REVIEWED BY GARY LAIRD

One of the things I like about Houston's Masquerade Theatre is their enthusiasm for the traditional, often obscure, Broadway musical. You don't see a lot of that nowadays. Come to think of it, you don't see the word "nowadays" nowadays. Anyway, what with everybody tripping all over themselves to be "cutting edge," this kind of fare is a treat. So when I heard they were doing The Robber Bridegroom, I was there, front row, center. Well, actually, back row center. In that particular venue, it's the best seat in the house.

The Robber Bridegroom is based on the Eudora Welty novella, which in turn is based on the folklore of eighteenth and nineteenth century Mississippi, especially the region known as the Natchez Trace. It tells the story of Jamie Lockheart, (Luther Chakurian) aka The Bandit of the Woods, a romantic highwayman who steals with style. Jamie meets up with Clement Musgrove (Kevin Hames), a fabulously rich and fabulously gullible planter. After Jamie saves his life during a robbery attempt by Little Harp (Aaron Keith Haggin), Clement invites him home to meet his daughter Rosamund (Sarah Wuensche) and his wife Salome (Amy Ross). The usual romantic complications ensue.

As with Welty's writing, it's not so much the plot, but the richness of detail, that pulls you into this story. The play, music by Robert Waldman, book and lyrics by Alfred Uhry, is essentially a tall tale set to music, and is presented with tongue firmly in cheek. A cast of twelve begin to tell the story, and as it unfolds, they play all the characters. They also play the set. And that's one of my favorite parts. As they sing the narrative song, "Deeper in the Woods", a description of Rosamund as she searches through the woods for Jamie, the cast becomes the woods, putting up obstacles, swaying branches, streams and rocks; now blocking her path, then helping her through. It's a beautifully poetic moment, and a memorable one. This kind of movement is an integral part of the play, and the set is constantly being reinvented in ingenious ways.

Sarah Wuensche and Luther Chakurian star as Rosamund Musgrove and Jamie Lockheart in The Robber Bridegroom.

The characters in The Robber Bridegroom are essentially cartoons, and their interplay is cartoon-like, but with dashes of earthy humanity. Rosamund is the prototypical wispy heroine, but her corset is pure steel. She's rich, she's spoiled, she's bored, and she wants Jamie. I mean, she wants Jamie. Jamie only wants what he can steal, but he steals as much for the adventure of it as for the money. Clement is rich, but his finest treasure is Rosamund, the daughter of his beautiful, lost wife. He has married again, but his second wife, Salome, is not the treasure he had hoped for. In fact, Salome is pure evil - ugly without and ugly within, but in such a deliciously up-front, down-to-earth way it's hard not to like her, even as she plots to get rid of Rosamund. In her comic lament, "The Pricklepear Bloom", she lays out the tragedy of her life - "The world prefers the Lily Bud to the Pricklepear Bloom." When she's finished, you can see the injustice of it all.

Rounding out the cast is the despicable Little Harp and his brother, Big Harp (Jeremy Price). The brothers are notorious thieves and murderers, but there's one problem. Big Harp has had his head cut off, and Little Harp carries it around in a trunk, occasionally opening it for advice from his smarter brother. A clever stage device makes this possible. Their duet, "Two Heads are Better Than One", is a highlight. Especially endearing is Salome's dim-witted would-be henchman, Goat (Gregory Ayres), who hasn't "the sense God gave a lemon." Anessa Ramsey, Kristina B. Curley, Monica Rial, Beau Gregerson and Allison Sumrall complete the cast as a raven, Goat's mother and sister, the inn-keeper and his wife, and various and sundry other characters and objects.

Christopher Ayres' direction was true to the play, as was Phillip Duggins' musical direction, but the musical accompaniment was weak. Chakurian and Wuensche (If this had been A Star Is Born, those names would have been changed in the first act.) are competent and lyrical as the lovers, and Wuensche's plaintive "There's Nothin' Up" is a masterpiece of comic boredom. But the star of the show, hands down, was Gregory Ayres as Goat. Ayres captures just the right moves as he sets about methodically to do as he was told, literally. His timing is perfect; his delivery is sharp, and when called upon, his clear tenor can bring tears. Him I'd like to see again, soon.

So there you have it. An enjoyable evening overall, and a nice alternative to alternative theater.

The Robber Bridegroom is currently playing at Houston's Masquerade Theatre through November 14. Phone (713) 861-7045 for information and reservations.

Nothing is Sacred as Fort Worth's Casa Mañana' presents The Complete History of America (Abridged)

What's faster paced than Madonna's Ray of Light video, filled with more pseudo education than all the schoolhouse Rock segments combined, and chocked with enough wigs to keep the Gabor mail order catalog in business for years to come? Why, it's Casa's theatre on the Square production of The Complete History of America (Abridged) in Fort Worth, of course.

The follow-up to the successful The Complete Works of William Shakespeare (Abridged), this journey through the annals of our country's finest moments (and a few not-so-fine) packs in the jokes like an out-of-control Leslie Nielsen movie - with similar results. There are so many jokes, verbal and visual, that some of the punch lines inevitably fall flat. But that's okay because with such a plethora of ha-ha, the laugh-to-groan ratio is very favorable.

After all, there is plenty of humor to be found in the history of this great nation. Starting around 1492, give or take, the show highlights the explorers, Presidents, wars and policies that helped create the country we know today.

Told through song, dance and witty banter, the vaudevillian troupe of Chamblee Ferguson, Jackie Cabe and Richard Frederick portray every major player of the last few centuries - from George Washington to J. Edgar Hoover. Like the brilliant quick-change artistry of Greater Tuna's Jaston Williams and Joe Sears, these three drama troupers channel characters like psychics on speed. Portraying male or female, there's no limit to the lengths they will go for a laugh.

Highlights of the show include the rejected American flags, a human slide show, an eye-opening post-intermission audience participation stunt and a flawless portrayal of the Andrews sisters.

A low point is the contrived film noir ending, which seems to drag on much longer than any of the show's other bits. In its defense, however, it does have some funny moments. The audience is given the choice between that ending and a Broadway showtune ending, and all gay stereotypes aside, I would've much preferred the latter. Speaking of gay, the show has a keen sensibility and is ripe with inside jokes and references that will tickle even the queerest funny bone.

In the spirit of the production, I will briefly paraphrase this review: Go. See. Laugh. You'll be glad you did.

The Complete History of America (Abridged) runs through November 29 at Casa Mañana's Theatre on the Square,

The Complete History of America (abridged) dishes dirt and dispenses irreverence on all things American at Fort Worth's Theatre on the Square.

109 E. 3rd St. and Main, Sundance Square, Fort Worth. Performances are at 8 p.m. Thursday and Friday, 5 and 10 p.m. Saturday and 2 p.m. Sunday. Tickets range from $16 to $24 and are available by calling (817)332-CASA, Metro (972)647-5700 or any TicketMaster outlet.

Dallas' Turtle Creek Chorale, the critically acclaimed-225 voice male chorus directed by Dr. Timothy Seelig, has released its eighteenth recording, Lifelong Friend. Seven pieces were written by David Friedman, best known for the vocal arrangements in Disney's Beauty and the Beast and Alladin. Additional selections include compositions by Marvin Gaspard, Jane Marshall, Robert Seeley and Joseph Jennings. The video of Listen to My Heart, one of the CD's selections, is the group's first such effort. After Goodbye: An AIDS Story, a one-hour documentary featuring the Turtle Creek Chorale, received an Emmy Award in 1995.

How I Learned to Drive, which will be presented on Thursday, October 29 at Dallas Theatre Center's Kalita Humphreys Theatre, is followed by the latest in DTC's popular Curtain Call/Talkback series. The format provides the opportunity for discussion and interaction between the audience and the theatre's artists. Upcoming presentations include A Raisin in the Sun, Alice's Adventures in Wonderland and South Pacific. 3636 Turtle Creek Boulevard, box office (214) 522-8499.

The power and improbabilities created by sex and money are explored in Theatre Three's current production of We Won't Pay! We Won't Pay! which runs through November 22 in the theatre-in-the-round in the Quadrangle, 2800 Routh Street in Dallas. Produced by Jac Alder, the farce was penned by Dario Fo, winner of the Nobel Prize for Literature, who was recognized for his body of work that includes brilliant comedies, political farces and outrageous street theatre. Tickets: (214) 871-3300.

Just in time for Halloween, Dallas' Pocket Sandwich Theatre presents Dracula - The Melodrama, which runs through November 21 at 5400 East Mockingbird Lane, Suite 119 in Dallas. The latest of Pocket's infamous audience participation comedy spoofs, Dracula - The Melodrama is based on Bram Stoker's classic horror tale. Box office open 2:00 p.m.-6:00 p.m., call (214) 821-1860 or via the world wide web at www.dallas.net/~pst.

Kitchen Dog Theater Company in Dallas hosts its first annual Hooch 'n' Pooch fundraising bash on Halloween, Saturday, October 31 at 8:00 p.m. Blues singer Lavelle White, Bakers Ribs and libations are followed by a silent auction featuring goods and services from American Airlines, Brown Forman, The Dallas Opera, Neiman-Marcus, St. Bernard's Sports, Translations and a variety of other local businesses. Proceeds support Kitchen Dog Theater. Tickets ($65 - $125) and information available by calling (214) 953-1055.

Theatre Arlington kicks off a fun-filled four week run of The Compleat Wks of Wilm Shakespeare Abridged (The Complete Works of William Shakespeare Abridged) next Friday, October 30 at 305 West Main Street in downtown Arlington. The production marks the Tarrant County theatre premiere of the zany comedy which originated in London's West End and is currently being performed all over the world. Curtain is at 7:30 p.m. on Thursdays and at 8:00 p.m. on Fridays and Saturdays with a Sunday matinee at 2:00 p.m. Tickets ($12 - $14) can be reserved by calling (817) 275-7661.

Hangman's House of Horrors in Fort Worth celebrates its tenth season with Deja Vu: The Best of Hangman's, nightly beginning at 7:00 p.m. through Halloween, Saturday, October 31 at the intersection of I-30 and Forest Park Boulevard. Enjoy the show (tickets: $10, benefiting the Fort Worth Multiple Sclerosis Society) and visit the "haunted midway" until 10:00 p.m. Sunday through Thursday and midnight on Friday and Saturday. 24-hour info line: (817) 336-HANG or visit their website at www.hangmans.com.

Stage West in Fort Worth opens its highly anticipated 20th season with the Texas premiere of Neil Simon's Proposals, which runs through November 7 at 3055 South University Drive. Pulitzer Prize winner Simon, known best for Barefoot in the Park, Come Blow Your Horn, Lost in Yonkers and numerous other hits, sets this production, his 29th, in upstate New York's Pocono Mountains in the late 1950's. Tickets ($14 - $18, discounts for groups of ten or more) are available by calling Metro (817) STG-WEST (784-9378).

Due to popular demand, Houston's New Heights Theatre, 339 West 19th St., is extending the run of its current production, The Boys in the Band, for six additional performances. Previously scheduled to close on October 24, the play will now run through November 14. Originally staged off-Broadway in 1968, this play has become a gay theatrical standard considered by most critics to be a candid portrayal of the early 60's gay experience. Additional performances will be given every Friday and Saturday evening through November 14. Performances are at 8:00 p.m. and tickets are $15. For reservations, call (713) 869-8925.

San Antonio's foremost alternative theatre, Jump-Start Performance Company, features during its '98-'99 season Breaking The Code. Guest artists from THE FIRE-LIGHT PLAYERS begin their season at Jump-Start with a taut drama of loyalty and betrayal set against the backdrop of the Cold War by Hugh Whitmore. Directed by Jim Mammarella. The theatre is located at 108 Blue Star. Performances are scheduled to run from October 23-25. Tickets are $10 general admission and $8 discount for students and senior citizens.

Austin's Vortex Repertory Company presents the world premiere of NORM. L., a new, gay thriller by Aaron Brown. This play is a stunning and rebellious look at homophobia, bigotry, religion, sexual freedom, violence and domestic terrorism. In this election year's climate, as the religious right mobilize with anti-gay rhetoric, this new play takes on a timely and disturbing significance. Vortex artistic director, Bonnie Cullum, directs a stellar cast. Shows run through November 21. Curtain is at 8:00 p.m. Advance tickets may be purchased at (512) 454-TIXS. General admission tickets are $6.50 on Thursdays and Sundays, $9 - $12 Fridays, $9 - $14 Saturdays. Seating is limited. The play opens at the Planet Theatre, 2307 Manor Road (a half mile east of I-35, between Chestnut and Maple). For more information call (512) 478-LAVA.

Every month, we explore the information super highway, with a special emphasis on gay and lesbian-related websites.

Our first stop on this dazzling, eclectic tour is a great place to visit if you weren't able to attend the Gay Games held in Amsterdam recently. You can check out what happened over there by going to <http://members.tripod.com/~gaygame>. Photos of the games themselves, the "parade" down Amsterdam's famous canals, snapshots from some of the internationally-acclaimed museums, along with assorted Amsterdam scenes, are included in this cyber village. Also included is other interesting fare with an incredible amount of links to other sites such as the Gay Airline and Travel Club, the Military and Police Uniform Association and even a Dark Shadows fan club website.

Even though Amsterdam was definitely THE gay mecca while the games were occurring, here in the states, San Francisco is probably the most well-known gay destination. You can pop in on that great city in a "virtual road trip" by typing www.citysearch7.com, a huge website with gay and straight information on just about everything there is in the city by the bay; from tourist sites and gay bars to online weather and temperature. Also try another SF site, Nob Hill Adult Theatre's online effort at www.gaysf.com. And while it may sound familiar to Texans, JR's in San Francisco isn't related to clubs here of the same name, but you can find out about this hotspot at www.jrsclub.com.

We're sure after you've accessed those sties, you'll want to leave your heart in San Francisco; but you may prefer to travel to the other side of the continent. Try www.Boston.sidewalk.com, a pretty comprehensive site. If you want to take a bite out of the Big Apple, we suggest you surf on over to the New York Times' guide to that city at www.nytoday.com for Broadway show info, cafés and even traffic updates. New York Bar Guide HX is also a good place to find out about gay New York, and they're located on the web at www.hx.com. To access maps and directions to gay destinations in just about every major city in the United States and the world, Funmaps has a website up and running at www.funmaps.net. For gay-related travel info, fly on over to www.pridetravel.com, which includes airline schedules, hotels and even the dates for circuit parties across the country.

Shopping has never been easier on the web, especially if you're in the market for some fine 18th and 19th century antiques (and what self-respecting queen isn't?) Hop on over to one of our favorite shopping site, based here in Texas, www.garrettgalleries.com. You'll find oil paintings, antique furnishings and accessories as well as bronzes and memorabilia. If cutting edge fashion is more to your taste, then try Florida-based Bodygear's catalog site at www.bodygear.com. It features exclusive European activewear. If you want to do something to help you fit into all that gym wear from Bodygear's site, then get pumped up and surf into the virtual gym at www.musclenet.com, which includes all kinds of weightlifting info, pix and some personal ads as well.

For those late nights, when you want to reach out and touch someone (or yourself!) try shopping Sex World at www.sextoyworld.com. There you can find just about any adult novelty toy made. After playing with this site, you may want to visit Planet Out. They have one of the largest gay online presences on the web, featuring an incredible film section with video clips available from such wide-ranging items as Anita Bryant getting a pie in her face or Karen Dior's Braun Razor commercial, to a host of gay-related movies and trailers. Click on their site at www.planetout.com/popcorn/cinema.

We had to include the hunky Brewer twins' website, www.brewertwins.com, for some great pix of these two young studs. For more sexy male models go to www.geocities.com/WestHollywood/Heights/6676 or one of the hottest photographers in the country, David Morgan, who has an electronic site on which you can view his work at www.dmny.com. Also, try Jeff Palmer's photography studio, located at www.jeffpalmer.com. We're sure you'll want to linger over all the luscious lads featured there.

If you want to get behind the "Velvet Rope" of Janet Jackson's show, access <http://friendsofjanet.com> for concert info, art and photos of the famous Jackson sibling and even a gift shop to pick up some of her stuff.

Back in Texas, stop by the site of the Dallas Bears, which you can enter simply by typing www.dallasbears.org. They feature a special section devoted to the late popular bartender David "Miss Ellie" Ellis. You can travel to Austin on the super information highway and check out the Capital City Men's Chorus, which is up online at www.to.com/~ccmcaus. If you're planning to attend the 15th Annual TGRA Rodeo in San Antonio November 5-8, you can get ticket and other info at www.TGRA.org. They also list organization news plus other rodeo dates.

While it's not in Texas, we're sure all you cowboys and cowgirls out there will want to travel over to the International Association of Gay and Lesbian Country Western Dance Clubs at <http://iaglcwdc.simplenet.com>. You can find out about their semi-annual convention October 30-31 in Virginia Beach, Virginia.

For some more interesting places to travel on the electronic highway, we suggest you take the exit for the leather community at www.leatherspace.com, which talks about upcoming events worldwide. For some leather news closer to home, try Inquisition Dallas' website at www.inquisition-dallas.com.

The We Are Family website, which encourages straight and gay/lesbian members to value one another through education, is located at www.waf.org. It includes an archives section of letters and documents organized by topic, and a page dedicated to their recent Growing Up Gay Conference.

The USA branch of the International AIDS Society has an extensive and informative site at www.ama-assn.org/aids, with news updates, an online library, treatment and prevention guidelines. In Houston, the Montrose Clinic provides health research and social services to people living with HIV/AIDS. You can find out more about this organization at www.montrose-clinic.org.

That's all for this issue. If you know of an interesting website, gay or non-gay, e-mail us at ChrisDalas@aol.com and we'll try to mention it in our next column. Until then, have fun surfing the net!

This week's 22 year-old cover model, complete with piercing green eyes, chiseled features and jet black hair, may appear to be just another pretty face, but think again. As the proprietor of a pool hall, restaurant and bar who gets around El Paso on a sleek, black Harley-Davidson, he offers brains, brawn, beauty and a hint of that bad boy persona that your mother warned you about.

1998

The glorious Sun hovers in passionate Scorpio. Prepare for an intensity of purpose and a sense of control. Scorpio energy can be naughty or nice - what curtain will you choose? Read ahead to see where you are the master of your fate...at least for the next 30 days.

LIBRA (September 24 - October 23) Are you ready to take a good hard look at your finances? Dear queer Libra, you have gone on far too long with a ragged excuse for a bank account. Haven't you ever heard of saving for a rainy day? Sun in Scorpio now gives you an umbrella. Take control of your monetary fund and don't hedge. Remember, seduction never comes cheap, cousin....

SCORPIO (October 24 - November 22) The Sun in your own sign can only mean one thing: Happy Birthday Scorpio! Make a fabulous first impression and begin new projects now; they have fertile soil in which to take root. You're the master of your fate for the next month. Be kind to those of us who may not measure up; The planets always move on and eventually another sign will have its day in the Sun.

SAGITTARIUS (November 23 - December 22) Perky pink Archers can don a passable turban and become a passable psychic with the Sun in Scorpio. Intuition becomes finely tuned and on target. You will be amazed at what you divine, you divine thing. But work on your personal karma, too; it's time to take up the fight for a strong hate crimes bill and loud, proud Sagittarius is just the sign to do it.

CAPRICORN (December 23 - January 20) Sun in Scorpio fires up friendships and makes your social circles centers of affirmation and conviviality. If you have been betwixt and between when it comes to joining a particular group, this planetary placement may give you the benevolent push you need to become part of the gay crowd. Share your innermost secrets with affirming friends and genial social circles. We won't tell...

AQUARIUS (January 21 - February 19) Professional aspirations get a jolt from Sun in Scorpio. Aqueerians love to stir up the dander of authority figures, but how about a change of strategy? You now become plotter, planner extraordinaire. It may be nice to get your way without having to poke the boss in the snoot. You may find the subtle approach a far more effective way of getting the meat on the table.

PISCES (February 20 - March 20) Pink Fish are not necessarily the most adventurous world travellers, but now, with the gallant Sun in pioneering Scorpio, you boldly go forth to explore and experience. Study, travel and take up the global cause for all of us. Get out there and see what the world has to offer. You have nothing to lose except your parochial attitude and a sad, unstylish collection of luggage.

ARIES (March 21 - April 20) Heated Sun in Scorpio revs sex into overdrive so expect a drag race. Physical intimacy is especially mind blowing (Good: some people like it that way). Scorpio is in it's natural placement in your solar chart now which means that psychological barriers keeping you from affirmation can be torn down. Perhaps it's time for a little urban renewal gay Ram.

TAURUS (April 21 - May 21) Queer Bulls strengthen partnerships now when the intense Sun in Scorpio push is on. Delve into what will and will not make you happy in a relationship and see if what you have is what you want and what you deserve. If so, go for the gusto and show that special someone what special means. If not, plan a course of action to bag the quarry of your choice. The hunt is on...

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21) It may not sound particularly exciting, but Sun in Scorpio makes your job seem almost exhilarating. Proud Twins map out the perfect strategy to launch any project in the right direction. A word of warning cousin; take health and exercise regimes seriously and don't overdo. The no holds barred scorpio intensity can cause reckless injuries if you over work out.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23) Plan your dance card dear queer Crab; Sun in zesty Scorp sweeps you off your feet. Wherever you go, from disco to tea dance, count yourself as belle of the ball. If you're the shy and retiring type, try your hand at anything and everything creative. The results will be dramatic. Compose, write, draw or perform; Show 'em how it's done with style and passion.

LEO (July 24 - August 23) If the Sun in gallant Scorpio has its way, you will be a contented house trained cub. Turn thoughts and efforts homeward, planning a few intimate get togethers along the way. Build family bridges; try to give relatives the benefit of the doubt one more time. If they still can't accept you for who you are, Scorpio gives you the confidence and strength to go your own way.

VIRGO (August 24 - September 23) Words pack a punch so let it Out while Sun in Scorpio fans the hot air. Your mind is sharp and on target with fabulous ideas. Are you ready to fire off a demanding letter to Congress? (I certainly hope so!) Plot, plan and strategize all of your most intricate maneuvers; Scorpio is the great general and proud Virgos are naturally detailed oriented. Oy! What a pair!

HOW LONG MUST WE SUFFER? HOW OFTEN WILL SOMEONE DIE?

Matthew's skull was so shattered from the pistol-whipping he received that surgeons could not operate. Comatose, his condition worsened daily and then he died, October 12, 1998. So what else is new?

Gay archives across the nation are filled with reports of "faggots" being attacked and brutally murdered. Paul Broussard of Houston, Pablo Zuniga of Austin, Nicholas West of Tyler, to name just a few. Remember John Lloyd Griffin and Tommy Lee Trimble of Dallas? In sentencing murderer Richard Bednarski, Republican Judge Jack Hampton told a reporter that "a lighter penalty was justified because the victims were gay." From the many newspaper clippings in the archives, several predictions can easily be made:

- The two men will justify Matthew's murder because, "He made a pass at them." (We will never know Matthew's side of the story, but even if true, is that reason to rob and burn him, repeatedly fracture his skull, tie him to a fence and leave the unconscious youth to die in near-freezing temperatures?)

- If convicted, the defendants could receive probated sentences. Not likely, but it has happened. Many times.

- The murderers might receive "slap on the wrist" sentences as did Dan White, who assassinated San Francisco City Supervisor Harvey Milk. In that case, seven years. White served only a little more than five.

- If sentenced to life in prison or to death, the murderers will grab the Bible and suddenly find Jesus. In time, their "born again" personas will ask for pardons.

- The Traditional Values Coalition, well organized and heavily financed, will denounce all efforts to pass stronger hate crimes legislation, claiming that gays want to "advance a political agenda."

- The traditional family values people - as if Matthew didn't have a traditional family - will insist that gays have blown this singular incident out of proportion. Of course, this is not a singular incident and maybe it is past time for the public, both gay and non-gay, to rise in outrage and demand that all hate criminals be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law.

- The religious right will support the father of one of the accused. He said, "Had this happened to a heterosexual boy, it never would have made the news." Had his boy been tortured and murdered just for being a heterosexual, it would indeed have made the news. "Now my son is guilty before he's even had a trial." Matthew Shepard never had a trial.

- While sincere Christians will deplore anti-gay violence, they will do nothing to stop it. So-called Christians will continue to picket funerals with signs proclaiming, "God Hates Fags."

- Governor George Bush will say a few politically correct words and do nothing. The Log Cabin Republicans, although sincere, hard-working and dedicated in their efforts to wrestle the GOP from right-wing extremists, will nonetheless endorse Bush for governor and then president, even if Democratic candidates are more deserving of the gay vote.

- Gay Democrats may also vote the ticket. Independents will vote on issues rather than party labels. Worse, some in the community won't bother to vote at all. Instead, they will wring their hands and ask, "Why doesn't somebody else do something?"

Pent up anger in the community is made all the worse because there is so little we can do in response to Matthew's murder.

- Yes, we can wear yellow ribbons, pray and participate in candlelight vigils - and we should. But we've been doing that for decades, haven't we? Has anything really changed?

- We can write or e-mail our nation's political leaders and urge them to support stronger, more inclusive, hate crimes laws. Senators: Phil Gramm (R) and Kay Bailey Hutchison (R); U.S. Senate, Washington, DC 20510. Representatives: Sam Johnson (R), Ralph M. Hall (D), Pete Sessions (R), Joe Barton (R), Martin Frost (D), Dick Armey (R), Eddie Bernice Johnson (D); U.S. House of Representatives, Washington, DC 20515. Governor George Bush, State Capitol, Austin, TX 78711.

- Admittedly, a say-nothing form letter will be received in return. But if we write in mass, we can counter the not-so-Christian right. Be assured, they will be doing the same.

- Will a hate crimes law really change anything? According to Rev. Michael Piazza, senior pastor of Dallas' Cathedral of Hope, "What a hate crimes law would do is express the values of our culture, to say that society will not tolerate that kind of behavior." It might even save your life or mine.

Lastly, in Matthew's name, we must vote for candidates who will work for equal rights, not only for gays, but for everyone. Let's not let this young man's death be for nothing. For if we do nothing, surely his blood will be on our hands as well as that of his murderers.

I will remember Matthew Shepard. I will continue his message. Will you do the same? - Matthew Shepard's eulogy.

MORE ON SHEPARD

Dear TWT:

Last week we learned that 21-year-old gay, white Matthew Shepard had allegedly been brutally attacked by two men and left for dead. A few hours later Matthew died.

Last June straight, black James Byrd, Jr. was allegedly dragged behind a truck until dead by three men.

The bottom line in both of these heinous crimes was hate: gut-level, sub-human, drag-your-knuckles-in-the-dirt hate. Matthew is dead because someone hates queers and James is dead because someone hates blacks. Period.

And yet this week, even before Matthew's corpse was cold, the Family Research Council was saying that hate crimes laws have nothing to do with perpetrators of violent crime and everything to do with silencing political opposition.

Such a postition is an abomination! It's depraved and ludicrous.

Political opposition that is expressed through the abuse and death of another human being must be silenced and cannot be allowed to continue. These United States were founded by people who came here to escape the abuses of British rule. Our ancestors wrote a Constitution that guarantees dozens of freedoms but not once does it give us the freedom to kill someone for any reason... and most especially because we simply perceive him or her to be different from ourselves.

In a perfect world we would not need hate crimes laws. In a perfect world we would not need the deaths of the Matthews and the Jameses to serve as rallying cries, as slaps in our collective faces, as calls to action to make it safe once again to be who we are as American citizens.

But the fact of this matter is that we do still need Matthew and James as our modern day martyrs in an America that has apparently gone wildly out of control. Knock...knock! This is our wake up call. We have every reason to be worried.

GEPHARDT ON HATE CRIME

This Week In Texas received the following letter from House Democratic Leader Richard A. Gephardt:

My thoughts and prayers today are with Matthew Shepard and his family. I was sickened to learn of the brutal attack Matthew suffered -- an attack at the hands of people who's apparent motivation was that he (was) a gay man.

This heinous crime deserves the condemnation of all Americans. Hate crimes such as this and the June murder of James Byrd in Texas are violent acts motivated by intolerance and hatred. I trust that those responsible for this horrendous attack will be prosecuted and punished to the full extent of the law and firmly believe that we must pass the tough hate crimes legislation pending in the Congress to help stop

DALLAS GRAND MARSHAL THANKS

[The following letter was sent to the Dallas
Tavern Guild.]

What an honor to have been selected as one of the grand marshals for the 1998 Alan Ross Texas Freedom Parade...I thank each of you at the Tavern Guild...and the various community groups which played a role in selecting me for such an honor this year on behalf of the gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgender community. Your staff and event's organizers certainly deserve a great round of applause and praise for their work on the success of this year's gay pride parade.

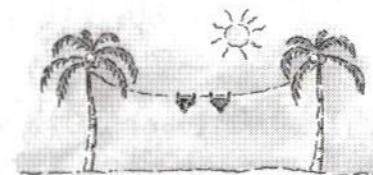

It was an extremely warm afternoon, the Sunday of the parade - both from the heat of the day, but most especially from the warmth exuding from the smiles and hearts of the participants and spectators of the pride event. I was humbled to kick off this year's parade and to be riding at the head of it with my friend and fellow elected official, State Representative Harryette Ehrhardt, once a great school board trustee for the Dallas Public Schools. I was further humbled to experience such a sea of endless, diverse faces of humanity which participated in the entire gay pride freedom festival parade.

Having been bestowed this great community honor has made me even more cognizant of my servant leadership role in the greater community. I only hope and pray that I shall be granted the power, prudence and perseverance to continue to be the role model and public servant leader of whom each of you can be proud and to whom you can turn for leadership.

I am proud of each and every one of you in our community; I am proud to be an active member of our community; and I am even more proud to have had the opportunity to work and develop "unity through diversity" especially in our diverse community.

AIDS LIFEWALK HIGHLY SUCCESSFUL Final totals To Be Announced November 4

DALLAS - With pledges still pouring in, the totals confirm that this year's AIDS Life Walk was one of the largest in the event's eight year history, reports Martha Dealy of Oak Lawn Community Services (OLCS), the director of the walk.

AIDS Life Walk, held on Sunday, October 4, attracted nearly 7,000 participants. Although money is still being turned in, the total will hopefully approach last year's $670,000, according to Dealy. AIDS Life Walk is the largest annual AIDS fundraiser in Texas and benefits Bryan's House, the Pediatric AIDS Network of Dallas (PANDA), Project Esperanza, Welcome House, Inc. and White Rock Friends in addition to being the primary fundraiser for OLCS.

Prior to this year's event, Dealy stated, "Since its inception, AIDS Life Walk has raised more than $2.8 million to support the programs of OLCS and other AIDS service agencies in Dallas." Money collected this year will easily push the total past $3 million. "Our mission to raise money for Dallas area residents affected by this disease is more critical than ever. We are all encouraged by advances in research and treatment, but we must continue to reach out to people living with AIDS."

Dealy told TWT that actual totals will be announced at the organization's 'Thank You' party to be held Wednesday, November 4, in the Wedgwood Room of the Wyndham Anatole Hotel beginning at 6:30 p.m. Next year's event has been scheduled for Sunday, October 3, 1999 and will, once again, be co-chaired by Leigh Ann Runyan.

LESBIAN AND GAY COMMUNITY CENTER TO OFFICIALLY OPEN

Community Organizations Will Utilize Facility

HOUSTON - Even though it is the fourth largest city in the United States, Houston was one of the few major metropolitan areas in the country without a physical facility to serve as a focal point for the gay and lesbian community. That will change on Sunday, November 8 when the Houston Lesbian and Gay Community Center (HLGCC) officially opens its doors at 803 Hawthorne Street in the heart of Montrose. Formerly the location of the Montrose Clinic, the 3300-square-foot facility will house the Houston Gay and Lesbian Political Caucus, the Greater Houston Gay and Lesbian Chamber of Commerce, the Pride Committee of Houston, Q Patrol and H.A.T.C.H. (Houston Area Teen Coalition of Homosexuals).

The opening of the center is scheduled from 2:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. and follows, by one day, the Houston Black Tie Dinner and Empower '98, both set for Saturday, November 7. Proceeds from Empower '98 will benefit the new center. "Houston's first openly lesbian city council member, Annise Parker, is scheduled to appear at the grand opening, along with Congresswoman Sheila Jackson Lee, State Representative Debra Danburg and Matthew Eastus, the first openly gay advisor to the mayor of Houston," reports HLGCC President, Carl Riedl, in a press release made available to TWT. For additional information on the center, contact HLGCC at (713) 524-3818, visit their web site at www.neosoft.com/~hlgcc or e-mail them at hlgcc@neosoft.com.

UNITED STATES CONFERENCE ON AIDS OCTOBER 28 - NOVEMBER 1 Dallas To Host Largest Event Of It's Kind

DALLAS - The United States Conference on AIDS (USCA,) the largest HIV/AIDS meeting in the country will convene with 2,500 participants from all areas of expertise in the field of HIV health care. The conference will include media, community-based workers, policy makers, social workers and activists from across the country and is scheduled to run from October 28 through November 1 in the Lone Star Ballroom located on the second floor of the Adams Mark Hotel, 400 North Olive, Dallas.

Former U.S. Surgeons General Dr. Joycelyn Elders and Dr. Antonia Novello will address attendees at a Plenary Session to be titled "President's Race Initiative: Focus on the Disproportionate Health Impact on African American and Latin Communities." The session will emphasize the inequities faced by minorities and the impact the President's race initiative may have on their health care.

A brilliant mix of speakers is slated to appear at the conference which is primarily intended to create a forum for the exchange of information, such as medical advances in HIV/AIDS therapies, networking and empowerment. In addition to the Surgeons General, presenters will include Dr. Nelba Chavez, Administrator, SAMHSA; Dr. Earl Fox, Administrator, HRSA; Dr. Neal Nathenson, Director, OAR, NIH; Dr. Ronald Valdiserri, Deputy Director, NCHSTP, CDC; Dr. Robert Gallo, Director, Institute of Human Virology; Houston motivational speaker and author Marianne Williamson; United States Representatives the Hon. Eddie Bernice Johnson and the Hon. Martin Frost.

The conference is sponsored by the National AIDS Council and program partners include AIDS Action, AIDS Medicine & Miracles, AIDS Nat'l Interfaith Network, The Balm in Gilead, Broadway Cares/ Equity Fights AIDS, DIFFA, LIFE Beat, Mother's Voices, The Nat'l Alliance of State and Territorial AIDS Directors, The Nat'l Native American AIDS Prevention Center and The Red Hot Organization.

The government partners include The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), Health Care Financing Administration (HCFA), Health Resources & Services Administration (HRSA), The Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), The Nat'l Institute on Drug Abuse (NIDA), the Office of Minority Health (OMH), the Office of AIDS Research, Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) and the U.S. Agency for International Development (USAID.)

The event will also feature more than 150 workshops and over a hundred exhibits from community-based organizations, public and private corporations, federal and state agencies, national organizations with AIDS-related programs, people living with AIDS coalitions, industry, religious organizations and community retailers. Participants from forty-seven states, the District of Columbia and fifteen foreign countries are expected. Each evening will feature special events including a Welcome to Texas reception, a Concert for Life celebration and a Masquerade

Costume Party.

Corporate and foundation support for the USCA comes from AT&T Foundation, Glaxo Wellcome, Inc., Merck and Company, Inc., Ortho Biotech, Inc., the Elton John AIDS Foundation, the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation, Roche Laboratories, Inc. and Roxane Laboratories, Inc. The official airline for USCA is American while the official media sponsor is POZ magazine.

The conference's stated mission is to increase the strength and diversity of the community-based response to the AIDS epidemic through education, training, new partnerships, collaboration and networking.

Registration will begin at 5:00 p.m. on Wednesday, October 28. The conference will take place from 8:00 a.m., Thursday, October 29 through 1:30 p.m., Sunday, November 1. To register for the USCA, participants can call Larry Williams at (202)483-6622, ext. 343, or visit their website at www.uscaids.org.

CHASE'S GLOBAL DAY OF SERVICE

THIS SATURDAY, OCTOBER 24

Activities To Include Improvements At New Houston Community Center

HOUSTON - This Saturday, October 24, employees of Chase Banks across Texas and worldwide will lend their skills at landscaping, painting, carpentry and anything that will help build pride in their communities. Approximately ten thousand employees and retired volunteers will participate in Chase's Global Day of Service - an annual event that will involve activities in one hundred selected U.S. cities and some thirty-five countries.

Over 1,000 Chase Bank associates will participate. In Houston, bankers have identified thirty-three volunteer projects that will have a palpable impact on the lives of thousands of Houstonians. The Chase P.R.I.D.E. Team will be on hand to help prepare the Houston Lesbian and Gay Community Center for its official grand opening on Sunday, November 8. (see related story)

P.R.I.D.E. is the networking group for gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgendered and supportive employees at Chase Texas. Approximately twenty Chase bank employees will be installing a wheelchair ramp and performing minor landscaping duties at the facility at 803 Hawthorne.

For more information about Chase's Houston Global Day of Service projects, contact David Byford at (713)216-5009 or (713)607-0265 [pager].

Urbane Legends

Halloween is, arguably, the most highly celebrated and indulgent gay holiday on the planet. It marks the onslaught of fall and winter - seasons littered with the opportunity to layer clothing and buy sweaters (which are also widely celebrated gay indulgences.) It boasts an appeal that you just don't get from Easter or Christmas. It bares no religious connotation and is the one day of the year that you can march into Kroger's dressed as Cat Woman with little or no fuss from the cashiers. While I have always enjoyed the more childish aspects of Halloween: pumpkin carving, costumes and lavish decorations, (translation: free Hershey's Miniatures.) some folks see the holiday just a bit differently.

I don't care much for the creepy and gruesome spin some folks enjoy laboring over in preparation for the occasion. Butcher's knives are for carving hams and lamb. If you want to see someone stabbed in the back, do it the old-fashioned way and sleep with their boyfriend. Slasher/horror movies have enjoyed a huge resurgence with films like Scream and I Know What You Did Last Summer grossing millions of dollars at the box for doing little more than grossing people out. Why? At what point are people so starved for entertainment that seeing Drew Barrymore disemboweled on her parents' lawn would be mistaken for enjoyable diversion? Okay, that's a bad example.

If you want to experience a little skin crawling merriment (and you don't have the time, money or inclination to move in with Donna Day,) I suggest you hop in your car and drive to San Antonio....

There exists, in the Alamo City, a famous railroad track which crosses Mulberry Street on the west side of town. Years ago, a stalled school bus met tragically with an oncoming locomotive and the disastrous collision killed the driver and many of the children on board. Approaching from the south, as the bus did, an obvious incline leads up to and away from the crossing. The dangerous tracks have since been decommissioned.

According to local legend, you must first liberally sprinkle your car's bumper with talcum powder to truly appreciate this experiment in the paranormal. Next, slowly drive up to and across the tracks, stopping when you have straddled the line. Put your car in neutral and, magically, the car will climb the incline, ford the tracks and stop when your car has cleared the crossing. BUT WAIT, there's more. On close inspection, the talcum powder dusted bumper will reveal tiny handprints—the handprints of the children killed in the school bus accident who apparently protect other passers, ensuring they won't suffer the same fate. Pretty creepy stuff. And see, not one bad actor made a single dime for your enjoyment. Have a safe and happy Halloween.

"I'm 200 lbs. of fun/I've got enough for everyone." She's a blues diva for the 21st century. A sexual libertine sent to free us from our hang-ups, forgive us for our sins, and just plain put a smile on our faces by crooning "If you're feeling wrong tonight, I'll make it right." And who, in their right mind, would turn down an invitation like that? Candye herself describes one of her shows: "It's like a revival meeting in an x-rated bookstore parking lot."

Candye Kane

Candye Kane is a larger than life performer who might well be the subject of one of the 20's and 30's jump-swing tunes immortalized by her idols like Bessie Smith, Kate Starr and Pearl Bailey. Raised in East L.A., she was a child star who got her start on amateur shows like The Gong Show and the Pomona County Fair Talent Competition, before becoming a gang member and single welfare mother at 17. She began stripping and posing for adult magazines with names like Juggs, and became a porn star and phone sex operator to support her young son. An unabashedly large woman, as well as an avowed bisexual, Candye drew attention as much for her flamboyant personality and guileless manner, as she did for her 52-inch bustline and robust 200-plus frame.

Swango, her debut album on Sire Records, combines all of Candye's musical experiences into one big stylistic melting pot of everything from blues, big band jump-swing, 50's balladry, beatnik jazz, to East L.A. street corner R&B and old-timey vaudeville. The album was produced by UK bluesman Mike Vernon, well known for his work with Eric Clapton, Buddy Guy, Fleetwood Mac and David Bowie, among others.

Candye's not afraid to address politically volatile issues like censorship, homophobia, sizism, sexism and her own hypersexuality, "We've been hiding sex under a rug for far too long in this country," she says. "I'm a bad, nasty girl who likes to have fun on stage and off. I celebrate my sexuality through music and take the crowd with me. For me, it's about self-expression. If that makes me popular, it's just a bonus. I'm doing it my way, but what other way is there? I don't really have any other fat, bisexual ex-porn star blues singers as role models to lead the way. I know I want a fine line between caricature and a real person. All I can do is hope that the songs prove that I really do have a brain in my head. There's substance to go along with this sexuality and heaps o' flesh."

Swango is a must-have for anyone who's into hi camping and carrying on - perfect for that gay Tupperware party!

While we're on something different... make sure to mark your release calendar for November 10 as Arista releases the new Barry Manilow album, Manilow Sings Sinatra. Manilow has sifted through some 700-plus Sinatra chestnuts and came up with a tribute album that's really worth your gay coinage. Among the track listings are such classics as "All The Way," "Come Fly With Me," "Angel Eyes," "My Kind Of Town," "In The Wee Small Hours of the Morning" and "Saturday Night." Although no tour is scheduled to support the album, sources say that should the demand arise, Manilow will put together a band and hit the road. If you saw his "Singing With the Big Bands" tour a few years ago, then you know what a treat this would be. With the holidays on the way, this is a great item to place on your stocking-stuffer list! And that's music THIS WEEK IN TEXAS!

AUSTINTeaCIOUS – The Forum has been working extra hard these days to prove to this fair city that they are the dance 'til you drop nightclub. DJs Filthy Rich and Zach have been cranking out tunes that will make your head spin. Being the circuit and pump party headquarters for the city is a tough job. Accordingly, every weekend the guys try to out-do each other, providing you with a great party 'til the wee hours of the morning. Surely, anyone would volunteer to party with Dale and Kyle [above] and you'll have your chance on Saturday, October 31 when Halloween finally rolls around! Come out in your best costume and see if you can scare up a new friend....

The Edge has a handsome new face on staff. The newcomer's name is Grant and he is one half of the fabulous Bang and Grant DJ duo. They happily spin your favorite tunes so you can dance all night long. Kooky Kristen Lucci is their Sunday and Monday night "hostess with the mostest." It's always madness, wherever she is. Speaking of madness, for Halloween, the bar will be having all kinds of costume craziness with a contest at 1:00 a.m. Cash prizes will be awarded for the best costumes, so put on your best set of vampire teeth and come try to win some dough!...

Over at Dick's Deja Disco, DJ Kevin [right] is all geared up for the upcoming spook-fest scheduled to scare up some nightlife in the capitol city. The bar's theme for Halloween will be an "XXX" party. If you have a sexy costume in the back of the closet, dig it out, come enter the contest and try to win some of Daddy Warren's money. Stop in and welcome everyone's best friend Larry, AKA Hagatha, back from vacation....

Charlie's theme for Halloween is "Return to Oz." We aren't sure who'll be the scarecrow, but you can be sure there will be fights over who gets to be Dorothy. Don't forget, this Saturday night we get to fall back an extra hour. That means an additional 60 minutes of partying at Charlie's. With cute guys like the two customers our CRUISE CAMERA found [above] why would you want to leave anyway? DJ Deluxe Tony promises a musical set that will keep you on the dance floor all night....

'Bout Time has their annual Haunted House coming up this week. Starting Wednesday and ending Saturday, the bar will be scaring the daylights out of folks for charity. All proceeds will benefit Project Transitions and The Breast Cancer Resource Center. Continuing in the tradition of giving, this Saturday, October 24, Jim Tennison and the T.G.R.A. will present another festive show to keep you entertained. All the money raised will go to the Pediatric AIDS League....

Top of the Marc is once again approaching their $50,000.00 goal on Monday nights. They are already over the halfway mark. Their La Cage review has become the place to see and be seen. Show time is 8:30 p.m., so you can have some fun and still make it to work on Tuesday morning.

Hostess Lauren Taylor [above, r] presents a special Halloween show this Monday. See their ad in this issue for details. Project Transitions would like to thank Marc and Melody Katz for their continued support of this fine charity and the people who so need our help. Charity never goes out of style....

Rainbow Cattle Company has the country music that every good Texan craves. Whether it's a two-step, a shuffle or a waltz, you will hear it at Austin's gayest country bar. Dance lessons are on Tuesdays. Here's a little tip for all of you new dancers: learn to lead AND follow, you'll double your chances at finding a partner....

The Log Cabin Republicans of Austin announce that their next general membership dinner meeting will be held at 7:00 p.m, Thursday, October 29, at Tres Amigos Restaurant (W. 38th & Lamar.) New faces are welcome!

DALLAS TEA - As Big D makes final preparations for what promises to be the biggest Halloween in history, TEXAS TEA takes time to send birthday greetings to two Dallas head honchos definitely worth mentioning. Joe Elliott celebrates her big day Wednesday, October 28. Her nightclub ownership spans the decades and you can relive the glory days of The Landing, one of her most successful nightclubs of the 1980's, when Jugs presents a special revue show on Saturday, October 24 featuring Tasha Kohl, Lady Shawn, Deva Sanchez, Riki Rousseaux, Carmen Del Rio and more in an all-star walk down memory lane....

Speaking of birthdays, Jack Polachek of Caven Enterprises puts another candle on his cake this Monday, October 26. If you see him out and about this week, wish him a happy one. He deserves it - he's a generous business leader that constantly gives back to his community. Caven's Halloween Oak Lawn 1998 street party will welcome thousands of costumed revelers on Saturday, October 31. The streets close at 6:00 p.m. and the non-stop party madness runs from 8:00 p.m. to 2:00 a.m. and beyond with dancing, refreshments, food and the sounds of DJ Troy Sands....

Cute-as-a-button Village Station bartender David Passman [right] didn't need a costume to catch our attention at the club recently. He told us that Miss Gay Texas USofA Layla LaRue will be special guest in the Rose Room this weekend. If that's not your cup of tea, how about Boy Bust every Wednesday night when the 19 and up crowd are welcomed into the club with after hours following....

Round-Up bartender Tony "Chili Pepper" Valdez [left] had a close encounter of the celebrity-kind during his recent visit to Nashville and the Country Music Awards when he sat next to one of the hosts, George Strait. This weekend is your final opportunity to view the original artwork of Tod in the Parlor. The club's Halloween theme this year is "Terror in the Boneyard," which conjures up limitless costume possibilities. Scary stuff....

Bamboleo's will play host to Razzle Dazzle Dallas' annual Home For The Holidays extravaganza on Sunday, November 8. Home For The Holidays does exactly what the name states: it sends needy Dallas PLWA's home to spend time with their families during the Christmas season. Bamboleo's Halloween costume contest is scheduled for next Friday, October 30 so you can get a one day jump on all of the ghoulish goings on....

Miss Gay USofA 1998 Lauren Taylor makes a special appearance at Zandunga Bar on Halloween night, Saturday, October 31. Wednesday's hot buns contest stars Miss Gay Universe Lindsey Adams, Thursday is Tejano night with hostess Lucia, Kourtney Wells manhandles her way through Man Hunt strip contests every Monday, while male dancers take to the stage Monday, Wednesday and Friday night....

Dallas Eagle hosts a benefit show this Sunday, October 25 beginning at 8:00 p.m.

for Rusty, who is running for Empress of the United Court of the Lone Star Empire. The club's Halloween costume contest starts at midnight, features cash prizes and will be judged by audience response. There's never a cover before 1:00 a.m. at Dallas' leather headquarters....

Alternatives staffers Gerard and David [above, l-r] will give you a hand in selecting your 1999 calendar from their huge selection, which has recently arrived. Alternatives is a one-stop porn-o-copia for all your XXX-rated needs....

There's never a cover at Dallas' newest club, The Zone, located in the space formerly occupied by Jugs. Their Halloween line-up presents a Spooky Dancer contest and drink specials all weekend....

Buff Crews Inn dancer Hunter [right] and dozens more like him, don't need a costume to catch your eye at the club six nights a week, but if you insist on donning your gay apparel, then make your plans to be at their Halloween costume contest next Saturday, October 31. Emcee Raghenna parades the contestants competing for cash prizes in two categories. Be there at midnight....

TEXAS TEA favorite Wanda of JR.'s has just returned from a nudist camp in west Texas. She told us that in addition to having the best tan of any visitor, she was the only attendee under 50! Needless to say, she cut her stay short. Kick off your week with JR.'s Monday Martini Madness. Your choice of twelve unique martini flavors and a fine cigar assure you a one-of-a-kind experience....

Moby Dick customers Steven, Julian and Glenn [above, l-r] are already making their plans to be at the club next Wednesday for their pumpkin carving contest. Thursday's sing-a-long goes seasonal this week when Nakoma Shaye hosts Scary-oke beginning at 10:00 p.m. Does it really have to be Halloween for Nakoma to scare the hell out of you? She's always a blast. So is Wayne Smith, whose Tuesday night show tunes features a haunted house theme this week....

A clothes check will be available at the door when Throckmorton Mining Company hosts its Boxer Shorts party tomorrow night, Saturday, October 24. Don't miss a minute of the action when the lights dim and the music and men begin to throb.

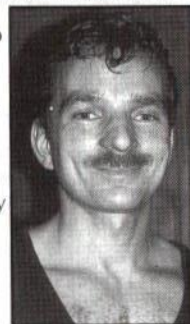

Friendly barback Mike Christian [left] says you can "Cruise Into Overdrive" at TMC every Friday from 10:30-11:00 p.m., immediately following Cruisin' the Crossroads, which starts at 10:00 p.m....

Best of luck to the Texans competing for Miss Gay America in Little Rock this weekend. Charity Case, Marina Moore and Brittany O'Bryan have been representing the Lone Star state all week and all have an excellent chance of placing in the top ten this Sunday at the Discovery Theatre....

Hidden Door lives up to its slogan, "Still the friendliest bar in town," with crowds of fun loving faces like customer Robert Sousa [right] on both sides of the bar. Their beer fests Thursday through Monday last until 11:00 p.m. and complement Dallas' longest happy hour, 7:00 a.m. - 11:00 p.m. daily (starting at noon on Sunday). There's something for everyone behind the Hidden Door....

Finally, plan your fall and holiday parties on the Hideaway's beautiful outdoor patio, which is available for all your special events. There's no rental fee and there's never a cover charge, not even on Thursdays, when Ben Joiner hosts the club's Karaoke Kabaret from 9:30 p.m. - 2:00 a.m.

HOUSTON TEA — You can feel it in the air. Halloween is just around the corner, and as always, the 800 Pacific Avenue "Fright Fest" is going to be the place to see and be seen. On Friday and Saturday, October 30 and 31, they're blocking off the street and serving up two nights of howling good times highlighted by outdoor costume contests with hostesses Kofi and Kourtney Van Wales at 9:45 p.m. both nights. Indoor contests at JR's and the Montrose Mining Company will take place at 11:30 p.m. and 10:30 p.m. respectively. Prizes for best costume, most outrageous and best couple or group will be awarded at all of the four amusing and entertaining competitions. Daryl, recognize them. They are sure to be sporting their best Halloween ensembles in hopes of getting in on a share of over $10,000 in cash, prizes and trophies....

Cameron, Tom and Reggie [below, l-r] are sure to be there, but you probably won't

The Club Houston is celebrating this Halloween with another of their infamous fog parties. Along with lots of fabulous door prizes, this steamy soiree will feature a delicious complimentary buffet and beverages. The Club will close at 8:00 p.m. in preparation for this exciting event....

Next Saturday, October 31 at The Outpost offers you two fun-filled events. The club's celebration of all October birthdays at 7:00 p.m. will be followed by

The best kept secret in Dallas.
A night wouldn't be complete

Things are really heating up over at Picasso. Sundays at the club now feature the "Play Girl" revue at 10 p.m. starring Christina Ross, Dyan Michaels, Paivi Lee Love, Nancy Taylor and Black Velvett [above, l-r]. Every Thursday, deejay/veejay Kamikaze spins the best in Latin house and progressive music. Next Friday and Saturday, October 30 and 31, everyone is invited to Picasso's first annual Halloween party. Costume contests at 12:00 midnight both nights will feature cash prizes in three categories....

This weekend and next, Rich's will be hosting two haunted holiday happenings. Tomorrow night at 7:00 p.m., Outrage returns with "Horrors of Hollywood," their 15th annual Halloween party benefiting Milam House, Steven's House and The Assistance Fund. Tickets are $20 in advance and are available at Lobo, Basic Brothers and Custom Valet Cleaners. Next Saturday, October 31, longtime Rich's bartender Howie [right] will don his best set of fangs as the club presents "The Gathering of Nosferatu's Children" with cash prizes for the best Anne Rice vampire and the scariest vampire....

Do you love "levi and leather?" If you do, tomorrow night's Garage Party at the Midtowne Spa is the place to enjoy everything that these words imply. Next Friday, October 30, the Spa kicks off Halloween weekend with one of their fantastic flashlight and fog parties. Both of these events are great places to explore the things that go bump in the night....

Seven nights a week, Pacific Street gives you cheap drinks, energetic environmental engineers like Don Woods and Adrian Viscarra [above, l-r] playing incredible dance music and super sexy dancers to satisfy your senses. And if you're P.S. bound this weekend, remember that the club has no cover from 7-9 p.m. on Fridays and Sundays; Saturdays offer free admission for those in erotic leather. P.S.'s "Swords and Sorcery" Halloween festivities next weekend are sure to inspire a multitude of men to make a little magic of their own....

The 611 Hyde Park Pub continues to be one of Houston's most popular socializing spots. Through the years, the club has become famous for its complimentary buffet every Friday, delightful dancers on Fridays and Saturdays, an extra special brunch from noon-2:00 p.m. every Sunday and a daily prize drawing at 6:00 p.m....

Toyz staffer Robert [above, r.] and loyal patron Frank [l] are all smiles about the club having three midnight costume contests in celebration of All Hallows' Eve. The first one is tonight, October 23; the other two are next Friday and Saturday (October 30 and 31). Something that is not a fright is Toyz' Super Sunday Show and this weekend's special guests include former Miss Gay Texas USofA Kelly Lauren and Latin lovely Ricci Andrews....

Every Saturday night at 10:30 p.m., QT's male dance contest starts a heatwave that can be felt up and down Westheimer. Hostess and emcee Black Velvet puts the boys through their paces as they compete for cash prizes. Check it out for yourself....

EJ's now has three nights of male strip competition with Paivi Lee Love on Mondays and Fridays and Black Velvet on Wednesdays. Roxanne invites all up-and-coming entertainers to join her for Talent Night every Tuesday. Every weekend, you can catch Saturday Night Fever at the club's super show starring Paivi, Roxanne, Dyan Michaels, Lana Blake and Kelly Lauren....

Following months of rehearsals, The Briar Patch Follies went "On The Road Again" with their annual live musical revue last Sunday. This year's cast [above] was definitely on cue and in step for their song and dance extravaganza. They should be very proud of themselves for putting on such a wonderful benefit show for the AFH Stone Soup Kitchen....

This Sunday, emcee Val Rodela presides over the Miss Gay Hispanic Inergy Pageant. The competition's list of dynamic special guests includes Shawna Roberts and Nancy Taylor. Every Wednesday at Inergy, Dyan Michaels hosts a sizzling male strip contest. Next door, Amnesia welcomes you to an alternative playground with a steady flow of high energy dance music. Two clubs in one along with the sight of cute couples like Junior and Ozzie [above, l-r] are sure to double your pleasure and double your fun....

Music, fun, a costume contest with cash prizes and happy hour all night will be the Halloween highlights at Brick's II next Saturday, October 31. Bring your buddies to "your neighborhood country bar" and enjoy a great game of pool, pinball, darts and much, much more....

Nighthawks is well known for studly staffers and a steady procession of entertaining events like last Saturday's Bear Auction. Next Saturday, October 31, in celebration of all things freaky and fun, Mr. Texas Drummer and club bootblack Stan Harrell presents The Rocky Horror Review at 10:00 p.m. Slip into your transsexual Transylvanian teddy and get on over to the Halloween hotspot known as Nighthawks.

SAN ANTONIO TEA - Rain, rain, go away! Fortunately, the damp weather didn't dampen the spirits of San Antonio's party crowd. The folks at the Annex are focused on scaring up a crowd for one of the biggest Halloween blowouts in River City. The club's Scary Fairy contest on Saturday, October 31 will honor the prettiest, scariest and tackiest costumes by awarding the winners with a plethora of cash and prizes. Stop by and trick or treat, either way you're sure to have a frightfully good time....

Gay Fiesta, at the La Villita Assembly Hall last weekend, brought out some of San Antonio's finest entertainers including legendary diva and Miss Gay Fiesta Pauletta Leigh [right]. The organizers wish to thank everyone who helped put on the charitable event and all of the people who braved the rainy weather to attend....

One of the Alamo City's legendary haunts each Halloween is the fright-fest at the Bonham Exchange. Friday, October 30, the club will offer cash prizes for its costume contest and the after hours party will rock the house 'til 4:00 a.m. The infamous annual "Halloween Is A Drag" party will rear its ugly head on Saturday, October 31 and you'll see staffers like bartender Brian [left] all dolled up while stunning go-go ghouls will be shaking, rattling and rolling for your enjoyment. Super low drink prices on all your favorite brews and after hours 'til 4:00 a.m. are sure to wake even the dead from their eternal slumber. For more info, call the club's party line at (210) 271-3811....

The Eagle Mountain Saloon invites everyone to come by each and every Wednesday for Talent Night with hostess Autumn Summers. On Sundays, they throw open the doors at 12 noon so you die-hard football fans can take in the afternoon game on the big screen with friends. Halloween at EMS will boast a costume contest at midnight, great drink specials and some of the friendliest bar staff in the city, so stop in for a spooktacular evening of boot scootin' boogymen....

Pegasus and the Silver Dollar Saloon are two of the cruisiest party pavilions in the city. Stop by Pegasus and listen to some of the best DJs around spinning out your favorite hits on the turntables and the video screens. Three full-service bars and super drink specials make it a sure bet for an evening of letting it all hang out. The Dollar serves up something special every night. On Sunday, enter Lonnie's Lotto and win cash while flashing back to the days of 70's dance during the most outrageous trash disco tea dance around. Experience the flavor of the southwest on Wednesdays with Tejano night and cruise in on Thursday for House music and guest bartenders from the San Antonio chapter of TGRA on the patio. There's never a cover at either club and you can dash back and forth without a care while brawny and brave security studs like Richard and Frankie [above, l-r] watch over the flock....

Tonight, Friday, October 23, the Saint is betting you'll want to be a part of their "DIVA Las Vegas" party. Hostess Shady Lady will bring all the glitz and glamour of The Strip to the stage along with Corinna Foxx and Tessa Matthews. One lucky party-goer will win a trip for two to Las Vegas. Friday, October 23, join the club's infamous annual Halloween costume

LICENSED MASSEURS

STATE CERTIFICATION POLICY

Texas law clearly requires that only bona fide, state-certified masseurs can be listed in this category. Therefore, TWT policy requires that all masseurs must publish their state-certification number within their advertisements and that a photocopy of their state masseur's license be on file at TWT.

MODELS / ESCORTS

TWT POLICY

Because prostitution is illegal in Texas, state law prohibits the placement in this category of any such ads. Therefore, TWT policy stipulates that we will not and cannot knowingly accept any advertisements suggesting solicitation. It's the law. Also, state law prohibits non-licensed massage therapists from using terms such as "massage," "Swedish," "acupressure," "Shiatsu," "reflexology," "body rub," "back rub," "body massage" or any term which indicates bodily contact.

OBITUARIES

In Loving Memory
Of
Euripedez (Benny) Perez
June 3, 1954-September 24, 1998

He was a caring, big-hearted, wonderful parent, son and partner. God has called for him to enter Heaven's gate. He will be missed and his family and friends will continue to love him forever. May God bless him and give him peace. He leaves behind his mother Concepcion Perez, his son and daughter Alex and Vanessa Perez, sisters Juanita, Irma and Maria, many relatives in Chicago and his partner of seventeen years, Jimmy De LaCruz of Houston.

Larry Dell Shead
September 18, 1951-
October 1, 1998

Larry followed the path of Jesus back to God on October 1, 1998. He left many friends and family members behind. Those most precious to him, of course, were the children. He was a pro-active citizen, compassionate friend and doting uncle. He will be missed.

Edward Ray Epting
November 3, 1963 -
September 27, 1998

Eddie was born into this world with a unique lust for life and an appreciation for nature. He utilized this in his work as a floral designer, creating breathtaking works of art for many friends and clients for several years, both in Texas and California.

Eddie is survived by his mother, Joan Graves; grandmother, Lois Schnieder; sisters, Lana Berry and Dana Holub; brother Bob Berry; father Herschel Epting; brother Shane Epting and aunt Jean Duncombe. Eddie will be immediately missed by his mate of eight years Larry Belter of Dallas, and his many, many beloved friends.

Please send donations, in lieu of flowers, to the ARC.

This world has lost a precious, kind soul. An irreplaceable bit of magic was suddenly taken from our reality and set free. His incredibly brave battle is done.
