Cafe for $12 and $15. For more information, call the chorus office at (713)521-7464....

The Society for the Performing Arts brings Tap Dogs to Houston. Six Aussie men dressed in ripped jeans, tee shirts and work boots hammer out intense tap routines in an industrial setting that looks like a construction site. These Australian hoofers dance on a narrow beam and scaffolding as they reveal why they are called "Testosterone Tap." SPA brings them back following their November '96 sold-out Houston debut. The "Dogs" are dancing at Wortham Center's Brown Theater tonight, June 19, at 8 p.m., tomorrow, June 20, at 5 and 9 p.m. and Sunday, June 21, at 2 and 5 p.m. Ticket prices are $12-$40 and are available at the Houston

Also in Houston, Rob Nash returns to play

Rob Nash, as Mr. Daly, in Freshman Year Sucks!

26 characters in his one-man play, Freshman Year Sucks! Based on Rob's experience as a student at Houston's Strake Jesuit Preparatory School, this will mark Rob's fourth solo play to go to Houston audiences. Freshman Year Sucks! opens this weekend at Stages, 3201 Allen Parkway at Waugh. Performances begin at 8 p.m., Thursdays through Sundays. Ticket prices are $12-$15. For more information, call (713)52-STAGES....

The Women's Chorus of Dallas presents Night and Day, this Sunday, June 21, at 8 p.m. This classic by Cole Porter gives rise to an incredible array of music which will be accompanied by strings, harp and maybe even a rooster! The Chorus will also perform songs written by their own chorus members, Leza Mesiah, Loeta Cardwell and Janey Hall. The concert will be held at the Morton H. Meyerson Symphony Center, and tickets are $10-$25. For more information, call (214) 219-1818....

Also in Dallas at the Pocket Sandwich Theatre, the legendary Light Crust Doughboys will appear in concert this Monday and Tuesday evening, June 22 and 23, at 7:30. Back by popular demand, they will be performing "Cowboy Days of Summer," and as an extra-added attraction, the Doughboys will be joined by the Doughboys Brass and Reed Ensemble to give a big band sound to their western swing. The theatre will open at 6:30 p.m. with optional food and beverage service available. Tickets are $12, and special "meal deal" tickets are available for $17. In Austin, The Who's Tommy will open this weekend. Presented by Zachary Scott Theatre Center, this rock opera's miraculous story of the deaf, dumb and blind kid rocks, lifts and pulses with the raw energy of a new generation. Tommy opens this weekend and runs through July 26. Performances will be held at Zach's Kleberg Stage, 1421 W. Riverside Dr. Tickets are $24-$30, with discounts available to students, groups and seniors. Showtimes are Thursdays through Saturdays at 8 p.m. and Sundays at 6 p.m. For more information, call (512)476-0541....

Also, the Austin Circle of Theaters has announced a location change for The Box Office/Austix Half Price Tickets. They have moved to The Austin Visitors Center, 201 E. 2nd St. The hours of operation will continue to be Wednesday through Saturday, 11:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. The phone number remains (512)454-TIXS....

Fort Worth's Casa Mañana Theatre presents the world premier tour of Red, White and Tuna. Joe Sears and Jaston Williams are back, and they invite everyone to join them for a satirical ride into the hearts and minds of the polyester-clad citizens of Tuna, the third smallest town in Texas, in the much anticipated third installment of the Tuna trilogy. Red, White and Tuna will play at the Nancy Lee and Perry R. Bass Performance Hall at Fourth Street and Calhoun in Sundance Square. Performances are at 8 p.m. Tuesdays through Saturdays, 7:30 p.m. Sundays and 2 p.m. on Saturdays and Sundays through July 5. Tickets range from $17.50 - $37.50 and are available by calling (817)332-CASA or any Ticketmaster outlet....

Red, White and Tuna moves on to Galveston in July, but next weekend by the gulf, a very special performance of Phantom Voices will be given Monday, June 29, at Galveston's Grand Opera House. This will be a benefit for the AIDS Alliance of the Bay Area and Broadway Cares/Equity Fights AIDS. Cast members from The Phantom of the Opera, playing at Jones Hall in Houston, will present this variety concert of popular songs and dances from various Broadway shows. The Grand is located at 2020 Postoffice St. in historic downtown Galveston and is accessible by trolley. For ticket information, call The Grand's box office at (409)765-1894, or (800)821-1894....

Finally, just north of Galveston in Dickinson, Harbour Playhouse is presenting the first of its Top Side Theatre presentations with Terrance McNally's Love, Valour, Compassion. This play takes a look at eight men who are friends, colleagues and lovers. Directed by Diane Wonio, the final performances will be held tonight, June 19, and tomorrow, June 20, at 8 p.m. and Sunday, June 21, at 2:30 p.m. For reservations and ticket information, call (281)337-7469.

In this column, readers exchange ideas with other readers and our editor in a public forum. Writers must sign all letters and furnish their full name and address for verification. TWT will withhold name upon request. Please keep letters brief. TWT does not print letters sent to other gay and lesbian publications. Address all letters to LETTERS TO THE EDITOR, THIS WEEK IN TEXAS, 3300 REAGAN ST., DALLAS, TX 75219 or 811 WESTHEIMER ST., SUITE 111, HOUSTON, TX 77006.

New Opinions

Dear TWT,

I just wanted to let you know that I am very glad to see that you are printing letters from people expressing their opinions (the letters from San Antonio a few weeks ago and the letters about the pharmaceutical ad). I have wanted to write letters about various things in the past, but I was used to seeing only letters about fund-raisers and pageants. I don't know what changed, but I think it is a change for the best since this is supposed to be a column in which "readers exchange ideas with other readers and our editor in a public forum." I understand that fund-raising and pageants are a strong part of our community, but we are such a diverse group that we have differing opinions that we should share with others. We, of all people, should be used to hearing or reading things that we don't agree with. Keep up the good work, you'll be hearing from me.

Steven Douget

Acceptance

Dear TWT:

Acceptance. A word with a strong meaning, but one with very little understanding. Day in and day out, the gay community is judged for the lifestyle that we have "chosen" to live. However, it's not just the straight community who is at fault. I must also look at my own sub-community who passes judgement and is guilty as well.

Recently, I was in a line with several of my leather buddies. When asked if I was going to the Dallas Eagle for a beer, a guy interrupted saying, "leathermen are the reason that AIDS exists." I can only say that I am a person dedicated to increasing the knowledge of people, so I took the opportunity to try and educate this misinformed individual. However, I have also had the misfortune of having dealt with anti-choice activists and quickly acknowledged where this conversation was eventually to go.

As a holder of two different leather titles, I am very comfortable regarding my sexuality and who I am. It just takes a walk down Cedar Springs to confirm how the gay community feels about those of us into leather. The one benefit of wearing leather on Cedar Springs is the fact that you do not have to wait for a cocktail at the bars. Everyone, except our sisters at Sue Ellen's, gets out of your way.

My point is this, how can a member of the gay community judge someone else just because of what he or she chooses to wear? Aren't we all, as gay and lesbians, looked down upon because of who we are, whom we love or whom we sleep with? Is it more important what we wear on our backs, versus what we have in our hearts and in our minds?

All I ask is to try and be a little more accepting of the brothers and sisters in our own community. He or she may wear a dress, or may even wear leather, but when it is all said and done, we are all fighting for the same acceptance.

opportunity to take revenge on their personal fitness trainers and help raise money for the Bering Community Service Foundation by participating in the "Dunk Your Trainer" charity booth. Until now, I had no idea how many of you wanted to hold our heads under water!

For a small donation, guests were able to toss a baseball or basketball in an attempt to dunk the trainers responsible for putting them through the tortures of exercise (heaven forbid!). Aside from the folks that opted for the more dignified solution of simply running up to the booth to trigger the release by hand, the event raised more than $500 for Bering. Thank you.

Heal the Damage

Dear TWT,

I grieve to see that my friends, Brad Veloz and Dan Castor, yet again are at odds in the press. Deeply within the fabric of gay life in San Antonio there appears to be a woven compulsion to get in the last word, to throw the last punch or to hurl the definitive threat.

I grieve for the large, alienated majority of gay people in my adopted hometown who feel neither served nor represented by any partisans in the ugliness of the past few years. I grieve for the years they will hide away in the superficial world of fashion statements or drink specials, not because of any organized threat from outsiders, but rather to escape the unkindness of their own community. I grieve for the loss of the weary and disillusioned of San Antonio's gay leadership who have disappeared from community life or left the city altogether.

In my view, it will require the passing of many years to heal the damage done. My only hope is that future gay and lesbian San Antonians will someday review these sad events and somehow extend my generation the love and forgiveness we have so miserably failed to extend to one another.

Greg Glass

Ranting & Raving

by Jeffrey L. Linthicum

A Chat with... Scott Thompson

In a perfect world, Scott Thompson would be to the entertainment industry what Greg Louganis is to the sports world. But, while Greg enjoys icon status, movie of the week exposure and dinner with the Clintons, Canadian born comedic chameleon Scott Thompson is left to bang his head against the wall where getting a little good press is concerned. Which maybe isn't such a bad idea considering what whacking his noggin did for Mr. Louganis's career.

I spoke with the former Kids in the Hall star while he was juggling both a hectic book promotion and stand-up tour. His non-stop schedule may explain the candor and frankness with which he discussed his hate/hate affair with the gay media and his newest bid for a slice of the limelight.

Jeff: How are you?

Scott: Very good!

(another phone rings)

Scott: Oh Jeez!... hold on, I'm right back with you...

(minutes pass—then the unmistakable sound of ice tumbling into a crystal highball)

Scott: Okay...

Jeff: Were you raping the honor bar?

Scott: I was actually, yes. I raped the room service waiter, and then I raped the bar. It's a day of rape and pillage.

Jeff: Well, I read your book, Buddy Babylon, The Autobiography of Buddy Cole, and it's not what I expected.

Scott: Really, what did you expect, and then what do you think it is?

Jeff: I expected those sassy tales delivered from a bar stool that Buddy Cole is so famous for, but I found an offbeat tale about what, I assume, life must have been like for you growing up in Canada. How much of it mirrors how you grew up?

Scott: Well, like me, Buddy grew up in the north, but his childhood, in many ways, is a rather idealistic one. He doesn't have the traditional bad relationship with the father, the smothering mother, and there's no "coming out" of which I'm very proud. That makes it radically different from any other gay story. The book is a complete fiction, but it's absolutely larded with a million biographical elements. Let me just leave it at that.

Jeff: Well, I am going to be specific about at least one element of the book, the incestuous undertones...

Scott: Oh just great, I was terrified that's what you'd get at. Is it really there? I was in denial when the book was finished. I said, "Oh, no one's going to even sense that."

Jeff: You've got to be kidding.

Scott: Well, I'm not explicit about any of it. You're right though; it's full of it.

Jeff: Is that common out in the Canadian bush?

Scott: I don't want to get caught up in this, but Buddy's first romantic relationship is with his brother. I think sibling incest is surprisingly common. And I don't think it should be looked upon with the fear and revulsion that people have for the other kind of incest. It's very Cain and Abel, actually.

Jeff: Have you read any reviews of the book or the stand-up piece?

Scott: I've had two gay reviews that were absolutely terrible. You know, badly written, where the person took me to task for being racist and ethno-phobic, basically saying the book is politically incorrect and evil. The Toronto Star was a rave. I think the book will polarize people. You'll either love it or hate it.

Jeff: Are you difficult?

Scott: Not as a performer or collaborator or any of those things, but I have had a difficult and fractious relationship with the gay press during my entire career. In the past, I may have turned a lot of people off with my anger, but at the same time, I think that anger was justified. I mean, I was ignored, and that's the truth.

Jeff: And yet, you have all the makings for being such a good "out" gay role model.

Scott: ...And I was never embraced. I came out eight years ago in television, and not one media outlet reported it. Not one gay paper, not one straight paper, not even my hometown gay paper reported it.

Jeff: I think a lot of people were more interested in finding out whether or not the rest of the Kids In The Hall were gay, than the fact that you had "come out."

Scott: Absolutely. They put me on the cover of The Advocate and The Native and proceeded to never write about me ever again. Now, you don't start your career out on the cover, get bigger and bigger, and then have no one write about you. That was heart-breaking to me. People were paying attention to me, but the leaders were not. They were terrified of me.

Jeff: Because...

Scott: I think because I didn't go along with the party line. I wasn't out there screaming, "Philadelphia is the greatest movie EVER" I was saying, "What a horrible film!" All those movies were made, and they wouldn't even audition me. I watched an army of straight men become gay people, do bad performances and get lawded, and I'm thinking, "Buddy Cole is the real truth." I think it's a denial of the sissy.

Jeff: I think that probably has something to do with it.

Scott: Absolutely, the intense prejudice towards effeminacy and the incredible denial of gay men. And face it, (whispering) most gay men read gay.

Jeff: Yes, stereotype or not, we're all...

Scott: ...Oh come on, we're sissies!

Jeff: And clearly, you're capable of playing just about every imaginable character.

Scott: I played everyone on Kids In The Hall, business men, rough characters, trashy guys, and it just blew me away that people only saw me as (the very fem) Buddy Cole. And I'll tell you the most surreal thing. Gay men approach me, just outraged about Buddy Cole, talking to me in the most outrageously effeminate accent. I'm thinking, "Listen, miss! Do you look in the mirror and see Tom Hanks or RuPaul?" Come on! And a lot of people were frightened by Buddy because he's not classic gay comic material. Which is, "Down with the patriarchy! Breeders! Breeders!" Jeez, it takes a lot of guts to go up on stage in front of a room full of gay people and attack straights. Oooooohh...you're out on a limb! You know?

Jeff: And, obviously, you're not willing to coutou?

Scott: No, I won't. They can go to hell. I could care less what happens to any of them. As far as I'm concerned, I hope there is an earthquake...and it just takes GLAAD. Oh please Chastity, just fall into the sea. When Ellen came out it was if she was the first person ever! But I'm past the bitterness now. I'm philosophical about it.

Jeff: So what now? Another book?

Scott: Yes, I want to write another novel immediately, maybe a screenplay, but I know at this point in my career, being on stage keeps my brain youthful.

Jeff: Well, the book is wonderful, and I hope you receive some sort of credit, it is certainly due.

Scott: How you can ignore this is beyond me. Let me just say this. Not to seem bitter, but Out Magazine and The Advocate will not cover me and, I'm sorry, that is disgusting. With what I've contributed, they should be ashamed. And you know what? I'm going to make them ashamed. I'm going to make them regret the day that they ignored me.

Jeff: Because when you do get your come-uppance...

Scott: Oh yeah...one big f---ing fist for them. (Maniacal laughter from us both.)

BY C. LICHTENSTEIN

June 19 - June 25

The Sun moves from intellectual Gemini to moody Cancer this week heralding in a new emphasis on our most private personal missions for the next month or so. Open your arms and your heart, and prepare to become emotionally involved. Life becomes more than a warm handshake, cousin.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21) Money appears to be the solution to all ills when the Sun is in Cancer. Gay Twins measure their personal stock in dollars and cents now (especially dollars...). The drawback to all this crass materialism is that deep down you realize that insecurity is insecurity no matter how many bucks you brandish. But that glimmering realization happens next month when the Sun moves on.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23) The Sun in your own sign pushes you into the limelight, ready or not! Personal charisma hits a peak, and even the most demure Crabs are hogging the spotlight with their peek-a-boo pink chaps and sensible spikes. There is nothing wrong with dressing for success sweetheart. Don't forget the butter sauce! Things can get steaming hot, and you want to be ripe and ready.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23) Gay Leos are revived by the Sun in Cancer. Explore your spiritual side and discover the soul beneath all that glamour and greasepaint. If your closet door opens a bit, don't be afraid of blowing it off its hinges. There is nothing in there worth keeping or worrying about. The real worry is when you hide your true self from the world. Show 'em why Lions are so darn proud.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23) If proud Virgins feel like great flag bearers of gay rights, chalk it up to the Sun in Cancer. The planets demand that you become more involved in our global community effort. The danger here is that your desire to belong may cause you to defer personal choices in order to coincide with the group. Think, but don't compromise, cousin! Not all great gay crusaders have to think alike.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23) Is it hot in here, or is it your career? Sun in Cancer heats up a cold professional path so put on your corporate hiking boots and start climbing up. Gay Libras can succeed in the eyes of others so make your mark on the world and take no prisoners. Dive into the corporate shark tank and swim with the suits. You may emerge unscathed and victorious, despite the bite marks.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22) Life is a pilgrimage for queer Scorps with the Sun in Cancer. Travel to exotic vistas or embark on a new course of study. The accent is on new, so if you're short of cash and can't travel, discover something (or someone) different closer to home. A foreign film, a bottle of plonk and a certain unnamed stranger can do wonders for your perspective, not to mention your lumbago.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22) Amiable gay Archers become more intense and possessive with Sun in Cancer. Deep psychological revelations and solutions are possible for those who dare to explore their psyche. Sexually, you can dive head first into that passion pool and emerge refreshed and transformed. Seek a deeper connection to others, and I don't mean a warm handshake. But don't forget to wear a bathing cap.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20) Relationships become the be all end all for serious gay Goats as the Sun in Cancer highlights the importance of partnerships in your life. Actions speak louder and prouder than words. If you're still hunting for a special someone, enter the meeting jungle with your guns loaded and ready. I think you have a good chance to bag your quarry within the next month or so.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19) Achieve the sublime when the Sun enters Cancer. Even perfectly toned Aqueerians can use a personal trainer. Review your exercise regime...or begin one you lazy thing! And what about your diet? It's time to hone that fabulous bod. Also, consider pouring some energy into mundane day to day tasks. Sometimes we find the answers to life while we're scrubbing the bath tub.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - March 20) Sun in Cancer is naturally placed in your chart now, which means even sensitive achy pink Fish can't help but feel pretty darn feisty. Tap into your great gay muse through active participation in the arts. Can't dance? Don't ask me but try other outlets like theater, painting or even sports. The most important thing is to relax and have fun. Do I smell romance with this Sun? Be warned!

ARIES (March 21 - April 20) Pioneering prideful Rams don't mind hanging around the house. Blame it on Sun in Cancer when you snuggle into your pajammies on a Saturday night and plotz in front of the tube. Call it recharging your batteries or a contemplative review of your life. Whatever it is, you'll emerge rested and more in control of your personal pride agenda. Then go out and raise a little hell, again.

TAURUS (April 21 - May 21) Ask, and you shall receive. The Sun in Cancer weaves magic stardust with your words. Queer Taureans should use this time to either put thoughts on paper or become loud and proud spokesbulls for the Cause. Exercise your mind through study or witty reparté. You have it in you to drive 'em Wilde, if you choose the right wardrobe.

DFW ROLLER SKATING CLUB

DALLAS – The DFW Roller Skating Club meets on the 2nd and 4th Wednesday of each month at the Forum Roller World, 1900 Great Southwest Parkway in Grand Prairie from 8:30 - 10:30 p.m. The cost is $4, and they also accept non-perishable food items for the food pantry. You are allowed to bring your own skates. The average turnout is about 40-50 people so come on out this Wednesday (June 24). For more info, call Dylan at (214)836-7362 (pager/voice-mail).

DALLAS FRUITBOWL '98

DALLAS – Admit it. The crashing of the gutter, the stylish flair of the...shoes, you secretly love it! Bowling, the only sport you can be bad at but still have fun. But this is definitely not your parent's "bowling night," this is Fruitbowl '98 benefiting the programs of Oak Lawn Community Services. Start working on your body language, put on your loudest bowling shirt and join us for a day of big fun.

Fruitbowl '98 will be held Sunday, June 28, at Don Carter's West, 10920 Composite Dr. (I-35 and Walnut Hill). For more info, call (214)520-8108.

HOUSTON METRO. BILLIARDS

HOUSTON — In the tenth anniversary season for the Houston Metropolitan Billiard League, the standings after nine weeks of play are as follows: first place, Jackson 5; second place, The Ripcord Penetrators; third place, Knight Sticks; fourth place, Predatory Instincts and fifth place, JR's Cue Crew.

Tomorrow (June 20), a charity tournament will be hosted by Bob Bouton, benefiting the Colt 45's Stone Soup Fund, at The New Barn. Registration will be at 1 p.m., and Willie Suniga will run the tournament.

HOUSTON INDEP. BILLIARDS

HOUSTON – The last monthly meeting of the season will be held tomorrow

(June 20) at 11 a.m. at The Outpost, where the election of new officers will be held for next year. Team sponsors will be receiving Awards Party bid notices, and voting will take place on where to hold the party, which is to be held Saturday, August 1, at 2 p.m.

AUSTIN ADVENTURING OUTDOORS

AUSTIN – Adventuring Outdoors will be hosting a day at Pace Bend Park, this Sunday (June 21). Spend a leisurely day having a picnic, swimming, biking or even hiking at this lovely county park on Lake Travis. Come whenever, eat about noon and then just hang out. The cost is $5 per car. For more info, call Steve at (512)445-2870.

RAINBOW FISHING CLUB

GALVESTON —The Pride Week Deep Sea Fishing Trips are coming up very soon. The Rainbow Fishing Club has reservations on the 85-foot New Buccaneer for this Sunday (June 21) and Wednesday, June 24. Costs are $60 and $55 respectively, of which a $20 deposit is due as soon as possible, because the club has 60 reservations for Sunday and 30 for Wednesday.

The boat supplies all of the fishing tackle and bait, and has a large sundeck with a grill for breakfasts and lunches. Beer and other drinks are available. No fishing license is needed.

Additional trips are planned for Sunday, July 19, Sunday, August 16 and Wednesday, August 19. For more info, call (713)523-6381.

HOUSTON PRIDE EVENT BRINGS BEST-SELLING AUTHOR

*Metropolitan Community
Church of the Resurrection
Hosts Rev. Dr. Mel White*

HOUSTON — God is working up another miracle for The Metropolitan Community Church of the Resurrection (MCCR). This time it will be a miracle of unity and diversity, as 2,600 people are expected to gather this Sunday, June 21, for the Pride Events at the Wortham Center.

The nationally recognized MCCR Sanctuary Choir, in collaboration with the entire music ministry of the church, will present the powerful musical God With Us.

Rev. Dr. Mel White, Minister of Justice

for the Universal Fellowship of Metropolitan Community Churches (UFMCC), is the keynote speaker for the 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. celebrations, and he will also present a "Pride and Justice Workshop" at 5 p.m.

Dr. White is a recent recipient of the National Civil Liberties Award from the American Civil Liberties Union for applying the "soul force" principles of Ghandi and King to the struggle of justice for sexual minorities. He was once a ghostwriter for such leaders of the radical religious right such as Jerry Falwell and Pat Robertson. Dr. White is the best-selling author of Stranger at the Gate: To Be Gay and Christian in America.

Dr. White has come out of the closet of silence "to confront the homophobia of (the religious right), engender and issue a clarion call for justice and freedom."

"We invite everyone who is concerned about injustice to attend the 'soul force' introduction this Pride weekend," says The Rev. Dwayne Johnson, Pastor of Houston's Metropolitan Community Church of the Resurrection. "We especially want to invite our gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgendered neighbors, members of all the open and affirming churches, our friends from P-FLAG [Parents, Families and Friends of Lesbians and Gays], Unitarians, the Jewish community and other justice seekers in our great city. Dr. White will be showing rare videos of Ghandi's grandson and premier his new soul force video, Trials of Jimmy Creech. This is a hand's on, 'doing justice more effectively' seminar and all are welcome to attend."

Tickets for this event are free. For tickets or more information, call MCCR at (713)861-9149.

SIX AGENCIES TO BENEFIT FROM DALLAS' AIDS LIFEWALK '98

*Oak Lawn Community Services
Announces Co-Chairs and Beneficiaries for Annual Event*

DALLAS — Oak Lawn Community Services (OLCS), sponsor of Dallas' annual AIDS Lifewalk, recently announced co-chairs, beneficiaries and corporate sponsors for the event, scheduled to be held October 4.

AIDS Lifewalk '98 will be co-chaired by Steve Habgood and Leigh Ann Runyan. Habgood is principal of SourceOne Marketing and serves on the board of the Dallas Chapter of the American Cancer Society and the Dallas/Fort Worth Black Tie Dinner Committee. Runyan is the Scientific Meetings Project Manager for the American Heart Association and has been an active committee leader in AIDS Lifewalk events since 1994.

"In the last eight years, AIDS Lifewalk has been the primary source of funding for OLCS and other AIDS service agencies in Dallas, with more than $2.8 million raised since its inception," said Martha Dealey, director of the event. "Women and minorities continue to be disproportionately affected — so our fund-raising efforts are now more important than ever. Currently, the Texas Department of Health reports that, across Texas, there are 43,744 diagnosed AIDS cases. These people, as well as those who are HIV infected, continue to need services, and our job is to see that they continue to receive them."

AIDS Lifewalk '97 raised more than $630,000 to support AIDS service agencies throughout the Dallas area and attracted 7,000 walkers. To help address the needs of the different committees affected by AIDS, five other organizations have been selected as beneficiaries: Brian's House, which provides medically managed child care and family support services to children impacted by HIV/AIDS; Pediatric AIDS Network of Dallas Area (PANDA), a coalition of ten medical and social service agencies providing services to women, children and youth; Project Esperanza, which provides HIV/AIDS services to a clientele of 94% Hispanics; Welcome House, Inc., who offers various services to a 95% African-American clientele; and White Rock Friends, a group which provides non-food items/paper goods, weekly lunches and pastoral care for persons living with HIV/AIDS.

Corporate sponsors for the event include Miller of Dallas, 93.3 "The Zone," The Dallas Morning News, The Sabre Group, Wyndham Anatole Hotel, Dallas World Aquarium, Caven Enterprises, American Airlines, Munsch Hardt, Lockheed Martin, Bank of America, Fannie Mae, Bank United, Coca Cola, Ortho-Biotech, Nations Bank and Baylor Healthcare.

Established in 1981, Oak Lawn Community Services is a progressive, not-for-profit organization providing a continuum of physical and mental health services for thousands of North Texans infected with or impacted by HIV/AIDS. Agency HIV/AIDS programs include Care-a-Van transportation services, a support group for people living with HIV/AIDS, HIV Mental Health Services and Volunteer Support/Services.

AIDS Lifewalk '98 is now recruiting

Team Captain volunteers to help coordinate teams of walkers on the day of the event. Those interested can receive information by calling (214)443-WALK (9255). Information will also be available at the kick-off event at the Dallas World Aquarium on July 16.

LOG CABIN REPUBLICANS SPEAK OUT IN FORT WORTH

Nationwide Response Places Spotlight On Texas Republican Convention

FORT WORTH — Over 50 openly gay republican delegates and alternates traveled to the Texas Republican Convention, and rallied with their supporters next to the convention hall in Fort Worth this past Saturday, June 13. These events capped an extraordinary week of confrontation between Log Cabin Republicans (LCR) of Texas and far-right anti-gay extremists within the state GOP.

Log Cabin delegates and their supporters were met at the "Rally for Liberty" with counter demonstrators who held anti-gay placards, some of which were deemed "too obscene" by television broadcasters. The demonstrators attempted to drown out speakers onstage who read statements of support from leading Republicans around the country and who called for an inclusive Republican Party.

The controversy began when Log Cabin elected 50 delegates and alternates to the state convention, and applied for an exhibit booth alongside other Republican and conservative organizations. Log Cabin was the only Republican organization denied a booth. State party spokesperson, Robert Black, escalated the situation by comparing Log Cabin to the Ku Klux Klan and pedophiles, and labeled the organization a "hate group."

LCR Texas President, Steve Labinski, held a press conference at the state capitol in Austin, calling on Governor George W. Bush (R-TX) to speak out against Black's comments. The governor issued a statement through spokeswoman Karen Hughes later that day stating, "Governor Bush believes all individuals deserve to be treated with dignity and respect. While he differs with the Log Cabin Republicans on issues such as gay marriage, he does not condone name calling. Governor Bush urges all Republicans to focus on our common goal of electing Republicans based on our conservative philosophy."

LCR Texas bought over $50,000 in major newspaper print ads last week throughout Texas, responding to Black's comments, while LCR delegates leafleted the convention floor as the convention opened. On Saturday, June 13, over 100 supporters joined the delegates at the rally next to the convention center, where far right counter demonstrators confronted them. One counter-demonstrator jumped onto the stage repeatedly with a sign that read "faggots go back to San Francisco," to which Dallas lesbian Republican activist, Lory Masters, who was speaking before the rally replied, "We are not from San Francisco. We are from Texas, and we're here to stay! This is our party, and I'm not going away!"

Openly Gay Dallas Councilman, John Loza (R), stated from the stage, "Don't back down until we take back this party from the extremists." A statement written by openly gay Representative Jim Kolbe (R-AZ) was read at the rally stating, "Log Cabin Republicans have been, and continue to be, a contributing mainstream Republican organization that has supported Republican candidates of all ideological stripes. The politics of exclusion and intolerance should have no place in our Republican Party." Speakers also read statements written by Rep. Christopher Shays (R-CT), Rep. Wayne Gilchrest (R-MD), Rep. Connie Morella (R-MD) and Rep. Jim Greenwood (R-PA), the chairman of Speaker Newt Gingrich's Planning Advisory Team.

"In Fort Worth, we drew a line in the sand against the radical right, and it was a major turning point for our movement," said Richard Tafel, executive director for the national Log Cabin Republicans, after the demonstration. "We played by the rules. Our people got elected as delegates, and the party went on the attack. But the brave and well-organized response was overwhelming."

Log Cabin Republicans is the nation's largest gay and lesbian republican organization, with over 50 chapters nationwide, a full-time office in Washington and a federal political action committee. In addition to the Texas state chapter, there are local chapters in Austin, Dallas, San Antonio and Houston.

HOUSTON POLICE FUND RECEIVES $1,000 DONATION

Charles Armstrong Investments, Presents Grant in Honor of Gay Pride

HOUSTON — In the spirit of the June celebration of Houston Lesbian and Gay Pride '98, Charles Armstrong, President and CEO of Charles Armstrong Investments, Inc., recently made a donation to The 100 Club, which provides life saving equipment, scholarships and support money to the families of police officers who have lost their lives in the line of duty.

The contribution was made on behalf of the staff and customers of Charles Armstrong Investments, Inc. and the Houston Gay and Lesbian Community, in appreciation and in honor of the Houston Police Department's Gay, Lesbian and Heterosexual men and women whose hard work and dedication keep our businesses and our residential neighborhoods a safer place to visit and live.

During the presentation, which was made this past Monday, June 15, at the Westheimer Police Substation, a special mention was made to the officers and supervisors within the Central Patrol Division acknowledging the tolerance exhibited in meeting the needs of the Montrose community.

ODD DOG LOOKING FOR A HOME

Those of us in Houston have a charming little restaurant in the heart of Montrose called Baba Yega's. It's quite the "family" place where we love to hang out. It's named after a Hungarian witch, and although it's explained on the back of the menu, I never really understood the significance of the odd name. Nor did I ever think I would encounter it in a movie about lawnmower men in rich, but rural, Kentucky. Now, after watching John Duigan's odd little film Lawn Dogs, maybe I get it. Here in Montrose, the light-hearted are trying to escape the mean witch of a civilization that chases us through the day, or maybe that's just stretching it a little. In this hard-to-categorize movie, the ordered estates sure do seem to eat the little children and turn out a bunch of jerks who play by the most boring of rules. I think I'm getting ahead of myself.

Lawn Dogs is actually one of those movies that is not really about much of anything, just two people turning out to be friends in spite of the situations around them. Trent (Sam Rockwell) is a 21-year-old kid who mows lawns in an affluent walled suburb of Kentucky, a "lawn dog." Devon is a 10-year-old girl who has just moved there with her overly ambitious parents. Devon is obviously one of those special little girls that they love to make movies about. Lots of stories go on in her head, maybe due to her near-death experience with a failing heart. Well, Trent has been previously shot, so they have "a bond," as Devon would like to believe. She works hard to become Trent's friend, because he is always wanting to believe her scary stories of the Baba Yega witch her deceased uncle told. Devon tells Trent these stories as their friendship deepens. Well, as you might wonder, there are some moderately uncomfortable moments in this film that pairs opposite sexes of distinctly different ages, let alone putting them in the backwoods of Kentucky. Throw in the fact that Devon's mom is sleeping with one of the neighborhood teens, and you've got a film that would seem like a perfect target for Pat Robertson. So, how to explain that it just seems so chaste?

Trent and Devon's friendship proceeds, and you know that, just as much as they are cut from the same cloth, something will come between them. You just keep waiting for the other shoe to drop. It does, but it takes so much time in which to do so that you just learn to be patient. It's nice to watch this movie. It doesn't always fill every moment with sound or action. However, John Duigan does fill every frame with beauty. This is the prettiest palette I've seen in a while, with simple pictures of grass, sky and a truck. You'd think it's so pretty, it could be right here in Texas.

So you've got a couple of loners who are real gems. This kind of picture is usually a hard sell, because you never quite believe that the rest of world could miss what special people they really are. When we meet them, they do some extravagantly quirky things to prove how unique they

Rockwell does amazing work, in how he crosses all lines and smolders for both the girls and the guys in this picture. I just moved into this house, and let me tell you, this is the kind of lawn crew I'm looking for...but with Devon, it's something different. 10-year-old Mischa Barton never draws that part of him out. They connect on a completely different level. Barton is a find, very genuine and unrehearsed. For such a small film, it surprised me to find Kathleen Quinlin playing the teen poking housewife, while Christopher MacDonald played the oblivious dad. The movie has a pretty decent pedigree.

I can't get over how much I liked looking at this picture. It's sort of like the Georgia O'Keefe pictures, very simple, but still a whole lot there. It is so calm on the eyes and rewarding to those who are patient and studious.

All in all, I'd have to say that this movie is about how this society, this witch, is hunting down the unique people who dare cross class and age lines to learn more about the people on the other side of the divides. It is occasionally quite magical and admittedly, sometimes frustrating. It is frustrating because I want to try to classify it as this or that but just can't succeed. It sure is one weird little movie, and you know, I mean that in the nicest of ways.

HOUSTON TEA — Pride Week is upon us, and a plethora of events are taking place to celebrate the diversity of the gay and lesbian community. During last

Friday's kick-off party at Riva's Restaurant, Pride Week executive chair Carol Clark [above, l] received a proclamation from Mayor Lee Brown [r] that makes June 12-27, 1998 the official Gay Pride Days in Houston. One of last weekend's events was Pride Day at Six Flags Astroworld, where we found Director of Design for the Gay and Lesbian Film Festival Ryan Schomburg [right, r] enjoying some fun in the sun with actor/author Scott Thompson [l]. Other highlights include tomorrow's Healthfest '98 from 10 a.m.-4 p.m. at the Edwin Hornberger Conference Center and Outrage's Construction Party '98: Building Pride at The Hangar, Polk and Roberts in the Warehouse District. The latter begins at 10 p.m. with proceeds benefiting Stevens House, Milam House and The Assistance Fund. This Sunday, MCCR presents Pride Day at The Wortham Theater with musical celebrations at 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. and a Pride and Justice Workshop at 5 p.m. with keynote speaker Dr. Mel White. Next Friday, June 26, Pumped Up On Art at the 711 William Street Gallery offers you the opportunity to bid on footwear of the rich and famous that has been transformed into works of art, while the AVES Pride Gala at the Edwin Hornberger Conference Center invites you to relive the 70's with its "Night Fever" theme party. Houston Lesbian and Gay Pride Week culminates with the 1998 Pride Parade next Saturday, June 27. This year's extravaganza — the only nighttime pride parade in North America — is sure to be bigger and brighter as it rolls along Westheimer from Ridgewood to Stanford.

These events and many more prove that our community is absolutely and positively "Unified, Diversified and Electrified...."

Last weekend at Rich's, Wigs On Fire made its comeback in grand style. Among the multitudes of shag-and-swing sportin' revelers, we spotted the reigning Miss Camp America, Ted "Jessica Flame" Roundtree [left], getting into the spirit of the event. Other Pride Week parties at the club include tonight's Unchained '98: A Black Leather Dance Fantasy with high energy grooves by deejays Fusion and Chris Sill and next Saturday's Wired: Direct Current with deejays J.D. Arnold, Chris Sill and dancing until dawn. This Sunday, The club hosts the Miss Gay Houston USofA At Large Pageant with special guests Nicole Perria, Chevelle Brooks, Regina Dane, Kara Dion and Lauren Taylor....

This week at Gentry is full of fantastic festivities. On Sunday, Lindsay Love presents "One More Punch" to help her on her way to Miss Gay Texas USofA. This Monday from 7-9 p.m., the Imperial Court hosts the Pride Parade Grand Marshals Reception honoring Jackie Doval, Bob Bouton, Barbara Winston and the TGRA Houston Chapter. And as always, Gentry continues to present sizzling male strip contests every Sunday and Wednesday and super sexy Boy Toy dancers seven nights a week...

Inergy is announcing the birth of its baby club Amnesia with a sneak preview tomorrow and Sunday, June 20 and 21. From now on, you can double your pleasure and double your fun by sampling the finest spicy Latino music with deejay Kenny Jamm at Inergy while Amnesia, with deejay Double K, serve up nothing but the best dance music all night long. Inergy is also the spot for fabulous pageants, and

On the subject of pageants, the CRUISE CAMERA was at the recent Miss EJ's Pageant. That's where we focused in on Mr. EJ's

Are you ready for a super summer blowout? On Thursday, June 25, JR's wants you to join Jason, Bill, Eric, Mike and Mark [above, l-r] and all of your friends for the club's sixteenth anniversary. Come and enjoy amazingly priced well drinks and longnecks from 8-10 p.m., prize giveaways and lots of candy kisses from hard-bodied male dancers. In addition to all of that, Alec D'Storm and Marsha Carlton will be hosting the club's Star Search Gold grand prize karaoke competition in which the winner receives an ounce of gold. While you're visiting this exciting Houston landmark, be sure to register to win a 3-day, 2-night South Beach vacation. The grand prize drawing is coming up very soon on Sunday, June 28. Entry forms are also available at Lobo and Travelfest....

Across the street, the magnificent men of the Montrose Mining Company are also having an anniversary. On Thursday, July 2, they'll celebrate twenty years of hot men, hot music and hot times with amazingly priced well drinks and longnecks from 8-10 p.m. and free anniversary T-shirts while they last. Come and see for yourself why the party action at the Mine is still hot and heavy after two decades....

The Midtowne Spa is a great spot to enjoy gay pride month. Tomorrow night at The Garage: An Evening of Levi and Leather would be a perfect place to show everyone exactly what you're proud of. Weekly highlights at the Spa include locker and room specials Monday-Thursday, Tuesday Teen Night, male dancers every night and amateur male strip contests on Tuesdays and Wednesdays....

Contest, we were delighted to find first runner-up Ramiro Torres and winner Oscar Murillo [left, l-r]. This Sunday, the Miss Toyz USofA pageant boasts $1,000 in prizes, with special guests Monique Johnson, Cruella Divine, Lana Blake and Jenny Kraiggg. Next Wednesday's Gay Pride Parade benefit features a super show starring a bevy of beauties, drink specials and male dancers in cages....

One thing you can always count on at Pacific Street is cheap drinks, great music and lots of friendly party people like Joe [right].

Following next weekend's Pride Parade, P.S. presents "Illumination '98" with free flashlights for the first 500 and spectacular special effects lighting. In addition to all of that, shameless dancers take to the Cages of Decadence to tease and please every night of the week....

Alternatives of Adult Video Megaplexxx is gearing for the exclusive appearance of Falcon porn star Tom Chase. Next Saturday, June 27, he'll be on the Megaplexxx float in the Houston Pride Parade, and on Sunday, June 28, he'll be at the store from 2-6 p.m. Don't miss your chance to see this sexy hunk up close and personal....

Nighthawks has something for everyone. Last weekend at the club, these lovely ladies [above] were working up a sweat during the Imperial Court's Summer Sweat Fest. This Sunday at Nighthawks, Pride Parade Grand Marshal Bob Bouton will be the guest emcee at Anita Mann's Grin 'N Bear It Contest. See you there.

SAN ANTONIO

from Dollar manager Mark Silva. Swing into the Silver Dollar, have Gus mix you up a fierce cocktail and dish the dirt on all the regulars. He always has the scandalous skinny on the SDS patrons and local personalities. Sunday at the Silver Dollar still reigns as the ultimate afternoon tea dance with the best in trash disco. Hot male dancers join the party after dark and the drinks are always cheap....

The Eagle Mountain Saloon played host to yet another fabulous TGRA show last Sunday, and the performers raised hundreds of dollars for the local. Look to TWT for upcoming TGRA functions at the Eagle Mountain Saloon, and be sure to stop in and enjoy the show. All the monies raised by TGRA eventually end up in the hands of those in the community who need it badly....

The Annex on San Pedro must keep a supply of hunky men in the back room these days. You can always find stunning guys enjoying Ab's Sunday, and Wednesday pool tournaments or hanging out for happy hour. Cruise in and cruise around for some of SA's hottest men....

The Saint remains one of the best places to catch some of River City's hottest go-go gods. We found brawny Alfred [right] shaking his booty at the show bar of South Texas. You, too, can sample the goods Wednesdays, Fridays and Saturdays when male dancers are the order of the day.

Sunday, July 19, the Saint will host the hotly contested Texas Entertainer of the Year Pageant starring National Entertainer of the Year, Maya Douglas. This issue of TWT features the Texas EOY ballot (page 13) with which you may vote for your favorite Texas entertainer. The top vote-getters will be announced in our July 10th issue and will compete for the chance to go to the national pageant in Louisville, Kentucky. Congratulations to Saint deejay Junior Hernandez, who celebrates his 10 year anniversary with the club. Thanks for all the great music sister!...

If you need a sign that we are approaching the end of the world as we know it, look no further. Bill "Bullfrog" Beardon will celebrate yet another birthday, and the infamous annual Bullfrog birthday bash will probably bring on Armageddon (or at least a round of hangovers that will make most folks wish they were dead). Thursday, June 25, the Pegasus staff will don their Village People apparel to celebrate the auspicious event, and they invite everyone to stop by and enjoy a costume contest and show. All proceeds benefit the Bullfrog Benevolence Fund and B.E.A.T. AIDS....

The Bonham Exchange lures some of the hottest boys in SA including cuties Brian and Jesse [left, l-r]. Friday, June 19, the Bonham will host the Official Miss Gay Capitol of Texas Pageant, a quadruple crowning, in the Bonham Ballroom. Special guests include Jennifer West, Cinnamon Sweet, Shanté Whitney, Jesse John Perez and Donet McKim. The pageant begins at 11 p.m. and applications are available at the club or by calling (210)921-1546.

wall people. Talk about hot men! If you were there, you know what we mean...If you weren't...pity! The plethora of video screens and festive tunes provided some sensual stimulation. We certainly found these two to be stimulating. And, let us not forget the very handsome bar staff. As in all his endeavors, owner Randy Cuniff has hand selected some of the nicest and most attractive men to serve you. Now there is a double meaning for you to ponder. Check out Splash's weekly nighttime activities schedule, including the likes of Mad Mondays, Comedy Night on Tuesdays and a legend in the making with Show Tunes on Thursdays. There's always a lot of action and never a dull night at Splash, where it's always a good time for all. Make your way over to the club or give them a call for their daily drink specials. Check out their ad for details....

The Forum is all about partying. This past weekend, all the circuit boys were out, and there must have been a no-shirt rule because no one was sporting a thing above the waist. Between the pumping tunes of Filthy Rich and the bump and grind on the dance floor, there was a feel of debauchery waiting to happen. We love that! Speaking of love, we love the new bartender Beaux. We can't wait to see him in boxers on Wednesdays. We would also like to see cuties Yolanda, Scott and Ryan [left, l-r] in their boxers, too. However, they don't work at the bar, but my all means feel free to model your undies for us anytime. The Heather Thomas variety show is really taking off on Wednesdays. Every week she has a different audience participation game to play. More often than not, somebody is in his or her underwear before it is all over. Thursday's Star Search Contest continues to bring out the next wave of Austin celebrities. Hosted by the lovely Kelly Kline, a "stunning" time is guaranteed. You can also see her hosting the Sunday night Best Chest contest. Stop in and show your stuff, there is cash to be won....

Life on The Edge is crazy as ever. Last week's tropical party was a real Hawaiian punch. We came across Kevin as he fretted over how to do the fruit trays. After a quick course in fruit carving and some basic origami, he created palm trees from pineapples and some boulders from kiwi for his own version of Mt. Kilauea. The strawberries were used as lava, and it was almost too cute to eat. On Tuesdays and Wednesdays the club features dancer boys. We all love to see nearly naked boys grinding for our pleasure. The Fabulous Rob is crooning your karaoke favorites every Sunday. What better way to ease out the weekend than with some show tunes and one of the 1001 martinis the club has to offer?...

Charlie's has made a couple of changes. The very delicious Bradley has moved to happy hour. He and Milsey are your daily HH duo. Conversely, handsome Rob has moved to nights. We think he just wants to be closer to Arnie. This Sunday, in honor of Father's Day, all dads will be treated to free burgers on the patio. That means dads, not all you daddies! You have to bring a picture of you and your kid, and it's burger-rama for you. Tommie Ross will be the special guest for the Super Sunday Show, and you know you love her. Speaking of love, Heather Thomas [right] thinks she is in love with the stud that showed up at her Monday wet underwear contest....

Up on the north side of town, Bout Time is as fun as ever. The volleyball season is in full swing, and the competition is fierce. The Austin Gay/Lesbian 2nd annual coed volleyball tournament is tomorrow, June 20, and Sunday, June 21. This year, the Austin Gay and Lesbian International Film Festival will sponsor the tournament. The Austin Chapter of TGRA is sponsoring a benefit for the Pediatric AIDS League tomorrow, June 20. Showtime is 10:30

Dick's Deja Disco could not be happier. The addition of Kyndall to their staff as your happy hour bartender has brought a whole new slew of folks to this festive watering hole. We all love the oldies, and that is what they play all the time. Where else can you hear "Last Dance" or "McArthur Park" anytime you want. Is that cool or what? You will also find Austin favorite, Lil' Debi, behind the bar at night as your mixologist extraordinaire. The guys have been working diligently on the patio. A little scrub here, some paint there and it's ready for business. A cold beer outside on a clear Texas night is always a treat.

DALLAS TEA - NBC's weekend anchor, Sabrina Smith, will be the host for the second annual Sabrina's Summer Heat Wave on Wednesday, June 24. The event, benefiting the programs of AIDS Interfaith Network, Inc. will be held at Toscano Restaurant, 4900 McKinney Avenue from 6-8 p.m. Hors d'oeuvres will be provided by: Anzu, Bristol Hotel of Addison, The Flying Burro, Barclays and Toscano. A silent auction featuring items from art to fashion and furniture to travel will be part of the evening's events. Ms. Smith has been a volunteer with AIN for several years, and after the loss of her client, she chose to continue her support through this benefit. Breeze into an evening with good friends and help them as they work to make living with AIDS more livable. Tickets are $35 in advance and $40 at the door. Advance tickets may be purchased through AIN at (214)941-7696....

Attention country music lovers! All of you die-hard country music lovers and dance fans will notice no changes to the Round-Up Saloon's schedule, and everything will continue with the same great staff, deejay and fun times! The great news is that the Round-Up Day Bar will re-open June 28 with a new look and bartender Steve - a future TWT cover model - serving never before seen drinks for the Round-Up! Now with seven days a week of daytime and evening entertainment - it'll be non-stop partying from 3:00 p.m. until closing! Rest assured that the Round-Up remains as always "The Home Of Good Times, and The Home Of Good People! Contestants will be competing for over $1,500 in cash and prizes, and with guest appearances by Whitney Paige, Erica Andrews, Tersa Matthews and Maya Douglas this evening of pageantry will be a rare entertainment treat for the pageant novice and connoisseur alike. See you there, as Whitney, who went on to win the state title, crowns her successor....

Midtowne Spa offers the hottest dancers on the planet wearing the least amount of covering since Adam in the Garden of Eden. Make your way over to the Spa, and catch one of the sizzling summer shows starring studs like Austin [right]. You'll be glad you did. Manager Mike is looking for a few good men. If you ever wanted a topic for "How I Spent My Summer Vacation," this could be the research opportunity you've been waiting for. And you get paid! Such a deal. See Mike at Midtowne today for more details about summer job openings....

TMC goes tropical every Wednesday with Tropical Punch, Maui Schnapps and selected draft beer all at reduced prices. TMC's Monday night double elimination 8-ball pool tournament brings the hostess with the mostest, Wanda, out for the 8:30 pm festivities. Great balls a fire - Wanda's in the house. You never know what she'll come up with to amuse herself between breaks. Customers Randy, George and Rolando [above] know where to find a party. One thing is for sure, enjoying the company of the men in the Mine is a great way to spend some time this Monday....

Contact the Village on line at www.caven.com. Week after week, Thursday Thunder at Village Station lights up your nightlife every time you get inside, with low drink prices and deejay extraordinaire Mark Rinewalt at the master controls. Make your moves to the grooves of the hottest tracks of the hottest wax in town. The night comes alive with the hottest party people like Luis, Ty and Julian [right] grooving the night away. Head upstairs to the Rose Room and catch stars like Donna Day, Maya Douglas, Whitney Paige, Valerie Lohr, Celeste Martinez and more performing in three shows nightly. This Thursday catch Scott Pepin at the Retro Dance Music master controls for a 70's music and videos party that's definitely a flashback on the right track. All aboard!...

Thursday, June 25 at the McKinney Avenue Contemporary, 3120 McKinney, beginning at 8pm. For further information contact DPC at (214)941-0891, OLPL at (214)670-1359 or MAC at (214)953-1212.

TEXAS TEA - Turn to page 13 of this week's magazine to vote for your favorite female impersonator from across the great state of Texas. This year you will have the added opportunity to cast your vote via the Internet as the voting goes into cyber drive. It's your chance to support the entertainer that you would like to see compete for the title of Texas Entertainer of the Year. This year's competition will be held at The Saint in San Antonio on Sunday, July 19. The winner of Texas EOY will go on to compete at the National Entertainer of the Year Pageant in Louisville, Kentucky August 13-16. The ravishingly beautiful Maya Douglas will be crowning her successor at the fabulous Connection Complex where the pageant began in 1990. Texas has been very well represented, having brought back the national crown four out of seven times. Who will win this year's competition? Keep watching the pages of TWT for details.

LICENSED MASSEURS

STATE CERTIFICATION POLICY

Texas law clearly requires that only bona fide, state-certified masseurs can be listed in this category. Therefore, TWT policy requires that all masseurs must publish their state-certification number within their advertisements and that a photocopy of their state masseur's license be on file at TWT.

MODELS / ESCORTS

TWT POLICY

Because prostitution is illegal in Texas, state law prohibits the placement in this category of any such ads. Therefore, TWT policy stipulates that we will not and cannot knowingly accept any advertisements suggesting solicitation. It's the law. Also, state law prohibits non-licensed massage therapists from using terms such as "massage," "Swedish," "acupressure," "Shiatsu," "reflexology," "body rub," "back rub," "body massage" or any term which indicates bodily contact.
