REVIEWED BY STEVEN LINDSEY

Why waste your money on movies this summer? Red, White and Tuna has everything all those big budget behemoths have to offer — and much, much more! If you don't believe me, just sit back, grab a Spamburger and a Moonpie and compare this list from Tuna against any of the movies in current release: (Just think of the money the studios could save by hiring Jaston Williams and Joe Sears to star in all their movies!)

Gone With The Wind

Scarlett may have had the Civil War as a grand backdrop for her delicate escapades in this re-release, but that ain't nothin' compared to the drama and pageantry of the crowning of the Tuna High School Reunion Queen. That's right, at the heart of the third Tuna installment is a bitter war between Pearl Burras, Vera Carp and Didi Snavelly, and you'll never guess who wins! It's a hoot-and-a-half from start to finish watching the town work itself into a frenzy over the reunion festivities.

Titanic

Tuna may be too hot for an iceberg, but it's not too hot for the kind of sizzling, epic romance that Leo and Kate had on the high seas. If you remember how A Tuna Christmas ended, then you'll know what could be in store for star-crossed lovers Bertha Bumiller and Arles Struvie. Their continued courtship is at the core of this trilogy-ender, and although you may never see nude portraits of Bertha painted by Arles, I promise that you'll see something equally tantalizing and oh, so ooh-la-la!

Summer Movies Have Nothing On Tuna, Texas!

Armageddon

There's something headed straight for Tuna, Texas that's every bit as threatening as a giant asteroid, and it's Aunt Pearl's famous potato salad! But never fear, Tastee Kreme cuties Inita Goodwin and Helen Bedd are back on duty at the Reunion food booth and are the only ones in town with the power to destroy the evil spud concoction. As in Tuna Christmas, the scene with these two wacky waitresses proves to be the backdrop for a dizzying array of costume and character changes, so keep a-watchin'!

Godzilla

Who could ignore the similarities between Godzilla's giant, fire-breathing monster out to destroy New York City and Tuna's very own fire-breathing monster, Vera Carp? Yes, good ol' Vera's back and at her bigoted best trying to wreak prudish havoc on poor little Tuna. This time, the Smut Snatchers of the New Order has spawned the equally culturally debilitating Prayer Posse and Vera's roarin' at the top of her lungs to clean up all those horrid church hymns. Thanks to Vera, you may never hear "Jesus Loves the Little Children" the same way ever again. And poor, poor Lupe, Vera's maid. Will she ever get a day off?

Hope Floats

While oh-so-perky Sandra Bullock returns to her Texas home and finds true love, it's not quite like the homecoming in store for dazed-and-confused hippies Amber Windchime and Star Birdfeather when they leave the Gotham-like metropolis of Lubbock to attend the Tuna Reunion. Amber and Star are the two new characters on the block, but they are as fresh and funny as any of the citizens we're so familiar with already. Their road trip to Tuna scene is like totally far out, man. Like hilarious, you know?

The X-Files: Fight the Future

Sure, Mulder and Scully fight aliens in the big-screen version of the hit TV show, but once again, Tuna's got 'em beat with its own aliens, of both the intergalactic and illegal varieties. One of the cliffhangers in A Tuna Christmas had Didi's slow-witted husband, R.R., willingly boarding a U.F.O. like it was some kind of Cosmic Carnival Cruise. Now, he only has one day to return to Tuna from the Great Beyond before Didi divorces him. If he does come back, he better be prepared, because Didi's meaner than ever and three times as funny! She's got plenty to keep her busy, too (what with her new Kervorkianesque duties with fed-up director Joe Bob Lipsey). You'll just have to watch to see who comes out of Didi's used weapons alive this time.

Mulan

Yeah, yeah, a Chinese girl pretends to be a guy to fight in a war and save her father. Cute, but she's got the entire Walt Disney Studio helping her pull off the illusion. What do Jaston and Joe have? Nothing but costumes and the incredible talent to portray 11 different characters each during the course of one show. No matter how many times I've seen them in the Tuna series, I will always be amazed at how seamlessly they transform themselves into the zany denizens of teeny-tiny Tuna. Like Mulan, however, it's when they're portraying the opposite sex that their performances spark the kind of electricity that makes live theatre such a thrill.

Any Summer Sequel

There aren't as many sequels this summer, and that's because in general, sequels — well, suck. And that, my dears, is where Red, White and Tuna really sparkles. Not only is it a sequel, it's a (as Didi Snavelly would say) "...damn good one!" Like any good sequel, it's got all the right elements of familiar faces for waxing nostalgic, new characters to spice things up and a plot that weaves it all together into one titillating tapestry. Of course, you don't have to have seen the previous two Tunas to enjoy this one, but you'll certainly get more of the jokes. Charlene Bumiller need only walk on stage this time to get one of the biggest laughs of the show (and of course I'm not going to tell you why). Granted, it'll still be funny to newcomers, but it's the deep-rooted involvement with Charlene and the other classic characters that allows a lot to go unsaid and still be crystal clear to the audience.

The End

The saddest thing about reviewing this third installment is that it's reportedly the last. However, at least they're going out on the highest note possible — actually surpassing the first two in the series for a trilogy that only Star Wars could possibly rival. As writers, that's something of which Williams, Sears and Ed Howard definitely should be incredibly proud. Perhaps the constant Hollywood comparison in this review will spark the studio honchos to make Greater Tuna: The Movie, where all the characters could actually interact on screen at the same time! But until that glorious day, you better not pass up the chance to drive on down to the best reunion you'll ever attend — Red, White and Tuna.

The world premiere tour of Red, White and Tuna runs through this weekend from Casa Mañana at the beautiful Bass Performance Hall in Fort Worth. For remaining tickets, showtimes and prices, call (817)332-CASA (2272).

After Fort Worth, the tour continues in Galveston at the Grand 1894 Opera House. For ticket or showtime information, call (800)821-1894.

The Opposite of Sex... In Search of Committed Relationships

Be careful what you wish for because you just might get it. It seems as though, all of a sudden, we're being bombarded with more gay and lesbian themed movies than we can see. Don't get me wrong. I think it's great and long overdue. I really do. It's just that with so much more to choose from, maybe now we can afford to be a little choosy. It's not enough these days to have a gay connection; it helps if the movie is actually good. And The Opposite of Sex is not bad.

Now, in case you think I'm damning it with faint praise, that's not exactly my intent. It's just that the film is billed as "...a really biting satire on America's ignorance, ...the whole puritanical Calvinistic sexual mish-mash that is '90's America." This is an exact quote from the press release. I love these things. The problem is, the "mish-mash" may be a little over-stated. Here's the plot:

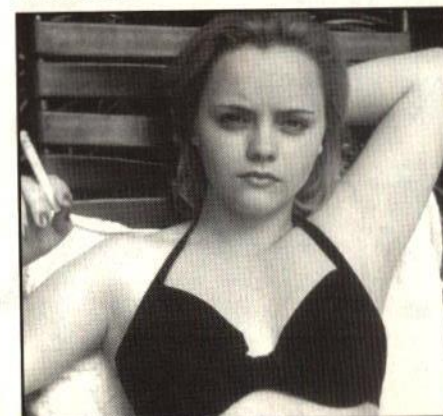

Sixteen-year-old DeDee Truitt (Christina Ricci), after behaving in an unseemly manner during her step-father's funeral, splits from her white trash Louisiana family to move in with her gay half-brother Bill (Martin Donovan), a high-school English teacher in a quiet Indiana town. Bill's lover has died of AIDS and left him independently wealthy. And, oh yes, Bill has a boyfriend, Matt (Ivan Sergei) with whom he's trying to start life anew. The cast is rounded out by Bill's deceased lover's sister Lucia (Lisa Kudrow), who can't seem to stay out of Bill's life, and a not-quite-ex-boyfriend of Matt's, Jason (Johnny Galecki).

O.K. now, DeDee proceeds (in rapid succession) to seduce Matt, persuade him to steal $10,000 from Bill, convince Matt that she's pregnant with his child and leave for

REVIEWED BY GARY LAIRD

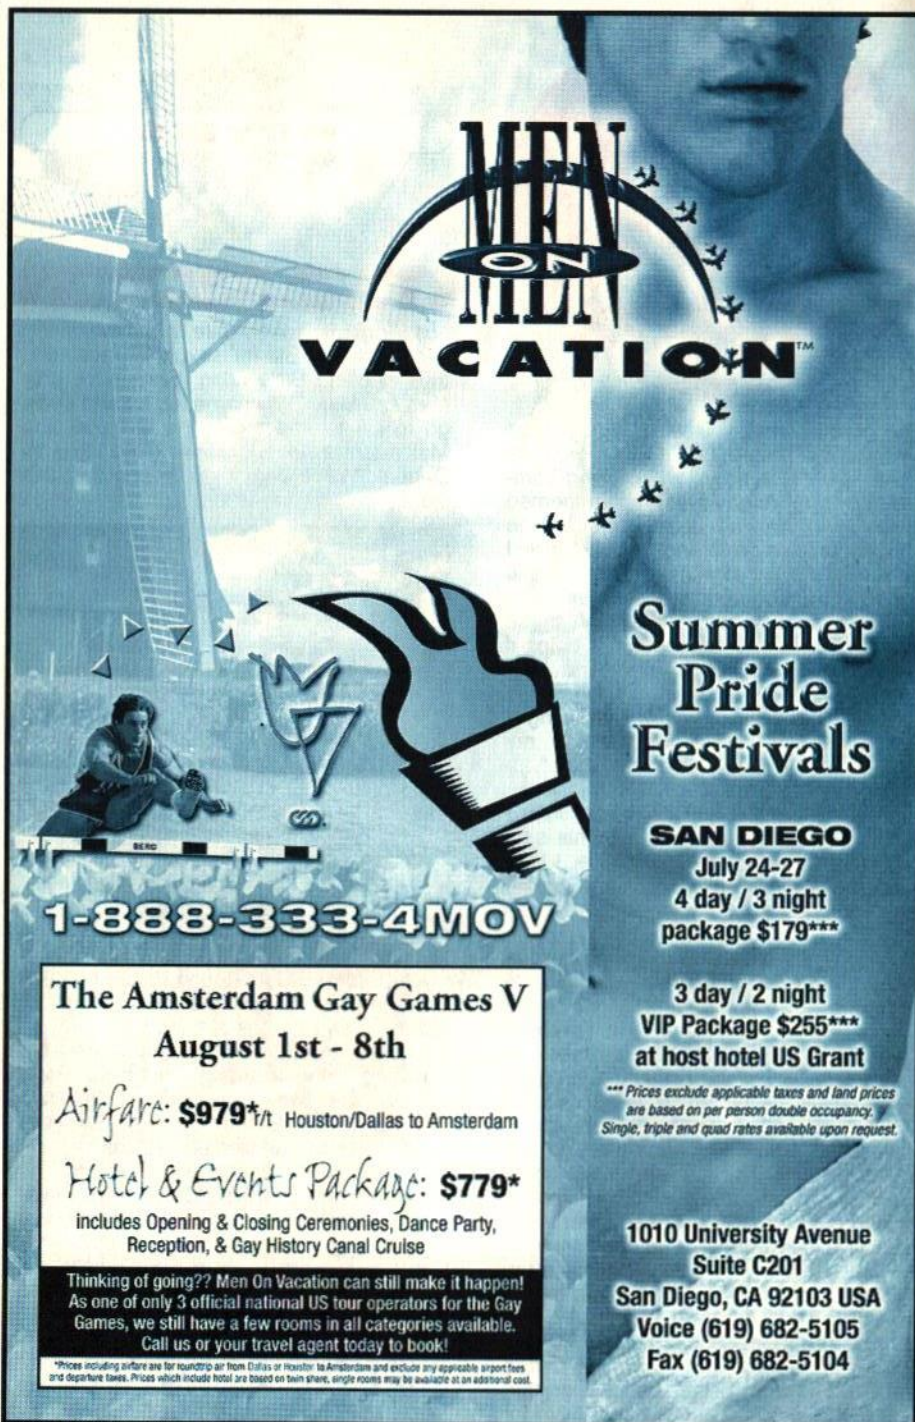

Los Angeles. Meanwhile, jilted boyfriend Jason frames Bill for sexual harassment, thus causing Bill's firing. Somehow, only Matt can clear Bill's name, so he and Lucia go to LA to find them, the $10,000 and Matt's former lover's ashes (also lifted by DeDee). We're beginning to see that this kid is trouble.

Christina Ricci is DeDee Truitt in The Opposite Of Sex.

Oh, I forgot. Carl Tippet (Lyle Lovett) is the sheriff of the Indiana town where Bill teaches, and he has a thing for Lucia, so he follows them to LA, too. And here's the amazing thing: although none of them have a clue where anybody is, they find everybody almost immediately. So now, (and I quote the press release again), "Lessons of life and love are learned as they all confront and explore their own sexuality, learn to let go of their traditional beliefs and ultimately discover that what they really want is what DeDee calls the opposite of sex - lasting, committed and loving relationships." Wow!

By now you can see that the plot of this film is a little on the convoluted side, and I haven't even given you all of it, for two reasons: one, I'm not sure you'd believe me, and two, I don't want to spoil the ending. Let's just say it doesn't get any more coherent.

The problem with this film, for me, is also what's good about it. The story is narrated by Dedee, and seldom has a more politically-incorrect voice been put in charge of a movie. That's her schtick. Dedee says anything and everything that comes into her head, and much of it is very funny. The trouble is some of it shouldn't be, and about half-way through the story I began to get the uncomfortable feeling that maybe she meant it and that maybe, I shouldn't be laughing. It's unsettling. True, there is a half-hearted attempt at redemption in the end, but I didn't quite buy it.

So, there it is. The cast is quite good. Ricci as Dedee never falters. Donovan's Bill is kind and earnest. Sergei as Matt is ditzzy and majorly cute. One of my favorite lines of Dedee's is "Pretty, stupid people always survive. And they have pretty, stupid children, and they always survive. It's evolution at work." Lisa Kudrow departs a little from her Friends persona here, but Lucia is so pathetic, it's difficult to sustain concern. And Johnny Galecki, an alumnus of Rosanne, does a nice turn as Jason, with just the right combination of sleaze and cluelessness.

The Opposite of Sex, at bottom, is a good picture gone just a little bit wrong, but the fun is there. It's a good date movie. Just make sure to get your popcorn before you go in. Miss one minute of this one, and you'll never catch up.

The Opposite of Sex is currently being screend in Houston at Landmark Greenway Theater (713)626-0402, Landmark River Oaks 3 (713)524-2175 and in Dallas at Landmark Inwood (214)352-6040.

Over the past year we've constantly told you about hard to find dance mixes of those fabulous Lisa Stansfield songs. I can't tell you how many e-mails we get asking if we know where to scrape some up. At last Arista has gone and put them all together on a cute double vinyl set and a CD. Here you'll find that awesome Hex Hector remix of "I'm Leavin'," as well as the dance versions of "The Real Thing," "Never Never Gonna Give You Up (two mixes)," "Never Gonna Fall (two mixes)," "The Line" and "People Hold On." O.k. ladies, I know you've been jonesin' for these for a while, so run out and grab your copy and show the boys at Arista that they were the tea for putting this out. Yummy!!

The tea on Hazell "Searchin', lookin' for love" Dean: a few weeks ago we told you that Hazell and MRK Records' Marina were quite cozy in the studio together. Well, what has popped out is a very cute cover of "Sisters Are Doin' It For Themselves" (the Annie Lennox and Aretha Franklin classic). Hazell flew in to the Big Apple last Wednesday, and by

Groove Collective

Sunday afternoon at NYC's Gay Pride Christopher Street Dance, the two unveiled the song in front of a few hundred thousand screaming sisters! What a thrill for all who were there. At the moment, there are remixes in the works, and rumor has it that Julian Marsh (of Circuit fame) might be one of the candidates to tackle the job. If all works out as planned the two will pop out a collaboration of original material sometime next year. Look for a FRESH BEAT interview with Hazell in a few...Woork!!!

All the really cool people are reeling over the new Groove Collective album, Dance of the Drunken Master. Their third album finds the six-year-old group going strong on a new label (Shanachie). GC are the ambassadors of groovin', funk'n', dancin' music that'll make you float, dance, and dream. These fine 14 new tunes will find you drumming your feet into the floor as your brain cells drift into a cosmos of undeniably organic and distinctive grooves.

Jamming counter-grooves with DeeJay Smash at Giant Step back in '90, the heady jazz-dance vapors of Dance of the Drunken Master were but a wild dream for GC founders. Maintaining the club's jazz-hop vibe was the reality. Soon, word of their live freestyle sessions began to attract all kinds of musicians, known and unknown. In a NY minute, a defacto house band of some of the best young jazz, funk and latin players in town formed. Thanks to their late-night shows and opening slots for acts like Roy Ayers, Ohio Players, and Brand New Heavies, this once-loose amalgam solidified to define the new era, traveling the world, moving crowds and blowing minds.

Today the Acid Jazz movement has been absorbed by the mainstream, leaving many bands behind. Groove Collective has long since moved on, playing a unique sound that embodies the old African proverb, "Out of many comes one." "Through touring, traveling around the world and getting to play with bands we really respect from many different genres, we've picked up a certain level of focus and clarity about the music as something we're going to do for our whole lives, so we take it a little more seriously," muses NAPPY G. "It's definitely the common language around the world and it makes you realize it's not just your little scene, it's connected to other things." And that's Dance Music THIS WEEK IN TEXAS.

WHERE WERE YOU WHEN...

10 years ago:

...Charlie's in Austin had $5 Liquor Bust and $2 Beer Bust on Sundays. Wrangler's was Houston's newest country and western bar. Heaven served 50¢ well drinks - all night long, and Rich's even offered a couple of hours for free Sunday well drinks! The Bonham Exchange in San Antonio celebrated its seventh anniversary, and Village Station in Dallas served 25¢ beer and well drinks on Mondays!

In the news, Houston had just finished its 10-day Gay Pride celebration with co-chairs Deborah Bell and Bruce Reeves. Dallas just hosted the grand opening of the AIDS Resource Summer Food Drive '88, and the Little vs. Randall's Case (where gay employee Steven Little was falsely believed to have AIDS and was fired from Randall's Food Market) ended favorably.

Tommie Ross was Miss Gay USA, and the Paper Moon in San Antonio was featuring Pauletta Leigh, Casey Starr, Shady Lady, Amanda Hall and Sweet Savage. Mattie Walker of Fort Worth was crowned Miss Texas Newcomer, and Jennifer St. John won Miss Travis County. Valerie Lohr was first alternate to Vickie Vincent at the Miss Midwest Pageant, and Miss Southwest Donna Day moved from Houston to Dallas.

The Mr. Southwest Drummer Contest was held at the Ripcord in Houston, and the winner was Wes Decker. In Austin, Harold Bahr won the All American Boy Contest.

20 years ago:

...In Dallas Crews Inn had 50¢ beer and well happy hour, The Boot Camp had its boys bar at 2506 Fitzhugh and its girls bar at 2508 Fitzhugh, while the Fraternity House was right up the street. The El Jardin in San Antonio served 90¢ cocktails, always! Midtowne Spa charged $10 for a year's membership while Club Houston charged $1.99 for lockers, and The Locker on Westheimer had free beer bust on Tuesdays! The BRB had a western shop, and The Barn advertised as "Houston's Friendliest Country Western Bar."

In Houston, Al Parker was the star attraction at Studz on West Alabama, where they also advertised the best deal on Poppers! The Old Plantation had 10¢ bar drinks all night on Wednesdays, and Dirty Sally's hosted Toys for Tots Beer Bust Benefit.

The Eyes of Laura Mars was the preview review, and Grease took the lead in the box office over Jaws 2.

And finally, some of the popular songs as reported in HOT TEA were Boogie Oogie Oogie - Taste of Honey, Last Dance - Donna Summer, If My Friends Could See Me Now - Linda Clifford, En El Copa - Barry Manilow and After Dark - Patti Brooks.

Center Food Pantry, and the University of Texas Campus Co-op Bookstore decided to eliminate their "gay studies" section. Houston Mayor Kathryn Whitmire approved $525,000 to be spent converting a Montrose apartment complex into a PWA housing project, and the Montrose Clinic opened its new Women's Health Program. The Dallas Gay Alliance (DGA) elected new board members Charles Howard, Bruce Monroe, Bill Nelson, Jeff Campbell and John Rogers. AIDS Services Austin (ASA) held its

Coming to a theatre near you!

In Dallas at the Pocket Sandwich Theatre, the final performance of Everything You Thought You Knew About Sex...Is Wrong will be presented tomorrow, July 4. This comedy performed by the Budgies, one of Dallas' newest and funniest comedy troupes is one of the most dynamic audience participation improvisation you'll ever see. The show begins at 11:15 p.m. Starting tonight, July 3, the Main Stage will be presenting The Ghost of Glamis, by Joe Dickinson. This is another one of the Pocket's infamous audience participation, popcorn-tossing, comedy-spoofs about ghostly goings-on in a haunted Scottish castle during World War II. Ghost runs through August 15. The ticket prices for this Main Stage Show are $6 on Thursdays, $10 on Fridays, $12 on Saturdays and $8 on Sundays. Showtime is at 8 p.m. (7 p.m. on Sundays), with food and beverage service one and a half hours prior. The theatre is located at 5400 East Mockingbird, Suite 119. For reservations or more information, call (214)821-1860....

In Austin, the Planet Theatre, 2307 Manor Road, will be hosting a one-night only reading of a new play by Aaron Brown, Norm L. The reading will be held Tuesday, July 7, at 7:30 p.m. with free admission. Norm L is a stunning and rebellious look at bigotry, religion, sexual freedom, violence and domestic terrorism. Also at the Planet Theatre, Annie Sprinkle shows off her muscle in Austin.

Annie Sprinkle's Herstory of Porn - Reel to Real, will be presented July 9-12 at 8 p.m., with additional 10:30 p.m. performances on Friday and Saturday. You don't have to like porn to love this show, which is really about personal growth, sex in society and the human body. For the past quarter, Annie Sprinkle has explored sexuality in all of its most glorious (and inglorious) forms, and continues in this solo performance and film diary that traces her 25-year evolution through the sexual revolution. Tickets are $15 for the Thursday performance and also for the 10:30 p.m. Friday and Saturday shows, $18 for Friday's 8 p.m. show (which is for women only or men dressed as women), and $20 for Saturday's and Sunday's 8 p.m. showings. Seating is limited. Advanced purchase is recommended. For more information, call (512)478-LAVA (5282)....

The Actors Workshop of Houston presents Ray Hill in a one man autobiographical show, The Prison Years, this Wednesday, July 8, in the Little Room Downstairs. The show is produced by Diana Weeks and directed by Walter Boyd. Showtime is 8 p.m., and tickets are $10. For more information, call (713) 523-2802. Actors Workshop is also presenting Agatha Christie Made Me Do It, through July 18. Director Michael Sullivan describes the play as "a mystery with brains, that tells a story of a not-too-bright, retired cop who tries to solve a murder case by using one of Dame Agatha's books as a 'how to' manual." Performances will be held at the Workshop, 1009 Chartres, Fridays and Saturdays at 8 p.m. with Sunday matinees at 4 p.m. Tickets are $8 and $10. For more information, call (713)236-1844....

Ray Hills' Jailhouse Rocks in Houston.

Also in Houston at Stages, Rob Nash continues to play 26 characters in his one-man play, Freshman Year Sucks! Based on Rob's experience as a student at Houston's Strake Jesuit Preparatory School, this will mark Rob's fourth solo play to be seen by Houston audiences. Freshman Year Sucks! is currently running with performances beginning at 8 p.m., Thursdays through Sundays. Ticket prices are $12-$15. For more information, call (713)52-STAGES....

Fort Worth's Casa Mañana Theatre hosts the final weekend of the world premier tour of Red, White and Tuna. Joe Sears and Jaston Williams are back, and they invite everyone to join them for a satirical ride into the hearts and minds of the polyester-clad citizens of Tuna, the third smallest town in Texas, in the much anticipated third installment of the Tuna trilogy. Red, White and Tuna will play for one more week at the Nancy Lee and Perry R. Bass Performance Hall at Fourth Street and Calhoun in Sundance Square. Performances will be tonight and tomorrow, July 3-4, at 8 p.m., 7:30 p.m. on Sunday, July 5, and a 2 p.m. matinee on Saturday and Sunday. Tickets range from $17.50 - $37.50 and are available by calling (817)332-CASA or any Ticketmaster outlet....

USofA Concern

Dear TWT,

A matter that is of great concern to me has been brought to my attention. First let me introduce myself. My name is Craig Henderson, I am a member of the Board of Governors for USA Pageantry, Inc. I also own and operate the Miss Gay Texas USofA system. Under my state pageant, I have 25 official preliminaries, all of which must be registered, scheduled and approved by me.

The matter that concerns me is that when I opened and read a recent issue of THIS WEEK IN TEXAS, I came upon an advertisement which announced a preliminary for Miss Gay Texas USofA, of which I knew nothing. This pageant would fall under my jurisdiction. In order to use the USA Pageantry name, which is legally copyrighted, I am the person that must approve this for all Miss Gay Texas USofA pageants.

There are many things which account for such a pageant. The USofA state and national titleholders are under legal contract to appear at each preliminary. Therefore, scheduling must be carefully monitored so that two USofA preliminaries do not fall on the same night in the same city. There are also many other crucial contractual elements which are involved in holding an official USofA preliminary.

This matter has been brought to the attention of all parties concerned, and as an honest and concerned business man, I hope that other pageants held by bars or individuals, now understand some of the system's organizational structure.

Craig Henderson
Promoter/Producer
Miss Gay Texas USofA

Anyone who may be interested in promoting a USofA preliminary, finding out more information about the USofA Pageantry System or even in competing, may contact Craig Henderson at (713)944-6176.

We at TWT encourage anyone interested in promoting a pageant preliminary in any system, go through the correct channels in order to do so.

Garden Party Movement

The following is an open letter to the community:

The 23rd Annual Garden Party is coming upon us soon, and this year we have a new date! We have moved the event back to the month of August.

For those who may not know of Garden Party, the group was founded 23 years ago by Mr. Tag Kowis. The original party was held when drag was illegal, so a group of men decided to hold a private party in an individual's backyard (hence, "Garden Party").

In 23 years, the group has grown into a very active non-profit fund-raising organization in the gay and lesbian community. And has donated close to $80,000 to groups such as the Colt 45's Stone Soup fund and AIDS Troublefund, LVL PWA Holiday Fund, Montrose Counseling Center, Montrose Clinic, Houston Gay and Lesbian Switchboard and the Assistance Fund.

The party was always held in the month of August, but was moved to July for the tenth anniversary. This year's membership has decided to move the party back to August 2, 1998. The party will be held once again at Rich's, 2401 San Jacinto, from 4-9 p.m. This year's theme is "Carnival in Rio," and our beneficiary is Stevens House.

On behalf of the membership of the Garden Party, I would like to thank everybody who has helped our group in any way. We could not be this successful without the help from many wonderful groups and individuals in our community.

We hope to see everyone on August 2 for our celebration, "Carnival in Rio!" For more information, call Elmer at (713)932-9959.

"Divinely,"

TOM HANKS
July 9, 1956

BY C. LICHTENSTEIN

July 3 - July 9

Aggressive Mars changes signs this week careening into moody Cancer. Sulking and petty tantrums take on new dimensions, if you allow. Before you fall into a blue funk, use the Mars heat to create a lavender lift. Anything is possible to a willing heart, cousin.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23) Mars in your own sign makes you much more sociable than usual. Pink Crabs are not allowed to hide in the shells now; the world demands your fabulous presence. Why not go with the flow, friend, and see where all this wild activity takes you? Begin new projects now. Sometimes enthusiasm alone makes even a lousy idea seem like a slice of genius.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23) Independent Mars in inspirational Cancer goads proud Lions into acts of courage requiring increased risk. Examine every action before you charge ahead, cousin; there may be something hidden from you that could confound even your best efforts. Most big game hunters would love to have a stuffed lion's head hanging over their mantel. Let's see who gets stuffed first!

WIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23) Rampaging Mars in Cancer enlivens up social situations for otherwise sedate queer Virgins. You are elected Miss Popularity so plan a prideful basheroo or two and don't skimp on the sauce. You will be amazed at how delightful the summer becomes as your dance card fills up. Dance the nights away but avoid the lambada, it's forbidden.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23) Did someone light a fire in your career? Thank fiery Mars in sensitive Cancer for giving you incredible insights into the motives of others. Proud Libras can use this energy to strengthen their corporate positioning, but if you let your emotions carry you away, you could lose ground. The secret is to think before you act, then Act Up.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22) Planning an especially exotic and meaningful vacation or launching a great gay global enterprise? Mars in Cancer catapults all proud Scorps into the Outer limits of their potential with all its intensity. The planets suggest that you put all plans into action during this transit when motivational energy is high and the emotional impact is intense. The sky is the limit, kiddo.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22) Gay Archers are not the most sensual of folks, but now, with feisty Mars traversing sensitive Cancer, your emotional payload hits paydirt. Sexual relationships become more intense and satisfying so enjoy the planetary spurt if you're in one. If you are your own best friend, why not get out and meet new friends now? Time is awasting pal. Six weeks later Mars moves on.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20) Relationships take center stage when hot Mars enters emotional Cancer. It's all how you handle it, cousin. The harder you push, the harder partners may push back. Don't let it come to ultimatums. Gay Goats need to temper their outbursts and demands. Try to use wile and guile rather than bile. With a little sage advice, even Caps can cook. Do I smell something delicious?

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19) Aqueerians turn the workplace on its ear when aggressive Mars traipses into crabby Cancer. If something at the salt mine is not quite right, you will be tempted make "improvements". This is fine, as long as you plan a careful course of action rather than rush into battle with your flank exposed. Sometimes exposed flanks are alluring. This time it will be used for barbecue.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - March 20) Pink Fish can make a personal statement when feisty Mars inspires moody Cancer. Take the dry and dreary, and make it new and refreshing again. New approaches devised from creative thinking can have great long term impact so put your mind to work. You may be tempted to take a risk on a game of chance, but this transit doesn't increase luck, only moxie.

ARIES (March 21 - April 20) Gay Rams turn most of their energies to home or family oriented activities this week, as maniacle Mars traipses into homey Cancer. It's time to take inventory and get rid of the dreary or depressing. Redecorate and spruce up your space. Entertain a few close pals or clear up any familial cloud. A new broom sweeps clean, sweetheart, so start swinging.

TAURUS (April 21 - May 21) It's not what you say but how you say it when Mars marches into Cancer. Queer Bulls are fairly eloquent, if not downright careful speakers. Now, feisty Mars helps you score points in any argument by providing a spiritual or emotional stance. Make the moment count, cousin. Get the proud word out even if you have to rampage a few political china shops to make the point.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21) Watch your wallet. You're a sucker for a sob story when feisty Mars enters emotional Cancer. Gay Twins can't spend it fast enough. Remember though that money rarely buys happiness (cheap thrills and sorted romps perhaps, but not happiness). Wise Geminis will pace themselves and their bank accounts for when the real thing comes along.

DON'T RAIN ON OUR PARADE

Thunderstorms Halt to Allow the Rainbow to Shine on Houston's Gay and Lesbian Pride Parade

HOUSTON — "Unified, Diversified, Electrified no doubt, the Cheer Dallas All Stars, we want to hear you shout. We cheer for the cure and the red, white and blue. Houston, Texas, this one's for you!" Those were the voices leading Houston's 1998 Pride Parade, this past Saturday night, June 27. The Cheer Dallas cheerleading squad, who are considered by many to be the "nation's spirit squad," were once again invited to lead the parade. The exuberant group of men and women in their smart red, white and blue uniforms energized the crowd in front of the 115 parade entries, and the roar of the spectators along Westheimer never ceased after that.

Cheer Dallas whips up the crowd in Houston.

For the second year in a row, pride parade officials scheduled the parade to be a nighttime event. To avoid the heat of day, and to light up the night, last year, Houston became the first city in the country to hold their Gay and Lesbian Pride Parade at night. This year was no different as hundreds of proud men and women shined their brightest down the streets of Houston.

Although Houston had not felt the falling of rain in months, the skies opened up by midday with thunderstorms, that on any other day might have been well received. "It's never rained on our parade, and it's not going to this year," exclaimed Julie Siska, Executive Director for the Pride Committee of Houston, as folks lined up before the parade. The rain continued throughout the day until about thirty minutes prior to roll-off time. And just as everyone hoped, the rains came to a halt. Even though the parade was in the evening, that after-the-rain "Texas warmth" could be felt by all. The heat and humidity might have been unbearable to some but not to the 70,000 plus spectators that lined the entire parade route, nor to the die-hard men and women participating in the parade itself.

The merchants along Westheimer had their businesses brightly lit to add a fabulous backdrop to an extravagant array of floats, cars, bikes, horses and spirited walking units. Even HEB Pantry Foods was represented by a very large and extremely long, well-lit eighteen wheeler!

The parade's dignitaries, Male Grand Marshal - Bob Bouton, Female Grand Marshal - Jackie Doval, Organization Grand Marshal - TGRA and Honorary Grand Marshal - Barbara Winston, proudly rode down Westheimer adding their enthusiasm to the excitement.

The entries ranged from professionally built floats to hand decorated bikes. Lights of all colors brilliantly blazed a trail which could be seen from blocks away. Entertainers and celebrities worked the crowds from beginning to end, and it didn't matter if they drove, rode or walked, the hundreds of people involved in the parade were proud to show off who they are!

After the final entry in the parade rolled past Montrose, the judges announced the award winners. Chase Bank proudly took the Unified, Diversified and Electrified Award. The Spirit of Montrose went to Outrage, while Stonewall was presented to the Krewe of Olympus. The Overland Trail Riders were honored with The Gypsy Rose Award, and the Brazos River Bottom walked away with the Edison Award. Supercuts proudly accepted the Rainbow Lights Award, and KOLBE Project claimed the Ruby Slipper. The Houston Award was presented to Bering Church, and finally the Texas Award was bestowed upon Community Gospel.

The colorful celebration was quite an exciting closing for Gay and Lesbian Pride Month! Look to the pages of next week's issue of TWT, for snapshots of Houston Pride Parade '98.

KEN SLAVIN TO STAR IN THINGS ARE SWINGIN'

*Fifth Annual Jazz Concert
Expected to Raise $20,000 for San Antonio AIDS Foundation*

SAN ANTONIO — Jazz crooner Ken Slavin will star in Things are Swingin', his fifth annual jazz concert benefiting the San Antonio AIDS Foundation (SAAF). The performance is scheduled for next Friday, July 10, at 8 p.m. in the Carver Community Cultural Center, 226 N. Hackberry Street. Doors will open at 7 p.m. for a special cash bar sponsored by Absolut Vodka.

Things are Swingin' will feature Slavin's smooth baritone vocals on a variety of sophisticated jazz and popular music standards from the "Golden Age" of American popular music, with special emphasis on songs that "swing."

"Swing music has been making a real comeback throughout Texas and across the country in the last couple of years, but it has always been a part of my performances," said Slavin. "The music I sing, from the 1930's to the early 1960's, evokes images of not just romance, but also of sophisticated partying and dancing. We're talking martinis, elegant clothes and a great dance beat! I'm hoping to capture a little more of the latter this year, but I won't forget to throw in a romantic ballad or two!"

In the past year alone, Slavin has helped spearhead San Antonio's take on the swing phenomenon, by performing regularly with a jazz quartet at "Lounges Nights" in the Laboratory Brewing Company. He also hosts twice monthly dinner dances at Polo's, in the historic Fairmont Hotel, where he appears Thursdays through Saturdays in the hotel lounge.

Proceeds from ...Swingin', combined with the earnings of the first four concerts and his 1996 CD, Tender is the Night, should bring in the total dollars raised by Slavin for SAAF since 1994 to more than $20,000 by the evening of July 10.

"That's one milestone in my life that I'm really proud of," said Slavin. "And while the amount of money is really just a 'drop in the bucket' of the Foundation's real financial needs, I'm happy to have done my small part for the cause. If nothing else, I hope it will serve as an example that the old saying is true: 'every little bit counts.' And that means anything people can contribute, whether it's time, talent, money or other resources. In the end, all of the giving up to a bigger whole that can help so many people."

Slavin, recently nominated for the second year in a row as "Best Male Vocalist" by the city's alternative newsweekly, the San Antonio Current, will have a stellar line-up of guest musicians for this very special concert. Leading the rhythm section, will be the popular San Antonio jazz duo, Small World, comprised of award-winning string guitarist Polly Harrison and drummer Kyle Keener. Joining them will be Fred Salas on piano and Chuck Moses on the upright bass. Rounding out the band this year will be Morgan King, on tenor saxophone and flute, and Mike Berglund on trumpet and flugelhorn.

Slavin's very special guest this year will be legendary violinist, Sebastian Campesi, who made a critically acclaimed spotlight appearance at last year's concert. At 76, Campesi has worked both as a classically trained symphonic violinist (with the Philadelphia Philharmonic and the San Antonio Symphony) while carving out a national reputation as a first-class jazz violinist, having worked with such luminaries as Ella Fitzgerald and Joe Venuti.

This summer marks the eighth anniversary of Slavin's professional singing debut. The crooner still works as a public relations executive with The Atkins Agency in San Antonio, but continues to pursue by night his lifelong dream of being a singer.

In addition to this summer's concert, Slavin is busy planning his third album and will be returning to the recording studio in mid-July. He hopes to release the CD in September.

Things are Swingin' is sponsored by Absolut Vodka, Frost National Bank, Levi-Strauss Foundation, H-E-B, Sun Harvest Farms, TETCO, Valero Energy Corporation, PG&E Gas Transmission/ Texas, The Atkins Agency, The San Antonio Current, KLUP-AM 930, KTSA-AM 550, Command P and Visual Dimensions, Inc.

Tickets for this event can be purchased for $17 at the door. Tickets may be purchased in advance for $10 at On Main, W.D. Deli or by calling the San Antonio AIDS Foundation at (210)225-4715.

BERING COMMUNITY SERVICE FOUNDATION AND OMEGA HOUSE PLAN MERGER

*State Representative Garnet Coleman Calls Historic Consolidation a
"First for Houston"*

HOUSTON — In a bold move certain to set a standard for HIV/AIDS care in Houston, Bering Community Service

Foundation and Omega House, two of the city's leading HIV/AIDS service providers, recently announced their intentions to merge. The new entity, whose name has yet to be determined, will be a leading-edge organization capable of providing comprehensive HIV services with a seamless delivery system to Houston's community.

State Representative Garnet Coleman, who serves as the Chair of the House Interim Subcommittee on Indigent Health Care, praised the courage and dedication of both organizations. "It is a great day for Houston when two acknowledged community leaders can put their institutional egos aside to join together for the benefit of their clients. These groups are leading the way for other organizations to respond to the relentless persistence of this disease, the changing demographics of those it affects, and the realities of shrinking public resources."

Bering Community Service Foundation was created in 1987 by Bering Memorial United Methodist Church, which has a rich heritage of community service in Houston, especially in the area of health care. Church members organized as care teams to comfort victims of Houston's yellow fever epidemic in 1859, and as nursing teams to render aid during the polio epidemic in the 1940's and 1950's. "Since it was established, the Foundation has been vital to our outreach ministries as a way of providing loving service to the community," said Reverend Marilyn Meeker-Williams, senior minister of the church. "The merger with Omega House strengthens our commitment to this ministry and to the spiritual foundation upon which it was built."

Omega House was the inspiration of Eleanor Munger, a 75-year old grandmother who was determined that terminal-phase AIDS patients be allowed to die with love and dignity. The residential care facility was founded in 1986 with close ties to Christ Church Cathedral. During its first eleven years of operation, 445 residents have received housing as well as spiritual, psychological and palliative medical care. Founder Eleanor Munger expressed her enthusiasm. "It is gratifying to join such a trusted neighbor and friend to further our long-shared vision of truly being a 'home' for our community."

"AIDS is not over," emphasized Board Chairs John Michael Gonzalez (Bering Foundation) and Cathryn Rodd (Omega House) in a joint statement. "This epidemic is evolving in ways that render former responses inadequate. Our board members, our funders, our volunteers and our clients continue to search for the most innovative, effective and efficient ways to serve those in need."

Neither Bering nor Omega House anticipates any reduction in staffing, but both say the new organization will be streamlined by the consolidation of administrative departments. Early goals include the expansion of in-home and residential respite care and transitional living programs. The merger is expected to be completed by year's end.

AND DO WE HAVE A FIRE
CRACKER
FOR YOU!
FEAST YOUR EYES ON THIS
40-YEAR OLD
DALLASITE!

ORIGINALLY FROM TAMPA, FLORIDA, BRET MOVED TO DALLAS FOR A CHANGE IN SCENERY. FOR THOSE WHO ARE NOT "IN THE KNOW," BRET IS A POPULAR FIGURE (AS WELL AS AN ASSISTANT MANAGER) OF THROCKMORTON MINING COMPANY. BEYOND HIS MANAGEMENT DUTIES, YOU CAN FIND BRET RIDING A HARLEY, LAYING ON THE BEACH OR CUDDLING WITH OTHER FURRY GUYS. BRET WANTS EVERY ONE TO KNOW THAT LIFE DOESN'T END AT FORTY, AND WE COULDN'T AGREE MORE!

AUSTINteaCIOUS — Happy 4th of July everyone! On this very special occasion let us all remember the freedoms we enjoy. Freedom of the press, the freedom to vote our conscience and most important, the freedom to choose between so many issues in our lives. So this weekend, when the fireworks are lighting up the skies, and they play the national anthem, give some thought to what they represent. Each dazzling display of light and every melodious note is America's celebration of its freedom. Happy birthday America, happy birthday to us all! It's quite a monumental moment....

Speaking of moments, Dick's Deja Disco has had its own monumental occasion. Bartender extraordinaire, Kyndall, has celebrated the seventh anniversary of his 37th birthday. He can't bring himself to admit his real age, so we thought we would help him along. Last Tuesday, the club had its first "amateur shower dancer" strip-off. We have been told that one of the guys in this picture was not "quite himself" one day and went to Eckerd's in jeans, boots and cowboy hat. Nothing unusual so far, right? However, it would seem that "said guy" had forgotten to wash off his mud mask prior to leaving the house. To his horror, the counter girl at the drug store brought this oversight to his attention. It was no wonder everyone was looking at you funny. But this is Austin, so they probably just thought you were another crazy person wandering the streets. By the way, your skin looks fabulous!...

'Bout Time is your northside watering hole. Anytime you stop in, something fun is happening. Pool tournaments, volleyball, charity functions and a bunch of fun people are waiting to welcome you. Tomorrow, July 4, BeBe Hughs presents an Independence Day Blow Out, a special charity show benefiting one of many groups this club supports. As always, there will be a bevy of lovelies to entertain you and keep your Saturday night rolling....

Charlie's is on a roll these days. Everyone is having such a good time that it is a huge surprise when, all of a sudden, it's 2 a.m.! Those fortunate enough to pick up trade merrily walk out the door while the rest of the house makes one last loop around the bar for last minute trade before the lights come up. Needless to say, this handsome young man was gone before the last loop. We know, we looked while on our loop. The incomparable Whitney Paige was the special guest this past Sunday. As always, she had the house rockin' and the crowd begging for more. Whitney is the reigning Miss Gay USofA at Large, and hostess Lauren Taylor is the reigning Miss Gay USofA. What a stellar duo they made in the house that night. Bradley and Milsey are your daily happy hour hunks. It is always a pleasure to enjoy an afternoon libation with guys this nice (and nice looking!). There is a friendly contest between Heather Thomas and Jame Perry to see whose boys will show the most skin without committing a misdemeanor. On Mondays, Heather's wet underwear contest has the guys dropping their pants, and on Tuesdays, Jame's amateur strip contest has the guys bumping and grinding. either way they end up on stage with a group of pantless men. What a fun job!...

Splash Video Bar is all about having a good time. Everywhere you look, there are video screens and hunks cruising. Tomorrow, July 4, the club is having a raffle for a brand new television. Drawings will be held at 10 p.m. and 1 a.m. The theme for the night will be "Red, White and View." We can think of a couple of views we would like. Speaking of like, we really like Scott (left). He is so nice and is very single. Many of you know him as Forest, but we know him as Scott. Bartender Jonathon tells us he is on the hunt for four dancers for his production number at Mr. Gay Texas. He will be representing the city of Austin at the state contest. What a feather in our cap production number at Mr. Gay Texas. He will be representing the city of Austin at the state contest. What a feather in our cap it would be to have another Mr. Gay Texas to be an Austin resident....

The Forum announces a new theme night. On Wednesdays, they will be playing "The Dating Gayme." Hostess Heather Thomas plans to put would be couples together with club sponsored dates. Prizes will be dates arranged by local gay owned or gay friendly restaurants and businesses in our fair city. See her or a club employee for details or to sign up as a contestant. Even though Chris (left) is an employee, we think he would be a fun date (as would the great looking man with him!). He is handsome, employed, has his own vehicle and is very single. Somebody please marry this man so he will leave everyone else's husband alone, LOL. Tomorrow, July 4, make sure to be on the rooftop patio to watch the fireworks. Where else can you have a cocktail, cruise and see the spectacular fireworks display?

DALLAS TEA — Congregation Beth El Binah holds their weekly Shabbat service every Friday at the G/L Community Center, 2701 Reagan Street at Brown. Shabbat begins at 8:15pm. July brings yet another opportunity to gather for their very special fifth Friday Shabbat on July 31. This service will be an observance of Tisha B'Av (9th day of Av), one of the solemn days on the Jewish calendar commemorating the destruction of the first and second Temples of Jerusalem. On Tisha B'Av fasting, mourning and reading from the book of Lamentations are observed. Tisha B'Av is not celebrated by Reform congregations usually, but with the opportunity to do so on the fifth Friday service, it is a change to inform the congregation and guests on Friday, July 31. As with all services, everyone is welcome to attend and find out more about this exciting fast-growing synagogue. For more information contact them online at global.org/beth.el.binah/ or call (214) 521-5342, extension 884. Learn Hebrew during classes held at 7 p.m., Wednesday, July 8 and again July 15....

one helluva good time. Here's a CRUISE CAMERA photo [above] of some of the fun folks on staff. Stop in and see all of the new changes the new owners, Bobby and Adam, are making the their all new club....

McALLEN TEA - P. B. D.'s, the valley's favorite nightspot, has got one hot summer party planned for you to enjoy. This Saturday, July 4, catch their special Independence show starring everyone's favorite from San Antonio, Shady Lady, along with Lorie Adams, Lady Laura and José José singing live. Male dancers every weekend make this the party spot of south Texas. Get in on the fun at P.B.D.'s tonight.

HOUSTON TEA — Some rumors can be put to rest. The word is out, and the club known as Heaven will re-open. After months of planning and design, following the tragic fire that closed the club last December, the grand opening is set for this December and will feature an all-new, bigger and better entertainment facility with a new look and a new name. That's right, the club will be called South Beach and will offer everything that the name implies - contemporary tropical flavor and an exciting mix of culture, fashion and style. Keep an eye on this column for more details to be announced....

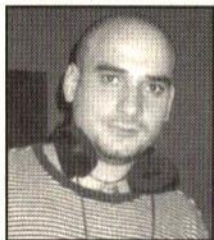

And the winner is... Bob Dorow! Bob [right] is the grand prize winner of Billy & Carlos' Fabulous South Beach Adventure. He and a friend will now chaperone their Billy and Carlos dolls on a three-day, two-night vacation to South Beach, Florida courtesy of JR's, Travelfest and Lobo Bookshop and Cafe. Bon voyage, Bob! This weekend, JR's is going to be hotter than a firecracker as the club lights up the 4th of July with three days of drink specials, prize giveaways and hard-bodied male dancers. Congratulations go out to the employees of 800 Pacific on the super success of their recent "Dragzilla" turnabout show. The 800 Pacific Employee Emergency Fund and The Texas AIDS Ride will split a grand total of $3,500. Featuring an amazing array of terrific talents, they truly worked hard for the money....

Across the street, the magnificent men of the Montrose Mining Company kicked off the Fourth of July weekend with their 20th anniversary party last night. Tomorrow and Sunday, the club opens at 1 p.m. as they continue to celebrate two decades of hot and heavy party action along with the Fourth of July holiday. From the Mine's newly enlarged patio, you can see the fireworks over downtown, or you and your friends can make some fireworks of your own....

The Club Houston is celebrating the 4th with a whole lot of sparkle and splash. Tomorrow and Sunday, they'll present two of their sensationally catered poolside buffets from 1-3 p.m. Along with fun in the sun, The Club offers a full gym, steam room, dry sauna, tanning bed, TV lounge and much, much more 365 days a year....

Over at Houston's newest nightspot, Amnesia, mixmaster Double K Krikor [left] is serving up an experience you'll never forget, with progressive dance music from around the world all night long. Next door at Inergy, you can double your fun by sampling the finest spicy Latino music with deejay Kenny Jamm. This Sunday's Independence Day Super Show features Shawna Roberts, Lindsey Adams, Natasha, Lola Flame and emcee Lady Shamu....

Recently, Rich's own Simply Divine [second from l] understood what happiness is as she was crowned Miss Gay Houston USoFA At Large. Those who shared her shining moment included [l-r] Miss Gay Texas USoFA At Large Chevelle Brooks, last year's winner Nicole Perria, first alternate Knell Karter and second alternate Australia Van Augustine. Special kudos are in order for outgoing titleholder Nicole Perria whose tireless promotion for this contest made it the largest Miss Houston At Large pageant ever. Nicole also arranged for two special contestant awards for Best Presentation and Most Beautiful.

Jocelyn Summers and Australia Van Augustine [right, l-r] were the recipients of those two awards. In addition to all of the Red, White & You events going on at Rich's this weekend, the club is presenting ReEntry: The Tea Dance this Sunday. The party begins at 4 p.m. Get your special comp ticket while you're having brunch at La Strada and receive a treat at the club....

Nighthawks has something for everyone. Exciting shows, friendly bartenders and steamy levi/leather cruise action equals a wide variety of entertainment options. Tonight at 9 p.m., Leather Alternatives presents Leather Bitches On Bikes with emcees Ken Claude and John Mata. Tomorrow night at 9 p.m., the club celebrates the 4th of July with the Miss Firecracker Contest. See you there....

Tonight at Toyz, JCF Productions presents Miss Gay Houston United States with special guest Miss Gay Texas United States Izamar, emcee Monique Johnson and $500 in cash and prizes. Tomorrow, holiday happy hour at Toyz features no cover and specially priced well and frozen drinks until 10 p.m. Last weekend, show emcee Jenny Kraigg and Nina Renee posed sans drag with special guest Katherine York [left, c]. This Sunday, Jenny welcomes the tantalizing talents of Amber Nixx and Melissa Crawford to the Toyz Super Show....

This Sunday, The Ripcord is having a complimentary holiday picnic beginning at 3 p.m. They'll have fried chicken, potato salad, watermelon and all your other outdoor favorites. Ants are not included. Every Monday at The Ripcord, enjoy cocktails by lava light. To find out what this is all about, stop by the club and check it out for yourself....

At the Midtowne Spa, Juice and Jay [above, l-r] want you to join them for the Spa's three-day Explosion Party. This weekend's excitement includes South Beach dancers tonight, adult video star Dallas Taylor tomorrow, a patio cookout and Hot Buns Contest on Sunday and lots of door prizes all weekend long....

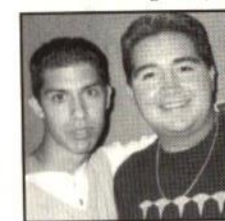

Alternatives of Adult Video Megaplexxx fueled the fantasies of many a fine fellow with their exclusive presentation of Falcon adult video star Tom Chase [left] and his equally attractive husband Joe Cade. And Joe just happens to be a video legend, too. If seeing them in person has peaked your interests, Megaplexxx has plenty of their on-screen exploits for sale and rental....

July is exploding with entertainment at the BRB. Every Tuesday, Mr. and Miss BRB Byron Norton and Shawna St. John will host a different show: July 7 is a Bonzai Benefit, July 14 is amateur talent night, July 21 is the Viva Las Brazos variety show and July 28 is a Men In Boots strip contest. On Sunday, July 12, the BRB will host a contest entitled "Goddess" to determine the most divine female impersonator in Houston. Along with votes (see the ballot in this week's issue) and tips received, contestants will be judged in talent, evening gown and Grecian presentation.

SAN ANTONIO TEA - Those of you bitter with the weather gods for the recent wave of unbearable heat in South Texas should look at the bright side. Sweltering temperatures encourage shirt removal. And if you're in the market for a club full of bare chested brutes, amble over to the

Bonham Exchange this Wednesday and take a peek at the pec parade. Jr Hernandez hosts his infamous Hot Chest Contest with cash prizes for winners in male and female categories. Super low drink prices are the order of the day for the mid-week extravaganza, and tons of curious college boys roam the halls of the

Bonham. We suggest you do the same.... Encore Video continues to offer the best in home video entertainment for the alternative lifestyle. Stop by the store at NE Loop 410 between Diane Flack Leather Gallery and Veladi Ranch Steak House and sign up for a membership which entitles you to special discounts on thousands of mainstream and adult video titles. The Encore Video family also includes the Zebra'z showroom on Euclid which features all the items from their world famous mail-order catalog at drastically reduced showroom prices. Jewelry, videos, magazines, cards, home accessories—whatever you're looking for— you'll find it for less at Zebra'z....

This past Sunday, the Eagle Mountain Saloon drew a huge crowd for it's "Changing of the Guard" party. The soiree lasted until the wee hours, and a show hosted by Mr. Eagle Mountain Saloon, Jerry, raised hundreds of dollars for the San Antonio chapter of the TGRA. EMS staffers Monica and Andy [above, l-r] invite everyone to attend the Mr. and Miss Firecracker contest tonight beginning at 10 p.m. and remind everyone to enjoy the new staff, new management and all new ownership of the club. DeeJay Ray is back to spin your favorite country, Tejano and dance mixes and deejays will be on hand nightly to keep the party live. Enjoy steak nights at the all new EMS every Monday and a "Vile Vittles" buffet every Sunday....

Sudz for Studz, the beer blast which originated at the EMS, continues each Saturday at the Annex along with levi, leather and longnecks. Stop by and check out one of SA's hottest little cruise clubs and check up on some of River City's hottest studs....

Happy birthday wishes go out to 2015 owner Dick Kader who celebrates his birth on the day of independence, July 4th. Stop by and wish him a very special day!...

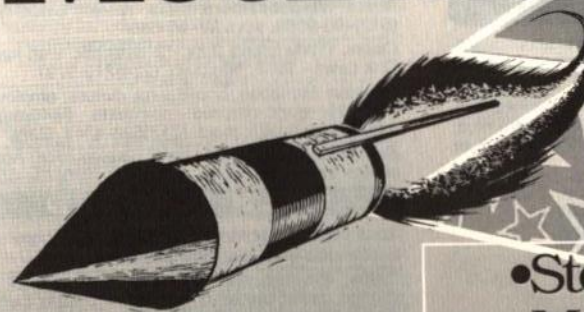

The Saint's Beach Ball '98 rocked San Antonio last weekend with music by deejay Jr., entertainment by the incomparable Shady Lady [above,c] and go-go boys from heaven [above, flanking Shady]. The decor included tropical fish, billions of beach balls and lots and lots of sand trucked in from the coast. The July 4th weekend promises to be just as fierce at the show bar of South Texas. Tomorrow night features incredibly stunning hot male dancers and after hours 'til 4am with deejay Jr. July 5, the Super Sunday Show cast welcomes local goddess Jade DeSanté and Dallas diva Sweet Savage. Then on Monday, Jenny McCall's Monday Night Madness will round out the weekend with enough debauchery to keep you feeling guilty until Labor Day. Sunday, July 19, the Saint will host the hotly contested Texas Entertainer of the Year Pageant starring Texas EOY '98 and National EOY '98 Maya Douglas. The top vote getters scheduled to compete will be announced in the next issue of TWT.

And finally, congrats to the folks at Pegasus for throwing caution to the wind and going to such great lengths to keep their customers happy. Monday nights just won't be the same ever again. Happy Independence Day everyone!

We will miss you, Bill!

Love,

Bob, Dave and Rene

In loving memory of

Richard Lee Flippans

September 17, 1958 - June 12, 1998

Rick passed away on June 12, 1998. He worked at various hotels in the D/FW area. He was well liked by everyone. Memorial services were held on June 19, 1998 at Lucas Funeral Home of Grapevine.

J. Wesley "Wes" Schimek
Moved on to a greater place May 5, 1998

It's a satisfying feeling, just to know that you were my friend. And no matter what's the trouble, that on you we could all depend. For the world is full of sorrows, And life's path is full of stones. And a fellow's only comfort, is the few real friends he owns.
