MT. OLYMPUS DESCENDS ON HOUSTON

Olympus is in an uproar. Zeus can't find his thunderbolt. Hercules is fooling around with Eros. Xena and Gaby have wandered in from another story, and Aphrodite is convinced there is no love in the world. That's the situation, boys and girls, and that's where Kevin White and his hearty band of video-theaters pick it up.

There have been commercially-produced videos of Houston's Gay Pride Parade for several years, but they have consisted mostly of candid parade footage, with little or no commentary. Kevin and company thought it would be more fun if there was a story line, something to reflect the theme of the parade and to go along with the event. So, Tom McLaughlin wrote a scenario in which the gods and goddesses of Olympus get involved with Gay Pride in a big way, eventually even descending upon Houston to be a part of the parade. So that's how, more or less, the production got started. The all-volunteer effort kicked off with auditions, and a cast was named.

The nine-member ensemble is a mix of professional performers and novices which, incidentally, covers just about every category in the rainbow flag, including gays, lesbians and transgenders. The gang's all here! And what a gang it is. Actor-director Jimmy Phillips leads off as Zeus, followed by Aphrodite (Kelly Lauren), Hercules (Jaymes Alexander), and Eros (Michael Reaper). Then we have Xena (Shanna Ross) and her pal Gaby (Susan Durham), Athena (Wendy Patterson), Alexander the Great (Glenn Holt) and Hercules' annoying Super-Fan, played by actor Todd Greenfield. Most of the cast had never worked together, and several of the stage actors had never done a video. But Producer-Director White put them through their paces, and the results are delightful. If the final video is half as much fun as the shoot was, this is one tape you will have to own (I want the out-takes).

Meanwhile, back at Olympus, Zeus is missing. Turns out he's spotted his thunderbolt in Houston, where it's being used as the logo for the Gay Pride celebration, and he's gone to retrieve it. Aphrodite tries in vain to fix Hercules up with some of the local female talent, but Herc only has eyes for Eros, and no wonder. Eros' costume seems to get progressively smaller as the two cuddle, trying to convince Aphrodite that love isn't dead. To prove their point, they conjure up a picture of Houston in the midst of its celebration, and spot Zeus hot-footing it after his thunderbolt. Everybody down there seems to be having a much better time, so the gang decides to join them.

This is the gist of the pre-taped scenes. These will be intercut with actual parade footage to complete the video. Aphrodite, Hercules and Super-Fan will be in the parade crowd with cameras and mikes, looking for comments and reactions. So, if you spot one of them coming towards you, don't run away. You're on Candid Camera!

For information and order forms contact the Pride website: Pridehouston.org/vid eo1998, or send a check for $20 to Pride Committee of Houston, P.O. Box 66071, Houston, TX 77266-6071. Order forms are also available at various gay business locations in Montrose, or call (713)529-6979. All proceeds of the video sales go to the Pride Committee of Houston, Inc.

REVIEWED BY STEVEN LINDSEY

There should be a rule when it comes to making Broadway musicals out of live-action movies, to wait at least 20 years. Case in point: the musical Big. There just hasn't been enough time since the 1988 movie for an audience to see the characters for what they are rather than an actor, for example, portraying Tom Hanks, in turn portraying a little boy trapped in a man's body.

The fact that the plot hardly varies one bit from the movie script doesn't help, either. It's the same boy-meets-girl, girl-already-has-older-boyfriend, boy-meets-magic-carnival-game, wishes-do-come-true story. I had at least hoped to see something new and exciting, but that's just me. If I choose to get beyond that, which I do, then Big isn't entirely a waste of time, or money. It is a well produced show.

The one attribute that the show has going for it is its strong ensemble cast. Jim Newman as the big Josh Baskin is plenty goofy and naive (and quite a dancer to boot!). His scene with toy corporation owner MacMillan (Ron Holgate) is actually the one improvement over the movie. Through a great visual with an overhead mirror, the audience is allowed to see the famous giant piano scene at two different angles at once, overhead and full frontal! If my health club had one of those pianos, I'd work out much more loyally. Anyway, Newman is very talented, but as I indicated earlier, it seems he's doing more of a Tom Hanks imitation than anything else.

Movie-Turned-Musical

As Josh's best friend Billy, Alex Brumel is the best child actor I've seen recently, on stage or on film. It's always a risk to have a major role played by a young performer, but Brumel succeeds with flying colors. His timing and stage presence easily equaled that of his adult co-stars. His solo, "Outta Here!" is a great showcase of his budding talents.

Jacquelyn Piro's Susan is definitely charming and fun to watch. The chemistry between her and Newman helped make their scenes flow nicely. MacMillan is a great character for silver fox Holgate. His deep baritone speaking voice makes for some great comic moments, but in singing, many of his words are completely lost due to the in-the-basement nature of his vocal stylings.

Speaking of the music, there are a couple toe-tappers that may never become showtune classics, but do deserve mention. "Say Good Morning to Mom" is a humorous song that also helps move one of the movies most dramatic scenes into full speed. The militaristic "Welcome to MacMillan Toys" is also visually and audibly enjoyable. And, of course, it would be so sad if a song called "Fun" wasn't just that. So be assured, it is. Other than these three, however, there aren't many stand-outs. That may be why so many of the efforts by this show's song writing duo have failed to make it "big" on Broadway.

The music by David Shire is good, although there weren't any songs I caught myself humming on the drive home (if you know what I mean). Most of them simply lacked a catchy melody line that characterizes so many of the classic Broadway hits. Perhaps that's comparable to only liking poetry that rhymes, but I think that's what helps give great musicals their longevity. Richard Maltby, Jr.'s lyrics are clever and added or revamped after the musicals Broadway run, so I wonder how bad the originals must have been. Only the few people who saw it in New York know for sure.

One incentive for citizens of Dallas to see this show is the fact that it may never tour again. I'm only speculating, but I doubt it will have quite the year-after-year rotation like the long list of Rodgers and Hammerstein hits. It is fun and entertaining, but if you've seen the movie on video too recently, you may wish to reconsider.

Coming up next from Dallas Summer Musicals is cross-dressin' Cathy Rigby in Peter Pan, which runs June 30 through July 12 at the Fair Park Music Hall. Tickets on sale now.

Big runs through this Sunday for four final shows. Performances are tonight at 8 p.m., Saturday at 2 and 8 p.m. and Sunday at 2 p.m. Ticket prices range from $10 to $50 and are available at the Fair Park Music Hall box office, any TicketMaster outlet, Charge-by-Phone at 214-373-8000 or TicketMaster Online at www.ticketmaster.com.

Imports out the wazoo...that's what seems to be the line on the latest gaggle of releases to cross the Fresh Beats listening station.

Hot on the heels of their massive debut Club/Radio hit, "Sunchyme", we find the new single from Dario G, "Carnival De Paris." This records carries on the hottest of Latin grooves, coupled with brilliant, progressive-tipped production for your gay nerves. From their upcoming debut album Superdarioland, this records really gets it all goin'.

All the circuit girls are simple falling over themselves to get a copy of Vic Moore's "Breathe," found on Germany's ZYX Records. This record sort of sounds like a cross between Erasure's "Always" and Everything but the Girl's "Missing". His vocals offer a lilting, yet uplifting tone over a slightly dark production style. This is one of those records that will really tug on your heartstrings. This song was originally recorded as a ballad by Midge Ure, but this new rendition is perfect for any gathering of gay partygoers.

With the huge success of Billie Meyer's "Kiss The Rain" we could figure that it was only a matter of time before we would be getting our groove on to a snappy dance version down at our local watering hole and danceteria. So we're delighted to tell you about not one, but two smart items for your jiggling pleasure. One is by Flashback feat. Michelle Anderson. Now hon, this is truly the deal, with several amazing mixes to choose from, ranging from a 108 BPM mix to a soaring, Saint-era Hi-energy monster. But the purists at heart might want to opt for the German import dance mixes from Billie herself. This one goes for a Billie Ray Martin's "Lovin' Arms" sort of vibe, however. Both are great, so you'll just have to choose one or the other...oh shag it! Just get them both and be done with it!

That ever so tea-ish Klone label-out of the UK-has again burst forth with yet another one that you will just want to fluff yourself over. How about Miss B feat. Maxine Barrie doing a cover of the Shirley Bassey classic, "I Who Have Nothing"-whoa nellie, get your hands out of the air before you drop your cocktail! This decidedly dramatic twirler comes off a bit cheesy and slightly outdated, but it's just one of those that you'll want to have in your collection. Besides, if you're too young to remember the version from Sylvester back in the 80's or your Sylvester copy is just worn to the other side you'll certainly be happy that you picked this little gem up.

Speaking of oldies, Salsoul Italy tinkles left and right for the '98 remixes of First Choice's "Let No Man Put Asunder". This record is probably the most sampled ever-"It's not over" ring a bell? These hot new house remixes by Frank "O" Moiraghi really stir it all up!

And don't forget about the dance cover of Madonna's "Substitute For Love" (my favorite track from the new album) by Patty on Oak Records. All the mixes are great so it's hard to decide which to play. However, I'll have to say that the b-side mix, which utilizes a replayed bass line from "I Feel Love" throughout sounded really good when I was out the other night and heard it on a big system. One the same side you'll find a "not bad" version of "Ray Of Light" as well. Go ahead, you know you need it. And that's dance music THIS WEEK IN TEXAS.

Dear TWT,

On June 5, my eleventh annual AIDS Benefit raised $2,800 for The AIDS Coalition of Coastal Texas, in Galveston. This year's benefit was in memory of Taylor Kennedy, a former Miss Gay Galveston who passed away on May 16.

I would like to say a special thanks to Joe Rios, Johnny Brandt, Dana Finley, Charlie Burgers, C.C. Ryder and Johnny for helping me in more ways than one!

To all the entertainers: Kyra Calloway, C.C. Ryder, Myra Sanchez, Baby Face, Tanisha Jones, Jaime Roberts - Miss TGRA, and Ken, thank you for caring. Also, Mr. Walter Folres, Jr., you are the best!

Someone special has opened doors for many entertainers and has helped me more than he can imagine. Jesse Garza, I love you with all of my heart. You deserve the best.

I would also like to thank Jaston and Joe (the cast of Greater Tuna) for donating the two autographed bandanas which were purchased by Jerry Bird and Whitney Paige.

The list of donations was long, but I'll try to fit in as many as possible: Jimmy Sweeney - $50, Dana Finley - $50, Dave J. Davis - $50, Patricia Katravsky - $25, David Cervantes Martinez - $50, Kon Tiki Club - $100, Lew Wiggs - $50, C.C. by the Sea - $100, Leth Sams - $50, Island Boy Services - $25, Jesse Garza - $400, Jason Long - $20, Ruth Wilson - $10 and Kat - $20. Thank you all for your donations.

To Earlene Cartwright, David Mitchell, Lew Wiggs, David Martinez, Ruby Davis, Richard Arthur, Melissa Luna, Andrew McPhau, Don and Pam Freshner, thank you for caring, working and taking time with the clients.

I would also like to say good luck to Joe Rios and Heather Schaffer on their attempt to ride from Austin to Houston to Dallas in the Texas AIDS Ride on October 5. Each rider must collect $2,700, so please make your support pledge soon. Remember to support those who support you.

I would also like to extend my sympathies to the family and friends of Michael Cooley who passed away June 6.

Until we meet again, I hope to see you at my twelfth annual, next year!

A Hot, Sweaty Thank You

Dear TWT,

We would like to thank everybody who came out during this past weekend in the heat to celebrate the Royal, Sovereign and Imperial Court of the Single Star of Houston's second annual Summer Sweat Fest. The three-day party was a lot of fun, and raised over $1,300 for the Colt 45's Stone Soup Fund.

A special note of appreciation goes out to all of the bar owners who allowed us in throughout the weekend. Thank you to Del at Gentry, Ed at EJ's, Marlene at Chances, Jim at Nighthawks and Gaye at Mary's. Also, we could not have had such a successful run without the help of a number of organizations: Autumn Seasons, the Texas Renegades, AVES, FIST, PWA Holiday Charities, the Colt 45's, Houston Area Bears, Bayou City Leather Alliance, the House of Glade, the Seville Sisters, Soiree Aubergine and the Garden Party. Congratulations to the Bears for winning Sweathog of the Run, and to the Colt's for the Club Participation Award.

Also, a special thanks (hugs and kisses!) goes to Jeff Linthicum at the TWT, for putting together the run book on such "short notice."

It is nice to see a group of people from all different areas in our community (drag, leather, straight, cowboy, etc.) come together to just have a big party and at the same time raise funds for those in need. Thanks, again.

Ranting & Raving

by Jeffrey L. Linthicum

Martha Stewart

She is, to some, the messiah of home and garden. Rare is the man, woman or child unfamiliar with the plainly statuesque and carved-from-cream-cheese image of the gazillionaire caterer poised over a rack of lamb. Frankly, I'd never really paid the woman any mind. Her tenacity for gracious living is certainly commendable, but I am perfectly capable of executing a reasonably nifty cocktail party without her help. But a book titled Martha Stewart, Just Desserts, by Jerry Oppenheimer and published by Avon (that I had somehow managed to overlook while it hovered on the best-seller's list), made it's way to the sleep inducing arsenal of reading material I keep on my nightstand.

I opened it's front cover at 2 a.m. with every intention of knocking off a few chapters before turning in. Five hours later, bleary-eyed and slightly shaken, I turned the last page of what can only be described as the single most disturbing biography ever written. From page one, Mr. Oppenheimer completely (and with little or no remorse), cleans Martha Kostyryka Stewart's proverbial clock. It's riveting.

Painstakingly researched, the book navigates through Martha's life and hard times, from her questionably auspicious ancestry to a scathing account of her messy divorce. In fact, throughout the 464 page lambast, Jerry manages to accuse Ms. Stewart of committing every devious act, short of whacking baby Harp Seals and tribal cannibalism, in her pursuit of success. He also makes it painfully clear that he despises Martha and would be as pleased as punch if the reader happened to walk away hating her as well.

I remain indifferent towards Ms. Stewart nonetheless. The picture Just Desserts paints is so unfavorably one-sided, it's hard to believe that it is entirely borne of truth and her legions of die hard followers could apparently care less. Dash into any Hobby Lobby, and you are likely to find one of her little chambray clad minions throttling a helpless clerk for not stocking some essential "good thing" on her shopping list.

I don't think I'd sleep well at night had I authored this invasive tomé. Martha's fans are fiercely loyal and thanks to her teachings are all skilled with cutlerly and could easily hide a body in a bed of Begonias and still have time to refinish a dining room suite...before breakfast. Be afraid Mr. Oppenheimer. Be very afraid.

June 26 - July 2

Hot July stokes the inner flame with a planetary pride march into Cancer and Leo. Lovely Venus and zesty Mars enter romantic Cancer, and the expansive Sun and cerebral Mercury waltz into dramatic Leo. Lets go for the gusto, friends. The time is ripe for romance, and I suspect most of us are up to the task. Let's peruse the planetary panorama of July this week.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23) Happy birthday proud Crab! This a month to shine as your personal magnetism reaches a high luster level. Thanks to feisty Mars, July offers you ample opportunity to show the immediate world what you can do. Venus adds a touch of pink panache so don't hide in your shell, cousin. Friends may not understand your wild ways right, now but don't let them cramp your style.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23) Queer Lions score major karmic points by getting involved in a major gay community effort. The more you give, the more you get, so be generous and magnanimous. Pioneering Mars strongly suggests that you blast your closet off its hinges and toss out any psychological debris that holds you back from true affirmation. The Sun has some juicy rewards for especially tidy Lions.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23) Queer Virgins, like most folks, thrive on strong friendships. This July, charming Venus and active Mars energize your social circle and pull you into its wild epicenter. Friends reaffirm your personal pride and give you great self confidence. Who knows what can happen when a Virgo is so inspired? Take it to its logical conclusion and turn a cousin into a kissing cousin.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23) Concentrate on your career. The planetary push of facile

Venus and directioned Mars point to professional success. Proud Libras attain palpable gains in any career effort if they work at it. Why do I think that your goals are more gloss than grit? Maybe because even the most onerous tasks go smoothly. Claw for it while you can, bubble. Next month you could go hungry.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22) Personal transformation take shape this July. (Or maybe you're just mellowing with age?) Travel is likely with both Venus and Mars lighting your way. Buy a ticket and get going, proud Scorp. It may be the perfect opportunity for you to find your inner voice. And who knows who may be waiting for you at the end of the rainbow? Let's hope it's not a troll.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22) Gay Archers are not usually motivated by sexual conquest, but the delightful combination of romantic Venus and aggressive Mars pokes you in the embers. Feast while you can lover. This planetary push won't last forever, and the wind can go out of your sail before you know it. Meantime, strive for inner fulfillment alone or with a friend.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20) July heats up partnership issues so expect to share your hopes and dreams with a significant other. If you are in the search mode, use the lucky combination of charming Venus and aggressive Mars to set your course of action. Gay Goats sometimes need a friendly push because they tend to lack self confidence. No problem, baby...you are high on spunk now.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19) Aqueerians will be amazed at how a little body work could have such dramatic effects. Both Venus and Mars accentuate and define your best assets...ok, your body too. That is, of course, that you do the proper exercise and diet regime to make the possible probable. Think nude beach and tone those pecs. The glorious Sun brings you a big surprise after the 24th.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - March 20) How much fun can a gay Fish have? It depends upon how you use the splendid energy of creative Venus and zesty Mars this July. Enjoy your free time while you can. Any project that you undertake now can become a personal masterpiece. The secret is to apply it to your day to day job or long term career. Grow a rose garden in concrete.

ARIES (March 21 - April 20) Gay Rams are advised to center their activities close to home since their sense of well being centers there this July. Family issues and unresolved matters involving the dominant parent in your life may take a turn for the better. This is good as long as you don't compromise to please others. Be your proud self and stop schlepping all that cockamamie ancestral baggage around.

TAURUS (April 21 - May 21) Venus and Mars set your sights on a particularly delightful goal this July, and once stubborn gay Bulls get something into their craw, they cannot be dissuaded. Opportunities abound in social situations so get yourself properly situated with the right crowd and wax poetic with your wry observations. Ask, and you shall receive. But first, decide what you really want.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21) Gay Twins learn to control their finances in July when both Venus and Mars make a green mountain out of a pile of pennies. Hey big spender, why not let that golden touch grab onto one of our charities or political organizations? You have the wisdom and the wherewithal to set some major changes into motion now thanks to the expansive Sun and intellectual Mercury.

TURTLE CREEK CHORALE WINS TELLY AWARD

The Dallas-Based, Award-Winning Chorus Receives Public Service Announcement Award

DALLAS — The award-winning Turtle Creek Chorale is proud to announce the addition of a "Telly" to its collection of awards. All three of the Chorale's Public Service Announcements (PSA) have received the prestigious Telly Award. The "Telly" is a national award founded in 1980 to showcase and give recognition to outstanding non-network and cable TV commercials. Over 20 highly qualified production professionals from all regions of the United States judged the entries. All of the judges were previous "Telly" winners.

The three PSA's, created by Philip Wier of DDB Needham/Teleworks, present lush, beautiful images of the Grand Canyon, clouds, shooting stars and other nature scenes with the chorale singing in the audio. A voice-over at the end of the singing states lines such as "Now imagine this feeling without an airplane," "If nature had a soundtrack, we'd be it," and "You know that choir of angels you hear when you are one with nature? We're it." All end with the statement "The Turtle Creek Chorale, like no other sound on Earth." Upcoming concert information is displayed at the end of the video. The PSA's aired in Dallas on WFAA-TV/Channel 8 (ABC). DDB/Needham and WFAA-TV/Channel 8 are major season promoters. The PSA's resulted in increased ticket sales for concerts as well as awareness of the Turtle Creek Chorale.

"We are thrilled to have our Public Service Announcements win this significant award," said Dr. Timothy Seelig, Artistic Director of the Turtle Creek Chorale. "This award is testament to the tireless efforts and dedication of Chorale member and officer, Philip Wier. We are truly honored to have his professional experience assist our marketing efforts."

SOIREE AUBERGINE ANNOUNCES 1998 TOTAL

Houston Fund-Raising Organization Donates $35,000 to Bering Community Service Foundation

HOUSTON — Recently, Soiree Aubergine announced the totals from its 1998 fund-raising drive, on behalf of the Bering Community Service Foundation. Boosted by a significant contribution from the Texas Gay Rodeo Association, Houston Chapter, the group's efforts exceeded $35,000. This year's amount brings Soiree's total contribution toward Bering Foundation programs to $236,000 over the volunteer group's seven year history. In addition to underwriting the food costs associated with the Bering Adult Day Care Center nutrition program, funds raised as part of the 1998 effort will also purchase equipment for the Center's expanded physical and occupational therapy programs, medical supplies and kitchen equipment needed to meet new funding standards. In addition, this year's funds complete Soiree's multi-year commitment to underwrite the costs for renovating one of the Bering Dental Clinic's eight patient care suites. Upon completion of the current renovation project, the suite will be dedicated as the Soiree Aubergine/TGRA - Houston patient care suite.

"Considering the fact that this all began seven years ago as almost a joke, it's truly amazing," stated founding member and co-chairman Barry Petree, PhD. "It grew from a group of men sitting around a bar during happy hour, and between discussing the movie Steel Magnolias and the various parties we had in this city, we came up with the idea of Soiree Aubergine, a purple party. Well, seven years and $236,000 later...never underestimate the power of cheap vodka!"

Soiree 1998, which officially kicked off with a Super Bowl Barbeque on January 25 and culminated with the Purple Party on March 15, included a number of fund-raising efforts including a silent auction, raffle, personal and corporate contribution campaigns and benefit performances by a host of local titleholders and entertainers. In addition to the support of TGRA - Houston, Soiree 1998 received significant support from community organizations including the Royal, Sovereign and Imperial Court of the Single Star of Houston, Inc. and Miss Houston FFI through events held at Chances, EJ's, Gentry, JR's, Nighthawks, Outpost and Rich's. As in previous years, fund-raising costs were underwritten by Soiree Aubergine Host Committee fees and sponsors' in-kind contributions, allowing 100 percent of monies raised to be contributed directly to Bering Community Service Foundation.

WIGS ON FIRE MAKES HOT COMEBACK

Charity Event Resurrected by The Miss Camp America Foundation, Inc.

HOUSTON — The Miss Camp America Foundation, Inc., recently resurrected the Wigs On Fire party, Saturday, June 13. With the combined efforts of Ken Hoge and the original group of Wigs On Fire founders, the party had a two-fold purpose. The first mission was to kick-off Houston's Gay Pride Celebration, and the second goal was to raise funds for the designated charities.

Both objectives were met, and the party was a huge success.

The attendees for the event were attired in everything from disco chic to very "bad" wigs. The highlight of the evening was a concert performance by Martha Wash. She wowed the crowd with her newest hits and closed with "It's Raining Men," her all time favorite. The crowd packed the dance floor all night due to the tunes that were spun by deejay Dan Meador, Channel 11's own weatherman.

Just before Martha Wash's concert, Mr. Gerry Clifton, the evening's emcee, announced that the event had raised in excess of $15,000 for the designated charities. The funds will be combined with the year long efforts of the Foundation and presented the evening of the 30th annual Miss Camp America Pageant, September 19, at the Cullen Performance Hall on the University of Houston Campus.

HOLLYFIELD CONFERENCE CENTER CELEBRATES GRAND OPENING

The Hollyfield Foundation Opens Meeting Facilities for Gay and Lesbian Civil Rights and HIV/AIDS Organizations

HOUSTON — The Hollyfield Foundation Board of Directors and staff welcomed nearly 300 guests, including United States Congresswoman Sheila Jackson Lee, City of Houston Controller Sylvia Garcia and Houston City Council member Annise Parker, at a reception held at the new conference facilities. The Hollyfield Conference Center was open Sunday, June 7, with the evening's fare generously provided by Jackson Hicks and Company.

The Hollyfield Conference Center, located in the historic villa at 2700 Albany in the heart of the Midtown/Montrose district provides meeting and conference facilities to the general public and offers the facilities to gay and lesbian community-based organizations at a reduced rate. The final design of the new center is the result of a needs assessment survey conducted by The Hollyfield Foundation in 1997. The construction bid was awarded in February of 1998, and work began March 4.

The Hollyfield Foundation has provided over 3,000 square feet of interior space and 2,000 square feet of outdoor gardens for the center. The project has been a collaborative effort between The Hollyfield Foundation and The Elliot H. Matthews Foundation, who have committed nearly $150,000 for the renovation. The Hollyfield Foundation was endowed by Jay Hollyfield in 1994. Since then the Foundation has distributed in excess of $150,000 to 501(c)(3) organizations whose missions are grounded in the attainment of gay and lesbian civil rights and assistance to those living with AIDS.

Now that construction is complete, the Foundation has begun to furnish the offices and conference rooms, much of which has been made possible by a generous grant from the LTR Lewis Cloverdale Foundation, Inc. Phase II of the Conference Center also includes plans to landscape the adjacent 2,000 square feet of gardens by year's end.

The Hollyfield Center is the former site of the DePelchin Faith Home and has been home to many well-known businesses and organizations over the years. Its former tenants range in diversity from the American Red Cross to Risky Business Cabaret. This graceful, three-story Italianate villa is designated as a Texas and National Historic Landmark.

Executive director, Alan Cranfill, announced that "the Foundation is deeply committed to providing a beautiful facility where the community will be proud to gather, raise funds, hold educational meetings, business conferences and other events." For more information on the Foundation, call (713)523-6900.

Deejays and Writers and Drag Queens... Oh My!

After preview parties in Austin, Dallas and San Antonio, the final touches are being made on the ultimate party which descends upon Houston this upcoming Fourth of July weekend. The weekend long party, entitled "Red, White and You!" is being presented to raise funds for City of Hope National Institute HIV/AIDS Research Programs and the Body Positive Houston Wellness Center.

The event has received national media coverage as it plans to bring circuit talents from around the country. Deejays from each corner of the continent will travel to Space City to entertain what promises to be hundreds of people from cities across the nation.

36-year-old, Rafael M. will be just one of the talents spinning mixes throughout the weekend. Born in Niece, France, Rafael now calls Los Angeles home where he is the co-owner of Prime Cuts Records, one of LA's largest independent record stores geared toward deejays and dance music. He spends his time deejaying at Rage in Hollywood on Sunday nights, as well as working every major club in LA, including Probe, Arena, El Rey and Axis. "I have been spinning music for about twelve years now, and the best part about it is the places I've seen and more importantly, the great people I have met." Rafael has played Miami, Chicago, San Francisco, Seattle and his most "memorable event," Melbourne, Australia. Rafael will be mixing the tunes for partygoers at the Big Bang! party at the Rooftop at 3400 Montrose, Saturday, July 4, from 7 - 11 p.m.

BY SEAN CARTER

Another guest artist, who will be entertaining the crowds of Independence Day partiers, hails from Philadelphia. Brian Norwood is 27-years-old and has been deejaying for five years. He has worked parties in San Francisco, Washington, D.C., the Palladium in New York, Boston, Fire Island, Chicago, and Detroit. He will also be appearing at the Gay Games in Amsterdam this August with Frankie Knuckles, as well as the Morning Party Week '98 at Fire Island Pines. Brian has co-produced/remixed several dance releases that have had international recognition and chart success, most notably Marqus' "Dream of the Mind." Brian has also mixed two CD compilations, Spin This, Volumes 4 and 5, which have both reached Advocate Magazine's top ten selling status. Brian will be spinning tunes at the Red, White and You! party Saturday night, July 4, from 10 p.m. - 3 a.m. at Hornberger Center, 2151 Holcombe. He will then continue through the night at the Lost in Space! party at Rich's, 2401 San Jacinto from 3 - 10 a.m.

The talents will continue from Miami, with the workings of Danny M. From Studio 54 to New York City's Sound Factory, Danny M's appearances have been widespread. On a recent visit to Italy, a German underground magazine described his style as "progressive and screamin'...his sets are a unique amalgamation of deep house and techno delights with delirious effects." Danny M spends the majority of his time these days working in his new studio, Casa Marie, where he produces music for Italian-label Forza Internazionale and the Malibu Mix Mondial, which will soon be aired weekly in 30 markets across Latin America. Danny M will be showing off his talents this month in the UK, when he plays at Scream, the London scene rave party that brings the house down for the 3000 Brits that show up in full swing. Danny will be making guest appearances throughout the weekend and will close the extravanga alongside Rafael M and Ric Herrington.

To top off the talents of the mixmasters for the weekend, no party would be complete without one of our own, Texan Ric Herrington. Now calling Dallas his home, Ric has deejayed for the past twelve years in both Dallas and New Orleans. He has created a great atmosphere at events such as Abracadabra in Pensacola, White Party, Southern Decadence and Mardi Gras in New Orleans, and House of Heat in Dallas. Ric is also one of only one hundred weekly reporters in the United States for Billboard Magazine, which entitles him to receive many new releases from record labels weekly, to be tested and charted. Ric will open the weekend at the Blast Off! welcome party at Rich's, 2401 San Jacinto, from 9 p.m. - 4 a.m.

Along with the many talented deejays that will be coming into Houston for the event, writer George Wayne will be making an appearance. Jamaican-born, Wayne claims to be somewhere between 35 and 40 years old. He is a contributing editor at Interview and Vanity Fair. He is also the founding editor of the "snotty style and gossip" journal R.O.M.E. Wayne contributes to the Hamptons, Ocean Drive and authored Male Super Models: The Men of Boss Models. Wayne's casually up-front personality can be seen in his many celebrity interviews which have graced the pages of, as stated by George Wayne, "the most influential magazine about popular culture in the world today," Vanity Fair. Just read some of his interviews, and you'll understand why he would be quite an addition to any party.

Writer George Wayne

Well this is a gay and lesbian hosted affair, so we must find time for a little bit of drag! One of the highlights for the weekend will be the world-renowned, Kitty Meow from Miami Beach. This female impersonator has traveled throughout the world performing for thousands of people in various clubs, circuit parties and benefits. He has toured the US and Europe. He is booked in Rio this September and is very excited to be coming back to Texas as he explained, "I can't wait, because everything is bigger and better in Texas!" Kitty will be hosting the closing party/brunch/tea dance, Mission Accomplished!, at Spy Club and Lounge, 112 Travis, from noon to 2 a.m., along with music hosted by all the forementioned deejays.

And speaking of bigger and better in Texas, our own Yolanda has found quite a bit of attention being thrown her way after standing center stage for the event's publicity posters which have been advertised nationwide. As stated by Yolanda, a.k.a. Steve Welch, "Yolanda is a character created with the State of Texas in mind. Yolanda loves big bars, big hair and Texas glamour...another way to express a fun and creative side of my personality!" Yolanda has participated in numerous fund-raising events and modeled for Karl Lagerfeld's 1995 Spring Line at Saks Pavillion. Yolanda is also Miss Gay Texas World 1996. This Houstonian spends his weekend s working at Rich's nightclub, one of the hosts for the weekend-long party, and will be making guest appearances during the event.

Drag Queen Yolanda

Red, White and You! promises to be an exciting, non-stop, adventurous way to celebrate the Fourth of July Weekend. With the many talents coming in from around the country, as well as the many partygoers coming in from around the world, this is one event that you will not want to miss. SAN ANTONIO TEA — Tonight, the Saint's Beach Ball '98 will offer you a rare chance to bust out in that new swimsuit or just check out those that dare to go bare.

Rumor has it that newest Saint bartender Hank [left] doesn't wear much of anything under his clothes, which may be reason enough to stop by. Clothes check will be available for the less adventurous travelers, and cash prizes will be given for sexiest beachwear. Shady Lady hosts the event, and of course, the hottest male dancers on the planet will be on hand to entice the masses. This Tuesday, June 30, Texas legend Pauletta Leigh will host the June finals for her infamous amateur talent night. Many a Texas entertainer has risen from the ranks of Pauletta's talent night and gone on to make their mark on the drag world and you can, too. Showtime is at 11:30 p.m. Super low drink prices abound, and who knows, maybe a star will be born. This Sunday, the nationally known Saint Super Sunday Show cast, featuring Shady Lady, Pauletta Leigh and Erica Andrews, welcomes Miss Gay San Antonio USofA Monique Johnson and Miss Gay Houston USofA Lindsey Love. Both gals are top contenders for the Miss Gay Texas USofA title scheduled to take place on the Saint stage August 20-23...get Layla LaRue in the show, and we could just have the contest this Sunday....

The Bonham Exchange welcomed former Kids In The Hall star Scott Thompson [above,c] last Thursday night following his appearance at the River Center Comedy Club. Our CRUISE CAMERA captured him embracing some of his fans. Stop by the Bonham and be your own star every Monday for Shanté "Sir Bump-a-lot" Whitney's Monday Night Talent Search. Cash prizes to the winners and super low drink prices make for an evening not to be missed....

Hollywood's CatPatch has opened and is enjoying crowds of folks eager to party the night away. We found party animals Irene, Arlene, Lorenzo and Bertha [above, l-r] enjoying the sights and sounds of the new club last weekend. Saturday, July 4, the club will feature the Miss Gay Alamo City International Pageant, an official prelim to the Miss Gay Texas International Pageant. Special guests will include Miss Texas International Jade DeSanté and Miss Gay International Cinnamon Sweet. Applications are available at the club....

The Eagle Mountain Saloon reminds everyone to attend the "Changing of the Guard" party this weekend. New owners will take over the country and western club this weekend, and everyone is invited to the festivity scheduled to start at 6 p.m. and continue until the wee hours....

The Annex has announced that yet another convenience has been added for their customers, a full service ATM terminal which will accept all major credit cards and debit cards. Look for their ad in this week's issue (we found it easier to turn the magazine upside-down than to stand on our head) for all the details on this week's party schedule for SA's hottest little cruise bar....

David and Rick [right,l-r] were just two of the folks living it up at the infamous annual Bullfrog birthday bash last weekend. Stop by, continue the party each and every Monday and see the famous towel boys on the bar and famous drink-slingers like Casey and Joel behind the bar. While you're there, slip out to the Alamo City's only smoke free bar, the South Beach Skylight Room just off the pool/beach area at Pegasus. With so much to do in one place, you can spend your vacation on the strip...now if they would add a bunkhouse and grocery, we could all just move in.

PAGEANT TEA — San Antonio pageant lovers were treated to the 1998 Miss Gay

Alamo City USofA Pageant last weekend at the Saint. At the end of the evening, beautiful and talented Corinna Foxx was crowned the 1998 winner, to the sheer delight of the everyone in attendance. The

AUSTINteaCIOUS — With the onset of 100+ degrees, our city has flocked to the lake. All over Lake Travis, we see people skiing and using personal watercraft. They are even laying out on the rocks, acting as human solar panels absorbing energy to be used at a later date. These two studs [above] were clearly replenishing....

Charlie's is all about partying. You can find your weekly dose of cruising, drag and dancing here at Austin's oldest gay bar. For fourteen years, Charlie's has provided our city with a festive atmosphere and many, many memories. This past Thursday was no exception. The bodacious Brigett Boday [right] was rocking the house. She and hostess Nacha Type had the crowd begging for more. Tuesday with Jame Perry's amateur strip contest was no exception to the rule, either. Whether it's Jame, the dancers, or the quarter beer you can satisfy your desires. The Super Sunday Show was out of this world. Tommie Ross showed us all why she has already won every title there is on earth! Daddy Wayne is still cooking up steaks on Tuesdays. For a mere $5, you get a great piece of beef. Now where else can you get it so cheap?...

The Edge is as fun a place as you will find downtown. The guys are cute; the girls are pretty, and you never know who will go home with whom. A bar full of fence jumpers is always a challenge for you boys who like the thrill of the chase. Kristen Lucci is a gal that likes a chase. Last week at her strip off, she had to chase this boy around the bar to finally get his pants off. You would have thought she was working Congress. Frequency Thursday is a wax-attack of high-energy tunes that will definitely keep your blood pumping and your hips grinding....

'Bout Time has been on a roll this summer. Between the fund-raisers, the volleyball and TGIF "cruise" Friday, everyone is having a ball. Monty and Paul tell us that last Friday they were personally responsible for putting three sets of quiet shy boys together, and the ladies all but put the guys to shame in the annual co-ed volleyball tournament, last week. It was so cute!...

Dick's Deja Disco has become one of the places on everyone's list of stops on the nightly rounds. Each time we head in for our dose of "boogie fever," we are greeted by the sight of people "getting down" and "getting funky." The weekly pool tournaments are quickly becoming a favorite of the competition players. It probably has something to do with free pool on certain nights. This past weekend, the shower dancers were, of course, lathering themselves into a frenzy of foam. Several of the patrons offered to "scrub their backs" and/or backsides for them, but to no avail. Better luck next time guys. You never know when someone will drop the soap....

Splash Video Bar is the newest hot spot on the scene. Between the fantasy men on the videos and the studly men cruising, it is hard not to be swept into the sexual energy of the club. Last weekend, we all had to applaud two boys who forgot they were not alone and provided quite a show for the whole bar. Management had to stop them one step before becoming a misdemeanor. Darn those public decency laws! These are just two of the handsome men you will find partying and cruising. We understand they are both single and looking for husbands....

The Forum has a plethora of festivities for your enjoyment. Starting Wednesday, July 12, Heather Thomas will be adding The Dating Game to her weekly variety show. See her or manager Greg for details on how to be a contestant. All you single guys need to give this a shot. You have already tried personal ads and the chat rooms so why not try this, too. After all, there are prizes to be won. All this is in concert with "Back to the Boathouse" music night. DeeJay Zack spins 'til you think he can't possibly have anything else to spin, but then he is just getting warmed up. The goddess Kelly Kline is your star search hostess on Thursdays and your best chest hostess on Sundays. Whether you want to strut in heels or pump your pectorals, she is the one to put you in the spotlight. The cutie twins Ryan and Noah have stolen everyone's hearts. We love them. From what we hear, so do a lot of people. Speaking of hearing things, Jerry and Scott (left) are your happy hour bartenders. We all know they hear the scoop on everyone. If you have dirt or want dirt, stop in for HH. We hate to gossip, but when we need some, we go to them.

JAMES ROBLES
MAY 9, 1960 - JUNE 16, 1998

James died unexpectedly from a heart-attack at his home in Houston. James was founder of The Maleman Funzine which was distributed throughout Texas.

A memorial service will be held for James tomorrow, June 27, at the Memorial Oaks Funeral Home Chapel at 13001 Katy Freeway at 1:30 p.m.

James published the Maleman Funzine from 1993 to 1996. He was a successful stock investor, and in addition, he worked as a commercial real estate agent, managed the Adam's Mark Restaurant and worked for the Houston Police Officers Association during his 10 years in Houston. James was a very talented designer, artist and a wonderful cook. More importantly, he was a wonderful father and a very caring, giving man. He lived life to the fullest everyday.

James was born in San Antonio, but lived most of his life in Oregon, California and here in Houston.

Survivors include his mother, sister, three brothers, his daughters Yoshie and Ashley, his longtime friend David Baker, his loyal dog Valentino, and his life companion Larry Dehart.

Dear James,

You left so suddenly that it is very hard for me to believe. You were always so concerned and looking for me. I wish I could have done more for you the night you left us. We had a very special and unique relationship, and you know I loved you very much. I know you would have done anything for me, and I will always treasure our memories of the last 10 years, the trips, the business ventures, your great cooking, the music, your smile, your laugh and just being you. Everyday with you was an adventure, and I thank God I had someone who cared for me and who I cared for so much.

I pray that you are in a better place, and I will miss you more than you will ever know.

Love,
David

My darling husband James Robles,

I pledge allegiance to the heavens above. Tonight to you baby, I pledge my love, for every dream you made come true, for all the love I found in you. You're the one that held me up and never let me fall. I'm everything because I was loved by you, but all that I am and all that I'll be means nothing at all if you can't be with me. Yesterday's gone, it may be true, but I'll never ever get over you. And even though it hurts, I'll never give you up. I've held you tight and pushed you away. Now with all my might, I beg you to stay. I'm sure I can face the bitter cold, but life without you, I just don't know. I know I can't keep you here with me anymore so I must ask you to go on your way. But here deep in my heart you will stay. Now leave this lonely world of ours; escape the sorrows and the pain and fly where only angels sing. Fly away, the time is right. Go on now, and the light. So close your eyes, and let me kiss you. And while you sleep I will miss you. Just remember, baby, that I love you, and you'll always be in my heart. One day I'll cross over the rainbow to where you are, then together we can chase our dreams once more.

I will love you always
Your turtle eye
Larry Dehart Robles

Craig Alan Roeder

Craig passed away on June 16, 1998 doing what he loved best, lighting design. He died just hours before the grand opening gala for what will, undoubtedly, be another hallmark project in Craig's long list of accomplishments in lighting design.

Craig was more than just lights. He was also an accomplished friend, full of compassion, generosity and love.
